JERANIMO STORMS TO SAN GABRIEL WIN

B. J. Wright's Jeranimo (Congaree) trailed the field for much of Sunday's nine-furlong GII San Gabriel S. at Santa Anita, but came running when it mattered most to record an authoritative 2 3/4-length victory over longshot Temple's Door (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}).

Breaking from the outside in the seven-horse field, Jeranimo was taken in hand and angled to the rail by Rafael Bejarano. The bay was already nine lengths back as Chosen Miracle (Ghostzapper) took the field into the first turn. He inched closer after three-quarters in 1:10.98 and was tipped out for the stretch run before surging past the pacesetter after a mile in 1:35.03 to win going away.

"I had a ton of horse from the beginning all the way to the end," Bejarano said. "I never had to use the stick. He just galloped the whole race. Coming into the stretch I asked a little bit, and he responded with a big kick. The way he ran today was impressive." Cont. p3

CSABA MAKES IT FOUR IN A ROW

Csaba (Kitten's Joy) looked beaten turning for home, but found his best stride late to take the GIII Hal's Hope S. by a neck at Gulfstream Park Sunday. Seeking his fourth straight win in this prep for the Feb. 9 GI Donn H., Csaba was sent off the 9-5 favorite. With the leaders in the early strides, the bay colt let the pacesetters go and settled into mid-pack. He was hard-ridden on the turn and seemed to lack the needed response while racing on the wrong lead in upper stretch, but he ducked over to the rail and snuck through to just get the better of the late-closing Pool Play (Silver Deputy) and Pants on Fire (Jump Start) in a blanket finish.

Csaba
A Coglianese/Leslie Martin

"My first impression was that I thought he was kind of struggling down the backside," admitted winning trainer Phil Gleaves. "I thought he'd be laying close and going easier, but the fractions were solid, obviously. I've got to give all the credit to Luis Saez. He's a brilliant rider. He's one of the best riders in the country."

Phil Gleaves added that Csaba is finally living up to the promise he saw in him as a 3-year-old. "He's certainly bearing out now what we felt about him last year," the trainer commented. "We wanted to go on the Derby trail last year and ran him in the [GII] Fountain of Youth trying to do that. It didn't pan out, but we've always thought highly of him and he's showing it now." Cont. p3

Jeranimo Storms to San Gabriel Win (cont. from p1)

The talented Jeranimo won the 2010 San Gabriel and was second in the race a year ago. He won last summer's GI Shoemaker Mile and, after running sixth in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile, concluded 2012 with a fourth-place effort in the Nov. 23 GII Citation H. Sunday's victory was his sixth graded triumph and Bejarano admitted the veteran makes his job easy.

"[Jeranimo] has run so often that he knows what he's doing during a race," Bejarano said. "You can put him wherever you want. He can be on the lead or he can come from behind. He always comes up with a good run in the end."

Trainer Mike Pender, who first met Wright when he was quarterback of the same sixth grade flag football team as Wright's son, has big plans for Jeranimo this year. "We have always had dreams of running in the GI Arlington Million," Pender explained. "We think this horse can go a mile and a quarter if he gets his trip and gets the right pace in front of him. As he gets older, we are going to try and turn him into a marathoner. He might just surprise a few people. I don't think he's ever been a miler, but that's where we were in the last couple of years." Of Wright, Pender added, "We met one another when I was just a kid, ten years old, and we found each other here at the racetrack once again. This is the house that B.J. Wright has built."

B.J. Wright (center) and friends celebrate Jeranimo's win.

EBLOUISSANTE RETURNS THURSDAY

Eblouissante (Bernardini) will make her eagerly anticipated second start Thursday at Santa Anita. Now four, the half-sister to superstar champion Zenyatta (Street Cry {Ire}) was tabbed a TDN Rising Star after her debut victory at Betfair Hollywood Park Nov. 16. She was scratched from her expected second start after suffering a cut in the receiving barn at Hollywood Dec. 15. Eblouissante, who races for her breeder Eric Kronfeld and trainer John Shirreffs, was entered in Thursday's seventh race, a 1 1/16-mile optional claimer. "She's a special filly," confirmed jockey Corey Nakatani who has the return ride on Eblouissante. "Hopefully, she comes back and runs like she did in her first race. I'm sure John has her spot-on, so I'm looking forward to riding her again."

'FANS FIRST' ADDED TO ECLIPSE AWARDS

The Eclipse Award ceremony sold out Saturday, but fans will still have the opportunity to celebrate the new champions at Gulfstream Park Jan. 19. Just after each champion is announced at the awards ceremony, winning connections in each category will be brought to a special area near the Gulfstream Park Sport of Kings Theatre for photographs. The area is free and open to all fans. Cocktails and concessions will be available throughout the facility and in the paddock walking ring as the Eclipse Awards ceremony is broadcast on HRTV and on monitors throughout the facility. "We are delighted to have sold out the Eclipse Awards and look forward to hosting our largest Eclipse Awards live audience in several years," said Alex Waldrop, President and CEO of the NTRA. "We hope that more fans join us throughout next week and at 'Fans First' on Saturday evening to celebrate our sport's brightest stars."

THE 'REAL' DEAL AT GOLD COAST

Freshman sire Real Saga (Aus) (Tale of the Cat) had a big boost when his daughter Real Surreal (Aus) captured Saturday's Magic Millions 2YO Classic at Gold Coast, and offspring from his second crop shone during the Session 5 held Sunday at the Magic Millions complex. Lot 672, a Real Saga colt out of Maxy Legs (Aus) (Strategic {Aus}), proved best on the day when selling for A$240,000 to the RMA Bloodstock of Robert Anderson. Offered by Widden Stud as agent, the chestnut colt is set to be trained by Gold Coast trainer Noel Doyle.

"We really liked the horse," Anderson said. "He's a big, strong and well-grown, and we picked him out a number of days ago. With the result of the race yesterday, it probably pushed the price up."

Real Saga was also responsible for the session's second-highest price of A$150,000. Lot 778, consigned by Fig Tree Thoroughbreds as agent for Fleetwood Stud, was purchased by Heinrich Bloodstock. The chestnut is out of Amusements (Aus) (Anabaa), who is a half-sister to 2011 Magic Millions 2YO Classic heroine Karuta Queen (Aus) (Not a Single Doubt {Aus}).

The Session 5 gross rose to A$7,438,500 from A$6,967,500 with 160 lots sold. The average and median were A$46,491 and A$40,000, respectively, and both were up from corresponding figures from 12 months ago. Last year, the average was A$39,588, while the median was A$32,250. The clearance rate was 77%, compared to 78% in 2012.

"It was a solid day's selling and it was very pleasing to see healthy increases across the average, gross and median," Magic Millions Managing Director Vin Cox said. "Astute buyers were at the sale and no doubt purchased some great value horses--this session is renowned for producing countless black type performers each year. It would have been nice for the clearance rate to be a little higher, but overall the results are extremely positive."

Compete results are available on magicmillions.com.au. Top lots and sale stats p.6

You can also pick up a copy of the TDN today at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale.

GENTILDONNA NAMED JAPANESE HOY

Sunday Racing Co. Ltd.'s Gentildonna (Deep Impact {Jpn}--Donna Blini {GB}, by Bertolini) was named the Japan Racing Association's Horse of the Year and Best 3-year-old Filly for 2012 thanks to a campaign that included a sweep of the Japanese Filly Triple Crown and a victory over older males in the G1 Japan Cup. "It is a great honor to have been named the Horse of the Year," said owner Shunsuke Yoshida. "After winning the Filly Triple Crown last year, she gave us a fantastic race in the Japan Cup up against Orfevre (Jpn) (Stay Gold {Jpn}), and made it the ultimate 3-year-old season. I hope her performances this year, both at home and abroad, will be fitting of her title of Horse of the Year. And, I would like to ask for everyone's kind support." A winner of six of her seven starts in 2012 for earnings of ¥681,738,000 (US$7,642,283), Gentildonna is being pointed towards the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe this fall. "I was overjoyed when she captured the Filly Triple Crown, and because her performances were so strong, I decided to take on the Japan Cup," trainer Sei Ishizaka said of his charge's sophomore campaign. "And that race was such that all of us on the team were incredibly impressed as well. With those kind of results, we were able to be recognized with the Horse of the Year Award. I would like to express my deepest appreciation to all, especially the racing fans." Pilot Yasunari Iwata, who finished the year as Japan's top jockey by races won and earnings, added, "Thanks to this horse, I too had a fantastic year, and this year I hope that she and I can sail the world together." O-Gary Barber. B-Cherry Valley Farm LLC (KY). T-Todd A Pletcher.

Acquired Privately by Justin Casse

Barber Has Fast Return With Jack Milton...

Longtime Thoroughbred owner Gary Barber experienced a fruitful year in 2012, campaigning in partnership the likes of Grade I winner In Lingerie (Empire Maker) and multiple graded stakes winning 2-year-old filly Spring Venture (Spring At Last). Barber has showed no signs of slowing down thus far in 2013, at least as far as acquiring top-class racehorses is concerned. Last week, it was announced that the South African-born film producer and CEO of Spyglass Entertainment had purchased 5-year-old filly Sisterly Love (Bellamy Road), unbeaten in three career starts in South Florida. Saturday, Barber experienced immediate success at Gulfstream with flashy first-out maiden winner Jack Milton (War Front), whom he had purchased just 24 hours earlier. Both deals were completed by bloodstock agent Justin Casse.

"Gary Barber and I were going over some interesting prospects to possibly purchase, and [Jack Milton's] name had come up as a horse to watch that might be available for purchase after he ran," Casse explained. "Gary suggested that maybe we should try to act on it prior to the race. Todd [Pletcher] had the horse, and Gary already had horses with Todd. I made some phone calls and called the agent that was representing the sellers, and they came back to me with a pretty substantial price for a horse that had never run. There was even some [discussion] of breeding rights coming up, which is pretty substantial when you're talking about a horse that hasn't even run. So they obviously thought very highly of him."

Jack Milton was purchased for $100,000 at Keeneland September in 2011 by Steve Young for a group called R R Partners, which included himself and Roger Weiss. The full-brother to stakes winner Peace Preserver was offered last year at OBS March from the draft of Eddie Woods, but failed to meet his reserve, walking out unsold for $190,000 after working in :10 2/5. He was then put into training with Pletcher for R R Partners. Cont. p2

"I'd spoken to Eddie Woods, and he has very high praise for the horse," Casse said. "I don't think he was particularly ready for the sale. I think it was kind of a last-minute decision to put him in the sale. Some of my sources said they had liked him since he was a 2-year-old, then when he got to Todd, he was working well week in and week out. If you look at his work tab, he was working well every seven days. I think some of the agents and anyone in and around Palm Meadows that was able to watch some of his breezes were aware of what kind of talent he had."

Casse and Barber continued to negotiate for Jack Milton, and by the evening before the colt's first scheduled start, they struck a deal.

"Thursday evening we hashed out the deal after going back and forth for about 24 hours, and Friday around 1 p.m. the horse was vetted," Casse said. "The whole deal was finalized at about 4 p.m."

Less than 24 hours later, at 3:05 p.m., Jack Milton broke from the gate at Gulfstream for his career bow in the pink and black colors of Gary Barber, going 1 1/16 miles on the turf. Settling in third just off a modest pace early, Jack Milton cruised up to the lead around the turn, poked his head in front at the top of the stretch and promptly disposed of his rivals to win by 2 1/2 lengths under minimal urging. He earned a Beyer of 86.

"He ran as everyone had expected, and I think if we had originally stuck to our plan and waited until after the race, we wouldn't have been able to purchase him," Casse said.

Casse said he is uncertain where Jack Milton will go next, but he has shown affinity for dirt in his works, leaving options open.

"I know that if you look at the Gulfstream turf races for straight 3-year-olds coming up, it's pretty limited," Casse said. "I think even straight 3-year-old turf races across the southeast are pretty limited. So I think they'll try to maybe look at other surfaces, especially since he's worked on other surfaces, and that's what you have to do if you want to compete against the best and move onto the big stage at this time of year."

Jack Milton is the third horse Casse has purchased for Barber since the pair began working together last year. Their relationship could hardly have started on a better note. Spring Venture, the first horse Casse purchased for Barber, scooped the GII Natalma S. and GIII Mazarine S. last year at Woodbine under the care of Mark Casse, Justin's brother. Barber races Spring Venture in partnership with Stoneway Farm.

"It all started back in June when Mark was out of town, and I was doing a lot of the leg work at OBS June and helped pick out Spring Venture," Casse explained. "I was on the phone with Gary handling the bidding and doing a lot of the leg work. That's how I got to know Gary, and since then, we've kept in touch. I've been involved with three horses with him: Spring Venture, Sisterly Love, and now Jack Milton."

If Jack Milton's smart debut is any indication, Barber and Casse can be expected to continue their successful run. --Kelsey Riley

After finishing third in her first two career starts--including the Windswept Wings S.--early last year, Mischief Maker broke through to graduate when dropped back to maiden company at Belmont May. 24. She garnered further black-type when finishing third in the New York Oaks at Finger Lakes Aug. 25, and returned to the winner's circle two starts later against state-bred optional claimers at Belmont Oct. 12. She returned Nov. 21 to finish sixth against non-winners of two on the turf at Aqueduct, and most recently aired by seven lengths over the inner track Dec. 12. The scratches of Silver Prize (Silver Train) and G.A. Empress (Consolidator) resulted in a field of just three, and Mischief Maker was sent off the second choice. Rated about two lengths off the tepid early pace of Opus A, Mischief Maker moved alongside her rival leaving the turn, put her head in front at the quarter pole and strode away a decisive winner. Click for the brisnet.com chart or Video replay.

CLUSTER OF STARS (f, 4, Greeley's Galaxy--Babyurthegreatest, by Honour and Glory) was a 5 1/2 length debut winner over this track and trip last February, but had not seen action since. She signaled her readiness with a bullet five-furlong work in 1:01 4/5 at Belmont Dec. 31, and was given odds of 4-5 to remain unbeaten. Quick from the gate, the favorite settled into second early before moving past the front-running Golden Galaxy (Gold Fever) rounding the turn. She lengthened her advantage in the lane under a Ramon Dominguez hand ride, winning by 6 1/4 lengths over Vicki's Dancer (Disco Rico). GRAND MERE (f, 3, Bob and John--Petite Princess {GSP-Ire}, by Dayjur) was nowhere to be found in her first two tries in maiden special weight company at Saratoga and Belmont last summer under the care of Michael Stidham, but she showed much more in her first start for trainer Rudy Rodriguez at Aqueduct Nov. 4, finishing second against $50,000 claimers. She filled the same position most recently Dec. 9, finishing 11 lengths behind runaway victoress Asiya (Daaher), who came back to finish second in the Busanda S. last weekend. The 5-2 second choice settled in last early while saving ground on the rail, and was still in that position turning for home. She hit her best stride, however, when moving out to the center of the track in midstretch. She swept past the field inside the final eighth and won by a 1/2 length over Sylvia T (Curlin). Inaugurate's current connections picked her up out of a $50,000 claimer here last February--a race where she finished second--and she has since performed with consistency, finishing first or second in four subsequent starts on the New York circuit. She was most recently second, beaten a head, on the Aqueduct turf Nov. 18. Breaking well from the 10 post, Inaugurate was able to move to the rail and establish a ground-saving position into the first turn. Traveling midpack behind modest fractions up the backstretch, she angled off the rail entering the turn, moved within striking range at the quarter pole and wore down her rivals inside the final furlong to post a narrow victory. Click for the brisnet.com chart or Video replay.

Snow Fall tallied her last win in an optional claimer at Parx Aug. 5. Since then, she's finished fifth in Monmouth's Lady Secret S. Sept. 3 and last of six over the Keeneland turf in the GI First Lady S. Oct. 6 while under the care of trainer Graham Motion. She transferred to the Jerry Hollendorfer barn for her most recent start where she finished second in Santa Anita's 6 1/2-furlong Kalookan Queen S. Dec. 29. She pressed the pace set by Distracting from off the rail here and bid for the lead on the turn.

The bay took a narrow advantage at the top of the stretch and extended her lead down the stretch to win by daylight. "I knew she would improve stretching out," said Hollendorfer. "Two turns is her deal and she just showed me what I thought she was the first time I got on her in the morning, and I'm really proud of her and looking forward to bigger and better things." + DEMONIC, c, 3, Bernardini

1st Dam: Sincerely (GSW, $322,527), by Meadowlake

2nd Dam: Up Sail, by Herculean

3rd Dam: Furl Sail, by Revoked

Demonic's reputation preceded him coming into this debut, and he was backed down to even-money off a strong local worktab, accentuated by a six-furlong bullet (1/21) in 1:12 flat over the strip Jan. 4. Allowed to lope along in mid-pack in the early going while kept out in the clear, the handsome newcomer ranged up menacingly around the quarter pole. He confronted leaders Tiz the Truth (Tiznow) and Del Mar Sunset (Candy Ride {Arg}) in mid-stretch, appearing poised to blow by them, but idled a bit after coming to even terms with the pair of Baffert trainees. Despite his apparent immaturity, Demonic struck the wire a head to the good of Tiz the Truth with Del Mar Sunset not far behind. According to Trakus data, Demonic covered 24 feet more than the runner-up, which equates to more than 2 1/2 lengths. MAJESTIC JEWEL (f, 3, Cindago--Jewel of the Night, by Giant's Causeway), a half-sister to Evening Jewel, MGISW, $1,221,399, showed little in her first three starts, finishing sixth over the Del Mar Polytrack Sept. 1; seventh, beaten 3 1/4 lengths, on the Santa Anita turf Oct. 7 and ninth over the Betfair Hollywood Park turf Dec. 6. She signaled a change of attitude, however, with two consecutive bullet works heading into this event, most recently going four furlongs in :47 2/5 over the main track here Jan. 9. Sprinting to the lead from the break, the 5-1 shot maintained a modest advantage throughout and was under a drive to fend off Ocean's of Money (Indian Ocean) for a neck victory. OBITUARIES

Darley's Michael Buckley Passes Away:

Michael Buckley, 45, the Nominations Manager at Darley's Kildangan Stud, passed away unexpectedly at his home Saturday. "We are all shocked and heartbroken about this terrible news," said Joe Osborne, Managing Director of Kildangan. "Our thoughts and prayers are with Mick's wife Cairtriona, his sons Jamie, Andrew and Robbie, his parents Donal and Pauline, his brothers, his sisters and his extended family. His family has requested privacy at this difficult time. Funeral arrangements will be announced in the coming days."

AKEEK MOFEED THIRD IN SHA TIN DEBUT

Akeed Mofeed (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), a $2-million private purchase from the barn of John Oxx last year, got his Hong Kong career off to a promising, if unlucky,

Akeed Mofeed prior to the Beresford

beginning Saturday with a troubled third-place effort versus Class 2 company over an insufficient 1400 meters. A 17-2 chance and drawn five for this test, Akeed Mofeed landed in midfield and hugged the inside on the turn. Olivier Doleuze rolled the dice up the fence, and it looked like the gamble could pay off as they reached the final furlong. But he was held up badly behind the weakening pacesetter and lost all momentum, but shifted out and re-rallied strongly to finish third, beaten 1 1/2 lengths (video). Doleuze was questioned and reprimanded, but not suspended, by Hong Kong Jockey Club stewards for his decision making. "It was a split-second decision to stay inside and I made the wrong decision," Doleuze told South China Morning Post. "The boy on the leader had his whip in his right hand, and I thought that the horse was going to come away from the rail as he got tired and the run would open. So I committed to staying there and hoped for the gap to come--it never did." Current trainer Richard Gibson was equally pleased and said next week's Hong Kong Classic Mile probably comes too quickly and remains focused on the Hong Kong Derby Mar. 17. Akeed Mofeed raced in the colors of Jaber Abdullah in Europe and was second in the G2 Beresford S. to close out his freshman campaign. He was impossibly spotted in the G1 Irish Derby to launch his 3-year-old campaign and was fourth to Camelot (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), but bounced back to win the Listed Platinum S. at Cork by five lengths Aug. 5.
