UP, UP AND AWAY FOR 'UTCB STUD' PARTNERS

Uptowncharlybrown | Nikki Sherman

by Ben Massam

Statistics and raw data are one way to assess the success of a racing operation, but Bob Hutt of Uptowncharlybrown Stud LLC measures the upward trajectory of his venture a few different ways. Back home at Parx Racing in Bensalem, Pennsylvania, the talk around the track tells some of the story.

"The best thing I overhear at Parx is, 'Not another [expletive] Uptowncharlybrown.' I'll stop and say to other trainers, 'Thank you very much.'"

Uptowncharlybrown Stud LLC--a partnership borne out of Hutt's Fantasy Lane Stable, which was founded in 1999--has enjoyed a stellar run of success in recent months competing offspring of the Pennsylvania-based stallion Uptowncharlybrown. As 'Charly' has quickly stamped himself as a leading sire in the Keystone State while posting the highest earnings per starter among all third-crop stallions nationally, Hutt can only smile as he justifies a long-standing faith in the chestnut held by his late friend and trainer, Alan Seewald.

"Alan was my best friend for 25 years. It wasn't owner and trainer--we were best friends. We spoke three times a day," Hutt said. "If Alan was alive, I'd [have him as my trainer] until the day I died. I always thought we were Davy Crockett and George Russell and we'd go down swinging empty rifles together."

SECOND CAREER FOR ITALIAN RACEHORSES? HOW ABOUT AS MOVIE STARS? by Diana Pikulski

Reclaiming lives and starring in the movies are all part of a program for off-track Thoroughbreds in Italy.

At Ippodromo Roma Capannelle in Rome, Italy, Standardbreds and Thoroughbreds pass each other on the many horse paths that cross the sprawling 345-acre facility. In between the training tracks, on large grassy areas, you will see Thoroughbreds being trained for the pleasure riding, the show ring and the cinema. Relived Horses, a rescue and retraining program located in an older barn at the edge of the stable area, exists because of the efforts of former leading jockey and movie stunt woman, Jaqueline Freda and veteran show rider and horse trainer, Sabina Findlay. Cont. p5

PENNSYLVANIA HORSE BREEDERS ASSOCIATION

Bob Hutt | Nikki Sherman

While there is much comfort in running back home for generous Pennsylvania-bred incentives, the team's recent streak of success has them seriously considering a trip to racing's grandest stage at Saratoga. That northward venture could have easily come in Saturday's GI Test S. with Dixie Serenade (Uptowncharlybrown), who was last seen turning heads with a stunning last-to-first 47-1 upset score in Belmont's GIII Victory Ride S. July 8, but the team will opt to stay home and compete in Parx's Jose Flores Memorial S. Why? Because the race honors the life of the recently fallen Parx-based jockey, whose widow, Joanne McDaid Flores, is a former exercise rider-turned-hotwalker for trainer Eddie Coletti, Jr.

Any temptation to chase Grade I glory was put on the back burner when weighed against the opportunity to pay tribute to the life of a respected figure in the Parx community. Nevertheless, Hutt has a basic confidence that their day to return to the spotlight will come sooner rather than later--and it could come as soon as next Saturday, with promising first-out maiden winner Grandma Gertie (Uptowncharlybrown) under strong consideration for the GII Adirondack S. at Saratoga in addition to being entered in the Colleen S. at Monmouth.

The story of Uptowncharlybrown begins at the 2009 OBS April Sale, where the colt was purchased by Fantasy Lane for $57,000 and, upon the request of respected consignor Norman Casse, allowed to keep his unique name. After shipping "the big chestnut" north to New Jersey, it quickly became apparent that the colt had significant ability under the tutelage of Seewald. Hutt fondly recalled a time before Uptowncharlybrown's debut when the horse matched strides with GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness S. third Musket Man (Yonaguska) in a late-season workout at Monmouth Park.

After Uptowncharlybrown captured his first two starts at Tampa Bay Downs by a combined 15 lengths, Seewald turned down an offer for $2.5 million, assuring Hutt and partners that the horse would eventually prove to be worth far more. Unfortunately, Seewald never had the opportunity to realize that potential--he passed away in his sleep on Apr. 12, 2010, leaving a giant void in the hearts of his friends.

The Fantasy Lane team elected to push on in pursuit of Seewald's goals of winning the GI Belmont S. and GI Haskell Invitational, and came within three lengths of crossing the wire first in the former in his lone start for trainer Kiaran McLaughlin despite a harrowing journey around Big Sandy after Rajiv Maragh's eight-pound weight pad slipped mid-race. Uptowncharlybrown was disqualified and placed last for the incident, and emerged from the race with a bowed tendon--a setback he would never fully recover from.

Hutt readily admits that it required a major leap of faith to try Uptowncharybrown as a stallion in 2013. In hindsight, it was a no brainer--their current operation at Glenn and Becky Brok's Diamond B Farm is a well-oiled machine, with new arrivals from Uptowncharlybrown shuttled off to be broken and trained by Irene Coletti and Gabe Rispo before ultimately arriving in the barn of Coletti, Jr., who once served as an assistant to Seewald.

"The reason I made him a stallion was in honor of Alan--what he couldn't prove on the racetrack, I wanted to prove through his progeny," Hutt explained. "All I wanted to do was show that Alan was right and show that he was the best horse of his generation...He's won with 77% of his babies...He's had five horses out of his first eight all earn over $100,000--two of which are over $200,000. Some people have called me up and told me that his Average Earnings Index is right up there with the top stallions in America, such as Tapit."

From the outset, Hutt said he sought to mold Uptowncharlybrown's stallion career after the wildly successful model that Maryland's Country Life Farm used to initially promote the great Malibu Moon--who is incidentally Dixie Serenade's damsire. With a stud fee that started small and remained at $1,500 for 2018, Uptowncharlybrown saw his book rise from 27 mares in 2017 to 60 mares in 2018.

"We're finally going to raise that to $3,500 next year," Hutt said with a laugh.

The breed-to-race model has plenty of appeal as well, as Uptowncharlybrown Stud currently has attracted 500 partners, with shares available for as little as $825. Hutt said 'UTBC' Stud is a partnership "for the average John Doe and Jane Smith," with many of the stable's horses bearing names of various family members and loved ones of partners--such as Grandma Gertie.

On the racetrack, Coletti Jr. said the Uptowncharlybrowns are honest, hard-trying horses.

Dixie Serenade and connections after the Victory Ride | NYRA

"They're actually pretty good," the trainer said. "They're a little bit high strung like he was. But they give you everything they've got--they leave everything out of the field after they're done...They just run hard."

Back in Saratoga Springs, Hutt and company were recently invited to the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame's "Racing Partnership and Syndicate Event," where they passed out flyers showing a 41% win rate in 2018 and an average earnings per start that ranks up with leading partnerships such as West Point Thoroughbreds and Team Valor.

"A couple of people were going from booth to booth and said, 'You're winning at 41%, your average earnings per start is $14,000 and you're in the money 65%...and your minimum investment is only $825?'" Hutt recalled. "What we've done differently is that we have bred our own horses. And it seems like every Uptowncharlybrown is better than the next."

Commitment to the legacy of Alan Seewald. Commitment to Seewald's faith in Charly. Commitment to honoring Jose Flores. Uptowncharlybrown Stud's mission is far more than a coldly calculated, successful business model--it is laced with decades of comradery and a common passion for the game of racing. Wherever the chestnut stallion with the white blaze takes Hutt and the partners next--from a quiet Tuesday afternoon in Bensalem, Pennsylvania to rubbing elbows with some of the biggest names in racing in New York--there is more to Uptowncharlybrown Stud than what transpires on the racetrack.

"Out of all these different people, many friendships have bloomed," Hutt said. "It's been a long six years from 2012 until here, but there are no shortcuts in life if you put in hard work. Looking back at it, I had to be insane to every think Charly could be a stallion. But I believed in Alan so much that this was my way of keeping his memory alive."

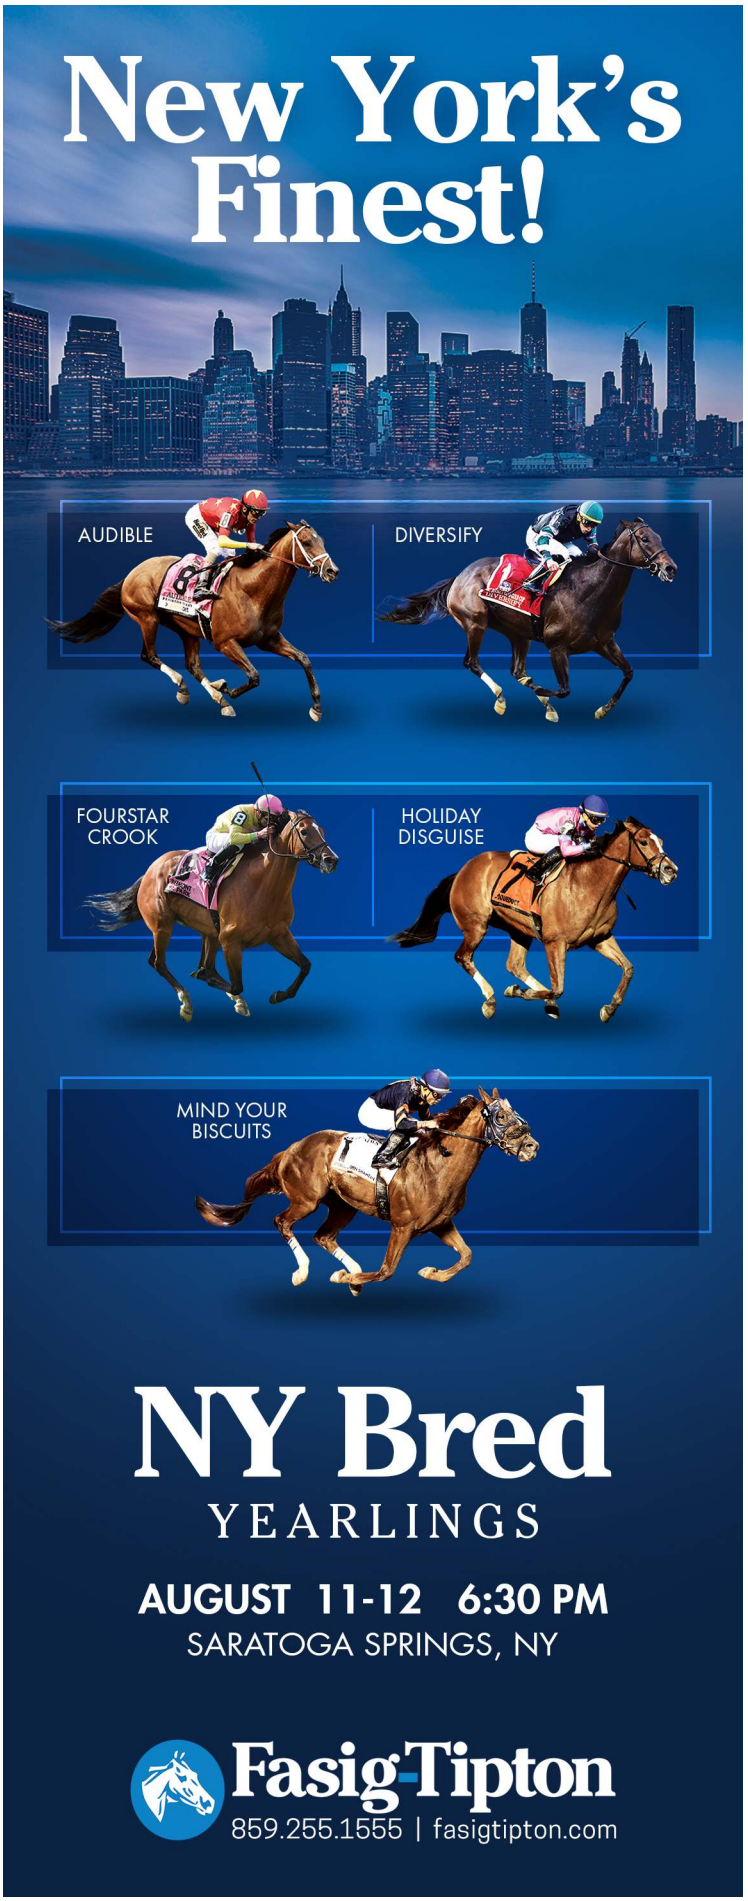
Daphne Hewitt with retired racehorse American Boy at Relived in Rome

"Slow is fast. Fast is slow." That is the mantra repeated by Sabina to describe the process of retraining a Thoroughbred racehorse. The philosophy that going too fast impedes the progress grows out of an appreciation for natural horsemanship, the work of Monty Roberts, and a belief that the relationship between horses and people is therapeutic and healing. Findlay learned about Roberts when he did a demonstration of his techniques in Rome and talked about his life's journey with horses. Roberts's story inspired Sabina, who credits horses for getting her through difficult times in her youth, to start teaching horsemanship to students in Rome.



These are not just any students. The young people in her program have been tagged by the establishment as difficult and sent to the Giuseppe Garibaldi Agricultural Technical Institute rather than to a traditional academic high school. She approached the school to launch a program in which the students come to the Relived barn every day to learn all elements of horse care, stable management and training.

"The boys are often troubled kids who are seeking a solution rather than trying to study Latin or Greek. With us, they have gained self respect and self esteem through their relationship and kinship with the horses," said Findlay. "We train with only kindness and leadership skills that come with natural horsemanship. They never punish or use fear or intimidation with the horses--only love and understanding."

These tenets are particularly important when teaching the horses the skills that they may use on the movie sets. The lead trainer, Hassan Majdoul, was hired by Freda because of his way with both the horses and the young people. In this video, he and a young student, Filippo, demonstrate how the horse lies down on command. Trust is a key element in teaching a prey animal to do something unusual like this.

Dream Impact wins the 2005 Gran Premio di Napoli

The two bays, Forest Bear (unraced) and Stick at Nothing, are now veteran movie horses. Stick At Nothing, an Irish-bred by Tagula, showed promise when he just missed the board in a Group 3 stakes race, but he was injured in his last start and did not finish the race. He is now an important part of Freda's theatre troupe.

A key horse in the program is Dream Impact, a New York-bred by Royal Academy purchased for $26,000 at the 2002 OBS August yearling sale by bloodstock agent Paolo Romanelli. Sent to Europe, Dream Impact went on to win more than $540,000 in 51 starts, all in Europe, GB and the U.A.E. He went on to play Andrea Bocelli's horse in a television series, La Musica del Silenzio.

"Often the horses on the movie sets spend time standing or walking in regalia which is not very stressful, physically," commented rider Daphne Hewitt who, when she lived in the U.S., re-trained Thoroughbreds for the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation. Her current job with the United Nations has her stationed in Rome. She rides horses for the group at Capannelle on weekends.

"With good natural horsemanship, the horses learn to handle the other unusual circumstances on the sets, making the movies a viable and productive second career for many horses."

We caught up with Hewitt on a hot sunny morning right before she rode a beautiful chestnut, Pistolino. He is a 5-year-old Italian-bred by Daggers Drawn who did not break his maiden before retiring after three tries. He is a precocious horse and has shown much talent which Hewitt said would be best directed in three-day eventing.

"Generally, horses are donated to Relived by owners and trainers who know and trust the program," explained Freda. "In Italy, when retirement for a Thoroughbred is not secured, the horse could easily end up in the slaughter pipeline or in an illegal racing ring."

Freda's father, Riccardo, is a renowned Italian movie director, and she is especially diligent about the humane treatment of the horses on the movie sets. She follows the on-set protocols established in the U.S. by organizations such as the American Humane Association and is developing the equivalent standard for all movie makers in Italy.

Determined to make an even larger impact on the population of Thoroughbreds needing new homes after racing in Italy, the group is working on a prison-based program similar to Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation's Second Chances program in America.

Diana Pikulski is editor of the Thoroughbred Adoption Network and the former executive director of the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation.

NIELSEN HOPES FORMER RIVAL BRINGS HER SALES SUCCESS By Christie DeBernardis

The best horse longtime New York breeder Joanne Nielsen has produced to date is MGSW and MGISP Upstart (Flatter), who now stands at Airdrie Stud. The dark bay was a bit unlucky in that he was born the same year as 2015 Triple Crown winner American Pharoah (Pioneerof the Nile) and he faced the Horse of the Year on three separate occasions with his best finish being a third in the GI Haskell Invitational S.

Nielsen figured if she couldn't beat him, she might as well join him and bred two of her nine mares to the Ashford resident, including Upstart's dam Party Silks (Touch Gold). The resulting colt will sell Monday as Hip 62 at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Selected Yearlings Sale.

"I had a colt, Upstart, that ran behind American Pharoah on a regular basis," said Nielsen. "So, I thought why not take the mother of Upstart to American Pharoah. I am thrilled with it. We believe American Pharoah has the capacity and hopefully we will get some return on it."

Upstart | Sarah Andrew

Like Upstart and Hip 62, Party Silks--a half-sister to GSW Josh's Madelyn (Quiet American)--was born and raised on Nielsen's Sunnyfield Farm in Bedford, New York. In addition to Upstart, the mare also produced the stakes-placed 3-year-old New York Hero (Mineshaft), who was the third highest-priced yearling at the 2016 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga New York-Bred Sale, selling to trainer Linda Rice, acting as agent for Sheila Rosenblum, for $335,000.

"Upstart is the best I've had at this time," Nielsen said. "New York Hero is just beginning, hopefully. Party Silks has been a very good mare. Her foals usually all run."

Party Silks did not disappoint her breeder with her latest yearling.

"He is absolutely beautiful," said Nielsen when reached by phone while at the sales grounds in Saratoga. "He just arrived about an hour ago. I am sitting near him right now. He is very athletic looking and perfectly healthy. I am very proud of him."

The native Floridian, who is on the New York Thoroughbred Breeders Board of Directors, added, "We hope he can run. We certainly have the right mother and the right father."

Nielsen will offer her other American Pharoah yearling, a filly out of Visions of Annette (Distorted Humor), a few days after the Party Silks colt as Hip 329 in Fasig-Tipton's NY-Bred Sale Aug.

11. While there are 15 yearlings by American Pharoah catalogued to the Select Sale, Nielsen's filly is the only member of the three-time Eclipse winner's first crop on offer at the New York-Bred sale. Visions of Annette, who hails from the family of MGISW Evening Jewel (Northern Afleet), has two foals of racing age, but neither have made it to the track yet.

"The American Pharoah filly is beautiful and by a very beautiful mother," said Nielsen. "The dam is athletic, so we endorse her."

Nielsen and her husband Gerald, who was NYTB President up until the time of his passing in 2004, started Sunnyfield Farm with a group of friends in 1974. One of their early successes was Capades (Overskate), who won the GI Selima S. in 1988 and a pair of Grade IIs in 1990, earning over $1.05 million.

"Our children all rode and competed," Nielsen said when asked what got her into breeding. "We enjoyed it and we didn't want to give up on horses. We loved what we were doing. We began breeding and had a good time. We were partnered with three other families and all went out and bought the farm together. As their children finished [with horses] and didn't want to go on, we bought our partners out one at a time, so we just own it now, but it was a lot of fun having our friends there."

The Nielsens are widely respected in the New York breeding program and their boutique operation offers six other yearlings, in addition to Hip 329, at the upcoming NY-Bred sale: Hip 340, a Tiznow colt; Hip 389, a son of Paynter; Hip 423, a Union Rags filly; Hip 604, a colt by Into Mischief; Hip 622, a son of Flatter; and Hip 627, a daughter of Take Charge Indy.

The Select Sale runs Monday, Aug. 6 and Tuesday, Aug. 7 with sessions beginning at 6:30 p.m., and the New York-Bred Sale will be held Saturday, Aug. 11 and Sunday, Aug. 12 with sessions also starting at 6:30 p.m.

GIDU HEADLINES HALL OF FAME STAKES

Gidu | Sarah K. Andrew

'TDN Rising Star' Gidu (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), a respectable sixth in Royal Ascot's six-furlong G1 Commonwealth Cup June 22, stretches out to 1 1/16 miles in Friday's GII National Museum of Racing Hall of Fame S. at Saratoga. The gray, a very close second in Gulfstream's GIII Dania Beach S. Feb. 3, previously put together back-to-back victories in Tampa's Columbia S. Mar. 10 and Belmont's Paradise Creek S. May 26.

"I thought he ran well [at Royal Ascot]," trainer Todd Pletcher said. "He's won at a mile and it's kind of that time of year where there's not a ton of options for 3-year-olds on the turf going six to seven furlongs, so we're going to try to stretch him out to a mile and a sixteenth and see how he handles that."

Raging Bull (Fr) (Dark Angel {Ire}), a smart come-from-behind winner in his first two trips to the post, including an optional claimer at Belmont June 8, closed into a very slow pace to complete the exacta as the heavy 2-5 chalk in the Manila S. downstate July 4. "Raging Bull is doing really well, I'm excited to get him in there," trainer Chad Brown said. "He's a lightly raced horse but he has a ton of talent."

Ride a Comet (Candy Ride {Arg}), a half-brother to GI Belmont S. hero Tapwrit (Tapit), won his last two attempts at trainer Mark Casse's Woodbine base, headed by the Charlie Barley S. June 30.

QUESTIONABLE TACTICS, THEN BIG-MARGIN WIN, SPARK INVESTIGATION by T.D. Thornton

A 16-1 filly who was wrangled back far off the pace then ridden very wide in a four-horse stakes field at Assiniboia Downs is the subject of a Manitoba Horse Racing Commission investigation after she dropped into allowance company three days later and won by a geared-down 10 1/2 lengths as the 3-5 favorite.

Track steward Grant Buckoski told "The Insider" newsletter on the Assiniboia Downs website that the ride by jockey Rohan Singh on Tadaa (Going Commando) on July 25 heads "a long list" of complaints regulators received about the $27,500 Winnipeg Sun S.

A review of the stakes race replay shows Tadaa—who had displayed consistent early speed in her previous 11 lifetime starts—tossing her head and fighting a stout rating hold straight from the starting gate in the mile race before being guided widest into the clubhouse turn and settling at the rear about 10 lengths from the top trio. She eventually rallied to be third, beaten 17 lengths.

Amaretto (Going Commando)—an uncoupled stablemate of the eventual winner, Escape Clause (Going Commando)—was under stout restraint in the initial run through the homestretch, and on the turn even the track announcer noted Amaretto was "heavily restrained" through a "snoozer" of a first quarter mile in :25.60.

Escape Clause (Going Commando) won by 5 3/4 lengths as the 1-20 favorite.

Escape Clause and Amaretto are both trained by Don Schnell and owned in partnership by Schnell, Barry Arnason and True North. Tadaa is trained by Gary Danelson and owned in partnership by Danelson and Arnason.

About 72 hours later, Tadaa performed like an entirely different filly when dropping into a $12,700 open-conditioned allowance restricted to Manitoba-breds. She broke straight for the lead under Singh, widened her margin at every call without being urged, and won "with something left" according to the Equibase chart.

The Insider quoted Buckoski as saying that a commission ruling on the matter could be issued as early as Friday.

NEW VOCATIONS ADOPTERS SHINE

New Vocations Racehorse Adoption Program fielded a team of 31 horse-and-rider pairs at the United States Pony Clubs Championships East at the Tryon International Equestrian Center July 27-29. Adopted Thoroughbreds and their Pony Club counterparts competed in the Pony Club Challenge competition in four disciplines: Dressage, Western Dressage, Eventing and Show Jumping.

The Pony Club Challenge was created to showcase the versatility of retired Thoroughbred racehorses as well as provide an educational experience to each Pony Club member. The program focused on adoption of horses that are often overlooked due to a past injury, stable vice or conformation, thus combating the many myths that surround each one.

"The Pony Club Challenge did exactly what it was designed to do: Showcase how much racehorses have left to give once they retire from the track," said Sarah Coleman, Director of Community and Public Relations for New Vocations.

Capturing a Keeneland allowance Apr. 19, Big Dollar Bill was second next out in a Churchill Downs optional claimer June 2 and was fourth last time in another optional claimer beneath the Twin Spires June 30. Sent off as the second choice in this four-horse affair, the gelding caboosed the field through a half in :53.13 and dropped back to trail by several lengths as three-quarters went up in 1:19.16. Kicking it into gear on the backstretch, he rejoined the field in a matter of strides and was four wide turning for home. Big Dollar Bill hit the front in mid-stretch and kicked clear for his first black-type victory. Heavily favored Hard Study, who won this race last year, checked in second. "He got the job done," said winning trainer Ian Wilkes, who also saddled third-place finisher Archanova. "I've always wanted to run him at these longer distances. I felt with his style, he's a bit of grinding horse and has later gears that it would suit him at marathon distances. You just don't know until you try it and thankfully, it worked out well today." The winner's dam produced the unraced 2-year-old colt Munhak Tiger (To Honor and Serve), who was sent to Korea, and a 2018 colt by Haynesfield. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

IN ORDER OF PURSE:

DANCELAND (f, 4, Tapit--Wonder Woman, by Storm Cat) kicked off this term with a non-factor eighth at Keeneland Apr. 11, but rebounded with a nose success at Belmont June 16. A bit overlooked at 6-1 despite a win over this course last summer, the homebred was away well from her rail draw and was rated back by Hall of Famer John Velazquez to save ground in mid-pack through early fractions of :24.95 and :50.58. Progressing up the fence approaching the bend, the bay tipped out for a two-wide bid in early stretch and surged clear late to win by a half-length over 15-1 shot Dynatail (Hightail). Danceland's dam and fellow Allen homebred Wonder Woman--a half-sister to two sires in G1SW War Command (War Front) and GSW Naval Officer (Tale of the Cat)--won two of her four starts for trainer Kiaran McLaughlin, including a maiden win at Saratoga. Her first foal was War Officer (Grand Slam), SW & GSP-Fr, $184,423; and she is also responsible for Doo Lang (Pulpit), SW-Fr. Wonder Woman's most recent produce is the unraced 2-year-old colt Being Perfect (Kitten's Joy). Lifetime Record: 11-4-1-1, $198,416. Dream Pauline | Sarah Andrew 8th-Saratoga, $87,000, Alw, 8-2, (NW1$X), 3yo/up, f/m, 6f, 1:09.52, ft.

DREAM PAULINE (f, 3, Tapit--Dream Rush {MGISW, $779,364}, by Wild Rush) romped by six lengths in her Dec. 3 unveiling at Aqueduct, an effort impressive enough to earn 'TDN Rising Star' honors. Favored at 9-5 to repeat while trying older horses here, the chestnut saved ground in a joint fourth through a :22.65 first quarter. Full of run, but with no where to go on the backstretch, the homebred was swung out three wide by Javier Castellano turning for home. Dream Pauline took control in the final furlong and sailed clear to win by two lengths over a determined Mizzen Max (Mizzen Mast), who dueled on the front end through the early stages. The winner is out of MGISW Dream Rush, who won this venue's GI Test S. in 2007 and sold for $3.3 million a few months later at the Fasig-Tipton November Sale. Her top produce thus far is 'TDN Rising Star' and GI Frizette S. heroine Dreaming of Julia (A.P. Indy), GISW, $874,500; and she is also responsible for young sire Atreides (Medaglia d'Oro), SW, $120,176. Dream Rush has an unraced juvenile filly by Curlin and a Medaglia d'Oro colt born Feb. 21 of this year. The 14-year-old mare visited Pioneerof the Nile this spring. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $83,850. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

QUESTIONOFTHEDAY (f, 2, The Factor--Kelly's Question, by Mr. Greeley) went wire-to-wire to graduate on debut while in for a $40,000 tag at Pimlico May 28 and was sixth next out in Woodbine's My Dear S. on the synthetic July 7. Adding blinkers for this one, the 6-1 shot leaned out a bit at the break, but was quickly straightened and sent up to press from a head second through an opening quarter in :22.97. Taking control at the top of the stretch, the gray kicked clear for a 1 1/2-length success over Helen (Gio Ponti). The winner is a half to Harbingerofthings (Rockport Harbor), SW, $172,292; and A Lover's Question (Spring At Last), SW. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $56,340. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton. O/B-R. Larry Johnson (MD); T-Michael J. Trombetta.

BONES (f, 4, Kantharos--Songandashinyband, by Songandaprayer) won a local optional claimer Apr. 6 and was third next out in a similar test at Gulfstream West Nov. 12. Switched to turf in her return from a seven-month layoff, the homebred completed the trifecta in the Nicole's Dream S. Here June 10. Favored at 4-5 to return to winning ways while getting back on the main track, the gray kept close tabs on the leaders from a two-wide third through an opening quarter in :22.22. Three wide entering the stretch, she determinedly kept after the leader R Next Roll (Overdriven), reeling her in late for a half-length score. The winner's dam produced a full-sister to Bones this spring and was bred back to Violence. Bones hails from the family of two-time GI Ballerina S. winner Shine Again (Wild Again). Away alertly, the chestnut was rated back to track from fourth, riding the rail through opening splits of :23.89 and :48.06. Ranging up two wide in early stretch, the gelding took command in the final sixteenth and held off a late surge from his stablemate Frontier Market (Lemon Drop Kid) to win by a head. 1st-Arlington, $41,984, Msw, 8-2, 2yo, 6f (AWT), 1:11.68, ft. DABO (g, 2, Temple City--Sullied But Sweet, by Conveyor), overlooked at 13-1 in this career bow, was bumped in the early stages and trailed the field through an opening quarter in :22.08 and a half in :45.46. Still last at the top of the stretch, the bay came alive when tipped out two wide, swiftly inhaling the field and collaring the leader Ready and Rich (Super Saver) in the dying strides to win by a neck. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $29,184. Click for the Equibase.com chart.
O/T-Bradlee Rainwater; B-Brad Rainwater (IL).

3rd-Laurel, $41,200, Msw, 8-2, 2yo, 1m (off turf), 1:40.99, ft. PARTISAN DIVIDE (c, 2, Paddy O'Prado--Liberty's Lyric, by Unbridled's Song) was a bit fractious in his debut sprinting on the turn here July 13, finishing eighth after a wide trip. Given a 2-1 chance to improve in this extension in trip and surface switch, the gray ran two wide at the back of the pack as runaway longshot Golden Noguez (Take Charge Indy) had things all his own way up front through early fractions of :24.11 and :48.59. Charging up the outside on the backstretch run, he was a joint second at the top of the lane, reeled in the pacesetter late and cruised clear for a 4 1/2-length score. Even-money favorite Scaramucci (Flatter) overtook Golden Noguez in the final sixteenth to be second. The winner is a full-sibling to GISP Sutton's Smile. His dam produced a Twirling Candy colt in 2017 and a Not This Time filly in 2018. She was bred back to Gun Runner. Sales history: $60,000 Ylg '17 EASOCT. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $22,800. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

WILD ILLUSION DOUBLES GROUP 1 TALLY IN NASSAU

Wild Illusion continues Godolphin's great season by winning the Nassau S. at Goodwood | Racingfotos.com

It had felt a long time since Wild Illusion (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) showed the world what she was capable of, but Thursday's G1 Qatar Nassau S. played to her strengths and with William Buick in the mood for a tactical masterclass it was plain sailing for Godolphin's 'TDN Rising Star'. As with the operation's only prior winner of this, Zahrat Dubai (GB) (Unfuwain), who took it in its inaugural year as a group 1, the G1 Epsom Oaks and G2 Ribblesdale S. runner-up was coming back in trip after two apparent non-staying efforts over a mile and a half. Allowed to use her lengthy stride from the front on the rolling Sussex Downs, the 4-1 shot relished the experience to crack her rivals one by one. At the line, the bay had two lengths to spare over the July 1 G1 Pretty Polly S. winner Urban Fox (GB) (Foxwedge {Aus}), who edged out Veracious (GB) (Frankel {GB}) by a short head. Rhododendron (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) never looked likely to justify 15-8 favouritism and after sending out early distress signals trailed in last of the six runners to compound Ballydoyle's current spell of ill fortune. "Perhaps she's a bit quicker than we first thought," Buick said. "In the Oaks, she got outstayed and it was the same at Royal Ascot. In both races, she travelled beautifully and she was very smooth again today. Charlie [Appleby] just said to get her into a rhythm and she pricked her ears in front and picked it up gradually. She's a high-quality filly and it was lovely to confirm it again. She has just been running over the wrong trip and on pedigree she is only going to progress." Cont. p2

KEMENTARI RESUMES ON SATURDAY

Saturday's G2 Missile S. at Randwick is shaping up to be an informative contest with Godolphin's Kementari (Aus) (Lonhro {Aus}) fancied to make a bold bid for success on his first start since running unplaced in the G1 Star Doncaster Mile in April.

"This is a really important test for him," trainer James Cummings said on Thursday. "He's done well in his break and looks ready to race as a stronger version of himself this campaign. While he's not yet fully wound up he's nevertheless capable of running very well fresh. While I can't see him being completely at his best, I think the horse is in great shape and ready to run a very good race."

Kementari logged an impressive stakes hat trick earlier in the year headed by a win in the G1 Randwick Guineas in April before running third to Winx (Aus) (Street Cry {Ire}) in the G1 George Ryder S. at Rosehill.

One of several chief Classic protagonists entering the winter under the eye of Charlie Appleby, Wild Illusion had impressed on the clock when beating Polydream (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}) on a testing surface in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac on Chantilly's Arc card in October. Possibly typecast as a slow-ground specialist as a result, she moved across Newmarket's quick turf without compromise when fourth on her return in the May 6 G1 1000 Guineas and it was the sapping conditions prevalent for the Oaks that ultimately proved her undoing. Fading late when runner-up in Epsom's June 1 Classic, she failed to get to grips with Magic Wand (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) on one of that talented Ballydoyle runner's good days when racing on contrasting ground in the Ribblesdale sticking at 12 furlongs at Royal Ascot 20 days later.

For Appleby, this was the end of the learning curve and the beginning of the homebred's true story. "Wild Illusion has been rock solid all season and was coming into the race as well as I have seen her all season," he explained. "I felt that dropping back in trip was going to be her forte. Will [Buick] said although the ground has dried up here in the last 24 hours, there is a bit of moisture in there and he said it is not as quick as Ascot. He is great on the front end--we have seen that many times before--and he has given her a lovely tactical ride from the front. I told him to use her stamina from half a mile out to stretch her rivals, as we know she gets the mile and a half well and would have no problems at this trip. Full credit to all the team at home, and to Michel [Rakotoarisoa] who rides her every day at home and looks after her. We'll let the dust settle before deciding where to go now and while she's had a busy campaign she looks like she's thriving--when fillies tell you that you map out a plan to suit."

Charlie Appleby has come of age in 2018 and as a result the Godolphin operation have entered back into a groove not witnessed in Britain's top races for some time. "This has been a stellar season, there is no doubt about it, and everybody is enjoying it," he said. "This is where Godolphin should be and hopefully we can keep the momentum going. I am very fortunate to be in this position--His Highness Sheikh Mohammed and the royal family have supported me very well and have been very kind to me. It is only my job to try and put these winners on the board at this level. The two-year-olds have started coming to hand now and we need them to do well as we build for next year."

William Haggas said of Urban Fox, "I am very pleased with her. Danny [Tudhope] said the winner has just kept on finding and he could never get to her. It was a strong field--there was a Classic winner from last year, a Classic winner from this year, an Oaks runner-up. I have put her in the [G1] Prix Jean Romanet [at Deauville Aug. 19]. It is a bit soon, but it is four-year-olds and up, which might be a bit more appealing than giving away weight." Veracious's connections were taking much from the experience, with the 'TDN Rising Star' the biggest threat to the winner in the closing stages before paying for her early keenness. Chris Richardson, managing director of Cheveley Park Stud, said, "We're very happy, it is the first time she's had a proper race. Frankie [Dettori] said she was a bit immature, a bit green and got a little intimidated, but overall we're very happy."

Richardson continued, "We will review whether we're going to stay at a mile and a quarter or drop back to the mile, so we've got those options to consider." Kevin Buckley, representing Coolmore Stud in the UK, said of Rhododendron, "She ran flat and that's not like her," he said. "She was disappointing, but we'll get her home and check her out. The pace was slow early, but I'm not using that as an excuse and Ryan [Moore] said she just didn't sparkle."

Pedigree Notes...

Like the aforementioned Zahrat Dubai, Wild Illusion did not see out 12 furlongs on her last two starts but the general impression from her pedigree is that the Oaks trip should not be beyond her. Her dam Rumh (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) made virtually all over two miles in a handicap at this venue and was particularly potent from the front as she proved when capturing the 10-furlong Listed Ballymacoll Stud Lord Weinstock Memorial S. by six lengths in 2011. Her dam, the G3 Preis der Winterkonigin-winning highweight Royal Dubai (Ger) (Dashing Blade {GB}), is a half-sister to another who stayed a mile and a half well in Royal Highness (Ger) also by Monsun. She took the G2 Prix de Malleret over that distance and was second in the G1 Prix Vermeille and G1 Prix Ganay in France before joining Christophe Clement and adding the GI Beverly D S. to her tally. She later produced the G2 Prix Hocquart and G2 Prix Dollar-winning sire Free Port Lux (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) and is connected to Godolphin's ill-fated G1 Dubai World Cup hero Electrocutionist (Red Ransom). Rumh, whose first foal was the Listed Montrose S. winner and Listed Meydan Classic third Really Special (GB) (Shamardal), also boasts the 2-year-old filly Ceratonia (GB) by Free Port Lux's sire Oasis Dream who scored on debut for this yard at Ascot last week and yearling and foal full-brothers to Wild Illusion.

TDN Q&A

BHA STAYERS' PROJECT ADVANCING WELL

Victory in the G1 Qatar Goodwood Cup for Stradivarius (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) sets up the prospect of the 4-year-old challenging to become the first ever winner of the Weatherbys Hamilton Stayers' Million if he can add the G2 Lonsdale Cup at York to his prior victories this season in the G1 Gold Cup and G2 Yorkshire Cup. The very existence of such a valuable bonus owes much to the generosity and idea of the sponsor, but also to a longer-running campaign to try to reinvigorate the breeding and racing of staying-bred horses in Britain. Back in February 2015, the Thoroughbred Breeders' Association (TBA) published the findings of a special study on the future of the British stayer, highlighting its concerns about the demise in production of this sector of Thorougbreds so beloved by the racing public but often overlooked in an increasingly speed-orientated yearling market.

Over the last two years, the British Horseracing Authority (BHA), led by Director of International Racing and Racing Development, Ruth Quinn, has been working on a number of incentives for potential breeders and owners of stayers, not least through significant enhancement of the staying programme and increased prize-money for these races.

TDN's European Editor Emma Berry spoke with Ruth Quinn this week to hear how the BHA's work in this field is progressing.

EB: How well has the stayers' project been received by the racing industry in general?

RQ: it's a subject which finds all of us facing in the same direction. Everybody supports it. Everybody's behind it. That's different to everybody voting with their feet, clearly, but we are all pretty much saying the same thing, which is terrific. That doesn't happen very often in racing.

Ruth Quinn | Dan Abraham

EB: How did you go about deciding on the changes to the programme?

RQ: I had lots of meetings with trainers throughout the second half of 2016 on the back of the consultation process that I started in 2015. They're all hugely supportive and offered lots of advice, lots of different opinions about what they would want to see in terms of race programme and alterations. Whether and to what to degree any of that will translate into a change of behaviour [at the sales], I don't know. It's too early to tell.

EB: You've talked about this being a long-term project, with results not really able to be properly assessed until 10 to 15 years down the line, but are you encouraged by any early findings?

RQ: I do think the data is much better than most people would expect. It's great that in 2017, of the horses who won Black Type races over 13 furlongs or more, 90% ran as 2-year-olds and 60% won at two. I think that would surprise a fair few people, though I'm very much aware that every year is different, and that data is probably going to be volatile.

EB: With a number of measures already in place, such as doubling the number of 10-furlong 2-year-old maidens and upgrades to staying contests such as the Goodwood Cup and Queen's Vase, what's your next step?

RQ: What I'd quite like to do, in as much as we're all able to do so, is try and work on persuading people to actually start breeding, buying, pulling these horses out of the box at the sales and actually having a look at them. Some of those horses are beautifully bred, and only two or three people will ask to look at them at the sales.

I think we are providing a pretty strong message already, bearing in mind we only started trying to improve the race programme in the last two years. It's reminding people that this kind of horse can be around for a number of years if that's what they want. There are also options to sell on, either abroad or for jumping, much more than you would have with an average sprinter.

EB: How do you get that message across, especially at this year's yearling sales, for example?

RQ: Anything we can do to increase the prize-money of these races will give us the biggest chance of getting owners and trainers to change their behaviour, and so will helping the TBA to find an effective and meaningful breeders' incentive to get people to patronise middle-distance sires more. That's going to be something that will drive breeders' behaviour.
We're going to be producing a leaflet detailing all the improvements to the stayers' programme and prize-money increases which will be available for the sales. We've got to keep trying to find different and effective means to tell people about this.

EB: Recent data shows that average prize-money increases have been much greater in the longer-distance races, with a runner in the 11-13f or 14f+ categories in 2017 typically earning 70% more than a runner in a sprint race. These increases presumably needed backing from racecourses?

RQ: We have a commitment from racecourses to continually invest in this new programme up until at least 2020. Now obviously, this time next year or a lot earlier than that, probably late spring of 2019, we'll start the negotiations to get a financial package in place beyond 2020.

If it looks like there is no positive change in behaviour of any shape or form two years from now, then we'll start the process again and be asking people, 'Well, okay, this isn't working. What might work instead? But hopefully, we won't have to do that because I think we've pretty much put in place already or are hoping to put in place very shortly everything that everybody asked for.

It's something that we'll obviously monitor constantly. I have it in mind to do another big industry focus in 2021, and then at five-yearly intervals. But a marked improvement in the race programme and a marked improvement in the prize-money available for these horses in a short period of time is the kind of message we need to be getting out there. Cont. p6

EB: Finally, how did the Weatherbys Hamilton Stayers' Million come about?

RQ: One of the things that came out of the questionnaire sent out in 2016 was the suggestion to have a big bonus scheme linking some of the key cup races, and there was a very positive response to that. Weatherbys Hamilton obviously sponsors the Lonsdale and they came to us and said they'd been putting some ideas together. We talked back and forth about some of the races that they were looking to include. The BHA was very supportive but Weatherbys Hamilton needs a lot of credit for actually pulling it off.

EB: And now we could be looking at the £1 million bonus being won in the first year…

RQ: Absolutely. In the first year, to have a horse with clearly a live chance going into the final leg is brilliant. Hopefully [Stradivarius] will win, but even if something went wrong, it's still been a really good story for year one.

NOT JUST FOR SHOW

Cheveley Park Stud's Pilaster (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) caused a stir with newsflash sectionals during her impressive six-length success in a novice contest at Kempton and the money duly came in floods ahead of Thursday's G2 Qatar Lillie Langtry S. at Goodwood. One of the least experienced in the line-up for this newly promoted staying test for fillies and mares and lacking the kind of black-type experience that is typically essential, Cheveley

Park Stud's homebred proved that raw class can overcome with a tenacious defeat of fellow 3-year-old Maid Up (GB) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) in a pulsating finale. Kept far enough off the demanding early tempo by rookie sensation David Egan, the homebred who was heavily supported into 11-4 second-favouritism took time to find top gear as Maid Up swamped her under fellow promising young jockey Rob Hornby with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining. Belying greenness to stay in the game, the bay managed to prevail with a final thrust and there was just a short head separating the sophomores at the line before an inquiry into late interference allowed the result to stand. "She stays well, but I thought the ground was on the quick side for her," commented Egan, who turned professional only on Tuesday, before learning that he would keep his biggest success to date. "She's only had three runs in her life, but stuck her neck out. Pilaster is very special to me--I knew she was special but I didn't think she could be this good. I knew Rob [Hornby] was upsides me and we're great friends, so to beat him is a bitter-sweet victory, but I'll take it."

Pilaster | Racing Post

Having got off the mark on her 3-year-old bow when beating the subsequent impressive winner and Listed Glasgow S. third Shailene (Ire) (Rip Van Winkle {Ire}) over 10 furlongs at Chelmsford at the end of May, Pilaster had stamped herself as definite patter-race material with her romp over 12 furlongs on Kempton's Polytrack July 4. This was a big day for David Egan, but he showed maturity in not getting sucked into a testy pace battle between the 5-2 favourite and G3 Pinnacle S. winner God Given (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) and Ballydoyle's G3 Munster Oaks winner Flattering (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and that paid dividends. Trainer Roger Varian paid tribute to the jockey afterwards. "He is an old head on young shoulders and gave her a beautiful ride," he said. "He was so balanced in the saddle and he didn't panic. He held her together and gave her the ride of someone who has been riding in these races a lot longer than he has."

Pilaster may be asked to take up Group 1 duty by the end of the current campaign according to Varian. "She was all class and all guts, as I don't think she was loving the ground but overcame it and has a big heart," he continued. "Let's hope she comes out of this race sound and healthy, but you would have to consider races like the [Oct. 20 G1 Qipco British Champions] Fillies & Mares at Ascot, back at a mile and a half. She will carry a penalty now in the [G2] Park Hill, there is that at the Leger meeting [at Doncaster Sept. 13]. I think she will come into her own when there is a bit more give in the ground." Maid Up's trainer Andrew Balding said of the runner-up, "She really had to dig in and is improving with every run. It is a shame she just got chinned. Having started her off over seven furlongs, I just think the step up in trip every time has helped her. We will probably come back here at the end of the month for a three-year-old Group Three [the March S]."

Pedigree Notes...

One of the winner's potential targets, the Park Hill, is staged over the G1 St Leger course and distance and it was in that Classic that Pilaster's G3 Bahrain Trophy-placed half-brother Windshear (GB) (Hurricane Run {Ire}) finished fourth in 2014. Their dam Portal won twice at this venue, including in the Listed Alice Keppel S. before finishing third in the G2 Lancashire Oaks and G3 Middleton S. and is a half-sister to Ice Palace (GB) (Polar Falcon) who took the Listed Hoppings S. She in turn is the dam of the Listed Galtres S. and Listed Princess Royal S. winner Queen of Ice (GB) (Selkirk), while another half-sibling Palatial (GB) (Green Desert) produced the G2 Windsor Forest S. and G2 May Hill S. winner and G1 1000 Guineas, G1 Matron S. and G1 Falmouth S. runner-up Spacious (GB) (Nayef) and the MGSW Dimension (GB) (Medicean {GB}). Spacious has thrown the dual listed-placed 3-year-old Gabr (GB) (Intello {Ger}) and it is that sire who is responsible for Portal's 2-year-old filly named Vast (GB). Click for the Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree.

FORCING THE ISSUE

He may not be the flashiest individual to emerge from Ballydoyle, but Susan Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith's Land Force (Ire) (No Nay Never) is the epitome of what Aidan O'Brien has long referred to as a "hardy" type and his labours proved more than enough to garner Thursday's G2 Qatar Richmond S. at Goodwood. Justifiably supported into 5-2 favouritism on the back of a third in Royal Ascot's five-furlong G2 Norfolk S. June 21 and success in the Listed Tipperary S. also over that trip July 5, the Evie Stockwell-bred half-brother to the MGISW Photo Call (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) pressed the pace early with Ryan Moore intent on leaving no rival unruffled. Forging ahead from the quarter pole, the bay was there to be shot at but his determination was unmatched as he carved out a length success over the similarly tough G3 Anglesey S. winner Marie's Diamond (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}), with a neck back to the G2 Coventry S. fifth Shine So Bright (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) in third. "He's a very fast horse and I was left in front too soon, but he's very game and keeps grinding," Moore said. "He ran a good race in the Norfolk and doesn't need to go any further than six. He has a marvellous action and saw it out well."

Land Force, who was also third in The Curragh's Listed Marble Hill S. over this trip May 26, was providing his stable with a welcome big-race juvenile winner in Britain and Coolmore's UK representative Kevin Buckley was buoyed by the outcome. "We are very pleased with that, as he ran on very gamely at the end," he said. "He fought for Ryan nicely, he was very pleased with his attitude and it was stepping back up to six again--we couldn't be happier. If you look back at his run at Ascot, that was good form. He is out of a mare by Rock of Gibraltar and is by No Nay Never, so it is fantastic for him to have a group two winner in his first crop. We will probably step him up in class now and whether we look at the [Aug. 19 G1 Prix] Morny [at Deauville] or the [Aug. 12 G1] Phoenix S. at the Curragh, they could be on the agenda."

The Prix Morny could be on the cards for the resilient Marie's Diamond according to trainer Mark Johnston. "He got squeezed out of the stalls and knocked a front fetlock, but it was probably a little bit sharp for him," he commented. "We said seven next, but [jockey] Silvestre [de Sousa] said 'no, a galloping track over six will be fine', so he will probably go to the Morny. His last three runs have been very consistent, so we can't complain about that."

Land Force | Racing Post

Pedigree Notes...

Land Force is yet another group winner from the outstanding line of Rahaam (Secreto), whose direct influence was felt via her two high-class individuals in this winner's second dam Cassandra Go (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) and Verglas (Ire) (Highest Honor {Fr}). The former was successful in the G2 King's Stand S., G2 Temple S. and this meeting's G3 King George S. before finishing second in the G1 July Cup, while the G3 Coventry S. winner Verglas was also runner-up in the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas and was making his name as a sire before his premature demise. Four of Rahaam's other daughters proved stakes producers, but in Cassandra Go she had provided a rare jewel as the former Geoff Wragg-trained speed queen threw Halfway to Heaven (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}). She took the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas, G1 Sun Chariot S. and this meeting's G1 Nassau S. for Ballydoyle before producing three group winners for the operation headed by the G1 Prix de l'Opera heroine Rhododendron (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and her full-sister Magical (Ire) who took last year's G2 Debutante S. Along with the G3 Abernant S. and G3 Sandown Sprint S. winner Tickled Pink (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), Cassandra Go was also responsible for the six-furlong G3 Summer S. winner Theann (GB) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) who continued the excellent record of the family as broodmares by producing the GI First Lady S. and GI Rodeo Drive S. winner Photo Call. Theann has a yearling filly by Australia (GB) to follow. Click for the free Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree.

KING FOR THE DAY

Glorious Goodwood is already done with its Group 1 races, but there is fascinating fayre still on offer on Friday where the G2 King George Qatar S. boasts a genuine top-level performer in Battaash (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}). Shadwell's five-furlong specialist was undone by Blue Point (Ire) (Shamardal) in the G1 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot last time June 19, but over this fast strip he is a lethal presence despite the penalty he carries for his career-best success in the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye at Chantilly in October. His return win in Haydock's G2 Temple S. May 26 was marked by an uncharacteristally slow break and it may be that he has taken time to come to himself this term. "The impression I'm getting is that Charlie [Hills] is happier with him than he's been in a while," Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid al Maktoum's racing manager Angus Gold commented.

"I don't think he was at his best at Ascot, personally. I know he went hard, but he got very tired and he's gone hard before and picked up again. He's got plenty of speed and if he's back to his best, he's going to take a bit of beating."

Battaash | Scoop Dyga

On Tuesday, Sir Dancealot (Ire) (Sir Prancealot {Ire}) provided the first clue as to the merit of the G1 July Cup when winning the G2 Lennox S. here and just a nose behind him in that July 14 Newmarket feature was Ballydoyle's Sioux Nation (Scat Daddy). His success in the G1 Phoenix S. over six furlongs at The Curragh in August remains a solid piece of form, with U S Navy Flag (War Front) back in fourth and Aidan O'Brien and Ryan Moore are unflinching in their belief in him as a sprinter of the highest order. Another of last year's juveniles to make his mark over sprint trips was Havana Grey (GB) (Havana Gold {Ire}), who returns to the course and distance of his G3 Molecomb S. success at this festival. In beating the five-furlong Curragh specialist Caspian Prince (Ire) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}) and King's Stand third Mabs Cross (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}) in the G3 Sapphire S. at the Kildare venue last time July 22, he puts himself firmly in the frame here and trainer Karl Burke thinks there is improvement to come. "It's a tough race and there's certainly plenty of speed in there. It's one of the most competitive renewals of the King George I can remember," he said. "Battaash is going to be very hard to beat, but you should never run scared of one horse and our lad is in great form. I think he'll strip a little bit fitter for the run in Ireland. I would say the start will be the key to the race."

Redemption Mission For Eminent...

One of 2018's most keenly-anticipated runners was Eminent (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), but after three unplaced efforts, Friday's G3 Bombay Sapphire Glorious S. has a last-chance saloon feel to it for Sir Peter Vela's G2 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano winner and G1 Irish Champion S. third. Cont. p10

Having finished with a benign heart issue in the May 11 G2 Huxley S. at Chester, he was outclassed in the G1 Prince of Wales's S. at Royal Ascot June 20 and tame at the finish of Ascot's G2 Summer Mile July 14. "I think his last run proved he can't compete over a mile at that level, so we're going to try him over a mile and a half and see what happens," trainer Martyn Meade explained.

In the G3 Bonhams Thoroughbred S., the June 22 G1 Coronation S. runner-up Threading (Ire) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) sets a clear standard. A maiden winner at this festival 12 months ago, Sheikh Hamdan bin Mohammed Al Maktoum's G2 Lowther S. winner is probably just happy to be away from Newmarket, where she has endured her career's only below-par efforts, most recently when sixth in the July 13 G1 Falmouth S. "It is a nice race for her. She ran well at Ascot, but because she has been a bit in and out that is why we've dropped in class, to get her confidence back a bit," trainer Mark Johnston said. "She is great, but she has always been great at home."

In the G3 L'Ormarins Queens Plate Oak Tree S., William Haggas has a strong hand with Lael Stable's One Master (GB) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), a daughter of Enticing (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) who took the G3 Molecomb S. and was runner-up in the G3 King George S. at this meeting, and Sheikh Rashid Dalmook Al Maktoum's Listed Kilvington S. winner and G3 Summer S. runner-up Pretty Baby (Ire) (Orpen). Charlie Appleby will be hoping that Godolphin's July 14 Newmarket handicap scorer Poetic Charm (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) can gain black-type as a half-sister to Teofilo (Ire).

Making smooth headway into contention passing the two pole, the 2-1 favourite quickened to the fore approaching the final eighth and was pushed out to best Be Like Me (Ire) (Helmet {Aus}) by 1 3/4 lengths, becoming the sixth winner for her freshman sire (by Invincible Spirit {Ire}). Kin to a yearling colt by Dark Angel (Ire) and the filly foal Geneva Diva (GB) (Frankel {GB}), she is the second scorer from as many foals to race for G3 Prix de Meautry and G3 Prix du Petit Couvert victress Swiss Diva (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), herself a half-sister to three black-type performers headed by GSW sire Swiss Spirit (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). Tackled and headed by Indian Viceroy (GB) (Kodiac {GB}) at the quarter pole, the resolute galloper regained the advantage with a furlong remaining and stayed on strongly to score by 1 1/2 lengths. "He has got a big, long and lovely stride," jockey Paul Hanagan said.

"I managed to get a lovely breather into him turning in. He got a bit lonely in front, but once he was challenged, he went again." The dam, who produced the dual listed-placed Preening (GB) and also has a yearling colt by Lethal Force (Ire), is a half to five black-type performers out of Wannabe (GB) (Shirley Heights {GB}). They are headed by the G1 Cheveley Park S. heroine Wannabe Grand (Ire) (Danehill), who was also placed in the G1 1000 Guineas, G1 Coronation S. and GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup. The G3 Queen Mary S.-placed third dam Propensity (GB) (Habitat) counts among her descendants the G2 Rockfel S. winner Cairns (UAE) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) and G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein winner Tamazirte (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) who was also runner-up in the G1 Prix de Diane and G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches. More Than This becomes the latest from this family to win at this festival after the G3 Lillie Langtry S. runner-up Wannabe Posh (Ire) (Grand Lodge) and the G3 Thoroughbred S. scorer Wannabe Yours (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}). Livermore), who was beaten four lengths into second by the potentially smart Zofelle (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) in a Doncaster maiden over this trip on debut July 19, broke well to stalk the early pace in second. In front passing the quarter pole, the 9-2 shot maintained her momentum to score by 3/4 of a length from Rux Power (GB) (Kingman {GB}). Furious (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), the 340,000gns TATOCT half-sister to Lily's Angel (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}), shaped with some promise in fifth. Trainer Mark Johnston's son and assistant Charlie, said, "She is a lovely filly. She had not really come on our radar at all six weeks to two months ago. She has really improved the last four weeks. As soon as she crossed the line in that race at Doncaster, I thought she was the perfect filly for the seven-furlong maiden here. It is not impossible to think she might come back here for the [Aug. 25 G3] Prestige Stakes." The winner is a full-sister to Clonard Street (GB), who was runner-up in the G2 Beresford S. From the family of the G1 Dewhurst S. dead-heating sire Scenic (Ire), the dam is also connected to outstanding producers Slightly Dangerous (Roberto) and I Will Follow (Herbager {Fr}), with the latter being the dam of the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe-winning champion sire Rainbow Quest. Her yearling colt by Sir Percy (GB) was snapped up for just 16,000gns by Richard Frisby Bloodstock at the Tattersalls Foal Sale. Dermot Weld is used to dominating the Galway festival, but he had endured a long wait this year until Yulong Gold Fairy broke his duck with her first black-type success. Successful in a maiden over this trip at this meeting and on identical ground 12 months ago, the bay had followed up by six lengths in the Irish EBF Auction Race Final again at this distance at Naas in October. Runner-up in Leopardstown's G3 Ballylinch Stud 1,000 Guineas Trial S. Apr. 14 and fifth in the May 7 G3 Athasi S. back at Naas, she had outrun her 66-1 odds when fifth in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas at The Curragh May 27. Slotted against the rail in third initially, she was angled off to challenge turning for home and stayed on grittily after mastering Panstarr passing the furlong pole.

Yulong Gold Fairy's speedy dam Quite a Thing (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}), whose best form came on her impressive winning debut, also has an as-yet unnamed 2-year-old filly by Lethal Force (Ire) and a filly foal by Gutaifan (Ire). Her dam Amazed (GB) (Clantime {GB}) is a full-sister to the G3 Prix du Petit Couvert winner Bishop's Court {GB}) and the four-times listed winner and GIII San Simeon H. runner-up Astonished (GB) (Weldnaas). This is also the family of the G3 Palace House S. runner-up Blues Indigo (GB) (Music Boy {GB}), whose descendants include the SW and MGSP Saigon (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}).

Dropping back to six furlongs on Saturday, Kementari will face some stiff opposition from some well established sprinters like Music Magnate (NZ) (Written Tycoon {Aus}) and She Will Reign (Aus) (Manhattan Rain {Aus}) and Cummings feels he should be a bit wiser about future targets after the race. "This field is a good enough test for him to see what sort of performance we can get from him at 1200 metres at this stage of his career," he added. Bjorn Baker is hoping Music Magnate's best days aren't behind him as he bids to bounce back from a disappointing effort last time at Meydan in the G1 Al Quoz Sprint. "I'm confident he has still got it," Baker told Racing And Sports. "It's a strong field and whether he can beat the young horses coming through I don't know. But he is as well as ever. He's still a group horse and he is very good fresh and he has won his two trials leading into this," he added.

TBA WORKING TO HELP STAFF SHORTAGE

Thoroughbred Breeders Australia is behind a new industry Fast Track training programme that will see the first batch of 15 trainees enter the workforce across Australian stud farms next week. The group has spent the last three weeks at TAFE, Scone, one of Australia's largest vocational education and training providers, learning about the theoretical side of the business and on Monday they will commence full time positions on major farms. The next step will see the trainees return to TAFE in late November for another three-week training block as they work towards achieving a Certificate III qualification in Horse Breeding.

"Farms across the country are finding it increasingly difficult to find good workers so we felt TBA should take a leadership role in recruiting these people," commented TBA chief executive Tom Reilly. "The course was designed to create a career pathway for those who already had a background with horses but maybe didn't know that breeding could provide them with a job."

Sledmere, Godolphin, Kitchwin Hills, Davali, and Holbrook in the Hunter Valley, as well as Victoria's Three Bridges and Mill Park in South Australia are among the farms taking trainees and John Kelly of Newhaven Park, who was involved in the selection process, thinks the course will prove invaluable for the breeding industry. "I've no doubt that Fast Track has been able to attract youngsters by creating a pathway and the TBA has ensured all participating farms are going to make an effort to develop these trainees and bring them along so that they stay in the industry for the long term," he said.

SINGAPORE CHAMP QUECHUA DIES

Quechua (Arg) (Pure Prize--Queen Cabaret {Brz}, by Wild Event), a six-time stakes winner and three-time champion in Singapore following his import from Argentina, passed away last weekend in Malaysia following a bout of colic. He was three days shy of turning eight years old.

A Group 2 winner and Group 1-placed in his native land, the bay was trained in Singapore by Patrick Shaw to victories in the 2014 Longines Singapore Gold Cup (video) and the 2015 Emirates Singapore Derby (video), the latter tally coming two starts on from a third to Dan Excel (Ire) (Shamardal) in the G1 Singapore Airlines International Cup. Also victorious in the Queen Elizabeth II Cup, Quechua was turned over to longtime Shaw assistant Ricardo Le Grange at the end of 2016 and flew the Singapore flag in Hong Kong and also represented the nation at this year's Dubai World Cup Carnival. He was recently retired with nine wins from 33 career starts and earnings in excess of US$2.3 million.

"It's very sad Quechua has left us so early. He got colicky on Saturday and he died the next day in spite of all the efforts to save him," Le Grange told the Singapore Turf Club's Michael Lee. "He's never had colic in his life before, and that's why it came as a shock. It was just one of those freak accidents. He has given us so much and he owed us nothing."

Singapore's champion stayer of 2014 and 2015, Quechua was also named champion older horse of 2016.
