NYQUIST FACES COMPACT GROUP

Nyquist | Horsephotos

In the 2015 GII San Vicente S., reigning GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile hero Texas Red (Afleet Alex) turned in a positive effort, but was forced to settle for a runner-up effort. Reddam Racing's champion 2-year-old colt Nyquist (Uncle Mo) will try to avoid a similar fate as he makes his first start of 2016 in Monday's seven-furlong affair.

The bay colt displayed considerable precociousness and a fair bit of talent in running the table in three tries around one turn to begin his career, with defeats of Swipe (Birdstone) in the GII Best Pal S. and GI Del Mar Futurity at the seaside oval over the summer. Though he managed to grind out a half-length success when trying a route of ground for the first time in this track's GI FrontRunner S. Sept. 26, most were underwhelmed with the performance, and when Nyquist drew in the grandstand for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Oct. 31, it strengthened the resolve of the naysayers. No better than five wide the trip that day, he hit the front a furlong from home and held off Swipe for a fourth consecutive time to lock up the Eclipse. Win, lose or draw Monday, connections are just happy to get the colt back to work.

"We're just eager to see him compete at a high level on Monday and let that speak for itself," trainer Doug O'Neill said. "That's what I love about this game, though, everyone has an opinion." Cont. p3

COLLECTED CALM, COOL FOR SOUTHWEST

There figure to be plenty of George Washingtons and Abe Lincolns put through the pari-mutuel windows Monday afternoon at Oaklawn Park, which plays host to a competitive renewal of the GIII Southwest S., the second local prep for the GI Kentucky Derby.

Trainer Bob Baffert has saddled the Southwest winner on four different occasions since 2010, including two victories in 2012 when the race split and won by stablemates Castaway (Street Sense) and Secret Circle (Eddington). The barn is represented this time around by Collected (City Zip), who breaks from the rail in this bulky field. By the sire of turf champion Dayatthespa, Collected got his start over the downhill course at Santa Anita and graduated by a nose at first asking last October, then led late in the one-mile GIII Cecil B. DeMille S. at Del Mar Nov. 29, but was run down late by Dressed In Hermes (Hat Trick {Jpn}). Cont. p3

Champion Songbird (Medaglia d'Oro) returned to the work tab for the first time since winning the GII Las Virgenes S. Sunday at Santa Anita, going four furlongs in :48.40. Trainer Jerry Hollendorfer described the work as, "Nice and easy," before adding, "She's coming along good." Benoit photo

CALL PAT LAST TO FIRST IN BAYAKOA 5

Call Pat (Lawyer Ron) went from last to first to win Sunday's GIII Bayakoa S. at Oaklawn Park for Miller Racing and trainer Brad Cox.

DAZZLING GEM EYES REBEL 6

Dazzling Gem (Misremembered), who took his record to a perfect two-for-two with an allowance win at Oaklawn Saturday, could make his next start in the GII Rebel S.

CALCULATOR POSSIBLE FOR SAN CARLOS 6

Last year's GIII Sham S. winner Calculator (In Summation), who returned from a year's absence to take a Saturday allowance at Santa Anita, could start next in the GII San Carlos S.

"Whenever you read something negative about your own horses, it's like somebody saying something about your family members," Doug O'Neill continued. "But if he runs a big race Monday, we can write our own story."

Exaggerator (Curlin), who covered 85 fewer feet in the Juvenile according to Trakus stats, franked the form of the race when he shipped down to Louisiana and outfought New Jersey raider Sunny Ridge (Holy Bull) to win the GIII Delta Jackpot S. Nov. 21. Similar to Nyquist, the dark bay proved adept at shorter trips, graduating going three-quarters of a mile at Del Mar last July and adding a cozy success in Saratoga's GII Saratoga Special S. the following month.

Sheikh of Sheikhs (Discreetly Mine) looks to have the speed to control the race from the front, but the question is for how long? Very impressive in wiring a field of Saratoga maidens Aug. 22, he gave way readily to finish sixth in the GI Dixiana Breeders' Futurity Oct. 3, but cut back to six panels to win the Juvenile Dirt Sprint on Breeders' Cup Saturday. The bay exits a third to undefeated Awesome Banner (Awesome of Course) in the GIII Hutcheson S. at Gulfstream Jan. 2.

Green-lighted for a dirt try in the GIII Sham S. Jan. 9, Collected was forced to cover some ground, but found the line a length better than stablemate Let's Meet In Rio (Flatter). He'll have his fair share of admirers Monday, but will likely need to step up his game to be a factor here.

"I don't like post one, but it's better than, I guess, 14 there, with that short run," Baffert said. "I think the break is very important. I think he's going to have to use him early, now that he's on the inside. The last time he was on the outside and he sat off horses. He has a lot of natural speed. He's a pretty fast horse, so I'm sure there's going to be a pretty strong pace in the race."

Trainer Ron Moquett reached out to Hall of Famer Mike Smith to partner with Far Right (Notional) on the road to Louisville last winter, and it proved a fruitful arrangement with wins in the Smarty Jones S. and this event ahead of a distant second to American Pharoah (Pioneerof the Nile) in the GI Arkansas Derby. Smith is back in Hot Springs to take over at the controls of the well-regarded Whitmore (Pleasantly Perfect) Monday afternoon. Cont. p4

Whitmore belied debut odds of 15-1 to smash a field of Churchill maidens by 7 1/4 lengths Nov. 6, but a 15-day turnaround, a stretchout to 8 1/2 panels and--perhaps--sloppy conditions underfoot in the GIII Delta Jackpot S. Nov. 21 proved a task too tall, as Whitmore faded to fifth after contesting the pace. Connections regrouped for a six-furlong allowance over this strip Jan. 16, and despite a fairly rough passage, he came through at the fence and pulled clear to score by open lengths before galloping out strongly.

Whitmore | Coady Photography

Discreetness (Discreet Cat), who drew the dreaded outside gate for this attempt, outfinished Toby Keith's Gordy Florida (Cactus Ridge) to take this year's Smarty Jones S. by a neck Jan. 16, as Synchrony (Tapit) closed well enough to finish third, just ahead of Luna de Loco (Mailbu Moon). Cutacorner (Even the Score), trained by the legendary Jack Van Berg, has form through Discreetness, having finished a running-on fourth, beaten 1 1/2 lengths, in Remington's Springboard Mile Dec. 13. The gray colt dropped back into a two-lifetime allowance over course and distance Jan. 21 and stayed on very nicely to best the pacesetting, but wayward American Dubai (E Dubai) and Torrontes (Macho Uno), the latter of which was hampered badly in the waning yards by American Dubai.

Bird of Trey (Birdstone) is an interesting new shooter for John Servis, who sent out Smarty Jones (Elusive Quality) to annex this race a dozen years ago en route to his rendezvous with history in the Triple Crown. A Pennsylvania-bred, Bird of Trey followed in the hoofprints of Smarty Jones in winning the restricted Pennsylvania Nursery S. to close out his freshman campaign, but was a disappointing and distant fourth when last seen in Aqueduct's GIII Jerome S. Jan. 2.

The Southwest is the final race on the 'Road to the Kentucky Derby' that offers points on a 10-4-2-1 schedule. Next Saturday's GII Risen Star S. begins the 50-point races.

TDN's Steve Sherack and Brian DiDonato will make $50 Win/Place bets on each Kentucky Derby prep and Triple Crown race. The handicapper with the highest bankroll after the Belmont Stakes wins. Scratches will result in the post time favorite.

GIII El Camino Real Derby - Well that worked out quite well. Scratched into the 8-5 winner Frank Conversation (note: scratches result in the post time favorite for us here), who overcame a wide draw to make it two straight wins over the all-weather at Golden Gate. I'll certainly take it. Total: $215.

GIII Southwest S. - Now this was a fun one to handicap. Cutacorner (Even the Score) has the look of a horse that's getting good at the right time as the distances continue to increase. The gray broke through at fifth asking, kicking home nicely once clear to earn his diploma at Remington Nov. 19, then proved he belongs with this caliber by outrunning his 87-1 odds with an extremely wide trip fourth in the Springboard Mile S. Dec. 13. He reeled in a very loose-on-the-lead American Dubai after a soft pace over this track and trip Jan. 21, posting a career-best 84 Beyer Speed Figure. Jack Van Berg has been enjoying a solid stand in Hot Springs and there seems to be more than enough pace to set this guy up for a potential upset. Selection: #9 Cutacorner (12-1).

Facebook Twitter E-mail Print

GIII El Camino Real Derby - Why couldn't I be the lucky one to scratch into the post time favorite?! Instead, Kasseopia (GB) broke so slowly at first I thought he refused. He made a huge turn move before flattening out and finishing third, but was never winning after that terrible start. Total: $0.

GIII Southwest S. - Well, races really don't get much more competitive than this one. I'm handicapping this on Saturday morning, wishing I knew how Morning Fire was going to fare in the GIII Sam F. Davis (update: he was third), but in the end I'm not sure it really matters. Bird of Trey (Birdstone) finished second to that at Parx in October, but turned the tables in the restricted Pennsylvania Nursery S. Dec. 5, romping by 7 1/4 lengths in fast time. Morning Fire returned last month to take Tampa's Pasco S., proving that the Parx form could translate to other venues. Bird of Trey, meanwhile, found himself engaged in a three-way speed duel in Aqueduct's GIII Jerome S. Jan. 2. Those dynamics set things up perfectly for eventual winner Flexibility, and one could argue that that one's poor return performance in the Withers confirms the role that trips played in the Jerome. This distance should suit Bird of Trey on pedigree, and wouldn't it be cool to see trainer John Servis have success with a son of Birdstone? Selection: #5 Bird of Trey (10-1).

Call Pat, winner of last summer's GIII Groupie Doll S. at Ellis Park, followed a fourth-place effort in the Sept. 26 GI Beldame Invitational with third-place finishes in the Oct. 30 GIII Turnback the Alarm H. and Nov. 26 GII Falls City H. Unhurried early, the dark bay mare trailed the field as Meshell took the field through pedestrian fractions of :24.10 and :48.88. Some nine lengths off the pace leaving the backstretch, Call Pat crept closer on the turn, split foes in upper stretch and closed powerfully to reel in Streamline and Meshell in the final strides to win going away.

Call Pat | Coady Photography

"She's a really cool mare," said winning jockey Joe Rocco, Jr. "If you get her to reserve herself early, she puts in a tremendous stretch run. I want to thank [trainer] Brad [Cox] and the owners for letting me ride her again. They did a great job. She was ready to go, as always. I had so much horse, I wasn't really concerned with the traffic. I was pretty sure I would find somewhere to point her and I had enough horse she was going to get it done." Cox added, "As long as she comes out of it [good], without a doubt, she'll be in the [Mar. 19 GII] Azeri. To try and increase her value, we'll try to pick off a Grade 2 with her. As long as she's sound, we'll race her through her 6-year-old year."

DAZZLING GEM EARNS REBEL START

Steve Landers Racing's Dazzling Gem (Misremembered), who took his record to a perfect two-for-two with an allowance win at Oaklawn Park Saturday, will now be aimed at the Mar. 19 GII Rebel S., according to trainer Brad Cox.

Dazzling Gem | Coady Photography

"The horse ran good," Cox acknowledged a day after his charge's two-length victory. "We expected a lot out of him. "

Dazzling Gem ran the 1 1/16 miles over a fast track in 1:45.91 (video), about a half-hour before La Macchina (Malibu Moon) won the Essex H. for older horses in 1:45.27 for 1 1/16 miles.

"Obviously, he likes this track," Cox continued. "He raced green yesterday, but the fractions were solid, a little more solid than the Essex--came home just a shade slower, but you're comparing older horses and younger horses."

Of a start in the Rebel, Cox added, "I guess it's the next step."

Richard Pell's Calculator (In Summation), who made a victorious return to the races Saturday at Santa Anita after over a year's absence, could make his next start in the Mar. 12 GII San Carlos S.

"He's had some issues, but he's a tremendous talent and it's really gratifying to get him back and to have him perform like this," commented trainer Peter Miller. "For him to break bad, be five wide, run into the [speed] bias and hang tough was really gratifying."

Saturday's allowance victory (video) marked Calculator's first start since breaking his maiden in last year's GIII Sham S.

"If he stays healthy, we could think about the San Carlos, going seven-eighths," Miller said. "I don't know how far he really wants to go, but I think a mile, a mile and a sixteenth is within his wheelhouse."

LANE'S END STALLION SEASONS PART OF PDJF FUNDRAISER

Seasons to Lane's End stallions Honor Code, Liam's Map, Tonalist, The Factor, Union Rags and Mr Speaker are among the offerings for an upcoming online auction to benefit the Permanently Disabled Jockeys Fund.

"My father has long been supportive of PDJF, so it is very exciting for us to have such enthusiasm from our partners for this important cause," said Lane's End's Bill Farish.

The auction, hosted on the Starquine website (www.Starquine.com), will be held Feb. 22 through Feb. 27 at noon. A preview of the seasons will be posted Feb. 19.

Selected breeding seasons will be carried over to the live auction at the third annual Jockeys and Jeans fundraiser which will be held at Gulfstream Park Feb. 28, beginning at noon. The event auction will be managed by Fasig-Tipton auctioneers and announcer Terence Collier. Advance arrangements can be made on the Starquine website to bid by telephone at the live auction.

Jockeys and Jeans was founded by a group of former jockeys. In just its second event, the group raised over $204,000 last May at Indiana Grand Racing & Casino.

"The Sport of Kings has always had philanthropists who used their success to aid the less fortunate in the racing industry, and Mr. Will Farish [a PDJF Board Member] is certainly one," said Jockeys and Jeans President Barry Pearl. "We thank every stallion season donor and the donations from the stallion owners at Lane's End have set the standard. Thanks to them we have hopes of breaking the record we set last year."

For ticket information for the Feb. 28 fundraiser, call 954-457-6201 Thursday-Sunday 11 a.m. to 6 p.m., or buy online at www.gulfstreampark.com.

Stonetastic won the GII Prioress S. in 2014 and added a fourth-place finish in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint later that year. A tough-luck second behind subsequent GI Ballerina S. heroine Unbridled Forever (Unbridled's Song) returning from a seven-month layoff in Saratoga's restricted Shine Again S. Aug. 5, she dominated a Parx allowance test in a 15 3/4-length romp Sept. 1. The gray reported home eighth in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint at Keeneland on Halloween and closed out her 4-year-old season with a runner-up finish in this venue's GIII Sugar Swirl S. Dec. 26. Heavily favored as the highweight in this handicap event, Stonetastic jetted to the front and showed the way under regular rider Paco Lopez through a quarter-mile in :22.13. Never truly threatened, she coasted home a much-the-best winner. "She's a more relaxed filly down here in Florida," trainer Kelly Breen said. "I was a little concerned after she didn't win last time out to say maybe she's a Northern horse or something like that. Today kind of validated that she's a nice horse. I know she's a nice horse, but that she can carry it from track to track." Breen added that Stonetastic will likely make her next start in the GII Inside Information S. Mar. 19. The winner is a half-sister to 3-year-old Gift Box (Twirling Candy), who was last seen finishing second in the GII Remsen S. in November. Special Me, who was most recently bred to Speightstown, is also responsible for the juvenile filly Divergent Thinking (Mizzen Mast) and an unnamed yearling colt by Candy Ride (Arg). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

MISS MATZOBALL (f, 4, Smoke Glacken--Miss Matzo, by Royal Academy) graduated from the maiden ranks facing state-breds over the Belmont lawn in the autumn of 2014 and added a second win two starts later in Elmont last October. The filly ran fourth going a grassy mile in her first try against open company at Aqueduct Nov. 9, and recently returned from a brief layoff with a dull sixth-place finish over course and distance Jan. 18. Sent postward as the 5-2 second choice, she tracked the pace through a quarter-mile in :21.64 and rallied to score by 1 1/2 lengths over Indian Splendor (Indian Ocean). The winner's dam, a half-sister to MSW Madame Giry (Castledale {Ire}), was most recently bred back to Gio Ponti. PAOLA QUEEN (f, 3, Flatter--Kadira {MSW & GSP, $176,525}, by Kafwain), a debut fifth sprinting at the Spa Aug. 30, added a third-place effort in Hallandale Dec. 9 and went one better over track and trip in her sophomore bow Jan. 16. Tabbed the 6-5 favorite Sunday, the blinkered dark bay zipped straight to the front and quickly opened up several lengths on the field down backstretch run. Tackled by second choice Privy Council (Majesticperfection) after a half in :46 flat, Paola Queen held that rival safe until upper stretch, where she looked to be treading water. Given several sharp reminders from Luis Saez, the $180,000 KEESEP yearling regained her momentum to win by a length. Adornment (Medaglia d'Oro), a half-sister to GISW Bluegrass Cat (Storm Cat), MGSW Lord of the Game (Saint Ballado) and GSW Dramedy (Distorted Humor), ran fifth. The winner's dam, out of MGSW Raw Gold (Rahy), foaled a full-brother to the winner in 2015 and was covered by Tale of the Cat later that term. CITY FLYER (c, 3, Sky Mesa--Pinta, by Carson City) finished third in a pair of seven-panel races at Woodbine over the turf Aug. 26 and the synthetic track Sept. 19. Fourth behind Bondurant (War Front) in a grassy one-mile maiden test at Keeneland Oct. 7, the bay was given a freshening ahead of his 2016 campaign. City Flyer returned to action with a closing fourth-place finish going 7 1/2 panels over this course Jan. 9 and was hammered down to even-money favoritism to break through in this first try beyond a mile. Away without incident, he traveled in the three path around the opening bend and continued along that line down the backstretch as Uncle Guy (Uncle Mo) showed the way through a half-mile in :50.71. Asked for more on the far turn, City Flyer confronted the leaders at the head of the lane and rallied to post a decisive two-length victory over Patterson Cross (Arch), who circled the field from last to complete the exacta in his career debut. The winner, a $100,000 OBSOPN juvenile purchase, is a half-brother to Rojo Toro (Mountain Cat), GSW, $269,545. ITALIAN CHARM (c, 3, Gio Ponti--Voodoo Dancer, by Kingmambo) had a troubled start and never got involved on debut at Saratoga in September, finishing eighth in a 1 1/16-mile test over the lawn. Sent to the sidelines following that effort, the dark bay posted a steady series of drills at Payson Park dating back to late November and scratched out of a race rained off the turf here Jan. 23. The colt was re-entered in this spot as the 2-1 second choice and saved ground just behind the leaders as Denim Blue (In Summation) coasted through a half-mile in :48.65. Forced to wait for running room until midstretch, Italian Charm split horses at that juncture and kicked clear to score by a length over Osceola Pond (Cape Blanco {Ire}). The winner is a son of Christophe Clement-trained MGISW Gio Ponti out of Voodoo Dancer, who captured the GI Garden City Breeders' Cup H. and the GI Diana H. for these same connections. The mare produced Voodoo Swinge (Unbridled's Song), MGSP, $106,420; and Voodoo Storm (Storm Cat), SW, $424,671, and is also responsible for a juvenile colt by Eskendereya and a yearling colt by Point of Entry. DARK NILE (f, 3, Pioneerof the Nile--Royal Society, by Bernardini) was away slowest of all and worked her way through traffic to check in third on debut as the 5-2 choice sprinting six panels here Jan. 23. Backed down to 3-5 favoritism for this first try at a route distance, the dark bay secured an ideal position perched in midpack as Caffeine (Medagalia d'Oro) rolled through a half-mile in :48.87. Sent up to make a definitive move for the lead on the final bend, she forged past the pacesetter cornering for home and strode clear to a 3 1/2-length triumph. Caffeine held on to complete the exacta. Cont. p3

ARGOT (c, 3, Stroll--Argue, by Storm Cat) began his career under the care of trainer Ken McPeek and graduated at fourth asking in a 6 1/2-furlong dash over the testing Kentucky Downs turf course. A tiring 14th in the GIII Dixiana Bourbon S. at Keeneland Oct. 4, the dark bay was subsequently transferred to this new barn. Argot was a non-factor seventh in the six-furlong Sugar Bowl S. on the main track here Dec. 19 and added blinkers and Lasix for this sophomore bow. The homebred pressed the pace through a quarter-mile in :22.42 and drove clear to a 3 1/4-length success. D. Shifflett (Valid Expectations) finished second best. DIVINE ELEGANCE (f, 3, Uncle Mo--Classic Elegance {MGSW, $204,006}, by Carson City) rolled a pair of thirds in her first two trips to the post--first beneath the Twin Spires Nov. 21 and again over this track and trip in her 3-year-old bow Jan. 18. Sent off at 6-1, the bay showed good early dash in a five-horse scramble for leadership duties, before getting wrangled back to sit fifth as the vanguard set splits of :22.27 and :46.68. Angled six wide up the center of the track, Divine Elegance came calling inside the final 100 yards and powered home to win easily. It was 3 3/4 lengths back to Ivy Bell (Archarcharch), a nose in front of Beach Walk (Distorted Humor) in third. The winner's dam, who excelled in the juvenile graded ranks with wins in the GII Schuylerville S. and GIII Debutante S., foaled a colt by Union Rags in 2015 and was covered by Mineshaft last year. Swift Lady took to the turf a month ago at Santa Anita and delivered the goods as the even-money chalk in her stakes bow Sunday evening. The bay checked in second on debut going 5 1/2 panels at Del Mar Sept. 7 and returned from a short layoff to annex a Los Alamitos maiden heat over that same trip. Swift Lady was last seen pulling off a 22-1 upset in her course-and-distance turf bow Jan. 15, and was backed down to heavy favoritism here. Quick off the blocks from stall eight, the Bob Baffert trainee settled just off the tempo set by Uptown Twirl (Twirling Candy) through a quarter-mile in :21.52. She seized command after a half in :43.91 and easily kicked away from her toiling rivals to win by open lengths. Nodiac (Ire) made up some late real estate to finish second. He ran out of steam when sixth there later that month and completed the trifecta in a Keeneland affair Oct. 10 for trainer Eddie Kenneally and Bourbon Lane Stable. Purchased privately by these connections, the bay was a one-paced sixth stretched to 10 furlongs here in his seasonal bow Jan. 18 and was off at 6-1 to make amends in his first try at 1 1/2 miles. Content to sit near the tail of the field perched three deep in the rush down the hill, the 4-year-old rated patiently through a mile in 1:38.18. The field bunched accordingly as noses pointed for home and Bourbon Soul picked his way through the field to fourth up the inside with a furlong to travel. Splitting horses with 100 meters to go, he got his nose down on the line where it counted over Tattenham (Rock Hard Ten). STELLAR YEAR LEADS TO BIG DREAMS FOR HYLANDS

Pat and Hugh Hyland with Samite at Oghill House Stud | Emma Berry

By Emma Berry

The Hyland brothers of Oghill House Stud have a simple plan for the year.

"We're going to win the Guineas and the Derby," says Pat Hyland.

It may sound like a ridiculous boast, but Pat delivers his verdict with a wink and a grin to ensure that he's not taken too seriously. However, when one reflects on the stud's results for 2015, which saw the 300-acre farm in Kildare punch well above its weight with winners in strength and depth, then perhaps his claim shouldn't be dismissed out of hand.

The horse to which he is referring, of course, is Marcel (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}), whose 33-1 victory in the G1 Racing Post Trophy last October had the walls of the old stone farmhouse shaking as he was roared home by the Hyland family.

"You should have been here, it was quite something," recalls Pat with a smile that rarely fades from his face.

Pat and Hugh Hyland are at the helm at Oghill House Stud, but it is very much a family affair, with Hugh's son John also involved; another brother, David, listed as the breeder of Marcel, and yet another, Paul, having bred Royal Ascot winner and G1 Keeneland Phoenix S. runner-up Washington DC (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) in partnership with the family's longtime friends and patrons, Chris and James McHale. Cont. p2

OLIVER SIDES WITH 'ARTIE' FOR 'DIAMOND'

Hoop Damien Oliver selected Saturday's G3 Blue Diamond Prelude-C &G hero Flying Artie (Aus) (Artie Schiller) over undefeated favored stablemate Extreme Choice (Aus) (Not A Single Doubt {Aus}) as his G1 Blue Diamond S. mount reported Racing.com. Oliver booted home both Mick Price-trained colts in successive weekends at Caulfield, with the latter landing the 1000-metre G3 Chairman's S. Feb. 6 by an impressive 4 1/2 lengths.

Mark Van Triet, manager for Oliver, confirmed the champion jockey's choice, which was made Sunday afternoon. Cont. p4

Stellar Year Leads To Big Dreams For Hylands Cont. from p1

While Marcel is being primed for a Classic campaign in England and possibly France by his trainer Peter Chapple-Hyam, the more speedily bred Washington DC has a return to Royal Ascot on the agenda, with the G1 Commonwealth Cup pencilled in as his primary mid-season aim.

Meanwhile back at the farm, their dams are each carrying full-siblings to the two highly regarded 3-year-olds. Marcel's dam Mauresmo (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) was predicted to have been one of the star turns of last week's Goffs February Sale, but when she exhibited signs that she was due to foal, she was withdrawn from the sale with prospective buyers invited to visit her at home and make offers through the sales company. At the time of writing, she was still holding on to Marcel's brother or sister, while How's She Cuttin' (Ire) (Shinko Forest {Ire}) is set to foal a brother to Washington DC later this month.

Washington DC | Racing Post

Adding to a glorious autumn in 2015 was another of the farm's graduates, Third Time Lucky (Ire) (Clodovil {Ire}), the winner of five of his seven races throughout the season, culminating in Newmarket's heritage handicap, the Cambridgeshire. Mister Brightside (Ire) (Lord Shanakill) was also successful twice at Newmarket last season for Jeremy Noseda before switching to the U.S. stable of Patrick Gallagher and running second in the GII Twilight Derby at Santa Anita.

"We've been breeding horses full-time here since the 1980s. We foal about 100 mares here through the season and keep anything up to 30 mares ourselves and with different partners," says Hugh. "Before that we farmed and did a bit of everything--corn, cattle. We're the fourth generation of our family here at the farm."

One of those partners is Joseph Burke, who bought the Johannesburg mare Pleasantry (GB) privately for the farm and himself the year before her half-brother Kingman (GB) started demonstrating his extraordinary talent. Pleasantry's first two foals--the 3-year-old Pirquet (Ire) (Sea The Stars), who is now in training with Michael Halford, and 2-year-old filly Parlance (Ire) (Invincible Spirit (Ire)--sold for 200,000gns and 450,000gns as yearlings, respectively, to Godolphin and Cheveley Park Stud.

Hugh says, "We've tried to upgrade a bit but you need a bit of luck to hit on a good mare. To see a pedigree taking off like that is just amazing."

The sum of 450,000gns was also recorded for a December Foal Sale-topping Sea The Stars filly out of Oghill House's Danehill Dancer (Ire) mare Chiosina (Ire). Like Sea The Stars's Oaks winner Taghrooda (GB), the juvenile filly, named Almahroosa (Ire), is now owned by Sheikh Hamdan Al Maktoum and in training with John Gosden. Chiosina's most recent foal sale result was 175,000gns for her Shamardal filly in 2015.

Marcel's dam Mauresmo | Emma Berry

"I couldn't believe it when she got to 450,000. I was hoping she'd make 100,000 and it went on an on and you start to pinch yourself. It's great to have the success at the sales and we all need that to keep going, but when you get to the races and your horse is winning, that's a different buzz altogether," adds Pat.

Burke, who advises the brothers on purchases, came home from last year's Keeneland November Sale with two well-related fillies. Circleofinfluence (Eurosilver) is a half-sister to the multiple graded-stakes winner Classy Mirage and has recently foaled an Afleet Alex filly who is a close relation to GI Three Chimneys Hopeful S. winner Dublin. Amusing Plan's credentials also bear scrutiny. The daughter of Pleasantly Perfect, sold in foal to Strong Mandate, has one half-sister, Folklore (Tiznow), who won the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, while another, Godolphin's Dreamup (Bernardini) has provided a decent update by scorching home to break her maiden by more than 10 lengths at Tampa Bay Downs in late December.

Circleofinfluence's Afleet Alex filly Emma Berry

Last year's banner season, in which the Hylands saw 27 of their graduates win races and six of them strike at stakes level, rightly saw the Hylands recognised in January with the Irish Thoroughbred Breeders' Association's Special Merit Award.

"That was like the Oscars for us," says Pat, while his brother adds, "Thirty of us went to the dinner and it was a really enjoyable night. We'd already had our reward from the horses on the track but it was great to be acknowledged." Cont. p3

With the foaling season now in full swing, and the anxious wait for the next generation from Mauresmo, Pleasantry, Chiosina and How's She Cuttin' all due towards the end of this month, there's a palpable buzz of optimism about the quiet yard at Oghill House Stud, but not a hint of bombast.

Hugh admits, "We have a lot of things to look forward to--not just Washington DC and Marcel but all these young horses, too. They are our dreams and you need to have that."

Such consistent success is not gained from mere fancifulness but the hard work and good planning behind the Hyland family's operation certainly entitles them to dream on.

NATIONAL STUD CLEARED FOR COVERING

It will be business as usual at the National Stud Monday, as it kicks off the 2016 breeding season. The Newmarket Stud had closed its doors since a horse tested positive for equine herpes virus at the beginning of the month, but Brian O'Rourke, managing director of the stud, is satisfied that the swift precautions taken have had the desired results.

Brian O'Rourke | Racing Post

"We're going to open the main part of the farm for coverings on Monday," said O'Rourke. "We imposed a self quarantine on the main part of the farm and we could have opened that 12 days ago, but we decided to take every necessary precaution. The other yard is still in isolation and doesn't come out of isolation until Tuesday week. We've tested every week and nothing has spread, and the one animal is making a recovery."

With five stallions on the roster the stud will be keen to make an uninterrupted start to coverings which traditionally kick off Feb. 15 in the northern hemisphere.

Hurricane opened up with a five-length debut score in a Dec. 12 newcomers' test at Deauville and doubled his tally in a conditions heat over this course and distance last time Jan. 16. Steadied fifth of the six runners after the early strides, he made stealthy headway in the straight to loom large approaching the final eighth and drew off late under mild coaxing to easily register a career high. "Hurricane won easily and has lots of quality," commented trainer Jean-Claude Rouget. "He's a gelding so is unable to run in the [G1 Poule d'Essai des] Poulains and we will instead look for alternative Group 1 races over a mile after giving him a break." Runner-up in a Sapporo maiden affair when unveiled last September, Dee Majesty filled the same position transferred to Nakayama going 1800 metres later that month. Off the mark over this course extended to 2000 metres Nov. 23, the Masaru Shimada-owned colt was scratched out of the G2 Hopeful S. Dec. 27 and was disregarded at long odds in this return. Well back through the early stages while saving ground against the fence, Dee Majesty crept up the inner as the field began to bunch after 1000 metres in :59.9, but still had significant work to do. Roused by Masayoshi Ebina at the top of the straight, he ground into contention in between horses as Immortal overwhelmed Respect Earth (Jpn) (Manhattan Cafe {Jpn}) inside the final 100 metres, and kept finding more up the center of the course to add a first group victory to his resume.
