FASIG NOVEMBER HOLDS STEADY

After the dust had settled following a blitzkrieg of selling at the 2014 renewal of the Fasig-Tipton November sale Monday in Lexington, a total of 108 horses had sold for a gross of $63,678,000, with 23 lots exceeding the $1-million mark.

"Overall, it was a very solid and strong November Sale tonight," Fasig-Tipton President Boyd Browning, Jr. said at the close of business Monday night. "It was a very, very diverse group of buyers, very widespread both at the top-end and upper-end of the marketplace."

The 2014 sales average of $589,611 was up 3% from a year ago, while the median fell 20% to $200,000. There were 24 seven-figure lots in 2013.

"It was a very similar marketplace to what we saw last year, and I think it was everybody's expectations coming into this sale that we would see a similar marketplace to last year. You've got to be gratified, we sold 23 horses for over $1 million, 12 brought $2 million or more. So we had a wonderful catalogue of horses, great support from our consignors and owners who entrusted some of the most valuable horses in the world with us for this sale, and, all in all, we're very pleased with the results." Cont. p3

KEENELAND NOVEMBER PICKS UP BATON

After a rock-and-rolling night across town, the 71st annual Keeneland November Sale picks up the breeding-stock baton this morning in Lexington with the first of 11 uninterrupted sessions. Tuesday and Wednesday's Book 1 sessions begin at 11 a.m. Sessions for the remainder of the sale begin at 10 a.m.

A total of 4,027 horses have been cataloged at Keeneland November. There are 2,083 broodmares and broodmare prospects, 1,589 weanlings, 350 horses of racing age and five stallions.

Keeneland photo

"The action's been good," Keeneland Director of Sales Geoffrey Russell said yesterday on a sunny, seasonal fall day in Kentucky. "It was a little busy on Saturday, then very busy Sunday and again today. The weather's been perfect to look at horses, and we're off and running, I hope."

Stability has been the keyword for prognosticators as the industry shifts focus from yearlings to breeding stock this week, and if things remain static from last year's outstanding renewal of November, many participants would be content. Cont. p18

Three broodmares sold for $3 million or over, led by sales-topper Princess of Sylmar (Majestic Warrior). Last year's GI Kentucky Oaks winner will head to Japan after being bought by Shadai Farm for $3.1 million.

The 12 horses who brought $2 million or more--up from seven a year ago--were purchased by 10 different entities.

With 44 horses reported not sold, the sale's buy-back rate was 29%. There were several high-priced buy-backs, including 2012 GI Kentucky Oaks winner Believe You Can (Proud Citizen), who RNA'd for $4.9 million.

Of the high-profile RNAs, Browning said, "I think there were some emotional connections with those horses, and there were options available. Some of the sellers weren't in any kind of distress or need to sell--they have options. I would think you'll certainly see a couple of the high-priced buybacks compete in Grade I company in 2015. If you're the seller, you have the ability to set your price and say, 'These are my expectations.' And if they don't get met, they have a viable plan B. A couple of the RNAs, I can promise you, we'll be recruiting for the 2015 November sale, and hopefully we can convert them into cash at that point in time."

TAPIT TO STAND FOR $300K IN 2015

Just prior to the start of yesterday's session at Fasig-Tipton, Terence Collier announced to the crowd that Gainesway's Tapit (Pulpit) would stand the 2015 breeding season at a fee of $300,000. The sire of GI Breeders' Cup Distaff and GI Kentucky Oaks victress Untapable, GI Belmont S. hero Tonalist and MGSW & GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile runner-up Tapiture, Tapit has established a new record for progeny earnings in 2014 at $15,246,849, with fully two months of racing remaining. He was represented by 22 yearlings that made $500,000 or more--including four seven-figure offerings--at this year's Keeneland September sale, where his 36 youngsters reported as sold averaged $603,472. He was the overall leading North American-based sire of yearlings with an average of $628,289. "The amount of interest we have had in Tapit has been extraordinary," commented Gainesway's Antony Beck. "People who have bred to him over the years have asked for additional seasons, more than usual. But we're also in a situation where, at his age, we want to limit his book to 135 mares, so we found a price that we thought would be fair for breeders having a smaller total book. He's had an incredible year. I think he is the greatest stallion in North America by far and I think the fee is justified by the performance of his progeny on the track and in the sales ring."

Oaks Winner to Shadai...

Tetsuya Yoshida from Shadai Farm, bidding out back alongside bloodstock agent Patrick Barbe and on the phone with his father Teruya Yoshida, jumped in on the final bid to secure last year's GI Kentucky Oaks winner Princess of Sylmar (Majestic Warrior) for $3.1 million.

Approached by the press after signing the ticket, Yoshida quickly turned things over to Barbe. "What do you want me to say?" Barbe asked Yoshida. "She's a very nice mare," Yoshida laughed as he walked away. Barbe followed Yoshida's prompt and said, "Of course, she is a very nice mare." Barbe added, "He had only one bid, so it must have been the expected price."

Princess of Sylmar and Ed Stanco Horsephotos

Princess of Sylmar (hip 125) was consigned by Taylor Made on behalf of her breeder Ed Stanco, who missed out on the fireworks his filly caused in the Fasig-Tipton sales ring. "He couldn't bear to be here," Taylor Made's Mark Taylor said. "I told him it was going to be fun, but he said, 'No, it's not going to be fun. I'm staying home.' He's a great guy, he's great for the sport and it was a great story all around. And he goes to Japan a lot, maybe they'll give him visitation rights."

Princess of Sylmar won four straight Grade I races last summer, beginning with the Kentucky Oaks and followed by the GI Coaching Club American Oaks, GI Alabama S. and GI Beldame S. She missed out on a 3-year-old filly championship after running sixth behind Beholder (Henny Hughes) in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Distaff.

The 4-year-old, who sold as a broodmare prospect, was the complete package, according to Taylor.

"She was one of those rare fillies," Taylor said. "First of all, conformationally, she was just a specimen, she was very, very beautiful. And more than anything she had the intangible qualities, class and grace and an intelligence about her that anybody could see if they were around her."

Taylor continued, "Then on the racetrack, she won four Grade Is and she won a string of Grade Is that no other horse had ever won before--the Kentucky Oaks, Coaching Club American Oaks, Beldame and Albama. There was no other horse in history to win those--there have been a lot who have tried, but couldn't do it. She beat Beholder, she beat Close Hatches, she beat Royal Delta. She was a rare, rare commodity on the racetrack and she was beautiful and she deserved that kind of price."

After winning her 4-year-old debut in the Cat Cay S. in April, Princess of Sylmar was second in the GI Ogden Phipps S. and GI Delaware H. before ending her career with a fifth-place effort in the Aug. 22 GI Personal Ensign S.

Her 2014 campaign may have affected her price, according to Taylor. Cont. p5

"I thought she would bring $3 million all day long," Taylor said. "I was hoping she might bring $4 or $5 million. Maybe if she had been able to hold her form and ended this year like she ran as a 3-year-old, she could have brought a lot more, but that was a fair price. It's a lot of money and we are all grateful to the Yoshidas and wish them the best of luck."

Princess of Sylmar's dam Storm Dixie (Catienus), in foal to Tapit, sold a short time later for $1.9 million to Olin Gentry, agent.

A Late Addition, Tapit Colt Tops Weanlings...

A month ago, Bonnie Baskin's Blue Heaven Farm made the decision to enter a weanling Tapit colt into the Fasig-Tipton November Sale as part of the supplemental catalogue.

"It was after the [sales] deadline, but Fasig is really accommodating and they made it really easy to get the process rolling," said Baskin's son Adam Corndorf, who helps manage Blue Heaven. "It was smooth sailing from then until now."

Bridlewood's George Isaacs Serena Hult

It sure was. Last night, the colt, from the SW & GSP Maple Forest (Forestry), touched off some late-session fireworks to become Fasig November's highest-priced weanling at $500,000. Bridlewood and Three Chimneys partnered to purchase the Feb. 27-foaled gray, who sold from the consignment of Taylor Made Sales Agency as Hip 194.

"He was a nice colt who's been nice since he was born," continued Corndorf. "We rarely if ever sell weanlings, but he was doing so well the last couple of months and the market's been strong, so we decided to take a shot. He handled the process really well and acted like a professional, and we feel very fortunate to have done so well."

Corndorf added there was a sentimental component to the sale. "It's the first foal from our first homebred stakes winner," he explained. "He was a third-generation horse for us, and that's kind of the long-term goal of our operation, to be the kind of farm that builds pedigrees and builds families. It's exciting."

Blue Heaven purchased the colt's second dam, SW & GSP Maple Syrple (American Chance), for $320,000 at the 2006 Keeneland November Sale.

The colt's dam, Maple Forest, is currently back in foal to Malibu Moon.

Corndorf said he was happy the colt went to Bridlewood and Three Chimneys. "It's such an important part of it all--to have the right people buy your horse and put them in the right hands," he said.

He also gave props to the staff at Blue Heaven. "All of our employees do a great job, and they deserve a lot of credit for this," he said. "That includes our new farm manager Jamie Corbett. He's already done wonderful things at the farm, and we're ecited for him to lead us into the future." -LM FTKNOV cont. P7

Kitten to Race Again...

Ken and Sarah Ramsey's Stephanie's Kitten (Kitten's Joy), a late-closing second behind wire-to-wire winner Dayatthespa (City Zip) in Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf, was one of several high-priced RNA's during Monday night's sale. The 5-year-old mare (hip 141) will return to the races under the Ramseys' colors next year after RNA'ing for $3.95 million.

"We're going to race her and probably sell her next year after she wins the Eclipse Award," Ken Ramsey confirmed.

Stephanie's Kitten
Coady photography

Still smarting over Stephanie's Kitten's futile attempt to catch the freewheeling Dayatthespa, Ramsey added, "I can tell you one thing about her for sure, she will never race again without a rabbit. I will not let one gallop around to the head of the stretch and sprint home again without somebody softening them up a bit. So that's the plan for next year."

Of the mare's reserve, Ramsey said. "We would have taken $4 million for her. That was the cutoff. We said we'd be happy if we sold her for $4 million and if she doesn't sell for $4 million, we're still happy.There are no tears in my eyes, no regrets. I'm just bitterly disappointed that we didn't win the big race Saturday." Cont. p8

Directly following Stephanie's Kitten into the ring was Mike Repole's Stopchargingmaria (Tale of the Cat) (hip 142). Winner of this year's GI Alabama S. and GI TVG Coaching Club American Oaks, the sophomore filly will return to trainer Todd Pletcher after RNA'ing for $3.15 million Monday.

"She just didn't bring what we wanted her to and we're happy to bring her back to the stable," Pletcher commented.

The night's most expensive RNA price came for 2012 GI Kentucky Oaks winner Believe You Can (Proud Citizen) (hip 170). Consigned by Brereton Jones's Airdie Stud and in foal to Tapit, the mare RNA'd for $4.9 million.

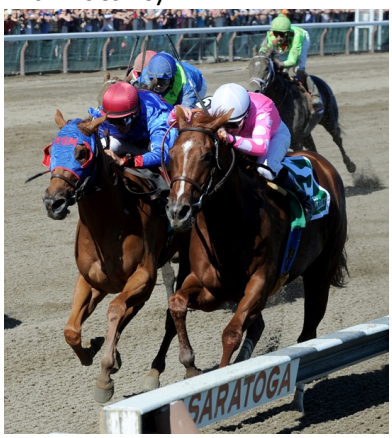
Sweet Score for Summer Wind Farm...

Laura Jane Lyon arrived at Fasig-Tipton looking to add "one or two good mares" to her Summer Wind Farm broodmare band, and she left with that goal firmly achieved after signing for GI Test S. winner Sweet Lulu (Mr. Greeley) (hip 148), in foal to War Front, for $3 million.

Tabbed a ✪ "TDN Rising Star" ✪ after breaking her maiden by 3 1/4 lengths at first asking last May for owner Steve Beneto and trainer Jerry Hollendorfer, Sweet Lulu went unbeaten through her first four outings, capped by the Test S. three months after her debut. She also finished second in last year's GI Cotillion S. and GI La Brea S. She was sold carrying her first foal last night.

Sweet Lulu's 2-year-old half-brother Iron Fist (Tapit) was a $1.55 million Keeneland September buy for Regis Farms and Stonestreet Stables last year, and he was placed in this year's GI Del Mar Futurity.



Sweet Lulu (right)
Adam Coglianese

"I think today we've been extremely successful," Lyon said. "The first mare we bought, being the dam of American Pharoah, was just a bonus, and this mare-- being a Grade I winner in foal to War Front, plus being so beautiful--she was actually my pick of both sales, so I'm so excited to have gotten her."

Lyon said she had to dig a bit deeper into her pocket than she expected to secure her duo.

"They both went higher than I had hoped, but apparently the market is the market," she said. When asked if she had any more shopping to do, she said with a laugh, "I believe I'm through. For the night for sure, and probably for the rest of the year, but we'll see." --Kelsey Riley

A Princess for Summer Wind...

About 40 hips before Sweet Lulu (Mr. Greeley) sold, Laura Jane Lyon's shopping spree was well under way.

"I have to go break this to my husband," laughed Summer Wind Farm's Laura Jane Lyon after signing the ticket at $2.1 million for Littleprincessemma (Yankee Gentleman). The 6-year-old mare is the dam of standout juvenile American Pharoah (Pioneerof the Nile) and sold Monday carrying a full-sibling to the two-time Grade I winner. Asked what she liked about the mare, Lyon said, "Well, obviously, American Pharoah. We're in the buiness to have broodmares who can produce horses like American Pharoah and hopefully she can do it again." "It didn't hurt," Lyon admitted of the fact that the mare is back in foal to Pioneerof the Nile. "But I suspect a mare of that caliber could produce from any number of stallions that are out there" Lyon added, "The price was a little more than I'd hoped. More than likely, my husband is going to be shocked by this. If we call an ambulance here in about 15 minutes, you'll know who it's for." Consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, Littleprincessemma is a half-sister to graded stakes winners Storm Wolf (Stormin Fever) and Misty Rosette (Stormin Fever). The mare was purchased by Zayat Stables, which campaigns American Pharoah, for $250,000 at the 2007 Keeneland September sale. She produced a filly by WinStar's Pioneerof the Nile for Zayat Stables this past spring.

Not Just Another Princess...

Princess of Sylmar wasn't the only filly to receive a royal reception at Fasig last night. Wine Princess (Ghostzapper) (hip 161), a graded stakes-winning and Grade I-placed daughter of Horse of the Year Azeri, turned heads when hammered down to DATTT Farm for $3 million. The 5-year-old was yet another expensive purchase in foal to War Front, and she is carrying her first foal.

Denali Stud's Craig Bandoroff signed the ticket alongside his DATTT Farm client, who he declined to name.

"He wanted her," Bandoroff said. "War Front's a magic thing, she's a beautiful mare, and she was one of the best physicals here, in our opinion. He's bought expensive mares before, but he'd decided to up his game and play at a high level."

Bandoroff noted that no decisions had been made as to whether the resulting War Front foal would be retained to race or sold.

"Hopefully we'll get a good foal out of her and figure out who we're going to breed her to and take it from there," he noted. "He may race the foal, we may sell it--there's no set plan, it's pretty fluid. When a guy bids $3 million he can be pretty fluid."

Bandoroff noted DATTT Farm has a dozen mares, all of which reside at Denali. Denali sold a War Front colt bred by DATTT for $1.3 million to M.V. Magnier at Keeneland September.

"We've been managing the program," Bandoroff said. "He's probably got 12 mares. In the past it had been breed to sell, and now it could be either. We've sold some yearlings for him very well, and they were all out of the highest caliber mares he's bought."

Last night was not the first time Wine Princess has been a hot commodity in a sales ring. The daughter of two Horses of the Year was a $475,000 Keeneland September yearling purchase by Jimmy and Becky Winemiller, who raced her to victories in the GIII Monmouth Oaks and GII Falls City H., and a third in last year's GI Spinster S. Azeri was herself expatriated to Japan after realizing $2.25 million at Keeneland November in 2009, and she has produced a trio of seven-figure yearlings in that country, the most recent being a Deep Impact (Jpn) weanling colt that realized $2.5 million at the JRHA Sale in July. -Kelsey Riley

Don Alberto Pounces for Sarah Lynx...

Sarah Lynx (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) threw herself into elite company when besting males by four lengths in the GI Canadian International S. in 2011, and the now 7-year-old mare returned to the limelight last night when selling to Don Alberto Corp for $2.6 million in foal to the recently deceased Street Cry (Ire). Sarah Lynx (hip 136), who produced her first foal, a filly by Shamardal, last year, also won the G2 Prix Pomone in France in 2011, and bankrolled a shade over $1 million. She is half to this season's G3 Classic Trial winner Sugar Boy (Ire) (Authorized {Ire}).

Don Alberto's Fernando Diaz-Valdes noted Sarah Lynx would join the broodmare band at Don Alberto Farm in Kentucky.

"We'll leave her here," he said. "She has such a wonderful race record--she beat the colts in Canada and is a group winner in France--and she has such a wonderful pedigree, and is in foal to a great stallion."

Diaz-Valdes said no future mates had been decided upon for Sarah Lynx.

"At this stage we don't have a clue what we're going to do, but you have to go to the right stallion, that's for sure," he noted. The agent also noted the strength of the market on the night.

"It's been impressive," he said. "A lot of fillies not even in foal are going for a million or two. The market is great." -Kelsey Riley

Hill 'n' Dale Quality Rewarded...

John Sikura's Hill 'n' Dale Farm sold a pair of broodmares for seven figures during Monday's Fasig-Tipton November sale.

"This sale is all about quality and we brought a couple of beauties over and we were rewarded," Sikura said.

First to hit the million-dollar mark for Hill 'n' Dale was last year's champion juvenile filly She's a Tiger (Tale of the Cat). The 3-year-old, who sold as a broodmare prospect, will head to Japan after bringing a final bid of $2.5 million from Katsumi Yoshida.

She's a Tiger (top) Horsephotos

"She's a Tiger is a big, athletic filly who has done really great since she came to the farm," Sikura said. "She put on a couple hundred pounds and she was just precision."

A ✪ "TDN Rising Star" ✪, She's a Tiger won last year's GI Del Mar Debutante S. She finished first in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, but was disqualified for interference and placed second behind Ria Antonia (Rockport Harbor).

Asked if he was concerned by all the top-class pedigrees being exported to Japan, Sikura said, "It's a matter of the market. Until or unless we can get racing and some things better economically, a lot of these mares are going to go to Japan because they have the healthiest racing economy and sales economy. You deal with that as best you can."

Sikura said it was a balancing act deciding which mares to send through the sales ring.

"We keep some, we sell some," he explained. "I try to be careful not to bring something over that I absolutely don't want to sell. Because in these circumstances, if you bring these kind over here, they are very game to get them bought and they have the ability to top sales. I try to keep some at home and balance both sides of it."

Hill 'n' Dale also consigned graded stakes winner Wine Princess (Ghostzapper), a daughter of Horse of the Year Azeri (Jade Hunter), who brought a final bid of $3 million from DATTT Farm.

"It was a unique opportunity to get Azeri's pedigree," Sikura said. "And she was well-covered in War Front. She is a racemare from a great family and she sold very well."

Sikura said the mares' price tags accurately reflected their values.

"That was full value--I thought they would make at least that," he said. "That's not to downplay the money--it's a lot of money to bid on a horse, but you're talking about a champion and a daughter of a Horse of the Year and an elite performer. That's the kind of value they bring. When we bring those kinds, we hope that we're rewarded and the person who buys them is rewarded long-term."

Discreet Marq Back to Clement...

Discreet Marq (Discreet Cat) (hip 185) was second behind Dayatthespa (City Zip) in the Yaddo S. at Saratoga in August, but the 4-year-old filly was able to upstage the GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf winner in the sales ring Monday. Selling just one hip after Dayatthespa, last year's GI Del Mar Oaks winner sold for $2.4 million to Moyglare Stud's Fiona Craig.

"She's a classy mare with a great outcross and a proven performance record," Craig said. "And she's a great looker."

Christophe Clement, who trained Discreet Marq, consigned the mare on behalf of breeders Frank and Patricia Generazio. The gray will be returning to the Clement barn.

"She'll go back to Christophe Clement," Craig said. "She's only a 4-year-old, so she's got a whole other year and then eventually she'll go to Ireland and we'll breed her and send her to the best and hopefully she'll produce something that looks like she does."

While Craig wouldn't go so far as to call Discreet Marq's price a bargain, she did say, "When you convert it to sterling, that price is good. I promise you, when you walk into Tattersalls at the December sales and try to buy a Group 1 winner, they won't be coming at that price. It's not a bargain, but she's a lovely mare and there is a lot to like about her."

While there is plenty of talk that European agents may be reluctant to buy American bloodstock which have competed with raceday medication, Craig was happy to buy American. In addition to Discreet Marq, Craig signed the ticket on a Medaglia d'Oro filly for $1.5 million at last month's Keeneland September sale.

Asked if there was any hesitancy to buy American bloodstock, Craig said, "No. Moyglare was founded on American bloodstock. And, as you may have noticed, this year it's coming back in spades to us--even if they don't all belong to us."

As an example, Craig pointed to GI Santa Anita Sprint Championship S. winner Rich Tapestry (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}), who was bred by Moyglare and who traces back four Moyglare generations to Grenzen (Grenfall). California runner Grenzen was purchased by Moyglare in 1977.

"It was in the TDN the other day," Craig said. "Rich Tapestry won a Group 1 a month ago--fourth generation from Grenzen. [Moyglare founder] Mr. [Walter] Haefner would have loved that."

Clement, meanwhile, was already picking out a next start for Discreet Marq, who is coming off a three-length win in the Oct. 18 Ticonderoga S. Cont. p13

"I'm delighted to have her back," Clement said. "I love the horse. I'm very happy for Mr. and Mrs. Generazio, because I think it was a very good sale. And I'm delighted for Moyglare, which has been a very loyal customer over the years and I think she has all the making of a top-class mare. I definitely think she can race another year. We'll train her for the [Nov. 30 GI] Matriarch [at Del Mar] next time, in three weeks, and we'll go from there."

Another 'Cloche' Call For Don Alberto...

Don Alberto Corp. continued to add to its North American holdings last night at Fasig. The Chilean-owned operation, which recently established roots in the Bluegrass after purchasing the old Vinery farm, landed one of the evening's choicest lots, the 7-year-old La Cloche (Ghostzapper), for $2.4 million. Darby Dan consigned La Cloche, who sold in foal to Tapit.

"She was one of the mares we wanted to buy," said Don Alberto matriarch Liliana Solari, who sat alongside son Carlos Heller and advisor Fernando Diaz-Valdes. "I'm very happy. She is a very good mare. She has a very good pedigree, and she's in foal to Tapit. We said, 'This mare must be ours!'"

La Cloche was a talented runner for Darby Dan and the Philips family. She won the GIII Athenia S. at Aqueduct in 2012 and banked just shy of $300,000. But her real appeal lay in her pedigree. Her dam was MGISW Memories of Silver (Silver Hawk), and she's a half to three other stakes winners, including MGISW Winter Memories (El Prado {Ire}), the dam of the $400,000 Street Cry (Ire) colt who fetched the second-biggest price of all weanlings yesterday.

La Cloche had a Tapit filly in 2014--her first foal--and is back in foal to the Gainesway sire on an Apr. 12 cover. Asked who the mare might visit next spring, Solari said, "I don't know; we'll have to see. First, we'll see the little one, then we start thinking which stallion." -LM

Taris To Head West...

Supplementary entry Taris (Flatter) (hip 199) ensured the sale closed on a high note when selling to trainer Simon Callaghan for $2.35 million as the second-to-last horse through the ring. The 3-year-old filly has run just five times, but she underscored her talent when running away with the GII Raven Run S. at Keeneland by nine lengths Oct. 18 for Commonwealth New Era Racing and trainer Todd Beattie. Taris is out of the Theatrical (Ire) mare Comedy, and her second dam is GIII Distaff Turf Mile heroine Don't Be Silly (Lord At War {Arg}). She is from the extended family of War Front. She was purchased by her former owners for $90,000 as a Keeneland September yearling.

Taris Coady photography

"She's been bought for an existing client," O'Callaghan said. "We thought she was a standout physically, as well as her race record, so we'll bring her back to California and see how she does. If all goes well, a target could be the [GI] La Brea S."

Bell Rings Twice for Seven-Figure Mares...

Bloodstock agent Reynolds Bell, Jr. was busy last night in Lexington, signing for no fewer than three horses, including a pair of seven-figure ladies led by the $2.15 million My Miss Sophia (Unbridled's Song). My Miss Sophia won this year's GII Gazelle S. and was runner-up to pro-tem champion Untapable (Tapit) in the GI Kentucky Oaks.

My Miss Sophia
Adam Coglianese

"She brought a little more than I thought, but she was special," said Bell, who said he was acting on behalf of an existing client. "The buyer's going to race her next year--I think people realized she was here to race--and I think that always adds a little more to the value."

Trainer Todd Pletcher purchased My Miss Sophia on behalf of Mathis Stable LLC for $260,000 at the 2012 Keeneland September Sale and sent her out to her biggest career victory in the Gazelle, when she beat the likes of Grade I winner Sweet Reason (Street Sense) by 7 1/4 lengths.

"She already has a good resume on the racetrack, and we hope to improve on it," said Bell, who said he was unsure what trainer she'd be sent back to.

Bell said he was representing a different client when he purchased Moyne Abbey (Charismatic), the dam of this year's GI TwinSpires.com Wood Memorial S. winner Wicked Strong (Hard Spun), for $1 million. Ballantrae Sales, agent for William and Anne Lynn, consigned Moyne Abbey as Hip 114. The 12-year-old mare sold in foal to Blame.

Wicked Strong Horsephotos

"Hopefully we'll get a nice foal out of her, and I'll talk to the new buyers on who he wants to breed her back to," said Bell. "She's already had a really nice horse by Hard Spun from the Danzig line, so we'll probably look along those lines again."

Moyne Abbey, a winner at three, is a half to four stakes horses, including the graded winners Gulch Approval (Gulch) and Rusty Slipper (Lemon Drop Kid).

"She's a proven mare, and we think Wicked Strong could have a really big year next year," said Bell, who added with a smile, "At least we hope that's the case."

Bell also purchased the dam of another top 3-year-old last night. He paid $800,000 for Intensify (Unbridled's Song), dam of the GII Risen Star winner Intense Holiday (Harlan's Holiday), who sold carrying a 3/4-brother to that ill-fated colt by juvenile champion Shanghai Bobby (Harlan's Holiday). Intensify was sold as Hip 91 by Select Sales, whose principals--Carrie and Craig Brogden and Carrie's mother Sandy Wilwerth--purchased Intensify for just $30,000 at the 2009 Keeneland November Sale. -LM

A $2.1 Million Send-Off for Dayatthespa...

It's been a whirlwind five weeks for Pete Bradley and the other owners of Dayatthespa (City Zip). The Chad Brown-trained 5-year-old won the GI First Lady S. at Keeneland Oct. 4, then returned to establish herself as the prohibitive favorite for champion turf female with a stylish wire-to-wire win in the GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf. Last night, the run was completed at Fasig-Tipton when Dayatthespa sold to Barbara Banke's Stonestreet Stable for $2.1 million. Dayatthespa was offered by Lane's End's as Hip 184 as a racing or broodmare prospect.

"I'm so glad she went to Stonestreet," Bradley said after congratulating Banke and her advisor John Moynihan. "It's a great operation. I don't know if they'll run her again; if they do, she's in great hands from that standpoint. And then they'll give her every chance to be a top-quality broodmare."

Bradley purchased Dayatthespa privately as a 2-year-old in training and formed a partnership that included Jerry and Ronald Frankel and Steve Laymon. Since then, she's won 11 of 18 starts, including the 2012 G1 QEII Challenge Cup at Keeneland, and earned nearly $2.3 million.

Dayatthespa got off to a late start this year, making her seasonal debut when second to Filimbi (Mizzen Mast) in the restricted De La Rose S. at Saratoga Aug. 2. But she quickly got back to winning ways when romping in the Yaddo S. three weeks later, and was just as brilliant in her next two facing Grade I foes.

"She had enough of a problem where we had to give her some time off [earlier in the year]," explained Bradley. "It was nothing career-threatening, but she just needed a little time. Then it was just something you couldn't script. Starting with when she was second to Filimbi (Mizzen Mast) at Saratoga, then the Yaddo S., when she put on quite a performance, then her performance in the First Lady, then to when she was between outlandish and outrageous in the Breeders' Cup. It was everything you hope for when you know have a good horse, and then they prove you right." Cont. p15

Bradley did concede there were some nervous moments last night, as the bidding for his stable star came in fits and starts.

"I'm very happy with the price, but the way the bidding went…it stalled around the $1.7 million range, and we were kind of there scratching our heads," he said. "She was over her reserve, but it was close, and we thought, 'Do we want to race her still?' But we didn't; she was here to sell, and she sold to a good group."

Bradley admitted it wasn't easy, however. "There's very few you get attached to like this. She's something very special." -LM

Ria Antonia To Japan at $1.8 Million...

Loooch Racing Stable's Ron Paolucci said last week on TVG that he hoped his 3-year-old filly Ria Antonia (Rockport Harbor) would win the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff and, after shipping to Fasig to sell, fail meet to her reserve. In the end, Paolucci didn't get his wish, but really, the consolation prize wasn't all that bad. Ria Antonia ran a solid fourth in the Distaff--a year after being promoted to the victory in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies--and last night was hammered down to Northern Farm's Katsumi Yoshida for $1.8 million.

"She was here to sell, and she did well," said Case Clay of Three Chimneys Farm, which consigned Ria Antonia as Hip 131.

"She is 17 hands and is a big, beautiful mare. And beauty and big sells. She behaved great at the sale, and she came into the sale the right way. She ran a great second in the Spinster, and a great fourth, I thought, in the Breeders' Cup. Wish our good friends at Northern Farm the best of luck with her. They got a great mare who's going to produce good-looking babies."

Ria Antonia Horsephotos

Ria Antonia has come a long way since first selling at Fasig's October Fall Yearling Sale for just $9,000 in 2012. She just missed by a nose in to She's a Tiger (Tale of the Cat) in the Juvenile Fillies before being put up by the stewards. Second to Fashion Plate (Old Fashioned) in the GI Santa Anita Oaks earlier in the year, she also finished second in the GIII Iowa Oaks. In her penultimate start, she completed the exacta behind Don't Tell Sophia (Congaree) in the GI Spinster S. at Keeneland. -LM

Stars of tomorrow grabbing the spotlight today...

Next Chapter for Night Lagoon...

The 13-year-old Night Lagoon (Ger) (Lagunas {GB}) was herself a Group 3-winning 2-year-old, but she experienced her finest hours on the track by way of her champion son Novellist (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}), winner of four Group 1s in four different countries including the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. and G1 Grand Prix de Saint Cloud. Night Lagoon (hip 119) was expatriated to the U.S. by owner Christoph Berglar--who also bred and campaigned Novellist--after producing the stakes-placed Ninfea (Ger) (Selkirk) in 2011, and she could be bound for a return to Europe after being picked up by BBA Ireland for $1.7 million in foal to War Front last night.

Novellist Racing Post

Ronald Rauscher, racing advisor to Berglar, noted that the price was about what he expected, but that parting with the mare was an emotional decision.

"She's very well covered, and at the same time she's hitting an age where it's either today or never," Rauscher noted. "It was just a matter of, were we going to hang on? Needless to say I've been very attached to her, so you're in two minds about it, but she's going to a good home, and she might just return to Europe the way it looks."

Night Lagoon, who also produced the Group 3-placed Nunitus (Ger) (Dalakhani {Ire}) in 2010, foaled a Bernardini colt in Kentucky this year. That colt has also returned to Europe and is slated to sell at the Tattersalls December Foal Sale. A Shamardal half-brother to Night Lagoon sells as hip 961 at Goffs November.

Texas Partners Power Into Racing...

Longtime friends Peter Fluor and K.C. Weiner have already experienced success together in the oil and energy industries, and the Texas-based duo are surely hoping their good fortune will carry over to the racing industry after going to a cool $1 million for recent GII Thoroughbred Club of America S. winner Leigh Court (Grand Slam) (hip 99). The 4-year-old is the first Thoroughbred for both partners, and Fluor noted that Leigh Court would remain in training.

"I own one horse--the one I just bought," quipped Fluor, the chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Texas Crude Energy, an oil and gas exploration company, after signing the ticket as Speedway Stables. "We had a horseless stable before this."

While Fluor and Weiner may be newcomers to racing, they boast pedigrees that could land them in the winner's circle. Their fathers were partners in the horse business, and the elder Weiner was involved in the dual G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe hero Alleged in the 1970s.

"My partner's father and my father were partners in the horse business, and they're both gone, so here we've got the young guys coming back to do the same thing," Fluor said.

Fluor is also a director of Fluor Corporation, an engineering, procurement, construction, maintenance and project management company, and a director of Anadarko Petroleum Corporation. He noted that they are discussing a trainer for Leigh Court, who was offered by Taylor Made Sales Agency as part of the Melnyk Racing Stables Dispersal. The dark bay is out of the French Deputy mare Padmore, and is a half-sister to German Group 2 winner King of Sydney (Diesis {GB}) and fellow Ontario Colleen winner Barracks Road (Elusive Quality). She TCA marked the second straight stakes win for Leigh Court, who won the GIII Seaway S. on her belated seasonal debut at Woodbine Aug. 24. She also won last year's GIII Ontario Colleen S. for trainer Josie Carroll. --Kelsey Riley

Street Cry Colt to Gainesway...

Gainesway's Antony Beck struck for the second top-priced weanling during Monday's Fasig-Tipton November sale, going to $400,000 to secure the first foal out of the Darby Dan Phillips Racing Partnership's multiple Grade I winner Winter Memories (El Prado {Ire}). Selling as hip 65, the chestnut colt is by the late Street Cry (Ire) and was consigned by Darby Dan.

"I thought he was a really exceptional mover," said Beck, who did his bidding alongside Gainesway's Brian Graves in the back walking ring. "John Phillips has developed that family really well. His dam was a really great racemare, as was his granddam. It is seldom that you get a horse of that quality come up for auction, especially one that moves as well as he does."

Of the price tag, Beck admitted, "It was a little bit more than I was hoping to pay. But I think he is a really special horse. He was the only one I was interested in in the whole catalogue."

Winter Memories is a daughter of multiple Grade I winner Memories of Silver (Silver Hawk). The family was in demand again at Fasig Monday night, with another daughter of Winter Memories, graded stakes winner La Cloche (Ghostzapper) selling for $2.4 million to Don Alberto Corporation.

KEENELAND NOVEMBER

11 a.m.
10 a.m.

In 2013, a total of 2,457 horses sold for $197,189,000--a huge 37.7% gain from the previous year's figures. The resulting average of $80,256 was up a similar 35.5%, while the median skyrocketed 59.1% to $35,000. The strength of trade and the market's depth was signified by the RNA rate: a very low 14.5%.

"I think the market wants stability," said Russell. "When you look at the breeding-stock market, you're looking at long-term investments. What suffered greatly after 2008 was the ability, or interest, for people to invest long term. Last year was the first time since 2008 that we saw people with the mindset of going to replenish their broodmare ranks. We also had some new people come in to fill up their farms, which was fine and dandy, too."

Russell said the upswing in the bloodstock market was a natural reaction to a resurgent demand for yearlings.

"Having two September sales that were so strong in '12 and '13, it brought great stability to the market, and it encouraged more commercial breeders to get back in and think long term," he said. "This year [at September], the market was very stable, though people continue to be worried about expenses. If we have a stable market, hopefully expenses won't go up and people can continue to make money and keep the market going. That's what we all want."

Results from the weekend's Breeders' Cup World Championships provided a number of choice lots a further boost. The dual Grade I winner Iotapa (Afleet Alex) built on her impressive 2014 resume with a strong third in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff. She sells today from Lane's End as Hip 106.

Tomorrow, Hill 'n' Dale Sales sends through Don't Surprise Me (Macho Uno), a winning half-sister to GI Breeders' Cup Classic hero Bayern (Offlee Wild). Cataloged as Hip 287, she sells in foal to Awesome Again. She's followed into the ring by her American Lion (Tiznow) weanling filly, who is also consigned by Hill 'n' Dale (Hip 288).

There are also two weanling fillies who sell Wednesday who can claim a Breeders' Cup-winning sibling. First up is a Harlan's Holiday three-parts sister to GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile repeater Goldencents (Into Mischief) who sells from Ashview Farm as Hip 302. Hip 355, meanwhile, is a Blame half-sister to the GI Juvenile Turf winner Hootenanny (Quality Road) from Eaton Sales. Cont. p19

MEET ALMA'S FURY.

You've most likely never heard of him.

Certainly he's no world-beater, but he's the sort of tough, sound racehorse we think you'd be proud to own. He's won almost US$800,000 in his 52 starts and is still going strong aged seven.

And in Australia there are many more like him. Our horses race 6.3 times a season on average: that's the same as in the USA, but of course we don't compete on medications like bute and Lasix. In the United Kingdom their horses average 4.8 starts, while in Ireland it's 4.1.

If you value speed, soundness and toughness why not head to the Australian yearling sales?

Keeneland officials are trying some new to close out tomorrow's session. Together with Ashford Stud, represented here by the rare consignment, they will put before buyers a concentrated group of mares bred on Southern Hemisphere time. Thirteen mares--there are five outs--will sell, all in foal to Ashford's Scat Daddy.

"Scat Daddy was meant to go down to Chile this year and he was unable to, and he's the 'Daddy' of Chile at the moment," explained Russell. "So Ashford bred some mares on Southern Hemisphere time and thought it might be a good idea to offer them at public auction, so we created a section for our South American clientele. We thought it was a niche in the market worth exploring. Tommy [Thornbury, Keeneland's Associate Director of Sales] is down in South America often, and said even before Scat Daddy had runners their that he was going to be a dominant horse there."

The second Tuesday of the sale will once again feature a session highlighted by horses-of-racing age, including a typically popular consignment from WinStar Racing.

"WinStar was the one who came up with the idea of having a session of racing-age horses, and now we have other clients who specifically aim for it," said Russell. "Those horses who are ready to rock on and continue their racing careers always seem to do very well, and sellers get a premium for them. Last year, on that day, Hardest Core came out of the Adena Springs consignment, and he certainly did well this year [winning the GI Arlington Million]. It shows the quality available on that day."

ANODIN RETIRED TO QUESNAY

Anodin (Ire) (Anabaa--Born Gold, by Blushing Groom ({Fr}) has been retired and will stand at stud at Haras du Quesnay in Vauville, France in 2015. The full-brother to three-time GI Breeders' Cup Mile winner and 14-time G1 winner Goldikova (Ire) made his own tilt at the Mile Saturday, and finished full of run to be second at the finish, steadying behind the winner Karakontie (Jpn) (Bernstein) as that rival drifted out in the final stages. Anodin won the G3 Prix Paul de Moussac in 2013, and has been G1 placed five times from 14 trips to the post, just missing to some of the best milers in Europe. He earned $868,460 and a stud fee will be announced at a later date.

Pierre-Yves Bureau, racing manager for owners the Wertheimer brothers, said, "Anodin retires to Haras du Quesnay and we're very happy about that. He is a good looking horse and a great performer with a fantastic pedigree, so he has all the attributes. He was unfortunate to bump into Kingman (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) in the [G1] Prix Jacques le Marois earlier in the year and he finished fast on Saturday. Unfortunately, he didn't get there, but the quality is there for sure."

In addition to being a full-brother to Goldikova, Anodin is a half-brother to G1 Prix Vermeille heroine Galikova (Fr) (Galileo {Ire}) and to GSWs Gold Sound (Fr) (Green Tune) and Gold Round (Ire) (Caerleon).

The Marriott Griffin Gate in Lexington, Kentucky displayed a "Reserved in Memory of Mr. Arvid "Hash" Weinstein sign on Weinstein's regular table in the restaurant yesterday in honor of their longtime customer, Hash Weinstein, the South Florida bloodstock agent who passed away Thursday. A memorial service will be held in Florida during the winter when more horsemen are on hand in order that his industry friends will be able to attend, according to his friend, trainer Howie Tesher..

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

'KAZEEM' WILL STAY HOME

Triple Group 1 hero Al Kazeem (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) will not be heading abroad this winter, with connections planning to prime him for a couple of Group 1 options in the spring. Trainer Roger Charlton and owner John Deer had been mulling possible opportunities in Hong Kong and Dubai after the 6-year-old bounced back to his very best when just edged out by Noble Mission (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) in the Champion S. at Ascot last month. However, they have decided to give the horse, who only returned to training after a failed stud career, a winter break before gearing up for Group 1 events at Longchamp and The Curragh in the early part of next term.

Al Kazeem
Racing Post

The trainer reported Monday on his website, "It has been decided that Al Kazeem will not be going on his travels this winter to Hong Kong or Dubai and he will have a program aimed at the [G1] Prix Ganay and the [G1] Tattersalls Gold Cup which he won in 2012."

Today's G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte offers the faster of Europe's 2-year-olds one of the final opportunities to gain serious black-type, with Jonathan Pease looking to build on a stellar weekend with Souvenir Delondres (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}). Christopher Wright's filly comes into this on the back of a success in Chantilly's G3 Prix Eclipse over this trip Oct. 10, having won the Listed Prix de la Vallee d'Auge over five furlongs at Deauville Aug. 15. She finished third behind ✪ "TDN Rising Star" ✪ and G1 Cheveley Park S. third High Celebrity (Fr) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) in Chantilly's G3 Prix d'Arenberg over 5 1/2 furlongs Sept. 9. Splitting that duo in second was Ecurie Pandora Racing's City Money (Ire) (Elusive City), who had previously finished in the same spot behind the subsequent G1 Prix Morny third and G1 Prix Marcel Boussac runner-up Ervedya (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) in the G3 Prix de Cabourg at this distance at Deauville Aug. 3. One of the unexposed types of interest is the unbeaten Shamal (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}), who beat a subsequent scorer in Sallal (GB) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) on debut over 5 1/2 furlongs here Sept. 19 before following up in style in a decent conditions event also over that trip at Deauville Oct. 21.

ROME TAKES HIGH ROAD ON 'THE JUNGLE'

During his sports talk show broadcast across the CBS Radio Network Monday, host Jim Rome, co-owner of Shared Belief (Candy Ride {Arg}), spoke for the first time publicly about the trouble which befell the previously undefeated gelding in Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Classic. Rome articulated his feelings in a calm fashion, though he told his listeners, "I'm not as calm as you think I am. There was a lot at stake and we lost a lot." He added, "I'm calm but that's not to say I'm not frustrated--really frustrated."

Jim Rome

The host reminded his listeners that this was no ordinary big race.

"Not only was that a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity--I may never be there again," he explained. "There are people in that game that have spent years, decades, crazy amounts of money, people much smarter than me, people that have a much bigger knack for the game than I'll ever have and never get a sniff of a race like that. It's a dream to be in that race, just to be in that race is a dream. Not only do we get there, we're the favorite, and we get wiped out right when they leave the gate. Believe me, I'm not as calm as you think. But I understand that racing is tough, it's a tough game.

He continued, "[Trainer Bob] Baffert said it best before the race when he said the horse that brings his 'A' game and gets the trip is going to win. You can argue the reason [Bayern] got that trip is because he smashed into 3 or 4 horses. You can argue that, but I'm not going to. We didn't get the trip we were hoping for. You have to be lucky and we weren't--that's racing."

Rome said that the stewards reached out to him, ostensibly to explain to him the decision that was made.

"I didn't return that call. I had already turned the page when they called," he stated.

Despite the events of the weekend, Rome has lost no faith in Shared Belief.

"Shared Belief is a great horse that didn't have a great day," he offered. "We're going to give him some time and he'll be back when he's ready. My thing is that if we get a clean break, he would have fired a big shot. He is the same horse, he's still great, the Awesome Again did not take all that much out of him. He bounced back, he looked great, he was dappled, he would have fired a big one. But that's racing, you don't always get everyone's best shot, and that's what makes racing such a tough game.

He added, "I've had some really, really good luck and some really, really good days. This day I had some really bad luck and a really bad day. But that's that sport. It's a punch in the face and it's a kick in the ass, and you take the highs and you take the lows.

That was a kick in the junk, but we're all big boys, you man up and accept it."

Rome is looking forward to the next meeting.

"Let's do it again, any time, any where, we'll be there," he stated. --Alan Carasso

Edited Press Release

All samples collected from 2014 Breeders' Cup horses have been cleared by the Kenneth L. Maddy Equine Analytical Chemistry Laboratory at UC Davis. All horses competing in Breeders' Cup races Oct. 31 and Nov. 1 at Santa Anita Park underwent pre-race testing for TCO2 (total carbon dioxide) levels in blood. Post-race testing was performed for prohibited drugs on the first four finishers in all Breeders' Cup races plus any additional random horses selected by the stewards consistent with CHRB protocol. Post-race testing was done on both blood and urine samples. Additionally, one-third of all horses pre-entered in the Breeders' Cup were randomly selected for out-of-competition testing. The out-of-competition samples were drawn and analyzed before the races with the cooperation of national and international racing jurisdictions and laboratories. Samples drawn overseas were analyzed in the country where those horses were sampled. All samples from horses stabled in North American were analyzed at the Maddy Laboratory at UC Davis. Dr. Rick Arthur, equine medical director for the CHRB, reported all out-of-competition samples cleared testing prior to the Breeders' Cup. The Maddy Laboratory's standard protocols look for over 45 anabolic steroids and in excess of a thousand other prohibited drugs and substances. Routine testing in California exceeds recommended testing standards. Effective October 1, the national uniform medication program therapeutic medication thresholds approved by the CHRB became effective, including new restrictions on the use of corticosteroids and other medications. All samples met those new regulations.

There was a time when landing the title of leading freshman sire regularly punched the winner's ticket to the top of the stallion ranks. For example, in a 10-year period during the late 1970s and early '80s, the title went to Raja Baba, Roberto, Mr. Prospector, Seattle Slew, Alydar, Danzig and Fappiano.

Unfortunately, leading the first-crop sires' list has since become a less certain guarantee of future fame (remember Farma Way, Salt Lake, Gilded Time, End Sweep, Honour and Glory and Valid Expectations?).

But a good first season can still be an accurate pointer to a young stallion's long-term potential and two of the stars of the Breeders' Cup weekend were sired by former freshman sire champions. Tapit, who topped the list in 2008, gave us Untapable, while Offlee Wild, the surprise winner in 2009, was responsible for the gallant Bayern.

There were some near misses too. Congrats, who earned a move from Florida to Kentucky by taking the 2010 title, went within half a length of landing the Juvenile Fillies' with Top Decile (and then took the following day's GIII Tempted S. with Jacaranda, another filly from his first Kentucky crop). And Scat Daddy, the 2011 winner, had a near miss with No Nay Never in the Turf Sprint, as well as supplying Daddy D T, third in the Juvenile Turf.

City Zip, who achieved a spectacular double with Dayatthespa and Work All Week, had finished an eye-catching third in 2005with a crop sired at $7,500 in New York, precipitating a move to Kentucky.

Looking through the various freshman sire lists, it becomes clear that some years are stronger than others, a fine example being 2002, when Distorted Humor, Awesome Again and Elusive Quality fought out a close finish, with less than $50,000 separating the trio.

Now Elusive Quality's son Quality Road has moved ahead of Super Saver to lead this year's class of first-crop sires, thanks to a very rewarding Graded race double over the weekend. Firstly we saw the much-travelled Hootenanny add to his international reputation with his win in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf. Then, two days later, Blofeld maintained his unbeaten record when he defied top weight to add the GIII Nashua S. to his earlier success in the GII Futurity S. Cont. p25

Elusive Quality's bold showing as a freshman sire came with a crop sired at $10,000, but his fee catapulted up to $100,000 in 2005, after his second-crop son Smarty Jones had won eight of his nine starts, including the Kentucky Derby and Preakness.

Among the mares Elusive Quality covered at his new six-figure fee was the twice-raced Kobla, an Allen Paulson-bred daughter of the Australian-bred Strawberry Road. You can get some idea of the quality of Kobla's female line from the fact that Edward P. Evans had to pay $1,050,000 for her as an in-foal 4-year-old in 1999. The most relevant fact was that Kobla's sister Ajina had been a champion 3-year-old filly, with victories to her name in the GI Mother Goose, GI CCA Oaks and GI Breeders' Cup Distaff.

With a background like this, there was every reason to get excited when Quality Road won three of his first four starts, including the GII Fountain of Youth S. by more than four lengths and the GI Florida Derby in track record time.

The Kentucky Derby was to be the next step and there seemed every reason to expect Quality Road to cope with the extra furlong, as his first three dams were daughters of Strawberry Road, Alydar and Bold Bidder--all winners over at least a mile and a quarter. Unfortunately, persistent problems with a quarter crack in his right front hoof side-lined him just days before the race.

"It's not terribly bad, but it's not right," explained trainer Jimmy Jerkens. "He's really sensitive on the quarter."

At that stage Quality Road's owner was still hopeful his colt would make it to the Preakness and the Belmont, but the Triple Crown went by without him. By the time he reappeared at Saratoga he was in the care of Todd Pletcher.

The race chosen for his return was the GII Amsterdam S. over 6 1/2 furlongs and Quality Road showed that he had inherited a good measure of the speed that had earned Elusive Quality track records over seven furlongs on dirt at Gulfstream Park and over a mile on turf at Belmont. Quality Road's time of 1:13.74 in the Amsterdam broke Topsider's 30-year-old track record.

Despite this display of speed, Quality Road was clearly considered a mile-and-a-quarter horse and his next three appearances were for Grade Is over that distance. He disappointed when favorite for the Travers, fading into third place, five lengths behind Summer Bird, but then narrowed the gap to just a length when the pair met again in the Jockey Club Gold Cup. Unfortunately, he was very reluctant to enter the stalls before the Breeders' Cup Classic and then lashed out dangerously once in the gate. He was withdrawn after sustaining a minor injury.

Quality Road wasn't asked to tackle as long a distance as a mile and a quarter in his first five starts of 2010 and he rewarded his connections with four victories.

Three of his wins came at Grade I level, in the Donn H. (in which he set his third track record), the Met Mile and the Woodward S. His only reverse in those first five starts was a narrow defeat at the hands of Blame when set to concede five pounds or more to his rivals in the GI Whitney H. Once again, though, Quality Road's season was to end on a negative note in the Breeders' Cup Classic, as he was beaten a long way out and was eased.

The question now was how would Quality Road fare in his new career as a stallion? By the time of his retirement to Lane's End, doubts had been raised by Smarty Jones's very disappointing start. Smarty Jones had three crops on the track, all sired at a fee of $100,000, and they had under-performed to the extent that he had been relocated to Pennsylvania.

Smarty Jones, though, was out of a mare by Smile, a stallion who managed to sire just one graded winner from his total of 277 foals. Quality Road's broodmare sire Strawberry Road had been much more successful, siring 10% stakes winners and achieving an AEI of 2.60.

Quality Road is also a very different physical type from Smarty Jones, offering a lot more scope, and it quickly became clear that the market had plenty of faith in him. Judging by the efforts of Hootenanny and Blofeld, that faith was very well placed.

These colts suggest that Quality Road has a lot to offer the many breeders with mares from the Storm Cat line. Blofeld is out of Storm Minstrel, a sprint stakes winner by Storm Cat. Hootenanny, on the other hand, is out of More Hennessy, a one-raced filly by Storm Cat's son Hennessy.

I could add that Elusive Quality's other foals of 2006 included Evasive, out of the royally-bred Storm Cat mare Canda. Evasive looked to have a lot of potential when he won the G3 Horris Hill S. on his final start as a juvenile. Although he managed only three more starts, his pedigree earned him a place at stud in France, where his son Evasive's First has won five of his seven juvenile starts this year, including the G3 Prix des Chenes.

I would ask, though, that breeders don't develop tunnel vision at this very early stage of Quality Road's career. He is sure to work with other sire lines, too. For example his ✪ "TDN Rising Star" ✪ Overprepared is out of a mare by Dayjur (also broodmare sire of Elusive Quality's G1 Prix Morny winner Elusive City). Quality Road's latest impressive maiden winner, the filly Cult Classic, also has a dam by a son of Danzig, so this could be an equally rich seam to be mined.

Hootenanny has proved that he stays a mile but there is no guarantee that he will stay any further. His dam is a 3/4-sister to Cat Moves, a Tale of The Cat filly who won the GI Prioress S. over six furlongs. However, Hootenanny's third dam, Dance Teacher, won the GI Ladies H. over a mile and a quarter. We have also seen Careless Jewel, another Grade I winner with a dam by Hennessy, win the Alabama S. over a mile and a quarter, so it isn't impossible that Hootenanny will surprise me.

op/ed feedback

Editor's note: We had a good deal of feedback on Dan Liebaman's op/ed in the Sunday, 11/2/14 edition of the TDN Red Card for the Stewards. A sampling appears below.

Mr. Liebman obviously bet a lot of money on Shared Belief and lost. He needs to learn about horse racing and get some experience before making a mockery of himself with an article like this. Bumping at the start of a two-turn race does NOT compromise the finishing position of a truly GOOD horse. It is very unusual to find the start of any race without one or more horses bumping. Mr. Liebman's way of thinking would put the stewards in the position of controlling the outcome of nearly every race run in America. Maybe the fans could then bet on the stewards' rulings instead of the horses! This is supposed to be a contest of the fastest horse--not who is sitting in the stewards' box, making partial decisions. Speaking from 70 years experience as an owner, breeder, trainer, and fan...

I agree whole-heartedly with Dan's opinion, which is reflective of facts. I disagree with the California racing stewards' opinion, which is reflective of incompetence. The NTRA should have some overriding video review body, just like MLB or the NFL, when something like this occurs. Then there could be a challenge, and the video review body could correct and/or override a decision made on the field. In this case, there is little doubt that the indecision of the California stewards would have been overridden and a wrong would have been righted.

The owners deserve that. The industry deserves that. And, most of all, the bettors deserve that. All deserve better than what happened on Saturday.

In the end, though, it is so unfortunate that those of us who absolutely love the game, never got the chance to see what could have been one of the best races of all time. And the reason for that is very simple. Shared Belief never got the chance to run. Never. He was fouled. He was fouled repeatedly. He was fouled in a dangerous and capricious manner. And, he was completely taken out of the race that "could have been." For that, we will never, ever know who the best horse was on that day. Never. Sad.

Let's just hope that the stewards' inaction will not encourage others to take the same dangerous tactics in the future. If that is the case, both horses and humans are at risk. And, the entire industry suffers irreparable harm with viewers, fans, bettors, and the general public. --Gene McLean

Dan Liebman's opinion is rational and fair--something that the stewards in California were not.

BAYERN SANTA ANITA'S HORSE OF THE MEET

Bayern (Offlee Wild), winner of Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Classic, headed Santa Anita's 2014 Autumn Meet Media Poll as the Horse of the Meet. The Kaleem Shah-owned runner was also named the meet's most outstanding. The $5-million Classic, in which European challenger Toast of New York (Thewayyouare) finished a close-up second while GI Kentucky Derby hero California Chrome (Lucky Pulpit) rounded out the trifecta, also earned Race of the Meet honors.

"We're very proud of Bayern," said the sophomore's trainer Bob Baffert. "He showed what he can do on a big day. He put it all together. He's won the Classic and other major races. He did it on the big stage and he ran hard. He wasn't going to let Toast of New York past him."

In the race for the training title, Baffert rounded out the meet with a bang, winning three races on closing day to give him a total of 14 victories, edging Jerry Hollendorfer and Leandro Mora (13 each). It was Baffert's 30th Southern California training title. Rafael Bejarano captured the jockeys' race with 28 wins, six more than runner-up Joe Talamo. It was the 20th crown for Bejarano in Southern California. Other meet leaders were Dayatthespa (City Zip), winner of the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf - Outstanding Grass Filly or Mare; Main Sequence (Aldebaran), who remained unbeaten in four starts in the United States by capturing the GI Breeders' Cup Longines' Turf - Outstanding Grass Horse; and Work All Week (City (Zip), victorious in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint - Outstanding Sprinter. Winners in other categories were two-time GI Zenyatta S. winner Beholder (Henny Hughes) - Older Filly or Mare; Emollient (Empire Maker), winner of the Grade I Rodeo Drive S., Outstanding Grass Filly or Mare; and back-to-back BC GI Dirt Mile winner Goldencents (Into Mischief) - Outstanding Older Horse. Kent Desormeaux, who suffered five fractured ribs and a bruised lung in a post parade mishap on Sept. 28, made it back before the end of the meet to earn the Achievement of the Meet honor. Desormeaux resumed riding one month after the incident and in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile piloted Texas Red, trained by his brother, J. Keith Desormeaux, to a 6 1/2-length victory. J. Paul Reddam's Reddam Racing, LLC, was the meet's Outstanding Owner with six victories, while Gal Has to Like It (Werblin), owned in part and trained by Jerry Hollendorfer, was named Claimer of the Meet. The Florida-bred bay was ridden each time by Drayden Van Dyke, who was named Apprentice of the Meet.

Honorable Dillon Bound for Rockridge Farm:

Grade II Hutcheson S. hero Honorable Dillon (Tapit--Shy Greeting {Arg}, by Shy Tom) will stand at Lere Visagie's Rockridge Farm in Hudson, New York in 2015 in a deal brokered by Mersad Metanovic Bloodstock.

Trained for most of his career by Eddie Kenneally, Honorable Dillon raced for Joe Bucci and retires with a mark of 15-3-2-1 and earnings of $233,649. "We are excited to stand such a high caliber race horse and the son of North America's number one stallion, Tapit, at our farm in New York," commented Visagie. As an incentive to breed to Honorable Dillon, his owners will offer mare owners who book to Honorable Dillon before Jan. 1 of next year 100% of the New York Stallion Awards earned as part of the 'Real Award' program. The 'Real Profit' program guarantees breeders $20k-$30k for healthy weanlings they breed from graded-stakes winning or producing mares. "Both of these programs provide New York breeders with real money if they breed proper babies," added Mersad Metanovic of Mersad Metanovic Bloodstock. Honorable Dillon will stand for $5,000 live foal, payable stands and nurses.

Coming to the fore with a handicap win over this track and trip Sept. 3, Coco Sun was second in the Listed Stutenpreis des Gestuts Winterhauch also at this distance at Cologne last time Sept. 28 and found some progression to go one better here. Soon up to lead, the bay was granted an easy passage and never looked likely to be caught once pilot Theo Bachelot shook the reins inside the final quarter mile. Click for the Racing Post result. Equidia VIDEO.

Have You Seen The Light?

"We used Equilume Light Masks on our barren mares last season at Jackson Purchase Farm. I am happy to say that the masks worked great. All of the mares had breedable follicles and had gone through transition by February 14th. In the winter of 2014 we had zero issues with the mares being outside 24/7, often in sub-zero temperatures. Besides the fact that the mares all cycled as I hoped, I spent less on van and vet charges and had healthier mares. Like extended turnout for any class of horse, daily observation, occasional adjusting of masks and adjustment of feed and hay is necessary. For me the economics were good and the mares simply did better outside. I am a believer!"
