KITTEN'S JOY RELOCATING TO HILL 'N' DALE

Kitten's Joy | facebook.com/RamseyFarm

by Alan Carasso, additional reporting by Bill Finley

Kitten's Joy (El Prado {Ire}--Kitten's First, by Lear Fan), the perennial leading sire of turf runners in North America and second only to Galileo (Ire) on the TDN list of leading turf sires worldwide, will relocate to John Sikura's Hill 'n' Dale Farm for the 2018 breeding season. Sikura told the TDN Thursday afternoon that he had acquired a 50% stake in the stallion with Ken and Sarah Ramsey retaining the other half-interest.

"He's the premier turf sire in North America and we believe he has the potential to be a leading international sire," Sikura said, adding that Hill 'n' Dale's interest is to be syndicated amongst a group of international breeders. "He's a horse without boundaries. His progeny are winning group races all over the world and with the inclusion of international breeders plus leading North American breeders and with the reemerging influence of turf racing here in America, I think it provides a great opportunity. He's a leading sire with even though he has fewer opportunities than dirt sires. To be perennially a leading sire puts him into an elite category."

Kitten's Joy comes to Hill 'n' Dale as the sire of 11 top-level winners at home and abroad. His Grade I/Group 1 winners this season include Secretariat S. hero Oscar Performance, Sword Dancer Invitational victor Sadler's Joy and Woodford Reserve Turf Classic winner Divisidero. Cont. p3

SPENDTHRIFT TO STAND BOLT D'ORO

B. Wayne Hughes's Spendthrift Farm has partnered with Mick Ruis's Ruis Racing to stand multiple Grade I-winning juvenile Bolt d'Oro (Medaglia d'Oro--Globe Trot, by A.P. Indy) at Spendthrift upon his retirement, the farm announced Thursday.

"I've had the pleasure of getting to know Mick and his family," Hughes said. "They're great people, and I'm thrilled to be in partnership with them, particularly on such an exciting young colt as Bolt d'Oro. I think we are seeing a budding superstar. It's going to be a lot of fun watching his career develop."

Ruis Racing, which acquired Bolt d'Oro for $630,000 at last year's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Select sale, will continue to campaign the son of Medaglia d'Oro through the remainder of his racing career. Cont. p4 (click here)

Roaring Lion and Taareef have flown the flag for the sire in Europe with pattern successes over the last two weeks, while recent GI Northern Dancer Turf S. runner-up Hawkbill won the 2016 G1 Coral-Eclipse S. for Godolphin. Overall, Kitten's Joy is the sire of 81 black-type winners, 37 of which have come at the graded/group level.

At Hill 'n' Dale, Sikura also stands one of this country's best sires of dirt runners in the form of Curlin, and believes the addition of Kitten's Joy gives Hill 'n' Dale a serious one-two punch.

"In my opinion, Curlin has the ability to sire a Classic horse and now with the leading turf sire it broadens our spectrum and makes us more relevant to a broader base of breeders," Sikura said. "[Kitten's Joy] is a horse I've long admired and now to have the opportunity to stand the horse and manage his career and have a significant vested interest and do our part to achieve further recognition is outstanding. We hope to elevate his profile to where it deservedly needs to be which is a world-class horse."

The announcement comes two weeks after Ken Ramsey exclusively told TDN's Bill Finley that he was disappointed with the performance of Kitten's Joy yearlings at the Keeneland September sale and, at the time, was "90% certain" that he would be able to work out a deal to stand the stallion in Europe. He backed off those plans this past Tuesday, explaining to Finley that pressure from his family had led to those plans being scrapped and that he was in negotiations to stand Kitten's Joy in Kentucky.

"The road to success is always under construction," Ramsey said. "In this case there were some detours. In the end, I feel like we made the right decision for all concerned. We were offered more money by at least one other farm. But the horse came first and everyone in the Ramsey family agreed that Hill 'n' Dale was the best fit for him. We took a vote--myself, my wife, my four children and my two grandchildren and Hill n Dale was a a unanimous winner."

Ramsey added, "This will change the perception of the horse. He will have a different control group of mares. We had been breeding him to same claimers of our own or horses with lesser pedigrees. We did so because of different physical factors, nicking patterns, etc., but mainly because we were looking to make it into the winner's circle and not to create a horse to put in the sales ring. We've had a lot of success with him and I think what we did worked."

Ramsey said that Hill 'n' Dale will install an underwater treadmill similar to one in use at Ramsey Farm and that the farm had agreed to use Kitten's Joy's regular chiropractor and will employ the sire's groom, should he wish to make the transition.

Sikura plans on supporting the stallion in a few different ways.

"We will target not only members of our own broodmare band, but also at the upcoming auctions with mares with think will suit him physically and from a nicking point of view and from an aptitude point of view to try to ensure success," he said. "The horse already gets Grade I winners, so we're going to do all that we can to complement a horse of that stature with the equal component of important mares. I believe he's the kind of horse that can sire and Arc winner, a Breeders' Cup winner, Japan Cup--all the elite races. There is no ceiling on what his progeny can achieve. We are excited about the opportunity to breed to him and try to breed that world-class horse."

The bay colt is undefeated in three starts and annexed the GI Del Mar Futurity and GI FrontRunner S. to stamp himself one of the favorites for the GI Sentient Jet Breeders' Cup Juvenile Nov. 4 at Del Mar and the early leader for champion 2-year-old colt honors.

"It wasn't all about money when finding a partner to stand Bolt d'Oro at stud," said Ruis. "It was about being able to partner with B. Wayne Hughes."

Bolt d'Oro is a half-brother to MSW/MGSP sophomore Sonic Mule (Distorted Humor) out of a half-sister to the dam of 'TDN Rising Star' and MSW/MGSP 3-year-old Recruiting Ready (Algorithms). He is also bred on the same cross as 2011 GI Kentucky Oaks heroine Plum Pretty. Click to return to p1

SURFACE SWITCHERS MAKE FOR MUDDLED ALCIBIADES

by Joe Bianca

Juvenile fillies are generally hard to figure out at this time of year, but the field for Keeneland's opening day feature, the GI Darley Alcibiades S., throws an additional wrench into the perennially inscrutable event with six of the 10 lasses entered having made their last start on a surface other than dirt.

Narrow morning-line favoritism resides with Lothenbach Stables' Bet She Wins (First Samurai), a dazzling winner of the synthetic-surface Arlington-Washington Lassie last out Sept. 9.

Squeezing through a rail opening in early stretch, the $230,000 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga grad powered away in the final furlong to a 9 1/2-length romp, earning a field-best 90 Beyer for the effort. Prior to that, the gray started twice on turf. She got her first feel for a traditional main track when breezing a half-mile in :48 2/5 (11/53) Sept. 30 at Keeneland. Both her first and second dams broke their maidens over dirt, although both were slightly superior figure-wise on grass. Cont. p5

The most compelling dirt form in the race belongs to Evan, Matthew and Andrew Trommer's Princess Warrior (Midshipman), who debuted with an impressive off-the-pace victory Sept. 16 at Churchill Downs (video), getting her final furlong of the six-panel test in under 12 seconds and receiving an 86 Beyer. The $60,000 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic buy has to handle a significant stretch-out, but has some breeding to do so, as her second dam is a half-sister to champion and sire of numerous star stayers Unbridled (Fappiano).

Of the five runners coming in off of turf efforts, Debby M. Oxley's Heavenly Love (Malibu Moon) stands out. The homebred showed late interest after a slow start to be third debuting on the Gulfstream main track June 24 and, after a brief layoff, exploded away to a five-length graduation with ears pricked Sept. 7 at Kentucky Downs (video).

The bay has shown promise on dirt in the mornings, touting three sharp breezes at Churchill in the summer, including a best-of-56 half-mile spin in :47 flat Aug. 11. She is a half-sister to GSW dirt runner Forever Darling (Congrats) out Oxley's Darling My Darling (Deputy Minister), who won both the Raven Run S. and Doubledogdare S. on the local dirt and placed in the GI Matron S. and GI Frizette S.

Tobey L. Morton's Pacific Gale (Flat Out) became the first stakes winner for her freshman sire (by Flatter) when kicking away to a convincing score in the Sorority S. Sept. 2 at Monmouth. Picked up for $72,000 at OBS April, the bay stretches out beyond six furlongs for the first time.

Zayat Stables' Sassy Sienna (Midshipman) merits a look. An open-lengths victress at odds-on over the Indiana Grand turf July 19, the $65,000 Keeneland September purchase ran a sneaky-good third in the P. G. Johnson S. Aug. 31 at Saratoga, overcoming some early trouble and rallying into a slow pace to just miss second. Trying dirt for the first time, the dark bay has reason to like it, as second dam Golden Reef (Mr. Prospector) was a GSW/MGISP juvenile on the main track.

WHITMORE LOOKS TO BOUNCE BACK IN WIDE OPEN PHOENIX

by Joe Bianca

In the spring, it appeared as though Whitmore (Pleasantly Perfect) was on his way to the top of the sprint division and a possible Eclipse Award after reeling off five straight victories since being turned back from a try at the Triple Crown trail in 2016. Two third-place efforts as the heavy favorite later, however, the chestnut is just looking to regroup and punch his ticket to the GI TwinSpires Breeders' Cup Sprint in the GII Stoll Keenon Ogden Phoenix S. at Keeneland.

A romping winner of the Hot Springs S. and GIII Count Fleet Sprint H. at Oaklawn, Whitmore scored again in the GIII Maryland Sprint S. May 20 at Pimlico and went postward at a tick over even-money in the GII True North S. June 9 at Belmont. Cont. p6

Not showing his usual early lick, the gelding had a mild run and was beaten 6 1/4 lengths. After getting the summer off, he was made a 1-2 chalk in the GIII DeFrancis Memorial Dash S. Sept. 16 and again only managed to fill out the trifecta.

PJG Stable's Favorite Tale (Tale of the Cat) finished third at over 23-1 on this track in the 2015 Breeders' Cup Sprint, but has started only three times since then, recently coming off of a near 18-month layoff to run second in the Pennsylvania-bred Banjo Picker Sprint S. Sept. 2 at Parx. The bay is arguably the horse to beat on his best form, but spots recency to the rest of this 11-horse field.

Katherine G. Ball's Limousine Liberal (Successful Appeal) just missed in this event last year when second by a nose to A. P. Indian (Indian Charlie), leader of the sprint division at that time. The dark bay notched victories in the GII Churchill Downs S. and GIII Aristedes S. this spring, but disappointed when third as the favorite in the GI Alfred G. Vanderbilt H. last out July 29 at Saratoga.

Harry T. Rosenblum and Robert V. LaPenta's 'TDN Rising Star' Uncontested (Tiz Wonderful) returns to Lexington for the first time since dominating his debut at Keeneland last October to earn his Rising Star nod. Sent on the Derby trail after a dominant score in the Smarty Jones S. in January, the dark bay went winless in his next four starts before getting back on track in a high-priced Churchill optional claimer Sept. 17.

Amerman Racing Stables' Threefiveindia (Street Hero) looks for his first graded stakes score. Third in the GIII Gallant Bob S. and second in the GIII Bold Ruler H. as a sophomore, the chestnut went winless in his next four starts, but appears to be rounding back into form, having easily annexed a Saratoga optional claimer when last seen Aug. 26.

KEENELAND INSTATES CONCUSSION PROTOCOL FOR JOCKEYS

Keeneland will require jockeys competing in the 2017 Fall Meet, which begins Friday, to complete a baseline concussion assessment prior to being allowed to ride, the track announced Thursday. The Lexington oval is among the first racetracks in the U.S. to establish concussion management and return to participation protocol.

"Keeneland is proud of this concussion protocol and the collaborative effort that created it," Keeneland Vice President of Racing and Sales Bob Elliston said. "This is another critical step in maintaining the safest possible racing environment for our jockeys."

The move is part of a pilot project between the Jockeys' Guild and the University of Kentucky, funded by a number of Thoroughbred industry organizations. Initially conceived by Keeneland Medical Director Dr. Barry Schumer and now overseen by Carl Mattacola, Ph.D. and Associate Dean, UK College of Health Sciences, the protocol was developed over several years, and guidelines were assessed and approved by the Jockeys' Guild Board of Directors. Cont. p7

"Implementation of a mandatory baseline testing protocol and the subsequent guidelines to determine return to participation after a suspected head injury improves medical care and thus prevents more serious injury," Mattacola said. "This protocol, similar to the sports medicine model currently instituted at Pimlico, provides a standard of care and serves as a model for other racetracks to institute. We are grateful to the industry sponsors who helped make this a reality."

The protocol follows guidelines established by the consensus statement at the Fifth International Conference on Concussion in Sport in Berlin in October 2016. It provides a systematic methodology so that a return to participation decision can be made using an evidence-based approach, similar to the ones used by the NFL, NBA, NASCAR and NCAA.

"It is our belief that head injuries are one of the most pressing issues that jockeys and their families face today," Terry Meyocks, National Manager of the Jockeys' Guild, said. "We greatly appreciate the University of Kentucky for conducting this pilot project, as well as the support we received from all of the other racetracks in Kentucky and industry organizations. The Board strongly believes that it is imperative that on-track medical personnel are trained in concussion management and hopes that these guidelines will be implemented at tracks throughout the country."

Under the guidelines, all jockeys riding at Keeneland must maintain an active account in the Jockey Health Information System (JHIS). If a jockey incurs a fall and/or suspected concussion, he or she will undergo a standardized concussion management assessment, the SCAT-5 (Sport Concussion Assessment Tool), to evaluate physical feeling, symptoms, memory and cognitive function prior to being cleared to ride again.

Post-injury assessments will be uploaded to the JHIS for comparison and assessment after an incident. The JHIS, implemented in 2008, is a national database of jockeys' updated medical histories, so in the event of an injury, the records are immediately accessible to emergency personnel at racetracks throughout the country.

THOROUGHBRED MAKEOVER KICKS OFF

by Jen Roytz

This week retired racehorses from all over the U.S. and Canada converged on Lexington, Kentucky to compete in the $100,000 Thoroughbred Makeover, presented by TCA. The action kicked off Thursday for the nearly 400 horses entered in the world's biggest retired racehorse training competition. All horses have received eight months or less of training since their last race and can compete in up to two of the 10 disciplines offered (barrel racing, competitive trail, dressage, eventing, field hunter, freestyle, polo, ranch work, show hunter, show jumping).

Chya Johnstone aboard Stormtoremember | Jen Roytz

One of many riders who traveled hundreds of miles to compete at this year's Makeover is jockey Chya Johnstone, who took off of her mounts this week at Remington Park to haul her two horses from Oklahoma to the Kentucky Horse Park.

Johnstone will be competing on Stormtoremember (Actor) in the dressage and show jumping divisions and on Crawley (The Visualizer) in the dressage and eventing divisions.

"I rode him in the mornings and told his trainer, "I would love to have him when he's done," said Johnstone, who retrains and rehomes retired racehorses in her spare time, including several that are competing with other riders at the Makeover this week.

"He survived the Moore, Oklahoma tornado [in 2013] that killed over 200 people and lots of horses and other animals. His trainer and owner have followed him closely and are excited to see him compete here."

The Thoroughbred Makeover is helping to introduce Thoroughbreds to new equestrian audiences as well.

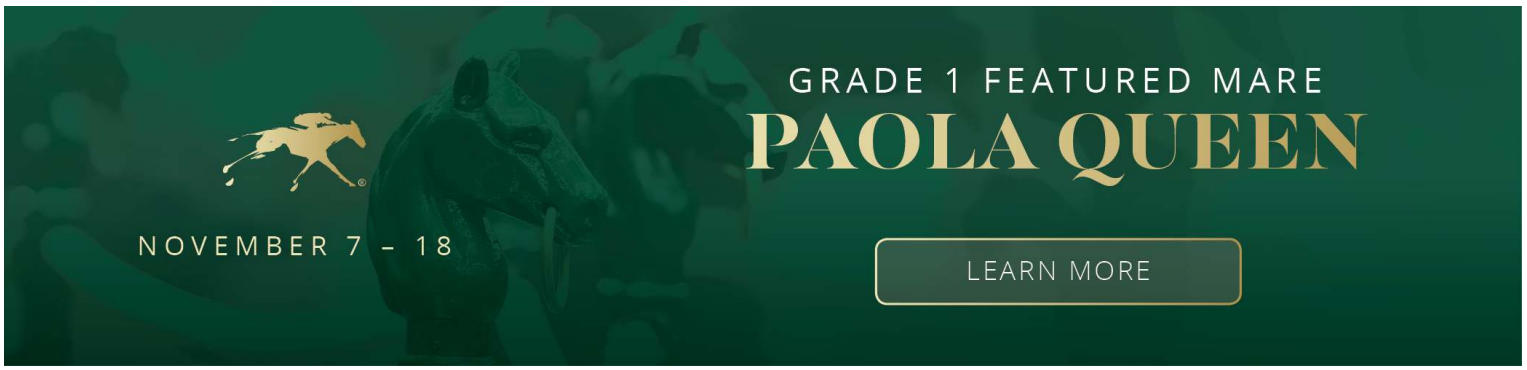
Danielle Ford and her husband operate HillFord Farm, where they breed and import warmbloods and compete throughout the country on the A and AA show circuit.

"We really only deal with Warmbloods, and that's what our clients have as well, but finding and retraining Wakeboarder has converted me," said Ford of the son of Bold Executive, whose 60-race career included seven wins. The pair only recently competed in their first horse show to prepare for the Makeover, earning reserve champion honors in the Baby Green division in Tryon, NC.

"I found him by chance, just mindlessly scrolling through Facebook. [Jockey] Megan Fadlovich had posted a video of her trotting him," she continued. "He moved like a nice show hunter, with that swing in his shoulder and suspension. He was entered in a claiming race that week [at Mahoning Valley] and I told the trainer 'Don't run him--I want him for the Makeover!' I wasn't letting him get away."

Preliminary competition concluded on Thursday for the field hunter, polo and working ranch divisions. Competition for the other seven divisions will continue through the day Friday. Live scoring can be found at the RRP's website here.

The top five finishers in each division will come back for the Thoroughbred Makeover Finale Saturday, where final placings and prize money will be awarded, as will the title of America's Most Wanted Thoroughbred for the competition's overall winner. The Thoroughbred Makeover Finale begins at 9:00 a.m.



Saturday in the Kentucky Horse Park's Covered Arena. Tickets can be purchased at the door or at the RRP's website.

Belmont, Keeneland to Offer Cross-Country Pick 4 Saturday:
Continuing a theme of providing multi-track bets throughout the year, the New York Racing Association has partnered with Keeneland Racecourse to provide a cross-country Pick 4 this Saturday, Oct. 7. The wager will include four Grade I races--the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup and GI Champagne S. at Belmont and the GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity and GI Shadwell Turf Mile at Keeneland. The sequence kicks off with the Champagne at 4:13 p.m. EST and closes with the Shadwell Turf Mile at 5:45 p.m. EST. Keeneland will host the wager, which will be listed at terminals and on ADW platforms as "Belmont-Keeneland Pick 4" and will carry a takeout rate of 22%.

NYRA, NYU Winthrop Team Up for Breast Cancer Awareness:
The New York Racing Association and NYU Winthrop Hospital's Breast Health Center will provide a special ticket package for "Super Saturday" Oct. 7 at Belmont Park to promote breast cancer awareness and encourage early detection. The offer is an all-inclusive ticket featuring clubhouse admission, a post parade program, track-view preferred seating and a complimentary gift bag. The ticket price is $50 per person, with a portion of the proceeds donated to the Breast Health Center. "Fans who purchase this enhanced ticket package will be contributing crucial dollars directly to the fight against breast cancer," said Lynn LaRocca, NYRA Senior VP and Chief Experience Officer.

American Equus Creates Breast Cancer Awareness Irons:
American Equus, manufacturer of stirrups, spurs and horseshoes, has created Pink Special Edition Thoroughbred Racing Irons to raise awareness and funds for the Breast Cancer Research Foundation as part of their Gallop for a Cure campaign. All proceeds from the sales of the irons, which will be used by several riders in Saturday's GI Jockey Club Gold Cup, will be donated, as well as 10% of the company's overall proceeds for the month of October. Driven by History | Coady Driven by History reeled off consecutive optional claiming tallies going a mile here Aug. 17 and Sept. 11 and kept the streak alive in his stakes debut here. He raced in the clear on the outside in midpack, ranged up four deep on the far turn and fought his way to the front late for a career high. The winner's dam also has a yearling filly by First Dude. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

debuting with a hard-fought win in last October's GIII Mazarine S. She completed the exacta in her last three trips to the post at this level here, including last out as the 3-5 chalk Sept. 3. Favored at 8-5 this time, she kept the early leaders within her scope in fourth and awaited racing room on the far turn. She was angled out in the stretch and came charging on the outside to reel in Pretty Two Faced (Niigon) by 3/4 of a length. The winner is a half-sister to Hillaby (Distorted Humor), Ch. Female Sprinter-Can, GSW, $282,265; and Belle Hill (Sky Mesa), GSW, $180,725. Sealy Hill produced fillies by Medaglia d'Oro in 2016 and 2017 and was bred back to Into Mischief. INDUSTRY INFO

RTCA Names White Horse Award Honorees:

The Racetrack Chaplaincy of America has announced the honorees for its White Horse Awards. Established in 2003, the awards recognize individuals within the horse racing industry for their acts of selflessness and bravery. This year's White Horse Awards ceremony will be held Thursday, Nov. 2 at 11 a.m. PST at Del Mar Racetrack, one day before the venue is set to host the Breeders' Cup World Championships for the first time. Hall of Fame jockey Pat Day will be the featured guest speaker.

The honorees are: Angie Cheak for the White Horse Award, Horace William "Salty" Roberts for the Tribute to Excellence Award and Ben Hudson for the Community Service Award. Cheak will be recognized for her work in caring for, re-training and re-homing 43 Thoroughbreds that were abandoned in desperate conditions on a Mercer County, Ky farm. Roberts, who passed away in April, will be acknowledged for his role in starting the basis for the RTCA in 1970 with a single church service in a rickety paint shop near the Gulfstream Park quarter pole. Hudson's award is for his work in improving the conditions, policies and regulations related to the Quarter Horse racing industry.

If you wish to attend the ceremony, visit the events page on the RTCA's website here. For more information, contact the RTCA National Service Center at (859) 410-7822.

PEARL WEDDING (f, 2, Tapit--Above Heaven, by Mr. Greeley) is the most recent foal from her unraced dam, a daughter of GISW Lady Joanne (Orientate), who was purchased by Masatake Iida for $320K in foal to Forestry at KEENOV in 2013. That produce, Satono Green, broke his maiden at Tokyo this past June (video, gate 6). Iida offered Above Heaven carrying this foal in utero at FTKNOV in 2014, but took the mare home when bidding stalled out at $575K. Pearl Wedding was RNAd for $380K at KEESEP last fall. GALILEO FILLY SHINES AT BOOK 1 CLOSER

The 4-million gns Galileo filly out of Dank, named Gloam | Tattersalls

By Emma Berry and Kelsey Riley

Newmarket, UK--Her name may be Gloam (Ire), but there's every reason to hope that the future for the Galileo (Ire) first foal of G1 Breeders' Cup heroine Dank (GB) (Dansili {GB}) is bright after she became the most expensive yearling sold in the world this year at 4 million gns. She is also the second-most expensive yearling ever sold at Tattersalls, following the 5 million gns Al Naamah (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in 2013.

Her breeder James Wigan raced her mother, the winner of five stakes races in his colours headlined by back-to-back wins in America in the GI Beverly D S. and GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf, and instead of following his usual practice of offering the cream of his West Blagdon Stud foal crop at the December Sale, he decided instead to entrust her to Liam and Jenny Norris to consign through their Norris Bloodstock draft.

Gloam (lot 418) is now set to race under the Godolphin banner, with John Gosden, acting on behalf of Sheikh Mohammed, outbidding MV Magnier in a tussle for the filly which included Kerri Radcliffe and Grant Pritchard-Gordon in earlier rounds.

"We never sell yearlings but I wanted to wait to see that the mare had a good, healthy foal on the ground before deciding to sell Gloam as a yearling," explained Wigan, who has a Galileo filly foal from the mare to look forward to. "She won't be sold, and I didn't really want to sell Gloam either, but I'm pleased that she'll hopefully be trained by John Gosden. We asked Liam and Jenny to sell her--they're not that far from us and they've done an absolutely wonderful job. They prepped her beautifully."

Gosden said, "she's by a great stallion out of a phenomenal racemare who won a Breeders' Cup. She was a gorgeous filly to look at with a lovely mind and she came from a proper owner-breeder. There was a lot of competition for her and there should have been, because fillies like this very rarely ever come onto the market. We see her as a racing and breeding prospect for the future."

At 102,290,000gns, Book 1 of the October Sale achieved record turnover for a European sale, that tally coming from the exchange of 349 yearlings--or 79% of the 442 offered. Cont. p2

The aggregate was up by 16% on last year's previous record, and the figures for the average and median also broke new ground, the former coming in at 293,095gns (+29%) and the median at 165,000gns (+27%).

The final day's aggregate stood at 34,686,000gns (+14%) for 116 of 146 yearlings sold. The average was 299,017gns (+17%) and the median 152,500gns (+9%).

The Norris Bloodstock team was also the consignor of last year's co-top lot at Book 1, which was also a world's best for a yearling in 2016, when offering the subsequent Group 3 winner Glorious Journey (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) on behalf of Philippa Cooper's Normandie Stud. And it's not the first time they've sold a horse for 4 million gns, as that was the price fetched by the dual Oaks winner Dancing Rain (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) when offered in foal to Frankel (GB) in 2013 having been bought as a yearling by Liam Norris for €200,000. Dancing Rain was too bought by Sheikh Mohammed, with John Ferguson signing for her on behalf of Darley.

John Gosden | Tattersalls

"There was a lot of competition for her and there should have been, because fillies like this very rarely ever come onto the market. We see her as a racing and breeding prospect for the future."

"James and Anita Wigan have been wonderful and we really can't thank them enough for asking us to sell this filly for them," said Jenny Norris. "She's been an absolute pleasure to deal with throughout and she genuinely just never put a foot wrong."

Her husband added, "I look at plenty of yearlings every year and it's rare to come across one that has the physical attributes to match such a special pedigree. I really couldn't fault her. It was a pleasure to have her at our farm for several months for James and Anita and we're both relieved and delighted that she has sold so well. She certainly deserved to."

In addition to having a Group 1 winner as a dam, Gloam is a direct descendant of the 1984 G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches winner Masarika (GB) (Thatch), whose daughter Masskana (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}) produced not only Dank but G1 Hong Kong Cup winner Eagle Mountain (GB) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}) and Sulk (Ire) (Selkirk), winner of the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac. Cont. p3

The Main Attraction...

Floors Stud brought just one yearling to Newmarket from the Scottish Borders, but lot 347 was pretty special in more ways than one. By Dubawi (Ire), he is the ninth foal of the Duke of Roxburghe's homebred five-time Group 1 winner Attraction (GB) (Efisio {GB}), and his pedigree was delivered another important update only last week when his half-brother Elarqam (GB) (Frankel {GB}) remained unbeaten when winning the G2 Tattersalls S.

Elarqam was himself bought by Shadwell this time last year for 1.6 million gns, and Sheikh Hamdan returned for his younger sibling and offering 1.35 millions gns for the privilege of racing him in his blue-and-white silks next year.

"Elarqam has given me so much of a buzz. I don't think I've ever been so nervous before a race since the days of Attraction," admitted the Duke of Roxburghe as his prized colt left the ring. "Yes, making money in the sales ring is important to keep the stud going, but we're here to breed racehorses." Cont. p4

"I'm thrilled that Shadwell have bought this colt and that they are doing so well with Elarqam," he said. "I believe he won't run again this year and will be aimed at the Guineas next year. That will give us something to dream about over the winter."

Those dreams may also run to the eventual racecourse debut of Attraction's current filly foal by Invincible Spirit, who has been retained by the duke and has already been named Motion (GB).

"Her filly foal will not come to the sales but Attraction is back in foal to Frankel," he continued. "This yearling wasn't perhaps as obviously good-looking as Elarqam initially but he has thrived over the summer and through his sales prep and turned into a lovely, balanced colt. He's been here on his own but he's been an absolute saint the whole way through."

The Duke of Roxburghe | Tattersalls

As usual, it was Angus Gold who secured the colt on behalf of Shadwell. He said, "Sheikh Hamdan feels he's a very good horse by one of the top stallions around. He was keen to have him and he liked him enough to buy him."

In regards to Elarqam, Gold added, "He's been put away [for the year]. It'll be interesting to see whether he stays further; it looks to me like he'll stay a bit further than a mile, but we'll have a go at the Guineas first if he's up to that and then if not, if he needs to go a mile and a quarter, we can head down that route. He's got a great attitude, he's a very determined horse and the times he's run so far he's really got going in the last 150 yards. He's definitely crying out for the mile now and it'll be interesting to see in time whether he wants to go further than that." Cont. p5

Lot 381, an Invincible Spirit filly out of Cassandra Go, was bought by MV Magnier for 1.6-million gns. | Tattersalls

"Making money in the sales ring is important to keep the stud going, but we're here to breed racehorses. I'm thrilled that Shadwell have bought this colt and that they are doing so well with Elarqam."

Two lots later, Gold signed for lot 349, a War Front filly bred by Bobby Flay and consigned by Baroda & Colbinstown Studs, for 550,000gns. Flay had coincidentally paid the same price for the dam, Auld Alliance (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), at Tattersalls December in 2013, and she picked up black-type when finishing third in Woodbine's Listed Flaming Page S. for trainer Graham Motion the following year. This is the first foal out of the half-sister to Guineas and King George winner Golan (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}) and G2 Dante S. winner and sire Tartan Bearer (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}).

"She'll stay here [to race]," Gold said. "We haven't decided where she'll go yet, but Sheikh Hamdan liked her and we have a couple nice War Front 2-year-olds and she had a good pedigree, so he was keen to buy her."

Gold struck again at the seven-figure level midway through the afternoon when prevailing over DMM.com's Yohann Gainche at 1.5 million gns for Shadai's Dubawi colt out of the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner Danedream (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}) (lot 416). Danedream won the G2 Oaks d'Italia and a pair of German Group 1s before Teruya Yoshida bought into her before the Arc, and she rewarded his investment further by adding the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S., by a nose over Nathaniel (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), and the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden the following season. Danedream's first foal, the 3-year-old filly Nothing But Dreams (GB) (Frankel {GB}), is in training with Roger Varian for Yoshida but has yet to start, nor has her 2-year-old Frankel colt Solid Dream (GB).

Danedream has a filly foal by that same Juddmonte sire and is back in foal to him, and Yoshida, who was at Tattersalls to see his colt sell on Thursday, said the filly foal would be retained.

With regards to the decision to sell this colt, Yoshida yes, "I've been very much thinking about what I should do, but a dream of mine for a long time has been to sell a very good horse here."

He said watching some of the better Dubawis, like Postponed, race inspired him to send a mare to the Darley sire.

"Dubawi is the hottest sire in Europe, and I've seen many Dubawi horses, like Postponed, so I decided to send one to him," he said.

The Dubawi colt was consigned by Newsells Park Stud, where Danedream is boarded. Newsells finished the sale as second-leading vendor, with 14 sold for 5,962,000gns, its sales also including Wednesday's 1.3 million Galileo colt out of Shastye (Ire) (Danehill).

Deerpark's Elegant Star...

The Fagan family's Deerpark Stud was another boutique operation with a sole yearling on offer in Book 1 and their Sea The Stars (Ire) colt duly became the most expensive yearling by the sire to be offered at public auction when selling for 1-million gns to Kerri Radcliffe. Cont. p6

John and Peter Fagan | Peter Mooney

Lot 433 is the first foal of the winning Shamardal mare Elegant Shadow (Ger), a granddaughter of the outstanding racemare and producer Elle Danzig (Ger) (Roi Danzig), the winner of 12 races, including three at the highest level.

John Fagan delegated the spokesman duties to his son Peter, who said, "He's been a very special horse since the day he was born and dad and Ciara McEvoy have done a wonderful job in producing him in such great condition for the sale. I'd also like to thank Suzanne Roberts, who bought the mare for us privately in Germany."

He added, "He'd been vetted plenty of times and we were hopeful that plenty of people liked him but we didn't imagine he'd sell this well."

An Angel For Donald...

SackvilleDonald ended Book 1 as second-leading buyer with 29 bought for 13,063,000gns. A significant portion of those were purchased for an undisclosed client who is building a stable of high quality fillies, and Thursday's purchases included lot 407, a daughter of red hot sire Dark Angel (Ire), for 825,000gns. The agency is familiar with the family, with Ed Sackville having signed for this filly's half-brother for £165,000 at Goffs UK's Premier Sale last year. That one, now named Frozen Angel (Ire), broke his maiden at second asking for trainer Tom Dascombe in May and has been twice second in stakes company this season, to Havana Grey (GB) (Havana Gold {Ire}) in the Listed National S. and to subsequent Group 1 winner Unfortunately (Ire) (Society Rock {Ire}) in the G1 Prix Robert Papin. SackvilleDonald's client's haul also included day one's 2.5 million gns Frankel filly and a 1.3 million Dubawi filly on day two. Alastair Donald also signed for the next filly through the ring, lot 408, for his client, a 550,000gns daughter of Kingman (GB).

Lot 407, filly by Dark Angel | Tattersalls

"He was keen to get some well-bred fillies," said Alastair Donald. "The Dark Angel filly was gorgeous--Ed had bought Frozen Angel last year but she's actually a much better, more scopey model. She looks early and it's a great, fast pedigree. If she gets black-type form she'll be a lovely one to have."

Commenting on the market at the top end this week, Donald added, "it's very nice when you have a client who has a good budget because we can pick out the best. We've missed on plenty too, but there's been a lot of nice horses with good pedigrees."

At the conclusion of the sale, Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony said, "To have broken so many records over the past three days reflects a catalogue of truly outstanding quality and a sale with a global reputation for producing exceptional racehorses year after year. Book 1 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale is widely regarded as Europe's premier yearling sale, but even by Book 1 standards we felt that this year's catalogue was a bit special. The sale has produced wide-margin records across the board, and first and foremost we must pay tribute to the vendors who have allowed us to produce a truly vintage catalogue which has showcased so many of the finest yearlings to be found anywhere in the world. The quality of stallions currently standing in Europe is at an all-time high and there is no doubt that the world's leading buyers recognise this. They want quality and Book 1 of the 2017 October Yearling Sale had quality in abundance."

"The statistics for this week's sale are pretty astounding," he added. "Obviously the individual highlight was the 4 million guineas Galileo filly out of Dank. She was not only the highest-priced auction yearling sold anywhere in the world this year, but also the second-highest priced yearling filly ever sold at public auction. The sale turnover of more than 100 million guineas is a record for the sixth consecutive year, more than double the level of only seven years ago, and the average and median have also soared to unprecedented heights. In short, the record books have been completely rewritten."

"Equally extraordinary is that last year's record of nine yearlings selling for 1 million guineas or more has been almost doubled. There have been 17 seven-figure yearlings sold over the past three days and they have been shared between buyers from Dubai, Ireland, Japan, South Africa, Switzerland, Thailand and the U.S. Many of the leading participants this week are first-time buyers in Europe and it has been a genuine pleasure to see so many new faces enjoying the unique atmosphere generated by Europe's premier yearling sale. There is currently a genuine global demand for top-class Thoroughbreds and nowhere has this been more obvious than at Tattersalls this week. Book 1 has kick-started the Tattersalls sales season in spectacular fashion and we look forward to sustaining the momentum for Books 2 and 3 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale next week."

BUICK RETURNS AT ASCOT FROM INJURY

William Buick returns from eight weeks on the sidelines to partner 'TDN Rising Star' Blue Point (Ire) (Shamardal) in Saturday's G3 John Guest Bengough S. at Ascot. The leading rider has been out of action since falling from the ill-fated Permian (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) in the GI Secretariat S. in America in early August, which caused a compression of his T12 vertebra. Although no surgery was required, Buick had to give the injury time to heal before he returned to riding work in Newmarket last week and he has now been passed fit for a competitive comeback this weekend.

Blue Point's trainer, Charlie Appleby, said, "It's great to have William back. He started riding out last week and he's been itching to get back, he's just been waiting for the green light from the doctor. We're in a very privileged position here at Godolphin to have been able to call on people like James Doyle, who has ridden loads of winners for us in the last few weeks."

Appleby continued, "It's just the way it's worked out that Blue Point is William's first ride back and it's appropriate given he knows the horse so well. There are still a good six weeks of the season left yet and there's plenty of international racing coming up, so I'm sure we'll be keeping both William and James busy."

BRAMETOT CONNECTIONS PONDER CHAMPION

A tilt at the G1 QIPCO Champion S. at Ascot is under serious consideration for Brametot (Ire) (Rajsaman {Fr})following his fine effort to finish fifth in last Sunday's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. Jean-Claude Rouget's colt claimed both the G1 French 2000 Guineas and the G1 French Derby earlier in the year, but his previous problems with the starting stalls came back to haunt him when he could only finish fifth behind the Martyn Meade-trained Eminent (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) in the G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano at Deauville in August.

However, with a physical ailment subsequently discovered and rectified, the 3-year-old showed his true colours in Europe's premier middle-distance contest, breaking on terms and finishing on the heels of the placed horses behind Enable (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}).

Brametot | Scoop Dyga

Harry Herbert, racing manager for owners Al Shaqab Racing, said, "He ran a terrific race and we were really pleased that he jumped well and travelled well through the race. We discovered he'd had a sore back. We managed to sort that and he consequently ran much better in the Arc. It was a little unfortunate he met a few traffic problems. He wouldn't have been the winner, of course, but he may well have been placed if he hadn't had trouble in running a crucial stage in the straight. He's come out of the race well and he's a possible for the Champion S. If Jean-Claude is happy with him, I think we have to look seriously at going to Ascot."

SIYOUSHAKE LINES UP IN SUN CHARIOT

Siyoushake | Scoop Dyga

MG1SP Siyoushake (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}) is in fine form ahead of a run in Saturday's G1 Kingdom of Bahrain Sun Chariot S. at Newmarket's Rowley Mile. The Freddy Head trainee, one of three French representatives in the one-mile feature with MGSW Qemah (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) and MGSW Usherette (Ire) (Shamardal) among the 13 representatives, won the G3 Prix Perth to end her season last fall and has filled the frame in her last three starts. Third in the G3 Prix Bertrand du Breuil Longines second up in June, the 5-year-old was a close third behind the reopposing 'TDN Rising Star' Roly Poly (War Front) in the G1 Prix Rothschild at Deauville on July 30 and she went one better last out when runner-up in the G1 Darley Prix Jean Romanet there on Aug. 20.

"Siyoushake is still in great condition and I have been very happy with her work," said trainer Freddy Head. "We tried her over a mile and a quarter last time but I think that a mile is her best trip. I think that she has improved since her fourth in this race last year. It's been a very good season for her and she's been placed in a couple of Group 1s."

The trainer added, "I haven't really talked with her owners about her staying in training in 2018, but there is a chance that this could be her last race. She's a lovely filly who never puts a foot wrong and although she was a bit difficult to get in the stalls when she first joined me, that's all finished now--she goes in like a lamb. I haven't trained a winner at the Rowley Mile yet [though Head has landed both the G1 Falmouth S. and the G1 Darley July Cup at the Adnams July Course] but I have fond memories of the course from when I was a jockey. I'm sure that first winner will come--maybe on Saturday."

Morning line favourite for the Sun Chariot falls to G1 Matron S. third-place finisher Persuasive (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}), for John Gosden, while Nathra (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}) will also line up for the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe-winning trainer. Cont. p11

G3 Atalanta S. heroine Aljazzi (GB) (Shamardal) will also take her place for Marco Botti, as will Roger Varian's trio of Dawn Of Hope (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}), Spangled (GB) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) and Tomyris (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). The William Haggis yard fields Muffri'Ha (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}), while Saeed bin Suroor's Arabian Hope (Distorted Humor) represents Godolphin, who also runs Usherette. Aidan O'Brien's other runner, Alluringly (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) rounds out the baker's dozen.

GIBBONS SUSPENDED FOR 2 1/2 YEARS

Jockey Graham Gibbons has been banned for a combined period of 2 1/2 years by the disciplinary panel of the British Horseracing Authority (BHA) after testing positive for a metabolite of cocaine at a meeting at which he attempted to swap urine samples. Gibbons had voluntarily not ridden since December last year, when he was alleged to have swapped a urine sample with that of another rider, Callum Shepherd, who faced no charges, at a fixture at Kempton.

Gibbons was charged with a breach of rule (D)65 "by virtue of the fact that a urine sample taken from him on Dec. 7, 2016 at Kempton racecourse tested positive for benzoylecgonine, a metabolite of cocaine and, pursuant to rule (D)58 and schedule (D)3 Part 1, a banned substance." He was also charged with breaking rule (A)30.1 in "acting in a manner prejudicial to the integrity, proper conduct and/or good reputation of horseracing in Great Britain by his actions on Dec. 7, 2016 when he attempted to present another jockey's urine as his own when required to submit a sample for testing purposes."

The breach of the latter rule was deemed to carry a two-year suspension, with the positive test leading to a six-month penalty. The bans run concurrently, from June 9, 2017 until June 8, 2019.

The BHA tweeted, "Graham Gibbons, found in breach of Rule (D)65, received 6 months suspension from 9 Dec. 2016 to 8 June 2017 inclusive. Gibbons also found in breach of Rule (A)30 and receives a two-year suspension from 9 June 2017 until 8 June 2019 inclusive. The Disciplinary Panel's reasons for their decision will follow in due course."

Among the career highlights for Gibbons have been winning the G2 Gimcrack S. at York aboard the William Haggas-trained Ajaya (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), while he enjoyed a terrific association with John Quinn's Blythe Knight (Ire) (Selkirk), twice landing the G3 Diomed S. at Epsom and also being victorious in the Lincoln at Doncaster.

TURNBULL--A MERE FORMALITY?

by Dane Squance

Not only unbeaten in her last 20 starts, Winx (Aus) (Street Cry {Ire}) is also, surprisingly, unbeaten in Melbourne and on Saturday will make her Flemington debut in the G1 Turnbull S. (2000m). With four wins over the trip, the Chris Waller-trained mare will tackle the A$500,000 race fourth-up and with a last start victory over Happy Clapper (Aus) (Teofilo {Ire}), who himself went on to claim a Group 1 at his next start in the G1 Epsom H., jockey Hugh Bowman looks ready to add another elite level victory to his record.

Winx | Bronwen Healy

Right on target for her ultimate aim, recording a third consecutive G1 Cox Plate, the hardest (if there is such a thing), for Winx to defeat will be Darren Weir's last start G1 Makybe Diva S. winner Humidor (NZ) (Teofilo {Ire}). A winner over the track and trip in the G1 Australian Cup in March, Humidor was emphatic last start over Hartnell (GB) (Authorized {Ire}), and if there was no Winx on Saturday, the Damian Lane-ridden 5-year-old would be a short-priced favourite.

Holding a nomination to the G1 Melbourne Cup, the David and Ben Hayes and Tom Dabernig-trained Ventura Storm (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}), a multiple Group 1 winner himself, worked home well last time out over 1600m when just over five lengths from Humidor. Connections will be pleased if the 5-year-old is once again seen working home strongly into the places, but it is hard to fathom the entire defeating the top-rated pair.

Another who will need the run and is likely to be aimed towards the first Tuesday in November is Sir Isaac Newton (GB) (Galileo {GB}), a 6-year-old ace in similar connection of last year's Cup winner Almandin (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}).

PAYNE IN SEARCH OF A SPRING CHAMPION

by Dane Squance

Impressive when having conditions to suit in the G3 Gloaming S. (1800m), the David Payne-trained Ace High (Aus) (High Chaparral {Ire}) should be able to take up the running again in the G1 Moet & Chandon Spring Champion S. on Saturday, ensuring he can control the race from the front. Having always been aimed towards the Group 1 staying contest, Ace High should once again be able to hold off last start runner-up Sanctioned (Aus) (Teofilo {Ire}), with the Godolphin-owned runner having to jump from the outside gate, and likely to be planted wide in the run. Cont. p15

Ace High | Racing And Sports

With no runner in the field having raced over the distance, one that may not have the pedigree to be competitive, but has the form to, is the multiple stakes-placed Dissolution (Aus) (Snitzel {Aus}). The A$1.1-million Inglis Easter yearling is owned by a large group of local and international owners including South Africa's Markus Jooste and global breeding giant Coolmore, and with the colt a narrow second to Ataraxia (Aus) (Teofilo {Ire}) over 1600m last start, he should relish the step up in trip on Saturday.

With quite a few of the runners backing-up after their performances behind Ataraxia in the Listed Dulcify Qty a week prior, a win by the John O'Shea-trained Langley (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}), would be a significance milestone for the Randwick-based trainer, being his first stakes winner since departing his role with Godolphin.

Bred to appreciate the tip, and further still, Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young's Sully (NZ) (Reliable Man {GB}) has juvenile form around some of the rising 3-year-olds of this season and although fourth behind Ace High over the 1800m, the gelding needed room during the run and from a wide barrier here, should get that room in transit.

The lone filly in the race is the Melbourne visitor Coral Coast (Aus) (So You Think {NZ}), a last start third behind Ace High, and a leading contender for of the G1 VRC Oaks (2500m) if she holds together, considering she is having her fifth run on Saturday in just her first race preparation.

While David Payne holds the key with race favourite Ace High, his second stringer in the field has continually performed as if he is in need of a trip since his 2-year-old debut win. Colesberg (Aus) (Congrats), a winning half-brother to South African champion 2-year-old filly Entisaar (Aus) (More Than Ready) found himself too far back in the Gloaming, but made up many lengths late, and from gate three here should be able to settle closer in the run, and could be a wild card runner.

SPENCER TO RIDE 'BRAVE' IN EVEREST

Jamie Spencer is taking up the call from Australia to ride Brave Smash (Jpn) (Tosen Phantom {Jpn}) in the world's richest turf race, the A$10-million G1 The TAB Everest at Randwick on Oct. 14. The former Irish and British champion jockey has accepted the invitation of trainer Darren Weir and the Australian Turf Club to partner the ex-Japanese speedster.

"The trainer was in touch and asked would he be keen to go over and he obviously was," said Spencer's agent Niall Hannity. "He's been looking at the horse's recent races and has spoken to the trainer, who obviously has got an exceptional record. It's a very valuable race and he's looking forward to taking part in it."

Spencer's opportunity came when Damian Lane, who has ridden Brave Smash in all his three starts since being brought in from Japan by syndicate owners Australian Bloodstock, opted to remain in Melbourne for the G1 Caulfield Guineas on the same day, rather than go to Sydney.

GINGERNUTS LOOMS LARGE IN LIVAMOL

Fresh off a victory in the G1 Windsor Park Horlicks Plate at Hastings on Sept. 23, Te Akau Racing's Gingernuts (NZ) (Iffraaj {GB}) is favoured to take the third and final leg of the Hawke's Bay Triple Crown, the G1 Livamol Classic over 2000 metres at Hastings, on Oct. 7. A strong fifth to Windsor Park Plate bridesmaid Close Up (NZ) (Shinko King {Ire}) in the first leg, the 1400m G1 Tarzino Trophy on Sept. 2, the 2017 G1 New Zealand Derby and G1 Rosehill Guineas hero appears primed for a big effort prior to crossing the Tasman to compete in the G1 Caulfield Cup on Oct. 21. Cont. p16

Gingernuts | Trish Dunell

Co-trainer Stephen Autridge told the NZ Racing Desk, "Mark [Walker, who trains for Te Akau in Singapore] was back here last week and he brought up Princess Coup (Aus) (Sovereign Red {NZ}) running in all three legs at Hastings. He said Princess Coup got better with each one and not to worry about running Gingernuts in all three. He said she should have won the Caulfield Cup and the next one too."

That runner had won the 2007 Livamol for Walker, before a third in that year's Caulfield Cup and a runner-up performance in the G1 MacKinnon S.

Autridge continued, "The Caulfield Cup has always been the number one aim and we'll make our minds up after that about the Melbourne Cup. He's never been better. He's at the top of his game. I'm happier that he's drawn out there [barrier 17] than one, two or three. From out there he can get back beyond midfield and even if he drops out to last I won't be worried. Opie [Bosson] can go round them whenever he wants and not be dictated to as he would be if he'd drawn in."

2015 G1 Rosehill Guineas hero Volkstok'n'barrell (NZ) (Tavistock {NZ}) is looking to get back on track after a pair of fifths in his first two starts this season. The four-time Group 1 winner filled that position in a Sept. 2 1200m race at Ruakaka and in the wake of Gingernuts in the Windsor Park Plate on Sept. 23. @HLAndersonTDN

AUTUMN SALE ENDS SEASON ON HIGH NOTE by Kate Hunter

The boards have been lighting up in sales rings all around the world this year and Japan was not left out of the global buying fervor, with all four of Japan's summer auctions setting new records. That record setting-trend extended into the final sale of the Japanese calendar, the Hokkaido Autumn Sale.

Usually a sale that ends up being a buyer's market, this year's Autumn Sale was filled with eager buyers looking to finish filling their orders for the 2017 season. The clearance rate of 75.1% was up 3.3% from last year and the gross of ¥1,754,784,000 (US$15,584,227) was up 6.3%. Each day saw the parking lot, including the annex parking lot, filled to the brim with cars and food vendors selling out of lunch early in the afternoon.

Sires that made an impact at this sale included first-season sire Belshazzar (Jpn), who sold 20 lots averaging ¥2,700,000 (US$23,979) and grossing ¥54,000,000 (US$479,574). Popular dirt sire South Vigorous had nine lots sell, averaging ¥5,700,000 (US$50,622) and grossing ¥51,300,000 (US$455,595). Pyro, another popular dirt sire, had eight lots average ¥5,697,000 (US$50,595) and gross ¥45,576,000 (US$404,760).

Sales-topping lot 354 | hba.or.jp

The sale topper was lot 354, a bay colt by Henny Hughes purchased by Fumio Takahashi for ¥21,600,000 (US$191,829). Overall 12 horses went over the ¥10,000,000 mark over the three days. Two of them were by Henny Hughes and three others were by Lord Kanaloa (Jpn), who made sparks fly at many of the sales this summer as his first crop continue to perform well on the track. The three of his progeny to sell this week averaged ¥14,580,000, the highest of the sale, and grossed ¥43,740,000 (US$388,455).

Autumn Sale Ends Season on a High Note Cont.

All sorts of buyers turned out for the sale, everyone from Shadai and Northern Farm, who also sold a few; globetrotting buyer Kenji Ryotokuji; high roller turned owner-breeder Takuya Shimakawa; North Hills; and Lord Kanaloa's owners KI Farm, and many more. For the full results, click here.

Next year's yearling sales will see the first-crop yearlings by the likes of Japan Cup winner Epiphaneia (Jpn) (Symboli Kris S.), Japan Derby winner Kizuna (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) and six-time Group 1 winner Gold Ship (Jpn) (Stay Gold {Jpn}).
