CASTELLANO, PLETCHER TEAM FOR ANOTHER CT CLASSIC WIN

Stanford takes them wire to wire | Coady photography

In 2012, trainer Todd Pletcher took a chance in the GII Charles Town Classic with Caixa Eletronica (Arromanches) and the popular chestnut obliged, carring Javier Castellano to a two-length victory at odds of 8-1. The betting public were more accepting of Pletcher's 2016 challenger, the well-bred Stanford (Malibu Moon), backing him into odds of 7-2 and the handsome 4-year-old came through for his supporters with a wire-to-wire success. Blue-collar Pennsylvania-bred Page McKenney (Eavesdropper), third to Moreno (Ghostzapper) in last year's renewal, improved by one spot after giving game chase throughout to add to his seven-figure bankroll. Favored 'TDN Rising Star' Donworth (Tiznow) endured a tough trip for the latter two-thirds of the race and was one-paced late in third.

"He broke very sharp and there wasn't that much speed in the race," the winning jockey commented. "He broke well and I just enjoyed the ride. I thought the fractions were pretty comfortable."

Pletcher indicated that he had no specific plans for the winner, but said the $1.25-million GI Met Mile could be under consideration. The Met is the second-richest event on Belmont S. day June 11. Cont. p3

STEADY AS SHE GOES FOR NYQUIST

Paul Reddam's reigning Eclipse Award-winning juvenile and ante-post GI Kentucky Derby favorite Nyquist (Uncle Mo) went an easy five furlongs in the company of his Grade I-winning stablemate Ralis (Square Eddie) in a very easy 1:01.80 Saturday morning at Keeneland (video) as he prepares to put his unbeaten record on the line in two weeks' time. Partnered with regular exercise rider Jonny Garcia, Nyquist was caught in fractions of :12, :23.80 and :35.80 before galloping out six furlongs in 1:18 flat, according to track clockers. Trainer Doug O'Neill had Nyquist covering a mile in 1:51. It was the champion's second work at Keeneland since winning the GI Xpressbet.com Florida Derby Apr. 2, having breezed five-eighths of a mile in 1:02.60 Apr. 15. "We thought him going in company, he would do it easier," trainer Doug O'Neill said. "Sometimes when he is by himself, Jonny has to ask him a bit. We just thought in company it would be easier on him. He was strong early; he really wanted to go." Cont. p6

A $120,000 acquisition by Dona Licha Stables at the 2013 Keeneland September sale, Stanford was consigned by Raul Reyes's King's Equine to the 2014 Barretts March Sale, where he was one of three horses to work an eighth of a mile in :9 4/5 before being hammered down to Pletcher for $550,000, the fourth highest-priced offering of the auction.

A Gulfstream allowance winner to kick off his sophomore season, Stanford was disqualified from an apparent runner-up effort to stablemate 'TDN Rising Star' Materiality (Afleet Alex) in the Islamorada H. ahead of a desperately unlucky loss at the hands of International Star (Fusaichi Pegasus) in the GII Louisiana Derby. Winner of the Long Branch S. at Monmouth a couple of starts later, he was shelved off a fifth in the restricted Curlin S. at Saratoga July 31 and had two runs this term, both second and both to stablemates. Beaten 3 3/4 lengths by Tommy Macho (Macho Uno) in the GIII Fred W. Hooper S. Feb. 6, he most recently dropped a head decision to Blofeld (Quality Road) in the Mar. 5 GII Gulfstream Park H.

Stanford was sent immediately into the lead by Castellano, and although he was pressed along to his outside by Page McKenney, set only a modest gallop through opening fractions of :24.75 and :48.86. Still well within the grasp of his rider through three-quarters in 1:13.75, Stanford repelled the challenge of Page McKenney entering the final furlong, opened some daylight on that rival and held clear to the wire. Favored Donworth raced inside early, but was guided into the clear down the stretch for the first time. Very wide for the remainder of the trip, he looked like he might challenge turning for home, but peaked on his run and settled for third.

The winner's third dam is responsible for Johannesburg (Hennessy), Europe's champion colt of 2001 who carried Michael Tabor's silks to a victory in that year's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Belmont Park. Rosy Humor is the dam of the current 2-year-old colt Hedge Fund (Super Saver).

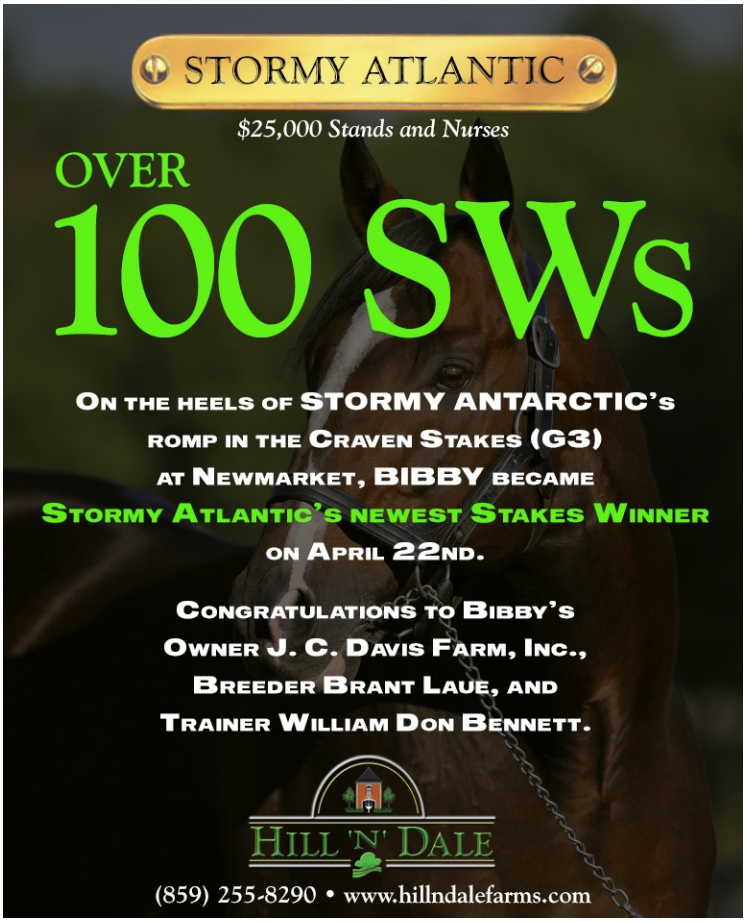
Also Ran: A Red Tie Day, Up With the Birds, Twilight Eclipse, St. Albans Boy, Idolo Porteno (Arg).



The recipient of a perfect ground-saving trip, Da Big Hoss responded when set down for the drive by Florent Geroux and charged up the fence before outstaying arch-nemesis Kaigun in this traditional marathon event of the spring meeting. The two, separated by a half-length at the wire, were a mere $300 apart on the toteboard.

Claimed from Gary and Mary West for $50,000 out of a winning effort going a mile at Churchill last June, Da Big Hoss was promoted to victory in an 11-furlong allowance at Saratoga the following month before adding a two-length success in the John's Call S. over 13 grassy panels Aug. 26. The two-length winner of the Sept. 14 GIII Kentucky Turf Cup up and down the hills at Kentucky Downs, the clean chestnut was a respectable fifth in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf over this track and distance before heading south. Third in Gulfstream's GIII W. L. McKnight H. on Boxing Day--one spot behind Kaigun--he turned the tables on that one in the GIII John B. Connally S. at Sam Houston Jan. 30 and was a latest fifth, with Kaigun second, in the GII Mac Diarmida S. Mar. 5. Red Tie Day (Indygo Shiner) won the hop beneath Gary Stevens and set sail for the lead tracked by the well-backed Idolo Porteno (Arg) (Jump Start) as Geroux dropped Da Big Hoss right onto the back of the pacesetter.

Stevens dropped anchor with a pair of :26-second quarter-mile splits and he'd saved enough to turn back the persistent challenge of Idolo Porteno before putting a bit of daylight on his rivals nearing the lane. Red Tie Day was first to make the stretch and looked to be going well, but he vacated the rail, providing a clear passage for Da Big Hoss, who quickened up nicely and held sway as Kaigun took a dive at him late. Royal Albert Hall turned in the fastest final fraction (:23.32) to just miss second in his first try past 10 furlongs.

"He's a very neat horse, push-button," the winning jockey commented. "You can put him exactly where you want to be. If there's a bit of an opening, when you ask him to go, he can push through very clear and very quickly. I think that made the difference today, the trip and saving ground. When I was able to see the opening at the top of the stretch, my horse kicked on very nicely and kept going."

The winner's dam is a daughter of the outstanding MGSW & MGISP turf mare Lady Blessington (Fr) (Baillamont). Talk Show (Smart Strike), a half-sister to Da Big Hoss, broke her maiden for the Wests in her first start around two turns at Oaklawn Park Feb. 28, the same day the siblings' dam gave birth to a colt by GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner New Year's Day (Street Cry {Ire}), who was also campaigned in the Wests' pink-and-black silks. Click for the Equibase.com chart, the TJCIS.com PPs or the free Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree. When last they met, Finest City finished eight lengths adrift of Fantastic Style in Santa Anita's GIII Las Flores S. Mar. 20. Sent off at 8-1 to Fantastic Style's long odds-on quote, the chestnut was given an outstanding ride by Kent Desormeaux and ran past the favorite in the final 50 yards to cause the upset.

A first-level allowance winner at Del Mar Oct. 31, earning a lofty 93 Beyer Speed Figure, Finest City was a distant second as the favorite in a local allowance Dec. 3 before weakening to sixth in the GI La Brea S. at Santa Anita Dec. 26. A determined second to Lost Bus in that one's 64-1 upset of the GII Santa Monica S. Jan. 23, she was third in a Feb. 11 allowance and was looking to even the score with Fantastic Style here.

Ridden well back in the field as Thirteen Arrows (Indian Charlie) was intent on getting the early lead from Fantastic Style, Finest City traveled deep on the track, but Desormeaux made the key decision to angle her in at the entrance to the far turn to save some ground. Behind horses on the bend, she came back out four wide at the head of the stretch, began to bear down on Fantastic Style and Lost Bus to their outside entering the final furlong and edged clear late to score in new track-record time.

"We knew we had a very nice filly and we've just had to give her time," said Ian Kruljac, son of trainer Eric Kruljac, who was saddling his first graded winner. "It paid off today. The post really helped her. She likes to run free and clear and she's had some trips where's she's been stuck inside. I thought we could win today because she is all heart and I really didn't think we had seen her best yet. The way she settled we might try to stretch her out. I want to thank the owners [Seltzer Thoroughbreds], my father and everyone at the barn for believing in me.''

Finest City, who was purchased by her breeder in utero for $37,000 at Keeneland November in 2011, is the first foal to race from her dam, a half-sister to GISW Burning Roma (Rubiano). Be Envied is the dam of the 2-year-old filly Grand Prix (Tale of the Cat), who breezed three furlongs in :36.40 for trainer Gary Mandella at Santa Anita Apr. 20. She is represented by a yearling colt of this year by Tale of Ekati (Tale of the Cat), who was foaled in India after the mare was led out unsold on a bid of $24,000 at Keeneland November in 2014 and subsequently exported.

"I got him finishing up in :11 and change," O'Neill added before heading across Versailles Road to catch a flight bound for West Virginia, where he saddled 'TDN Rising Star' Donworth (Tiznow) to a third-place effort in the GII Charles Town Classic Saturday evening. "It was a good piece of work. It was a maintenance move to keep him where he is and keep him happy."

Nyquist is tentatively scheduled to have his final pre-Derby work at Keeneland Apr. 30, with a westbound trip across Interstate 64 to Churchill planned for the next day. O'Neill suggested that a work similar to his last two is in the cards for next weekend.

Nyquist (noseband) working Saturday at Keeneland | Coady photography

"We'll play it by ear [as to whether he works in company or on his own]," O'Neill said. "1:01 and change seems like a good number. I will probably keep him in the 7 o'clock window. That is the time he goes at home and I like to keep him in his routine and that keeps him happy." (Click here for an interview with O'Neill).

Saturday marked the first morning that Derby- and Oaks-bound runners have a reserved window between 8:30 and 8:45.

Land Over Sea (Bellamy Road), the GII Fair Grounds Oaks winner, also breezed Saturday morning, going five panels in 1:02.20 beneath Garcia. The move was accomplished in splits of :12.20, :24.20 and :36.40. She galloped out six furlongs in 1:17.60.

"That was by design, just a maintenance move," said Jack Sisterson, assistant to O'Neill.

Land Over Sea is also penciled in for her final Oaks drill next Saturday morning at Keeneland.

BRODY'S CAUSE BACK ON THE TAB

Working for the first time since his 1 3/4-length defeat of 'TDN Rising Star' My Man Sam (Trappe Shot) in the GI Toyota Blue Grass S. at Keeneland Apr. 9, Albaugh Family Stable's Brody's Cause (Giant's Causeway) recorded a five-furlong breeze at trainer Dale Romans's Churchill base, covering the distance in 1:01.80. Track clockers caught the colt in fractions of :12.40, :24.60, :36.60 and :48.60 before galloping out three-quarters of a mile in 1:15.60.

Brody's Cause | Coady photography

"It's just what we wanted," trainer Dale Romans opined. "I know it sounds cliche, but you can't hide these Derby horses, everybody's watching them. We wanted to go with a nice easy work. It's the first one back off of the race and he went around there perfect. [Exercise rider] Tammy [Fox] said he felt great."

Romans also sent out his undefeated GI Kentucky Oaks hopeful Go Maggie Go (Ghostzapper) for a five-furlong move. Last-out winner of the GII Gulfstream Park Oaks Apr. 2, the Mike Tarp colorbearer stopped the timer in 1:00.80, with sectional times of :11.60, :23 flat, :35.40 and :47.80. She galloped out an extra furlong in :13.60 for a six-furlong time of 1:14.40.

"The whole complexion changed when we lost the big filly [Songbird, by Medaglia d'Oro], but she's training about as good a filly as I have had," Romans suggested. "It's a lot to ask of a filly making her third start of her life, but it was a lot to ask to run her in the [Gulfstream Park] Oaks the second start of her life. She just keeps on training better and better."

With his Derby status up in the air as he sits 25th on the leaderboard, 'TDN Rising Star' Cherry Wine (Paddy O'Prado) did not join his stablemates on the worktab.

"He's a little bit of a lighter horse; we don't need to do much with him," Romans said. "Right now our chances of getting in the Derby are not looking good so we'll just try to think [May 21 GI] Preakness S."

TOM'S READY DRILLS FOR STEWART BARN

Tom's Ready (More Than Ready), one of two likely Derby starters for Gayle and Tom Benson's G M B Racing, tuned up for the race with a solid five-furlong breeze Saturday morning at Churchill Downs. Working in the company of his stable companion Forever d'Oro (Medaglia d'Oro), Tom's Ready covered the distance in 1:01 flat in fractions of :13.60 and :38 before galloping out with good energy for a six-furlong time of 1:14.20. Tom's Ready broke off a couple of lengths behind his company and finished on even terms.

Tom's Ready | Coady photography

"I thought [he looked] good," trainer Dallas Stewart commented. "He was nice and solid. It was a typical work for him; he laid off a horse [Forever d'Oro] and made a good finish. It was a good fight and that was a nice colt that he worked with."

Runner-up to fellow G M B runner, the Tom Amoss-trained Mo Tom (Uncle Mo) in the GIII Lecomte S. Jan. 16, Tom's Ready was a wide-trip seventh behind Gun Runner (Candy Ride {Arg}) in the GII Veterans Ford Risen Star S. Feb. 20, but bounced back to fill out the exacta underneath the latter in the GII TwinSpires.com Louisiana Derby Mar. 26.

OUTSIDE LOOKING IN, FELLOWSHIP WORKS

Fellowship (Awesome of Course), a recent arrival into the Mark Casse barn, remains one spot outside of a berth in the GI Kentucky Derby based on points, but continues to train with purpose, as he breezed five panels in 1:00.40 beneath the Twin Spires Saturday morning. Accompanied in his work by multiple graded-stakes winning sprinter Awesome Banner (Awesome of Course), Fellowship went the five furlongs in fractions of :13, :25 and :36.80 before galloping out in 1:13.80 for six furlongs.

Fellowship covering Awesome Banner on the turn
Coady photography

"He did everything that we wanted him to do," said Norman Casse, son of and assistant to trainer Mark Casse. "This was just what we liked to see two weeks before a big race. Looks like he just skips over the racetrack. He's full of himself and has a lot of good energy. It's just everything you look for in a two-week work in our program. "As of right now I'm really excited with the idea that we could get to run. I think he would run really well. He's obviously not in yet, but I'm actually kind of overwhelmed with how well he's trained."

'SOPHIA' LIKELY FOR OAKS AFTER BREEZE

'TDN Rising Star' Cathryn Sophia (Street Boss), a latest third as the heavy favorite when trying two turns for the first time in the GI Ashland S. at Keeneland Apr. 9, breezed five furlongs in :59.60 (video) at the Lexington oval Saturday morning. Cathryn Sophia was timed in fractions of :11.60, :23 and :35 before pulling up in 1:12.60 for three-quarters of a mile.

After suggesting in the immediate aftermath of the filly's first career loss that she did not stay the 8 1/2 furlongs and would likely pass the GI Kentucky Oaks, trainer John Servis seemed to have a change of heart.

Cathryn Sophia | Coady photography

"I would say after that work," Servis told the Keeneland notes team, "I'm leaning toward going [to the Oaks]."

The complexion of the Oaks changed dramatically with last week's announcement that champion and fellow 'Rising Star' Songbird (Medaglia d'Oro) would be forced to miss the race.

Servis, whose two Keeneland-based horses are being overseen by his son Tyler, was pleased with the reports he was given.

"It was pretty much what I wanted," Servis said from Parx. "Kinda let her work on her own, but I wanted her to gallop out good, which she did. As long as she comes out of it good and everything's good, I'll talk to [owner] Mr. [Chuck] Zacney today, and I'm sure we'll make a decision before the end of the night," he said, referring to the Oaks.

Should she bypass the race, Cathryn Sophia could be routed for the seven-furlong GIII Eight Belles S. on the Oaks undercard.

Highland Sky, a winner at first asking going this trip over the Saratoga lawn Sept. 5, ran a respectable fourth behind MGSW Isotherm (Lonhro {Aus}) in the GIII Pilgrim S. at Belmont Park later that month. Hopping at the start of the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf S., the dark bay made up some late ground to finish sixth behind Hit It a Bomb (War Front) Oct. 30 and was runner-up coming off just shy of five months on the bench when a closing second in the Cutler Bay H. over the Hallandale lawn Mar. 26. Favored Saturday, Highland Sky rated at the back of the pack as Mighty Mo set uncontested fractions at the head of affairs. Asked to improve while well off the fence turning for home, the sophomore was four deep just off the leaders through three quarters in 1:14.26 and outboxed Mighty Mo to the line for his first black-type win. "He had some time off; went to the farm," commented Robin Smullen, assistant to winning trainer Barclay Tagg. "He came back and we had him pretty ready last time; we know he wants to go further, and we know he'll like the big turns at Belmont, but for his family, we were really hoping to get a stakes win. It means a lot to the breeder, Bonner [Young]. We've got that under our belt now and we're really, really looking forward to Belmont. Our real goal is the [$1.25-million GI] Belmont Derby [July 9], with another race between. If it all works out, maybe the Pennine Ridge [June 4]." Kristi With a K (Petionville), who ran second in the GIII Athenia S. and is a half-sister to GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup S. heroine Bit of Whimsy (Distorted Humor), foaled a colt by Bodemeister in 2015 and was covered by Pioneerof the Nile last year. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

She tired to finish last of six after pressing the pace in the GII Matron S. Oct. 18 and was subsequently given some time off. Second as the 8-5 chalk behind the well-related Barbarenda (Sidney's Candy) in an optional claimer at Gulfstream Feb. 5, Libreta was overlooked in the wagering here. She forced the early issue as they lined up four across the track, then backed off a bit to race in fourth while saving all the ground. She was guided off the rail at the top of the stretch and fought past the game comebacking 'TDN Rising Star' She's All Ready to key an exacta for her sophomore sire. "The filly is nice, she's got a lot of potential," said Pedro Matteo, assistant to winning trainer Tom Albertrani. "We were disappointed last year when she was [sixth in the Matron], but she came back in Florida and finished second. She's been here a week, and has been training well. Tom [Albertrani] picked out a nice spot for her." Libreta is the first foal from the Ghostzapper mare Enrichment, a maiden of eight career starts. ULTRA BRAT (f, 3, Uncle Mo--Prof. McGonagall, by Storm Cat) only managed 12th in her career bow for Rusty Arnold going six panels beneath the Twin Spires Nov. 1 and, now a resident of the Graham Motion barn, fired a bullet half-mile in :46 3/5 (1/50) in preparation for this return at Keeneland Apr. 17. Tabbed the 7-2 second choice, the bay immediately streaked straight to the front with some mild pressure applied to her outside flank in the form of 6-5 chalk Forecast (Malibu Moon) for the backstretch run. She refused to let that rival by and was home free after six panels in 1:10.69. Ultra Brat proved not for catching, drawing off to win by 1 3/4 lengths over Forecast, who had dogged her the whole way around. Ultra Brat is a half-sister to It's Tea Time (Dynaformer), GSW & GISP, $470,226. Prof. McGonagall foaled a pair of colts, first by Malibu Moon in 2015 and by Hard Spun this term. Second dam is GI Demoiselle S. heroine Rootentootenwooten (Diesis {GB}). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $36,261. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

DEAR ELAINE (f, 3, Broken Vow--Whirlie Bertie {GSW, $205,449}, by Stormin Fever) was fifth on debut over track and trip Oct. 14, then led for nearly the whole way before getting nailed late when second in the Churchill slop Nov. 28. Sent off at 5-2 in this first start since, the bay ran in third for the first half-mile before tugging her way up to challenge the favored pacesetter midway around the turn. She easily took over from that one nearing the top of the lane and spurted clear under mild urging, never challenged in the stretch en route to a 2 3/4-length triumph. Cont. p3

5th-KEE, $59,966, Msw, 4-23, 3yo, f, 1 1/16mT, 1:43.03, fm. TRY YOUR LUCK (f, 3, Lookin At Lucky--Golden Sphinx, by Storm Cat), an $80,000 KEESEP yearling purchase by Donver Stable, brought a mere $18,000 from Machmer Hall as a 2-year-old at the following year's OBSOCT sale. A rallying third for owner Carrie Brogden and trainer Herman Wilensky behind recent sharp next out winner Ramblin N Gamblin (Elusive Quality) in a $35,000 maiden claimer going five furlongs over the Gulfstream Park lawn at first asking Dec. 26, Try Your Luck switched hands once again in the interim. Second, beaten only a head, when stretched to 7 1/2 furlongs in Hallandale Feb. 3, the bay was claimed off Team Valor International and trainer Ralph Nicks that day for $75,000 by the current connections. She debuted for this outfit with a solid third-place finish in a maiden special weight going nine furlongs at Gulfstream Feb. 28, then was a well-beaten fourth after stumbling at the start in her first career attempt on dirt there Mar. 20. Back on the lawn here, Try Your Luck pressed the early leader from second after exiting widest of all from stall 11. She gained a narrow advantage through a half mile in :48.31, began to shake clear off the turn for home and dropped the hammer in the stretch to stamp herself as a filly to watch, graduating by an authoritative 9 1/4 lengths at odds of 7-2. Well-bred firster Private Client (Kitten's Joy), a half-sister to millionaire Keertana (Johar), was second as the 5-2 favorite. The winner, a half-sister to High Quality (Elusive Quality), SP, $151,488, stopped the timer in :2.27 seconds faster than Squeeze (Lemon Drop Kid), an impressive debut winner two races earlier on the card. Lifetime Record: 5-1-1-2, $49,400. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Indy), GSP, $124,384, was bet down to 5-1 in this maiden heat and looked the picture of fitness in the post parade. Away well, the $350,000 KEESEP yearling buy settled in midpack early on and sat seventh while saving ground as European invader Double Espresso (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) cleared through a :24.19 quarter and :49.46 half. That one spurted away on the far turn as Squeeze began to move up at the three-eighths pole, advancing to fifth turning for home. Still with a good five lengths to make up past the furlong grounds, the dark bay filly showed an impressive turn of foot under Julien Leparoux to rally alongside and blow by the longtime leader for a 1 1/2-length tally. Coogee Bay (Lonhro {Aus}) ,a daughter of MGISW Manistique (Unbridled), finished 10th. The winner emulated Ocho Ocho Ocho, as well as her dam Winner (Horse Chestnut {SAf}), who scored on debut just like her dam Pennant Champion (Mr. Prospector) and second dam undefeated champion Personal Ensign (Private Account). The third time was the charm Apr. 2, as the homebred chased a strong pace before coming home to an impressive 2 1/2-length score, earning a 94 Beyer Speed Figure for the maiden-breaking effort.

Dig Deep | Coady

Away as the 11-10 second choice in this stakes debut, the bay stalked front-running favorite Quijote closely into the first turn before backing off just a bit through a :23.57 quarter-mile. Nudged along just a bit down the backside by Javier Castellano past a :47.53 half, Dig Deep drew on even terms with the leader midway around the far turn before taking over into the stretch. Drifting in a bit, he kicked clear in the last furlong to win going away by 1 3/4 lengths.

Dig Deep, a grandson of 1995 GI Test S. heroine Chaposa Springs (Baldski), has a yearling full sister. The 'TDN Rising Star,' hero of the 2013 GII Virginia Derby and 2014 GIII Louisville H., was off the board in five of his next six starts, however, most recently finishing a dull seventh Dec. 26 in the local GIII W. L. McKnight H. Dropping out of stakes company for just the third time in the last three years, the dark bay broke smoothly as the 3-2 choice and sat second, allowing eventual runner-up Chamois (Smart Strike) to clear through a :23.98 quarter. "He broke alertly and got to dictate the pace," trainer Todd Pletcher said. "He was a little green turning for home, waiting on company, but once Edgard [Zayas] gave him his cue, he leveled off and finished well... I think he had some baby issues." Cont. p5

Bibby broke her maiden over the Delaware Park lawn last July and reported home third in a Suffolk optional claimer on Halloween. Purchased by these connections from Jon and Sarah Kelly at Keeneland January for $26,000, she was transferred from the Christophe Clement barn to William Bennett in the interim. Off the mark by a head in a Delta Downs main track affair Mar. 12, she faded to eighth back on turf in the New Orleans Ladies S. Mar. 26 and was sent off at huge odds in this off-turf contest. Away a bit slowly, she settled in an eager second through a half-mile in :48.17. Cont. p6

Bibby (inside) | Coady Photography

She made her bid for the lead in between horses on the far turn, gained command by upper stretch, was briefly headed by Forest Lake and clawed back to a narrow score. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

CHERUBIM (g, 5, Henny Hughes--Wings of an Angel, by Cherokee Run), third in the GII San Vicente S. as a sophomore, added a Santa Anita optional claimer last May and dropped a head decision in a similar feature a month later. He rolled a pair of twos--first in the Del Mar slop going six panels July 19 and to end his season in the restricted Pirates Bounty S. at that venue Sept. 7. Sent off at 7-2 in this seasonal reappearance, the 5-year-old attended the early pace against the inside through a solid half-mile in :45.53. In charge from there, he held off the onrushing Pay the Fine (Square Eddie) by a nose, with Desert Dynamo (Desert Party) an equal margin back in third. "We are breaking about 10 for Richard and Bertram Klein right now. They are all good minded, with big strong hips, good bone… I've started taking some up to the track at Keeneland and people are always asking 'who's that?!' as they go by. They will get every opportunity; Brad (Cox) and I will do right by them."

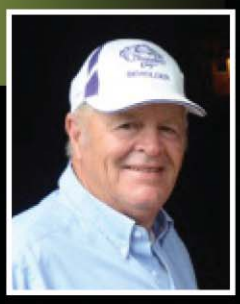
– CHARLIE LOPRESTI, Trainer

Trained Wise Dan, Turallure, etc.



"I've been telling everyone I know that COUNTRY DAY is a name you need to remember now."

– FRED MITCHELL, Clarkland Farm

Bred & raised BEHOLDER, etc.
Foaled & Raised Country Day for the Klein family

"I don't buy any horse unless it meets 3 criteria; conformation, balance and athleticism. She obviously had all 3, plus she looks precocious. I bought 25 or so yearlings this year, but I remember this filly vividly. She is doing great with the Mayberry's in FL."

– KEITH DESORMEAUX, Trainer

Bought & Trained Texas Red, Exaggerator, etc.
Bought filly out of Café at KEESEP15 from Brandywine Farm for $42,000

"She's a big, strong, pretty filly and she's training beautifully. Physically I would put her up against anything I've got here."

– APRIL MAYBERRY, Mayberry Farm

Broke Zenyatta, Texas Red, etc.
Breaking filly out of Café for Keith Desormeaux

"We have 2 fillies at the farm, both are training well and they look precocious. They are really good minded and they love their jobs."

BALLYDOYLE PLEASES O'BRIEN IN GUINEAS WORK

Ballydoyle appears likely to join stablemate Minding in the G1 QIPCO 1000 Guineas at Newmarket next weekend | Racing Post

Last year's G1 Total Prix Marcel Boussac winner Ballydoyle (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) is on track to join her stablemate--and ante-post favourite--Minding (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G1 QIPCO 1000 Guineas at Newmarket May 1 after pleasing trainer Aidan O'Brien in a Saturday work. Ballydoyle bested Minding in The Curragh's G2 Debutante S. last August before that rival turned the tables in the G1 Moyglare Stud S., but Ballydoyle was able to notch a win at the highest level in the Oct. 4 Marcel Boussac in the absence of the subsequent 2-year-old filly champion. Ballydoyle has not run since, and O'Brien told Channel 4 Racing of Saturday's work, "That was lovely, you'd have to be very happy. On that piece of work, we'd be very happy to run in the English Guineas."

Ballydoyle is currently 6-1 for the 1000 Guineas.

O'Brien will also saddle the G1 QIPCO 2000 Guineas favourite, Air Force Blue (War Front), who completed his final pre-Guineas work Friday. O'Brien was reserved about the 2-year-old champion's prospects of getting a mile, however, saying, "We are a little bit worried about the mile in the Guineas, because he's so quick. The ideal plan would be Newmarket, Irish Guineas and Royal Ascot, but, if not, we have the option to shorten up."

Air Force Blue won three Group 1s last year, and was last seen taking the G1 Dewhurst S. Oct. 10.

'DESIGNS' ON ANOTHER QE II

by Alan Carasso

Jockey Tommy Berry has made the most of his visits to Hong Kong over the past four seasons, and Designs On Rome (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}), the horse responsible for a good deal of that success, will try to give the top Australian rider his third win in four years in Sunday's G1 Audemars Piguet Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Sha Tin Racecourse.

Victorious in this event in 2014 on the heels of his thrilling defeat of Able Friend (Aus) (Shamardal) in that year's Hong Kong Derby, the bay was fourth by two lengths behind Blazing Speed (GB) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}) in defense of his title last season, then underwent surgery on both front fetlocks. He was slow to come to hand this year, including a fourth as the surprising favorite when second-up in the G1 Longines Hong Kong Cup, but was back to something close to his best when defeating stablemate Helene Happy Star (Ire) (Zamindar) in the G1 Citibank Hong Kong Gold Cup over this track and distance Feb. 28. Cont. p8

O'Brien also has the early G1 Investec Derby favourite, US Army Ranger (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), in his arsenal. That colt, currently 9-2 for the June 4 Classic, has started just once, winning a 10-furlong Curragh maiden on debut Apr. 3 over heavy going. O'Brien noted US Army Ranger would likely take in a Chester prep race in May, the same route taken by O'Brien's 2013 Derby winner Ruler Of The World (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).

US Army Ranger | Racing Post

"Because the ground was soft, everything was in slow motion the first day he ran, so he probably didn't learn an awful lot," the trainer said. "It's possible we'll go to Chester and he'll have to learn a lot very quickly."

BIG BAD BOB DIES AT 16

Cristina Patino's Big Bad Bob (Ire) (Bob Back–Fantasy Girl {Ire}, by Marju {Ire}), who made a name for himself when siring a high ratio of winners to runners from modest beginnings at stud, died Saturday at age 16 in a paddock accident at the Irish National Stud.

Campaigned as a homebred by Patino's Windflower Overseas Holdings, Big Bad Bob won four of his six outings as a 2-year-old for trainer John Dunlop, including Ascot's Listed Autumn S. Big Bad Bob opened his 3-year-old campaign with a second to subsequent G1 Epsom Derby scorer Kris Kin (Kris S) in the G3 Dee S., but bypassed the Classics in favour of Royal Ascot. That dream failed to materialise when the dark bay was last of eight in the G2 King Edward VII S., but he rebounded thereafter to take a 10 1/2-furlong Haydock conditions race followed by France's Listed Prix Ridgway, and Germany's G3 Furstenberg-Rennen two weeks later. Big Bad Bob raced until age five, retiring with eight wins from 22 starts and earnings of £122,851.

Big Bad Bob | Racing Post

Standing initially at Islanmore Stud, where he covered Patino's mares almost exclusively, Big Bad Bob drew the attention of astute breeders when his first few crops turned out a high ratio of winners to runners, including the Group 3 winners Berg Bahn (Ire) and Bible Belt (Ire), and listed winner Bob Le Beau (Ire). Big Bad Bob was transferred to the Irish National Stud in 2011. He started as a fee of €6,000, which later rose to €9,000, and his more recent flagbearers include last year's G3 Dance Design S. winner Bocca Baciata (Ire) and last year's listed-winning 2-year-old Tashweeq (Ire). Big Bad Bob is the sire of nine stakes winners. His current 3-year-olds come from a book of 143 mares; his 2-year-olds a book of 103 mares and his yearlings a book of 161 mares.

GERMAN CLASSIC HOPEFULS ON DISPLAY

Germany's Classic protagonists strut their stuff on Sunday, where Krefeld's G3 Dr Busch-Memorial serves as an early snapshot of the country's pecking order. Intriguingly, Stall Antanando's Parthenius (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}) and Gestut Rottgen's El Loco (Ger) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) renew rivalry after a nose separated them when first and second, respectively, in the G3 Herzog von Ratibor-Rennen over this course and distance in November. The former is a full-brother to the same owner's triple Group 1 winner Pastorius (Ger), while another with high-class connections is Jaber Abdullah's six-length Listed Junioren-Preis winner Noor Al Hawa (Fr) (Makfi {GB}), a son of the 2007 G1 Sun Chariot S. winner Majestic Roi (Street Cry {Ire}).

Showing what a talent he is from the front when taking Newmarket's Listed European Free H. over this seven-furlong trip that is probably ideal last April, Home of the Brave was a respectable sixth in the G1 2000 Guineas back there in May and was in the same position in Royal Ascot's G1 Commonwealth Cup trying six furlongs in June. After leading from pillar-to-post back at this distance in The Curragh's G3 Minstrel S. the following month--a race he was later stripped of due to a prohibited substance being found--the chestnut was a disappointing 11th in the G2 Park S. again over seven at Doncaster on his last outing in September. Quickly to the fore, Home of the Brave was turning the screw approaching the final furlong and needed only to be shown the whip by William Buick to put the race out of reach. The dam, who is a half to another seven-furlong specialist in Suggestive (GB) (Reprimand {GB}), also has an unraced 3-year-old half-brother, Abo Sidrah (Ire) (Dream Ahead), and a 2-year-old colt by Excelebration (Ire). Click for the Racing Post result. Making smooth headway from halfway, the 9-4 chalk was pushed along to challenge approaching the final eighth and lengthened clear in good style to defeat Billy's Boots (GB) (Winker Watson {GB}) by an impressive five lengths. The winner's second dam is a winning half-sister to G1 Irish 2000 Guineas winner Saffron Walden (Fr) (Sadler's Wells), G1 Prix de la Foret victor Dolphin Street (Fr) (Bluebird) and GI E.P. Taylor S. first Insight (Fr) (Sadler's Wells). Sales history: €10,000 RNA Wlg '14 GOFNOV; €55,000 Ylg '15 TISEP. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $4,657. Video, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Gradually working his way into the race in the straight, the 7-2 shot struck the front with just over a furlong to race and surged clear to record a comprehensive 3 1/2-length score from Hepplewhite (GB) (Rail Link {GB}). Mauralakana, who captured the GI Beverly D. among others, is from the immediate family of the G1 Hong Kong Cup hero Jim and Tonic (Fr) (Double Bed {Fr}) and has a yearling full-brother to the winner. Extending her advantage inside the last two furlongs, the 2-5 market leader hit the line strong with seven lengths to spare over Under Attack (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}). The dam descends from the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches runner-up and G1 Prix de Diane third Agathe (Manila), who is a half-sister to the Breeders' Cup Classic hero Arcangues and also the dam of the high-class Aquarelliste (Fr) (Danehill), winner of the Prix de Diane among other races, and the MGISW Artiste Royal (Ire) (Danehill). Allowed to stride to the front with over two furlongs remaining, the homebred drew away with the minimum of fuss to record a convincing five-length success. Forge is from arguably one of the world's finest families that hardly needs any introduction. He is a son of the 2003 GI Beverly D. S. and GI Matriarch S. heroine Heat Haze (GB) (Green Desert), just one of five top-level winners out of Hasili (Ire) alongside the Danehill progeny Banks Hill (GB), Cacique (Ire), Champs Elysees (GB) and Intercontinental (GB). Hasili's best known representative is the similarly high-class performer and now highly influential sire Dansili (GB) and the hereditary gold is set to continue its flow with Heat Haze having produced a 2-year-old colt by Frankel (GB) named Mirage Dancer (GB). Unfortunately, she was barren to that illustrious presence in 2015. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $7,453. Video, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Fadillah, who topped the list at €1.2-million at Arqana's 2014 August Yearling sale, followed hot on the heels of Craven's Legend (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire})--the €1.1-million second-highest-priced lot at that sale who graduated at Compiegne two days before--and justified her entry in the June 3 G1 Epsom Oaks with a taking performance in this unveiling. The bay was a shade free racing under a tight grip in sixth early before settling into a smooth rhythm. Nudged along approaching the final quarter mile, the 6-4 favourite stayed on strongly for Pat Cosgrave's whipless cajoling and swooped late to gain an ultimately comfortable 3/4-of-a-length verdict over Malhama (GB) (New Approach {Ire}). "Pat Cosgrave has ridden her a bit and thought she had enough speed for a mile, which is why we came here, and he said she was much greener then he thought," trainer William Haggas said. "She's quite a fussy, fragile filly but she's talented and if we can channel that I'm sure she has more to offer. I will certainly step her up to a mile and a quarter next time and that was perfect, as he never had to touch her [with the whip]. She was hardly in training last year, so I know very little about her, but she has shown lots of class in the couple of bits of work she has done." Haggas suggested Fadillah's Classic prospects could lie in the G1 Irish Oaks.

"She's got a chance to be good and will be entered in everything she can be, but whether the Oaks is the right race I don't know. Ireland might be more suitable, as she has another six weeks. She'll need to take in a trial next time if that's going to happen, and her pedigree says a mile and a half." Niggled at in the back straight, the 8-15 favourite built a head of steam on the home turn and after overwhelming the long-time leader Mahfooz (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) with 1 1/2 furlongs left, stayed on to win by 4 1/2 lengths. The dam, who is a half-sister to the English and Irish Oaks heroine Sariska (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), has excelled in her short spell as a broodmare so far. Having beaten stable companion and subsequent G1 Irish St Leger hero Order of St George (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) by a short head in the 14-furlong G3 Curragh Cup in June, Bondi Beach was denied by a half-length when runner-up to Storm the Stars (Sea the Stars {Ire}) in York's G2 Great Voltigeur S. at a mile and a half in August prior to the G1 St Leger he lost, then won and lost again in the stewards room, the following month. Only 16th attempting the Nov. 3 G1 Melbourne Cup, the bay--who has a yearling full-brother--returned with an impressive win under a penalty to suggest he could be a major player in the G1 Gold Cup at Royal Ascot June 16. Last early with Seamie Heffernan in confident mood, he was unleashed wide on the home turn and, after sweeping to the front with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, quickly wrapped up the contest for an authoritative success. "I was impressed and he won snug. He is a bit stronger and a bit more relaxed this year," his rider told Irish Racing.com. "He could be anything, but he is a good stayer." Click for the Racing Post result. Video, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

FERGUSON DISPERSES AT CHELTENHAM

John Ferguson's time as a jumps trainer officially wound down Friday at Tattersalls Ireland's Cheltenham April Sale when the chief executive and racing manager of Godolphin dispersed his Bloomfields stock. The 47 lots sold in the dispersal grossed £1,180,800, and were topped by Wenyerreadyfreddie (Ire) (Beneficial {GB}) (lot 39), who was picked up by Highflyer Bloodstock for £95,000. That sum was bettered by just one horse at the sale: Claimantakinforgan (Fr) Great Pretender {Ire}) (lot 68), who was also bought by Highflyer for £110,000. In total, 81 lots sold for £2,726,800. The average was £33,664 and the median £28,000.

Designs On Rome prepped for this with a third in the Chairman's Trophy over an insufficient 1600 metres Apr. 3 and figures a good price in this talented field.

The third runner who will try to give trainer John Moore a fifth win in the QE II is Werther (NZ) (Tavistock {NZ}). The 4-year-old has not set a hoof wrong since his victorious local debut on the international races undercard Dec. 13, and exits a staying-on success in the Hong Kong Derby Mar. 20. To read between the lines, Moore just may believe he's the pick of the trio.

"He's the sort of horse that can lay up and the Japanese horses won't get too far away," the Australian conditioner offered.

"Designs On Rome, the race might not be run to suit, but Werther worked really well--he came home really strongly and pulled up clean in the wind," he added. "He's gone on from the Derby."

Japanese-based horses took home two of the four trophies from the internationals and the nation puts forth three credentialed performers in search of a fourth QE II triumph. Lovely Day (Jpn) (King Kamehameha {Jpn}) is the most decorated of the three, his defeat of Hong Kong Cup also-ran and 2015 QE II runner-up Staphanos (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) in last year's G1 Tenno Sho (Autumn) stamping him as the country's leading 2000-metre horse. Third in the G1 Japan Cup and fifth in the G1 Arima Kinen in his two final runs last term, he resumed with a useful fourth to Ambitious (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) in the G2 Osaka Hai Apr. 3. Trainer Yasutoshi Ikee reaches out for leading local rider Joao Moreira.

"My agent in Japan contacted me and asked me if I was interested in riding Lovely Day," said the Brazilian. "Then after seeing all the replays of Lovely Day, I said 'yes' immediately to my agent. I think Lovely Day will have a big chance; he must be in the first four."

Nuovo Record (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) makes her second trip to Hong Kong, having completed a Japanese quinella behind front-running A Shin Hikari (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) in the Hong Kong Cup. She gets the services of the latter's jockey Yutaka Take and will try to improve off a first-up sixth in the Osaka Hai.

Satono Crown (Jpn) (Marju {Ire}) has solid form through Duramente (Jpn) (King Kamehameha {Jpn}) last season, with a third to the recent G1 Dubai Sheema Classic runner-up in the G1 Tokyo Yushun. Only 17th to Lovely Day in the Tenno Sho, he belied odds of 8-1 to record a three-length victory in the G2 Kyoto Kinen over yielding turf Feb. 14 and those underfoot conditions are expected Sunday.

It would be foolish to summarily dismiss the chances of the globetrotting Highland Reel (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who gave trainer Aidan O'Brien with his first Hong Kong winner when taking out the G1 Longines Hong Kong Vase over the metric 12 furlongs last December. Winner of the GI Secretariat S. and third to Winx (Aus) (Street Cry {Ire}) in the G1 Cox Plate at or about this journey, the 4-year-old has trained with vigour over the all-weather this past week.

The Hong Kong Jockey Club is offering a live webcast of the QE II at 4:35 p.m. local time (4:35 a.m. ET). Click here for the HKJC past performances.

SUN STUD BUYS INTO PALENTINO

Sun Stud, which formerly operated as Eliza Park International after being purchased by Sun International Group in 2013, has bought a 50% stake in this year's G1 Australian Guineas winner Palentino (Aus) (Teofilo {Ire}). An A$85,000 purchase from the 2014 Magic Millions Tasmanian Yearling Sale, Palentino has won three of seven outings for trainer Darren Weir and has missed the board just once.

"There were a number of studs pursuing Palentino and we have been fortunate enough to secure a 50% stake," Sun Stud's Mark Lindsay told Racing and Sports. "He is the type of colt we are wanting to stand and make available for our clients and mare owners."

Sun Stud Managing Director Danielle Cheng told Racing and Sports of the change in branding, "With its well-established foundations and history of success, Eliza Park was the perfect platform for the international growth and development of our Thoroughbred interests. We welcome this exciting change and look forward to continued success with the Sun International brand."
