WITH PAIR OF $800K YEARLINGS, ACTIVITY TICKS UP AT FASIG-TIPTON OCTOBER SALE

Hip 676, a colt by Into Mischief | Fasig-Tipton

by Jessica Martini

LEXINGTON, KY - Activity ticked up during the second session of the Fasig-Tipton Kentucky October Yearlings Sale in Lexington Tuesday and when the four-day auction reached its halfway point, figures remained within striking distance of the auction's record-setting 2025 renewal. After two sessions, 537 yearlings have sold for $33,012,500. The average of $61,476 held basically steady with last year's two-session figure of $61,280, while the median was up 16.67% to $35,000 from $30,000 a year ago.

The 2025 October sale concluded with a record average of $65,341 and median of $30,000. Last year's auction produced its highest-ever gross of $72,017,000.

“It was a strong second session of the October sale,” said Fasig-Tipton President Boyd Browning, Jr. “As we kind of indicated yesterday, we thought we had a higher number of top-end horses today and that is evidenced by the results. Once again, we saw competitive bidding throughout the day. I don't think there were any significant surprises in the marketplace.”

EARLY VOTING PASSES AWAY FOLLOWING ONSET OF IRREVERSIBLE COLIC

Early Voting (Gun Runner), winner of the 2022 GI Preakness Stakes, has died at the age of seven following an acute onset of irreversible colic, according to a press release issued Tuesday by his owner, Dr. Padraig O'Casaigh. The stallion was humanely euthanized.

Standing at Taylor Made Stallions, Early Voting had made a promising start to his stud career, with his first crop of runners hitting the track in 2026 (116 foals of racing age), including GI winner Miss Monica. After covering 89 mares according to the Jockey Club's 'Report of Mares Bred' last season, his fee was set at $50,000 in 2027.

Saturday's GII Raven Run Stakes winner Movie Night (Speightstown), out of the Medaglia d'Oro mare Savvy Star, added another piece to the legacy of the late Jonabell Farm stallion who passed away Friday.

14 | AIRDRIE STUD FEES CAPTAINED BY UPSTART, NOW AT $40K
Anchored by Upstart (by Flatter), whose 2026 stars include the GI Central Bank Ashland Stakes heroine Percy's Bar and the undefeated Breeders' Cup-bound juvenile Manuka Honey, Airdrie Stud has announced their fees for the upcoming breeding season.

"We've seen the same trends that existed at the beginning of the 2026 yearling season continue through the later portion of the 2026 yearling season. Overall, it's a healthy marketplace. There continues to be selectivity, both in terms of physical conformation, pedigree, and vetting, but all in all, it's a healthy marketplace, a continuation of what we've seen throughout the year and basically what we've expected it to be."

With 162 horses reported not sold, the two-day buy-back rate is 23.8%. It was 21.9% at the same point a year ago. Some of the high-priced buy-backs on the day included yearlings who failed to sell at $650,000, $585,000, and $390,000.

"I think sometimes the owners have a valuation that they feel is appropriate for their horse and they have the ability to go to a 2-year-old sale or to race," Browning said. "They are not under any pressure in these instances to sell a horse, so that's certainly their right. Owners might have been a little aggressive in setting some of their reserves. They valued the horse obviously more than the marketplace. And that's the beauty of the auction process."

The Fasig-Tipton October Yearling Sale | Fasig-Tipton

Through two sessions, 34 horses have sold for $200,000 or over. That figure was 37 at the same point last year.

Leading Tuesday's session, and the overall sale so far, were a pair of yearlings who sold for $800,000. Donato Lanni, bidding on behalf of Jerry Lundergan's Lundergan Stables, went to that figure for a filly by Uncle Mo from the Heartwood Farm consignment. Later in the session, Mahmud Mouni matched that bid to purchase a colt by Into Mischief on behalf of Tagermeen Racing. The colt was consigned by Dixiana Farms.

The Fasig-Tipton October sale continues through Thursday with sessions beginning daily at 10 a.m.

'This was the Horse': Lundergan Stretches to $800k for Uncle Mo Filly

Jerry Lundergan came into Tuesday's second session of the Fasig-Tipton October Yearling Sale with just one horse in his fledgling racing stable, but in quick succession the former Kentucky state representative added a colt by Good Magic (hip 419) for $230,000 and an Uncle Mo filly (hip 426) for $800,000.

"We got both a colt and filly here today," Lundergan said. "So here today, we got a Derby winner and an Oaks winner."

Lundergan, who did his bidding alongside bloodstock agent Donato Lanni, said both yearlings would be trained by Bob Baffert.

Hip 426 is a daughter of the late Uncle Mo out of multiple stakes-placed Velvet Crush (Tapit). She was bred in Kentucky by Christian and Karin Bradeen and was consigned by Heartwood Farm.

"As I understand it, she was supposed to go to the Saratoga sale and got sick and ended up in this sale," Lundergan said. "So we were lucky to get our hands on her."

Lundergan admitted the filly's final price went beyond expectations.

"We thought she might bring $350,000 or $400,000," he said. "[I kept bidding] because this was Mr. Baffert's favorite filly in the sale. He told me this was the horse."

Hip 419 is out of Uyuni (Uncle Mo) and was consigned by Gainesway, which co-bred the yearling with A. R. Enterprises. The colt RNA'd for $335,000 at last month's Keeneland September sale.

Lundergan said he purchased his first horse at the October sale two years ago, but his love of the sport went well beyond that.

"As a young man, I did all the food service here at Fasig-Tipton," he said. "I have had an interest in horses for a long time, but you have to wait until you get so old in life that you have the money to buy them."

Lundergan added, "We haven't raced one horse yet. We are just getting the stable built up."

'One of the Best Horses in the Sale': Tagermeen Racing Goes to $800k for Into Mischief Colt

Mahmud Mouni, who has been buying at the top level of the yearling market on behalf of the Tagermeen Racing partners all summer and fall, went to $800,000 to add a colt by Into Mischief (hip 676) to the operation's roster Tuesday at Fasig-Tipton.

"He was one of the best horses in the sale, in my opinion," Mouni said. "We expected to have to pay in this range. The horse is by Into Mischief, who is a superstar."

The yearling is out of graded-placed Brielle's Appeal (English Channel), who is a half-sister to multiple graded winner Authenticity (Quiet American), the dam of Charlatan (Speightstown). He was bred and consigned by Dixiana Farms.

The colt had been catalogued for and was originally expected to sell at the Keeneland September sale.

"He was hip 138 in Book 1 for September and he got a little abscess in his right front, and we couldn't ship him," explained Dixiana Farm Manager Robert Tillyer. "It ended up coming through his coronet band and he was completely sound after that. This [sale] was the next option."

Of his expectations for the colt in the sales ring Tuesday, Tillyer said, "We knew it was going to be above $500,000. He had five really good vets, but you never know who is going to show up.

Tillyer continued, "We were a little worried that he wouldn't see the true potential that he would have in Book 1, that maybe not all the buyers were here. We hoped he might top the sale--two more days to go. We are really happy with the price."

The result was a solid warm-up for what the Dixiana team hopes will be another good sale in the Fasig-Tipton sales ring Nov. 2 when the farm offers Gaelic Gold (Giant's Causeway), the dam of Grade I winner Fionn (Twirling Candy), at the Fasig-Tipton November sale.

"She sells five hips after Fionn," Tillyer said. "This gives us a little momentum for what's to come."

In addition to hip 676, Mouni also acquired a colt by Gun Runner (hip 492) for $385,000 Tuesday.

Signing for Tagermeen as RTM Racing, Mouni's purchases this summer and fall have included a pair of seven-figure Gun Runner fillies at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale. His five million-dollar yearlings at the Keeneland September sale were led by a $2.8-million son of the Three Chimneys stallion.

Mouni said Tagermeen plans to remain active into the bloodstock sales in a couple of weeks.

"It is our plan to buy weanlings--the high-quality ones," Mouni said. "I don't know the market yet, but that's in the plan. After the Breeders' Cup, we will see. And maybe we will buy some good mares, too. The weanlings we decided we would buy six months ago, but it was just two months ago that we started thinking about buying broodmares. We will look at high-quality mares and then choose top stallions for them."

Hip 755, an Into Mischief colt | Fasig-Tipton

'He's the One I Want': Casse Acquires Into Mischief Colt for $700k

Trainer Mark Casse went to $700,000 to acquire a colt by Into Mischief (hip 755) on behalf of the Green family's D J Stable. Out of graded-placed Co Cola (Candy Ride {Arg}), the yearling is a half-brother to Grade I winner Search Results (Flatter). He was consigned by Bridie Harrison on behalf of breeder Peter Blum.

"I was looking at him yesterday and I saw him go by and I said to Sam [Bussanich], my assistant, 'He's a runner,'" Casse said after signing the ticket on the colt. "I called up Jon Green and said, 'He's the one I want.'"

Blum purchased Co Cola for $600,000 at the 2022 Keeneland January sale. The mare's yearling failed to sell at $625,000 at the Keeneland September sale last month.

"We actually bid on him in September," Casse said. "We just didn't bid as much. [Today] I just liked him so much. I think he's changed a little bit. But I really liked what I saw."

Casse continued, "I am lucky that I have people, when I see something I like, they step up. The Greens have been unbelievable for us and hopefully we can bring them home a Breeders' Cup in 10 days."

Casse will saddle the Greens' champion Nitrogen (Medaglia d'Oro) for the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff Oct. 31.

Life is Good Colt Makes the Trip Worthwhile for Sequel

A colt by Life is Good (hip 707) sent the four-horse Sequel consignment at the Fasig-Tipton October sale off on a high when selling for $330,000 Tuesday in Lexington. Bloodstock agent Hideyuki Mori signed the ticket on the yearling in the name of Arabian Farm.

The yearling is out of multiple stakes-placed Carpe Fortuna (Carpe Diem), who was purchased by Sequel for $200,000 while she was carrying the colt at the 2024 Keeneland November sale.

"Was it a lot of money, particularly for us? Yes, that's a lot of money for us," Sequel's Becky Thomas said of the purchase of the mare. "But she was a beautiful mare and her baby in front of her was beautiful. And that horse was successfully pinhooked as well."

The mare's now 2-year-old Circe (Good Magic) sold for $200,000 at the 2024 Keeneland November sale and resold at last year's October sale for $340,000.

When Thomas saw the results that Life is Good was having at the Fasig-Tipton July sale earlier this year, she decided to put her colt by the freshman sire in the October auction. Since July, the stallion has been represented by GI Hopeful Stakes winner The Good Life, and multiple stakes winner Waggley, as well as multiple graded-placed Scarlett Begonia and graded-placed Caribbean Life.

"Carlos [Manresa] and I went home and we looked through our horses," Thomas said. "Having two farms, we always have to sell things to pay. We still have stud fees to pay, so we put him and a couple other horses in here just to move them along. But the whole four-horse consignment was created around him."

Carpe Fortuna produced a colt by Muth this year and was bred back to that stallion.

Of Tuesday's result, Thomas said, "We are really happy that Mr. Mori bought him. Through the years, we have seen him at every sale. He works really hard and he always brings a good set of owners. When he kept looking at him, we were hopeful. We know if he gets them on the track, we have a good shot."

TDN TAKEAWAYS

- R T M Racing purchased three yearlings on Tuesday, spending a total of $1,320,000 while averaging $440,000. The operation's purchases were headed by a colt by Into Mischief (Hip 676), who brought a co-session topping $800,000 on Day 2 of the October sale.
- A total of $17,499,500 was generated on Day 2 from 265 yearlings sold in comparison to $15,912,000 amassed for 263 head sold one year ago. The average for the session also rose to $66,036 up from $60,502 in 2025.
- In 2025, a pair of yearlings topped the sale's second session, bringing $500,000 each. This year, a pair of yearlings led the day with $800,000 final bids--the first going to Donato Lanni, agent for Lundgren Stables and the other to R T M Racing.

The Fasig-Tipton October Yearling Sale | Fasig-Tipton

- Into Mischief again co-led the second day of selling at the October sale. In 2025, a colt out of Shopit brought a co-session topping $500,000 from Mahmoud Mouni. On Tuesday, youngster out of Brielle's Appeal (Hip 676) was the co-leading yearling at $800,000. The Spendthrift Farm sire was also represented by the session's second highest priced colt--Hip 755, a yearling out of Co Cola (Candy Ride {Arg}) who went to DJ Stable for $700,000.
- A total of 11 yearlings brought over $300,000 on Tuesday, up from four on the initial days of this year's October sale. A total of 17 yearlings realized over $200,000 on Day 2, one more than on Day 1.
- Life Is Good is the only sire to be represented by a trio of yearlings to bring $300,000 or more during the October sale's second session.

Dr. O'Casaigh paid tribute to the stallion and thanked the team at Taylor Made for their care. "This outstanding freshman sire will not only be remembered for his tremendous success on the racetrack, but also his warm and loving personality," the statement read.

"He loved being a star and now he will live on through his prodigious progeny," said Dr. O'Casaigh. The owner also expressed his gratitude to "all of the staff at Taylor Made Stallions for their devoted affection and care of our wonderful mate EV."

BREEDING DIGEST: HOLLYWOOD ENDING FOR GOLDEN SIRE

by Chris McGrath

Well, at least he went out in a blaze of glory. It was only last week, in fact, that we pinned yet another medal on his chest, Tam Tam having become his 31st elite winner. But the ink was barely dry on the citation when Medaglia d'Oro again led our front page, Jonabell Farm announcing his death at 27.

That his legacy will endure was hardly in doubt, but the certainty was reiterated the very next day by the GII Raven Run Stakes success of Movie Night (Speightstown), who's out of a Medaglia d'Oro mare and duly added to a profile, as a broodmare sire, that will only expand in the years ahead.

But there was yet another respect in which Movie Night reprises last week's themes. For her dam, just like Tam Tam, extends a line rooted in the inevitable La Troienne (Fr), yet again reminding us of her eternal influence during her centenary year.

Movie Night's family actually traces to the great matriarch through the same granddaughter, Busher's sister Striking (War Admiral), as Tam Tam.

Cont.

The answer to Tuesday's TDN Trivia question is MIKE SMITH

Today's winner who responded first with the correct answer is
ROBIN CARDOZA

Movie Night | Coady Media

The branch of the dynasty leading to Movie Night was opened by Striking's first daughter, Glamour (Nasrullah), who won the Test Stakes and arguably made her most profound impact through her son Poker, a mediocre stallion overall yet responsible for My Charmer, dam of Seattle Slew. (My Charmer's damsire Jet Action was out of Busher, meaning that she carried the sisters 3x3: surely one of the footholds by which her son ascended to greatness.)

Glamour's most important daughter Intriguing (Swaps) more or less married Buckpasser, who gave her seven consecutive foals. These included the eventual dam of Woodman and, above all, champion 2-year-old filly Numbered Account, whose son Private Account proved a particularly strong distaff influence at stud. Numbered Account is a treasured name in Maryland, as dam of Polish Numbers and granddam of Not For Love, the latter being among several notable foals out of GI Beldame Stakes winner Dance Number (Northern Dancer).

Dance Number only produced a couple of fillies but one of them, Get Lucky (by Mr. Prospector, therefore sister to champion juvenile Rhythm), won a graded stakes before reinforcing that dwindling thread with eight daughters of her own. Four were by A.P. Indy, who additionally gave her a couple of colts to win graded stakes, notably GI Vosburgh scorer Girolamo. Collectively their daughters have put together a considerable body of work: Daydreaming won three graded stakes and produced Grade I winner Imagining (Giant's Causeway); Supercharger gave us the dam of Super Saver (Maria's Mon); while the unraced She's a Winner almost put another GI Kentucky Derby winner on the page as dam of runner-up Bluegrass Cat (Storm Cat), who had his day in the sun in the GI Haskell.

Bluegrass Cat was one of three graded stakes winners bred from She's a Winner by WinStar, who had welcomed her into their broodmare band as a means of tapping into seven generations of patient stewardship by the Phipps family. The farm duly retained the Medaglia d'Oro filly she delivered in 2011.

As Savvy Star, this filly dead-heated for a Saratoga sprint on debut, only to be vanned off on her second start. Unfortunately, her second career has similarly balanced success and misfortune, recording no fewer than five blanks in the past seven years. Just as well, then, that WinStar also kept the Speightstown filly Savvy Star produced in 2023. Her preceding foal, a Justify filly sold as a yearling, has meanwhile decorated the page as Stellify--who last month won the same graded stakes at Kentucky Downs for the second year running. Happily the Speightstown filly, having only made her debut at Keeneland this spring, has now progressed enough to return and win a Grade II at the fall meet. For this, of course, is Movie Night.

She was conceived when Speightstown was 24 and that resonates nicely with the profile of her damsire, who was pensioned only a year before his death. In fact, Medaglia d'Oro remained so potent a source of runners that we risked the derision of the many who dismiss ageing stallions by matching his name with a gold medal on our "Value Podium" as late as last year!

By then he was down to $75,000, having already taken three $50,000 cuts in four years after peaking at $250,000 in 2018. He had still been on the way up when picked for She's a Winner in 2010, newly hiked to six figures after a Horse of the Year had emerged from his first crop. Rachel Alexandra set a lasting tone: several subsequent stars were also fillies, while his daughters are meanwhile proving excellent broodmares.

Savvy Star, indeed, must take her place behind the dams of four young Kentucky stallions.

The female orientation of his legacy was hardly diminished by castration of his most accomplished son, Golden Sixty (Aus); while Violence has been frustrated by fertility issues. Poignantly, the news of Violence's retirement from commercial service was broken the very day that his sire died. Given his problems, Violence has done amazingly well to give Medaglia d'Oro multiple grandsons at stud. The Spendthrift team have meanwhile excelled in managing the rather different challenges set by Bolt d'Oro earlier in his career, and he duly remains prominent among those heirs still working for the male line.

RAISING THE VOLUME

However his legacy extends from here--through sons, grandsons and daughters--it feels apt that Medaglia d'Oro's exit should be sandwiched by two daughters, in Tam Tam and the dam of Movie Night, who both trace to La Troienne. For there's no higher praise than to remark that he belongs in the sequence of breed-shapers to have seeded this line. To recap, the mares linking Savvy Star to La Troienne were sired by A.P. Indy, Mr. Prospector, Northern Dancer, Buckpasser, Swaps, Nasrullah and War Admiral.

Medaglia d'Oro takes the Whitney | Horsephotos

In the old days, mares really had to earn their access to top stallions. Today, perhaps, it is the other way round. Even so, we find ourselves nervously relying on the custodians of the best blood not to squander it on unproven sires.

If only because convenient to other concerns about book sizes, I wonder whether Medaglia d'Oro owed something of his longevity--his latest Grade I winner was conceived at 23--to the reliable restraint of his farm. Different farms operate under different pressures, of course, and then every horse is different. Into Mischief, for instance, has built his empire by harnessing his genetic prowess to commensurate libido and fertility. I see that he entertained another 194 mares this spring, at 21.

Overall, the latest covering stats confirm how comprehensive has been the defeat of the proposed mare cap. Over the past couple of years, some of the more conservative farms have shrugged their shoulders and said, "Can't beat them, join them." The last remaining limits on volume are presumably just physiology and hours in the day, albeit the abacus stopped for Sierra Leone at precisely the same number (293!!!) as Golden Pal when making his own debut on the same farm in 2023.

Below these dazing altitudes, we find the usual surprises down the pyramid--few of them pleasant, albeit one or two underrated sires have rallied somewhat. Fear not, we shall name a few names during our annual quest for value this winter!

Dr. Kapur | Coady Media

EL PRADO'S OTHER EXHIBIT

Though certainly subject of some stereotyping, Medaglia d'Oro was actually a highly versatile influence: as eligible to give you a two-turn dirt horse as a turf sprinter like Astern (Aus). His flexibility, condensed by Mswahwish in winning Grade Is on both surfaces, was especially valuable during an era of stubborn prescription about bloodlines as either turf or dirt.

As a result, Medaglia d'Oro was able to repatriate a line of Sadler's Wells--so potent in Europe--back into the American mainstream, being viewed as a perfectly viable proposition for dirt mares. The other son of El Prado (Ire) to excel here, Kitten's Joy, could never overcome his turf branding in the same way, even through his daughters.

Nonetheless Saffie Joseph has now given us a graded stakes winner round a single turn out of a Kitten's Joy mare. In fairness Dr. Kapur (McKinzie) could draw on much else in his pedigree for his GIII Perryville Stakes shocker: his sire, most obviously, while his maternal line traces to Clairborne matriarch Bourtai, duly flavored in the meantime by major dirt influences. It was from a daughter of Pulpit, for instance, that the Ramseys bred the stakes-winning dam of Dr. Kapur; as well as her full-brother Real Solution, who naturally won his two Grade Is on grass. And the fourth dam, equally, is a Northern Dancer half-sister to Slew o' Gold.

But the only rule, with horses and horsemen, is that there are no rules--especially when that horseman is Joseph, who seems able to do pretty well anything.

AIRDRIE STUD FEES CAPTAINED BY UPSTART, NOW AT $40K

Upstart | Sarah Andrew

Anchored by Upstart (by Flatter), whose 2026 stars include the GI Central Bank Ashland Stakes heroine Percy's Bar and the undefeated Breeders' Cup-bound juvenile Manuka Honey, Airdrie Stud has announced their fees for the upcoming breeding season.

Upstart will see his fee increase to $40,000 for 2027, having stood the 2026 season at an advertised rate of $25,000.

In addition to his headlining fillies, Upstart is currently the second leading sire in America by 2-year-old winners and stands within the Top 10 on the overall juvenile sire list--an accomplishment made more noteworthy given his 2026 juvenile crop are the product of his strongest-bred mare book to date.

With a history of improving his mares, the rising quality of his books in every subsequent season since has him well-positioned for the future.

Airdrie also boasts two GI Kentucky Derby winners on the 2027 roster in Mage (by Good Magic) and Mystik Dan (by Goldencents).

Coming off a very strong initial yearling sales season that saw no less than 25 of his first yearlings realize six-figure prices, Mage will have his first runners hit the track in 2027.

Having bred 171 mares in his first year at stud, there will be no shortage of opportunity for the son of Good Magic and the 2025 Broodmare of the Year Puca (Big Brown).

Mage will maintain his 2026 fee of $15,000. An earner of more than $4.8 million on the racetrack and standing for $12,500 for 2027, the popular Mystik Dan was a leader of his generation at 2, 3 and 4 and defeated the winners of 17 individual $1-million races during a career marked by accomplishment, quality and resolve. He will be represented by his first foals in 2027.

Leading third-crop sire Complexity (Maclean's Music), who trails only Vekoma (by Candy Ride {Arg}) by percentage of stakes winners to foals in a class that includes Tiz the Law, McKinzie and Honor A.P., will stand for $15,000.

His 2026 Keeneland yearling average was $75,000 and his best-bred crop to date will be yearlings of 2027. The ultra-consistent Cairo Prince (Pioneerof the Nile), long a fixture on the Top 30 general sire list and represented in 2026 by the $1.6-million earner My Boy Prince, will maintain his $10,000 fee for the upcoming season.

Airdrie now stands each of the first two sons of the brilliant young sire Vekoma to be retired to stud in Colloquial and Jonathan's Way.

The recently announced Colloquial will stand his first season at stud in 2027 following a career that was cut short by injury but marked by brilliance. Besting a 61-year-old New York track record in his first start, the former Book 1 yearling recorded a sensational 106 Beyer Speed Figure in his second trip to the post in a jaw-dropping seven-length score.

At the time, it was the highest figure of any horse of his generation, and his 3 3/4 Ragozin number would only be outpaced by Sovereignty (Into Mischief) amongst all Grade I winning 3-year-old colts throughout 2025.

In his third, and ultimately final start, Colloquial won Keeneland's Lafayette Stakes. The 110 Equibase figure he received would prove higher than any number earned in that season's Triple Crown races.

A life-threatening illness kept Jonathan's Way from competing in his sophomore season, but his exploits at 2 showed more than enough promise to make him a popular first-year sire in 2025.

Beau Liam | EquiSport

Named 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard,' in his romping Saratoga debut, the $290,000 weanling purchase won his second start convincingly in the GIII Iroquois Stakes at Churchill Downs--a race which included future Grade I winners Magnitude (Not This Time) and Sandman (Tapit).

Both Colloquial and Jonathan's Way will stand for $7,500 for the upcoming season.

Also registered at $7,500 is Beau Liam (Liam's Map). Owner of the fastest recorded 6-furlong maiden in the history of Churchill Downs, Beau Liam won his first three career starts while posting 106 and 107 Beyer Speed Figures.

More importantly, he has shown the ability to pass on his speed through first-crop son Crude Velocity.

Also a winner of his first three starts in 2026, the colt is the only horse to defeat MGISW Englishman (Maxfield), which he accomplished by 3 3/4 lengths in the GII Pat Day Mile with a final time of 1:33 4/5.

Beau Liam has signaled that his best may still lie ahead as he has produced Keeneland yearling averages of $173,000 and $110,000 over the last two years.

Both Highly Motivated (Into Mischief) and Happy Saver (Super Saver) entered an extremely competitive freshman class, but both continue to punch above their weight with their first-crop juveniles.

The two-time track-record-setter Highly Motivated is currently a top-four Kentucky freshman sire by both percentage of winners and stakes horses from a stellar class that includes Life is Good, Flightline, Golden Pal, Jackie's Warrior, Epicenter, Olympiad, Corniche and Jack Christopher, amongst others.

While GI Jockey Club Gold Cup winner Happy Saver does not have the numbers of many of his contemporaries--due in part to early back issues in the breeding shed that have since been resolved--he is already represented by an undefeated first-crop stakes winner in Brittany Russell trainee Piggybunz.

Highly Motivated and Happy Saver will stand for $7,500 and $5,000, respectively.

Rounding out the Airdrie roster is the venerable Divisidero (by Kitten's Joy). A MGISW on the track, Divisidero sports a hugely impressive $91,000 average earnings/starter, making him an exceptional breed-to-race value at just $3,500.

Airdrie Stud Fees for 2027:

- Upstart-$40,000
- Complexity-$15,000
- Mage-$15,000
- Mystik Dan-$12,500
- Cairo Prince-$10,000
- Beau Liam-$7,500
- Colloquial-$7,500
- Highly Motivated-$7,500
- Jonathan's Way-$7,500
- Happy Saver-$5,000
- Divisidero-$3,500

THE FIVE FASTEST MAIDENS OF THE WEEK

WEEK OF OCT. 12-18 by Randy Moss

Dontworryboutnothn | Coady Media

The fastest maidens from this week hailed from Keeneland, Laurel, Woodbine and Belmont with the top spot going to a gelding who performed nicely on the turf.

Three weeks after making this list with a runnerup 85 Beyer when dropped to $100,000 claiming, he ran for a $50,000 tag and won with an 82 figure--and was claimed out of the race by Linda Rice. As we noted last time, his distant pedigree consists of Hall of Famer Inside Information (third dam) and GI CCA Oaks winner Smuggler (second dam), but his dam sold in January for a mere $6,000.

4. SOTA SUMMERS, LRL, 10/16-6th, 5 1/2 furlongs

Continuing on the Phipps pedigree theme above, Sota Summers's second dam is Pleasant Home (Seeking the Gold), also a GI Breeders' Cup Distaff winner. Thus she may have been cut out to be a decent runner. But she suffered a setback after her debut at 3 and was away for a year, then finished off the board three times. However, last week she got her first opportunity to run on dirt and in a sprint--and promptly won an off-the-turf $35,000 claimer by a widening 15 3/4 lengths. Better yet, there were no takers.

Dalos's foundation mare Sybelle Ami (Alwasmi) is no longer with us, but she continues to churn out the winners: most recently this great-granddaughter who finally ran to her pedigree over the all-weather at Woodbine. She's a half-sister to GISW Kopion ($1.2-million), G1 Prince of Wales winner Amis Gizmo ($800k), GIII winner Ami's Flatter ($536k) and SWs Authentic Gallop and Aragorn Ami, plus three other winners.

Perhaps Repole gave Frustrated his name because he was a $425,000 2-year-old buy who never made it to the races as a juvenile (and was gelded this summer). But he finally made his debut at Laurel and looked sharp in a 2 1/2-length score.

Here's another sharp maiden-claiming winner who went to sleep in a new barn that night. An odds-on favorite, he ran away by 3 3/4 lengths and was taken home for $55,000 by Rudy Rodriguez. Arabian Power improved sharply last month on Tapeta when backed down to an off-turf 6 furlongs, and followed that career-top 85 Beyer with this 87 back on grass.

HALF TO U.S.S. VALOR ONE OF THREE NEW FASIG-TIPTON NOVEMBER SUPPLEMENTS

Fasig-Tipton had supplemented three entries to its upcoming November Sale, scheduled for Monday, November 2 in Lexington, Kentucky.

These latest entries are catalogued as hips 106, 214, and 215:

- 2026 Yaupon--Astrila colt (hip 106): Weanling colt by Yaupon, last year's leading first crop sire and current leading second crop sire. Consigned by Denali Stud, agent.
- Malibu Anthem (hip 214): Young daughter of Malibu Moon is a half-sister to leading 2-year-old colt and 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' U. S. S. Valor (War of Will), winner of the GI Champagne Stakes on October 3 by more than six lengths with a 95 Beyer Speed Figure. In his prior start, he broke his maiden at Saratoga by more than 13 lengths and earned a 105 Beyer--the highest recorded by any 2-year-old this year. Malibu Anthem is offered in foal to four-time Grade I winner Fierceness by Vinery Sales, agent.
- Lady Beth (hip 215): Graded stakes-placed daughter of Hard Spun is a half-sister to Two Seven O (Dialed In), a multiple stakes winner this year. She is offered in foal to Nyquist on a graded stakes winner-producing cross by VanMeter Sales, agent.

These entries may be viewed online and will be available in the equineline sales catalogue app. Printed versions of the supplement will be available on the sales grounds.

HAZELTON ASSUMES FULL-TIME ROLE ACROSS RACING, SALES AND MARKETING AT KEENELAND

Keeneland has added respected racing broadcaster and industry professional Scott Hazelton to its team full time starting in January, expanding his work across marketing, content and customer engagement initiatives, with a focus on racing and sales, the organization said in a Tuesday release.

A familiar voice to Keeneland audiences since 2019, Hazelton has served as co-host of "Today at Keeneland," provided paddock analysis during the spring and fall meets and served as a U.S. representative and announcer for Keeneland sales.

Beyond broadcasting, Hazelton will work in collaboration with Keeneland's marketing, racing and sales teams on initiatives that strengthen customer relationships, support sales development and advance fan education and wagering engagement.

"Keeneland has changed my life in so many positive ways, it's difficult to put into words," Hazelton said. "Being surrounded by the knowledge and experience of so many people across the Thoroughbred industry has made these some of the best years of my career. I look forward to making that experience year-round and continuing to grow alongside the Keeneland family. I'm equally excited to bring my own family into such a special community that is committed to making our industry the best it can be."

PREAKNESS-WINNING TRAINER NEIL HOWARD RETURNS TO TRAINING FOR CAMHAVEN FARMS

Fair Grounds Racing Hall of Fame trainer Neil Howard will return to the training ranks this winter at Fair Grounds Race Course & Slots after a five-year absence, where he will oversee a 16-horse string as private trainer for CamHaven Farms, the racing and breeding operation of Tony and Shirley Camilleri.

Howard, 77, retired from training in 2021 after more than four decades on his own, a career highlighted by 1990 Preakness Stakes winner Summer Squall, 2003 Horse of the Year Mineshaft and 2000 Kentucky Oaks winner Secret Status. Since stepping away from his own stable, Howard has remained active on the backside, first assisting Shug McGaughey and more recently working with Paul McGee.

“Tony and Shirley are good people, they want to do things the right way, and they’ve got some nice horses to work with,” Howard said. “The opportunity to work privately with one owner really appealed to me. I’m excited about it. It feels like a good fit.”

Howard has won more than 1,200 races during his career and his resume at Fair Grounds includes multiple victories in the Louisiana Derby, Risen Star and New Orleans Handicap. That body of work earned him induction into the Fair Grounds Racing Hall of Fame in 2005.

ROAP ACCREDITATION SCHOOL SETS ATTENDANCE RECORD IN 2026

The Racing Officials Accreditation Program (ROAP) welcomed a record 76 participants to its 2026 Steward and Judge Accreditation School, held September 27 through October 4 in Lexington, Kentucky, a number which marked a new attendance record for a stewards' accreditation school.

The eight-day program brought together 60 flat racing and 16 harness racing participants for intensive classroom instruction, practical training and examinations designed to prepare current and aspiring racing officials for the responsibilities of officiating. Among the attendees were five accredited flat racing stewards pursuing harness racing accreditation and three accredited harness judges seeking flat racing accreditation. The flat racing group also included four steeplechase participants.

The school attracted a notable international presence, with seven participants from Canada, two from Jamaica, and one from the United Arab Emirates. The international turnout underscored the reach of ROAP's educational programs and the importance of shared professional standards across racing jurisdictions.

“To see 76 participants come together for this school is tremendously encouraging for the future of racing officiating,” said Frank Lamb, ROAP board member and accredited steward. “What makes this especially meaningful is the range of experience represented, from aspiring officials to seasoned stewards and judges seeking additional accreditation. The commitment these individuals have made to professional development speaks to the importance of maintaining knowledgeable, qualified officials throughout our industry.”

GLOBAL GAMING SOLUTIONS ACQUIRES WYOMING HORSE RACING PORTFOLIO

Global Gaming WY, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Global Gaming Solutions, has completed a transaction to acquire the membership interests of Wyoming Funding LLC dba Wyoming Horse Racing and its 13 Horse Palace Gaming & OTB locations, expanding its horse racing, gaming and entertainment footprint into the state of Wyoming, the company announced Tuesday.

Owned by the Chickasaw Nation, Global Gaming Solutions was established in 2008 to leverage the tribe’s expertise in the gaming, hospitality and entertainment industries.

“We congratulate Global Gaming Solutions and are excited about this acquisition and expansion,” said Chickasaw Nation Governor Chris Anoatubby. “Diversification of our business portfolio remains an integral business strategy that continues our vision of economic stability and longevity for Chickasaw citizens.”

The acquired portfolio includes 13 Horse Palace OTBs with over 1,500 historic horse racing (HHR) machines across Wyoming as well as the company’s live horse racing operations based at Sweetwater Downs Racetrack in Rock Springs, Wyoming.

“For nearly 20 years, Global Gaming Solutions has proven to be a catalyst for expanding our footprint in gaming, racing and entertainment in Oklahoma, then into Texas and now Wyoming," said Dan Boren, Chickasaw Nation Secretary of Commerce and Global Gaming Solutions board chairman. "Our proven expertise and commitment to customer experiences align seamlessly with the established Horse Palace OTBs and racing operations."

Sweetwater Downs in Wyoming | Coady Media

The acquisition continues the expansion of Global Gaming Solutions, parent of Global Gaming WY LLC. Global Gaming Solutions' portfolio includes racing and gaming assets across Oklahoma and Texas. The company owns and operates Remington Park in Oklahoma City and Lone Star Park in Grand Prairie, Texas. Officials recently announced an agreement framework has been reached that will lead to Lone Star Park becoming home to the coveted All-American Triple Crown Series in 2027.

The Wyoming Gaming Commission approved the transfer of the live event and simulcast permits during a special meeting held Oct. 16, 2026. Other terms of the deal were not disclosed.

After winning five straight, Sister Troienne (Munnings) has lost three in a row, but ran a winning race in the GIII Winter Memories Stakes. She had to wait forever to find a path in the stretch and then closed like a bullet to get up for second. Gets Irad Ortiz Jr. for this assignment. Will be a short price, but deserves to be so. Ultimate Love (Curlin) didn't run her best in the Winter Memories, but her prior two races are much better. Could bounce back. Define (Ire) (Lope de Vega ({Ire}) steps up in class after an allowance win, but has the numbers to be competitive and, other than the top pick, there is not much in here. --Bill Finley Umberto Rispoli is coming a long way to ride in a Grade III stakes race, which is why the nod here goes to Bohemian (Essential Quality) in a wide-open race. Note that the last time Rispoli rode the filly she won the Pucker Up Stakes at 6-1. Trainer Joe Sharp is in the midst of a terrific meet. Considering it was just her third lifetime start, Crossover Capital (Fr) (Zarak ({Fr}) turned in a big effort when third in the GIII Winter Memories Stakes. Chad Brown goes back to his main man, Flavien Prat. Bless Her (Twirling Candy) has been holding her own in graded company and stacks up well on the Beyer scale. --Bill Finley

WEDNESDAY INSIGHTS: $1.5 MILLION TAPIT FILLY DEBUTS AT KEENELAND

by Christina Bossinakis

Whisper Hill Farm and Gainesway's CARING (Tapit) brought a cool $1.5 million at Keeneland September last season. Trained by Brad Cox, the filly is out of GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf winner and Royal Ascot's G1 Coronation runner-up Sharing (Speightstown), who earned over $1 million on the racetrack. Bred by Gainesway, the May foal will be accompanied by Irad Ortiz Jr. in her debut.

Making her route bow, Summer Wind Equine's Follow Your Heart (Flightline) was second to next-out GIII Matron winner Brickyard Belle (Yaupon) in a 5 1/2-furlong Saratoga maiden on Aug. 27. The $750,000 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga yearling is trained by Rusty Arnold.

Determined Stables' Waterman's Song (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}) kicks off for Cherie DeVaux. A daughter of Fast Jazz (Ire), the Irish-bred is a half-sister MGSW and GISP Special Wan (Ire) (Belardo {Ire}).

GODOLPHIN AND RABBAH AID STRONG START TO ARQANA OCTOBER

By Emma Berry

DEAUVILLE, FRANCE--Godolphin and its associated Rabbah Bloodstock contributed to a solid start to the Arqana October Sale on Tuesday, with Rabbah in particular making their presence felt through the purchase of nine yearlings for €1,456,000.

It was Anthony Stroud who signed for the day's top lot on behalf of Godolphin after bidding €360,000 for the Blue Point first foal of Ronea (Sea The Stars), a daughter of the Group winner and producer The Juliet Rose (Monsun).

The colt (lot 74) was bred in partnership by Ecurie des Monceaux, Guy Heald and Meridian International and is from the family of Godolphin's Arabian Crown (Dubawi), who has had a productive season as the winner of the GI Canadian International and G3 Kilternan Stakes since the catalogue was printed.

Jaber Abdullah was present in Deauville with trainer James Tate and they started compiling their list of purchases right from the off. Under the Rabbah banner, they signed for the first lot through the ring, who was also a Blue Point colt from Monceaux bought for €240,000. He too was a first foal, this one out of the G3 Prix des Reservoirs winner Fancy Me (Pivotal).

MAJOR BOOST FOR IRISH BREEDERS WITH DUAL ARC WINNER DARYZ TO STAND AT GILLTOWN STUD

The Aga Khan Studs have announced that dual G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner Daryz will stand alongside his sire, the legendary Sea The Stars, at Gilltown Stud from 2027.

Winner of four Group 1 races from nine to 12 furlongs and renowned for his dazzling turn of foot, Daryz hails from one of the most distinguished families in the stud book and will be an exciting addition to the stallion ranks in Ireland.

Joining him at Gilltown will be Group-winning miler Erevann, who relocates to Ireland from Haras de Bonneval, where he covered full books in each of his first four years at stud. His first yearlings have been well-received in the sales ring.

Pat Downes, manager of the Irish Studs, spoke to Racing TV at the Curragh shortly after the news was announced. Cont. p7

The most expensive purchase by the Rabbah team was lot 147, a colt by Night Of Thunder and the first foal of the Siyouni mare Amirvati, a winning half-sister to the G1 Prix Jean Prat winner Aesop's Fables (Distorted Humor).

Alban Chevalier du Fau, who consigned him on behalf of breeder Haras des Trois Chapelles through The Channel Consignment, said, "He's a first foal so I'm very pleased for his breeder, Simon Venner of Haras des Trois Chapelles, who is a very important client for us. They have one farm based in France and they deserve that kind of satisfaction.

"Night Of Thunder, he's had a terrific year again. It's always easier with good stallions, to have that sire power, but it's not only Night of Thunder. This horse, he deserved it. He looks a sharp two-year-old. I'm very pleased also as this is the first time I've sold a horse to Rabbah. They've been very strong today and I'm pleased that they got this horse.

"I'm also very grateful to Johnny Hassett, who was the under-bidder, trying to buy to breeze, so he's been very brave."

Reflecting on the strength of the market on a solid opening day, Chevalier du Fau said, "We could feel that over these last few days. I spoke with some other consignors and it was our feeling that the people viewing the horses were here to buy horses--there were no tourists or tyre-kickers."

An improved clearance rate of 81%, achieved from the sale of 154 of the 191 horses offered, saw the figures settle at roughly the same level as the opening day 12 months ago. With the adjusted format of this sale--to four days from six last year--direct comparisons are difficult, but the average of €91,649 and median of €75,000 stood up well against the 2025 figures of a €93,144 average and €70,000 median. The turnover this time was €14,114,000, which was pretty much on par with last year when five fewer horses were marked as sold. Cont. p4

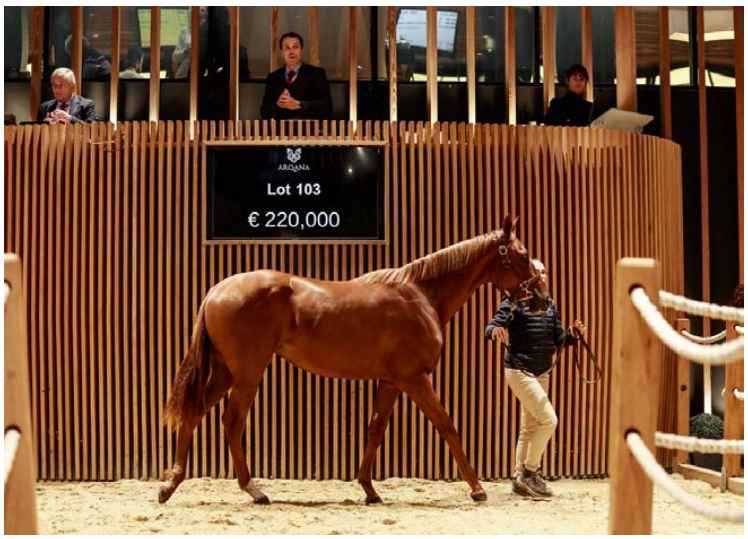
Family Ties Keep Collet Happy

On a day when the Aga Khan Studs announced that dual Arc winner Daryz will stand at Ireland in Gilltown Stud, while Rayif and Samangan will join Haras de Bonneval, a proven member of the Bonneval roster made his mark at Arqana. Zarak's ten yearlings sold on the day included the top-priced filly (lot 103), a daughter of Storm To The Sea (Siyouni) who was bred by Marie-Laure Collet in partnership with Teddy Poirier and Ecurie Haras de Chateau. She was sold to Sebastian Desmontils of Chauvigny Bloodstock for €240,000 on behalf of Haras de Thenney.



Lot 103, the Zarak filly out of Storm To The Sea | Zuzanna Lupa

"This is a family that is very close to my heart," Collet said. "We had River Sans Retour, her third dam, on loan, who produced Fantastic Filly [winner of the G3 Miesque Stakes and G3 Senorita Stakes]. She was then sold on, as she was producing well, so my father and I decided to look for a daughter. We found [granddam] Miss Bio, who was the first mare that I bought for Papa when I was 15 or 16. Her first foal was [G1 Prix Jean Prat winner] Stormy River, and of course then there was [G1 Grand Prix de saint-Cloud winner] Silverwave and company.

"We wanted to keep a filly from the family, which was the dam of this filly, Storm To The Sea. She of course then produced Saidi El Fal (Lope De Vega), who won his Listed race.

"We met Christian Billiez at the sales following that. He had bought into Saidi El Fal and he has a share in Zarak, so we decided to partner together to breed this filly. I'm delighted that she's staying in France, and she'll be trained by Francis Graffard, so it doesn't get much better."

McAuliffe and Don Reinvest After Successful Year

There was another collaboration involving Zarak in the case of lot 149, the Haras San Isidro colt out of Atarfe (Anabaa), who is already the dam of the six-time winner and Listed-placed Pride Of America (American Post), as well as treble winner and Group 3-placed Miss Cantik (Recoletos). Both those horses raced for the successful partnership of Daniel McAuliffe and Anoj Don, having been bought for them by agent Matt Coleman.

In a bloodstock twist of Victor Kiam's advertising slogan 'I liked it so much I bought the company', McAuliffe and Don decided that they liked the mare's offspring so much that they bought her a nice nomination.

"We've bought three of the mare's offspring and I asked breeder Laurent Dulong that, if they paid the nomination, would he send the mare to Zarak," Coleman explained. "So basically, they paid the nom, he provided the mare, and so they owned the colt 50-50."

The colt, bought out by the McAuliffe-Don partnership for €230,000, will go into training with Amy Murphy. The trainer has enjoyed her best season to date during her second year in France and for these particular owners she trains both Sydney Moon (Thunder Moon), who won the Listed Grand Criterium de Bordeaux and is entered in next Monday's Listed Prix Isonomy, and Tokaido (Ubettabelieveit), who supplemented his initial Listed win with victory in the G3 Prix du Bois and G2 Prix Robert Papin.

Nicolas de Watrigant | Zuzanna Lupa

Coleman continued, "Two of Amy's best-ever horses are out of this mare, and I think that's as good a model the mare has had, and it's certainly by a long way the best stallion the mare's gone to. So I said to the guys, 'The mare's had black-type horses by Recoletos and American Post, so the Zarak's got a chance of being a good horse.' Hopefully he's going to win the Prix du Jockey Club."

Coleman added that McAuliffe and Don are likely to be joined in the partnership to race the colt by Valmont.

Amy Murphy, who also won the G2 Prix Chaudenay on Arc weekend with Jabracadabra (Cracksman), said, "We'll probably buy more staying types this week, and in England and Ireland we've bought more sprinter types, so hopefully we've got a nice balance of stayers and sprinters."

De Watrigant Another Zarak Fan

Also in the Zarak camp on Tuesday was agent Nicolas de Watrigant, who bought lot 30, a colt from the day's leading vendor Ecurie des Monceaux out of the Oasis Dream mare Mer Blanche for €200,000. From the family of Group 1 winners Mekhtaal and Johanna Walsh, both by Sea The Stars, he was bought for a partnership and will go into training with Carlos and Yann Lerner.

De Watrigant said, "He is a colt with an exceptional conformation and extraordinary movement. He comes from a bloodline I know well, having previously purchased Mekhtaal--winner of the Prix d'Ispahan--who also possessed a great physique as a yearling. It is a very fine Moussac family.

"We have had some great success stories with Zarak for our clients, most notably with Zarakem--purchased as a yearling for Mr Seroul--who went on to have a stellar career, and more recently, Montsecret, who was resold very successfully during the Arc Sale."

De Watrigant later signed for a first-crop son of Little Big Bear from Haras de Saint Vincent, also at €200,000.

He said, "Since this summer, we had been looking for a fine colt by Little Big Bear, and this particular one was the very same individual I had hoped to purchase back in August. Unfortunately, he sustained a minor injury in his stall--right here--which meant he couldn't be presented at the sale. Yet, given his physique and remarkable maturity, he was clearly among the best colts in the August Sale--much like his sire, whom I was fortunate enough to purchase here in August on behalf of MV Magnier.

"Little Big Bear possesses an exceptional physique, and this colt has inherited many of those qualities. I have great faith in his sire, who passes on scope, precocity, and extraordinary movement to his offspring."

The colt is the second foal of the winning Mastercraftsman mare Serenity, a half-sister to the dual Guineas winner Winter.

De Watrigant added, "He was bred by Thierry Dalla Longa--a truly excellent breeder, as evidenced once again by his results this year. Mr Jathiere and I went to see the colt again at Haras de Saint-Vincent two weeks ago, and our decision was made."

"I think it's a great day for Gilltown, a great day for Ireland," said Downes. "Daryz is an exceptional racehorse. He's a really, really good individual with a beautiful pedigree and a great race career. I think he'll be a great addition to the stallion ranks in Ireland.

"We discussed the merits of standing him in Ireland and, equally, having him in France. I would hope that he will be used by plenty of French breeders while he is here [in Ireland]. But, on balance, we felt that we'd like to have him standing at Gilltown, alongside his sire, Sea The Stars."

Asked if he felt Daryz ranks highly among the pantheon of great champions that have carried the Aga Khan colours, Downes replied, "I certainly do. When you look at his entire race career, it was defined by the acceleration that he is able to produce at the end of a race. I think that's what separates good horses and great horses. He had a very lethal acceleration which, I think if he can pass that onto his progeny, it will augur well for his stud career."

Meanwhile, Haras de Bonneval, home to leading sires Siyouni and Zarak, as well as promising young sire Vadeni, will welcome two new recruits in Rayif and Samangan.

A superb three-year-old campaign saw Rayif capture both the Poule d'Essai des Poulains and the Aga Khan Studs Prix Jacques Le Marois, achieving a double not seen for a quarter of a century. Also a Group winner and Group 1-placed at two, the son of Sea The Moon was last seen finishing a close third in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Stakes at Ascot.

Daryz: the brilliant dual Arc winner will stand alongside his sire Sea The Stars at Gilltown Stud | Scoop Dyga

Samangan is the fastest and most precocious colt produced by the Aga Khan Studs since Siyouni. Winner of three races in three months as a juvenile, including two Group races over six furlongs, he returned at three to take the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest over six and a half furlongs this summer. He also finished in the prize-money in the Commonwealth Cup, Prix Jean Prat and Prix de la Foret. His pedigree is pure speed, being a son of Blue Point out of an Oasis Dream mare from the family of Classic heroine Sarafina.

Nomination fees for all eight Aga Khan Studs stallions will be announced in due course.

BRITISH AND IRISH FOAL CROP FALLS AGAIN, STARMAN BUSIEST STALLION

The combined British and Irish foal crop has dropped again in 2026, according to Weatherbys' official Return of Mares, with 11,312 foals registered as of September 30, a decline of 2.4% from 2025 and 17.2% from 2023.

The decline was particularly pronounced in Britain, where 3,670 foals were registered, down 6.3% from 3,915 in 2025. Ireland recorded 7,642 foals, a marginal decrease of 0.5% from last year's 7,678. The combined foal crop has now declined for three consecutive years, having stood at 13,670 in 2023, 12,809 in 2024 and 11,593 in 2025.

Starman headed the list of busiest stallions in 2026 with 324 mares covered, followed by Maxios (309), Los Angeles (292) and Delacroix (282).

The number of active broodmares also continued to fall, with 19,585 recorded across Britain and Ireland, compared to 20,337 in 2025 and 21,963 in 2024. Ireland accounted for 12,701 mares, while Britain recorded 6,884.

Despite the shrinking broodmare population, covering activity remained relatively stable. A total of 15,743 mares were reported covered by September 30, compared to 15,732 at the same stage last year.

In Britain, 5,687 mares were covered, representing 82.6% of the active broodmare population, up from 77% in 2025. Ireland recorded 10,056 coverings, representing 79.2% of its broodmare population, compared to 77.6% last year.

Japanese Influence Evident in Coolmore Foal Crop

The Weatherbys report also highlighted Coolmore's continued investment in leading Japanese bloodlines, with several notable Irish-born foals by some of Japan's most prominent stallions. Kitasan Black, sire of world champion Equinox and Classic winners Croix Du Nord and Sol Oriens, was represented by three Irish-foaled fillies for Coolmore, all out of daughters of Galileo.

Their dams include the Group 3-winning Coolmore, a full-sister to Group 1 winners Gleneagles, Happily, Joan Of Arc and Marvellous; Dower House, a full-sister to Churchill and Clemmie; and the Group 2-placed Amusement, who hails from the family of Classic winners Dancing Rain and Saxon Warrior.

Equinox sired a filly out of Starry Eyed, a winning daughter of Galileo and American Grade I winner Nickname, making her a half-sister to Group 3 winner Ides Of March.

Japanese Triple Crown and Japan Cup winner Contrail was also represented by two notable Coolmore foals. They include a filly out of Heaven Of Heavens, a Galileo full-sister to multiple Group 1 winners Magical and Rhododendron, the latter being the dam of Auguste Rodin. Contrail also sired a colt out of the Group 3-winning Red Riding Hood, a daughter of Justify and Prix Marcel Boussac winner Ballydoyle, herself a Galileo full-sister to Misty For Me.

CAPITAL STUD ROSTER BOLSTERED BY ARRIVAL OF AL RIFFA AND MY PROSPERO

Al Riffa | Getty Images

Three-time Group 1 winner Al Riffa (Wootton Bassett) and G2 Prix Eugene Adam hero My Prospero (Iffraaj) have joined the burgeoning roster at Capital Stud for the 2027 breeding season. Stud fees for both stallions will be announced in due course.

Trained by Joseph O'Brien, Al Riffa won five of his 21 races and ran in nine different countries, with his career earnings exceeding $1.8 million. He made the breakthrough at the top level when winning the 2022 National Stakes at the Curragh as a two-year-old, with his other Group 1 triumphs coming later in the 2024 Grosser Preis von Berlin at Hoppegarten and last year's Irish St. Leger back at the Curragh.

Initially owned by the Al Riffa Syndicate and later in partnership with Masaaki Matsushima, Al Riffa was purchased by Australian Bloodstock in the aftermath of his Irish St. Leger success and went on to finish seventh when burdened with top weight in that year's Melbourne Cup. The son of Wootton Bassett was last seen finishing third when trying to win July's G2 Curragh Cup for the second consecutive year.

Bought by O'Brien for 150,000gns at Book 1 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale, Al Riffa is out of the unraced Galileo mare Love On My Mind, a full-sister to the dual G3 Sagaro Stakes hero Mizzou. Listed winner Moments Of Joy (Darshaan), the dam of Love On My Mind and Mizzou, is herself out of the G1 Yorkshire Oaks and G1 Prix Vermeille heroine My Emma (Marju), a half-sister to the G1 St Leger and G1 Gold Cup-winning sire Classic Cliche.

"We are absolutely thrilled to welcome Al Riffa to Capital Stud," said the County Kilkenny operation's Ger O'Neill. "Horses with his profile are incredibly difficult to find--he had the speed to win a National Stakes at two, the class to compete with the very best middle-distance horses in Europe and ultimately the stamina to win an Irish St Leger in such impressive fashion."

My Prospero, meanwhile, joins Capital Stud following two seasons at Haras des Faunes in France where he commanded a fee of €3,000. The son of Iffraaj will stand in partnership with his owner and breeder, Mrs Tsui.

A five-time winner for the William Haggas stable, My Prospero enjoyed his finest hour as a three-year-old when winning the Prix Eugene Adam at Saint-Cloud, with his other top-class efforts in 2022 including third-place finishes at Ascot in both the G1 St James's Palace Stakes and G1 Champion Stakes. At four, he won the Listed Foundation Stakes at Goodwood and filled the runner-up spot in the G2 York Stakes, before adding the G3 Winter Hill Stakes at Windsor to his tally at five.

My Prospero is one of five winners out of the G3 C.L. Weld Park Stakes heroine My Titania (Sea The Stars), with the others including his fellow black-type winners My Oberon (Dubawi) and My Astra (Lope De Vega), both of whom were also placed at the top level.

A Night Of Thunder colt out of My Astra recently sold to Godolphin for 4.6 million gns at Book 1 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale, becoming the most expensive yearling colt ever sold in Europe.

O'Neill added, "We are delighted to welcome My Prospero to Capital Stud and very grateful to Mrs Tsui for the opportunity to stand such a high-class horse in partnership with her. He is a very exciting addition to our roster."

Both stallions will be available for inspection at Capital Stud ahead of the 2027 breeding season.

CHATTERING CLASSES CAUSES UPSET IN THE STAFFORDSTOWN STUD STAKES By Tom Frary

Chattering Classes | Racingfotos.com

Still a maiden entering the Curragh's G3 Staffordstown Stud Stakes on Tuesday, Juliet Cooper's Chattering Classes (Ghaiyyath) took a leap forward to shed that tag in the mile feature.

Unlucky when third in a Thurles maiden 12 days earlier, the 16-1 shot arrived from rear under Shane Foley to cut down The Good Wife (Zarak) in the final yards for a 1 1/2-length success, with 3 3/4 lengths back to Blonde Over Blue (Lope De Vega) in third.

Trainer Jessica Harrington's daughter Kate said, "She came out of her last race as if she hadn't had a race and the tacky ground was the only concern, but they turned it into a true stamina test and she really came to the fore in the last furlong. We'll put her away for the winter and I would imagine the owners would want to go to the Salsabil with her. We'll see the best of her going a mile and a quarter up to a mile and a half."

Pedigree Notes

Chattering Classes is the second foal out of the Prix Miesque runner-up Asterella (Olympic Glory), a granddaughter of the Prix de Saint-Georges winner Latona (Kendor). Her yearling daughter of Kodi Bear was bought for €25,000 by Brian Grassick Bloodstock at the recent Tattersalls Ireland September Sale, while her colt foal by Sioux Nation heads to the upcoming Goffs November.

SIBLING TO GROUP 1 WINNER ARISTIA AMONG 33 ADDITIONS TO GOFFS AUTUMN YEARLING SALE

Thirty-three lots have been added to the catalogue for the Goffs Autumn Yearling Sale, which takes place from Monday, November 2 to Wednesday, November 4. They will be offered as lots 789-821 at approximately 4.30pm on the final day of the sale.

The supplementary entries include a number of well-bred yearlings, including lot 812, a Coulsty half-brother to the G1 Prix Jean Romanet scorer Aristia (Starspangledbanner) from Rathasker Stud, and lot 820, a Sioux Nation half-brother to the Listed-winning sprinter Shades Of Blue (Kodiac) from Newtown Stud.

Leading stallions such as Blue Point, Camelot, Farhh, Lope De Vega, Mehmas and Starspangledbanner are also represented among the new additions, while 13 of the 33 yearlings are eligible for the 2027 Goffs Two Million Series, having been withdrawn from last month's Orby Sale.

In total, the catalogue for the Autumn Yearling Sale now includes 17 eligible candidates for the series that will offer a guaranteed prize fund of €2,000,000 next season. Twenty bonuses of €50,000 will be paid to the winners of a series of two-year-old maidens in Ireland and the UK, with a further €1,000,000 up for grabs in the Goffs Million, Europe's richest two-year-old race.

Buyers at Goffs Autumn Yearling Sale also have 17 opportunities to purchase a candidate for next year's Harry's 750 Series by Goffs, with one supplementary entry eligible for the valuable initiative, along with 16 lots in the main catalogue.

The hugely popular £500,000 Harry's Half Million race at York's Ebor Festival, for yearlings catalogued in the Doncaster Premier Yearling Sale, has been supplemented by a further £250,000 in Harry's Quarter Million Bonus Series. The bonus prizes will see £25,000 awarded to the winners of ten two-year-old maiden races across the UK next year.

UNEXPOSED HURDLER C PAS POSSIBLE LEADS GOFFS OCTOBER HIT & YEARLING SALE AT £50K

The five-year-old C Pas Possible (Night Wish) (lot 77) took top billing during Tuesday's Goffs October HIT & Yearling Sale at Doncaster when selling to Marcus Collie, Dan Astbury and Mickey Bowen for £50,000.

Trained by Andrew Kinirons, C Pas Possible came into the sale having finished a close second at Navan last month when having just his third start over hurdles. Kinirons was also responsible for another of the top lots in the six-year-old Lips Freedom (Free Eagle) (lot 76), a former Listed winner on the Flat in Italy and currently rated 118 over hurdles. He was purchased by Kevin Jardine for £32,000.

Elsewhere, Phillip Makin's Farabove The Limit (Far Above) (lot 34) came into the sale having won his last three starts on the track, with his most recent victory coming at Newcastle last week. He was knocked down to Syd Hosie Racing and David Brennan for £43,000.

The sale opened with a session of 19 yearlings, with Yapham Manor Stud's Pinatubo filly (lot 5), a granddaughter of the classy sprinter Ladies Are Forever (Monsieur Bond), leading the way when she was bought by Bond Thoroughbred Limited for £24,000.

Goffs UK managing director Tim Kent said, "The Doncaster October Sale exists to provide an early autumn outlet for yearlings and horses-in-training, and it continues to fulfil that role. In previous years, this sale has attracted numerous dispersals that help fuel a healthy turnover, and despite a smaller offering, we are happy with the results achieved.

"As we always say, we are nothing without the horses, and we bemoan the lack of horses in today's sale as, when we are given the chance, we always deliver premium prices for the very best stock. Therefore, we will continue to work with vendors to offer a viable alternative to the market leader, whilst we look forward to returning to Doncaster in early December for the British NH Breeders Showcase."

Of the 66 lots offered, 38 sold (56%) for a total of £384,200 and at an average of £10,111. The median was £7,000.

NEW ROLE FOR LONGSTANDING TATTERSALLS AUCTIONEER JOHN O'KELLY

John O'Kelly | Tattersalls

Tattersalls has announced the appointment of John O'Kelly as its Brand Ambassador and International Representative, continuing his longstanding association with the company following the conclusion of his auctioneering duties at Tattersalls last year.

In this role, O'Kelly will, as before, represent Tattersalls in a variety of ways, including bloodstock inspections and attendance at domestic and international sales and race meetings.

"I am delighted to continue my association with Tattersalls in this new capacity," said O'Kelly. "In my 34 years as an auctioneer and representing the company, I have built tremendous professional relationships with breeders, vendors and purchasers worldwide. I look forward to maintaining those connections while further contributing to the success of Tattersalls."

Matthew Prior, managing director of Tattersalls, added, "John is one of the most recognisable and respected figures in the international bloodstock industry, and we are delighted that he will continue to represent the Tattersalls Group in this role. His professionalism, extensive experience and longstanding relationships with clients around the world are of great value to the company.

"John has made an outstanding contribution to Tattersalls over many years, and we look forward to continuing to draw on his knowledge and expertise in support of our clients and to further strengthen Tattersalls' position as Europe's leading bloodstock auctioneers."

ACTION! RALPH FIENNES TO STAR IN NEW BIOPIC OF SIR HENRY CECIL AND FRANKEL, SHOOTING TO BEGIN IN 2027

Three-time Oscar nominee Ralph Fiennes has confirmed his casting as Sir Henry Cecil in a biopic of the legendary Newmarket trainer and his world champion racehorse, Frankel. Shooting on the film, which has a working title of Unbeaten, is expected to begin in 2027.

The biopic will be directed by BAFTA winner Nora Fingscheidt, with the screenplay written by Bash Doran, who has worked on the likes of Boardwalk Empire. Fiennes has also signed on as an executive producer.

Cecil, who was awarded a knighthood by Queen Elizabeth II in 2011, was crowned Britain's champion trainer 10 times between 1976 and 1993, before enduring a lull which resulted in him saddling just 12 winners on the Flat in 2005. He also battled stomach cancer, including whilst masterminding the illustrious career of Frankel, who was unbeaten in 14 starts when he retired in 2012. Cecil died just a few months later, back where he belonged at the top of the sport through his expert handling of the Juddmonte superstar.

"I knew nothing about the legendary Henry Cecil until I read Bash Doran's screenplay," Fiennes told www.deadline.com. "I was compelled and moved by it and by Henry's story with the great horse Frankel.

"Henry was--and still is--a unique figure, complex and competitive in the very specific world of horse racing. I'm particularly excited to be collaborating with Nora Fingscheidt. I was blown away by her film The Outrun."

2nd-Yarmouth, £13,000, Mdn, 10-20, 2yo, f, 8f 3yT, 1:45.44, sf. MARYLEBONE (FR) (f, 2, Night Of Thunder {Ire}--Prudenzia {Ire} {SW-Fr}, by Dansili {GB}), the €3 million Arqana August topper, was content to follow the Royal runner Avebury Ring (Wootton Bassett) throughout the early stages. Overhauling that Ralph Beckett trainee inside the last half furlong, the half-sister to Diamond Necklace, Magic Wand and Chicquita asserted for a 3/4-of-a-length success. There was an encouraging five-length margin back to the 11-8 favourite Cloak Of Power (Frankel), the George Boughey-trained daughter of 1,000 Guineas runner-up Cloak Of Spirits (Invincible Spirit).

"Rossa [Ryan] got it very easy in front, but it wasn't a day to make the running so I got her out in plenty of time to get her rolling and she battled well and was well on top at the line," winning jockey David Egan said of the 11-4 second favourite. "This is the most she's done. She's never been asked a question at home, so these are really encouraging signs."

Marylebone as a yearling | Zuzanna Lupa

Trainer Kevin Philippart de Foy added, "We've taken our time with her. I was worried about the ground, but she's done everything right. The trip is the bare minimum, so she is a nice filly to look forward to. The slow ground and the wind are a lot to take on first time, but she's got a great brain. There was a bit of pressure on our shoulders, so it's a relief."

Prudenzia does nothing but produce millionaire yearlings, it seems, with her latest son of Siyouni selling for €1 million exactly to Yoshito Yahagi at Arqana's flagship sale in August. That was her ninth progeny to make or surpass that figure since the Irish Oaks heroine Chicquita sold there for €600,000 in 2011, with the globe-trotting Group 1 winner Magic Wand making €1.4 million five years later and the current sensation Diamond Necklace going for €1.7 million.

Marylebone is her most expensive yearling to date, reaching well beyond the €2 million paid by Coolmore for Gulliver's Travels in 2020. Prudenzia's six stakes performers also include the Group 3 winner Philomene by Night Of Thunder's sire Dubawi, who like Chicquita was runner-up in the Prix de Diane, while Chicquita is in turn responsible for three stakes performers, including Dubawi's Curragh Cup winner Emily Dickinson.

The second dam is Fittocks Stud's Platonic (Zafonic), whose Group 3-winning Pacifique (Montjeu) is the second dam of Night Of Thunder's Group performer Skydance and Dubawi's Prix Niel third Parachutiste. This illustrious dynasty includes the Debutante Stakes winner and Moyglare Stud Stakes runner-up Vespertilio, also by Night Of Thunder, and the Oaks, Irish Oaks and Yorkshire Oaks heroine Alexandrova (Sadler's Wells).

Getting the upper hand inside the final furlong, the 1-2 favourite asserted for a 1 1/4-length success.

The winner is the third foal out of the unraced dam, whose previous two were Sea The Stars' Listed-placed duo Nuit and Poseidon's Warrior. Out of the Preis der Diana heroine Amarette (Monsun), she is connected to the Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen winner Ancient Spirit (Invincible Spirit) and Criterium International hero Alson (Areion), as well as Sea The Stars' Group 3 winner River Of Stars, who was placed at the highest level in the Prix de Royallieu, Caulfield Cup and Sydney Cup. Her fourth progeny by Sea The Stars is the yearling filly Let Love Rule, bought for 700,000gns by Heider Family Stables at the recent Tattersalls October Book 1.

TOGETHER NOW (f, 3, Dubawi {Ire}--Together Forever {Ire} {G1SW-Eng, SW-Ire}, by Galileo {Ire}), a half-sister to the operation's celebrity City Of Troy (Justify), had been third over course-and-distance on her belated seasonal bow last month and runner-up at Killarney earlier this month and waited in behind the leading quartet early. Pouncing approaching the two pole, the 1-5 favourite drew away to record an emphatic 3 3/4-length success from Sounds Great (Churchill).

"She had a lovely run here on her seasonal debut and then for whatever reason it just didn't happen for her in Killarney," stable representative Chris Armstrong said.

"Obviously, if she could reproduce what she did here the first day, she'd be hard to beat. It's an important bracket to get for her, with her pedigree, and we'll try and get her a bit of black-type before the end of the season. She might come back here for the Finale Stakes or there are a couple of options in England."

Alongside the Derby, Eclipse and Juddmonte International hero, the Fillies' Mile-winning dam has produced four other stakes performers, including the Group-placed Bertinelli (Justify) and the Tyros winner Military Style (War Front).

Together Forever is a full-sister to the Oaks heroine Forever Together and a half to Speightstown's Prix Jean Prat-winning sire Lord Shanakill, as well as to the dam of last year's Queens Vase winner Carmers (Wootton Bassett). From the family of Al Bahathri, Together Forever's two-year-old filly Exceptionally (Into Mischief) has been fourth at Group 3 level this term, while her 2025 filly and 2026 colt are full-siblings to City Of Troy. POLIAKHOVA (FR) (f, 2, Recoletos {Fr}--Veldargent {Fr}, by Kendargent {Fr}), sent off at 5-1, was quickly at the head of affairs. Kicking decisively at the top of the straight, the €18,000 Arqana October purchase stayed on to score by half a length from Boomslang (Space Blues).

The dam, who produced the Listed scorer and Prix de Guiche third Grey Tornado (The Grey Gatsby), is out of the dual Group-placed Velvet Revolver (Mujahid) and therefore a full-sister to the dual Listed winner and dual Group-placed sprinter Ken Colt.
