LIVING FOR THE MOMENT

Dennis' Moment | Coady

Albaugh Family Stable LLC's 'TDN Rising Star' Dennis' Moment (Tiznow) announced himself as a major player in this year's juvenile colts' division with a dominating 19 1/4-length maiden victory going seven furlongs at Ellis Park July 27. The $400,000 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga graduate backed up that performance in style Saturday, landing the GIII Iroquois S. with a fair bit of authority to punch his ticket to Santa Anita and the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile the first weekend in November.

"This horse is speaking for himself, I don't have to build him up anymore," winning trainer Dale Romans said. "He's just an amazing animal. He goes out there and does it, his ears up, like he's just galloping around out there. The jock was shutting him down with a sixteenth of a mile to go, and he still finished in the time he did. He's something special. We'll be going straight to the Breeders' Cup from here."

Pounded into 2-5 favoritism and with Irad Ortiz, Jr. in from New York to ride, Dennis' Moment, who dumped jockey Robby Albarado at the start of his local debut June 23, was off in good order this time around and was a forward factor from third, three wide without cover, as the Iroquois field raced into the first turn. Traveling on the bridle and in a nice rhythm down the backstretch, Dennis' Moment was given his cue with about three furlongs to travel and made the lead while being held together nearing the lane.

CANDY RIDE COLT ON TOP AS KEESEP BOOK 2 CONCLUDES

by Jessica Martini and Brian DiDonato

LEXINGTON, KY - The Keeneland September Yearling Sale added another million-dollar transaction to its total as Book 2 concluded with a solid day of trade in Lexington Saturday. A colt by Candy Ride (Arg) became the auction's 22nd yearling to sell for seven figures when bringing a final bid of $1 million from bloodstock agent Marette Farrell, bidding on behalf of Speedway Stable. The colt was consigned by Don Robinson's Winter Quarter Farm.

"Book 2 worked very well," said Keeneland's Director of Sales Operations Geoffrey Russell. "We tried to cut down the numbers a little bit to increase the quality of the sale and I think that the numbers reflect that very well today." Cont. p17

Firmly in front in upper stretch, he opened a daylight advantage passing the eighth pole and was well within his rider's grasp for the better part of the final sixteenth of a mile, scoring by a 1 3/4-length margin that could have been at least triple that and in stakes-record time to boot.

Scabbard (More Than Ready) finished with interest after enduring a troubled trip to be second while no menace to the winner. Lebda (Raison d'Etat) was third home.

The Albaugh-owned/Romans-conditioned Not This Time (Giant's Causeway) won the 2016 Iroquois prior to running second in the Juvenile.

"Right here in my hand is the invitation to the Breeders' Cup," winning owner Dennis Albaugh said. "They officially delivered it, so that's exciting. We're very happy with him now, and they named him after me, which was a surprise. I don't want to get ahead of myself, of course, but getting 10 points toward getting into the Derby, that's a big help. We'll give this horse plenty of time."

Pedigree Notes:

Two-time GI Breeders' Cup Classic winner Tiznow is the sire of Dennis' Moment and 77 other stakes winners, including Eclipse champion Folklore and several other Grade I winners like Well Armed, Tourist, Colonel John and Tizway. Last weekend's black-type winners by the sire were Blue Chipper (Keeneland Korea Sprint), Flor de La Mar (Beverly J. Lewis S.), and Ledecka (Malvern Rose S.). Dennis' Moment is the second foal out of the Elusive Quality mare Transplendid, who also has yearling and weanling fillies by Verrazano and Into Mischief, respectively. El Tormenta | Michael Burns

"It's a Grade I win and it's a 'Win and You're In,' so it's huge," winning trainer Gail Cox said. "I was a little worried with the one-hole and being on the rail because if you've seen his past three starts, they've been troubled. I just think he was laying closer and really bullied his way through a little bit. He's a very, very nice horse, and was probably overlooked here."

Allowed to settle in mid-field, El Tormenta was able to save ground on the back of pacesetting Silent Poet (Silent Name {Jpn}) and looked to be full of run approaching the long Woodbine straight. Asked to quicken entering the final quarter-mile, El Tormenta found running room three paths off the inner rail and had the GI Fourstardave H. heroine Got Stormy--who looked to be cruising beneath Tyler Gaffalione--in his sights. El Tormenta made the lead inside of the chalk with less than a furlong to run and stayed on best of all.

Lucullan (Medaglia d'Oro) crossed the line third, but was demoted to fourth for veering out sharply and interfering with Raging Bull in the final stages.

El Tormenta won one of his five prior trips to the post this term, posting a neck victory in the GII Connaught Cup S. June 1. He was also a close fourth in both the GI Highlander S. June 29 and GII Play the King S. last time Aug. 24.

Michael Balaz of Sam-Son Farm added, "He's had a good campaign, but a lot of tough luck. Eurico [Da Silva] gave him a masterful ride, and got him through. He was able to really show his best self today. What a special win."

Pedigree Notes:

El Tormenta is one of 108 stakes winners and the eighth Grade I winner for sire Stormy Atlantic, a son of former leading sire Storm Cat who traces intail female to blue hen Moccasin. El Tormenta's damsire, El Prado (Ire), is no less successful, with an absolute gift, taking over at will in upper stretch before proving a much-the-best winner of Saturday's GI Northern Dancer Turf at Woodbine. The race is the course-and-distance prep for next month's GI Pattison Canadian International S.

Godolphin's Old Persian made 65 cents on the dollar look like

A bit slow to begin from the inside stall, Old Persian and James Doyle mustered a bit of speed to be up into third turning down the side of the track as Cooler Mike (Giant Gizmo) opened up by the better part of 15 lengths in the opening six furlongs. The front-runner's advantage was dwindling away rapidly as the field approached the half-mile marker, and Tiz A Slam--winner of the GIII Singspiel S. and GII Nijinsky S. over the track and trip in his two most recent appearances--was the first to come calling for the lead inside the final three furlongs. But knowing full well that he was aboard a superior stayer, Doyle allowed Old Persian to claim Tiz A Slam in upper stretch and powered home to score as much the best as the heavy favorite. Nessy, a full-brother to 2017 Canadian International romper Bullards Alley, was up late to take a photo for second, while Focus Group just managed to touch Tiz A Slam out of third. Old Persian was providing James Doyle with a first North American Grade I victory.

Fifth in the 2018 G1 St Leger exactly one year ago Saturday, Old Persian had to call upon all his class to win the G2 Dubai City of Gold S. on seasonal debut Mar. 9, overcoming a world of traffic at the 300-meter mark to score by a nose. After besting the Heart's Cry (Jpn) duo of Cheval Grand (Jpn) and Suave Richard (Jpn) in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic Mar. 30, Old Persian was a low-odds seventh in the G1 Investec Coronation Cup over the tricky Epsom layout May 31 and was a latest third in the G1 Longines Grosser Preis von Berlin Aug. 11.

after a good run in Dubai," said Alex Merriam, assistant to trainer Charlie Appleby. "We were pleased enough with his run in Germany and I think the ground was a bit on the soft side for him there. But James gave him a nice ride today and it worked out well."

Old Persian could yet make another appearance in Greater Toronto this season.

"Not quite sure at the minute," offered Merriam. "I spoke to Charlie and he said we'll go back to Europe, see how he is, see how he comes out of the race and make a plan from there. No immediate plans at the minute."

Pedigree Notes:

The fifth North American Grade I winner and one of 41 worldwide top-level winners for his wildly successful sire, Old Persian is out of a full-sister to Royal Ascot Group 2 winner Silkwood (GB) and GSW Silent Honor (Ire) (Sunday Silence). The late MGSW & G1SP Permian (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) appears under his third dam. Old Persian's broodmare sire defeated Sam-Son's Chief Bearhart (Chief's Crown) in the 1996 Canadian International before finishing second to Pilsudski (Ire) (Polish Precedent) in that year's GI Breeders' Cup Turf at Woodbine. Indian Petal's current 3-year-old filly Chapelli (GB) (Poet's Voice {GB}) was third in this year's Listed Chelmer S. and she is the dam of the juvenile filly Renaissance Queen (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) and a yearling full-brother to Old Persian. She foaled a colt by Dubawi's G1 2000 Guineas and G1 Lockinge S. winner Night of Thunder (Ire) this past Apr. 12. –Alan Carasso

Raiding from California off a distant fourth to Bast (Uncle Mo) in the GI Del Mar Debutante Aug. 31, Lazy Daisy fought back in the final eighth of a mile to win a decision versus a resurgent longshot His Glory in Saturday's GII Pocahonta S. at Churchill, a 'Win and You're In' qualifier for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies in early November.

Lazy Daisy | Coady

First to break the line from gate four in this two-turn debut, Lazy Daisy took the field under the wire and into the first turn, but made the running in the two path, allowing His Glory to slide up underneath her and hold a pace-pressing spot from the rail. Given a bit of rein by Abel Cedillo leaving the three-eighths marker, Lazy Daisy inched in front and it looked at that stage as if His Glory would fail to be a stretch factor. But although James Graham atop the 43-1 longshot was able to tap his filly's reserves and reassume control at the three-sixteenths, Lazy Daisy had the answers and fought back late to secure the victory. Favored Portrait sat a perfect trip and had dead aim on the top two turning for home, but was out on her feet at the furlong grounds, though she did manage to hang on for a slice.

Lazy Daisy was a half-length debut winner over next out grassy maiden winner Greg's Diva (Shackleford) at Del Mar Aug. 3 prior to her aforementioned effort in the Debutante.

"When I turned in the stretch, I put my filly close [to the inside horse], and she got a little intimidated," winning jockey Abel Cedillo said. "And that's where my filly kept going, and going. I got lucky there. Doug [O'Neill] has a lot of good horses, and he knows where to put his horses in a good spot, like a live mount. The owner [Erik Johnson]--we had a really good Del Mar meet, and he was really happy with the way I rode his horses, so he gave me the opportunity to ride this filly."

Pedigree Notes:

Lazy Daisy breezed an eighth in :10 1/5 before commanding $39,000 at the OBSAPR Sale. The second graded winner for her sire (by Awesome Again), Lazy Daisy hails from the deeper female family of the good sprinter Valid Expectations (Valid Appeal) and has a foal half-brother by Commissioner. John Elder homebred Romantic Intention, a four-time winner, was bred to Astern (Aus) for the 2020 season.

Starship Jubilee took to the front early and never looked back, successfully defending her title in the GII Canadian S. Out like a shot, Starship Jubilee was already a length ahead a few strides out of the gate. Comfortably in hand down the backside, Luis Contreras nursed her along through moderate fractions. Still armed with a handful of horse turning in, Contreras let her loose late and she rolled home a much-the-best 4 1/4-length winner over Magnetic Charm, who nosed out favored Competitionofideas for the runner-up spot.

"Kevin told me just to let her break and if they let me go to the lead easy enough, just go," said winning rider Luis Contreras, who was aboard for her 2018 Canadian score. "This one, when she's behind horses, it's kind of tough to make her relax but once she relaxes and comes from behind, she's very aggressive at the end. But today with the conditions of the race and the filly, [trainer] Kevin [Attard] brought her in here really, really sharp. It doesn't matter where you put them when a horse is this great."

The one-time claimer, Starship Jubilee methodically worked her way up the ranks, nabbing her first taste of graded glory in Woodbine's 2017 GII Nassau S. That season, she added the 10-furlong GII Dance Smartly S. before annexing the following season's Sunshine Millions Filly & Mare Turf at Gulfstream Park. Later in the fall, she came home an easy winner taking the Canadian S. the first time ahead of a fourth in the GI E.P. Taylor S. Fourth in Gulfstream's Claiming Crown Tiara S. in December, she rebounded to defend her title on Sunshine Millions Day before finishing second in both the Nassau in May and the Dance Smartly the following month. Off following that effort, the bay never settled in the early going last out but closed well to be third, beaten only a half-length in the GII Ballston Spa S. at Saratoga Aug. 24.

"She's been consistent all year," added Attard. "A mile and a quarter is a tad far for her, probably not her best. I think a mile and an eighth hits here square between the eyes there so when we do run her a mile and a quarter, we do have to ride her and think a little differently. Obviously today, there wasn't any pace and I figured if they were going to let us have the lead, we would take it. She came off a great race at Saratoga, I thought she ran really well. And she came back to work well in the interim. She put it all together."

Go Google Yourself | Coady

Third-choice Go Google Yourself had a textbook-perfect trip in Churchill's GIII Locust Grove S. After a clean break, she was restrained in third on the outside while Skeptic (Tiznow) and Escape Clause (Going Commando) took care of business on the front end. That pair set sensible fractions of :24.44 and :49.17, with Go Google Yourself inching up closer on the far turn. The top three positions remained unchanged with the three briefly meeting on even terms coming off the turn. Go Google Yourself suddenly pulled clear, switched to her wrong lead briefly down the stretch, and switched back again to fend off the attack of Moonlit Garden and secure her second consecutive black-type victory.

"We had a lot of confidence in her going in," winning trainer Paul McGee said. "I think she's gotten better and her Beyers have shown that. The way she won at Ellis Park last time, by three lengths going away, she won pretty easy last time out to get her first stakes win. That's why we were confident going into today."

Winner of the Groupie Doll S. Aug. 11 at Ellis Park, Go Google Yourself was flattered when that day's runner-up, Divine Queen (Divine Park), took the Open Mind S. in the race carded immediately before the Locust Grove. That same rival had beaten Go Google Yourself in last September's Dogwood S. over this track. They'd kept apart until meeting again in the Groupie Doll with the decision reversed. Go Google Yourself had taken a pair of allowance/optional claimers at Fair Grounds and Oaklawn Park in the meantime, then finished second in the GIII Doubledogdare S. at Keeneland. A fourth-place finish behind MGISW and 'TDN Rising Star' Elate (Medaglia d'Oro) in the June 15 GII Fleur de Lis S. led to her win in the Groupie Doll.

Pedigree Notes:

A homebred for Samantha Siegel's Jay Em Ess Stable, Go Google Yourself is the penultimate foal out of the Siegel family's homebred Taunt (Deputy Minister). Taunt is out of the Siegel-raced I Ain't Bluffing (Pine Bluff), winner of the 1998 GI Milady Breeders' Cup H. and the 1997 GI La Brea S. I Ain't Bluffing's other foals included 2010 GII Black-Eyed Susan S. winner and dual GI-placed Acting Happy (Empire Maker). The extended family includes MGISW Borrego (El Prado {Ire}), the Aug. 11 GIII Longacres Mile H. winner Law Abidin Citizen (Twirling Candy), and the Feb. 2 GIII Forward Gal. S. winner Feedback (Violence). Go Google Yourself's sire, Into Mischief, is leading the U.S. general sire list this year with 57 stakes winners to date from eight crops. Go Google Yourself is the 25th graded winner for Into Mischief.

Winless in three prior starts this season, Yorkton once again found the conditions to his liking, taking back-to-back renewals of the GIII Bold Venture S. back gallantly late, repelling the Irish bred by a neck at the wire. Curlin's Honor closed to collect third. Two-time Sovereign Award-winning sprinter and 2017 Horse of the Year Pink Lloyd (Old Forester), fourth across the line, was deemed a non starter after breaking through the gate.

"Actually, I breezed him his last few breezes and my head was so big you know," said Patrick Husbands. "Not being cocky, you still have to show respect for the other horses in there, especially Pink Lloyd, but the last time I breezed him I said…this is what I call a steal job. He's naturally fast and he's a horse that every jockey wants to ride, a fast horse."

Winless since last season's Bold Venture, Yorkton launched 2019 with an eighth-place finish after setting a break-neck early pace and wilting late in the Jacques Cartier S. May 4 before coming home fourth in the seven-furlong Connaught Cup on the Woodbine turf June 1. In his latest start, he finished sixth in the grassy GI Highlander S. June 29.

"I'm really not [surprised by the outcome]," winning trainer Stuart Simon offered. "He had some things go wrong all the way along earlier this year. He grabbed a quarter really bad in his last race [in the Highlander] and, talking it over with the guys, we wanted to totally regroup and start over kind of with him and the horse has just been training out of this world. He's just in good order. He's a nice horse when he's right."

Sunday Affair had a colt by Pioneerof the Nile in 2018 and a filly by Curlin this year. This is the extended female family of the Sky Beauty, Violence, Tale of Ekati, Pleasant Home, et al.

Hip 1062 | Keeneland

During the two-day Book 2 section, Keeneland sold 445 yearlings for $97,585,000. The average was $219,292 and the median was $185,000. A pair of yearlings sold for $1 million during Book 2, which comprised the fourth and fifth overall sessions of the 13-day auction.

In a larger 2018 Book 2, which comprised the sale's fifth and sixth overall sessions, 548 head grossed $87,103,700. The average was $158,948 and the median was $130,000. A single yearling sold for $1 million during the section.

"Going into the sale, we were looking for a very strong Book 1," Russell said. "Obviously, we got that. And then our goal for Book 2 was to tighten down the numbers and increase the quality. And the huge rise in the median today and yesterday shows we were successful."

The buy-back rate, which was 29.56% during Saturday's session, now stands cumulatively at 28.18%, and remains largely in line with 2018 figures.

"That just tells you where the market is," Russell said of the buy-back rate. "It is consistent to last year. So we take that as a positive."

Taylor Made Sales Agency was Saturday's leading consignor by gross, with 27 yearlings sold for $4,332,000.

"I think the market is very good," said Taylor Made's Mark Taylor. "We've had a great day of selling, but I think you have to be realistic about your reserves. People are being pragmatic and they are bidding very fair prices, but you can't just throw caution to the wind. You have to know your horse and you have to know who is interested in it and basically assess the value. And if you do that, and don't get greedy, then it's a very fair market."

The September sale continues with the first of two Book 3 sessions Sunday.

"With the way the catalogue is this year compared to last year, having fewer horses in Book 1 and having fewer horses in Book 2 has put some of those horses down in Book 3, so there is going to be a good level of high-quality horses still available in Book 3," Russell said.

The Keeneland September sale continues through Sept. 22 with sessions beginning daily at 10 a.m.

Speedway Steps Up For Candy Ride Colt

Peter Fluor and K.C. Weiner's Speedway Stable got in on the action Saturday when paying a session-topping $1 million for a Candy Ride (Arg) colt out of triple Grade II winner Always a Princess (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}). The May 6 foal was consigned by Don Robinson's Winter Quarter Farm as hip 1062.

"Every single person on my team loved this horse from the very first sighting. He took my breath away," said agent Marette Farrell after signing the ticket. "We were underbidder on [$425,000 KEESEP '15 grad and 2016 GI Los Alamitos Futurity winner] Mastery (Candy Ride {Arg}), and this horse gave me that same feeling; very easy on the eye, such a good mover and an amazing demeanor. I saw him at the beginning of the day and I saw him at the end of the day and he moved the exact same with the same look on his face. I think he can handle anything, we're excited. We love Candy Ride. He's an incredible stallion and we hope he's going to be a champion."

Marette Farrell | Keeneland

Speedway campaigns this year's GI Santa Anita Derby winner and 'TDN Rising Star' Roadster (Quality Road), a $525,000 buy here two years ago; and raced fellow highest-level-winning Bob Baffert trainees Collected (City Zip) and Noted and Quoted (The Factor). Baffert will condition hip 1062 as well.

Speedway didn't make any purchases in Book 1, but also grabbed a $290,000 Air Force Blue filly (hip 982) Saturday.

"Very hard to buy, extremely difficult," said Farrell of the market. "Wonderful for the horse business, there are so many different entities here. Three months ago we were worried about the horse business and if it's going to survive and here we are at September and it's a new world."

Farrell wasn't surprised by how much it took to land 1062, adding, "We were underbidder on a really nice Curlin colt in the first book and we figured we were probably going to have to do the same thing. We got this one." --@BDiDonatoTDN

Candy Ride Colt Blossoms at the Right Time

Hip 1062 always had the pedigree to produce a seven-figure sale, and in the time leading up to September, he blossomed into a physical specimen to match.

"He was so popular... I knew he'd be at the top of this sale or up there," said an elated Don Robinson, who consigned the colt through his Winter Quarter Farm on behalf of breeder Arnold Zetcher. "He's probably the most popular, well-received yearling I've ever brought to a sale. Bar none. And, people who usually keep their mouths shut told me this was the best-looking horse on the grounds, so I didn't have to do anything. I've had three generations. I had the granddam and the mother at the farm, so it's been nothing but a thrill. It's an offspring that belongs to Mr. Arnold Zetcher, and the family produced his first Grade I winner that was raised on my farm, so it's a huge reward. I'm absolutely tickled."

Zetcher imported the colt's second dam Gabriellina Giof (GB) (Ashkalani {Ire}) from Italy, and she took her first Stateside start in the former Talbot's CEO's pink silks in the 2001 Manhattan Beach S. at Hollywood Park before finishing second in the GII San Clemente H. She produced eventual MGISW and $1.25-million FTKNOV seller Gabby's Golden Gal (Medaglia d'Oro) in 2006, and foaled hip 1062's dam Always a Princess (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}) the following year. Handed over to Bob Baffert like Gabby's Golden Gal had been, Always a Princess turned in two-turn dirt romps in the 2010 GII Indiana Oaks and 2011 GII El Encino S. and GII La Canada S.

When asked if being in Book 2 might have allowed hip 1062 to stand out, Robinson said with a smile, "I know it did. Keeneland and I just got lucky. I felt like he would stick out. He's a May baby and he came to the sale and, boy, in the last 30 days he was like a different horse. I thought he could be there, and he got there. It's cool. And a good buyer and a good eye for a horse signed the ticket. She's great."

Robinson continued, "He was really nice, but he was always immature. Sales are so brutal in this era that it's tough to get one who looks the part, and walks the part and for all that stuff to come together. He vets beautifully, and it worked."

Always a Princess has produced a pair of prior winners for Zetcher, including 4-year-old Stylishly (Speightstown), who broke her maiden at Del Mar in July and cleared her first allowance condition there in August. Always a Princess's 2-year-old filly by Bernardini brought $290,000 at OBS March, and she visited Bolt d'Oro for 2020.

"Very exciting!," Zetcher said when reached by email while traveling. "There was a lot of interest in the colt, so we were hoping for the best. Bob trained the mother, so he knew the family well. Best of luck to the new owners!" --@BDiDonatoTDN

'Sweet' Day Continues for Robinson

As if the million-dollar sale of hip 1062 wasn't enough, Winter Quarter Farm sold another high-priced son of Candy Ride later in the session when Sapphire Stable went to $650,000 for hip 1109. The second Candy Ride colt was bred by Ron and Deborah McAnally out of their MSW and MGISP Charm the Maker (Empire Maker). Ron McAnally also trained the second dam of hip 1062.

"I was high on both horses--they're both family members," Winter Quarter's Don Robinson said. "This horse wasn't as popular as the other one, but almost. It's an incredible family, so I'm thrilled. Everybody's happy. It's been an amazing day--probably as strong a day as I've had at the sales in a long time."

Robinson consigned this year's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga New York-bred Yearlings topper, a Malibu Moon filly who set a sale record at $775,000.

Hip 1109 received a timely update when his 3-year-old full-sister She's Our Charm--a $600,000 buyback 24 months ago--annexed a Del Mar maiden special weight at second asking Aug. 18 under Hall of Famer McAnally's tutelage. The McAnallys bred and campaigned hip 1109's next two dams: GSW Charm the Giant (Ire) (Giant's Causeway) and MGSW/GISP Olympic Charmer (Olympio). Charm the Maker is half to last year's GII John Henry Turf Championship S. winner Liam the Charmer (Smart Strike).

Hip 1109 is bred on the same cross as Grade I winner Separationofpowers.

"They were just stick-outs in Book 2," Robinson said of the two Candy Ride colts. "They were probably borderline Book 1 types. Really, I love to be the big fish in the little pond. They just really stuck out, and that helped a lot. I had a Tapit horse in the first book [who was withdrawn], but there were [35] other Tapits in there. It just wasn't there."--@BDiDonatoTDN

Into Mischief Colt to Baffert

Starlight Racing's Jack Wolf (right) & Frankie Brothers | Keeneland

The partnership of SF Racing, Starlight Racing and Madaket Racing, this time joined by Barbara Banke's Stonestreet, struck late in Saturday's session of the Keeneland September sale, going to $650,000 to acquire a colt by Into Mischief.

"This was a horse that [Stonestreet's] John Moynihan identified as a horse they loved also," said SF's Tom Ryan as bloodstock agent Donato Lanni signed the ticket on hip 1239. "Into Mischief is a very established stallion that everyone wants a piece of at the moment."

The colt, out of Keysong (Songandaprayer), is a New York-bred, but will join all of the partners' purchases at the Southern California barn of trainer Bob Baffert, Ryan confirmed.

The yearling was bred and consigned to the September sale by Becky Thomas's Sequel New York. Thomas purchased Keysong for $75,000 at the 2015 Keeneland November sale.

"The mares that I bring to New York are mares that I would bring anywhere," Thomas said. "I try to produce winners. She is a very pretty Songandaprayer mare--she's really racy. She is a big, scopey mare. So I thought it was a good cross for Into Mischief. Into Mischief is one of those sires that all along the way, I've tried to breed to. He's a wonderful sire." --JessMartiniTDN

Union Rags Colt Heads West

A colt by Union Rags will be heading west after selling for $650,000 to the bid of bloodstock agent David Ingordo early in Saturday's fifth session of the Keeneland September sale.

"He's going to end up with a client of John Shirreffs who likes Union Rags a lot," Ingordo said. "He is going to end up in California."

Shirreffs trains Express Train (Union Rags) for Lee and Susan Searing's C R K Stable. That 2-year-old colt, a $500,000 Keeneland September purchase last year, romped home a 14 1/4-length maiden winner at Del Mar Aug. 28.

The yearling (hip 992) is out of graded stakes winner Sky Girl (Sky Mesa), a half-sister to champion Abel Tasman (Quality Road). He was consigned and bred by Greg Goodman's Mt. Brilliant Farm, which purchased Sky Girl with this foal in utero for $1.5 million at the 2017 Keeneland November sale. The mare was bred to Quality Road this year.

Yearlings by Lane's End's Union Rags have been in demand this week in Lexington, with his 21 selling for an average of $369,143, including a pair of $1-million youngsters.

"I am a Union Rags man," admitted Ingordo, who also serves as a bloodstock advisor at Lane's End. "I love Union Rags. We've got [Hronis Racing's multiple graded stakes winner] Catalina Cruiser with John Sadler, we have Express Train with John Shirreffs. My wife [trainer Cherie DeVaux] has a nice one that ran yesterday named Dinar [third at Churchill Downs]. Union Rags is a horse who is going to do a Quality Road. He's got really good books in front of him, he's got some top horses on the track. I never got off Union Rags and he's pretty good value for money right now."

Ingordo, an active buyer throughout Saturday's session, admitted there was plenty of competition for the top lots this week at Keeneland.

"The way the market is going, we were underbidder on some very expensive horses multiple times over yesterday," he said. "I know the same people are getting pushed back. You always want to buy the best horse you can for the most reasonable price you can, so we were happy with where we were at with this one." --JessMartiniTDN

Juddmonte Still Active at the End of Book 2

Juddmonte Farms Manager Garrett O'Rourke stuck around almost to the end of Saturday's second and final Book 2 session, and came away with a $650,000 Uncle Mo colt for Khalid Abdullah's operation. Hip 1256 was offered by Paramount Sales, Agent CVIII on behalf of breeder Don Alberto Corporation.

"Now that we're in Book 2, the number that have the credentials that he had, which is good looks, by a top sire, also with a lovely female pedigree... are going to thin out considerably," O'Rourke said before pausing to make shipping arrangements for the colt. "He's just a colt from a lovely King Ranch family that I've really admired over the years as well. It's nice to get into something along those lines, and again just looking for horses today who, if they could hit the top line, could ultimately be stallion prospects."

Don Alberto paid $240,000 for unraced dam Lost Empire (Empire Maker) in foal to Giant's Causeway at the 2014 Keeneland November sale. Lost Empire is out of GSW La Reina (A.P. Indy), making her a half to GSW Chief Havoc (Giant's Causeway) and a granddaughter of champion Queena (Mr. Prospector).

This is the extremely deep female family developed by Emory Hamilton and her family that has produced contemporary Grade I winners like Verrazano, Keen Ice and Somali Lemonade.

It didn't hurt that hip 1256 is out of a mare by Empire Maker, the Juddmonte homebred and MGISW who started his stud career at the nursery.

"I wouldn't say that it was the primary factor, but obviously there's a fondness there that I've always had for the horse, so it'll be nice to be bringing back some of the genes," O'Rourke said. "He didn't quite resemble [Empire Maker], I don't think, but at the same time between the Empire Maker and the Uncle Mo and back to that Queena family, you're talking about nothing but Classic bloodlines. Hopefully he can follow his genes."

Hip 1256 is bred on the same cross as 2016 GI Wood Memorial S. winner and promising young sire Outwork.

For the sale, Juddmonte has purchased seven yearlings--six colts--for a combined $3,225,000. Among its other acquisitions were a $900,000 Curlin colt (hip 278) and another $650,000 son of Uncle Mo (hip 484) out of a mare by another son of Unbridled in Unbridled's Song, the sire of Juddmonte monster Arrogate.

KEENELAND SEPTEMBER – SATURDAY

Hip#	Sex	Sire	Dam	Price ($)
950	colt	Runhappy	Premura	460,000

Consigned by Paramount Sales, Agent XXXVI
Purchased by Shortleaf Stable

John Senkovich's American Equistock purchased Premura, in foal to Union Rags, for $135,000 at the 2016 Keeneland November sale. The mare's Union Rags colt, bred like this yearling in partnership with Pat Costello's Drumkenny Farm, sold for $230,000 as a weanling at the 2017 Keeneland November sale. The youngster brought $320,000 when resold at last year's Keeneland September sale. Premura was bred back to Runhappy ($25,000) in 2017. She produced a Gun Runner filly in 2019 and was bred back to Uncle Mo.

Drumkenny and American Equistock were also co-breeders, along with Circular Road Breeders, of hip 1028, a colt by Into Mischief out of Truly Gifted. That mare sold, with the colt in utero, for $250,000 at the 2017 Keeneland November sale. The yearling sold Saturday for $360,000 to Bill and Corinne Heiligbrodt.

1009 colt Maclean's Music Sweet Minister 300,000
Consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, Agent CXI
Purchased by J Lester Wagner

John Smith signed the ticket on this half-brother to Grade I winner Sinister Minister for $45,000 as a weanling at last year's Keeneland November sale.

1014 filly Into Mischief Taparri 310,000
Consigned by Woodford Thoroughbreds, Agent I
Purchased by Cayuga Capital

Woodford Thoroughbreds purchased Taparri (Tapit), with this foal in utero, for $175,000 at the 2017 Keeneland November sale. The mare, from the family of graded winners Mission Impazible, Forest Camp, and Spanish Empire, produced a filly by Maclean's Music this year and was bred back to City of Light.

1057 colt Outwork Adore You 290,000
Consigned by Paramount Sales, Agent XCV
Purchased by Breeze Easy

Ted Campion was able to acquire this colt from the first crop of Grade I winner Outwork for $140,000 at last year's Keeneland November sale.

1138 filly Street Sense Delay of Game 260,000
Consigned by St. George Sales, Agent IV
Purchased by Wise Racing

EKQ Stables purchased Delay of Game, with this foal in utero, for $90,000 at the 2017 Keeneland November sale. The mare produced a colt by Classic Empire this year and was bred back to Accelerate.

1144 colt Cairo Prince Downhill Joey 200,000
Consigned by Blandford Stud (Padraig Campion), agent
Purchased by Mossa Rosa

Padraig Campion's Cove Bloodstock purchased this colt for $90,000 at last year's Keeneland November sale.

1154 colt Union Rags Emerald Gold 300,000
Consigned by Betz Thoroughbreds Inc., agent
Purchased by Michael Dorsey

The Fish Stables pinhooking partnership purchased this colt for $140,000 at this year's Keeneland January sale.

1185 colt Street Sense Goaltending 210,000
Consigned by Woodford Thoroughbreds, Agent LIV
Purchased by Shepherd Equine Advisors, agent

Bloodstock agent Josh Stevens signed the ticket at $80,000 to acquire Goaltending (A.P. Indy) with this colt in utero at the 2017 Keeneland November sale. Bred by William Humphries and Altair Farms, the yearling's second dam is Grade I winner Game Face (Menifee). Goaltending produced a filly by Nyquist this year and was bred back to Union Rags.

1189 colt Tapit Gold Mover 500,000
Consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, Agent LXII
Purchased by Fox Hill Farm

High Flyer Stables was able to acquire this gray colt for $250,000 at last year's Keeneland November sale.

1203 filly Candy Ride (Arg) Harlan's Romance 325,000
Consigned by Warrendale Sales, Agent X
Purchased by CJ Thoroughbreds

Todd and Chad Frederick of Frederick & May Construction purchased Harlan's Romance, with this filly in utero, for $200,000 at the 2017 Keeneland November sale. The mare produced a colt by Gun Runner this year and was bred back to Arrogate.

1245 filly American Pharoah Lady Zieg 330,000
Consigned by Four Star Sales, agent
Purchased by Blue Sky Stables

Calumet Farm purchased Lady Zieg (Touch Gold), with this foal in utero, for $120,000 at the 2017 Keeneland November sale. The mare produced a filly by Mr. Z this year and was bred back to Keen Ice.

IRON MAIDEN HEADLINES NATALMA

Fair Maiden winning the Catch a Glimpse S. | Michael Burns

Godolphin's Fair Maiden (Street Boss) has proven dominant in her two latest trips to the post and attempts to win at the highest level in Woodbine's GI Natalma S., a Breeders' Cup 'Win and You're In' for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf at Santa Anita Nov. 1. A first-up fifth going 4 1/2 furlongs over the Arlington synthetic June 23, the hombred aired by 14 1/4 lengths at that venue July 21 before trying the turf for the first time in a soggy renewal of Woodbine's 6 1/2-panel Catch a Glimpse S. Aug. 17. A 7 1/2-length winner that day, she gave her trainer Eoin Harty plenty of reason to ponder bigger things for the filly.

"After that, the Natalma became a prime consideration for her," admitted Harty. "At this time of year, there are a lot of opportunities for 2-year-olds, but she got over the course up there really well."

Fair Maiden has breezed twice at Arlington since the Catch A Glimpse, the latest a five-furlong move in 1:02 Sept. 10.

"She didn't work that fast but she worked very well," said Harty.

In regards to stretching out, he added, "I really don't think she'll have distance limitations, especially when it comes to a mile."

Emma-Jayne Wilson, who piloted Fair Maiden in her win at Woodbine, was injured in a spill last Sunday. Flavien Prat gets the call in the Natalma.

The consistent Walk In Marrakesh (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}) registered three consecutive victories this summer, including a narrow score in the Listed EBF Star S. at Sandown July 25. The Mark Johnson trainee finished a credible third in her most recent start over the soft going in the seven-furlong G2 Prix du Calvados at Deauville Aug. 17.

Mark Casse saddles three in this test--Diamond Sparkles (War Front), Coach Lori (Cairo Prince) and Secret Stash (Ire) (Mukhadram {GB}), who is cross-entered in the GI Summer S. Diamond Sparkles, a second out winner at Thirsk in July, was subsequently purchased privately by Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners and Gary Barber.

"She's a really nice filly," said Casse. "Her race in England looks very good, and she's been training well over there, so I would expect her to run well."

Both Brereton Jones homebred Coach Lori, who won at first asking in a five-furlong test Aug. 3, and Secret Stash enter the Natalma off of wins.

"She got away a little slow, and I didn't think she had any chance at all, and she was able to get up and win," Casse said of Coach Lori. "She's come back and trained about as good as any 2-year-old filly we've ever had."

Secret Stash, purchased privately by Gary Barber after winning second time out in her native Ireland, will be making her North American debut in the Natalma.

"We've had her in Kentucky for a while," explained Casse. "We tried to run her in a stakes [Aug. 31] at Kentucky Downs, but unfortunately she didn't get in. So, this is Plan B."

TRUCKIN INTO SUMMER

Keep On Truckin | Michael Burns

Keep on Truckin (Society's Chairman) attempts to keep his unbeaten streak intact with a victory in Woodbine's GI Summer S., a Breeders' Cup 'Win and You're In' for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf at Santa Anita.

An impressive 11 3/4-length winner in a five-furlong maiden/optional claimer at Woodbine July 7, Keep On Truckin aired by 7 3/4 lengths in the 5 1/2-panel Clarendon S. against fellow Ontario-breds Aug. 3

"We had high expectations going into his first start, but watching him in post parade, when he dropped his rider [Eurico Rosa da Silva], we were shocked because he has always been such a composed horse," explained trainer Catherine Day Phillips. "To continue the excitement, 'Truckin' went into the gate and moments later, Eurico came flying out the back. Despite his performances, we remind ourselves he's still a 2-year-old, and he's bound to make mistakes."

An injured Emma-Jayne Wilson, who was aboard for the gelding's latest start, will miss the ride, but Eurico Rosa Da Dilva, who was aboard for the chestnut's debut, will ride.

"On Sunday [Sept. 8], Emma-Jayne was hurt riding one of our horses," explained Day Phillips. "She broke her clavicle and a couple of fingers. The irony of ironies is that now that Emma can't ride him, Eurico is available to ride him. Bizarre is the best word. Eurico came in [Monday morning] to breeze Keep On Truckin. The breeze went very well and Eurico was delighted to be back on him. There's no way I ever would have predicted all of this to happen."

Proven Strategies (Sky Mesa) is one of three Mark Casse-trained juveniles entered in Sunday's race. Also entered are Cucina (Northern Afleet) and Secret Stash (Ire) (Mukadram {GB}), who is cross-entered in the GI Natalma S. later in the card. Proven Strategies was fifth in his career debut going 5 1/2 furlongs on the synthetic June 29 before finishing in the same spot--beaten only two lengths--while stretching to 8 1/2 furlongs on the Saratoga turf July 27. Well meant in the 5 1/2-furlong Skidmore S. Aug. 16, the dark bay had to settle for second behind fellow DJ Stable runner Another Miracle (American Pharoah).

Todd Pletcher is represented by Phoenix Thoroughbred III's Mystic Lancelot (Into Mischief), who took his debut by three lengths going 5 1/2 furlongs at Saratoga Aug. 15. John Velazquez, in tow that day, gets back on board this time.

OPINIONS ON THE CAP

Editor's Note: The Jockey Club has asked for public comment on their proposal to cap at 140 the number of mares a stallion can breed annually. In this ongoing series, we will publish the perspectives of breeders, stallion farms and others on the proposal.

Gerry Dilger:

Gerry Dilger | Dromoland Farm

Some horses have very large books and it's hard to compete, but on the other side, if the farms put up their money for these stallions, and they have to get out in two, two-and-a-half years, you have to consider those guys as well. They're paying millions and millions for stallions and some of them, as we know, don't make it. They have to have a shot to get their money back to reinvest. I don't think 140 is the number. I'd say 150, 160, maybe? Give the breeders or the farms a chance to get their investment back if they can or get most of it back and they can go out there and look for the next prospect.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

I read your Baffert scopolamine story today. California Section 1859.5 very clearly states that disqualification and purse forfeiture only takes place for Class 1,2 or 3 violations, not Class 4. ARCI drug classifications apply unless otherwise voted by the CHRB Board, but the penalty is determined by California laws and rules. I hope this clears up that question. --Chuck Winner

Blowout didn't debut until January of this year, but she hasn't set a foot wrong. She won that unveiling Jan. 23 at Tampa Bay Downs going 8 1/2 furlongs on the lawn, then promptly came back to finish second in the GIII Florida Oaks over the same course and distance behind eventual GI Belmont Oaks Invitational S. winner Concrete Rose (Twirling Candy). In between placings in Aqueduct's Memories of Silver S. and Saratoga's GIII Lake George S., Blowout took Belmont's June 22 Wild Applause S. and was last seen just a neck behind the dead heat in the Aug. 17 GII Lake Placid S. at the Spa.

It was Blowout's day to shine Saturday. As she's done in her last few starts, she went straight to the front. Under a hard hold, the bay set fractions of :23.30 and :46.24 while Passing Out (Orb) sat just off her flank. Rider John Velazquez sat motionless until the stretch, when he merely roused the filly a bit and she extended her advantage easily. She won comfortably while Seek and Destroy rallied for runner-up honors.

Out of 2012 G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches winner Beauty Parlour (GB), Blowout has a 2-year-old half-brother named Edge of Victory (Ire) (Kingman {GB}) and a weanling half-sister by Galileo (Ire). Beauty Parlour's dam is a half-sister to two-time Australian Horse of the Year Might and Power (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}), victor of seven Group 1 events.

"We knew she had speed. We were just trying to keep her calm in the post parade and hope she would give me a little break in the first part of the race. Obviously, she did, and she had something left running down the lane," said Velazquez.

No stranger to Churchill Downs with three of her five previous wins coming over the surface including last September's Dogwood S., Divine Queen had worked here four times since her last-out second in Ellis Park's Groupie Doll S. Aug. 11. That had followed a Churchill allowance/optional claimer victory June. 22, a softer spot after facing tough competition and unplaced finishes in Churchill's GIII Winning Colors S. and Keeneland's GI Madison S.

Divine Queen didn't break sharply, but quickly asserted herself to show the way under pressure while hugging the rail. Passed on the outside with three furlongs to go, she wasn't done yet in spite of letting Ascot Day put 1 1/2 lengths on her. The bay fought back tenaciously with an eighth to go while holding her rail-skimming spot. She put enough daylight on the field in the final strides that she was eased up just before the wire.

A homebred for Buff Bradley and Carl Hurst, Divine Queen hails from one of the pair's most popular families. Divine Queen is a half-sister to SW & GSP Queen's Award (Medaglia d'Oro) and to the dam of The Player (Street Hero), a charismatic MGSW who famously sits upright like a dog. The Player was injured severely in 2018's New Orleans H., but was a stellar patient during a six-month stay at Louisiana State University's School of Veterinary Medicine and survived to the thrill of his many fans. He stood his first season at Crestwood Farm in Kentucky this year. Divine Queen's dam also has the 2-year-old colt Decision Maker (Court Vision), yearling colt Dominar (Dominus), and a 2019 filly, also by Dominus. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

BUILD TO SUIT (r, 5, Dominus--Aspen Mountain, by Chief Seattle), victorious three times in six starts in 2017, was laid up for over 15 months before returning with a dominant allowance score Jan. 26 at Aqueduct, earning a career-best 101 Beyer. Just missing by a nose when second in the New York-bred John Morrissey S. last out Aug. 4 at Saratoga, the chestnut was crushed down to 3-10 as part of an entry here and settled in third behind a :22.90 quarter. Creeping into contention past a :45.65 half, he swept to the fore inside the eighth pole and edged clear to best Fuel the Bern (Bernardini) by 2 1/4 lengths. The winner is a half to Bolo (Temple City), GISW, $977,221; and Let Me Go First (Paddy O'Prado), GSP, $249,847. He shares a second dam with 2009 GI Kentucky Derby winner Mine That Bird (Birdstone). AMUNDSON (g, 3, Curlin--Bridgehampton {SW & GSP, $173,940}, by Bernardini), a 10 1/2-length graduate second out in the Delaware slop June 13, dead-heated for fourth in this condition at Saratoga a month later and was third as the favorite there when last seen Aug. 21. Made the narrow 27-10 third choice here, the bay sparred with favored Lutsky (Yes It's True) through splits of :22.53 and :45.43 and dug in gamely along the rail through the stretch to best that foe by a half-length. The victor has a juvenile Broken Vow half-brother named Winners Laugh, a yearling Munnings half-brother and a weanling half-sister by Sky Mesa. His dam was bred to Bayern this term. ELLYB (f, 3, Pioneerof the Nile--Eversmile, by Theatrical {Ire}), who rolled a pair of threes in Monmouth's Boiling Springs S. May 25 and in the Open Mind S. June 30, ran fourth there in the Just Jenda S. July 28. Only a half-length adrift of Fame Feather (Lion Tamer) after a wide trip when dropped down in class into an optional claimer at Colonial cutting back to 5 1/2 furlongs Aug. 17, the dark bay was sent off as the 8-5 crowd's pick and did not disappoint. Perched in a battling third behind the top two through the early going, the blinkered sophomore came calling in upper stretch and, given a few left-handers, forged ahead to win by 1 3/4 lengths. Something Magical (Street Magician) rallied for place honors. The winner is a half to Coil (Point Given), MGISW, $1,154,360; Chiropractor (Kitten's Joy), GISW, $280,145, the year-younger Swiftman (Speightstown) who has yet to race; and a weanling colt by Almanzor (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) born Apr. 5. Her dam is a half-sister to six-time Grade I winner Possibly Perfect (Northern Baby) and G3 Horris Hill S. victor Makhlab (Dixieland Band). Sales History: $360,000 Wlg '16 KEENOV. ARTISTIC DIVA (f, 4, Munnings--Diva N Disguise, by Mizzen Mast), a debut victress two summers ago at Del Mar, repeated in that October's Anoakia S. and was second in last May's GIII Adena Springs Miss Preakness S. before heading to the bench. Returning off the long layoff here with a pair of five-furlong bullet works at Santa Anita in tow, the $425,000 OBS April buy was made the 8-5 second choice and quickly established command from her rail draw. Showing the way through a sharp :21.58 quarter, the Illinois-bred shook loose soon after that and blew the race open past the three-sixteenths pole. Suddenly getting leg-weary in deep stretch, she had built up enough of a cushion to hold sway from odds-on Kim K (Will Take Charge) by 1 1/4 lengths on the wire. The winner has a yearling full-brother named Diva's Finale. Sales History: $67,000 Ylg '16 FTKOCT; $425,000 2yo '17 OBSAPR. June 6 at Belmont. Filling the trifecta two more times in the local Martha Washington S. July 6 and Saratoga Oaks Invitational S. Aug. 2, she was made an 11-10 favorite for this class drop and settled in sixth behind splits of :23.75 and :48.36. Picking it up four wide nearing the lane, she took over passing the eighth pole and held off the late bid of Passion Plus (Passion for Gold) by a neck. Dropping back to travel second-last behind a :21.80 quarter, the bay came seven wide at the top of the lane and closed steadily to just nail slow-starting Answer In (Dialed In) by a nose in the final jump. MAXFIELD (c, 2, Street Sense--Velvety, by Bernardini), sent off at 10-1 for this unveiling, broke a step slow and was camped near the back of the large field in the opening stages. Starting to pick off rivals approaching the quarter pole, he was several paths wide turning for home, inched closer to the front throughout the stretch and was up in time to score by 3/4 of a length over 21-1 chance Ghostlore (Ghostzapper). Favored Sprawl (City Zip) made some mild improvement but never really factored and finished sixth. Velvety, a daughter of mutliple graded-stakes winner Caress (Storm Cat), is a half-sister to GI Hopeful S. scorer Sky Mesa (Pulpit) and graded-winning Golden Velvet, herself responsible for Grade III victress Innovative Idea (Bernardini) and stakes winning and Grade I-placed Lucullan (Hard Spun). BAMA BREEZE (g, 2, Honor Code--Stella Blue {Fr} {GSW-Fr, SP-US, $138,270}, by Anabaa) rallied from the second half of the field to cause a $48 upset and become the fourth winner overall for his freshman sire (by A.P. Indy) and first on turf and over a distance of ground. Drawn in gate one for Corey Lanerie, Bama Breeze settled about third-last early and was one spot behind centerfield entering the final half-mile. Waited with in behind the leading group approaching the stretch, the dark bay was looking for a spot to run at the eighth pole and responded three off the inside with a sixteenth to travel before kicking on nicely to take it by 1 1/4 lengths from Cardiac Kid (American Pharoah). Bama Breeze's dam, winner of the G3 Prix Miesque in France and stakes-placed in this country for Fred Seitz and Ted Folkerth, had already produced MSW & GSP Sirius Prospect (Gone West, $428,380), when she was knocked down to Hunter Valley Farm for $80,000 carrying this foal in utero at Keeneland January in 2017. Stella Blue is the dam of a yearling filly by Noble Mission (GB). Sales History: $150,000 RNA Wlg '17 KEENOV; $80,000 RNA Ylg '18 KEESEP. 6th-Belmont, $75,000, Msw, 9-14, 2yo, f, 6 1/2f, 1:16.65, ft. SECONDARY MARKET (f, 2, Into Mischief--Starspangledbertie, by Dixie Union) took a bump at the start of her Aug. 11 debut at Saratoga, raced well-back and came with a solid late run to round out the trifecta at 77-10. The 9-4 second betting choice to 4-5 Mrs. S (Creative Cause), the $275,000 FTKNOV weanling purchase set a sensible pace along the inside while pressed along by 46-1 Thissmytime (Carpe Diem). Able to put that one away in upper stretch, she found another gear in the final furlong and reported home a 5 1/2-length winner. Mrs. S. was off a bit slowly, rallied while wide on the turn and was up late for second over Thissmytime. Harlem Heights (Bernardini) was stopped cold when trying sneak through inside of the pacesetter with 3 1/2 furlongs to race, then came with a rails rally in the stretch to just miss third. Produced by an unraced half-sister to GSW Uptown Bertie (More Than Ready) and SW & MGSP Get Ready Bertie (More Than Ready), Secondary Market has a yearling half-brother by Data Link. His dam was most recently covered by Into Mischief's stallion son Practical Joke. Sales History: $275,000 Wlg '17 FTKNOV. 7th-Belmont, $75,000, Msw, 9-14, 2yo, f, 1mT, 1:35.45, fm. INDOCHINE (f, 2, War Front--Fascinating {MGISP, $166,310}, by Smart Strike) finished with interest to be third debuting in a Saratoga turf sprint Aug. 9 and was hammered down to 7-10 stretching out here. Finding a dream spot in third at the hedge behind fractions of :23.61 and :48.03, she appeared to be languishing a bit on the far turn, but came alive once tipped into the clear at the top of the lane. Collaring longshot pacesetter Inveterate (Palace Malice) inside the sixteenth pole, she inched away from there to score by three-quarters of a length. Velvet Crush (Tapit) nailed Inveterate late for second. The winner's dam, a $1.3-million Keeneland September buy who placed in a pair of Grade Is as a juvenile in 2013, is a half-sister to GISW and sire Bodemeister (Empire Maker). Her yearling Tapit filly sold for $800,000 to Godolphin Wednesday at KEESEP and she produced a colt by Pioneerof the Nile this term before visiting Ghostzapper. Sales History: $470,000 Ylg '18 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $52,050. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

The dark bay set a sharp pace before fading to third at the Spa 22 days later, but was the 12-5 chalk to get it right this time. Ridden along by Kendrick Carmouche to stalk the pace outside of the debuting Maru (Competitive Edge), Saratoga Beauty poked her head in front entering the final furlong and held sway as Magnetique (Normandy Invasion) cut the winning margin down to 1 1/4 lengths. The winner, whose third dam is Stick to Beauty (Illustrious), has a yearling half-sister by Broken Vow. Sales History: $19,000 RNA Ylg '18 KEEJAN; $15,000 Ylg '18 FTKOCT; $97,000 RNA 2yo '19 OBSAPR. Kicking away sharply from her inside post, the homebred led narrowly through a :22.97 quarter and was confronted by favored Fashion Babe (Curlin) past the three-furlong pole. Digging in to retake the lead going by a :46.01 half, the gray kept finding down the lane to prevail over her rival by a neck. Fashion Babe was 12 1/4 lengths clear for the place. The victress has a yearling Liam's Map half-brother who sells as Hip 2378 this week at Keeneland September and a weanling half-brother by Maclean's Music. Making the point before deferring to sit fourth at the fence behind a :22.21 quarter, the homebred angled four deep approaching the lane and took charge soon after straightening en route to a 1 3/4-length success. Barbara Gordon (Commissioner) came from last to get second. The victress is a half to Tequilita (Union Rags), MGSW & GISP, $700,200. Her dam, a Grade II-winning half-sister to GISW and sire Offlee Wild (Wild Again), has a yearling colt by Union Rags and foaled an Arrogate filly this season before being paired with Bernardini. ETE INDIEN (c, 2, Summer Front--East India, by Mizzen Mast) showed a quick Palm Meadows worktab for this debut, capped by a three-furlong bullet in :35 1/5 (1/14) from the gate Sept. 5, and was knocked down to 14-5 from an 8-1 morning-line quote. Off near the back of the pack, the €240,000 Arqana May purchase traveled in seventh behind a :21.67 quarter. Floating into the seven path by the time heads pointed for home, he seemed hopelessly beaten as late as the sixteenth pole before finding his best stride and finishing with a flourish to just nail 55-1 pacesetter Factorino (The Factor) by a neck on the wire. The winner, the sixth for his freshman sire (by War Front), has a yearling half-brother by Air Force Blue and a weanling Runhappy half-sister. His dam was bred to Collected this term. TAPABILITY (g, 4, Tapit--Groupie Doll {2x Ch. Female Sprinter & MGISW, $2,648,850} by Bowman's Band), the first foal out of dual champion Groupie Doll, was off the board in three of his first four tries, most recently running fourth in a local sprint Aug. 18. Let go at 11-2 stretching out to a mile here, the gelding was bumped at the start before settling in third off of a :24.08 quarter. Creeping closer past a :47.33 half, he shot through a rail opening outside the five-sixteenths pole and took charge. Failing to switch leads until a few strides before the wire, he nevertheless coasted home nine lengths to the good. Danzar (Will Take Charge) edged out odds-on Armando R (Blame) for the place. Groupie Doll, bought for $3.1 million at Keeneland November in 2013 following her second straight conquest of the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint, is responsible for three more Tapit foals, a juvenile colt and yearling and weanling fillies. She was bred to Justify this term. Lifetime Record: 5-1-0-1, $31,230. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

JUSTICE REAL ESTATE
Bluegrass Farms

183 ACRES—In the immediate area of some of the most prolific breeding farms in Bourbon County, this portion of Kilflynn Farm contains the "magic field"—named by Arthur Hancock because so many good horses were raised there and where KY Derby winner Gato del Sol was raised. This farm features a Broadview Builders constructed 21 stall concrete block barn with 4 foaling stalls, 3 renovated houses, and a 15 stall converted tobacco barn. Unique opportunity with additional acreage available.

RUSSELL CAVE—Just 6 miles from Iron Works, this well-maintained 92 acre horse farm is suitable for any discipline and is in the immediate area of Mt. Brilliant, Clear Sky Farm, and Hester Equestrian Farm. 2 lovely homes; either could be a main residence + employee house. Improvements include a 70' x 195' indoor ring, 49 stalls, breeding area, lab, equip bldg, a 5-horse walker, covered ring, and a concrete muck pit. Stone electric entrance gate, mature tree-lined driveways, and numerous RV hook-ups!

2142 IRON WORKS PIKE—A park-like setting with mature trees and a perennial garden welcome you to this lovely 7.62 acre property featuring a 2-story brick house, block barn, paddocks, and storage building. The house offers a 2-story covered front porch, screened porch, crown moulding, fireplace, 3 bedrooms, and 2-car detached garage. With beautiful vistas of the surrounding horse farms, this property has 3 and 4 board plank fencing, 4 paddocks, storage building, and a 4-stall block barn with an attached dog run. $876,500. Bill Bell, 859-621-0607

WALNUT SPRINGS FARM

In 1929, Robert Sterling Clark, of Clark Thread and Singer Sewing Machine millions, decided he wanted a thoroughbred breeding establishment in the horse capital of the world. He wanted the land to be rolling enough to exercise a young thoroughbred's muscles and a plentiful supply of bone-building calcium from the limestone underlying the soil - but not too far from the soil. After a careful survey of available farms, he purchased Walnut Springs Farm. Now this 268-acre farm, with its pure natural beauty, rich soils, and profusion of mature trees is available again.

The centerpiece of Walnut Springs is its stone-wall-enclosed 11,000+ square foot, six-bedroom, seven-and-a-half bath main residence. Featuring stone walls, bluestone patios, outdoor kitchen, gas fire pit, salt-water pool, and lovely pool house.

Horse improvements include 66 stalls in seven barns, miles of plank fencing, and paved roads. Additional improvements include a manager's house plus two employee houses, a large shop/storage building, and five-bay open equipment shed.

CALL BILL JUSTICE FOR DETAILS

256 ACRES ON CASTLE ROCK WAY—This turn-key horse farm produced a $10 million yearling on its excellent land (nearly 80% Maury and Lowell). 46 stalls in 3 concrete block barns, manager's plus 3 employee houses. A wonderful opportunity to acquire a well-located farm in the immediate area of Gainesway Farm. This adjoins Walnut Springs Farm. .

JUST LISTED—COOPERS RUN STUD—93 acres in Bourbon County. This farm has excellent soils, well water throughout, 26 stalls in 2 well-ventilated barns, and up-to-date office. This area has produced Elusive Quality, Diversify, Rushing Fall and many more top class horses. Designed for the horse by a horseman. $1,300,000. Allen Kershaw, 859-333-2901.

MAGICAL SPELLBINDING IN THE IRISH CHAMPION

Magical draws clear of stablemates Magic Wand and Anthony Van Dyck in an Irish Champion S. trifecta for Galileo | racingfotos.com

By Tom Frary

Leopardstown's G1 QIPCO Irish Champion S. proved one for the fillies on Saturday, as Magical (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) led home stablemate Magic Wand (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) with the Japanese mare Deirdre (Jpn) (Harbinger {GB}) an unlucky fourth. After three gallant second placings to Crystal Ocean (GB) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) and Enable (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) in the G1 Prince of Wales's S., G1 Eclipse S. and G1 Yorkshire Oaks, Ballydoyle's female lead was heavily backed into 11-10 favouritism and the confidence proved well-founded. Perfectly positioned in second early by Ryan Moore, she was asked to seal her victory passing two out and was too strong from there as she carved out a 2 1/4-length success, with Magic Wand denying Anthony Van Dyck (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) by a head for another stable one-two-three in a major prize. Deirdre, who was denied a run in the straight, finished strongly down the outer to be a half-length further away.

"She had really come forward from York. To come out and travel like that and quicken the way she did, she's a very exciting filly," Aidan O'Brien said. "Ryan said she doesn't do much in front and she's really something to look forward to."

LOGICIAN DOMINANT IN LEGER VICTORY

By Tom Frary

It was all Logician (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in Saturday's G1 William Hill St Leger at Doncaster as Khalid Abdullah's homebred made light work of the task to provide his sire with a second British Classic and the first in these silks. Heavily-backed into 5-6 favouritism, the G2 Great Voltigeur S. winner was anchored towards the rear early by a confident Frankie Dettori as the pace proved predictably strong. Angled towards the stand's side once straightening for home, the grey produced a telling surge to gain command passing the two-furlong pole and his rider was looking around for non-existent dangers in the last furlong. At the line, the unbeaten colt had recorded a new course-record time as he sauntered to a 2 1/4-length success from Sir Ron Priestley (GB) (Australia {GB}), with Nayef Road (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) a head away in third.

Frankie was celebrating an astounding 15th Group 1 in 2019 and a sixth St Leger and said, "There was lots of expectation and he delivered. He's got plenty of pace and has only run four times, so it is scary to say that there is some improvement there."

Magical's winning exploits in the G1 QIPCO British Champions Fillies & Mares S. at Ascot last October and the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup at The Curragh May 26 are significant, but it is perhaps her efforts in defeat against Enable that she has truly shone. There was only 3/4 of a length between them in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf at Churchill Downs in November and in the July 6 Eclipse and despite there being a more comprehensive 2 3/4-length margin separating them in the Aug. 22 Yorkshire Oaks last time there was a brief spell in the straight when she looked to be coming to shake up her arch-rival. Aidan O'Brien always leaves plenty to work on with his horses coming back from a break and with normal improvement Magical was always going to prove a tough nut to crack back on home soil.

Magical and Ryan Moore | Racing Post

Provided with the vital target by Emmet McNamara on Hunting Horn (Ire) (Camelot {GB}), Ryan Moore was content to wait and be in the position to strike first and when a live threat in 'TDN Rising Star' Elarqam (GB) (Frankel {GB}) began to check out from two furlongs from home she was suddenly in a powerful place. Now that she is fully mature, the filly who had the precocity to win the G2 Debutante S. and finish runner-up in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. is one of the gamest in training and nothing was going to catch her in the run to the line. 'TDN Rising Star' Headman (GB) (Kingman {GB}) had an attempt, but as trainer Roger Charlton said he believed could happen he failed to find the strength to enter battle while Deirdre became holed up at an important stage.

All roads lead to the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe and a rematch with Juddmonte's prevalent force at ParisLongchamp Oct. 6.

"She had a midsummer break, ran Enable to a couple of lengths at York and we knew she was going to come forward a good bit," O'Brien said. "She was just ready to go to York. Obviously Enable is a great filly and when we saw her running that well against her we were looking forward to this race and the autumn after that. We knew she was going to be in real good shape for today and I couldn't have been happier with her. We know she gets the mile and a half and handles an ease in the ground, she was back to a mile and a quarter today on fast ground and Ryan gave her a lovely, uncomplicated ride. The plan was to go to the Arc from here, but usually what happens is we see how they come out of it, talk to the lads and they see if they stay on the programme or go a different way."

O'Brien also refused to rule out the possibility of having Magical in his stable for 2020. "John, Michael and Derrick will decide what they want to do there. We'll try to get her to the end of the year safe and compete in the races that we can. To have her even at four is an absolute privilege. She's a very special filly and those fillies don't come along very often."

Of Magic Wand, he added, "She's a lovely filly as well. She can do the likes of Hong Kong and all those places. She loves fast ground and anywhere from a mile to a mile and a half. She's very versatile."

Pedigree Notes

Magical is a full-sister to the G1 Lockinge S., G1 Prix de l'Opera and G1 Fillies' Mile heroine Rhododendron (Ire), with the dam being the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas, G1 Nassau S. and G1 Sun Chariot S. heroine Halfway To Heaven (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}). She in turn is out of the high-class Cassandra Go (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) who captured the King's Stand S. when it was a Group 2 and also the G2 Temple S. and was runner-up in the G1 July Cup. Her other black-type winners are the G3 Abernant S. and G3 Sandown Sprint S. scorer Tickled Pink (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) and the G3 Summer S. winner Theann (GB) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire), who was also responsible for the GI First Lady S. and GI Rodeo S. heroine Photo Call (Ire) by Galileo and last year's G2 Richmond S. winner Land Force (Ire) (No Nay Never).

Cassandra Go is kin to the G3 Coventry S. scorer, G1 Irish 2000 Guineas runner-up and past sire of note Verglas (Ire) (Highest Honor {Fr}) and the listed-winning Persian Secret (Fr) (Persian Heights {GB}) whose descendants include last year's G1 Melbourne Cup hero Cross Counter (GB) (Teofilo {Ire}). Halfway To Heaven also has the once-raced 2-year-old filly Heaven of Heavens (Ire) and a colt foal by Galileo.

Twelve weeks ago, if someone had forecast this type of achievement for Logician it would have seemed far-fetched to say the least, with his second success only gained in workmanlike fashion in a 10-furlong novice contest at Newmarket June 21. He was more demonstrative on his debut over that trip at Newbury May 17 and he returned to that Berkshire venue to bring up a third score in a 12-furlong handicap from modest rivals July 4. It was the stable's vibe that created a wave of support for him heading to the Voltigeur at York Aug. 21 and he duly slipped seamlessly into another dimension with a 1 3/4-length defeat of Constantinople (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) there. Interestingly, seconds after Logician had wrapped up the oldest Classic the colt that had trailed him by daylight in the Voltigeur, Norway (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), had provided him with another boost by winning Leopardstown's G3 Kilternan S.

Taking all the preliminaries in his stride, Logician was instantly alert as the gates opened and broke with enthusiasm for the latest renewal of this prestigious affair. Reined back to sit with only two behind including his main market rival Sir Dragonet (Ire) (Camelot {GB}), he proved amenable to the restraint and loped through the first half of the race which was shaped by Ballydoyle's target horse Western Australia (Ire) (Australia {GB}). As Il Paradiso (Galileo {Ire}) took hold of the pace as the Rosegreen stable's second wave three out, Logician was being prepared wide of Sir Dragonet and it was this pair who took the eye but the latter's rider Donnacha O'Brien was sending out distress signals approaching the final quarter mile. At that point, the favourite was getting ready to put his seal on the race and the last furlong was him out on his own allowing Frankie time to soak up the moment. Cont. p5

That ground-devouring stride handed down by his sire who first announced his brilliance at this meeting in 2010 saw him become the fastest horse to cover this distance of all those who have contested this Classic and the Park Hill.

"He's a serious horse and that's probably the easiest one of all my wins here," the peerless rider stated. "The ground was a bit dry for him and they tried to test my stamina--for just a moment I thought he may not pick up and I wasn't sure about his stamina beforehand, but I think he's just a bit above these horses. I was always in control and I kept my eye on Sir Dragonet--when I saw him off the bridle I knew then I had the race won. We're going to have him next year, which is great news and he's made for a mile and a half. He's got a wonderful nature."

This was a fifth edition for John Gosden and he said, "It was fast ground for a Leger, but that probably helped him stay. He was a touch keen early, but he's done it under hands and heels with one flick, so it was a great performance on ground he would not have been in love with. We'll probably put him away until next year when a mile and a half will be a good trip for him. They set a solid pace and it was a truly-run Leger where they all ran their hearts out. He's a laid-back character and was a pretty relaxed boy afterwards. He sleeps most of the time and has a lovely attitude to life."

Charlie Johnston said of the second and third, "They both ran fantastic races and the winner is clearly a very good horse. He had a bit more toe in the final quarter mile. They've both run absolute screamers, in a different year they'd have been first and second, but the winner is very good. I'm proud of both horses--they both started off in handicaps in the spring, so they've come a long way and we're hopeful they'll give us a lot more fun next year."

Pedigree Notes

Logician's dam is the listed-placed miler Scuffle (GB) (Daylami {Ire}), who had already produced two black-type performers in the GIII Glens Falls S., GIII La Prevoyante H. and GIII The Very One S. winner and GI E. P. Taylor S. runner-up Suffused (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}) and the listed-placed Battlement (GB) (Dansili {GB}).

HE'S A SERIOUS HORSE AND THAT'S PROBABLY THE EASIEST ONE OF ALL MY WINS HERE.

Frankie Dettori

Her 4-year-old by Frankel, Collide (GB), had shown smart form for the Hugo Palmer stable and stays a mile and a half well, so it is probably the sire who has imparted the necessary stamina into Logician to afford him this landmark success. It is no coincidence that Frankel's two domestic Classic winners so far have been in the Oaks and this race and it is becoming a pattern that he is producing horses that stay much further than he promised to.

The second dam is Tantina (Distant View), whose career-best came with a win in the seven-furlong Sceptre S. at this meeting in 2003. Despite the status of that now-promoted contest being only listed at the time, that was a formidable effort as she made all to give three pounds and a five-length beating to the high-class Chic (GB) (Machiavellian). She transmitted that quality at first hand to her G1 Dubai Duty Free-winning son Cityscape (GB) (Selkirk) and the G2 Temple S. winner and G1 July Cup runner-up Bated Breath (GB) (Dansili {GB}), who is now an established sire. She is also the second dam of Wednesday's Listed Scarborough S. scorer Equilateral (GB) (Equiano {Fr}), who was also runner-up in the G3 Palace House S.

The third dam Didina (GB) (Nashwan), who won the GII Dahlia H., lists the G2 Gimcrack S. scorer Ajaya (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) among her descendants.

The fourth dam Didicoy (Danzig) is a half-sister to Juddmonte's European champion 2-year-old colt of 1997 Xaar (GB). Unfortunately, Scuffle's 2017 son of Invincible Spirit (Ire) died last year, but she also has a yearling filly by Kingman (GB) and a colt foal by Time Test (GB).

IRIDESSA ON TOP IN THE MATRON

Already the winner of the G1 Fillies' Mile and G1 Pretty Polly S., Chantal Regalado-Gonzalez's Iridessa (Ire) (Ruler of the World {Ire}) made it a trio of top-level contests in Saturday's G1 Coolmore Fastnet Rock Matron S. at Leopardstown. Only seventh trying 12 furlongs for the first time in the G1 Irish Oaks when last seen at The Curragh July 20, the 10-1 shot tracked the pace set by the even-money favourite Laurens (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) in a share of third early and was in waiting as she was softened up by Hermosa (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). It was that dual Guineas heroine who held sway after their personal duel, but Wayne Lordan found the requisite response from Iridessa to swamp that rival approaching the furlong pole.

She asserted for a 3/4-of-a-length verdict, with a head back to Hermosa's stablemate Just Wonderful (Dansili {GB}) in third.

"She's a good filly when things fall right for her and she was having a bit of a look when she got to the front today, so there was no luck involved--she was best on the day," trainer Joseph O'Brien commented.

Cont. p7

Iridessa and Wayne Lordan | racingfotos.com

To describe Iridessa as in-and-out is unfair, but her record is not entirely consistent despite trying different trips from a mile to a mile and a half. Only 4-1 for the Irish Oaks on the back of her Pretty Polly success at The Curragh June 28, she may not have stayed the 12 furlongs of that Classic but her earlier efforts when eighth in the May 5 G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket and fourth in the Irish equivalent in Kildare three weeks later suggest that she needs everything to slot into place to really excel. "She has one run, but a huge engine," O'Brien added. "She seems to enjoy it when there is a bit of pace on in front of her and she has something to run at."

"She is by a Derby winner but physically she is more like a miler as she is very strong," he continued. "She seems very versatile distance-wise, but we weren't sure what her trip was. She ran well in the Oaks, but it was a very messy race, they went very slow and sprinted up the straight so we put a line through that. She's a homebred. Mum and dad bought the mare and this is the second foal out of her. She has some younger animals coming along and this is a nice boost.

"The [Oct. 6 G1] Prix de l'Opera [at ParisLongchamp] was what we had in the back of our minds. Originally we were thinking about running in the Blandford, but there wasn't as big a field here as we thought so we came here."

Laurens, who was two lengths behind Just Wonderful in fourth, was disappointing as she faded out of contention in the straight and jockey PJ McDonald said, "She didn't find a length when I gave her a squeeze, I don't know why. She just wasn't herself."

Pedigree Notes

As O'Brien stated, Iridessa's dam is out of Senta's Dream (GB) (Danehill), who fetched just 14,000gns when purchased from Newsells Park Stud at the 2013 Tattersalls December Sale. She is one of only two foals out of the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare heroine Starine (Fr) (Mendocino), who is kin to the G3 Prix Minerve third Pearlescence (Pleasantly Perfect). Senta's Dream also has the unraced 2-year-old colt Order of Australia (Ire) (Australia {GB}) and a yearling filly by Camelot (GB).

GOING ORBITAL

Clipper Logistics' Space Traveller (GB) (Bated Breath {GB}) pounced late for Royal Ascot glory in the June 22 Jersey S. and, having since posted a sixth in Goodwood's July 30 G2 Lennox S. and a third in York's Aug. 24 G3 Strensall S., repeated the dose to register a career high and recoup his owner's sponsorship money in Saturday's G2 Clipper Logistics Boomerang S. at Leopardstown. The 13-2 chance employed patient tactics at the rear through halfway. Bounced along on the home turn, he made relentless headway out wide in the straight to challenge with 150 yards remaining and was driven out to deny fellow British raider Matterhorn (Ire) (Raven's Pass) by a neck nearing the line.

Space Traveller (7) | Racing Post

"It's a great thrill and the second time in three years we've won our own race so we'll take our money back to England," beamed owner and race sponsor Steve Parkin. "We rode him like that at Royal Ascot when he won the Jersey and [trainer] Richard Fahey said he'd leave it to me to tell Billy [Lee] how to ride him. I told Billy to ride him cold, but when you go for home bring him wide and just send him because he'll keep finding for you. He's won over five and six furlongs, but he's a miler all day long and I think today's proved that. We'll see if we can go get some more pots around the world with him. When he won his first two races as a 2-year-old we thought he was an absolute aeroplane, but then he went off the boil a little bit. He was second favourite for the [G2] Gimcrack [S. last year], but bombed out. He's come back better than ever this year and stepping him up in trip has worked wonders so well done Richard Fahey."

Pedigree Notes

Space Traveller, the leading performer out of Sky Crystal (Ger) (Galileo {Ire}), is a half-brother to G3 Dick Poole Fillies' S. third Pellucid (GB) (Excelebration {Ire}). His third dam Crystal Spray (GB) (Beldale Flutter {GB}) produced four group winners headed by G1 Fillies' Mile heroine and G1 Irish 1000 Guineas and G1 Coronation S. second Crystal Music (Nureyev) and G3 Lancashire Oaks victress State Crystal (Ire) (High Estate {Ire}). The latter's descendants include G1 Prix Jean Prat-winning sire Zelzal (Fr) (Sea the Stars {Ire}), and the stakes-producing G2 May Hill S. victress Solar Crystal (Ire) (Alzao). From the family of G1 Epsom Derby-winning champion Royal Palace (GB) (Ballymoss {GB}), Sky Crystal has also produced Space Traveller's year-younger full-sister Rubia Bella (GB), who placed in her only start to date, a yearling filly by Exceed and Excel (Aus) and a 2019 filly by Postponed (Ire). MOGUL TAKES UP THE MANTLE

On what amounted to one of Ballydoyle's better days of 2019, 'TDN Rising Star' Mogul (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) gave a significant pointer to next year's Classics as he emerged on top in Saturday's G2 KPMG Champions Juvenile S. at Leopardstown. Sent off the 1-2 favourite having beaten the subsequent winner Shekhem (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) by 3 1/4 lengths in a Curragh maiden Aug. 30, the full-brother to Japan (GB) broke fast and was free without cover in the hands of Ryan Moore early. Eventually settling behind the pace set by the stable's Cormorant (Ire) (Kingman {GB}) in a share of fourth, the bay enjoyed a clear run turning in and after taking command with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining gave more to hold Sinawann (Ire) (Kingman {GB}) by 1 1/4 lengths.

"He might race again this season, as he's three weeks ahead of where Japan was at the same time but the lads will see," trainer Aidan O'Brien said. "He has a lovely mind and that is also Japan's main strength."

Mogul | Racing Post

Mogul, who already looks in the mould of the yard's former great Derby horses, will be surprising nobody if he goes on to emulate this race's 2013 winner Australia (GB) at Epsom next June. From his debut second at Gowran Park Aug. 14 to his maiden win on second start to this, he has made major strides and his pedigree suggests it can only continue skywards. "Ryan had to move early on him and when he got to the front he had a good look," O'Brien added. "I'd say he would have learned plenty and we've been very happy with his progress from race to race. Ryan was very complimentary when he came in off him."

Despite having raced solely at a mile so far, Mogul could step back in trip to seven furlongs according to his trainer. Cont. p10

"He would have a choice of two races, probably the [Oct. 12 G1] Dewhurst [at Newmarket] or the [Oct. 26 G1] Vertem Futurity [at Doncaster]. We won't over-race him. Obviously we think he's a Classic horse, a Guineas-Derby type horse."

Pedigree Notes

Mogul's listed-placed dam Shastye (Ire) (Danehill) is one of the biggest names in the business, her progeny sales making eye-watering reading. Her 2008 filly Shabyt (GB) (Sadler's Wells) made 350,000gns while her 2011 foal was Maurus (GB) (Medicean {GB}) who sold for €320,000 at Arqana before winning a stakes race and placing in multiple group races in Australia. In between there was Secret Gesture (GB), the first of six foals by Galileo who took the G2 Middleton S. and was runner-up in the G1 Epsom Oaks and G1 Preis der Diana.

Her second by that sire was the G3 International S. winner Sir Isaac Newton (GB), whose 3.6-million gns purchase by M V Magnier at the 2013 Tattersalls October Book 1 Sale was only 200,000gns more than Mogul's tag last autumn. In between, her daughter Secret Soul (GB) (Street Cry {Ire}) made 800,000gns and the unraced Secret Gaze (GB) by Galileo 1.35-million gns. Japan was a relative snip at just 1.3 million gns at Park Paddocks in October 2017 and he rates the best of them all after his G1 Grand Prix de Paris and G1 Juddmonte International successes this summer. With a filly foal by Galileo to come, Shastye has a honest crack at producing a winner of the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe that her half-brother Sagamix (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}) captured in 1998.

SIR WINSALOT

Sir Dancealot (Ire) (Sir Prancealot {Ire}) garnered a fifth black-type win when making a successful defence of Goodwood's July 30 G2 Lennox S., but slipped off the board in Newbury's Aug. 17 G2 Hungerford S. an York's G2 City of York S. one week later last time. Stepping forward once more, he overturned the form of that latest effort to register a sixth victory at stakes level in Saturday's G2 Hird Rail Group Park S. at Doncaster. Adopting customary hold-up tactics off the pace in fourth as familiar rival Shine So Bright (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) set the tempo through the early stages, the 11-4 second choice made headway from halfway to launch his bid at the quarter-mile marker and was ridden out inside the final furlong to assert superiority in snug fashion. Never No More (Ire) (No Nay Never) kept on to finish 1 1/2 lengths adrift in second, with Breton Rock (Ire) (Bahamian Bounty {GB}) a half-length back in third.

"He's in great shape and it probably wasn't the toughest encounter he's had this year," said trainer David Elsworth. "He was giving us encouraging signs at home and he'll now go for the [Oct. 6 G1 Prix de la] Foret [at ParisLongchamp] on Arc day. He'll need a bit of luck there, had we not gone well here we could have easily come unstuck in Paris. It was a calculated risk, but we've picked up some money along the way."

Winning rider Gerald Mosse added, "I travelled nice and easy, I made my move a bit early, but in the last furlong and a half he was playing with them. He's a lovely horse with a massive engine and is a beautiful mover. Normally, on quick ground, he can hang a bit, but he ran straight all the way to the line today."

THREAT TAKES THE CHAMPAGNE

Saddled with a three-pound penalty in Saturday's G2 Champagne S. at Doncaster as a result of his win in York's G2 Gimcrack S. Aug. 23, 'TDN Rising Star' Threat (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}) was super-smooth as he defied the extra burden. Held up last of the quintet early by Pat Dobbs, the 6-5 favourite cruised to the lead approaching the furlong pole and was in control when jinking right near the line. That narrowed the winning margin to just a neck over Godolphin's promising Royal Crusade (GB) (Shamardal), with the positively-ridden Juan Elcano (GB) (Frankel {GB}) 3/4 of a length away in third.

"A lot of 2-year-olds stop here because of where the finish line is--angled off to where they came out," trainer Richard Hannon said. "The way he travelled there is what we see at home and Pat said you probably wouldn't want to hit the front too soon. All the big races are opportunities for him now and David and Patricia Thompson have a very good horse." Cont. p12

Threat, who has a tendency to sweat in the preliminaries, has nevertheless proven to be a tough and consistent campaigner who came back from second placings in the June 18 G2 Coventry S. at Royal Ascot and Aug. 1 G2 Richmond S. at Goodwood to deliver in the Gimcrack and here.

Dobbs was impressed and suggested there was plenty left in the tank. "He has tons of gears. He was keen for most of the race, as they weren't going fast enough for him and he's very talented," he explained. "He can get quite excited, but Fergus Sweeney does a great job on him at home and he's getting there. He was good today. I got there too soon on him, but he's got that extra gear. He has a high cruising speed and can quicken off it. Next year, he'll get a mile no problem."

Charlie Appleby said of Royal Crusade, who lacked the conditioning of Threat in this type of company, "The winner, as you could tell from the way he travelled, just has the experience. For just the second run of his career, I'm delighted. For a few strides when he hit the front I thought he was going to win. He lost nothing in defeat, it was a nice run and William [Buick] said he showed a nice bit of class and he should have no trouble with a mile next year. He's in all the nice races at the end of the year and we'll make a call in the next week or two."

Pedigree Notes

Threat's stamina for a Guineas should be assured on pedigree, with his dam Flare of Firelight (Birdstone) being out of the 10-furlong specialist Shiva (Jpn) (Hector Protector) whose career was highlighted by victory in the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup. Her Listed Prix Zarkava-winning daughter That Which is Not (Elusive Quality) was also runner-up in the G2 Prix Corrida over middle distances, while Shiva is a full-sister to the G2 Prix Foy winner Limnos (Jpn) and a half to the G1 Epsom Oaks heroine Light Shift (Kingmambo). She is in turn the dam of the G1 Juddmonte International S. and G1 Eclipse S. hero Ulysses (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), while this Niarchos family also features Main Sequence (Aldebaran). Flare of Firelight also has a yearling filly by Slade Power(Ire) who is due to sell at the upcoming Tattersalls October Book 1 Sale and a filly foal by Galileo Gold (GB).

WAY TOO GOOD

Having been boosted by the G1 St Leger triumph of Logician (GB) (Frankel {GB}) five minutes earlier, G1 Irish Derby third Norway (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) was third behind that rival in last month's G2 Great Voltigeur S. at York and registered a belated first pattern-race triumph with a taking victory of his own in Saturday's G3 Paddy Power Betting Shop S. at Leopardstown. Biding his time hugging the rail in sixth, the 7-2 joint-favourite made smooth headway in the straight to go second approaching the final furlong and quickened smartly once angled out for his challenge to comfortably account for Buckhurst (Ire) (Australia {GB}) by 1 1/4 lengths.

"It always looked like it could work for him here and we're delighted with him," said trainer Aidan O'Brien. "A mile-and-a-half is probably his trip and taking your time on him a little bit helps. We've probably been making too much use of him a few times recently, but this suited him. He travels well and quickens well, but when he gets there he doesn't do a lot. He's a horse that is probably going to be better next year and he's a lovely horse to have. There are going to be a lot of places to suit him, he could travel a little bit and maybe go to Hong Kong or America." Cont. p13

CHAMPION FEAST ON SUPER SUNDAY

With 11 group races across Ireland, France and Germany on Sunday, the only problem for onlookers is what to look forward to most and also where to look with at some stages only 10 minutes between some of the leading contests. Picking out the star turn is almost impossible, with Godolphin's elite 2-year-old Pinatubo (Ire) (Shamardal) unable to hog the limelight from two Oaks winners who take each other on in Anapurna (GB) (Frankel {GB}) and Star Catcher (GB) (Sea the Stars {Ire}), and then there is the G1 Prix du Jockey Club hero Sottsass (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}). It is a measure of the elevated standard in evidence that the clash between the G1 Melbourne Cup hero Cross Counter (GB) (Teofilo {Ire}) and G1 St Leger hero Kew Gardens (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) is not the main attraction.

Pinatubo | Racing Post

In a season during which Godolphin have hit the heights with their 2-year-olds, Pinatubo is bordering on the exceptional already having put up a performance that almost guarantees champion juvenile status when taking Goodwood's G2 Vintage S. by five lengths July 30. That was an improvement on his impressive success in the Listed Chesham S. at Royal Ascot June 22 and Charlie Appleby is understandably optimistic as he bids to justify odds-on favouritism in the G1 Goffs Vincent O'Brien National S. "Pinatubo's form is faultless and we have been aiming him at this race since he won impressively at Goodwood on his latest start," he said. "He has been very straightforward at home and we have been pleased with his preparation. He's not doing anything different to what he was doing earlier in the summer. He's not a brilliant workhorse, but he seems to produce his A-game in the afternoons. He is an exciting colt and I feel that they all have him to beat."

While it is not exactly do-or-die, in some ways the National showdown with Pinatubo is vital for Ballydoyle who put the reputation of their star 2-year-old colts Armory (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Arizona (Ire) (No Nay Never) on the line. Ryan Moore is on the former, who treads a familiar path for the stable having won the G3 Tyros S. at Leopardstown July 25 and G2 Futurity S. over this course and seven-furlong trip last time Aug. 23. Arizona is a colt of considerable substance himself, having won Royal Ascot's G2 Coventry S. June 18 and he can easily be forgiven a comeback fourth on unsuitably heavy ground in the G1 Prix Morny at Deauville Aug. 18. "Armory is in good shape," commented Aidan O'Brien, who has won this 11 times. "Nobody wants to see easy races--they all want to see the good horses clash. You win some and lose some. You learn if you have to improve or if you are good enough."

At ParisLongchamp, the G1 Qatar Prix Vermeille stands at the centre of the "Arc trials" card and with the pair of 4-year-olds well short of the required standard this is set to be one for the Classic generation. John Gosden has run out of options to keep his aforementioned Oaks winners Anapurna and Star Catcher apart and Frankie Dettori has had to face the unenviable scenario of getting off his Epsom heroine in favour of Anthony Oppenheimer's Star Catcher. Her defeat of Fleeting (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) in the G2 Ribblesdale S. at Royal Ascot June 20 and G1 Irish Oaks at The Curragh a month later is probably marginally superior to Anapurna's eclipse of Pink Dogwood (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) in the May 31 Epsom Classic but it would not have been an easy choice. Samuel de Barros's June 16 G1 Prix de Diane heroine Channel (Ire) (Nathaniel {Ire}) is also engaged and is remarkably one of a total of seven European Classic winners due to run on Sunday.

Meon Valley Stud's Mark Weinfeld said of Anapurna, "It has been a long wait since Epsom. We were originally going to run her in the Yorkshire Oaks, but there didn't seem much point when we saw Enable was going there. We're just hoping she runs well now, she's had a long break. I don't think she'll be staying in training, that's not the plan at the moment anyway. We haven't entered her in the Arc. We've got the Fillies and Mares race at Ascot on the agenda, but she's also got an entry in the Prix Royallieu as well."

Star Catcher | Racing Post

Anthony Oppenheimer said of Star Catcher, "She's going very well and I think her chances are pretty obvious--she's got a good chance. There are two Oaks winners there, lots of good horses, and they all seem to be rated about the same. She'll like the ground, she's really well, she's had a long rest and Dettori is riding. I've spoken to Frankie and he's very pleased with her at home, but it is a very difficult race--all the top fillies in Europe really, a very exciting race."

Peter Brant's Sottsass is one of the most notable, having beaten Persian King (Ire) (Kingman {GB}) in convincing fashion in the 10 1/2-furlong G1 Prix du Jockey Club at Chantilly when last seen June 2. While the form of that renewal is mixed, there has been enough subsequent evidence to suggest it was at least an average edition but with little serious opposition in the G2 Qatar Prix Niel this should be a stress-free reintroduction for the Rouget trainee. There may be more substance in the G2 Qatar Prix Foy, where TDN Rising Star Waldgeist (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) returns from battle in England to meet the Japanese interest Kiseki (Jpn) (Rulership {Jpn}). Unfortunate to be met with rain-softened ground when third in the June 19 G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot and the G1 King George and Queen Elizabeth S. at that venue July 27, Gestut Ammerland and Newsells Park's 5-year-old remains more than just an underdog for the Arc contender and an ideal warm-up here could be all-important. Cont. p15

Capri | Racing Post

Back at The Curragh, the G1 Comer Group Irish St Leger sees the return to the fray of Kew Gardens who is up to the trip over which he recorded his last success in Doncaster's St Leger 12 months ago. Runner-up in Epsom's G1 Coronation Cup when last seen May 31, he is unbeaten at further than a mile and a half but he will have to be at a peak to contend with Cross Counter. When they met in York's G2 Great Voltigeur S. last August, Kew Gardens was warming up for the Doncaster Classic under a five-pound penalty for his G1 Grand Prix de Paris success and was 1 1/2 lengths behind the Godolphin gelding as they filled second and third.

Aidan O'Brien sees Kew Gardens as a stayer and said, "Kew Gardens is in good form. He went a little bit wrong on us, so we had to stop with him. He is back in good shape and is ready to start. He stays very well and gets a good trip. We were looking forward to going for the Gold Cup with him this year, because we thought he was a tailor-made Gold Cup horse. I would think he would get further than two miles and I don't know if he would be quick enough for the Melbourne Cup."

After the Voltigeur, Cross Counter went on to annex the Melbourne Cup on his next start and there was no disgrace in his subsequent attempts to dethrone Stradivarius (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) in the G1 Gold Cup at Royal Ascot June 20 and July 30 G1 Goodwood Cup. Charlie Appleby is relishing this test. "He's a horse who always travels well during his races and I think coming back to a mile and six will suit him," he commented. "He's run two very solid races since he came back to Europe--finishing fourth in the Gold Cup and third at Goodwood. If he brings that level of form to the table on Sunday, he's going to be a major player. I'm hoping for a good run and hopefully it will be nice springboard before going back to Melbourne."

This prize also features the 2017 G1 Irish Derby and G1 St Leger hero Capri (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who has failed to fire all season, and last year's Irish Derby winner Latrobe (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) who has also operated at a more modest level since his finest hour. At the other end of the distance spectrum, the sprinters have their turn in the G1 Derrinstown Stud Flying Five with Martyn Meade trying to get that elusive top-level victory for Aquis Farm's Houtzen (Aus) (I Am Invincible {Aus}) before she retires. She was just 3/4 of a length behind Battaash (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) when runner-up in the G2 King George S. at Goodwood Aug. 2 and that form might be good enough. "Obviously she's had to adjust to a different training routine over here--in Australia they train them at the track, but she's actually probably well-suited to how we train here," Meade explained. "She's not really a typical sprinter--she's pretty laid-back. Her run at Goodwood was excellent. I think the ground and track will be fine for her at The Curragh and she'll then likely go to the Prix de l'Abbaye."

Eddie Lynam is an expert in this field and he has built Lady O'Reilly's 4-year-old Soffia (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}) into a forthright sprinting star over the past four months. Going from a first black-type win in the Listed Sole Power Sprint S. over this trip at Naas May 19 to a narrow success in the six-furlong G3 Ballyogan S. here June 7, she made a leap forward with a 3 1/2-length defeat of the solid yardstick El Astronaute (Ire) (Approve {Ire}) in the G2 Sapphire S. over this track and trip July 21. As a result of that performance, she has the edge over last year's G1 Prix de l'Abbaye heroine Mabs Cross (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}) who was only third in this 12 months ago. "This has been the plan and it certainly helps we don't have to take on Battaash," Lynam said. "It's going to be tough, but I'd be very happy with her."

With Blue Point (Ire) (Shamardal) and Battaash out of the way, this may represent the ideal opportunity for Soldier's Call (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) to grab that Group 1 success he looks capable of. While he was only fourth behind Soffia in the Sapphire, he lost a shoe on that occasion and he is better judged on his performances either side when third in the G1 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot June 18 and runner-up in the G1 Nunthorpe S. at York Aug. 23. Cont. p16

Jessica Harrington's cast of 2-year-old fillies have carried all before them in 2019 and the Niarchos Family's unbeaten Albigna (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) looks to maintain the run in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. Getting going late to take the G2 Airlie Stud S. over six furlongs here last time June 28, she will benefit from this extra distance according to her trainer. "She's all set for it and you'd hope the step up to seven furlongs will suit her," she said. "She's not run for a while. I hope she's the one to beat but you never know, because there are one or two in there who have just won maidens."

Stamina for this trip on this stiff circuit is not guaranteed for the June 21 G3 Albany S. winner Daahyeh (GB) (Bated Breath {GB}), who was runner-up to Raffle Prize (Ire) (Slade Power {Ire}) in Newmarket's G2 Duchess of Cambridge S. when last seen July 12. Sheikh Nasser bin Hamad Al Khalifa's chestnut was staying on strongly up the hill there and trainer Roger Varian is hoping the distance will pose no problem. "I am hopeful of her staying the seven furlongs and very happy with her condition," he said. "The Curragh should be no problem, but we have to find out about the seven furlongs and it is a stiff seven furlongs there. That said, she is a similar type of filly to Cursory Glance, who won the Moyglare for us in 2014, having also won the Albany. She boasts some of the best juvenile filly form and has strong credentials in the race, even if it is always a hot race at The Curragh."

Also on The Curragh card is the G2 Moyglare "Jewels" Blandford S. where TDN Rising Star Goddess (Camelot {GB}) faces her toughest test having won the nine-furlong G3 Snow Fairy Fillies S. here Aug. 30. Her rivals include His Highness The Aga Khan's Tarnawa (Ire) (Shamardal) who looked a potential Group 1 performer when capturing the G3 Give Thanks S. over 12 furlongs at Cork Aug. 17. She bids to provide Dermot Weld with a fourth consecutive renewal and a fifth since 2014. Team Valor's Loveisthehigherlaw (GB) (Kodiac {GB}) is one of the day's "dark horses" and it is difficult to gauge the level of her ability at present after promising wins in minor events at Cork May 10 and Killarney Aug. 22.

WAR DIARY TOPS CHAMPIONS SALE

Four-year-old gelding War Diary (GB) (Declaration of War) (lot 1), winner of a premier handicap at The Curragh on his fourth start in June, for Chantal Regalado-Gonzalez and trainer John Murphy, topped the boutique Goffs Champions Sale on Saturday when knocked down to trainer Mick Halford for €200,000.

Five horses were offered in the parade ring prior to the start of Irish Champions Weekend at Leopardstown Racecourse, with two finding new homes. In addition to War Diary, Murphy also sent out the winning 2-year-old Think Big (Ire) (Night of Thunder {Ire}) (lot 5), who was picked up by Charlie Gordon-Watson for €100,000.

War Diary | Goffs

"The Champions Sale is set up to give a unique opportunity to owners of quality flat horses, to showcase their horses in front of an international audience," said Goffs Group Chief Executive Henry Beeby. "We judge our flat boutique sales by different standards in that vendors are delighted if they sell for a good price, but equally are not overly disappointed if they do not sell. That was very much the case today, the two that sold, sold very well and the three that did not will race on for their existing connections and we wish them all well. The Goffs Champions Sale provides Goffs with another showcase on the international stage and has a bright future."

DOTTY ABOUT ROY ROCKET?

John and Emma Berry's Newmarket stable is supporting the fundraising efforts of Pat Smullen for Cancer Trials Ireland through his ambassadorial role for Longines Irish Champions Weekend.

A week after Irish racing's big weekend, the stables of Newmarket open their doors for the Henry Cecil Open Weekend. Visitors will have the chance to meet ROY ROCKET and enter a competition to be his owners for a day when he returns to the racecourse next season.

All you have to do is guess the number of spots on their Dalmatian, Gus.
Sir Mark Prescott has agreed to be the independent judge and has now completed the official spot count.

Make your minimum donation of £10 per guess to support Pat's fundraising efforts towards important research in the ongoing battle against cancer by visiting this link, then email your guess on Gus's spots to emmacollingsberry@gmail.com

Hunter's Light is looking for his fourth winner at Morlaix.

Sextant, who garnered staying handicaps at Windsor June 29 and at Ascot July 26, ran fourth of five in Newbury's Aug. 17 G3 Geoffrey Freer S. on stakes debut last time and stepped forward to earn a first black-type rosette. Confronted with fewer rivals here, he was handily placed in a stalking second for most of this stamina test and stayed on strongly under continued rousting from the three-furlong marker to assert superiority nearing the line. Sextant becomes the first black-type winner for Hypoteneuse (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and he is a half-brother to Listed Lenebane S. runner-up Maths Prize (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}), a yearling filly by Kingman (GB) and a 2019 filly by Golden Horn (GB). Hypoteneuse is herself a full-sister to dual stakes winner Golden Stream (Ire) and G1 Epsom Oaks runner-up Flight of Fancy (GB), who in turn produced dual G3 Winter Hill S. victor Fabricate (GB) (Makfi {GB}) and the dam of Listed Swettenham Stud Fillies' Trial victress Momentary (GB) (Nayef). The homebred bay's MGSW second dam Phantom Gold (GB) (Machiavellian) is a full-sister to GIII De La Rose H. winner Fictitious (GB) and a granddaughter of G2 Ribblesdale S. victress in Expansive (GB) (Exbury {Fr}). Click for the Racing Post result. Video, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

PERFECT NUMBER (GB) (f, 3, Cape Cross {Ire}--Wizara {Ire}, by Teofilo {Ire}) baulked during the early scrimmaging and was off the pace under restraint through halfway in this belated unveiling. Shaken up rounding the home turn, the 15-8 second choice made continued headway under pressure to challenge with 100 yards remaining en route to a 1 1/4-length success from New Angel (GB) (New Approach {Ire}). Half-sister to a yearling colt by Night of Thunder (Ire) and a 2019 colt by Acclamation (GB), she is the first foal produced by a winning daughter of stakes-winning G2 Prix de Royallieu runner-up Princesse Dansante (Ire) (King's Best). ZABEEL CHAMPION (GB) (c, 2, Poet's Voice {GB}--Stars In Your Eyes {GB}, by Galileo {Ire}), sent off the 9-4 second favourite, was soon at the head of affairs. Pressed by Bronze River (GB) (Archipenko) from the home turn, the bay kept digging deep to shake off that rival and score by a length. The winner may prove a bargain purchase after the recent winning exploits of his half-sister Dame Maillot (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}) in the G2 Prix de Pomone and Listed Aphrodite S., GSW-Fr & SW-Eng, $121,894. The second dam Apache Star (GB) (Arazi), who was third in the Listed Cheshire Oaks, has three black-type performers to her credit including the G2 Dante S. third Coordinated Cup (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}). This is the Oppenheimer family of the G1 Coronation S. heroine Rebecca Sharp (GB) (Machaivellian) and the flagship G1 Epsom Derby, G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe and G1 Eclipse hero and first-season sire Golden Horn (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}). Cont. p19

Blissful entered this contest with more experience than any of her eight rivals and ringcraft was a telling factor as she delivered a career high in game fashion. The bay finished off the board in The Curragh's June 28 G2 Airlie Stud S. before running second back there in a July 21 maiden and graduated by a nose at Tipperary in her fourth start last time Aug. 29. Breaking smartly to race in a prominent second from the outset here, she was stoked up rounding the home turn and kept on relentlessly under a drive inside the final quarter mile to nail the pacesetting Nurse Barbara by a pixel on the line.

"She's a filly that just took a little bit of time to come and we're delighted with her," commented Aidan O'Brien. "Donnacha [O'Brien] was very happy with her the last day, but Ryan [Moore] hadn't ridden her in a while." Cont. p20

He added, "He was delighted with her and thought she had progressed a lot since he rode her. She's a filly that will stay further and will have no problem stepping up to a mile. It can be an advantage to get beat first or second time because, with those kind of fillies, if you step them into too good of a race before they are ready it might stop the progression. She has developed a lovely mind, she's gone very relaxed and, hopefully, there is plenty to come. She probably learned a lot today because she had to go and run after the other filly and had to fight at the end. She was very relaxed afterwards and was in no way upset. I'd say she'd have no problem going into a group race next and probably will end up getting a mile very well this year. The [Oct. 11 G1] Fillies' Mile [at Newmarket] could be a possibility for her."

Blissful becomes the fifth stakes performer for stakes-winning G2 Prix Robert Papin and G3 Nell Gwyn S. placegetter Massarra (GB) (Danehill) and is a full-sister to GSW G1 St James's Palace S. runner-up Gustav Klimt (Ire), G1 St James's Palace S. third Mars (Ire), G3 Silver Flash S. victress Wonderfully (Ire) and Listed Sprint S. winner Cuff (Ire). She is also a half-sister to G1 Gran Criterium heroine Nayarra (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}). Her second dam is G1 Prix de Diane heroine Rafha (GB) (Kris {GB}), whose seven black-type performers are headed by G1SW sire Invincible Spirit (Ire) (Green Desert), MGSW sire Sadian (GB) (Shirley Heights {GB}) and GSP sire Kodiac (GB) (Danehill). Rafha is herself kin to G3 Blandford S. victress Chiang Mai (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), who in turn is the dam of G1 Pretty Polly S. heroine Chinese White (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}). Driven on the turn in, the 6-1 shot stayed on to lead with 75 yards remaining and gave extra as Buildmeupbuttercup (GB) (Sixties Icon {GB}) threatened to prevail by a neck. The winner's dam, who also has the once-raced 2-year-old filly Kassaba (Ire) (Charm Spirit {Ire}) in the same stable, a yearling colt by Fast Company (Ire) and a filly foal by Profitable (Ire), is a half-sister to the G1 Irish St Leger heroine Kastoria (Ire) (Selkirk). Their dam Kassana (Ire) (Shernazar {Ire}) took the G3 Prix Minerve and is kin to the G2 Prix Kergolay scorer Kassani (Ire) (Alleged). GATTING CAUSES MAKYBE BOILOVER

Gatting | Bronwen Healy

by Paul Vettise

Flemington was left aghast as a Western Australian roughie stormed home to win the G1 Makybe Diva S., a momentous turnaround from his previous assignment where he finished last of five runners in the Listed Idyllic Prince at Belmont. Gatting (Hard Spun {USA}) produced a turnaround of monumental proportions when spun the weight-for-age rivals form book on its head at Flemington.

The unheralded 6-year-old had finished last of five runners in the Listed Idyllic Prince at Belmont in his previous appearance before executing trainer Darren Mcauliffe's ambitious plan to perfection at huge odds in the G1 PFD Food Services Makybe Diva S. Mcauliffe was bullish about Gatting's chances and the gelding gave him his day in the sun after the Lark Hill trainer admitted the last six weeks had been disappointing for the stable.

"I'm a little bit lost I guess, it's been an average start to the season by our standards, but I've always had a lot of faith in this horse," he said. "It's a big thanks to my staff back home and to my wife, it's very rewarding. He didn't have things go his way first-up and he's got form around horses like Arcadia Queen, who won in Sydney.

"We've raced Scales Of Justice a couple of times and beaten him. He's got a Group 1 now so it's fantastic. He's a good horse and Jamie [Kah] rode him perfectly and followed the instructions to the letter and we got it right."

The Makybe Diva result was of even more significance to Mcauliffe as Gatting's jockey sported the family silks.

"My grandfather trained for about 70 odd years and my Dad trained and they've been passed on down," he said. "Whilst they look like Kingston Town's colours they've been in my family for a lot longer than the Kingston Town colours. They are slightly different and it means a lot. Pop will be looking down on us and he'll be very proud."

Gatting travelled sweetly behind the leading division and he strode to the front 200 metres from the posy and sailed home by 0.75l from the favourite Mystic Journey (Needs Further), who boxed on gamely after having her chance. Mr Quickie (Shamus Award) ran third in his seasonal debut with an effort that augurs well for his spring campaign and Hartnell (GB) (Authorized {Ire}) came on from the back for fourth in another typically brave display.

Gatting presented Kah with the second Group 1 win of her riding career and she said it was a no nonsense performance.

"It's unbelievable. He travelled beautifully and you couldn't ask for a better run than I got. In the straight I was just waiting for something to pass me, but he just got stronger and stronger," she said. "My manager was very keen on the ride so that gave me confidence and the trainer gave me a lot of confidence as well. Anything he's done he will improve on. It's just amazing, what a super horse and he gave me a wonderful ride."

Pedigree Notes

Bred by Kingston Thoroughbreds, Gatting is the first foal of Stubborn (Lonhro), who is a sister to the G3 Research S. winner Trim, herself the dam of listed heroine and three-time group-placed Manicure (Aus) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}). It is the family of the G3 Auraria S. winner and G1 South Australia Oaks placegetter Faithful Thought (Water Mill {GB}) and the G3 Run To The Rose winner Desuetude (Strategic). Group 1 placegetters Talaga (NZ) (Bakharoff) and Stylish Mahal (NZ) (Stylish Century {Aus}) feature under the unraced fourth dam.
