TARFASHA'S TIME

With everything in her favor, Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Tarfasha (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) is in pole position to provide her owner with further Classic glory in today's G1 Darley Irish Oaks at The Curragh. No match for her owner's Taghrooda (GB) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) when runner-up in the June 6 G1 Epsom Oaks, the Dermot Weld trainee, who had previously won the 10-furlong G3 Blue Wind S. at Naas May 14, had the re-opposing Volume (GB) (Mount Nelson {GB}, third), Marvellous (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}, sixth) and Palace (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}, seventh) behind on that occasion. "She's very well and in good form and hopefully we won't get too much rain," her trainer said. "If we get a lot of rain, then we'll review it and see. She's on home territory and is the one, but there is very little between her and the other filly that was third at Epsom." Cont. p4

'AL' SYSTEMS A GO

Alterite (Fr) (Literato {Fr})--heroine of last term's GI Garden City S. at Belmont Park--kicks off her 4-year-old campaign in the GI TVG Diana S. at Saratoga. Second, beaten a nose, in last May's G1 Prix Saint-Alary at Longchamp, the bay followed a close second in Keeneland's GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup S. Oct. 12 with a very respectable third-place finish in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf at Santa Anita most recently Nov. 2. Alterite, owned by Martin Schwartz, had a small ankle chip removed following the Breeders'

Cup. She fired a five-furlong bullet in 1:00 4/5 over the Oklahoma turf course July 7. "She's been doing well and training well," said trainer Chad Brown, whose first career Grade I win came in the 2011 Diana courtesy of Zagora (Fr). "I would have liked to get her a prep before this race, but I didn't have time." Brown continued, "I'm not running unless I think I have a chance to win. It's a tough race, and running off a layoff in a Grade I is a tall order. But, she's a filly with a ton of ability and a ton of class, so we'll see what happens." Cont. p3

HIGH FASHION AT THE SPA

★ "TDN Rising Stars" ★ Fashion Alert (Old Fashioned) and Take Charge Brandi (Giant's Causeway) put on a show for the opening day faithful in Friday's GIII Schuylerville S. at Saratoga, and when the dust settled, it was the former who would not be denied with a hard-fought decision. Favored at 1-5 off the strength of a runaway debut win in Belmont's Astoria S. June 14, Fashion Alert broke inward and bumped soundly into her neighbor at the start. The George Bolton and Barry Hall colorbearer rushed up on the outside and vied for command with Take Charge Brandi through an opening quarter in :22.41. Head and head as they straightened for home through a half mile in :45.21, Fashion Alert began to edge clear late and had 1 1/2 lengths on Take Charge Brandi on the wire. It was another 7 3/4 lengths back to Tulira's Star (Congrats) in third. "I'm not going to rule out the [GII] Adirondack [Aug. 10], but we'll likely wait for the [GI] Spinaway [Aug. 31]," winning trainer Todd Pletcher revealed. "It's pretty hard to win your first two, especially both in stakes, so you have to give her a lot of credit for that. You hope those kind of efforts move them forward. Those two separated themselves from the field pretty much the entire race." Cont. p5

Showdown at the Spa Returns

TDN handicappers Brian DiDonato and Steve Sherack are back with another installment of Showdown at the Spa. Sponsored by TwinSpires.com, the duo has each been given mythical $2,000 bankrolls and must bet at least 1% and no more than 10% of their stake in each flat Grade I run at Saratoga this summer. The Showdown kicks off with today's GI Diana S.

Wise Dan Back in Action

Two-time Horse of the Year Wise Dan (Wiseman's Ferry) posted his second timed work since undergoing colic surgery May 16, breezing four furlongs in :49.12 over Saratoga's Oklahoma turf course Friday morning. Trainer Charlie LoPresti commented, "I couldn't be happier with that work."

Last year's GI American Oaks heroine Emollient (Empire Maker), fourth after setting the pace in the aforementioned Filly and Mare Turf, seeks her first win of the season.

Fourth as the 4-5 chalk in the GII Santa Ana S. Mar. 16, the Juddmonte homebred followed a third-place finish in Keeneland's GIII Doubledogdare S. over the synthetic Apr. 18 with a narrow second in the GI Gamely S. on the Santa Anita lawn last time May 26. Grade I winners Tannery (Ire) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}) and Stephanie's Kitten (Kitten's Joy) both should represent some nice value here. The former, heroine of last October's GI E.P. Taylor S., makes her third start of the year after finishing second in the GII New York S.

Stephanie's Kitten

downstate June 28. She finished a close fourth against the boys at 30-1 in last summer's GI Sword Dancer Invitational S. at the Spa. Stephanie's Kitten, a close third in the 2013 Diana, rallied from far back to finish a close fifth with a wide trip in the GI Just a Game S. June 7.

It has been a while since Luca Cumani enjoyed Classic glory, but in Stuart Stuckey's homebred Volume, he has a live contender who was successful in the May 16 Listed Swettenham Stud Fillies' Trial S. at Newbury prior to her Oaks run, where she was nosed out of second. "We're very happy with her, she has worked well and her preparation has gone according to plan," Cumani told PA Sport. "Obviously she was just behind Tarfasha at Epsom, so we're hopeful of a good run." Marvellous has to bounce back from a below-par effort in the Oaks, having won the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas here on testing ground May 27, where Palace was back in fifth. The latter's confidence may have been buoyed by a win in the Listed Cairn Rouge S. over an extended mile at Killarney Monday.

"We dipped our toes in the water at a mile and a half in the Ribblesdale at Royal Ascot and she ran a blinder to be beaten only half a length by Bracelet. Whether we can reverse the placings on her home patch remains to be seen, but I don't see why we should be three times the price." Much intrigue is added by the fact that Joseph O'Brien is on ★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Tapestry (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who has been below the best of her juvenile form last of 17 in the May 4 G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket and sixth in the June 20 G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot. She looked smart at two when winning the G2 Debutante S. and finishing a promoted second in the G1 Moyglare Stud S. here last summer and is worth another chance.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a ▲ will denote a first-time Grade/Group 1 winner, a + will indicate first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.

"Taghrooda's absence has made it a bit more open, but it still looks tough," he said.

Fashion Alert has been ridden by John Velazquez in her first two trips to the post. "She's definitely very talented," Velazquez commented. "We wish we had a better break and got a better position at the first part. She kind of recuperated right away and got a good position going to the half-mile pole. From then on, I wanted to give her a little breather and see how she did, and down the lane she started leaning into the horse on the inside. Finally, she started getting away from her the last sixteenth of a mile. She didn't break as bad as last time out, but today was a little bit bad. So, I knew she was going to be quick enough to be there anyway." Pletcher added, "I know that Wayne [Lukas] likes his filly [Take Charge Brandi] a lot. They got into a prolonged speed duel. You could tell they were both getting a little tired but she showed some guts."

Produced by the Tiznow maiden Titan Queen, Fashion Alert is a half-sister to GII Santa Ynez S. heroine Renee's Titan (Bernstein). The 9-year-old produced a Regal Ransom colt in 2013 and a colt by Lonhro (Aus) earlier this year.

Steve Asmussen and the Heiligbrodts know Cinco Charlie's female family quite well. Cinco Charlie's dam Ten Halos (Marquetry) is a half-sister to former Heiligbrodt/ Asmussen standout Bwana Charlie (Indian Charlie). Mike Repole homebred Nonna's Boy (Distorted Humor) set the pace and never looked back while defeating four rivals--including subsequent runaway Rockville Centre S. hero Bustin It (Bustin Stones)--as the 1-10 chalk on debut in the Belmont mud June 13. "He's doing very well," trainer Todd Pletcher said. "He's training well and we're very happy with the progress he's made." Bessie's Boy (Smoke Glacken)--a debut winner at Pimlico Apr. 17--rolled by six lengths in Belmont's Tremont S. June 20. Big Trouble (Tiz Wonderful) kicked off his career with a facile victory as the 1-5 favorite in a field of five at Belmont June 1. "He's doing really, really good," trainer Tony Dutrow said. "He's still a bit immature. Some of the 2-year-olds are mature, focused horses, and he's not one of them."

DOZEN WAYS TO GO IN SAN CLEMENTE

European invader Sandiva (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}) will take on a full field while making her U.S. debut in the GII San Clemente H. at Del Mar. A winner of her first two attempts as a juvenile, the chestnut was second in the G3 Albany S. at Royal Ascot, then annexed the G3 Prix du Calvados at Deauville. Well-backed at 3-1 in the G1 Criterium de Pouliches, she reported home seventh, beaten 4 3/4 lengths. Sandiva kicked off the new year with a win in Newmarket's G3 Lanwades Stud Nell Gwyn S. Apr. 16, and following a ninth-place finish in the G1 QIPCO 1000 Guineas May 4, heads to these shores following a respectable fifth behind Rizeena (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}) in the G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot June 20. Rizeena, of course, returned to finish second in the G1 Qipco Falmouth S. at Newmarket July 11. Campaigned overseas by trainer Richard Fahey, the Al Shaqab Racing colorbearer will be saddled by former Todd Pletcher assistant Michael McCarthy here. "While it will be difficult returning in four weeks while shipping from overseas to California, Al Shaqab is committed to racing around the world," Al Shaqab's USA Racing Advisor Bradley Weisbord commented. "We thought that she would be a good fit for America as she really prefers firm ground. While a cut below Group 1 company in Europe, we have high expectations for her in the U.S." My Conquestadory (Artie Schiller) has drawn widest of all in post 12. Tabled as a ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ after beginning her career with a tour-de-force victory over the boys in the GII Summer S. at Woodbine Sept. 14, she stayed perfect with another visually impressive performance in Keeneland's GI Darley Alcibiades S. Oct. 4. She overcame a disadvantageous draw from post 14 to finish a solid fourth after leading in the stretch in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf Nov. 1. My Conquestadory kicked off her sophomore campaign with a close second as the 2-5 chalk in Woodbine's GIII Selene S. over the synthetic May 18. Fellow ☆ "TDN Rising Star" ☆ Diversy Harbor (Curlin) has hit the board in three straight graded events after kicking off her career with a pair of wins, including the China Doll S. at Santa Anita. Third in the GII Honeymoon S. May 4, she was last seen rallying for second in the GI American Oaks May 31.

DARWIN BIDS FOR BACK-TO-BACK MINSTRELS

🌟 "TDN Rising Star" 🌟 Darwin (Big Brown) bids to follow up his confidence-boosting win in Sunday's Listed Belgrave S. over six furlongs at Fairyhouse in the G3 Minstrel S. he annexed on his Curragh debut 12 months ago. Sporting cheekpieces for the first time there, the imposing bay is headgear-free this time as he meets a clutch of sophomores. Among them is Mrs. Paul Shanahan and Susan Magnier's Waltzing Matilda (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), who was a respectable fifth in the G3 Jersey S. at Royal Ascot last time June 18.

Where Players Win.

We've given Brian DiDonato and Steve Sherack mythical $2,000 bankrolls and told them they must bet at least 1% and no more than 10% of their stake in each flat Grade I run at Saratoga. The player with the highest bankroll at the end of the meet wins.

GI Diana S. - #9 Stephanie's Kitten (6-1)

What a competitive race to kick things off. You could probably make a case for every runner in this field, and there definitely appears to be some value to be had. I really liked Somali Lemonade last time going into the GI Just a Game S., and while I thought she ran valiantly to be third, pace-presser Discreet Marq is back to provide pressure once again. Add in the usually quick Emollient and an extra furlong, and it would seem that you definitely want a horse from off the pace. I normally pick against Stephanie's Kitten because she's frequently a short price, but after two disappointing efforts this season for Chad Brown, she figures to finally fly under the radar. There's reason to believe she just doesn't like the Keeneland turf course, as she's been off the board twice now as the favorite there, so we can draw a line through her reasonably close eighth-place run in the GI Jenny Wiley S. in April off the trainer change from Wayne Catalano to Brown. Last time in the Just a Game she was simply way too far back, but the Ramsey homebred came flying home for fifth. She covered her final furlong in a field's-fastest :11.11. If she can stay a little closer early here, there's no reason Stephanie's Kitten can't return to her best and mow them all down late. Bet: $50 Win on #9 Stephanie's Kitten.

GI Diana S. - #10 Tannery (6-1)

While Alterite (Fr) clearly looks like the one to beat and is a well-deserving favorite, she may be a bit vulnerable tackling top-flight company off a November layoff. It's pretty hard to knock the body of work that Tannery (Ire) has compiled since turning four, including a pair of solid efforts against the boys in the GI Sword Dancer at the Spa in August and GIII Red Smith H. at the Big A last November. A game winner in her seasonal debut at Monmouth after sitting closer to the lead than she prefers, last term's GI E.P. Taylor S. victress was a very good second to the in-form Riposte (GB) in the 1 1/4-mile GII New York S. last out at Belmont June 28. With plenty of pace signed on in this turnback to nine furlongs, Tannery should be locked and loaded for her best third start off the layoff. Bet: $50 Win on #10 Tannery.

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

Wise Dan Works at Saratoga...

Two-time Horse of the Year Wise Dan (Wiseman's Ferry) posted his second timed work since undergoing colic surgery May 16, breezing four furlongs in :49.12 over Saratoga's Oklahoma turf course Friday morning. With regular exercise rider Damien Rock aboard, the 7-year-old galloped out five furlongs in 1:02 1/5. Last year's GI Breeders' Cup Mile hero has been perfect in two starts this term, including the GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic S. on the GI Kentucky Derby undercard most recently. "That's a good sign," trainer Charlie LoPresti commented. "I couldn't be happier with that work. When we got him going to the turf this morning, just walking down the road, Rock said you could feel him start lengthening his stride. He knew he was going to work today. He jogged onto the turf course. He was so happy to go on there." LoPresti continued, "As far as colic surgery goes, it was a best-case scenario. It was almost like exploratory surgery."

"So, the only thing we were dealing with was an incision to heal. He's such a strong horse, in 3 1/2 weeks, I can tell you, if you saw the video footage of him four days later when he came home, he jumped off the trailer at my house. In 2 1/2 weeks, he was dragging me around out in the paddock when I was grazing him. He's just an amazing horse." Wise Dan is under consideration for either the GII Fourstardave H. Aug. 9, the GII Bernard Baruch Aug. 30 or the GI Woodward S. on dirt Aug. 30.

Encryption Added to Haskell...

Stoneway Farm's Encryption (Exchange Rate), second in the GIII Pegasus S. June 15 and third in the Long Branch S. July 5, has been confirmed for the GI William Hill Haskell Invitational at Monmouth July 27. "We're throwing him into the deep end," trainer Kelly Breen said. "He's going to run in the Haskell. As of right now all systems are go. The horse is doing tremendous. I think we have a solid field of horses for the Haskell, but we're going to go after them." A field of nine, including the heroine of the GI Kentucky Oaks and GI Mother Goose S. Untapable (Tapit), is shaping up for the Haskell. "There's going to be plenty of speed in the race," Breen added. "I'd like to say that we can learn something from the Long Branch. Encryption has rated in the morning. It should be a pretty hot pace, between Bayern (Offlee Wild), Untapable, and Wildcat Red (D'wildcat)."

Chinese University Grads Receive Internships...

Edited Press Release

Darley has announced that 25 Chinese university graduates have been selected for this year's Dubai International Thoroughbred Internships programme which will commence in August.

This will be the third intake to the programme which was founded in 2012 by His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid al Maktoum, Vice President and Prime Minister of the United Arab Emirates and Ruler of Dubai.

Managed by Darley, Sheikh Mohammed's global breeding operation which stands stallions in six countries around the world, Dubai Internships is a 10-month programme which offers interns the unique opportunity to study all aspects of the thoroughbred industry at one of Darley's studs in either America (5 interns), Australia (3), Ireland (6), Japan (3) or the UK (8).

Following a two-week induction period in Beijing, the interns travel to their allocated Darley base before visiting Dubai later this year to not only experience horse racing there, but to see first hand the people, culture and many business opportunities that exist in the UAE.

Bill Wong, training manager of Dubai Internships said, "Following the early success of the Dubai International Thoroughbred Internships programme, we are delighted to be able to offer places to an increased number of graduates for the third consecutive year. The calibre of this year's candidates was once again exceptional and we are confident that, like our first two groups of graduates, they will go on to successful careers both within the thoroughbred industry and beyond once they have completed the course."

DETTORI MAKES SARATOGA SPLASH

By Mike Kane

With two wins and a second in three mounts Friday, jockey Frankie Dettori stole the show in his first visit to Saratoga Race Course.

Despite a late arrival that forced him to miss his first two assignments, Dettori made a smashing debut during opening day of the 146th season of racing in Saratoga Springs, N.Y. Wearing borrowed gear because his luggage didn't arrive with him on the flight from England, Dettori finished second by a half-length in the seventh race aboard Tiz Sardonic Joe (Tiznow), then guided Aventure Love (Fr) (Orpen) to a one-length victory in the eighth race.

"It's a childhood dream to ride a winner at Saratoga and I managed to do it," Dettori, 43, said. "It's a great feeling."

Two races later, Dettori's aggressive handling in the stretch lifted Jet Majesty to a three-quarter length victory in the finale.

Dettori rode Undrafted (Purim) to a fourth-place finish in the G1 July Cup at Newmarket July 12 for American trainer Wesley Ward and told Ward that he wanted to compete at Saratoga. When Ward said he would be happy to give the European star mounts on his horses at the Spa, Dettori took him up on the offer and made plans to spend the opening weekend. He is named on seven horses Saturday, including Stephanie's Kitten for trainer Chad Brown in the GI Diana S., two on Sunday and four more on Monday.

Saratoga was the third track in a different country in as many days for the globe-trotting Dettori. He was in Istanbul Wednesday night, rode in England at Doncaster on Thursday night, stayed overnight at the airport and caught a morning flight to New York. That flight didn't arrive at JFK until late morning, which forced Ward to replace him on horses in the first two races. After clearing customs and realizing that his luggage had not traveled with him, Dettori took a private flight to Albany International Airport, which is about 25 miles from the track.

For his day's work, Dettori wore a pair of Rajiv Maragh's pants, Joe Rocco Jr.'s boots and Julien Leparoux's whip.

"I've borrowed a bit from everybody," he said. "Hopefully my tack will arrive tomorrow."

Dettori waved to the crowd and delivered a pair of his flying dismounts in the winner's circle after Aventure Love's front-running victory in the 5 1/2-furlong turf race.

"It feels great," he said. "I have a few rides this weekend, but to get the first one out of the way is great. It was a great feeling when I crossed that line. I felt like a kid again."

Though he didn't have much time to look around the track, Dettori said the opening day crowd of 25,612 made an impression.

"When I arrived, I thought I was in Disney World; so many people," he said. "I thought maybe I got the wrong venue. It's actually a racetrack. It's nice to see people at the races. The people make the atmosphere. You can build a beautiful place, but if you haven't got the warmth of the people it's nothing. You have a lot of warmth here." CLICK HERE TO SHARE THIS STORY

Conquest Top Gun (Pioneerofthenile) when resurfacing at Gulfstream Feb. 8, and turned heads when he kicked home impressively to best first-level allowance competition by 5 3/4 lengths in Elmont June 8. Allowed a comfortable lead through fractions of :23.95, :47.24 and 1:10.24, the handsome dark bay proved not for catching despite a solid try from GII Tampa Bay Derby victor Ring Weekend. "It didn't surprise me [that he improved when switched to the turf]," said trainer Bill Mott of the winner. "The problem was, he ran just well enough on the dirt that we kind of kept trying him. We all want a Derby horse, right? We tried him one or two extra times on the dirt than, maybe, was to his benefit, but it's all coming together now." As for what could be next, the Hall of Famer offered, "There are a few 3-year-old races left for the year. I guess what we have got to decide is if he'll stretch out beyond a mile. We have to figure out what direction we want to go now." Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

He broke through while adding blinkers and Lasix at Gulfstream Jan. 11, and didn't disgrace himself when a late-on-the-scene fifth in that venue's GIII Palm Beach S. Mar. 1. Beaten a neck when rallying from out of the clouds back in Lexington in an Apr. 24 allowance, the bay ran on well to be a close third in the paceless Pennine Ridge S. at Belmont May 26. Last that day was Mr Speaker (Pulpit), who returned to upend the GI Belmont Derby Invitational July 5. Let go at 7-5 from a 4-5 morning line while traveling beyond nine panels for the first time, the bay was keen early before settling into a pocket spot behind a dawdling pace. He was tipped out to confront front-running My Afleet (Afleet Alex) in upper stretch, and collared that foe past the sixteenth pole to score by 1 1/2 lengths. She found a spot in fourth along the rail midway on the turn, but tipped out to mirror the move of 24-1 longshot Ring Knocker (Birdstone) at the top of the lane. That foe opened up in upper stretch, but By the Moon kept on coming to reel in the leader and score by 3/4 of a length. Trained by Rick Dutrow, the New York-bred By the Light won the first five races of her career by a combined 21 lengths before finishing second to Indian Blessing (Indian Charlie) in the 2008 GI Prioress S. The chesnut moved closer to the leaders with a half-mile to run, and loomed ominously four wide as the field hit the straight. Given several taps with the whip, the sophomore miss surged to the fore late to graduate by 1 1/4 lengths. Longtime leader Magsamelia (Mineshaft) was runner-up. That runner seemed to be going better of the two, to midstretch, but Graeme Crackers dug in gamely to claw back the advantage and don cap and gown by a half-length. Blame Jim (Sharp Humor), bred to win early, is by a win-early sire for Repole Stables. We had this homebred gelding working from the gate on July 7 in :46 4/5 on our watch and his prior gate work was also good in company. This bay is a colt that will win early, but how far he goes, well, looking at his pedigree, one turn and speed are his best assets.

Smithereen (Street Boss) was bought out of the Keeneland Yearling sale and is owned by his trainer Wesley Ward. His gate work on July 12 was a :47 2/5 on our watch, showing a lot of quickness that by rights describes Wesley Ward's two-year-olds to a tee. Ward is extremely effective at making these young horses into very precocious sorts and Frankie Dettori will be in the irons. Hope Dettori is tied on, as this guy is quick.

Bold Conquest (Curlin) has trained like a horse that wants a little longer, but has speed. I like this horse to progress. His gate companion July 7 was Empressive Humor, a Distorted Humor colt with a pedigree also screaming for a little more distance. Like to FOLLOW this one. Watch for improvement as distance gets longer.

Money Changer (Exchange Rate) comes out of the Keeneland April 2-year-old sale and was purchased by the consistent Dogwood Stable for $100K. I saw this one way back on May 31 on the training track at Belmont, and he caught my eye in company. Also, the grey outworked Isabella Sings, an Eskendereya filly who won first out on the grass, showing speed and barely holding on. Money Changer was better than Isabella on June 18. Like Blame Jim, better of the Pletcher's, but his operation is outstanding and his horses are always ready and fit. Click for Brisnet.com PPs.

WORLD GONE WRIGHT (f, 3, Forty Grams--It's a Storm, by Storm Boot) broke her maiden at first asking at Tampa Mar. 8 before taking a Keeneland allowance Apr. 17. Third in the restricted Open Mind H. after setting a stiff pace on the local main track June 1, she ran fourth in a state-bred allowance over six panels June 22. Sent off at 10-1 for this turf debut, the chestnut powered to the lead and quickly opened up on the field for the backstretch run through a :21 flat opening quarter. She cut the corner nicely into the lane, putting up a :43.71 half-mile split in the process. Despite understandably tiring some late, she held off the closing Mia Bee A (Suances {GB}) by 1 1/2 lengths. Lifetime Record: SP, 5-3-0-1, $88,820. Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

Triple Arch had last won at 33-1 odds in a Gulfstream optional claimer on the lawn in December, and while she had been blanked in eight subsequent efforts, she'd done plenty to pad her resume. Third in the Gill Sabin S. on the Gulfstream main track Feb. 16, she filled the same slot three starts later in Pimlico's grassy Gill Galorette H. May 17. She was third again behind Rebecca's Surprise in a muddy optional claimer at Parx June 10, and was coming off a second-place run in the Gill Eatontown S. over the local sod June 21. Hung wide into the first turn while biding her time off the pace, Triple Arch came with a sweeping bid alongside Rebecca's Surprise kicking for home, and out-finished that rival by the narrowest of margins in a head bobber. Given a 2-1 chance to break through here, the bay pressed splits of :22.59 and :46.29 before drawing off to win by 2 1/2 lengths. First timer Mamilio (Hard Spun) completed the exacta off just one published work. (Lifetime Record: 3-1-2-0, $54,800. Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.)

FATHER OF SCIENCE (IRE) (h, 5, Galileo {Ire}--Kasora {Ire}, by Darshaan {GB}) was sixth with first-time Lasix for Neil Drysdale in his American debut at Santa Anita last March after a private purchase by this owner from Ballydole with only a maiden win at Chester from three tries for Aidan O'Brien. He finished fifth at Hollywood Park last May, and the dark bay checked in a distant ninth over 1 3/8 miles of Del Mar turf in his last appearance for Drysdale Aug. 15. Dismissed at 25-1 off the trainer and scenery change, Father of Science raced near the back of the pack while one off the rail. He lacked running room around the bend and was fanned five-wide up the middle of the course, before just getting up in the shadow of the wire to take it by a neck over fellow Irish-bred Dustymour (Azamour {Ire}). The grey's dam was debut winner and Grade III scorer Successful Outlook (Orientate), who has already dropped 'TDN Rising Star' Sweet Lulu (Tapit), winner of last year's GI Test S. Like his older sister was, Iron Fist is conditioned by Hall of Famer Jerry Hollendorfer. Speaking of Hall of Famers, Bob Baffert will be represented by Peachtree Stable's Lord Nelson (Pulpit). Iron Fist (Tapit), is trained by Jerry Hollendorfer for big time Kentucky outfit Stonestreet Stables. Purchased for $1.55 Million out of the Keeneland Yearling Sale last September and consigned by Gainesway, the grey has trained with consistency and balance. He looked the part on July 2 in gate work at Santa Anita while working in company and showing good gate manners. Definitely not a flashy tab, but impressive in how Iron Fist does it. FOLLOW and place this one on your stable alerts.

Lord Nelson (Pulpit), a $340,000 KEESEP yearling, is by Tapit's sire Pulpit. Lord Nelson has excellent speed in his pedigree and shorter distances shouldn't be an issue. The chestnut worked over this polytrack July 14 with a good-looking mate named Luminance, who was bought for $320K at the Keeneland Yearling sale. Luminance is a very quick Tale of the Cat. Lord Nelson showed good speed over a slow polytrack and was deemed FIT and READY by our Del Mar correspondent. Another one to FOLLOW via stable mail.

Kantune (Kantharos) is an $80K 2-year-old in training purchase at OBS April. The bay breezed in :10 flat over the OBS Safetrack, a synthetic surface. He worked in a quick :47 2/5 over the Poly at Del Mar from the gate for Casse who is always dangerous with firsters. Previously Kantune trained at the Churchill Downs Trackside Training Center.

Calculator (In Summation), bought out of the OBS April for $132K, is a big, good-looking grey colt. The juvenile breezed on the synthetic, safetrack at OBS in :21 1/5 and looked powerful with good rounded action. We didn't have any notes from San Luis Rey Downs, but on paper the :59 flat gate work looks very live here. Calculator looks like a sprinter, but FOLLOW.

Big Changes (Midshipman) is by a freshman sire who won over the Del Mar poly. His progeny are light and athletic and this guy is leggy and long, much like his grandsire Unbridled's Song. Both of the chestnut's works have been very positive according to our Los Alamitos correspondent. We may not see his best until he matures a little more, but he has caught the eye. Sandringham Stud. "The ground should be fine for him even if it doesn't rain, they are calling it good-to-firm, good in places, so it's not rattling quick and there is rain around," his trainer told PA Sport. "It was May when he came back to us and we've done a lot of work trying to get him fit. He's a big horse anyway. He'll be at least 20 kilos over his ideal racing weight, I'd say, so is bound to benefit from the run. We'll just see how he gets on before making any sort of a plan, but all options are later in the year anyway. This just looked an ideal starting point coming when it did at the level that it is and crucially with no penalty for him." In a fascinating contest, Godolphin's Mar. 8 G1 Jebel Hatta runner-up Vancouverite and last year's G2 Prix Eugene Adam winner Triple Threat add to the mix.

Richard Hannon Sr. ruled the roost in these valuable prizes and his son intends to follow suit as he saddles a class act in the June 18 G2 Queen Mary S. runner-up Tiggy Wiggy. Having previously won Sandown's Listed National S. May 29, she sets the standard heading a quintet from the stable including the June 28 Listed Empress S. runner-up Parsley. "You need a lot of luck, as they usually split into two or three groups, but this has always been the target for Tiggy Wiggy, and if she can reproduce the form she showed when second in the Queen Mary at Royal Ascot. she must have a big shout," he commented. "She is a class act, but we have a five-pound penalty for winning the National S. at Sandown, and while she was fine on the fast ground at Ascot, I would not mind if the forecast showers materialized. Parsley found the ground a bit soft at Newmarket last time, but she had previously run a cracker when second in the Empress, and at the weights you have to give her serious consideration." If there is one who could upset the Hannon juggernaut, it is the Fahey-trained filly Realta, who comes here on the back of a second in the Listed Coolmore Stud Fillies' Sprint S. over six furlongs at Naas June 2. "Realtra is a smart filly and she must have a chance off just 8 stone," he told sportinglife.com. "I'd just be worried whether she's quick enough over five furlongs, that's my only worry with her."
