GUN RUNNER SEEKS WHITNEY/WOODWARD DOUBLE

Gun Runner | Sarah K. Andrew

By Christie DeBernardis

Gun Runner (Candy Ride {Arg}) is favored to become the first horse since Lawyer Ron in 2007 to complete the GI Whitney S./GI Woodward S. double at Saratoga Saturday. A model of consistency throughout his career, the chestnut achieved his first top-level success at the end of his sophomore campaign, capturing last term's GI Clark H. He has proven to be even better at age four, romping in the GIII Razorback H. at Oaklawn Feb. 20 before finishing a gutsy second to an unreal performance from champion Arrogate (Unbridled's Song) in the G1 Dubai World Cup Mar. 25. Dominating by seven-lengths in his U.S. return in the GI Stephen Foster H. June 17, the Steve Asmussen pupil scored a facile 5 1/4-length victory over Keen Ice (Curlin) last time in the Whitney Aug. 5. Cont. p3

PURE SILVER LOOKS TO REMAIN PERFECT IN SPINAWAY By Christie DeBernardis

Twin Creeks Racing Stables's Pure Silver (Mission Impazible) hopes to take her perfect record to four-for-four in Saturday's GI Spinaway S. at Saratoga, a "Win and You're In" event for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies. Wiring a state-bred maiden special weight at Belmont June 22, the Todd Pletcher trainee defeated fellow native New Yorkers once again in the Lynbrook S. downstate July 16 and crushed her rivals last time in this venue's Aug. 12 GII Adirondack S., winning by 9 1/2 lengths.

Pletcher has won the Spinaway six times already, including dead-heating in last year's renewal with Sweet Loretta (Tapit) and capturing the 2015 edition with Rachel's Valentina (Bernardini).

Rally Cry | Christie DeBernardis

"I was very impressed [with his Whitney win] because of the circumstances of Saratoga," Steve Asmussen told the NYRA notes team. "You rarely ever see the race of a horses' life at Saratoga. When you look back at some great forms, and some great races, it's usually not their best number or fastest race. Visually it was an impressive race. Watching it, he went through the wire with good energy, and I'm very pleased with that. Staying here and then making one move to California [for the Breeders' Cup] gives us the best chance."

Todd Pletcher, who saddled Lawyer Ron to that 2007 double at the Spa, sends out two of Gun Runner's four rivals in this test. Third behind Arrogate and MGISW Shaman Ghost (Ghostzapper) in the inaugural $12-million GI Pegasus World Cup Invitational S., Neolithic (Harlan's Holiday) completed an American trifecta in the Dubai World Cup and returned to these shores with a narrow optional claimer victory going seven furlongs here Aug. 5.

Besting "TDN Rising Star" Diversify (Bellamy Road) in a Belmont allowance Apr. 30, Rally Cry (Uncle Mo) checked in sixth behind an ultra-impressive performance from Mor Spirit (Eskendereya) in the GI Metropolitan H. June 10. He rebounded with a dominant 8 3/4-length victory in the restricted Alydar S. over this track-and-trip Aug. 6, earning a career-best 110 Beyer Speed Figure.

"Both are doing well, both ran well here," Pletcher said. "I have a lot of respect for Gun Runner and his ability, but we're happy with the way our horses are doing and we'll give it our best shot. It's light in numbers, strong in quality. Both Rally Cry and Neolithic, at a mile and an eighth, have tactical speed so I think some of it will depend on post position, but Gun Runner is a pretty tactical horse as well, so we'll see how it works out."

Pure Silver | Chelsea Durand

"She's training really well and seems very happy with herself, so we're looking forward to going again with her," Pletcher told the NYRA notes team. "She's a filly who has good early speed and the way she finished the other [race], we feel like seven [furlongs] should be within her range. She should come back with another good performance."

Owner Michael Dubb also boasts a strong record in the Spinaway, having won in 2011 with My Happy Face (Empire Maker) and 2014 with Condo Commando (Tiz Wonderful). He has a strong chance to add to that record this year with another daughter of Tiz Wonderful, "TDN Rising Star" Lady Ivanka, whom he owns in partnership with Bethlehem Stables, Michael Imperio and Susan Montanye. The Rudy Rodriguez pupil enters this test off an eight-length debut graduation at the Spa Aug. 9, a move Rodriguez and Dubb also employed with Condo Commando, who entered the Spinaway off a 12-length graduation in her career bow at Saratoga. Click here for Brian DiDonato's feature on bloodstock agent Kim Valerio, who picked out Lady Ivanka at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic sale.

Klaravich Stables's Separationofpowers (Candy Ride {Arg}) also takes a big step up in class off a "TDN Rising Star"-worthy graduation at first asking. The Chad Brown runner dominated by 11 3/4 lengths in wire-to-wire fashion going six furlongs here July 30. My Meadowview Farm homebred Maya Malibu (Malibu Moon) is another impressive debut winner jumping into the deep end. The Graham Motion pupil circled the field and charged home a six-length winner in her Delaware unveiling.

SPECTATOR HOPES TO STAR IN DEL MAR

Spectator | Benoit

By Christie DeBernardis

Rick and Sharon Waller's undefeated Spectator (Jimmy Creed) looks to score her first top-level success in Saturday's GI Del Mar Debutante S. Romping by 5 1/4 lengths in her Santa Anita unveiling June 23, the chestnut captured this venue's GII Sorrento S. by the exact same margin Aug. 5 to become the first stakes winner for her freshman sire (by Distorted Humor).

Moonshine Memories (Malibu Moon) is one of two "TDN Rising Stars" stepping up in class off impressive maiden wins. The $650,000 FTSAUG buy overcame a slow start to earn her "TDN Rising Star" nod in her Aug. 19 unveiling here. Hall of Famer Bob Baffert seeks his eighth win in this test with Just a Smidge (Into Mischief), who also became a "TDN Rising Star" after overcoming a slow start and gamely fending off a SP rival.

It's only fitting that just two days after the retirement of Fox Hill Farm's two-time champion Songbird (Medaglia d'Oro), owner Rick Porter and regular rider Mike Smith team up to try to win the Del Mar Debutante, which was her first Grade I score in 2015, with Poetic (Violence). While Songbird was conditioned by Jerry Hollendorfer, Poetic is trained by fellow Hall of Famer Richard Mandella and enters off a first-out graduation going 5 1/2 furlongs here July 30. Smith also piloted Moonshine Memories in her debut win, but chose to stick with this runner here.

Another impressive first-out winner that deserves a mention is the Richard Baltas-trained Gas Station Sushi (Into Mischief), who zipped home to a 3 1/2-length victory in her career bow here Aug. 6.

HOF ONE-TWO HEADLINE SARANAC

Bricks and Mortar | Sarah K. Andrew

By Christie DeBernardis

The top two finishers from Saratoga's Aug. 4 GII Hall of Fame S., Bricks and Mortar (Giant's Causeway) and Yoshida (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}), headline a competitive field for Saturday's GIII Saranac S. Klaravich Stables and William Lawrence's undefeated Bricks and Mortar won his debut at Gulfstream Feb. 18 and was briefly shelved, but returned a winner in a first-level optional claimer at Belmont June 9. A narrow winner of that venue's Manila S. July 4, the Chad Brown pupil bested Yoshida by 3/4 of a length in the Hall of Fame last time.

Yoshida was tabbed a "TDN Rising Star" after an impressive second-out graduation at Keeneland Apr. 9 for Hall of Famer Bill Mott. Repeating that effort in Pimlico's James W. Murphy S. May 20, he was fifth behind Oscar Performance (Kitten's Joy) as the favorite in the GI Belmont Derby July 8 prior to his last out effort over this course.

Making his stakes debut in this spot is a colt that has proven to be a true 'horse for the course,' Barry Schwartz homebred Voodoo Song (English Channel). The chestnut is a perfect three-for-three over the local lawn since transferring to Linda Rice after the retirement of Mike Hushion in July. Romping in a $40,000 claimer July 22, Voodoo Song returned on just four days rest to capture a 1 3/8-mile state-bred allowance and followed suit with an optional claimer victory against fellow Empire-breds Aug. 23. COMPETITIVE FIELD SET FOR GLENS FALLS

Harmonize | Sarah K. Andrew

By Christie DeBernardis

An intriguing field of nine is set to line up for the GIII Glens Falls S. on the final Saturday of the Saratoga meet. Harmonize (Scat Daddy) has not visited the winner's circle since her career high in last term's GI Del Mar Oaks and looks to round back into her prior form here. Fourth behind Antonoe (First Defense) in Belmont's GI Just a Game S. June 10, the dark bay filled that spot again behind the great Lady Eli (Divine Park) in this venue's GI Diana S. last time July 22. Lady Eli and Antonoe returned to finish first and fourth, respectively, in the Aug. 26 GII Ballston Spa S. "She's been training great coming up to the race," Mott told the NYRA notes team. "Obviously, it's a bit of class relief, she's coming out of a very good race and the distance is something new for us, but we're going to try it."

7. Sarandia (Ger)	Dansili (GB)
8. Harmonize	Scat Daddy
9. Sweet Sandy	Flatter

(see Graded Stakes Entries)

Joseph Allen homebred War Flag (War Front) makes her Saratoga debut after kicking off her U.S. career with two starts at Monmouth Park. Boasting three wins, including the G3 Prix Chloe, and two seconds from five French starts for Jean-Claude Rouget, the bay was transferred to American Hall of Famer Shug McGaughey, winning a Monmouth optional claimer June 18 and finishing second in the GIII Matchmaker S. there July 30.

The top three runners from the GIII Fasig-Tipton Waya S., Estrechada (Arg) (Offlee Wild), Lottie (Arch) and Summersault (Rock Hard Ten), all return in this spot. Graham Motion, who saddles Lottie, also sends out Happyness (GB) (Verglas {Ire}), who was second by just a head in Woodbine's 12-furlong Flaming Page S. last time Aug. 11.

KY DOWNS RESCHEDULES OPENING DAY

Kentucky Downs has rescheduled its opening day card to Wednesday, Sept. 6. The fields for the 10-race all-grass card will remain the same, with no redrawing of entries or post positions. Kentucky Downs' showcase five-date meet now will be conducted Sept. 6-7, Sept. 9-10, and Sept. 14. First post is 1:25 p.m. Central each day. Kentucky Downs could not reschedule for Sunday or Monday because of its conflict with the final two days of live racing at Ellis Park in Henderson. Kentucky Downs will remain open today at its year-round daily simulcast wagering and Historical Horse Racing operations.

"The ongoing impact of Hurricane Harvey makes it impossible to run Saturday," said Ted Nicholson, Kentucky Downs' senior vice president and general manager. "The forecast was for one to five inches of rain, and we got six inches in 12 hours. It is in the best interest of the horses, jockeys and our guests to move the entire card to Wednesday."

The Wednesday card will four stakes: the $400,000 Tourist Mile, $350,000 Fasig-Tipton Turf Showcase Juvenile; $350,000 Exacta Systems Juvenile Fillies and $150,000 One Dreamer.

Scratch time for Wednesday's racing program will be 9 a.m. Central Tuesday. For more info, visit www.kentuckydowns.com

Having shown his versatility on all surfaces, We Deer You landed his first taste of black-type on the grass in Friday's feature at Saratoga. Showing his eagerness by breaking through the gate prior to the official start, the gelding broke a hair slow and was eased back to last through respectable opening fractions. Ready to make his move turning for home, the homebred was in tight quarters yet slipped through along the inside of favored Dowse's Beach (Disco Rico) at the head of the lane, gained control as that rival retreated midstretch and drew clear late to win.

"We supplemented into this race; it was a last-minute thought, to be honest," explained winning Maryland-based trainer Mike Trombetta. "We were shopping around for him and I was a little reluctant to do two turns with him again. This just seemed to fall into place."

Victorious in a Woodbine allowance going 6 1/2 furlongs over the synthetic May 27, We Deer You added a score in a $62,500 optional claimer on the Belmont sod June 25. Jumped up to face better in the seven-furlong GIII Vigil S. Over Woodbine's main track July 16, the Florida bred finished an honest second behind the consistent Pink Lloyd (Old Forrestor).

Winning Doe is responsible for a yearling, full sister to the winner, a weanling colt by To Honor and Serve and was bred back to Munnings. The 11-year-old mare is a half sister to turf champion Miesque's Approval, winner of the GI Breeders' Cup Mile, in addition to Grade I winner World Approval. She is also a half sibling to graded winning turf millionaires Revved Up (Sultry Song) and Za Approval (Ghostzapper). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

+C Z ROCKET (c, 3, City Zip--Successful Sarah {GSP, $169,614}, by Successful Appeal) summoned $800,000 at last term's OBS June sale after breezing in :21 1/5 and was dispatched at x-x for this career bow. Caboosing the field as Tommy T (Shackleford) ticked off an opening quarter in :21.89, the bay moved into sixth, still several lengths off the leader, through a half in :45.01. Tommy T appeared home free in early stretch, but C Z Rocket found another gear when tipped out two wide and came flying past the pacesetter late to score by two lengths. The winner's GSP dam Successful Sarah is responsible for the juvenile filly City Success (City Zip); a yearling colt by Verrazano and a weanling filly by Tale of the Cat. She was bred back to that Ashford resident. C Z Rocket hails from the same family as last weekend's GII Pat O'Brien S. winner Giant Expectations (Frost Giant). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $49,800. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

NEW YORK'S FINEST (g, 3, City Zip--Is It Safe, by Yes It's True) scored his third win of the meet and fourth out of four over this course Friday with a front-running success. The gelding broke through the gate before the start, unseating Jose Lezcano and breaking his bridle, causing a delay and his odds to float up from 8-5 to 3-1. Still favored when the gates sprung, the flashy chestnut shot out of the stalls to take immediate control, zipping along through early fractions of :22.65 and :45.18. Setting sail for home, New York's Finest crossed the line a never-in-doubt 1 3/4-length winner. With Exultation (Kitten's Joy) finished behind him, but was DQ'd and placed fifth for interference. D'funnything (D' Funnybone) was moved up into the place spot. New York's Finest is the second three-time winner of the meet for trainer Linda Rice, who saddled Voodoo Song (English Channel) to his third win this meet last week and will attempt a fourth in Saturday's GIII Saranac S. Graduating at second asking when switched to the turf here after a failed start on dirt last September, New York's Finest was subsequently shelved and returned at Belmont Apr. 29, fading to eighth in a state-bred allowance. Returning to winning ways in a $40,000 claimer over this course and distance, he made it two in a row with a state-bred allowance score over stablemate Psychic Energy (Freud) here Aug. 20. The winner has a 2-year-old half-sister named Scorpion Bowl (Ghostzapper); and a yearling half-brother by Hard Spun. His dam, the unraced Is It Safe, was most recently bred to 2016 GI Kentucky Derby hero Nyquist. She is a daughter of GSP blue hen Ava Knowsthecode, who produced GISWs Justin Phillip (First Samurai) and Greenpointcrusader (Bernardini); MGSW Keyed Entry (Honour and Glory); and GSWs Algorithms (Bernardini) and Successful Mission (Successful Appeal). Lifetime Record: 6-4-0-0, $164,591. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

NYTHA Board Sets Eligibility Dates for 2017 Election:

The 2017 season marks an election year for the President and Board of Directors of the New York Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association, and in order to ensure that all eligible NYTHA members receive a ballot and are able to vote in the upcoming election, it is necessary that all owners and trainers update their contact information.

In order to be eligible to vote, an individual must hold a valid license from the New York State Gaming Commission that is issued no later than Sept. 24, 2017, and own a share in a minimum of one horse that raced at a New York Racing Association track between Jan. 1, 2016, and Sept. 24, 2017.

Managing owners/partners of registered multiple ownership entities racing at NYRA tracks are required to send a list of their eligible partners/owners, including name, address and names of the qualifying horse/horses in which that individual owns a share no later than the deadline of Oct. 2, 2017. Phone numbers and email addresses can also be provided.

The ballots for the NYTHA election will be mailed in October. Please send a complete list of eligible voters to the NYTHA Office, P.O. Box 170070, Jamaica, NY 11417, Attn: Election Committee. You can also email the list to abelfiore@nytha.com, or fax it to (516) 488-1698. The list must be received by close of business on Oct. 2; the mailing list for receipt of ballots will be finalized as of Oct. 2, 2017.

Chaplain Chavez to be Honored as 2017 NYTHA 'EQUISTAR':

Chaplain Humberto Chavez will be honored with the 2017 NYTHA "EquiStar Award" for his dedication to New York's backstretch workers. Chaplain Chavez will be honored during a ceremony at the annual NYTHA PAC Golf Tournament at Rockville Links in Rockville Centre Tuesday, Sept. 26. The EquiStar Award was created by the New York Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association to recognize an individual or organization that, through compassion, hard work and generosity, enrich the New York Thoroughbred industry.

"At any hour, every day, the Chaplain is on call for the people of the backstretch," NYTHA President Rick Violette Jr. said. "No matter a person's station in life, or what faith they might follow, he is there to listen and to help. There is no one more deserving of this small token of our deep appreciation for all that he does."

Originally from Mexico, Chaplain Chavez came to the U.S. when he was 9-years-old, and was raised on Long Island by a single mom who worked two jobs to provide for her son.

In addition to attending to the spiritual needs of the backstretch community, the Race Track Chaplaincy of America also administers the Backstretch Recreation Program, which is funded by the NYTHA. The Chaplaincy offers holiday dinners and parties, citizenship classes, back-to-school programs, to name just a few of their efforts to improve the quality of life for the backstretch.

INSIGHTS ON THE AMERICAN RACING SCENE

1st-WO, C$61k, Msw, 3yo/up, f/m, 6 1/2f (AWT), 1 p.m. ET

MARLINSPIKE (Tapit) ships in from Arlington for a crack at a big purse on debut and is a daughter of champion Surfside (Seattle Slew), who was acquired by the Gainesway braintrust for $500K in foal to Giant's Causeway at KEENOV in 2009. The foal Surfside was carrying at the time became GSW Irish Surf (Giant's Causeway) and Marlinspike is the mare's only live produce since. Surfside's dam Flanders (Seeking the Gold) was 1994's champion 2-year-old filly and is also responsible for MGSW Battle Plan (Empire Maker), now a sire in Japan. Marlinspike carries 4x2 inbreeding to Triple Crown winner Seattle Slew. Essentially (Maclean's Music) is a daughter of the late SW Ticket to Houston (Houston), dam of MGSW & MGISP Runway Model (Petionville) as well as SW & MGSP Mambo Train (Kingmambo). TJCIS PPs

2nd-SAR, $83k, Msw, 2yo, 1 1/16mT, 1:34 p.m. ET

A $100K KEESEP yearling, MARAUD (Blame) breezed an eighth of a mile in :10 1/5 over the Timonium main track a little less than two weeks after his year-older close relative Arklow (Arch) pulled off a minor upset in the GIII American Turf S. at Churchill Downs. Maraud fetched a final bid of $375K, the most expensive of 10 juveniles to sell by the Claiborne stallion in 2017. Maraud is out of a half-sister to the successful turf runner Fourty Niners Son (Distorted Humor) and to 2000 GI Del Mar Debutante victrix Cindy's Hero (Sea Hero), dam of MGSW Delegation (Speightstown). Oroscopo (Orb) was a $75K purchase out of last year's KEESEP sale and matured into a $325K OBSAPR 2yo after breezing an eighth of a mile in :10 1/5. Half-sister Indian Pond (Speightstown) was a SW on synthetic and Grade II-placed on the grass. TJCIS PPs Cont. p5

6th-SAR, $83k, Msw, 2yo, 7f, 3:51 p.m. ET

Storm Dixie (Catienus), dam of 2013 GI Kentucky Oaks winner Princess of Sylmar (Majestic Warrior), was purchased in foal to Tapit for $1.9 million by Barronstown Stud at FTKNOV in 2014, and that produce, BIBLICAL, gets his career underway for China Horse Club and Princess of Sylmar's trainer Todd Pletcher. A $500K KEENOV weanling, the gray was an $800K acquisition at FTSAUG in 2016. Hofburg (Tapit) is a Juddmonte homebred half-brother to GISW Emollient (Empire Maker) and SW & GSP Courtier (Pioneerof the Nile), while Venezuela (Violence), out of a half-sister to the dam of MGISW Miss Temple City (Temple City), is an $85K FTKNOV weanling turned $300K KEESEP yearling, fourth most expensive of the sire's 70 first-crop youngsters to sell in 2016. TJCIS PPs

8th-DMR, $60k, Msw, 2yo, 6 1/2f, 8:26 p.m. ET

INSTILLED REGARD (Arch) was led out of last year's KEESEP sale unsold when bidding stalled out at $110K, but it was a different story at OBSMAR when the maternal grandson of champion Heavenly Prize (Seeking the Gold) was hammered down to Larry Best's OXO Equine for $1.05 million after working a quarter-mile in :20 4/5. Instilled Regard's dam Enhancing (Forestry) is a half-sister to GSW Pure Prize (Storm Cat) and MGISW Good Reward (Storm Cat). Triple Crown winner American Pharoah (Pioneerof the Nile)'s full-brother St Patrick's Day (Pioneerof the Nile) is back in the entries 13 days after finishing a big-figure second to Zayat Stables' Zatter (Midnight Lute) going six furlongs. TJCIS PPs --Alan Carasso

Hall of Fame jockey Julie Krone will return to Monmouth Park Monday, Sept. 4, for an autograph session/meet-and-greet as an ambassador of the HH Sheikh Mansoor Bin Zayed Al Nahyan Global Arabian Horse Flat Racing Festival, who will host two live Arabian races on the day's program.

"It's been years since I've been back to Monmouth," said Krone, who retired from the saddle in 2004. "It's one of the most beautiful places I've ever been and it's where I established my career. I can't wait to be back at Monmouth and to see so many familiar faces that meant so much to me. It will be a great homecoming."

Krone, who rode her last race in Oceanport in 1999, was the leading rider at Monmouth from 1987-1989. She was inducted into the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame in 2000, the only female rider to receive the sport's highest honor.

"We are honored to have her as an ambassador of our racing festival and look forward to her return to Monmouth Park."

Maryland Breeders Announce New Bonus Program:

Beginning with the 2017 Fall meet at Laurel Park, a 50% breeder bonus (the regular 30% plus an additional 20%) will be paid to breeders of registered Maryland-breds by Maryland stallions who win a maiden race in Maryland.

"Anything we can do to encourage breeders is a good investment in the future, and one of the best things we can do as an industry. This Maryland-sired breeder bonus will help a lot of folks," says Mike Pons, whose family stands stallions at Country Life Farm in Bel Air. "We estimate it will add another $250,000 to the breeders' bottom lines. It's one more thing to make breeding, foaling and racing in Maryland more attractive."

This new bonus to breeders of Maryland-bred, Maryland-sired horses is in addition to the current Maryland Million maiden bonus paid to the owner of a Maryland Million eligible horse who breaks its maiden in Maryland.

The Fall meet at Laurel Park begins on Friday, Sep. 8, and includes Jim McKay Maryland Million Day, showcasing Maryland-sired horses Oct. 21.

Blue Grass Farms Charities (BGFC) will hold the charity's annual fundraising event, Tastings & Trivia, Oct. 14, 2017 from 7-11 pm at Foxbrook Farm in Georgetown, K.Y. This year's silent auction featuring vacations, collector halters and much more, will be available for online bidding Oct. 2 at www.Tastings.gesture.com.

Guests will be invited to move around the venue to sample gourmet small plates, wine, craft beer and spirits at tastings stations. Additionally, live auction selections range from an all-expense paid Breeders Cup trip to Lady Gaga concert tickets and the event will feature the first annual Trivia Triple Crown where teams compete based on their knowledge of random facts.

Tickets are now available online at or by visiting the Tastings & Trivia information area on the Blue Grass Farms Charities website, www.bgfcky.org. To secure tickets by mail please contact the BGFC office at 859-219-0910. Special Early Bird ticket pricing is in effect until Sept. 22.

Gains in Consignor Select Yearling Sale:

Equine Sales Company posted across the board gains in its Consignor Select Yearling Sale Thursday in Opelousas, Louisiana. A total of 138 of 193 head sold for a gross of $1,636,400 with an average of $11,858 and median of $7,000. That represents an 8.8% increase in sales compared to last year's total of $1,503,900 with an identical number of horses sold. This year's average of $11,858 rose 8.8% from last year, and the median of $7,000 is 27.3% hike over last year's $5,500. The buyback rate fell this year to 28.5% from 33.7% last term.

"We expected to have a strong sale as our consignors really showcased a excellent selection of yearlings," said Equine Sales Company Sales Director Foster Bridewell. "But I was even a little surprised how good the numbers were considering the region is still dealing with the aftereffects of Hurricane Harvey."

Topping the sale, Hip 116, a Louisiana-bred colt by 2003 Horse of the Year Mineshaft out of the stakes-placed Cat Thief mare Noble Bandit. Purchased by Louis Roussell III, the Apr. 19 foal was consigned by 4M Ranch, agent.

Five other horses realized $50,000 or more, including Hip 93, a Louisiana-bred daughter of Violence who sold for $50,000 to O'Brien Bloodstock from Pike Racing, agent. For hip-by-hip results, go to www.equinesalesofla.com.

The Equine Sales Company Open Yearling and Mixed Sale is set for Oct. 15.

Modest Declines As Trio Top Canadian Premier Sale:
by Alan Carasso

Three colts each fetched bids of C$85,000 to top Thursday's single-session CTHS Canadian Premier Yearling Sale held at Woodbine. The catalogue of 320 Canadian-bred yearlings was fatter by 14% over that of last year's and the sale's major statistical categories saw moderate losses. CTHS reported sales on 204 horses for turnover of C$3.63 million, with the resulting average of C$17,794 representing a decline of 7.5%, while the median of C$10,000 was off by 9.1% from the C$11,000 recorded in 2016.

In addition to the Victor's Cry colt who fetched the joint-top price as hip 120, a pair of offerings consigned by Richard G. Hogan as agent joined in later in the afternoon. Hip 262 was purchased by trainer Roger Attfield, who conditioned both the colt's sire, 2008 Queen's Plate hero Not Bourbon, and his 2009 GI Del Mar Oaks-winning dam Internallyflawless (Giant's Causeway), both on behalf of Charles Fipke, who also bred hip 262. Internal Bourbon, a full-sister to the co-topper, is a stakes winner of over $300,000, while the further female family includes the tremendous racemare Bosra Sham.

The sale's top filly went through early in the session. Hip 9, a daughter of Old Forester and the first foal from Peggy'sanexecutive (Bold Executive), a winning half-sister to SW Dancing On Fire (Philanthropist) She was sold to Danny Dion's Bear Stables Ltd & Colebrook Farm, who bred the filly and stayed in for a piece, for C$75,000. 11th-SAP, Sapporo Nisai S.-G3, ¥59,310,000 ($538k), 2yo, 1800mT

MATSUKAZE (c, 2, War Front--Night Lagoon {Ger}, by Lagunas {Ger}) was purchased in utero for $1.7 million at FTKNOV in 2014 and with good reason, as his half-brother Novellist (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) was a G1 winner in Germany, Italy, France and the King George at Ascot. Matsukaze, a $550K KEESEP grad, tries this rich event as a maiden, having finished a promising runner-up on his course-and-distance debut Aug. 13 (video, gate 8). B-Barronstown Stud (KY)

Sunday, September 3, 2017

6th-NII, ¥13,400,000 ($122k), Newcomers, 2yo, 1200m

DELIGHT PROMISE (f, 2, Lemon Drop Kid--Teddy's Promise, by Salt Lake) is the first foal from her dam, who rose through the California-bred ranks to win the GI La Brea S. in 2011 (video) before becoming a reliable sprinter on the West Coast over the next few seasons. The mare has since been exported to Japan, where she produced a colt by Heart's Cry (Jpn) this past February. This filly's third dam produced GSW & GISP General Meeting (Seattle Slew). Leading rider Mirco Demuro takes the call. B-Ted & Judith Nichols Trust Dated Feb. 18 1999 (KY)

10th-SAP, ¥30,400,000 ($276k), Open Class, 2yo, 1200mT

MOLTO ALLEGRO (f, 2, Speightstown--Mo Chuisle, by Free House), a half-sister to ill-fated champion and MGISW Points Offthebench (Benchmark) and GSW Bench Points (Benchmark), cost $525K as a KEESEP yearling and got her career off on the right foot with a debut victory over the dirt at Hakodate June 24 (video, gate 1). Her second dam Visible Gold (Deputy Minister) was a Grade III winner on the grass. B-Town & Country Horse Farms & Frank & Kim Taylor (KY)

11th-KOK, Kokura Nisai S.-G3, ¥59,510,000 ($540k), 2yo, 1200mT

ASAKUSA GENKI (c, 2, Stormy Atlantic--Amelia, by Dixieland Band) (profile) was off the mark at third asking over this course and distance (video, gate 1) Aug. 13, while MOZU SUPERFLARE (f, 2, Speightstown--Christies Treasure, by Belong to Me) (profile) is back on two weeks' rest after leading home a US-bred 1-2 over track and trip Aug. 19 (video, gate 11). Each has a double-digit draw to overcome Sunday. --Alan Carasso

DERBY DREAM FOR SOLDIER HOLLOW COLT

The sale-topping son of Soldier Hollow | Helmut von Finck

By Emma Berry

BADEN-BADEN, Germany–It may be only a short flight from Doncaster to Baden-Baden, but in bloodstock terms it's a world away. While the crowd at the Goffs UK Premier Sale is preoccupied with precocity and speed, at BBAG most of the post-transaction chat involves the word 'Derby.'

It's refreshing to hear such devotion to the Classic cause in a country whose breeders are still focused on the pursuit of glory in German racing's holy grail, the G1 Deutsches Derby. And for those on each side of the sale of the BBAG top lot (182), a €500,000 brother to Group 1 winner Dschingis Secret (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}), it's a case of 'if at first you don't succeed, then try again.' Dschingis Secret landed his highest-profile win in last month's G1 Grosser Preis von Berlin, but his third-place finish in last year's Derby, which went to an appeal after the jockeys on the first two horses home breached the whip rule, still rankles the horse's owner, Horst Pudwill. Come 2019, he hopes to have another shot at Derby glory with Dschingis Secret's younger sibling, bought from his breeder Helmut von Finck of Gestut Park Wiedingen.

Pudwill, who is based in Hong Kong, wasn't present at the sale but did his bidding via telephone through a BBAG agent, who confirmed that the colt will go into training in Germany with Markus Klug, who also trains his brother and was successful in this year's Deutsches Derby with Windstoss (Ger) (Shirocco {Ger}).

Von Finck, who raced Soldier Hollow and stands him at Gestut Auenquelle, said, "Thirty years ago I bought this colt's third dam [Diana Dance] at Keeneland. It is one of my favourite families and one which has been very good to me all the way through, especially the dam of this colt, Divya. She has been mated exclusively with Soldier Hollow--I have to keep going back after her first foal was a Group 1 winner--and she has a lovely filly foal by him this year who will not be for sale."

The winner of three races at four and five, Divya (Ger) (Platini {Ger}) is also the dam of the Group 3 runner-up Diana Storm (Ger).

Despite some notable highlights, it's fair to say that the trade was patchy throughout a marathon session in Iffezheim, where 177 of the 252 horses offered were marked as sold at a rate of 70%, falling from 78% last year. Turnover was down by 8% to €7,783,000 and the average and median both dropped slightly, by 2%, to €43,971 and €44,000.

Good Moon Rising...

The 11-length G1 Deutsches Derby victory of Sea The Moon is clearly still fresh in the memory of many in his native country, as the young Lanwades stallion was very much the toast of Baden-Baden, where 13 of his first-crop yearlings sold for an average of €97,769. Leading the bunch at €460,000 was a colt from Gestut Gorlsdorf, the East German farm owned by Heike Bischoff and Niko Lafrentz, who bred and raced the son of Sea The Stars (Ire). The second-top lot of the sale (49) is a son of the winning Montjeu (Ire) mare Favorite (Ger), who has already produced the Hughie Morrison-trained five-time winner Fun Mac (Ger) (Shirocco {Ger}), a listed scorer on his most recent outing at Maisons-Laffitte.

"He was a hugely talented racehorse and we think he's going to be a really good stallion prospect."
-Tom Goff on Sea The Moon

The colt was one of two acquisitions by Godolphin at the sale, with Blandford Bloodstock agent Tom Goff acting on behalf of Sheikh Mohammed's operation and withstanding strong international interest from Norwegian trainer Wido Neuroth, who had to settle for the role of underbidder, as well as Australian agent Justin Bahen.

"My partner Richard Brown helped to negotiate the deal for Sea The Moon to stand at Lanwades. He was a hugely talented racehorse and we think he's going to be a really good stallion prospect," said Goff. "This was just an exceptionally nice horse, a really great mover."

Heike Bischoff was on hand to congratulate the buyer and added, "It's super special--even more so because he's not just by Sea The Moon but out of my favourite mare Favorite."

Delighted by the reception given to her stallion from a diverse pool of buyers at BBAG, Bischoff, who plans to race between 10 and 15 homebred members of Sea The Moon's first crop, said, "I'm absolutely thrilled and it's a relief as much as anything. It's a big risk for a small breeder to support a stallion so strongly so I'm pleased to see so much confidence in him from big owners and agents." Cont. p3

She continued, "It was a tough decision for me not to stand the horse in Germany, but it is hard for a German stallion to become truly international. In Newmarket he had a good chance because it is the centre of the breeding world and there are so many mares visiting. He has been well supported and there are some really nice yearlings to be sold in Newmarket next month."

Among the best-selling yearlings by Sea The Moon was lot 120, a colt out of Moonlight Rhapsody (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), a winning half-sister to Group 2 winner Fantastic Love (Peintre Celebre), who was bred in Britain by James Stewart of Wellsummers Stud. The colt will remain in Germany to race after being bought by Stall Mandarin for €140,000.

Lot 49, €460,000 Sea The Moon colt | Emma Berry

"This was an experiment really and it's a first for me to sell here," said Stewart, who consigned the colt through Peter Rodde's Gestut Westerberg. "I was introduced to Peter by Charlie Parker of Crimbourne Stud, who is now leasing Wellsummers from me. My mares are still at the stud, including Moonlight Rhapsody who has a lovely Al Kazeem foal at foot and is in foal to Havana Gold."

Peter and Ross Doyle bought the most expensive Sea The Moon filly of the sale (lot 199), another bred by Gorlsdorf from the young listed winner Nouvelle Neige (Ger) (Big Shuffle). She will be trained in Norway by Wido Neuroth after bringing the hammer down at €180,000.

Though slightly upstaged by his young son, Sea The Stars made his mark via his sole representative in the catalogue, lot 191, another to be sold to Godolphin through Tom Goff.

"He's a typical Sea The Stars, who we really like. As an Apr. 1 colt he's relatively late and he's just going to mature all the time," said the agent after signing the ticket at €200,000. The first foal is out of the dual winner Intimhir (Ire) (Muthathir {GB}), a grand-daughter of the great Sacarina (GB) (Old Vic {GB}), the dam of three German Classic winners in Samum (Ger), Schiaparelli (Ger) and Salve Regina (Ger).

Master Class...

Coolmore stallion Mastercraftsman (Ire) was another whose offspring were prominent on the leader board, with seven marked as sold for an average of €125,285.

Agent Suzanne Roberts signed for the most expensive (lot 186), a filly out of the black-type winner and producer Felicity (Ger) (Inchinor {GB}), for €250,000. The half-sister to the German champion miler Felician (Ger) (Motivator {GB}) was offered on behalf of breeder Janet Lewe-Ostermann of Gestut Haus Itlingen by Ronald Rauscher.

Bertrand Le Metayer was unwilling to divulge the identity of the new owner of lot 198, Gestut Wittenkindshof's Mastercraftsman half-sister to the Hong Kong-based Pakistan Star (Ger) (Shamardal), who was bought for €235,000, while former football manager Klaus Aloffs went to €140,000 for lot 52 by Mastercraftsman (Ire), the first foal of listed winner Goiania (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) from Gestut Fahrhof. Aloffs currently races Group 1 winner Potemkin (Ger) (New Approach {Ire}) with Andreas Jacobs's operation.

Another first-season stallion to make his mark on the day's trade was Galileo's Derby-winning son Australia (GB), the sire of Gestut Westerberg's homebred colt out of the Group 3 winner and G1 Preis der Diana runner-up Diamond Dove (Ger) (Dr Fong). The first foal was sold to local owner-breeder Peter Endres for €110,000.

Pinhooking Profit For Casse...

The team from the Hong Kong Jockey Club pounced for the sole son of Kodiac (GB) in the catalogue (lot 195), who sold for €200,000 through Stauffenberg Bloodstock having been pinhooked by Justin Casse for 50,000gns at Tattersalls last December. Bred in Ireland by Nafferty Stud, the colt is a half-brother to GII Mac Diarmida H. winner Ramazutti (Honor Grades).

Dabirsim's popularity may not yet quite be in Kodiac's league but he is a stallion on the rise and members of his second crop, the last to be conceived in Germany at Gestut Karlshof before he moved to Haras de Grandcamp in France, were understandably popular. With 11 2-year-old winners on the board including Royal Ascot heroine Different League (Fr), Dabirsim had two six-figure lots sold at Baden-Baden on Friday, including lot 35, bought by Suzanne Roberts for an undisclosed Irish-based client for €100,000. Cont. p5

The Karlshof-consigned colt is a grandson of dual Grade I winner Janet (Emperor Jones).

Later in the session, Finn Blichfelt went to €130,000 for lot 216, this colt consigned by Eric Lhermite of Grandcamp and a son of German listed winner Amazing Beauty (Ger) (Bahamian Bounty {GB}).

ALJAZZI THE ONE TO AIM AT

Boasting the best recent form in Saturday's G3 Betbright Casino Atalanta S. at Sandown, Aljazzi (GB) (Shamardal) bids to prove her much-improved effort when runner-up in the G2 Duke of Cambridge S. was no fluke. Having split the classy French duo Qemah (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) and Usherette (Ire) (Shamardal) when 40-1 in that June 21 Royal Ascot contest, Saleh Al Homaizi and Imad Al Sagar's homebred has been laid out for this by trainer Marco Botti. "Obviously, Ascot was her best performance to date and it was on fast ground. She had a nice break since and seems in great form," he explained. "We've been waiting for this race for a while. They've had a few showers at Sandown, but the ground shouldn't be any worse than good. I couldn't be happier with her condition and we hope for the best."

Finishing strongly when runner-up to the Group 1 filly Rain Goddess (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in Sunday's G3 Snow Fairy Fillies S. over nine furlongs at The Curragh, it is interesting that Cheveley Park Stud's Intimation (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) is brought back into action so quickly by Sir Michael Stoute. He has saddled a record six winners in this, with the latest being the 2013 dead-heater Integral (GB) (Dalakhani {Ire}) also in these silks. As a half-sister to Mutakayyef (GB) (Sea the Stars {Ire}), Intimation--who also won the Listed Garnet S. over this distance at Naas in October--is probably versatile regarding trip. "She was unlucky last week, but she's in good form," commented the stud's managing director Chris Richardson. "I know it's a quick run back, but she came out of the race well and she's improved from last year. We'll see what happens."

John Gosden trained last year's winner Persuasive (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) for Cheveley Park and this time has a trio headed by Abdullah Saeed Al Naboodah's Nathra (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}). Third to Massaat (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) in the seven-furlong G3 Hungerford S. at Newbury a fortnight ago, last year's G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches runner-up has a class edge if able to reproduce her best. "She's not got a bad draw [in six], she's been working well and has a good chance," the owner's racing manager Bruce Raymond said. "Stepping back up to a mile will suit her. It looked as though she wanted a mile on her last start."

MEGERA PUTS DIANA FORM TO THE TEST

Baden-Baden's "Great festival week" is building to a crescendo, with Saturday's action centred around the G2 T von Zastrow Stutenpreis for some of the country's leading fillies and mares, with an automatic berth into the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf on the line. Several of these took part in the G1 Preis der Diana (German Oaks) at Dusseldorf on Aug. 6, with the runner-up Megera (Fr) (Motivator {GB}) clear best of them. Rashit Shaykhutdinov's bay had previously won the May 20 Listed Preis Dusseldorf, but her performance in the 11-furlong Classic represented a major leap forward and if she is able to reproduce that she should be hard to beat. Fourth in the Diana was Stall Ullmann's Tusked Wings (Ire) (Adlerflug {Ger}), who had captured Hoppegarten's G2 Diana-Trial over 10 furlongs on her prior visit to the races on June 4, while the older brigade boasts Gestut Wittekindshof's Aug. 6 Listed Fritz Henkel Stiftungs-Rennen scorer Near England (Ire) (Lord of England {Ger}). She was the winner of last year's G3 Hamburger Stuten-Preis and G3 Deutsches St Leger at Dortmund and if able to get back to that standard will set the 3-year-olds a test.

TEAM GODOLPHIN LOOKS TO MASAR

Godolphin's fine season could continue apace on Saturday with 'TDN Rising Star' Masar (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) a hot prospect in the G3 Betbright Solario S. at Sandown. Rested since his third to the high-class fillies September (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) and Nyaleti (Ire) (Arch) in the Listed Chesham S. over this trip at Royal Ascot on June 24, the homebred who had previously beaten the proven group performer Invincible Army (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) on debut over six furlongs at Goodwood on May 25 has stable confidence behind him. "We purposely gave him a break after Ascot and physically he's done very well," trainer Charlie Appleby said. "He got the seven furlongs well in the Chesham and it looks as though he'll have conditions to suit. He's a next year horse on pedigree, but he's come on a lot physically since his last run and we're going into Saturday full of confidence. I can't find any negatives." Cont. p7

"He's a next year horse on pedigree, but he's come on a lot physically since his last run and we're going into Saturday full of confidence. I can't find any negatives."

John Gosden has a special affinity with Sandown and Khalid Abdullah's Purser (Mizzen Mast) commands respect as the stable representative. There was much to take out of his racecourse introduction at this distance at Newbury on Aug. 18, where he was hand ridden to score cosily against experienced rivals and it is notable that the yard's two recent winners were Raven's Pass and Kingman (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). "He's been straightforward and I thought he was given a super ride by Ryan [Moore] when he won at Newbury," the owner-breeder's racing manager Teddy Grimthorpe commented. "One would hope he learnt a bit from that. This is a big step up, so we'll see how he goes. I wouldn't have thought he'd want the ground too soft." Alan Spence's Connect (GB) (Roderic O'Connor {Ire}) was impressive when making all and beating Purser's useful stablemate Westerland (GB) (Frankel {GB}) by six lengths over this course and distance on Aug. 2 and trainer Clive Cox said, "His course form is obviously a very strong positive and with the ground on the easy side, it looks like he'll encounter similar conditions to last time," he commented. "He produced a nice time to win, he's pleased me since and we think he's a progressive horse."

RUM RUNNER (GB) (c, 2, Havana Gold {Ire}--Thermopylae {GB}, by Tenby {GB}), who was fourth on debut over this trip at Newbury Aug. 18, traded at 11-1 and enjoyed a perfect slot in third against the rail throughout the early stages. Angled out passing the quarter pole, the 15,000gns TATFOA foal and €50,000 TIRSEP yearling hit the front with a furlong remaining and asserted to score by 1 1/4 lengths from Enzemble (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}). WORLDWIDE NEWS

CHINA'S RICHEST RACE RUNS SATURDAY

The A$200,000 Inglis-China Australia Cup Final takes place on Saturday over 1200 metres at Yulong Racecourse in Shanxi. The race, which is the richest in China, has drawn 14 runners sourced from Inglis sales and is part of Inglis's programme to support horse racing in China.

"The Inglis China-Australia Cup has been a positive factor toward the development of racing in China, and has been a great draw card for the importing of Australian-bred horses by Chinese owners," said Yulong's Zhang Yuesheng. "The Australian-bred horse population in China has increased significantly over the past few years and this has seen the quality of horses racing in China greatly improve."

Inglis Managing Director Mark Webster added, "Mr Zhang is an industry leader and is now understandably and deservingly known as one of the best in the business. He has developed a first-class racecourse in China but has also become a serious player at the Australian sales over the past few years and we look forward to him enjoying many more successes in years to come."

Post time for the China-Australia Cup is 5:50 p.m. AEST (3:50 a.m. EST) on Saturday and it can be viewed live here.

CURATOLO BAGS A PAIR IN SINGAPORE

by Alan Carasso

French-born Ryan Curatolo, who made a name for himself in the United States in the early part of this decade before becoming a top-five rider in Macau, visited Singapore's Kranji Racecourse for the first time Friday afternoon and walked away with two winners from four rides for trainer C. T. Kuah.

A well-beaten ninth aboard 16-1 Aeolus (NZ) (Alamosa {NZ}) in his first mount, the 25-year-old made the most of the opportunity to ride 2-1 choice Golden Spark (Munnings) in a Class 5 going 1000 metres over the all-weather track, scoring by a length (video). He doubled his tally with a 1 1/4-length success from near the tail astride $22 (17-5) favourite Eden Garden (NZ) (Thorn Park {Aus}) in a grassy Class 5 (video) going seven furlongs and finished off his day with a fourth-place effort atop fellow 17-5 gamble Any Rumour (NZ) (Any Suggestion {Aus}).

"This is wonderful. Better than I thought it would be," Curatolo told Singapore Turf Club's Michael Lee. "I'm very delighted with such an amazing first day in Singapore. One was great, but two is unreal. I'm very thankful to the Singapore Turf Club and my main sponsor CT Kuah for the support. I did think Golden Spark and Eden Garden were my two best chances and they didn't disappoint."

A finalist for an Eclipse Award as apprentice jockey in 2011, Curatolo rode 183 winners, mostly on the competitive New York circuit, including three graded stakes. Since relocating to Macau, Curatolo has booted home 90 winners, including a victory in the Macau Gold Cup, a local Group 1, this past July.
