DEJA VU ALL OVER AGAIN IN BELMONT DERBY

When last they met in the GIII Pennine Ridge S. June 2, 'TDN Rising Star' Analyze It (Point of Entry) looked to have the race sewn up in the waning strides, only to have Catholic Boy (More Than Ready) surge late to snatch victory from the jaws of defeat. In a near carbon copy of that result in Saturday's GI Belmont Derby Invitational, Analyze It appeared to have the race won when surging clear of his nemesis with less than a furlong to race in the $1.2-million event, but he hopped off leads late and Catholic Boy--forced to rally up the rail this time around--boxed on tenaciously to drop his head on the wire first.

"It was a hell of a horse race," said trainer Jonathan Thomas. "He really has an awful lot of heart. I didn't expect him to fight back this time. I thought we were going to finish a really good second, [but] somehow he got it done. He's always been a real generous training horse. You never know how they will respond in that scenario because we never put them in that situation in the mornings. Between his heart and Javier's ride, what can you say?"

It was a maiden top-level success for former Todd Pletcher assistant Thomas.

"It's the pinnacle. It's one of those dreams you don't really think about until it happens," he said. "I'm happier for [Catholic Boy] because he's a deserving Grade I winner. He deserves it. I'm like a proud parent." Cont. p3

ATHENA THE GODDESS IN BELMONT OAKS

Despite making an eighth trip to the races in the space of less than 12 weeks, her third start in 16 days and second in the last six days, Michael Tabor, Sue Magnier and Derrick Smith's Athena (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) showed positively no signs of road-weariness, kicking on sharply once produced in upper stretch by Ryan Moore en route to a visually impressive victory in the GI Belmont Oaks Invitational S. on Long Island.

"A mile and a quarter on hard ground is probably her trip," said T. J. Comerford, assistant to trainer Aidan O'Brien. "She can probably go a bit farther as well but it's great to get her going at a mile and a quarter and she can go a mile and a half in time. Ryan [Moore] knew he had enough horse under him to do what he wanted. He just had to the press the button on her, and whenever he wanted her to go, she went." Cont. p5

DIVERSIFY DOMINATES SUBURBAN 7

'TDN Rising Star' Diversify (Bellamy Road) set a searching pace in Saturday's GII Suburban S. and maintained a strong gallop throughout, scoring by 6 1/2 impressive lengths.

'LIBERAL' EARNS WAY INTO BC SPRINT 8

Analyze It won the break and took the Derby field toward the first turn with Catholic Boy just off his flank, and though he had every chance to lead on a pace that was anything but demanding, Jose Ortiz elected to allow Catholic Boy to cross and clear following an opening couple of furlongs in :24.47. Hunting Horn (Ire) (Camelot {GB}), last out winner of the G3 Hampton Court S. at Royal Ascot, monitored the proceedings from third and the trio more or less dominated the Derby throughout. The internal fractions remained soft--Catholic Boy clocked :48.91 on the back straightaway--but Analyze It remained glued to his outside and began to inch ever closer with three furlongs to travel. The latter appeared to be doing the better of the work as he rolled up outside to poke a head in front turning for home and was a half-length to the good entering the final furlong. But just as he did in the Pennine Ridge, Analyze It refused to put his rival away and Catholic Boy managed to pull the rabbit out of the hat once more.

"He [Catholic Boy] gives me a lot of confidence because we decided to take the lead and dictate the pace, and I think it was the key to win the race," Castellano said. "I'm very fortunate it went my way. I'm very respectful of Analyze It, he's a great horse with a great trainer. Someone had to win the race, and I'm lucky to be in the spot I am."

For his part, Chad Brown was giving credit where credit was due.

"This horse that won earned it," he said. "He came back and beat him [Analyze It], I don't have any excuse. It sure seems that [Analyze It idles], but I don't want to take anything away from the winner, because he still fought back and most horses wouldn't. I thought he ran a great race, the winner, but so did our horse. He just wasn't good enough." Cont. p4

One week after Funfair took the United Nations S. to become the first Grade I-winning turf male in this country for More Than Ready, Catholic Boy followed suit to become GISW number 23 overall. One of 83 graded winners for his sire, Catholic Boy is a maternal grandson of GSP Winner's Edge, the dam of SWs Return to Paradise (El Prado {Ire}) and Coya (Deputy Minister). Third dam Lucky Us was responsible for European highweight Lucky Song (Seattle Song), the dam of SW Heritage Hall (Ire) (Fairy King) and SW & GSP Lucky Di (Diesis {GB}). The dam of a 2-year-old colt by Super Saver, Song of Bernadette produced a filly by Carpe Diem in 2017 and foaled an Exaggerator filly Apr. 16. Catholic Boy was purchased for $170,000 by Thomas at KEEJAN in 2016 after orignally being led out unsold.

Athena broke away without incident and settled third-last in the field, as La Signare (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}), coast-to-coast winner of the GIII Wonder Again S. last time out set the pace in advance of the well-bet GIII Edgewood S. heroine Toniette (Scat Daddy). Favored Significant Form (Creative Cause), who couldn't quite reach La Signare in the Wonder Again, box-seated the field from third just to the inside of stablemate and 'TDN Rising Star' Mighty Scarlett (Scat Daddy). There was no change in the plot through the middle furlongs and the first real move came from Toniette, who tried to take it to La Signare once heads were turned for home, but Moore hooked Athena to the wide outside and the duo quickly descended on the front rank. Thewayiam (Fr) (Thewayyouare) looked dangerous for a stride or two from a tight spot at the fence, but Athena had all the momentum and went on to a clear-cut success.

"She's a very straightforward filly," the winning jockey said. "She's taken her racing very well. I rode her before the start of the year and all she's done is improve tremendously. In her first out, I wasn't sure what she could do. The second time I rode her, she really impressed me. This was the third time I've rode her [second time in a race] and I thought she was very impressive."

No better than fourth in any of her first four career appearances, Athena was runner-up in a Curragh maiden May 11, then promptly flew across to England and finished second in the Listed Haras de Bouquetot Trial eight days hence. Returned to Ireland, the bay finally won her maiden at Fairyhouse May 31, was fourth in the 12-furlong G2 Ribblesdale S. at Royal Ascot June 21 and was most recently third behind Urban Fox (GB) (Foxwedge {Aus}) when taking on her elders in the G1 Pretty Polly S. July 1. Cont. p6

Pedigree Notes:

Athena becomes the second Group 1/Grade I winner from the initial crop of her G1 Investec Derby-winning sire and comes one week after the victory by the Joseph O'Brien-conditioned Latrobe (Ire) in the G1 Irish Derby. Pedigrees don't come much richer than Athena's. A half-sister to 2014 G1 Irish Oaks victrix Bracelet (Ire) and GSW Wading (Ire) (both by Camelot's sire Montjeu {Ire}), Athena counts the irrepressible Urban Sea as her second dam, a winner of the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe whose status as one of history's greatest broodmares has already been cemented. She is the dam of eight winners from nine to race, including Galileo (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and Sea the Stars (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}), in addition to 'lesser' champions Black Sam Bellamy (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and Urban Ocean (Fr) (Bering {GB}) and SW & G1SP Born to Sea (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). Urban Sea's daughter My Typhoon (Ire) (Giant's Causeway), a 1.8-million Tattersalls December foal acquisition in 2002, was the winner in this country of the GI Diana S. and is a member of the formidable broodmare band at Live Oak. Urban Sea's half-brother King's Best (Kingmambo) was victorious in the 2000 G1 Sagitta 2000 Guineas, while Allez Les Trois (Riverman) was responsible for 2001 G1 Prix du Jockey Club hero Anabaa Blue (GB) (Anabaa). Cherry Hinton produced a filly from the second crop of Triple Crown hero American Pharoah this past Jan. 30.

'TDN Rising Star' Diversify showed his love for the Belmont main track, a surface over which he has a record of 7-5-2-0, with an impressive front-running score in the GII Suburban S. Saturday. The 6-1 shot up from post 10 to seize the early advantage with longshot Zanotti (Gio Ponti) and War Story (Northern Afleet) giving chase through early fractions :23.47 and :46.18. War Story backed way off and Zanotti began to call it a day as well, leaving Diversify all on his own entering the far turn. The New York-bred cruised clear in the stretch under his own volition with no threats in sight to win by daylight. The Lietenant, a 34-1 shot and half-brother to Triple Crown winner Justify (Scat Daddy), was the runner-up and 41-1 shot Discreet Lover completed the trifecta. MGISW and recent GII Brooklyn S. hero Hoppertunity (Any Given Saturday) won a photo with last term's GI Belmont S. winner Tapwrit (Tapit) for fourth.

"I was surprised that we were pressed by horses other than Dr. Dorr (Lookin at Lucky)," said winning trainer Rick Violette. "We were meant to be aggressive and Irad [Ortiz, Jr.] told me when he realized it was Zanotti and War Story, he kind of just stepped on the gas. He did it pretty comfortably. I think this is his best race ever. He beat some nice horses, withstood some serious pressure, fast fractions and he obviously loves Belmont."

As for what's next, the conditioner said, "We have five weeks to the [GI] Whitney [S. Aug. 4] off his lifetime best I think. There's also the [GI] Woodward four weeks later in the meet. We'll think about the fall as well. We would love to do the Whitney, but we'll see how he comes back from this effort."

Picked up by these connections for $210,000 out of the WinStar Horses of Racing Age draft at the 2016 Keeneland November sale, Diversify scored a career high at Belmont, wiring last term's GI Jockey Club Gold Cup S. and was fourth as the favorite in the GI Clark H. at Churchill Downs Nov. 24. Fading to finish a well-beaten seventh when favored again in the GII Charles Town Classic Apr. 21, he returned to winning ways with a nose victory in the state-bred Commentator S. here May 28.

Diversify's dam Rule One, a half-sister to GSW Lady Digby (Grand Slam), produced the unraced 3-year-old filly Charitable Link (Data Link), who was sold for $24,000 at this year's Keeneland January sale with all proceeds benefitting New Vocations. The 12-year-old mare was barren in both 2016 and 2017, but produced a More Than Ready colt Feb. 16 of this year. This is also the family of GSW & MGISP Private Treasure (Explodent).

Limousine Liberal (outside) | Sarah K Andrew

Limousine Liberal stamped his ticket to the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint at Churchill Downs in November with a narrow victory in the GII Belmont Sprint Championship Saturday. Away well from his rail draw, the dark bay sat back in fifth of six as Shaft of Light (Smart Strike) shot past a sharp-breaking Eye Luv Lulu to dictate early terms, clocking opening splits of :22.2 and :44.84. Blocked behind a wall of horses at the top of the stretch, Limousine Liberal brushed with Lewisfield (Great Notion) as he searched for running room and received some second-hand jostling from Shaft of Light after that rival was bumped into by MGSW Whitmore (Pleasantly Perfect) as he attempted to squeeze through on the rail. Shaft of Light immediately folded and Eye Luv Lulu, who was also bumped into by Shaft of Light, but held steady, shot to the front with Whitmore giving chase after being straightened out by Ricardo Santana, Jr. Limousine Liberal quickly recovered from the incident and determinedly closed in on the top two. Whitmore gained command in the final sixteenth, but Limousine Liberal would not be denied, surging past that foe in the dying strides to score.

"I could see [jockey] Jose [Ortiz] had a ton of horse and I knew he was going to make his run," winning trainer Ben Colebrook said. "I didn't want the wire to come too soon because he was coming with a big run. I'm just glad he proved he can win outside the state of Kentucky. I thought we were in the right place. I thought maybe we'd be ahead of Whitmore, maybe not so far back, but they went so fast. Jose knew where to have him. It's taken me so long to find the winner's circle in New York. I'm just happy for this."

The conditioner continued, "We'd have to think about the [GI] Forego [S. at Saratoga Aug. 25] next, but we were going to go to the Breeders' Cup even if we had to pay our own way in."

Winner of the 2017 GII Churchill Downs S. and GIII Aristides S., Limousine Liberal missed by a neck in Keeneland's GIII Commonwealth S. when making his seasonal debut Apr. 7, but successfully defended his title in the Churchill Downs May 5 over a sloppy track. He was last seen completing the trifecta behind Bee Jersey (Jersey Town) and dual Group 1 winner Mind Your Biscuits (Posse) in the GI Met Mile here June 9.

Limousine Liberal is the only foal out of Gift of Gab, a full-sister to GSW Uncle Denny.

Marley's Freedom settled just behind the front-running pair of Phantom Proton and Skye Diamonds, who battled it out through early fractions of :22.09 and :45.42. As 25-1 Best of Me (Super Saver) joined the fray to the outside and Turkish Tabby (Eskendereya) forced the issue from the inside, Marley's Freedom began to find her best stride and was asked to go eight wide turning for home.

The extra yardage made no difference, however, as the Bob Baffert trainee proved much the best, coming home a geared-down winner over Skye Diamonds. Best of Me was third.

"I ride her with a lot of confidence," said winning rider Drayden Van Dyke. "The plan was to take her back and make a run and she gave me a real nice turn of foot. [Runner-up and defending champion] Skye Diamonds fought gamely, but I knew we had her measured.'' Added Baffert assistant Mike Marlow, "Drayden knows her. We just wanted her to break and then let her relax. I didn't anticipate her being that far back, but that is kind of where she wants to be. He kept her in the clear and rode her like he was on the best horse. She could be a lot of fun the rest of the year. We're off to a good start.'"

Marley's Freedom was on the board in three of four starts at two, including a pair of wins at Del Mar last fall. Fourth behind the amazon Unique Bella (Tapit) in the seven-furlong GI La Brea S. Dec. 26, she endured a horrific start when shipping east for Gulfstream's Jan. 27 GIII Hurricane Bertie S. and came home sixth, beaten 6 1/2 lengths. Back at Santa Anita for the Mar. 24 GII Santa Monica S., Marley's Freedom crossed the wire in second behind Selcourt (Tiz Wonderful) before rounding out her tenure with trainer Bob Hess with a win over Phantom Proton going six panels in optional claiming company at the Arcadia oval Apr. 20. Marking her debut for Baffert in the six-furlong GIII Desert Stormer S. May 27, she galloped home a ridiculously easy 7 1/4-length winner over Miss Sunset (Into Mischief).

Pedigree Notes:

Relaxing Green, a half-sister to Grade III winner Mythical Gem (Jade Hunter) and SW and GSP Apple Charlotte (Smart Strike), is also responsible for a pair of stakes-placed horses, Noble Charlotte (Include) and Airship (Rock Hard Ten). The 18-year-old mare produced a colt by Verrazano in 2016 followed by a colt by Paynter last season. In 2018, she foaled a colt by Shackleford.

Firenze Fire had hovered around 6-1 or 7-1 for much of the betting cycle leading up to this event, but he was pounded in the final moments down to 5-2 and the late money proved quite prescient as his connections scored a second graded win in a matter of minutes on the heels of Vision Perfect (Pollard's Vision)'s score in the GIII Parx Dash. Breaking alertly, the bay was reined in by Irad Ortiz, Jr. to sit in fifth as Noble Indy (Take Charge Indy) and Mendelssohn knocked heads early through swift splits. Still handled very confidently as he ranged up out wide heading for home, Firenze Fire blew past G2 UAE Derby winner Mendelssohn like he was glued to the quarter pole before running up the score in a jaw-dropping performance.

"I got a perfect trip," Ortiz said. "We got a good post and he broke sharp. He was ready today, it was a big performance. Coming in, I just wanted to ride my race. Let him settle at first and then let him finish. In preparation for the race, we worked with him to gallop out and finish strong. To relax early and finish strong and it worked out good."

Firenze Fire invaded from Monmouth last summer to upend the GIII Sanford S. at Saratoga before defeating subsequent GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner and champion Good Magic (Curlin) two starts later in the track-and-trip GI Champagne S. Oct. 7. Far back at the Breeders' Cup, he returned to winning ways over Seven Trumpets going this trip in Aqueduct's Jan. 13 Jerome S. He was second going nine panels in the GIII Withers S. Feb. 3, fourth in the GIII Gotham S. Mar. 10 and fourth again in the GII Wood Memorial S., however. He was 11th in the GI Kentucky Derby last out, but his trainer Jason Servis had been hitting at a near 50% clip at the Belmont meet from a significant sample leading up to this.

"That was great," said Servis, who also took Friday's State Dinner S. with Sunny Ridge (Holy Bull). "I've been dying to cut him back, just dying. We thought he'd run good... We got on the [Kentucky] Derby trail, like you're supposed to do. Do we think he's a mile and a quarter horse? Probably not. But, now we're getting him where he needs to be, a mile, seven eighths, where he might even be a tad sharper. I mean, it all worked out. We're all real happy."

Servis said the GI H. Allen Jerkens S. Aug. 25 at Saratoga would be a likely next target.

Pedigree Notes:

Saturday was also a productive day for young sire Poseidon's Warrior, who was responsible for front-running Long Branch S. winner Navy Commander at Monmouth. Firenze Fire has a yearling half-sister named Firenze Freedom (Istan), but his dam lost her Fast Anna filly this term. He hails from the extended female family of Grade I winners Shackleford, Lady Joanne, etc.

Despite getting out significantly for much of the stretch, Red Ruby turned in her second dominant performance in graded company and stamped herself as one who might have a trip to Saratoga in her near future. A second-up graduate routing at Churchill in November, the grey resurfaced at Oaklawn to take the Martha Washington S. by daylight Feb. 10. She was a puzzling fourth in the GIII Honeybee S. at odds-on Mar. 10, but has been at her best since then. Red Ruby splashed home a 4 3/4-length winner over Coach Rocks in Pimlico's GII Black-Eyed Susan S. May 18, and appeared awful tough to beat here if she could duplicate that last performance. Well held to chase in second while kept far off the inside, she cruised to the fore hitting the final turn as pilot Paco Lopez gave a few of his patented looks back. Cornering very wide into the lane, Red Ruby continued to drift sharply before a couple right handers helped her right the ship nearing the line.

Pedigree Notes:

Red Ruby is one of four stakes winners for her unplaced dam, a half-sister to the good New York-bred sprinter Kashatreya (Daring Groom). Red Ruby's third dam Kshesinskaya was responsible for two-time GSW Lady At Peace (Lord At War {Arg}). Red Ruby's year-younger half-sister Tobago (Pioneerof the Nile), a May 17 foal and a $425,000 purchase by Cromwell Bloodstock at last year's Keeneland September sale, breezed four panels in :49.40 at Fair Hill Friday morning. Caroni missed to Uncle Mo for 2017 and was most recently covered by Honor Code.

Remembering Rita scored his third straight victory at Prarie Meadows and first at the graded level Friday evening. Claimed by these connections for $50,000 in the fall of 2016, he took nine tries to break his maiden, but did so in style with an 11 1/4-length demolition here May 25 and followed suit with another 11-length romp last time June 13. Dismissed at 19-1 despite those dominant local tallies, Remembering Rita was away well to stalk from second as Dalmore loped along through early fractions of :24.24 and :48.98. Three-wide turning for home, the bay took command in mid-stretch and kicked clear to score.

Pedigree Notes:

Remembering Rita hails from the family of last term's GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint victor Stormy Liberal (Stormy Atlantic). His dam is also responsible for a juvenile colt by Mucho Macho Man and a 2018 filly by Brody's Cause.

Trying to improve on a fourth-place effort in this race last term, Tricky Escape proved best this time around to collect her first win of the season in Saturday's GIII Robert G. Dick Memorial S. at Delaware. Tricky Escape was allowed to assume her customary stalking position in a ground-saving sixth as free-running Broken Bridle (Broken Vow) rushed out to set opening fractions of :23.89 and :49.04. Still moving easily while midpack passing the five eighths marker, Tricky Escape was asked for more and she turned on all boosters and closed on the front rank quickly heading into the home turn. Carrying the most momentum from there, she drove in between rivals midstretch and drew off to win by a powered down 2 1/2 lengths over longshot Giovanna Blues.

Victorious in last year's nine-furlong GIII Violet S. at Monmouth, the dark bay hit the board in a pair of subsequent starts, including a third in a one-mile Belmont optional claimer in October, before adding a narrow score in a sloppy renewal of the GIII Cardinal H. Nov. 18. A closing sixth in her seasonal reappearance in the GII Hillsborough S. at Tampa Mar. 10, she reported home fifth after a sluggish start last time in Belmont's GIII Beaugay S. May 12.

Pedigree Report:

By a son of Kentucky Derby hero and Japanese sire sensation Sunday Silence, Tricky Escape is out of Island Escape, a dual stakes winner that earned over $325,000 during her racing career. A half-sister to Grade III-placed Felifran (Discreet Cat), Tricky Escape hails from the extended family of Grade I winners All Fired Up (Timeless Moment) and Awesome Humor (Distorted Humor).

Vision Perfect sat a perfect stalking trip three wide and without a straw in his path and managed to peg back a stubborn Pool Winner for a first graded stakes success in Saturday's GIII Parx Dash in suburban Philadelphia.

Well-backed early and a late drifter into 18-5 second favoritism, Vision Perfect jumped alertly and was settled in third by Frankie Pennington, tracking pacesetting Pool Winner and Pure Sensation, whose perfect four-for-four record over the track included victories in this event in each of the last two seasons. With Pure Sensation already under pressure and looking in deep water at the midpoint of the turn, Vision Perfect rolled up outside of Pool Winner off the final corner, dueled with that rival deep into the final eighth of a mile and had a head in front on the line.

A stakes winner at two and three, Vision Perfect was claimed from his breeder for $80,000 out of a third-place effort at Belmont last June and was seventh to Pure Sensation in the 2017 Parx Dash in his first run for this outfit. Kept at this abbreviated trip this season, the dark bay entire was third in the Jan. 1 Janus S. at Gulfstream, was the convincing winner of the Silks Run S. Mar. 10 and was a latest sixth as the favorite in the GIII Turf Sprint at Churchill May 4.

Pedigree Notes:

Vision Perfect is the second U.S. graded stakes winner for his Oklahoma-based sire, who has also been represented by three winners at group level in Argentina. The winner is a maternal grandson of Grade III-winning turf filly Ruff (Clever Trick), whose son Mr Gruff (Mr. Greeley) also excelled at turf-sprint trips, with two wins in the GIII San Simeon H. down the hill at Santa Anita. He was also third when stretched out in distance for the GI Shoemaker Mile. Steamy produced a colt by Animal Kingdom in 2017 and a filly by Hard Spun this year.

Divisidero | Coady

Divisidero returned to winning ways with a narrow score in the Arlington H. Away well from post 11, the bay ran two wide near the back of the pack as 58-1 shot Roman Approval (Roman Ruler) ticked off opening splits of :23.99 and :48.83. Progressing up the outside on the backstretch run, the 5-2 shot launched a three-wide bid at the top of the stretch, edging clear late to best Revved Up (Candy Ride {Arg}) with Synchrony close behind in third.

A two-time winner fo the GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic at Churchill Downs while under the care of trainer Buff Bradley, Divisidero was transferred to Kelly Rubley at the end of last season. Runner-up in his seasonal debut for this barn in the GII Monmouth S. May 26, he was fourth in Churchill's GII Wise Dan S. June 16, his first loss beneath the Twin Spires, where he also won the 2015 GII American Turf S.

Pedigree Notes:
The winner's dam Madame Du Lac, a half-sister to Chilean champion Genial Boy (Arg) (Songandaprayer), also produced the unraced juvenile filly Madame Orbe (Orb), who summoned $260,000 from bloodstock agent Mike Ryan at Keeneland September. The 13-year-old mare failed to get in foal to Medaglia d'Oro the following year, but produced an Into Mischief colt Apr. 6 of this year. Modesty H. cont.

The clear class on paper of Saturday's GIII Modesty H. at Arlington, Daddys Lil Darling made easy work of a full field to punch her ticket to the GI Beverly D. S. over the same course and distance Aug. 11.

Able to slide across the field from her widest draw in 13, Daddys Lil Darling raced three wide and faced the breeze into and around the first turn before eased down into the two path turning up the back to sit within perfect striking distance off a generous tempo. Hard held by Brian Hernandez, Jr. leaving the half-mile marker behind, Daddys Lil Darling was allowed to stride into the lead on her own courage at the three-eighths marker, cantered effortlessly in front on the swing for home and was never in serious danger, winning eased down as Prado's Sweet Ride closed off well to complete the Modesty exacta for the second straight season.

Winner of last year's GI American Oaks, Daddys Lil Darling was a close fourth after striking a bit of traffic in the GII Hillsborough S. at Tampa Mar. 10 ahead of a slightly disappointing second as the 3-5 chalk in the GIII Bewitch S. at Keeneland Apr. 27. She most recently closed hard from the back of the field to round out the triple behind Chad Brown stablemates Fourstar Crook (Freud) and Sistercharlie (Ire) (Myboycharlie {Ire}) in the GII New York S. on Belmont S. eve June 9.

Pedigree Notes:

One of 25 Grade I winners for her late sire, Daddys Lil Darling is one of three black-type winners--two top-level scorers--for her dam, a stakes winner and Grade II-placed on turf for John Sadler in California. Daddys Lil Darling is the final produce for her dam, a daughter of GSW Miss High Blade.

Real Story | Coady

Real Story was kicked into a clear lead after the opening few strides of Saturday's GIII American Derby at Arlington and never looked back in the final local tune-up for the GI Secretariat S. Aug. 11.

The recipient of solid pari-mutuel support from his 12-1 morning line, the gray raced well away from the inside rail while making the lead with a minimum of fuss, then was eased down onto the fence by Joe Bravo for the run around the clubhouse turn. The pace was genuine enough, as the opening half-mile was up in a solid :47.45, but Real Story was still traveling ominously well under a long hold and padded his lead nearing the entrance to the straight with most of his rivals hard at it behind him. Shaken up and roused right-handed nearing the eighth pole, Real Story began to labor a bit in the final sixteenth of a mile, but had the race in safe keeping. Captivating Moon rallied from the backfield to just nose out Dubby Dubbie for second.

A maiden winner at first asking at Tampa late last December, Real Story was a longshot third in a Keeneland turf allowance ahead of a sixth to Dubby Dubbie in Churchill allowance company May 20. Transferred to Arlington thereafter, he posted a similarly facile 4 1/4-length win from the front over yielding turf June 15 to earn his shot in this test.

Pedigree Notes:

The first graded winner for the late Fast Bullet (by Speightstown), Real Story is kin to the good sophomore turfer My Afleet and is out of a half-sister to Arlington stakes winner Voy Por Uno Mas (Mazel Trick). My Own Story is the dam of a 2-year-old colt by Afleet Alex, a yearling colt by Lea and a filly by Afleet Alex this year.

Catcho En Die (Arg) | Coady

Catcho En Die, a Group 1 winner in his native Argentina, has enjoyed mixed success since his arrival in the United States in 2017. Gelded prior to his U.S. debut with trainer Bill Mott, he was second--beaten a length--in an 8 1/2-furlong Gulfstream optional claimer last December before offering little resistence when ninth in the Feb. 18 GIII Fair Grounds H. at nine-furlongs. Dropped in for $40,000 in a one-mile Aqueduct test Apr. 21, the dark bay came home a narrow winner while getting claimed by the current connections. Thrown to the wolves in the 11-furlong GI Man O' War S. May 12, Catcho En Die finished a respectable fifth before crossing the wire in 10th--beaten only only 2 1/2 lengths--in the GI Manhattan S. over 10 furlongs June 9.

Offered at a fair price here while facing easier company than his latest two starts, he was sent to the front early while trying to collect black-type in this hemisphere. The gelding strolled through early fractions of :24.72, :49.72 and 1:13.34 and continued to show the way turning for home. Narrowly in front, but receiving increasing pressure from Soglio--who was latched to his outside--in deep stretch, the Argentine repelled that one and had enough left in the tank to fend off a rail-skimming Canessar (Fr) at the wire. Click for the Equineline.com chart, the TJCIS.com PPs or the free Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree.

'MIA' SEEKS THIRD STRAIGHT 'VICTORY'

Mia Mischief | Horsephotos

'TDN Rising Star' Mia Mischief (Into Mischief) looks to score her third straight stakes win in Sunday's GIII Victory Ride S. at Belmont Park. The $300,000 FTFMAR buy romped by 8 1/4 lengths in Oaklawn's Purple Martin S. Mar. 24 for owners William and Corinne Heiligbrodt, after which Scott Heider and Sol Kumin bought into the filly. She rewarded her new owners with a 1 3/4-length decision in the GII Eight Belles S. on the GI Kentucky Oaks undercard May 4.

The morning-line favorite won't have it easy, however, with several talented stakes fillies set to take her on Sunday. Fellow 'TDN Rising Star' Separationofpowers (Candy Ride {Arg}) followed her ultra-impressive debut win at Saratoga July 30 with a third in the GI Spinaway S. Sept. 2 and returned to winning ways in the one-mile GI Frizette S. here Oct. 8. She was last seen finishing a respectable fourth in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies at Del Mar Nov. 4.

Linda Rice and owner Leonard Green have two chances to win here, the strongest shot being the undefeated Sower (Flatter). A dominant debut winner at Laurel Apr. 28, the chestnut captured a sloppy Pimlico optional claimer May 18 and scored a good-looking victory in the six-panel Jersey Girl S. here last time June 10. The runner-up from that race Devine Mischief (Into Mischief) and third-place finisher and MGSW Take Charge Paula (Take Charge Indy) also return here. Rice will also be represented by longshot D J's Favorite (Union Rags), who graduated at second asking in the Pimlico slop May 18 and wired a Laurel allowance last time June 17.

Also worth a look is GII Sorrento S. heroine Spectator (Jimmy Creed), who was recently transferred from Phil D'Amato to Michelle Nevin. Kicking off this term with a Santa Anita optional claimer win Mar. 18, the chestnut was second when last seen in the GI Santa Anita Oaks Apr. 7.

FORMER BREEDERS' CUP EXEC BLATZ-MURFF DIES

Pam Blatz-Murff, who served as the Breeders' Cup Limited's Senior Vice President of Operations for over 25 years, died July 5 in Dallas, Texas, following a brief battle with cancer. She was 70 years old. Blatz-Murff, who grew up in La Jolla, California, was exposed to horses as a young girl, riding Quarter Horses while her family raced Thoroughbreds along the California circuit. Following a trip to Lexington, Kentucky, in the early 80s, Blatz-Murff made the move to the blue grass region permanent and took a job with the newly-created Breeders' Cup.

"Pam played a critical role from the beginning of the Breeders' Cup in helping create the nominations and racing programs that are today pillars of one of the world's great racing festivals," according to a statement from the Breeders' Cup. "Her commitment to the international character of the event was recognized in the conferring of the Derby Award in 2001 which focused on her "care and passion about the horses themselves: about their owners and breeders; about their trainers and lads." The statement continued, "Most notably, Pam enjoyed the comradery and respect of horsemen both domestically and internationally. We will miss her passion for Thoroughbred racing and her pride in the Breeders' Cup and extend our deepest sympathies to Pam's daughter Tiffany and the family."

Pam Blatz-Murff
Courtesy of Blatz-Murff Family

Among the many initiatives Blatz-Murff played a major role in was the expansion of the Breeders' Cup championship in 2007 from a single-day event featuring seven races to a two-day format comprising 14 races and over $25 million in purses. She was also instrumental in the formation of the Veterinary Inspection Team; the implementation of the Breeders' Cup Security Protocols and the organization's relationship with the U.S. Departure of Agriculture. Blatz-Murff also worked tirelessly in conjunction with several equine organizations, including the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation, where she served as a board member. She was also a member of the Kentucky Horse Park Commission, the Keeneland Association, the Thoroughbred Club of America, the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association and the California Thoroughbred Breeders Association.

"She loved horses in every stage," said Blatz-Murff's daughter, Tiffany Wesley. "She poured over breeding pedigrees for weeks to make sure it was the right match for our own mares. She visited the fields with her orange bucket to spoil the mares and foals with sweet feed and carrots. She counted noses as they crossed the finish lines on Breeders' Cup day and wrote congratulations to friends, colleagues and owners across the world."

Wesley added, "My mom had two loves: her family and horse racing. She loved being a grammie to my two kiddos more than anything she supported the sport into her final days.."

The family requested that contributions in Blatz-Murff's name be made to the T. Boone Pickens Center at Fair Presbyterian Hospice, Dallas, Texas.

JOCKEYS AND JEANS FUNDRAISER BREAKS RECORD

The Jockeys and Jeans fundraiser, held June 23 at Canterbury Park in Shakopee, Minnesota, raised a record $310,000, easily surpassing the previous mark of $254,000 set just last year when the event was held at Parx Racing. The group has now raised better than $1 million for severely and/or permanently disabled jockeys.

Thirteen jockeys, including Hall of Famer Edgar Prado, attended the event to honor six permanently disabled jockeys. Prado competed with other riders and six of Canterbury's past leading riders in the inaugural All Star Jockey Challenge.

"Jockeys and Jeans is a true representation of jockeys helping jockeys," said PDJF Board President Nancy LaSala. "We thank the former jockeys who came together to do something to help raise awareness and funds for the PDJF, as well as the Hall of Fame jockeys who travel across the country and the active riders at each host track. All are there to help the fallen riders. We are so appreciative of the tracks who have hosted the event; Tampa Bay Downs, Indiana Grand, Gulfstream Park, Parx Racing, and Canterbury Park. Without their support this would not have happened."

The Permanently Disabled Jockeys' Fund (PDJF) makes monthly payments in the amount of $1,000 to some 60 former jockeys who suffered catastrophic injuries on the job, including 40 pari- or quadri-plegics. Most of the others suffered serious brain injuries.

Officials at Jockeys and Jeans announced that the 2019 event would take place at Santa Anita and will move to Churchill Downs in 2020.

High North rode the rail in a joint third through early splits of :23.30 and :47.18. Slipping through a seam on the fence in mid-stretch, the bay edged clear and held off a late bid from Mr Freeze to score. Off the board in both the GII Risen Star S. Feb. 17 and the GII Rebel S. Mar. 17, the $230,000 KEESEP purchase benefitted from a class drop, capturing the Northern Spur S. by 2 1/2 lengths at Oaklawn Apr. 14. He was last seen finishing fourth in the GIII Peter Pan S. at Belmont May 12. High North is a half-brother to fellow Brad Cox trainee Benner Island, winner of last term's GII Eight Belles S. Their Grade II-winning dam Spacy Tracy is also responsible for the unraced 2-year-old filly Victim of Love (Speightstown) and a 2018 colt by Bernardini. High North also hails from the family of champion Eliza (Mt. Livermore);

Cont. p2

With a mere six lifetime starts under his belt, the now 5-year-old Done Deal made short work of his competition, recording his initial stakes victory in Friday evening's Iowa Sprint H. Quickly away to prompt Eurobond (Euroears) through an opening quarter in :22.04, Done Deal continued to exert pressure on that rival through a half in :44.77. On even terms turning for home, Done Deal shook clear at the 3/16ths pole and proved best to score by daylight over the closing Apprehender. Favored Wilbo was third. Eurobond rounded out the superfecta.

On the board in a pair of Churchill starts early in his 3-year-old career, Done Deal marked his graduation going five panels on the Arlington turf in July of that season before adding another score sprinting six panels in the mud at Churchill later in September. Sidelined for over 1 1/2 years after that, he returned to dead-heat for a victory on grass in a Churchill optional claimer May 18. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

A second-out graduate on the Deauville all-weather back in January for trainer Fabrice Chappet, Colonia was a close third in a Chantilly conditions race the following month but hadn't done much in two subsequent tries over heavy turf at Saint-Cloud. Bought into and brought over by these savvy connections, she had reportedly been training well at Fair Hill and became the latest on a very long list of Graham Motion-trained European imports to win their Stateside debuts. A bit awkwardly away and back to last, Colonia was content to bide her time at the caboose and tugged her way slightly closer along the home bend while clearly full of run. Tipped out sharply for clear sailing at the head of the lane, she inhaled foes down the center with a big, powerful stride that appeared well-suited to the firm sod. The winner's dam is a half to French MGSW Don Bosco (Fr) (Barathea {Ire}) and last produced an unraced 2-year-old named August Dream (GB) (Kendargent {Fr}).

Navy Commander began to put it together earlier this term with a pair of blowout victories at Parx Feb. 27 and Mar. 27 and posted a breakthrough performance for a career high here. The chestnut, third in the Robert Hilton Memorial at Charles Town Apr. 21 and a well-beaten sixth in a sloppy renewal of the Sir Barton S. at Pimlico May 19, entered off a state-bred allowance score going six furlongs at Parx June 12. He established command from the bell here, led through easy fractions of :25.79 and :51.57, and took off in the stretch to win for fun.

"You could have not asked for a better scenario the way this race unfolded for us," winning trainer Butch Reid said. "But I knew there were a couple of horses behind him that were going to test him and he came through with final colors. It's a great compliment to be invited to the Haskell Invitational off this. We have to see if we think we'll be competitive. We don't enter races just for the sake of running in races. But it's always a prestigious race and something you have to think about long and hard if you're invited to it."

The winner's dam, a maiden of two career starts, is also represented by a Poseidon's Warrior colt of 2017. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

O Dionysus, a stakes winner on the dirt last February, began this season with two poor efforts sprinting on the Laurel dirt over the winter. Switched to the sod for a Pimlico optional claimer May 10, he woke up to score that day before finishing fourth in the rained-off GIII Dixie S. nine days later. The bay got back on the grass and to winning ways here June 7, but was being asked to go by far the longest distance he ever had this time. Sitting fourth or so out in the clear early before tugging his way into second passing the stands for the first time, O Dionysus had a head in front first time past the wire. He continued on from there sharing pacesetting duties, and out-gamed Utmost in midstretch before holding off Vintage Matters while lowering the course record in the process. Part of a well-backed entry with Private Drive (Bellamy Road), Diamond Dust, who won first out going 4 1/2 furlongs against state-bred foes here June 3, prompted a well-attended opening quarter in :22.64. Taking over control on the far turn, the gelding was narrowly ahead turning for home, drew clear late and was an easy winner over Drillit. Going With Style was third.

Diamond Dust's dam Radiant Sky produced a colt by Fed Biz last term and was bred back to Tourist. This represents the extended family of European Horse of the Year and highweighted European juvenile Arazi (Blushing Groom {Fr}), who also won the 1991 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile en route to a juvenile championship in the U.S.; and English 3-year-old highweight and Group 1 winner Noverre (Rahy). Click for the Equibase.com chart.

American Guru | Sarah K. Andrew

Delta (Empire Maker), won his first two starts sprinting on grass by a combined 8 1/4 lengths, including a runaway first-level allowance victory at the Big A Apr. 18. The bay just got nipped by graded winner Voodoo Song (English Channel) in a Belmont $62,500 optional claimer last time May 12. Favored at 3-5 in this one, American Guru sat a stalking trip in third through a sharp half-mile in :45.07, set his sights on the leader at the top of the stretch and came charging down the lane to reel in the pacesetter by 1 3/4 lengths. Attribute (Tapit) was second. Aussie invader Sarrasin (GB) (Monsun {Ger}) never fired while last of eight. American Guru's dam Camargue, a daughter of graded winner Lyphard's Delta (Lyphard), is also represented by the 2-year-old filly Awesome Tiara (Awesome Again). 4th-Gulfstream, $44,700, Msw, 7-7, 2yo, f, 5 1/2f, 1:05.75, ft. EQUIFOX (f, 2, Oxbow--Jay At Nine, by Storm Cat), off as the 6-5 chalk in her unveiling, broke running and grabbed a one-length advantage through an opening quarter in :23.07. The Calumet homebred began to shake clear at the top of the stretch and had 2 1/2 lengths to spare over Capriati (Brethren) at the wire. The winner's second dam is GISW A. P. Adventure (A.P. Indy). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $24,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

9th-Ellis, $42,000, Msw, 7-7, 3yo/up, 1m, 1:36.02, ft. NICODEMUS (c, 3, Candy Ride {Arg}--Leah's Secret {MGSW, $1,158,805}, by Tiger Ridge) rallied to complete the exacta in his Churchill unveiling going six furlongs June 9. Off as the 4-5 chalk to go one better, he raced in midpack in sixth on the outside, began to roll while six or seven wide on the far turn and turned it on nicely in the stretch to reel in St. Augustine (Tapit) by 3/4 of a length. The race was marred when entrymate Locomotion (Street Sense) clipped heels and fell in deep stretch. WinStar Farm purchased the winner's dam Leah's Secret for $525,000 as a horse of racing age at the 2007 FTKNOV Sale. She is also represented by the 2-year-old filly Nikki Beach (Distorted Humor) and a yearling colt by Pioneerof the Nile. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $36,700. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

WinStar Bred

7th-Ellis, $42,000, Msw, 7-7, 2yo, f, 1mT, 1:37.10, fm. ROAD TIGER (f, 2, Quality Road--Tiger Cat Lilly {SW}, by Tale of the Cat) finished seventh in her main track unveiling at Churchill Downs June 15 and was bet down to 3-1 favoritism from a 6-1 morning-line to improve in this switch to the turf. Breaking sharply from the outside post in this nine-horse affair, the $250,000 KEESEP buy rushed up to track from fourth through an opening quarter in :23.37 and moved into a joint third through a half in :48.17. Cont. p9

Ranging up two wide to tackle the leaders on the backstretch run, the bay seized command at the top of the lane and powered clear for a good-looking 1 1/2-length victory. Channeled's Lady (Channeled) completed the exacta. These are the same connections behind last weekend's undefeated Debutante S. winner and 'TDN Rising Star' Restless Rider (Distorted Humor). Stakes winner Tiger Cat Lilly, a half-sister to MGSW Gypsy Robin (Daaher), produced a Tonalist colt in 2017 and a Quality Road colt in 2018. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $25,448. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

MCCALL (f, 3, Violence--Fontanne, by Distorted Humor) showed a pretty upbeat tab at Keeneland for this, but was let go at 6-1 for a barn that very rarely wins first out. Away in midpack, the $190,000 FTKOCT acquisition dropped far back into the turn and had her work cut out turning for home. Staying glued to the fence behind a :44.84 half as the seas parted at the quarter pole, she kicked on resolutely to score by an impressive and widening 3 3/4 lengths. Ascot Day (Street Sense) and Frittata (Tiz Wonderful) hung on for second and third, respectively, after showing the way early. McCall has a foal full-sister. Her third dam is champion Hollywood Wildcat (Kris S.), dam of the likes of GISW War Chant (Danzig). Sales history: $40,000 Ylg '16 KEEJAN; $25,000 Ylg '16. FLAT OUT FLIRTY (f, 2, Flat Out--Flirty Fitz {SW, $122,564}, by Seattle Fitz {Arg}), sent off at 4-1 for this unveiling, was up close prompting the pace from the inside in the early going. Moved to the outside to engage Persimmon Pass (Fort Larned) in the stretch, Flat Out Flirty proved gamest late to eke out a 3/4-length victory over the 10-1 shot. Flatoutandfoxy (Flat Out) rounded out the trifecta. Sales history: $19,000 RNA 2yo '18 EQL2YO. HISTORIC WALMAC FARM

248 +/- Acres

Paris Pike, Lexington, Kentucky

With the best location in Kentucky, Walmac Farm's centerpiece is its world-renown stallion complex with its capacity for 20 stallions. 50 additional stalls, 6 employee houses, and a guest house plus large farm office complete this true turn-key horse farm.

Its wonderfully-restored 5935 +/- square foot main residence, circa 1804, with private entrance and grounds would make any-one feel right at home—

END OF AN ERA: JOHN DUNLOP PASSES

John Dunlop | Racing Post

by John Berry

A notable chapter in a golden age of British racing has come to a close with the passing of former champion trainer John Dunlop, OBE, a gentleman of absolute integrity and immense kindness whose career spanned both sides of the divide during which the game changed from the localised sport which it was in the post-war era to the international business which it is nowadays. He was 78.

Born on July 10, 1939 in Tetbury, Gloucestershire, John Dunlop, son of the local doctor, did his National Service in the Royal Ulster Rifles before deciding to try to forge a career in racing. To this end, he secured a position as pupil with Neville Dent, who trained a small string of unremarkable horses in the New Forest and stood a few stallions at his Hart Hill Stud. This grounding proved invaluable, as Dunlop later recalled, "I looked after two, sometimes three or four, horses, and a premium stallion. I drove the horse box. I travelled the horses and did a bit of everything for two years. This was great fun and I loved it. This, for me, was a very good experience because, as I say, I had to do everything which would not have been the case in a big yard. We journeyed Neville's stallions all over the place, covering all sorts of extraordinary mares, carthorses, New Forest ponies and the occasional Thoroughbred."

ALL HEART

Even without Masar (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}), Saturday's G1 Coral-Eclipse at Sandown threw up a barnstormer as Qatar Racing's Roaring Lion (Kitten's Joy) edged out old rival Saxon Warrior (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) to prevail by a neck and survive a subsequent stewards' inquiry. Freshened up after a busy period which culminated in a third placing in the June 2 G1 Epsom Derby, the 7-4 favourite was held up early by Oisin Murphy as the winning sire's 2016 hero Hawkbill cut out the running. Delivered alongside Saxon Warrior two out, the grey gained a slight advantage soon after and despite veering right into the runner-up late on seemed to have command at the time.

"I thought he was always holding him," winning trainer John Gosden said. "He's run a great race and was wider than we wanted, but Oisin timed his run beautifully. I can't believe how well they galloped out past the line and they'd only just arrived in the winner's enclosure when they said 'horses away'." Cont. p4

Armed with this thorough grounding, Dunlop secured a position as assistant-cum-secretary to Gordon Smyth, trainer to the Duke and Duchess of Norfolk at Arundel in Sussex. When Smyth moved to Lewes two years later to become a public trainer, Dunlop was appointed to take his place, taking over the license at Castle Stables, Arundel, in 1966. There he remained for the entirety of his 47-year training career.

John Dunlop's first big wins as a trainer came in the 1970 Irish 1000 Guineas with Mr. W. L. Reynolds' Black Satin and the 1973 Eclipse S. with Sandy Struthers's Scottish Rifle, both ridden by the stable's long-time jockey Ron Hutchinson. The following year saw the victory which, even with all of his subsequent Classic triumphs, probably always remained the one dearest to his heart.

Bernard, 16th Duke of Norfolk, was not only John Dunlop's employer but also the man who had enabled him to realise his dream of becoming a trainer. By this stage the Duke was nearing the end of his life. (He died in January 1975, aged 66). He had played many parts in public life, including as Chairman of the MCC, but the position which he cherished the most was as Her Majesty The Queen's Representative at Ascot. The Gold Cup, therefore, was the race esteemed above all others at Arundel--and in June 1974, only seven months before his owner/breeder's death, Ragstone, ridden by Ron Hutchinson, gave the Duke and Duchess the victory of which they had dreamed for so long.

An era ended with the death of the Duke of Norfolk. Although his racing-mad widow Lavinia continued to breed and race horses (including the 1986 St Leger winner Moon Madness) she did so in an environment which was changing rapidly and utterly. The old-school owner/breeders were becoming marginalised by the tidal wave of overseas investment. The size of strings was increasing exponentially. John Dunlop took the changing of the guard in his stride.

His first winner came the following summer, Hatta taking a 2-year-olds' maiden race at Brighton before following up a month later in the Molecomb S. at Goodwood. As the Sheikh's involvement mushroomed, so did the strength of the stable at Arundel, particularly as Sheikh Mohammed's brother Sheikh Hamdan also joined the ranks of the stable's owners.

John Dunlop at Arundel | Racing Post

Within a short period, John Dunlop had gone from being a salaried trainer for the Duke of Norfolk and his friends to commanding the biggest string in England, with as cosmopolitan an ownership base as one could ever see. The New Zealand import Balmerino joined the stable in the summer of 1977 and chased home Alleged in the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. The following year Shirley Heights, owned and bred by Lord Halifax, won the Derby and Irish Derby. In 1980 Quick As Lightning, owned by the stable's long-standing American patron Ogden Mills Phipps, won the 1000 Guineas. Furthermore, John Dunlop's reach was as extensive as his clientele: if there was a big race somewhere in the world, whether that be on continental Europe or in Australasia, John Dunlop would have had a runner in it before most other English trainers were even aware of its existence.

And so John Dunlop's stable rolled from strength to strength, only starting to wind down in the final few years before his retirement in 2012, at which point his tally of winners stood at over 3,000. Sheikh Hamdan was his principal patron in the final decades and was richly rewarded for his staunch support, thanks to the likes of 1994 Derby winner Erhaab and 2000 Derby runner-up Sakhee, 1990 1000 Guineas, Oaks and Irish Derby heroine Salsabil, 1991 1000 Guineas heroine Shadayid, 1998 Dewhurst S. winner Mujahid and the champion milers Marju, Lahib and Bahri. Cont. p4

One of the stable's final stars displayed a longevity nearly on a par with his trainer's: Neil Jones's Millenary won the St Leger in 2000 and the Doncaster Cup in 2005, taking his place in a roll call of magnificent middle-distance or staying champions which also included Sir Robin McAlpine's 1984 Oaks winner Circus Plume and Peter Winfield's 1997 St Leger winner Silver Patriarch. The many top sprinters trained by John Dunlop included Habibti, Invincible Spirit, Chilibang, Elnadim, Runnett and Lavinia Fontana.

John Dunlop gave much of his time to the greater good within racing, including as a Trustee of the British Racing School and on the Board of the National Stud. As fine a trainer as he was, he was at least as fine a human being. Just as Neville Dent had been his mentor, so was he mentor to generations of youngsters keen to make their way in the greatest game of all. One could go anywhere in the world and find a trainer or studmaster who, when asked the question, "Where did you receive your grounding?", will reply, "With John Dunlop".

John Dunlop leaves his widow Sue and their children Edward and Harry, who have both followed in their father's footsteps and are now Group 1-winning trainers. We offer the family our deepest condolences.

"This is his trip, we've always thought so," he continued. "I thought Saxon Warrior was magnificent, so all credit to Aidan O'Brien, but Oisin did very well to stay as cool as he did."

Roaring Lion becomes the third colt of renown to win the mile race on Newmarket's July Course in August that was a maiden when Motivator (GB) and Frankel (GB) won and a novice contest when the grey appeared in public for the first time.

Following up by six lengths under a penalty on Kempton's Polytrack in early September, he upstaged Nelson (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in the G2 Royal Lodge S. to maintain his perfect sequence back in Newmarket, this time on the Rowley Mile at the end of that month. Widely believed to have made his move too soon when second to Saxon Warrior in the G2 Royal Lodge S. at Doncaster the following month, he approached the Apr. 19 G3 Craven S. as Britain's leading candidate for the G1 2000 Guineas but was blown away by Masar when third there before coming forward to be fifth in the main event May 5. At that point, the logic that he would have beaten Saxon Warrior under more waiting tactics in the Racing Post Trophy seemed far from the mark, but Roaring Lion was secretly waging a vengeance mission which began with an emphatic win in the G2 Dante S. on his first try at this trip at York 12 days after the mile Classic.

Gradually becoming more straightforward as he gained racing experience, Roaring Lion was also gaining credence but as he lined up for the Derby he was one of several lurking in Saxon Warrior's formidable shadow. What a difference a month can make, with the Guineas hero becoming the enigma that Qatar Racing's pride and joy once was himself. He may have had an advantage over his adversary here, with the runner-up having endured a tough race a week previously in the Irish Derby but even allowing for that and his late antics it is hard to escape the reality that Roaring Lion looked marginally better here. He had his sights set on him all the way and whereas Oisin Murphy was expected to wait and wait, he sensed a weakness in the Ballydoyle colt and seized on it with over a furlong to run. As the slow-starting Cliffs of Moher (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) made up ground to run the race of his career, it was between the two sophomores as Sandown's famous hill probed its customary question. Giving all, Roaring Lion was resentful of the whip and dodged away from it and into his giant rival as the line neared and it took several minutes for the officials to rubber-stamp is greatest victory yet. Cont. p5

Oisin Murphy, who received a five-day suspension, was understandably confident that he was on the best horse despite the stewards' deliberations. "My horse has caused very little interference, if any, and clearly he was the best horse in the race. He's a very talented colt," he said. "There's a huge team at John Gosden's who deserve big-race success and I'm delighted. I went out in the race with a very open mind and full of confidence thanks to the owner and the trainer. Thankfully, we delivered."

Gosden is keen to stay over this trip now for the remaining European championship events, but was also pondering the potential for the GI Breeders' Cup Mile to take way over Champions Day if Britain suffers its usual wet autumn. "I'm sure we will see the second [at York for the Aug. 22 G1 Juddmonte International] and with some luck, we will see Masar there," he said. "That will be some horse race. The problem with the Champion S. is it might be too soft then," he said. "He could get a mile and a half around three turns, so America could be the plan if it is soft over here. I think he should stay in training in four, but that's entirely up to the owners."

Aidan O'Brien put forward the potential for the one-time Triple Crown contender Saxon Warrior to go back to a mile and said, "From the head-on [footage], it looks like they did come together and a proper bump. It was not an advantage, as he is a big horse rolling at that time of the race. It was a very good run though and I'm delighted. It was a very big ask after a tough race in the Irish Derby. We can really look forward to the autumn. We will take him home and give him a nice break. I'd say we can go back [to a mile] any time he wants. It was always going to be a big ask wheeling him back quickly."

Pedigree Notes...

Roaring Lion is the first foal out of Vionnet (Street Sense), who was placed three times in stakes company including when third in the GI Rodeo Drive S. She is a daughter of the GIII Las Cienegas H. and GIII Senator Ken Maddy H. winner Cambiocorsa (Avenue of Flags), herself the dam of four separate stakes scorers including the GII Royal Heroine Mile S. winner Schiaparelli (Ghostzapper) and the fellow GII John C. Mabee S. winner Moulin de Mougin (Curlin). Cambiocorsa is a full-sister to California Flag, who was successful in the Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint and three times in the GIII Morvich H. Vionnet's 2-year-old colt by Medaglia d'Oro was unsold at $265,000 as a Keeneland November foal, but the following year was bought by Spendthrift Farm for $550,000. Named Fran the Man, he is currently the last produce of the dam after she aborted the following year bred to The Factor and unfortunately bore a dead foal bred to More Than Ready this year. Click for the free Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree. (Click to return to p1)

GETTING SERIOUS

Cliveden Stud's silks, which reached prominence in Britain during the 1980s thanks mainly to Reference Point (GB), were back in the limelight again on Saturday as the progressive Horseplay (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) took Haydock's G2 bet365 Lancashire Oaks. Building on her return effort when runner-up to the subsequent G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud runner-up Coronet (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) in the G2 Middleton S. over an extended 10 furlongs at York May 17, the 11-4 second favourite tracked the G3 Pinnacle S. winner God Given (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) throughout and after edging ahead passing the furlong pole, held on to score by a short head.

Issuing warning that she was above-average when breaking her maiden by 13 lengths over an extended mile trip on soft ground at Nottingham in October 2016, Horseplay weaved Oaks dreams when returning to win Newmarket's Listed Pretty Polly S. at a mile and a quarter last May and finished fourth in the jetwash created by Enable (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) in that Epsom Classic the following month.

Only fourth in the G2 Prix de Malleret sticking at this trip at Saint-Cloud in July, the homebred was sent to Ascot to contest the G1 QIPCO British Champions Fillies & Mares S. but offered little compensation for the boldness of connections when eighth there. Upping her game on her comeback in the Middleton, the bay was meeting several rivals here who would feel the fast conditions more than her and ultimately that proved decisive.

Jockey David Probert said, "She relaxed very nicely. The race played to her strengths at the end. It was a very tough effort. She's a very solid filly, she won the Pretty Polly in impressive style last year and was quite an exciting prospect. She's shown what talent she's got today. There were some very nice fillies behind her."

Pedigree Notes...

Horseplay is a granddaughter of one of her distinguished family's more recent luminaries in Fraulein (GB) (Acatenango {Ger}), who captured the GI E. P. Taylor S. in 2002. She also produced the useful black-type winners That Is the Spirit (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) and Khukri (Ire) (Sepoy {Aus}), as well as this filly's SW and GSP staying dam Mischief Making (Lemon Drop Kid). Fraulein's dam Francfurter (GB) (Legend of France) is kin to the SW and GSP Anna Victoria (Ger) (Royal Solo {Ger}), while the fourth dam A Priori (Ger) (Prince Ippi {Ger}) is in turn a full-sister to the G2 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) heroine and blue hen Anna Paola (Ger). Mischief Making's 3-year-old colt Nasee (GB) (Intello {Ger}) was bought by Highclere Stud for 280,000gns by Charlie Gordon-Watson Bloodstock at Tattersalls October and was unplaced on his sole start for Saeed Suhail and Sir Michael Stoute in October. ELITE CREW

One-time minion syndicate Elite Racing Club are anything but these days and Judicial (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}) continued the operation's gold-mining on Saturday when capturing Sandown's G3 Coral Charge. Showing a liking for faster ground and this five-furlong trip when winning a Beverley conditions race last time June 19, the half-brother to the brilliant Marsha (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}) played it straight throughout under Paul Mulrennan. Stalking the pace in second until gaining the lead with 150 yards remaining, the 4-1 favourite kept digging in late to withstand the strong finishing effort of Muthmir (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) and prevail by a neck.

"He travelled like a dream and everything went smoothly," his rider said. "That win at Beverley probably did his confidence good and he was like a different horse today. He's a sprinter going places."

While Judicial was not graced with the instant verve of his unforgettable half-sibling, he has proved a slow-burner under the skilled guidance of Julie Camacho and the grit that wins the tough sprint handicaps of Britain has stood him in fine stead as his career has progressed. His last appearance in a handicap came when successful at Pontefract last April and since then the bay's star has been in the ascendant, with a second in Chester's Listed Queensferry S. in August the best of his tries in black-type company last term. Cont. p7

Second on his return to the subsequent G1 King's Stand S. third Mabs Cross (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}) in Newmarket's G3 Palace House S. at this trip May 5, the bay was repeatedly denied a clear run when eighth in Haydock's Listed Achilles S. won by Muthmir June 9 but came out of that misfortune with greater vigour as he beat up solid rivals at Beverley 10 days later.

The aforementioned G1 Prix de l'Abbaye and G1 Nunthorpe S. heroine Marsha, who is now Coolmore property having fetched 6 million gns at Tattersalls December, was the first black-type winner for the Listed Prix des Reves scorer Marlinka (GB) (Marju {Ire}), who was the best out of Baralinka (Ire) (Barathea {Ire}). She is in turn kin to the Elite Racing's flagship champion Soviet Song (Ire), also by Marju and whose five Group 1 victories include the Sussex S. and two editions of the Falmouth. Soviet Song's full-sister Sister Act (GB) boasts the G1 Prix Jean Romanet heroine Ribbons (GB) (Manduro {Ger}) among her progeny, while her half-sister Kazatzka (GB) (Groom Dancer) produced the G3 Pinnacle S. winner Miss Marjurie (Ire) also to a mating with Marju. OUT ON PAROLE

Sunday's G1 Qatar Prix Jean Prat, which has been switched from Chantilly to Deauville's straight track for the first time, offers the last chance for the 3-year-old milers to win at this level with 'TDN Rising Star' Gustav Klimt (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) sneaking away from the best of his generation in search of a slice of the action. Just a half-length behind Without Parole (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in the G1 St James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot June 19, Ballydoyle's hard-working colt has just last year's G2 Superlative S. to boast of with regards to pattern-race successes but has put in honest efforts in the leading contests in this division and has experience of battle to aid him here. In contrast, the exciting Shadwell homebred Wusool (Speightstown) has yet to show what he can do in this company but the evidence of his demonstrative win in Chantilly's G3 Prix Paul de Moussac June 17 suggests he is well up to this standard.

The star-crossed owner partnership of Antonio Caro and Gerard Augustin-Normand are represented by Olmedo (Fr) (Declaration of War), who looked high-class when scoring by a neck from Hey Gaman (GB) (New Approach {Ire}) in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains at ParisLongchamp May 13 and the opposite when trailing in 13th in the 10 1/2-furlong G1 Prix du Jockey Club at Chantilly June 3.

"The horse is fine. The trainer is very pleased with him. I think the ground will be good for him as well," the owners' racing manager Sylvain Vidal commented. "He worked very well on Thursday morning. He looks wonderful, so we will see."

In the Jockey Club, Intellogent (Ire) (Intello {Ger}) was less than a length back in fourth having captured the G3 Prix de Guiche over nine furlongs also at Chantilly May 7, while the impressive G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen hero Ancient Spirit (Ger) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) looks to back up the form of that German 2000 Guineas at Cologne May 21. Cont. p9

At Hamburg, the week's action culminates in the G1 IDEE 149th Deutsches Derby, where favouritism is held by Jaber Abdullah's May 1 G3 Bavarian Classic and June 3 G3 Ittlingen Derby Trial winner Royal Youmzain (Fr) (Youmzain {Ire}). Twelve months on from Windstoss (Ger) (Shirocco {Ger}) providing a first victory in this affair for Gestut Rottgen, his half-brother Weltstar (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}) looks to double up for the operation on the back of a career-best success in the G2 Oppenheim Union Rennen at Cologne June 17.

Fairyhouse's G3 Irish Stallion Farms EBF Brownstown S. offers a gilt-edged opportunity for Uncle Mo's half-sister Could It Be Love (War Front) to register a deserved first black-type success after her gallant efforts when second in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas at The Curragh May 27 and third in the G3 Jersey S. at Royal Ascot June 20.

Successful in nurseries at Newmarket and York last term, Awesometank signed off after running fourth in the Listed Montrose Fillies' S. back at Newmarket in November and returned in rude health when making all in a mile handicap at Chelmsford at the end of May. Again placed on the front end, the bay kept finding for James Doyle to gain a first black-type win in game fashion.

Awesometank (GB) is the first black-type winner for Janey Muddles, whose dam Slip Dance scored twice at this level and was runner-up in the G3 Sweet Solera S. Slip Dance is kin to the G3 Minstrel S. winner and G1 Phoenix S. runner-up and sire Air Chief Marshal (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), his dual listed-winning full-brother and sire Misu Bond (Ire) and last week's G2 Curragh Cup winner Flag of Honour (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Cont. p10

Also Ran: Fun Mac (Ger), Montaly (GB), High Jinx (Ire).

Successful in this last year, Nearly Caught had won four black-type races in total with his impressive 2016 G2 Prix Kergorlay display the headliner. Demoted from first to second in Hoppegarten's G2 Oleander-Rennen over two miles May 20 and denied a tilt at the Belmont Gold Cup in the process, the bay came here via a ninth placing in Royal Ascot's Queen Alexandra S. June 23. Held up early by James Doyle, he was delivered to lead approaching the furlong pole and despite drifting on to the far rail was always in control en route to a comfortable score.

The dam Katch Me Katie is also responsible for the G2 Lonsdale Cup winner Pale Mimosa (Ire) (Singspiel {Ire}), who was later third in the G1 Prix du Cadran as Nearly Caught was himself in 2016. Katch Me Katie is kin to the GII E.P. Taylor S. heroine and GI Gamely Breeders' Cup H. runner-up Kool Kat Katie (Ire) (Fairy King) and her G3 Musidora S.-winning full-sister Kalypso Katie (Ire) who was also second in the G1 Epsom Oaks and third in the GI Beverly Hills H. Katch Me Katie's 3-year-old colt by Camelot (GB) named Castle Chase (Ire) has yet to race, while she also has an unnamed 2-year-old filly by Ruler of the World (Ire) and a yearling colt by Maxios (GB). Click for the Racing Post result. JAPAN'S FINEST ON SHOW AHEAD OF SELECT SALE by Daithí Harvey

HOKKAIDO, Japan--The JRHA Select Sale of yearlings and foals takes place Monday and Tuesday with a single session dedicated to each age group and for those planning to invest at the sale, particularly in a foal, a rather different approach is required in order to arrive at your shortlist. Unlike in Europe and America, for example, when horses are available at the sales complex for viewing a few days before the sale, the foals, which are for auction on Tuesday, only arrive at the sales complex at Northern Horse Park accompanied by their dams, that morning.

The custom is for prospective buyers to inspect foals at their breeders' farms beforehand, something this correspondent had the pleasure of experiencing on Saturday. Yearlings meanwhile arrived at the sales grounds on Saturday morning allowing buyers almost two full days of final inspections before the action kicks off on Monday at 10 a.m. Pinhooking foals is not a practice that has taken off in Japan, certainly not at this sale and historically it was at the foal stage of a Thoroughbred's lifecycle that the majority of racehorses that were for sale changed hands.

"The way it happens at the sale is buyers pay for 50% of the foal when the hammer drops and the other 50% when the foal is weaned from the mare," explained JRHA international representative Naohiro Goda. "It is only in the last 20 years or so that the practice of selling horses as yearlings has grown to what it is today."

With around 120 foals in the sale between them, a visit to Northern Farm and Shadai Farm enables would be investors to view half the catalogue in two nearby locations. First stop was Katsumi Yoshida's Northern Farm and it was great to see so many recognizable former racemares from around the world flourishing in their new careers as broodmares, including former European champion sprinter Fleeting Spirit (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) along with her colt foal (lot 422) at foot by first crop sire Maurice (Jpn). Northern Farm also offers one of the two foals by Frankel (GB) in the sale, a colt (lot 348) out of Snow Pine (GB) (Dalakhani {Ire}) who is a half-brother to Japanese stakes winner Tower Of London (Jpn) (Raven's Pass). Another feature of the sale is the reserve price for each lot is printed and available to buyers and the Frankel colt foal is one of three Northern Farm-bred foals that has the draft's highest reserve of ¥100,000,000 (US$900,000/£680,000/A$1,200,000/€770,000).

The other two being lots 364 and 400, who are both sons of Deep Impact (Jpn). The first mentioned is a half-brother to Seville (Ger) (Galileo {Ire}) who was second in the G1 Irish Derby before winning the G1 Metropolitan H. in Australia, while the other is the second produce out of Ria Antonia (Rockport Harbor), the winner of the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies and a hugely imposing broodmare.

A short drive to Shadai Farm followed and among the offerings on view at Teruya Yoshida's sprawling but beautifully kept property were a colt (lot 306) by Mikki Isle (Jpn) out of Caravaggio's stakes winning half-sister My Jen (Fusaichi Pegasus) and a colt (lot 442) by Kizuna (Jpn) out of the GSW and G1 Coronation S. runner up Kenhope (Fr) (Kendargent). Noble Stella (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) was a five-time stakes winner in America and her colt (lot 314) by Heart's Cry (Jpn) was another to be paraded.

With Shadai Stallion Station also being in the vicinity, it provided a great opportunity to see most of the leading stallions in the country including the main attraction, Deep Impact. Coolmore's decision to tap into the sire's prowess has already yielded a Classic winner in Saxon Warrior (Jpn) and among the Coolmore mares that were successfully covered this year by the multiple champion are Minding (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Winter (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), the winners of 11 Group 1 races between them. As well as being the pre-eminent stallion in Japan, Deep Impact is also prolific and with 40 catalogued, he is the stallion most represented in the sale.

Tuesday will be an important day for the trio of Mikki Isle (Jpn), Duramente (Jpn) and Maurice (Jpn), as it will be the first time that their progeny come under the scrutiny of a public auction. Cont. p15

Champion sire Deep Impact | Daithi Harvey

Kitasan Black | Daithi Harvey

Despite his eldest progeny only being yearlings, Kizuna (Jpn) has been tipped by Teruya Yoshida as a potential heir for his sire Deep Impact one day, while Just A Way (Jpn), the world's top rated horse in 2014, has made a solid start with his first crop of 2-year-olds this year with two winners from eight runners so far. Harbinger (GB) will always be remembered for his stunning romp in the G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth S. in 2010 and as well as looking a picture, the 12-year-old enjoyed a highly successful 2017 siring three individual Group 1 winners.

Further strength in depth to the Shadai Stallion Station roster is added by proven stalwarts such as Heart's Cry (Jpn), King Kamehameha (Jpn) and Lord Kanaloa (Jpn), while a fascinating addition to the team this year was Kitasan Black (Jpn), the best son of Deep Impact's full-brother Black Tide (Jpn), who won seven Group 1s and broke the record for career earnings in Japan.

A more detailed preview of the sale will be carried in Monday's paper while the TDN's Alan Carasso profiled some of the progeny of American sires that were purchased in utero in the U.S in 2016/2017 which can be read here.

WEIR BREAKS HIS OWN OZ WIN RECORD

Trainer Darren Weir, who set a new Australian win record for most wins in a season of 449 during the 2016/2017 season, broke that record with import Sixties Groove (Ire) (Sixties Icon {GB}) at Flemington on Saturday. During a stellar day for the trainer, the yard celebrated multiple victories at Flemington (four) as well as Night Falls (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}) in race three at Gawler and Leonardo Da Hinchi (Aus) (Hinchinbrook {Aus}) in the third race at Echuca. The last named brought Weir even with last year's record.

PINOT SOLD, UNLIKELY TO RACE IN OZ

G1 VRC Oaks heroine Pinot (Aus) (Pierro {Aus}) has been sold, Breednet.com.au reported on Saturday. Trained by Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott, the bay is now owned by a Northern Hemisphere-based owner and is unlikely to resume her racing career in Australia.

"The owners were approached and received a very good offer," Bott told breednet.com.au. "Her breeding value going forward is huge. She's an Oaks winner out of an Oaks winner. I can't disclose the buyer or the purchase price. It's unlikely she would race in Australia again."

Bred by K Biggs Enterprises in West Australia and purchased for A$200,000 at the Inglis Easter Yearling Sale on behalf of an ownership group that included Aron Wellman's Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners as well as Newgate Farm among others, Pinot also won the G3 Ethereal S. last October. The daughter of G1 AJC Oaks victress Dizelle (Aus) (Zabeel {NZ}) sports a record of 6-3-2-0, $565,133. She is a half-sister to SW Dizlago (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}), MGSP Lucky Lago (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}) and SP Rock Giselle (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}).

'AGAIN' GIVES SNAITH DURBAN JULY

On the eve of being crowned champion trainer for the second time, Justin Snaith added another July victory to his already illustrious resume, as Do It Again (SAf) (Twice Over{GB}) and Anton Marcus dominated the R4.25-million G1 Vodacom Durban July (2200m), leading home stable companions Made To Conquer (SAf) (Dynasty{SAf}) and Elusive Silva (SAf) (Silvano {Ger}). It was a memorable night for Marcus, as he celebrated his fifth July victory, setting a new record in the process.

The race was run at a pedestrian pace down the back straight with White River (SAf) (Trippi) and Made To Conquer the reluctant leaders. Corne Orffer on White River desperately tried to restraint the headstrong gelding, while Jeff Lloyd, riding in his final July on Made To Conquer, also attempted to be anywhere but in the lead. Stuck behind horses and with African Night Sky (SAf) (Dynasty {SAf}) pulling hard, Grant van Niekerk decided it was time to be bold and he sent the gelding around the field and into the lead. Cont. p16

Turning for home the field fanned out across the narrow track and it was race on. Van Niekerk on African Night Sky clung briefly to the lead, but Lloyd, determined to capture an elusive July victory after 26 attempts, set off for home on the lightly weighted Made To Conquer. Marcus, positioned in about sixth rounding the turn, quietly started moving Do It Again forward as the field straightened out. With four July victories behind his name, Marcus knows exactly what it takes to win the race and with 200m left to go and daylight ahead of him, he sent Do It Again up to contest the lead with Made To Conquer.

The battle was brief, as Do It Again, in the yellow silks with blue epaulettes of Bernard Kantor, stuck his head in front and with the gap gradually increasing, Made To Conquer was forced to accept defeat. With both horses well clear of the field, Marcus had plenty of time to salute the crowd as he crossed the line 1 1/4 lengths in front. Elusive Silva and Bernard Fayd'Herbe finished in third, 4 1/4 lengths back, with Majestic Mambo (SAf) (Mambo In Seattle) in fourth a further 1 1/4 lengths back, while African Night Sky could only manage fifth.

Do It Again | Liesl King

Smiling from ear to ear, Marcus could not contain his delight and said, "I rode him in trackwork and he just felt amazing. It has been a great team effort. Fortunately I had a trouble-free passage and he was nice and relaxed during the race. When I saw African Night Sky pulling hard, it gave me a lot of confidence and with 200m left to go knew I had the race in the bag."

Bred by Kevin Sommerville and Robin Bruss, Do It Again, is jointly owned by Bernard Kantor, Jack Mitchell and Nick Jonsson after selling for R1.1 million at the Bloodstock South Africa National Yearling Sale in 2016. For Kantor, celebrating his first ever July victory, the moment was extra special as he was instrumental in importing Twice Over to South Africa. "It was a very emotional victory," said Kantor. "Sir Henry Cecil held him in high regard and for him to produce a July winner in his first crop is immensely exciting."

Part owner Nick Jonsson was also having the day of his life as joint owner of both Do It Again and Made To Conquer. "It was amazing, we were reasonably confident as they were both very well, but you never expect to win a July, never mind running one-two," said Jonsson.

Snaith, winning his third July, pointed out that he had finally managed to win the race outright. "My first win was a dead-heat, my second victory was decided in the boardroom, so I had to make sure that I won this one properly. I guess running one-two-three qualifies," he quipped.

For many, the grooms' strike at the Summerveld Training Centre on Wednesday was a big headache, for Snaith however it brought about a revelation. "With no staff I had to ride my horses myself and when I worked Do It Again, I just knew." He did indeed.

Off the mark at Kenilworth at first asking last July, Do It Again added a handicap there on Sept. 9, before running third in the G2 Selangor Cup on Nov. 18. Unplaced in the G1 Cape Guineas in mid-December, the gelding was only 1 3/4 lengths short of a Grade 1 win when second in the G1 Investec Cape Derby in January and, after a three-month spell, made his presence felt with a 1 1/4-length victory in the G2 Daisy Guineas at Greyville on May 4. He was fourth in the G1 Daily News 2000 there on June 2.

Pedigree Notes...

Do It Again is the fourth black-type winner and second Grade 1 winner for his sire, MG1SW and English highweight Twice Over (GB), who raced in the Juddmonte colours for Sir Henry Cecil. He is out of the three-time Grade 3 victress Sweet Virginia (SAf), and is a half-brother to South African SW and Hong Kong dual Group 3 winner Strongman (SAf) (Stronghold {GB}) and South African GSP Vilakazi (SAf) (Visionaire). Cont. p17
