PLETCHER CONFIDENT GAFFALIONE CAN GET RENEGADE HOME IN TRAVERS

Saratoga Notebook, presented by NYRA Bets

Renegade | Sarah Andrew

by Tim Wilkin

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. - In eight of Renegade (Into Mischief)'s nine career races, he has had the steady hands of jockey Irad Ortiz, Jr. guiding him.

The band got broken up when Ortiz's Saratoga season was cut short when he was knocked out with a bruised left foot. That meant an audible had to be called by Hall of Fame trainer Todd Pletcher.

He needed to get a new partner for Renegade for Saturday's Grade I, $1.25-million Travers Stakes. Enter Tyler Gaffalione. The 31-year-old rider has been handed the reins by Pletcher to get the 3-1 second choice on the morning line to the winner's circle.

"When you have someone like Irad who is familiar with the horse and knows him, obviously you don't want to make a change," Pletcher said outside his barn at the Oklahoma Training Track. "Tyler is an experienced, seasoned veteran and is certainly capable of giving you a great ride."

Gaffalione rode at Charles Town Friday night and was scheduled to fly back to Saratoga with other Spa riders, including Manny Franco, Luis Saez and Ricardo Santana, Jr. Cont. p3

DUAL CLASSIC WINNER GOLDEN TEMPO HEADLINES DEEP TRAVERS by Steve Sherack

Golden Tempo (Curlin), a sensational last-to-first winner of the GI Kentucky Derby and GI Belmont Stakes, is the horse to beat in an ultra-deep renewal of the GI DraftKings Travers S. at Saratoga Saturday.

The 157th renewal of the 'Mid-Summer Derby' is one of five Grade I events slated for the 14-race program, including the H. Allen Jerkens Memorial and three Breeders' Cup 'Win and You're In' qualifiers--the Personal Ensign (Distaff), Forego (Dirt Mile) and Resorts World Casino Ballerina (Filly and Mare Sprint).

After upsetting the Kentucky Derby at 23-1, the Phipps Stable and St Elias Stable homebred backed up that performance with a statement-making victory in the track-and-trip Belmont Stakes June 6.

Forced to bypass the local prep GII Jim Dandy S. due to a brief illness, the 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' has been tabbed as the 5-2 morning-line favorite in the Travers. Cont. p7

They all have a mount in the Travers.

Saturday will be Gaffalione's last day at Saratoga this summer as he will head to Kentucky Downs to ride on Sunday. He was originally scheduled to ride at Kentucky Downs on Saturday but that changed when the Renegade opportunity came up.

Gaffalione is in seventh place in the Saratoga jockey standings with 19 wins. He has never won the Travers. None of his four mounts hit the board.

"I am sure Tyler has talked to Irad and has discussed some things about the horse," Matt Muzikar, Gaffalione's agent, said Friday. "Tyler is excited for the opportunity, excited to ride for Todd and Mike (co-owner Repole)."

Pletcher said he will sit down with Gaffalione and give him as much information about Renegade as he can.

"But at the end of the day you have to have confidence in these guys," he said. "I am sure he is familiar with the horse to begin with, and I am sure he is watching films."

Pletcher has confidence in the horse, who is coming off a stirring last-to-first win in the GII Jim Dandy Stakes. He is also confident Gaffalione will be an able substitute. He does feel for Ortiz.

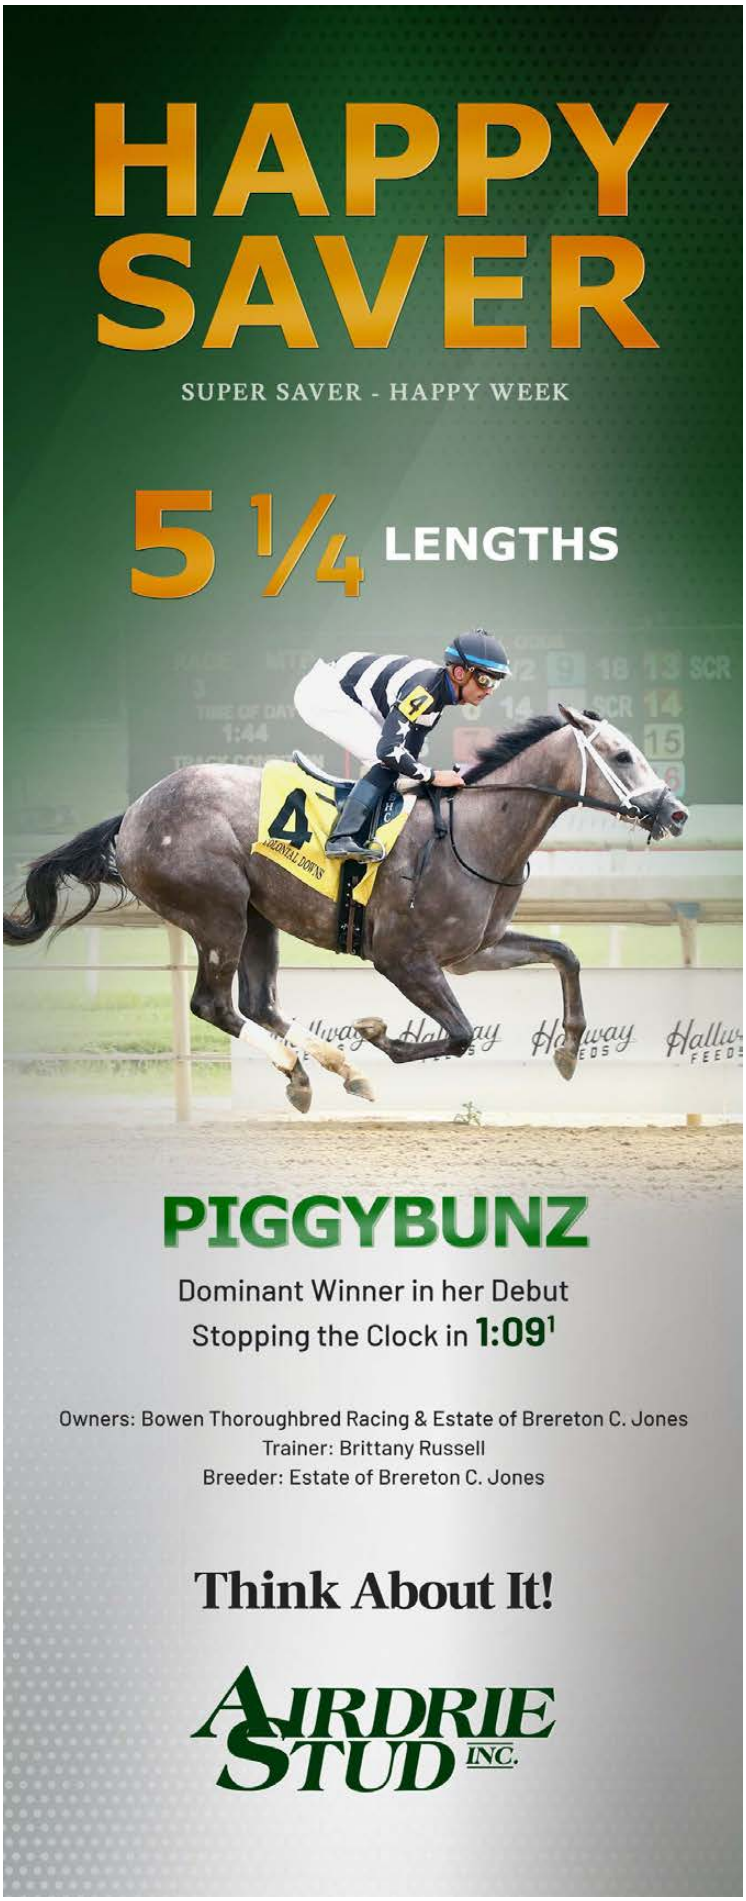
"It stinks for him," Pletcher said. "To be doing as well as he was doing and be forced to the sidelines. He is disappointed that he is out for a while and disappointed he is missing the ride."

Book'em Danno Looking for Another Saratoga Victory

At 8:30 Friday morning, Book'em Danno (Bucchero) stepped off the horse trailer and into his temporary digs at the Sanford Barn on Nelson Avenue across from Clare Court. It will be a short stay for the popular 5-year-old gelding who has made it a habit of winning races.

He will make his 20th career start in Saturday's GI, $500,000 Forego, a seven-furlong sprint. When it's over, trainer Derek Ryan is hoping Book'em Danno will have his 13th career win and a continued dominance over the Saratoga oval.

Book'em Danno, owned by Atlantic Six Racing LLC, has won five of his six starts at Saratoga, all of them graded stakes. Saturday, he goes for No. 6.



Derek Ryan feeds Book'em Danno a carrot after arriving at Saratoga | Sarah Andrew

"He is still going strong," Ryan said Friday morning. "He always shows up. I would be very disappointed if he didn't win. You hate to say it, but he is training better this year than he was last year."

Book'em Danno will again be ridden by Paco Lopez, his partner for the last eight races (six wins). The Forego, a race he won last year, will be his fourth start of the year.

He has won two of them, including the GIII True North at Saratoga on Belmont Stakes Day. His only loss came in the GII Carter at Aqueduct Apr. 4, a race he lost by a neck in his first start since last year's Forego.

Book'em Danno won four of five starts last year and won the Eclipse Award for champion male sprinter. He did not run in the Breeders' Cup last season, this year he will.

"We do the right thing by him all the time," Ryan said. "He gets a break every winter."

In his last seven wins, Book'em Danno's margin of victory has been a combined 9 1/2 lengths. His most lopsided victories, if you want to call them that, have been by 2 1/2 lengths twice. He won a handicap at Colonial in March of 2025 and the GII Alfred G. Vanderbilt last year.

"He knows how to win, he knows where the wire is," Ryan said. "He is a hard knocking horse, a hard tryer and he gets it done."

Following this year's Breeders' Cup, don't expect to see Book'em Danno--named for the popular catchphrase from the television show "Hawaii Five-O" (1968-1980)--head for retirement.

Ryan figures the big horse is just getting started.

"Hell no," Ryan said with a laugh when retirement was mentioned. "He's only five and he's lightly raced. We have a lot

Travers Day Always Brings Back Fond Memories for Romans

2015 Travers Stakes | Sarah Andrew

On Aug. 29, 2015, at around 8 p.m., cars stopped on Union Avenue. Trainer Dale Romans caused the traffic jam as he was walking down the street wearing the blanket that an hour before had been placed across the back of the Keen Ice (Curlin), the upset winner of the GI Travers Stakes.

"We were going over to Jerry Crawford's (owner, Donegal Racing) house and everyone on the road wanted a picture," Romans said Friday morning on the Saratoga backstretch as he reminisced about that day.

That upset was not just any old upset. When Keen Ice won the Midsummer Derby at odds of 16-1, he took down the mighty American Pharoah (Pioneerof the Nile), the first Triple Crown winner since 1978.

A capped crowd of 50,000 jammed into the Spa and anticipated a Pharoah cinch in the Travers. Romans and Crawford and jockey Javier Castellano had other ideas.

"At the draw, I got up and thanked NYRA (New York Racing Association) for limiting the number of people that were going to boo me," Romans said with a laugh.

Keen Ice had tipped himself when he finished second behind American Pharoah in the GI Haskell Stakes four weeks earlier. The margin was just 2 1/4 lengths.

When Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert brought American Pharoah to Saratoga, it was a carnival atmosphere, especially the morning before the race when 20,000 people showed up to watch him gallop.

Romans has won big races in his career--the GI Whitney Stakes and G1 Dubai World Cup (Roses in May, the Preakness Stakes (Shackleford), the GI Arlington Million and GI Breeders' Cup Turf

Keen Ice | Sarah Andrew

(Little Mike) just to name a few.

But that last Saturday in August of 2015 will always be a special memory for Romans and his family.

"I've won a lot of big races, but that was by far the most historic," Romans said. "They are all big in their own right, but that is the one people always talk about."

When it was over, Romans did not get booed like he had predicted at the draw. People cheered for the horse as he walked up the track even though they were likely shocked to see American Pharoah lose.

Romans did not go to the press conference or the trophy presentation. He walked up the track with the horse.

"(The late Hall of Fame trainer) LeRoy Jolley was standing right where we are now and gave me a big hug and said, 'Welcome to the Travers club,'" Romans said. "That meant a lot."

Keen Ice finished his career with three wins in 24 starts. He stands at Rancho San Jose in Mexico after being sold and relocated from Calumet Farm, which eventually co-owned him with Donegal Racing.

Golden Tempo | Sarah Andrew

Golden Tempo breaks from post nine with regular jockey Jose Ortiz in the irons.

The Travers 3-1 second-choice Renegade (Into Mischief), a painful runner-up in the Kentucky Derby and disappointing third-place finisher as the favorite in the Belmont Stakes, will take another shot at Golden Tempo following an eye-catching win in the Jim Dandy. Tyler Gaffalione takes over the controls for the sidelined Irad Ortiz, Jr.

“I have always said this race is a bit different than the other races because horses do a lot of maturing throughout the summer, colts especially, so it will be interesting to see how they both (Golden Tempo and Renegade) perform,” trainer Cherie DeVaux said.

“And we have new horses in the race, too, and they weren't part of the conversation during Belmont week."

Those 'new horses' include a pair of lightly raced 'Rising Stars'--the Brad Cox-trained two-for-two GIII Indiana Derby winner Leading Change (Gun Runner) and daylight Curlin S. winner from the Chad Brown barn Sea Strike (Midshipman).

The Travers field of 10 also features the front-running GI Preakness S. winner Napoleon Solo (Liam's Map), who was reeled in by the re-opposing Baby Vino (Vino Rosso) in a sloppy renewal of the GI NYRA Bets Haskell S. at Monmouth Park July 18. Napoleon Solo figures to be on the engine as the main speed once again here.

“This is the deepest Travers we’ve seen in a long time,” trainer Chad Summers said. “Obviously, Golden Tempo is the favorite for the 3-year-old championship, but he’s never run against us before. So, we’ll see what happens in the race.”

Other headliners and storylines on the Travers card include: the DeVaux-trained, track record-setting GI Woody Stephens S. winner and 'Rising Star' Englishman (Maxfield) in the Allen

Jerkens; champion sprinter Book'em Danno (Bucchero) back to defend his Forego title; Saratoga horse-for-course and 'Rising Star' Ways and Means (Practical Joke) in a stacked 12-horse deep Ballerina; and a Fully Subscribed (Tiz the Law) vs. Scottish Lassie (McKinzie) rematch in the Personal Ensign.

"He's an unbelievable horse," trainer Derek Ryan said of Book'em Danno. "Hopefully, he can keep going."

Ryan added, "Englishman is a serious horse. If you asked me who the best sprinter in the country is--besides us--he's got to be the next one."

Saturday's coast-to-coast graded stakes action also includes: Ag Bullet (Twirling Candy) shooting for a three-peat in the $1.75-million GI Kentucky Downs Ladies Turf Sprint S.; the ageless Gold Phoenix (Ire) (Belardo {Iren}) aiming for an unbelievable fifth straight win in the 'Win and You're In' GII Del Mar H.; the 'Win and You're In' GII Pat O'Brien S. at Del Mar; and the GII Lake Placid S. at Saratoga.

CHALLENGE ACCEPTED: KENTUCKY DOWNS PUTS ON ONE OF THE GREATEST SHOWS ON TURF

by J.N. Campbell

Affairs of honor--ones that involve a different kind of pacing and seconds--will once again take center stage at the all-grass venue known as Kentucky Downs.

Literally the former site where various levels of 'code duello' unfolded some two centuries back--hence the track's early name 'Dueling Grounds'--the European-style course on the Tennessee line has evolved over the years into one of the 'Greatest Shows On Turf.'

Bear River in front of the Kentucky Downs crowd last year racing product on Saturday, Aug. 29, will commence the first of seven days of racing as top horses, owners, trainers, jockeys, horseplayers and fans descend on the border burg to spectate and speculate from the chalets to the halls of Mint Gaming.

If there is anyone up to the challenge of describing the pear-shaped action over all that undulating terrain then it has to be dueling expert announcer Michael Wrona.

Ted Nicholson, the vice president of racing at Kentucky Downs, told TDN that he and his team began prepping the minute the final race was in the books last year. He said that improving the Kentucky Downs experience is the goal.

"We're super excited about this meet," Nicholson said. "Based on the reaction from all the horsemen from all over the country and all over the world these last couple years, we've just continued to attract more and more of an international following. When they find out about our purse structure, then it really gives us a chance to up our game even more."

One of the biggest pieces of news out of Kentucky Downs is that cards are planned for Sept. 5-7, which means that an all-new three straight days of racing are on tap for the Labor Day weekend. The 2026 meet will feature a total of 20 stakes races worth $25.75-million in total purses. Out of those, 12 stakes--valued collectively at $18-million--will be drawn for the holiday bonanza.

The heart of the Kentucky Downs slate can be found on Saturday, Sept. 5. Leading the way is the $3-million GII Nashville Derby Invitational, which is the second richest 3-year-old stakes race in America behind only the GI Kentucky Derby.

Also featured are four other graded stakes worth at least $1.5-million each, including two Breeders' Cup "Win and You're In" qualifiers--the $2-million GII Kentucky Turf Cup Invitational (for the GI Longines Breeders' Cup Turf) and the $1.75-million GII Kentucky Downs Turf Sprint (for the GI Prevagen Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint).

Top jockey Jose Ortiz will pack his Saratoga bags and head to Kentucky Downs next week | Sarah Andrew

The $1.5-million GII Music City and the $1.5-million GII Kentucky Downs Ladies Turf round out the day's schedule, which airs live on NBC starting at 3:00 p.m ET.

"I've been to several of the European courses and they all test a horse's stamina in different ways," said Nicholson. "When you scoot around the turn at Kentucky Downs and find yourself at the top of the stretch, you still have three-eighths of a mile to run, but it's a slight climb. It's not dramatic. Still, if the horse isn't fit enough, then you're not going to make it. No coasting in that final sixteenth."

Shipping in with staying power are a bevy of turf stars which will include ultra-consistent Kentucky Downs afficionado Ag Bullet (Twirling Candy), GI Longines Breeders' Cup longshot hero Ethical Diamond (Ire) (Awtaad {Ire}), North American superstar Burnham Square (Liam's Map), recent Ellis Park stakes winner Fancy Sailor (Justify), MGSW Brilliant Berti (Noble Mission {GB}) and potential G1 Melbourne Cup participant Tawny Port (Pioneerof the Nile) will put in an appearance.

Elite trainers from A to Z--in this case, Asmussen to Ward--will be ever present, as well as top jockeys like Jose Ortiz, Luis Saez and Tyler Gaffalione, who plan to shift their tack from Saratoga post-Travers weekend.

Finally, one other piece of big summer news out of the track with massive fields is that they are raising the minimum wager on win, place and show betting from $2 to $5. Also, takeout will be reduced to 15% on Pick 3, Pick 4 and Pick 5 plays.

If you are after a mint or just a turf racing stan, then Kentucky Downs is your ground.

TRAINER LIBRADO BAROCIO SUSPENDED 45 DAYS, FINED $3,750

by Dan Ross

Trainer Librado Barocio has been suspended 45 days and fined $3,750 for possession of several syringes, hyperemic needles and vials of Polyglycan (a joint injection) resulting from an April search of his property at Santa Anita, according to a ruling posted on the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act's (HISA) website Thursday.

Librado Barocio | Dubai Racing Club

According to the agreed order, the suspension began on August 30. During that 45-day period, Barocio will be "prohibited from participating in any capacity in any activity involving Covered Horses, or in any other activity taking place at a Racetrack or Training Facility, and from permitting anyone to participate in any capacity on his behalf in such activities," the order states.

"I want to sincerely apologize to the horse racing industry and to everyone who was affected by my actions. I accept full responsibility for what I did, and I accept the penalty that was imposed. I made a mistake, I take the blame for it, and I am truly sorry. I have learned from this experience, and I can assure everyone that it will never happen again," Barocio wrote to the TDN in a text message Friday.

According to the order, Horseracing Integrity and Welfare Unit (HIWU) investigators "searched the stable areas under Mr. Barocio's control at Santa Anita" on April 17 and found the following items:

Four 12ML syringes capable of accepting a needle

One 12ML syringe with an attached hypodermic needle

One hypodermic needle with a cap.

Five 10ML vials of Polyglycan, three of which were empty, one of which was partially empty, and one of which was full.

Polyglycan is a joint injection designed to replace lost or damaged synovial fluid. It is permitted for use under HISA if it's possessed and administered by a licensed veterinarian, and the injection is properly logged.

Under HISA, joint injections are not permitted 14 days prior to post-time of race-day, and not within 7 days prior to any timed and reported workout.

If Polyglycan is administered intravenously—an off-label method—it would come with a 48-hour stand-down period under HISA.

After the HIWU investigators found these items on April 17, the California Horse Racing Board (CHRB) scratched a horse Barocio had entered to race two days later.

According to the order, Barocio and the HISA Authority "agreed that a provisional suspension hearing was not needed," and the matter proceeding to the HISA Board for review.

After Barocio admitted the possession charges, "The parties, as indicated by their respective signatures below, have agreed to resolve this matter. Mr. Barocio waives any hearing on this matter and specifically waives his right to present testimony, evidence, and argument to the Internal Adjudication Panel in accordance with the procedures in the HISA Rule 7000 and Rule 8000 series," the order states.

Barocio's most notable victory as a trainer came with Lovesick Blues (Grazen) winning the 2025 G1 Bing Crosby Stakes at Del Mar. Since 1999, Barocio has trained 125 winners from 951 starts, with nearly $5.7 million in earnings. This year, he has had 12 winners from 67 starts.

AUTHORITY URGES SUPREME COURT TO FOCUS ON FIFTH CIRCUIT HISA ENFORCEMENT QUESTION

by T.D. Thornton

The Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority on Friday asked the United States Supreme Court to grant petitions arising from a case out of the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals and hold a Sixth Circuit petition. The Authority also told the nation's highest court that it should focus on one constitutional question involving the enforcement of the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Integrity Act (HISA).

Even though the Authority's response was filed in a suit in which the states of Oklahoma, West Virginia and Louisiana are challenging a Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals case that rejected constitutional challenges to HISA, the Authority argued that a different case, out of the Fifth Circuit, is actually the better option for the Supreme Court to settle constitutional questions that have persisted in the federal court system for over five years.

Three separate appeals courts–the Fifth, Sixth and Eighth Circuits–have all previously agreed that HISA's rulemaking structure is constitutional. But the Fifth Circuit has twice opined that HISA's enforcement provisions are unconstitutional.

"[T]he Court now has before it two certiorari petitions from the Fifth Circuit case presenting the same question regarding the facial constitutionality of HISA's enforcement provisions," the Authority's Aug. 28 filing stated.

"Although the Authority welcomes consideration of that question presented through either case, the petitions filed by the Authority and the Solicitor General in [a case brought by the National Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association (NHBPA) and 12 affiliates] present the best vehicle for resolving it.

"Granting those petitions would allow for direct review of the reasoning of the only court of appeals that has held the Act facially unconstitutional," the Authority wrote.

"Moreover, in that later-in-time decision, the Fifth Circuit engaged with the Sixth Circuit's reasoning on a full record following trial.

"The Court should grant the petitions, [then] hold the petition in [the Sixth Circuit] case pending resolution of the merits in those cases.

"If the Court does grant certiorari in this case, it should limit its review to the only issue on which the courts of appeals are divided: whether HISA's enforcement provisions are facially unconstitutional under the private-nondelegation doctrine," the Authority's filing stated.

By early 2025, the three cases out of the Fifth, Sixth and Eighth Circuits had all reached the Supreme Court.

Then, on June 30, 2025, the Supreme Court issued nearly identical dispositions for all three lawsuits involving the constitutionality of HISA, telling each respective appeals court that it wanted them to re-examine their rulings in light of a relevant decision the Supreme Court had just issued three days earlier.

The June 27, 2025, decision rejected arguments that a funding mechanism for subsidized telecommunications services for low-income customers, rural hospitals, schools and libraries violated the non-delegation doctrine. The Supreme Court also rejected a claim that the FCC improperly delegated authority to a private entity to administer that program.

Although the Sixth and Fifth Circuits have both issued new opinions that reaffirmed their earlier conclusions, the Eighth Circuit has yet to issue its decision, now 14 months after the Supreme Court's remand.

The Authority's filing told the Supreme Court it need not wait for the Eighth Circuit to act.

"There is no reason to await further percolation before reviewing whether HISA's enforcement provisions facially violate the private-nondelegation doctrine. The clean split between the Fifth and Sixth Circuits on that issue (and only that issue) demonstrates the 'differing conclusions on the constitutional question' squarely framing the Eighth Circuit's (and any other court's) binary choice in these parallel facial challenges. No obstacle prevents the [Supreme] Court from resolving that straightforward and clearly established conflict," the Authority wrote.

Earlier this month, when the Authority and the Federal Trade Commission filed separate petitions for the Supreme Court to review the Fifth Circuit case, Eric Hamelback, the NHBPA's chief executive officer, told TDN that his organization also wanted the Supreme Court to take up the question of HISA's constitutionality.

"We welcome Supreme Court review because this case is ultimately about something much bigger than HISA," Hamelback said Aug. 19. "It is about the constitutional limits on government power and whether Congress can give a private organization the authority to investigate, prosecute, adjudicate and impose penalties on American horsemen without meaningful federal supervision."

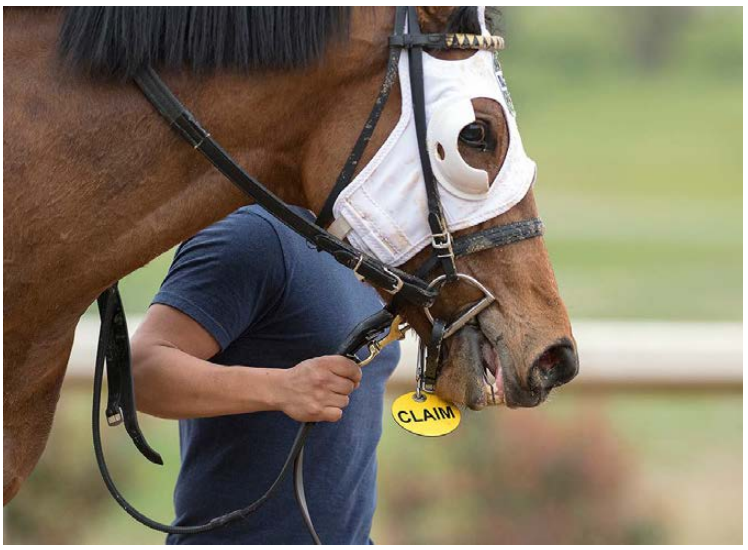
ASK HISA: DATA AVAILABILITY



Sarah Andrew

by Dan Ross

With a view to pulling the veil back on the whys and wherefores of their operations, a representative of either the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA) Authority or the Horseracing Integrity and Welfare Unit (HIWU) will every week answer a question of industry importance posed by the TDN.

If you have any questions you'd like to ask HISA or HIWU,

~150 HEAD · ONE STANDARD OF CARE

Six decades building champions on the Standardbred side. Now we are building it again on the Thoroughbred side — same farm, same family, same standard. We're looking for the Farm Manager who wants to build it with us, succeeding a longtime manager moving toward retirement.

THE ROLE

Hands-on leadership of roughly 150 head — broodmares, foaling season, young stock, the crew, the land and the equipment. You'll run breeding season, take the yearlings to the sales ring, coordinate with on- and off-farm veterinarians, manage lay-up and rehab for the racing stable, and own the operating budget.

YOU BRING

Seven or more years on a Thoroughbred, Standardbred or comparable breeding farm — hands-on through foaling and breeding season, with time in a senior role. Real horsemanship, and the ability to build a crew and hold it to a standard.

WE OFFER

On-farm housing, health insurance and paid time off, and compensation commensurate with experience and expertise — plus a family three generations deep in this sport, still building, with room to make your mark.

The following was submitted by owner Dan McGough.

Q: In a very small way, my wife and I have been involved with Thoroughbred horses for the past 30 years. We raised and sold foals until 2015 when we began racing, primarily in the South and Midwest. I currently have a 3-year-old filly at Remington Park.

I do not know Marshall Gramm and to my recollection we have never met. Additionally, while I live in Hot Springs, Arkansas. I have no association with Ten Strike Racing or any of its members. My concern about the information Mr. Gramm gained access to and was subsequently published online is not with the alleged unauthorized access to the veterinary information. My concern is why this information is not available to horseman who might claim a horse at a HISA-affiliated track.

My concerns are as follows:

If transparency is one of the goals of HISA, why are the records of claiming horses not accessible prior to the claiming race they are entered in. These records 'go with the horse' after the claim. If it is so important for the new owner to have these records after the claim why not make them available prior to the claim as the veterinary care a horse has been receiving might be a consideration in the decision to claim or not claim the horse. It looks like buyer beware under the current HISA rules.

For the record, I understand the soundness exam after the race the horse was claimed but it is an exam with no questions or input from the new owner or his veterinarian. What is the harm in the records being available to any HISA member for a horse in a claiming race?

Let's not be naive. If a prominent trainer goes to the veterinarian of a horse entered in a claiming race, I believe the information will be conveyed, either overtly or covertly.

The release of this information, in theory, will level the playing field. Under the current procedure who does this protect? Not the horse. It points out which trainers and owners rely on veterinarians to keep the horses in training when they should be given time off. Again, who benefits?

This is the information-digital age. To not make this available it looks like someone is trying to hide something.

Answer from HISA CEO Lisa Lazarus:

In recent weeks, there have been worthwhile questions raised about the public availability of data under HISA. It's important to set the stage for where we were, where we are now and what we as an industry are moving toward.

Prior to the passage of the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act, individual states and their racing commissions decided which information would be publicly available. This varied widely across states, with a few states making some treatment-related information available, and other states making no information available. Importantly, the treatment-related information that was publicly available in some states generally consisted of Veterinarians' List records related to certain treatments-such as shockwave therapy or joint injections-rather than the underlying treatment records themselves.

When HISA's Racetrack Safety Program went into effect in 2022, it was the first time that national rules required veterinarians and trainers to report veterinary treatment records to any single entity. The HISA Portal now houses a national database of information. Covered Persons have access to information about only their horses, and Regulatory Veterinarians have access to data concerning all Covered Horses.

During the implementation of HISA's Racetrack Safety rules, a policy decision was made that treatment records 'go with' the horse when ownership or training changes to establish a continuity of care for each horse.

In this case, the entire treatment history of each horse is transferred via the HISA Portal to the new ownership and connections when they are claimed out of a race or when a horse is otherwise sold or transferred.

Prior to HISA, horse health records did not automatically follow horses when they changed hands. In those cases, owners and trainers had to operate without the full picture. The implementation of HISA marked the first time records were made immediately accessible to subsequent connections upon the transfer of the horse, which has benefitted horses, owners and trainers.

Currently, HISA makes the Epistaxis and Unsoundness lists publicly available. These lists are available to anyone with an account in the HISA Portal because of the serious ramifications for horses' eligibility to race. Both lists have compounding stand-down times on racing for subsequent placement on the lists in a rolling 365-day period. Thus, HISA makes these lists public for anyone attempting to determine whether a horse that they may purchase is at risk of being ineligible to race as a result of placement on these lists.

The question of whether comprehensive horse health data should be made available to potential claimants is an issue HISA's leadership committees have discussed at length and one that is worthy of significant and thoughtful industry dialogue.

As custodians of the data, HISA will not decide what is publicly available in a vacuum. Veterinarians, owners, trainers, horsemen and others will ultimately help decide what information may or may not be made publicly available in the future.

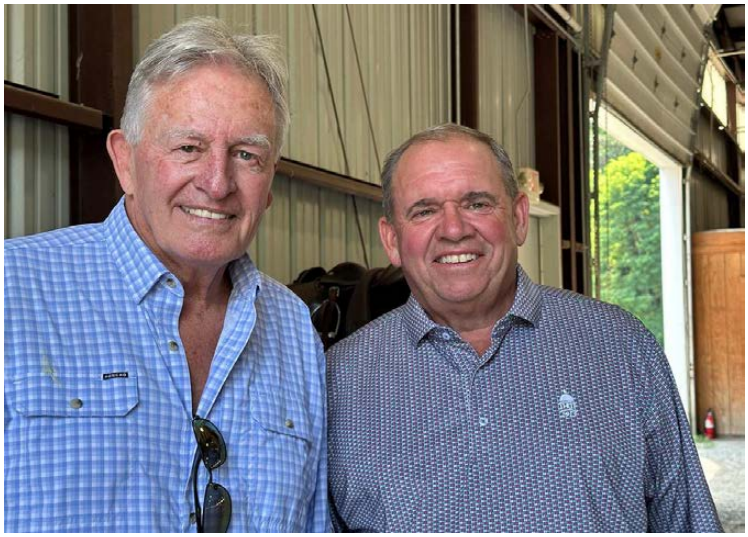
EAS SUMMIT BRINGS HOPE AND ENERGY TO LONG-TERM AFTERCARE

By Diana Pikulski



Bob Duncan and Frank Taylor at the summit | Diana Pikulski

By their successful track records in Equine Assisted Services (EAS), Thoroughbreds may have created their own solution to one of the most nagging aftercare questions: what is a sustainable model for providing care to the many Thoroughbreds that cannot go on to be riding horses or breeding stock (and what happens to the mares when they are no longer viable as broodmares)? Thoroughbreds are seen as the most effective equine partners in EAS, defined as a broad group of professional activities and therapies where horses help people improve their physical, mental, and social well-being. These programs range from licensed clinical therapies, mounted and unmounted, to unmounted learning experiences. The participants can include, by way of example, any person who wishes to improve their mental health and can range from people with autism and veterans with PTSD, to children with anxiety, people dealing with addiction, and incarcerated people with any number of conditions.

On August 12, some of the most accomplished providers of equine-assisted services and some of the most successful breeders and owners in the racing industry came together to collaborate on a way to put more off-track Thoroughbreds to work helping humans most in need of services. The inaugural Equine Assisted Services Summit, hosted by the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance (TAA) in Saratoga Springs, brought together nine EAS groups with industry leaders such as Duncan and Frank Taylor of Taylor Made Farm, and marked a pivotal milestone in bridging the gap between competitive horse racing and long-term equine welfare.

"We could not have been more pleased with the EAS Summit in Saratoga," said Stacie Clark of the TAA. "The combination of insightful presentations and powerful demonstrations clearly highlighted the remarkable potential of the Thoroughbred in Equine Assisted Services and the many ways these horses can positively impact people's lives. Whether through Second Chances programs like those offered by the TRF, veteran programs supported by many of our TAA organizations, or programs serving families affected by autism and at-risk youth, Thoroughbreds continue to demonstrate their versatility, sensitivity, and willingness to excel in these important roles."

What began in the 1980s with the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation as a mission to provide lifetime care and sanctuary for Thoroughbreds has evolved into a powerful human service movement. As was shown during the summit presentation, off-track Thoroughbreds-renowned for their intuition, sensitivity, and presence-are finding second callings as therapeutic partners in countless fields and with great success. Consistent positive results have led to, in recent years, as reported by Joell Dunlap of Square Peg Foundation, court systems, insurance providers and employers finding funding for their charges to participate.

At the summit, hosted across two facilities, Therapeutic Horses of Saratoga and Long Shadows Charitable Foundation, practitioners explained and demonstrated how these equine athletes seamlessly transition into equine-assisted programs that change human lives. The positive effect comes from general interaction and instruction in horsemanship, as well as from guided therapeutic sessions and riding. Presenters included ACTT Naturally, Brook Hill Farm, Down The Stretch Ranch, Long Shadows Charitable Foundation, Square Peg Foundation, The Foxie G. Foundation, Therapeutic Horses of Saratoga, and Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation

Unique to this inaugural summit was the clear collaboration across breeding and racing sectors to help establish best practices to match retired Thoroughbreds with tailored therapeutic roles. The Taylors, who founded the highly regarded Stable Recovery Program, were enthusiastic participants in the summit. Hearing of the unmitigated success of Stable Recovery in its EAS program for people with addiction raised emotions and awareness of the opportunities presented by the summit.

"The Equine-assisted services summit arranged by the Thoroughbred aftercare Alliance was awesome," said Duncan Taylor "This is a win-win opportunity--horses helping humans, humans helping horses. This is a real solution to put more aftercare horses to work, while helping our brothers and sisters who are suffering with physical and mental conditions. This could be the beginning of a real solution for aftercare and improved health for people."

The discussion throughout the summit and after focused on how to scale this model nationwide and make off-track Thoroughbreds a standard in human therapy.

"The TAA committed to expanding our own awareness and understanding of EAS and continuing to work with industry leaders of like mind to support continued research, development, and opportunities that demonstrate the value of the Thoroughbred beyond the racetrack," said Clark.

The next meeting is expected to be scheduled for late autumn 2026.

OWNER-BREEDER DICK BRODIE PASSES AWAY

Richard “Dick” Brodie, a prominent Thoroughbred owner and breeder who campaigned and bred horses primarily under the stable names Andrew Farm and RJB Bloodstock passed away August 16 after a battle with COPD. He was 84 years old.

A Detroit-based industrialist and the owner of Wico Metal Products in Warren, Michigan, he was a civic leader, philanthropist, and supporter of the arts in Michigan.

He first became involved in Thoroughbred racing in 1972, buying $2,000 claiming horses at Hazel Park in Detroit.

“Thanks to a man by the name of Bobby Scanlon, here I am (at Saratoga),” he told the Real Players Inside the Backstretch in 2023. “He introduced me to the gentlemen at Coolmore, and most of the horses they offer me, I take a little piece of. I breed all my mares to Coolmore stallions.”

Andrew Farm campaigned horses in partnership with owner prominent owners, including Mountmellick Farm (David Fennelly), For the People Racing Stable (T. Mike Morgan), and Will Stroud.

Among the horses he campaigned alone and in partnership were Life of Joy (Gun Runner), winner of the 2025 Rags to Riches Stakes and GII Fasig-Tipton Fair Grounds Oaks; Her World (Ire) (Caravaggio), who won the Tyro Stakes for trainer Wesley Ward in her first start; No Nay Hudson (Ire) (No Nay Never), winner of the GII Nearctic Stakes; Duveen, winner of the GIII Palm Beach Stakes and GIII Crown Royal American Turf; and Verstappen (War Front), winner of the 2023 GII Elkhorn at Keeneland. He was also an active breeder and commercial consignor and buyer across major Keeneland and Fasig-Tipton auctions, regularly partnering on pinhooks, yearling sales, and broodmares. He was a member of the Keeneland Club and the Thoroughbred Club.

He is survived by wife of 62 years, Joanne, two daughters, Margaret Williams, and Pauline Fisher, and grandchildren Brodie, Hudson, Madeleine, and Ben Fisher, who was his constant companion at the races over the past several years.

He also leaves behind saddened friends from the Coolmore team, including M.V. Magnier, Paul Shanahan, and Charlie O'Connor.

“He was one of the most entertaining men I have ever met in my life,” said O'Connor. “We were extremely close. I would hold him in regard as one of my best friends. The world won't be the same without him. He was very close with everybody here at Ashford. He always stayed in the guest house at Ashford Stud, we have great, fond memories of his time here.”

Brodie will be remembered for his leadership, generosity, and unwavering commitment to the people and institutions he supported. Whether in business, the arts, thoroughbred racing, or the organizations he served, he believed in active engagement, meaningful contribution, and pursuing excellence without compromise.

A memorial service celebrating his life will be held Saturday, September 12, 2026, at 10 a.m. at Christ Church Cranbrook in Bloomfield Hills, Michigan. A celebration of life will follow at Bloomfield Hills Country Club.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests that memorial contributions be made to The DAC Foundation in support of the Ted Gillary Employee Academic Scholarship Fund, 241 Madison Street, Detroit, MI 48226 to continue Brodie's legacy of investing in the education and future of others.

Evershed, a longshot runner-up in last summer's GII Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Oaks Invitational S. at the Spa Aug. 9, delivered her first career stakes victory in Friday's GIII Waya S.

The 7-2 chance raced in a tracking third beneath Flavien Prat for most of the 1 3/8-mile journey, was locked and loaded on the far turn and shot through along the fence in the stretch to get the money.

Eighth in the GIII Jockey Club Oaks at Aqueduct Nov. 15, Evershed kicked off her 4-year-old campaign with a very useful third-place finish going 1 1/16 miles in an optional claimer at Colonial July 19.

“The pace scenario was a big question mark, obviously,” winning trainer Arnaud Delacour said. “There was not a lot of speed. Flavien (Prat) knew that. It probably helped as well that we had a great post, post number one. He got her out of there, then he was able to get her to settle and have plenty of options."

CITY-WIDE CELEBRATION IN LEXINGTON PLANNED FOR BREEDERS' CUP WEEK

Mayor Linda Gorton | Katie Petrunyak

As the Breeders' Cup World Championships prepare to return to Lexington, Mayor Linda Gorton joined Breeders' Cup Festival organizers to announce week-long plans for a city-wide celebration for racing fans, residents, and visitors from around the world.

"We are back in the saddle and once again ready to welcome the Breeders' Cup home to Lexington," Mayor Linda Gorton said.

"No host city embraces the Breeders' Cup quite like Lexington does, and this year will be no different. Our city will be shining brightly, ready to welcome guests and showcase this world-class equine tradition."

"The return of the Breeders' Cup to Lexington marks more than two extraordinary days of racing - it is an opportunity to celebrate the people, traditions, and community that make Central Kentucky the heart of the Thoroughbred industry," said Drew Fleming, President and CEO of Breeders' Cup Limited. "The Breeders' Cup Festival has become an important part of that experience, extending the excitement of the World Championships throughout the city and creating opportunities for visitors and residents alike to be part of this special week. We are grateful to Mayor Gorton and the many community partners whose enthusiasm and collaboration will once again help us welcome the best Thoroughbreds from around the globe, along with their connections and fans."

Tom Harris, Festival organizer said, "With the help of so many partners and sponsors, including four-time title sponsor Common Spirit, we've been able to craft quite a week of celebration. Starting with an equine-themed family day in Gatton Park on the Town Branch, the entire festival is meant to excite, educate, and entertain those visiting or living here in the heart of horse country."

'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' Sea Strike (Midshipman) figures to be the wise guy horse in the race and figures to get overbet. That said, he has a strong chance of winning this race. He improved a ton in the Curlin Stakes when going a distance for the first time. The 102 Beyer he got in that race is the best among anyone in this field. He also romped by 8 1/4 lengths over a pretty good horse in fellow 'Rising Star' Chief Wallabee (Constitution). Golden Tempo (Curlin), yet another 'Rising Star' has had Renegade's number, but things may change Saturday. Renegade (Into Mischief) is coming off a strong performance in the GII Jim Dandy Stakes and may be sitting on top of a big race. It's impossible to knock Golden Tempo. He's the leader of the division and won two-thirds of the Triple Crown. That he won the GI Belmont Stakes without the benefit of a huge speed duel in front of him showed that he's for real. --Bill Finley

Have to go with what is the very obvious pick here, 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' Ways and Means (Practical Joke). She towers over this field on the Beyer numbers and is 5-for-6 at Saratoga. Maida (Improbable) has been in great form this year for the potent Brittany Russell stable. Eclatant (Into Mischief) is another who has posted some big Beyer numbers. Should get a good trip sitting just off what figures to be a fast pace. R Disaster (Awesome Slew) has strong credentials and is a Grade I winner, but we're going to stay away from any horses from the barn of Saffie Joseph, Jr., who is ice cold at Saratoga. --Bill Finley

Let's try to beat the favorite. 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' Local Knowledge (Yaupon) has the credentials to beat fellow 'Rising Star' Englishman (Maxfield) if that one doesn't fire his best shot. He ran a strong and improved race when winning the GII Amsterdam Stakes, holding on to win by a head after dueling through some very fast fractions. We might not have seen his best yet. Englishman may just be a freak, but does he have to win at what will be a short price? Before his sensational win in the GI Woody Stephens Stakes, his Beyer numbers weren't sensational. And even with 2 1/2 months of rest, he very well could be a bounce candidate. Deep Flame (Into Mischief) is also fast, having run a 103 Beyer when blowing out the field in the GIII Maxfield Stakes. If Englishman doesn't bring his A game, he's another who could spring what would be a mild upset. --Bill Finley

She squandered a three-length lead in the stretch in the GII Shuvee Stakes to lose to Fully Subscribed (Tiz the Law), but, on the numbers, it was her best race since the CCA Oaks. This will be her third start off a layoff and she is on a form cycle that suggests further improvement. Fully Subscribed will be a deserving favorite for the Brown-Prat team. No knocks on her. Am just trying to get a little value with the top pick. Snowyte (Good Magic) could set the pace and ran creditably when third in the Shuvee. --Bill Finley

As the President of the Book'em Danno Fan Club, I am obligated to pick the son of Bucchero to repeat in the GI Forego Stakes. Last year's sprint champ has been pointing for this race since he began his 5-year-old year season. With the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint in mind, he's been carefully managed this year and will no doubt bring his A game back to Saratoga, where he sports a record of five wins from six starts. Does not face a particularly strong field. Senior Officer (Into Mischief) has never been worse than second in a six-race career and has won two straight at Saratoga. Steps way up in class, but looks like a horse who could finish second behind Danno. 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' Tip Top Thomas (Volatile) missed by just a neck when facing Senior Officer last time out in his first start off a 7 1/2-month layoff. --Bill Finley

Picking a classy European shipper in an American turf stakes is never a bad idea. Sayidah Dariyan (Ire) (Dariyan {Fr}) fits that pattern. This filly has held her own in Group I company and is coming off a good effort in a Group 3 at Goodwood. This will be the first-ever start in the U.S. for trainer Richard Hughes. Can you beat Ag Bullet (Twirling Candy)? She will be looking for her third straight win in this race and Kentucky Downs obviously brings out the best in her. But she's had a 2026 campaign that raises some questions because she has raced just once. She is coming off a strong effort in the GI Jaipur Stakes, where she finished second behind males. She's going to be tough to beat. Cloe (Tiz the Law) ran well here last year when second in the GII Music City Stakes. Goes for Mike Maker, who has won 90 races at Kentucky Downs during his career. --Bill Finley

Not going to try to get cute here. Naomis (Fr) (City Light {Fr}) is a Group 2 winner in France who will be making her debut for Chad Brown, who has won this race six times. Before the stakes win, she beat the boys. Based on how well European imports have fared at this meet, she should be better than the competition. Queen of Hawaii (Ire) (Kingman {GB}) won in her first start for trainer Phil Antonacci, who is batting 29 percent. Another who showed strong European form before coming to the U.S. Brown will also send out 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' Deep Learning (Cairo Prince), who ran a career best race when second after a wide trip in the GIII Lake George Stakes. He's run against the two best turf horses in the country in his last two starts in Deterministic (Liam's Map) and Burnham Square (Liam's Map) and has held his own. Graham Motion is 2-for-2 at the meet with his shippers. Atitlan (The Factor) was third in this race last year and should improve off a solid effort in a one-mile race, a distance that is not a good fit for him. --Bill Finley

Let's go with the Cal-bred star Big City Lights (Mr. Big). There's no real speed in this race, but he's faster early than anyone else in the field. Hasn't run since May 23, but has a history of running well off the layoff and shows a pair of bullet workouts while getting ready for this for Hall of Famer Richard Mandella. March of Time (Vekoma) is five and has raced just five times, which is a red flag. But this is not a stellar field and he's run well this year for Bob Baffert. Dr. Venkman (Ghostzapper) isn't in great form, but he won this race last year and is 4-for-8 at Del Mar. --Bill Finley

She's No Quant (Pavel) loses J.J. Hernandez, but that's understandable since he's opted to ride for Bob Baffert on Rabeeba (Curlin). The Cal-bred filly tries open company for the first time, but this is far from a tough spot. She ran a bang-up race in the seven-furlong Fleet Treat Stakes, which was her first try on dirt. She now has to prove she can handle two turns and a mile, but is a horse who has won three straight and should provide some value in this race. Rabeeba figures to be over bet because of the Baffert factor. That doesn't mean she can't win. Daughter of Curlin is undefeated and had no problem with this distance when winning a Del Mar allowance on July 26. On paper, it doesn't look like Bank Shot (Game Winner) is in good form, but she has been facing much better. Might have a chance, but both jockey and trainer are ice cold at this meet. --Bill Finley

PAY MONTHLY HITS THE BANK FOR GOLDEN PAL AT SARATOGA

Pay Monthly | Sarah Andrew

by Stefanie Grimm

First-time starter Pay Monthly (Golden Pal) got the best of several more experienced rivals Friday in the Saratoga opener, becoming the 19th winner for her freshman sire (by Uncle Mo).

Sent up to stalk the pace set by Quartz Mountain (Golden Pal) in this 5 1/2 furlong turf sprint, the 7-1 shot sat right off that rival's flank into the far turn as the top pair separated themselves from the rest of the field by a widening margin.

Head and head turning for home with no one making up any discernable ground from the back, Pay Monthly steadily got the better of her rival to the inside and began to draw away nicely in the final sixteenth, leading in Quartz Mountain who won the photo for second over Breaker (Into Mischief).

7-5 race favorite Rockabye (Flightline) was fourth.

"We like her and she's fast," trainer Brad Cox told Saratoga Live's Maggie Wolfendale after the race. "[She] broke well today and [winning rider] Luis [Saez] put her in a good position. Thanks to Valor Farm [owner Douglas Scharbauer] for sending her to us."

"They selected her last year as a yearling at Keeneland and she's been very precocious since she came to us in the spring. I do think the grass is what she wants to do. We'd never worked her on it but she showed up well today."

Bred in Kentucky by the partnership of Emcee Stable LLC, Fortune Farm & Purple H Bloodstock, Pay Monthly twice passed through the Keeneland Sales ring, first as a weanling for $200,000 and then last September as mentioned for $350,000 to Douglas Scharbauer.

First dam Monthly, a winner on the grass in her own racing career, is a daughter of 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' Funfair, making her a half-sister to MGSW and Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint hero Four Wheel Drive (American Pharoah).

Sold through the Fasig-Tipton Digital platform in Dec. 2024, Monthly has two winners from four to race with a yearling Gunite colt and a weanling Jackie's Warrior filly both still to represent her. She was served by Taiba for 2027.

BITTERSWEET MEMORY GOES GATE TO WIRE TO BREAK MAIDEN AT SARATOGA

by J.N. Campbell

In what was the second start of her career, Bittersweet Memory (The Factor--Candy Floss, by Twirling Candy) controlled the tempo and went all the way to graduate at the Spa on Friday afternoon.

The NBS homebred made her first start going two turns over the turf upstate Aug. 1. That afternoon she was unable to catch Mark Casse trainee Voyager (Justify), who led from the bell and sealed the deal. Voyager is nominated and currently working out at Woodbine for next month's GI Johnnie Walker Natalma Stakes.

Tabbed as the 6-1 choice here, Bittersweet Memory got down to business at the break and came through with the lead as the field made for the first turn. The 2-year-old proceeded to make every pole a winning one through the top of the lane. Digging down for more speed, the filly got to the wire in time by a neck over favorite and first-time starter Sellonthenews (GB) (Lope de Vega {Ire}).

"You know, I had the opportunity to work her in the morning and I really liked her that day," jockey Luis Saez told Maggie Wolfendale on the FOX Sports show 'Day At The Races.' "We had a lot of rain, so we couldn't work on turf. She worked on the dirt and handled it pretty well. I thought we had a big chance today.

"I had a lot of horse at the top of the stretch," he added.

"You can see her action with her ear looking around, and she was just waiting for the other horses to get close, so she could just keep going again."

Her dam's first foal, Bittersweet Memory has a yearling half-sister by Jackie's Warrior. Candy Floss was purchased by McMahon & Hill Bloodstock for $30,000 during Keeneland January while a colt by Up to the Mark was in utero. She was entered in Patch Adams's book for 2027.

Bittersweet Memory's second dam--who passed away in 2023--was a half-sister to GSW Revolutionary (War Pass) and she foaled the dam of MSW Rated By Merit (Battalion Runner).

SATURDAY INSIGHTS: KAS UNLEASHES ANOTHER FLIGHTLINE COLT AT DEL MAR

by Jessica Martini

Ala Sawab | Fasig-Tipton

1st-DMR, $100k, Msw, 2yo, 6f, 5:00 p.m. ET

Just two weeks ago, KAS Stables and trainer John Sadler sent out Inshallah (Flightline) to a 'TDN Rising Star presented by Hagyard' debut at Del Mar. The Saudi-based operation will again team up with Sadler with another debuting son of Flightline, Ala Sawab, who faces four rivals in the opener at Del Mar Saturday.

The colt, who has been working strongly at the oceanside oval, was a $400,000 purchase by bloodstock agent Pedro Lanz at the Fasig-Tipton October sale last fall.

"We are very happy with the way this colt has been performing," Lanz said. "He has shown a lot of talent in the mornings. What really amazes me about him is the length of his stride. He is a colt with extraordinary reach. He has always shown a good mind and, in short, he has given every indication of being a special colt."

Purchased from the Denali Stud consignment as part of the complete dispersal of Woodford Thoroughbreds, the colt is out of stakes winner and graded-placed Message (Warrior's Reward).

Lanz also signed the $2.1-million ticket on Inshallah at the Fasig-Tipton Midlantic May sale earlier this year.

"As for Flightline, I have said it many times, I believe he is going to make history as a stallion, just as he did as a racehorse. The little we were able to see during the 2-year-old sales season, and so far on the track in Japan and here in America, is a clear sign of what is coming. I think we will see many sons of Flightline competing in the best juvenile races this year. It will be something to see."

Also debuting Saturday at Del Mar is Riccelli (Nyquist), purchased by the Front Row Club, Starlight Racing, Madaket Stable, et al partnership for $850,000 at last year's Keeneland September sale and trained by Bob Baffert. He is out of Iaintfraidanoghost (Ghostzapper).

"He was named after the one and only Rita Riccelli," confirmed Front Row Club's Tom Ryan. "We are definitely looking forward to getting him started. It would have been preferable to have had a run under his belt already, but here we are."

Ryan continued, "Six [furlongs] is a good spot to get this colt up and running. Hopefully, he will acquit himself well. He has been training well for the debut and we would hope he wants an extra few furlongs in time. As you know, sometimes there are very short fields in California, but they are often deep with class. I believe this is one of those types of races."

Baffert also sends out Cicero Farms' homebred Emancipate (Uncle Mo), who was fourth after a slow start and traffic troubles in his 5 1/2-furlong debut at Del Mar Aug. 15. The bay colt is a son of GI Ballerina Stakes winner Marley's Freedom (Blame) and his half-sister Hope Road (Quality Road) captured that same race last year. Ron and Barbara Perry of Cicero Farms opted to take the colt home after bidding stalled at $800,000 at last year's Keeneland September sale. TJCIS PPs

Eight juveniles line up in the traditionally strong maiden special weight opener to the GI Travers Stakes day card. Vinnie Viola's St. Elias Stable will be represented by a pair of runners, with Chad Brown saddling first-time starter Up to the Task (Nashville) and George Weaver sending out firster Beau Valor (Beau Liam), co-owned with R. A. Hill Stable, RAP Racing, and Chris Mara.

Up to the Task, out of Closet Shopper (Tapit), was purchased for $525,000 at this year's OBS March sale.

"He has continued to train very well since joining Chad Brown's stable," said St. Elias's Monique Delk. "He is an attractive, well-balanced colt that has done everything asked of him. We are expecting a good run from him."

Beau Valor, a son of Love Affair (Malibu Moon) and a half-brother to stakes winner Kale's Angel (Complexity), was purchased for $525,000 at last year's Keeneland September sale.

"He's a big, beautiful son of Beau Liam," Delk said of the colt. "He's a lovely representation of his sire. He's been training well. George Weaver was happy with his gate work last week."

Beau Valor worked four furlongs from the gate in :47.05 (3/151) Aug. 16 and returned to work five furlongs over the dirt training track in 1:01.20 (3/8) Aug. 22.

Glen Hill Farm's Roll Wave (Into Mischief), trained by Tom Proctor, will look to get back on track following a green effort when sixth in his debut over this track and trip Aug. 1. The colt, a son of graded stakes winner Eres Tu (Malibu Moon), was a $900,000 purchase at the 2024 Keeneland November sale.

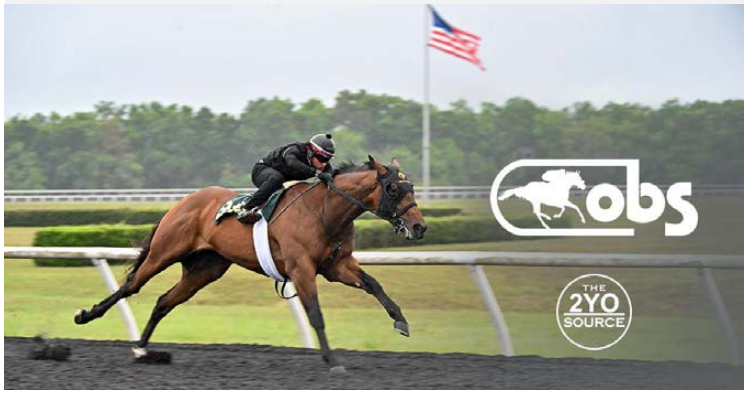
SUMMER BREEZES:

Nashville Colt Looks To Live Up To Name at the Spa



Some of the most highly anticipated races during the summer season are the 'baby' races during the boutique meetings. Summer Breezes, sponsored by OBS Sales, highlights debuting and stakes-entered 2-year-olds at those meetings that have been sourced at the breeze-up sales earlier in the year, including links to their under-tack previews. Here are the entries for Travers Day at Saratoga and Del Mar. Information gathered by Alan Carasso.

Elder statesman Spirit of St Louis continues to age with grace as the 7-year-old earned his first win since the GI Old Forester Bourbon Turf Classic at Churchill Downs last summer, taking Friday's West Point Stakes at Saratoga for Chad Brown.

Knocking on the door in his last three starts, the $1.9-million earner has hit the board in three of four runs this season including a pair of course and near distance as recently as July 23.

The 4-1 shot, drawn inside Friday, split the field for much of the early running and was patiently handled by regular pilot Manny Franco through fractions of :24.03 and :46.89 behind pacesetter and 4-5 race favorite Mi Bago (Vekoma).

Spirit of St Louis (outside) | Sarah Andrew

Able to hug the rail into the far turn, Spirit of St Louis responded well to urging when tipped wide for a stretch rally and was able to drive past late leader Sounds Like a Plan, just prevailing late by a half-length.

"I did think at the beginning of the year he was losing a step," Brown admitted post race. "It's funny. He came here to train in Saratoga and has thrived, but the turf courses, numbers wise, have just never been his favorite courses. He's had a great career, just not here at Saratoga. A lot of close races. When you talk about that 12-for-24 record, a lot of the losses were here. Close losses, but here. He drew great today. It was a good pace setup. I talked to [jockey] Manny [Franco], ended up with the one hole with the scratch. I said, 'You know, he doesn't love Saratoga, but he's doing so well, he's finding his youth. I mean, he's training like he's a couple of years younger currently, and if you are able to just get a dream trip with a good setup, he might be able to overcome the fact he's a couple of lengths slower on this turf course.' I think that's exactly what happened."

Beautifully bred by Chester and Mary Broman, Spirit of St Louis is a full-brother to Breeders' Cup hero Bar of Gold whose 2-year-old son Inshallah (Flightline), a $2.1-million Midlantic sale topper, was named a 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' at Del Mar earlier in the month. Khancord Kid was unfortunately lost in 2023 with her youngest foal being the now 3-year-old Kid's Khanclusion (Medaglia d'Oro).

HAMMERIN HENRY (c, 2, Cyberknife--Little Miss Raelyn, by Super Ninety Nine) faced this same state-bred maiden class as the beaten favorite in his 5 1/2-furlong debut July 12, finishing third. Drawn furthest out Friday and getting an extra furlong to work with, the 4-1 shot had plenty of pace early, prompting frontrunner McMoon (McKinzie) through the half in :45.44. Wearing down that rival into the stretch, he had a strong closing kick, drawing off through the final sixteenth for a 4 3/4-length win over closing first-time starter Just You Baby (King for a Day). The eighth winner for GI Haskell Stakes winner and GI Arkansas Derby winner Cyberknife (by Gun Runner), a stallion who was campaigned by this colt's breeder Gold Square, Hammerin Henry is a half-brother to SP Toga Twist (Omaha Beach). Little Miss Raelyn has a yearling full-sister to this winner and a weanling Arabian Knight colt. She is due next year to Goal Oriented. Sales History: $77,000 Ylg '25 SARAUG. 6th-Del Mar, $81,500, Msw, 8-28, 2yo, f, 5fT, :57.72, fm, neck.
DELUGE (f, 2, Maximus Mischief--Theperfectvow {MSW, $245,311}, by Majesticperfection) went off favored at 9-5 in this turf sprint debut for Bob Baffert in her first trip to the oval in the afternoon since bringing $280,000 as an OBS March 2-year-old grad earlier this year. Racing a close-up fourth from the outside behind pacesetter Stormy Sunset (Army Mule), she lost ground around the turn but had enough momentum to sustain a bid as she engaged that leader into the final furlong and just pushed by in time, denying Stormy Sunset by a neck. 'Insighted' runner and 9-5 second choice On Edge (Flightline) checked in fourth. Theperfectvow, now with two winners from as many to race, has a yearling Vekoma filly and reported a filly by Muth this spring. She is due next year to Chancer McPatrick. BLOND ROAST (f, 4, Medaglia d'Oro--Strike Charmer {MGSW, $670,730}, by Smart Strike), denied by a neck going a mile at Delaware Park July 21, got a bit of extra distance Friday as the even-money favorite at Colonial. Able to tuck down from the middle of the gate to save ground, she sat a close-up third through the half in :48.13. As frontrunner Mischievous Twins (Nyquist) left a gap open around the turn, Blond Roast took advantage of the seam and came through the inside to hit the front, leading in Sister Jean (McKinzie) by three-quarters of a length. GII Ballston Spa winner Strike Charmer sold to Mt. Brilliant Farm for $800,000 at Keeneland November in 2018. She has four winners from five to the track with her 2-year-old Life Is Good filly bringing $310,000 from Gainesway earlier this year at the OBS April Sale. She was bred to both Raging Torrent and Bolt d'Oro for 2027. Sales History: $140,000 RNA Ylg '23 KEESEP. BLAME ASHLEY (f, 2, Blame--Nawaadir {GB}, by Oasis Dream {GB}) took this field gate to wire as the 7-5 favorite, taking steady pressure early from Just Liberty (Justify) to her outside but running away from that rival when it mattered, drawing off by 4 1/4 lengths in the end. GROUP 1 WINNER TIFFANY CONFIRMED FOR TATTERSALLS SCEPTRE SESSIONS

Marsha: topped the December Mares Sale in 2017 for the same ownership group | Tattersalls

Group 1 winner Tiffany (Farhh) is the latest big name that Tattersalls has confirmed for the Sceptre Sessions of the December Mares Sale.

A winner of the Grosser Preis von Berlin on her latest start, she will be consigned by her trainer Sir Mark Prescott's Heath House Stables and will be one of the highlights of the fifth edition of the Sceptre Sessions, which showcases some of the finest fillies and mares in Europe.

Commenting on Tiffany's inclusion in the Sceptre Sessions, Elite Racing Club's Dan Downie said, "The Elite Racing Club enjoyed a remarkable night at the Tattersalls December Mares Sale back in 2017 when our Group 1-winning sprinter Marsha sold for a record-breaking 6,000,000 guineas and so it is only appropriate to bring her close relative Tiffany back to the same sale ring to be offered in the Tattersalls Sceptre Sessions.

"Tiffany has been a wonderful flag-bearer for the Elite Racing Club and we have enjoyed many great days out on the racecourse, winning eight of her 18 starts, five of them at Group & listed level both in Britain and abroad." Cont. p3

NO AUTUMN CAMPAIGN FOR ESTRANGE AS CHEVELEY PARK RETIRES ITS STAR MARE

Cheveley Park Stud has announced the immediate retirement of its top-class racemare Estrange (Night of Thunder).

The five-year-old won six of her nine starts for trainer David O'Meara and was last seen claiming Group 1 glory in the Pretty Polly Stakes at the Curragh at the end of June.

Estrange was last month scratched from the Yorkshire Oaks, with connections planning for an autumn campaign that was set to include a tilt at the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, but time has now been called on her career on the track.

A statement from Cheveley Park Stud read, "Whilst Estrange has not had ideal conditions with the very dry summer, it has been decided to retire her to the paddocks.

"Estrange suffered some bone bruising during her last race, which meant she has had to have an easy time since and, although an autumn campaign was being envisaged, time is running out to have her fully fit. Therefore Mrs Thompson feels, as she has won her Group 1, it is time for her to retire to the paddocks. Cont. p3

"The Sceptre Sessions at the Tattersalls December Mares Sale has quickly become the most important stage within Europe at which to showcase top-class fillies and mares and we are confident that she will appeal to both owners and breeders who are looking to acquire a Group 1 winning mare with a deep and active pedigree.

"She will be a wonderful addition to any breeding operation and we are excited to offer her at Tattersalls."

Tattersalls Managing Director Matthew Prior added, "Tiffany is an exceptional racehorse, and we are privileged to offer her on behalf of the Elite Racing Club at the Tattersalls December Mares Sale.

"The Sceptre Sessions were established to highlight the very best fillies and mares at Europe's leading breeding stock sale. With a race record and pedigree of Tiffany's quality, she is set to be among the standout offerings at this year's sale and is sure to appeal to leading racing and breeding operations from around the World.

"With Tiffany and See The Fire already confirmed for this year's Sceptre Sessions, Europe's premier breeding stock sale is already shaping up to be a particularly exciting edition, with further quality additions expected in the near future."

The Tattersalls December Mares Sale takes place from 30th November to 3rd December.

"Estrange has given Patricia Thompson, her son Richard, their family and all of us at Cheveley Park Stud some wonderful moments on the racecourse and we cannot thank David O'Meara and his staff enough for training her so wonderfully."

Estrange's CV also includes back-to-back wins in the Group 3 Lester Piggott Stakes and a Group 2 success in last season's Lancashire Oaks.

The grey was second to Minnie Hauk in the Yorkshire Oaks last summer and having subsequently missed the Arc after suffering a setback, she rounded off her 2025 campaign by chasing home Kalpana on Champions Day at Ascot.

Cheveley Park said mating plans for Estrange have yet to be finalised.

WEEKEND WATCHLIST: FIVE THINGS TO FOLLOW IN EUROPE THIS WEEKEND

by Tom Frary

There are no Group 1 races in Europe this weekend, but plenty of talking points with the action featuring some sought-after prizes. Below is a quintet of matters to focus the racing mind from Britain, Ireland and France:

Zavateri | Alice Fitzgerald

Can Zavateri Get Back On Track?

Last year's Vincent O'Brien National Stakes, July Stakes and Vintage Stakes hero Zavateri (Without Parole) has spent a while out of the winner's enclosure, but Saturday's G2 Celebration Mile offers the Mariscottis' flagbearer the ideal chance to shine again facing a clutch of mostly exposed older horses. Having run such a good race in the Sussex off a break, he was under-par in the City of York but could have bounced there and maybe seven furlongs is too tight for him now.

How Good Is Rock Montreal?

He cost 1million gns and got his career off to a suitably impressive start at Yarmouth earlier this month, but Godolphin's Rock Montreal (Blue Point) has to deliver on one of the bigger stages now tackling eight peers in Saturday's G3 Solario Stakes. Roger Varian's well-connected colt bids to add his name to an illustrious list to have won Sandown's juvenile feature including Field Of Gold, Too Darn Hot, Masar, Kingman and Raven's Pass and the vibes are strong. Cont. p5

Cheveley Park Target The Atalanta Again

Sandown's G3 Atalanta Stakes is a key race for Cheveley Park's select homebreds and the mile contest has been won four times by the Stud since 2013, so it is highly probable that big runs are expected from the Prix Rothschild third Moon Target (Cracksman) and the Michael Seely Memorial Stakes runner-up So Regal (Kingman). With the other crack three-year-olds Secret Of Life (Pinatubo) and Calendar Girl (Advertise) and the Valiant Stakes winner Kon Tiki (Night Of Thunder) engaged, this is a strong renewal of a race that can act as a pivot towards bigger things to come with Saffron Beach, Dank and Persuasive just three recent winners who went on to hit the heights.

Can O'Callaghan's Colt Tower Over Ballydoyle?

Following the recent Curragh maiden win of Push The Boat Out (Kodi Bear), Michael O'Callaghan spoke in glowing terms about his two-year-old colt and it is significant that he opts to send him up against Ballydoyle's Coventry winner Great Barrier Reef (No Nay Never) in Saturday's G3 Heider Family Stables Round Tower Stakes at The Curragh. With the Railway Stakes winner Celeron also in the yard, the locally based trainer has a smart yardstick to measure this grey against.

Last Call For Rouget?

This week's sad news that Jean-Claude Rouget is to cease training next month means that racing will be losing a big figure much sooner than expected, so Sunday's G2 Lucien Barriere Grand Prix de Deauville will offer up emotive scenes if stable star Arrow Eagle (Gleneagles) delivers. Adding gravitas to the occasion, last year's Prix Royal-Oak hero is a half-brother to Ace Impact, one of the horses that cemented Rouget's global reputation.

GOLDEN HORN NOMINATION HEADLINES RACING TO CRICKET AUCTION

Golden Horn | Emma Berry

A nomination to multiple Group 1 winner and proven Group 1 sire Golden Horn is among the headline lots at this year's Racing to Cricket Tournament at Wormsley Cricket Ground on Sunday 6 September, with the event raising funds exclusively for Racing Welfare.

Advance bids are now open for all auction lots, giving those unable to attend the event the opportunity to bid ahead of the live auction. Bids can be placed with Sue Wallis at suewallis@pacems.co.uk, with telephone bidding also available for those unable to attend on the day.

Generously donated by Jayne McGivern of Dash Grange Stud, the Golden Horn nomination offers breeders a rare opportunity to secure access to one of the leading sires standing at Overbury Stud. Golden Horn won the Derby, Eclipse, Irish Champion Stakes and Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe before embarking on a successful career at stud.

The live auction will take place at Wormsley on Sunday 6 September, with advance bidding available now and telephone bidding also available for those unable to attend.

DATE SET FOR HUGELY POPULAR ROUTE DES ETALONS IN JANUARY 2027

Siyouni | Emma Berry

The hugely popular Route Des Etalons, which showcases some of the best stallions that France has to offer, has been set for the weekend of January 22 and 23.

The Route Des Etalons has become a key fixture for breeders and racing enthusiasts in recent years.

Roughly 20 stud farms around Normandy will open their doors and stallions like Siyouni and Goliath Du Berlais will be on show.

Further information regarding the event, the participating stud farms, and more will be available later this year at www.laroutedesetalons.com.

EQUUIP WEBINAR TO ADDRESS MENTAL HEALTH AND WELLBEING IN IRISH RACING

Equuip will host an online webinar on Thursday 10 September at 6.30pm, focusing on mental health and the importance of recognising and responding to the pressures experienced by people working across the racing industry.

'The Weight We Carry: Protecting Mental Health in the Racing Industry' will explore some of the challenges that can come with a career in racing, including long hours, financial pressures, performance expectations, physical demands and the responsibility of caring for animals.

The webinar will focus on practical, positive ways to protect mental wellbeing, helping participants to recognise signs of stress early, build resilience and feel better equipped to support colleagues and friends.

Leading the session will be Barbara Louise Brennan, workplace mental health authority, multi-award winner, suicide survivor and founder of Mental Health Matters. Registration is now open: https://bit.ly/4wLMUbV.

SOLID HANDICAP CHASER SOLITARY MAN HEADLINES GOFFS GO CATALOGUE

Solitary Man| Goffs

Solid handicap chaser Solitary Man, who landed the Midlands National at Kilbeggan earlier this summer, headlines the Goffs Go Early September catalogue.

The GoffsGo Early September Sale will be held next week with bidding opening on Wednesday 2 September at 12 noon and closing on Thursday 3 September from 2pm. The 22 horses on offer will consist of 16 horses-in-training, two mares and four yearlings.

Henry Beeby commented on the line-up, "The GoffsGo Early September Sale presents another diverse catalogue and the platform continues to expand its reach with new sellers and buyers active for every sale. Its current top price of £245,000 is the highest price achieved by any UK or Irish online sale so far in 2026, that's a great achievement and one of which we are proud.

"GoffsGo provides outstanding value with an entry fee of just £49 and the lowest available vendor commission of 1.5% which is only charged for lots that sell on the platform. That is unmatched by any other European online platform. Vendors and purchasers also benefit from the same terms of business and the unique and transparent Goffs service that is evident at all live Goffs sales, regardless of location."

Prospective buyers wishing to bid in the GoffsGo Early September Sale must register online before the sale commences. More information on the sale can be gleaned from Ruairi Breen on +353 45 886600.

TBA RELEASES NEW TRACEABILITY ANIMATION AND DEDICATED LEARNING RESOURCE

Following ongoing studies into the lifetime traceability of the 2018 and 2019 British thoroughbred foal crops, the Thoroughbred Breeders' Association (TBA) has released a new animation and supporting free-to-view learning resource on TB-Ed to improve understanding of the key traceability touchpoints throughout a thoroughbred's life.

Launched during National Racehorse Week (22-31 August), the new resources provide a timely opportunity to educate both those working within the industry and the wider public about how thoroughbreds are tracked throughout their lives, why accurate and timely information is so important, and the shared responsibilities involved in achieving comprehensive lifetime traceability.

Kate Sigsworth, Deputy Chair of the TBA, commented, "Achieving comprehensive lifetime traceability is a shared responsibility across our whole industry. These new resources are about making those responsibilities clear, practical and easy to understand. Good traceability is not simply about recording data; it underpins our ability to demonstrate responsible ownership, support the health and welfare of the thoroughbred and better understand what happens to horses throughout their lives.

"The ongoing work undertaken on the 2018 and 2019 foal crops is a good start and has given us much needed data and a clearer picture of where gaps remain. Our focus now must be on turning that evidence into practical action for the whole industry, and we hope these resources will help everyone involved in breeding and owning thoroughbreds understand the part they can play in improving lifetime traceability."

The ongoing studies, led by the TBA and facilitated by Racing Foundation funding with the support of the Horse Welfare Board and BHA data analysis team, have identified areas where gaps in data and traceability remain and are being used to help develop practical measures to help close them, improve the quality and consistency of data captured throughout a horse's life and support the longer-term ambition of achieving complete lifetime traceability.

Briefly headed inside the final furlong, the 9-2 shot battled against the rail to re-assert close home and score by a neck from Old Oak (State Of Rest).

"He was very green at Kempton and has certainly come on for that experience," jockey William Buick said. "He jumped very well, was happy in front and I loved his attitude when they came at him. He is a beautiful individual and has plenty of Dubawi's good traits."

The dam, a half-sister to the Prix de Malleret winner Qilin Queen (Pinatubo), hails from the family of the Irish 1,000 Guineas heroine Nightime (Galileo) who produced Dubawi's multiple Group 1-winning sire Ghaiyyath and the Man o' War Stakes heroine Zhukova (Fastnet Rock). Her yearling filly is by Mostahdaf, while she also has a filly foal by Too Darn Hot. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $9,542.

AUTUMN GLOW CROWNED AUSTRALIAN HORSE OF THE YEAR

Autumn Glow | Bronwen Healy

Autumn Glow (The Autumn Sun) won Australian Horse Of The Year with 110 votes from Half Yours (St Jean {Ire}) (69 votes), Sheza Alibi (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}) (67 votes), last year's winner Via Sistina (Ire) (Fastnet Rock) (66 votes) and Sir Delius (GB) (Frankel {GB}) (65 votes).

Autumn Glow was sold by Newhaven Park Stud for $600,000 at the Magic Millions National Weanling Sale in 2022. Pinhooked by Silverdale Farm, they took her to the Inglis Easter Yearling Sale where she was bought by Arrowfield Stud and Hermitage Thoroughbreds for a mighty $1.8 million.

A half-sister to Group 1 winner and sire In The Congo, she is out of Champion South African racemare and Group 1 winner Via Africa (SAf) (Var {USA}).

Unbeaten at three in 2024/25, Autumn Glow was unbeaten in the spring of 2025 with four victories including the G1 Epsom Handicap and the Golden Eagle (which was upgraded to Group 1 status after this).

In the autumn, she returned in the same form, winning three in succession to take her unbeaten streak to 11 including winning the G1 Verry Elleegant Stakes and G1 George Ryder Stakes. She faced her first career defeat when third in the G1 Queen Elizabeth Stakes.

Autumn Glow also won the Champion Middle Distance Horse with 114 votes over nearest rivals Via Sistina on 101 votes, and Sir Delius on 97 votes.

Trained by Chris Waller, she resumed this season with victory in the G1 Winx Stakes to take her career record to 12 wins from 13 starts and earnings over $9 million.

DRAKENSTEIN STUD FOUNDATION STALLION TRIPPI PASSES AWAY

Trippi (1997-2026) | Courtesy Drakenstein Stud

Trippi (End Sweep--Jealous Appeal, by Valid Appeal), a Grade I-winning sprinter in America who became one of the most influential stallions in South Africa for Gaynor Rupert's Drakenstein Stud, has passed away aged 29.

A product of the Florida breeding operation of Harry T. Mangurian, Jr., Trippi was purchased by the late Cot Campbell's Dogwood Stable syndicate for $65,000 at the 1999 Keeneland Sale of 2-Year-Olds In Training and was turned over to future Hall of Fame trainer Todd Pletcher.

Winner of his first four career starts, including the Grade III Swale Stakes over seven furlongs and the Grade III Flamingo Stakes over a distance of ground, Trippi fought out the early fractions in the 2000 Grade I Kentucky Derby, but tired to finish in midfield. Restricted to one-turn races thereafter, Trippi was back to his best in the Grade II Riva Ridge Stakes against his peers and in the Grade II True North Stakes facing older sprinters and two starts later defeated stablemate More Than Ready for his elite-level success in the Vosburgh Stakes.

Trippi entered stud in 2002 at the O'Farrell family's Ocala Stud in Central Florida, where he was among the leading regional stallions. His 32 stakes winners from those seven Florida-sired crops included the Grade I-winning juvenile filly R Heat Lightning as well as Miss Macy Sue, victorious at Grade III level at the races whose legacy as a broodmare is secured as the dam of the current leading American stallions Liam's Map (Unbridled's Song) and Not This Time (Giant's Causeway).

After founding Drakenstein Stud in 2003, Gaynor Rupert visited the U.S. to have a look at 28 potential stallions and described Trippi as “the most beautiful horse she had ever seen.” The first stallion acquired by the fledgling operation, the bay came to South Africa following the 2008 Northern Hemisphere breeding season and has since gone on to become the foundation sire for one of the country's most important nurseries.

Trippi imparted speed, precocity and, often times, the ability to carry that speed over extended distances, becoming South Africa's champion sire in 2015/2016. He is the sire of 94 worldwide stakes winners, 47 at the graded/group level, and is responsible for a towering 13 elite-level scorers in South Africa.

Two of his champion sons are currently part of the Drakenstein roster. Charles Dickens (SAf) counted the prestigious GI King's Plate and GI Cape Guineas among his 10 career victories, while Jet Dark (SAf) collected no fewer than five Group I successes, topped by a pair of wins in the Queen's Plate, the Met and a pair of scores in the GI Champions Cup. All totaled, Trippi has been represented by 857 winners worldwide.

Trippi's influence as a broodmare sire is also not to be understated, as his daughters have produced 66 black-type winners, 32 of those at the graded and group level and eight in Grade/Group I company in addition to Liam's Map.

According to a press release from the farm, Trippi's importance was inseparable from the development of Drakenstein itself. He arrived before the farm had an established stallion roster and supplied it with an identity: an internationally proven horse whose results justified the decision to bring him to the Cape.

Many of his best South African horses were bred or raced by Drakenstein, among them Charles Dickens, Inara (SAf), Winchester Mansion (SAf), and Trip Of Fortune (SAf), making his story inextricably bound to the farm's own. Trippi's final crop are 3-year-olds of this season in South Africa.

According to the release, Trippi was expertly cared for by his long-time stallion handler Schedrick Oerson, whose favourite moments with Trippi were their daily walks on the farm in the mornings, just the two of them, like old friends. Schedrick shared that it was a privilege and an honour to work with him.

Winless in four starts since annexing last term's G1 Vincent O'Brien National Stakes, Zavateri displayed some of his old zip when fifth here in last month's G1 Sussex and at York in last week's G1 City Of York. He will head postward as the likely favourite to add to his G2 Vintage success here last year and his threats include dual Group 3 winner Seagulls Eleven, who finished behind Zavateri in the Sussex; last year's Cambridgeshire hero Boiling Point, who was adrift of Zavateri in June's G3 Diomed at Epsom; and last year's shock Sussex winner Qirat, who ran unplaced in both the G2 Lennox and the Sussex on consecutive days at the Glorious meeting here last month. [Sean Cronin].

A fascinating renewal with some talented types going head-to-head including the Prix Rothschild third Moon Target, the unbeaten course-and-distance Listed winner Secret Of Life, the Valiant Stakes winner Kon Tiki and the exciting Calendar Girl. The latter was having her first run since winning the Oh So Sharp in October when taking a strong renewal of the Dick Hern earlier this month and could be open to more improvement than her rivals, while it may be significant that Moon Target's owner-breeders Cheveley Park include the Gosdens' unexposed So Regal in a race that features high on the Stud's wishlist every year. [Tom Frary].

Rock Montreal impressed on debut at Yarmouth earlier this month and Roger Varian has entered the 1million gns Tattersalls October Book 1 purchase in the Champagne and the Dewhurst. Unbeaten in two starts, Sonic Angel also holds those entries while the Salisbury maiden winner Breacher is another intriguing prospect. [Tom Frary].

Aidan O'Brien has a record five editions of this former Flame Of Tara already in the books and has prepared a team of three for this year's renewal. Leopardstown maiden winner So Lovely is the selection of Ryan Moore and she is accompanied by the maidens Exceptionally and Speckles. The red-hot Joseph O'Brien stable, who won this last year with Queen Of Hawaii, nominates Listed Churchill third Bellesque and Leopardstown maiden winner Ballyskeagh, while others worthy of consideration include Jim Bolger's Churchill fourth Sea Of Rain and Galway maiden scorer Samnina. [Sean Cronin].

The hitherto undefeated G3 Marble Hill and G2 Coventry hero Great Barrier Reef was scratched from last week's G1 Prix Morny and the TDN Rising Star will bid to provide Aidan O'Brien with a record-extending 10th edition. His chief rival is Juddmonte's impressive Ballyhane winner Livenka, while Paddy Twomey--who collected consecutive renewals in 2022 and 2023--is represented by this month's G1 Phoenix third Velozee. Other contenders with hope include the Curragh maiden winner Push The Boat Out, G2 Vintage fifth Ruler's Control and G2 Richmond fourth Where Love Lives, while the dual Group-placed Beibhinn completes the seven-strong field. Aperoll and Bayside View re-oppose, having been first and second in Sandown's Star Stakes last month, and set the standard. Baaeed's first winner Coaxed has to improve off her Kempton debut, but coming from Clarehaven with a pedigree like hers it is almost a given. The Leopardstown Auction Series Race winner Apollo's Comet is an intriguing prospect from the Jessica Harrington stable, while the Salisbury novice scorer Siena Storm was big news at the Arqana May Breeze-Up and comes from a family almost guaranteeing improvement with experience. [Tom Frary].

6	3	Gaga Girl (Fr)	The Grey Gatsby (Ire)	Mosse	Barzalona	125

Gaga Girl followed up a win in July's Listed Prix Goldikova with a close-up seventh in this month's G1 Prix Rothschild and gets an opportunity to make her mark at Group-race level here. Colin The Brave ran third in last month's Listed Prix Jacques de Bremond and finished one place in front of Un Instant, who was also adrift of Half Half in a course-and-distance handicap three weeks ago. Diego Ventura has notched one win in four starts since hitting the board in last November's G2 Premio Roma, while Tumbler is winless in his last nine starts. 10	8	Kailani (Fr)	Goken (Fr)	S Wattel	Pouchin	125
11	7	Fire Fly (Fr)	Golden Horde (Ire)	Delcher Sanchez	Madamet	121

My Calyx Cen's run of four straight victories was halted by an unplaced effort in Royal Ascot's G1 Commonwealth Cup and April's G3 Prix Sigy winner holds solid claims, despite being penalised for his Sigy success, in a contest won in 2023 by Mill Stream. Fellow sophomore and G2 Mill Reef runner-up Into The Sky ran fourth in May's G1 2000 Guineas before finishing unplaced in Royal Ascot's G3 Jersey last time, while Dostoievsky, who defeated Kailani in May's G3 Prix Texanita, is another from the sophomore crop burdened with a Group 3 penalty. Their elders are headed by G1 Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee sixth Great Wish and Stewards' Cup third Mitbaahy. [Sean Cronin].

11	2	Jeudixx (Fr)	Hello Youmzain (Fr)	C & Y Lerner	M Lerner	125

Baden-Baden's "Grosse Woche" kicks up a gear with Germany's leading sprint appearing at the mercy of Wathnan Racing's Holguin, who finished a close-up fifth in last month's G2 Lennox. Connections won this contest with The Strikin Viking last year. Jean-Claude Rouget trainee and G3 Prix Djebel winner Afandy was just five lengths adrift of Djebel second Samangan when fifth to that foe in Deauville's G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest three weeks ago and poses a serious threat. Scandinavia is represented by G2 King George sixth Lamborghini Bf, who has won three listed events this term, while the home defence is headed by Pershing, who is undefeated in two listed outings this year. On a roll after a quiet spell, last year's Anglesey winner Suzie Songs may have the impetus to get the job done here, but as with most of the country's pattern races this is typically competitive. Dropping in trip again, Catalina Delcarpio will need the pace to be honest but has a class edge at her best, while the unexposed Cromac Quay won her maiden at Leopardstown by 9 1/2 lengths in June and could be one to take into the autumn. [Tom Frary].
