TERM OF ART TAKES RAINED-OFF DEMILLE

Calumet Farm colorbearer Term of Art (Tiznow), one of two runners in Sunday's Cecil B. DeMille S. to have never tried turf, took advantage of rare wet weather at Del Mar to annex the rained-off affair for a first stakes success.

Given a 7-1 chance off a well-beaten ninth at 90-1 in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Santa Anita Nov. 5, the bay drafted from the two path in second-last early as favored Sword Fighter (Wildcat Heir) showed the way. Term of Art caught the eye as he mounted a wide bid turning for home, but the Peter Miller-trained duo of Sword Fighter and Vending Machine (Hard Spun)--the other entrant to have never tried the grass--still had run up front. Term of Art continued on under energetic reminders from pilot Joe Talamo, and found his best stride in the late stages to kick away by 1 1/4 lengths in 1:41.69. Vending Machine and Sword Fighter rounded out the exacta and trifecta, respectively.

"He's growing up," said new father Talamo. "The more this horse runs, the better he's going to get. He'll just improve as he goes along, as he matures. I was very impressed with him today. I think he'll run on, too. He'll run a mile and a quarter. He wasn't blowing hard at all at the end of this today. The track is playing OK. It's mostly fair. Maybe a little deep; I don't think they're going to be setting any track records today."

PEGASUS COULD BE IN CARDS FOR CONNECT

Paul Pompa, Jr.'s GI Cigar Mile H. hero Connect (Curlin) was doing well the day after his Saturday score, reported conditioner Chad Brown. The sophomore, who also annexed the GII Pennsylvania Derby Sept. 24, will spend a few days at Brown's Belmont Park base before heading south to Florida for the winter. The $12-million GI Pegasus World Cup is on the horizon at Gulfstream Jan. 28, and Connect will be considered for the inaugural running of that unique event. Cont. p5

MIDNIGHT STORM DISPLAYS VERSATILITY IN DIVER 4
Midnight Storm, third in the GI Breeders='Cup Mile Nov. 5, was a somewhat surprising entrant for Del Mar's GIII Native Diver S. on the main track, but nobody was questioning his connections' decision after the race was run.

LOOKING AHEAD TO 2017 DERBY 5-8
Sophomore standouts Mo Town (Uncle Mo) and McCraken (Ghostzapper) exited their graded stakes victories in fine fettle. A son of Came Home took the GI Kentucky Derby qualifier held in Japan. Plus the pool closed for the first 2017 Derby future wager and sire future wager.

Third behind subsequent GI Del Mar Futurity third Midnight Pleasure (Midnight Lute) sprinting here July 24, Term of Art went one better as the favorite over track and trip Aug. 25. He graduated by a nose going the same distance at Santa Anita Oct. 8, but never made an impact in the Breeders' Cup there after getting roughed up early.

"The Breeders' Cup Juvenile was a lot of horses and it got a little tight coming out of the gate," said Leandro Mora, assistant to trainer Doug O'Neill. "He's not a horse who can take dirt in his face. He's got to be a little clear. But he came out of it sound and we decided to try him in this race on the grass. When the race was called off the grass, Doug called me and said 'What do you think?' I said I like it because it's off the grass. It worked out well and he wasn't even tired when he came back. We still have a lot more we can do with this horse."

Pedigree Notes:

Unraced Miles of Style, a full-sister to GISW Mr. Sidney, sold for $575,000 at the 2011 Keeneland November sale in foal to Quality Road. She produced a Kitten's Joy colt in 2015, and was bred back to Empire Maker this past spring after being barren the previous year. Term of Art's second dam is MGSIW Tomisue's Delight, a full-sister to Horse of the Year Mineshaft out of MGISW Prospectors Delite.

Midnight Storm, third in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile Nov. 5, was a somewhat surprising entrant for this main-track affair, but nobody was questioning his connections' decision after the race was run.

Last of 10 behind Beholder (Henny Hughes) in the GI Pacific Classic S. last time he tried dirt, Midnight Storm bested eventual BC Mile hero Tourist (Tiznow) in the GI Shoemaker Mile S. at Santa Anita in June. He added the GII Eddie Read S. going this distance on the local lawn July 17, and bested GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint runner-up and GII Seabiscuit H. third Om (Munnings) in the GII Del Mar Mile H. Aug. 21 before his solid showing at the World Championships.

Away alertly from his outside post, Midnight Storm tugged his way right to the front and clicked off splits of :23.89, :48.36 and 1:13.53 while well within himself. Still traveling strongly as his rivals were implored for more to keep up turning for home, the dark bay hit the lane straight and strong and cantered home in convincing fashion.

"[Trainer] Phil [D'Amato] didn't tell me anything. He just said if he likes [the track], you'll have some fun," offered winning rider Mike Smith. "He looked to be the only speed and I caught a flyer coming away from there. He was going so easy; I never moved my hands. He was looking around, so I knew he was happy. Then when I asked him to do some running, he did it. Very impressive."

D'Amato added, "He did it the right way. Mike got him to relax beautifully and at the three-eighths pole he just put the squeeze on him a little bit and opened up on them. It's important [to get a graded win on dirt] for a lot of reasons: at stud in the future and it gives us a lot more opportunities to look at for next year"

Pedigree Notes:

Midnight Storm's dam was bought back for $525,000 at the recently concluded Keeneland November Breeding Stock sale in foal to Bodemeister. A full-brother to Midnight Storm RNA'd at that auction 12 months earlier for $300,000, but brought $925,000 from Coolmore's M.V. Magnier and Stonestreet Stables at Keeneland September (click here for 'Decision to Keep POTN Colt Pays Off). My Tina has an unraced 2-year-old colt named Uncle Willie (Stay Thirsty) who sold for $280,000 at KEENOV '14 and is currently in training at Palm Beach Downs.

"I'm going to let him hang out here for a little bit and recover from that race, then take him down to Palm Meadows," Brown offered. "Obviously, we're going to take a look at this Pegasus Cup, but there's no firm plans to participate at this point. I'll get him to Florida, see how he's training, and speak to Paul Pompa about it as the month of December goes on."

Divining Rod (Tapit), a narrow second in the Cigar Mile after a hard-fought duel, will be joined by fellow Lael Stables colorbearer and GII Remsen S. runner-up No Dozing (Union Rags) in Florida for the winter.

"Unfortunately, the winter program is a little tougher on Divining Rod on opportunities of where he may run next that we'll look into," said conditioner Arnaud Delacour. "But possible targets for No Dozing include the [GIII] Sam F. Davis and the [GII] Tampa Bay Derby."

MO TOWN FEELING 'PUSHY' POST REMSEN

Mo Town (Uncle Mo) was no worse for wear Sunday after annexing Saturday's GII Remsen S. at the Big A. "He's super," trainer Tony Dutrow said of the 'TDN Rising Star'. "I really don't know how he could look much better--he looks fantastic. He ate everything. He's pushy and a little on the arrogant side this morning, so we've got to be very happy." Second in a traditionally salty GI Travers S. day maiden at Saratoga Aug. 27, the $200,000 KEESEP yearling aired by seven lengths when stretched to a mile at Belmont Sept. 24, prompting the Coolmore partners to acquire an interest in the colt from Dutrow's Team D. Cont. p6

"I talked about before that I hadn't seen this horse draw a deep breath and, even in the winner's circle [Saturday], I watched him and there wasn't any type of cardio issue to talk about," Dutrow noted. "He just walked in there and stood in there. [It's] pretty amazing just how much cardio fitness this horse must have. I thought Mo Town was very, very professional, and pretty much a workman-type of effort for him." Dutrow said Mo Town will ship to Payson Park Wednesday for the winter, but could return to New York for the GIII Gotham S. in March.

WILKES RELIEVED AFTER MCCRAKEN RUNS TO HYPE

Trainer Ian Wilkes admitted Sunday morning to feeling a sense of relief after 'TDN Rising Star' McCraken (Ghostzapper) ran to odds-on favoritism to stretch his record to three-for-three in Churchill's GII Kentucky Jockey Club Gold Cup Saturday. "It's a relief," the hot-handed Wilkes said. "With the anticipation and hype around a 2-year-old, you don't want to let anyone down and you always want him to run well. He made real good progression [Saturday], so it's a good relief and we're just happy to see the horse win. He looked good [Sunday] morning. He jogged and was bucking and playing around." A rare debut winner for Wilkes sprinting under the Twin Spires Oct. 2, the Whitham homebred rallied impressively to annex the one-mile Street Sense S. four weeks later by open lengths. "He needed a little test," Wilkes said of Saturday's effort. "He had to really run, they didn't hand it to him. It wasn't easy. He came through for us. He had to really belly down and run so that was good."

FARRELL HAS CATALANO EYEING OAKS

Six-length GII Golden Rod S. winner Farrell (Malibu Moon) has conditioner Wayne Catalano thinking about the first Friday in May and mapping out a plan to get there. The well-bred Coffeepot Stables homebred will likely winter at Fair Grounds with an eye toward the GI Kentucky Oaks back at Churchill in the spring. "That's the plan," Catalano said. "She'll probably go to Fair Grounds for the winter. I'll see what the best route to go is. I'll map it out with owners and talk to those guys. We'll sit down and make a plan and see what the best way to get to [the Oaks] is. When we got her, I thought that she was going to be my [GI] Breeders' Cup [Juvenile Fillies] filly. We just couldn't get there in time. If she would've run like the way she did [Saturday] she would've galloped in the Breeders' Cup."

'MONT' LANDS KY DERBY QUALIFIER IN JAPAN

Shinichi Yamashita's Mont Saint Legame (Jpn) (Came Home) earned 40 points in the first qualifying race of Japan's "Road to the Kentucky Derby" in the 1600-metre Cattleya Sho at Tokyo Racecourse Saturday. A winner over that trip when unveiled in the mud in a newcomer race there Oct. 9, the son of three-time Grade I hero Came Home, who now stands under the Japan Bloodhorse Breeders Association banner after beginning in Kentucky, and the winning mare Julia Biko (Jpn) (Jade Robbery), beat out Darley homebred Caucus (Jpn) (16 points), a son of 2007 GI Kentucky Derby winner Street Sense by 1 1/4 lengths. Blanc Eclat (Hansen) finished third 2 1/2 lengths back to garner eight points, with Lavapies (Jpn) (Turtle Bowl {Ire}) fourth with four points.

Mont Saint Legame | kentuckyderby.com

Settling just off Blanc Eclat in a tracking second from gate eight, the Koji Maki trainee and 5-1 shot was content to wait until called upon by Takuya Kowata, but was steadily inching closer to that rival on the far turn. He had Blanc Eclat's measure in upper stretch, asserted himself inside the final quarter mile and held off the late charge of the closing Caucus to keep his record perfect.

The second Japanese GI Kentucky Derby qualifier will be the Hyacinth Sho--GI Belmont S. third-place finisher Lani (Tapit), after winning the 2016 edition of the Cattleya Sho finished fifth in last year's edition--held once again over 1600 metres at Tokyo Feb. 19. The Hyacinth will be worth 50 points to the winner, 20 to the runner-up, 10 points to third and five points to fourth. The 1 1/4-mile Kentucky Derby is slated for May 6 at Churchill Downs. Click for the JRA Chart or the JRA Video.

MIGHTY MOSES (c, 3, Candy Ride {Arg}--Trusten, by Mt. Livermore) took seven tries to break his maiden before doing so by open lengths Oct. 2 at Belmont and the chestnut followed that up with a good second at 14-1 behind GI Cigar Mile H. show runner Realm (Haynesfield) over track and trip Nov. 5. Off as the 33-10 second choice from the outside draw here, Mighty Moses made the lead before deferring to run a close second past a :23.12 quarter and :46.19 half. Poking his head in front at the five-sixteenths marker, he had to fight throughout the stretch to beat back the resilient pacesetter and hold off the closing bid of Nigel's Destiny (Giant's Causeway) to earn a 3/4-length triumph. The winner's dam is a half to GISW My Trusty Cat (Tale of the Cat). She has a 2-year-old Quality Road colt named Plagiaride, a yearling colt by Street Sense and was bred to Twirling Candy this term. +BRIDE STREET (f, 2, Street Cry {Ire}--Emptythetill, by Holy Bull), was available on the board at as much as 5-1 late in the wagering, but took late money to be off at odds of 7-2 and that late support proved correct. Away sharply from gate one, the half-sister to Conveyance (Indian Charlie), MGSW-US, GSP-UAE, $496,560, sped to the front as warm favorite Raging Town (Jersey Town) gave chase from second. Always traveling comfortably beneath Irad Ortiz Jr., Bride Street cut the corner into the stretch, repelled a challenge from Raging Town at the furlong grounds and held sway late as 20-1 Forever Liesl (Union Rags) whittled the winning margin down to a half-length. The winner's third dam was Silent Account (Private Account), a full-sister to Grade I-winning juvenile Silent Account and herself winner of the GII Alcibiades S. and second in the GI Selima S. at two in 1985. TDN Podcast with Mark Casse - Always a top trainer, Mark Casse has emerged as one of the major forces in racing this year. He has continued to dominate Canadian racing, he took Tepin over to Royal Ascot to win the Grade I Queen Anne Stakes and he won the Grade I Breeders' Cup Juvenile with Classic Empire, next year's Derby favorite. All the while, he's done so while having to deal with the loss of his father, Norman, who died earlier this year. This week on the Thoroughbred Daily News podcast, we'll catch up with one of the hottest trainers in the sport. Click here to listen.

6th-AQU, $60,000, Msw, 11-27, 2yo, 1m, 1:38.48, ft. EVERYBODYLUVSRUDY (c, 2, Union Rags--Philly's Philly, by A.P. Indy), the runner-up in each of the three maiden races he had contested to date, finally got the job done to graduate Sunday afternoon at Aqueduct. Away fairly, the 16-5 favorite settled slightly worse than midfield and in heavy traffic early on, then gradually improved his position to be just behind the first flight of horses with a half-mile to race. Clicked up four wide on the turn, he swept in front from that deep position at the quarter pole, put a couple of lengths on Into the Breach (Creative Cause) entering the final furlong and went on to prevail by three lengths. Into the Breach raced outside the eventual winner on the turn and kept on well to be second ahead of Fuel the Bern (Bernardini) in third. Everybodyluvsrudy, fifth in the GI Hopeful S., was a distant runner-up to Saturday's GII Remsen S. winner and 'TDN Rising Star' Mo Town (Uncle Mo) in a muddy Belmont maiden Sept. 24 and completed a Union Rags exacta behind longshot Hookup over course and distance Nov. 6. Everybodyluvsrudy is the 16th winner for his freshman sire (by Dixie Union) and is kin to a yearling filly of this year by Quality Road and a weanling filly by Afleet Alex. His dam, who once fetched $400,000 in foal to Dixie Union at Keeneland November, is a half-sister to MGSW sprinter Woke Up Dreamin (Holy Bull) and Denomination (Smart Strike), a G3 winner on turf on both sides of the Atlantic. The most successful man in Kentucky likes to say that the ideas that propelled him to his success aren't that brilliant or complicated. It's just that nobody else had ever thought of them. This month, we sit down with B. Wayne Hughes, whose brilliant ideas (sorry, Mr. Hughes) seem to be coming even more fast and furious in his eighties. We also visit with another racing innovator, Michael Blowen, who has created a haven for not only racing's famous retirees, but its unknown ones as well. Old Friends is open to the public, and we highly recommend a visit while in Lexington this fall. Todd Pletcher opens up about the people who have influenced him as he heads to the Breeders' Cup in search of a few more trophies in The Last Word. And we will also offer up some travel advice if you're heading to the Japan Cup—as well as what to drink at Keeneland November. Bottoms up!

+REMSTIN (c, 2, Frost Giant--Mo Fuzzy Cat, by Tale of the Cat) showed an above-average worktab for this debut, most recently going a half-mile from the gate on the Belmont training track in :49 1/5 (14/69) Nov. 23, and was let go at 13-1. Away a half-step slowly, the homebred tracked the speed of odds-on firster Mo Focused (Uncle Mo) from a close second through a :23.26 quarter. Drawing on even terms with that one at the three-furlong pole, Remstin took charge into the lane and stayed on well to deny the drifting Blame the Thief (Blame) by 2 1/4 lengths. Mo Focused just held for third. First-time starter Elbow Room (D'Funnybone) stumbled at the eighth pole, causing jockey Rajiv Maragh to somersault over the colt's head. Neither horse nor rider was injured. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $33,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

CALLINGMISSBROWN (f, 4, Pulpit--Island Sand {GISW, $1,182,777}, by Tabasco Cat) bombed the start of her Oct. 1 debut at Delaware Park, but things got worse from there, as jockey Larry Mejias lost the irons around the half-mile pole. Remarkably, the Riggio homebred made a bold sweep on the turn and held sway late, the irons flopping at Callingmissbrown's side (video). She added Lasix for an Oct. 28 Keeneland allowance, but she was done early en route to a sixth-place finish. Outrun and last down the backstretch here, the 7-1 chance came out for the drive, but still had much to do in upper stretch. But Callingmissbrown got her second win a furlong and a half from home and came with a final-furlong flourish to post a 3/4-length success over If I Was a Boy (Jump Start.). Hold On Momma (Hold Me Back), favored at 6-5 spotted her rivals several lengths at the start and never factored, finishing seventh of eight. The winner is a half-sister to Midnite Poppa (Unbridled's Song), SP, $163,405 and is out of the 2004 GI Acorn S. winner, who was acquired by My Meadowview for $4.2 million in foal to A.P. MS LOCUST POINT (f, 2, Dialed In--Whisper Number, by First Samurai) set a strong pace as the favorite in her track-and-trip career box Oct. 16 before getting leg-weary late and finishing second. Sporting a pair of bullet works in the interim, the chestnut was hammered down to 9-10 to go one better here. Breaking on top, the favorite tracked a runaway longshot leader from second through a :22.83 quarter, overhauled that one midway on the far bend and drew clear on her own power to score by 4 3/4 lengths. Sister Patricia (Desert Party) was clearly second-best. The winner, the 17th for her freshman sire (by Mineshaft), has a yearling full-brother named Thunder's Honor and a weanling half-brother by Cairo Prince. Social Inclusion to Stand at Woodford Thoroughbreds:

Social Inclusion | Lauren King/NYRA

Social Inclusion (Pioneerof the Nile--Saint Bernadette, by Saint Ballado), third in the 2014 GI Preakness S., will join the roster at Woodford Thoroughbreds near Reddick, Florida in 2017, the farm announced Sunday. Standing at Woodford mainly through the efforts of Carlos Rafael, a Woodford client and owner/breeder, the Juan Carlos Guerrero trainee will stand for $4,000. Also third in the GI Wood Memorial S. and GII Woody Stephens S. during his career, the Rontos Racing Stable Corp. representative retires with a mark of 9-3-1-3 and $450,800 in earnings. Bred by Robert Tillyer, Martin Keogh and Dr. Chet Blackey in Kentucky, the 5-year-old is out of GII Hollywood Breeders' Cup Oaks third-place finisher Saint Bernadette.

IRON FIST (c, 4, Tapit--Successful Outlook {GSW, $110,720}, by Orientate), runner-up in last term's GII Pennsylvania Derby, was transferred from the Jerry Hollendorfer barn after a third in the GIII Native Diver S. last November at Del Mar and ran sixth in his first start for this barn Sept. 4 at Saratoga before finishing a fast-closing second in the GIII Ack Ack S. here Oct. 1. Most recently sixth in the GII Hagyard Fayette S. Oct. 29 at Keeneland, the gray was made a 7-10 favorite by the public in this spot. Sitting fourth off of a strong :22.78 quarter, Iron Fist moved up one spot in the three path going by a :45.95 half and took command in early stretch. Starting to shorten stride by the sixteenth pole, he nevertheless dug in gamely to hold off Helooksthepart (Songandaprayer) by a head. The winner, a $1.55 million KEESEP graduate, is a full to Anchor Down, MGSW & GISP, $734,254; and a half to 'TDN Rising Star' Sweet Lulu (Mr. Greeley), GISW, $693,600, who sold for $3 million at the Fasig-Tipton fall mixed sale in 2014. Let off at 10-1 here, the dark bay dictated terms through a sharp :21.94 quarter and a more moderate :45.60 half, was challenged by Hotshot Anna (Trappe Shot) coming to the furlong grounds, but bravely staved that foe off for a head tally. Let go at a generous mutuel given the presence of big-figure maiden winner Sailing Home and GIII Arlington-Washington Futurity hero and TDN Rising Star Wellabled (Shackleford), M M G Stables' Undulated lagged well behind a suicidal pace set by Katalox (Old Forester) and Wellabled, took his cue from jockey Alan Garcia swinging off the final corner and overwhelmed Uncle B (Zensational) in the final half-furlong to score impressively and become a TDN Rising Star. Uncle B held for second ahead of Sailing Home, who lacked the same turn of foot as the winner and settled for third money. "They were going very quick. My horse was relaxed and comfortable," said Garcia. "When I asked him to run, he picked up the bridle. I knew they were going to stop and my horse was going to make a great kick and he did." A $110,000 Keeneland September yearling purchase, Undulated breezed a quarter-mile in :21 flat over the SafeTrack at OBS March and was hammered down to this owner for $625,000. The chestnut came with a flying finish from far back to graduate by a half-length in a 5 1/2-furlong test over the Laurel turf course Aug. 7, but laid closer to the pace in the Sept. 10 Laurel Futurity over that course and distance last time and led late only to be nabbed on the wire by Caribou Club (City Zip). He was an intended runner in the Oct. 29 Awad S. at Belmont Park, but was cast in his stall, resulting in his scratching. The winner's dam, stakes-placed in Italy, is a half-sister to GSW & MGISP Medici Code (GB) (Medicean {GB}). Polly Alexander produced a full-brother to Undulated in 2015 and that colt was bought back on a bid of $245,000 at this year's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale. the final furlong to finish a distant runner-up. Stretching out to a distance of ground for the first time as the 4-5 chalk, Royal Mo, a half to Tara From the Cape (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}), SW, $152,668, bounced away neatly from gate two and set solid fractions of :23.08 for the opening quarter and had half the journey completed in :47.58. TATTS MARE SALE UNDERWAY ON MONDAY

The Tattersalls December Sale moves into its third and final phase on Monday with the first of four sessions of mare sales.

Hazariya (Ire) (Xaar {GB}), the dam of this year's G1 Investec Derby and G1 Irish Derby winner Harzand (Ire) (Sea The Stars (Ire), is among 1,059 lots catalogued. The 14-year-old Hazariya, who has also produced Group 3 winner Harasiya (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) and listed winner Hazarafa (Ire) (Daylami {Ire}) as well as the stakes-placed Haziyna (Ire) (Halling), will be offered by Newsells Park Stud in foal to Invincible Spirit (Ire) as lot 1826.

Other highlights of the mare sale include off-the-track Group 1 winners Euro Charline (GB) (Myboycharlie {Ire}) (lot 1848) and Furia Cruzada (Chi) (Newfoundland) (lot 1867), with this year's G3 Premio Regina Elena (Italian 1000 Guineas) winner Conselice (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) also catalogued as lot 1847.

Also catalogued as fillies in/out of training are stakes-winning and Classic-placed 4-year-olds Irish Rookie (Ire) (Azamour {Ire}) (lot 1840), Jack Naylor (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}) (lot 1823) and Nymeria (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}) (lot 1777). The nine additional Group 1 winners or producers catalogued include Screen Star (Ire) (Toubougg {Ire}) (lot 1837), the dam of G1 Cheveley Park S. winner Lumiere (Ire) (Shamardal); and Shermeen (Ire) (Desert Style {Ire}) (lot 1725), who has produced G1 Phoenix S. winner Sudirman (Henrythenavigator). With international appeal are a pair of mares offered by Baroda & Colbinstown Studs in foal to U.S. sire sensation Uncle Mo.

BLACK GETS THE GOLD IN JAPAN CUP

Kitasan Black (Jpn) (Black Tide {Jpn}) has been off the board just once in 13 outings, and the 4-year-old proved to be as brilliant as he is reliable on Sunday when wiring the G1 Japan Cup as the favourite. Bouncing out of the innermost stall, Kitasan Black and Yutaka Take led the 17-horse field into the first turn with One and Only (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) and Real Steel (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) keeping close order. The bay gradually increased his advantage to about four lengths down the backstretch, but that lead was whittled down to a length by the time he swung into the straight. Kitasan Black was still moving visually best, however, and he needed just a few left-handed reminders to hold his rivals at bay, winning by a relatively cozy 2 1/2 lengths from Sounds Of Earth (Jpn) (Neo Universe {Jpn}), who closed from the back of the pack, and Cheval Grand (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}). ST. LUCIA SOON TO BE THE 'PEARL OF THE CARIBBEAN' by Christie DeBernardis

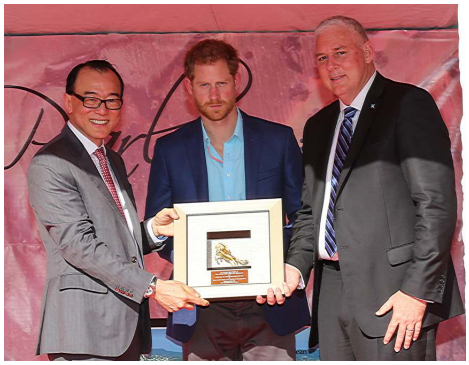
VIEUX FORT, St. Lucia - China Horse Club Founder and Chairman Teo Ah Khing has made a name for himself in the worldwide horse racing community as both an innovator and someone extremely dedicated to increasing his country's awareness and involvement in the sport of kings. He took that commitment and enthusiasm to a new level over the weekend when breaking ground on the island of St. Lucia's first ever race course, which is the centerpiece of his latest endeavor, the Pearl of the Caribbean.



Teo Ah Khing, HRH Prince Harry of Wales & Prime Minister Allen Chastanet | DSH Caribbean Star

"I think St. Lucia is geographically located in a position that will play a role for China," remarked Teo, while sitting in the restaurant of St. Lucia's St. James Club resort just hours before the ground breaking ceremony. "We are a club that promotes lifestyle and a lot of our members have expressed interest in the Caribbean. Secondly, it could become a new quarantine facility for bringing horses eastward due to its proximity to Miami."

The view of the marina from the casino | Christie DeBernardis

Teo added, "The new Prime Minister of St. Lucia is a very forward thinking person and he took the time to come to China and learn our racing. I think that in itself shows us he welcomes the eastern involvement in his country."

Not only was Prime Minister Allen Chastanet present and actively involved in the ground breaking ceremony, but so was His Royal Highness Prince Harry of Wales, who attended the event as part of his tour of the Caribbean islands.

Friday's ground breaking festivities started with a private tour of the project's three main sites with a group that included racing dignitaries from across the Caribbean, international advisors and investors. Cont. p3

St. Lucia Soon to Be the 'Pearl of the Caribbean' Cont.

Situated on 700 acres of undeveloped land on the southern end of the island, the $2.6-billion project has several components, all of which aim to heighten St. Lucia's profile as a premier tourism destination. In addition to the racetrack, the Pearl of the Caribbean will also include several boutique resorts, a marina, a casino, shopping and residential areas, such as waterfront villas.

"I think the island itself has a lot of virtue that for the eastern market is unexplored," Teo said. "We are using the China Horse Club to spearhead and trail blaze to open up a new market for the island with eastern and south Asian tourists."

The ceremony took place at the main site where the racetrack will be constructed. Teo's design consultancy firm Desert Star Holdings designed and completed Dubai's Meydan Race Course and that same team, known here as DSH Caribbean Star, will be working on St. Lucia's top level dirt and turf courses. In addition, the racing portion of the project will also include state of the art barns, a quarantine facility, a veterinary clinic and several lush paddocks.

Teo, HRH Prince Harry of Wales & Chastanet| DSH Caribbean Star

"The dirt track plays a prominent role in our new design," Teo commented. "The direction respects the Caribbean racing culture. I think it will be one of the most comprehensive tracks, but fitting with the culture of the Caribbean."

Teo kicked off Friday's ceremony by presenting both the Prime Minister and the Prince with special gifts symbolic of the horse's importance in the Chinese culture before giving his opening remarks.

"St. Lucia Pearl of the Caribbean is a project that will be constructed with the people and for the people," Teo said to an internationally diverse crowd of about 150 people. "It will drive new opportunities across the nation and establish industries like international tourism, leisure, retail, digital media and racing. It will create a new equine industry with the building of a state of the art racecourse right where we are sitting. That will create a positive economy and we believe we will be a uniting force in the country."

Chastanet | DSH Caribbean Star

Prime Minister Chastanet expressed similar optimism and enthusiasm in his speech a few minutes later. In his speech, he also stated that the first race would be held this time next year, a statement supported by Teo in discussions earlier in the day.

"This project when it was presented to me was bold, courageous and different," Chastanet said. "The idea of building a world class horse racing track here in St. Lucia with horse racing as only the beginning part it. It will create jobs for young people, particularly here in the south. You hear the numbers with 45% unemployment among our youth. I meet so many of them that want something to do and something that they could be great at. This is going to create opportunities for them to become professional, an opportunity to become world class."

As Chastanet inferred, while racing may be new to St. Lucia, horses are not. Driving around the island during the day's activities, guests could see horses grazing just about everywhere, as well as several barns hinting at the island's hearty equine community. Local horseman and entrepreneur Winston Trim has been a major force in helping spearhead this movement to bring racing to his country.

"Bringing this project to St. Lucia has been very close to my heart being that my family has been in the local equine industry for over 75 years," Trim commented. "Living in the U.S. for 24 years and attending the races at several different tracks, I saw an opportunity to bring racing to St. Lucia. I think racing will bring St. Lucia to the world as well as bring the world to St. Lucia. On the local end, we have a large population of equine enthusiasts and it will open doors for them to take part in the equine community on an international level."

International racing representatives
Christie DeBernardis

John Warren, bloodstock advisor to Her Royal Highness Queen Elizabeth II, is the Chairman of CHC's International Advisory Board and was on hand for this weekend's event.

"I think the real relevance is quite a significant number of islands in the Caribbean have racing as their core interest," Warren commented. "They have been historically associated with racing, which means it's in the DNA of the local people, so it is not plucked out of the blue to come into an environment like this. This project was put forward as state of the art in its region. There is an opportunity here to breed a significant number of horses and there is nothing like indigenous stock."

The English native added, "The timing of this whole project is incredibly important for the island to seem to not be sleepy and inactive, but it is a proactive country. The fact it coincides with Prince Harry's visit is important because a lot of the events Prince Harry has been attending have not been stimulating growth and development. I think this is an opportunity for him to see something and the Prime Minister to take full advantage of showing him what could be a wonderful asset to the island."

Warren also spoke on the project's significance to racing on an international level. Cont. p5

St. Lucia Soon to Be the 'Pearl of the Caribbean' Cont.

"This project gets publicity, so let's promote something that is an incredible industry," he remarked. "None of the other sports, can do what racing does, which is socially bring people together. It connects families and business acquaintances. There aren't many sporting events where you don't have to sit quietly in your seat and jump up and down when something happens. I think we just have to find ways of supporting and promoting our industry. The China Horse Club has done this through this event. We need to find ways to say, 'Come on in. Join us! Don't be frightened.' We have to work a lot harder I think on promoting our sport."

The final step in getting this important project underway took place early Saturday morning at the Prime Minister's residence, where Teo and his team met with Chastanet to sign the final paperwork.

When Teo first attempted to bring racing to St. Lucia, he was met by some opposition from the previous government, but when Chastanet and his party took over this summer, the Pearl of the Caribbean project was made a priority.

"You have a country here and a government that is motivated to do something unique and special," said CHC's Vice President Eden Harrington. "St. Lucia is trying to make a real difference in their future and tourism drives their future. It generates 65% of their economy and they are trying to become a more sophisticated tourism destination."

Harrington continued, "America is their biggest tourism portal, but if you are American you have to fly past all these other Caribbean islands to get here. So, why do you come to St. Lucia? There has to be a special reason. They have to do something better and more unique than everyone else and that is what they are trying to do here." Cont. p6

Chastanet expressed similar sentiments to the small group seated in his conference room just moments after signing the official papers.

"I think that horse racing helps us differentiate ourselves from the other places in the Caribbean," Chastanet stated. "We think it puts us as part of an international fabric. We look at the international circuit of horse racing and St. Lucia is very ambitious in its desire to become part of that family. To be able to get a person like Mr. Teo Ah Khing to make this kind of investment and put in this infrastructure, we think will go a long way towards building and helping us succeed in that part."

Kitasan Black signaled what was to come by kicking off his career with three straight wins early last year, including a victory over the subsequent G1 Dubai Turf winner Real Steel in the G1 Fuji TV Sho Spring Classic S. in March. Kitasan Black was shut out in the early season Classics, finishing third in the G1 Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas) before coming home a now scarcely believable 14th in the G1 Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby) over the same track and trip as the Japan Cup, but he bounced back after a summer holiday to take the G2 Asahi Hai St. Lite Kinen followed by the G1 Kikuka Sho (Japanese St. Leger), again over Real Steel, in the fall. Cont. p8

The then 3-year-old put in a respectable showing to be third against elders in the G1 Arima Kinen Dec. 27, and was not seen again until this year's G2 Sankei Osaka Hai Apr. 3, where he was second. Kitasan Black once again showed his affinity for an extended trip when besting Curren Mirotic (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) by a thrilling nose in the G1 Tenno Sho Spring May 1, and followed that up with a third in the G1 Takarazuka Kinen June 26. The bay was victorious in his Japan Cup prep, the G2 Kyoto Daishoten, Oct. 10, and was collecting a third Group 1 win on Sunday.

Trainer Hisashi Shimizu said, "Kitasan Black was in good condition coming into this race and he certainly showed the outcome in the best form today. I am also happy to have proved he is capable over 2400 metres at Tokyo Racecourse, where he experienced his only big defeat."

Shimizu added, "I let Take make his decision as far as racing tactics and, watching the colt racing comfortably in front, I knew that he had plenty left in the tank coming into the stretch so I was saying to myself "he's OK, he's OK"--but in fact I don't even remember the words I was yelling as the finish line drew near."

Shimizu indicated Kitasan Black would stay in training next year. "As far as I know, there have been no talks about retiring the colt, so I assume he will stay in training next season," he said. "Overseas challenges such as the [G1] Dubai Sheema Classic and the [G1] Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe are certainly of great interest, although this also will have to be discussed."

The overseas challengers--German raiders Iquitos (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}) and Nightflower (Ire) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}) and France's Erupt (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire})--were shut out, with Iquitos finishing best of all in seventh after getting as close as second in the lane.

Trainer Hans-Jurgen Groschel said, "We're happy with how he ran today. It was a bit unfortunate that he had to break from an inner stall--he was trapped inside horses and wasn't able to accelerate as hoped. It would be nice if we could come back to Japan again."

Nightflower showed little after traveling in rear throughout.

"She was not herself today," said trainer Peter Schiergen. "She wasn't able to get into a good position, running in the rear, and was totally unfocused. She will retire when she gets back home as planned."

Erupt had no immediate excuses for his 14th-place finish after getting a clean trip traveling in fourth early.

"We were able to sit in fourth to fifth and be in good striking position, but he just couldn't respond in the stretch," said jockey Pierre-Charles Boudot.

Pedigree Notes...

Kitasan Black is a son of Black Tide (Jpn) (Sunday Silence), a full-brother to the great Deep Impact (Jpn) who failed to win in eight starts. He is the third foal out of the unraced Sugar Heart, whose preceding foal was the G2 American Jockey Club S.-third Shonan Bach. Kitasan Black's second dam, Otome Gokoro (Jpn) (Judge Angelucci), is a half-sister to the Grade I-placed Cee's Tizzy (Relaunch), best known as the sire of U.S. Horse of the Year and dual GI Breeders' Cup Classic winner Tiznow. His fourth dam is Tizna (Trevieres), winner of the GI Santa Margarita Invitational (twice) and the GI Ladies H.
