GUN RUNNER, JUSTIFY, ROSARIO JOIN HALL OF FAME

Justify | Sarah Andrew

Triple Crown winner Justify, champion Gun Runner, and jockey Joel Rosario lead a class of nine new members to be inducted this year to the National Museum of Racing's Hall of Fame. In addition to those three entries--all in their first year of eligibility--jockey Abe Hawkins and racehorses Aristides and Lecomte have been selected by the Pre-1900 Historic Review Committee; and Harry F. Guggenheim, Clement L. Hirsch, and Joe Hirsch were chosen by the Pillars of the Turf Committee.

Joel Rosario, 39, a native of Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, has won 3,604 races through Apr. 20 and ranks fourth all time in North American purse earnings with $318,313,804 in a career that began in 2003. He has ranked among the top 10 in North American earnings 15 times, including topping the list in 2021 with a career-best $32,956,215. He has also ranked in the top 10 in wins five times.

The Eclipse Award winner for outstanding jockey in 2021, Rosario won the 2013 GI Kentucky Derby with Orb and the GI Belmont S. with Tonalist (2014) and Sir Winston (2019). He has won 15 Breeders' Cup races, including the Classic with champion Accelerate (2018) and Horse of the Year Knicks Go (2021).

Gun Runner (Candy Ride {Arg}--Quiet Giant, by Giant's Causeway) won the Eclipse Awards for Horse of the Year and champion older male in 2017.

A new HISA computer model to identify at-risk horses is being used by Churchill Downs officials to complement existing track safety nets, representatives from the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority (HISA) and Horseracing Integrity and Welfare Unit (HIWU) announced during Tuesday's press conference on equine safety protocols in place for this year's GI Kentucky Derby and GI Kentucky Oaks.

"It's essentially a model that looks at 44 potential risk factors that might cause a horse to be at risk for injury," said HISA CEO Lisa Lazarus, who added that the model assigns a "numerical" value to the horses analyzed.

HISA is currently beta-testing the system with regulatory veterinarians at roughly 10 tracks around the country, said Lazarus.

Racing from 2015 through 2018, he compiled a record of 12-3-2 from 19 starts and earnings of $15,988,500, the second-highest total of any North American-based horse (behind Hall of Famer Arrogate).

Trained by Hall of Famer Steve Asmussen for owners Winchell Thoroughbreds and Three Chimneys Farm, Gun Runner's championship season in 2017 included Grade I wins in the Breeders' Cup Classic, Woodward, Whitney, and Stephen Foster.

As a 3-year-old in 2016, he won the GI Clark H. He made one start in 2018 prior to being retired, winning the GI Pegasus World Cup. Overall, he won races at seven different tracks.

Justify (Scat Daddy--Stage Magic, by Ghostzapper) became America's 13th Triple Crown winner and was voted the Eclipse Award winner for Horse of the Year and champion 3-year-old male in 2018. Trained by Hall of Famer Bob Baffert for owners China Horse Club, Head of Plains Partners, Starlight Racing, and WinStar Farm, he crossed the finish line first in all six of his career starts, spanning 111 days from his career debut on Feb. 18, 2018 through his Belmont S. victory on June 9.

The three contemporary selections were chosen by a nationwide voting panel of 177 members from a group of 17 finalists submitted by the Hall of Fame's Nominating Committee. To be elected, finalists are required to receive 50% plus one vote (majority approval) from the voting panel after earning two-thirds support from the Nominating Committee to advance to the ballot.

Arguably the most celebrated rider in America prior to Isaac Murphy and the first Black athlete to gain national prominence, Hawkins is remembered foremost for his victory aboard Lecomte vs. Lexington at the Metairie Course in New Orleans on April 1, 1854. That day, Hawkins piloted Lecomte to a record 7:26 for the distance of four miles to hand Lexington the lone defeat in his Hall of Fame career.

An enslaved person on Duncan Kenner's Ashland plantation in Louisiana, Hawkins won a documented 25 races from 1864 through 1866 and countless informal and undocumented events during the course of his career. Hawkins first appeared as a rider at Metairie in 1851 and rode for Kenner for a decade beginning in 1854. After the Civil War, as a free man, Hawkins went north and achieved celebrity and fortune, particularly at Saratoga Race Course, Jerome Park, and the course at Paterson, N.J.

Bred in Kentucky by his owner, H. P. McGrath, Aristides (Leamington--Sarong, by Lexington), a chestnut colt foaled in 1872, won the inaugural Kentucky Derby in 1875. Trained by Hall of Famer Ansel Williamson, Aristides, a week before the Derby, finished out of the money in the Phoenix Hotel S. He came back in the Derby before a crowd of 10,000 to defeat Volcano by a length. His time of 2:37 3/4 was the fastest ever to that date by a 3-year-old for 1 1/2 miles.

Bred in Kentucky by Gen. Thomas Jefferson Wells, Lecomte (Boston--Reel, by Glencoe), a chestnut colt foaled in 1850, made his debut at the Metairie Course in New Orleans on Apr. 5, 1853, in a 2-year-old sweepstakes at mile heats. Lecomte won both mile heats, including a time of 1:45 1/2 in the second heat, the fastest ever raced in America at the time. He returned to win at two-mile heats at the Pharsalia Course in Mississippi before winning three races in three weeks back at Metairie to remain undefeated through five starts. His victory on Jan. 6, 1854, was in mile heats against Sallie Ward, considered one of the best mares in the South prior to the Civil War. Lecomte was finally defeated when he met up with Hall of Famer Lexington in the Great State Post Stakes in consecutive four-mile heats. A week later, Lecomte met Lexington again in the Jockey Club Purse, again at four-mile heats. Lecomte won the first heat by six lengths in 7:26, more than six seconds faster than the record set by Hall of Famer Fashion a dozen years earlier. Lecomte won the second heat by four lengths in 7:38 3/4, which handed Lexington the lone defeat of his career.

Lecomte then won the Association Purse in Mississippi and walked over for another purse two days later before returning to New Orleans and winning another Jockey Club purse. Early in 1855, Lecomte had won nine of 10 races and owned American records for one and four miles.

The Museum's Historic Review Committee considered only candidates from before 1900 this year. The committee will review the era of 1900 through 1959 in 2025 and 1960 through 2000 in 2026.

Harry F. Guggenheim was a leading figure in the fields of publishing, mining, government service, aeronautics, and philanthropy. Born in New Jersey in 1890, Guggenheim developed a passion for racing after graduating from Cambridge University. He became a significant figure in the sport as an owner, breeder, and industry leader.

Under the name Cain Hoy Stable, Guggenheim won 540 races as an owner with purse earnings of $6.2 million. He also bred the winners of 1,230 races (those horses earned $8.7 million).

Cain Hoy campaigned 1953 Kentucky Derby winner Dark Star (a $6,500 purchase and the only horse to defeat Native Dancer), champion Bald Eagle (back-to-back winner of the Washington, D.C., International), and Hall of Fame member Ack Ack (who raced for Buddy Fogelson and wife Greer Garson after Guggenheim's death and was Horse of the Year in 1971).

Cain Hoy-bred standouts included champions Crafty Admiral and Never Bend; Kentucky Oaks winners Lalun (1955), Hidden Talent (1959), Make Sail (1960), and Sally Ship (1963); Bold Reason, winner of the American Derby, Hollywood Derby and Travers S. in 1971; San San, winner of the 1972 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe; and multiple stakes winner One-Eyed King.

Guggenheim, who was elected to The Jockey Club in 1951, was the leading breeder in total earnings in England and Ireland in 1963.

Along with Hall of Fame members John W. Hanes and Christopher T. Chenery, Guggenheim outlined a plan for a non-profit to reorganize New York racing in the 1950s, which eventually led to the creation of the New York Racing Association.

In 1969, with his health failing, Guggenheim dispersed all his stock except his stallions and homebred colt Ack Ack. His breeding stock went to Keeneland's fall sale that year and his horses in training were sold at Belmont Park for a gross of $4,751,200 for 137 head, a record gross for a dispersal.

Clement L. Hirsch was born in 1914 in St. Louis into a successful family of retail merchants. In 1936, Hirsch founded the Dog Town Packing Company in Vernon, Calif., which became a prominent pet food producer he later renamed Kal Kan Foods, Inc. He also was the founder of Stagg Foods of Costa Mesa, which he built into a major producer of canned chili. He sold Stagg Foods in 1996 to Hormel Foods.

Hirsch purchased his first racehorse in 1947. During his more than 50 years as an owner, Hirsch employed only two trainers. He first hired Robert H. "Red" McDaniel, then Warren Stute, who remained with him for more than 40 years. A member of The Jockey Club, Hirsch was successful with a number of horses imported from South America, among them the colt Figonero, who won the 1969 Hollywood Gold Cup. He was also successful with the filly Magical Maiden, who won the 1991 Hollywood Starlet and the 1992 Las Virgenes S. In 1993, Magical Maiden won the Chula Vista H. at Del Mar, a race that track officials later renamed the Clement L. Hirsch H.

While successful racing horses, Hirsch is best remembered in the sport as a co-founder and President of the Oak Tree Racing Association. In 1968, the operators of Del Mar decided to cancel their fall racing program and to host only a summer meet. Cont.

Hirsch, along with businessman/racehorse owner Louis R. Rowan, veterinarian Dr. Jack Robbins, and other racing enthusiasts, formed Oak Tree to annually host a fall meet at Santa Anita Park. It proved to be successful and Hirsch served as its president from its inception until his death in 2000. The Oak Tree meetings also benefited numerous racing charities.

Born in New York City in 1928, Joe Hirsch enjoyed a prolific journalism career that carried him from the eras of Citation and Native Dancer to the dawn of the 21st century. He earned a degree in journalism from New York University, then served in the United States Army for four years. Following his time in the military, Hirsch worked briefly for The New York Times before joining the staff at The Morning Telegraph. He then transitioned to its companion publication, Daily Racing Form, where he spent 49 years (1954 through 2003) and became one of racing's most visible and impactful figures. Hirsch became the Form's executive columnist in 1974 and held that title until his retirement.

Through his omnipresent and comprehensive reporting and personal access to the leaders and prominent participants in the sport, Hirsch became highly influential and used his platform to become one of the game's greatest ambassadors.

The Joe Hirsch Media Roll of Honor at the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame was created in his honor in 2010 to recognize career excellence in media. Additionally, the press boxes at Churchill Downs and Saratoga are named in his honor, as are journalism scholarships at the University of Kentucky and one through the National Thoroughbred Racing Association.

The Joe Hirsch Turf Classic Invitational, a Grade I grass race, is held each fall in New York.

"Joe Hirsch was much more than just the dean of American racing writers for half a century. He was a global ambassador for the sport, a mentor to two generations of journalists, and probably the most universally respected figure in the world of horse racing," said Steven Crist, a longtime colleague of Hirsch and former publisher of Daily Racing Form.

The 2024 Hall of Fame class will be enshrined Aug. 2 at the Fasig-Tipton sales pavilion in Saratoga Springs at 10:30 a.m. The ceremony will be broadcast live on the Museum website at www.racingmuseum.org. The event is free and open to the public.

"But it is being provided to Churchill Downs' head of the Derby to be one of the tools that they are able to use with their sophisticated veterinary team and practices to help determine whether there are any horses at the Derby or on Derby Day that are at risk of being injured," she said.

Though the system as a whole is still being beta-tested, "I would expect by the end of this quarter that it's available to any regulatory veterinarian," a HISA representative explained on background during a follow-up conversation.

"Right now, it's grabbing the things that we already know are concerning," the HISA representative added. "It's the 'what's-going-to-happen' that's so exciting, because we've never been able to think about using data before in this way."

Experts have long identified specific factors that place a racehorse at increased risk of injury, including fatal injury. Some of these long-understood factors include sex of the racehorse, type and distance of race, and number of previous non-fatal injuries.

The 44 factors woven into the computer model, said Lazarus, include vets' list histories, if the horse has changed hands, any drops in class, and time between races.

"One of the things HISA can do that the state commissions couldn't necessarily do at this scale is look for associations with treatment records," said the HISA representative, explaining how even in fairly closed racing populations like California, such processes were difficult to accomplish for logistical reasons.

"We can look at associations between this type of treatment pattern in the past and a poor outcome," said the representative.

As to how the system works, a daily report is generated on every horse entered to race, said the HISA representative. This report assigns a number between 0 and 44 depending on the number of individual risk factors flagged by the system.

"It's got the horse's name, it has an aggregate number, and then it has the breakdown of that within the 44 risk factors," the HISA representative explained.

When asked if a certain numerical threshold triggers a specific set of follow-up protocols, Lazarus said that regulators have broad discretion as to how they weave the model into their existing safety and screening practices.

"It's not a tool that's designed to say this horse has to be scratched. It's a tool that's designed to help the veterinarians on the ground do the most effective veterinary inspection they can," said Lazarus.

"These are the horses you may want to spend extra time on when you're out on your rounds," the HISA representative further explained. "Or, if you're in a jurisdiction that does post-entry screening and then goes and looks at the horses, like in California, maybe there's an extra horse you put on your list to go and look at before race day."

The model, said Lazarus, is still being tweaked to ensure that horses at no increased risk of injury are inadvertently flagged by the system. "The reason why we haven't deployed it everywhere yet is because we're still improving it and making sure that it's at an optimal level," she said.

"There's always a tension between a false positive and a false negative," agreed the HISA representative.

"There are horses where there's a predictive value here [that] go out and don't just run credibly but run off the charts and win," the HISA representative added. "But the harm in being wrong by saying 'this horse needs extra scrutiny' is a much lesser harm than in missing a horse."

When asked about the accuracy of the model, the HISA representative said that HISA had got the percentage of "poor outcomes" down to the low single-digits.

DETTORI TO RIDE SOCIETY MAN IN DERBY

Frankie Dettori | Benoit

Frankie Dettori, who hasn't ridden in the GI Kentucky Derby since an off-the-board finish in 2000 aboard Godolphin's UAE Derby winner China Visit (Red Ransom), has picked up a mount in this year's Derby in West Paces Racing LLC, Danny Gargan, and GMP Stables LLC's Society Man (Good Magic). The news was first reported by Daily Racing Form Tuesday.

Trained by Danny Gargan, who also has MGSW Dornoch (Good Magic) pointing to the big race, Society Man was last seen finishing second Apr. 6 in the GII Wood Memorial S. at Aqueduct. He was ridden by Luis Rivera, Jr. to the runner-up finish behind Resilience (Into Mischief).

The Kentucky Derby is one of the few major races worldwide that has eluded the popular Dettori, who was originally scheduled to retire in 2023. The champion jockey instead moved his tack to the U.S. late last year and postponed retirement indefinitely.

"The six-furlong workout this morning, I really liked it," Barboza said. "It was a good work for the horse. He came back to the barn very fresh. He's ready for the move to Churchill."

Grand Mo the First is scheduled to travel to Churchill Downs Apr. 24.

"The horse will go to Kentucky Thursday in the night and will get there early in the morning," Barboza said.

The 47-year-old jockey rode in his first Kentucky Derby in 2016, finishing far back aboard Gustavo Delgado-trained Majesto (Tiznow).

Grand Mo the First also finished third in the Mar. 9 GII Tampa Bay Derby, in which he was just a neck behind winner Domestic Product (Practical Joke).

Fiona's Magic tuned up for the Oaks with a six-furlong breeze in 1:15.16 Tuesday morning.

"We've just been doing some strong, long gallops with her. We breezed three-quarters. I told [exercise rider Jose Ortiz] to just go easy and finish up a little bit down the lane," trainer Michael Yates said.

"I feel like we're going in the right direction. She was very relaxed and did it well within herself."

Fiona's Magic, who qualified for the Kentucky Oaks with a second-place finish in the GIII Forward Gal S. and a victory in Gulfstream's GII Davona Dale S., finished off the board in the Mar. 30 GII Gulfstream Park Oaks.

"We learned absolutely nothing from that race," Yates said. "We breezed her eight days before the race and scoped her. She scoped clean. Everything looked to be on 'go.' She had no nasal discharge. Everything was normal, but after the race, we scoped her, and she was loaded with mucus."

"Hindsight is always 20-20. What I learned last year is there's no way that's the right way. You just have to take care of your horse the best you can," he said.

Peb's Murals Get an Update: Churchill Downs is updating its 2005 jockeys mural and 2008 trainers mural, painted by Pierre "Peb" Bellocq, with the additions of Flavien Prat and Bill Mott (Country House), Florent Geroux and Brad Cox (Mandaloun), Sonny Leon and Eric Reed (Rich Strike) and Javier Castellano and Gustavo Delgado (Mage), to cap off the first 150 years of the Derby. But at the age of 97, Bellocq thought it was a better idea to sketch the caricatures and send his son Remi up the ladder to paint them onto the murals. Says Remi, "While I served as his painter, this work represents his images. All told, the update took about four days over two trips to Churchill Downs and one drive to New Jersey. I was able to insert the jockey faces in areas of the original canvas that were still available. However, because the trainer mural was completely filled up, I had to glue on an additional 36 inches of canvas to add the four trainers." | Churchill Downs Photo

Grand Mo the First | Lauren King

"I just think you need to keep your horse in whatever atmosphere is best for them to keep them training well and moving forward," Yates aid. "That's what we chose to do."

A rider has yet to be engaged to ride Fiona's Magic in the Oaks.

- Continuing to prevent legislation that would impose sales tax on the sale on the purchase of Thoroughbreds sold at auction in New York.

GOLDEN SIXTY: TOP FIVE GREATEST HITS

by Alan Carasso

When Stanley Chan's Golden Sixty (Aus) (Medaglia d'Oro) faces the starter as the favorite in Sunday's G1 FWD Champions Mile at Sha Tin Racecourse--a race he has made his own over the last three seasons--there is a very real chance that he will be doing so for the final time in his career.

And what an illustrious one it has been. The 8-year-old enters Sunday's contest with 26 victories from 30 starts since first going to the races as a late-season Southern Hemisphere 3-year-old in March 2019. His earnings of HK$165.8 million (US$21.2 million) make him easily the biggest money spinner in the history of the Hong Kong turf. His 10 Group 1 tallies make him the king of that particular hill as well.

On top of all that, he's been as sound as a well-tried racehorse could be, and he's overcome a minor January setback to be the center of attention this weekend--at least one more time.

Here is a look at five of Golden Sixty's top efforts in the estimation of the author:

#5--Career debut, March 31, 2019

Put into serious training in late 2018, Golden Sixty trialed three times, nothing too flashy, but he showed enough ability to be made the 17-10 favorite over 1200 meters. Cont.

Showing decent debut speed to sit in the first third of the field, he came with a wide run that would become his trademark and did his best work through the line to graduate by 1 1/2 lengths (video). “He's got a decent engine, this fellow,” said racecaller Brett Davis. Yup, pretty decent.

#4--Citi Hong Kong Gold Cup-G1, Feb. 21, 2021

Trying the metric mile and a quarter for just the second time in his career, Golden Sixty was given a supremely confident ride by the only jockey he'd ever known--Vincent Ho--but it almost proved too confident. Having conceded plenty of ground on the turn, he loomed in the straight, but Furore (NZ) had slipped through inside following a rail-skimming trip. Golden Sixty kicked hard, but so did Furore--perfectly ridden by Joao Moreira--and there wasn't much between the two in a pulsating battle to the wire (video).

#3--Stewards Cup-G1, Jan. 29, 2023

Having had his 16-race winning streak snapped in this contest the year prior and having been thwarted in looking for a third straight win in the G1 Longines Hong Kong Mile a few weeks earlier, the 2023 Stewards Cup featured a rare clash of Hong Kong's three top-rated gallopers with California Spangle (Ire)--all-the-way winner of the Mile--and Romantic Warrior (Ire), down in trip after pummeling his rivals in the G1 Longines Hong Kong Cup in December. Perfectly positioned right on the back of California Spangle with Romantic Warrior one spot ahead, Golden Sixty was momentarily short of room in the straight, but he was sensationally roused to the lead 100 meters from home and proved best in what commentator Mark McNamara called the 'race of the decade.' (video).

#2--Longines Hong Kong Mile-G1, Dec. 10, 2023

Sidelined since winning his third G1 FWD Champions Mile in April, Golden Sixty resumed in the Hong Kong Mile, an absence stretching back 224 days. When he drew the riverside barrier, that was the final nail in his coffin, many--including this writer--reasoned. It was just too much to overcome, wasn't it? But if any horse could deal with a situation as complex and adverse as this one, surely it was Golden Sixty, and those that kept the faith got 13-10; he was never longer than 1-2 in his three previous tries in the Mile. He jumped away beautifully and that enabled Ho to get into the three-wide trail with cover ahead of midfield for the opening 1200 meters. When he was pulled out to come after them at the top of the straight, Golden Sixty put the race to bed in a handful of strides in front of an adoring racing public (video). “That's not a whip, it's a wand,” proclaimed McNamara. It was a magical moment for sure.

#1--BMW Hong Kong Derby, Mar. 22, 2020

After winning the Hong Kong Classic Mile and Hong Kong Classic Cup (1800m) with relative ease--if not by big margins--Golden Sixty was 70 cents on the dollar to become just the second horse to sweep the 4-year-old Classics. Away without incident, Golden Sixty raced in the latter third of the field and they were in no hurry up front, with the opening 800 meters covered in :49.16. If anything, the pace dropped further still over the next couple of furlongs, and Blake Shinn shook things up with a middle move aboard 289-1 Playa del Puente (Ire), passing rivals one by one to lead passing the 600-meter pole before opening an imposing advantage. In the meantime, Golden Sixty remained in the latter half of the field and was no better than five wide into the straight, with a good seven lengths to find. Cont.

It looked like a lost cause as Playa del Puente led clear into the final 200 meters, but Golden Sixty took ground off him readily and managed to sprint his final quarter-mile in an other-worldly :21.83 to snatch victory from the jaws of defeat (video). Sadly, there were almost no fans on hand as Hong Kong, like the rest of the world, was trying to deal with the COVID-19 outbreak.

NTRA LAUNCHES SAFETY RUNS FIRST CAMPAIGN

The National Thoroughbred Racing Association (NTRA) has launched a national campaign, Safety Runs First, and a new corresponding website to promote the sport's commitment to safety, welfare and integrity. The campaign and website, safetyrunsfirst.com, are designed to be a continuing, long-term resource for the public as the racing industry furthers its investment in programs and resources to help reduce injury risk and enhance the safety of its athletes.

The website highlights reforms being implemented in the sport and their results to date, including the impacts of the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority (HISA); emerging technologies and their applications on the future of equine safety and welfare; new veterinary and track surface protocols; and other measures being taken by the sport to enhance safety practices.

"Safety Runs First will be a key part of our sport's commitment to transparency and accountability as we continue to strive for ways to create the safest environment possible for racing," said Tom Rooney, NTRA President and CEO. "This is an evolution of a program the NTRA launched last fall, but with substantial additional reach and resources, thanks to NTRA member organizations."

Shannon Arvin, Chair of NTRA Board and President and CEO of Keeneland Association, added, "From uniformity in our rules, strengthened veterinary protocols, and the use of new technologies, data and AI, Thoroughbred racing is making significant strides in safeguarding the welfare of our horses. Safety Runs First provides the platform to share this exciting forward progress with our fans and the general public."

Produced by creative communications agency CTP, the initial promotional campaign will coincide with the 2024 Triple Crown series of races and then continue through the summer and fall. It will launch with national and regional broadcast, digital, social media, and radio advertising.

'POTENTIALLY A ROYAL ASCOT FILLY' - TOP TALENT ON SHOW AT GOFFS BREEZE-UP

Gary de Souza and Sally Nagle of Gary Bloodstock | Brian Sheerin

By Brian Sheerin

DONCASTER, UK--What a difference a year can make. It was at this sale 12 months ago when Gary de Souza left us poor scribes befuddled. Consigning under the imaginatively-named Gary Bloodstock [!], his Sioux Nation filly, who would later go on to be the Group-placed Gunzburg (Ire), rocked the clock before being knocked down to trainer Paddy Twomey and bloodstock agent Mark McStay for £160,000.

But where was de Souza when it came to getting a quote on Gunzburg, who could conceivably be described as a life-changing filly in the Brazilian native's debut draft? The answer was half way to Osarus in France to get ready for another breeze-up sale.

But that's only half the story. While de Souza was busy preparing two-year-old talent, his partner Sally Nagle was back home in Ireland giving birth to their first son, Jack, leaving his father-in-law to man the ship in Doncaster.

A lot has changed since Gunzburg put Gary Bloodstock in lights last year but, in many ways, some things remain the same as de Souza and Nagle–who are on the sales ground this week–have sent another fast filly to Doncaster. Cont. p3

FOUR-TIME ARC-WINNING JOCKEY OLIVIER PESLIER TO RETIRE ON THURSDAY

Veteran jockey Olivier Peslier will make his final rides in the saddle at La Teste-de-Buch on Thursday, the Frenchman announced on Tuesday. A four-time winner of the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, the 51-year-old rider confirmed to Equidia that he had "carefully thought about his decision".

Also named the French Champion Jockey four times--in 1996, 1997, 1999, and 2000--Peslier has ridden over 3,700 winners worldwide in his 35-year career. At least 165 victories were at Grade/Group 1 level, including three Breeders' Cup Mile scores aboard the talented Goldikova (Ire) (Anabaa).

His first victory in the Arc arrived aboard Helissio (Fr) (Fairy King) in 1996. That was the start of a three-year streak, with wins in the storied race also arriving with Peintre Celebre (Nureyev) in 1997 and Sagamix (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}) one year later. His final tally in the autumn showpiece was with Solemia (Ire) (Poliglote {GB}) in 2012. Cont. p6

By Dandy Man (Ire), lot 30 scorched her way up the Doncaster turf in the breeze on Tuesday morning, and is undoubtedly going to be popular when selling gets underway at 10am on Wednesday. Bought for just €10,000 from Egmont Stud at Goffs Orby Book 2, the Dandy Man filly looks set to spearhead Gary Bloodstock's three-strong draft at the Goffs Breeze-Up Sale.

A shy de Souza said, “I was in Osarus this time last year and Sally was at home giving birth to our first baby. Last year was my first year breezing horses. I had worked for a lot of people before that--Katie McGivern and John Cullinan gave me my start.”

He added, “Since I have come to Ireland, breezing horses has been the thing I have loved the most. I didn't have a chance to start my own breeze-up business until last year but thankfully it has worked out well.”

Gunzburg, sold by de Souza and Nable, went on to be placed at group level | Racingfotos.com

That might be a bit of an understatement. While the couple exceeded all expectations with Gunzburg last year, they kept their heads when the yearling sales rolled back around, with the Dandy Man filly being a prime example of their astute approach to recruiting stock.

Sally explained, "We didn't go crazy after we got the money for Gunzburg. The Dandy Man filly only cost €10,000 at Goffs last year. We bought her off Paula Flannery of Egmont Stud and thought she looked nice and racy. She breezed very well and we're hoping to see Paddy Twomey again!"

This is not just a one-horse draft. The Sergei Prokofiev [lot 65] colt also ranked highly on the unofficial time sheets while the Without Parole (GB) colt [70] showed ability as well.

Cont. p4

Sally continued, "It's actually Jack's first birthday tomorrow. I'm from Tipperary but we are based in Westmeath. We've 10 breezers this year and, like I said, they were all bought at small money. They're all ready to run."

Like de Souza, Danny O'Donovan is not a man who goes out looking for attention. However, when the only two horses you bring to Doncaster clock the fastest and the second fastest, it's hard to go unnoticed.

O'Donovan Bloodstock's King Of Change (GB) filly (lot 141) out of Dawn Approach (Ire) mare Evie Speed (Ire) and Sioux Nation filly out of Dancing Around (GB) (Iffraaj {GB}) (lot 119) completed the forecast on many of the unofficial times published on Tuesday. That's not to say that such an achievement came as a surprise to the County Cork native.

O'Donovan said, "Coming here I thought that they would clock in the top 30 and I'm just happy that they have matched their work at home. They both showed a great attitude and you couldn't ask for much better."

He added, "We were keen to buy a Sioux Nation at the sales last year as he doesn't have many two-year-olds to run for him this year. But, look, the stallion speaks for himself and this filly's full-sister [Dance Sioux (Ire)] is quite a good filly in France.

"As for the King Of Change, we actually bought three yearlings by him last year–we just kept landing on them. Anyone who has asked me, I have been advising them to send a mare to him."

If de Souza, Nagle and O'Donovan might be new names to some, there was no mistaking the face of former trainer Harry Whittington, who on Tuesday sent out his first breeze-up horse in the shape of lot 55, a filly by Kodi Bear (Ire). Cont. p5

Explaining his decision to get involved in the breeze-up game, Whittington, who enjoyed huge success as a National Hunt trainer with horses like Saint Calvados (Fr) (Saint Des Saints {Fr}) and Rouge Vif (Fr) (Sageburg {Ire}), said, "We've got three horses to breeze this year and she is the first. We have two colts to breeze at the Guineas Sale next week. We enjoy the process and have been very fortunate to have had a helping hand from Mark Grant. He has shown me the ropes with regards to some of the different gallops to use in Lambourn."

He added, "I learned the ropes from Malcolm Bastard almost 20 years ago now. I spent a good few years with Malcolm and always enjoyed bringing along young horses with him. I then set up my own pre-training business before I went training and it was always in the back of my mind to do the breeze-ups when I gave up training. We've combined it with buying a few stores to go pointing, pre-training and working as an overflow for other yards so it's been great. It's been a very busy winter but we have been enjoying it. It's definitely something I'd like to do more of."

Breezing horses has underpinned Irish trainer Kevin Coleman's business for the best part of two decades now. He has had plenty of good horses through his hands and, in lot 145, a filly by Starspangledbanner (Aus), the Slievebrook House operator thinks he has another.

One of the most upwardly-mobile trainers either side of the Irish Sea, Coleman operates at an impressive 31% strike-rate in Britain but maintains that his base in Carrick-on-Suir in County Tipperary will remain a selling yard until he wins the lottery.

"I have been breezing horses for about 20 years," he explained. "It was always easy to get the lower grade horses into a breeze-up sale and then get them sold but it has become increasingly difficult to do that in the past few years as the standard has risen so much. The horses I was left with from the breeze-ups are the ones that got me started on the racetrack.

"We started with two that didn't sell at the breeze-ups in 2017 and obviously they won a couple of races and then the training aspect of the thing snowballed from there but I have always been a selling yard. I have sold some good horses at the breeze-up sales. I sold a good filly in 2018, Belcarra (Ire), who went to Germany and won a Group 3 for Markus Klug. I sold a horse here a couple of years ago and that won five races for Tim Easterby as well."

Coleman added, "Basically, my game is trading. Even the horses on the track, anything that runs well, they're all sold. We sold two horses to Joseph O'Brien last year--Uluru (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) and Bladon (Ire) (Churchill {Ire})--that ran in maidens and both horses hold fancy entries. I need them to go on and be good. It's important for business that the horses you sell go on and be good for the next man because then they will keep coming back. A lot of these horses, I own a big share in them. The costs involved in running and maintaining a racing yard is huge so it's important to trade to keep the whole thing going."

So where does the Starspangledbanner filly rank?

"She's always worked the best of our earlier two-year-olds and I think she showed that there in the breeze. She could potentially be a Royal Ascot filly."

And that is the name of the game. This sale has been the source for nine Royal Ascot winners in the past eight years. The search is on for the next.

"My health is fine, but you need the horses and need the practice and if you don't have so many horses, it is the time to decide to stop because it is very tricky to ride only a few horses," Peslier told PA Sport.

"After a very long career I have had plenty of success. I have had more than 3,700 winners and over 500 group race wins. I have won with both Arabians and Thoroughbreds and 165 Group 1s, so it is amazing when I look at my career." Cont. p7

Numerous French Classic winners had Peslier in the irons, including the aforementioned Peintre Celebre, who won the G1 Prix du Jockey Club in 1997. French stallion Intello (Ger) was Peslier's other French Derby winner, achieving that feat in 2013.

Peslier also scribed his name on top-class foreign races the world over, with a win in the G1 Derby coming by way of High-Rise (Ire) (High Estate {Ire}) in 1998. He was also aboard Cockney Rebel (Ire) (Val Royal {Fr}) in the G1 2000 Guineas in 2007. Also a winner of the 2001 GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf teaming up with Banks Hill (GB) (Danehill), Peslier was especially effective in Japan, winning the G1 Arima Kinen from 2002-2004 with Symboli Kris S (Jpn) (Kris S.) (2002/2003) and Zenno Rob Roy (Jpn) (Sunday Silence) (2004).

He added, "I have won everywhere in the world and had great success and great moments. I've met so many good people and I'm very happy to stop my career and watch what has happened before.

"I won all the good races in England--the Epsom Derby, the King George and [several] at Royal Ascot. In Japan, I won 12 Group 1s and won the Japan Cup and all the big races over there and also the Breeders' Cup and all the Derbys in Europe.

"So now is the time and I'm in good form and everything is fine. It's sad to take the decision but this morning I rode six horses and tomorrow I will ride some horses in training and for sure I will keep riding some horses because everybody loves horses and also I ride for my passion."

Peslier is booked on Top Glory (Fr) (Olympic Glory {Ire}) in the La Teste nightcap, a 1900-metre handicap. His other ride is Nasser Al Shahania (Fr) (Jaafer Asf {GB}) in the G3 Prix Dormane for purebred Arabians earlier in the day.

Of his future plans, he said, "I will take a little break and see some friends and see what happens over the next few months. After a holiday, September will be a new life, and I think I need a little bit of time to see what will happen in the future. I'm going to spend some time with my kids and enjoy life, then it will be a new life.

"Normally when I go to say Hong Kong and England it is for work, now I can go and visit people I know and take the time to enjoy it."

City Of Troy | Racingfotos.com

Twenty-one colts have stood their ground at the latest forfeit stage for the G1 Qipco 2,000 Guineas at Newmarket on Saturday, May 4. They include the outstanding juvenile of 2023, City Of Troy (Justify), last seen winning the G1 Dewhurst S. on the Rowley Mile by three and a half lengths.

City Of Troy is one of four entries left in the 2,000 Guineas for Aidan O'Brien, the most successful trainer in the history of the Classic with 10 wins. The potential challenge from Ballydoyle is completed by Diego Velazquez (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), Henry Longfellow (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) and River Tiber (Ire) (Wootton Bassett {GB}), while the only other Irish-trained entry is Adrian Murray's Bucanero Fuerte (GB) (Wootton Bassett {GB}).

The home team is headed by Richard Hannon's G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere winner Rosallion (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}), who could be joined in the line-up by stablemate Haatem (Ire) (Phoenix Of Spain {Ire}), the wide-margin winner of last week's G3 Craven S. at Newmarket.

Charlie Appleby, who saddled the first two in the 2,000 Guineas when Coroebus (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) beat Native Trail (GB) in 2022, could be double-handed again with the G1 Futurity Trophy hero Ancient Wisdom (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}) and Notable Speech (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), who is unbeaten in three starts on the all-weather.

Karl Burke's Night Raider (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) is another unexposed sort facing a hike in grade, while others who showed a high level of form at two still in the mix include Dewhurst runner-up Alyanaabi (Ire) (Too Darn Hot {GB) and G2 Royal Lodge S. winner Ghostwriter (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), plus G1 Middle Park S. runner-up Task Force (GB) (Frankel {GB}), who reportedly came through a racecourse gallop at Newbury on Monday with flying colours.

"The gallop went well and the horse did everything Ralph [Beckett, trainer] wanted him to do," said Barry Mahon, European racing manager for owners Juddmonte.

"He worked six furlongs and Ralph came away happy with the horse and it leaves him on track for the Guineas on Saturday week. He is bred to win a Classic as he's by a Guineas winner out of a Guineas winner [Special Duty] and there are not many horses who boast a pedigree like that. He's a nice horse and showed good form last year.

"He's done well from two to three and has changed shape a lot. We feel he definitely doesn't look a sprinter and last year he was a bit keen and a bit mentally immature, so we kept him to six furlongs and he had the talent to be able to perform over that distance. Now we're looking forward to seeing if he can be just as effective to win over a mile."

The Juddmonte team will not be represented in the Qipco 1,000 Guineas after Mahon ruled out the promising pair of Indelible (Ire) (Shamardal) and Skellet (Ire) (Kingman {GB}), leaving 27 fillies still in contention for the fillies' Classic due to be run at Newmarket on Sunday, May 5.

They are headed by Fallen Angel (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) and Ylang Ylang (GB) (Frankel {GB}), both of whom were Group 1-winning two-year-olds for Burke and O'Brien, respectively. Fallen Angel had Ylang Ylang down the field behind her when landing the Moyglare Stud S. at the Curragh, but the latter soon bounced back to form when winning the Fillies' Mile at Newmarket.

O'Brien could field up to five runners, with G3 Staffordstown Stud S. winner Content (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) featuring among his other contenders, while son Donnacha is set to be in opposition with his G1 Cheveley Park S. heroine Porta Fortuna (Ire) (Caravaggio). Cont. p9

Elsewhere, G1 Prix Morny runner-up Ramatuelle (Justify) is the sole French-trained entry for Christopher Head, while the form of the key trials in Britain could be represented by the likes of Dance Sequence (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), runner-up in the G3 Nell Gwyn S. at Newmarket, plus Regal Jubilee (GB) (Frankel {GB}) and Elmalka (GB) (Kingman {GB}), who finished second and third, respectively, in the G3 Fred Darling S. at Newbury on Saturday.

SireCam creator Sangster runs the Manton Thoroughbreds syndicate, as well as a bloodstock agency, while Sexton possesses pedigree knowledge and an astute understanding of the international Thoroughbred market. Formerly clinical director at Rossdale's Veterinary Surgeons, Barrelet is a veterinary delegate for the FEI veterinary committee.

Chairman Lord Grimthorpe said, "We are very lucky to have secured three outstanding new members who will bring a wide variety and vital range of expertise to the board."

Sangster added, "I am thrilled to embrace this role with whole-hearted enthusiasm, and I hope to bring added value to an already well-established team. The location, facilities, staff, and rich history at the National Stud are truly among the best in the industry. I am excited to be part of the path they are heading towards--it promises to be a very exciting journey."

"I'm delighted and honoured to join the board of the National Stud, it's such an important part of the British bloodstock landscape and it continues to serve an extremely valuable role as far as education is concerned with a heartening momentum behind the current courses," said Sexton.

A new indoor equine therapeutic centre named in memory of Jack de Bromhead will be built this year, ChildVision announced on Tuesday.

Based in Drumcondra, ChildVision is a specialist therapy and education centre for children with visual impairment. The new indoor facility will give them access to the best global equine activities all year round, crucially through the winter months and in bad weather conditions.

Spearheaded by de Bromhead family friend and well-known racehorse owner Chris Jones--and with the blessing of Jack's parents Heather and Henry--the €1 million donation target required to complete the equine therapeutic centre was reached last December.

The de Bromhead family--Henry, Heather and their daughters Mia and Georgia--said of today's announcement, "The equine centre will be a wonderful legacy for our beloved Jack, a hugely missed son and brother. Horses are a huge part of our lives, and we know the physical experience of riding a horse offers so many potential benefits, especially helping address a host of physical, social and emotional issues."

They said, "More so, it will be a place of learning and hope, full of laughter and joy, traits that were such a part of Jack, all facilitated by the much-treasured horses and ponies that call the ChildVision stables home. We are looking forward to following the development and construction of the new equine therapeutic centre and being there to cut the ribbon when it is completed.

"We are forever grateful to those who came on board to support us--we know Jack would be really proud of what this life-changing generosity will enable."

Barry Sheridan, ChildVision CEO, added, "We have an ambitious plan for the ChildVision campus and front and centre was trying to secure funding for an equine therapeutic centre. We had already raised over €500,000 but without this extraordinary fundraising support we would not have been in a position to break ground in 2024 on this vital facility.

"We would like to thank the de Bromhead family, Chris Jones and the other wonderful benefactors for enabling our dream to come true. We will ensure that Jack's legacy and that of his loving family, who so generously agreed to share his name with us, will live on for generations to come."

To raise additional funds towards the running costs of ChildVision's equine programme, Kenny Alexander, owner of the four-time Cheltenham Festival winner Honeysuckle, who was trained by Henry, has donated the racing colours that Rachael Blackmore wore in all of their major races. The iconic silks, signed by Rachael, Henry and Kenny, will be auctioned at the Goffs Punchestown Sale on Thursday, May 2.

£2.3M TO BE INVESTED INTO EQUINE DISEASE SURVEILLANCE AND VET SCIENCE BY THE HBLB

A total of £2.3 million will be invested on disease surveillance, veterinary science and education programming by the Horserace Betting Levy Board (HBLB) beginning in 2024.

In addition to the ongoing Infectious Disease Surveillance Programme, the new activity will include:

- six major research projects
- four small research projects
- one research scholarship.

All of the work will be managed by the HBLB's Veterinary Advisory Committee (VAC). Making contributions alongside the HBLB are the British European Breeders' Fund (BEBF), the Gerald Leigh Charitable Trust, The Racing Foundation and the Thoroughbred Breeders' Association (TBA). Both the TBA and the Racehorse Owners Association (ROA) will contribute towards the Equine Infections Disease Surveillance work.

Alan Delmonte, chief executive of the HBLB, said, "One of the statutory objectives of the HBLB is the advancement or encouragement of veterinary science or veterinary education. The Board appreciates the diligence and rigour that the Veterinary Advisory Committee, led by Matthew Allen, applies to judging which applications to put forward for funding.

"The Board is grateful also to the industry partner funders whose participation enables world-leading research to be carried out in this country."

Bellum Justum took four attempts to shed maiden status, doing so over one mile at Newmarket in September, and continued on a winning roll with a decisive victory in this wildcard event for June's G1 Derby. The 9-1 chance dipped low departing the stalls and went forward to stalk last term's G2 Beresford S. and G3 Autumn S. runner-up Chief Little Rock in second after the initial strides. Coming under pressure in the straight to launch his bid with a quarter-mile remaining, he hit the front approaching the final furlong and was ridden out to comfortably withstand the late threat of Defiance by 3/4-of-a-length for a career high.

"We thought that, whatever happened today, we would go to the [May 16 G2] Dante [at York] next and see where we are with him," revealed Andrew Balding. "Obviously, I need to talk it over with the owners, but if all goes well there then the [June 1 G1] Derby would be the plan. He is very well-balanced and professional and will improve a lot for today. He had a setback about a month ago and missed 10 days, but has really come on in the last fortnight and Oisin [Murphy] was impressed with the way he galloped out. It is nice to have an exciting horse for the owners, who have been such big supporters of the yard. Bangkok and The Foxes didn't quite come up to the mark, but I know they would love to have another go [at the Derby]."

Holding sway throughout, the 8-1 chance came under pressure when tackled by Midair (GB) (Frankel {GB}) passing the two pole and was ridden out to hold that persistent rival by a neck. Into Battle is the third of five foals and lone scorer from three runners out of an unraced half-sister to G2 Adelaide Cup victor Johann Zoffany (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) and the dual stakes-placed Belle Anglaise (GB) (Cable Bay {Ire}). BINADHAM (IRE) (c, 2, Kodiac {GB}--Rajmahal {UAE}, by Indian Ridge {Ire}) broke well and was keen under attempted restraint through the early stages of this first go. Shaken up when taking control approaching the quarter-mile pole, the 6-1 chance came under sterner urging thereafter and was ridden out inside the final furlong to defeat Foro Romano (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}) by 1 1/2 lengths. Binadham is the latest of nine live foals and fifth scorer out of an unraced half-sister to G3 Leopardstown 2000 Guineas Trial victor and G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains third Furner's Green (Ire) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}), stakes-winning G1 Irish Oaks third Lady Lupus (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}), stakes-winning G3 Derrinstown Stud 1000 Guineas Trial runner-up Palace (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) and stakes-winning G3 Solonaway S. third Mystical Lady (Ire) (Halling). 6th-Gowran, €25,000, Mdn, 4-23, 3yo, 9f 100yT, 2:17.65, sf. CHEEKY WINK (IRE) (f, 3, Masar {Ire}--Smiling Blue Eyes {SAf} {MGSW-SAf}, by Dynasty {SAf}) notched a 9 1/4-length debut fifth behind the 'TDN Rising Star' performance of Elizabeth Jane (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in a one-mile maiden at Leopardstown last October and was steadied to race in a midfield fifth through halfway here. Making eyecatching headway in the straight to join the front rank at the quarter-mile marker, the 7-1 chance forged ahead approaching the final furlong and was driven out late to hold Total Look (Fr) (Cloth Of Stars {Ire}) by a half-length. "She's always been a very nice filly and had a good run last year," said trainer Johnny Murtagh. "She's big and she came back in good shape. Shane Kelly rides her at home and he's been raving about her for the last couple of weeks. It was just a matter of picking the right race and this looked like a nice race for her. Ben [Coen] said there will be no problem dropping her back to a mile. I think she's probably a mile or nine-furlong filly. We're very happy with her, we'll speak to everyone at home and see what's next, but she could be a stakes filly." Cheeky Wink is the second of three foals and first scorer out of G2 Gauteng Fillies Guineas and G3 Fillies Mile victrix Smiling Blue Eyes (SAf) (Dynasty (SAf), herself a full-sister to G2 Gold Circle Derby and G3 Lonsdale Stirrup Cup runner-up Sage Throne (SAf). Smiling Blue Eyes is also a half-sister to South African champion and MG1SW sire Russian Sage (SAf) (Jallad). The March-foaled bay's second dam Sage Blue (SAf) (Badger Land) is a half-sister to G1 South African Derby hero Silver Sliver (SAf) (West Man). Cheeky Wink is kin to a filly by Australia (GB), foaled to Southern Hemisphere time in August 2022. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $16,320.

3rd-Gowran, €15,000, Mdn, 4-23, 3yo/up, 8fT, 1:47.45, sf. MATAARIKI (FR) (f, 3, Cracksman {GB}--Maygold {Fr}, by King's Best) tracked the leaders in a handy fourth after a sharp exit in this unveiling. Moving smoothly into contention passing the two pole, the 10-3 second favourite seized control approaching the final furlong and was pushed clear in the closing stages to easily outpoint Quatrain (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) by 3 3/4 lengths. "She didn't really show any signs of greenness, she travelled well throughout the race and quickened up well," reflected Joseph O'Brien. "She's a smart filly and I'm very happy with her. I thought she'd run well and we thought she'd handle the [soft] ground. Dylan [Browne McMonagle] was quite impressed with her, as was I. She handled that ground and will probably always like putting her toe in the ground. I wouldn't be against looking at the [May 8 Listed] Victor McCalmont back here although it's maybe coming up a bit soon. She probably has to go into a stakes race and there is also the fillies' 10-furlong race [May 11 G3 Blue Wind S.] in Naas. We'll see how she pulls up and make a plan from there." Mataariki is the third of five foals and second scorer out of a half-sister to G1 Prix du Cadran heroine Molly Malone (Fr) (Lomitas {GB}), herself the dam of G2 Prix Corrida and G3 Prix Allez France victrix Morgan Le Faye (GB) (Shamardal) and Listed Chalice S. victrix Emotion (GB) (Frankel {GB}). Descendants of the February-foaled bay's third dam Morning Queen (Ger) (Konigsstuhl {Ger}), herself a full-sister to MG1SW sire Monsun (Ger), include GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf heroine Aunt Pearl (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) and G3 Prix Chloe and GIII Matchmaker S. victrix Wekeela (Fr) (Hurricane Run {Ire}), who ran second three times at the highest level. Mataariki is a half-sister to the unraced 2-year-old colt Mylenstein (Ire) (Hello Youmzain {Fr}) and a yearling colt by Footstepsinthesand (GB). Sales history: €130,000 Ylg '22 ARQAUG.
