KEESEP IN THE BOOKS, BUT NUMBERS SLIDE AS EXPECTED

by Brian DiDonato

While there were bright spots and plenty of successes, Keeneland's bellweather September Yearling Sale saw significant drop-offs in trade from last year's strong renewal as the Thoroughbred industry and world at large reel from the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Conducted over 12 days this year compared to 13 last term and with strict safety protocols in place, the 2020 September sale grossed $238,454,300 from 2,346 head sold. The gross 12 months ago was $359,789,700 from 2,850 sellers. This year's average dipped 19.49% from $126,242 to $101,643; the median dropped 18.68% from $45,500 to $37,000.

The buy-back rate was 29.29% this year and 24.24% in 2019. Outs were higher this time as well from a smaller catalog (954, or 22.3% of the catalog vs. 882, 19%).

"The September Sale can be measured as a success given that in these uncertain times, the market proved there is still tremendous interest and money for quality racehorses at all levels," Keeneland President and CEO Bill Thomason said.

THE HOUSE THAT AWESOME AGAIN BUILT

By Katie Ritz

All eyes will be on Santa Anita for their opening weekend feature in the GI Awesome Again S. as Bob Baffert trainees Maximum Security (New Year's Day) and Improbable (City Zip) go head to head for the first time since that consequential first Saturday in May last year. (Race preview p12)

The $300,000 Breeders' Cup "Win and You're In" contest could mark the emergence of an unusual stablemate rivalry.

Over two decades ago, the race's namesake was part of a different rivalry-- one for 1998 Horse of the Year.

Awesome Again had gone undefeated that year, claiming five consecutive victories in the GII Stephen Foster H., GI Whitney, GII Saratoga Breeders' Cup H., GIII Hawthorne Gold Cup H. and finally the GI Breeders' Cup Classic.

While his chief competitor Skip Away ended up finishing sixth in that year's Classic, his five Grade I wins from earlier in the year were enough for Skip Away to be named Horse of the Year.

Adena Springs Stallion Manager Bill Drury admits his bias, but he said he still believes Awesome Again should have received the title from his Classic victory.

"That year's Classic was the strongest field of horses ever put together in the same race," he said. "I think he should have got Horse of the Year off that. Had he beat Skip Away twice, he would have."

To prove his point, Drury can rattle off the field's Grade I winners by heart: Awesome Again, Skip Away, Silver Charm, Arch, Gentlemen (Arg), Coronado's Quest, Touch Gold, Swain (Ire) and Victory Gallop.

The horseman remembers being in the Churchill Downs' grandstand that day.

"I didn't see him cross the finish line because I knew I wanted to be in that winner's circle," he recalled. "When I saw Pat Day lead him between those horses, I knew he had it. It was such a thrill. I knew he was coming to my stallion barn and I was on cloud nine when he won that race."

Drury said that Awesome Again got his Horse of the Year vengeance soon after taking up stud duty.

"I tell people that when he didn't get it, it ticked him off so he said, 'I'll make my own Horse of the Year,' and he produced Ghostzapper in his first crop."

2004 Horse of the Year and Hall of Fame inductee Ghostzapper is one of the 14 Grade I winners, 13 millionaires and four Breeders' Cup Champions that Awesome Again has produced. Ghostzapper's win in the Breeders' Cup Classic made his sire the first Classic winner to also sire a Classic winner.

After 21 years at stud, Awesome Again was officially pensioned last year from stud duty.

"After all that he's done for us, we decided to let him enjoy his retirement," Drury said. "We had people begging, 'I've got a mare I want to breed to Awesome Again,' and we literally had to keeping saying no. He deserved retirement."

Even still, when Drury introduces guests to the farm, the homebred for Frank Stronach is still the headliner.

"I always start by telling my visitors to Adena Springs, 'Welcome to the house that Awesome Again built.' He's our corner-post stallion. He's still a crowd favorite when people come. He's our first homebred champion and we've gotten several champions by him."

Drury and Awesome Again have formed a close bond over their many years together, and the 26-year-old bay will always have a place in Drury's heart.

"We're pretty good buddies," he said with a smile. "I believe the saying that cream rises to the top. Well he's got to be one of the sweetest creams there is. His personality is one in a million. He's got the heart of a champion and he's just a classy horse."

Adena Springs Stallion Sales Manager Ken Wilkins spoke on the success the farm has had with the son of Deputy Minister.

"A phenomenon you don't see that much anymore is people taking the time and patience to develop sire lines," Wilkins said. "Deputy Minister had a huge impact in Canada and of course in the United States. Awesome Again was one of our foundation sires and that led to Ghostzapper, who's been a star in his own right."

Wilkins noted that the sire line has come full circle at this year's yearling sales.

"This will be Awesome Again's last crop of yearlings that will go to sale. But at the same time, the sire line has been carried on by our Shaman Ghost (Ghostzapper), whose first crop of yearlings are offered this year. So it's kind of a transition. Our hope is that Shaman Ghost will carry the baton." Cont. p5

Wilkins added that he expects breeders will soon find many of the same characteristics in Shaman Ghost as they did in his grandsire.

"Breeders recognized the quality and consistency that Awesome Again had as a sire," he said. "One of the things he brought to the table was that he was a proven bet. We certainly bet on him over and over again, and we cashed a lot of tickets from making those bets."

Game on Dude, an eight-time Grade I winner and record three-time GI Santa Anita H. winner, is Awesome Again's leading earner and one of his five multi-millionaires.

"Game on Dude is probably Awesome Again's fan-favorite offspring," Wilkins said. "It seems like a week doesn't go by without someone coming out here and mentioning him. The career that horse had was tremendous."

Awesome Again's four other multi-millionaires include Ghostzapper, Eclipse Champion Older Mare Ginger Punch, GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Champion Wilko and Awesome Gem.

Drury explained that he has found a common trait in many of his charge's top progeny.

Frank Stronach greets Shaman Ghost after his win in the GI Santa Anita H. | Benoit

"He's not a big horse, but he put a giant's heart in his horses," he said. "Ginger Punch, Wilko, Game On Dude--they're not big horses, but they could run. You can't even see Ginger Punch in the photo finish [of her win in the 2007 GI Breeders' Cup Distaff] because she was behind the horse that came in second. If there was one trait he passed on more than anything, it was the heart he put in the horse."

In recent years, Awesome Again's most successful progeny include last year's GI Belmont S. winner Sir Winston, as well as Grade II winners Bravazo, Always Shopping and Something Awesome.

"That's the sign of a great sire," Wilkins said. "Great sires keep coming up with good horses. Then the next thing you see from a great sire is that they become a great broodmare sire."

Awesome Again's daughters have produced six Grade I winners, including Eclipse Champion Accelerate (Lookin At Lucky). Ghostzapper looks to continue the trend as the broodmare sire of Triple Crown hero Justify (Scat Daddy) and champion sprinter Drefong (Gio Ponti).

With Awesome Again's final crops now hitting the track, Adena Springs hopes he can pass on the baton to the stallion empire he has constructed.

"He's the center post of my stallion barn," Drury said. "We've got his son, we've got his grandson and we have his half-brother Macho Uno (Holy Bull). He's Adena Springs' legacy, and I'm proud as I can be to have been with him."

Keeneland President-Elect and Interim Head of Sales Shannon Arvin added, "Everyone who participated should be applauded for their unprecedented efforts to make this market a reality. Keeneland is fortunate, in the midst of a pandemic, to be able to not only hold the September Sale but do so on its originally scheduled dates. I'm so proud of the Keeneland team who, immediately after the Spring Meet was canceled and the lockdown in Kentucky was announced in mid-March, began collaborating with state and local health officials, breeders, consignors, buyers and others in the Thoroughbred industry, to plan for the September Sale even as the landscape changed almost daily. The success of this sale is a testament to the cooperation among everyone involved and the resiliency of our industry."

The sale topper was a $2-million Tapit colt out of GISW and 'TDN Rising Star' Tara's Tango (Unbridled's Song) purchased during Book 1 last Monday for $2 million by a powerful partnership consisting of Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners, Bob LaPenta, Gainesway Farm and Winchell Thoroughbreds. He was consigned as hip 435 by Eaton Sales on behalf of Barbara Banke's Stonestreet Bred & Raised, which sold 30 horses for $9,911,000 through a variety of consignors.

There were a total of 15 seven-figure transactions compared to 22 last year, when a regally bred American Pharoah half-sister to Into Mischief, Beholder and Mendelssohn brought $8.2 million.

Among the positive 2020 takeaways was that the 15 million-plus sellers were bought by 14 different, mostly domestic entities, including some relatively new top-of-the market players who stepped in to fill the void left by the absence of Godolphin and relative quietness of Shadwell and the Coolmore contingent.

After a digital sale next week, Keeneland will shift its focus to hosting a no-fans Breeders' Cup Nov. 6 and 7, immediately followed by its November Breeding Stock Sale beginning Nov. 9.

"Given what we know today, we would anticipate that we will still be working under those same protocols [in November] that we've been working under in September," Arvin noted.

Keeneland's Director of Sales Operations Geoffrey Russell added, "The November sale will be 10 days--it has been reduced by about a book this year, which we had anticipated going in. The difference between the September sale and the November sale is that the September sale [offerings are] the crop, and the November sale [offerings are] the factory. Breeders can retain their mares and weanlings and hope that 2021 will be a better market to offer that weanling as a yearling."

Partnerships Step in As International Players Quiet

While Sheikh Mohammed's Godolphin and Sheikh Hamdan's Shadwell Estate Company, Ltd. were first and second-leading buyers at the 2018 and 2019 September sales, the 2020 renewal saw different entities--and particularly partnerships--making the largest expenditures. Godolphin did not make a single purchase this September (vs. 10 buys for $16 million 12 months ago), and Shadwell spent $5,420,000 on nine buys compared to $11,070,000 on twice as many head in 2019.

"There were certain major players that weren't playing in the market this year, and obviously that had a huge impact on Book 1," Russell said. "We had been given an indication prior to the sale that Godolphin wouldn't be playing at the level that they had been playing at last year."

Meanwhile, "The Avengers"--the stallion-making group consisting of SF Racing, Starlight Racing, Madaket Stables and others--made the most purchases of any one entity, with 28 for a gross of $11.25 million. The conglomerate was responsible for purchasing GI Kentucky Derby winner Authentic (Into Mischief) for $350,000 at the 2018 September sale.

Agent Donato Lanni, representative for the Avengers and known for his close association with Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert, signed for a total of 33 purchases for $12,732,000.

While the bulk of purchases by the Avengers will eventually be heading to Baffert in California, an East Coast counterpart emerged this year, as Todd Pletcher clients Repole Stables and St Elias Stable took home 15 head for $6,380,000.

Mike Repole and Vinnie Viola's stables co-campaigned last year's GI Breeders' Cup Classic winner Vino Rosso (Curlin), who was a $410,000 September grad himself.

"For that group of sought-after horses that several people might land on, I thought it was very strong. Just like any sale in the past, if you brought a really nice horse, you got rewarded," said agent Conor Foley, whose Oracle Bloodstock was involved in 24 purchases for $3,673,500, ranging from $1.1 million down to $1,500. "It felt competitive--it probably would've been an unbelievable, off-the-charts sale if foreign buyers had been allowed. I thought it was competitive all the way through. I think that shows strength and belief in our industry, as 2020 has changed everything."

Taylor Made Top Consignor Once Again

Taylor Made Sales Agency took up its usual spot as the leading September consignor by gross, selling 252 horses for $29,783,400 at an average of $118,188. Unsurprisingly, its overall numbers followed the same trends as the market at large. Last September, Taylor Made sold 307 head for $42,650,900.

When reached for comment midday Friday, breeder and consignor Carrie Brogden--formerly of Select Sales and selling for the first September under her family's Machmer Hall banner--admitted that, despite some solid results for her own offerings including a $1.025 million Into Mischief filly (hip 405), it was difficult not to be somewhat discouraged by the statistics and current industry landscape. She specifically cited the front page of Friday's TDN, which featured Sid Fernando's Taking Stock column on the left (see Keeneland Numbers are Troubling) and Kentucky Supreme Court Ruling Could Put End to Historical Racing on the right.

WE CONTRIBUTE

"The word 'family' defines Taylor Made. Not only is the third Taylor generation now active in our day to day operations, but we also consider our team and clients to be family.

Protecting our family and the horse racing family in general is important to us, and that is why Taylor Made supports the NTRA's federal legislative work. Their Washington, DC-based team has delivered remarkable successes for two decades. We look forward to helping them continue to serve the industry for many more."

"Our farm was really lucky--we had some homebreds who hit all the targets," she said. "But, of the homebreds I had who didn't hit the target, they sold. If I didn't want to go through the 2-year-old sale or bring them home to race, I put them through with no reserve... When I'm putting these yearlings through with no reserve, it's because in the back of my mind I'm thinking, 'Okay, from the September sale to the 2-year-old sale in April--as long as I still have them--it's going to run about $30,000. Do I want to put that much more into this horse to find out if he's fast or slow or sound or unsound?' If I have questions myself, I'm probably going to let someone else find out."

Brogden said she expects more of the same heading into the final yearling sales of the season and the breeding stock auctions beginning in November.

"It's a domino effect," she said. "The 2-year-old pinhookers got crucified [in the spring], then it's the [weanling to yearling] pinhookers who got crucified. Then it's the breeders. Then, it's coupled with the fact that we have no unity in our industry--it's a perfect storm. The foal crop [will be down 7.3% for 2021], and it's going do be down another 20% in record time. Until we get together and have a unified voice, it's going to be more of the same... Our sport is being fractured left and right, and then when you put the economic part on to a fractured organization, it just slowly chips away at everything. People always say the same thing--everyone fights over the same shrinking piece of pie--and that's exactly right."

Into Mischief in Huge Demand

Spendthrift super sire Into Mischief has been responsible for plenty of high-dollar yearlings and 2-year-olds in the past, but 2020 has seen demand for his progeny reach another stratosphere. The nation's leading sire, represented by the likes of aforementioned Derby winner Authentic and brilliant MGISW sophomore filly Gamine, started off yearling season with 17 sellers at the Fasig-Tipton Selected Yearlings Showcase grossing $6,745,000 ($396,745 average). His 57 yearlings to sell at Keeneland racked up receipts of $25,401,000--more than double the next sire--and his average of $445,632 was behind only that of Medaglia d'Oro (18 sold for $10,795,000 at an average of $599,722).

Online Bidding and Other Protocols Deemed Successful

Keeneland, in conjunction with Fasig-Tipton, introduced a series of protocols and policies for the September sale to increase safety and promote social distancing, including limiting attendance, adding bid spotters in the show barn, increased capacity for phone bids and the offering online bidding.

For the sale, Keeneland received 1,857 bids on the internet and sold 126 horses electronically for gross receipts of $12,165,900. The top-priced horse to sell online was an $825,000 Tapit--Stopchargingmaria colt (hip 410) purchased by Japan's Yuji Hasegawa out of the Gainesway draft.

"Any time you try something new--we held our breath a little bit to be sure the technology would work," Arvin said. "We really were very happy with our technology partner on that, Xcira, it felt like all of that went just as smoothly as we could ever have hoped. The participation was really significant."

Russell added, "The whole experience we had through these last two weeks with having three different bidding areas on the sales grounds; having telephone bidding; having internet bidding, we threw everything at it. It was very well received by everybody. Having three bidding sections here, and on the internet, probably slowed down the sale a little bit more than we would probably like, but the buyers were happy to stay [later] and buy, and that's what we're here for."

Among the buyers active on the internet was the Green family's D.J. Stable, which signed for 12 head for $1,975,000.

"I thought the bidding process was relatively seamless," said D.J.'s Jon Green, who placed his bids at home in New Jersey while relying on agents on the grounds for physical inspections. "Certainly, when we were interested in bidding on a horses, the bid was accepted and I won't say it was exactly like being in the pavilion--there's a certain energy you miss out on by being 1000 miles away, online--but as far as the process of bidding, having the bid accepted and ultimately buying horse, it was as close to buying the horse in person as it could be."

D.J. bought five horses who RNA'd in the ring.

"For the most part, once a horse went through the ring and didn't bring the reserve--especially earlier in the sale--I think the consignors and sellers were much more readily interested in negotiating and working out a sale," Green noted. "I think as the sale went on, consignors and sellers did a much better job of reacting to the marketplace and lowering reserves."

Cupid Colt Tops Final Session

A colt from the first crop of GISW Cupid topped Friday's final KEESEP session on a winning bid of $45,000 from Scott Gelnger, agent. The son of MGSP turfer Long Approach (Broad Brush) was consigned to the sale by his breeder, Stonehaven Steadings, as hip 4116.

A total of 167 yearlings changed hands on the sale's final day for $1,163,400 in gross receipts at an average of $6,884 and median of $4,500. The RNA rate was 11.5%.

What They're Saying

"I'm just happy that the sale was able to be completed. I'm blown away day by day by the amazing horsemanship of the grooms and the show men and show women--it's inspiring. Without them, the sale wouldn't go on." --Conor Foley, Oracle Bloodstock

"It's a really good crop of yearlings, by some young and exciting stallions. For the pinhookers, they have no choice--they have to play in Books 3, 4 and 5 [and look for] good physicals, by commercially viable stallions that look to have bright futures... They probably weren't so comfortable in Books 1 and 2 as they have been in years past just because of how tough it was at the 2-year-old sales this year." --Keeneland Director of Sales Development Mark Maronde

"Because of COVID, there was a lot of uncertainty--not just in the Thoroughbred market, but in everything. After COVID really took hold in April, we adjusted our projections on what we thought our yearlings would bring. Fortunately, we had a great sale. We've not only exceeded our revised projections but we've exceeded our original projections." --Tom Hinkle, Hinkle Farms

"I think that there's definitely value in the older stallions. People get very excited about the newest sires and the top freshmen. Personally, I was surprised that so many new sires were producing higher-than-average sales when there were very viable, proven stallions like Bernardini and Hard Spun--basically every older stallion besides Into Mischief--where you could find value in their yearlings... There was a value play for the tried-and-true sires who had 40 or 50 horses in the sale and you could pick up some of them at a much more reasonable price." --Jon Green, D.J. Stable

"I definitely think with the vetting, sesamoiditis was viewed even more harshly than it ever has been. But, the buyers are getting very sophisticated now, where they're doing scanning a lot more scanning of sesamoiditis. I think that they're learning that that is a good way to identify a horse who's either going to have a problem or not have a problem." --Carrie Brogden, Machmer Hall

BAFFERT APPEARS TO HAVE STRANGLEHOLD ON AWESOME AGAIN

Maximum Security | Benoit

Twice in its last seven runnings, the GI Awesome Again S. has produced the winner of the GI Breeders' Cup Classic, with Mucho Macho Man (Macho Uno) and Accelerate (Lookin At Lucky) completing the double in 2013 and 2018, respectively. Just a field of five faces the starter this weekend for the nine-furlong test--a 'Win and You're In' qualifier for the Classic--but the two marquee horses have legitimate claims at Keeneland in six weeks' time.

Maximum Security (New Year's Day), whose topsy-turvy championship sophomore season saw him miss a start in last year's Breeders' Cup Classic, is on track for this year's race and looks to remain perfect in three tries for the Bob Baffert barn since being transferred from Jason Servis. Given plenty of time to recover from his hard-fought success in the $20-million Saudi Cup in February, the bay overcame an eventful trip to defeat Midcourt (Midnight Lute) by a nose in the GII San Diego H. at Del Mar July 25, but looked a different sort altogether when taking out the GI TVG.com Pacific Classic, scoring by three front-running lengths in a result that never truly looked in doubt. Luis Saez, who missed the two post-Saudi rides owing to COVID-19 travel restrictions, makes the trek west Saturday.

In the form of stablemate and 'TDN Rising Star' Improbable (City Zip), Maximum Security faces his most formidable rival since besting champion Midnight Bisou (Midnight Lute) in Riyadh some seven months ago. A low-odds fifth in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile, the blaze-faced chestnut turned in an enormous effort from a double-digit gate to finish 3/4 of a lengths behind Tom's d'Etat (Smart Strike) in the Oaklawn Mile Apr. 11. An easy winner of the 10-furlong GI Gold Cup at Santa Anita June 6, he accounted for next-out GII Alysheba S. hero By My Standards (Goldencents) and the slow-starting, but fast-finishing Tom's d'Etat in the GI Whitney S. at Saratoga Aug. 1.

Midcourt was in receipt of five pounds and had the benefit of recency in the San Diego, but was a no-match third at level weights in the Pacific Classic. He'll get two pounds under the conditions of this race. Sleepy Eyes Todd (Paddy O'Prado) earned this chance via his powerful 7 1/2-length score in the GII Charles Town Classic Aug. 28, but will need a lot to go his way to be a factor. Take The One O One (Acclamation) comes off a one-mile Del Mar allowance win Aug. 22, but also looks in too deep.

SPIELBERG RECEIVES TOP BILLING IN AMERICAN PHAROAH

Spielberg at last year's Keeneland September Sale | Keeneland

The highly regarded Spielberg (Union Rags) will look to earn his diploma in Saturday's GI American Pharoah S., a qualifier for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile.

Produced by a winning daughter of Smart Strike, the long-striding $1-million KEESEP yearling purchase figures to appreciate this stretch to two turns off a pair of runner-up finishes behind the talented Dr. Schivel (Violence), including a game effort after dueling throughout in the seven-furlong GI Runhappy Del Mar Futurity S. Sept. 7.

Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert seeks his record 10th victory in this race, named in honor of his 2015 Triple Crown hero, off the heels of wins with Game Winner (2018) and Eight Rings (2019).

"I think Spielberg should like two turns," Baffert said of the 3-1 morning-line favorite. "They went really fast early in the Futurity and he got beat by a really nice horse. I really think two turns will be better for him, just the way he moves and all. He's bred for it."

Weston (Hit It a Bomb) will also try a route for the first time. The narrow GII Best Pal S. winner was third, beaten 5 1/2 lengths, after pressing the pace in the Del Mar Futurity. He became his freshman sire (by War Front)'s first winner at Santa Anita in June, and the Spendthrift stallion's first stakes and graded stakes winner in the Best Pal.

Waspirant (Union Rags), a son of GI Breeders' Cup Ladies' Classic heroine Life Is Sweet (Storm Cat), followed a well-beaten fourth behind Dr. Schivel and Spielberg on debut in a six-furlong special weight with a maiden breaker going a mile at Del Mar Aug. 29. John Shirreffs adds blinkers for this following the win.

UNBEATEN PRINCESS NOOR HEADLINES CHANDELIER

Princess Noor | Benoit

Unbeaten 'TDN Rising Star' Princess Noor (Not This Time) looks to punch her ticket to the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies in Saturday's 'Win and You're In' GII Chandelier S. at Santa Anita.

After topping the Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's Spring Sale of 2-Year-Olds in Training at $1.35 million, she ran to the billing with a 'Rising Star' performance on debut for Hall of Famer Bob Baffert at Del Mar Aug. 22, then added a facile win in the seven-furlong GI Del Mar Debutante S. last time Sept. 6.

The Zedan Racing Stables colorbearer fired a five-furlong bullet in 1:00 1/5 (1/47) at Santa Anita Sept. 21 for this first two-turn test.

"She's fast; she's shown brilliant speed," Baffert said. "She's coming back a little quick, but she's been handling everything we've thrown at her, so we're looking forward to the race."

Drawn on the fence with regular rider Victor Espinoza aboard, Princess Noor faces only four rivals here, including Baffert-trained stablemates Illumination (Medaglia d'Oro), a well-beaten third in the Debutante and maiden of two career starts; and six-furlong Aug. 30 Del Mar debut winner Varda (Distorted Humor).

Empire-bred Make Mischief (Into Mischief) makes the trip from New York for trainer Mark Casse after three straight runner-up finishes versus stakes company going one turn, most recently completing the exacta versus state-breds in the Seeking the Ante S. at Saratoga Sept. 4.

Miss Costa Rica (Hit It a Bomb) switches to dirt after a visually impressive debut score sprinting on the Del Mar lawn Aug. 28.

BC SPRINT BERTH ON THE LINE IN VOSBURGH

Engage | Sarah Andrew

Following the untimely retirement of the ultra-talented GISW Volatile (Violence) earlier this week, an evenly matched field of six will line up for Saturday's GII Vosburgh S. at Belmont Park, a 'Win and You're In' for the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint.

The 2-1 morning-line favorite Engage (Into Mischief), winner of last fall's GII Stoll Keenon Ogden Phoenix S. at Keeneland, makes his first start since finishing a non-threatening fourth in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint at Santa Anita. He's been training steadily at Steve Asmussen's Churchill base for this.

Belmont horse-for-course Firenze Fire (Poseidon's Warrior), just a nose short in last year's heart-stopping renewal of this race, contested then as a Grade I, was last of 11 in a Saratoga downpour in the GI Forego S. last time Aug. 29. He's posted three career graded stakes victories at Belmont, led by a tally in the 2017 GI Champagne S. He also has a win in the GII True North S. June 27 over this course on his resume as well.

Funny Guy (Big Brown) followed a pair of sharp stakes victories versus fellow New York-breds with a close fourth as the 3-1 favorite after a troubled trip in the Forego.

LADY PRANCEALOT HOLDS SLIGHT EDGE IN RODEO DRIVE

Lady Prancealot winning the 2019 American Oaks | Horsephotos

Saturday's GI Rodeo Drive S. at Santa Anita offers the winner an all-expenses-paid trip to the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf at Keeneland Nov. 7, and Lady Prancealot (Ire) (Sir Prancealot {Ire}) figures a slight favorite against six familiar faces.

Winner of the GI American Oaks over this course and distance last December, Lady Prancealot has done her California-based shuttle stallion proud this season, despite not having her picture taken. Fourth to the in-form Keeper Ofthe Stars (Midnight Lute) in the GII Buena Vista S. over a mile trip that is short of her best in February, she was fifth to that rival in the GI Gamely S. in May. A troubled fourth to Bodhicitta (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) in the GI Yellow Ribbon H. at Del Mar Aug. 8, she finished fast to just miss in the GII John C. Mabee S. Sept. 5. Umberto Rispoli, who rode for the first time in the Mabee, has the return call.

Rispoli was just outfinished in the Del Mar jockeys' premiership by Flavien Prat, and the Frenchman goes in search of his fourth win in five starts atop Bodhicitta. An allowance winner over a mile of this turf course Mar. 8, the chestnut attacked the line to be second in the Gamely and outfinished Tonahutu (Ire) (Sir Prancealot {Ire}) in the Yellow Ribbon. The latter has since added a handy allowance victory at the seaside Sept. 5. Cont. p15

WARRIOR'S CHARGE HEADLINES ACK ACK

GIII Razorback H. victor Warrior's Charge (Munnings) headlines a full field in Saturday's GIII Ack Ack S. at Churchill Downs. Kicking off this term with his first black-type score in the Razorback, the dark bay was second to recent GII Alysheba S. winner By My Standards (Goldencents) in the GII Oaklawn H. May 2. Fourth in the GI Met Mile July 4, he crossed the line second in the GIII Phillip Iselin S. last time at Monmouth, but was promoted to first when the winner was DQ'd Aug. 22.

Ebben (Trappe Shot) takes a step back up to black-type company on a hot streak. Winning while in for a $50,000 tag at Churchill June 13, the gelding scored a decisive optional claimer score at Ellis July 19 and won over this track and trip Sept. 2.

American Anthem (Bodemeister) was purchased by Don Tiger for $145,000 last November at Keeneland and turned over to Danny Gargan. Fourth in the GIII Toboggan S. Jan. 18, he was second in the Stymie S. Mar. 7 and was third in the GI Carter H. June 6. The bay was transferred to Mike Maker, who tried him on turf and found out it was not his preferred surface as the 6-year-old never fired, finishing 11th in the GIII Kentucky Downs Turf Sprint S. Sept. 12.

Stormy Atlantic supplied the winner of the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint in 2017 and again in 2018 with Stormy Liberal, and in the form of Big Runnuer--who simply ran a solid bunch of turf sprinters right into the ground--the Hill 'n' Dale stallion could have a live chance to add to that total in this year's renewal at Keeneland in six weeks' time.

Drawn widest in a field of seven, Big Runnuer was not the quickest away, but he quickly made ground and took them along through an opening quarter in a modest :21.96. Able to widen on the lead rounding the turn, he kicked on gamely once set down for the drive by Juan Hernandez and proved a comfortable winner.

Unraced until late during his 4-year-old season, Big Runnuer was a four-length debut winner over course and distance last October and was freshened off a third in a Dec. 29 allowance going this trip. The bay added blinkers for his seasonal debut May 25 and came from off the pace to score by two lengths before making all the running en route to a 1 1/4-length success in the June 21 Siren Lure S.

Big Runnuer | Benoit

Pedigree Notes:

Cleverly bred, Big Runnuer is out of a winning daughter of Here Comes Lucinda, whose daughter Stormy Lucy (Stormy Atlantic) upset the 2015 GI Matriarch S. at odds of 65-1. Elusive

Luci, who was purchased for $72,000 in foal to Will Take Charge at Keeneland November in 2016, produced a colt by Society's Chairman after a three-year streak of bad luck this past season and was most recently covered by Collected.

The fourth choice in a scratched-down field of five, Into Chocolate got out in the stretch and found the line best of all to take out Friday's GIII Chillingworth S., the former L.A. Woman S. which has been renamed in honor of the beloved Oak Tree Racing Association executive who passed away just shy of a year ago at the age of 93.

Settled in a close-up third as market leaders Qahira and Amuse matched motors for the opening 4 1/2 furlongs, Into Chocolate was angled out by Umberto Rispoli in upper stretch, raced up to the leading duo with about a sixteenth of a mile to race and edged away late.

A winner of two of her seven appearances at three for this trainer last season, Into Chocolate was sent to the East Coast barn of Bill Mott this past winter, finishing second in the Minaret S. at Tampa Feb. 15 before annexing a Belmont allowance July 12. She was returned to the left coast in August, but was a flat and distant seventh of eight in the GIII Rancho Bernardo H. at Del Mar Aug. 21.

Pedigree Notes:

A full-sister to Secret Keeper, runner-up in the GIII Torrey Pines S. at Del Mar last month, Into Chocolate is out of a half-sister to Harmonious (Dynaformer), winner of the GI American Oaks and GI QE II Challenge Cup in 2010. Third dam Jade Flush was a Grade II winner and nearly took down the colors of champion and next-out GI Breeders' Cup Distaff heroine Inside Information (Private Account) in the 1995 GI Spinster S. Candy Drawer is also the dam of a yearling colt by Union Rags and a filly foal by Quality Road. She was most recently bred to Liam's Map.

TIZ THE LAW BACK ON THE WORKTAB

Sackatoga Stables' Tiz the Law (Constitution) returned to the worktab for the first time since finishing second to Authentic (Into Mischief) as the favorite in the Sept. 5 GI Kentucky Derby, breezing a half-mile in an easy :50.07 with regular exercise rider Heather Smullen in the irons.

"It was a nice, easy work," trainer Barclay Tagg said. "I wasn't looking for much. I just wanted him to go out there and stretch his legs. He hadn't done anything in three weeks."

Prior to his hard-trying runner-up effort in the Derby, the New York-bred had been perfect in four starts at three, including the GI Curlin Florida Derby, the GI Belmont S. and GI Runhappy Travers S. Earlier this week, Sackatoga's Jack Knowlton announced that Tiz the Law would give the Oct. 3 GI Preakness S. a miss and that the colt would be trained up to his first try against older horses in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Keeneland Nov. 7.

MR. BIG NEWS BREEZES FOR PREAKNESS

GI Kentucky Derby third-place finisher Mr. Big News (Giant's Causeway) put in his final work for next weekend's GI Preakness S. Saturday with a half-mile move in :50.40 (59/68) at Churchill Downs.

With regular exercise rider Tony Camacho in the saddle, the bay went in splits of :13.20 and :25.40 with a five-furlong gallop out of 1:03.20, according to Churchill Downs clocker John Nichols.

"He left the pole really strong, which is how he was working before the Derby," trainer Bret Calhoun said. "We only wanted an easy work and I told Tony to go in :49 or :50 and gallop out well. He's been fit after just running in the Derby and it's been very promising how strong he's acting in his works after the race."

CATALOG FOR FASIG-TIPTON CALIFORNIA FALL YEARLINGS ONLINE, SALE AT LOS AL

A total of 298 yearlings have been cataloged for the Fasig-Tipton California Fall Yearlings Sale to be held Monday, Oct. 19, at Los Alamitos Race Course in Cypress, CA. The auction was meant to take place at the Fairplex on the Los Angeles County Fairgrounds, but COVID-19-related restrictions on large gatherings at Los Angeles County facilities forced the change of venue.

"We have a quality catalogue with 298 entries, which is up slightly over our inaugural yearling sale in California last year," said Fasig-Tipton President Boyd Browning. "There is a good mix of both regional and national sire power, and graduates of last year's sale are off to a flying start.

"This is an important sale for the California marketplace, and we are very appreciative of Dr. Allred and Los Alamitos for accommodating us when it became clear we could not hold the sale in Pomona," Browning added.

The catalogue may now be viewed online, and will also be available via the equineline sales catalogue app. Print catalogues will be available by Oct. 1.

NEW DETAILS IN ONGOING STANDOFF BETWEEN AZHBPA AND TURF PARADISE

Turf Paradise | Coady

By Dan Ross

The latest missive in an ongoing game of epistolary ping-pong between the Arizona horsemen and Turf Paradise management has seen the track re-affirm their proposal to stage a race-meet this winter.

"Turf Paradise has submitted live race dates for an 84-day winter meet--Jan. 2 thru May 1, 2021--to the Racing Commission for their approval at the Oct. 8 meeting," wrote Turf Paradise general manager Vincent Francia in a letter addressed to the horsemen Thursday.

But again, the proposal comes with caveats. The first is a previously stated desire: That the $2.1 million the Arizona Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association (AZHBPA) moved from the Turf Paradise horseman's account into its own account be returned.

As per the letter: "With the $2.1 million back in the account and the projected $1 million generated in purse accumulation between now and Dec. 31 plus the purse monies that will be generated during the proposed live race meet, Turf will be able to offer the horsemen a 25% increase (from $80,000 to $100,000 daily) for this proposed meet. Surely the AZHBPA would not object to that?"

"He [Turf Paradise owner Jerry Simms] is trying to get the horsemen wound up with offering them more money," said AZHBPA president, Bob Hutton, in response to the latest overture from Turf Paradise. "It's not his purse account. It's not his signal."

The second condition is that the AZHBPA approves both exports and imports of the Turf Paradise signal through May 31, 2021. "Those approvals are essential in order to continue generating money into the purse account, and we simply cannot conduct a live race meet with the AZHBPA constantly threatening to withdraw those approvals," the letter states.

That demand is not a "deal killer," said Hutton, who explained that the issue would be a matter for the AZHBPA board to decide. "That's a reasonable request...I'm concerned with the horsemen, not how much money he makes."

When it comes to purse funds, Turf Paradise management argue that these monies contractually belong to the horsemen that race at Turf Paradise specifically. The horsemen, however, argue that they ultimately wield control over the purse account, as per a prior arbitrated settlement. In a letter last week to Turf Paradise, AZHBPA stated that the purse monies are available for whichever Arizona track stages a live meet.

Details of Turf Paradise's initial letter to the horsemen last week can be read here, and the AZHBPA's subsequent response can be read here.

This latest letter also states that the AZHBPA is "willing" to make only weekly payments to the horsemen's bookkeeper, in the event Turf Paradise hosts a live meet. "As an example, if a horseman wants to withdraw money from his/her account under Mr. Hutton's plans, they would have to wait a week until the funds are deposited," the letter states.

According to Hutton, the way the way the AZHBPA proposes to manage the purse strings in the event Turf Paradise conducts a live meet this winter wouldn't have any effect on the speed at which horsemen are remunerated.

"It's not going to make a difference," Hutton said. "It's like a payroll being due on the fifteenth, and so you fund the payroll account on the fifth. That's what we're saying. We'll fund it."

According to Francia, the AZHBPA's proposal misunderstands the role of the horsemen's bookkeeper, which he describes as a "bank" that fields daily activities.

"That suggestion would not work," Francia said. "There's much more that goes on with a horseman's bookkeeper than just being a repository for purse money. There's daily activity going on between the bookkeeper and the horsemen."

And while Francia described the ongoing negotiations as "positive," he urged haste for a resolution, saying that a live race-meet at Turf Paradise would require six weeks of preparations.

"We have all the essential materials to run a live race meet," Francia said, in response to suggestions that the track had sold various items necessary to conduct a meet. At the end of the day, "I remain optimistic," he added. "That's the best I can say."

STRICT PROTOCOLS IN PLACE FOR PREAKNESS WEEKEND JOCKEYS Edited Press Release

The Maryland Jockey Club announced Friday strict protocols for jockeys intending to ride during Preakness weekend, Oct. 1-3, at Pimlico Race Course.

All jockeys intending to ride during the weekend must arrive at Pimlico's drive-up COVID-19 testing site located just outside of the Hayward Avenue stable gate no later than 72 hours prior to their first riding assignment:

- Monday, Sept. 28 by 10 a.m. for Thurs., Oct. 1
- Tuesday, Sept. 29 by 10 a.m. for the Friday, Oct. 2
- Wednesday, Sept. 30 by 10 a.m. for Sat., Oct. 3

All jockeys coming to Maryland from out of state will be required to leave Pimlico after being tested and self-isolate until notified of their test results. Those with negative results will be instructed to return to Pimlico for a wristband indicating their status and which barn area they are allowed to access.

Jockeys with positive results will be directed not to enter the grounds at Pimlico and may be referred to the local MedStar Health medical director for clinical evaluation.

Access to the jockeys' room is limited to riders and their valets, jockeys' room officials and staff and designated essential personnel. Only jockeys scheduled to ride on the current day's program will be permitted entry.

All jockeys, valets and officials will have their temperatures taken daily and must demonstrate fair health before entering the jockeys' room. Any jockey or official showing signs of illness will be denied access. Jockeys that display mild cold-like symptoms may be referred to MedStar for evaluation.

Additional jockeys' quarters have been established to ensure social distancing. Female riders will utilize their same area adjacent to the Pimlico paddock, while male riders will be relocated to the second-floor clubhouse with split facilities for local and out-of-town jockeys. The jockeys' room sauna will remain closed.

All jockeys are required to wear gloves, including during races, and are required to change to clean gloves with each race. Face coverings must be worn at all times over the mouth and nose while in the jockeys' room. Jockeys, valets and officials are not allowed to gather or loiter in the room or jockey areas between races or before and after the race card.

Every employee, jockey, official and horseman are required to maintain social distancing strategies at all times, both within and

by Thoroughbred Idea Foundation

This is the final installment of a year-long series we called #FreeDataFriday. We have greatly appreciated your attention and feedback. To share your thoughts with us, please contact us by clicking here.

In March 2019, the Thoroughbred Idea Foundation published a white paper calling for Equibase to do four things:

1. Provide free, raw data feeds for registered, non-commercial users.
2. Provide free, basic past performances on all North American tracks.
3. Provide responsive channels to regularly address errors and omissions in the data.
4. Partner with universities to study racing data, developing new and advanced metrics for the betterment of the sport.

There have been few positive developments directly from Equibase on these initiatives.

Fortunately, harping on this topic has yielded far more attentiveness to various outlets when it comes to free data. Some tracks have released free past performances for select races (Volume 35). One reported to us thousands of downloads of free PPs from a single day of racing. It has been, and will continue to be, appreciated.

#FreeDataFriday was about drawing attention to the need of racing to embrace data, an improved approach to information delivery as a path to grow wagering and attention on racing. Regardless of Equibase's actual behavior, this needs to happen.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

WHISKEY AND RYE by Andrea Branchini

6th-Pimlico, $50,120, Msw, 9-24, 2yo, f, 6f, 1:10.88, ft. WHISKEY AND RYE (f, 2, Maclean's Music--Ava G, by Afternoon Deelites) Sales history: $150,000 2yo '20 EASMAY. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $25,200. O-Mens Grille Racing; B-Alex Venneri Racing, LLC (KY); T-Hamilton A. Smith.

The brave 2-year-old winning filly WHISKEY AND RYE carries another ingenious name derived from the famous song "American Pie" by Don McLean, an American singer-songwriter who had his very great day in the sun in the early '70s. "And them good ole boys were drinking whiskey and rye/Singin' this'll be the day that I die" go the lyrics of the refrain of that classic hit. The dam AVA G has an interesting and suggestive name in her own right, being by AFTERNOON DEELITES out of AFFIRMED MISS, and adds a bit of glamour to it all. The divine Ava Lavinia Gardner was a screen legend in the '50s, breaking many hearts--including Frank Sinatra's, who notoriously was no shrinking violet. An Italian native, Andrea Branchini now lives in Lexington, Ky., where he works in the equine transport industry.

MUNNINGS COLT ROMPS TO 'TDN RISING STAR' PERFORMANCE AT PIMLICO

Jaxon Traveler | MJC

Jaxon Traveler (c, 2, Munnings--Listen Boy, by After Market) shot out to the front and left them all in the dust, romping to a 'TDN Rising Star' performance on debut at Pimlico Friday.

The even-money favorite, a $140,000 purchase by West Point Thoroughbreds and Marvin Delfiner after breezing in :10 flat at the postponed OBS April Sale, was working bullets at Steve Asmussen's Belmont base, including a five-furlong move from the gate in :59 3/5 (1/18) Sept. 13.

The dark bay raced under pressure early, but appeared to be doing it rather easily through an opening quarter in :23.78. He began to let it out a notch approaching the quarter pole and was hand-ridden down the lane to an eye-catching 10-length victory. Lugamo (Chitu) was second.

The winner's stakes-placed dam, also represented by a Street Boss filly of 2019, was bred to Cross Traffic for 2021. The half-sister to SW Monzon (Thunder Gulch) was purchased by Three Pines Farm for $26,000 in foal to Street Boss at the 2015 KEENOV Sale.

CURLIN FILLIES CLASH
3rd-BEL, 63K, Msw, 2yo, f, 1m, post time: 2:04 p.m. EDT

This loaded maiden has some of the best pedigrees in the stud book represented, starting with Chad Brown's AMERICAN WEST (Curlin), whose Grade III-winning dam is a half-sister to leading second-crop sire Constitution (Tapit). Granddam Baffled (Distorted Humor) had a yearling filly by Medaglia d'Oro sell in Book 1 last week at Keeneland September, who hammered to Whisper Hill Farm for $1.1 million. American West was a $925,000 purchase herself last year at the same sale and debuts for Peter Brant. American West's sire has another firster in the race--Millefeuille (Curlin)--and this Bill Mott trainee is from the swoon-worthy Juddmonte family of Broodmare of the Year Toussaud (El Gran Senor), her great-granddam. Millefeuille's unraced dam is out of Toussaud's sole GI-winning daughter, Honest Lady (Seattle Slew). Jouster (Noble Mission {GB}) gets another shot here after a decent second on debut going six panels at Saratoga Aug. 29. She should appreciate the added distance as three generations of her direct female line--Storm Flag Flying (Storm Cat), My Flag (Easy Goer), and Personal Ensign

'BEAUTY' DESCENDANTS FACE OFF
7th-CD, 75K, Msw, 3yo/up, 7f, post time: 3:48 p.m. EDT

Bringing a cool $1 million as a Keeneland November weanling in 2017, EMPERADOR (Curlin) will be unveiled for the Chad Brown barn and the four-pronged partnership of Dell Ridge Farm, Doug Branham, International Equities Holding, and Hill 'n' Dale Equine Holdings. The half to Grade I winner and hot Hill 'n' Dale sire Violence (Medaglia d'Oro) hails from the family of champions Sky Beauty (Blushing Groom {Fr}) and Maplejinsky (Nijinsky II), his third and fourth dams, respectively. Emperador will have to get past fellow firster Turnagain Tide (Into Mischief), a $750,000 Keeneland September yearling from the exact same female family as Emperador. Turnagain Tide's third dam, Stick to Beauty (Illustrious), began the 'Beauty' dynasty, and it was her daughter, champion Gold Beauty (Mr. Prospector), who is the dam of the aforementioned Maplejinsky as well as European champion Dayjur (Danzig). Turnagain Tide will wear the OXO Equine colors for the barn of Brad Cox. TJCIS PPs

ARROGATE'S HALF-SISTER DEBUTS
5th-WO, 126.8K, Msw, 2yo, f, 7f (AWT), post time: 3:23 p.m. EDT

A stellar field of promising hopefuls has been assembled for this maiden, highlighted by a half-sister to the late, great Arrogate (Unbridled's Song) named DIAMOND ORE (Tapit). Diamond Ore took the first step toward emulating her half-brother, a champion and multiple Grade I winner, with a $750,000 weanling pricetag at Keeneland November. The Clearview Stable colorbearer, who debuts for the Barbara Minshall barn, is out of Bubbler (Distorted Humor), while her third dam is champion Meadow Star (Meadowlake). Not too many famiiles are hotter right now than Charles Fipke's homebred 'Shirl' line, and the Roger Attfield barn unleashes another one in Speightstown Shirl (Speightstown). The homebred is a full-sibling to Shirl's Speight, who won the GIII Marine S. in July, and both are out of GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf winner Perfect Shirl (Perfect Soul {Ire}), who is a half-sister to 2007 GI Woodbine Mile S. winner Shakespeare (Theatrical {Ire}) and to the dam of last week's GI Natalma S. victress Lady Speightspeare (Speightstown). Diamond Ore and Speightstown Shirl will be joined in the gate by Live Oak Plantation's Souper Sensational (Curlin), a $725,000 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga yearling from the Mark Casse barn whose unraced dam is a half-sister to GI Ogden Phipps H. winner Tiz Miz Sue (Tiznow) and to Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint victor Bulletin (City Zip). TJCIS PPs

KUORA (PER) (f, 4, Grand Canyon Way--Quiquiriqui {Per}, by Quintillon) kicked off her career with three straight wins in her native country, including the G3 Clasico Miguel Fort Magot last August. She failed to hit the board in either of her two previous starts in this country and most recently was fourth in an optional claimer over the Arlington grass Sept. 5. Adding blinkers for this, the 13-1 shot sat a stalking trip in second, hit the front in deep stretch and held off the favored Cash Out (Street Cry {Ire}) by a half length. SKY PROPOSAL (f, 2, Liam's Map--Siren Cove {MSP}, by Montbrook), a narrow wire-to-wire maiden winner at second asking at Monmouth Aug. 15, was seventh in the grassy Sorority S. going a mile there Sept. 7. Given a 3-1 chance here, it appeared that she had her work cut out for her, trailing the field of six through a half mile in :46.00. The gray began to gain ground while riding the rail into the stretch, however, and, after angling to the two path near the sixteenth pole, rallied smartly to a neck decision over longshot Unrequited Love (Despite the Odds). Sky Proposal is a half to Puntrooskie (In Summation), GSW, $433,233. Siren Cove, also represented by an Uncaptured colt of 2019 and a Girvin colt of 2020, was bred to Adios Charlie for the 2021 season. GRANDAL (g, 4, Super Saver--Indian Gracey {SW & GISP, $154,360}, by Indian Ocean) stayed perfect in two starts after a hard-fought, front-running maiden special weight debut over this course and distance Aug. 15. Sent at 5.5-1 here against a field of veterans, Grandal bumped with the horse to his outside leaving the gate, then dueled for the lead while on the inside through fractions of:22.28 and :45.17. Getting the lead at every call, the bay extended his stride and shook clear in the stretch. Liberal Lunacy (The Factor) closed from ninth at the top of the lane to finish 1 1/4 lengths in arrears. Dam Indian Gracey, a listed winner who was third in the 2010 GI Oak Leaf S., also has the winning juvenile filly Dauntless Gal (Will Take Charge). She produced a colt by Union Rags this year and was bred back to Malibu Moon. Sales History: $70,000 RNA Wlg '16 KEENOV. TATWEEJ (c, 4, Tapit--Tiz Miz Sue {GISW, $1,129,709}, by Tiznow), the third highest-priced lot at $2.5 million at the 2017 KEESEP Yearling Sale, entered riding a two-race winning streak over course and distance, graduating July 25 and clearing his first condition Aug. 22. Drawn on the fence here, the even-money favorite tracked the early leaders on the outside in third. He made his move while three wide on the far turn, poked his head in front approaching the quarter pole, and, despite wandering some in the stretch, splashed his way home to a 3 3/4-length victory over Brewmeister (Point of Entry). Grade I winner Tiz Miz Sue is also responsible for an unraced juvenile colt named Tiz Life (American Pharoah), a yearling colt by Curlin ($190,000 KEESEP graduate) and a 2020 filly by Into Mischief. Tiz Miz Sue is a daughter of GSW Sue's Good News (Woodman), who is also the dam of inaugural Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint S. victor Bulletin (City Zip). Tiz Miz Sue was bred to Uncle Mo for 2021. The winner is a half to Serein (Uncle Mo), GSP-UAE, $273,008. ENTREAT (f, 3, Speightstown--Bragging {GSW-Eng, $189,775}, by Exchange Rate) debuted with her mind on business but was pinched at the start as she broke in the midst of a fray that bunched up and crowded tightly together. She soon commandeered a spot in the clear on the outside while midpack and was content to let the swift early fractions of :21.99 and :45.84 up front to their own devices. The 4-1 shot loomed menacingly on the turn while wide and wore down Movie Moxy (Street Sense), inching past her late to score by a half-length. The Juddmonte homebred is the first foal out of English G2 winner Bragging, whose yearling filly by Speightstown sold for $80,000 at the just-concluded Keeneland September sale. BLUE GATOR (c, 2, Liam's Map--Candy Cat Can, by Langfuhr) was unveiled for the Mike Maker barn as the 5.5-1 third choice. Breaking from the extreme outside, he quickly assumed a tracking spot just off of heavily favored Storm Shooter (Twirling Candy). The two stayed glued together through a quarter in :22.41 and a half in :46.33, looking each other in the eye in the stretch. Blue Gator was going the better of the two and gradually edged clear as Storm Shooter never switched to his proper lead. Blue Gator won by 1 1/2 lengths with Forty Two Ace (Goldencents) rallying late to bump Storm Shooter out of the runner-up spot. The winner, a striking gray, has a yearling half-brother by Central Banker and a half-sister born this year by Palace. SIMPLY SOVEREIGN (f, 2, American Pharoah--Simplify {SW & GSP, $261,658}, by Pulpit), off at odds of 5-2 for this debut run, forced the issue on the inside from second, gained command with a quarter of a mile remaining and turned on the jets in the stretch to win going away by seven lengths over favored Tiz Magic (Dialed In). The winner is a half to Simple Surprise (Cowboy Cal), SW, $185,446; and a Gun Runner filly of 2019 and colt of 2020. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $17,247. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

2nd-Remington, $29,000, Msw, 9-24, 2yo, 6f, 1:11.97, ft.
TEXAS TITAN (g, 2, Midshipman--Pelican Lake, by Aldebaran) ran away and hid from this field on debut at 11-1. He shot out to the front and ran up the score in the stretch to graduate by 9 1/4 lengths. Run Fast (Runhappy) was second. Pelican Lake produced a filly by Street Boss in 2019 and a colt by Goldencents this year. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $17,298. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

KAMEKO BACK ON TRACK IN THE JOEL

Kameko gets back to winning ways in the Joel | racingfotos.com

Saddled with a five-pound penalty as a result of his G1 2000 Guineas triumph, Qatar Racing's Kameko (Kitten's Joy) proved himself one of the better winners of that Classic in recent times when overcoming the extra burden to take the G2 Shadwell Joel S. over the same Newmarket mile on Friday. Settled behind the leading duo early by Oisin Murphy, the 85-40 second favourite needed rousing to get to last year's winner Benbatl (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) but responded by usurping that rival with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining. At the line, he had half a length to spare over the strong-finishing Regal Reality (GB) (Intello {Ger}) who was having one of his better days, as the 7-4 favourite Benbatl faded late to be the same margin behind in third.

"I'm delighted for Sheikh Fahad and everyone," Murphy said. "To give weight away to older horses is a very difficult task and he stuck his head out and did everything right in the race. He ran straight as a die. He is so tough and consistent and, on ratings, I think that will rate higher than his Guineas win as to give weight away to older horses shows what a top horse he is. He is a very intelligent horse. I took him down in a hack canter and I had him really quiet at the gate. If I lit him up at all, he would have travelled really on the bridle. I was happy for him to race a little lazily today."

NIGHT OF THUNDER FILLY TOPS SPORTSMAN'S SALE

There was just one offering by Night Of Thunder (Ire) in this year's Goffs Sportsman's Sale, and the Castlebridge-consigned filly duly topped the two-day auction with bid of £72,000 from Peter and Ross Doyle. Lot 730 is the fourth foal out of the placed Manduro (Ger) mare Muzhil (Ire), whose 3-year-old Monzoon (Ire) (Bated Breath {GB}) has become the mare's first winner since the catalogue was published. Muzhil is a half-sister to Godolphin's triple group winner Beautiful Romance (GB) (New Approach {Ire}). The filly proved a profitable pinhook, having cost 21,000gns last December. The highest-priced colt of the session was the Ballyhane-bred and consigned (lot 698), a son of that stud's resident sire Dandy Man (Ire). He was bought by Mags O'Toole for £50,000 and is out of Little Kipling (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}), a full-sister to Royal Albert Hall (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}) who won a listed stake in the U.S. last year.

Kameko was coming back from some reversals here, but he had also done that at two when following runner-up placings in Sandown's G3 Solario S. and the G2 Royal Lodge S. also over this track and trip with a dominating success in the G1 Futurity Trophy on Newcastle's Tapeta in November. Having conquered Wichita (Ire) (No Nay Never) and Pinatubo (Ire) (Shamardal) in the June 6 Classic here, he has surprisingly gone three starts without making the frame but each effort had a valid excuse attached. Out of his ground over a mile and a half when tried in the July 4 G1 Epsom Derby, he was denied a clear run in the G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood on July 29 and was again stretched too far when fourth for the third consecutive time in York's G1 Juddmonte International over an extended 10 furlongs last time on Aug. 19. While he was slightly lethargic during the Guineas, he was markedly more so here as early as halfway but was still able to gain the advantage well before the final furlong and there was a feeling from there that he was only doing enough to stay in command. Regal Reality had shown when winning the Aug. 9 G3 Sovereign S. that he can be a force to be reckoned with at this trip and his proximity does not undermine Kameko's prospects of shaking up Palace Pier (GB) (Kingman {GB}) in next month's G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. That target is set in stone according to Andrew Balding. "It's a bit of a relief, as this was a tough task giving weight away to older horses," he said. "I thought that Benbatl would have gone a slightly stronger gallop and he hit a flat spot but picked up well, so it's nice to get back on track. The QEII has been on his agenda the whole season and I just hope the ground isn't too soft by then. He hasn't had a lucky season at all and it has felt like trying to put a square peg in a round hole since the Guineas."

Pedigree Notes

Kameko will be the second member of his immediate family to tackle the QEII, with the dam Sweeter Still (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) a half to the G1 Racing Post Trophy hero Kingsbarns (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) who was third in the 2013 edition. Sweeter Still, who was successful in the GIII Senorita S. and placed in the GII Providencia S. and GII Honeymoon H., is also a half to the G3 Derrinstown Stud 1000 Guineas Trial S. winner Belle Artiste (Ire) (Namid {GB}). This is the family of the GI Breeders' Cup Turf runner-up Ace (Ire) (Danehill), who was fifth in the 2004 QEII, and his G1 Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup-winning full-brother Danish (Ire) and the triple Group 1 runner-up Hawkeye (Ire) also by that sire. Her 2-year-old daughter of Big Blue Kitten had sold to Atlantic Bloodstock for only $5,000 at the 2019 Keeneland September Sale, but went to David Redvers for £200,000 at the Arqana 2020 Breeze Up Sale at Goffs UK. Eleven days before this race, Capital System Co. paid $190,000 for her yearling filly by Optimizer at Keeneland September.

ISABELLA GILES GAME IN ROCKFEL SCORE

Paul and Clare Rooney's Isabella Giles (Ire) (Belardo {Ire}) registered a pair of six-furlong wins--at Leicester in June and at Newbury in July--but lost her unbeaten tag when fourth in Ascot's July 26 G3 Princess Margaret S. before bouncing back to claim a first black-type score for her freshman sire (by Lope de Vega {Ire}) in Goodwood's Aug. 29 G3 Prestige S. when upped to seven furlongs last time. Aided by a strong tailwind over the same distance in Friday's G2 Shadwell Rockfel S. at Newmarket, the 11-5 chance continued on an upward trajectory with a decisive two-length defeat of Nazuna (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}). Racing second after breaking on the lead, she regained control before halfway and kept on relentlessly under a drive once shaken up at the quarter-mile marker to double her stakes tally in game fashion. Nazuna threatened throughout the final quarter mile, but was unable to strike a late blow. She finished 3 1/4 lengths ahead of Alba Rose (GB) (Muhaarar {GB}), while even-money favourite Monday (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) came under pressure far too early for comfort and was 5 1/2 lengths further back in a well-beaten fourth.

"She put up a very classy performance, she's got a wonderful temperament, she settles into a lovely rhythm and can find her own way in a race," said winning trainer Clive Cox. "She doesn't have to lead, but is so relaxed that finding a rhythm and setting your own fractions worked perfectly. Adam [Kirby] got his fractions right and she made a good job of it. I think she is definitely a filly to get a mile next year, which is really exciting, and I'm delighted for Clare and Paul Rooney to have such an exciting possibility as a Classic contender. I'm over the moon."

Mount Coote, Kilmallock, Co Limerick • Tel: +353 87 9195780

Looking ahead to possible targets, Cox added, "She is very well balanced, she has won at the track and is a filly that has a little bit of scope. She's got a wonderful mind and clearly a big level of ability. She is in the [G1] Fillies' Mile [back at this venue], but she has done pretty good this year. She wouldn't have blown a candle out there, but we will see how she comes back. It was a 'Win and You're In' race for the Breeders' Cup, but I'm not sure. Next year beckons over a mile, and I think we will be looking that way."

Roger Varian, trainer of runner-up Nazuna, expressed delight with his charge and also revealed short-term options. He said, "She is a lovely filly and we were not here just to make up the numbers. I really like her and I'm delighted she has run up to our expectations. Andrea [Atzeni] thinks she will stay a mile and there are lots of nice options. There's the [G3] Oh So Sharp back here in a couple of weeks or there is the [GI] Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies' Turf, which is a race we were second in with Daahyeh last year after winning this."

Pedigree Notes

Isabella Giles, one of three scorers out of G3 Firth of Clyde S. victress Majestic Dubawi (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), is a half-sister to MSW G3 Goldene Peitsche and G3 Silberne Peitsche placegetter Majestic Colt (Ire) (Clodovil {Ire}), a yearling colt by Nathaniel (Ire) and a weanling filly by Fascinating Rock (Ire). Descendants of her third dam South Shore (GB) (Caerleon), herself a winning half-sister to MG1SW sire Soviet Line (Ire) (Soviet Star), include MG1SP G3 Round Tower S. winner Lope Y Fernandez (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) and G2 Vintage S. and G2 Oettingen-Rennen victor Dark Vision (Ire) (Dream Ahead).

ANTONIA DE VEGA REIGNS AT HQ

Waverley Racing's Antonia de Vega (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}), who posted wins in the 2018 G3 Prestige S. and 2019 Listed Abingdon Fillies' S., ran unplaced in last year's G1 British Champions Fillies & Mares at Ascot and G1 Grosser Preis von Bayern at Munich and was back to the fore in Pontefract's June 15 Listed Pontefract Castle S. on seasonal return last time. She had skipped two engagements since then, but was back on show for Friday's G3 Princess Royal Muhaarar S. over 12 furlongs at Newmarket and her abundant stamina was again evident as the 16-5 chance outpointed 7-4 favourite Alpinista (GB) (Frankel {GB}) by a half-length in the four-runner contest. The eventual winner raced last through the early stages and improved into third after making the only turn 10 furlongs from home. Inching closer from halfway, she swooped for control approaching the final quarter mile and stayed on gamely under a continued drive up the hill to secure a fourth stakes rosette.

"She was only having the eighth start of her career today and it has not always been easy with her as she had problems with her splints," explained trainer Ralph Beckett. "It has been hard work and the problem grumbled away for too long, but her recent work was very good. The ground was a bit quick at Pontefract and she was a bit undercooked, but we just about got away with it. I'm delighted she got her head in front today and the obvious race for her is the [G1 British Champions] Fillies & Mares [at Ascot] on Champions Day."

Pedigree Notes

Antonia de Vega is the first of five foals produced by Listed Platinum S. and Listed Knockaire S. placegetter Witches Brew (Ire) (Duke of Marmalade), herself kin to G1 Prix Jacques Le Marois hero Al Wukair (Ire) (Dream Ahead) and G3 Autumn S. runner-up Dream Today (Ire) (Dream Ahead). She is full to a yearling filly and a weanling filly. Her third dam Caerlina (Ire) (Caerleon) landed the G1 Prix de Diane and produced G1 Irish 1000 Guineas and G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches third La Nuit Rose (Fr) (Rainbow Quest), who in turn is the dam of GII Kelso H. scorer Tam Lin (GB) (Selkirk) and Listed Derby de l'Ouest victor Blue Rambler (GB) (Monsun {Ger}). Caerlina is also the granddam of MG1SP G2 Kinko Sho winner Curren Mirotic (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) and G1SP G3 Kyoto Himba victress Hikaru Amaranthus (Jpn) (Agnes Tachyon {Jpn}).

BOWERMAN MAKES DUNDALK EXPERIENCE COUNT IN THE DIAMOND

Two-for-two at Dundalk, the Total Recall Racing Club's Bowerman (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}) stretched that perfect sequence in his biggest Polytrack test to date as he mastered a competitive line-up for Friday's G3 Al Basti Equiworld, Dubai Diamond S. Providing trainer Ado McGuinness with a first pattern-race success as a result, the 6-year-old who was last seen finishing third in the G3 Desmond S. over a mile at Leopardstown Aug. 13 had to battle to see off the 40-1 shot Sky Seven (Ire) (Helmet {Aus}) but proved equal to the task to prevail by half a length in the extended 10-furlong feature. "He's an unbelievable horse. Colin [Keane] said he's so relaxed," McGuinness said. "We worked him up here during the week and he was very good. He's a dream horse to have and I'm delighted for the lads, the Total Recall Racing Club. They're very loyal owners and have been very very lucky."

Bowerman had previously shown a loving for artificial surfaces when with Roger Varian, winning at Kempton, Chelmsford and Newcastle and since he was gelded at the end of last year has thrived. Following two conditions wins here in January with a second in the Listed Prix Saonois over a mile at Cagnes-Sur-Mer Feb. 15, the bay made his mark on turf next time with success in the Irish Lincolnshire H. at The Curragh June 12. Subsequently second in the Listed Celebration S. back there June 27 and seventh in the 10-furlong Listed Silver S. at Leopardstown July 23 before his Desmond effort, he confirmed his progression back on the all-weather here by arriving from mid-pack to swamp Sky Seven and Gold Maze (GB) (Golden Horn {GB}) a furlong from home.

McGuinness is eyeing a break for his stable star now. "He's probably going to be finished for a while, but if some of the Middle East races open up later on in the year he'll head out to one of those places," he added. "Dubai or he could go to Bahrain or Doha if we can get an invitation. I'm lucky to have two or three very nice horses and that's what it's all about. When you get those type of horses you can go an awful lot more places. I'm 18 years at it now and we've been lucky to get good owners in. I owe a lot to the late Bart O'Sullivan, who passed away last year, as he introduced me to a lot of new owners from England and we've really prospered."

Bred by Cheveley Park Stud, Bowerman is out of the decent Sandown handicap winner Jamboretta (Ire) (Danehill) whose dam Jiving (GB) (Generous {Ire}) produced the listed-winning and group-placed Excusez Moi (Fusaichi Pegasus) who also excelled on the all-weather. Jiving is a half-sister to Juddmonte's legendary Hasili (Ire) (Kahyasi {Ire}) whose importance as a broodmare continues to be felt in 2020 as descendants Quadrilateral (GB) (Frankel {GB}), Ocean Atlantique (American Pharoah) and Masen (GB) (Kingman {GB}) add further black-type to the abundance already in place.

TALLY-HO!

Method | racingfotos.com

First-season sire sensation Mehmas (Ire) has come to dominate that category since racing's wheels began turning in June and it is fitting that he is responsible for three of the big four favourites for Saturday's G1 Juddmonte Middle Park S. at Newmarket. Tally-Ho Stud's son of Acclamation (GB), who was third in this race on his racecourse finale in 2016, has Method (Ire), Minzaal (Ire) and Supremacy (Ire) with all three coming into the six-furlong feature on the back of impressive wins in black-type company at the trip. Manton Park Racing's Method is the only unbeaten of the trio, having brushed aside the subsequent G2 Prix du Calvados winner Fev Rover (Ire) (Gutaifan {Ire}) by 4 1/4 lengths at Doncaster on June 26 before dishing out another sound beating to the eventual G3 Sirenia S. scorer Mighty Gurkha (Ire) (Sepoy {Aus}) in Newbury's Listed Rose Bowl S. on July 18. Method's trainer Martyn Meade is keeping a close eye on the skies. "Everything that we can control I've been delighted with, but the one thing we can't--the weather--may scupper us," he said on Friday. "I really want to run him, because there's nothing else for him--he's not in the Dewhurst and I'd want to keep him over six furlongs anyway--but I wouldn't want him pulled about on heavy ground."

It would take a lot of rain to turn the ground heavy on the Rowley Mile and Meade's fears may prove unfounded. "Newmarket can dry quickly and it is very windy--I just hope they don't have any more of those downpours," he added. "This has always been the plan and earlier in the week I thought the ground would be perfect for him. This is the one we've been aiming at, but I just don't want to risk him on extreme ground. I've been pleased watching most of the others have hard races while we were always coming straight here--so he's had a lovely break, been freshened up and hopefully we get to run him."

Despite occupying favouritism at present, Method has a jump to make to get to Shadwell's Minzaal and Jason Goddard's Supremacy on form.

Minzaal followed an impressive Salisbury novice success on Aug. 9 with an emphatic score in York's G2 Gimcrack S. on Aug. 21, while Supremacy went from a 3 3/4-length Windsor maiden win on July 6 to a four-length verdict in the G2 Richmond S. at Goodwood on July 30. Minzaal's trainer Owen Burrows said, "It looks a red-hot race, the best of the crop really and it was always going to be. Fingers crossed, we are going there with every chance. We knew straight after York this would be his race--I wasn't tempted by anything else and timing-wise it has been perfect. There was plenty of rain before racing on Thursday and the jocks are saying it is riding a bit dead. I'd imagine it will be very similar ground to what it was in the Gimcrack, just on the soft side of good--no excuses for anybody, I shouldn't think. We'll learn a bit more about him and we'll see how good he is."

Trainer Clive Cox said of Supremacy, "He was an exciting winner of the Richmond and he's had a healthy break in between there and here. He's shown us plenty of class, but has physically progressed since Goodwood and we're very much looking forward to seeing him perform here."

Miss Amulet | Tattersalls Ascot

If the winner comes from outside the "Mehmas three", it is most likely to be Zhang Yuesheng's Lucky Vega (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) who was firmly in command in The Curragh's G1 Phoenix S. on Aug. 9. Jessie Harrington's leading colt was successful by 3 1/2 lengths there, with Qatar Racing's June 19 G2 Norfolk S. scorer The Lir Jet (Ire) (Prince of Lir {Ire}) being promoted to second from third. Unlucky when fifth in the seven-furlong G1 Goffs Vincent O'Brien National S. back there on Sept. 13, he sits comfortably among the elite of his generation. "It would be fair to say his last race didn't go to plan, but we don't need to say any more about that," Harrington said. "Prior to that, he was very impressive in the Phoenix S. and on that form he should have a good chance. I wouldn't imagine we'll be using the ground as an excuse--he's pretty versatile and it shouldn't be bottomless. We haven't done much with him since the National, just kept him ticking over. We're looking for a big run."

Dandalla Puts Unbeaten Record On The Line

Juddmonte also sponsors the G1 Cheveley Park S. in which the fillies pursue the title of champion headed by Nick Bradley Racing and Elaine Burke's unbeaten Dandalla (Ire) (Dandy Man {Ire}). Successful in the G3 Albany S. by six lengths at Royal Ascot on June 19, the bay was deemed initially disappointing when just edging the aforementioned Fev Rover and Santosha (Ire) (Coulsty {Ire}) in the G2 Duchess of Cambridge S. on the July Course here on July 10 but subsequent events have shown that form in a different light. Trainer Karl Burke is full of confidence.

"We couldn't be happier with her. She's ready to run and hopefully she'll do herself justice," he said. "It took her a little while to come to herself [after the Duchess of Cambridge], but the last month has been very good. I think the bit of rain they've had will help, although she is a good-actioned filly and we were surprised how well she handled the ground at Ascot. I don't think she's ground-dependent. It's going to be an exciting race, with some nice Irish fillies coming over, but you want to be taking on the best in these races. We're looking forward to running our filly--hopefully she can prove us right."

One of the Irish contingent that Burke was referring to is Doreen Tabor's recent acquisition Miss Amulet (Ire) (Sir Prancealot {Ire}), who upset the June 20 G2 Queen Mary S. runner-up Sacred (GB) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) in the G2 Lowther S. over this trip at York on Aug. 20. They finished clear of Saeed Bin Mohammed Al Qassimi's Sept. 19 G3 Firth of Clyde S. winner Umm Kulthum (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) in the process and Miss Amulet's trainer Ken Condon has a strong clutch of 2-year-olds in 2020. "She's a very progressive filly. I thought it was a good performance at York and she's done very well since," he said. "She needs to step up again, but all the signs are good. She deserves to take her chance in a Group 1 now and we're looking forward to it."

In an open renewal, the McMurray Family's Happy Romance (Ire) adds another string to the bow of Ballyhane Stud's Dandy Man having beaten Alcohol Free (Ire) (No Nay Never) in the G3 Dick Poole Fillies' S. at Salisbury on Sept. 3. Trainer Richard Hannon said, "Happy Romance is in great form. She has run well and improved all year. She has not run a bad race yet and this is the logical next step up. What she has done has not surprised us, because she has always shown us a lot. She did well at Salisbury as she did travel wider, but she picked up well. This is a much harder race than the Rockfel, but you would rather be winning a Cheveley Park. There are only certain opportunities to win a Group 1 and this is one of them, so we have to try to take it."

Going The Distance

Potential middle-distance stars of 2021 have two major opportunities to shine on Saturday, with Newmarket offering the G2 Juddmonte Royal Lodge S. and The Curragh's card featuring the G2 Alan Smurfit Memorial Beresford S. over a mile. The Royal Lodge has drawn a small field, with China Horse Club International's Aug. 21 Listed Stonehenge S. winner Cobh (Ire) (Kodi Bear {Ire}) taken on by the Teme Valley syndicate's Aug. 19 G3 Acomb S. scorer Gear Up (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) and Ballydoyle's Aug. 22 G2 Futurity S. third Ontario (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Trainer Clive Cox said of Cobh, "He was an impressive winner of the Stonehenge at Salisbury, clearly getting the mile well. He's a big, scopey individual who has continued to physically develop with his progression on the race track."

The Beresford may offer more strength in depth than the Royal Lodge, featuring a clash between two 'TDN Rising Stars' in High Definition (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Wuqood (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}). The former represents Team Ballydoyle successful an astounding 19 times already and is back over the course and distance of his impressive debut success on Aug. 22, while Shadwell's Wuqood bids to back up the striking impression of his win on his racecourse bow over this trip at Gowran Park on Aug. 12. Jessie Harrington saddles another of Zhang Yuesheng's talented juveniles in Ace Aussie (Ire) (Australia {GB}), who was off the mark over seven furlongs at Cork on Sept. 9.

The relocation of the Sportsman's Sale to Doncaster this year meant that a significant number of vendors opted to withdraw their yearlings and wait for later opportunities to sell in Ireland. As such just 273 of the 387 offered went through the ring, and 185 were sold for £2,468,900; 98 more were sold last year for an aggregate of £4,320,862. The clearance rate of 67.8% was down from 78.6% last year, while the average and median each dipped 13% to £13,345 and £10,000, respectively. Figures from last year's sale were converted to sterling for ease of comparison.

Goffs Group Chief Executive Henry Beeby said, "moving the Sportsman's Sale to our UK sales complex was not a straightforward decision but, on balance, was deemed the right one in the circumstances. Frankly all of us are in a quandary about what is the right thing to do at the moment especially as things can change from day to day. Indeed, it is worth bearing in mind that the British Prime Minister announced new restrictions to help in the fight against Covid-19 on Tuesday so we are constantly having to react and adapt at short notice. In that connection we are indebted to Doncaster Council with whom we have liaised closely in recent months as they have provided feedback and support as we have drawn up the detailed protocols required to conduct a sale in the current climate.

"We are also very thankful to our vendors who embraced the change of date and location with hardly a murmur and worked with us to stage a sale that has returned a trade of relative strength on both days. Indeed, those yearlings that appealed most drew the normal level of activity from a large group of buyers from the UK, Ireland and those European countries on the UK's current green list.

"We also want to acknowledge our appreciation to all attendees over the last few days as we are very aware that the protocols in place, whilst very necessary, can be frustrating on occasions. However they have been embraced with a level of acceptance and good humour which is helpful as we strive to do the right thing when no one really knows what that entails.

"Of course the stats do not compare with previous renewals of the Sportsman's Sale but the key point is liquidity and the ability to trade. In that connection the last two days have delivered although comparing with 12 months ago is made even harder by the fluctuation of sterling in the intervening period so we would suggest that the most revealing figure is the clearance rate."

TDN Q&A

WITH TOM PRITCHARD-GORDON

With the yearling sales now in full swing, TDN quizzes industry figures on past purchases, life during lockdown and their perspective on the sales for the next few weeks. Today, Tom Pritchard-Gordon answers our questions.

TDN: What was your best yearling purchase over the last few years? And your favourite?

Tom Pritchard-Gordon | Alayna Cullen

TPG: We only purchased six yearlings last year and, to date, the best appears to be Zoetic (GB) (Kodiac {GB}) who won the Listed St Hugh's S. at Newbury last time out. She has been trained impeccably by James Ferguson, who looks to be a trainer going places and hopefully she runs with plenty of credit in the G1 Cheveley Park S. on Saturday.

Our favourite, at the time of purchase, was a Galileo (Ire) colt we purchased off Newsells Park at Tattersalls Book 1. Named Pleasant Man (GB), he won impressively on debut at Haydock last month for Roger Charlton and might take up his place in the G2 Royal Lodge on Saturday as well. He could be a very exciting horse next year.

TDN: Are there any positives you have taken from how the sales have been conducted this year?

TPG: The main positive that can be taken from the sales season so far is the cohesion and solidarity shown throughout the bloodstock industry. From sales companies through to agents working in unison, there has been a far greater emphasis on working for the common good than there has been in the past. If only this were applied to the wider field within the industry, then we might make some headway with regard to the issue of prizemoney.

TDN: How has your business adapted?

TPG: We have always tried to be frontrunners when it comes to the tech side of our business and that has certainly helped in keeping our heads above water during the pandemic. Obviously Zoom and WhatsApp have played a far greater role in our daily lives than we would like in an ideal world. However, the main difference this year has brought is that we have had time to focus heavily on data analysis and finding angles through big data to help give us an edge.

TDN: In general what are your thoughts on the 2020 yearling catalogues? And what new stallions' progeny are you most looking forward to?

TPG: As always, Book 1 at Tattersalls has some mouth-watering pedigrees on offer and the inspection days leading up to that sale are some of the most enjoyable of the year. Being able to view so many beautifully bred yearlings all in one place really is a privilege. However, not being able to afford the majority of them does tend to put a dampener on things.

Regarding new stallions, we have always had a soft spot for Caravaggio and have loved what we have seen at our farm inspections. We were lucky enough to pick up a foal by him in December for 80,000gns and he sold at Keeneland last week for $200,000. He obviously has the profile to be a leading 2-year-old sire next year.

TDN: Did you develop any new interests or hobbies during lockdown?

TPG: The News played a big part of our lives during lockdown, and with all the opinion pieces shown on Sky and the BBC, I moved over to watching Bloomberg. Through osmosis more than anything, I seem to be more aware of the financial markets and how crazy and illogical they appear to be, much like the bloodstock world.

TDN: Who is the most interesting person you know?

TPG: The honest answer is John Magnier. However, no doubt he has been used a number of times. Therefore, I would have to plump for using the past tense and say Bobby Frankel. He knew every one of his horses far better than I know my kids and was kind and gentle on his charges but was still able to get the very best out of them. He also had the ability to turn swearing into an art form.

RACING WELFARE AUCTION RAISES OVER £50,000

Racing Welfare's Great Racing Welfare Auction has raised £53,195 for the charity's COVID-19 Emergency Appeal. Bidding on over 100 items ran for four weeks and closed on Thursday night.

Racing Welfare's Chief Executive Dawn Goodfellow said, "The generosity of both those who donated lots to our auction and those who placed bids has been truly astounding. Given the incredibly difficult times we are all facing, to have received this level of support is testament to the wonderful spirit of the racing community. A total of over £53,000 provides a huge boost to our Emergency Appeal and I cannot extend enough thanks to everyone involved."

HALF TO IRIDESSA DEBUTS AT THE CURRAGH

12.50 Curragh, Mdn, €25,000, 2yo, 8fT
SANTA BARBARA (IRE) (Camelot {GB}) debuts for Ballydoyle in this valuable Irish EBF Median Sires Series Maiden and is a half-sister to the four-times Group and Grade I-winning Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf heroine Iridessa (Ire) (Ruler of the World {Ire}). The March-foaled bay is the pick of Seamie Heffernan over the experienced stablemate Hector de Maris (Ire) (Camelot {GB}), a colt from the family of the great Urban Sea (Miswaki).

1.15 Newmarket, Mdn, £8,000, 2yo, f, 7fT
QUILTED (GB) (Frankel {GB}) debuts for Khalid Abdullah and Roger Charlton, who combined with her full-sister Quadrilateral (GB) to win last year's G1 Fillies' Mile. The April-foaled bay is one of two Juddmonte newcomers of note alongside the Ralph Beckett-trained Vesela (GB) (Frankel {GB}), the latest daughter of Arabesque (GB) (Zafonic) and therefore a half-sister to the sires Showcasing (GB) and Camacho (GB).

Cloak of Spirits had failed to add to a juvenile debut score at Ascot last year, but had performed to a high level with a quartet of placed efforts in pattern-race company headed by a second over this course and distance in the June 7 G1 1000 Guineas. She went postward here returning off a fifth in Doncaster's Sept. 9 G3 Sceptre S. and was away sharply to stalk the pace in second for the most part. Committed with three furlongs remaining, the homebred bay gained an slight edge approaching the quarter-mile marker and kept on in game fashion, despite drifting left under a continued drive up the hill, to hold the persistent threat of Bounce The Blues for a belated first black-type triumph.

"I don't think anyone would begrudge her winning that and it was lovely to see her win a black-type race as she has been second in a Classic," said trainer Richard Hannon. "Sheikh Mohammed Obaid has been very good to let me give her one more run this year and he will decide if we carry on or if she goes to stud. She is a fine, big filly with a lot of scope and would make a lovely broodmare, but she would also make a lovely 4-year-old. She has been a star for me and I think she just loves this track. She has done it the hard way again, she was so brave in the Guineas where she ran a super race, and she deserved that."

Cloak of Spirits is the first of four foals for her dam and she is kin to the hitherto unraced 2-year-old filly Meadow Sprite (Ire) (Slade Power {Ire}), a yearling colt by The Gurkha (Ire) and a weanling filly by Kingman (GB). Her second dam Suba (Seeking the Gold) is a winning daughter of G1 Oaks d'Italia heroine Zomaradah (GB) (Deploy {GB}) and thus a half-sister to five black-type performers including MG1SW sire Dubawi (Ire) (Dubai Millennium {GB}) and G2 Lancashire Oaks victress Emirates Queen (GB) (Street Cry {Ire}), whose 2-year-old son Royal Champion (Ire) (Shamardal) opened the meeting on Thursday with a taking debut win.

Third in the 2018 G3 Geoffrey Freer S. at Newbury and runner-up in last year's G3 Prix de Reux at Deauville, Walton Street was having his first start in over a year when runner-up in a conditions event over an extended 11 furlongs at Lingfield last time on Sept. 12. Leading his small group throughout, the bay was in front overall before the four-furlong marker and stayed in an imperturbable rhythm to the line as the long-absent filly Aloe Vera led the chase. The dam, who captured the G2 Hilton International S., is a daughter of the G2 Edward Manifold S. winner Brompton Cross (Aus) (El Qahira {NZ}) who was also responsible for the G1 Australian Guineas-winning sire Delago Brom (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}). Her 3-year-old filly Morning Catch (GB) (Dawn Approach {Ire}) and her 2-year-old colt Macavity (GB) (Fountain of Youth {Ire}) have yet to race, while she also has a colt foal by Oasis Dream (GB).

MASHKOORAH (IRE) (f, 2, Zoffany {Ire}--Week End {GB}, by Selkirk), who was slowly away and well-beaten when eighth on debut over this trip at Salisbury on Sept. 3, settled under cover in mid-pack early. Working her way to the front passing the furlong pole, the 7-1 shot was green in front but in command and had 1 1/4 lengths to spare over Holy Endeavour (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) at the line. Brunnera (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), the daughter of the G1 Prix Jean Romanet winner Romantica (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), was sent off the 13-8 favourite and did not aid her cause with a tardy break and tendency to over-race early which told late on as she faded to sixth. The winner is a half-sister to the G3 John of Gaunt S. and Listed City of York S. winner Absolutely So (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}), GSW-Eng, $340,328. The dam, whose yearling filly by Acclamation (GB) sells on Thursday at the Goffs Orby Yearling Sale at Doncaster, also has a filly foal by Gleneagles (Ire). She is a daughter of the G2 Pretty Polly S. scorer Tarfshi (GB) (Mtoto {GB}) and a half to the dam of the G1 Computaform Sprint winner Pacific Trader (SAf) (Sail From Seattle). She is also a granddaughter of the G1 Cheveley Park S. heroine Pass the Peace (Ire) (Alzao), who produced another winner of that prize in the European champion 2-year-old filly Embassy (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}). LANE'S END SALES GRADUATE

1st-Newmarket, £8,000, Mdn, 9-25, 2yo, c/g, 7fT, 1:23.31, gd. RAINBOW FIRE (IRE) (c, 2, Kodiac {GB}--Heroine Chic {Ire}, by Big Bad Bob {Ire}) posted a July 18 debut eighth, behind the TDN Rising Star performance of stablemate Guru (GB) (Kingman {GB}), over this trip at Newbury last time and occupied a forward berth after an alert getaway here. Improving to go second at halfway, the 11-2 chance came under pressure to challenge Roscioli (GB) (Territories {Ire}) approaching the two pole and was ridden out once gaining an advantage passing the furlong marker to assert by a length from that rival. Godolphin's Quintillus (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), a half-brother to G1SW sire Ultra (Ire) (Manduro {Ger}), threatened at the two pole, but faded late to finish fourth. "He came up here in the first week when they were running the 2-year-old races and one got loose and cannoned straight into this horse," explained trainer John Gosden. "He was lame and lost a lot of time, but has developed well since and had a run at Newbury. I think it was a nice sort of race today, he has been pleasing us and has shown a great attitude and he will get a mile." Rainbow Fire becomes the third scorer out of a full-sister to Listed Nijinsky S. winner Backbench Blues (Ire) (Big Bad Bob {Ire}) and the dual stakes-placed Banksters Bonus (Ire) (Big Bad Bob {Ire}). The April-foaled bay, who is full to Listed Doncaster S. victor Dhahmaan (Ire) and half to a weanling filly by Mastercraftsman (Ire), hails from a family featuring GISW distaffers Too Chic (Blushing Groom {Fr}), Queena (Mr. Prospector) and Chic Shrine (Mr. Prospector). Picking off rivals once past halfway, the 13-2 chance tanked into fourth approaching the final furlong and kept on strongly under mainly whipless rousting to deny stablemate Elvrika (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) by a head in a bobbing finish. Kin to Listed Prix Madame Jean Couturie victress Iromea (Ire) (Dansili {GB}) and a yearling filly by Gleneagles (Ire), she becomes the fifth scorer out of a winning half to G1 Prix du Moulin victress Grey Lilas (Ire) (Danehill), herself the dam of three black-type winners headed by G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches, G1 Prix de Diane and G1 Prix d'Ispahan heroine Golden Lilac (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Tight for room underneath the stands' side rail in the final quarter mile, the 5-1 chance seized a narrow opening passing the eighth pole and was ridden out to nail Koepp (GB) (Equiano {Fr}) by a nose. Kin to a yearling colt by Bated Breath (GB), she is the second foal and scorer produced by an unraced half to Listed August S. victor Glorious Protector (Ire) (Azamour {Ire}) and the dam of G2 Premio Vittorio di Capua winner Amore Hass (Ire) (Azamour {Ire}). 3rd-Dundalk, €23,000, Mdn, 9-25, 2yo, 7f (AWT), 1:26.61, st. INCA PRINCE (IRE) (c, 2, Fast Company {Ire}--Angel Stevens {Ire}, by Hawk Wing), who was 9-1 on this racecourse bow, was forced to race wide without cover from his wide draw and ended up worse than mid-division. Tanking his way into contention at the top of the straight, the bay hit the front a furlong from home and comfortably held Feeling Tip Top (Ire) (Elzaam {Aus}) by 3/4 of a length. "He had won a barrier trial here and that experience was a big help," jockey Billy Lee said. "I hadn't an ideal run around, as I was caught four-wide but this horse travelled beautifully all the way. As soon as I gave him a squeeze, just before the turn in, he came on the bridle but I sat for another few strides passing the two as I had loads of horse left under me. He's won well at the line and is a nice horse with a bright future hopefully. If I'd had a better trip around I'd probably have won three or four lengths." The winner is the last known foal out of the dam, who is a half to the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint and dual GI Shoemaker Mile hero Obviously (Ire) (Choisir {Aus}). Sales history: €14,000 RNA Ylg '19 GOFSPT; £22,000 2yo '20 TTIGOR. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $16,102.

Taken to the centre of the track in the straight, the 17-2 shot reeled in Fantasy Lady (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) in the final 50 yards to score by 1 1/4 lengths. "She's a lovely filly and she obviously has a pedigree to die for," jockey Chris Hayes commented. "We liked her all year long, but as you can see she's a big girl and we gave her all the time in the world. We picked out this race a couple of weeks ago, but it's sods law that we got drawn in the carpark. I just rode her cold and let her do the steering herself. She warmed into it lovely and I got there really easily. She had a little look at the horse gate and I had to give her two flicks just to keep her going forward. She's a very exciting filly, she's very well-related. I'd imagine that's it for the year, I'd say he'll put her away because she is a big girl."

Awtaad also took the G2 Solonaway S. and was third in the G1 St James's Palace S., G1SW-Ire, G1SP-Eng, $534,238. The dam, who was runner-up in the Listed Salsabil S., produced two other black-type performers in the listed-placed Aneen (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}) and Alghabrah (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}) who was third in the G3 Derrinstown Stud 1000 Guineas Trial. This is also the family of the stable's G2 Champions Juvenile S. winner and G1 Epsom Derby runner-up Madhmoon (Ire) (Dawn Approach {Ire}).

LIGHTNING FAST PIPPIE EXCELS

Pippie | TdnAusNZ

by Georgie Dennis

Electric mare Pippie (Written Tycoon) brought up her second career Group 1 as she lit up The Valley turf and ran her rivals off their feet in the G1 Moir S. on Friday night.

Pippie confirmed her place as one of Australia's fastest horses, and kept her unbeaten first-up record intact, with an all the way win in the G1 Moir S. at The Valley on Friday night.

The John and Chris Meagher-trained 5-year-old mare won the G1 Oakleigh Plate first-up in the autumn in identical fashion to her performance in the Moir, using her prolific gate speed to land in front and from there it was just a sit and steer job for Damian Lane.

Bella Vella (Commands) loomed up around the bend but Pippie went to another gear and kicked away to win by 0.75 lengths.

Trekking (Street Cry {Ire}) was huge late in the piece as he stormed home to finish second, while Bella Vella held on to finish 0.2 lengths away in third with Brooklyn Hustle (Starspangledbanner) running on well to score fourth.

Chris Meagher was thrilled to secure a second Group 1 win with Pippie and said she could next target the G1 Manikato S. back under the lights at The Valley Oct. 23 or the G1 VRC Spring Classic at Flemington Nov. 7.

"Tonight she was just on point, she did everything right and we couldn't have been happier," Meagher said.

"She's a deadset 10-year-old gelding at home but as soon as she bounces out of the machines, she's a completely different animal. We came here as confident as you can be going into a Group 1 race so to pull it off is absolutely amazing."

Pippie was purchased by Chris Meagher for $60,000 at the 2017 Inglis Classic Sale from the Eureka Stud draft and has well and truly surpassed her purchase price as her Moir win brought her career earnings to $1,201,950.

"She's pretty cheap now isn't she," Meagher said.

Lane, who is no stranger to riding fast horses, said Pippie was the fastest out of the barriers that he has ever sat on.

"I've never been on one quicker early, just how clean she is from the stalls and how easily she does it," Lane said.

"You just give her some rein out of the barriers and then lay on her neck and she does the rest for you.

"I actually thought I was in a little bit of trouble on the corner when she came off the bridle but when I asked her for her maximum effort she really dug in again."

Pedigree Notes:

Bred by Eureka Cambooya Thoroughbreds Pty Ltd, Pippie is out of Coupe Express (Ne Coupez Pas {USA}), who herself won six races. She has a 2-year-old Defcon filly and last foaled a colt by Spirit Of Boom. Coupe Express is a half-sister to Timely Truce (Brief Truce {USA}), who placed in the Listed Merson Cooper S., Talindert S. and the colts and geldings' division of the Blue Diamond Preview.

Written Tycoon, sire of Pippie | Arrowfield Stud

Cont.

Her second dam Zofagal (Zoffany {Ire}) is a half-sister to Merry Ruler (The Carpenter {USA}), who won the G2 Hobartville S., and G2 Phar Lap S., placed in another seven stakes-races and finished fourth in the G1 Epsom H. Her fourth dam is also the fourth dam of Prince Marauding (Marauding {NZ}), who won at Listed level and finished second in the Oakleigh Plate.

SPECULATIVE PRICE ACTIVE AT KEENELAND

Mick Price | Bronwen Healy

by Paul Vettise

Mick Price will in time welcome a trio of well-bred youngsters from America after backing himself with purchases at the Keeneland September Yearling Sale. Caulfield-based conditioner Mick Price secured a son of American Pharoah (USA) for US$225,000 (AU$319,000) and colts by Declaration Of War (USA) for US$105,000 (AU$148,800) and US$100,000 (AU$141,720) during the auction.

"I'm speculating and I bought them with my own money and are bringing them back. Rather than gain any expressions of interest, there's no greater tick than a trainer spending his own money," Price said. "They are nice horses and we have all the veterinary information on them checked by my Australian vet and we are very happy with them.

"I have a guy over there, Jay Kilgore, who is a good judge and does bio-mechanical and cardio measurements and selects a few.

"I bought a beautiful American Pharoah colt and I thought Declaration Of War was such a good stallion here for his short stay and they are very difficult to buy."

Partner Plays Role

Price also called on the international bloodstock experience of his training partner Michael Kent Jr., who has worked with respected agent Dermot Farrington and managed Phoenix Thoroughbreds' Australian interests.

"Junior does a fair bit of work and has a feel for what's going on in the world markets. They have super pedigrees and we did try and buy at Arqana and got out-bid. We're buying international pedigrees to bring down here and give them a try," Price said.

"They are quality colts and our dollar isn't too bad at the moment. We'll get them broken in and spelled over there and we're in no hurry with them.

"Obviously, they are six months behind but that's not worrying Russian Camelot. I think these sales give us access to international pedigrees and rather than pay 10 times more as tried imports from Europe, we thought we would buy them as yearlings and try our luck."

Purchased during Book 1 from Blandford Stud's draft, the American Pharoah colt is a half-brother to the G1 Santa Anita H. winner Combatant (USA) (Scat Daddy {USA}) and the G3 Sweet Solera S. winner Long Lashes (USA) (Rock Hard Ten {USA}).

The first of the Declaration Of War colts Price bought for US$105,000 (AU$148,800) was offered during the sixth session of the auction by Woodford Thoroughbreds.

He is out of Giant's Causeway (Ire) mare Wangari (USA) and close up in the pedigree is the four-time Group 1 winner Russian Rhythm (USA) (Kingmambo {USA}).

The second son of Declaration Of War was secured out of the draft of the Taylor Made Sales Agency during the 11th and final session and is a son of the Distorted Humor (USA) mare Sweet Chant (USA). She is out of a half-sister to the multiple Group 1 winner and successful sire Singspiel (Ire).

Earlier in the year, Price also bought a son of Orb (USA) for US$40,000 (AU$56,700) at the Ocala Breeders' Spring Sale, originally to have been held in April but delayed until June due to COVID-19. He is out of unraced Cabaret Starlet (USA) (Tale Of The Cat {USA}), a half-sister to the G1 Del Mar Oaks winner Arravale (USA) (Arch {USA}).
