PINATUBO ELECTRIC IN THE NATIONAL

Pinatubo well clear in the National | racingfotos.com

By Tom Frary

If there were any doubts that Godolphin's Pinatubo (Ire) (Shamardal) would be crowned champion 2-year-old before Sunday's G1 Goffs Vincent O'Brien National S. at The Curragh, there will be none after this brilliant performance the like of which is rarely seen. Duping those around him as usual as William Buick pushed him along just over two lengths off the honest early pace, the impressive G2 Vintage S. winner came alive alongside Arizona (Ire) (No Nay Never) as a 1-3 favourite should approaching two out. Leaving that G2 Coventry S. scorer standing, the homebred was Maserati-like from there as he thoroughly outclassed him and the G3 Tyros S. and G2 Futurity S. winner Armory (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). At the line, Pinatubo was still powering over the hallowed Kildare turf with an astounding official nine-length margin between him and Armory, who has so far looked up there with some of the better Ballydoyle juveniles of recent times. He was in turn a neck ahead of Arizona, but they were fighting out what were very much minor placings in this instance.

"He's the best horse I've had as a 2-year-old, no doubt about it, and he's very exciting," Charlie Appleby said. "I see no reason why he wouldn't go for the Dewhurst, as he's just had a piece of work there."

NOT FOR CATCHING

The moment her rivals opted to allow 'TDN Rising Star' Star Catcher (GB) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) and Frankie Dettori their own way in front soon after the start of Sunday's G1 Qatar Prix Vermeille at ParisLongchamp, the game was almost as good as up for them and Frankie went through the motions to bring home a personal 16th top-level winner in 2019.

Soon on the lead after a slightly tardy break, Anthony Oppenheimer's homebred repeated the forcing tactics used when taking the G1 Irish Oaks at The Curragh July 20 and kicked decisively in the straight to put her opponents in strife. Keeping up the gallop, the 11-10 favourite had 3/4 of a length to spare over the race's surprise package Musis Amica (Ire) (Dawn Approach {Ire}) at the line, with a length back to another Fabre-trained 4-year-old in Ligne d'Or (GB) (Dansili {GB}).

Introduced over six furlongs on Wolverhampton's Tapeta May 10, Pinatubo beat the subsequent G2 July S. runner-up Platinum Star (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) by 3 1/4 lengths in a showing that can only now be fully understood. Next up was Epsom's helter-skelter Woodcote Conditions S. on Oaks day May 31 and he cruised through that difficult test of balance and ability before moving up a furlong for the Listed Chesham S. at Royal Ascot June 22. All the talk was for Lope Y Fernandez (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) on that occasion, but Pinatubo brushed him aside with another 3 1/4-length success before putting 10 lengths between them next time in Goodwood's Vintage July 30. Halfway in between the pair was Positive (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}) and if his subsequent success in the G3 Solario S. was not enough to promote Pinatubo to stardom this significant upgrade certainly was.

This was a typical National S. run at a searching gallop with Mark Johnston's raider Monoski (Street Boss) leading Arizona and the Futurity third Geometrical (Ire) (Dawn Approach {Ire}) with Armory and Ryan Moore waiting to inflict some damage at the business end. The latter stayed with Pinatubo to halfway, but he was soon floundering as the royal blue silks sprinted away to upstage this operation's past winners Dubawi (Ire) and his son Quorto (Ire). Buick partnered the latter to success from Anthony Van Dyck (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) 12 months ago and he is best-placed to offer comparison.

"Quorto was impressive last year and he beat a subsequent Derby winner, but this was special," he said. "It was a proper Group 1 and it was a hugely exciting performance--it felt as good as it looked. He adapts to all of the different circumstances in a race and just keeps lengthening and quickening to the line."

This display is bound to attract speak of the 2-year-old legends Arazi, Zafonic, Xaar (GB) and Frankel (GB) and it remains to be seen whether Pinatubo falls in the category of a great juvenile who goes on to 2000 Guineas glory or who falls by the wayside at three. On pedigree, there is no reason why the mile at Newmarket will pose any kind of problem even if his natural superiority is slightly diminished over the winter. With Andre Fabre set on bringing the exciting and similarly unbeaten Earthlight (Ire) across to the Newmarket Classic, there is a chance that the two sons of Shamardal could clash if the powers that be refuse to intervene to keep them apart.

Appleby added, "He is so hard to work out at home. I gave him a gallop midweek with some of the nicer 2-year-olds trying to give myself a bit of confidence if anything, but I probably did the reverse as [Saturday's G2 Champagne S. runner-up] Royal Crusade put him in his place! He's a horse we didn't know was in the yard and that's why he turned up at Wolverhampton first time. We almost can't raise a gallop from him at home, but he's a trainer's dream once you get to know him. James [Doyle] said he didn't really travel in the first half of the race at Goodwood and I told William this morning not to panic if he wasn't travelling early. He eats, drinks, sleeps and that's the end of it. We only ever see the best of him when he turns up at the track, which is a nice position to be in."

> HE ADAPTS TO ALL OF THE DIFFERENT CIRCUMSTANCES IN A RACE AND JUST KEEPS LENGTHENING AND QUICKENING TO THE LINE.
> William Buick on Pinatubo

"The way he's developed as an individual over the last six weeks has been noticeable," his trainer continued. "People were questioning whether he would just be a 2-year-old, but he's got a nice walk and presence about him.

Cont. p3

He added, "I'll have to discuss things with Sheikh Mohammed, but the way he's won there the [G1] Dewhurst [S. at Newmarket Oct. 12] is there for him. It's great for the team and he was raised at Kildangan there."

Pedigree Notes

Pinatubo's dam Lava Flow (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}) took the 11-furlong Listed Prix de la Seine and is a half-sister to the G1 Gran Criterium runner-up Strobilus (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}). The second dam Mount Elbrus (GB) (Barathea {Ire}) was also successful at listed level at 10 1/2 furlongs and is out of a half-sister to the G1 Prix de Diane heroine and outstanding producer Rafha (GB) (Kris {GB}). This is therefore the family of Invincible Spirit (Ire) and Kodiac (GB) et al, with Rafha's G3 Blandford S.-winning half-sister Chiang Mai (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) responsible for the G1 Pretty Polly S. heroine Chinese White (Ire) by Lava Flow's sire Dalakhani. It also features Saturday's Listed Ingabelle S. winner Blissful (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), making it an Irish Champions weekend double for this remarkable dynasty. Lava Flow's yearling filly is by Sea the Stars (Ire), while she also has a filly foal by Teofilo (Ire).

SARACEN HORSE FEEDS

"She stays well and doesn't mind being in front, the ground was slick today and she likes that so I couldn't fault her," Dettori said. "She's not put a foot wrong and was full of enthusiasm. She travelled really strongly at a decent gallop and kept it up."

Star Catcher may not be tackling stablemate Enable (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) in the Arc in three weeks' time, but she is quickly establishing a distinguished reputation of her own due to a patient and piecemeal approach to her racing career. After an inauspicious start to her career when sixth over a mile at Chelmsford in December, she advanced forward with mighty strides when earning TDN Rising Star status with a 4 1/2-length success in the same 10-furlong Newbury maiden Apr. 12 won by the future Oaks heroines Eswarah (GB) (Unfuwain) and Dancing Rain (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) and last year by her high-class stablemate Lah Ti Dar (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}).

Third in the May 18 Listed Haras de Bouquetot Fillies' Trial S. over the same course and distance of her maiden win, she relished the step up to this trip at Ascot Royal and duly captured her first big prize when denying Fleeting (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) in the G2 Ribblesdale S. June 20. Repeating the dose in the Irish Oaks, the bay was encountering older opposition for the first time here and while the eventual second and third looked to have it to do to mix it with the Classic generation it was Musis Amica and Ligne d'Or who got closest.

John Gosden was enjoying yet another stellar weekend during a season which has catapulted him further into Newmarket legend and he said, "She doesn't have to race from the front, but Frankie is a genius at it. I think Longchamp is one of the most difficult tracks to ride in the world, but he loves it and once again produced a masterful ride. She's a very nice filly and all thanks go to her owner-breeder who managed to write her program from day one. She's not in the Arc and has two possible options in the [Oct. 19 G1 QIPCO British Champions] Fillies & Mares Turf or the [Nov. 2 GI] Breeders' Cup Turf. My other filly [Anapurna (GB) (Frankel {GB})] broke slowly and didn't like it on the inside, so this was not her day and she will be back."

Last year's G1 Prix de Diane runner-up Musis Amica was back to her best under essential patient tactics and Godolphin's Lisa-Jane Graffard said, "We are absolutely delighted with her and Mickael Barzalona said she quickened really nicely and feels that she could potentially step up in trip again, although it is important that she has a fast pace to aim at. She has several entries on Arc weekend. She would have to improve significantly from this run to take her chance in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe and another option could be the [Oct. 5] G1 Prix de Royallieu."

Pedigree Notes

Star Catcher is a half-sister to the GI Canadian International hero Cannock Chase (Lemon Drop Kid) and his G2 Prix Eugene Adam-winning full-brother Pisco Sour, with the dam Lynnwood Chase (Horse Chestnut {SAf}) a daughter of the listed-placed Lady Ilsley (Trempolino). If she turns up at Santa Anita, she will be bidding to extend the family's success at the Breeders' Cup as her relatives Action This Day (Kris S.) and Drefong (Gio Ponti) were successful on the major stage. Lynnwood Chase also has the unraced 2-year-old filly Maurimo (GB) (Kingman {GB}), a yearling filly by Frankel (GB) and a colt foal by Time Test (GB).

HER SONG REVERBERATES AT THE CURRAGH

Minutes before Pat Smullen's Champions Race at The Curragh, the stars were already aligning for the connections his career is so interwoven with as Moyglare Stud's Search For a Song (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) recorded an emotive success in Sunday's G1 Comer Group Irish St Leger. Less than a month after the passing of the operation's much-loved and admired Stan Cosgrove, the sole 3-year-old in the line-up seemed in a hurry to bring about the fairytale as she carted Chris Hayes throughout and led her rivals a merry dance. As her rider attempted to anchor the Listed Galtres S. winner near the back initially, she just became more lit up racing wide without cover and was given permission to move past the dawdling leaders and to the head of affairs at halfway. Clear in the straight and surprisingly unrelenting in her pursuit, the 10-1 shot stayed out of reach of some heavyweight stayers and had 2 1/4 lengths to spare over Kew Gardens (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) at the line, with 1 1/2 lengths back to Southern France (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in third.

Search for a Song | Racing Post

Nobody felt the gravity of the outcome more than trainer Dermot Weld and he said, "It's a very special win on a very special and emotional day. We're having wonderful horse racing, but I'm very proud of our industry the way we are supporting Pat Smullen and cancer research. Potentially she is a really high-class stayer."

Becoming the first of her age and sex to win this since Petite Ile (Ire) (Ile de Bourbon) in 1989, Search For a Song was notably demonstrative in front before losing out to Trethias (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) in the June 26 Listed Naas Oaks Trial. She never gave up in what was an inadequate 10-furlong test there and it was significant that she was tried in the July 20 G1 Irish Oaks by a trainer who knows what it takes to mix it in that company.

Less than six lengths behind Star Catcher (GB) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) when fourth in that Classic, she again gave generously and was doing her best work in the closing stages and so the Galtres at York offered the perfect confidence boost Aug. 22.

Few horses can get away with tanking from the rear to the lead in such dramatic fashion as she did here and still win, but she has all the raw material of a top-class stayer. A full-sister to this year's Listed Esher S. winner Falcon Eight (Ire), she was always going to be served best by a true test and when that failed to materialise in the first half of the race she was rightfully given her head to take over from Lloyd Williams's G1 Gold Cup third Master of Reality (Ire) (Frankel {GB}). Chris Hayes was still sitting still as the older brigade began to busy themselves straightening for home and her continued exuberance from two out killed the contest. Only the returning Kew Gardens made any real impression as he put up an eye-catching prep for the G2 QIPCO British Champions Long Distance Cup at Ascot Oct. 19.

Hayes relived the experience afterwards. "Nothing went right. I had a plan in my head and spoke to Pat [Smullen] before the race and he gave me the confidence that once I had her in a rhythm to trust in her," he said. "I knew after a furlong I was going to get into a row with her and there was no point as she's a beautiful, big-actioned filly. I was worried I had done too much, but I had a good sit as she ran down into the straight and she actually quickened up two out which surprised me. She's a high-class filly and she had felt unbelievable when I sat on her in the week. I'm sure they had a few sweats watching in the stands, as I was at the top of the hill, but she's a great filly with a huge future."

Dermot Weld revealed that the winner, who may be finished for the season, is due to reappear in 2020. "That was as good a St Leger as I've won when you look at the ratings of the horses in the race," he commented. "This has been a very special race for me over the years and it's the eighth time I've won it. There is a lot of stamina there, she was very fit and very well and often horses that run that free will relax when they get to the front. The world is her oyster next year and there is huge improvement potentially in this filly. She loves fast ground. She put up an excellent performance at York and has progressed throughout the year. I'd say that will be it for this year and hopefully she will make into a lovely 4-year-old."

Polished Gem earned the laurel of Broodmare of the Year in 2015. Alongside the aforementioned Falcon Eight, she also provided Moyglare with one of their very best in the G1 Prince of Wales's S. hero and first-season sire Free Eagle (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}), the seven-times group-winning miler Custom Cut (Ire) (Notnowcato {GB}), the triple group scorer Sapphire (Ire)(Medicean {GB})--whose career pinnacle came when taking the British Champions Fillies & Mares S. when it was a Group 2--and the G3 Queens Cup scorer Valac (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}).

Polished Gem is a full-sister to the GI Matriarch S. and G2 Sun Chariot S. heroine Dress To Thrill (Ire), with their dam being the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas winner Trusted Partner (Affirmed). The third dam Talking Picture (Speak John) captured the GI Matron S. and GI Spinaway S. before producing five stakes winners by Affirmed including Irish champion miler Easy To Copy whose own descendants are headed by the G1 Grand Prix de Paris and G1 Sydney Cup hero Gallante (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}). Polished Gem also has the stable's once-raced 2-year-old Galileo filly Amma Grace (Ire), who was third in a smart maiden at Cork at the start of the month, and a yearling colt by the same sire.

LOVE WINS OUT IN THE MOYGLARE

Ballydoyle's thirst-quenching Irish Champions weekend continued apace on Sunday as the G3 Silver Flash S. winner Love (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) came out on top of her juvenile peers in The Curragh's G1 Moyglare Stud S., a "Win And You're In" for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf. Sent off at 6-1 following a disappointing fifth as the favourite for the G2 Debutante S. over this course and distance Aug. 23, the chestnut enjoyed a smooth run throughout under Ryan Moore just off the early pace. Sent to the front a furlong from home, she stayed on strongly from there with the 13-8 favourite Daahyeh (GB) (Bated Breath {GB}) narrowing the margin to 3/4 of a length at the line, with the same margin back to fellow Ballydoyle trainee So Wonderful (War Front) in third.

"We think she is a filly who will step up when she goes a mile and the worry was that she was staying at seven, but we were trying to keep her at this trip for as long as we could," Aidan O'Brien said after registering a ninth success in this always-informative contest. "We were thinking of the [Oct. 11 G1] Fillies' Mile [at Newmarket] after this and she is a very genuine filly who is progressing with every run--a typical Galileo. That family all get a mile and a half well at three, so it's very exciting for her and she has a lovely mind, too."

Love ran second to TDN Rising Star Windracer (Ire) (Showcasing {GB}) in a maiden over this course and distance on her second start June 27 before beating Soul Search (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) at Leopardstown July 11. Emphatic in the Silver Flash back there a fortnight later, she was unable to repeat that dominance in the Debutante on the easiest ground she had yet to encounter. Back on a livelier surface, she was able to employ that Galileo stubbornness once taking over from old rival Soul Search and draw the sting from the field. The most recent renewals of this race have seen her stable test the future Galileo (Ire)-sired luminaries Hermosa (Ire), Magical (Ire), Hydrangea (Ire), Rhododendron (Ire), Minding (Ire), Alice Springs (Ire), Found (Ire), Tapestry (Ire), Maybe (Ire) and Misty For Me (Ire).

It is nigh-on certain that Love is a name that will reappear in lights at this level at some point in the future.

Daahyeh, who was having her first run over this trip, may even go further according to Roger Varian. "It's always frustrating when you go so close, but we have no complaints," he said. "She ran to the line and got the trip well, but the winner looked very good and stayed on strongly. I think on that performance it looks like a mile is within reach and she looks a good strong filly who can have another run or two this year. The race that probably excites me most is the [Nov. 1 GI] Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf, as she's very well-balanced, handles fast ground and it looks like she will get an easy mile at Santa Anita. Whether she goes to Newmarket for the Fillies' Mile first, we'll see how she comes out of this."

Pedigree Notes

Love's dam Pikaboo (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) has already produced this year's G3 Stanerra S. winner Peach Tree (Ire) and the 2018 G3 Munster Oaks winner Flattering (Ire) by Galileo, plus the G2 Lowther S. and G2 Cherry Hinton S. winner Lucky Kristale (GB) (Lucky Story). Pikaboo's siblings include the triple Group 2-winning seven-furlong specialist Arabian Gleam (GB) and the listed-winning sprinter Kimberella (GB) by Pivotal's son Kyllachy (GB) and Light Quest (Quest For Fame {GB}), who is in turn the dam of the G3 Prix Fille de l'Air scorer Skia (Fr) (Motivator {GB}) and the Singapore Gold Cup winner Tropaios (GB) (Excellent Art {GB}). This is also the family of the G1 English and Irish 2000 Guineas-winning sire Don't Forget Me (Ire) (Ahonoora {GB}).

FLYING FAIRY

There had not been many dances that the Ballydoyle TDN Rising Stars Fairyland (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) and So Perfect (Scat Daddy) had not had on their cards in 2019 and it all came together on Sunday as they dominated the finish of The Curragh's G1 Derrinstown Stud Flying Five, a "Win And You're In" for the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint at Santa Anita in November. In a tight finish, it was Evie Stockwell's colourbearer Fairyland who prevailed by a short head for Ryan Moore to add to her success in the 2018 G1 Cheveley Park S. Both had been at Haydock last Saturday for the G1 Sprint Cup and while things failed to happen for them there, the pair who shared a starting price of 12-1 raced near the solid early pace before having it between them from the furlong pole. In the event, it was Fairyland who had the extra ounce of speed and she toughed it out with the duo 1 1/2 lengths clear of Invincible Army (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) in third.

"In fairness to her, she'd probably never had the ground and trip in her favour all year, but it worked out today," Moore said of Fairyland. "Aidan's horses always come back and So Perfect ran huge as well. They ran their best races of the season today."

Fairyland is greeted by Evie Stockwell, as Aidan O'Brien looks on after the Flying Five | Racing Post

Fairyland's first visit here came when winning the Listed Marble Hill S. last May and she went on to prove herself among the elite of her generation with a third placing in Royal Ascot's G3 Albany S. and successes in the G2 Lowther S. at York and Cheveley Park at Newmarket. After two failed attempts at a mile in the G1 English and Irish 1000 Guineas in May, she was a commendable fifth shortening up dramatically in the supreme five-furlong test of the G1 King's Stand S. back at the Royal meeting June 18 before running a highly creditable third racing for the most part away from the main action in the G1 July Cup at Newmarket July 13.

After having an argument with York's starting stalls before beating only one of her 10 rivals in the Aug. 23 G1 Nunthorpe S., she was a battling sixth on her first outing on a soft surface in the Haydock Sprint Cup and with the big guns elsewhere this was a winnable race for a sprinter of her calibre. Drawn one against the far rail, she was afforded an uninterrupted run with the veteran target-horse Caspian Prince (Ire) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}) and 3-year-old Soldier's Call (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) just ahead. Responding to the call to stick her head in front before the furlong pole, she was perfectly-placed in a race in which it paid to be prominent and which played against the well-backed 13-8 favourite Soffia (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}) who was unable to make an impact in fifth. She was later reported to have burst a blood vessel.

Aidan O'Brien plans on keeping the star fillies busy into the autumn. "Her best run of the year was back at five at Ascot in the King's Stand, the ground was too soft for her at Haydock and she got upset in the stalls and banged her head before that [at York]," he explained. "You would have to be delighted with both of them and I'd say they will go for the [Oct. 6 G1 Prix de l'] Abbaye [at ParisLongchamp]. Fairyland is qualified now for the Breeders' Cup, but Mrs. Stockwell and the lads will decide on that. She was bought originally to go to Galileo, so I'd doubt she will stay in training next year."

Pedigree Notes

Fairyland is one of two pattern-race winners out of the unraced Queenofthefairies (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) alongside the classy G2 Kingston S. and G3 Derrinstown Stud 1000 Guineas Trial S. scorer Now Or Never (Ire) (Bushranger {Ire}) who was also third in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas. The second dam Land of Dreams (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) was successful in the G2 Flying Childers S. and G3 King George S. over this trip before producing the brilliant five-times Group 1-winning sire Dream Ahead (Diktat {GB}). The third dam Sahara Star (GB) (Green Desert), who was also a winner at five in the G3 Molecomb S., is the ancestress of the G3 Princess Margaret S. winner and G1 Cheveley Park S. runner-up Princess Noor (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}), the G3 Amethyst S. scorer Zihba (Ire) (Choisir {Aus}) and this year's Listed Prix de Pontarme winner Noor Sahara (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}). Queenofthefairies's unraced 2-year-old filly Manaajim (Ire) (Muhaarar {GB}) was a 925,000gns purchase by Shadwell at the Tattersalls October Book 1 Sale.

TARNAWA BAGS FOURTH STRAIGHT BLANDFORD FOR WELD By Sean Cronin

His Highness The Aga Khan's Tarnawa (Ire) (Shamardal) regained that winning feeling in Cork's Aug. 17 G3 Give Thanks S. and carried that forward with a determined success in Sunday's G2 Moyglare "Jewels" Blandford S. at The Curragh. The homebred chestnut had previously annexed Naas's May 11 G3 Blue Wind S. before slipping down the order to finish 11th contesting the May 31 G1 Epsom Oaks in her penultimate start.

Dermot Weld and Tarnawa | Racing Post

The homebred chestnut was positioned in third from flagfall and maintained a stalking brief through halfway. Looming large in the straight, the 3-1 second choice quickened smartly to seize control soon after passing the quarter-mile marker and kept on resolutely under a final-furlong drive, despite edging right to the far-side rail, to hold the late flourish of 15-8 favourite Goddess (Camelot {GB}) by 1 1/2 lengths. The latter's pacesetting stablemate Credenza (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) was squeezed for room by the winner's drift in the closing stages and kept on to finish a half-length back in third.

"This has been a lucky race for us and Chris [Hayes] gave her a good tactical ride," said trainer Dermot Weld after claiming a fourth straight renewal in tandem with His Highness The Aga Khan. "The plan was to kick for home early as she gets a mile-and-a-half. We'll see how she comes out of this and the [Oct. 19 G1 British Champions] Fillies & Mares at [Ascot on] Champions day would be a logical progression. She is a filly that I would look forward to training as a 4-year-old and she is very adaptable ground wise. She is progressing all the time, she started winning in March for me and has been on the go all year." Cont. p13

Chris Hayes, who claimed his first win in the contest added, "She's a high-class filly, we came up with a plan and we were able to execute it. I got trapped a little wide early, but I didn't mind on her because she stays well and I wanted to get a clean shot at them the whole way up the straight. I got there plenty soon enough and she wandered around a little bit, but I think we will see a better filly when she steps up in class. She's been trained to perfection and it's a pleasure to be a part of it."

Pedigree Notes

Tarnawa, half to a yearling colt by Fastnet Rock (Aus), is the first foal bred from MSW dual G3 Curragh Cup third Tarana (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}), herself the leading performer for G3 Noblesse S. third Tarakala (Ire) (Dr Fong), who in turn is the best horse produced by Listed Oyster S. second Tarakana (Shahrastani). Continuing the theme, Tarakana is the leading light out of Tarafa (Ire) (Akarad {Fr}), herself a half-sister to five black-type winners headed by G3 Princess Royal S. victress Tashtiya (Ire) (Shergar {GB}), G3 Prix Messidor victor Tassmoun (Kalamoun {GB}) and Listed Chester S. heroine Tarikhana (Ire) (Mouktar {Ire}), who in turn is the dam of G1 Prix Royal-Oak hero Tiraaz (Lear Fan). SOTTSASS SURVIVES NIEL SCARE

ParisLongchamp's G2 Qatar Prix Niel has sometimes created difficulties for its headline acts and that was the case again on Sunday as Peter Brant's Sottsass (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) needed a large slice of luck to get the job done. Provided with an able pacemaker in Veronesi (Fr) (Kendargent {Fr}) and with only three genuine rivals, the stage seemed set for an ideal Arc warm-up from the returning G1 Prix du Jockey Club hero but that was far from the reality during the near 2 1/2 minutes of this trial. Trapped on the inside and desperately needing room in the straight, the 1-2 favourite only got it in the final 100 metres as Mutamakina (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) allowed him to split her and the pacesetter. Bursting through to register a 1 1/4-length success and relieve Cristian Demuro of a minor embarrassment, he had only another short neck to separate him and Ballydoyle's sighter Mohawk (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in third.

"The plan was for the leader to open up the rail for him, but he broke slowly and had nowhere to go," trainer Jean-Claude Rouget explained. "In the end, it may well have been a blessing in disguise as he didn't have a hard race. He'll go to the Arc now a fresh horse who will improve."

Carlos Laffon-Parias said of the runner-up, "We knew she was capable of that kind of performance and thought the Vermeille would be too tough, so this was a good choice. I'd love to try and win a Group 1 race with her and that might be in the [Oct. 6] Royallieu. She is very versatile and the extra distance won't be a problem."

Not since Nashwan was sensationally beaten by Golden Pheasant (Caro) in the 1989 edition has there been a serious upset in this, but Montjeu (Ire) was one of a few who have had to get out of jail in what can be a tactically tricky affair with one eye on the main feature three weeks ahead. Sottsass was at least able again to demonstrate the finishing acceleration that served him so well in the June 2 Chantilly Classic and the race was run in one of the faster times in recent history, but it is pure guesswork as to whether he can become the first Niel winner to go on to Arc glory since Rail Link (GB) in 2006.

Pedigree Notes

Win or lose in the Arc, Sottsass has a bright future ahead of him as a half-brother to Sistercharlie (Ire) (Myboycharlie {Ire}) who has become a massive presence in the States with six Grade I victories including last year's Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf. Also a half to My Sister Nat (Fr) (Acclamation {GB}) who took the 2018 Prix Bertrand de Tarragon, he is out of Starlet's Sister (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), whose dam is the G3 Prix Chloe runner-up Premiere Creation (Fr) (Green Tune). Her progeny also feature the G3 Prix Cleopatre winner Leo's Starlet by Galileo and the GI Clement L. Hirsch S. runner-up Anabaa's Creation (Ire) (Anabaa). This is also the family of the G3 Prix de Lieurey winner Sandy's Charm (Fr) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}) and the G1 Sussex S.-winning champion miler and sire Noalcoholic (Fr) (Nonoalco). The dam's unraced 2-year-old colt by Charm Spirit (Ire) cost Oceanic Bloodstock €400,000 at Arqana August last year and is named Radiant Child (Ire), while she also has a yearling colt by Fastnet Rock (Aus) who David Redvers snapped up for €700,000 at the same auction last month. Her filly foal is by Dubawi (Ire).

WALDGEIST AT THE FOY DOUBLE

By Sean Cronin

Having garnered April's G1 Prix Ganay on seasonal return, Gestut Ammerland and Newsells Park's 'TDN Rising Star' Waldgeist (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) ran third behind Crystal Ocean (GB) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) and Magical (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in Royal Ascot's June 19 G1 Prince of Wales's S. and again behind Enable (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) and Crystal Ocean in the Berkshire venue's July 27 G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth S. last time. Confronted by nothing of that calibre in Sunday's G2 Qatar Prix Foy at ParisLongchamp, a race he plundered last year, he duly obliged as the odds-on favourite to set up another crack at the Oct. 6 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe over the Bois de Boulogne track's same 12-furlong strip. The chestnut settled in the wake of Japanese raider Kiseki (Jpn) (Rulership {Jpn}) after breaking on terms with that rival and was on sleep mode until turning for home. Allowed an inch of rein soon after passing the two pole, he was pushed to the front entering the final eighth and lengthened clear, as he did last year, to easily account for Way to Paris (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}) by two lengths. Kiseki put up a bold show from the front in his first start outside Japan and kept on well to finish one length further adrift in third.

"He did it well, but that's pretty much what we expected of him," commented trainer Andre Fabre after extending his record score in the contest to a round dozen. "We'll now do as we did last year and go straight to the Arc de Triomphe back here."

Trainer Andrea Marcialis was beaming after the performance of runner-up Way to Paris and said, "He has been off since July and ran a very good race. We thought it better to run in this race rather than trying him over further because there is more of a rhythm at this trip and he has a tendency to be keen. I'm delighted with the performance and he will now be aimed at the [Oct. 5 G1] Prix du Cadran [back at this track."

Waldgeist | Scoop Dyga

Kiseki made a bold attempt to make all and flattered to deceive, according to Christophe Soumillon. "It wasn't easy for him on the quick going, he needed the race and softer ground," the rider explained. "He was a bit one-paced and didn't really quicken, but he'll come on for the run. The Arc will be a different proposition as it's the toughest race in the world where he'll meet a different class of animal."

Pedigree Notes

Waldgeist is the first foal and leading performer out of G3 Prix Penelope heroine Waldlerche (GB) (Monsun {Ger}), herself kin to G1 St Leger hero Masked Marvel (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) and Listed Dallmayr Coupe Lukull victress Waldnah (GB) (New Approach {Ire}). Their dam Waldmark (Ger) (Mark of Esteem {GB}) ran second in the G2 Falmouth S. and is a daughter of MGSW German champion and runaway G2 Deutsches St Leger heroine Wurftaube (Ger) (Acatenango {Ger}), whose other progeny includes G1 Deutsches Derby-winning sire Waldpark (Ger) (Dubawi {Ire}), Listed Bremer Derby-Trial victor Waldvogel (Ire) (Polish Precedent) and Waldmark's full-sister Waldbeere (GB), who in turn is the dam of MGSW sire Wiesenpfad (Fr) (Waky Nao {GB}) and stakes-winning G1 Preis der Diana third Waldtraut (Ger) (Oasis Dream {GB}). Waldlerche has also produced G2 Prix de Malleret victress Waldlied (GB) (New Approach {Ire}), the 3-year-old colt and dual winner Waldstern (GB) (Sea the Stars {Ire}), a 2-year-old colt by Kingman (GB) and a yearling filly by Galileo (Ire).

MORE FRENCH SUCCESS FOR GLASS SLIPPERS

Continuing the French love affair she began when successful in Deauville's Listed Prix Moonlight Cloud, Bearstone Stud's Glass Slippers (GB) (Dream Ahead) found more improvement to garner a career-best in Sunday's G3 Qatar Prix du Petit Couvert at ParisLongchamp. Outpaced initially and seemingly going nowhere, the 15-1 shot latched on to the field at halfway and was suddenly full of running in the hands of Tom Eaves. Launched down the outer to swamp her compatriot Shades of Blue (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) in the last 100 metres and score by a short neck. Last year's G1 Prix de l'Abbaye runner-up Gold Vibe (Ire) (Dream Ahead) was a further 1 1/4 lengths away in third, with some smart French sprinters in arrears, so the form had a solid look. Cont. p16

Glass Slippers & Tom Eaves | Scoop Dyga

Pedigree Notes

Glass Slippers, who is effective over six furlongs as she showed when breaking her black-type maiden at that trip at Deauville last time Aug. 4, seems to have upped her game in this country after two creditable efforts on home soil when second in Ayr's Listed Land O'Burns S. over this trip June 22 and fourth in the G3 Summer S. over six at York July 12. She is the last living foal and second black-type winner out of Night Gypsy (GB) (Mind Games {GB}) after the Listed Radley S. scorer and G3 Oh So Sharp S. runner-up Electric Feel (GB) (Firebreak {GB}). The dam is a full-sister to the Listed Hilary Needler Trophy winner and stakes producer On the Brink (GB) and a half to Eastern Romance (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) who also achieved black-type success in France in the Listed Criterium de Vitesse and was runner-up in the G3 Ballyogan S.

FIRE RELIT

So cruelly denied in last year's G1 Diamond Jubilee S., Jean-Louis Bouchard's City Light (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) signalled that he is nearing a return to the big time with a smooth success in Sunday's G3 Qatar Prix du Pin at ParisLongchamp. Buoyed by a conditions win over 6 1/2 furlongs on Deauville's Polytrack Aug. 2, the high-class 5-year-old enjoyed a perfect trip under cover in mid-division early and could already be called the winner halfway up the straight. Coaxed to the lead 150 metres from the line, the 5-2 favourite was ridden out with hands and heels by Christophe Soumillon for a snug 1 1/2-length success from Graignes (Fr) (Zoffany {Ire}).

"Last year, he left his heart at Royal Ascot and had a hard time afterwards," trainer Stephane Wattel explained. "We know that racing on a straight course is much more demanding and he needed time to come back to his best, but most of all he needed a boost to his confidence. He had an easy race last time and I think it helped him a lot mentally. We have three weeks now to dream before the [Oct. 6 G1 Prix de la] Foret."

City Light, who started his career in winning fashion at a mile, took the five-furlong G3 Prix de Saint-Georges and Lingfield's All-Weather Sprint Championships last Spring before his herculean effort against Merchant Navy (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) at Royal Ascot. Third in the G3 Prix de Petit Couvert on this card 12 months ago, he returned to the Diamond Jubilee June 22 but was only ninth which prompted this change of course.

Pedigree Notes

His half-brothers Busybeingfabulous (Fr) (Soldier of Fortune {Ire}) and Soft Light (Fr) (Authorized {Ire}) have made their mark in black-type races at further than a mile, with the latter finishing second in this year's G2 Prix Hocquart and G2 Grand Prix de Deauville. The dam, who has a 2-year-old filly by Anodin (Ire) and a yearling full-brother to City Light, is a granddaughter of the G2 Prix de Malleret winner and G1 Prix Vermeille runner-up Leandra (Fr) (Luthier {Fr}) who was responsible for the GII Buena Vista H. scorer Lexa (Fr) (Sanglamore).

ISPOLINI CUP-BOUND AFTER DORTMUND WIN

Aside from the high-profile Doncaster and Curragh versions, there was another St Leger staged in Europe this weekend and it was Godolphin who enjoyed the spoils with Ispolini (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) in Dortmund's G3 Deutsches St Leger. Teeing up a tilt at the Nov. 5 G1 Melbourne Cup, the 4-year-old sauntered around in mid-division before being angled off the fence at the top of the straight and taking control 300 metres out. Possibly idling in the hands of James Doyle late on, the 7-10 favourite had a neck and a head to spare over Djukon (GB) (Jukebox Jury {Ire}) and Moonshiner (Ger) (Adlerflug {Ger}) with something in hand at the line.

"Ispolini probably got to the front a bit too soon, but he has stuck to his guns well," Charlie Appleby said. "It was a pleasing performance and he has hopefully now booked his ticket to Australia for the Melbourne Cup."

Not seen since finishing fourth to Stradivarius (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) in the May 17 G2 Yorkshire Cup, Ispolini is no stranger to travelling as he was successful by 10 1/2 lengths in the Feb. 23 G3 Nad Al Sheba Trophy over this trip before running stablemate Cross Counter (GB) (Teofilo {Ire}) to 1 1/4 lengths when runner-up in the G2 Dubai Gold Cup Mar. 30.

Pedigree Notes

Out of the GII New York S. winner Giant's Play (Giant's Causeway), he is a half-brother to two black-type performers including Vivionn (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) who was runner-up to Search For a Song (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in last month's Listed Galtres S.

The second dam Playful Act (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) landed the G1 Fillies' Mile and was runner-up in the G1 Irish Oaks and also produced the GIII Orchid S. winner Anjaz (Street Cry {Ire}). She is one of eight individual black-type winners out of the G3 Musidora S.-winning remarkable broodmare Magnificient Style (Silver Hawk). They are headed by the G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth S. and G1 Eclipse S. hero and successful sire Nathaniel (Ire) and the G2 Yorkshire Cup scorer Percussionist (Ire) from matings with Sadler's Wells, while she was also responsible for the G1 Irish Oaks heroine Great Heavens (GB) to a mating with his son Galileo (Ire). Giant's Play also has the as yet unnamed 2-year-old filly by Dubawi (Ire) who sold to Stroud Coleman Bloodstock for 1.2million gns at Tattersalls October Book 1, a yearling colt by Frankel (GB) and a colt foal by Siyouni (Fr).

ANTHONY VAN DYCK POSSIBLE FOR BREEDERS' CUP

Anthony Van Dyck (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), winner of the G1 Investec Derby in June, could be seen at the Breeders' Cup next following his fine effort to be third in the G1 QIPCO Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown on Saturday. The Aidan O'Brien-trained colt chased stablemate Sovereign (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) home in the G1 Duby Duty Free Derby at The Curragh on June 29. He was down the field in the G1 King George VI And Queen Elizabeth S. at Ascot won by Enable (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}), but bounced back with an excellent run at Leopardstown on Saturday, a race which O'Brien dominated with Magical (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) winning and Magic Wand (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) finishing a head in front of Anthony Van Dyck.

O'Brien said, "We were delighted with him. We knew that Ascot was a non event with the ground and we knew we could put a line through that run. It was great to see him come back that way. It was his first run back after a break so we look forward to him the next day.

"We had it in our head that he would go to the [GI] Breeders' Cup Turf. He's a lovely moving, good ground horse. Obviously he's in the [G1 Qatar Prix de l'] Arc [de Triomphe at ParisLongchamp on Oct. 6], but he could go straight there. The lads said they might keep him in training next year, which would be exciting for us."

SKITTER SCATTER INJURED, RETIRED

Group 1 winner Skitter Scatter (Scat Daddy-Dane Street, by Street Cry {Ire}), who ran last of seven in the G1 Matron S. at Leopardstown on Saturday, sustained a recurrence of an earlier muscle injury during the running and has been retired per trainer John Oxx, Racing Post reported on Sunday. The Three Chimneys Farm and Airlie Stud-bred suffered the original injury in the G1 QIPCO 1000 Guineas in May.

"Unfortunately Skitter Scatter has been retired and will be going to her owners, Anthony and Sonia Rogers [at Airlie Stud]," Oxx revealed at The Curragh on Sunday. "It took plenty of time to get her back on track after the injury she picked up at Newmarket. We were happy with her run in the Fairy Bridge S. at Tipperary last month when she finished second, but she wasn't right when she came in after the Matron and it is the same problem she had after the Guineas.

"It's a pity as she showed up that she still had all ability and enthusiasm. As a Group 1 winner who also won at Group 2 and Group 3 level, she had a good career but it could have been better but for injury. She had a very good pedigree and should do well as a broodmare."

Highweighted at two in Ireland, the bay rattled off victories in 2018's G3 Silver Flash S., G2 Debutante S. and the G1 Moyglare Stud S. in consecutive starts for Patrick Prendergast. Transferred to John Oxx when Prendergast opted to join forces with that luminary earlier this year, the Kentucky-bred ran second in the G3 Coolmore Stud Fairy Bridge S. from three starts this term and retires with a mark of 10-4-2-2 and $400,341. A half-sister to GIII Durante S. runner-up Data Dependent (More Than Ready), Skitter Scatter is a granddaughter of GSP Daneleta (Ire) (Danehill), who is also the dam of G1 Darley Dewhurst S. victor and sire Intense Focus (Giant's Causeway).

STONE CIRCLE (IRE) (c, 2, No Nay Never--Candlehill Girl {Ire}, by Shamardal), who followed up a July 20 novice score at Doncaster with an Aug. 1 nursery handicap fourth at Goodwood last time, broke sharply and raced in a prominent fifth overall through halfway in this €300,000 Tattersalls Ireland Super Auction Sale race. Rousted along passing the quarter-mile marker, the 12-1 chance was ridden to challenge entering the final furlong and driven out to deny Maystar (Ire) (Mayson {GB}) by a head in the dying strides. "Alex Elliott and my son Nick bought Master Brewer, who won the Sales race at Longchamp last year, and they went to war and bought this horse at Fairyhouse," explained trainer Michael Bell. "It was a good performance, giving weight all round, and he's a smashing little horse by a very good stallion. It's very sad as Bob Michaelson was involved and it was his funeral this week. He had a quarter share in him, and is looking down." Andrea Atzeni added, "I'd never ridden him before, but Michael liked him a lot beforehand and said he was very straightforward. He travelled quite nicely and, to be fair to him, he had to stick his head out all the way to the line, which he did. It was a great effort." He is the latest of three foals and lone runner produced by a daughter of Listed Grand Prix du Nord victress Karamiyna (Ire) (Shernazar {Ire}), herself a full-sister to dual Group 1 winner Kartajana (Ire). DOTTY ABOUT ROY ROCKET?

John and Emma Berry's Newmarket stable is supporting the fundraising efforts of Pat Smullen for Cancer Trials Ireland through his ambassadorial role for Longines Irish Champions Weekend.

A week after Irish racing's big weekend, the stables of Newmarket open their doors for the Henry Cecil Open Weekend. Visitors will have the chance to meet ROY ROCKET and enter a competition to be his owners for a day when he returns to the racecourse next season.

All you have to do is guess the number of spots on their Dalmatian, Gus.

Sir Mark Prescott has agreed to be the independent judge and has now completed the official spot count.

Make your minimum donation of £10 per guess to support Pat's fundraising efforts towards important research in the ongoing battle against cancer by visiting this link, then email your guess on Gus's spots to emmacollingsberry@gmail.com

OOZING CLASS: HH AGA KHAN IV

HH the Aga Khan riding | Image courtesy APRH

by John Berry

HH Aga Khan IV has been one of the towering figures in the racing world for over half a century. For much of that time his influence in the antipodes has been limited, notwithstanding that several of his horses have found their way to Australasian studs, including Adraan (GB) (Zeddaan {GB}) and Nediym (Ire) (Shareef Dancer {USA}).

More recently, however, he has been a bigger player Down Under, largely thanks to an alliance with Arrowfield which has seen horses moving across the equator in both directions, such as Redoute's Choice shuttling to France and The Autumn Sun's dam Azmiyna (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) coming to Australia.

We were reminded yet again last weekend of the quality of the Aga Khan's stock when his French-trained 3-year-old filly Edisa (USA) (Kitten's Joy {USA}) won the US$750,000 Jockey Club Oaks Invitational S. at Belmont Park in New York.

What is often overlooked, however, is that racing and breeding play merely a small part in the life of one of the most influential people in the world.

HH Aga Khan IV is the worldwide Imam (leader) of the Nizari Ismaili sect of the Shia Muslims. He is the 49th Imam, going back in direct lineal succession to the Prophet Mohammed, whose cousin and son-in-law was the first Imam.

At first glance this makes it hard to understand why he is only the fourth Aga Khan (Senior King). This situation stems from the current Aga Khan's great-great-grandfather (the 46th Imam) presenting himself and his followers to a British garrison in Kandahar in August 1841, having made the trek eastwards from the Ottoman Empire.

The upshot of this arrival was that the Imam became a significant figure firstly in the British Raj and subsequently throughout the British Empire, officially recognised by the British government as His Highness the Aga Khan. Hence his being HH Aga Khan I.

A Racing Empire

HH Aga Khan I was a keen racing man who became a leading figure in the vibrant racing scene in Bombay (now Mumbai) in the decades leading up to his death in 1881. However, it was his grandson the third Aga Khan (the grandfather, rather than father, of the current fourth Aga Khan, the title skipping a generation) who sowed the seeds for the current Aga Khan's worldwide racing empire.

Advised by the Hon. George Lambton, HH Aga Khan III started buying yearlings in England in the years following the First World War, the plan being to set up his own studs. The plan succeeded even more splendidly than anyone could have dared hope.

Thanks largely to the quality of some of the fillies selected by George Lambton (most notably Mumtaz Mahal (GB) (The Tetrarch {Ire}) who was bought for 9,100 guineas at the Tattersalls St Leger Yearling Sale at Doncaster in 1922 before becoming firstly one of the fastest fillies and then one of the most influential broodmares in history) HH Aga Khan III became one of the two most influential and successful patrons of the British turf (along with the 17th Earl of Derby) during the inter-war years.

He bred and raced such legendary horses as Blenheim (Ire) (Blandford {Ire}), Bahram (GB) (Blandford {Ire}), Mahmoud (Fr) (Blenheim {GB}), Nasrullah (Ire) (Nearco {Ity}) and Tulyar (Ire) (Tehran {Ire}).

HH Aga Khan III lived until the age of 79, dying in July 1957. He had lived a long life, distinguished in both religion and politics.

Among his appointments, he was voted President of the League of Nations in 1937 and playing a significant mediatory role in the independence and partition of the Indian subcontinent after the Second World War.

He was succeeded not by his son Prince Aly Khan (who later that year, despite his famously sybaritic lifestyle, was appointed Pakistan's representative at the United Nations) but by Prince Aly Khan's son Karim, who was aged only 20 at the time and who has now been HH Aga Khan IV for 62 years.

HH Aga Khan IV's grandfather had been a great racehorse owner and breeder; and his father had been a talented amateur rider and successful owner/breeder, most notably racing the great Petite Etoile (GB) (Petition {GB}), Britain's Horse of the Year of 1959 whom he had bred in partnership with his father from the Bois Roussel mare Star Of Iran (GB), a granddaughter of Mahmoud's three-parts sister Mah Iran (GB) (Bahram {GB}), herself a granddaughter of Mumtaz Mahal. HH Aga Khan IV has now guided the family's bloodstock empire into the 21st century in magnificent style.

Reviving the Family Stud

Through the 1960s and '70s, the Aga Khan set about revivifying his family's studs, consolidating the breeding operations in France and Ireland around the Thoroughbred families which he had inherited as well as buying new blood, most notably acquiring the stock of the late Marcel Boussac in the late '70s and the late Jean-Luc Lagardere in 2005.

The previous Aga Khan's philosophy had always been that the three key ingredients of a racehorse were "speed, speed and more speed", notwithstanding that he regularly mopped up Derbys and St Legers. The current Aga Khan's studs were initially notable for short-distance stallions such as Zeddaan (GB) (Grey Sovereign {GB}) and his son Kalamoun (GB) but overall they have come to specialize in producing horses who excel from 1600 metres to 2400 metres (and beyond).

Most obvious among HH Aga Khan IV's big winners have been his five triumphs in the Derby, courtesy of Shergar (Ire) (Great Nephew {GB}) in 1981, Shahrastani (USA) (Nijinsky II {Can}) in 1986, Kahyasi (Ire) (Ile De Bourbon {USA}) in 1988, Sinndar (Ire) (Grand Lodge {USA}) in 2000 and Harzand (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) in 2016.

His four victories in the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, with Akiyda (Fr) (Labus {Fr}) in 1982, Sinndar in 2000, Dalakhani (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}) in 2003 and Zarkava (Ire) (Zamindar {USA}) in 2008; his seven wins in the Prix du Jockey-Club with Charlottesville (GB) (Prince Chevalier {Fr}) in 1960, Top Ville (Ire) (High Top {GB}) in 1979, Darshaan (GB) (Shirley Heights {GB}) in 1984, Mouktar (Ire) (Nishapour {Fr}) in 1985, Natroun (Fr) (Akarad {Fr}) in 1987, Dalakhani in 2003 and Darsi (Fr) (Polish Precedent {USA}) in 2005.

And his six wins in the Irish Derby with Shergar in 1981, Shahrastani in 1986, Kahyasi in 1988, Sinndar in 2000, Alamshar (Ire) (Key Of Luck {USA}) in 2003 and Harzand in 2016. Similarly notable was the triumph of the French-trained Lashkari (GB) (Mill Reef {USA}) in the inaugural running of the GI Breeders' Cup Turf in the USA in 1984.

In France's mile Classics, the Aga Khan has won the Poule d'Essai des Poulains seven times, courtesy of Zeddaan in 1968, Kalamoun in 1973, Blushing Groom (Fr) (Red God {USA}) in 1977, Nishapour (Fr) (Zeddaan {GB}) in 1978, Ashkalani (Ire) (Soviet Star {USA}) in 1996, Daylami (Ire) (Doyoun {Ire}) in 1997 and Sendawar (Ire) (Priolo {USA}) in 1999; and he has taken the Poule d'Essai des Pouliches four times, with Masarika (Ire) (Thatch {USA}) in 1984, Zalaiyka (Fr) (Royal Academy {USA}) in 1998, Zarkava in 2008 and Ervedya (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) in 2015.

He has landed the Prix de Diane seven times, with Shemaka (Ire) (Nishapour {Fr}) in 1993, Vereva (Ire) (Kahyasi {Ire}) in 1997, Zainta (Ire) (Kahyasi {Ire}) in 1998, Daryaba (Ire) (Night Shift {USA}) in 1999, Zarkava in 2008, Sarafina (Fr) (Refuse To Bend {Ire}) in 2010 and Valyra (GB) (Azamour {Ire}) in 2012.

Homebred Champions

Over the years HH Aga Khan IV has bred, raced and stood some great stallions and many of his best winners have been by his own horses. Cont. p3

Zarkava | Scoop Dyga

His homebred champion 2-year-old Siyouni (Fr) (Pivotal {GB}) is currently the star of his French roster at Haras de Bonneval, while Gilltown Stud in Ireland always has good horses in its stallion barn.

However, he has also become renowned for producing top-class horses from other people's stallions who are far from the forefront of fashion. As an owner/breeder he is not obliged to consider the popularity or otherwise of the sires whom he uses to sell yearlings; and as a public figure he (like HRH Queen Elizabeth II) presumably feels pressure to be seen not to be lavish in his expenditure on his horses, so patronising less expensive stallions is a prudent policy.

Breeding Mandesha (Fr) and Caradak (Ire) by Desert Style was a classic example as was using Key Of Luck to produce Alamshar, and Zamindar to produce Darjina (Fr) and Zarkava; while Night Shift was an old horse when he bred Azamour (Ire).

Obviously it helps that HH Aga Khan is using mares from his time-honoured families on such stallions, but even so it is impossible not to conclude that his understanding of pedigrees and his appreciation of the compatibility or otherwise of different mares and stallions is second to none.

Aga Khan-bred horses are rightly respected worldwide; while broodmares hailing from Aga Khan families (such as the former outstanding NZ-based Eight Carat (GB) (Pieces Of Eight {Ire}) and the former Lanwades stalwart Alruccaba (Ire) (Crystal Palace {Fr}), (both descendants of Mumtaz Mahal) have often proved metaphorically to be worth their weight in gold.

If you see a horse raced by the Aga Khan (which means one bred by him as it is very rare for him to buy a yearling) you know that he, like his breeder, will have a background oozing class.

COMPETITIVE BIDDING AS BOOK 3 OPENS AT KEENELAND

Session-topping Hip 1385 in the ring | Keeneland

by Jessica Martini

LEXINGTON, KY - The Keeneland September Yearling Sale's Book 3 section opened with a day of competitive bidding Sunday in Lexington as 256 yearlings changed hands for a total of $30,025,000. The sixth session average was $117,285 and the median was $85,000. Of the 366 horses offered, 110 failed to reach their reserves for a buy-back rate of 30.05%.

A pair of yearlings topped the $500,000 mark Sunday, with a colt by Quality Road attracting the session's highest bid of $510,000. The session topper was consigned by Select Sales and WinStar Farm's Elliott Walden made the winning bid on behalf of a partnership with the farm and China Horse Club International.

WinStar has been active as both buyers and sellers this week at Keeneland.

"It's been solid on both sides," Walden said. "It's tough to buy and conversely, it's good when you sell. I think it's a healthy market. Looking at the dynamics of everything in the industry, there is not a better time that I can remember to be an owner in the industry because of the purses. You're running for $130,000 at Kentucky Downs, $90,000 at Saratoga." Cont. p3

CLEMENT 'INVADER' PUNCHES BREEDERS' CUP TICKET WITH SUMMER SCORE

Decorated Invader (Declaration of War), bet hard throughout, backed up his support and overcame a slow pace to capture the GI Summer S. Sunday at Woodbine, a "Win and You're In" race for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf.

Showing a strong late kick to be second debuting July 13 at Saratoga, the $200,000 Keeneland September grad won geared down there next out Aug. 10 and was crushed down to even-money from a 9-2 morning line early in the wagering here before drifting up to fractional second favoritism by post.

Away a step slowly, the West Point Thoroughbreds colorbearer tugged his way up a few spots into seventh as huge longshot Cadet Connelly (Grey Swallow {Ire}) went on with it through pedestrian splits of :24.26 and :48.43 over yielding turf.

"The expenses had to go up a decade ago, just because hay, feed, labor, everything's gone up," Walden continued. "But now the purses are catching up. It's a good time to be in the horse business, I think. Just from an economic standpoint."

Select Sales sold 19 yearlings Sunday, including the session-topping Quality Road colt, for a gross of $2,850,000.

"The great thing about Book 3 is that the horses that hit the target are selling and the horses that don't hit the target are also selling," Select Sales' Carrie Brogden said. "There is more depth of buyers and also my owners are being more realistic in selling their horses. If I say, 'This horse has this, this and this,' we are adjusting the reserves. People are wanting to trade."

Following a competitive opening week of bidding, pinhookers became a more obvious presence on the results sheets Sunday.

"We have bought 10 so far and we got most of them on the first two days, which I am delighted about," said Ocala horseman Eddie Woods. "But we've been scrambling ever since. We got three today and one yesterday."

Of the increased participation from pinhookers, Woods said, "That the way it's supposed to be. The quality kind of drops off, the big planes have left. It's always been the time when the tide has turned. It won't be a great sale if you have pinhookers in there the first two days just banging away any time they want. Then it's not good. But it's been a great sale so far and for the better horses, it's going to hold all the way through."

The Keeneland September sale continues through next Sunday with sessions beginning daily at 10 a.m.

Quality Sells at Keeneland Sunday

A colt by Quality Road (hip 1385) shot to the top of the leaderboard early in Sunday's session of the Keeneland September sale when bringing a session-topping final bid of $510,000 from WinStar Farm CEO Elliott Walden. WinStar purchased the yearling in partnership with China Horse Club International.

"He's a nice athletic colt by Quality Road," Walden said of the yearling's appeal. "We felt like he was one of the better ones on the day."

Hip 1385, bred by Machmer Hall and consigned by Select Sales, is out of Spring Storm (Unbridled's Song). He is a half-brother to multiple graded placed Stainless (Flatter).

Spring Storm, in foal to Proud Citizen, sold for $29,000 at the 2016 Keeneland November sale. The 12-year-old mare, whose second dam produced champion Countess Diana, has a weanling colt by Malibu Moon and was bred back to West Coast.

"We bought her before Stainless was graded placed," explained Select Sales and Machmer Hall's Carrie Brogden. "This colt jumped through all of the hoops. He had great vetting. He was very uncomplicated and he was just one of those horses that got better and better as he got older."

Brogden said Machmer Hall has built its brand at the sales and on the racetrack.

"This if the first sale where people have specifically said to me, 'Ah. This is a Machmer Hall horse. We know you've raised it as a runner,'" Brogden said. "That makes me feel really good."

Frosted Filly to McPeek

A filly from the first crop of Grade I winner Frosted will be joining the barn of Ken McPeek after the trainer bid $500,000 to acquire the youngster on behalf of Scott and Dana Leeds's Walking L Thoroughbreds Sunday at Keeneland.

"She was the best filly of the day, in my opinion," McPeek said as he watched on his phone while one of his charge's headed into the gate at Churchill Downs. "We got one early, as well, and I'm really thrilled to take her home."

Hip 1578 | Keeneland

The yearling was McPeek's seventh purchase of the September sale. He also purchased a colt by Frosted (hip 1487) Sunday for $180,000.

Walking L Thoroughbreds campaigns recent GIII With Anticipation S. winner Fighting Seabee (Summer Front) and graded winner Cairo Cat (Cairo Prince).

Hip 1578 was bred by Runnymede Farm, Peter Callahan, Manlius Stable and Bill Oppenheim, and was consigned to the sale by Runnymede Farm. She is out of Dream to Dream (Scat Daddy), who is a full-sister to group winner Daddy Long Legs.

"She was a very well-balanced individual with a great walk and a great mind," said Runnymede vice president and general manager Romain Malhouitre. "She came here and never put a step wrong along the way. She was very busy in the barn. Did we expect that? No. But we liked her all the way."

The breeding partnership purchased Dream to Dream for $60,000 at the 2016 Keeneland November sale.

Malhouitre agreed 2011 G2 Royal Lodge S. winner Daddy Long Legs's presence in the pedigree was part of the mare's appeal, but added, "It was the individual as well. And being by Scat Daddy. Our partner Bill Oppenheim just pointed out to us that she was in the sale and we went to see her and we liked her. She is a compact, well-made Scat Daddy."

Dream to Dream RNA'd with this now-yearling in utero for $120,000 at the 2017 Keeneland November sale.

"In the beginning, we didn't know what we wanted to do," Malhouitre explained. "Frosted was quite popular, so we tried to see if we could flip her and make money, but the market was not having it. So we were happy to just keep her."

Dream to Dream produced a filly by Animal Kingdom this year and was bred back to Will Take Charge.

Runnymede Farm had further success Sunday, selling a filly by Liam's Map for $300,000 to Team Casse. The yearling (hip 1619) is out of multiple stakes winner Half Heaven (Regal Classic). Bred by Dixiana Farms, she RNA'd for $70,000 at last year's Keeneland November sale.

"I raised her half-sister Highestmaintenance (Macho Uno) when I was at Dixiana and bought her from Mr. [William] Shively at the November sales," Malhouitre said. "He was very kind to sell her to me. She's another one with a great walk and a great mind. Those two fillies have been unbelievable the last three days at the sales."

Both Runnymede fillies were by first-crop sires.

"We have to balance things," Malhouitre said. "With young mares, we do different things. We go unproven, proven, unproven, proven. We would like to breed everything on the top, but value wise, it's not possible for all the mares. So we are trying to have good balance between proven sires, the ones on the bubble, and the freshmen. We think it's good for all of us. We have the land and the team at Runnymede who help us to develop some very good horses. So, it works."

Runnymede chief executive officer Brutus Clay, III, standing nearby as Malhouitre spoke, added, "We also have to thank our general manager and the whole team at the farm, as well as the bidders and underbidders."

Switched into the two path by Irad Ortiz, Jr. nearing the bend into the turn, he angled four deep and bore out a bit making the corner for home. Drawing alongside the pacesetter outside the eighth pole, the blaze-faced bay took charge soon after and kicked clear under mild urging to a convincing success. Cadet Connelly held bravely between third-running European shipper Vitalogy (GB) (No Nay Never) to his outside and longshot Proven Strategies (Sky Mesa) on his left to secure second in a three-way photo.

"We were just looking for him to relax in the first part of the race and then let him run in the end," said Ortiz. "We know he can run so we just want to relax him and teach him the first part. He's only had three races so I think he's getting better and better. Today, I really liked the way he did it. He was floating in a little bit in the stretch, he always does, but hopefully he learns and if he just keeps a little more straight in the stretch that would be great. He keeps learning."

Pedigree Notes:

With the victory, Decorated Invader becomes the 22nd stakes winner and 11th graded/group stakes winner for third-crop sire Declaration of War, who stood the 2019 season at the Japan Bloodhorse Breeders' Association's Shizunai Stallion Station in Hokkaido, Japan. Cont. p10

He is also Declaration of War's third Grade I/Group 1 winner, and his first top-level scorer in America, following up Australia's G1 BRC Queensland Oaks heroine Winning Ways (Aus) and France's G1 French 2000 Guineas victor Olmedo (Fr). He is the second black-type winner for 16-year-old Gamely Girl, who scored by four lengths at odds-on over the local main track in 2006 in her only outing before selling for $450,000 the following fall at Keeneland November. She foaled a colt by Violence Mar. 9 before visiting Distorted Humor. Third dam Hail Atlantis was a GISW who produced the long-productive turf sire Stormy Atlantic (Storm Cat).

Abscond turned back odds-on Fair Maiden and won a desperately close photo with European raider Walk In Marrakesh to upset the GI Natalma S. Sunday at Woodbine, a "Win and You're In" event for the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf.

Rallying to a narrow first-out score July 21 at Ellis, the $90,000 Keeneland September pickup was no match for G2 Queen Mary S. runner-up Kimari (Munnings) when second in the Bolton Landing S. Aug. 14 at Saratoga and was sent off as the fourth choice making her initial route attempt in this seven-horse group.

Breaking on top from her outside stall, the bay hooked up with rail-drawn Walk In Marrakesh through a :23.99 quarter as Fair Maiden posted up widest of a trio in the second flight. Those two continued to spar through a :48.24 half before the favorite sidled up to make it three in a line passing six furlongs in 1:12.56. Fair Maiden appeared ready to run to her billing outside the eighth pole, but idled when striking the front and started drifting out at the sixteenth marker. That left Abscond and Walk In Marrakesh to hash it out in the final 50 yards, and Abscond tenaciously turned back her rival by a nostril under Irad Ortiz, Jr., who swept both of the day's Grade Is. Fair Maiden was a neck back in third.

"She was acting really good, she broke out of there sharp and just stayed in the middle of the turf course and she was relaxed," said Ortiz. "She's a fighter. She fought with the outside horse and came back on the inside. She fought back and she put a head in front in the last couple of jumps. Everything worked out good for us."

"I'm really impressed with her," said Kelly Wheeler, assistant to winning trainer Eddie Kenneally. "She's done everything right since she broke her maiden. Really, we've asked a lot of her--shipping her up to Saratoga, she handled that great. So we shipped her up here, it looked like a good spot, and she came through."

Pedigree Notes:

Abscond is the 26th stakes winner, 14th graded stakes winner and fourth Grade I/Group 1 winner for Claiborne Farm's Blame. She is the second foal out of 9-year-old Solitary Life, a half-sister to three-time South African champion sprinter Overarching (Arch), herself the producer of South African G1SW Lady of the House (SAf) (Dynasty {SAf}), as well as GSW Temeraine (Arch) and Sassification (Smart Strike), the dam of MGSW turfer Cambodia (War Front). Bought by Redmon Farm for $50,000 at Keeneland November in 2017, she is responsible for a yearling Violence filly and was bred to Not This Time this spring.

INTO MISCHIEF FEE BUMPED UP TO $175K

Spendthrift Farm's star sire Into Mischief (Harlan's Holiday--Leslie's Lady, by Tricky Creek) will stand for $175,000 S&N with a full book in 2020, Spendthrift announced Sunday. That's an increase of $25,000 from the $150,000 he stood for in 2019.

"I don't know if we've seen anything quite like Into Mischief, it's truly remarkable the things he's doing," said Ned Toffey, general manager at Spendthrift. "Aside from amounting results on the track and in the sales ring, he's the consummate professional and loves his job. This year, over 96% of his mares checked in foal. We think Into Mischief is making a positive impact on the breed that will be felt for years to come, particularly with the heart and durability that are signatures of his offspring."

Spendthrift said it plans to announce fees for the rest of its 2020 roster in the near future.

Old Chestnut made a bold debut July 7 over the all-weather track at Woodbine in the Victoria S. and set the pace but faded to finish fifth. A month later, he switched to the turf for an Aug. 9 maiden special weight and came away with a three-length triumph as well as nearly doubling his Beyer Speed Figure (41 to 80).

He broke best in spite of appearing to bump with Aye Aye Sir coming out of the gate, but he flew to the front and set the pace through fractions of :21.77 and :45.24. Aye Aye Sir stayed glued to his flank until Old Chestnut began to draw away in upper stretch. He switched to his wrong lead for the journey down the lane, but widened under a hand ride and finished much the best.

Old Chestnut's dam won the 2006 GI Ruffian H and also has the 2014 Charlie Barley S. runner-up Speightsland (Speightstown). She was bred to Accelerate for next term. Pool Land's dam is a half-sister to 1987 GI Breeders' Cup Sprint winner Very Subtle (Hoist the Silver). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Fast Scene added another black-type rosette to her ledger with a front-running score in the Woodbine Cares S. Sunday.

Sent off the third choice in the field of 11, the dark bay battled with favorite Bayerly Seen on the backstretch, and asserted to throw up a first quarter split of :21.33. Bayerly Seen re-rallied on her outside 100 yards from the line, but just missed as Fast Scene held sway. A winner of her first two starts over the all-weather locally June 15 and in the My Dear S. July 6, the Three Chimneys Farm-bred was fourth in the Aug. 17 Catch a Glimpse S. here, her turf bow.

"She showed a lot of class today, she dug in, the horse came to her and Rafael [Hernandez] just threw a cross on her and she came back," said Scooter Davis, assistant to trainer Tim Hamm.

Since foaling the winner, Scenic Drive has a yearling filly by Mineshaft and a colt, foaled Apr. 15, by Gun Runner. Out of a full-sister to GI Kentucky Derby winner Monarchos (Maria's Mon), she was covered by Sharp Azteca later this spring. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Sassy Seneca continued the very promising start at stud for Competitive Edge, becoming his third black-type winner with a defeat of the boys in the Shakopee Juvenile S.

The second choice and the lone filly in a scratched-down field of four, Sassy Seneca showed good early speed to lead narrowly from Prairie Gold Juvenile hero Richard Ronald, but was relegated to second when the chalk assumed command at the half-mile pole. The advantage was short-lived, as the filly punched back to regain the call at the five-sixteenth and, despite some tail-swishing in the final furlong, pulled away to a convincing victory. The Novogratz-owned and Mac Robertson-trained filly Amy's Challenge (Artie Schiller) bested the talented Mr. Jagermeister (Atta Boy Roy) in the 2017 Juvenile.

Produced by a half-sister to MGSW & GISP High Limit (Maria's Mon, Sassy Seneca is kin to a yearling colt by Declaration of War that fetched $75,000 from Mags O'Toole at Keeneland September this past Saturday. Click for the Equibase.com chart.

SALLY'S CURLIN (f, 3, Curlin--Cabo Queen {MSP, $162,336}, by More Than Ready), a maiden winner over course and distance June 15, was an overmatched 11th in the GIII Indiana Oaks July 13, but thrashed Ellis entry-level allowance foes by 5 1/4 lengths Aug. 11. The 3-2 chalk was ridden near or at the back of the pack in the run down the backstretch and got her cue from Peruvian rider Martin Chuan three furlongs out. Forced to cover all the ground, Sally's Curlin nevertheless sustained that rally to lead in upper stretch and shot clear in the final eighth of a mile to score by a highly impressive 9 1/4 lengths. GIRLS KNOW BEST (m, 5, Caleb's Posse--Now U Know, by Maria's Mon) went five-for-11 last season, including victories in an off-turf renewal of the The Very One S. in May and the Abundantia S. at Gulfstream Park in her last racetrack appearance in December. Favored at 7-5 for this 5-year-old debut and in what amounted to a paid workout, Girls Know Best showed good speed from the gate, got the opening half-mile in :44.57 and, with Corey Lanerie swinging off her, skipped home a supremely confident 1 1/2-length winner. SCOTTISH JIG (f, 4, Speightstown--Light Jig {GB}, by Danehill), a listed winner at Newmarket in her final run for John Gosden last November, wired a 10-furlong allowance in her stateside debut at this venue May 19. A pacesetting third in the July 5 River Memories S. over a mile and a half, the homebred was a latest seventh in the GII Ballston Spa S. at Saratoga Aug. 24. Favored at 9-10 here, Scottish Jig took them along at a common gallop for the opening two panels, then ceded the lead to Augustin Stable's Irish Group 3 winner Xenobia (Ire) (Falco) through the middle stages.

The latter appeared to be going great guns into the final eighth of a mile, but Scottish Jig responded to energetic Jose Ortiz handling and was up late to score by a half-length. FORTUNE'S FOOL (g, 3, Arch--Fortune Play {MSW, $374,204}, by Five Star Day) has run his best races at Belmont, first competing over this track and distance in his third start May 12 in the slop to break his maiden, then getting his highest Beyer Speed Figure to date (90) June 23 with a runner-up finish in an allowance. His subsequent July 27 try at Saratoga was a no-impact sixth. Back over his favorite track here, Fortune's Fool sailed straight to the front at 4-1 and set fractions of :21.99 and :44.67 while being hounded from the outside by Missile Bomb (Tale of the Cat). He put that one away at the top of the stretch, pulled clear, was geared down before the wire, and won with his ears pricked. Sicilia Mike (Girolamo) was 3 1/4 lengths back in second. The winner is a half to Forewarned (Flat Out), SW, $260,613; a yearling filly named Mama Lou by Flat Out, and a filly born this year by Runhappy. The mare has been bred back to Practical Joke. PHILANTHROPIC (f, 3, Malibu Moon--Deputy Saint, by Saint Liam) was runner up going seven panels in her debut for Steve Asmussen at Ellis Park a year ago August before finishing fourth in her two final starts for the trainer at Keeneland and Churchill Downs last fall. Moved over to the care of Jason Servis, she debuted for that barn with an easy win over this track and trip June 16 and was given a 9-5 chance to repeat here. In hot pursuit of favored Bow Town Cat (Cowtown Cat) through a :21.95 quarter, she poked her head in front at the head of the stretch. Carrying the most momentum from there, she cruised home a five-length winner over Bow Town Cat. Deputy Saint is a half-sister to Classic winner and Horse of the Year Curlin (Smart Strike). She produced a filly by Awesome Again in 2017 followed by a filly by Candy Ride (Arg) the following season. Most recently secured for $5,000 at KEENOV in 2018 carrying a colt by American Freedom, who she foaled this season, she was returned to Honor Code. LUCKY PERIDOT (f, 3, Itsmyluckyday--Rare Elegance, by Forestry), a winner at third asking over track and trip July 6, made up some late ground to take fifth in an optional claimer over the Del Mar sod two starts later Aug. 17. Runner-up in a similar contest there Sept. 2, the chestnut was wheeled back on 13 days' rest and was made the heavy 3-5 chalk Sunday. Keeping closer tabs on the vanguard than her usual want from fifth, the $40,000 OBSAPR juvenile angled off the rails past three-quarters in 1:11.59, split horses inside the final furlong and kicked away to win by 1 1/2 lengths. Arctic Roll (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}) was second. The winning dam, who is from the same family as champion juvenile filly and MGISW Storm Song (Summer Squall), has the 2-year-old filly Could Be Fate (Soldat), as well as a pair of colts by Drill and Noble Bird, respectively, the last three years. NORTHERN THUNDER (c, 2, Creative Cause--Samsal {SP}, by Consolidator) ran on to be fourth in an open seven-furlong maiden on the synthetic Aug. 31 and was stretching out in this event restricted to Ontario-breds who have gone through a sales ring at any public auction. Off at 8-1, Northern Thunder settled outside of a rival in about fifth position and began to creep closer three away from the fence nearing the turn.

Steered out deeper still into the lane, he managed to sustain his momentum and swapped over onto his incorrect lead at the sixteenth pole, but was along in the final three jumps to take it by a neck over the debuting Muskoka Gold (Lea). Northern Thunder has a yearling half-brother by the expatriated Tizway and a foal half-sister by Lemon Drop Kid. Samsal, a half-sister to SW & GSP Stormy Rush (Stormy Atlantic), was most recently covered by Sky Mesa. Sales history: $90,000 Wlg '17 KEENOV; $30,000 2yo '19 EASMAY. CARDAMON (f, 3, Pioneerof the Nile--Soothing Touch, by Touch Gold) came from just off the pace for a professional score at Churchill Downs Sunday. Settled in a stalking position behind initial fractions of :22.02 and :45.71, the 7-5 favorite spurted to the front turning for home, opened up in the stretch and was a comfortable 1 1/2-length winner over Getridofwhatailesu (Ghostzapper) at the wire. Cardamon, a full-sister to Courtier, SW & GSP, $221,103, is a half-sister to Emollient (Empire Maker), MGISW $1,350,400--who herself is the dam of dual group-placed Peace Charter (GB) (War Front)--and to Hofburg, SW & MGISP, $551,800. This represents the family of French highweight juvenile champions Coup de Genie and Machiavellian. Soothing Touch, a $550,000 KEESEP yearling purchase, has an unraced American Pharoah juvenile named Best Company in addition to an unnamed yearling colt by the sire. Responsible for a filly foal by Arrogate this season, she was bred back to that sire. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $54,412. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

furlongs to travel. Sent along four wide on the turn, he rallied from that position into the stretch and found a bit more to hit the wire 3 1/2 lengths better than Tomcat Black (Bernardini), despite covering an additional 34 feet (about 3 3/4 lengths) according to Trakus. Corsi, produced by a stakes-placed half-sister to the good sprinter Too Much Bling (Rubiano), has a yearling half-sister by Congrats and a foal half-brother by Kantharos. Beth's Bling was most recently bred to Flatter. Sales history: $55,000 RNA Ylg '18 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $38,468.

MR. ALEC (g, 3, Mr. Sidney--Silva {Fr} {MSW-Fr, $104,151}, by Anabaa) had only one start under his belt, an 8 1/2-furlong Monmouth maiden on the lawn Aug. 17 where he rallied late to just miss by a neck. Going another 1 1/2 furlongs here as the 2-1 choice, he went straight to the front, but was quickly challenged and passed by Asdaaf (Medaglia d'Oro). Mr. Alec was content to take back to third along the hedge and bided his time until the final turn, when he was roused and tipped out. He dueled briefly with Asdaaf before sailing right by for a 1 3/4-length triumph. He swished his tail a few times down the lane, but the rallying Compliant (Kitten's Joy) couldn't catch him and had to settle for second. Mr. Alec's dam has 2-year-old filly Sylvanella (The Factor); a yearling filly by Munnings; and a colt born this year by Flintshire (GB). His third dam is multiple French Group 1 winner Silvermine (Fr) (Bellypha {Ire}). Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $58,500. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

ROMAN D'ORO (f, 2, Medaglia d'Oro--Roman Mistress, by Fusaichi Pegasus) attended the pace in her Sept. 1 bow over the local turf course, but gave way late to finish fourth. Adding Lasix and switching to the main track here, the 13-5 choice jumped straight into the bridle for the visiting Tyler Gaffalione and laid down decent splits of :22.85 and :45.84. Responding when asked for a kick in upper stretch, the bay was home her final two furlongs in a smart :24.37 en route to a 2 1/2-length defeat of stablemate Candy's Dream (Candy Ride {Arg}). An $80,000 KEESEP purchase, Roman d'Oro was hammered down to Justin Casse for €290,000 at this year's ARQMAY Breeze-Up sale (video). She is out of a winning full-sister to GSW & MGISP Andromeda's Hero and a half to MGISW Stay Thirsty (Bernardini). RONITHELIMODRIVER (c, 2, Medaglia d'Oro--Unacloud, by Unaccounted For) crossed the line clearly second to fellow firster Default Rate (Carpe Diem), but was awarded the race following a lengthy stewards' inquiry and jockey's objection. Not the best away, Ronithelimodriver was in traffic and Paco Lopez was forced to tap on the brakes at the half-mile pole. On the attack four wide on the turn, he had evey chance, but could not quite reel in 27-5 Default Rate. The latter was deemed to have caused interference to Magic Carpet (Malibu Moon) outside the eighth pole and was ultimately demoted to third. Ronithelimodriver paid $4.40 as the 6-5 favorite. The adjudicated winner is a half-brother to Overanalyze (Dixie Union), GISW, $1,046,381; Meadow Breeze (Meadowlake), GISW, $301,301; and Majesto (Tiznow), GISP, $264,938. HARRIS BAY (c, 2, Carpe Diem--Hot Spa, by Latent Heat) became the ninth first-crop winner for his sire (by Giant's Causeway), pegging back heavily favored Dream Bigger (Mission Impazible) in the dying strides for an 11-1 upset. Away alertly from the inside gate, Harris Bay argued the pace through the opening exchanges before settling in the box seat as Dream Bigger pressed the issue on the business end. On the bridle on the turn, Harris Bay pushed off the inside and three wide into the stretch and gradually word down a game Dream Bigger to score by three-parts of a length. The winner was produced by a winning half-sister to Mendip (Harlan's Holiday), a treble group winner in Dubai and currently standing stud in Turkey.
