STELLAR WIND GAME IN BEHOLDER

Hronis Racing's Stellar Wind (Curlin), who faced off against champion Beholder (Henny Hughes) in several memorable 2016 clashes, forged past a game Vale Dori (Arg) (Asiatic Boy {Arg}) in deep stretch to earn a neck victory in the first running of the GI Beholder Mile, formerly the Vanity, at Santa Anita Saturday.

"She's so game, that's why she wins these races," said winning owner Kosta Hronis. "She's back--our whole deal with bringing her back this year was if she was healthy and training well. This reminded me of running against Beholder."

Vale Dori bounded out to the lead as Stellar Wind, caught slightly flat-footed at the break, trailed the short three-horse field in the early strides. Victor Espinoza sent Stellar Wind through a seam between the pacesetter and Finest City (City Zip) going into the first turn and the 1-2 favorite took up a tracking position as Vale Dori set fractions of :24.12 and :47.64. Stellar Wind drew on even terms with the pacesetter at the top of the lane and looked set to sail on by, but Vale Dori, riding a six-race win streak, battled back bravely along the rail. Stellar Wind found another gear late, though, and put away the Argentinian miss in the dying strides to earn the fourth Grade I victory of her career.

"She's so tough," trainer John Sadler said after watching Stellar Wind earn her second Grade I win of 2017. "She doesn't lose photos. This was closer than I thought it was going to be, but that other mare is really a top mare now. We're thrilled."

A BOUNCE-BACK 'PERFORMANCE'

Last year's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf hero Oscar Performance (Kitten's Joy) had been a puzzling no-show in his two prior starts this season, but the talented 'TDN Rising Star' bounced back in a big way in Saturday's GIII Pennine Ridge S. to assert himself as a major contender for next month's GI Belmont Derby.

Taking up his preferred spot at the pole position early, the Amerman homebred faced little resistance as a very headstrong Secretary At War (War Front) fought with his rider in second through splits of :24.43, :49.92 and 1:14.74. Jose Ortiz remained very confident as he and Oscar Performance strode past the quarter pole with the cavalry charge stacking up just behind them, and he shook off Secretary at War in upper stretch before easily holding heavily favored late runner Good Samaritan (Harlan's Holiday) at bay by 1 3/4 lengths. Ticonderoga (Tapit) rounded out the trifecta.

Imported into this country with the highest of hopes as Brazil's Horse of the Year and champion 3-year-old, Bal a Bali overcame a well-documented bout with laminitis and shaped as one of this country's top milers not so long ago while owned by Rick Porter's Fox Hill Farms and Anthony Manganaro's Siena Farm. Off form for the better part of 18 months and nearly retired, the Southern Hemisphere 6-year-old seems to have rediscovered his best and earned his second U.S. top-level score in the Shoemaker Mile Saturday afternoon while earning an automatic bid to the GI Breeders' Cup Mile later this year at Del Mar.

The connections of Bal a Bali would have loved the potential shape of the Shoemaker on paper with the speedy Heart to Heart and What a View (Vronsky) signed on, and that expected pace duel materialized as Bal a Bali settled in fifth and with plenty of running room through an opening half-mile that went in a taxing :45.07. Heart to Heart, dangerous when left to his own devices, but susceptible when taken on, did manage to put away What a View outside the quarter pole, but it was at that point that Mike Smith had Bal a Bali in full gear. Heart to Heart was trying hard up front, but those early fractions began to take their toll and Bal a Bali reeled him in methodically inside the final 70 yards. Farhaan closed off nicely from last to grab second on the wire.

Fifth in this race two years ago, Bal a Bali was an allowance winner that October, but did not win again for 19 months until knocking out What a View on the wire in the Mar. 11 GI Kilroe Mile S. under a perfect ride from Javier Castellano, who went on to win the GI Santa Anita H. with Shaman Ghost (Ghostzapper) later that afternoon. Bal a Bali was exiting a fifth behind Divisidero (Kitten's Joy) in the GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic over a stamina-testing nine furlongs on Derby Day May 6.

"He's had some problems in his life and he's had some nice owners, some of the best in the business, that have been willing to let me do what's right by him," said Richard Mandella, who was fittingly winning the other Santa Anita feature on a day when the GI Beholder Mile was held. "The fruits of that are what you saw."

He added, "It's very gratifying but you expect him to win every time because he's a great horse. He's had a few things that didn't materialize, but with the setbacks that he's had...the industry needs to give him the credit due that he overcame it and came back to be such a good horse.

"In saying that, he's had two sets of owners. The original owners, Mr. Porter and Mr. Manganaro, who only wanted to do the best for him. Then, when Calumet picked up the breeding rights and decided to race him, they've only given me the encouragement to do the same thing. If all horses in the world had those kinds of owners, they'd be better off."

Pedigree Notes:

Bal a Bali is one of 14 top-level winners for Honour and Glory's son Put It Back, 11 of which have come in South America. In Summation and Jessica Is Back are the sire's two other Grade I winners in this country. Bal a Bali will ultimately retire to stud at owner Brad Kelley's Calumet Farm, also home to Heart to Heart's sire English Channel.

While the favorite's backers may have had a few anxious moments as Vale Dori seemed to re-rally in upper stretch, Espinoza was always confident.

"I wasn't worried," Espinoza said. "I had confidence in her. She's always like that in the stretch. She won't do much on her own. She's amazing, she's an incredible mare, but I have to do my job. She always wins by enough. I have to encourage her to go forward. She's been like that from the first day I rode her. She has so much power that it's hard for any other horse to beat her when it comes to head-and-head down the lane."

With wins in the 2015 GI Santa Anita Oaks and GII Summer Oaks, Stellar Wind was named champion 3-year-old filly of 2015 after a runner-up effort behind Stopchargingmaria (Tale of the Cat) in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff. She was second behind the great Beholder in what was at the time named the Vanity Mile in 2016, but bested that multiple champion in the GI Clement Hirsch S. and GI Zenyatta S. She ended 2016 with a fourth-place effort after a troubled start in the Breeders' Cup Distaff. Stellar Wind opened 2017 with another Grade I triumph, taking the Apr. 14 GI Apple Blossom H. by 1 1/4 lengths in her lone previous start this year.

"She's been training great," Sadler revealed. "She's even stronger than she was last year at this point in the year, so we're really excited. We were ready to go."

Pedigree Notes:

Stellar Wind, purchased privately by Hronis Racing after a dominating maiden score at Laurel in 2014, is out of a half-sister to MSW & GSP Im Out First (Allen's Prospect), the dam of MSW & GSP Im a Dixie Girl (Dixie Union)--dam of Grade I winner Mor Spirit (Eskendereya)--SW First Ascent and SW & GSP Zenith (Roy), whose son Great Hunter (Aptitude) won the GI Breeders' Futurity in 2016. Stellar Wind's unraced 3-year-old half-brother Bozeman (Birdstone) was a $190,000 purchase by Bo Bromagen, agent, out of the 2015 Keeneland September sale. The Keswick Stables homebred Evening Star, a two-time winner, was most recently bred to Curlin. Stellar Wind was her first foal.

A first-out winner at Saratoga last September, Frostmourne settled for fourth in the GIII Pilgrim S. Oct. 1 behind subsequent GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf winner and Saturday's GIII Pennine Ridge S. hero Oscar Performance (Kitten's Joy), but bounced back to take the Awad S. over yielding ground back in Elmont 28 days later. Frostmourne was second on seasonal debut to Pennine Ridge seventh Secretary At War (War Front) in the Big A's Woodhaven S. Apr. 22.

Frostmourne showed speed from the eight hole before tucking into a mid-pack spot as a duel percolated between Time to Travel (Hard Spun) and Cistron. That pair was clocked in splits of :23.00 and :47.53 and started to come back to the field turning for home as Frostmourne inched closer out wide still under a snug hold. The eventual winner took a few strides to get his feet underneath him as they straightened, but soon kicked it into high gear and swooped past his competition with a powerful run. Favored Big Score also closed nicely to complete the chalky exacta.

Pedigree Notes:

Richard and Sue Ann Masson's Green Lantern Farm purchased the winner's dam Leaning Tower (Theatrical {Ire}) for $175,000 as a Fasig-Tipton July yearling in 1997. She went winless in four tries out in California, but has more than repaid her owners in the breeding shed, particularly as a producer of talented turf milers. Speedy Karelian annexed the 2010 GI Maker's Mark Mile for Rusty Arnold, while Colgan's Chip checked in second by a nose in that same year's GII Oak Tree Mile S. at Hollywood Park under the tutelage of Craig Dollase. Leaning Tower is a half to the likes of Canadian champion, Queen's Plate and Breeders' S. winner Basqueian (Bounding Basque). Leaning Tower is her last known foal. "He's back," said Ortiz, who was celebrating his third win on the card. "The last couple of races he was breaking bad and today he broke a little slow, but I was able to get him going early a little better today. I'm glad where we were and I think the soft ground in Kentucky was hurting him. Thankfully, we got firm turf today and he showed up."

Sixth on debut at Saratoga last July, Oscar Performance returned a month later to crush his competition by 10 1/4 lengths. He took to yielding sod when a six-length winner of the GIII Pilgrim S. here in October, and successfully shipped to Santa Anita to handle a field that included Good Samaritan, Ticonderoga and Bowies Hero (Artie Schiller) and which produced five next-out stakes winners. Fifth with an awkward trip in Keeneland's GIII Transylvania S. Apr. 7, he was last seen fading to 10th in the GII American Turf S. at Churchill May 6. Both of those races came over courses rated "good."

"I'm thrilled to see him back in action," offered winning trainer Brian Lynch. "You're always worried about being a one-trick pony as a 2-year-old and the Juvenile Turf curse, but he had been training so solidly in between, I've just got to put it down to the soft turf courses in Kentucky. He certainly liked it today, he relaxed lovely. I think he got some relatively kind fractions that if he was back to his best, he was going to quicken off them and he did. I think he really finished nice."

Lynch confirmed that it would be on to the July 8 Belmont Derby for his talented turfer.

"He got the mile and an eighth today and there's no reason to say that he won't get the mile and a quarter," Lynch said. "He was very comfortable, he saddled well, he handled everything. As a 2-year-old, he had the tendency to get a little bit hot, but he was calm and settled today. I thought he rated very kindly, and he had a really great turn of foot when he called on him."

Pedigree Notes:

The winner's dam annexed the 2010 Santa Lucia H. over 8 1/2 panels of all-weather at Santa Anita in 2010 for Amerman Racing, and produced back-to-back graded winners with her second and third foals in last year's GIII Spiral S. hero Oscar Performance and Oscar Nominated. Devine Actress has an unraced 2-year-old filly named Emmy Performance (Point of Entry), and a yearling colt by Ghostzapper.

Off since a distant finish in Keeneland's GI Shadwell Turf Mile in October in what was just his second start outside of Woodbine, veteran Tower of Texas returned to his favorite track and to the winner's circle after come out on top of a furious three-way battle to the wire.

The bay settled in off the pace while glued to the rail as Commute blew the race apart on the turn while posting a :45.64 half. Tower of Texas tipped out for clear sailing as they straightened, and Calgary Cat joined him down the center from even further back. The pacesetter dug deep and looked like he might just pull off the heist, but Tower of Texas plugged away under furious left-handed encouragement and while glued to Calgary Cat and eked out the narrow victory.

"It was very competitive," said da Silva of the strength of Saturday's field. "You saw the finish. This horse has a big heart and he fought the entire stretch. All he wanted to do was catch the horse in front. He's giving everything he could to catch that horse. This horse came here to run."

A winner of the 2015 GII King Edward S. over an extra panel here, Tower of Texas had hit the board in four subsequent graded stakes over the local lawn, including when putting a scare into fans of the great Tepin (Bernstein) when second by a half-length in the GI Richoh Woodbine Mile in September. He showed a steady if nondescript worktab over the local Tapeta for this return to the races, and was partnering back up with leading local rider Eurico Rosa da Silva, who had been aboard for many of the gelding's best efforts.

"He's a lovely horse, he really is," said Hall of Fame conditioner Roger Attfield. "He's so competitive. He's been hurt two years in a row, actually, and went back to the farm in Kentucky. This last year, I thought it was going to be the last time I was going to see him. Back he came in the spring, and said, 'Come on, let's get going.' He trained really, really well coming into this race. He was ready to go today."

Pedigree Notes:

Tower of Texas was acquired by Lone Star State-based owners Scott and Evan Dilworth for $195,000 as a Keeneland January short yearling, but failed to change hands at two subsequent auctions--when bought back for $90,000 as a Fasig-Tipton October yearling and for $150,000 as an OBSMAR juvenile. The winner's dam, third in the 1995 GII Black-Eyed Susan S., is a half to GSW Luftikus and to the stakes-winning dam of GISW Love Theway Youare; and a full to the dam of GSW Saint Anddan. His third dam is MGSIW millionaire Sabin.

Under the tutelage of trainer David Smaga in France, Grand Jete needed a quartet of starts to graduate, accomplishing the feat going a mile at the regional Deauville course Clairefontaine last August. On the board in two of four subsequent tries in that country--including a handicap on the Chantilly all-weather Oct. 16--she joined the string of Chad Brown and marked her U.S. debut with an emphatic score in a first-level allowance at Keeneland Apr. 13. Amply supported to earn her initial stakes victory, the English-bred broke well, but had to take up mildly as the field moved past the stands for the first time, which relegated her to near the back of the pack. Tucked in and moving smoothly through a half in :47.57, she began to make her way forward as the leader carved out six furlongs in 1:11.49. Needing racing room turning for home, she swung out four wide for the stretch drive, jumped enthusiastically into gear and motored home a 1 1/4-length winner.

"She was so strong in the post parade," said winning rider Joe Bravo. "I expected to sit closer than I did, but I knew there were some rapid fillies and they were doing their thing up front. She knew when the race broke, she got us into a good position and made my job really easy. Her turn of foot was huge."

Pedigree Note:

Grand Jete, who represents the Juddmonte Farms' breeding empire top and bottom, is by the highly successful Juddmonte stallion Dansili and out of homebred Modern Look. Victorious for Prince Khaled Abdullah in the G3 Prix Miesque and the G2 Prix de Sandringham in 2007 and 2008, respectively, Modern Look subsequently joined Bobby Frankel's string in the U.S., where she finished second in Santa Anita's Moscow Burning S. The 12-year-old mare aborted foals by Dansili and Champs Elysees (GB) in 2015 and 2016, respectively, but successfully produced a filly by Dansili earlier this February year.

In racing, we hear the word Normandy and immediately think Deauville, Arqana Sales, the lovely Clairefontaine Racecourse, Calvados, apple tarts and caramel. But to the world, of course, three-quarters of a century ago, Normandy represented something far more seminal; the largest invasion in history and by the time the battle of Normandy was over, more than 50,000 Allied troops had given their lives in an effort which resulted in the turning point in the war. In this edition of TDN Weekend, we offer advice on exploring Normandy's World War II history while you're in Deauville for your equine pursuits this summer. We also profile successful owner Michael Dubb, whose Anna House is changing the lives of the children of Belmont's backstretch workers; talk vintage top hats (and tails) with Ascot's official top-hat licensee, Kristian Robson; tell you why if you're going to the Melbourne Cup, you should start planning right now; and bring you a special edition of The Last Word with Angel Cordero Jr., who has some fascinating revelations you've never heard before.

Limousine Liberal made amends for a narrow runner-up finish in last year's GIII Aristides S. with an off-the-pace victory in the 2017 renewal Saturday at Churchill Downs. The dark bay gelding was four wide in the chasing group as Union Jackson set the pace through an opening quarter in :21.83 and :45.17. He loomed a threat while still four wide at the top of the stretch, forged to the front with a furlong to run and sailed clear to the wire.

"Last year in the Aristides we came up just a bit short," recalled winning rider Corey Lanerie. "It was nice to rebound this year. Ben [Colebrook] has done a great job getting him ready. I think he relaxed more today and had a better kick in the stretch."

Colebrook added, "It was an easy decision to stay home and run again in the Aristides. He ran a tough race on Derby day and the race in New York [GII True North H.] was coming up tough. Corey gave a great ride this afternoon. We'll look at the [July 8 GII] Belmont Sprint Championship and races at Saratoga next."

Limousine Liberal | Coady Photography

Nosed out of a win in the Oct. 7 GII Phoenix S. at Keeneland, Limousine Liberal concluded his 2016 campaign with a fifth-place effort in the Nov. 5 GI Breeders' Cup Sprint. He opened 2017 with a third-place effort in the Apr. 8 GIII Commonwealth S. and, after several near-misses finally earned the first graded win of his career with a narrow score in the May 6 GII Churchill Downs S. last time out.

Pedigree Notes:

Co-breeder Mike Ball's parents Don and Mira Ball purchased Limousine Liberal's dam for $110,000 at the 2006 Keeneland September sale under their Donamire Farm banner. Katherine "K.K." Ball trained her to her best-career finish--a runner-up effort in maiden special weight company at Keeneland in 2008--but she went winless in eight starts. Limousine Liberal is the only foal out of Gift of Gab, who is a full-sister to GSW Uncle Denny.

IRISH WAR CRY BELMONT BOUND

by Alan Carasso

Isabelle de Tomaso's Irish War Cry (Curlin) breezed six furlongs in 1:13 3/5 (video) in the company of his stakes-winning stablemate Ascend (Candy Ride {Arg}) at Fair Hill Saturday morning and is being pointed for the June 10 GI Belmont S., trainer Graham Motion confirmed later in the day.

"He needed to have a decent work and needed to do it the right way and I think he did," Motion explained. "He went off in :12 4/5 and basically went in 12s [12-second furlongs] from there and he galloped out very well. I was very pleased."

Perfect in his first three career appearances, including a comprehensive defeat of champion Classic Empire (Pioneerof the Nile) in the GII Lambholm South Holy Bull S. Feb. 4, the homebred stubbed his toe when seventh to Gunnevera (Dialed In) in the Mar. 4 GII Xpressbet Fountain of Youth S. Confidence was restored in no uncertain terms when Irish War Cry streaked home to win the Apr. 8 GII Wood Memorial S., but he could manage only a 10th behind Always Dreaming (Bodemeister) in the GI Kentucky Derby May 6.

"After the Derby, I really had no plans of running in any of the other Triple Crown races, I was pretty discouraged," Motion acknowledged. "But he's done well since. We kind of wanted to get him home and regroup and this is where he's used to being in his own environment.

"I planned to go easy on him for a couple of weeks, but I started him back galloping sooner than I expected. Once I saw the Preakness results and saw how he was doing, we got to thinking about [the Belmont]." Cont. p10

Motion said Irish War Cry will train Wednesday morning at Fair Hill before boarding a New York-bound van shortly thereafter. Rajiv Maragh retains the mount in the 'Test of the Champion.'

J BOYS ECHO BREEZES FOR BELMONT

Albaugh Family Stables' J Boys Echo (Mineshaft) breezed five furlongs in 1:00 flat (4/29) at Churchill Downs Saturday morning in preparation for next week's GI Belmont S.

"I think this is the best he's ever worked," trainer Dale Romans said. "He's been training great and will ship to New York Tuesday morning."

J Boys Echo | Coady Photography

With exercise rider Tammy Fox in the irons, J Boys Echo worked in company with maiden winner Reedini (Bernardini) through splits of :23 and :47.40 before galloping out six furlongs in 1:13.80.

J Boys Echo captured the GIII Gotham S. in March. He was fourth in the Apr. 8 GII Toyota Blue Grass S. and is coming off a 15th-place finish in the May 6 GI Kentucky Derby.

Robby Albarado has been confirmed to ride the bay colt in Saturday's Belmont. Albarado has been named on two horses Thursday, his first mounts since fracturing his leg in a spill at Keeneland Apr. 23.

"If I'm not ready, I won't do that to Dale," Albarado told Jennie Rees. "If I feel I'm not ready, I won't take a chance. I'm part of a team here. I'm pulling for them whether I ride for them or not."

BELMONT HOPEFULS REGISTER FINAL WORKS

Several runners hoping to lineup in next weekend's GI Belmont S. registered their final major preparatory works at Belmont Park Saturday morning. Among them was Twisted Tom (Creative Cause), who went to the main track shortly after the renovation break. Accompanied by his usual pilot Peter Roman, the gelding covered five furlongs in 1:01.13 before galloping out six panels in 1:13 4/5.

"He executed it perfectly," confirmed trainer Chad Brown. "We wanted a nice, steady five-eighths."

Undefeated in a trio of starts this term, Twisted Tom most recently scored in a sloppy renewal of the Federico Tesio S. at Laurel Apr. 22.

"He's trained really well since the Tesio," said Brown. "The Belmont has been our goal sine then; we've been trying to figure out to get him to the race. Obviously, it will be a big class test for him, but I've been anxious to try him at 1 ½ miles."

Also breezing five furlongs on the main track in anticipation of a start in the 12-furlong Classic, Meantime (Shackleford) negotiated the distance in 1:01.66 with jockey Mike Luzzi aboard.

"It wasn't the most orthodox work," admitted trainer Brian Lynch. "We tried to work him with another horse and the other horse broke off too far in front of him, but he had a good target to chase. The work was comfortable enough. [I] didn't want Mike to push on him too hard, we worked him quite quick last week [May 27; five furlongs in :59.98], a little quicker than I wanted going into a long race. It was more of a comfort work today with a good gallop out. Inevitably, he ended up catching the horse on the gallop out." Cont. p11

In his last two starts, the Silverton Hills runner graduated by 7 1/2 lengths at Keeneland in April before finishing second behind Timeline in the GIII Peter Pan S. May 13.

"When I look at the big picture, it probably was a pretty good work," Lynch continued. "[He] went 1:01 and change and out in 1:14, so I think it was the work we were looking for. Watching him come off the track, he had minimal blow and seemed to have a good recovery rate. I think he's a pretty fit horse going into it, so I think we'll roll the dice and move forward."

Lynch confirmed that Hall of Fame jockey Mike Smith will be aboard Saturday.

"I hadn't really committed to a rider and he was available," he explained. "So I thought, nobody better than a big money rider for a race like this. I've got a long rapport with Mike from California years ago, so I think if he feels I'm going to take a shot, he'll take a shot with me. He's certainly a rider who shows up on big days and, hopefully, we've got an up-and-coming horse that provides the talent he needs to get it done."

GIII Illinois Derby winner Multiplier (The Factor) breezed a half-mile in :48.60 (video) at Keeneland Saturday morning. In tandem with regular workmate War Union (Union Rags), the grey galloped out in '1:01 and change,' according to trainer Brendan Walsh, who was aboard for the move.

"He worked great," said Walsh. "Everything went according to plan, so we're all set for the Belmont. It was good, just a routine work. Nothing special. He's fit and ready to go. We just wanted to make sure everything was in order, and it is. So we're going."

Multiplier will be ridden by Joel Rosario in the Belmont.

On the West Coast, Gormley (Malibu Moon) worked seven furlongs in 1:26.20 under regular rider Victor Espinoza following the 9 a.m. renovation break Saturday morning. Following the move, trainer John Shirreffs said he remained undecided on whether the GI Santa Anita Derby winner would run in the final jewel of the Triple Crown.

"[Jockey] Victor [Espinoza] was very pleased with the work, and I thought the horse looked sensational," said Shirreffs. "But, we haven't made up our minds yet [on the Belmont]. I haven't discussed it with [part owner] Mr. [Jerry] Moss, and we haven't talked about the logistics of shipping."

Gormley, who worked solo for the first time and with blinkers recorded fractional times of :24.60, :36.80, :48.80, 1:00.80 and 1:13 for six furlongs, galloped out a mile in 1:40.60.

Gormley, ninth in the May 6 GI Kentucky Derby, did not run in the GI Preakness S. May 20.

Violet Blue and Blenheim Palace hit it together to dead-heat for the top prize here. The former took a step forward to finish a last-out fourth in her second career start going 1 1/4 miles over the Belmont lawn May 10. The well-bred Blenheim Palace, meanwhile, hit the board in five straight without finding the winner's circle, including a last-out third-place finish, just a neck ahead of Violet Blue, in that same May 10 affair. The pair were content to race toward the rear through easy early fractions of :24.29 and :49.84 here. Double Cast (Broken Vow) got first run after sitting a stalking trip and hit the front in the stretch, but Violet Blue and Blenheim Palace had other ideas, and came rallying on the outside in the stretch to finish in a banket three-horse photo. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

LOTTIE (f, 4, Arch--Apple Charlotte {SW & MGSP, $147,806}, by Smart Strike), fifth in last year's Pennsylvania Oaks, returned from a 9 1/2-month absence to finish a never-nearer sixth in Tampa allowance company Mar. 24 and improved to third at Pimlico May 19. Switched off one spot in back of midfield for the opening half-mile, Lottie was patiently handled behind a moderate pace and still had plenty to do as they turned for home. Slow to switch her leads and having a good look at the grandstand in the lane, the 12-1 shot hit her best stride a furlong for home and scampered up the inside to outfinish Grateful (Hard Spun) by a half-length. The winner covered her final quarter-mile in :23.05, according to Trakus. Apple Charlotte, a stakes winner and twice Grade III-placed on the turf for these connections, is a half-sister to GSW Mythical Gem (Jade Hunter) and hails from the further female family of GISW Noble Bird (Birdstone). Apple Charlotte, dam of the 2-year-old filly Apple Snow (Giant's Causeway), was most recently bred to Verrazano. Mar. 25. He returned from Dubai with a hard-fought win in Pimlico's Jim McKay Turf Sprint S. May 19 and was well-supported returning on short rest here. Richard's Boy chased longshot Bold Thunder from second through scorching fractions of :21.78 and :43.81. Bold Thunder kicked for home with a clear advantage, but bore out sharply impeding a rallying Richard's Boy as the former tired in deep stretch. Bold Thunder was just saved by the wire, but the stewards reversed the order of finish for the infraction after an inquiry. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Dynatail was the subject of strong pari-mutuel action and fought back gamely in the final furlong to earn the biggest paycheck of her career.

Kicked straight into the lead by Luis Saez, Dynatail took pressure to her outside from Viva Vegas (The Factor), but the pace was not demanding as the half was up in :48.78 and six panels in 1:11.21. Able to dispose of that rival turning for home, she was confronted and overtaken by favored Adorable Miss inside the furlong marker, but the latter could not sustain her bid and Dynatail punched back to hit the wire first while drifting a bit in the late stages. Party Boat came on to outfinish Adorable Miss for second.

Dynatail is the lone stakes winner and one of just 11 foals from three crops for the Arkansas-based Hightail (Mineshaft), winner of the 2010 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Sprint. The winner's third dam, Miss du Bois, produced GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup winner Film Maker to the cover of Dynaformer and was led out unsold on a bid of $2.5 million at the 2005 Keeneland November sale. Southern Dynamo is the dam of the 2-year-old gelding Justawildone (Snapy Halo {Arg}), a yearling colt by English Channel and was most recently bred to Red Rocks (Ire). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Jerry Bozzo became the oldest trainer in history to win a Thoroughbred race at Gulfstream Park Saturday afternoon. The 96-year-old, who saddled Cotton Tooyah (High Cotton) in the day's second race, surpassed the late Noble Threewitt, who visited the winner's circle at Santa Anita in 2006 at the age of 95.

"People say to me, 'What the heck are you doing out there at that age, standing at the rail?'" said Bozzo, who celebrated his 96th birthday last Oct. 25. "I'm enjoying it--that's why I'm doing it."

Involved in racing as a breeder and trainer in Florida since the 1970s, Bozzo is a retired aeronautical engineer, industrialist and World War II vet, who sold his Pennsylvania bottle manufacturing company in 1969.

Bozzo also holds the distinction of being the oldest trainer to saddle a stakes winner--homebred Flutterby--victorious in the Sea Lily S. at Gulfstream May 30, 2015. She also finished runner-up in the GII Princess Rooney, in addition to winning two more stakes.

"I feel like I'm almost related to the horses," added Bozzo. "It feels so natural to be around them. I want to be around them."

Third-Party Lasix Approved in California:

The state of California has now officially approved rules establishing that race-day medication must be administered by independent veterinary professionals, according to a release from the California Horse Racing Board. The California Office of Administrative Law advised the CHRB Thursday that amendments to CHRB Rules 1433 and 1845, which the board approved in April, have passed review and can now go into effect, with full implementation expected later this year.

Under the new rules, Lasix will be the only authorized bleeder medication and the only medication that can be administered to horses on raceday. Lasix must be administered by board-approved independent veterinarians within certain timeframes, methods, and doses, and the syringes used for those injections will be retained for future analysis as needed. Other requirements and restrictions imposed by the new rules will further improve race-day security.

California joins 20 states which have adopted the policy governing third-party Lasix, which was developed by the Racing Medication and Testing Consortium (RMTC) and is a key component of the National Uniform Medication Policy promulgated by the Association of Racing Commissioners International (ARCI).

"We are pleased with the final resolution of this medication issue," said Mary Forney, Executive Director of the Thoroughbred Owners of California. "The TOC has worked with the CHRB for several years to develop acceptable protocols for third-party Lasix administration. We have consistently supported the national Uniform Medication Guidelines, which allow for pre-race, third-party administration of Lasix, a therapeutic medication that has been consistently shown to decrease the incidence and severity of EIPH [exercise induced pulmonary hemorrhage]."

Joe Morris, The Stronach Group's Senior Vice-President of West Coast Operations, added, "Third-Party Lasix is a policy The Stronach Group and our horsemen have supported to ensure integrity and transparency for all horses competing in California. This rule change, along with the state-of-the-art new video surveillance system that covers the entire stable area at Santa Anita, will lead the industry with the highest standards of safety and security."

The Coolmore contingent and Stonestreet Stables teamed up to take home INCA CHIEF (Uncle Mo) for $1 million at last term's Fasig-Tipton Florida sale after he breezed in a co-bullet :10 flat and he debuts in this spot for trainer Todd Pletcher. The dark bay, who is a son of SW Five Star Dream (Two Punch), enters off a string of bullet works at Palm Beach Downs. Chad Brown saddles another expensive firster in Robert LaPenta's $610,000 KEESEP purchase Speight the Devil (Speightstown). Out of MGSW & GISP millionaire Wild Gams (Forest Wildcat), the chestnut is half-brother to GSP Almost Famous (Unbridled's Song). TJCIS PPs. --@CDeBernardis

WINGS OF EAGLES SWOOPS FOR DERBY WIN

Wings Of Eagles upsets the Investec Derby | racingfotos.com

As the only member of the Ballydoyle six not by Galileo, Wings of Eagles (Fr) (Pour Moi {Ire}) was under the radar at 40-1 for Saturday's G1 Investec Derby, but in the same manner as his sire in 2011 came over the top of them all late on to silence the Epsom crowds and provide jockey Padraig Beggy with a day of days. Runner-up in the G3 Chester Vase when an eye-catcher last time on May 11, Derrick Smith's bay, who sported the pink cap, swooped from rear to overhaul Cliffs of Moher (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the final yards and win by 3/4 of a length, with a neck back to the 7-2 favourite Cracksman (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in third. "When they are trained by Aidan O'Brien, you don't worry about their price as they always have a chance," commented Beggy, riding in his first Derby. "He gave me a great feel going down and they went quick, so I followed Ryan [Moore] on the best horse in the race and let him take me into it. I had a bit of bad luck in running, but a furlong down I thought I'd win if I got a run and probably got there at the right time. He won a little snug in the end. Just to even ride for Aidan is a privilege and he has made it happen for me."

Wings of Eagles made an inauspicious start to his career when seventh in a seven-furlong maiden at the Galway festival in July, missing the break before being hampered at a track at which experience is vital. Cont. p2

BRAMETOT SHOOTS FOR CLASSIC DOUBLE

Al Shaqab Racing and Gerard Augustin-Normand's Brametot (Ire) (Rajsaman {Fr}) goes for the hallowed G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains-G1 QIPCO Prix du Jockey Club double at Chantilly on Sunday, achieved twice in recent times by Shamardal and Lope de Vega (Ire). He looked ready for a step up from a mile when battling to a short-head defeat of Le Brivido (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}), with Rivet (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) three lengths back in third in the May 14 Classic at Deauville and is drawn one in a race with notorious draw issues. "Jean-Claude decided on the Jockey Club over Royal Ascot," explained Sylvain Vidal, racing manager for Augustin-Normand. "His thinking was the horse is in perfect form now, he's ready to run, so why wait two weeks for Ascot? On pedigree, Brametot should have no problem staying, but also his jockey, Cristian Demuro, says he has no doubts at all about him staying. He's got a chance of winning the Guineas and the Derby and not many do that. Cont. p8

Learning from his debut, Wings of Eagles opened his account at Killarney over an extended mile in August before tackling the 10-furlong Listed Zetland S. at Newmarket in early October. Green and again meeting trouble in running there, he was fourth behind 'TDN Rising Star' Coronet (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) and Permian (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) before being sent to the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud three weeks later and running ninth. Partnered by Seamie Heffernan in the Chester Vase, he offered a portent of what was to come when finishing with a flourish to run second to Venice Beach (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) there and, despite escaping scrutiny in the lead-up to this Classic, was nevertheless in the line-up on merit.

Anchored by Padraig Beggy exiting the stalls, Wings of Eagles had one behind as he sat on the tail of stablemate Cliffs of Moher, who had looked close to boiling over in the preliminaries. Up ahead, it was Douglas Macarthur (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) who was asked to set a demanding pace with The Anvil (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) close behind and they soon had a stretch of daylight back to the main field. Soon after straightening, the notably green Cracksman, who had pursued the tempo in fourth early, went forward under Frankie Dettori's urgings and his move was monitored by Moore on Cliffs of Moher with Beggy running into the back of rivals some way down. As the eventual winner was temporarily stopped behind 'TDN Rising Star' Dubai Thunder (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) approaching the two-furlong pole, Cliffs of Moher was running down Cracksman for the advantage which he gained a furlong out as Eminent (GB) (Frankel {GB}) also entered the reckoning. Just as Cliffs of Moher seemed assured of victory, Wings of Eagles was powering to the extent that Beggy put down his stick 100 yards out with that feeling that all jockeys have when the victorious momentum is firmly with them.

Padraig Beggy, who was suspended for 15 months by the Australian Racing Forensic Laboratory for a banned substance in September 2014, was relishing the moment his once-curtailed career took an upward trajectory. "I'd nearly given up on the big days, but Aidan O'Brien is as great with people as he is with horses and is a fair man," he said, before turning his attention to the horse that has catapulted him into the big time. "He is a big, strong colt who had grown since I last sat on him in February or March and he let me know it on the way down to the start," he added. "He's a free-running horse and I wanted cover, as I was always going to come late. Some horses are cleverer than others and he went to sleep for me early and did his best work late. His best furlong is his last, which makes a big difference and he flew and hit the line very well."

Aidan O'Brien would have been forgiven for leaving Wings of Eagles at home and coming to Epsom with a Galileo battalion still numbering five, but it is clear that the latest blue riband victor had shown enough at home since Chester to force his way onto the plane. With four of the first seven home, the Ballydoyle trainer was more than satisfied with his selection process, which put paid to the much-bandied theory that "if you have a few in the Derby you probably haven't got the winner." O'Brien, who was collecting a sixth renewal, revealed that the winner had long been considered the right material for this race but his attention was just as much on the runner-up. "We thought he was a very nice horse last year and he ran a lovely race at the back-end in France and then ran a lovely trial at Chester," he said. "I couldn't be happier and obviously I'm delighted with Cliffs of Moher. He's a bit of a baby and his next run will be something to look forward to. He got there and just got tired, but Padraig gave the winner a great ride. He had him in a lovely rhythm, nice and balanced. Seamus [Heffernan] rode him in the Vase and he ran a really good race, he's been working well since then." Of the runner-up, he again added, "We were worried Cliffs of Moher just came to hand late, it was a rush to get him to Chester, we had to have a run, if he hadn't he wouldn't have been here. It's possible the first two could go to the [G1] Irish Derby [at The Curragh on July 1] if the lads want to. I'd imagine Cliffs of Moher is open to the most improvement; Ryan just felt the last half a furlong was a bit much today but he's only a baby." Of Beggy, he continued, "Paddy is a world-class rider, he has a great mind and is always very tactically aware--I'm delighted for him and I can't tell you how delighted we are to have him working with us and riding on these big days."

Co-owner Michael Tabor was celebrating another in a seemingly endless supply of red-letter days and commented, "You never get tired of winning a race at the pinnacle of horse racing. It's just a fantastic feeling. The way I felt personally this morning was that it was a very open race and any horse could come forward, as 3-year-olds do, to win and we knew Wings of Eagles was in the mix--but no more than that. He's proved to be a very, very good horse for the future. I'm afraid I didn't back him though--I didn't have a bet in the race. Aidan's done it again--it's just incredible. A friend of mine this morning said the bet was actually Aidan to win the race at 7-4. I didn't take his advice though."

John Gosden had been forthright in his belief in the run-up to the race that Cracksman would have benefited from more experience and the Oppenheimer colt's performance bore that out. Needing cajoling by Frankie for a lot of the contest, he stuck to his guns all the way to the line in a highly promising pointer to what could be a big future. "I think Frankie found that the horse was still a bit immature mentally about the whole thing," his trainer explained. "A couple of times, Frankie had to galvanise him, particularly at the top of the hill--you could see his elbows moving a little, it was even picked up by the commentator. He was running a bit babyishly--maybe he could have done with that other race beforehand--but he has run a grand race, he was just caught out for experience and wasn't beaten far. We knew there was going to be a lot of pace, but the pacemakers were rather ignored, they were allowed to go and they took a bit of catching. On the whole, it is the sort of result we expected with Cliffs of Moher, Cracksman and a 40-1 shot trained by Aidan, which we thought could happen. They are obviously a solid, even bunch of colts and we'd be happy for a rematch--Cracksman is in the Irish Derby and it wouldn't bother me going there at all, it is a nice galloping track and it would suit him."

Eminent was the other Frankel in the mix and he did not appear too happy coming down the hill to Tattenham Corner and was also squeezed late on. Jockey Jim Crowley said, "He had every chance. I got squeezed at the top of the hill and then coming down the hill." Cont. p5

Crowley added, "The other horses have just had a change of gear, but he has run a cracker. He didn't travel that well, but had every chance. A big horse like that, he will be better on a flat track. He will give us a good spin in the Irish Derby." Trainer Martyn Meade added, "He had a lot of ground to make up and that is his beauty really, when he came into the straight he could really use his stride. He was squeezed a little at the end and he wasn't beaten far, but he just wasn't the best on the day today. I'd love to run the race again now, or at least next week. Jim [Crowley] immediately got off him and said the Irish Derby--he certainly stays, I don't think there is any question about that. We just didn't get that bit of luck in running, it didn't really work out as we'd like today, but we are thrilled to bits with him--it is only his fourth run and we've lots of excitement to come, I hope. A bit more cut in the ground would have been preferable too."

Pedigree Notes...

Wings of Eagles was the sole French-bred in the line-up, bred by Gilles and Aliette Forien's Haras de la Reboursiere et de Montaigu and was becoming the fourth colt by a former Derby winner to win this in the last five runnings. Purchased by MV Magnier for €220,000 at Arqana's August Yearling Sale in 2015, he becomes the first Derby winner to emerge from that sale (click here for yearling video). His dam, Ysoldina, ran second for her breeders and the Alain de Royer-Dupre stable in the G3 Prix de la Grotte prior to running third in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches and in the G2 Prix Corrida and G3 Prix Allez France, and has already produced the useful listed-placed pair Torentosa (Fr) (Oasis Dream {GB}) and Gyrella (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}). She is a half-sister to five black-type performers, including the G1 Prix Saint-Alary heroine Belle et Celebre (Fr) (Peintre Celebre), multiple Scandinavian champion Appel Au Maitre (Fr) (Starborough {GB}) and G2 Prix Jean Romanet and G2 Premio Lydia Tesio winner Whortleberry (Fr) (Starborough {GB}).

The latter was later responsible for Straw Hat (Jpn) (Fuji Kiseki {Jpn}), who was successful in the G3 Unicorn S. Wings of Eagles's year-older half-sister Sweet Electra (Fr) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) was bought by Pascal Bary for owners Hspirit for €600,000 at Arqana August in 2014, while her 2-year-old colt by Holy Roman Emperor (Ire) was snapped up by the Hong Kong Jockey Club for just €130,000 last year. She also has a yearling filly by Kingman (GB). Click for the free Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Breaking her maiden at the fourth attempt at Windsor last July, Laugh Aloud was runner-up in a mile handicap at Goodwood the following month before making all to dominate the Listed Rosemary S. at Newmarket in September. Fifth under a penalty in the Listed Snowdrop Fillies' S. on Kempton's Polytrack on Apr. 15, the chestnut was the comprehensive winner of a strong renewal of the Listed Conqueror S. at Goodwood last time on May 6. In front initially before settling in third behind Tisbutadream and Absolute Blast, she came back to that rival strongly approaching the two-furlong pole with James Doyle taking a pull. When she was committed a half furlong later, the homebred opened up to suggest she can take on the best around. Cont. p6

"It's nice that she is versatile now, as she used to like to go out in front but she was switched off today and scampered up the hill. It was pretty authoritative," her rider commented. Trainer John Gosden added, "She's improved with age and likes it in front, but I said to James I think there are a couple of others who want to go there. I like the way she relaxed off them, let them fight it out and then swung off them and kicked the race into touch. It was a good performance, and all being well she will go to the [June 21 G2] Duke of Cambridge S."

Pedigree Notes...

The winner is a half-sister to another former Gosden trainee in Debussy, who went from domestic wins in the G3 Huxley S. and G2 Prix Eugene Adam to glory in the GI Arlington Million. Their dam was third in the G3 C. L. Weld Park S. and also produced the fellow Gosden-trained Entertainment (GB) (Halling), who was runner-up in the Listed Cheshire Oaks. Opera Comique's half-brother Belmez captured the G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Diamond S., G2 Great Voltigeur S. and G3 Chester Vase. Also from the family of the G1 Prix de Diane winner Lypharita (Fr) (Lightning {Fr}) and the G1 Shuka Sho heroine Red Desire (Jpn) (Manhattan Cafe {Jpn}), the dam has a 2-year-old colt by Shamardal named Ski Dubai (GB). Click for the free Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Defying a penalty for his latest success from Gabrial in the G2 Sandown Mile on Apr. 28, Sovereign Debt was in charge of that rival again here as he registered a gutsy seventh black-type success. In rude health in 2017 for Ruth Carr, the grey with endless enthusiasm followed a win on his last start for Dandy Nicholls's yard in Doha's Irish Thoroughbred Marketing Cup over a mile on Feb. 24 with a third behind this card's G3 Princess Elizabeth S. runner-up Absolute Blast (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) in the Listed Magnolia S. trying 10 furlongs for the first time at Kempton on Apr. 1. Dropping down in trip again to land Lingfield's valuable All-Weather Championships Mile on Apr. 14, he had kept it simple at Sandown for his finest hour and Jimmy Sullivan was keen to avoid complications here. Following the pace in third early, Sovereign Debt gained command approaching the furlong pole and pinned back his ears as old adversary Gabrial lunged on his outer.

Ruth Carr's back-to-basics approach is paying rich dividends with the long-time class act Sovereign Debt, and she gave an insight into the popular grey's homelife afterwards.

"We don't do too much differently with Sovereign Debt that we do with the rest of our horses, really," the Yorkshire-based trainer explained. "We put him out in a field with a lowly-rated gelding who looks after him, he does his work and he eats well.

She continued, "He does enough to keep himself fit and healthy--he's a happy horse. I like to turn my horses out--I'm probably obsessed with it. I don't care it they're a bit muddy or have a few wounds from where they bite each other, as the physical and mental benefits far outweigh those negatives. It just gives them a chance to be horses. I'm lucky I have the facilities to do that." Of future targets for the evergreen gelding, Carr added, "I've got to think about a Group 1 race at some point--I'll have a think. We have been thinking about the Group 2 race at Ascot [the July 15 Summer Mile] and the [Oct. 21 G1] Queen Elizabeth II on Champions Day at Ascot could also be a possibility."

Inns Of Court | Scoop Dyga

Inns of Court, a Nov. 15 winner going seven panels at Chantilly in his sole freshman start, doubled up over the same distance at Saint-Cloud on sophomore return on Apr. 11 and stepped down in class and trip here after posting a respectable sixth in Deauville's May 14 G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains on stakes bow last time. Positioned at the tail of the field from flagfall here, he eased into contention on the bridle approaching the quarter-mile pole and easily asserted superiority once pouncing for control inside the final eighth to claim a career high with something to spare. “He had a problem in the Poulains, as he pulled hard early and his saddle slipped and that was it,” explained winning trainer Andre Fabre. “He needs pace in a race and can stretch to a mile. He’s in the [seven-furlong G3] Jersey S. [at Royal Ascot on June 21], but that will probably come too early and the [July 9 G1] Prix Jean Prat [at Chantilly] is a possibility.”

Pedigree Notes...

The homebred bay is the first black-type scorer produced by a daughter of G1 Premio Lydia Tesio-winning Italian highweight Lune d’Or (Fr) (Green Tune) and his third dam is MGSP Listed Grand Prix de Compiegne victess Luth d’Or (Fr) (Noir et Or {GB}), herself a half-sister to MG1SW French champion miler Luth Enchantee (Fr) (Be My Guest). Click for the free Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Brametot | Scoop Dyga

“We’d like to think he should be able to confirm the form with those that were behind him in the Guineas, but he’s also got a lot of speed, which is his weapon,” Vidal added. “I think he’ll find 10 furlongs suits him better. He is in very good form, Jean-Claude’s horses are now in great health and we can’t wait.”

Andre Fabre was responsible for both Shamardal and Lope de Vega and saddles a trio headed by ‘TDN Rising Star’ Waldgeist (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), who captured the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud over 10 furlongs at Saint-Cloud in October prior to returning over that course and distance to be second to Recoletos (Fr) (Whipper) in the May 8 G2 Prix Greffulhe.

His prolific stablemate Soleil Marin (Ire) (Kendargent {Fr}) advertised his ability when taking the G3 Prix Noailles over this track and trip on Apr. 16 and Fabre said of him, “Soleil Marin has come on since his win in the Prix Noailles. He comes into the race in good form and he is ready to run up to his best.”

Darpat France SARL’s Recoletos (Fr) (Whipper) came forward from conditions successes at Fontainebleau on Mar. 9 and at Saint-Cloud on Apr. 2 when returning to the latter venue to comprehensively outpoint Waldgeist. Trainer Carlos Laffon-Parias told Jour de Galop, “He is a colt who always showed me quality and his great asset is his turn of foot. He is a well-balanced colt and the downhill should not bother him. He is a son of Whipper, who has a reputation of getting horses that prefer it soft, but he takes more after his damsire Fairy King. Watching him gallop the other morning on good ground, I don’t think heavy ground would benefit him. He doesn’t have that action.”

From outside France, Andrew Rosen, Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith’s War Decree (War Front) is of obvious interest under Ryan Moore, but he has to bounce back from a below-par reintroduction when sixth in the G3 Craven S. at Newmarket on Apr. 20. His stablemate Orderofthegarter (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) may boast the Ballydoyle bragging rights under regular partner Seamie Heffernan and he was a staying-on fifth in the Poulains. He has ground to make up on last year’s G1 Racing Post Trophy winner Rivet, part-owned by Lester Piggott who rode the Jockey Club just once in 1972. His daughter Maureen Haggas, and wife of trainer William Haggas, said, “We are very pleased with him and he looks great. The way he won the Racing Post Trophy, Andrea [Atzeni] never pulled him up until the back straight and there is also stamina on the dam’s side. He has been a great horse, and being a homebred it would be great for my father if he could win.” Charlie Appleby saddles a duo headed by Bay of Poets (Ire), a son of Lope de Vega who was second to Cliffs of Moher (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the Listed Dee S. at Chester on May 12. “Bay of Poets is very consistent and has been mixing it with English Derby contenders and running really well,” his trainer commented.

GRAND DAY

Sunday’s supporting races to the Prix du Jockey Club are notable in their own right, with the G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly representing the comeback of Al Shaqab Racing’s G2 Qatar Prix Chaudenay winner Doha Dream (Fr) (Shamardal). Also third in the G2 Prix Niel here in September and successful in the Listed

Derby de l'Ouest at Nantes and Listed Prix Frederic de Lagrange at Vichy in July, he bids for a 10th win in this prestigious affair for the record-holder Andre Fabre. He faces last year's G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud scorer Silverwave (Fr) (Silver Frost {Ire}) and G1 Prix Vermeille heroine Left Hand (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), with the former an encouraging third in the G1 Prix Ganay at Saint-Cloud at the start of last month.

Left Hand has more questions to answer, having finished sixth under a Group 1 penalty in the G2 Prix Corrida over 10 1/2 furlongs at Saint-Cloud on May 23. Her trainer Carlos Laffon-Parias told Jour de Galop, "She never accelerated there and maybe we were too kind to her in the mornings. I want to see how she behaves on Sunday, because the Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud, her first target of the year, is only one month away."

RETRIEVAL MISSION

Having flopped when only 11th as the favourite for the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches at Deauville on May 13, the Niarchos Family's Senga (Blame) is looking for a confidence-restoring outing in Sunday's G2 Prix de Sandringham at Chantilly. Previously successful from La Sardane (Fr) (Kingsalsa) in the G3 Prix de la Grotte over this course and distance on Apr. 16, the homebred may have been compromised by the testing ground in the mile Classic. The Wertheimers' Gold Luck (Fr) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}), a half-sister to Goldikova (Ire) (Anabaa), is also a course winner having captured the nine-furlong G3 Prix Vanteaux on Apr. 9 and she too may have found soft going against her when subsequently fifth in the G1 Prix Saint-Alary over 10 furlongs at Deauville on May 14.

HIS DOMAIN

Successful in last year's G2 Prix du Gros-Chene, Yves Borotra's Son Cesio (Fr) (Zafeen {Fr}) returns to Chantilly on Sunday to bid for the repeat. Beaten just twice at this track in seven visits, his latest eclipse came when a respectable fifth coming from too far back in the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye in October and he was warmed up for this easier task with a fourth in Deauville's G2 Prix de Saint-Georges on May 13. He encounters the 2015 winner of this race in Muthmir (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), whose form has dipped subsequently and he has to find marked improvement off a latest 12th in the G3 Palace House S. at Newmarket on May 6. Also here is the 2014 Gros-Chene scorer Rangali (GB) (Namid {GB}), who was fifth in the Prix de Saint-Georges three weeks ago, and they all make for a stern challenge for the 3-year-old filly Aladdine (GB) (Naaqoos {GB}), who took the May 11 G3 Prix Texanita at Maisons-Laffitte.

STAR ASCENDANT

'TDN Rising Star' Musawaah (Union Rags) showed genuine potential when winning the Listed Prix de la Seine at Chantilly on May 7 and Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's flashy homebred returns to the scene of that success on Sunday for the G3 Prix de Royaumont. This is partly a re-run of that 11-furlong contest, with the second, third and fourth Kitesurf (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), Lady Paname (Fr) (Soldier of Fortune {Ire}) and Szolnok (Elusive Quality) back in opposition and the former represents Andre Fabre, who holds the record of 11 winners.

Kitesurf represents Godolphin alongside the Charlie Appleby-trained Glittering Jewel (Bernardini), who was runner-up to the subsequent Listed Height of Fashion S. winner Mori (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in a 10-furlong maiden at Ascot on May 12.

Godolphin's Lisa-Jane Graffard said, "Kitesurf has a bit to find if she is to reverse the form with Musawaah, but she comes into this race in good form and is an improving filly. She is going the right way, gets this trip well and should hopefully make the frame." Charlie Appleby added, "Glittering Jewel improved nicely from her first to second run and ran into a decent filly at Ascot, who has gone on to win a listed race. I am looking forward to seeing her step up in trip and feel that she should be very competitive."

TIME TO BE HEARD

With the G1 Preis der Diana upcoming, Sunday's G2 Diana-Trial at Hoppegarten offers the chance for Germany's leading middle-distance fillies to rise to the occasion. Last year's G3 Preis der Winterkonigin winner Well Spoken (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}) is here, as is the rival who was just a head second to her in that Baden-Baden contest in Pemina (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}). They have proven pattern-race form on their side in opposition to the unexposed Shy Angel (GB) (Zamindar), who was second over this course and distance on May 14, and Litaara (Ger) (Wiener Walzer {Ger}), who scored decisively on debut over 10 1/2 furlongs at Dusseldorf on Apr. 9.

CHARM SPIRIT TO RETURN TO BONNEVAL

Triple Group 1-winning miler Charm Spirit (Fr) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), whose first crop are yearlings this year, will return to Haras de Bonneval in France for his fourth season in 2018 as part of a partnership between the Aga Khan Studs and Qatar Bloodstock started in 2015.

David Redvers, director of Qatar Bloodstock, said, "Thanks to the partnership with the Aga Khan Studs, there is the opportunity for both French and British breeders to use Charm Spirit. With his credentials, it is no surprise that he has proved very popular with breeders on both sides of the Channel and he has produced an exceptional first crop of yearlings."

Georges Rimaud, manager of the Aga Khan Studs in France, said, "Charm Spirit produced quality first foals. We have several of his yearlings ourselves, they are lovely individuals and we are delighted with them. His first yearlings are due to be sold at the Arqana August Yearling Sale and we expect them to prove very popular."

GOLD SPINNER (IRE) (c, 3, Pivotal {GB}--Morinqua {Ire} {SW-Eng, $109,722}, by Cadeaux Genereux {GB}), who broke through going an extended mile at Cork last time on Apr. 15, chased the leading pair five lengths off the tempo in third from the break here.

Coaxed closer at the three-eighths pole, the 6-5 favourite came to the fore approaching the final furlong and drew off under urging to prevail by 1 3/4 lengths from Elizabeth Browning (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). "He is very much ground dependent and is hopefully a Britannia horse," said trainer Ger Lyons. "If he is a Britannia horse, he had to win this and win it like he did. He wants 10 furlongs, but has the pace for a mile. He doesn't want ground quicker than that, which we might not get, and that will be the deciding factor on whether or not we go to Royal Ascot." The 70,000gns TATOCT yearling is out of Listed Lansdown Fillies' S. winner Morinqua (Ire) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) and is a half to the dual stakes scorer Cornwallville (Ire) (Makfi {GB}) and the 2-year-old colt Twickenham (Ire) (Champs Elysees {GB}). Three-year-old filly Egg Tart made it six wins on the bounce and confirmed her status as a rising star stayer with a commanding win in Saturday's G1 Queensland Oaks. Coming off a maiden Group 1 score in the Schweppes Oaks at Morphettville on May 6, Egg Tart settled midpack as the field raced into the first bend on Saturday. Dropping back a few positions as Invincibella led the charge down the backstretch, Egg Tart was switched to the outside by Kerrin McEvoy passing the 1000 metre mark. Eight lengths off the lead as they turned for home, the bay swung wide and came with a charge down the middle of the track. Hitting the lead passing the 100 metre mark, she hit the line going away in a handride. Cont. p15

Egg Tart broke her maiden over 1550 metres at Canterbury last November and has clearly enjoyed every bit of distance that has been added this campaign. Handy enough to win when dropped back down to 1300 metres at Beaumont on Mar. 11, she added wins going 1400 metres and a mile at Warwick Farm and Flemington, respectively, before enduring a huge jump in class to take the 2010 metre Schweppes Oaks over Saturday's third-placed Keneda.

Egg Tart was picked up by her ownership group for just A$40,000 at Inglis Easter from Jorson Farm, and that nursery's Julie Brown said, "She was always an athletic filly with a nice hip on her but she wasn't a big, strong, heavy filly, plus she was a late foal. She was a filly who never stood out in the crowd but I reckon she stands out pretty well now."

Egg Tart has more than paid back her purchase price, now bankrolling almost A$800,000, and she will likely be set for a Cups campaign in the spring.

Pedigree Notes...

Egg Tart's unraced dam, Mrs Windsor, has a yearling colt by Sebring's son Shamus Award (Aus) to come. Mrs Windsor is herself out of Born To Be Queen, placed in the G1 Oaks and G1 Victoria Derby. She went on to produce a pair of Group 1 winners in Heart Ruler (Aus) (Marscay {Aus}) and Coronation Day (Aus) (Bletchingly {Aus}).

Narrowly favored in the wagering, G1 Cape Derby winner Edict of Nantes got just the better of G1 S A Derby hero, the Dubai-bound Al Sahem, in a good battle in the Daily News 2000 S.

Settled about four from the tail early on, Edict of Nantes raced about three off the inside in the middle stages while always in the wake of Al Sahem. Flushed out widest of all off the home corner, Edict of Nantes left Al Sahem a bit flat-footed, took over with a furlong and a half to travel and held well as Al Sahem refused to go down without a fight.

Edict of Nantes, who was ridden to his Cape Derby score by Frankie Dettori at the end of January, had one run since, a useful second-place effort in an 1800m allowance plate at this venue May 19.
