LEXINGTON PREPARES FOR BREEDERS' CUP FESTIVAL

by J.N. Campbell

For the fourth time, a purple wave is about to descend on Lexington, Kentucky as the 'Horse Capital of the World' welcomes the 43rd Breeders' Cup World Championships to Keeneland Racecourse in less than two weeks.

The last time the signature Thoroughbred event came to town in 2022, the total economic impact was estimated at nearly $82 million. So, it is safe to say that much is at stake.

The Breeders' Cup, working alongside local organizers, are rolling out the purple carpets as they welcome fans to the center of Thoroughbred life.

While the focus will of course be on the racing at Keeneland, a bevy of events are planned starting in and around Lexington on Sunday, Oct. 25 and plan to run through Saturday, Oct. 31. Cont.

Keeneland has catalogued 125 horses to its November Horses of Racing Age Sale, which will be held Nov. 12.

"We are back in the saddle and once again ready to welcome the Breeders' Cup home to Lexington," Mayor Linda Gorton said at a press conference. "No host city embraces the Breeders' Cup quite like Lexington does, and this year will be no different. Our city will be shining brightly, ready to welcome guests and showcase this world-class equine tradition."

In the shadow of famed Rupp Arena where the UK Wildcats play hoops is the newly developed, privately funded Gatton Park on the Town Branch, which will serve as one of the official hubs for Breeders' Cup experiences outside of Keeneland.

The acreage sports an outdoor stage, playground area for kids and is just a stone's throw away from downtown restaurants and bars. It's a space that will invite families and serve as a watch party zone once the racing takes place on Friday and Saturday. To go along with food trucks and a set of Thoroughbred-related themes, a giant screen as big as a house will follow all the action from Keeneland.

Beginning on Sunday, Oct. 25, 'Purple In The Park' will serve as an opening ceremony and be an afternoon to celebrate the Breeders' Cup. Live music will help get things started as fans can enjoy a number of activities from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. ET.

Tandy Park in Downtown Lexington will host a 'Takeover' starting on Wednesday, Oct. 28 and the event will run through Friday, Oct. 30 from 11:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. Food, music and art will anchor what is being billed as a Kentucky-style 'mash up.'

Other events are scheduled throughout the week and range from a Prince cover-band at the Burl on Thursday, Oct. 29 to a 'Bash at the Breeders' Cup on Friday, Oct. 30, which includes auctions that benefit the Thoroughbred Charities of America.

The 'Horse Capital of the World' isn't stopping there. Special tours of farms in the region will be offered by Horse Country, a public art project entitled 'A Canvas of Silks' will be on display and the Headley-Whitney Museum will host a special exhibit of storied quilts.

In an effort to educate the next generation about the equine industry, the Fayette County Public Schools have partnered with the Breeders' Cup to create a meaningful set of experiences for their students. District-wide literacy, STEM and social studies projects coupled with a 'Purple Up! Day' on Friday, Oct. 23 will dot the calendar. Over 1,000 students across 20 schools participated in the 3D Coin Design Challenge. The winning selections can be collected by families at various locations like Gatton Park throughout Breeders' Cup week.

"The return of the Breeders' Cup to Lexington marks more than two extraordinary days of racing--it is an opportunity to celebrate the people, traditions, and community that make Central Kentucky the heart of the Thoroughbred industry," said Drew Fleming, president and CEO of Breeders' Cup Limited. "The Breeders' Cup Festival has become an important part of that experience, extending the excitement of the World Championships throughout the city and creating opportunities for visitors and residents alike to be part of this special week.

“We are grateful to Mayor Gorton and the many community partners whose enthusiasm and collaboration will once again help us welcome the best Thoroughbreds from around the globe, along with their connections and fans," he added.

ADA CLARE TOPS FASIG-TIPTON OCTOBER DIGITAL SALE

Ada Clare (right) | Coady Media

The Fasig-Tipton October Digital Sale closed Wednesday afternoon with the two sessions, the first of which closed Tuesday, totaling $6,729,000 for 287 horses sold.

"The October Digital Sale was a tremendous success, delivering stronger numbers than last year and vibrant market activity across all market segments," said Leif Aaron, Fasig-Tipton Director of Digital Sales. "Gross sales increased 34%, the average price increased 14%, and the median increased 28% over 2025."

Topping the sale was Ada Clare (Quality Road) (hip 39), a 3-year-old half-sister to recent GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity winner American History (Constitution) and a recent winner herself in an allowance race at Kentucky Downs Sept. 7. Consigned by X-Men Racing, Ada Clare was purchased for $500,000 by DG Stables.

"We raced Ada Clare, so it made sense for us to sell her, as we had direct contact with her," said Donato Lanni on behalf of X-Men Racing. "I've never sold a sales topper before! Fasig-Tipton Digital is a proven, well-developed system. It's a transparent process and Fasig-Tipton has a strong track record, so it just felt natural to sell online with them."

Lanni continued to be complimentary of the Digital Platform, notably for racehorses and broodmares.

"There is ample time for people to look at the horses," Lanni said. "My phone rang, and serious buyers came to see [Ada Clare]. If you put a good video online, take a full-disclosure approach and do your part to sell the horse, it works out. Especially for racehorses and broodmares, it's a simple way to sell that saves time and the expense of shipping to a sale."

Hadrian's Wall (Curlin) (hip 13), a horse of racing age, sold for $300,000 to NRCLUB as the sale's second-highest price and its highest-priced colt. The 3-year-old son of Curlin, out of GII Adirondack Stakes winner Thoughtfully, was offered by ELiTE, agent.

Sobhy Sonbol went to $240,000 to secure the sale's top broodmare, and Wednesday's overall top price in Hillerito (Army Mule) (hip 257), offered carrying her first foal on a cover from Maxfield, by Ballysax Bloodstock. Hillerito hails from the immediate family of Champion 2-Year-Old Filly Countess Diana (Deerhound).

"I bought her for a U.S.-based client of mine, so she'll stay in the United States," Sonbol told the TDN. "She was a very fast filly herself, and she really had this incredible athleticism that Army Mule throws. He really stamps these really athletic horses. Everything fit [for her]. If you want to supplement to your broodmare band, she was that kind of type that you'd love to have in your band. Just really, really athletic. [Maxfield] is having a great year with a phenomenal horse like Englishman. But [her appeal] was more that type that Army Mule throws that really kind of caught our eye. [Her price] was in the range. There was a lot of interest in her, because I could see there were multiple different bidders there at the end, but [the price] was around the same range where we thought she'd be in this market. It's a good price for a mare who has shown ability and it's a good time [to be a seller]."

A 4-year-old daughter of Malibu Moon, Lee's Baby Girl is a three-time winner and was graded stakes placed in the GIII John C. Harris Stakes last year. She has earned $211,980 to date.

Beautiful Blome (Blofeld) (hip 2), sold for $150,000 to Caroline and Greg Bentley from the consignment of Evergreen Equine, agent. Offered as a racing/broodmare prospect, the 4-year-old filly was a stakes winner as a juvenile and sold off a victory in her most recent start on Sept. 11. A seven-time winner, Beautiful Blome has earned $329,710 to date.

"As we look ahead to the December Digital Sale, I strongly encourage sellers to use a professional consignor," noted Aaron. "The results speak for themselves. A small commission can deliver an average sales price of 25% more. That's a difference worth considering when it comes to maximizing your horse's value."

The next digital sale is the December Digital Sale, to be held Dec. 3-8. Entries close Nov. 18.

FARM TO STABLE

This Repole/Pletcher Uncle Mo filly continues to develop, hooking up almost at the start with Mioruilt (below) and engaging in a stretch battle that took them 9 1/2 lengths clear of the others. This was her third start, with a consistent forward Beyer progression. Her first two dams were unraced. Second dam True Style is a half-sister to the late Scat Daddy, multiple Grade I winner and sire of Triple Crown winner Justify.

A KIMMEL/SALLUSTO YEARLING PURCHASE

Sean Flanagan's turf runner has gradually gotten a little better as distances have increased; he was second at Saratoga going 1 3/16 miles with an 80 Beyer and topped that by three points in this wire-to-wire victory in his sixth start. The encouraging Saratoga effort Sept. 2 came one day after his dam--bought by Dixiana for $325,000 in 2019--was resold in a digital sale for $16,000.

The game debut winner was the first official starter ever recorded for Fifty Eighty Stables, who purchased her for $385,000 as a yearling at Keeneland September. Tamboz (a full-sister to GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile winner Tapizar) was 1-for-21 on the track and has produced no stakes winners from 11 foals to race, but that is highly misleading: among her foals have been Creative Minister, third in the Preakness; Battalion Runner, second in the Wood Memorial and now a stallion; Oceanwave, beaten a neck in the Fantasy and a runner in the Kentucky Oaks; and Tiznoble, who ran five Beyers of 90-plus and was second in the Woodchopper Stakes.

From the first crop of speedy Jackie's Warrior, the blaze-faced colt's 4 1/2-length second-out win was perhaps the most visually impressive on this week's list, earning him a 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' label. Among those the $250,000 yearling buy dominated was Coolmore's runner-up Art Museum, a $1.5-million son of Into Mischief--Point of Honor. Salvation made Five Fastest Maidens twice successively last fall when second in two of New York's fastest maiden races of 2025, earning 94 Beyers in both, and now he finally graduates in his 10th try. He returned in 2026 after an eight-month absence for $55,000 claiming and was taken by Kantarmaci. This 3 1/2-length score was his first start for his new connections and back for the same $55,000 tag, this time with no takers. AUSTRALIAN RACING EXPERT JASON WITHAM JOINS THE TDN WRITERS' ROOM PODCAST PRESENTED BY KEENELAND

The card Saturday (our Friday night) at Royal Randwick Race Course, which will host the $20-million (AUD) G1 TAB The Everest Stakes, could not be better. Worth about $14 million in U.S. dollars, the six-furlong The Everest is the richest turf race run in the world. To talk about The Everest, why racing is soaring in Australia and, of course, the Melbourne Cup, Jason Witham joined this week's TDN Writers' Room Podcast presented by Keeneland. Witham, a presenter at SKY Racing AU & Sky Racing, was the Gainesway Guest of the Week.

The story in The Everest is Ka Ying Rising (NZ) (Shamexpress {NZ}), the Hong Kong-based sprinting superstar who will be attempting to win The Everest for the second year in a row and run his winning streak to 22.

"It's going to be fascinating to see if Ka Ying Rising can go back-to-back," Witham said. "What a champion. What a privilege it is to have him here in Australia once again. He's trained by an Australian in David Hayes and ridden by an Australian in Zac Purton. The plan was launched some time ago now to bring him to Australia for his inaugural win last year and that attracted the attention not only of the Australian media both in racing, but the media beyond and media across the world. It's only intensified as he attempts to go back-to-back. It's looks like the weather has intervened a little bit and that's probably the only question mark that people have got on their lips this week as to whether or not he can overcome a very wet track."

The Everest was first run in 2017 and it was based on the same concept that was in place during the early years of the GI Pegasus World Cup Invitational at Gulfstream. Racing NSW and the Australian Turf Club sell 12 starting slots to buyers--known as Slot Holders--for a multi-year commitment at a cost of $700,000 AUD per year. While that concept proved to be unsustainable when it comes to the Pegasus, it has been the building block that has turned The Everest into a major event and race that is unparalleled purse-wise when it comes to grass racing.

"The slot holders, throughout the years, have grown to accept the conditions of the race," Witham said. "It helps that the stud farms generally own a lot of the slots, as do some of the bigger racing syndicates and bigger stables. They want to showcase their horses so that when they do go to stud they have the benefit perhaps of being an Everest winner. So there are a number of layers to the people who get involved in terms of the slot ownership in this country. It's proven to be a very successful method."

Unlike in the U.S., Australian racing is on an upswing and efforts to attract younger people to the sport have been successful.

"It's the promotion of racing and that is probably the key," Witham said. "And there's the availability of racing. One of the biggest differences I notice between the U.S. and Australia is the availability of racing and the availability of being able to place a wager on racing. The U.S. is a little bit behind in that sense. They're catching up a little bit now, but here in Australia you've been able to wager on your phone for more than 20 years. There are so many corporate bookmakers here in Australia. There is so much promotion of racing, and the mainstream media also promotes racing here regularly and especially around the times of our spring and fall carnivals. Cont.

GIANT'S CAUSEWAY - MISS MACY SUE, BY TRIPPI

This week there has been huge blanket coverage of racing throughout not only racing media but also through mainstream media. People are keen to get involved in it. People see going to the races as one of the great social outings there is during the spring. The girls can get dressed up and the guys can get into their suits. They promote racing so well as a place to go and be seen and mingle."

As for the "Fastest Horse of the Week," there were two. Ryan's Run (Runhappy), the winner of the West Virginia Russell Road Breeders Classic Stakes at Charles Town, and Keeneland allowance winner Facteur Cheval (Ire) (Ribchester {Ire}) both earned 99 Beyer figures. The Fastest Horse of the Week is sponsored by WinStar Farm, which stands the sire Tappan Street.

Elsewhere on the podcast, which is also sponsored by the PHBA, 1/ST TV, Sky Racing and West Point Thoroughbreds, the team of Randy Moss and Bill Finley spoke about the chaos at Turf Paradise, Sheikh Mohammed's spending spree at the Tattersalls sale, Mike Repole's purchase of 1-million shares of stock in Churchill Downs Inc., and reviewed last Saturday's GI Queen Elizabeth II Stakes at Keeneland.

SKIPPYLONGSTOCKING TO MISS BREEDERS' CUP CLASSIC, WILL TARGET PEGASUS

Grade I winner Skippylongstocking (Exaggerator) will not make this season's GI Breeders' Cup Classic and he will instead be targeted at the Jan. 30 GI Pegasus World Cup at Gulfstream Park in January, trainer Saffie Joseph, Jr. told DRF.

The 7-year-old, who finished third in his most recent start in the GII Charles Town Classic on Aug. 28, has missed training since that effort because of a hind foot abscess.

"We just ran out of time," Joseph told DRF. "I needed to breeze Sunday or Monday and if I wasn't able to do that then I wasn't going to make the race. To win that kind of race, you have to be at your optimum best. You're not going to win those races not going in there fully cranked. He needed three breezes. I'm not going to go there with two."

Joseph indicated that the bay would prep for the Pegasus in the Dec. 26 GIII Harlan's Holiday Stakes, the same race that he used as a stepping stone to last season's Pegasus victory. He also won the 2024 renewal of the Harlan's Holiday.

An earner of over $6 million, Skippylongstocking will retire to stud in 2027 at Amsterdam Two Farm in New York following his Pegasus farewell.

CASSE BREEDERS' CUP WORKERS HIGHLIGHTED BY NITROGEN, MEASURE

Champion Nitrogen (Medaglia d'Oro) and MGISP Measure (Essential Quality) breezed in the fog at Keeneland on Monday in advance of a tilt at the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff later this month.

The fog precluded the fillies to be officially timed, however, trainer Mark Casse timed the works using Equilibrium by Vayu Technology--a system that uses wearable sensors to produce a variety of information on a horse's health and performance.

D.J. Stable's homebred Nitrogen, last year's champion 3-year-old filly and Distaff runner-up, went in :48.40 under exercise rider Autumn Lavertu. Gary Barber, Bridlewood Farm and Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners' Measure, runner-up in the GI Alabama and third last time out in the GI Cotillion, went in :50 under exercise rider Belter Revelorio.

Nitrogen winning the Beldame | Susie Raisher/NYRA

"Nitrogen went faster than Measure," Casse said. "Measure is usually not much of a work horse, and Nitrogen's not a huge work horse either. Measure, before the Cotillion, she worked fast. I was shocked by how fast she went. This time I thought both fillies went really well. It was so foggy that you could hardly see. Of course, we had a light on the helmet cover of the riders and we could tell where they were."

Casse said Equilibrium times horses from a signal from an Apple Watch placed in a small pouch in a horse's saddle.

"We just started using the system. It was developed by Karan Kanchan and we were introduced to his system through Aron Wellman (of Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners)."

"It clocks the works," Casse said. "It tells us their stride. It tells us if they're hitting differently on one leg than the other. It analyzes soundness."

The 4-year-old typically works about every 10 days, and she breezed 13 days before her Beldame victory.

Measure last breezed Sept. 12 at Belmont, a week before the Cotillion at Parx Racing. The 3-year-old also breezed Aug. 12, 10 days before her second to My Gun's Loaded (Gun Runner) in the Alabama.

Ten days after Monday's fog works will be Thursday, Oct. 22, nine days before the Distaff.

Nitrogen and Measure are two of Casse's Breeders' Cup contenders, along with GI First Lady winner Classic Q (Classic Empire) and potentially Lexi's Charm (Lexitonian), Facteur Cheval (Ire) (Ribchester {Ire}), Time to Dazzle (Not This Time), My Boy Prince (Cairo Prince), Victory Achieved (Street Sense) and Canada (Medaglia d'Oro).

Classic Q will be pointed to the GI Maker's Mark Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf. Lexi's Charm, who won a six-furlong allowance by 12 lengths Oct. 7 at Keeneland, could wind up in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies. Canada, winner of the Cup & Saucer Oct. 4 at Woodbine, could be in the GI Brown Advisory Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf. Two-time GII Franklin winner Time to Dazzle, My Boy Prince and Victory Achieved are considered for the GI Prevagen Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint.

CORRECTION: Wednesday's TDN incorrectly listed the number of mares bred in some states. A total of 1,278 mares were bred in New York in 2026, a 14.2% increase from the 1,119 bred in 2025 and the state trailed only Kentucky in that metric. California, third on the list, saw a 13.9% decrease in mares bred, with 1,091 in 2026 versus 1,267 in 2025. We regret the error.

HORSE RACING WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION CELEBRATES MILESTONE FIFTH ANNUAL CONFERENCE IN THE BLUEGRASS by Sara Gordon

In a year marked by history-making achievements for women in horse racing, the fifth annual Horse Racing Women's Association (HRWA) conference offered an opportunity to reflect on just how far the industry has come--and how much potential lies ahead.

Returning to Lexington, Kentucky for the second consecutive year, the three-day event held Oct. 12-14 boasted a program consisting of in-depth panel discussions, keynote and featured speakers spanning both the worlds of horse racing and Olympic bobsledding, interactive workshops, and expansive networking opportunities.

Leading off with Monday's welcome event featuring guest speaker Donna Barton Brothers, the HRWA conference programming continued Tuesday with a series of panels discussing the topics of personal leadership and career navigation, technological advancements within the sport, and how to convert relationships and partnerships into real opportunities.

The first panel discussion of the day, entitled "Ambition & Agency: Women Navigating and Shaping Racing," was moderated by Hallie Hardy, Executive Director of Horse Country, and led by speakers Shannon Arvin; Emily Bushnell, Founder and Owner of Tranquility Lake Farms, and Founder and Executive Director of Endeavor Therapeutic Horsemanship; Jamie Eads, President and CEO of the Kentucky Horse Racing and Gaming Corporation; and Rosie Napravnik.

Through their experiences, the panelists reflected on the challenges women face in racing and the progress the industry has made in the time that they've been involved.

"Don't let the fear of someone not liking what you're doing stop you from doing what you believe needs to be done," said Arvin, who holds the distinction of being the first woman to serve as Keeneland's President and Chief Executive Officer.

"You can't just work hard and be successful. You have to be intentional and hold a self-worth and mindset that puts you in a position for others to give you opportunities," added Napravnik, who made history in 2012 as the first female jockey to win the GI Kentucky Oaks and now works full-time retraining off-track Thoroughbreds.

The day's conversation transitioned to the topic of advancements in technology, namely the expansion of Artificial Intelligence (AI) in the sport, for the second panel entitled, "Future Proofing: Tech, AI and the Next Era of Racing." Cont.

Moderated by Liza Hendriks, the Co-Founder of Wanamaker's who now serves on the Board of Directors for Inglis Digital USA, the panel discussion was led by Dr. Dionne Benson, Charlotte Clement de Bona, Youmna Hakoum, and Caroline Leach.

Benson, the Chief Veterinary Officer for 1/ST, explained how 'Racehorse 360,' an AI-powered system that uses advanced cameras to detect irregular horse gaits in real time, has allowed for expanded injury risk assessment.

Keynote speaker Elana Meyers Taylor and Britney Eurton | Kate Jones

Leach, a Data Management Specialist for the University of Kentucky Center for Applied AI, and Hakoum, a Senior Data Analyst for Equibase, spoke to the growth of AI in terms of collecting and streamlining data, curating statistics, and bridging the gap of understanding for both fans and horseplayers alike.

"The biggest thing we need to focus on is innovation. Ask 'why are we doing this?' If the answer is, 'because we've always done it this way,' then maybe we should change it," added Clement de Bona, the Chief Strategy and Transformation Officer for The Jockey Club.

Tuesday's afternoon program was highlighted by a conversation with Cherie DeVaux, who made history earlier this year as the first female trainer to win the GI Kentucky Derby, and Daisy Phipps Pulito, the Racing Manager for Phipps Stable who bred and co-owns Kentucky Derby winner Golden Tempo (Curlin).

"We didn't pick Cherie because she's a woman. We picked Cherie because she's a really good trainer," said Phipps Pulito. "We knew she'd take care of our horses in a way that we wanted them taken care of."

DeVaux also became the first female trainer to sweep both the Kentucky Derby and GI Belmont Stakes in a singular season.

"In horse racing, especially at the level that we play [at], it doesn't matter if we're women or men. This is our livelihood. This is our life," said DeVaux. "Winning the [Kentucky] Derby was a great thing, but that's not who I am. I have more to give. I don't want the Kentucky Derby to define who I am."

While she looks beyond being defined by those historic moments, DeVaux also spoke to the opportunity that has come with her enhanced platform.

"It's an honor to be able to be a positive face for our industry, which right or not right, has been under fire for quite some time. It's been a privilege to talk about how far we've come," she said.

The third and final panel of the day, entitled "The Power Network: Mentorship, Sponsorship, and Opening Doors," was led by panelists Heather Higgins, Senior Vice President of Corporate Partnerships at Breeders' Cup Limited; Dena Merson, Founder of Simply Racing; Deja Robinson; Katie Taylor-Whalen, Vice President of Operations at Taylor Made Sales Agency; and moderated by Cathy Shircliff, Director of Equine Industry Relations and Experience at Churchill Downs Incorporated.

Speaking to experience as both mentors and mentees, the women discussed the importance of building relationships authentically rather than approaching mentorship as a formal obligation, along with the concept of 'reverse mentoring,' which recognizes that the person being mentored may know as much as, or more than, their mentor in certain areas.

"New people in the industry don't know the unspoken rules or the jargon. Be open minded, recognize those learning gaps, and see where you can help them instead of criticizing them," said Robinson, an Ed Brown Society Fellow and Doctor of Veterinary Medicine candidate. Cont.

The celebration of women in racing continued with the presentation of the 2026 Jane Goldstein Exemplary Leadership Award, given in recognition of Goldstein, a pioneering turf publicist. This year's award was presented to Amy Zimmerman, a well-respected sports TV producer, director, writer, and network executive who has been a member of the Santa Anita Park staff since 1986.

"I am just honored to go to work every day to play with my friends, be part of several loving families, and to get to pet the horses. Because after all these years, that still brings me happiness and joy," said Zimmerman. "Being a woman should never equal mediocrity. Don't settle for being the best woman for the job. Be the best, full stop."

"I am but one of many made better both personally and professionally by Amy's friendship," added Amy Gregory, the 2025 recipient of the Jane Goldstein Exemplary Leadership Award.

Following an afternoon of inspiring discussion, Tuesday's program concluded with keynote speaker Elana Meyers Taylor, a six-time Olympic medalist and world champion.

Meyers Taylor, who made history as the first American woman to win a world championship in a two-woman bobsled, not only spoke to her success as an athlete but also how she balances that with motherhood and serving as a role model.

"This all happened because I was willing to take any opportunity I had, learn from my mistakes, and pivot to a new adventure," said Meyers Taylor. "My son became my motivation. I wanted to show him, up close and personal, what is possible regardless of what the world says you can't do." Cont.

Other Charges

HISA has charged trainer Amira Chichakly with allegedly falsifying details on a work request form.

According to a notice of violation dated Oct. 12, Chichakly submitted a veterinarian work request form on Aug. 3 to New York Racing Association (NYRA) regulatory veterinarians for the horse, Widdershins.

"The form you submitted, attached to this Notice of Violation, indicates that both the name of the Covered Horse and the date of the form were edited. Thus, the Veterinarian Work Request Form you submitted to NYRA regulators appears to have been modified from the original form which was completed for a different Covered Horse on a different date," the notice states.

As such, the notice continues, Chichakly's attending veterinarian allegedly "did not complete the Veterinarian Work Request Form for WIDDERSHINS that you submitted to NYRA regulators on August 3, 2026."

According to the notice, Chichakly has until Oct. 19 to respond to the violation notice.

Oxbow | Horsephotos

Classic winner Oxbow (Awesome Again--Tizamazing, by Cee's Tizzy) will stand the 2027 season at Breakway Farm in Indiana, according to a post by the operation on Tuesday.

Based in Dillsboro, the farm announced that the 2013 GI Preakness winner will stand for $2,000 in 2027.

Trained by D. Wayne Lukas, the bay was bred by Colts Neck Stables and went the way of Calumet Farm for $250,000 at the 2011 Keeneland September Sale.

Under the guidance of his Hall of Fame trainer, he won the GIII LeComte Stakes and the Preakness in addition to finishing runner-up in the 2013 GI Belmont Stakes and GII Rebel Stakes. Hitting the board in six of 13 starts, he retired with earnings of $1,243,500.

The 16-year-old's dam is Tizamazing, a full-sister to Horse of the Year and Hall of Fame inductee Tiznow.

This looks like a two-horse race between Conceit (Not This Time) and 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' Mashallah (Maxfield), and it's hard to separate them. The nod will go to Mashallah. She has yet to run back to that 106 Beyer figure from her debut, but she is trending upward and that monster race came over this track. She's never lost run running at seven furlongs or shorter. Conceit has been a different horse this year for Brad Cox, reeling off three straight wins since returning to the races on June 26. There are no knocks on her. This could be a battle between two heavyweights. Percy's Bar (Upstart), another 'TDN Rising Star,' didn't fire when trying the turf last out, but loves this track, which is the sight of her win in the GI Ashland Stakes. --Bill Finley

Deep Flame (Into Mischief) ran a winning race in the GI H. Allen Jerkens Memorial, where he finished second, earning a 110 Beyer. The problem was that he ran into 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' Englishman (Maxfield) that day. If he runs back to that race, he should win this. It looks like Solitude Dude (Yaupon) wanted no part of the Charles Town bullring last out when disappointing as the 3-5 favorite in the Robert Hilton Memorial Stakes. In his prior start, he turned in a career-best effort in the GII Amsterdam Stakes. Goes from the Saffie Joseph, Jr. barn and will debut for Joe Sharp. Doublecents (Goldencents), another 'TDN Rising Star,' may not match up with some of his rivals when it comes to the numbers, but he is coming off a win in the Harrods Creek Stakes and seems to be getting better with every start. --Bill Finley

Speed Shopper (Quality Road) can be excused for a poor effort when trying the dirt in the GI Personal Ensign Stakes. She returns to the grass, where she runs her best and is 2-for-4 at this distance. Out of nowhere, Pretty Tapit (Tapit) posted a 95 Beyer when running away with an allowance race at Kentucky Downs. If that effort wasn't some sort of fluke, she could win this. Fionn (Twirling Candy) has yet to hit the board in three tries this year, but held her own versus better in the GII Flower Bowl Stakes. Might be coming around for Brad Cox. --Bill Finley

THURSDAY INSIGHTS: JAPANESE COLORS MAKE RARE APPEARANCE AT DELAWARE

by Alan Carasso

Life Is Good | Sarah Andrew

4th-DEL, $45k, Msw, 2yo, f, 6f, post time: 2:45 p.m. ET

The silks of Haruya Yoshida, who races under the G1 Racing Co. Ltd. banner in Japan, will be on display Thursday afternoon at Delaware Park when TIME IS GOOD (Life Is Good) takes her spot in the inside stall in a six-furlong maiden. Westbury Stables purchased the filly's dam Drinks On Broadway (Stay Thirsty) for $150,000 in foal to Mitole at Keeneland November in 2020 and her value was enhanced when her foal born earlier that year, Lights of Broadway (City of Light), took the 2022 Armed Forces Stakes. A $475,000 Keeneland September graduate, Time Is Good is out of a daughter of SW Broadway Gold (Seeking the Gold), whose six other winners includes MGSW sire Golden Lad (Medaglia d'Oro) and two-time GSW and GI Kentucky Oaks runner-up Broadway's Alibi (Vindication), the dam of dual Eclipse Award-winning sprinter Elite Power (Curlin). This is the female family of Darby Dan's Dialed In (Mineshaft) and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies winner Eliza (Mt. Livermore). G1 Racing campaigns homebred Group 1 Tokyo Daishoten hero Diktaean (Jpn) (King Kamehameha {Jpn}), who recently defended his title in the G2 Korea Cup and also raced top Japanese miler Serifos (Jpn) (Daiwa Major {Jpn}). TJCIS PPs

SILBURY HILL (Not This Time) makes a belated start to her career for owner/breeder Juddmonte and trainer Bill Mott. The dark bay is a daughter of the turf stakes-placed Wessex (Unbridled's Song), a half-sister to G1 Prix Jean Romanet heroine Announce (GB) (Selkirk) and to French Group 3 winner and G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches third Mexican Gold (Medaglia d'Oro). The latter is the dam of the SW & GSP 'TDN Rising Star' presented by Hagyard Touch of Fire (Constitution), as well as Rumana (Tapit), a promising second on career debut going a mile over this turf course on Oct. 10. Wessex is also a half-sister to Pachinko (Tapit), responsible for 2025 GIII Jeff Ruby Steaks winner Final Gambit and last month's GIII Dogwood Stakes victress Conceit, both by Not This Time. TJCIS PPs

SMELL THE LILIES (f, 3, Justify--Up At Dawn, by Uncle Mo), a debut winner on the dirt at Churchill in June 2025, returned from a May absence to finish a midpack fifth trying the turf for the first time at Ellis Aug. 22 and nearly overcame a wide draw to miss by a half-length in a mile allowance at Kentucky Downs Sept. 5. The 23-10 favorite won the sprint to the wire for the first time before easing back to sit second through moderate fractions over a turf course labeled 'firm', but still with plenty of ease in it. Held together by Flavien Prat on the swing for home, Smell the Lilies hit the front about three-sixteenths from home and added to her advantage in the late stages. Moonlight Dash (Maclean's Music) was making good inside progress to loom a threat, but brushed the rail and was forced to settle for second. Siena Farms acquired this filly's dam, a half-sister to MGSW Mr Freeze (To Honor and Serve); MSW & MGSP Capitano (Belong to Me); GSW Dilemma (Grand Slam); and GSW Heavenly Ransom (Red Ransom), for $150,000 in foal to Liam's Map at Keeneland November in 2020. Smell the Lilies's 2-year-old half-brother Never Sleep (City of Light) sold for $450,000 at this year's OBS

DISCO TIME (c, 4, Not This Time--Disco Chick {MSW & GSP, $735,250}, by Jump Start) snapped a baby three-race skid in his first appearance since finishing down the field in the GI Churchill Downs Stakes on Kentucky Derby day May 2. The homebred colt rattled off five wins on the trot to begin his career, taking out the 2025 GIII Lecomte Stakes and--following an eight-month hiatus--the valuable St. Louis Derby last September and the Nov. 8 Dwyer Stakes. Eighth as the favorite in the GI Pegasus World Cup Jan. 28, he could do no better than second at 2-5 in Tampa's GIII Challenger Stakes Mar. 7 and was never truly involved when last seen behind GI Breeders' Cup Sprint aspirant T O Elvis (Volatile) beneath the Twin Spires five-plus months ago. Facing three other black-type winners here at 82 cents on the dollar, Disco Time was scrubbed along early after making contact with the gate, but slid through at the fence to make the running through an opening quarter in :22.60. Firmly in front approaching the stretch, the burly dark bay was mostly under hand urging from Manny Franco to prove a comfortable winner. A four-time stakes winner and third in the GII Honorable Miss Handicap, Pennsylvania-bred Disco Chick is also represented by a yearling Yaupon filly that sold to Lindy Farms for $200,000 at last month's Keeneland September Sale and a weanling filly by Justify. She is due to Gun Runner for her 2027 produce. Lifetime Record: GSW, 9-6-1-0, $666,860. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel Racing.

TIZ THE LOVE (f, 2, Tiz the Law--Six Tonsafun, by Not For Love), a runaway debut winner at Delaware Oct. 1, stayed perfect here. The 2-5 chalk chased from an inside third, was guided out and revved up three deep at the top of the stretch and took care of business from there to score by 1 3/4 lengths. After producing a filly by Proxy, the winner's dam was bred back to Speaker's Corner. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $68,250. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel Racing.

taking the overland route, went one better as the 2-1 choice here. She forced the issue from the jump in second, gained a narrow advantage on the far turn and refused to let $2-million Keeneland September graduate and Brendan Walsh-trained first-time starter Maranello (Not This Time) get by, graduating by a game half-length.

Psalm Beauty brought $625,000 from Donald Adam's operation as a yearling out of last year's Keeneland September sale. Hailing from the first crop of the 2021 champion male sprinter Jackie's Warrior--now responsible for 16 winners--she was produced by Platinum Paynter, who finished third in a pair of graded stakes on grass. This is also the female family of Canadian Horse of the Year A Bit O'Gold. Platinum Paynter is also responsible for a yearling colt by Forte, a $100,000 Keeneland September purchase by Everest Stable; and a Quality Road filly of this year. She was bred back to Constitution. RECORD 75 MILLION GNS CHANGES HANDS AT MEMORABLE TATTERSALLS BOOK 2 SALE

Angus Gold signed for Wednesday's top lot | Tattersalls

By Brian Sheerin

NEWMARKET, UK - A record 75,166,000 gns changed hands at Book 2 this week, with the concluding Wednesday session topped by Paul McCartan's homebred €460,000 Showcasing colt, who was knocked down to the resurgent Shadwell operation.

Only McCartan could produce a result like that. Even Angus Gold, Shadwell's racing manager, joked that the master behind Ballyphillip Stud must have been born "under a lucky star." Unlike the momentum in Book 2, though, stars burn out. And this was a rip-roaring sale from start to finish with the 114,757gns average up by 7% and the median up 12% to 85,000gns. The clearance rate was down by just 1% to 89%.

Of course, there was a certain amount of poetry surrounding the top lot, given Shadwell was returning to the source of crack sprinter Battaash. On top of that, the operation has a certain affinity to the stallion, given Alkumait, Mohaather and Tasleet are all sons of Showcasing who achieved a lot for Shadwell on the racecourse. Cont. p3

"HIGH-CLASS COLLECTION" OF LOTS SET TO SELL, AS GOFFS NOVEMBER BREEDING STOCK CATALOGUE REVEALED

The inaugural Chicquita Session will headline the 2026 Goffs November Breeding Stock Sale, with a high-class collection of 22 black-type fillies and mares revealed for the select session that will be held on the opening day of the sale. A total of 350 lots will be offered across Friday, November 20 and Saturday, November 21. The sale will begin at 10 a.m. each day.

Named in honour of the Classic-winning filly Chicquita who sold at Goffs November Sale for €6 million in 2013, the Chicquita Session is highlighted by the following lots: the aforementioned Falling Petals (Raven's Pass), the dam of multiple top-level heroine Saffron Beach (New Bay), in foal to Night Of Thunder; Straight Power (Rock Of Gibraltar), in foal to Naval Crown, and a half-sister to champion sprinter Slade Power (Dutch Art); G1 Cheveley Park Stakes heroine Lezoo (Zoustar)'s stakes-placed half-sister Navassa Island (Territories), who placed thrice at group level; and Group 3 winner Goldana (Galileo Gold), herself a half-sister to GI Sword Dancer Stakes winner Glorious Empire (Holy Roman Emperor), in foal to Delacroix. Cont. p11

Gold commented, "From what I saw, he was the best horse here today. Only Paul McCartan could get a Showcasing looking as beautiful as that. He was born under a lucky star, that man!

"I thought he was a lovely, lovely horse. We've had luck with Showcasing before with horses like Mohaather and Tasleet, who were smaller, neater types as yearlings; this is a much scopier individual. To my eye he didn't look anything like most Showcasings. He had a lot of class and moved beautifully for a big horse."

All told, Shadwell spent 1,815,000gns on seven yearlings in Book 2, and Gold added, "We had [fourth dam] Arjuzah, who bred us a Group 1 winner. Malhub couldn't breathe, but he still won us a Golden Jubilee Stakes."

The Showcasing colt is the first foal out of the winning No Nay Never mare Accept The Outcome, who McCartain paid 90,000gns for here at the December Mares Sale in 2023. She is a sister to black-type performers Sigh No More, Neptune Rock and Unreasonable.

McCartan commented, "I bought that mare here - I absolutely loved her then and I still love her now! I can still see her when I stood her up in the Terrace Yard and said, 'you're coming home with me!' Sigh No More [US Grade III winner] has come up in the pedigree and it is a great family down the line with the Group 3 winner Yellow Rosebud. I took great heart from the fact that Sonia Rogers bought a filly foal by Chaldean from the family, too. It was all lucky, but I really love No Nay Never as a broodmare sire - he's a broodmare sire of last week's Dewhurst winner [Darkness Falls (Camelot)]."

He added, "She has a Too Darn Hot colt foal and she's in-foal to Mehmas. I decided on Showcasing as a first cover because I have a share in him. I thought he'd be a good physical match and that he'd be a good one to get the mare going. I am disappointed for the underbidder Conor Quirke because I know he loved the colt and he's a very good judge. He was all over Fairy Godmother when we brought her here to sell as a yearling and he missed her as well."

Paul McCartan's Showcasing colt that topped the concluding session of the record-breaking Book 2 Sale | Tattersalls

Prior Hails Record Trade

Tattersalls managing director Matthew Prior hailed Book 2 a roaring success after a strong international buying bench contributed to the record-breaking trade.

He commented, "Following an outstanding renewal of Book 1 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale, it has been particularly encouraging to see the sustained demand for quality yearlings continue throughout October Book 2.

"Records have been established across the board, with combined turnover for Books 1 and 2 exceeding 200 million guineas for the first time. Turnover in excess of 75 million guineas represents a new record for Book 2, once again reaffirming its position as Europe's second highest-grossing yearling sale behind only October Book 1. The sale of 100 yearlings for 200,000 guineas or more is a remarkable achievement which, coupled with the record average and median, both higher than those achieved at any other yearling sale in Britain or Ireland outside October Book 1, further underlines the unrivalled strength and depth of demand at Park Paddocks." Cont. p4

Prior added, "A notable feature of October Book 1 was the depth of American participation at Park Paddocks, with buyers from the United States purchasing more than 50 yearlings. That momentum has continued into Book 2, with new arrivals joining those who remained from Book 1 to account for a further 24 purchases totalling over 4 million guineas. We have made a concerted effort in recent years to attract buyers from North America, and it is particularly gratifying to see that commitment rewarded with such a strong presence at Tattersalls, drawn by the cream of the European yearling crop and the warm welcome and hospitality for which Tattersalls is renowned.

"The Americans were joined by a strong contingent of Australian buyers, led by John Foote, who made seven purchases in his fiftieth year of coming to Tattersalls. Buyers from across the Gulf also made their presence felt, whilst we welcomed purchasers from throughout Europe, Japan, Hong Kong, the Philippines and Turkey, alongside a competitive domestic buying bench. We must also recognise the tremendous support we continue to receive from so many Irish stud farms and consignors, alongside the very best of British breeders. Their enduring commitment to the October Yearling Sale remains a cornerstone of its success, and we are enormously grateful for their continued support.

"We now look forward to Books 3 & 4 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale with optimism, as we welcome buyers from across Europe to Park Paddocks and bring to a close what has already been an outstanding renewal of the most important fortnight in the European bloodstock auction calendar."

Subplots

- Little Big Bear roars: One of the most fascinating subplots to Book 2 has been the market's reaction to Little Big Bear, with nine selling for 215,667 gns - pretty remarkable for a crop that was conceived on a €27,500 stud fee. Ballyhimikin Stud's outstanding model by the stallion, whose pedigree has been nurtured by the Hanly family for four generations, was sold to Amanda Skiffington on behalf of Coolmore for 350,000gns. Ballyhimikin's Jack Hanly commented, "Little Big Bear was very fast and precocious - he's a champion two-year-old. He's also a beautiful-looking horse, and he produces some really good stock. Hopefully that translates onto the racetrack next year. I'd say we'll be going back to him, but that'll be for the geniuses to decide! The lads at home have done a super job with this colt. It's a family we've had all the way down the page - one we've had for four generations." Cont. p5

Tattersalls Cont.

LBB Cont.: The Little Big Bear colt is a brother to the classy Group 3-placed sprinter Ano Syra (Kodiac) and the family can be traced right back to top-class sprinter Balidar, bred by Hanly's grandmother Maura.

- Watership Down Invests: Coventry Stakes runner-up Adaay Of Scarlett (Mehmas) is one of the highly-rated two-year-olds in training and Watership Down Stud stretched to 400,000gns to secure a full-sister to that talented performer from Tally-Ho Stud. Watership Down Stud's Simon Marsh commented, "We've been looking for something that could be a two-year-old, and hopefully she can follow in the footsteps of her brother."

- Sea The Stars Filly Flies: Watership Down Stud was responsible for one of the nicest fillies on Wednesday - by Sea The Stars, she didn't go unnoticed and Blandford Bloodstock's Richard Brown admitted that it didn't take long to realise that lot 1212 was one he wanted to come home with. And at 385,000gns, she was his. The agent said, "She was one of those where she came up, stood up and walked up and down and I think I only looked at her for a couple of seconds and went, 'yet, you're the one.' Luckily, I had a client who was willing to back my judgment and one who was particularly keen on her. She has great strength - great width of hip and a big hind end on her. I would see her as a summer two-year-old and beyond." Speaking about this week's trade, Brown added, "Book 2 has been extremely strong. My market predictions are usually woeful and they've been woeful again because I thought it might be difficult. It's never straightforward but, considering everything that's going on in the world, it's been tremendous. From Book 1 right up until today, it's been very strong." Cont. p6

Buys of the Day

A hard paragraph to fill given horses generally made their money and, from talking to a number of trainers and breeze-up handlers, more people than ever before came home from Book 2 empty-handed. That's not to say there wasn't good business done at the right digits. Because there was. For starters, the Yeomanstown Stud team were quick off the mark to buy Hillwood Stud's Blue Point who failed to sell in the ring early in the session. That team secured a deal at 110,000gns privately and that could look value if he breezes smartly in the Craven, for example, next spring. A very nice horse to have on the team for that assignment. Then there was the fast-looking Little Big Bear colt from Houghton Bloodstock, who looks well bought at 76,000gns to Johnny McKeever and Charlie Hills.

Trade was fierce all the way through Book 2 | Tattersalls

Thought for the Day

Nobody's complaining, but it has been a bit of a strange yearling sale season. It's hard to deny that Donny and the Somerville lacked a small bit of atmosphere. But from the September Yearling Sale at Tattersalls Ireland onwards, the whole thing has just taken off. Anyone who got on the scoresheet early must be feeling fairly pleased with themselves. A lot of buyers still have orders to fill and there aren't many sales left.

TIMEFORM'S TOP JUVENILES: NO NAY NEVER'S BENGAL TIGER RUNS TO BIG FIGURE AT NAAS By Adam Houghton

The Timeform rankings return to highlight the top-rated maiden/novice winners in Britain and Ireland from the past four weeks (September 14-October 11), with a recent wide-margin winner at Naas leading the way.

Capability Brown | Racingfotos.com

=5. CAPABILITY BROWN (IRE)

Dubawi (Ire)--Maybe (Ire), by Galileo (Ire)

Timeform performance rating: 94

Trained by Aidan O'Brien, Capability Brown relished the step up in distance when winning the 9f maiden run at the Curragh on September 27, stepping up markedly on the form of his two previous starts as he made virtually all to win by over two lengths in comfortable fashion, with the timefigure underpinning a positive view of the form.

The Coolmore homebred is one of five winners out of the G1 Moyglare Stud Stakes heroine Maybe, with the others including the 2,000 Guineas-winning sire Saxon Warrior and G3 Gallinule Stakes scorer Drumroll, both by Deep Impact. This colt promises to be suited by middle-distances, with a Derby trial appealing as an obvious starting point next spring. In the meantime, he shouldn't be underestimated if taking up his entry in the G1 Futurity Trophy at Doncaster, a race also won by Saxon Warrior back in 2017.

=5. NOBLE EXHIBIT (IRE)

Frankel (GB)--Prize Exhibit (GB), by Showcasing (GB)

Timeform performance rating: 94

The ante-post betting for the Futurity Trophy is dominated by Capability Brown's stablemate, Noble Exhibit, who is following a familiar path to Doncaster, having won the Beresford Stakes at the Curragh on September 26. Three of the last five winners of that Group 2 were also successful on Town Moor--namely Luxembourg (2021), Hotazhell (2024) and Hawk Mountain (2025)--not to mention the aforementioned Saxon Warrior.

Now with a Timeform master rating of 110p, Noble Exhibit earns his place in the rankings through his emphatic maiden victory over 1m at Punchestown back on September 15, when making all to land the spoils by seven lengths. He's improved in leaps and bounds in his short career to date and there should be more to come from him as his stamina is drawn out further. A son of Frankel, he is a three-parts brother to the G3 Cornelscourt Stakes scorer History (Galileo), while his multiple Grade II-winning dam is a full-sister to the G1 Sussex Stakes-winning sire Mohaather.

=5. PIRATE ANNE BONNY (IRE)

Blackbeard (Ire)--Fiorellina (Ire), by Galileo (Ire)

Timeform performance rating: 94

Pirate Anne Bonny confirmed the promise of her debut when winning the 7f maiden run at the Curragh on October 4, justifying odds-on favouritism with the minimum of fuss. Sent straight to the front by Billy Lee, she was shaken up entering the final furlong and quickly skipped clear from there to prove herself in a different league to her six rivals, ultimately winning by six and a half lengths in the style of one who should stay 1m when the time comes.

One of 23 individual winners in Europe from the first crop of Blackbeard--who currently trails Persian Force by two in the race to be crowned leading freshman sire--Pirate Anne Bonny is the first foal out of her unraced dam, a full-sister to the G3 Stanerra Stakes runner-up Federica Sophia and a half to the Listed Trigo Stakes heroine Elizabeth Jane (Dubawi). Her granddam, meanwhile, is the G2 British Champions Fillies & Mares Stakes scorer Sapphire (Medicean), a half-sister to Galileo's multiple Group 1 winners Kyprios and Search For A Song, as well as High Chaparral's G1 Prince Of Wales's Stakes-winning sire Free Eagle.

=3. JESUS GREEN (IRE)

Ghaiyyath (Ire)--Marbella (Ire), by Invincible Spirit (Ire)

Timeform performance rating: 95

Joseph O'Brien's Jesus Green possesses some of the strongest two-year-old form in the book, having split the exciting Wall Street (Sea The Stars) and subsequent G3 Zetland Stakes winner Drumbeat (Wootton Bassett) on his debut at Leopardstown on August 6, before again filling the runner-up spot--behind none other than Darkness Falls (Camelot)--when upped markedly in class for the G1 Golden Fleece Stakes at the same venue on September 12. Cont. p10

Back down in grade, the son of Ghaiyyath then didn't need to run to his Timeform master rating of 102p to get off the mark at the third attempt at Navan on October 7, impressively winning that 1m maiden as he quickened clear under a hands-and-heels ride to pass the post three lengths clear of his closest pursuer. Bought for 100,000gns at Book 2 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale, Jesus Green, who is from the family of the G3 Bengough Stakes-winning sire Lightning Moon, remains open to improvement and is likely to be on the Derby trail next year.

Salt Lake | Racingfotos.com

=3. SALT LAKE (IRE)

Persian Force (Ire)--Lady Aria (GB), by Kodiac (GB)

Timeform performance rating: 95

One of the leading performers from the first crop of Persian Force, Salt Lake is another who has already achieved a three-figure Timeform master rating [102], having been beaten just a neck when last seen finishing second in the Listed Star Appeal Stakes at Dundalk on October 2.

Before that, Salt Lake contested a pair of maidens which have each thrown up their fair share of winners, first splitting Monogram (Kingman) and the aforementioned Noble Exhibit over 7f at the Curragh on August 22, before opening his account when dropped back to 6f at Naas on September 17. On the latter occasion he won by nearly four lengths from Ballydoyle's Bengal Tiger--more on whom shortly--leading from the outset and just needing to be kept up to his work in the closing stages to go clear.

Now well established as a useful colt after going so close at Dundalk, Salt Lake is the third black-type performer out of the G3 Dick Poole Fillies' Stakes runner-up Lady Aria, along with the G2 Blue Point Sprint winner West Acre (Mehmas) and the dual Group 3-winning juvenile Lady Iman (Starman). He was bought by Amo Racing for 135,000gns at Tattersalls October Book 1.

2. SHARADD (IRE)

Dark Angel (Ire)--Silk Bow (GB), by Elusive City

Timeform performance rating: 99

The William Haggas-trained Sharadd took top billing in the previous instalment of this column after his sparkling winning debut at Haydock on September 3. Four weeks on, the son of Dark Angel is forced to settle for the runner-up spot in our rankings this time, though his performance when following up in the 6f novice run at York on October 9 represented another step up the ladder from what remains a most exciting prospect.

Sent off the 4-9 favourite in a field of five, with connections adopting the patient approach rather than pitching him straight in at Pattern level, Sharadd again looked a colt capable of mixing it in better company as he defied a penalty to lead home another last-time-out winner. At the line he had a length and a half to spare, impressing most with his strength at the finish under a hands-and-heels ride, just as he had at Haydock five weeks earlier.

Now possessing a Timeform master rating of 102P, Sharadd should stay 7f when the situation demands it, though his immediate family is made up mostly of sprinters, with a campaign geared around the G1 Commonwealth Cup perhaps on his agenda in 2027. More immediately, this pedigree was in the news again on Tuesday when Sharadd's half-brother by Lope De Vega sold to Richard Brown for 650,000gns at Tattersalls October Book 2. Cont. p11

Bengal Tiger: a 12-length winner at Naas on Sunday | Racingfotos.com

1. BENGAL TIGER (IRE)

No Nay Never--On Ice (Ire), by Galileo (Ire)

Timeform performance rating: 104

After chasing home Salt Lake at Naas, Bengal Tiger left that form well behind when going one place better over the same course and distance on October 11, achieving a big figure for what was a relatively lowly maiden. Indeed, it's easy to make the case that Bengal Tiger didn't have much in the way of meaningful competition, but then he could do no more than win as easily as he did, positively routing his six rivals as he quickened from the front to land the spoils by 12 lengths.

The timefigure provides plenty of substance to the form and Bengal Tiger has the pedigree to suggest that stepping up to 7f and beyond could unlock further progress. He's one of four winners out of his unraced dam, with the others including the Listed Naas Oaks Trial scorer and G2 Blandford Stakes third Galleria Borghese (Caravaggio). On Ice, in turn, is a full-sister to the G1 Racing Post Trophy-winning sire Kingsbarns, as well as being a half to the GIII Senorita Stakes heroine Sweeter Still (Rock Of Gibraltar), the dam of the 2,000 Guineas-winning sire Kameko, another previous winner of that Doncaster Group 1.

Bengal Tiger holds a choice of engagements on Saturday, with entries in both the G3 Killavullan Stakes at Leopardstown and the Qatar Racing British Champions Day Two-Year-Old Conditions Stakes at Ascot. Wherever he appears next, the son of No Nay Never will be one to keep on the right side.

ASWAT AND FOX COP LENGTHY SUSPENSIONS

Aamilah Aswat | Racingfotos.com

Aamilah Aswat, a conditional jockey, has been handed a 20-day suspension after having been found to have used her whip five times above the permitted allowance at Chepstow last week.

Aswat became the first black female jump jockey to ride a winner in the UK in February and has already had five winners. On board Reallyntruthfully (Jet Away) at Chepstow, the duo finished fourth in the DragonBet John Ayres Memorial Handicap Hurdle for Kim Bailey and Mat Nicholls, with whom she is based. She used her whip 12 times and was suspended for 20 days from October 27 to November 15, with one day to include specialised coaching.

Another jockey to receive a suspension was Kieren Fox, who has received a 10-day ban after the stewards deemed he did not take all reasonable and permissible measures to ensure his horse was run on its merits at Wolverhampton on Tuesday evening.

Fox, too, was fourth, aboard Charlie Pike's 40-1 Missmisfortune (Earthlight) in the Sky Sports Racing Sky 415 Novice Stakes. The stewards questioned Fox on his efforts inside the final furlong noting that he used his whip just once in the closing stages and that and appeared to ride "with a questionable level of vigour" to the finish. Fox was suspended for 10 days from October 27-31 and November 2-6.

OBSERVATIONS
on the European racing scene

MY SISTER NAT'S STERLE PRIMED FOR DEBUT IN STORIED 'ZARAK' MAIDEN

2.30 Chantilly, Mdn, unraced 2yo, c/g, 8fT

Thursday's Prix de Saint-Desir has been staged at Deauville in recent seasons and boasts an honour roll of luminaries such as Erevann, Zarak and Make Believe leaving an impression on the Normandy coast in recent years.

Now switched to the French capital's suburbs, the one-mile newcomers' contest has attracted its usual collection of hot properties and this year's renewal is headed by White Birch Farm's homebred STERLE (IRE) (Dubawi {Ire}).

The Francis Graffard representative is out of the dual GIII Waya winner and dual GI Flower Bowl-placed GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf second My Sister Nat (Acclamation), whose siblings include the elite-level trio of Sottsass (Siyouni), Sistercharlie (Myboycharlie) and Shin Emperor (Siyouni).

His rivals include Aliette Forien's Ultimo Dino (Fr) (Flintshire {GB}), who is a homebred son of G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches third Ysoldina (Kendor) and thus a half-brother to Derby hero Wings Of Eagles (Pour Moi); Godolphin's 600,000gns October Book 1 graduate Emirgan Park (Ire) (No Nay Never), who is out of a Listed-placed half to five black-type performers including the Group 3-winning G1 Prix Royal-Oak third Veracity (Lomitas); and Nurlan Bizakov's €340,000 Goffs November foal Sunkar (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}), whose second dam is a half-sister to St Leger winner Millenary (Rainbow Quest). Cont. p14

Highlighting the select field's strength-in-depth, the half-dozen entries also feature Michael Motschmann's gelded Zarakino (Fr) (Zarak {Fr}), who is out of a half-sister to G2 Prix Corrida winner and G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud third Armande (Sea The Stars); and Mathieu Brasme trainee Subarashii (Fr) (Galileo Gold {GB}), who is out of a half-sister to the multiple Group-winning G2 Challenge victor Topgear (Wootton Bassett).

3.05 Chantilly, Mdn, unraced 2yo, f, 8fT

This distaffers' division has not had quite the same impact with the Grade II-winning Pouliches runner-up and G1 Prix Rothschild placegetter Speak Of The Devil (Wootton Bassett) being the most notable winner in recent years.

This renewal includes a pair of Aga Khan Studs representatives, namely Francis Graffard nominee VADAJA (FR) (Siyouni {Fr}), who is out of a multiple Listed-placed half-sister to G1 Prix du Jockey Club and G1 Eclipse hero Vadeni (Churchill); and Canntara (Fr) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}), who is kin to the Listed Prix Isola Bella victrix Canneza (Siyouni) out of a Listed-winning half-sister to G1 Prix Vicomtesse Vigier winner Candelari (Frankel), from the Mikel Delzangles barn.

Nicolas Clement and Flo Hermans send forth €350,000 Arqana August graduate New Love (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), who is a full-sister to G2 Prix de Pomone victrix Latakia out of a dual Group-winning half-sister to G1 Prix du Moulin and G1 Prix d'Ispahan-winning sire Recoletos (Whipper). Her year-younger Night Of Thunder half-brother was knocked down to Blandford Bloodstock for €650,000 at the most recent August fixture.

Other noteworthy contenders include Jane Newett's Katsioux (GB) (Sioux Nation), Vadaja's Graffard-trained stablemate, who is from the family of G1 Grosser Preis von Baden and G1 Grosser Preis von Bayern winner Mendocino (Adlerflug); Vimal Khosla's Rafler La Mise (Fr) (Nathaniel {Ire}), who is out of a full-sister to G2 Flying Childers-winning sire Zebedee (Invincible Spirit); and the Mario Baratti-conditioned La Suissesse (Ire) (Minzaal {Ire}), who is a 67,000gns October Book 2 half-sister to Australia's G1 Metropolitan hero Royal Supremacy (Make Believe).

HOW THEY FARED

2.29 Nottingham, Novice, 2yo, 8f 75yT

Space Bob (Ire) (Space Blues {GB}), the half-brother to Ten Bob Tony (Night Of Thunder), ran a highly creditable race on debut to be second.
