SEEKING EST-EEM

Whether Newmarket's Future Champions Day proves worthy of its title will be decided over the course of time, but today's renewal of its centerpiece event, the G1 Dubai Dewhurst S., does not appear to carry the weight of some of its predecessors on paper. If there is one who may be capable of stamping some class on proceedings it is Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Estidhkaar (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}), who at least has shown he can handle the conditions after his impressive display when annexing the G2 Superlative S. over this trip on the July Course July 12. Cont. p3

SOLID WOOD

One of the season's premier juveniles, Fiona and Ian Jennings' Ivawood (Ire) (Zebedee {GB}) robs the limelight from the featured G1 Dewhurst S. on today's Future Champions Day card at Newmarket as he puts his unbeaten record on the line in the G1 Middle Park S. Flawless so far, the bay followed a five-furlong maiden score at Sandown June 13 with a demolition job on a rain-soaked July Course here in the G2 July S. over this trip July 10, before easily defying a penalty in Goodwood's G2 Richmond S. again at this distance at the end of July. "This has been Ivawood's main aim since he won at Goodwood and everything has gone smoothly since," trainer Richard Hannon commented. "He is a bull of a horse and very reminiscent of [MG1SW] Toronado (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}), so we hope his strength will enable him to go through the ground. It was soft enough when he won the July Stakes at Newmarket, so we are going back up there with optimism." Cont. p4

LUC BE A LADY

Newmarket's new initiative needs a star filly as well as a colt to illuminate the card and Lucida (Ire) (Shamardal) could be the answer in today's G1 Dubai Fillies' Mile. Cont. p5

Q&A: FASIG-TIPTON's BOYD BROWNING, JR.

Last month, Fasig-Tipton announced it is moving The Florida Sale, one of the top 2-year-old in training sales in the world, to Gulfstream Park for 2015. It marks the third venue in as many years for the auction, which was held at Adena Springs South in Central Florida in 2014, and at the Palm Meadow Training Center in Boynton Beach in 2013. But it is a homecoming of sorts for the sale, which for years called Calder Race Course home.

The under-tack preview for the 2015 Florida Sale will be held Monday, Mar. 2. The sale itself will be conducted Wednesday, Mar. 4. That's significantly earlier than in the past few years, when the sale was held in late March. As it stands now, here is the current schedule for the major juvenile sales in 2015:

- Feb. 23 - Barretts Select (Pomona)
- Mar. 4 - Fasig-Tipton Florida (Gulfstream Park)
- Mar. 17-19 - OBS March (Ocala)
- Apr. 6 - Keeneland April (Lexington)
- Apr. 21-24 - OBS April (Ocala)
- May 18-19 - Fasig-Tipton Midlantic (Timonium)
- May 27 - Barretts May (Del Mar)
- June 16-19 - OBS June (Ocala)

Yesterday, the TDN's Lucas Marquardt talked to Fasig-Tipton President Boyd Browning Jr. on the sale company's decision to return to South Florida, the track surface at Gulfstream and why Miami is a "sexy" place for participants. Cont. p13

Caulfield Cup Loses a Trio of Runners

Saturday's A$3-million G1 Caulfield Cup has attracted an eclectic field of 20, but the complexion of the G1 Melbourne Cup pointer has been affected by a trio of withdrawals on veterinary grounds.

Dubawi

In this week's column, Bill Oppenheim takes a closer look at Dubawi's rise to the top. "Dubawi's ascension to the lofty position of Europe's consensus number two sire, behind only the incomparable Galileo, came as somewhat of a surprise to begin with, but it doesn't take breeders so long to realize the really good ones who have risen through the ranks."

Beating the subsequent G3 Solario S. scorer Aktabantay (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) by 4 1/2 lengths on that occasion, Estidhkaar had the re-opposing Belardo (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) back in fourth when defying a penalty in the G2 Champagne S. also over seven furlongs at Doncaster Sept. 13. "We are hopeful that most of our runners will go in the ground and the way Estidhkaar coped with the soft at Doncaster when winning the Champagne Stakes gives us plenty of encouragement," conditioner Richard Hannon commented. "He has come on again since Town Moor, worked smashing last weekend and this has always been his major autumn target." Godolphin aims at the prize with the Sept. 25 G3 Somerville Tattersall S. winner Maftool (Hard Spun), who represents the Saeed bin Suroor stable. "Maftool is doing really well and I was very pleased with his final piece of work coming into this race," his trainer said. "He looks very well at the moment and I am looking forward to seeing how he gets on in a big race like this." One who could surprise is Olive Shaw's June 17 G2 Coventry S. fifth and July 26 Listed Winkfield S. winner Kodi Bear (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}), who had the subsequent G2 Gimcrack S. scorer Muhaarar (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) back in third in the latter contest over this trip at Ascot. "I'm really happy with his preparation, he had a nice break after Ascot and everything has been going well," trainer Clive Cox told PA Sport.

"I don't think I need to be worried about the ground, it was on the easy side when he won at Ascot and he seemed to handle that. It's a step up in class, no doubt, but I'm pleased with him and he's going there in good form." As always, it is impossible to ignore a Ballydoyle challenger and despite his modest credentials entering this edition, Smuggler's Cove (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) did look ready for bigger tests when winning the Listed Star Appeal S. by seven lengths over this distance on Dundalk's Polytrack a week ago.

Hannon also saddles the June 28 G2 Railway S. winner and July 20 G2 Prix Robert Papin scorer Kool Kompany (Ire) (Jeremy), who was second in the G1 Phoenix S. at The Curragh Aug. 10 before flopping when sixth in the DBS Premier Yearling S. 11 days later at York. "He has been a star this season and ran well from a bad draw in the big sales race at Doncaster last time, having earlier being beaten only half a length by Dick Whittington (Ire) (Rip Van Winkle {Ire}) in the Phoenix S. in Ireland," Hannon added. "It was soft ground there, so hopefully he'll cope with the conditions, but we are just glad that Neil Werrett, who bought him privately at Doncaster, has left him with us. He's a real sprinter." Third behind Ivawood in the July, Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Muhaarar (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) went on to take the G2 Gimcrack S. at York Aug. 23 and jockey Paul Hanagan believes he has a chance of turning the tables on the favorite. "He's come on with every run and showed a really good attitude at York--he really put his head down for me that day," he said. "He won his maiden on very soft ground at Doncaster and is just a very straightforward horse that tries." Godolphin put forward the Sept. 22 Leicester conditions scorer Charming Thought (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) and although he has something to find on that form, trainer Charlie Appleby is hopeful he can bridge the gap. "Charming Thought is in great nick. We appreciate that he is running in a Group 1 and respect the opposition, but I am confident that he is ready to take a step up in class," he explained. "It's a bit of a fact-finding mission in terms of whether he will cope with the rise in class and the softer ground, but I couldn't be happier with him. He looks to have strengthened up a bit since his win at Leicester and we will dip our toe into a race like this to see where we are with him."

Already successful in the venue's Sept. 26 G2 Rockfel S., Godolphin's bay looked as if this step up in trip would suit as she ground out that win over seven furlongs having finished second in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. over that distance at The Curragh 12 days earlier. Others making up a strong representation from Ireland are Clipper Logistics' Agnes Stewart (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}), who hails from the all-conquering Eddie Lynam stable and who has already shown her prowess when taking Doncaster's G2 May Hill S. over this trip last time Sept. 12; and Susan Magnier's Together Forever (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). The latter booked her ticket with a commanding score over this mile in The Curragh's Listed Staffordstown Stud S. Sunday and will appreciate the ground, as will Rockcliffe Stud's Marsh Hawk (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). Interestingly, Marsh Hawk had the Rockfel runner-up Fadhayyil (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}) seven lengths behind on debut on a testing surface over seven furlongs on the July Course Aug. 9 prior to finishing second in the G3 Dick Poole Fillies' S. over six at Salisbury Sept. 4 and winning again over an extra panel at Newbury Sept. 19.

"Marsh Hawk will love the ground," trainer Richard Hannon said. "She surprised us first time out on the July Course and then we made the mistake of dropping her back in trip when she just got beat at Salisbury. But she then showed us just how good she was when winning impressively at Newbury and we feel that she has what it takes to go all the way. Obviously, Lucida will be a tough nut to crack, but we like our filly a lot."

FACING UP TO THE CHALLENGE

Freddy Head's skill at improving his fillies is renowned and he has a flourishing force to be reckoned with in Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Thawaany (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}) as she tackles Newmarket's G2 Challenge S. today. Denied a half length by Garswood (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}) when second in Deauville's G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest last out Aug. 10, the chestnut, who had previously taken the June 28 G3 Prix de Ris-Orangis at that venue, had last year's Challenge winner and subsequent G1 Matron S. scorer Fiesolana (Ire) (Aussie Rules) back in third and sets the standard on that form. Penalised for his latest win in Newbury's G2 Hungerford S. over this trip Aug. 16, John Cook's Breton Rock (Ire) (Bahamian Bounty {GB}) has the progressive profile to defy that extra burden while the 3-year-old representation is headed by another Shadwell colorbearer in the filly Muteela (GB) (Dansili {GB}). Five of the last seven renewals have fallen to that generation and the way the homebred dealt with Godolphin's Tawhid (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) when scoring by 3 1/2 lengths in Redcar's Listed Guisborough S. over this trip 13 days ago suggests she has more to offer.

'CAUL'-LING ALL MARATHONERS

Saturday's A$3-million G1 Caulfield Cup has attracted an eclectic field of 20, but the complexion of the G1 Melbourne Cup pointer has been affected by a trio of withdrawals on veterinary grounds. The globetrotting Dandino (GB) (Dansili {GB}), beaten just over a length into second in last year's running by Fawkner (Aus) (Reset {Aus}) reportedly worked well beneath would-be rider Craig Williams Thursday morning at the Werribee quarantine center, but pulled up lame in his off foreleg, according to Racing And Sports. "He didn't pull up too good," trainer Marco Botti's travelling foreman Paul Francis told AAP. "He wasn't 100% sound. Unfortunately it happens." Gris Caro (GB) (With Approval), winner two back of the G3 Naturalism S., was the intended mount of Joao Moreira, but was also scratched by trainer Jake Stephens. The Brazilian was offered the ride on Araldo (GB) (High Chaparral {Ire}), but reportedly declined to ride based on his lack of familiarity with the racetrack. Williams has now been named by trainer Mike Moroney. Gai Waterhouse has also cast some doubt on the participation of The Offer (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), while Japanese raider Bande (Ire) (Authorized {Ire}) failed a veterinarian inspection and will scratch.

Lucia Valentina (NZ) (Savabeel {Aus} retains ante-post favoritism on the strength of her last-out victory over Lidari (Fr) (Acclamation {GB}) in the G1 Turnbull S. over the 2000 meters at Flemington Oct. 4. Winner of the G1 Vinery Stud S. last April, she overcame easy ground to win the Sept. 6 G2 Tramway S. first-up and was sixth to G1 Cox Plate hope Sacred Falls (NZ) (O'Reilly {NZ}) in the G1 George Main S. Sept. 20 prior to causing a minor upset in the Turnbull.

With the aforementioned defections, Brambles (NZ) (Savabeel {NZ}) draws in from the emergencies and has rounded into good form this season. Runner-up in an Aug. 30 handicap over this course, the 6-year-old narrowly defeated Big Memory (Fr) (Duke of Marmalade {Ire}) in a similar event at Flemington Sept. 13 and exits a third in the Turnbull, where he was defeated a little more than a half-length for everything.

Japanese runners have left their mark on some of Australia's top staying events, headed by the 1-2 finish of Delta Blues (Jpn) (Dance in the Dark {Jpn}) and Pop Rock (Jpn) (Helissio {Fr}), who were separated by a short head in the 2006 Melbourne Cup. While Bande will not take part Saturday, Admire Rakti will represent Japan and will carry top weight of 126 pounds. Fourth, beaten just a length by Gentildonna (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) in last year's G1 Japan Cup, he was a well-beaten 11th in the G1 Arima Kinen before getting a breather. Runner-up to Gold Ship (Jpn) (Stay Gold {Jpn}) and one spot ahead of Bande in the G2 Hanshin Daishoten Mar. 23, the 6-year-old makes his first start since a 13th in the G1 Tenno Sho (Spring) May 4.

NO. AMERICAN PREVIEWS

WIDE OPEN RENEWAL OF VALLEY VIEW S.

With 14 sophomore fillies set to fill the gate and two more waiting on the also eligible list, today's GIII Valley View S. going 1 1/16 miles on the Keeneland turf course could go in just about any direction. Sagamore Farm's Daring Dancer (Empire Maker) gets the morning-line nod at 4-1 after scratching from the Oct. 11 GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup due to soft turf. The lightly raced Graham Motion pupil boasts wins in this venue's GIII Appalachian S. Apr. 17 and Saratoga's GII Lake George S. July 23. The late-running bay looks to rebound off of an uncharacteristically dull sixth behind QEII runner-up Ball Dancing (Exchange Rate) in Belmont's GII Sands Point S. Sept. 13. Ramona S Bass LLC's Lake George runner-up A Little Bit Sassy (More Than Ready) captured Churchill Downs' Edgewood S. May 2 and crossed the line first in the GIII Regret S. there June 14, but was disqualified and placed fourth for interference. Fifth last time in the Sands Point, the Michael Matz trainee has been working well since, but has to contend with the far-outside post in this large field. Dogwood Stable's Miss Frost (Curlin) was on fire in New York this summer with three straight victories, most recently wiring Saratoga's one-mile Riskaverse S. Aug. 29. If the Tom Albertrani pupil has maintained that form during her brief freshening she has a live shot in this slight step up in class. Ken McPeek saddles GI Ashland S. dead-heat victress Rosalind (Broken Vow) off a ninth-place finish in the GI Belmont Oaks Invitational July 5. That was just the second turf start for the Landaluce Educe Stables colorbearer, but she did earn an impressive debut graduation over the lawn at Ellis Park last summer. "She came out of the Belmont race a little bit stoved up," McPeek said.

"She had some distal cannon bone bruising, and we just stopped on her and gave her a little time to heal and eased her back into things. She worked so well [going five furlongs on the turf in 1:02.60] last week I decided to go ahead and run her." European invader Goldy Espony (Fr) (Vespone {Ire}) makes her second U.S. start for the Chad Brown barn, which is known for its success in turfy graded stakes. Winner of the G3 Prix Penelope at Saint-Cloud Apr. 15, the Swift Thoroughbreds and Bradley Thoroughbreds colorbearer enters off a sixth in the Belmont Oaks. Making her American debut in this one is the William Haggas-trained Token of Love (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}). Owned by Anthony Oppenheimer, the bay captured a Haydock stakes race Aug. 9 over Monday's Pebbles S. heroine Lady Lara (Ire) (Excellent Art {GB}), but was 11th when last seen in the G3 Sceptre S. at Doncaster Sept. 11. Hall of Famer John Velazquez will ride this one for William Haggas, who saddled GIII American Derby runner-up Our Channel (English Channel) in July. Two others of interest are GIII Iowa Oaks winner Size (First Samurai)--who makes her turf debut here--and Spring Included (Include), who makes her second turf start after a definitive six-panel allowance victory at Kentucky Downs Sept. 17.

SAMBA BRAZIL TO SELL AT ARQANA

Samba Brazil (Ger) (Teofilo {Ire}), winner of the 2013 G3 Grosse Europa Meile and twice Group 3-placed in Italy, will be offered in foal to leading sire Dubawi (Ire) at the Arqana December Breeding Stock Sale in Deauville Saturday, Dec. 6. The Highweight older mare in Germany last season, the Gestut Karlshof homebred descends from one of the top German families in the stud book. A half-sister to G1SW Seismos (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}), Samba Brazil is out Sasuela (Ger) (Dashing Blade {GB}), herself a half-sister to champions Samum (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}); Salve Regina (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}), the dam of GII Ballston Spa H. upsetter Salve Germania (Ire) (Peintre Celebre); and MG1SW Schiaparelli (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}). Additionally, Sasuela is kin to Sanwa (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}), the dam of recently retired G1 Deutsches Derby hero Sea The Moon (Ger) (Sea the Stars {Ire}). Samba Brazil's female family has proved popular in the Arqana sales pavilion as recently as this past summer when a Monsun filly out of Sasuela topped the August Yearling Sale on a bid of €1.2 million from Tony Nerses.

All starters in the Breeders' Cup World Championships that are based outside of California receive either a $10,000 (in North America) or a $40,000 (International) travel award.

WERTHEIMERS RETAIN GUYON

Leading French jockey Maxime Guyon has been appointed retained rider for the Wertheimer brothers starting next season. Guyon has secured multiple Group 1 victories already in his relatively short career, during which he has principally ridden for legendary French trainer Andre Fabre. The jockey has signed a four-year contract with the Wertheimers. "It is correct that Maxime will ride for us from next year and, of course, we are very happy," Pierre Yves-Bureau, racing manager for the owners, said. "We hope it will be a very good partnership in the coming years." It was revealed earlier this month Olivier Peslier would not be kept on to ride for Wertheimers in 2015 following a hugely successful 12-year association. During that time, Peslier partnered the incomparable mare Goldikova (Ire) (Anabaa) to a staggering 14 Group 1 victories, including a hat-trick of successes in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile.

TWO RIDERS KILLED IN AUSTRALIA

A pair of female riders in Australia have died this week. Twenty-six-year-old Carly-Mae Pye was thrown from the 2-year-old she was riding during morning track work at Queensland's Callaghan Park Monday and her mount fell on top of her. She passed away from her injuries Tuesday after being placed in a medically induced coma.

"Carly-Mae was a committed and enthusiastic jockey who was widely respected for her dedication and work ethic," said Australian Racing Board Chief Executive Peter McGauran. "She was popular and highly regarded as an outstanding individual. Carly-Mae was committed to the highest level of horsemanship and always keen to improve her skills and technique. She was a credit to her profession. It is a terribly sad time for all who knew and loved her. The national industry shares in their grief."

Pye began her racing career in 2006, and had ridden nearly 200 winners.

Caitlin Forrest, a 19-year-old apprentice, died Wednesday following an incident at Adelaide's Murray Bridge race course. Her mount broke down and crashed into the rail while on the lead, causing three other horses to fall behind her. Forrest's boyfriend Scott Westover is also a jockey.

American-based apprentice Juan Saez passed away Tuesday at just 17-years-old following a spill at Indiana Grand.

HIGH PRAISE FOR INAUGURAL THOROUGHBRED OWNERS CONFERENCE

Edited Press Release

Approximately 300 people, including 120 longtime owners and 100 new or prospective owners, attended the inaugural Thoroughbred Owners Conference hosted by OwnerView between Oct. 13-16 in Lexington, Ky., and the event drew widespread praise from both participants and sponsors. The conference was sponsored jointly by the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club, the Keeneland Association, The New York Racing Association Inc., and the Stronach Group. Tom Durkin, the recently retired popular announcer, served as master of ceremonies for the conference.

"This conference successfully presented the excitement and professionalism of Thoroughbred racing to existing and prospective owners in a way that's never been done before," Keeneland President and CEO Bill Thomason said. "There were a number of unique aspects--a high level of participation by industry leaders set in a unique environment and capped by an afternoon of live racing--that enhanced the experience for all its participants."

Christopher Kay, chief executive officer and president of the New York Racing Association, added, "At the New York Racing Association, we are committed to providing an enhanced experience for our owners--as well as for the teams that they manage. The important collaboration between the New York Racing Association and amongst other industry leaders at this week's conference will ultimately generate benefits, which will further support our shared efforts to grow our sport and attract a new generation of fans."

Mike Rogers, president of The Stronach Group's Racing and Gaming Division, said, "This was absolutely a worthwhile endeavor and a lot of good information was exchanged. There was good interaction among the participants and everyone I talked to said it was a good experience."

Joe Harper, president and CEO of Del Mar Thoroughbred Club, commented, "At Del Mar, we are always looking for ways to enhance the owner experience. Sponsoring and participating in this conference gave us the opportunity to share some of our practices and at the same time learn more about what others are doing to recruit and retain Thoroughbred owners. Bill Thomason and his staff at Keeneland did a superb job in hosting the event."

Gary Falter, vice president of operations for OwnerView, concluded, "One participant told me that he had been coming to Keeneland for 62 years and that listening to Tuesday's speakers and panelists provided him with one of the most memorable days he's ever spent here."

A replay of the conference will be available at www.ownerview.com within the next few days.

TDN Q&A

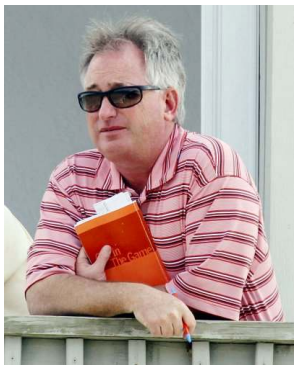
Fasig-Tipton is returning to the Miami area for 2015. Why did you decide to make the move?

"There were a variety of reasons. First and foremost, Gulfstream Park is a premier location. It's a great facility in a great location. It has a trainer and owner colony that makes it the epicenter of the industry at that time of the year. And we've had great success selling quality horses in South Florida for many, many years. So it seems like a great marriage with Fasig-Tipton and Gulfstream. They're trying to create a year-round racing circuit and year-round activities, and this was a chance for us to go back to our roots."



Boyd Browning Jr.
Horsephotos

Is this an indefinite move?

"Yes, there is a long-term contract in place between the parties, and we view this as our home going forward, which is a nice thing to have."

Talk, if you would, about the surface at Gulfstream.

"One of the great selling points is that this is a racetrack that people are used to training on and racing over, and it's a dirt track. There's familiarity, and that gives people a level of comfort and confidence. They'll be able to watch horses breeze and interpret information with a high level of confidence."

Is there a sense of excitement generated by holding a sale near a major metropolitan center like Miami?

"There's no question. I don't know a human being in the world who doesn't enjoy being in South Florida, particularly at that time of the year. There are fantastic hotels and restaurants, and there are great attractions for our buyers and participants. It's something I, and we, underestimated. Palm Meadows is a great facility, but what we found is that there's a little difference between Boynton Beach and Miami [laughs]. As good as the facility, track and amenities at Palm Meadows, it just didn't have the pizzaz and excitement. Miami is cool and sexy and jazzy. People are comfortable there. They know where to stay, they know where to have dinner."

What's been the response from consignors?

"Naturally, we got a lot of feedback from the sellers before making this decision, and there was near virtual consent and support for us going back to South Florida. I think you'll see them support the sale with a lot of quality horses."

The sale will be held about three weeks earlier than it has been in recent years. Can you comment on that?

"I think the window isn't all that different, really, and it fit much better with Gulfstream Park's schedule. Later in March gets complicated with the GI Florida Derby, and it's important for them, like it is for us, that this sale be a signature event. It also seemed better for the marketplace time-wise, and if a horse needs more time, horsemen have the option of our Timonium sale 60-70 days later."

The 2014 sale has already turned out some top horses. Competitive Edge (Super Saver) won the GI Hopeful S. I Spent It (Super Saver) won the GII Saratoga Special S. Blofeld (Quality Road) won the GII Futurity S. The success of grads always attracts buyers. Does it also help attract horses to the sale?

"There's no better advertisement or validation for a sale than to have successful graduates. To have three of the top 2-year-olds in the United States gives everyone confidence. I guarantee you that the connections of those horses, somewhere in the back of their minds, are thinking about the 2015 Kentucky Derby. And when people arrive on the sales grounds of the 2015 Florida Sale, we want them thinking that they can find the types of horses that can bring them to the Derby, the [Kentucky] Oaks and Breeders' Cup. And it's because consignors are bringing horses that can."

Dwindling catalog size has been a concern for every boutique sale in the U.S. Is there still a place in the market for a boutique 2-year-old sale?

"We all have a tendency in the world at large to put simple labels on things. There's no question there is, was, and will always be, a market for quality. In any economy or marketplace, the safest place to be is always in the quality segment. So we'll try to attract a broad cross-section of quality horses. We won't be trying to sell just million-dollar horses at Gulfstream next year. We hope we have a few, but it won't be dominated by them. You want the person with $100,000 to spend to know that they can come down and get a quality athlete that can take them to a high level of success. Cont. p14

You also want the people with a whole lot of money to spend to feel comfortable and confident in the venue, and to have it so that there's not a huge number of horses to go through. It's a balance."

Has that been a focus, to attract middle-market buyers to The Florida Sale?

"We work our tails off to recruit all kinds of buyers, and I know other sale companies do, too. The thing is that you try to educate buyers on the opportunities out there. You may have a greater opportunity to buy quality at a value at Saratoga or September Book 1, because the sheer number of buyers might not be that high. But every market is constantly evolving."

Holiday Star sat a stalking trip and pounced when ready to record a career high here. A dominating allowance winner over the Presque Isle Tapeta May 21, he rallied to finish third behind subsequent GI Arlington Million hero Hardest Core (Hard Spun) in Delaware's Cape Henlopen S. at this distance July 12. Holiday Star suffered a brutal nose defeat to Tricky Hat (Chi) (Hat Trick {Jpn}) after leading in the stretch in Saratoga's 1 5/8-mile John's Call S. Aug. 6, then experienced another narrow heartbreaker in the PTHA President's Cup S. at Parx last time Sept. 13. Placed in a tracking second to the inside of Red Rifle during the early stages over the soft going here, Holiday Star was guided to the outside of that rival around the clubhouse turn. Holiday Star was under a ride on the far turn, and finally fought his way past the game pacesetter in deep stretch to get the money. "I'm glad they left [the Sycamore] on the grass," trainer Graham Motion said. "That was a great move for everybody, and the grass is in good shape." Motion continued, "This horse deserved to win. He's been beaten two pretty short noses, so I was thrilled to see him win. Rosie [Napravnik] gave him a great ride." Napravnik added, "The pace was so slow, and like I told Graham, I thought we would settle behind the speed somewhere, but I thought there might be another horse or two that would at least be a little closer. There weren't. Holiday Star just settled and loped along there as the pace went. He ran an excellent race and was gritty 'til the end. It was a good race."

DUBAWI WEEK (2)

Last week it was Dubawi week at Tattersalls' October Book 1 yearling sale, as the Maktoum family and friends bought all 10 which sold during Book 1 for an average of nearly $1.1-million, topping even the mighty Galileo at the sales. This week his son, Poet's Voice, consolidated his own lead among 2014 first-crop yearling sires, with a record Book 2 yearling sold for 525,000gns. Poet's Voice had leapt to the top of the first-crop table by virtue of a colt and a filly which sold last Thursday for 475,000gns and 700,000gns respectively, not to the Maktoums, but to the new boys in town, Qatar's Prince Joaan Al-Thani's Al Shaqab Racing. Sheikh Hamdan's Shadwell Stud bought this week's sale-topper.

Dubawi's ascension to the lofty position of Europe's consensus number two sire, behind only the incomparable Galileo, came as somewhat of a surprise to begin with, but it doesn't take breeders so long to realize the really good ones who have risen through the ranks. Dubawi's first 4-year-olds were racing in 2011, and by the time the current crop of yearlings was sired, in early 2012, Dubawi's fee had risen to GBP75,000--if you could get one. He's always had the reputation as a sire of pretty ordinary-looking horses, but this crop comes from a whole new set of pedigrees, and the relative few that were up for sale--only 14 have been offered, 12 sold, averaging $1,052,926 (click here)--sure must have looked the part. His median price for 12 sold was $983,803, which is perilously close to a $1-million median.

For pedigree students Dubawi's ascension presents two ironies. The first irony is that he is from the only crop (2002) by Dubai Millennium, who Sheikh Mohammed has been quoted as saying he believed was about the best horse he's ever had, and Dubawi is achieving what Dubai Millennium never had a chance to achieve. In that regard, as I've mentioned before, it parallels Seattle Slew being one of only 60 foals (in two crops, in those days) by Bold Reasoning, and yet it really was Seattle Slew, especially through A.P. Indy, who has ensured the survival of the Bold Ruler sire line, at least until now--and Tapit may be poised to keep it going. The second irony is that Dubawi could be either the major, or one of the major, surviving branches of Mr. Prospector, which has been such a powerful sire line in American breeding. Fappiano was by Mr. Prospector, it is true, but he branched off into his own, pretty much dirt/American line. Cont. p16

Weekly Sales Ticker
by Bill Oppenheim

"With 14% fewer catalogued and sold – and an amazing 79.7% clearance rate from the catalogue – it was some achievement for Tattersalls' October Book 2 to register a 17% gain in gross revenues, to more than 42.5-million guineas. The average was up by a massive 36%, to 64,478 gns. However, October 2 was a 4-day sale last year, and Book 3 was one day; this year, Book 2 was three days and Book 3, yesterday and today, is two days. Books 2 and 3 combined, therefore, will be a more accurate measure of the relative increases." – Bill Oppenheim

Data compiled by Brianne Stanley

Dubai Millennium, of course, was by Seeking The Gold, primarily known as a top filly and broodmare sire, by Mr. Prospector.

Dubawi went to stud in 2006 for GBP25,000, having won the G1 National S. over seven furlongs at the Curragh at two, and the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas and G1 Prix Jacques Le Marois, both at a mile, at three. He qualified as a good prospect, though not as a top prospect, judged by his stud fee. A good number of his early good horses won their Group 1s in Dubai and Hong Kong, and/or were geldings. He will now have more flashily-bred sons going to stud, but his first 'commercial' prospect, if you will, is Poet's Voice, from Dubawi's first crop, and who stands alongside his sire at Darley's Dalham Hall Stud near Newmarket. Bred by Darley out of the Chief's Crown mare Bright Tiara, Poet's Voice won four of his 16 career starts, including the seven-furlong G2 Champagne S. at Doncaster as a 2-year-old, and the G1 Queen Elizabeth S., scoring a nose decision over Rip Van Winkle, at three.

Poet's Voice wasn't really a horse I had too much awareness of, but I did see a couple of yearlings by him in the Gestut Fahrhof consignment at the Baden-Baden yearling sale at the end of August, and remarked to someone how good-looking they were, especially considering he's by Dubawi (the two sold for €110,000 and €61,000). They replied they had also seen some good-looking ones, and clearly, by last week, the word was well and truly out on the street. By the end of Book 1 last week, he had established himself as the clear leader among 2014 North American and European first-crop yearling sires, and the 525,000gns Book 2 colt solidified it (click here). Through the end of Book 2 Wednesday, Poet's Voice had 49 yearlings sell for an average of $173,389. Irish sires Pour Moi (Coolmore) and Dream Ahead (Ballylinch) had averaged $136,049 and $132,445 respectively, while America's 'market find' and leading first-crop yearling sire, Claiborne's Trappe Shot, has averaged $132,232. Ashford's Uncle Mo has averaged $119,250 with an amazing 84 sold. Kentucky's Gio Ponti, Cape Blanco, and Tizway, and Coolmore's Zoffany and Canford Cliffs all also averaged over $80,000 through Wednesday. Interestingly, five of that top 10 (Pour Moi, Zoffany, Canford Cliffs, Uncle Mo, and Cape Blanco) stand at either Coolmore or Ashford.

We should also note the impact of the Maktoum family in October Books 1 and 2. Not even attempting to take into account a couple of Rabbah-managed buyers who still do their own thing at the sales, John Ferguson plus Rabbah signed for 72 yearlings in Book 1, and 61 yearlings in Book 2--total 133. Sheikh Hamdan's Shadwell signed for 13 in Book 1 and 36 in Book 2--total 49. Among John Ferguson, Rabbah, and Shadwell, that's 182 yearlings (18% of the 996 sold, or two of every 11), for a total spend of 34,270,500gns--28% of the October Books 1 and 2 total.

The major yearling market winds up with Tattersalls' October Book 3 yesterday and today, and the Arqana October Sale, which runs next Monday through Thursday, and includes the last four yearlings to be offered by the great German Uber-sire, Monsun. Our next column, therefore, will run next Saturday, Oct. 25, at the finish of the major 2014 yearling sales.

CLARK HIGHLIGHTS CHURCHILL FALL MEET

The $500,000 GI Clark H. highlights Churchill Downs' 13-race fall meet stakes schedule, worth a total of $2.032 million in purses. The 25-day meet runs from Oct. 26 to Nov. 30. Last year's top sophomore Will Take Charge (Unbridled's Song) secured championship honors in the 2013 Clark with a narrow victory over top older horse Game On Dude (Awesome Again).

Churchill's "Stars of Tomorrow" program, focused exclusively on 2-year-olds, will open the meet Oct. 26 with the Rags to Riches S. for fillies and Street Sense S. for colts, both at a mile. The GII Golden Rod S. and GII Kentucky Jockey Club S., which are part of the GI Kentucky Oaks and GI Kentuck Derby prep series, wrap up the meet on closing weekend Nov. 29.

A few changes have been made to the meet, including a $50,000 purse increase for the GII Falls City H. and GII Chilukki S. The GII Mrs. Revere S., Kentucky Jockey Club and Golden Rod will see $25,000 increases. Meanwhile, the Street Sense, Rags to Riches, Bet On Sunshine S. and Dream Supreme S. Had their purses cut from $65,000 to $58,000.

NJ ASSEMBLY OKS SPORTS BETTING BILL

The New Jersey State Assembly voted Thursday to approve the most recent version of a bill to allow sports betting in New Jersey. The vote comes two days after the state senate approved the measure, which now heads to Governor Chris Christie. The governor has 45 days to veto or approve the legislation.

Christie vetoed a similar bill in August over concerns that it would be overturned in the federal courts. The new version of the bill contains language clarifying that sports gambling at the state's casinos and racetracks would be overseen by private interests.

In anticipation of the current legislation, Monmouth Park officals last week announced the formation of the Independent Sports Wagering Association to regulate the state's sports gambling.

Senator Joe Kyrillos, a primary sponsor of the bill, urged Christie to approve the measure.

"Sports betting can assist New Jersey's struggling casino industry and with our challenges at Monmouth Park Racetrack," said Kyrillos. "Both houses of the legislature acted quickly to approve this critical measure, and I am confident Governor Christie will join our efforts to help protect Atlantic City and Monmouth Park jobs by signing the bill into law."

RMTC ENCOURAGED BY UNIFORM RULE ADOPTIONS

Edited Press Release

A review by the board of directors of the Racing Medication and Testing Consortium (RMTC) of state-by-state adoption of the Association of Racing Commissioners International (RCI) National Uniform Medication Program showed that the majority of major racing jurisdictions will have a substantial portion of the program's four principal components in place by the end of the year.

At its meeting Monday at Canterbury Park, the board specifically covered progress on the adoption of the National Uniform Medication Program's medication schedule, third-party Lasix administration, laboratory accreditation, and the Multiple Medication Violations Penalty System. Due to regulatory and/or legislative requirements, timing for the adoption process varies, but significant portions of the program will have been adopted in all but five states.

While most state testing labs have already achieved at least ISO accreditation, and additional RMTC accreditation is steadily progressing, the RMTC addressed uniformity of processes and parameters throughout the states by approving a model Request for Proposals (RFP) for Equine Drug Testing Laboratories. Dr. Mary Scollay, RMTC board member and equine medical director of the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission, chaired the committee that drafted the document. The model RFP will serve as a tool for racing commissions as they negotiate and enter into contracts with drug testing laboratories. The document provides guidelines for obtaining quality uniform testing nationwide.

"This model RFP is a clear and logical roadmap for regulators to use when navigating what can be an intimidating lab testing procurement process," said Dr. Scollay. "This roadmap is key to insuring that uniform medication regulation is supported by consistent testing practices in all racing jurisdictions. Consistent lab testing is fundamental to nationwide medication reform."

The RMTC board also approved model rule recommendations regarding medication labeling and compounded medication that will be forwarded to the RCI for consideration. The rules recommended by the RMTC provide guidance to veterinarians, trainers and track officials regarding requirements for labeling of prescription medication and substances that are acceptable for use in the pari-mutuel environment.

"The goal of this regulation is not to bar the use of legitimate compounded medication," said RMTC Executive Director Dr. Dionne Benson. "It is crucial, however, that the commissions have the ability to protect the health and welfare of the horse. Controlling--not eliminating--the use of compounded medication is an important step to assist the commissions in that role." cont. p2

RMTC Board Chairman Alex Waldrop added, "We understand that nothing is more important to the industry from a drug and medication policy perspective than solid scientific research and analysis. Accordingly, steps were taken at our meeting to re-engage all members of the RMTC Scientific Advisory Committee. The RMTC is committed to considering all points of view and to reaching the broadest consensus possible, so long as we do not compromise fundamental scientific integrity."

Aug. 31. Pride of Stride, who was entered for main track only, was bet down to odds of 1-5. The Qatar Racing colorbearer rated toward the back of the tightly bunched field from the three path. Shifted into gear on the turn, the bay began to pick off rivals and swung out four wide into the stretch. Pride of Stride was in pursuit of Rumblin Kyle (Dunkirk) in the final furlong and, after belatedly changing leads, was able to catch him in the shadow of the wire to win by a nose. MADE BAIL (g, 2, Closing Argument--Leva Mae {MSW, $134,601}, by Emancipator) was runner-up when well bet on debut against $40,000 taggers here Oct. 4. The 5-1 chance was away well and stalked the pace from off the rail down the backstretch. The bay ranged up from the four path on the turn and caught leader Tip It On Back (Flatter) in the stretch. Getting Lasix and making his first North American start for trainer Graham Motion, Quadrivium sat just off the pace from the three path early. FIRST SIX-FIGURE BOOK 3 YEARLING AT TATTS

by Emma Berry

A mare's first foal winning her maiden by 10 lengths just 24 hours before her second foal goes through the ring is the sort of update consignors pray for and one such prayer was answered for New England Stud which sold a Cacique (GB) half-brother to Wednesday's 10-length Nottingham winner Banzari (GB) (Motivator {GB}) (video) for a new Book 3 record of 100,000gns.

New England owner Peter Stanley said, "We were weighing up whether to go in Book 2 or Book 3. In the end we decided to try to be a big fish in a smaller pond and it's worked out."

Lot 1427, out of the Cape Cross (Ire) mare Bantu (GB), was bred in partnership by New England Stud and Barton Stud and was bought by Tom Goff.

Lot 1427 tattersalls.com

"Cacique is a serious sire and this is a lovely horse," Goff said. "Although the sister won [Wednesday], she had run and been fifth in the [G2] May Hill [S. Sept. 12], so her trainer Michael Bell must have a good opinion of her."

Like Banzari, the colt, whose further family includes Group 1 winners Summoner (GB) (Inchinor {GB}) and The Fugue (GB) (Dansili {GB}), will also be trained in Newmarket and is to join the stable of John Gosden.

*The 2013 Book 3 sale was conducted over three sessions, making direct comparisons difficult. The cumulative totals from 2013 and 2014 will appear at the end of today's trade.

Since its introduction in 2007, Book 3 has been run over one day, two days and three days respectively. This year it reverts to two days from just one in 2013 making direct comparisons impossible.

There was a palpable buzz around the walking ring for the first session with many new faces in town for this section of the October Sale, as well as plenty of trainers who found trade too strong during the first two books. The refreshed buyers' bench saw first-day turnover reach 5,516,250gns at an average price of 20,507gns and median of 16,000gns. The clearance remained high, as throughout Book 2, at 88% with 276 of the 307 yearlings offered being marked as sold.

Elite Pair of Fillies...

The previous Book 3 record had already been broken earlier in the session when Anthony Stroud went to 85,000gns for lot 1322, a filly by Iffraaj (Ire).

Lot 1322 tattersalls.com

Consigned by Ballyhimikin Stud, the daughter of four-time winner Seminole Lass (Indian Charlie), was bought as a foal for €15,000 as a first pinhooking venture by Jack Hanly, whose father James owns the stud.

"She is lovely filly, very athletic, by a good sire and I liked her very much," said Stroud.

The long-term view has been taken by clients of Newmarket trainer Stuart Williams, who went to 85,000gns to secure a well-bred daughter of Tamayuz (GB) (lot 1578) from the family of John Kent's top-class mare Pass The Peace (GB) (Alzao {Ire}). cont. p6

Offered by Kent's son Edmond through his Ballyhampshire Stud, the February-born filly is the first foal of Lovers Peace (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}), whom he owned and trained to win twice in Ireland.

Williams explained: "I have an owner who is looking for fillies as possible broodmare prospects if they are good enough. I tried to buy through Book 2 but it was very hard.

He added, "This was more than I was intending to spend, but I really like her and she comes from a great fillies' family."

That family includes Pass The Peace's daughter Embassy (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}), who, like her mother was a champion 2-year-old, and G2 Pretty Polly S. winner Tarfshi (GB) (Mtoto {GB})

Trainers Wade In...

Clive Cox, who saddles Kodi Bear (Ire) (Kodiac {Ire}) in today's G1 Dewhurst S., bought another smart prospect for that colt's owner Olive Shaw when bidding 80,000gns for a son Kyllachy (GB) from the family of Dream Ahead.

Lot 1610 was a 27,000gns foal purchase for Bobby Donworth of Round Hill Stud but such was the popularity of Cheveley Park Stud's Kyllachy through Thursday's session that the colt out of Night Premiere (Fr) (Night Shift) brought about a decent return on investment for the breeder of dual Group 1 winner Rizeena (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}).

Lot 1610 tatttersalls.com

"H's a beautiful colt and we're delighted to get him," said Cox. "The standard of individuals has been extremely high throughout the week here."

Eight Kyllachy yearlings sold so far in Book 3 have achieved an average price of 40,125gns.

Following a good lunch, trainer David Elsworth then indulged in a spot of bold bidding for lot 1500, an Acclamation (GB) colt out of the listed winner Fashion Rocks (Ire) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}), who was eventually purchased for 75,000gns.

"I think I got a bit too enthusiastic," joked Elsworth, but he was in good company as his fellow bidders were trainers William Haggas and Eddie Lynam.

A Kyllachy three-parts brother to Del Mar listed winner Red Diadem (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) set the early pace just four lots into the sale (lot Curlin) when knocked down for 57,000gns to Anthony Stroud.

A son of the Mr. Prospector mare Red Tiara, whose dam, the multiple winner Heart Of Joy (Lypheor), also struck at Del Mar in the GII Palomar H., the colt had plenty of admirers and his family could be given an instant boost by Fendale (GB) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}), who runs in today's G3 Cornwallis S. on Dubai Future Champions Day at Newmarket. Trained by Bryan Smart, Fendale is out of this colt's winning full-sister Adorn (GB).

Doyle Lights Up Evening Trade...

Trade continued to be lively even after darkness had fallen, with Peter Doyle outbidding Will Douglass for a strong son of Zebedee (GB) (lot 1635) consigned by Shinglis Stud. The hammer came down in Doyle's favour at 80,000gns for the half-brother to listed-placed Tacma (Ire) (Baltic King GB}) out of the Primo Dominie (GB) mare Prime Time Girl (GB), who has been a consistent producer with five winners from her six runners to date.

Lot 1635 tattersalls.com

The agent also raised his hand at 72,000gns for a Kodiac filly (lot 1591) out of a sister to listed-placed Moyenne Corniche (GB) (Selkirk).

The Doyle team knows all about sharp Kodiac fillies having bought G1 Cheveley Park S. winner Tiggy Wiggy (Ire) for £41,000 last year and this filly, consigned by Francois Drion's Taroka Stud, will go into training alongside her at Richard Hannon's stable for owner Jenny Powell.

Doyle commented: "She has a very nice outlook, very similar to Tiggy Wiggy. We haven't been able to buy any more by the sire--we keep getting run over."

The first foal of Miss Chaumiere (GB) was sold at Goffs last November for €13,000 and hails from a family which has been campaigned successfully by owner/breeder John Pearce, whose members include the listed-winning Hernando (Fr) sisters Miss Corniche (GB) and Miss Riviera Golf (GB).

The final day of Book 3 commences today at 9:30 a.m. with a break for racing at the Rowley Mile. The second session will begin at 5:30 p.m.

SHEIKH FAHAD ANNOUNCES DUNADEN INCENTIVE Dunaden (Fr) (Nicobar {GB}--La Marlia {Fr}, by Kaldounevees {Fr}), the first winner of the G1 Melbourne Cup to stand at stud in Britain since the 1890 winner Carbine, will stand for an introductory stud fee of £3,000, with a raft of bonuses designed to make the record-breaking three-time Group 1 winner as attractive to breeders as possible. Rated 130 by Timeform for his form over 12 furlongs, Dunaden was retired earlier this year and will stand at Overbury Stud, Gloucestershire. He amassed earnings of more than £5 million and beat no fewer than 60 Group 1 winners in his 46-race career, among them the G1 QIPCO Champion S. favorite Cirrus des Aigles (Fr) (Even Top {Ire}). cont. p7

Dunaden HKJC.com

All of Dunaden's first-crop foals will qualify for 'Dunaden Owners & Breeders' Premiums,' modeled on the famous French 'primes': 2- and 3-year-olds by Dunaden will have their winnings in Britain and Ireland supplemented by 64% paid to owners, with breeders earning an additional 15% of the combined prizemoney and premium. "Dunaden gave me an unbelievable thrill winning his races around the world," says his owner Sheikh Fahad. "And I want as many people as possible to share in the joy of owning and racing his foals. Of course, for many racing is a business, but most of all it has to be fun. I'd love to get as much pleasure out of Dunaden's stud career as I did out of racing him, and what could be more enjoyable than sharing his successes with the racing world?' Among other inducements in the Dunaden Breeders' Club is '+25!', whereby breeders of any of Dunaden's stakes winners at two or three in Britain, Ireland or France will be rewarded with one-off £25,000 prizes. "I look forward to racing many of his stock myself," added Sheikh Fahad. "I will be supporting Dunaden in both the breeding shed and in the sales ring. Nothing will give me greater delight than racing a good one by him. And why not? The last Melbourne Cup hero to stand in Britain sired a Derby winner!" In addition to the Melbourne Cup, Dunaden recorded top-level victories in the 2011 G1 Hong Kong Cup and the 2012 G1 Caulfield Cup, both over a mile and a half.

Making ominous headway on the bridle in the long straight, the 6-5 favorite was sent to the front passing the two pole and stayed on well, despite rolling around under pressure in the closing stages, to score by 2 1/2 lengths from Riva Snows (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}).
