A MARKET REFRAIN AT EVEN NOVEMBER

Continued stretch at the top of the market and a surging middle were the hallmarks of Keeneland November Book 2, which concluded last night in Lexington with numbers on par from 2013. Friday's session saw 245 horses sell for $25,351,500--an average of $103,476. That was down a minuscule 0.19% from last year's session average of $103,676. The median of $85,000 was unchanged. The only blemish on the day, though a relatively minor one, was an increase in the RNA rate, from 19.1% in 2013 to 26%.

Year-over-year cumulative numbers are similarly... similar. So far at November, 789 horses have grossed $150,904,500, an average of $191,260. That's a 1.84% bump in average from 2013, when 751 horses sold for $141,034,200, an average of $187,795. The median of $105,000 is off 4.5% from last year's $110,000 median, while the RNA rate stands at 23.2%. Last year at this point it was 19.9%. The session was topped by Sheikh's Serenade (Unbridled's Song), an 8-year-old daughter of GI Breeders' Cup Sprint champion Desert Stormer (Storm Cat) who sold to Shimokobe Farm, Heatherway Inc. for $550,000. Warrendale Sales, agent for Live Oak Stud, consigned the gray as Hip 1230. Sheikh's Serenade sold in foal to Hat Trick (Jpn). WinStar's Elliott Walden signed for the day's top-priced weanling, a $290,000 colt by the farm's red-hot Pioneerof the Nile, under the Maverick Racing banner. Shawhan Place, agent for Glendalough, consigned the son of Indian Love Call (Cherokee Run) as Hip 1069. Keeneland Director of Sales Geoffrey Russell said that, from top to bottom, the market looks healthy. "The foal market seemed to be very strong today--it was tough," he said. "That was a complaint, but it's a good complaint. The mares who had deep pedigrees sold very, very well--especially the sale topper. We the market continues to have great strength. Overall, everybody seems to be very happy. Some people are frustrated--hopefully that carries over to Book 3. The consignors tell us they have a nice group of horses for the weekend. Foals by freshman sires seem to be high on the list. We've seen some new faces coming in--that's always good--and we saw some new names on the sheets today. That's even better. Go 'Cats." Book 3 kicks off this morning at 10. The sale continues uninterrupted through Friday, Nov. 14.

EPIC ENCOUNTER

In a year when Criquette Head-Maarek has unplucked some choice juveniles from her Chantilly brigade, Epicuris (GB) (Rail Link {GB}) steps forward to continue the momentum in today's G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud. Unbeaten in two starts, Khalid Abdullah's homebred looked certain to appreciate this extra furlong when easily accounting for the re-opposing Big Blue (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) and Capo Maximo (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) in Longchamp's G3 Prix de Conde over nine furlongs last time Oct. 19. Making all on that occasion, he will be tough to pass if allowed free rein once again here and the owner/breeder's Racing Manager Teddy Grimthorpe has no qualms about his staying power.

"He's a progressive horse, a good, long-striding horse," Grimthorpe told PA Sport. "He's come through and seems to improve with each start. It will be a good test of stamina." Godolphin's Big Blue has the scope to close the gap from the Conde, as he was held up there and it may be that the tactics are more positive this time. Cont. p3

Looking for Love at Keeneland

Dean and Patti Reeves, who campaigned Mucho Macho Man (Macho Uno), are looking for mares to support the GI Breeders' Cup Classic winner, who will be standing his first season at stud next year at Adena Springs. The couple, through agent and Adena Farm Manager Eoin Ryan, found what they were looking for Friday at Keeneland, going to $350,000 to secure Harriet (Hard Spun).

Unusually, the high-profile national hunt trainer Tony Martin has a talent on the flat in J P McManus' Clonard Street (Archipenko), and he takes up the challenge in a contest that the Irish have won twice in the last six years. Off the mark in an extended mile maiden at Galway Aug. 2, he chased home ✪ "TDN Rising Star" ✪ Ol' Man River (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) when second in the G2 Beresford S. over a mile at The Curragh Sept. 28.

"I don't think I've had a runner in a Group 1 race on the flat before," Martin told PA Sport. "I try and run them where I think they're capable of running--whether that's a point-to-point or a selling hurdle, or whatever. I think this horse is entitled to be there, so we'll keep our fingers crossed. He's been over there a couple of days and the boys that are with him are happy that he's traveled well and everything looks good. I think he deserves to take his chance. He ran a good race in The Curragh the last day and we're hoping he'll go on the ground."

Two more overseas challengers are Middleham Park Racing's Crafty Choice (GB) (Intikhab) and the supplemented German raider Palang (Hat Trick {Jpn}). While the latter is shy of experience, having just an Oct. 12 Cologne maiden win to his name, Crafty Choice is having his seventh start and third in the space of a month, but looked to be going forward with a comfortable success over this trip in Newmarket's Zetland Conditions S. last time Oct. 22. "He stays well and loves soft ground, so, while we are stepping up in class, it is worth rolling the dice one more time," trainer Richard Hannon commented. "Win or lose, he'll make a good staying horse for next season."

Out On a High Note...

Friday's Book 2 finale was drawing to a close when representatives of Japan's Shimokobe Farm/ Heatherway Inc. struck out back for Sheikh's Serenade (Unbridled's Song), who fetched a session-topping $550,000.

Hunter Simms

A daughter of the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint heroine Desert Stormer (Storm Cat) and a half to the dam of the recent GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint runner-up Better Lucky (Ghostzapper), Sheikh's Serenade was offered by Warrendale Sales as Hip 1230. The 8-year-old sold in foal to Hat Trick (Jpn).

"She exceeded our expectations--we thought she'd be in the $200,000 to $300,000 range," said Warrendale partner Hunter Simms. "But with Better Lucky running second in the Breeders' Cup, that helped out. And she's a really pretty physical and had a lot of appeal at the barn; she handled herself well. It looks like she's off to Japan, now."

Warrendale sold Sheikh Serenade on behalf of Live Oak Stud, who purchase Desert Stormer for $3.6 million at the 2002 Keeneland January Sale. Sheikh's Serenade marks the fifth six-figure mare, and the most expensive, that Warrendale has sold for Charlotte Weber's operation at November. Earlier, Warrendale sold Private Jet (Smart Strike), a full-sister to Lookin At Lucky, for $340,000; and a pair of mares who made $250,000: the SW & GSP Namaste's Wish (Pulpit); and Speightstown's full-sister Gone Purrfect (Gone West).

"We're selling 20 in all for Live Oak," said Simms, who said it was all just part of some routine culling. "They have a lot of fillies from their families, plus some of the mares they are selling are in foal to their own stallions, and they're just trying to get them out there to other people a little bit."

Simms added, "They offer some of those middle-aged mares and keep the bloodlines going with the younger mares. Last year, we sold Zoftig for them, and she brought $1.1 million at 16."

Simms joined the chorus of those who thought the market's been very strong for mares. "A lot of the mares we've had have exceeded our expectations," he said. "For a mare in foal to Hat Trick--who I think stands for $15,000--to bring $550,000, that's pretty good. And I think it will continue. As people get knocked out of Books 1 and 2, hopefully there will be overflow into the other books."

Reeves Thoroughbreds Spy Something It Likes...

Dean and Patti Reeves, who campaigned Mucho Macho Man (Macho Uno), are looking for mares to support the GI Breeders' Cup Classic winner, who will be standing his first season at stud next year at Adena Springs. The couple, through agent Eoin Ryan, who was recently named new General Manager of Adena Springs, found what they were looking for Friday at Keeneland, going to $350,000 to secure Harriet (Hard Spun). The 5-year-old mare (hip 1054), consigned by James B. Keogh, sold in foal to Uncle Mo.

"She is a standout today--a beautiful physical," Ryan said. "She's in foal to Uncle Mo, whose first yearlings have been very well-received. She's got a great family and, if we get a runner out of her, it's a stallion's pedigree."

Elisabeth Alexander purchased Harriet for $150,000 at the 2011 Keeneland April sale. The bay made only one start, winning her debut at Parx in January 2012.

Out of Call Me Fleet (Afleet), Harriet is a half-sister to Irish stakes winner and British group-placed Warrior Queen (Quiet American), the dam of multiple graded stakes winner A. P. Warrior (A.P. Indy) and of the dam of MGSW Global View (Galileo {Ire}).

"Dean and Patti are very interested in supporting Mucho Macho Man with some good quality mares and she fits the profile," Ryan continued.

Harriet was the second purchase of the sale for the Reeveses. The couple also acquired Belle Chaussee (Giant's Causeway) for $105,000 during Tuesday's first session of the auction.

Asked how many mares he expected to buy at the November sales, Ryan said, "We're trying to buy good quality mares and this market is very tough, so we'll just see what happens."

Keogh, who was kept busy during Friday's session, said he was happy with his results so far.

"We're very, very pleased," Keogh said. "There is a real premium on quality stock and fortunately we've had plenty of it. The middle market is still solid, but we're just entering Book 3 tomorrow, so that will be more determined in the coming days."

Pioneerof the Nile Colt to WinStar…

WinStar Farm's Elliott Walden was an underbidder on one weanling, but he was determined not to miss out a few hips later when a colt by the farm's young stallion Pioneerof the Nile went through the ring. Walden signed the ticket at $290,000 for hip 1069, a bay consigned by Shawhan Place as agent for Glendalough, LLC.

Shawhan Place's Matt Koch

"We're very partial to Pioneerof the Nile," Walden admitted. "I think he is one of the next top stallions, so we've been looking for him and we felt like this was a great colt. He had great balance and overall presence and movement. He is just a really solid Pioneer."

Walden said the price was not unexpected and might look like a bargain in a few years, if the stallion keeps turning out stars like multiple Grade I winner American Pharaoh.

"When we saw the people huddled up out here [in the sales pavilion], we knew it was going to be competitive," Walden said. "I think these Pioneers in the next year or two are going to be bringing a lot of money. I think he is one of those stallions who is on the rise."

In addition to the Pioneerof the Nile weanling, Walden also signed for the mare Grand Mere (Bob and John) during Friday's session.

"I think the market is very strong," Walden said. "We were underbidders on the Gemologist colt (hip 1066) who just sold for $185,000. It's a competitive market."

Shawhan Place's Matt Koch was also happy with the transaction.

"We knew he was special at the farm," Koch said of the weanling. "We got him here and, from the very first show on, he walked like a champ. Even up here he never turned a hair. He was just perfect the whole way through. He was awesome."

Shawhan Place was selling the weanling on behalf of his breeder, Pat Waresk's Paris-based Glendalough.

"He's relatively new to the business," Koch said of Waresk. "He was in the Marines, he is a retired lieutenant colonel and he was involved with field trial dogs--he won the national championship with field trial dogs."

The Pioneerof the Nile weanling is out of Indian Love Call (Cherokee Run), who Waresk acquired privately after she RNA'd for $14,000 at the 2011 Keeneland January sale.

"He contacted me and got in the business a couple of years ago," Koch said. "This is actually the very first mare I'd bought for him. We bought her off of Dixiana a couple of years ago. Marette Farrell has been helping him pick out mares and getting him some nice stock. And his brothers have gotten into it now. It's new clients getting into the business and that's what we all need."

WITH PATRIARCH IN MIND, DELL RIDGE ROLLS ON

When Frank Justice died in February of 2012 at the age of 79, the farm he founded with his wife Mattie, Dell Ridge Farm, was, to outsiders at least, seemingly at a crossroads. But for Mattie Justice and the couple's children--sons Frank II and Jason and daughters Bridget and Karla Corbin--there was no question that they'd keep the commercial running as usual.

"For Mr. Justice, and for his memory," explained Dell Ridge manager Des Ryan. Cont. p10

The Justices: Bridget, Jason, Mattie, Frank, Frank II & Karla

The results at this week's Keeneland November Sale are both evidence of, and a testament to, the enduring foundation that Frank Justice laid at Dell Ridge, and are a strong indication that Dell Ridge will indeed be a major player in the business for years to come.

On Tuesday, the Tapit--Serena's Cat filly that Dell Ridge bred in partnership with Hill 'n' Dale Farm sold for a North American record $3 million. Bridlewood Farm purchased the great-granddaugher of Serena's Song (Rahy).

Des Ryan

On the same day, another Dell Ridge/Hill 'n' Dale horse, a Medaglia d'Oro full-sister to GISW Violence, became November's co-second-highest weanling at $850,000. Richard O'Gorman signed for that filly.

One of yesterday's highest-priced horses, meanwhile, was the $350,000 broodmare Harriet (Hard Spun), who Dell Ridge bred and sold as a young filly.

"It's a real tip of the hat to Mr. Justice, and Mrs. Justice was just absolutely thrilled with the results," said Ryan. "She was a bit under the weather and wasn't able to attend, but she watched all the action from home, and it brought back some great memories for her."

Frank Justice had deep Kentucky roots, but not in horse racing. Born in Pike County during the Great Depression, he was a prolific and astute businessman. According to the Pikeville Medical Leader, he founded and operated a dizzying array of enterprises: the Justice Shoe Store, Mari Dru Shop, Jerry's Restaurant, Velocity Market, Long John Silvers, Mac Mining, Mac Coal Sales, and Frank Justice Furniture. Justice was also involved in local politics, serving Pikeville as a city commissioner. In 1998, Justice formed Dell Ridge Farm near Lexington. As was his wont, Justice threw his full resources behind it. With Ryan on from the beginning, Dell Ridge built up a small-but-select broodmare band with an aim on breeding commercially.

"We tried to pick up well-bred fillies as foals or yearlings each year, race them, and then bring them back to the broodmare band," said Ryan, a native of Co. Kildare, Ireland, who came to the U.S. in 1990 after completing the Irish National Stud course and working in Australia and France.

One early Dell Ridge acquisition was the record Tapit weanling's dam Serena's Cat (Storm Cat), herself a $1.4 million weanling filly at the 2003 Keeneland November Sale. A fleet-footed turf sprinter, Serena's Cat earned her biggest win in the 2007 Klassy Briefcase S. at Monmouth for trainer Kiaran McLaughlin, but her value would always be in the breeding shed.

Serena's Cat's first foal Noble Tune (Unbridled's Song) won the GII American Turf S. and placed second in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf, and her second, ✪ "TDN Rising Star" ✪ Honor Code (Bernardini), won last year's GII Remsen S. for Dell Ridge and co-owner Lane's End Racing.

"Frank was very proud of Serena's Cat--she was a gem, you know?" said Ryan. "Every time she had a foal he would go down and spend time with them."

Dell Ridge sold an interest in Serena's Cat to Hill 'n' Dale's John Sikura in 2012, but retained full ownership of Serena Cat's foal from that year, the current 2-year-old Lady Serena (Bernardini). That one debuted with Chad Brown at Saratoga in August, running fourth.

"She had a small setback and we brought her to the farm for 60 days, but she's heading back this week to Chad at Palm Meadows," said Ryan.

Dell Ridge's other big star from this week--the $850,000 Medaglia d'Oro--Violent Beauty filly, came from another big investment.

Just a year after its inception, Dell Ridge paid $1.2 million for Storming Beauty (Storm Cat), a daughter of champion Sky Beauty (Blushing Groom {Fr}), at the 1999 Keeneland September Sale. Storming Beauty was a winner on the track and looked to have a bright future as a broodmare, but she produced only four foals before her untimely death. Her first foal, Violent Beauty, has carried on the family legacy, however, producing the 2012 GI CashCall Futurity S. winner Violence.

Like with Serena's Cat, Dell Ridge sold an interest in Violent Beauty to Hill 'n' Dale in 2012. Both of the mares' 2014 weanlings were raised at Dell Ridge. Asked about selling at November, Ryan said, "Johnny Sikura suggested we try the foals in this market, and we all sat down with Frank Jr. and the family, and we decided to go ahead and do it. It was a smart commercial decision. The market's good right now, and you take a lot of risk out of it [by selling as a weanling]." Ryan agreed it could be a developing trend. "I couldn't see why not," he said. "This went to prove that there is still plenty of money there for a weanling."

That isn't to say that Ryan and the Dell Ridge principals aren't already looking forward to next year's yearling sales. Entrants could include the first foal from Dell Ridge homebred Kid Kate (Lemon Drop Kid), a MSW & MGSP runner who had a Medaglia d'Oro colt this spring. A Union Rags half to Kid Kate might also be offered, as might a Bodemeister half-sister to the Dell Ridge-bred Grade I winner Morning Line (Tiznow). Others include a Candy Ride (Arg) filly from SW Giant Mover (Giant's Causeway), who Dell Ridge acquired for $350,000 from the Ned Evans dispersal in 2011.

"The farm's going on the same was as it was," said Ryan. "The family still has tremendous interest in the farm, and they've wanted to stick with quality. Mr. Justice spent years building up his broodmare band, and we're seeing the results of it."

IMPORTS ADD INTRIGUE TO LONG ISLAND

A pair of European imports add to the intrigue in today's oversubscribed GIII Long Island H. at Aqueduct. Favored on the morning line at 3-1 is Michael Dubb, Sheep Pond Partners, Bethlehem Stables LLC and The Elkstone Group's French invader Danza Cavallo (Fr) (Sunday Break {Jpn}). The bay sophomore finished no worse than third in her last six starts for conditioner Joel Boisnard and owner Anne Boisnard, and most recently took a 10-panel stakes race at Vichy July 22. Red-hot conditioner Chad Brown, whose graded success with European fillies is well-documented, saddles Danza Cavallo here off a solid string of Belmont works. Also shipping from Europe is Calumet Farm's Hellenistic (English Channel). The Dermot Weld pupil, a homebred half-sister to GISW Geri (Theatrical {Ire}), broke her maiden two back at Limerick in April, and romped by 6 1/2 lengths in a 1 1/4-mile Leopardstown handicap July 10. Stud TNT's Viva Rafaela (Brz) (Know Heights {Ire}) looks to end an eight-race winless skein, but is a solid wire-to-wire threat here. She was last seen finishing third behind GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf runner-up Stephanie's Kitten (Kitten's Joy) in the GI Flower Bowl Invitational H. in Elmont Sept. 27.

Lukas Juveniles Eye Churchill Targets...

Willis Horton's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies upsetter Take Charge Brandi (Giant's Causeway) is under consideration for a start in Churchill Downs' GII Golden Rod S. Nov. 29, according to her conditioner D. Wayne Lukas. "She came out of the Breeders' Cup great," Lukas said. "She's back here training and I'll say she's possible for the Golden Rod at this point. We've still got a couple weeks to make a decision, but she'll definitely be nominated."

On the ✪ "TDN Rising Star's" ✪ chances for Eclipse honors, the Hall of Famer said, "I think she definitely proved she should be in the conversation from her Breeders' Cup performance. Will it be enough? I'm not sure. If we decide to go to the Golden Rod with her and win, it obviously helps our chances."

Lukas will likely point his other top 2-year-old, Zayat Stables' GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile fifth-place finisher Mr. Z (Malibu Moon), towards the GII Kentucky Jockey Club in Louisville the same day.

"It's the same story with Mr. Z," Lukas said. "He's back here, doing fine and we'll take a good look at the Jockey Club with him at the end of the meet."

FIRST-EVER JOCKEY HEALTH INSURANCE PLAN AT NYRA

The New York Racing Association has reached an agreement with the Jockey's Guild to extend formal health care coverage to New York Thoroughbred jockeys, NYRA announced yesterday. The program has been approved by the New York State Gaming Commission and will begin later this month.

As recommended by the New York Task Force on Jockey Health and Safety, a dedicated funding stream was set aside for the program, which is expected to cover 50-75 current and former jockeys.

Jockeys must have ridden in at least 250 races at Aqueduct, Belmont or Saratoga during the prior year, or 150 races at Finger Lakes. Certain disabled or retired jockeys will also be covered and jockeys meeting these requirements will be eligible for reimbursements for their 2014 health expenses.

In 2015 and beyond, jockeys will purchase and be reimbursed for health insurance purchased on the exchange operated in New York under the new national health care program. New York now joins Delaware, California, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey offering financial assistance toward jockey health insurance.

"The New York Racing Association is proud to assist in facilitating health insurance options for New York jockeys," stated Christopher Kay, Chief Executive Officer and President of the New York Racing Association. "Consistent with Governor Andrew M. Cuomo's goal of expanding health care insurance coverage to more New Yorkers, the New York Racing Association worked with the Governor and legislative leaders to further strengthen the safety net for our jockeys."

"The Jockeys' Guild sincerely appreciates Governor Cuomo, Senate Majority Co-Leaders Skelos and Klein, Assembly Speaker Silver, and Anthony Bonomo, the Chair of the New York Task Force on Jockey Health and Safety, for bringing New York up to the level of other racing jurisdictions," said Terry Meyocks, National Manager of the Guild. "We look forward to continuing our working relationship with the racing industry in New York to assure that our riders have the safest environment possible."

John Velazquez, Chairman of the Guild, reiterated, "The jockeys who regularly ride in New York deeply appreciate the work by Governor Cuomo, legislative leaders, Dean Skelos, Jeff Klein and Shelly Silver, as well as NYRA Board member Anthony Bonomo to create a jockey health plan for qualifying New York riders."

ROOD & RIDDLE WIN GALBREATH AWARD

Veterinarians Dr. Bill Rood and Dr. Tom Riddle have been chosen as the recipients of the John W. Galbreath Award, the University of Louisville Equine Industry Program announced yesterday. The Galbreath Award is given annually to someone who has created and led successful equine business enterprises.

"We recognize people, and their organizations, who have impacted the horse industry in a positive way through the development of a meaningful business enterprise that serves the equine world," said Tim Capps, the director of the Equine Industry Program. "We look for the difference makers, the innovators who saw opportunities and turned those situations into reality, and Bill Rood and Tom Riddle exemplify the entrepreneurial mindset."

Rood & Riddle Equine Hospital is one of the most renowned equine health care facilities in the world. Rood and Riddle started working together in 1982 and founded the hospital four years later.

"In the early '80's, the horse industry in central Kentucky was growing at a rapid rate, with more and more people getting involved in the horse business as a business," said Bill Rood.

Rood continued, “There were a lot of investors in breeding stock who wanted to keep their horses in Kentucky, so all the service providers---farms, vets, farriers---benefitted from this growth. We knew that Hagyard, Davidson, and McGee was a long-established practice group in the area, but felt there was certainly room for another such practice, so we decided to go forward in 1986, despite the signs of a downturn in the industry. It was a risk, but one we thought would pay off."

The property includes surgical centers, a podiatry unit, a reproductive center, a colic intensive care unit, and a similar neo-natal facility, the latest diagnostic equipment and a pharmacy. Last year, Rood and Riddle opened their first “out-of-market” facility in Saratoga Springs, N.Y.

The hospital employs 50 veterinarians and has a staff of over 200, as well as an externship program.

“We're certainly proud of what Rood & Riddle has become," said Tom Riddle. "But, we've even prouder of the good work our vets and staff continue to do in taking care of the animals who have been entrusted to us. Every day is a labor of love."

The Galbreath Award presentation will take place Nov. 20 at the University Club on the University of Louisville campus.

TARRANT ISSUES $100,000 CHALLENGE GRANT FOR THE TRF

By Brittany Raine

Some may consider Amy Tarrant a late bloomer in the Thoroughbred racing industry, but there is no denying her passion for horses is infectious...and successful. At 71, this triple threat--owner/breeder/trainer--isn't close to stopping, especially as she prepares to leave her mark on the sport in a different way, one that keeps the future bright for horses after the lights fade.

Tarrant is making a $100,000 donation to the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation (TRF) in a challenge grant, which encourages matching donations.

A Vermont native, Tarrant was introduced to the TRF by Diana Pikulski 12 years ago in Burlington, Vermont, when Tarrant was considered fairly new to the sport.

"I read about Amy's support of the horse program at the University of Vermont" said Pikulski. "I wrote to her and then met with her to explain the mission of TRF."

Amy Tarrant
Equi-Photo

The rest is history.

Since Tarrant began her involvement with the foundation in 2002, she has made numerous donations and given retired racehorses that have gone on to impressive show careers. She has given some support directed to the TRF Second Chances Program, which enables inmates at participating correctional facilities to learn unique skills, take on responsibilities and build relationships with horses through a vocational training program.

"[Second Chances] is a win-win situation," said Tarrant. "The retired racehorses act as therapy and help to build a bond for these inmates where they least expect it."

Pikulski who has been involved with the TRF from its inception, regularly witnesses amazing moments in the Second Chances program, and recognizes how the good will come full circle through retired Thoroughbreds and donations, like those from Tarrant.

"I visited with one inmate who built this indescribable bond with Frightful, a big grey Thoroughbred," said Pikulski after recently visiting Blackburn Correctional Complex in Lexington, KY, which participates in Second Chances. "He had never had pets in his life and he couldn't believe that an animal could love him the way this horse does. The horse and the inmate were inseparable."

Tarrant's grant will go towards all aspects of TRF's horse care expenses for the over 900 Thoroughbreds that are currently under the watchful eye of the foundation. The number of horses associated with TRF continues to grow as Thoroughbred retirement becomes, and remains, a priority for many tracks and owners.

"Thoroughbred retirement is something everyone should know about," said Tarrant. "I am more than happy to give to TRF. Thoroughbreds are amazing athletes and they deserve a nice life after they are finished competing."

Growing up in the Green Mountain State, Tarrant's love for equines was instilled in her recreationally at a young age, but took a backseat until her fifth child went off to college.

"After my last kid went to college, I sat down and made a list," said Tarrant. "Horses were at the top of that list."

In the pursuit of her passion, Tarrant bought show horses, but remained fascinated by Thoroughbred racing and decided to dive into the sport head first. That was 14 years ago and since then, Tarrant has bought and bred champions and sent a horse to the Breeders' Cup.

"Sending Pomeroys Pistol (Pomeroy) to the Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint in 2011 is the highlight of my career thus far," said Tarrant. "But I want to accomplish more. One day I hope to win the Breeders' Cup."

Tarrant sold Pomeroys Pistol's first foal, by Smart Strike, at this year's Keeneland September sale for $325,000. (To read the TDN's story about Tarrant published just before the sale, click here).

Tarrant also campaigned the multiple graded stakes winner Kiss the Kid (Lemon Drop Kid), who raced until he was seven and is currently standing at Journeyman Stud.

Residing at Hardacre Farm in Ocala, FL, Tarrant has not slowed down a bit since she decided to commit her life to racing in 2000, splitting her time between the farm, Saratoga Race Course in New York and Gulfstream Park in Florida. But no matter where she is, the love and passion Tarrant has for horses is compelling.

"My favorite part of racing is conditioning horses," said Tarrant. "Seeing and recognizing the potential in your horses when you break and train them is fun. Talent is exciting."

The excitement Tarrant feels is evident in her knowledge, success and her compassion towards TRF and their work.

"Amy is a unique person because she is so knowledgeable about Thoroughbreds and horses in general," said Pikulski.

"She is also a very active philanthropist in so many important causes. I am incredibly proud that someone as worldly as she is involved with TRF. Amy sees the big picture."

And through her donation and commitment to horses, Tarrant is helping to create a bigger--and brighter--picture for TRF and Thoroughbred retirement everywhere.

Under the challenge guidelines, Tarrant will match any gift given to the TRF between now and Dec. 31 up to $100,000. To donate, contact the TRF at P.O. Box 834, Saratoga Springs, NY 12866, 518-226-0028, online at www.trfinc.org, or on Twitter at @TRFinc.

MR. SIDNEY TO WALMAC

Grade I winner Mr. Sidney (Storm Cat--Tomisue's Delight, A.P. Indy) will move to Walmac Farm for the 2015 breeding season. John T.L. Jones III, managing director of Walmac, confirmed Mr. Sidney will stand for $6,500 live foal in 2015. Mr. Sidney, whose first crop are currently 3-year-olds, stood his initial seasons at stud at Alec Head's Haras du Quesnay in France. Head advised Einsidler to send the horse to Walmac, having previously joined forced with Walmac to achieve success with leading stallions Nureyev, Miswaki, Bering and Arctic Tern.

"French breeders, unfamiliar with American races just did not give the beautiful son of Storm Cat the support he deserves," Head commented. "We plan to send over a handful of his runners to the U.S. and we will be supporting him at Walmac with mares in 2015 as well."

Bred in Kentucky by Hilbert Thoroughbreds, Mr. Sidney was purchased for $3.9 million by John Kimmel as agent for Lee Einsidler's Circle E Racing at the 2005 Keeneland September Sale. Under the tutelage of trainer Bill Mott, the bay won five of 13 career starts, including Keeneland's GI Maker's Mark Mile and the GII Firecracker S. at Churchill Downs before retiring to stud with $486,875 in earnings.

Upon his retirement, trainer Bill Mott said, "It was hard to find fault with Mr. Sidney. "He is one of the most attractive Storm Cats I've ever seen. Not only was he a Grade I winner, but he was a horse with almost perfect conformation. It's very difficult to pick this horse apart. He never had any breathing issues. He had perfect wind-very good air. He was very, very sound."

Mr. Sidney is out of dual Grade I-winning Tomisue's Delight, a full-sister to Mineshaft, and out of Grade I-winning Prospector's Delite.

SASSICAIA (c, 3, Bernardini--Hishi Aspen, by Forestry) hit the board in a pair of attempts at Gulfstream this winter, then was fourth as a maiden at odds of 3-1 in Pimlico's Federico Tesio S. Apr. 19. He was last seen finishing second as the 1-10 chalk at Parx May 25. Favored at 4-5 to break through in this off the turfer, the main track only entrant sat a stalking trip on the outside in third, challenged for command at the top of the stretch, drew clear shortly thereafter and had a half-length on Rare Eagle (Birdstone) at the wire. Grade II Winner Santiva to Questroyal North:

Grade II winner Santiva (Giant's Causeway--Slide, Smarten) has been relocated to Questroyal North in Stillwater, New York. Santiva, who previously stood at War Horse Place near Lexington, Kentucky, will stand the 2015 season for $2,500 live foal. His first foals will be yearlings of 2015.

"We are thrilled to welcome Santiva, who will be a most valuable addition to the Questroyal stallion roster," said Barry Ostrager. "New York breeders will now have the opportunity to breed to one of Giant's Causeway's most precocious sons."

Second as a maiden in the GI Dixiana Breeders' Futurity at Keeneland as a 2-year-old, Santiva broke his maiden in his next start in the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. at Churchill Downs. In his sophomore debut, he finished runner-up behind subsequent GI Breeders' Cup Classic winner and Horse of the Year Mucho Macho Man in the GII Risen Star S. at Fair Grounds. Santiva rallied from 11th place in a field of 19 to miss fifth by a nose in the Kentucky Derby. He was retired after 10 starts with earnings of $266,097.

Santiva's dam, Slide is out of Safely Home (Winning Hit), making her a half-sister to champion sprinter Safely Kept (Horatius) and earner of $2.1 million; and graded stakes-winner Partner's Hero (Danzig).

Runner-up to GSP Enchanting Lisa (War Chant)--a half-sister to two-time Horse of the Year Wise Dan (Wiseman's Ferry)--going this distance at Keeneland Oct. 8, the bay drew all the money at the windows and was 3-5 in this reappearance. The sophomore broke to the right, but recovered to track the leaders in fourth early one off the rail. Let loose after a half-mile, she found an opening at the rail at the head of the lane and clawed her way to the front in late stretch to win by a half-length over second choice Printasticat (Fantasticat). Silver Freak, third as the 4-5 favorite in a seven-panel grassy Woodbine optional claimer May 28, took an optional claimer going this distance over the Saratoga sod Aug. 6. The 5-year-old ran 10th behind Trade Storm (GB) (Trade Fair {GB}) in the GI Woodbine Mile--his only off-the-board finish to date--and regained the mantle of favoritism Friday. The chestnut rolled to the front and secured a hedge run through a mild first quarter before being pressed by a rival at the midway point turning for home. His lead shrank to a head around the bend, but Silver Freak cut the corner and skipped clear down the stretch to return to his winning ways. Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

Record Number of Stall Applications at Oaklawn:

Due to a record $23 million in purses, Oaklawn has received a record number of 2,800 stall applications for its 2015 season. This is nearly double the number of horses the barn area can hold.

"We can house about 1,500 horses," Racing Secretary Pat Pope said. "Of course we're pleased with the number of applications, but what really stands out is the quality of them."

The barn area will open Monday, Nov. 10 and the track will open for training the following Monday, Nov. 17. The 2015 season runs from Jan. 9 to Apr. 11.

on today's European racing scene

12.40 Doncaster, Mdn, £8,000, 2yo, 6fT
THAHAB (IRE) (Dubawi {Ire}), who at €1 million was the highest-priced colt sold at last year's Arqana Deauville August Yearling Sale, bids to build on an encouraging debut third over seven furlongs here 15 days ago. Al Shaqab Racing's half-brother to the 2008 G1 Falmouth S. winner Nahoodh (Ire) (Clodovil {Ire}) represents the Richard Hannon stable and meets Jeff Smith's Green Tornado (Ire) (Equiano {Fr}), a Ralph Beckett-trained grandson of the stellar sprinter Lochsong (GB) (Song {GB}) who was fourth on debut at Newbury on the same day that Thahab made his racecourse bow.

1.0 Saint-Cloud, Debutantes, €25,000, 2yo, c/g, 8fT
ZALZALI (FR) (Dalakhani {Ire}) is the latest progeny out of His Highness The Aga Khan's 1998 G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches heroine Zalaiyka (Fr) (Royal Academy) to start out for Alain de Royer-Dupre. Among his rivals is Khalid Abdullah's Pilansberg (GB) (Rail Link {GB}), a David Smaga-trained close relative of the 2011 G1 Prix Jean Prat winner Mutual Trust (GB) (Cacique {Ire}).

1.0 Saint-Cloud, Debutantes, €25,000, 2yo, f, 8fT
BEHNASA (FR) (Dansili {GB}) is another high-profile newcomer for His Highness The Aga Khan and Alain de Royer-Dupre, being out of the group 2 winner and group 1-placed Behkara (Ire) (Kris {GB}) already responsible for the high-class Behkabad (Fr) (Cape Cross {Ire}). Lining up against her is Ballymore Thoroughbred's La Reveuse (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), an Andre Fabre trainee from the distinguished Wildenstein dynasty of Loup Sauvage (Riverman) and Loup Breton (Ire) (Anabaa).
