THIS SIDE UP: TWO VERY DIFFERENT LIVES, ONE PASSION

by Chris McGrath

No matter what privileges or disadvantages we take into the starting gate, and no matter how many circuits we get to run, all of us ultimately pull up at the same finishing line. But it is not just that humbling reckoning, reached within days of each other, that united Billy Turner and Josephine Abercrombie. Their lives, though wildly contrasting, were animated by the same bond of vitality that sustains many who grieve them.

"Mrs. A.," as she was known to those blessed by her friendship or patronage, embraced the extraordinary opportunities to which she was born with so commensurate an appetite that one might ask how anyone could have compressed so much into a mere 95 years. Besides her careers as horsewoman and breeder, she threw herself with equal gusto into walks of life as diverse as boxing, skiing, dancing and Broadway.

Nor did Mrs. A. measure her benedictions only in material terms, having so prolonged the fulfilment she found in Pin Oak that the stable was only dispersed a matter of weeks before her loss. That said, the fact is that she was never going to require a GoFundMe page to sustain her final days, as was poignantly the case for the 81-year-old trainer of Seattle Slew.

KEENELAND START DATE PUSHED BACK A DAY TO TUESDAY

The Keeneland January Sale start date will be pushed back one day, to Tuesday, Jan. 11, as a result of the winter snow storm that has hit Kentucky, according to a press release from the sales company Friday morning.

"Due to the winter storm and hazardous travel conditions in Kentucky, Keeneland has shifted all operations related to its January Horses of All Ages Sale back one day and moved the start of the sale to Tuesday, Jan. 11," the press release reads. "The sale will end Friday, Jan. 14. All sessions will begin at 10 a.m. ET."

The January Sale was previously scheduled to run Monday, Jan. 10 through Thursday, Jan. 13.

Affectionate tributes to the skill and charm of Billy Turner did not tiptoe around the corrosion of his prime by a struggle with alcoholism. But he would be very comfortable with that, given his own, hugely commendable candor in reflecting, in later years, on the demons that had accompanied him to one of the summits of Turf history. Turner was only 37 when a $17,500 Bold Reasoning colt came his way, and it's right that people understand why he appeared to receive such scant reward.

Before the Derby, many considered Seattle Slew insufficiently seasoned after just three sophomore starts. The habits of trainers today, however regrettable, make Turner appear to have been ahead of his time. But his true legacy was securing the male line of Bold Ruler, with all its old school virtues.

Billy Turner | Horsephotos

Like so many of our finest horsemen, Turner learned the ropes in steeplechasing. But in trying to keep his weight down, even as his height soared (by six inches in his 19th year alone), he yielded to temptations natural in a fraternity that rode so hard-and drank so much harder. Then, in soaking up the pressures of a Triple Crown campaign, he found the press equally willing to normalize excess at the bar. (Which charge I, for one, am certainly not going to refute). Those pressures, by the way, can be judged from Turner's pronouncement to a reporter while Slew was still a juvenile. "If he doesn't win the Triple Crown," he said, "I haven't done my job." Cont. p4

Doubtless the succor he found in drink contributed to Turner's notorious sacking by the owners of Seattle Slew; certainly it dragged him into desperate times thereafter. Much to his credit, however, he regrouped. If the home stretch brought fresh difficulties, in healthcare and its costs, it's edifying to know that Turner had overcome a still greater challenge, in his own life, than the one he met with Seattle Slew. By any measure, this was a man of accomplishment.

True, while renewing his personal stability, he could not fully reverse the professional odds that had steepened in the meantime. Even so, a Hall of Fame nomination should surely have been revived for Turner by the time he retired in 2016. Fully two decades after the glory days of Slew and Czaravich (Nijinsky), after all, he had supervised a 21-for-55 near-millionaire in Punch Line (Two Punch) plus a third Grade I winner in Gaviola.

The latter was by Cozzene, who also happened to sire the horse that first brought Mrs. A. to the attention of many of us Englishmen.

As in selecting her long-serving farm manager, Clifford Barry, Mrs. A. showed unerring judgement in entrusting Hasten To Add to Newmarket's peerless Victorian throwback, Sir Mark Prescott.

In 1993, Hasten To Add became subject of one of the great gambles in the long history of the Cesarewitch H.

"How far is this race?" asked Mrs. A., when Prescott introduced her to the project.

"Two and a quarter miles."

"Gee, and how often do they pass the stands?"

"They don't," Prescott replied. "It's a dogleg course, starting in Cambridgeshire and ending in Suffolk. And it's a handicap. The topweight concedes 28 lbs to some of the others."

Prescott recalls a moment of silent incredulity at the other end of the phone.

"Really? And how many runners are there?"

"Thirty-six."

"This I gotta see."

On the day, when the cavalry emerged from the drizzle and mist, Hasten To Add was just in front. While apparently engaged in a desperate duel to the line, however, he was overhauled by two others on the other side of the track. But Mrs. A. avowed that for all the world she would not have missed an experience she condensed as "all those Dukes ['Dooks'] and Duchesses, standing in the rain looking at nothing..."

The `Slew Crew' at the 1977 Derby | Getty Images

Mrs. A.'s immersion in the world of boxing confirmed her to be equal to any social milieu. On the Turf, of course, we take pride in the fact that nowhere else does High Life meet quite so comfortably with Low Life. To the young man I was then, that lent an exotic glamor to this Houston heiress, with her five husbands-and five divorces! But I'm not sure I quite understood, at the time, that Low Life fundamentally comprises a ruinous succession of low days; or that it can do, at least, with the kind of problems that had meanwhile withdrawn Billy Turner from the limelight filled so joyously by Mrs. A.

There's always been a seductive glamor to the Runyonesque margins of our sport, and I've seen good people succumb to it: smart, talented people deceived that flirting with addiction, whether to alcohol or betting or umpteen other temptations, would redeem them from the dread charge of dullness.

People who think this way are also tempted to suspect that the greatness of Seattle Slew, for instance, could only be drawn out by parallel flair. Either a double-edged sword, they say, or none at all.

Well, that's a pretty dangerous formula for living. Doug Peterson was just 26 when the owners transferred Seattle Slew to his barn from Turner. Though he secured the champ his Eclipse Award, as an older horse, Peterson would disappear from the racetrack barely a couple of years later, lost in a spiral of drugs and drink. Like Turner, he showed the resilience and character to embrace rehab; he edged his way back to the track, after stints as an entry clerk and in the gate crew, and in 1999 he saddled 40 winners from just 175 starters. But he was only 53 when he died, from an accidental overdose, in 2004.

All these different lives, rotating with the twists of fate like a kaleidoscope against the shining light of the racehorse. All these different legacies, too. From intimate, domestic ones we cannot know; to the kind of public benefaction that prompted Mrs. A. to found her school in Lexington. But if so many of our comforts prove shallow, or even downright perilous, then how wonderful that we can all share the immortality available through the medium of a Seattle Slew or Sky Classic.

With his famously eccentric libido, Seattle Slew's genetic bequest was a fragile one. Its rescue is one of many debts, by no means confined to such lessons in horsemanship, our community owes to John Williams. Lest we forget, we are blessed to have in our midst the most exemplary people. And little wonder, when they share devotion to the horse: this paragon of constancy, courage and beauty, so innocent of our avarice and addictions.

We may envy the worldly fortune of Mrs. A., and the wealth of experience it supported; but her loyalty is within the compass of the poorest among us. She brought Barry to the farm in 1984. Donnie Von Hemel trained for Pin Oak for 30 years, Graham Motion nearly as long, with Mike Stidham a novice at around 15 years. Before the dispersal, Barry told TDN: "She's about as competitive a person as you could come across, but there'd never be a finger pointed. It was always just, 'We got outrun today and we'll do better tomorrow.'"

That's a motto that would serve us all well-whether seeking the next Seattle Slew, or patching up some old claimer; whether drilling oilwells, or just seeking an oasis in a world full of dangerous mirages.

Keeneland announced Thursday that given transportation challenges and vanning and shipping cancellations due to the heavy snow, it was delaying the ship-in date for horses to arrive on the grounds from Friday to Saturday.

Preview days now will be held Sunday and Monday, Jan. 9-10.

"Our top priority is the safety of the horses and sales participants, and the delayed start to the sale will allow for their safe arrival and give consignors adequate time to show their horses," Keeneland Vice President of Sales Tony Lacy said. "Our customers have been virtually unanimous in their recommendation to make this change."

Keeneland has cataloged a total of 1,631 horses for the January Sale, which offers in-foal broodmares, broodmare prospects, newly turned yearlings, horses of racing age, stallions and stallion prospects. Click here for the online January Sale catalog.

HANCOCK'S LAW

The late 'Bull' Hancock of Claiborne Farm was one of the most successful of all stallion selectors; he laid down five criteria for selecting a stallion. Hancock insisted that a potential stallion should satisfy all criteria:

1 He must have shown good form as a 2YO.

Won the Champagne Stakes-Gr.1 by 4 lengths (previous winners include Coolmore America's outstanding sires Scat Daddy, Uncle Mo and Practical Joke).

2 He must have demonstrated his ability to stay 1¼ miles as a 3YO.

Won the Travers Stakes-Gr.1 by 5½ lengths (fifth fastest time ever, faster than top sires Bernardini, Medaglia d'Oro etc.) and runner-up in the Kentucky Derby-Gr.1, both over 10f.

He also won the Belmont Stakes-Gr.1 (9f.) by 3¾ lengths and Florida Derby-Gr.1 (9f.) by 4¼ lengths (leading sires to win it include Scat Daddy, Quality Road, Constitution and Nyquist).

3 He must be sound.

9 runs at 2 and 3 years, 6 wins, once second, once third.

6 runs in Gr.1s, 4 very impressive wins and once second.

4 He must look masculine. ▶

Come and see him for yourself.

5 He must have the right kind of pedigree.

A better racehorse than his leading young sire Constitution (by Tapit). His dam Tizfiz (by Tiznow) won the San Gorgonio H.-Gr.2 at Santa Anita and is a full-sister to Fury Kapcori (Gr.3 winner & runner-up in the CashCall Futurity-Gr.1).

SGF-1000 SALESMAN KEGLEY GETS 30 MONTHS IN PRISON

by T.D. Thornton

Michael Kegley, Jr., the former sales director for the company that sold the purportedly performance-enhancing drug (PED) SGF-1000 that is at the heart of a years-long investigation of an international racehorse doping conspiracy, got sentenced to 30 months in prison on Thursday.

Kegley, 41, had pleaded guilty in July 2021 to one count of drug adulteration and misbranding. He had admitted in open court at that time that as sales director for the Kentucky-based MediVet Equine, he sold SGF-1000 and other products to trainers and veterinarians, knowing that there was "no medical prescription for those products" and that the substances were "not manufactured in an FDA-approved facility [nor] approved for sale by the FDA."

Kegley's Jan. 6 prison sentence was six months shy of the maximum allowable term under federal sentencing guidelines. Just 24 hours previous to his sentencing, the same judge in the same court had handed down a maximum sentence for similar charges to Kristian Rhein, the defendant who is both Kegley's business associate and brother-in-law.

On Jan. 5, Rhein, a suspended veterinarian formerly based at Belmont Park who married Kegley's sister, got sent to prison for three years by Judge Mary Kay Vyskocil in United States District Court (Southern District of New York).

Prosecutors had previously acknowledged in a sentencing recommendation that Kegley should get a somewhat lighter sentence than his brother-in-law because of Rhein's standing as a veterinarian.

"Unlike Kegley, Rhein was a licensed veterinarian who predominantly treated racehorses; as such, Rhein was a more sophisticated actor than Kegley, and well-acquainted with the various legal regimes governing the sale and distribution of an adulterated and misbranded drug," the government stated in its sentencing recommendation. "Likewise, Rhein, unlike Kegley, personally administered SGF-1000 to racehorses, concealed bottles of that drug, instructed others to do the same, and falsely billed customers for SGF-1000 under a false billing code."

As a condition of Kegley's plea-bargained sentence, he was required to forfeit $3,310,490, which is a sum equal to the amount of the illegal substances seized by the government. But a court order accompanying the sentence stated that Kegley will only have to pay $192,615 if he does so within two years of his release from prison. If Kegley does not pay that amount by that time, he will be liable for the full sum.

One admitted doper of Thoroughbreds, the former trainer Jorge Navarro, last month got sentenced to five years in prison for administering myriad alleged PEDs, including SGF-1000.

Another barred trainer under indictment for alleged doping, Jason Servis, is scheduled to face trial in early 2022. Prosecutors have produced numerous intercepted communications involving Servis discussing using SGF-1000 on "almost every" horse under his care, including the disqualified 2019 GI Kentucky Derby winner Maximum Security (New Year's Day).

In one wiretapped call from July 16, 2019, Rhein and Kegley discussed how Servis and his associates were "buying literally as much" SGF-1000 as Rhein was able to source from MediVet.

It was further alleged that MediVet later in 2019 attempted to trick the Racing Medication and Testing Consortium (RMTC) into delisting SGF-1000 as a prohibited substance after Kegley's firm had already "reaped millions of dollars in revenue" by selling it illegally.

According to the government's evidence, MediVet and its associates emphasized "the potent effects of SGF-1000," which were supposedly derived from "an innovative formulation consisting of Regenerative Proteins, Cytokines, Peptides, potent Growth Factors and Signaling Molecules derived from Ovine Placental Extract." Cont. p8

Court documents filed by the feds had stated that SGF-1000 was explained to trainers as being similar to a vasodilator that would "increase stamina, performance, and overall health." The materials even listed the growth factors that were purportedly found in SGF-1000, including some that were explicitly prohibited in many major racing jurisdictions.

The feds also alleged that despite what Kegley, Rhein, and other MediVet representatives claimed when they were parroting the company's marketing materials, no one pushing the product really had any accurate idea of what was in it.

"Notably, Kegley and his coconspirators did not know the precise contents of SGF-1000 until at least in or about August 2019--years after MediVet had started marketing and selling the drug," court documents stated. "But [they] believed that no matter the component parts of the drug, it would enhance a horse's performance."

BROWN NOT OPTIMISTIC JACK CHRISTOPHER CAN MAKE DERBY

by Bill Finley

Still recuperating from an injury that prevented him from running in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile, 'TDN Rising Star' Jack Christopher (Munnings) is about two weeks away from rejoining Chad Brown's Florida division. However, the trainer said he was not sure if he has enough time to get him ready to run in the GI Kentucky Derby.

"He's going to be up against it, that's for sure," Brown said when asked about making the Derby. "I don't want to rule anything out until I put my hands on him, but he's certainly behind. To get him to go a mile-and-a-quarter I'm going to need to have something under his belt. We'll see where he takes us and if he doesn't make [the Derby] we have several other races we'd love to target with him."

Coming off a win in the GI Champagne S., Jack Christopher was expected to go off as the favorite in the Juvenile for Jim Bakker, Gerald Isbister and their new partners Coolmore and Peter Brant, who bought in after the Champagne. But he was scratched the day before the race on the advice of the track veterinarians. He subsequently had a screw inserted in his left shin to repair a stress fracture. The surgery was done by Dr. Larry Bramlage. Jack Christopher was then sent to WinStar Farm and Brown reports that he is now back under tack and should join his stable in "a couple of weeks."

"It's been frustrating," Brown said. "You hate to miss a race like the Breeders' Cup Juvenile, where he would have been the favorite. He was training so well. He's a really talented horse. The Derby is not the be all and end all, but it would be lovely to have one of the top contenders."

Brown has another top 3-year-ld colt in Zandon (Upstart), who finished second, beaten a nose, in a roughly run GII Remsen S. He's had two recent four-furlong works at Payson Park and Brown remains high on him.

"He's worked really good both times and has settled in nicely," he said. "He's possible for the [Feb. 5 GIII] Holy Bull. It's between the Holy Bull and the [Feb. 19 GII] Risen Star. I don't think I want to wait all the way to the [Mar. 5 GII] Fountain of Youth to run him. He's only had two starts and I think he would benefit from an extra race. I'm really pleased with him."

Brown also believes that Early Voting (Gun Runner) is a potential Derby horse. Early Voting has had one start, winning a Dec. 18 maiden race at Aqueduct.

"Anything else I have will be a late bloomer," Brown said. "Early Voting won first time out going a mile on the dirt at Aqueduct. He didn't earn a fancy figure or anything, but when you see a son of Gun Runner debuting at a mile on the dirt and winning first time out on kind of a dead track you have to take a little notice. I'm not one to have a horse cranked for their best number at that time of year. He's an interesting horse going forward."

AQUEDUCT CANCELS FRIDAY CARD

Live racing and simulcasting has been canceled at Aqueduct Friday due to a winter storm impacting the New York Metropolitan area, according to a press release from the New York Racing Association, Inc. (NYRA). Snow was falling heavily in the area Friday morning, and up to six inches of snow is expected.

New York City remains under a winter weather advisory, with the National Weather Service forecasting continued high winds and heavy snow into Friday afternoon. “As a result, NYRA has canceled Friday's eight-race card in the interest of the safety of all participants,” the release said.

Live racing at Aqueduct is expected to resume Saturday, Jan. 8 with a nine-race card headlined by the $100,000 Say Florida Sandy. First post on Saturday is 12:20 p.m. Eastern.

LAUREL CANCELS AGAIN

Laurel Park cancelled live racing again Friday, Jan. 7, due to winter weather that disrupted the area and later added that racing would be cancelled for the entire weekend, according to a press release from the Maryland Jockey Club (MJC). A Monday snowstorm had resulted in the cancellation of training earlier in the week and the Maryland track also cancelled live racing Thursday. A fresh storm was sweeping through the area Thursday night and Friday morning, with Aqueduct also cancelling Friday's card.

Laurel will remain open for simulcasting, as will Pimlico, Rosecroft, and the MJC OTB Network.

Live racing at Laurel is scheduled to resume Saturday, Jan. 8, with first post at 12:25 p.m.

Honest Mischief's first foal | Sequel NY

Sequel New York’s first-year sire, Honest Mischief (Into Mischief-Honest Lady, by Seattle Slew) was represented by his first reported foal Jan. 4, at Cedar Ridge Farm in New York for breeder William “Buck” Butler The New York-bred filly is the first foal out of Tradeable (Exchange Rate).

“We are thrilled for this filly to be Honest Mischief’s first foal”, said Butler who supported Honest Mischief with multiple mares. “It is so exciting to be on board from the beginning of his career.”

Honest Mischief covered 127 mares and will stand for $6,500 in 2022. The Juddmonte homebred won four of 9 starts, including the Force the Pass city of Laurel S. and placed in the GII Amsterdam S.

FANDUEL MOMENT OF THE YEAR VOTING OPEN

Eleven significant events from the last 12 months of Thoroughbred racing in North America are up for the 2021 FanDuel Racing NTRA Moment of the Year, a distinction determined by fan voting and recognized at the Eclipse Awards. Voting is now open on the National Thoroughbred Racing Association (NTRA) website, NTRA.com, and via Twitter, where every retweet or use of the official hashtag for the moments as presented on the @NTRA account will be counted as one vote.

Votes for the poll must be submitted by Feb. 2 at 11:59 p.m. The winner will be revealed at the Eclipse Award ceremony at Santa Anita Feb. 10.

The moments are as follows:

#FlavienSix – Jockey Flavien Prat wins six consecutive races the Mar. 12 Santa Anita Park card. Prat becomes the first jockey to win six consecutive races at Santa Anita since five-time Eclipse Award-winning jockey Laffit Pincay, Jr. did the same Mar. 14, 1987. (Mar. 12)

#LetruskaBlossom – Letruska battles back in the final strides to upset two-time Eclipse Award winner Monomoy Girl in the GI Apple Blossom at Oaklawn Park. (Apr. 17)

#EssentialBelmont – Essential Quality holds off Hot Rod Charlie in a battle to the wire in the GI Belmont S. (June 5)

#AllTimeSteve – Steve Asmussen becomes the all-time winningest trainer. The Hall of Fame trainer adds to his career accomplishments in style on Whitney Day at Saratoga by winning his record-setting 9,446th race, topping the late Dale Baird. (Aug. 7)

#Savage – Firenze Fire savages Yaupon in the GI Forego S. Unable to get past eventual winner Yaupon in the stretch, Firenze Fire resorts to savaging his foe in front of the large Runhappy Travers Day crowd. (Aug. 28)

#DiversityStepForward - George Leonard becomes the first African American trainer to compete in the Breeders' Cup World Championships. That moment came about when California Angel won the GII JPMorgan Chase Jessamine WAYI at Keeneland to earn an automatic berth into the GI Juvenile Fillies Turf. (Nov 5)

#GodolphinApplebyTriple - Yibir wins theGI Longines Breeders' Cup Turf giving Godolphin and conditioner Charlie Appleby their third winner at the World Championships. In addition to Yibir, Godolphin and Appleby teamed to win Saturday's GI FanDuel Breeders' Cup Mile with Space Blues and Friday's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf with Modern Games. (Nov. 5-6)

#JapaneseDuo – Japanese runners Marche Lorraine and Loves Only You win two races on Breeders' Cup Saturday. Breeders' Cup success had eluded Japanese runners as evidenced by an 0-13 record heading into the 2021 Breeders' Cup World Championships. That changes dramatically Nov. 6 when Marche Lorraine (45-1/Distaff) and Loves Only You (4-1/Filly & Mare Turf) each win for trainer Yoshito Yahagi. (Nov. 6)

#ClassicKnicks – Knicks Go caps a brilliant campaign by winning the GI Breeders' Cup Classic. Korea Racing Authority's Knicks Go scores impressively over ill-fated Medina Spirit to finish the year on a four-race winning streak for trainer Brad Cox. (Nov. 6)

#PinkLloydFinale – Seven-time Canadian champion Pink Lloyd caps a brilliant career with a victory in the GII Kennedy Road S. at Woodbine. Nine-year-old Pink Lloyd, a fan favorite and 2017 Canadian Horse of the Year, wins the Kennedy Road for the third time and finishes his career with 29 wins from 38 starts. (Nov. 27)

#TakingFlight – Flightline posts a jaw-dropping performance in the GI Malibu S. to cap a brief but brilliant 3-year-old campaign. Undefeated. Unchallenged. Flightline canters home by 11 1/2 lengths in the Malibu, his first Grade I attempt. The son of Tapit has won his three career starts by a combined 37 ½ lengths for trainer John Sadler. (Dec. 26)

Fans are permitted to vote for multiple moments but there is a limit of one vote per moment for each Twitter account. Subsequent votes from an account will be disqualified.

2015 there was a landslide vote in favor of American Pharoah's historic Triple Crown-clinching Belmont Stakes win. In 2016, California Chrome was again part of the winning moment – a dramatic Dubai World Cup victory that came as Victor Espinoza's saddle slipped out from underneath him.

ANNUAL BREAKFAST AT THE GALLOPS SCHEDULED FOR MAR. 18

The City of Aiken Parks, Recreation and Tourism will host the 14th annual Breakfast at the Gallops Friday, Mar. 18, beginning at 8 a.m. at the Aiken Training Track.

Local trainers will be on hand to talk to participants about the various training methods used at Aiken. Those in attendance should enter the Two Notch Road entrance closest to Audubon Drive. Vehicles must stop for all horses. A light breakfast begins at 8 a.m. This year's guest speaker is Caton Bredar.

Tickets for Breakfast at the Gallops are $20 each in advance and $25 each at the gate. Space is limited. A portion of the proceeds from the event will support the Aiken Thoroughbred Racing Hall of Fame and Museum.

ONTARIO'S MARE PURCHASE PROGRAM RECEIVES FUNDING BOOST

Ontario Racing's Thoroughbred Improvement Program Committee has approved an additional $200,000 for its Mare Purchase Program, bringing the total to $700,000 after an enthusiastic response from breeders.

"The main focus of this program is to give Ontario horse people the opportunity to buy a better mare, and higher quality stock," said David Anderson, Breeder Representative on the Board of Ontario Racing and member of the TIP Committee. "There are people who still want to buy horses, and this will help them."

Ontario residents who purchase an in-foal broodmare are eligible for rebate of 50% of the purchase price to a maximum of $25,000 CAD. In-foal mares must be purchased for a minimum of $10,000 USD, with no maximum, and be purchased from an Ontario Racing recognized public auction. There is a maximum distribution of $75,000 CAD to any one individual, partnership, corporation or other ownership group. The program is first come, first served and applications must be submitted 30 days prior to purchase date.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

WHAT'S IN A NAME? MR. BAFFERT, DOPPELGANGER, AND MORE

by Andrea Branchini

Mr. Baffert, c, 2, Bodemeister--Commandaria, by Smart Strike. Monterrico, 11-14, Maiden, 1000m. B-Sanford Robertson (KY).

The one and only Mr. Bob Baffert has had quite a share of intriguingly named winners in the last few weeks. Incidentally, Baffert is himself the namesake of a brilliant Peruvian (and U.S.-bred) colt by his old alumnus Bodemeister--the 2-year-old being a fast horse who won by almost five lengths at five furlongs on his racetrack debut (from another hemisphere in more ways than one?).

8th-Los Alamitos, $54,312, Msw, 12-11, 2yo, 6f, 1:09.21, ft, 3 1/2 lengths. Doppelganger (c, 2, Into Mischief--Twice the Lady {SW & MGSP, $312,204}, by Quiet American) O-Golconda Stable, Madaket Stables LLC, SF Racing LLC, Siena Farm LLC, Starlight Racing, Waves Edge Capital LLC, Catherine Donovan, Robert E. Masterson, & Jay A. Schoenfarber; B-WinStar Farm LLC (KY); T-Bob Baffert.

Anyway, Baffert-trained Los Alamitos winner Doppelganger, being out of dam Twice the Lady and by the horse who has endeared us to mysterious conduct, has a really ingenious name. A doppelganger (in German literally a "double-walker") is a biologically unrelated look-alike, or a double, of a living person.

Doppelganger | Benoit

4th-Santa Anita, $65,660, Msw, 12-31, 2yo, 6 1/2f, 1:17.81, gd, 1 length. McLaren Vale (c, 2, Gun Runner--Magical Weekend, by Any Given Saturday) The winner is his dam's last American-born foal, as she was exported to Australia. O-Golconda Stable, Madaket Stables LLC, SF Racing LLC, Siena Farm LLC, Starlight Racing, Stonestreet Stables, LLC, Waves Edge Capital LLC, Catherine Donovan, Robert E. Masterson, & Jay A. Schoenfarber; B-Austramore Pty.Ltd (KY); T-Bob Baffert

McLaren Vale is another brilliant and young winner handled by the white-haired trainer from Nogales, Az. The name may be connected to the renowned Australian wine region south of Adelaide--a "Bacchic jukebox" of excellence for precious, famous and worldly vintages: Shiraz, Cabernet Sauvignon, Chardonnay, Sauvignon Blanc, Sangiovese, Tempranillo, Zinfandel, and so on. You name it, they produce it.

LA CANADA S.-GIII, $200,000, Santa Anita, 1-1, 4yo/up, f/m, 1 1/16m, 1:44.31, ft. As Time Goes By (m, 5, American Pharoah--Take Charge Lady {Broodmare of the Year, MGISW, $2,480,377}, by Dehere) O-Michael B. Tabor, Mrs. John Magnier, & Derrick Smith; B-Orpendale & Chelston (KY); T-Bob Baffert; J-Flavien Prat

You must remember this: As Time Goes By is a classy name for a lovely mare, as well as the classiest and most philosophical of love songs. No wonder Ingrid Bergman (Ilsa) and Humphrey Bogart (Rick) appeared to be fixated on it in "Casablanca" (1942), probably one of the best movies ever made. The lyrics are pure gold, including the line, "The fundamental things apply", which rhymes efficiently with the following verse, the very title of the song. This wonderful female recently victorious at Santa Anita reiterates a fundamental thing applied to horse racing: that Bob Baffert has a permanent stable of well-bred prodigies.

9th-Aqueduct, $80,000, Msw, 12-2, 2yo, 1 1/8m, 1:56.14, ft, neck. Courvoisier (c, 2, Tapit--Take Charge Brandi {Ch. 2-year-old Filly, MGISW, $1,692,126}, by Giant's Causeway) O-Hill 'n' Dale Equine Holdings, Inc. (J. G. Sikura) & James D. Spry; B-Elevage II, LLC & Hill 'n' Dale Equine Holdings, Inc. (KY); T-Kelly J. Breen.

While I suspect that there is some name wordplay with brilliant colt Courvoisier being out of the great mare Take Charge Brandi, I wonder what is the actual state of affairs between cognac (as Courvoisier definitely is) and brandy--aren't they both distilled fruit? I will stop at "cognac is the best brandy money can buy" and respect the all-out endorsement of Courvoisier by two famous members of the history-shaking Bonaparte family. Let's hope this young colt is also destined for a Napoleonic career.

Finally, an old Italian crooner-in-the-sky may have had a little smile to himself with two winners at Santa Anita in the new year: That's Amare is very similar wording to the song "That's Amore" (1953), made famous by Dean Martin, who was born Dino Paul Crocetti--yes, Dino, as in Riding With Dino . Everybody loves a winner, sometimes.

An Italian native, Andrea Branchini now lives in Lexington, Ky., where he works in the equine transport industry.

Dean's List | Ryan Thompson

4th-GP, $60k, Msw, 3yo, 6f, 1:27 p.m. ET

Several in this race carry nice price tags but IRON WORKS (Distorted Humor) on the outside catches the eye first as a $550,000 purchase from last year's OBS April sale (:10 1/5) for MyRacehorse and Spendthrift Farm. The runner is a half to one other winner from GISP Silverpocketsfull (Indian Charlie), herself out of MGSP Unforgotten (Northern Afleet) and a half to another graded stakes-placed horse. Particular (Classic Empire) one down in the gate is part of the first 3-year-old crop for his sire, and is a $300,000 2021 Fasig-Tipton Gulfstream graduate after breezing a quarter in :10 2/5. Awesome Aaron (Practical Joke), out of a stakes-winning half to a group stakes-placed runner in Japan, hails from the same sale, having drilled a quarter in :10 1/5 before going to Bradley Thoroughbreds acting as agent for William H. Lawrence for $350,000.

The half to Grade I winner Denman's Call (Northern Afleet) by the late Arrogate, $200,000 KEESEP and $100,000 OBS June graduate Anthracite, will break from midpack. TJCIS PPs

5th-GP, $61k, OC 75k/N1X, 3yo, 6f, 1:57 p.m. ET

After an eye-catching debut victory Dec. 11 at Gulfstream Park, WinStar Farm and Siena Farm's DEAN'S LIST (Speightstown) will make his 3-year-old debut against a closely matched allowance field. A winner by five lengths after contesting a speed duel through fractions of :21.70 and :44.36 half, he earned an 83 Beyer for the effort. The colt is out of Mildly Offensive (Sharp Humor), a dual stakes-winning half-sister to MGSW It's No Joke (Distorted Humor) and SW Keep Laughing (Distorted Humor). Dean's List adds Lasix here for Todd Pletcher. TJCIS PPs

7th-GP, $60k, Msw, 3yo, 1m, 3:05 p.m. ET

Whisper Hill Farm homebred CHARGE IT (Tapit) will be representing the family of 2013 Broodmare of the Year, Take Charge Lady (Dehere) through his dam, I'll Take Charge (Indian Charlie). The second foal for the young broodmare, a $2.2 million purchase by Whisper Hill from the 2013 Keeneland September sale, he becomes her first to the races. His second dam needs little introduction, as her line is responsible for three sires as well as recent graded and listed stakes winners As Time Goes By (American Pharoah) and Courvoisier (Tapit). Next to that one in the gate is Touch Code (Honor Code), a half to champion 3-year-old West Coast (Flatter), whose first 2-year-olds will arrive this year. Their dam, champion 2-year-old and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies victress Caressing, is also the second dam of three millionaires in Japan. He was a distant second behind 'TDN Rising Star' Emmanuel (More Than Ready) on debut in Hallandale Dec. 11. The field of 10 also includes Trending (Uncle Mo), a half-brother to $1.2 million 2017 Keeneland September yearling Almashriq (War Front). Out of GSW & GISP Theyskens' Theory (Bernardini), the early May colt claims Stevie Wonderboy (Stephen Got Even) and Somelikeithotbrown (Big Brown) down the page and will debut for Shug McGaughey as a homebred for Andrew Rosen. TJCIS PPs

THRILLING (f, 4, Uncle Mo--Together {Ire} {Hwt. at 7-9 1/2f-Ire, GISW-USA, GSW & MG1SP-Ire, MG1SP-Eng, $835,619}, by Galileo {Ire}) won at first asking last May and came back a month and a half later to be second against Del Mar turf allowance company. After finishing fourth in her third start at a mile on the grass, she was a close sixth in the Oct. 3 Unzip Me S. She was brought back three weeks later in a six-furlong contest here, and outlasted fast-closing competition by a nose as the even-money favorite. Calling it a season, the $200,000 Keeneland September graduate was given a two-month

freshening before being brought back here to once again attempt 6 1/2 furlongs on the downhill course. Hammered down to 8-5 favoritism, she broke quickly and was a content, tracking second until about the dirt crossover, where she launched her bid for the lead on the outside of a tiring frontrunner. Hitting the lead midstretch, she held a rail-running Sensible Cat (Bluegrass Cat) at bay by just short of a length. Out of the brilliant racemare Together, the winner is a half to Earring (Dansili {GB}), GSP-Ire, GSP-USA, $137,990, who sold for over $1.2 million dollars at the 2018 Tattersalls December Mares sale as well as 2018 Keeneland September graduate Streptocarpus (War Front), who dropped the hammer at $600,000. The full-sister to that one sold for over $450,000 at the 2020 Tattersalls December Mares sale. Together has a 2-year-old colt and a yearling filly by Justify. COLLABORATE (c, 4, Into Mischief--Quiet Temper {MGSW, $633,643}, by Quiet American), a blowout maiden winner good enough for 'TDN Rising Star' honors at second asking last February, showed enough promise to justify a spot in the field for the GI Curlin Florida Derby Mar. 27, where he finished a well-beaten fifth. Cut back to 6 1/2 furlongs for the Roar S. May 15, he finished third after an awkward beginning and wide trip as the heavily supported 2-5 favorite. A breakthrough performance going a mile on the dirt June 20 at this track took him to Saratoga for the July 30 Curlin S. He was given a five-month freshening following that disappointing sixth-place finish. Returning south for the winter, and sent off at the familiar 6 1/2-furlong distance here, the 5-2 third choice broke competitively with the field and settled fourth behind a contentious trio. Losing ground to outside runners before the final turn, the $600,000 FTSAUG yearling had a wall of horses to get around, but ultimately muscled between rivals to the center of the track. With daylight in front of the pair, Collaborate ran down a game Violent City (Violence) to win by just short of two lengths. Last year's comebacking Mucho Macho Man S. winner Mutasaabeq (Into Mischief) was fifth as the favorite after some

SOUPER LEGACY (g, 3, Hard Spun--Sweet Fortune, by Candy Ride {Arg}) was entered in the GI Summer S. Sept. 19 after breaking his maiden at first asking three weeks prior in a rained-off event on the Woodbine synthetic surface, but finished last of nine at 36-1. Back to the Tapeta for the seven-furlong Display S. Oct. 30, the chestnut could do no better than fifth after a troubled trip with first-time Lasix. His connections opted to make him a snowbird for his first start as a 3-year-old, sending the gelding south for this state-bred contest, and he broke well enough to grab an early advantage going into the first turn. Loping along unchallenged with ears pricked up the backstretch, the 6-5 favorite had everything going his way through the far turn but found a challenger early in the lane in the form of Bird Wildcat (Noble Bird), who stubbornly refused to be put away. The Live Oak homebred managed to fight to a small advantage but the runner-up inched closer in the final sixteenth, a head separating them in the end after brief contact in the final yards, and the winner survived an objection from Javier Castellano on Bird Wildcat. The final time of 1:41.98 was a new track record. Dam Sweet Fortune is responsible for one other winning gelding as well as a 2-year-old full-sister named Our Fortune Cookie, and a yearling half-brother by Souper Speedy named Speed Figures. GOLDEN GLIDER (c, 3, Ghostzapper--Golden Scarf, by Orientate) overcame a nightmarish break and impressively went from last to first to graduate in a 12-horse field debuting going two turns over the Woodbine synthetic Nov. 27. Following the late scratch of flashy Gulfstream debut winner and 'TDN Rising Star' Emmanuel (More Than Ready), Golden Glider was heavily supported as the 4-5 favorite in this remaining field of five for this first try on dirt.

Off to a slow start once again here, the chestnut trailed rounding the far turn and continued to caboose the compact field down the backstretch. Guided four wide on the far turn, he began to catch the eye with a sweeping move, hit the front in the stretch and did what he needed to do from there, scoring by 1 3/4 lengths over Boitano (Nyquist).

Golden Glider, the most recent produce from Golden Scarf, is a half-brother to Glamanation (Point of Entry), SW, $176,499. Golden Scarf, purchased by Nursery Place for $100,000 while carrying Golden Glider at the 2018 KEENOV sale, was bred to War of Will for 2022. WINGS OF AN ANGEL (f, 4, Quality Road--Wear Red, by Henny Hughes) commanded $350,000 from Fox Hill Farm as a Keeneland September yearling, and $125,000 at last year's Keeneland November sale from her current connections, but didn't make her career debut until this six furlong dirt contest, and never looked like anything but the winner. She broke on top, commanded the pace and ultimately went wire to wire at 7-1, holding off Church Service (Creative Cause) by 2 1/2 lengths. The winner is a half to Jessica Krupnick (Uncle Mo), SW-US, GSP-Can, $261,753. Wings of an Angel has a 2-year-old half brother by Arrogate and a yearling half-brother by City of Light. Adding Lasix and trying two turns for the first time here, the 3-5 chalk broke on top from her rail draw and it was pretty much game over from there. She led through fractions of :23.06 and :47.60, let it out a notch approaching the quarter pole and opened daylight from there to win by 12 lengths over Micro Share (Upstart). AMERICAN STARLET (f, 3, Twirling Candy--Boldy, by Forest Wildcat) breezed four furlongs in :47 1/5 (5/34) around the dogs over the Palm Meadows lawn three works back Dec. 12 and took care of the boys with a good-looking, front-running debut score at 7-2 here. She shot to the front beneath Paco Lopez, was racing under a nice hold while cruising around the far turn and wasn't for catching in the stretch. It was two lengths back to favored firster Big Invasion (Declaration of War). Boldly's most recent produce listed is a Jimmy Creed colt of 2020 ($65,000 KEESEP purchase by Scott Gelner).

MICROPHONE (IRE) (g, 4, Siyouni {Fr}--Fallen In Love {GB} {GSP-Eng}, by Galileo {Ire}) broke a touch slow for this one mile contest as the clear 8-5 favorite in his belated debut. The gelding tried to make a bid for the lead but was beaten to the spot by Harpoon Harry (Empire Maker) and was forced to check slightly when that one came over to claim the rail. Content to track the loose leader through the first turn and up the backstretch, the Chad Brown trainee watched it all unfold from second, six lengths behind Harpoon Harry. Midway on the far turn, he was asked for a rally and responded quickly, taking the lead within a few strides of hitting the homestretch and won with devastating ease, never truly asked, and by four lengths over the longtime leader. The winner possesses a big pedigree, as he is a half-brother to Serve the King (GB) (Kingman {GB}), GSW & GISP, $406,180; and Loving Things (GB) (Pivotal {GB}), GSW-Fr, SW & GSP-Eng, $107,896. U.S.-BRED/SIRED RUNNERS IN JAPAN

US BRED WINNING HAS NO BOUNDARIES

In this continuing series, Alan Carasso takes a look ahead at US-bred and/or conceived runners entered for the upcoming weekend at the tracks on the Japan Racing Association circuit, with a focus on pedigree and/or performance in the sales ring. Here are the horses of interest for this Sunday and Monday running at Chukyo and Nakayama Racecourses, with a pair of newly turned 3-year-old fillies taking a step up into Group 3 competition off maiden-breaking victories:

Sunday, January 9, 2022

3rd-CKO, ¥9,900,000 ($86k), Maiden, 3yo, 1900m

THE KING (JPN) (c, 3, Curlin--Alluring Star, by Exchange Rate) is the first foal from his dam, second to Caledonia Road (Quality Road) in the 2017 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies and purchased by Katsumi Yoshida with this colt in utero for $925K at the 2018 Keeneland November Sale. A Jan. 28 foal, The King was offered at the 2019 JRHA Select Sale and repaid a fair bit of the investment, hammering for ¥82 million ($754,400), while the now 2-year-old half-sister by Heart's Cry (Jpn) made ¥40 million ($372,820) at the same event in 2020. The King was a useful fifth on his career debut at this venue back in September. B-Northern Racing

11th-CKO, Shinzan Kinen-G3, ¥76.8m ($664k), 3yo, 1600mT

MOZU GOLD BARREL (f, 3, Optimizer--Sweeter Still {Ire}, by Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}), a $1,500 in utero purchase at KEENOV in 2018, ran to the money in her debut to score by a measured half-length at long odds-on going 1400 meters over this course Dec. 19 (video, SC 1). The $190K KEESEP acquisition is a half-sister to dual Group 1 winner Kameko (Kitten's Joy) and opts for this over Monday's sex-restricted G3 Fairy S. (see below). B-Timothy Lesley Thompson (KY)

Monday, January 10, 2022

4th-CKO, ¥11,400,000 ($99k), Newcomers, 3yo, 1800m

Neither US-bred or -sired, MODICA (AUS) (f, 2, American Pharoah--More Than Real, by More Than Ready) has plenty of appeal to an American audience. The early September foal, who spots her Northern Hemisphere rivals a fair bit of maturity, is the latest produce out of Bobby Flay's 2010 GII Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf heroine, who was acquired by Australian bloodstock agent James Bester for $675,000 at the 2011 Fasig-Tipton November sale. All five of the mare's previous starters are winners, including SW Miss Debutante (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}). Modica, an A$260,000 ($201,089) purchase out of last year's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, is a maternal granddaughter of MSW Miss Seffens (Dehere), whose daughter Miss Always Ready (More Than Ready) produced GI BC Juvenile Turf hero Structor (Palace Malice) and GSP 'TDN Rising Star' Always Carina (Malibu Moon). B-Kia Ora Stud Pty Ltd (NSW)

11th-NKY, Fairy S.-G3, ¥70.6m ($611k), 3yo, f, 1600mT

SPEED GLAMOUR (f, 3, Into Mischief--Island Escape, by Petionville) failed to run a poor race in four appearances at two and earned a crack at this level with a narrow graduation going this trip at Chukyo Dec. 5 (video, SC 14). A half-sister to MGSW Tricky Escape (Hat Trick {Jpn}), the February-foaled bay was bought back on a bid of $250K at Keeneland September in 2020 but blossomed into a $500K purchase at last year's OBS March Sale. B-Machmer Hall (KY)

OXTED ON COURSE FOR 2022 CAMPAIGN

Oxted will target the King's Stand and July Cup in 2022
racingfotos.com

Trainer Roger Teal looks to have plenty of talented runners to look forward to this year, none more so than his stable star Oxted (GB) (Mayson {GB}), who is making good progress toward a return after missing the second half of 2021 due to injury.

Oxted looked a somewhat surprise package when winning the G3 Abernant S. and G1 July Cup in 2020 as a 4-year-old, and the gelding proved those victories were no fluke when returning last year to take the G1 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot and place in the latest renewals of the July Cup, Abernant and G2 Duke of York S. He was benched following last year's July Cup, however, to have a bone chip removed.

"We knew it was there, it was a floating chip, but we had always monitored it and it has never really been too much of a problem," Teal explained.

MATING PLANS: GREG SAVEALL-GREEN

With the 2022 breeding season right around the corner, we will feature a series of breeders' mating plans over the coming weeks. British-based breeder Greg Saveall-Green shares with us the mating plans for his three-horse broodmare band, which he boards at Elusive Bloodstock's Hundred Acre Farm.

CAPE LIBERTY (m, 7, Cape Cross {Ire}–Sharqawiyah {GB}, by Dubawi {Ire})

A winner for Simon Crisford, Cape Liberty was purchased by Saveall-Green for 1,000gns at Tattersalls December in 2020 barren after being covered by Ribchester (GB). Cape Liberty, who is from the extended family of the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. and G1 Prince of Wales's S. winner Poet's Word (GB) (Poet's Voice {GB}) had two sisters win black-type races in 2021, with Abby Hatcher (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}) taking the GIII Chicago S. and Purciaretta (Ire) (Cotai Glory {GB}) the Listed Premio Divino Amore Livermore. Cape Liberty's first foal was a Teofilo (Ire) colt who is two this year, and she will be bred to the 2020 G1 Sussex S. winner Mohaather (GB), who stands his second season at Shadwell's Nunnery Stud for £15,000.

"I bought her cheaply from the Godolphin draft at Tattersalls December in 2020," said Saveall-Green. "She had a great year in 2021 with two half-sisters winning stakes races, giving her pedigree a nice boost. I thought she would suit Mohaather as he's a gorgeous, correct stallion and was very talented with that rare flash of brilliance that the purists love to see." Cont. p4

"But when he hung across the track at Newmarket, we had an MRI scan because the X-rays weren't really showing where it was, and it had moved between the joint, so it was time to take it out."

"Oxted is back off his holidays and doing a little light exercise at the moment, just tipping away quietly and we will see how he goes over the next couple of months and make a plan," Teal added. "He has just had a long recovery, as much time as you can give him, and touch wood, that will give him every chance to have a full recovery. He looks amazing. He has come back and he looks like a bull. We are thrilled with the way he looks."

Teal said Oxted's schedule will not look much different than it has the past two seasons.

"Obviously his main target will be the July Cup and the King's Stand again, probably," he said. "The Abernant at Newmarket or the Duke Of York that we ran in last year will be his starting point. It will be either one of those two, I should think."

Teal also has Oxted's 4-year-old full-brother Chipstead (GB) on the books. He capped a seven-race 3-year-old campaign last year with three successive wins over five and 5 1/2 furlongs at Bath and is rated 87.

"Chipstead came good at the back end of last season and the penny finally dropped," said Teal of the colt. "He had a lot of ability, but his brain didn't really match his ability. But once the penny dropped, he got the hang of it and he came forward and finished the season on a high, winning three in a row, including the Bath Series Final. I went to see him the other day and he looks brilliant as well."

Another sprinter that Teal is looking forward to for 2022 is Austin Whelan's Whenthedealinsdone (GB) (Dark Angel {Ire}), who won twice last summer at three, including at Glorious Goodwood, after being gelded and who was fifth when last seen in Doncaster's Portland H. in September.

"We are very excited about him," said Teal. "He had a good season, winning at Glorious Goodwood. It was just unfortunate that the ground went against him in the Portland, but I'm very excited by him. Hopefully, he will progress into a pattern horse this year. He is on a rating of 96 at the moment. He was a big 3-year-old, probably too big for his own good, size-wise. He has just come back from Charlie Vigors's Hillwood Stud and he looks an absolute picture. He was always a big, rotund horse, but he has filled his frame now, and he and Oxted look like two peas in a pod."

On the opposite end of the distance spectrum Teal has Ocean Wind (GB) (Teofilo {Ire}), who in three runs last spring was second to Sir Ron Priestley (GB) (Australia {GB}) in the Listed Further Flight S. and to Stradivarius in the G3 Sagaro S., and third as the favourite in the G3 Henry II S., since which he has been on holiday.

"Ocean Wind has had a nice long break and is due to come in shortly," Teal said of the 6-year-old entire. "He is doing some light prep work. I'm not sure what we are going to aim at yet. We will wait until the programme book comes out and then we will start making a plan."

WOOTTON CREEK (GB) (f, 4, Wootton Bassett {GB}–Tuileries {GB}, by Cape Cross {Ire})

Placed three times for Sheikh Hamdan bin Mohammed and trainer Mark Johnston, Wootton Creek was bought by Saveall-Green for 1,000gns from Godolphin and Kingsley Park at last year's Tattersalls Autumn Horses-In-Training Sale. She will be covered for the first time this season by first-season sire Roseman (Ire) (Kingman {GB}), who was second in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. of 2020 and stands at March Hare Stud for £5,500.

SOLEMN PLEDGE (GB) (m, 5, Showcasing {GB}–Lovers' Vows {GB}, by Dubawi {Ire})

Solemn Pledge, a winning mare whose second dam is a full-sister to Cape Cross and whose third dam is the excellent producer Park Appeal (Ire) (Ahonoora {GB}), was bought by Saveall-Green for 6,500gns at the recent Tattersalls December Mares Sale in foal for the first time to Havana Grey (GB). She will also visit Roseman after foaling out.

Roseman stands for £5,500 at March Hare Stud | racingfotos.com

"Both Wootton Creek and Solemn Pledge are going to Roseman, who I think is a very exciting addition to the stallion ranks in Great Britain this year," said Saveall-Green. "I like to choose stallions with that flash of brilliance and arguably Kingman is the best example offering that trait anywhere in the world, but Kingman is out of reach for me so I'm thrilled to see a highly rated and correct son of Kingman available at a commercial price here in GB."

The biggest bargain.

NEGATIVE COVID TEST REQUIRED FOR JOCKEYS

From next Tuesday, jockeys entering British weighing rooms will be required to provide a negative lateral flow test against the coronavirus.

The measure was due to be brought in this week, but temporarily delayed by the British Horseracing Authority to allow participants time to obtain the tests, and to wait for increased availability of the tests.

The introduction of mandatory tests for jockeys builds on the existing infection control measures that include social distancing and face coverings.

PATH OF THUNDER (IRE) (g, 5, Night Of Thunder {Ire}--Sunset Avenue, by Street Cry {Ire}), the winner of a mile turf handicap at Newmarket's July Meeting last summer, was making his first appearance on Friday since finishing down the field in Glorious Goodwood's Golden Mile H. on July 30. Breaking on top, Path Of Thunder grabbed an initial two-length lead while racing keenly but soon allowed Richie Mullins to rein him back in as his stablemate La Barrosa (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) charged past on the outside to grab a short-lived lead, with Nordic Lights (GB) (Intello {Ger}) soon galloping past out wide to take control. Nordic Lights, La Barrosa and Path Of Thunder eventually settled into a straight line about a half-length apart each as they ran into the turn, with the 2020 G3 Autumn S. winner One Ruler (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) waiting further back under William Buick.

Path of Thunder | Dhric/AK

As One Ruler found himself behind a wall of rivals upon straightening and Nordic Lights began to fade down the rail, La Barrosa found himself on the lead at the 300 metre mark. Path Of Thunder was under a drive, however, and wore down his stablemate at the furlong marker to win by a widening 2 1/4 lengths as Moqtarreb (GB) (Kingman {GB}) closed to grab second, with La Barrosa hanging on for third and One Ruler getting going late for sixth.

Path Of Thunder was a 48,000gns TATOCT yearling purchase by Johnny Collins's Brown Island Stables who flourished into a 375,000gns Craven 2-year-old when bought by Godolphin. He is the fifth foal out of the winning Sunset Avenue, who is a daughter of the G3 Blandford S. scorer Dearly (GB) (Rahy), herself a half-sister to the GI Frizette S. victress Balletto (UAE) (Timber Country). Sunset Avenue's third dam Althea (Alydar) was champion 2-year-old filly in the U.S. and won three Grade Is including the Arkansas Derby, and she is the second dam of the late Grade I winner and sire Arch. Sunset Avenue, also the dam of Excellent Sunset (Ire) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}), MGSP-US, $173,507, and produced a full-brother to that filly last year. RAPID REFLECTIONS WITH JOHN SUNDERLAND

John Sunderland | TDN AusNZ

by TDN AusNZ

In today's instalment of 2021/2022 Rapid Reflections, we feature a quickfire round with the Stud Manager of Woodlands Stud, John Sunderland.

TDN AusNZ: Favourite racing moment of 2021?

John Sunderland: There were many special moments on the racecourse this year (2021) including a great year from Anamoe, but Willowy winning the G1 VRC Oaks was very special. She had a significant bout of pneumonia as a weanling, went on to win two signature races over Melbourne carnival within five days while still only a 2-year-old. Great team effort across the board.

TDN AusNZ: And favourite non-racing moment?

JS: Because it is so hard to do, Ireland's deserving win over the All Blacks in rugby at the Aviva Stadium, Dublin. A very proud and memorable moment for Irish sport.

TDN AusNZ: What are you most looking forward to in the new year?

JS: Getting back to some sort of normality post COVID, getting back to the races and hopefully taking my children back to Ireland in July.

TDN AusNZ: Whose progeny have impressed you so far on your Magic Millions inspections?

JS: It is always nice to get out and about to see sale yearlings and obviously there was some lovely yearlings by proven stallions out there. I was very impressed with the Harry Angel yearlings, they are such nice-moving, athletic horses with great minds and temperaments. I can't wait to see them hit the track.

TDN AusNZ: If you could be someone else in the industry for a day who would it be, and why?

JS: Bob Peters, he is one of the best breeders not only in Australia but around the world. It would be great to get into his insights into thought process of choosing stallions.

TDN AusNZ: Who is your favourite racehorse of this year?

JS: Verry Elleegant, what an exciting superstar. She has taken on all-comers over a variety of distances and has continued to step up this year.

TDN AusNZ: Who is your favourite stallion, and why?

JS: Exceed And Excel. He has been such a successful stallion across the globe over so many years and he is just such a beautiful horse to deal with and be around.

TDNAusNZ: Which stallion do you believe is the best physical type?

JS: I Am Invincible is such a lovely horse to look at and throws such nice physical types too.

TDN AusNZ: Favourite binge-worthy television show?

JS: Friends - Always makes me smile.

TDN AusNZ: Name an emerging human talent in the industry, and say why.

JS: I think she has already emerged but Annabel Neasham has achieved amazing things in a short period of time as a trainer in her own right.

Also, Tess O'Connor who has switched from another industry, worked for us at Woodlands for two years, has just received a scholarship for the Irish National Stud course 2022. She has a very bright future.

TDN AusNZ: What do you consider the greatest sporting moment this year? (not solely racing related)

JS: Racing: When Brett Prebble and James McDonald embraced after crossing the line in the McKinnon S. after J-Mac had just beaten his idol Brett Prebble for most wins over Melbourne Cup carnival - great sportsmanship.

Non-racing moment: The Olympics or Dylan Alcott achieving the Golden Grand slam in tennis, he is a legend on and off the court.

TDN AusNZ: What positive change would you like to see in the industry in 2022?

JS: A real focus by the collective breeding and racing industry to stay up to date with modern day society. As well as continuing to look after the welfare of our horses, we need to obtain, train and retain people to come and work in this wonderful industry that has so many different career paths. Historically, we have been very poor at it, but modern generations demand we look after and reward our existing people with education and qualifications that are available. This will also attract new people into our industry with pathways that have been put in place.

TDN AusNZ: What's your 2022 New Year's resolution?

JS: Say it every year, but learn to play the guitar.
