WINSTAR TDN BELMONT S. PREVIEW

by T.D. Thornton

Horse-by-horse analysis of the 1 1/2-mile $1.5-million GI Belmont S. entrants, ranked in order of estimated win probability:

Irish War Cry | Sarah K. Andrew

1. #7 - IRISH WAR CRY (c, Curlin--Irish Sovereign, by Polish Numbers) 'TDN Rising Star' O/B-Isabelle de Tomaso (NJ). T-H. G. Motion. Lifetime Record: MGSW, 6-4-0-0, $699,460.

Beyond what you see on paper, Irish War Cry is a serious win threat in the GI Belmont S. simply off of his trainer's decision to enter him, because Motion is not one of those conditioners who deviates from a stated plan without a legitimate, horse-centric reason. His initial post-Derby intent was to freshen "Irish" until the GI Haskell Invitational on July 30, but "he's had a good couple of weeks," Motion said. "I can honestly say this was not my original plan. After the Derby, when he ran so disappointingly, I wanted to go home and just forget about the Triple Crown, which is what the Derby does to you when you don't run well. He breezed well last weekend, and I felt he needed to be here." Cont. p4

SONGBIRD RETURNS AT LONG LAST IN OGDEN PHIPPS by Joe Bianca

The most popular 3-year-old filly since Hall of Famer Rachel Alexandra (Medaglia d'Oro), Fox Hill Farms' dual champion Songbird (Medaglia d'Oro) will make her much-anticipated 4-year-old bow as the prohibitive favorite Saturday in Belmont's GI Ogden Phipps S., "Win and You're In" Breeders' Cup Challenge race for the GI Distaff.

Taking home Eclipse awards in 2015 and 2016 by virtue of winning the first 11 starts of her career, including seven Grade I's, the 'TDN Rising Star' finally tasted defeat, barely, when just out-nodded by four-time champion Beholder (Henny Hughes) in an epic stretch battle in the GI Longines Breeders' Cup Distaff Nov. 4 at Santa Anita. Cont. p3

Breeders' Cup CHALLENGE Win and You're In.
GI Ogden Phipps S.
Presented by LANE'S END AMERICA'S BEST RACING WIN AND YOU'RE IN.

Given a lengthy break to recover from her action-packed sophomore season, Songbird returns with a steady string of quick works at her Santa Anita base for trainer Jerry Hollendorfer, capped off by a best-of-25 bullet half-mile in :46 2/5 June 6. The Ogden Phipps will be the dark bay filly's first start at Big Sandy.

Songbird breezing at Santa Anita Tuesday | Horsephotos

"If the way she's looking and the way she's acting is any indication on how she's going to come back, I couldn't ask her to come back any better," Songbird's lifelong rider Mike Smith told the NYRA notes team. "She looks so good, I just can't brag enough about her. She's gotten older, and smarter, and she's just calmer about everything. Hopefully, she'll do it as well as she's been doing, if not even better. I think there's a chance she could be even better. She's certainly bigger and stronger, I know that."

After racing three or four paths wide on both turns, this 'TDN Rising Star' was one of three horses who quickened away from the rest of the pack turning for home in the Derby, but Irish War Cry couldn't match strides with Always Dreaming (Bodemeister) and, in Motion's post-race assessment, jockey Rajiv Maragh "went from having a lot of horse to not having a lot of horse in three strides." Yet that 10th-place Derby try shouldn't be the measuring stick for Irish War Cry moving forward, especially when you consider 1) The flashes of raw brilliance he displayed at the outset of his career; 2) The fact that his two biggest wins (the Holy Bull S. and Wood Memorial) both came off five-week freshenings, just like he'll get going into the Belmont; 3) The extreme likelihood that the pace-pressing New Jersey-bred will control or push the tempo over 12 furlongs on Saturday. In sum, the third jewel of the Triple Crown is Irish War Cry's race to win or lose--and it's also his chance to wrest control of a wide-open division as the 3-year-old season shifts into its unofficial second half after the running of the Belmont S.

2. #2 - TAPWRIT (c, Tapit--Appealing Zophie, by Successful Appeal) O-Bridlewood Farm, Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners & Robert V. LaPenta. B-My Meadowview, LLC (KY). T-Todd A. Pletcher. Sales History: $1,200,000 Ylg '15 FTSAUG. Lifetime Record: GSW, 7-3-1-0, $343,902.

Bred by My Meadowview. Sold by Denali.

This $1.2-million yearling has a disconcertingly high "perceived potential to delivered results" ratio, yet I'm still clinging to my earlier-season prognostication that his athleticism and attitude will sync up one of these days to put him in the winner's circle against top-level competition at a Classic distance.

The scrum at the gate break in the Kentucky Derby wasn't as much of an issue for Tapwrit as it was for some of the other high-drawn horses. But what did trouble me was that later in the Derby, Tapwrit appeared to only run in spots, and even though he was only about five lengths off the leaders between calls in the stretch run, the colt never appeared to lock in mentally and put up a serious fight. The five-week freshening between starts is a potentially beneficial wild card. But that storyline also holds true for the four other Derby horses in the Belmont who skipped the Preakness, so it's not like Tapwrit holds an exclusive license on the fresh-face angle. Whether or not he's going to fire in the Belmont S. should be obvious within the first four furlongs of Saturday's race: I want to see the Tapwrit who looked confident jostling for position through the clubhouse turn in the Tampa Bay Derby, then was able to switch deftly into cruise mode while willingly responding to the subtle cues of his rider. If that happens in the early stages of the Belmont, then Tapwrit has a solid shot to remain focused through the finish, at which point his athleticism should stand him in good stead to close with authority.

I actually thought Multiplier's sneaky-good win in the Illinois Derby two starts back might be sharp enough for him to nail a piece of the Preakness S. at 19-1 odds, but he was relatively even-paced throughout in Baltimore and could not capitalize when the race broke apart on the far turn. Although he did not regress in the Preakness numbers-wise (same 94 Beyer as his Hawthorne win), Multiplier did not demonstrate significant forward progression on his own, so the addition of blinkers in the Belmont will be tried as a spark to potentially put this gray into the race a little bit earlier. His visually impressive kick in the final sixteenth of the Illinois Derby sticks in my head as a potential building block for better efforts down the road as this colt matures (only five career races; did not race at age two), so don't cross him off your list just yet--especially if Multiplier's price creeps up above his 15-1 morning line Belmont S. ranking.

Training Alum STONESTREET

Patch | Sarah K. Andrew

Somewhere down the line, the racing gods will owe Patch a more favorable post position assignment. He got buried in the one hole for his stakes debut in the Louisiana Derby, drew the extreme outside 20 gate in the Kentucky Derby, and now gets the outermost post yet again in the Belmont S. (although you could argue that draw is not so much a disadvantage going 12 furlongs over the expansive Belmont main track). His 14th-place effort in Louisville was admirable considering how lightly raced Patch is (just three prior starts to the Derby) and because of the fact that he handled the muddy chaos despite a non-functioning left eye. For the third jewel of the Triple Crown, trainer Pletcher will partner Patch with go-to rider John Velazquez, who has won two previous runnings of the Belmont S. and was also the pilot for Patch's lone lifetime win at Gulfstream. Pletcher noted that Patch's bloodlines might portend a decent Belmont showing, as the colt is sired by "Union Rags [Dixie Union], a Belmont winner, out of an A.P. Indy mare, [so] there's a lot of pedigree there to suggest that he's bred to get the mile and a half, and I think his style should fit the race well."

Gormley has earned "sleeper" status in the Belmont S. at 8-1 odds. I like to think of him as a small-of-stature overachiever with an outsized reserve of physical energy, and he enters the final leg of the Triple Crown as a relatively fresh horse who has been battle-tested against top divisional foes since the autumn of his 2-year-old season. His ninth-place Derby finish is deceptively better than it seems on paper: He was four wide on both turns, stalked and settled effectively (something that had been an issue for Gormley in prior races), flashed past a cluster of horses with an outside bid after taking mud in the face, then ranged up to be within four lengths of the leaders just prior to the furlong pole before tiring from his efforts. Beyond that eventful Derby trip, consider Gormley's company lines: He's four-for-seven lifetime, and the only horses to win races against him--Classic Empire (Pioneerof the Nile), Mastery (Candy Ride {Arg}), and Always Dreaming (Bodemeister)--were all considered to be kingpins of the division at the time of their victories. One glaring weakness, however, might be reflected in Gormley's speed figures. According to the Beyer scale, this colt has racked up a pattern of running slower races in three consecutive starts in 2017 dating to his Jan. 7 win in the Sham S., which is not something you want to see going into a Triple Crown race.

Senior Investment managed a respectable third in Baltimore simply by picking up the pieces of the Preakness pace meltdown. In his prior race, the Lexington S. at Keeneland, this deep closer dropped far off the action and had only one horse beaten 2 1/2 furlongs from the wire, but he kept methodically chugging along, building enough momentum to carry him past the two favorites on the lead. While I'm doubtful that Senior Investment will get a sizzling pace into which to close in the Belmont S., I do appreciate the speed-figure pattern he's put together over nine career races: According to the Beyer scale, this colt has equaled or surpassed his previous-race speed number in every lifetime outing. He hasn't improved in leaps and bounds, but Senior Investment keeps going in the right direction and always seems to outrun his odds, which is something to bear in mind betting-wise considering the average win price in the Belmont S. since 2010 is $25.

7. #6 - LOOKIN AT LEE (c, Lookin At Lucky--Langara Lass, by Langfuhr) O-L and N Racing. B-Ray Hanson (KY). T-Steven M. Asmussen. Sales History: $70,000 Ylg '15 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: SW & MGISP, 11-2-3-2, $942,795.

Equineline PPs

Lookin At Lee certainly gets points for resiliency. Not only will he be the only horse in the foal crop to run in all three legs of this year's Triple Crown series, but he (and Gormley) are the only remaining entrants from last year's Breeders' Cup Juvenile to still be active in the Belmont S. Trouble is, not much has changed about "Lee's" ability to break through and win a race at the upper echelon of the division during that long stretch of time. His one-run style from the back of the pack has earned Lee quite a few seconds, thirds, and fourths. But the fact remains that this colt is still winless since Aug. 6 of his 2-year-old season, has never won beyond seven furlongs, and has never won a race anywhere other than Ellis Park. Lookin At Lee gets a jockey switch for the Belmont S., and it's noteworthy that his new rider, Irad Ortiz, Jr., won last year's Belmont S. aboard Creator (Tapit), after similarly being handed the mount by trainer Steve Asmussen. Can that trainer/jockey tandem strike at a double-digit mutuel two years in a row?

J Boys Echo has a lot to prove in the Belmont S. on Saturday. Beyond the question of actually winning the third leg of the Triple Crown, this 'TDN Rising Star' needs to demonstrate that he doesn't require ideal conditions to win against the top level of the 3-year-old division. That was the case in his most recent victory, the Gotham S. back in March, when J Boys Echo got an ultra-clean trip behind a total pace cave-in. Since then he was trounced by a maiden in the Blue Grass S. and was never truly in the hunt during any part of the Kentucky Derby. "If you watch the [Derby] replay and the head-on, everybody got pushed but he actually got slammed into," said trainer Romans. "But he came back and he's trained well.... Last Saturday was the best work he's ever put in his life. It was the most energy he's showed and [Wednesday] he was bouncing and playing. The mile and a half should help him and hopefully we're going to see the best of him. He's got a good rhythm to the way he runs and I think that's important going that far."

Long-shot New York-bred Twisted Tom rides a three-race winning streak into the Belmont S., with his two most recent victories coming in a pair of open-company stakes at Laurel. He has a relentless, plugging-along way of going and has stretched out successfully in sixteenth-of-a-mile increments on dirt since his connections deviated from an initial turf strategy for his first three career tries (one of which was moved off the grass). The 1 1/2 mile distance of the Belmont S. might not be too much of a reach pedigree-wise, but the sharp step up in class is likely to provide a bracing challenge for Twisted Tom considering he has been competing in fields that have been on the short side (five, seven, and seven so far in 2017) and have not included any of the division's heavy hitters.

A switch to a New York-based jockey (Javier Castellano) will provide a measure of confidence in negotiating the vast expanse of Belmont Park's main track under two-turn circumstances, but it's difficult envisioning "Tom" for anything other than a minor award against this fairly seasoned crew, even if he produces a career-best effort.

Hollywood Handsome will attempt to parlay a first-level allowance win at Churchill Downs into a Belmont S. upset. He required five starts (several as a beaten fave) before breaking his maiden at Fair Grounds back in January, and although he was not badly beaten in subsequent stakes attempts, neither his fourth in the Louisiana Derby nor his fifth in the Illinois Derby carried enough oomph to signal imminent progression against the division's best this Saturday. Perhaps this is a horse who will just relish 12 furlongs at long odds (eight of his nine starts have been at a mile or longer, giving him a solid foundation, distance-wise). But my gut feeling is that Hollywood Handsome would need to run the race of his life and have the top four or five contenders all fail to fire in order for him to win the third jewel of the Triple Crown. That's not an impossible task (in fact, that's the scenario that more or less unfolded in this year's inexplicable Blue Grass S.). But it's certainly not a bankable one unless you're getting more than double this colt's morning line price of 30-1.

Meantime | Horsephotos

This front-running new shooter will be a definite pace factor in the Belmont S., but the obvious questions are how fast and for how long--especially considering the likelihood that the always-keen Irish War Cry figures to loom just off his flank as a menacing presence through the first half of the arduous 12-furlong test. Since debuting second in a February one-turn-mile maiden at Gulfstream at 53-1 odds (behind fellow Belmont S. starter Patch), this colt was third as a beaten favorite at seven furlongs, then aired by 7 1/2 lengths in the Keeneland mud over nine furlongs in April. His affinity for a wet surface was evident in a decent second in the Belmont slop in the May 13 Peter Pan S., and Meantime's connections felt that effort was strong enough to earn him a berth in the Belmont S. "Just to get a piece of it I'd be happy," said trainer Brian Lynch. "My main thing is there is not a lot of speed in the race. He could be left alone, and lone speed is always dangerous."

After being treated for lameness in his right front leg earlier in the week, Epicharis was "walking sound" as of Friday morning. His connections feel the G2 UAE Derby runner-up is still on target for the GI Belmont S. and they expressed hope that he would not have to scratch from Saturday's race. A glue-on shoe has been applied to his right front hoof. "He appeared fine this morning," said NYRA's Senior Vice President of Racing Operations Martin Panza, speaking on behalf of connections. "He's walked with a rider up on his back and they're happy with the way he's progressing. He's not going to come out, they're going to work on him this afternoon with ice. They feel confident they can make the race tomorrow, but they're still going to monitor the horse. Obviously, the horse comes first and if there's any problems, then they'll reevaluate." This grandson of Sunday Silence was undefeated in Japan when well backed in the betting through his first four career races. In the UAE Derby, Epicharis lost what appeared to be a race-of-attrition stretch drive behind Thunder Snow (Ire) (Helmet {Aus}), who was subsequently pulled up in the first sixteenth of a mile of the Kentucky Derby. That rival returned to run with credit when second in the G1 Tattersalls Irish 2000 Guineas at The Curragh May 27. --@thorntontd

'STEPPING' UP FOR THE BELMONT STAKES

Dr. William B. Wilmot & Dr. Joan M. Taylor with Twisted Tom's dam Tiffany Twisted earlier this week at Stepwise Farm

by Steve Sherack

ELMONT, N.Y.--Thunder Gulch. Seattle Slew. Stage Door Johnny.

I'll take winners of the GI Belmont S. for...

But this wasn't a category in a recent episode of Jeopardy. These names all appear on the catalogue page of Twisted Tom (Creative Cause), a 20-1 chance on the morning-line for Saturday's 149th renewal of the 'Test of the Champion.'

A quick glance reveal that high-powered trifecta, in order, as the blaze-faced chestnut's first three damsires. Bred in New York by the husband-and-wife team of Dr. William B. Wilmot and Dr. Joan M. Taylor, the streaking Private Terms S. and Federico Tesio S. winner is owned by Gary Biszantz's Cobra Farm and R R Partners, and is trained by Chad Brown. Sol Kumin's Head of Plains Partners also recently came on board for a piece as well.

"From our point of view, we're just giddy," Wilmot commented. "It's a lifetime achievement."

Taylor added with a laugh, "I keep saying, 'Pinch me, I might wake up.'"

After meeting in veterinary school, the married couple of 33 years own and operate the 200-acre Stepwise Farm--home of their three-horse broodmare band--located just five miles away from historic Saratoga Racecourse in upstate New York.

"We only have a few mares now, but we've been doing this for 25 years," Taylor explained. "In the past, we were a small, boutique breeding operation. Over the years we have downsized."

The couple purchased Twisted Tom's second dam Miss Turlington (Seattle Slew)--a daughter of GI Coaching Club American Oaks heroine Class Play (Stage Door Johnny)--for $100,000 at the 1994 Keeneland November Sale.

"This is a very solid family," Taylor said. "Years ago when Bill and I were in veterinarian school, we did externships in Kentucky and were lucky enough to spend time at Claiborne Farm and actually saw Class Play there. Later we had the opportunity at the sales to purchase Miss Turlington. She was a great, big mare and Bill gets credit for realizing that she wasn't the typical Seattle Slew mare--she was like a throwback to Stage Door Johnny. She was 17 hands."

The couple hit the ground running with the first foal that they bred from Miss Turlington, the talented turfer Incurable Optimist (Cure the Blues), a runaway winner of the 1998 GIII Pilgrim S. and GIII Generous S. Miss Turlington would also go on to produce the graded/group-placed runners Feisty Step (Coronado's Quest) and Cervinio (Elusive Quality), respectively.

Wilmot and Taylor decided to race Miss Turlington's Thunder Gulch filly Tiffany Twisted after she failed to meet her reserve as a yearling when the bidding stopped at $190,000 at the 2004 Fasig-Tipton New York-bred Sale. The chestnut won two of 13 career starts, scoring in a grassy maiden at 1 3/8 miles and an off-the-turf allowance going 1 1/4 miles, both at Delaware Park.

Twisted Tom, Tiffany Twisted's sixth winner from as many foals, RNA'd for $22,000 at both the Fasig-Tipton New York-bred Yearling Sale and Fasig-Tipton Kentucky Yearling Fall Sale. Tiffany Twisted is also represented by a Fed Biz yearling filly, who is booked for the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Sale this summer. After failing to get in foal to Paynter on a late cover last year, Tiffany Twisted was bred to and is currently in foal to perennial New York leading sire Freud.

"He was always a knockout baby and a very handsome foal," Taylor recalled of Twisted Tom. "And a very well-balanced yearling. One of the things with this pedigree was to put speed into it and also put a little leg under the mare, too, because she's only 16 hands. But we may have overdone it putting the leg under him. He just kept growing and growing!"

She continued, "As a weanling, he had traumatized a sesamoid. But in our opinion, not in a way that was going to compromise his career--we're both veterinarians--and we also consulted with Dr. Debbie Spike and Dr. Larry Bramlage. He was never lame or missed a day, but it showed up on the radiographs, and once you have writing on a page, it's very difficult to get these horses sold these days. By the time we sent him to Niall and Stephanie Brennan, his X-rays were perfect."

The Brennans began to prep Twisted Tom for the 2016 OBS April 2-Year-Old Sale and all reports were positive from the outset. A :10 3/5 breeze ahead of the sale, however, failed to generate much of an interest from the buying bench and it was back to the drawing board. Cont. p14

"We liked this horse," Wilmot said. "We thought he was O.K.--we really did. He never missed a day and was training good, but we didn't want him to have three RNAs. [Trainer] George Weaver comes up and says that he and his client Tom Brockley had the horse circled on their shortlist, and we wound up making a private deal with them for not a lot of dough. Stephanie Brennan then asks if they can geld the horse. Was he evil? No. Was he big, rough and good feeling? Yeah. Could he have been more focused? Yeah."

Twisted Tom training at Belmont Park | Sherackatthetrack

After graduating at second asking for Weaver over the Belmont turf last September, Twisted Tom was sold privately to Biszantz and transferred to Brown. Sixth in his first attempt for his new connections in a grassy optional claimer at the Big A in late November, Brown decided to make a few changes--one: add blinkers and two: return him to dirt. Twisted Tom has been perfect in three starts, including a pair of stakes tallies, since.

If the Wilmot name sounds familiar, it should. He is the son of New York breeder William F. Wilmot and he also trained Gold and Myrrh to an upset of the mighty Forego in the 1975 GI Met Mile. Somewhat frustrated as a conditioner--the firing of Triple Crown winner Seattle Slew's trainer Billy Turner left a stinging impression with Wilmot–and, despite his share of success, Wilmot decided to change gears and attend veterinary school to "become a more complete horsemen."

Wilmot and Taylor have also bred millionaire Naughty New Yorker (Quiet American) and standouts such as Time's Mistress (Mr. Greeley) and Pupil (Unbridled). The couple is also closely monitoring the career of another promising 3-year-old that they bred. Holiday Disguise (Harlan's Holiday), a winner of three straight for Lady Sheila Stable and trainer Linda Rice, including Belmont's Bouwerie S. May 29, is booked for her first test against open company in next month's GIII Victory Ride S. in Elmont.

"We're so happy. I kind of compare it to a movie," Wilmot concluded of Twisted Tom's rags-to-riches story. "We're like the screen writers. Chad's the director and Gary Biszantz is the producer. But it's also taken an awful lot of other people along the way who got their hands on this horse–Denali's Craig Bandoroff, Niall and Stephanie Brennan, Gallagher Stud's Mallory Mort and exercise rider Peter Roman."

Showtime for Twisted Tom is 6:37 p.m. Saturday evening.

BELMONT FIRST TIMERS

By Christie DeBernardis

ELMONT, N.Y.--There are a dozen horses signed on to represent 11 different trainers in Saturday's GI Belmont S. While many of those conditioners, such as Todd Pletcher and Dale Romans, are Belmont S. regulars, there are three newcomers to the Test of a Champion.

One is Kiyoshi Hagiwara, trainer of Japan's Epicharis (Jpn) (Gold Allure {Jpn}), who was profiled in Wednesday's edition. The TDN's Christie DeBernardis caught up with the other two, Brian Lynch and Brendan Walsh, on the Belmont backstretch to discuss their horses, race strategies and how it feels to be running in their first Belmont S.

Brian Lynch: Meantime

The very personable Brian Lynch was happy to spare a few minutes to discuss Silverton Hill's Meantime (Shackleford) in his office in Barn 19 shortly after getting off his paint pony. Kicking off his career in Canada, Lynch has won every leg of that nation's Triple Crown, but has never even had a runner in any of the American Triple Crown races until now.

"As a horse trainer, I think it's the pinnacle to try and get a horse in one of the legs of the Triple Crown," the Brisbane, Australia, native said. "It's always been one of my goals. The Canadian Triple Crown is a big to do for sure, but, obviously, the pinnacle of the sport is winning a leg of the U.S. Triple Crown. It is what we get up every day to do. I feel he is going to be competitive and I'm excited to run him."

Meantime | Christie DeBernardis

Blowing up the tote on debut when running second to reopposing "TDN Rising Star" Patch (Union Rags) at odds of 53-1 at Gulfstream in February, Meantime was third behind another "TDN Rising Star" performance from Time to Travel (Hard Spun) next out there Apr. 1. The chestnut put it all together when stretched to nine panels in the mud at Keeneland Apr. 22, rolling home to a 7 1/2-length graduation, and was second to "TDN Rising Star" Timeline (Hard Spun) in a sloppy renewal of the GIII Peter Pan S. last time May 13.

Meantime will face a much more experienced group Saturday, including MGISW Gormley (Malibu Moon) and GII Wood Memorial S. hero Irish War Cry (Curlin), but Lynch is not deterred by his charge's lack of seasoning.

"They are all the same age, but some of them may have more experience and some of them may be just starting to get good," the conditioner remarked. "We hope we have one that is just starting to get good. They are only three once and they only have limited opportunities to run in a race like the Belmont."

He continued, "I thought his first stakes attempt in the Peter Pan was a creditable effort. I think some of the horses that he ran against had decent enough form. I think his numbers going into this race say that he is competitive."

Meantime is a half-brother to MGISW Sweet Reason (Street Sense), who did her best work going a one-turn mile or shorter, and his dam Livermore Leslie was also a sprinter. However, his sophomore sire Shackleford won the GI Preakness S. and Lynch feels Meantime can see out the Belmont's 12 furlongs if things go smoothly.

"[The distance] is the big question mark," the 57-year-old commented. "His pedigree says he is probably not a mile and a half horse. I feel like they can all get a mile and a half. It just depends who they are running against. If we are lucky enough to get him to relax out there and he can get into a good rhythm, I think he will get the mile and a half."

Lynch has the right man for the job in the irons in "Big Money" Mike Smith, who will be aboard for the first time Saturday.

"Mike and I have a long rapport," he explained. "I trained in California for a long time before I came out here. They approached me asking if I was open for a rider. I know when Mike's got the confidence to ride something and I've got the confidence to run that we are both on the same page. Hopefully they have good chemistry and we get a solid performance out of him."

Meantime drew post nine for the Belmont and was given a 15-1 quote on the morning-line.

"It would have been nice to have drawn inside, but I think he has tactical speed," Lynch offered. "It's a nice long run to the first turn, so he has plenty of time to get good position going into the first turn."

Regardless of the result Saturday, Lynch is just happy to participate in his first American Triple Crown race.

"I would absolutely be ecstatic [if we won]," the affable horsemen said. "Just to be in the race and feel like I've got a competitive horse is thrilling enough, but to win it would be overwhelming."

Brendan Walsh: Multiplier

While Lynch is based at Belmont, Brendan Walsh made the trip in from Keeneland for the final leg of the Triple Crown and has set up shop in the barn of his friend Tom Morley. The Irishman, who went out on his own in 2011, is participating in his second Triple Crown race Saturday, having saddled GIII Illinois Derby winner Multiplier (The Factor) to a sixth-place finish in the Preakness May 20.

"I've been to Belmont a bunch of times, but it is different when it's your own horse," remarked Walsh just minutes after returning from the track with Morley aboard a stable pony. "It's what everybody dreams about. It's what I dreamt about when I was younger, being live in races like this."

Brendan Walsh aboard Multiplier Friday | Christie DeBernardis

He continued, "It's just fantastic. You kind of have to pinch yourself to see if it is really happening, especially because I haven't been training that long. Some really good trainers go their whole career without having a runner in a Classic for one reason or another, so it is really great to be here."

While the Preakness is a major race in its own right, Walsh had his sights set on the Belmont all along and used the Middle Jewel of the Triple Crown as a stepping stone to get here.

"I always thought this would be his race," the 44-year-old commented. "Obviously, we didn't want to not run him in between because him being who he is, he needs to be kept racing. We were going to the Preakness to win, but what I really wanted was him to run a good enough race to justify coming here and he did."

Multiplier spent a couple of days at Churchill Downs with Walsh's assistant Tom Molloy following his final work at Keeneland last Saturday and arrived in New York Tuesday with Molloy and foreman/exercise rider Richelle Duhon. Walsh, who was Multiplier's regular morning rider throughout Preakness week, was reunited with his charge Thursday evening and climbed aboard the roan colt Friday morning for a spin around Big Sandy.

"He felt super. I couldn't be happier," Walsh enthused. "He is getting over [the surface] really good. Seems like he likes it actually. My assistant said that about him too. He said he is really moving great and he hasn't been on him in a long time."

Multiplier is from the first crop of MGISW sprinter The Factor and his dam Trippi Street's two wins came at six furlongs, but Walsh truly believes his pupil wants to go long.

"If you didn't show me his pedigree, I'd say he is crying out to go a mile and a half," the horsemen insisted. "Obviously people have a doubt when they look at the pedigree, but down further in his pedigree he's got some stamina. His temperament says he will stay and his running style says he will stay. The first thing Joel [Rosario] said to me after the Preakness was, 'If you go to the Belmont, I'd really like to ride the horse again.'"

Adding blinkers for this test, Multiplier breaks alongside Meantime in post 10 and was also given a 15-1 chance on the morning-line.

Multiplier in his temporary stall in Barn 12A | Christie DeBernardis

"I had a good look at the race last night," Walsh said. "There are a couple of horses that look like they are going to be right up there. It doesn't look like it will go super fast on the face of it. I think we will be closer than we were in the Preakness. The outside draw is a little new for him, but I don't think draw really makes a difference here."

He added, "Looking at the track this morning, there is a massive run to the first turn and it is not an overly big field. I think everyone will get in where they are no deeper than three wide or you'd hope that anyway. Joel knows him now. I think that is important too. He is a tricky horse to get on the first time so I think that will be a big advantage as well."

When asked what winning a Triple Crown race would mean to him, especially after just six years of training on his own, Walsh took a moment to let the idea sink in.

"It would mean everything," the Cork County native offered. "It would be unreal. I don't think you would know what it is like until it actually happened. It would definitely be the highlight of my career, if not the highlight of my life."

NYRA TO OFFER BONUS FOR JAPAN-BASED HORSES IN 2018

A $1-million bonus will be offered for the second consecutive year to the connections of any Japan-based horse who wins the $1.5-million GI Belmont S. presented by NYRA Bets in 2018, NYRA announced Friday. For 2017, the connections of Epicharis (Jpn) (Gold Allure {Jpn}) are eligible to win the inaugural bonus, on top of the $800,000 winner's share of the purse. A horse must have made at least three starts in Japan prior to starting in the Belmont (Epicharis made four) and also be nominated to the American Triple Crown. Wagering on the 2017 Belmont S. will be conducted through a separate, non-comingled pool after an agreement was reached between NYRA and the Japan Racing Association (JRA) and the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries of Japan.

NYRA will provide a live simulcast in Japan accessible through Green Channel, the JRA's official racing cable network channel, as well as replays of the race at the JRA's on- and off-course facilities, JRA racing programs on Fuji Television Network and Television Tokyo, and on the JRA's website at www.jra.go.jp/sp.jra.jp, to be geo-filtered within Japan. Wagering will be available via JRA's internet betting platform, PAT.

ONE 'MOR' BELMONT DAY CHANCE FOR BAFFERT by Brian DiDonato

While Triple Crown-winning trainer Bob Baffert won't take part in this year's GI Belmont S., he'll saddle four morning-line favorites on Saturday's blockbuster card, capped by Mor Spirit (Eskendereya) in the $1.2-million GI Metropolitan H. A Grade I winner in 2015 and GI Kentucky Derby competitor last term, the Michael Lund Petersen colorbearer has found the best form of his career in his last two outings. He cruised to an easy tally in Oaklawn's Essex H. Mar. 18, and earned a career-best 107 Beyer Speed Figure for a romp in Lone Star's two-turn GIII Steve Sexton Mile May 7. The one-turn configuration of this historic race is something of a question mark for Mor Spirit, however. Second in his sprint debut, his only other race around one bend was a fourth behind G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen winner Mind Your Biscuits (Posse) and Sharp Azteca (Freud) in the GI Malibu S. Speedy Sharp Azteca figures to show the way here, and can be borderline brilliant on his best day. He bounced back from his defeat at the hooves of Mind Your Biscuits in the Malibu to drill Awesome Slew (Awesome Again) and Tommy Macho (Macho Uno) in Gulfstream's GII Gulfstream Park H. Feb. 11, and was a good third when wide and on a hot pace in the G2 Godolphin Mile Mar. 25.

"Sharp Azteca came out of the race in Dubai in great condition," Navarro told a member of the NYRA press department. "We gave him some time and he recouped really fast. He's had four workouts here at Monmouth Park and he's worked super. He's doing great for the race."

The New Jersey-based conditioned added, "I don't want to brag, but the horse up to right now is doing good. A lot of people when they go to Dubai they always say that they're not the same. The horse is doing the same as always. I haven't seen anything different from him. He's training really good. We'll see how good on Saturday."

Awesome Slew returned to beat a good group in the GIII Commonwealth S. at Keeneland Apr. 8, and was beaten a head after some traffic trouble in the GII Churchill Downs S. May 6. Tom's Ready (More Than Ready), winner of the GII Woody Stephens S. 12 months ago, was third, with Solid Wager (Birdonthewire) fourth and GISW Denman's Call (Northern Afleet) seventh.

Tommy Macho, meanwhile, has run the two best races of his career at a one-turn mile in Grade III victories at Gulfstream. He was third with well-documented trouble in the GI Carter H. at the Big A Apr. 8. Todd Pletcher, a two-time winner of the Met Mile, will be represented by both Tommy Macho and last-out big-fig allowance winner Rally Cry (Uncle Mo).

PLENTY OF SHOTS IN STRONG MANHATTAN

World Approval | Sarah Andrew

by Joe Bianca

Nine horses from many different directions will face off in the GI Woodford Reserve Manhattan S. at Belmont in a tough field, highlighted by a quartet of American-based Grade I winners, a classy recent import and an intriguing German shipper.

Narrow morning-line favoritism lies with Live Oak Plantation's World Approval (Northern Afleet), who was third behind superstar turfer Flintshire (GB) (Dansili {GB}) in this race last year before earning his first top-level tally in the GI United Nations S. Unable to connect in his final three starts as a 4-year-old, the gray is two-for-two so far this season, including a convincing score in the GII Dixie S. last out May 20 at Pimlico.

Gunpowder Farms' Divisidero (Kitten's Joy) will try to transfer his strong Churchill Downs form to New York after capturing the GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic S. for the second consecutive year in Louisville, where he also annexed the GII American Turf S. in 2015. Fifth with a wide trip in last year's Manhattan, the bay does own a win over the course, in the Pennine Ridge S. two springs ago. Cont. p19

Juddmonte Farms' Time Test (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), a four-time group stakes winner in his native Great Britain, will try to bounce back after running second as the odds-on choice in the GIII Fort Marcy S. here May 6, his first start for trainer Chad Brown. The 5-year-old looked like a sure winner in deep stretch that day, but was out-gamed by a longshot on the wire.

Brown, who has won three straight Manhattans and four of the last five, will also be represented by Beach Patrol (Lemon Drop Kid), winner of the GI Secretariat S. last summer at Arlington; and Wake Forest (Ger) (Sir Percy {GB}), victor of the GI Man O' War S. on this course last spring. The former has crossed the wire second in all four starts since that victory, and was most recently run down late by Divisidero after setting the pace in the Turf Classic, while the latter was a no-factor fifth in defense of his Man o' War crown last out May 13.

Gestut Faerhof and Allofs Klaus's Potemkin (Ger) (New Approach {Ire}) makes his Stateside debut for preeminent German trainer Andreas Wohler. A dual group stakes winner in his homeland, the gelding shipped elsewhere in Europe last fall with no issue, conquering the French G2 Qatar Prix Dollar Oct. 1 at Chantilly and Italian G1 Premio Roma GBI Racing Nov. 6 at Capannelle.

Woodslane Farm's Sadler's Joy (Kitten's Joy) isn't without a hope. The chestnut developed steadily against lesser company throughout his 2016 campaign and stamped himself as a legitimate stakes horse with a close second in the GIII William L. McKnight H. Jan. 28 at Gulfstream and a win in the GII Pan American S. there one start later. He most recently checked in third with significant traffic trouble in the Man o' War.

PLENTY OF CHALLENGERS FOR OAKS WINNER IN ACORN by Brian DiDonato

by Brian DiDonato

GI Kentucky Oaks heroine Abel Tasman (Quality Road) takes on a legitimate group of seven challengers in Saturday's GI Acorn S. at Belmont Park. Second on the trainer change to Bob Baffert in the GI Santa Anita Oaks Apr. 8, the bay was dismissed at 9-1 on the first Saturday in May and rallied over the top from a mile out of it to score in the slop. GII Gulfstream Park Oaks heroine Salty (Quality Road) was fifth that day and likely would've finished better if she hadn't been cut off in upper stretch, while GII Forward Gal S. heroine Tequilita (Union Rags) checked in seventh.

"We knew she should run well, but the way the track was playing that day we were up against it," three-time Acorn-winning trainer Bob Baffert told the NYRA press office in reference to Abel Tasman's Oaks victory. "We were outside and checked into the first turn and then she was last, so I thought we completely had no chance at all, then she came around and won. The fast pace was in our favor. Our post and the way she went into the first turn wasn't in our favor. She's such a quality filly. I think she's improving; she's better now than she was then. She'll have to show a little bit more speed. I don't know how she's going to do going the one-turn mile, but sometimes a good horse can overcome it." Cont. p20

Competing earlier on the card were Benner Island (Speightstown) and Union Strike (Union Rags), one-two respectively with a head between them in the GII Eight Belles S. The former took a surprising amount of tote action down to 34-10 favoritism and attended the pace inside. She was cutting back off a sixth-place run in the GIII Fantasy S. at Oaklawn Apr. 14. Union Strike, last September's GI Del Mar Debutante winner, returned to winning ways in Santa Anita's Santa Paula S. Apr. 9 and shifted out and flew home late to find herself on the wrong side of the Eight Belles bob.

Speedy 'TDN Rising Star' Florida Fabulous (High Cotton) has a live look at a big price. Unable to make the lead after being squeezed out at the start, she seemed to struggle over the wet going in the Eight Belles and faded to 10th. Her connections show confidence by bringing her back in this tough spot, and she could just take them all the way.

Sweet Loretta (Tapit) annexed last July's GIII Schuylerville S. and dead-heated in the GI Spinaway S., but was 11th after a rough trip in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Nov. 5. She bounced back with a comfy score in the GIII Adena Springs Beaumont S. at Keeneland Apr. 9.

CELESTINE GOES FOR JUST A GAME REPEAT

by Joe Bianca

It wasn't quite Frosted (Tapit)'s 13 1/2-length demolition in the GI Mohegan Sun Metropolitan H., but the next most impressive performance on last year's GI Belmont S. card likely belonged to Celestine (Scat Daddy), who dazzled in a dominant GI Longines Just A Game S. victory, covering a mile on turf in 1:31.64, just one hundredth of a second off of Elusive Quality (Gone West)'s course record. The now 5-year-old mare will go for a repeat in the $700,000 race Saturday, but will have no guarantees against a short, but salty field of grass milers.

Purchased by Moyglare Stud Farm from Phaedrus Flights LLC for $2.55 million at last term's Keeneland November sale, Celestine is two-for-two for new trainer Christophe Clement, and will make her first start since wiring the GII Honey Fox S. Apr. 1 at Gulfstream, a race she won last year as a springboard to her Just A Game heroics.

Celestine is the third choice on the morning line, however, as favoritism rests with win machine Roca Rojo (Ire) (Strategic Prince {GB}). Capturing her first two starts in her native Ireland in the spring of 2015, the bay scored in her U.S. debut for the Chad Brown barn last June and has won three of five since, including a game victory in the GII Distaff Turf Mile S. in her seasonal debut May 6 at Churchill. The Just A Game is one of the few major New York turf stakes her Eclipse-winning conditioner has yet to land.

Godolphin Racing's Dickinson (Medaglia d'Oro) was a middling dirt horse for the first eight starts of her career, but sprung to life when switching to turf late last summer at Parx, dominating an allowance/optional claiming event there Sept. 6. She followed that up with a high-priced optional claimer victory over course and distance and, after suffering her only turf loss to date when fourth in the GIII Marshua's River S., annexed the GIII Suwanee River S. and GII Hillsborough S. The Kiaran McLaughlin trainee's development crested when she picked off superstar Lady Eli (Divine Park) in the GI Jenny Wiley S. last out Apr. 15 at Keeneland. Cont. p21

One sleeper who cannot be overlooked is Juddmonte Farms' Antonoe (First Defence). A victress of her first two outings as a juvenile, including the G3 Prix d'Aumale at Chantilly, the dark bay went winless in her next four starts, but blew away a field of allowance foes off of a near eight-month layoff Apr. 14 at Keeneland in her first start for the Brown stable.

'ANTHEM' COMES EAST FOR WOODY STEPHENS

by Brian DiDonato

California-based American Anthem (Bodemeister) ships into New York to take on a talented group in the GII Woody Stephens S. for sophomore sprinters. Beaten a head by GI Belmont S. competitor Gormley (Malibu Moon) in the one-mile GIII Sham S. at Santa Anita in January, the colt checked in a disappointing 10th in the GII Rebel S. at Oaklawn Mar. 18, and 12th in the GI Santa Anita Derby Apr. 8 again behind Gormley. Shortened up to seven panels for the GIII Lazaro Barrera Memorial S. in Arcadia May 13, the $435,000 OBSMAR acquisition bested a solid field while earning a career- and field-best 98 Beyer Speed Figure.

"That was a huge effort last time coming off of those other races," American Anthem's Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert, who won this race emphatically three years ago with Bayern (Offlee Wild), told the NYRA notes team. "If he can run that race back he's going to be very competitive. Eventually I want to stretch him out. I thought about the Easy Goer [S. earlier on the card] because of the mile and a sixteenth [distance], but the Woody Stephens is a big race, so we'll take a shot there."

Another coming off a bounce-back graded win is Calumet homebred Wild Shot (Trappe Shot). The Rusty Arnold trainee hit the board in several two-turn events late last year and on the Triple Crown trail, but was last of seven after controlling the pace in the GII Blue Grass S. at Keeneland Apr. 8. The bay was very impressive pressing and drawing off to a four-length score in the one-turn GIII Pat Day Mile on GI Kenucky Derby day May 6.

Alpha Delta Stables homebred Long Haul Bay (Quality Road) got up by a nose to graduate over a pair of next-out winners in New York-bred company at Aqueduct Feb. 18, and was pounded late in the wagering before uncorking a wide rally en route to a comfortable tally in the GIII Bay Shore S. at this distance Apr. 8.

'TDN Rising Star' Recruiting Ready (Algorithms) has been just about unstoppable since his connections committed to keeping him sprinting. He returned to winning ways in a Laurel allowance Mar. 10, and crushed his competition in Oaklawn's Bachelor S. Apr. 13. The bay ran away with Pimlico's Chick Lang S. on GI Preakness S. day three weeks ago.

Wesley Ward does a lot of things well, but he has one specialty that stands above the rest-his ability to win at the Royal Ascot meet. No American-based trainer has come close to what he has done there, which is to win seven races at what is one of the most prestigious race meets in the world. Ward, who will send a large contingent to England for this year's meet, is this week's guest on the Thoroughbred Daily News podcast, brought to you by Taylor Made.

SEND IT IN, TU BRUTUS REMATCH IN BROOKLYN

Tu Brutus (Chi) | Viola Jasko

by Joe Bianca

It didn't seem like an especially important result at the time when Paul Pompa Jr.'s homebred Send It In (Big Brown) ran down Chilean import Tu Brutus (Chi) (Scat Daddy) by a half-length in the GIII Excelsior S. Apr. 8 at Aqueduct, but once it was revealed that the race earned a 119 Beyer Speed Figure, the race took on much greater significance. Now, those two runners will do battle once again, along with six other challengers, in the 12-furlong GII Brooklyn S. Saturday at Belmont.

Send It In, who hasn't been out of the trifecta since August of 2015, captured the New York-bred Alex M. Robb S. and Haynesfield S. over the winter at the Big A, and was third after a poor start in the open Stymie S. before his big-figure score. The Excelsior was Send It In's first try at 1 1/4 miles, and he'll have to traverse another quarter-mile in the Brooklyn.

"We feel he's well-suited to the 1 1/2 miles," trainer Todd Pletcher told the NYRA notes team. "He's the kind of horse that keeps plugging away, and he continues to improve. He's got the right kind of disposition for a horse that wants to go a distance of ground; he settles in well and he's not overly aggressive."

Unlike Send It In, Tu Brutus has run since the Excelsior, and the chestnut went a long way toward legitimizing the race's Beyer with an 11-length romp in the Flat Out S. going 1 3/8 miles on this oval May 7. He has returned to breeze four times since that effort, including a bullet five-furlong spin over the local training surface in 1:02 3/5 (1/5) May 30. Trainer Gary Contessa says that Tu Brutus is a fitter horse to face Send It In this time around.

"I really wanted him to have one under his belt before I ran him in the Excelsior, so my feeling was he was maybe 75-80% ready and boy, he ran his eyeballs out," Contessa told the TDN last month. "I really think that my horse is a better horse than he was when he ran in the Excelsior."

If the two favorites, who will break side-by-side, are to encounter an upsetter, it's likely to be one from a trio of tri-state based runners.

Jump Sucker Stable and Oak Bluff Stables' Governor Malibu (Malibu Moon) finished second in both the GII Peter Pan S. and GII Jim Dandy S. last year, but has gone winless in four straight, and runs back on just 12 days rest after running third in the New York-bred Commentator S. here May 29.

Dennis Drazin's Sunny Ridge (Holy Bull), second in the 2015 GI Champagne S. and a winner of the GIII Withers S. last winter, knocked off Send It In in the Stymie before running a dull sixth in the sloppy GII Charles Town Classic last out Apr. 22.

War Story (Northern Afleet), who crushed Sunny Ridge en route to earning a 106 Beyer in the Queens County S. Dec. 17 at Aqueduct, was not disgraced when fifth behind champion Arrogate (Unbridled's Song) in the GI Pegasus World Cup Invitational and filled the same slot in the GIII Fred S. before checked in a close third in the Charles Town Classic.

Let loose on the front end yet again Friday, Lael Stable's Hawksmoor ran off with the New York for her second straight graded victory. Taking up her preferred position at the head of affairs, the bay ticked off comfortable opening splits of :24.27, :49.72 and 1:15.57 with Quidura (GB) tracking from second. Quidura turned up the heat a bit as Hawksmoor showed the way into the lane and Sea Calisi (Fr) (Youmzain {Ire}) began to make her run from the back, but it was too little, too late. Hawksmoor kept on finding and pulled clear to score.

"She can do whatever you want," offered winning pilot Julien Leparoux, who first partnered with Hawksmoor last out. "She proved today that she can go a mile and a quarter. I think she can go even longer if we need to, so she's very versatile with distance and how the track is."

Previously campaigned in Europe by Hugo Palmer, 2015 G3 Prestige S. victress Hawksmoor captured the G2 German 1000 Guineas last June and checked in third in the G2 Kilboy Estate S. a month later. Off the board in Leopardstown's G1 Matron S. Sept. 10, the bay made the trip across the pond for Keeneland's GI QEII Challenge Cup Oct. 15, finishing a close third in her final start for Palmer. Transferred to Delacour, Hawksmoor was sixth over a Churchill course rated good in the GII Mrs. Revere S. Nov. 25 and scored her first win on these shores last time when wiring the local GIII Beaugay S. over a yielding course May 13.

"I wasn't surprised when they left her alone out there," trainer Arnaud Delacour said. "I got a little worried when I saw the opening quarter because it looked like she was pulling a little bit, but when I saw the time at the half-mile pole in 49.72 [seconds] I was very happy. I knew they were going to have to come and get her and she did good. I don't really know the filly too well. But obviously, she proved today that she can run with an efficient turn of foot on firm turf, which was the question mark, so we're very delighted."

Pedigree Notes:

In addition to Hawksmoor, unplaced Bridal Dance (Ire) is responsible for the 3-year-old Magical Fire (Ire) (Dragon Pulse {Ire}), who finished second in last season's G2 Duchess of Cambridge S. at Newmarket. Bridal Dance is also responsible for the 2-year-old colt Salsa Verde (Ire) (Canford Cliffs {Ire}) and a yearling filly by Dark Angel (Ire). Bridal Dance is a half-sibling to Millennium Dragon (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}), winner of the GIII Appleton H. and runner up in six graded stakes, including the GI Manhattan H. Hawksmoor also traces her lineage back to U.S. Horse of the Year and Champion Turf Horse Kotashaan (Fr) (Darshaan {GB}).

Heavy favorite Whitmore simply never looked like himself returning on short rest here, and California invader Roy H capitalized in what was the first graded stakes try of his career. Scrubbed on to draft from fourth perched just off an opening quarter in :22.28, he ranged up four deep under an extremely confident Paco Lopez turning for home to seize command. Stallwalkin' Dude came with his run late, but had too much left to do to make a serious race of it. Whitmore, who seemed to struggle gripping the track and handling the turn--just like he did before coming alive late and annexing the GIII Maryland Sprint S. May 20--finally found his footing too close to home to check in a distant third.

"He was ready," Lopez said. "I didn't want to make the lead. I was in good position this time. I waited and let him go and he finished very well. I had a good break and the horse put me right there. It was an easy ride. He's good."

Roy H had made nine of his previous 13 starts on the grass. He kicked off his 5-year-old season with a down-the-hill victory at Santa Anita Apr. 8, but rain forced a May 6 optional claimer onto the Arcadia main track, and the bay aired by 7 1/2 lengths over a wet/fast surface, good for a 106 Beyer Speed Figure.

"That was unbelievable," offered elated winning trainer Peter Miller. "This horse ran super. My assistant, Reuben Alvarado, has been training this horse at Santa Anita with my second string and he's done a super job, so I want to say thank you to him and to [owner], Mr. Hartunian. This is his first time running outside of California and he shipped great. He really did everything just professional, and Paco gave him a great ride. Paco's ridden winners for me in the past at Monmouth and in California when he's come out. We love Paco. He's my kind of rider: speed."

Miller has done well in recent years shipping to the NYRA circuit. He took the GII Kelso H. here in 2015 with Appealing Tale (Tale of the Cat) and the 2013 GIII Tom Fool H. with Comma to the Top (Bwana Charlie). He also finished a narrow second in last year's GI Carter H. with Calculator (In Summation).

"If you didn't know the horse, you might think this was an ambitious spot for him," Miller added of Roy H. "If I were to just look at the form, I would have thought so. But I thought this horse was a graded stakes horse from day one. Unfortunately, a lot of little things prevented him from being that [before], but he showed what he's about today, and I think you're going to hear a lot more from Roy H."

Pedigree Notes:

Roy H is a son of the talented and versatile racemare Elusive Diva, a graded stakes winner on both turf and dirt. She sold for $1.6 million at the 2006 Keeneland November sale carrying her first foal by Distorted Humor, and was acquired by Roy H's breeder for $825,000 at Keeneland January three years later in foal to Giant's Causeway. The half-sister to British GSW/G1SP Tropics (Speightstown) sold for $75,000 to Calumet Farm carrying a still-unraced now 3-year-old filly named Libbyris (Algorithms) at KEENOV '13. She has an unraced 2-year-old colt named Call Me McLintock (Point Given), a yearling filly by Oxbow and foal colt by English Channel.

The European invaders came out in full force for this event in its first year with graded status, and they dominated as many expected them to with a 1-2-3-4 finish capped by the race favorite Red Cardinal. The 5-year-old gelding took up a midpack spot while saving ground early as Roman Approval (Roman Ruler) rushed out to lead by double digits. He came off the inside and took slightly closer order as the field bunched down the backside for the final time, and pilot Eduardo Pedroza kept his mount well out into the clear as they approached the quarter pole. The dark bay ranged up powerfully as noses pointed for home, showed a quick burst to take command and held off a late challenge from St Michel to earn his second-straight grade/group tally.

"My plan was to go in the middle of the field and let him be behind horses," explained Pedroza, who was celebrating his first Stateside victory after five prior tries. "He was very relaxed. He gave me a good feeling all the way. He went very easy [and] was feeling very good today. I waited for a long time to ask my horse. The other horses looked like they were getting a little bit tired coming around the corner, and I said I would wait a little bit more so I could make the move. I could do that because he has good acceleration. I asked him one time and he came back and [I] waited a little bit more. The second time I asked, he went very easy. He has good acceleration, so he can do that."

Lightly raced, but never off the board in his career, Red Cardinal began his career in Great Britain with David Simcock, and was purchased privately by Luke Murrell and Jamie Lovett's Australian Bloodstock--winners of the 2015 G1 Melbourne Cup with Protectionist (Ger)--after a Yarmouth handicap victory last June. Third in Newbury's G3 Geoffrey Freer S. Aug. 13, he was subsequently sent to Germany's Andreas Wohler to finish a close second in Cologne's G1 Preis von Europa in September. He had last been seen taking Hoppegarten's G2 Oleander-Rennen May 14 in his first attempt at this two-mile trip.

"He started very late in his career and hasn't had many races and keeps improving," said Wohler, who won the 2001 GI Arlington Million S. with Silvano (Ger) and will be represented Saturday in the GI Woodford Reserve Manhattan S. with Potemkin (Ger) (New Approach {Ire}). "He's progressing and we're quite happy with where he is right now.

Red Cardinal's long-term goal will be the G1 Melbourne Cup Nov. 7.

"He'll probably have his next race in France," Wohler noted. "He then could race in Germany or in Australia itself. We want to give him a little break before he comes back. He'll be fresh for the campaign then."

Pedigree Notes:

Red Cardinal hails from a deep Juddmonte family, and his dam is a half to GSW Orford Ness (GB) (Selkirk), who produced a pair of group winners herself. This is the extended female family of 2006 GI Matriarch S. winner Price Tag (GB) (Dansili {GB}). Notable has an unraced 2-year-old colt named Proschema (Ire) (Declaration of War) and a yearling filly by Camelot (GB).

Breaking outward a bit, By the Moon was quickly righted by Rajiv Maragh and sent up to press pacesetting Mia Torri from second through a half in :47.37. Ranging up to stick her nose in front turning for home, the chalk dug in gamely to hold off a stubborn Mia Torri and late-running Lightstream in the final sixteenth. Mia Torri held second by a head.

"She showed up again as usual," commented winning trainer Michelle Nevin. "She always tries and it was another great effort. She looked so comfortable and [Rajiv] had her in a perfect spot. When he asked her to pick up her gears, she was right there for him."

Rajiv Maragh was all smiles returning to the winner's circle aboard By the Moon | Christie DeBernardis

Winner of the 2014 GI Frizette S., By the Moon is four for five at Belmont, with her lone loss over this surface being a neck second to Curalina (Curlin) in the 2015 GI Acorn S. Kicking off this term with a neck second to the reopposing High Ridge Road (Quality Road) in Laurel's GII Barbara Fritchie S. Feb. 18, the dark bay was last seen capturing a sloppy renewal of this venue's GIII Vagrancy S. May 5.

Pedigree Notes:

The winner's dam By the Light, a $190,000 Fasig-Tipton October yearling purchase, carried the Jay Em Ess Stable colors to nine stakes victories and a runner-up finish behind champion Indian Blessing (Indian Charlie) in the 2008 GI Prioress S. She has also produced the 3-year-old colt Wonderful Light (Tiz Wonderful), who finished third on debut May 13; a 2-year-old filly Warrior of Light (Warrior's Reward); and a yearling filly by Super Saver. She foaled an Uncle Mo colt May 20 of this year.

BARRETTS SHIFTS PADDOCK SALE DATE

Barretts has shifted the date of its upcoming Paddock Sale at Del Mar from Sunday, July 30 to Wednesday, July 26 and the under-tack preview will be held Monday, July 24.

"The plan was always to go to a Monday preview and Wednesday sale day in 2018, but we've had a lot of interest in this year's sale, so we thought it would be easier for all involved to go ahead and change the dates this year," explained Barretts General Manager Kim Lloyd. "Even though it's only a few days earlier, we thought having the sale earlier in the meet would give people a better chance to be able to run their horses at the meet."

Moving the sale away from the busy weekends and to a shorter race day at Del Mar will also put more focus on the auction, according to Lloyd.

"Del Mar is so full of activities, we thought moving the sale away from the weekend would give us a better chance to highlight our sale," he confirmed.

Barretts is now in its third year of selling at Del Mar and the sales company continues to tinker with its schedule. It announced last month that it was combining its two 2-year-olds in training sales into one auction. The shift of the Paddock Sale date is a continuation of those adjustments.

"Since we moved to Del Mar, it's been an ongoing process to find what would work best for our buyers and consignors, particularly for members of the California racing industry," Lloyd said. "So this is just another step in that process."

A RISING STAR PROCLAMATION

Emancipation (Malibu Moon), a full-brother to none other than 2013 GI Kentucky Derby winner and promising first-crop sire Orb ($2,612,516), came with a stinging late rally down the center of the Belmont main track and raced past favored Marshall Plan (Speightstown) to cause a 29-1 upset in Friday's fourth race at Belmont Park. Drawn widest in this field of 12, Emancipation was one of the first to break the line, but drifted back through the field to lope along from second-last through the opening exchanges. Busily ridden on the turn by Jose Ortiz, Emancipation was swung out widest entering the stretch, but still had the better part of 10 lengths to make up on the front-running Marshall Plan. But the homebred colt went through his gears once swapping over to his correct lead about a furlong and a half from the wire and roared past Marshall Plan for a good-looking victory. Heavily bet firster Mr Classical (Bernardini) took some time to find his best stride and weaved his way through between rivals to finish a running-on third. The winner's second dam was victorious in the GII Black-Eyed Susan S. in 1996, while his SW & GSP third dam Steel Maiden (Damascus) was a half-sister to GISW Private Terms. Lady Liberty, who died earlier this year, is the dam of Orb and Emancipation's 2-year-old fill-brother Personal Time and she produced a colt by Honor Code Feb. 22.

HARD SPUN COLT 'ROCKETS' TO RISING STARDOM

Trying 11 furlongs off a fast-finishing third going a mile and a quarter last time, Centennial Farm's Rocketry (Hard Spun) ran to his moniker and raced home to become Friday's second TDN Rising Star on the Belmont program. The scopey bay colt dropped better than 10 lengths out of it early on as they went a sharp pace for the trip and he remained in the latter third of the field for the better part of the opening mile. Still ridden cold midway on the second turn, Rocketry responded immediately when asked by Jose Ortiz and the duo swooped past rivals to lead with an eighth of a mile to run. From there it was a matter of how far, as Rocketry sprinted hard for a horse of his size and covered his final eighth of a mile in :10.89 to score by about four lengths. A $195,000 Keeneland November weanling, Rocketry was scooped up by the Centennial braintrust for $450,000 at the 2015 Keeneland September sale. That price was second-best among the 42 Hard Spun yearlings sold that year; Woodford Racing paid $500,000 for the Hard Spun colt out of Azorina, who, raced as Timeline, is also a TDN Rising Star and remained perfect in three starts with a 3 1/2-length defeat of GI Belmont S. hopeful Meantime (Shackleford) in the May 13 GIII Peter Pan S. Smart Farming is the dam of the 2-year-old filly Smart Stuff (To Honor and Serve) and a yearling colt by Tapit. She did not produce a foal this year.

He Hate Me makes it two for two in the Tremont | Sarah K Andrew

Making his stakes debut on two weeks' rest, Sagamore Farm's He Hate Me was the recipient of a patient ride from Ricardo Santana, Jr., pounced on pacesetting Direct Dial (Too Much Bling) with round strides entering the final eighth of a mile and edged clear to take Friday's Tremont S. with some authority.

Exiting a popular victory going 4 1/2 furlongs over the Pimlico main track two Fridays back, He Hate Me took some pari-mutuel action from a morning line of 8-1 into 5-1 at post time. He was content to sit a midfield trip as Direct Dial and Salmanazar (Shackleford) dueled through an enervating opening two furlongs in :22.09 before switching out into the fourth path at the three-sixteenths. He Hate Me lowered the boom on Direct Dial at the eighth pole and pulled away to take it by daylight. Admiral Jimmy (Jimmy Creed), a track-record setter at first asking at Gulfstream May 3, ran on nicely to just miss second.

"This is a really nice horse," said Santana Jr., who with the victory scored his first stakes win in New York. "The first time he ran, he broke bad and he still won the race. He's a class horse. Today, when he broke, he was closer than the last time. At the three-eighths [pole], I just tapped him on the shoulder, and I then just waited. Turning for home, I took him to the outside and the second that he saw he was in the clear, he took off running again." Cont. p3

The dam of a yearling colt by Flat Out, Quiet Holiday was most recently bred to Archarcharch. He Hate Me is the third black-type winner for Algorithms, now two of which are campaigned by Kevin Plank's Sagamore Farm. Recruiting Ready, last-out winner of the May 20 Chick Lang S. on the Preakness S. undercard, will be one of the favorites in Saturday's GII Woody Stephens S. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

ZENNOR (g, 5, Medaglia d'Oro--Zelanda {Ire} {SW-Eng}, by Night Shift) kicked off his 5-year-old season with a Jan. 14 Gulfstream allowance win ahead of a fifth to the classy Highland Sky (Sky Mesa) in Hallandale Feb. 25. He took the overland route when scoring by 3/4 of a length at Keeneland Apr. 15 and was the 17-5 third wagering choice in a tight market at the top. Zennor stumbled a bit at the break, then raced last but one for the opening three-quarters of a mile. Sent three deep into the lane, the gray gelding tackled pacesetting Fox Rules (Roman Ruler) at the furlong grounds and held sway late for the victory. Monster Bea (Hat Trick {Jpn}) came from the back of the pack to cut the winning margin down to a neck. The winner is a half to Pearl Grey (GB) (Gone West), SW & GSP-Eng; and Time Prisoner (Elusive Quality), GSW-Fr, $360,011. Cleanly away, the dark bay settled in a stalking third along the fence through a modest opening quarter in :24.70. Inching closer to the front-running Hello Holiday ( Harlan's Holiday) through a half in :49.43, Bricks and Mortar moved to the outside of that rival for the stretch drive, inched clear in the stretch and kept Snap Decision (Hard Spun) at bay by 3/4 of a length at the wire.

Pounded down to 1-5 favoritism to collect her fourth stakes victory, Chanel's Legacy didn't waste any time getting to the front of the pack.

Allowed to carve out reasonable early splits of :24.33 and :47.94, she was comfortably clear of her nearest pursuer, Nathalie's Mischief, turning for home. Stretched to what is likely the end of her scope, Chanel's Legacy allowed her rival to inch up on her late, but had enough to fend her off at the wire. A winner of two of five starts at two, including the 6 1/2-furlong E. L. Gaylord Memorial S. at Remington in October, Chanel's Legacy added a pair of stakes wins this winter in Oaklawn's Dixie Belle S. over six furlongs and the one-mile Martha Washington S. A well-beaten 10th when stepping up in class and trip for the 1 1/16-mile GIII Honeybee S. Mar. 11, the grey crossed the wire in third but was promoted to second in the Purple Martin S. at the Hot Springs oval Mar. 25. Giving it another go at 8 1/2 panels for the GIII Fantasy S. Apr. 14, she showed the way early but was caught late and had to settle for the runner-up spot. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Runner up in the Woodbine Oaks in preparation for the Canadian Classics, she finished seventh while trying the boys in the Queen's Plate July 3. Seventh in the 10-furlong Wonder Where S. on the grass later in August, Gamble's Ghost was fourth after returning from a spell in a seven-furlong, $80,000 optional claimer over Keeneland's main track Apr. 23. Installed the 6-5 choice to record her first win of the season, the 'TDN Rising Star' trailed the seven-horse field through opening splits of :24.77 and :49.16. Gaining ground while splitting horses approaching the quarter pole, the four-year-old was brought out a few paths to put herself into contention turning for home, drew even farther out midstretch and was up in time to score by 1 1/4 lengths over Meadow Rose (Ghostzapper), posting a one-two finish for Adena stallion Ghostzapper. +SURRENDER NOW (f, 2, Morning Line--Surrender, by Stormy Atlantic) became the second winner for her freshman sire (by Tiznow) with this clear-cut success. Sent off the 5-2 second choice behind piping-hot favorite Tyfosha (Flatter), partially off a recent best-of-13 half-mile in :46 3/5 from the gate at San Luis Rey Downs June 2, Surrender Now landed in a stalking second, with Tyfosha making ground to her outside as they hit the turn. With the chalk feeling the whip nearing the quarter pole, Surrender Now looked to always be traveling much better of the duo and cruised in a two-length winner. Surrender is the dam of a yearling colt by Fed Biz (Giant's Causeway) named Tyrannical Rex and was most recently bred to Violence. Surrender Now's third dam MGSW Mackie (Summer Squall--Glowing Tribute) was a half-sister to GI Kentucky Derby winner Sea Hero and went on to produce Japanese G3 victor Seeking the Best (Ire) (Seeking the Gold) and the aptly named GSW Mr. Mellon (Red Ransom). Mackie, a $550,000 Keeneland November weanling in 1993, was purchased by Britton House Stud for a sales-topping $5 million at Keeneland January in 2000. She later fetched 1.6 million gns in foal to Unbridled's Song at Tattersalls December in 2006. Bernardino Charm, a half-brother to Cool Coal Man, gave Morning Line his first winner in Russia June 4. Bought back on a bid of $19,000 as a KEENOV weanling, she made $40,000 as a KEESEP yearling. Surrender Now breezed an eighth of a mile in :10 and was purchased by these connections for $220,000 at this year's BARMAR sale, the second most expensive of 13 juveniles to sell this season. Phipps Family Honored at Belmont Stakes Event:

The Phipps Family was honored with the inaugural Dinny Phipps Award at the annual Belmont Stakes Charity Celebration, held at Bryant Park Grill in New York City Thursday. Longstanding owner and a stalwart in the area of equine welfare Earle Mack--who created the award--presented family representatives Ande Phipps and Ogden Phipps II, wife and son of the late Ogden Mills (Dinny) Phipps, with a bronze sculpture created by Odon Wagner Gallery and artist Gary Weisman. The award will be presented annually to an individual or individuals who demonstrate dedication to equine health.

"Dinny was a man of great vision and strength and this award is designed to honor those who demonstrate exemplary and selfless leadership [in the field of equine health]," said Mack. "Dinny and I shared a love of racing and that was the basis of our long friendship.

Phipps, a prominent Thoroughbred owner and breeder, served as the chairman of The Jockey Club from February 1983 until he retired in August 2015. He received numerous honors and awards through the years for his dedication and commitment to the Thoroughbred industry. He died April 6 of last year. Cont. p6

"My father felt a deep obligation to do what was right for the equine," said Phipps II. "He believed that everything we could do for the betterment of the horse was paramount to having our industry move forward and prosper. Simply put, what was good or the horse was good for our industry. I know that when my father left us, he was very proud of his accomplishments in our industry. I also know that he believed that there was more to be done, and I hope this award will be that spark that continues to ignite individuals and organizations to take care of our equine stars and continue to give back to this sport that has given everyone in this room so very much. On behalf of my family, thank you for this honor."

Halters, Including American Pharoah, to Benefit CKRH:

Halters worn by a bevy of racing stalwarts, including Horse of the Year American Pharoah (Pioneerof the Nile), will be offered in an online auction to benefit Central Riding for Hope June 24. In addition to the winner of the 2015 Triple Crown and GI Breeders' Cup Classic, halters worn by Arrogate, California Chrome, Nyquist, Frankel and Speightstown will also be offered at the 'Night of the Stars' which will be held at the Keene Barn & Entertainment Center in Lexington, Kentucky. Online bidding for the halters and other items commence June 12 http://KYSTARS17.gesture.com.

"CKRH is extremely grateful for the community support received through donations of such amazing items for us to auction," said CKRH Executive Director Pat Kline. "Thanks to generosity of prominent Central Kentucky Thoroughbred farms, our wide array of halters worn by famous horses has become a signature feature of our event."

Other items available for online bidding include 1919 carousel horse created by Allan Herschell and professionally restored in the late 1980s by carousel artist Tom Layton; a basketball autographed by the 2014-15 UK Men's Basketball Team that went 38-1; in addition to jewelry, art and photography, antiques and collectibles, equestrian-themed items, gift certificates to local restaurants, tickets to area attractions and items for the home, garden and office.

Farms that donated halters are Adena Springs, Ashford Stud, Claiborne, Coolmore, Darby Dan, Gainesway, Godolphin, Hill 'n' Dale, Old Friends, Ramsey, Spendthrift, Taylor Made and WinStar. Tickets are $150 each or a table for $2,000 and may be purchased by calling CKRH at (859) 231-7066.

BARNEY ROY PRIMED FOR PALACE REMATCH

Trainer Richard Hannon is bullish about the chances of star 3-year-old Barney Roy (GB) (Excelebration {Ire}) in Royal Ascot's G1 St James's Palace S. on June 20, saying he could see the Godolphin colourbearer, "putting it up to Churchill in a big way."

Winner of the G3 Greenham S. over Saeed bin Suroor's Dream Castle (GB) (Frankel {GB}) on Apr. 22, Barney Roy was second by a length to Churchill (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G1 Qipco 2000 Guineas on May 6. While Churchill followed up in the G1 Tattersalls Irish 2000 Guineas three weeks later, Barney Roy has been saved for Ascot, and Hannon said in a release posted on his website, "Barney Roy has come out really well from that run and with a stronger pace he would have finished much closer. The mile at Ascot is right up his street."

Hannon will, predictably, be strongly represented as Ascot, and his 2-year-old contingent will include De Bruyne Horse (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) and Denaar (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}), both headed for the G2 Coventry S. The former took his record to two from three when winning Epsom's Woodcote S. on Derby Day, and Hannon said, "He is a progressive sort and won well at Epsom in spite of the track. He has come out of the Woodcote in great form and continues to take everything in his stride. He is a horse that is still learning his trade and should improve again next time." Cont. p2

HIGHLAND REEL INVITED TO COX PLATE

Last weekend's G1 Coronation S. winner Highland Reel (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) is among the eight international runners invited to the Oct. 28 G1 Cox Plate by the Moonee Valley Racing Club. The 5-year-old entire has contested Australia's famed weight-for-age race before, having finished third behind defending champion Winx (Aus) (Street Cry {Ire}) when she won it for the first time in 2015, and O'Brien himself boasts winning form in the race, having sent out the 2014 victor Adelaide (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).

The other invitees are last year's G1 Caulfield Cup runner-up, Godolphin's Scottish (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}); triple Hong Kong Group 1 winner Werther (NZ) (Tavistock {NZ}); Godolphin's European miler Ribchester (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}); this season's dual Group 1 winner Decorated Knight (GB) (Galileo {Ire}); Al Shaqab's G1 Prix d'Ispahan winner Mekhtaal (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}); G1 QEII Cup winner Neorealism (Jpn) (Neo Universe {Jpn}); and Japanese Classic winner Makahiki (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}).

Al Shaqab Racing's Denaar is two from two, having last run at Newbury on May 20. "He showed he was very tough at Newbury and that run will have brought him on a lot mentally," Hannon said. "I would expect him to improve and run a big race."

Qatar Racing's Natural (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) and Sheikh Hamdan's Tajaanus (Ire) (Arcano {Ire}) are candidates for the G3 Albany S., while Elysium Dream (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}) goes for the Listed Chesham S. Qatar Racing will also be represented by Out of the Flames (GB) (Showcasing {GB}), a three-length maiden winner at Windsor last time, in the G2 Queen Mary S.

"This filly came on markedly, improving plenty from her debut at Ascot," Hannon noted. "She has plenty of pace and has been working very well since her last start. She should be right there at the finish."

Hannon is also set to be represented in the G1 Queen Anne S. on opening day by Oh This Is Us (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}) and Kool Kompany (Ire) (Jeremy). They were third and fourth, respectively, in last weekend's G3 Diomed S. at Epsom.

"They both had traffic problems at Epsom but both ran very well," Hannon explained. "The plan is to head to Ascot and off a strong pace they should both be right there. [Kool Kompany part owner] Neil Werrett is coming over from Australia with a load of the guys and this is a very exciting time for them."

SMART, HERRINGTON OUT OF QUARANTINE

The quarantine placed on trainers Bryan Smart and Michael Herrington due to their association to the yard of Kevin Ryan, which had an Equine Herpesvirus-1 positive, has been lifted. Ryan's yard remains quarantined and the subject of "ongoing testing and surveillance," according to David Sykes, director of Equine Health and Welfare for the BHA.

Smart and Herrington's yards were placed under quarantine because runners under their care had shared a horsebox with runners from Ryan's yard before the virus presented itself, but tests from the Smart and Herrington yards came back clean.

"Following repeat testing and site visits to all affected yards involved in the EHV-1 case, the British Horseracing Authority and Animal Health Trust have agreed that the precautionary quarantine placed on the yards of trainers Bryan Smart and Michael Herrington can be lifted, and the yards are free to declare runners again," said Sykes. "The quarantine restrictions on the yard of Kevin Ryan--the site of the initial case--remain in place, with ongoing testing and surveillance in operation."

WEATHERBYS TO SPONSOR SUPREME

Weatherbys Racing Bank will sponsor the G3 Weatherbys Racing Bank Supreme S. at Goodwood on Aug. 27, bringing its total number of race sponsorships in 2017 to 34.

David Hart, associate director of Weatherbys Racing Bank, said, "Supporting the industry is what we are all about and we are pleased to offer owners and trainers the features of a regular bank account for their racing transactions. Building personal relationships with our clients is key to our success and our race sponsorship helps us achieve this. We are delighted to be sponsoring a group race at Goodwood which has been won by some top horses over the years."

EMHF HOLDS GENERAL ASSEMBLY

The European and Mediterranean Horseracing Federation held its general assembly in Sweden on May 29, hosting representatives of 20 of its 28 member horse racing authorities including Greece, its newest member. The general assembly appointed two new members to its executive council: Helena Gartner, chief administrative officer at the Swedish Horseracing Authority; and Dr Martina Krejci, secretary-general of the Jockey Club of the Czech Republic.

The EMHF reaffirmed its position against anabolic steroids and other prohibited substances. It issued a statement on its commitment to the exclusion, within its member countries' rules of racing, to a total ban on the use of such substances in racing, without therapeutic use exemption. The EMHF also committed to a strong emphasis on out-of-competition testing.

EMHF Chairman Brian Kavanagh said, "The EMHF is committed to the highest standard of doping control procedures and there is unanimous support for a prohibition on the use of steroids from birth to retirement of racehorses, increased out-of-competition testing and no therapeutic use exemption. Where possible, member countries will now reflect this policy in their rules of racing and their doping control procedures, delivering a common approach throughout the region on this key issue."

Also discussed were Brexit implications, namely the importance of impressing upon those conducting Britain's exit from the EU that the freedom of movement of horses between Britain and EU countries should not be impaired.

"Brexit is the biggest challenge to face the European horse racing and breeding industries in a long time," Kavanagh added. "The sophisticated and effective processes which we have developed over the years for the movement of horses and people throughout Europe should not be taken for granted and it is imperative that the interests of the Thoroughbred racing and breeding sector are taken into account during the forthcoming Brexit negotiations. It was reassuring to note the unanimous support across all EMHF members for the protection of the current position, which has been hard-earned over many years."

There are five ballot-exempt races for the Cox Plate, with Kitasan Black (Jpn) (Black Tide {Jpn}), Humidor (NZ) (Teofilo {Ire}) and Jon Snow (NZ) (Iffraaj {GB}) already having secured Cox Plate slots with their wins in the G1 Japan Cup, G1 Australian Cup and G1 ATC Derby, respectively.

"In conjunction with the MVRC we have worked hard to capture horses in peak Group 1 winning form from each of the major racing jurisdictions who represent some of the world's biggest stables and Thoroughbred owners," said Racing Victoria's International Agent Leigh Jordon. "We will continue to monitor the major racing carnivals around the globe and where we see fit may issue further invitations to those we believe warrant it."

RV APPEALS COBALT DECISION

The training careers of Danny O'Brien and Mark Kavanagh are once again hanging in the balance, with Racing Victoria appealing the decision to clear the two trainers of cobalt-related charges in March, according to Racing and Sports. The trainers' bans (four years for O'Brien and three for Kavanagh) were dismissed by the Victorian Civil Administrative Tribunal in March after it was deemed the cobalt was administered to five horses–four for O'Brien and one for Kavanagh–without the trainers' knowledge or suspicion by veterinarian Tom Brennan, who has been charged and banned. The justice also determined that O'Brien and Kavanagh be cleared of presenting the horses to race with cobalt overages because Racing Victoria's testing procedure was flawed.

Racing Victoria argues in the appeal that there was enough evidence to show the horses were racing with elevated cobalt levels, and asks the Court of Appeal to determine the appropriate level of responsibility of the trainer.

BERRY MOVE TO HONG KONG CONFIRMED

by Alan Carasso

Jockey Tommy Berry, who has ridden the likes of Designs On Rome (Ire), Military Attack (Ire) and Helene Paragon (Fr) to feature-race victories for trainer John Moore on frequent visits to Hong Kong, will become the retained rider for the stable, it was confirmed Friday when the licensing committee of the Hong Kong Jockey Club sanctioned the move.

"Basing myself permanently in Hong Kong hadn't been a priority of mine but I've got a great association with John Moore and he has been keen for me to come over and be his stable jockey," Berry told Racing.com. "I've got a young family and I had a think about things and thought the timing was right to make the move now and give it a shot full-time in Hong Kong. Riding in Sydney is demanding on your time, I haven't spent a lot of time with my family over the past 12 months because whenever I've had days off, I've been flying interstate or going to Hong Kong to ride. So by going to Hong Kong full-time, I will be riding two days a week and it gives me a chance to have more of a life with my family."

Berry, now 26, had considered a similar move in recent years, but a variety of circumstances led to him ultimately putting the idea on the back burner.

"When John Moore first asked me in 2012, I felt I was too young to move to Hong Kong,'' Berry told Australia's Daily Telegraph. "Then he asked me again the following year but [twin brother] Nathan had just passed away and I didn't want to leave my family. There has always been something holding me back but now I believe the time is right to go to Hong Kong."

Despite all the success for the Moore barn, arguably Berry's greatest Hong Kong success came via Chauatauqua (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}) in the 2016 G1 Chairman's Sprint Prize. A permanent relocation to Hong Kong could impact his future relationship with that champion, but Berry told the Daily Telegraph that he made the decision to go to Hong Kong with the blessing of Team Hawkes.

"[Co-trainer] John [Hawkes] said this was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity and he basically pushed me out the door,'' Berry told the publication. "But the Hawkes team have been such great supporters of mine and I felt I owed it to John, Michael and Wayne to talk it over with them."

Berry will continue to ride in Sydney through mid-August.
