No stallion has sired as many winners of the G1 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies as Nyquist – who is now level with Tapit with three BC juvenile winners from seven crops. If you're in search of a sense of history, he's the best sire of G1-winning juveniles since Danzig.

GOLD MEDAL PERFORMANCE FROM UNBEATEN 'RISING STAR' HUGHES IN THE BREEDERS' CUP JUVENILE by Steve Sherack

Hughes stays perfect in the Juvenile | Mathea Kelley

LEXINGTON, Ky. – Hughes (Into Mischief) remained undefeated and made it a hat trick for his out-of-this-world sire with a 2 1/4-length success in Friday's GI FanDuel Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Keeneland.

The 4-5 favorite and 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' raced in a tracking second beneath Flavien Prat as the scratched-down field of six rounded the clubhouse turn.

Traveling nicely as five of them bunched up through a half mile in :46.63--'Rising Star' He Is No Lie (Early Voting) lost all chance after stumbling terribly at the start and trailed throughout--Hughes gained a narrow advantage entering the far turn.

Under a ride heading into the short stretch, Hughes began to edge away from 'Rising Star' Coach Pope (Tapit) as they straightened, but had to brace for fresh challenges from a pair of fellow unbeatens.

Hughes was more than ready and found another gear to turn back GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity winner and 'Rising Star' American History (Constitution) and his Bob Baffert-trained stablemate Salahudin (Uncle Mo) to conclude his Championship season with authority a perfect five-for-five.

Hughes, winner of this summer's GIII Best Pal S. Aug. 8 and GI Del Mar Futurity Sept. 6, aced his two-turn test with a six-length decision in the 'Win and You're In' GI American Pharoah S. at Santa Anita Oct. 3. The latter was good for a field-best 100 Beyer Speed Figure. Hughes won his first four career starts by a combined 24 1/4 lengths.

Hughes becomes the seventh Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner trained by Baffert and his 22nd winner overall at the Championships.

Prat, also aboard the Baffert-trained GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies runner-up and 'Rising Star' Miss Monica (Early Voting), has now steered 10 Breeders' Cup winners.

"You never know how they're going to respond until they... today at the quarter pole, I thought, 'Well, we're going to find out what he's made of,'" Baffert said. "When a horse came to him, he just caught another gear. You like to see that. Sometimes, they'll come to him--especially when they're going that fast on this racetrack--like I said, he does it, and he does it with ease. He comes back like it didn't take much out of him. He's just a really superior 2-year-old."

Hughes heads to the winner's circle | Mathea Kelley

Baffert added, "Today was his day to shine. Those four colts were really good colts, and we're going to be hearing a lot about them. I think the 2-year-old crop is really strong this year. It should be exciting hopefully next spring."

Hughes, a $675,000 Keeneland September yearling purchase, is campaigned by the powerhouse partnership of Front Row Club, Starlight Racing, Madaket Stables, Stonestreet Stables, Bashor Racing, Albaugh Family Stables, Robert E. Masterson, Golconda Stable, Waves Edge Capital and Catherine Donovan.

Hughes was named after New Jersey Devils hockey star Jack Hughes, who famously scored the game-winning goal in sudden-death overtime to beat Canada 2–1 in the Gold Medal game at the 2026 Winter Olympics.

"He was named the night after Jack Hughes did win that gold medal," Tom Ryan of Front Row Club said. "He was so proud to be an American that night. That's what really struck me the way he said it and he meant it. There was pressure in that, and there's pressure in the fact that my wife is a Hughes. All of a sudden, I had family pressure, the Jack Hughes pressure. It's worked out incredibly well. It's a good horse with a great name, turned out to a great story. We're very proud of him. He showed up today in front of a great crowd with a great ownership group."

Ryan added, "This is the pinnacle of 2-year-old racing right here. This is it, this is Championship racing. He's not let us down. He's five for five now and couldn't be more proud."

Pedigree Notes:

Hughes becomes the leading 10th Breeders' Cup winner and third straight Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner (Citizen Bull in 2024 and Ted Noffey in 2025) for the seven-time reigning champion general sire Into Mischief.

Hughes was produced by the MGISP K P Dreamin (Union Rags), who is also responsible for a yearling colt by Elite Power and a McKinzie colt of this year. Her Elite Power colt brought $400,000 from Flying Dutchmen at the Keeneland September sale. She was bred back to Patch Adams.

K P Dreamin brought $260,000 from winning breeder Breffni Farm at the 2020 Fasig-Tipton November sale. This is also the female family of GI Pacific Classic winner Go Between (Point Given). Cont. p5

NYQUIST'S EMPHATIC PUNCTUATES THE BREEDERS' CUP JUVENILE FILLIES

Emphatic remaining undefeated in Friday's Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies | Walter Wlodarczyk

by Christina Bossinakis

Not falling for the catch-me-if-you-can tactics of a longshot, Gainesway Stables and Andrew Rosen's Emphatic (Nyquist) came from just off the pace to hold safe closing 2-1 favorite and 'TDN Rising Star' presented by Hagyard Miss Monica (Early Voting) at the end of Friday's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies at Keeneland.

Breaking sharply from post 10, Emphatic was eased into second by her patient pilot Tyler Gaffalione as the fleet-footed 21-1 chance Lexi's Charm (Lexitonian) opened up a clear early advantage through opening fractions of :22.54 and :45.87. Meanwhile, favored Miss Monica was near the back of the field after a tardy beginning, and started to carve her way through the pack as Emphatic took over and shot into an uncontested lead heading to the home turn.

Straightening for home several lengths on top as the luckless Miss Monica broke free from the rest, Emphatic was set down for the drive, and despite Flavien Prat's best effort to reel in the late leader, the Brendan Walsh-trainee held on to score by 1 1/2 lengths.

Manuka Honey (Upstart) was 8 1/4 lengths back in third, while Revenge of the Sis (Girvin) rounded out the Superfecta.

Emphatic's victory gave her Irish trainer his first Breeders' Cup score, while endowing Gaffalione, who won the 2022 Juvenile Fillies with Wonder Wheel, with his second victory.

"I felt like a winner the entire race," Gaffalione said. "She broke alertly, put herself in the game early and when I pushed the button, she really responded." Cont. p7

"We figured coming out of [Lexi's Charm's] last race, she thought she would be out front again but the only surprise was Miss Monica was not up there early. As far as my filly, I just let her run her race, acted like we were the only ones in there and she gave my confidence the entire race."

Emphatic | Horsephotos

Walsh added, "I'm really ecstatic. She went great and Tyler did a fantastic job. Everybody on my team--hats off to them. They do such a good job with this filly. Thanks to the Antony and Andrew, super people--we're just blessed. It was setting up perfectly. They were rolling. When she opened up, I thought she was going to tire a little bit, then she didn't, but Bob [Baffert]'s filly was running at her. But she was in front far enough and finished well. She's a super filly."

Regarding the poor-starting Miss Monica, trainer Bob Baffert said, "It's a shame. That's the thing with young horses. You need everything to go your way to win these big races."

Unveiled at Colonial Downs in July, Emphatic aired by by 6 3/4 lengths. Sent to Monmouth Park for her next start in the one-mile Sorority Stakes on Aug. 29, she once again dominated, scoring by 5 1/4 lengths as the 3-2 choice. Stepping up to top-level company for her latest, she went to the front and was never headed, besting 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' Summer Starlet (City of Light) by 1 1/4 lengths in the 8 1/2-furlong GI Darley Alcibiades Stakes at Keeneland on Oct. 2.

With Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners, Gainesway won the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf with the Graham Motion-trained Sharing in 2019. Emphatic's co-owner Andrew Rosen was winning his second Breeders' Cup after taking his family-owned Star Crown Stable collected its initial victory with Chief's Crown at the inaugural Breeders' Cup at Hollywood Park in 1984.

Gainesway and Rosen also campaign Luster (Knicks Go), who dominated her competition in the King's Plate this past August.

Pedigree Notes:

Emphatic, whose sire (at Keeneland) and dam sire (twice) have both etched their names in Breeeders' Cup history, is out of unraced Convinced, an $85,000 purchase by Four Star Sales in foal to Maclean's Music at the 2020 Keeneland November Sale, is the dam of three other winners from a total of five to race, including Emphatic's full-sister Wesawtaylorinparis, placed in the PA-bred restricted Shamrock Rose Stakes in 2025. Emphatic is the seventh Pennsylvania-bred to succeed at the Breeders' Cup and the first since 2022, when Caravel beat the boys in the Turf Sprint.

Convinced, who is out of a full-sister to perennial leading sire Tapit, is the dam of a yearling colt by Gunite that was purchased by Harrell Ventures for $325,000 at this year's Keeneland September Sale.

This is also the extended family of champion sprinter Rubiano.

Champion 2-year-old and Kentucky Derby hero Nyquist is responsible for three prior Breeders' Cup winners, including a pair of fillies to annex the Juvenile Fillies. Vequist won the Juvenile Fillies in 2020 followed by Immersive, who took the 2024 edition of the race. Nysos won last year's 2025 Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile. Cont. p9

SUN GODDESS REIGNS SUPREME IN JUVENILE FILLIES TURF, TOPS EURO-LED SHUTOUT by Patrycja Szpyra

Sun Goddess | Mathea Kelley

All hail the reigning Titan of the Turf.

It's not every day that a turf race sees a tour-de-force akin to a runaway performance on the dirt, but 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' Sun Goddess (Ire) (Sioux Nation) gave the Keeneland crowd what they paid for with a sensational victory in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf.

Aidan O'Brien claimed his 22nd Breeders' Cup race with a filly who, as a 2-year-old, is remarkably already a four-time Group/Grade I winner. The daughter of Sioux Nation came into this year-end contest on a five-race win streak and had been the talk of the town since she stepped off the plane. O'Brien couldn't speak enough to her fantastic condition despite the long year, telling TDN Europe's Adam Houghton that she'd gotten through quarantine like a dream and been 'on springs' in the lead up to Friday.

The sustained form is a feat remarkable in and of itself considering she's made nine starts (counting this one) in 2026 with seven win pictures to show for it, including three Group 1 wins--the Phoenix Stakes, where she defeated Juvenile Turf runner-up Folsom Blues (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}); the 'WAYI' Moyglare Stakes; and the Cheveley Park, defeating Juvenile Turf Sprint victress Libertango (Ire) (No Nay Never) in the process. Interestingly, Libertango defeated Sun Goddess in her third career start when taking the G3 Albany Stakes at Royal Ascot...and it was also the last time anyone finished ahead of her.

Like all roads led to Rome, all high-class running lines went through Sun Goddess.

Bet down to 4-5 favoritism, she set up shop in second to track the leader Seneca Park (Golden Pal) through sluggish sectionals of :24.16, :48.83, and six panels in 1:13.29. Of the traffic problems that plagued the middle and backend of the field, Sun Goddess was kept well clear and was in perfect striking contention when the pace quickened on the final turn.

Swooping by her competition, Europe's top filly inhaled the fading front-runner and produced a devastating kick that put any doubts as to whether her long campaign was getting to her to rest. Green Empress (Ire) (Saxon Warrior {Jpn}), now four times beaten by Sun Goddess and no doubt tired of seeing that rival in front of her, was a game second. Curracloe (Baaeed {GB}) was third ahead of the slow-starting Amusingly (GB) (No Nay Never) in fourth. Cont. p11

The top seven spots all went to European entries with the best American result coming from Domestic Agenda (American Pharoah) in eighth.

"[Sun Goddess] was just really natural all the way and from day one," said O'Brien. "She obviously ran a run or two before Ascot, and she's taken everything in her stride. We could have taken in the Fillies' Mile at Newmarket on the way in, but just decided with a view to next year, and just to be sure that she came here fresh. They wanted her here. That's why she's here.

"I suppose our worry today was, we all know what she can do under strong pace out in front. And always the possibility--like Ryan [Moore] said going out--he thought he was going to end up a lot more forward than usual because he wasn't sure what was there was going to take her. So that's exactly what he did. He gave her a beautiful ride. It was all very clean cut, no chances."

Sun Goddess and Ryan Moore | Mathea Kelley

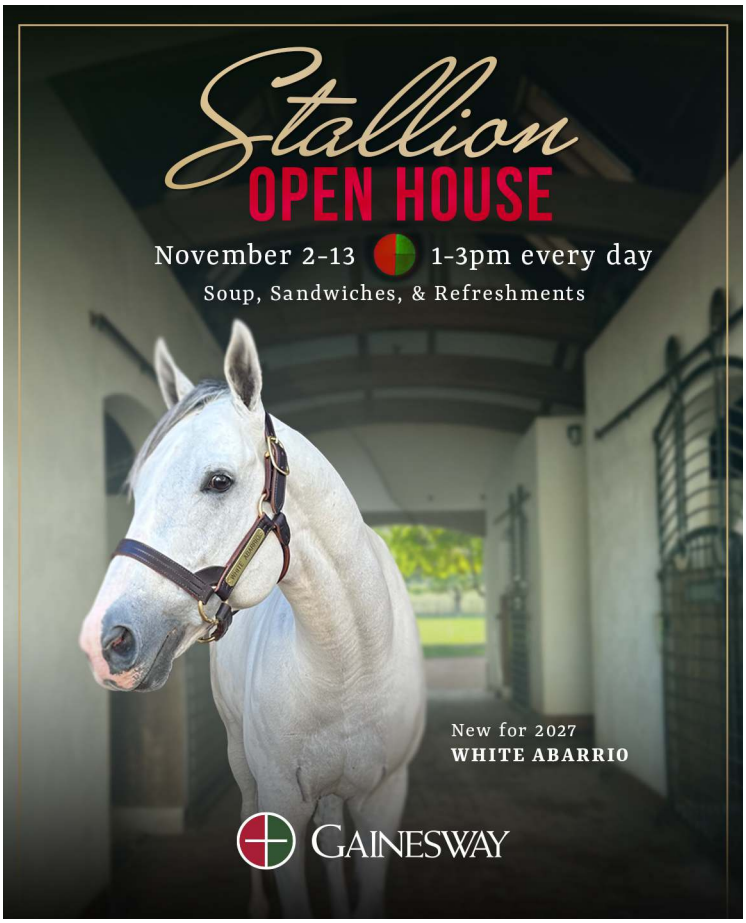
"[Sun Goddess] had a lovely day out, yeah, over the moon really."

"She went completely asleep out there," said Ryan Moore, adding that his charge hadn't turned a hair in her first trip going two turns. The rider collected his 17th Breeders' Cup race with the win. "She was very relaxed and very comfortable."

Not entirely surprising post-race commentary during the panel considering Moore went on record immediately after the race to say, "I'll be honest, I don't think you saw the best of her today. The ground's a little bit more dead than I expected it to be. The pace was very slow...she's probably two or three levels above them."

When asked how Sun Goddess might change going into her next season, the camp minced no words about their prognoses for her to improve.



"I would say she's probably going to change a lot through the winter," said O'Brien. "She's big and she's rangy. She's a super mover. She's a great mind. You'd say there's no doubt looking at her she's going to be more of a 3-year-old than a 2-year-old."

When asked about the likelihood of the filly having a long career, Coolmore's M. V. Magnier said, "Realistically, that's up to [O'Brien] here."

Moore agreed with the assessment and with the idea that Sun Goddess could get further. O'Brien floated the English Guineas as a starting point, but the camp didn't go past that Classic when looking into the future.

Through the end of the Friday card, and after he won the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf with Haffner (Justify), O'Brien has won 27 Group/Grade I races in 2026 and 23 Breeders' Cup contests, putting him one ahead of trainer Bob Baffert with 22--Hughes (Into Mischief) accounted for the latter's lone win on Friday in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile.

In their race to hold the record as most-winning trainer of the Breeders' Cup, Saturday's grass races will, ironically, be make-or-break for the US-based trainer. O'Brien has entries in three races--Filly & Mare Turf, the Mile, and the Turf--while Baffert has one (the Filly & Mare Sprint) after Splendora's scratch from the Distaff.

Pedigree Notes:

Sun Goddess is the third offspring to the races for Etoile Bleu (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}), purchased by Owenstown Stud for 60,000gns ($76,032) at the 2022 Tattersalls December Mares Sale, and already casts a shadow so large, it would take another super horse to run out from under it. She has a yearling half-sister by Blue Point (Ire) in the wings that is the last registered offspring for the mare thus far. That April-foaled filly was purchased by Cheveley Park Stud for 525,000gns ($728,372) at the Tattersalls October Sale earlier this month.

Etoile Bleu hails from an accomplished female family and is herself a half to South African MGSW & MGISP Gibraltar Blue (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}), the mother of four black-type runners in that jurisdiction. One of her sisters, Scream Blue Murder (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}), is the second dam of G1 Prix Jean Prat hero Thesecretadversary (Ire) (St Mark's Basilica {Fr}).

HOW 'SWEEP' IT IS: EUROS DOMINATE AS HAFFNER BOSSES THE JUVENILE TURF

by Alan Carasso

Team Europe looked to have strength in numbers and quality for the trio of turf races on 'Future Stars Friday' at the 2026 Breeders' Cup, and after Libertango (Ire) (No Nay Never) and Sun Goddess (Ire) (Sioux Nation) duly bossed the GI Juvenile Turf Sprint and GI Juvenile Fillies Turf, 'TDN Rising Star' presented by Hagyard Haffner (c, 2, Justify--Earth Strike {Ire}, by Zoffany {Ire}) completed the sweep with a convincing success in the GI Juvenile Turf. In so doing, he was comprehensively reversing the form of this year's G1 Vincent O'Brien National Stakes with favored 'Rising Star' Folsom Blues (Ire) (Blue Point {Ire}).

Haffner | Mathea Kelley

So thorough was the domination that European raiders accounted for the top seven places in the Turf Sprint (following the demotion of Harper's Corner from third to eighth), the top seven in the Fillies Turf and the top three in the colts' equivalent to conclude the card. Cont. p14

Easily the talking horse of 'Future Stars Friday', Haffner was bet down from a somewhat suspect morning line of 8-1 into 37-10 at the off. Away alertly from gate four, Haffner dropped down onto the rail to save every inch of ground as multiple French Group 3 winner and 'TDN Rising Star' Avec Toi (No Nay Never) showed the way in advance of Haffner's stablemate Florida Bay (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}) through a strong opening quarter-mile in :23.02.

Moore sat hard against Haffner into the turn, holding his horse together, and when Florida Bay rolled to his right nearing the stretch, Moore immediately asked Haffner to quicken. He put Avec Toi to the sword with a furlong to race and edged away to score decisively. Folsom Blues, who had better than a dozen lengths on Haffner when first and seventh, respectively, in the National Stakes, missed the kick from a wider gate and was immediately behind the eight ball. He nevertheless traveled into the race strongly, was sent around horses by Dylan Browne McMonagle at the quarter pole and finished with terrific energy, but could do no better than take the photo for second with Avec Toi, who completed the 'TDN Rising Star' 1-2-3.

Oscar (Oscar Performance) was best of the home team in fourth, a neck better than 33-10 second choice How's Al Today (Munnings), who never truly got involved.

Haffner's co-owner Peter Brant | Walter Wlodarczyk

The final time was 1:35.19.

Haffner is the third Breeders' Cup winner for Coolmore America's Justify, all in 2-year-old races, and was the second on the card for Moore and trainer Aidan O'Brien.

“He’s improving and still growing,” said O’Brien said. “With time and as he covers more distance, he’ll get even better. He had a great draw and a good position, so that was a big help.

"I think he'll be a classic horse next year," O'Brien added. "He'll have no problem going 10 (furlongs) and would probably go even farther. He's very classy, really."

Moore was pleased with the trip Haffner sat.

"He was drawn in (four) and the speed horses were inside of me so it was very straightforward," the winning rider said. "He kept hitting the right spot."

A second-out maiden winner during the July meeting at Newmarket, Haffner was the narrow runner-up in Goodwood's G2 Vintage Stakes on a 17-day back-up and broke through with a two-length score in the G3 Acomb Stakes at York Aug. 19. With the only apparent excuse a bit of juice in the ground when a distant seventh to Folsom Blues at the Curragh Sept. 13, the bay recorded a workmanlike 1 1/4-length victory in the one-mile G2 Royal Lodge Stakes before getting the green light for this.

Pedigree Notes:

Justify is now the sire of 13 Grade I/Group 1 winners worldwide, having accounted for previous Breeders' Cup scorers Just F Y I (Juvenile Fillies) and Hard To Justify (Juvenile Fillies Turf). Zoffany is now the broodmare sire of four top-level winners.

A maiden winner in three starts for Joseph O'Brien, Earth Strike joined the barn of Mark Casse in 2021, placing in three of her eight starts, including a third in the Allen 'Black Cat' LaCombe Memorial Stakes at the Fair Grounds in 2021.

There was already Breeders' Cup blood in Haffner's pedigree in the form of Storm Song, who completed a championship season with a victory in the 1996 Juvenile Fillies at Woodbine for Dogwood Stable and Nick Zito.

LIBERTANGO WORTH THE 'WEIGHT' FOR CHAMPION LOUGHNANE IN JUVENILE TURF SPRINT by Alan Carasso

Take a bow, Billy Loughnane.

The 20-year-old Loughnane was earlier this month crowned Britain's champion jockey, the youngest to do so in a century. To put that accomplishment into some sort of perspective, Lester Piggott was a comparatively elderly 24 when he secured his first premiership in 1960. A gentleman named Ryan Moore was 23 when taking out his first title.

Pretty good company, don't you think?

Loughnane's 2026 season has been highlighted by his partnership with Europe's champion miler-elect, the brilliant, undefeated Bow Echo (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}). That now-retired colt was conditioned by the not-quite-as-young, but equally talented and upwardly mobile trainer George Boughey.

There was additional magic to be made Friday at Keeneland when Loughnane belied his relative inexperience with a perfect steer aboard 9-5 favorite Libertango (Ire) (f, 2, No Nay Never--Ein Gedi {Ire}), by Oasis Dream {GB}), overcoming some trouble three furlongs out in a race where there is, by definition, nearly no margin for error.

Libertango | Mathea Kelley

The recent runner-up in the G1 Cheveley Park Stakes came with a stinging final-furlong flourish once switched out to take out the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint by a widening 1 1/4 lengths.

A filly prone to slow starts at home, but largely classy enough to overcome them, the €130,000 Arqana August yearling turned Tattersalls Craven Sale Breezer was off to a relatively good beginning after scratching down into the two hole and took the sit from fifth as Ruiva (Munnings), in off the also-eligible list with the program scratching of GIII Futurity Stakes winner Good to Be King (War Front), made the running in advance of Harper's Corner (Speaker's Corner). The first couple of furlongs was posted in a snappy :21.49.

Libertango | Mathea Kelley

Forced to steady when G3 Sirenia Stakes heroine Moonrise (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}) bobbled after being bumped by Harper's Corner right at the three-eighths pole, Libertango remained in the slipstream of that runner while remaining committed to an inside run on the swing for home, with a good five lengths to find on Ruiva, who still held the call after a half in :44.54.

Harper's Corner wrested command from a tiring Ruiva entering the final furlong and G1 Middle Park Stakes third Hell of A Spin (Ire) (Naval Crown {GB}) emerged a late threat, but Libertango's late burst was too much for her rivals as she delivered her challenge four off the inside and went on to score by a widening 1 1/4-length margin.

Hell of A Spin continued his consistent run of placings with a runner-up effort and Harper's Corner crossed the line in third, but a claim of foul by David Egan astride Middle Park second Force Noir (Ire) (Persian Force {Ire}) was upheld and Harper's Corner was disqualified and placed eighth.

Libertango is the second Breeders' Cup winner for No Nay Never (Meditate {Ire} in the 2022 Juvenile Fillies Turf here at Keeneland) and a first for Loughnane and Boughey.

"She makes my job very easy," said the winning trainer. "It was probably the most relaxed I've been going into a Group 1 ever.

Boughey continued, “She shipped over here great, the guys on the ground here have done a super job and you can't do it without the people who put the team together. I'm delighted."

Reflecting on his first victory at the Breeders' Cup, Boughey added: "It feels amazing. For me, it's huge. It's the pinnacle for us, traveling the horses around the world to win a Breeders' Cup is right at the top of it. You saw here there--she makes it easy.

"It's amazing. It's the pinnacle for us traveling horses around the world to win a Breeders' Cup, it's right at the top of it.”

Boughey, who sent out Believing (Ire) (Mehmas {Ire}) to win the 2025 G1 Al Quoz Sprint in Dubai, also saddled GI Breeders' Cup Turf hopeful Survie (Ire) (Churchill {Ire}) to take out this year's GII Glens Falls Stakes and GI Sword Dancer Stakes at Saratoga.

It was something of a miracle that Loughnane was in the saddle on Friday in the first place. Flavien Prat was originally named aboard Libertango, as Loughnane was unable to make the weight. But Loughnane was an 11th-hour call-up after sweating off the necessary excess and took full advantage of the opportunity.

“I do feel a little bit sorry for Flavien, but it's a game of weights and measures and Billy is my stable rider,” the trainer said. “It was a question that I asked the owner and he wanted the consistency.”

Added Loughnane: “I can't put it into words. I never expected to ride the filly at this weight. Thankfully, they have the saunas here so managed to do the weight. I've been working on the weight all week. I feel great doing the weight and a big thank you to George Boughey for putting me back on board. George is a big friend of mine and I'm the lucky one to ride some fantastic horses for him.”

The February foal parlayed a first-out score at Leicester into a one-length defeat of Friday's GI Juvenile Fillies Turf romper Sun Goddess (Ire) (Sioux Nation) in the June 19 G3 Albany Stakes at Royal Ascot, taking over inside the final half-furlong. Run down late to taste defeat for the first time in Newmarket's G2 Duchess of Cambridge Stakes, she was off slowly, but home first in the G2 Lowther Stakes at York in August and was exiting a runner-up effort to Sun Goddess in the G1 Cheveley Park Stakes Sept. 26.

Libertango is the second big-race winner on these shores this season for owner Ibrahim Araci, who campaigns the Hugo Palmer-trained GI Saratoga Derby winner Glacius (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB}).

Pedigree Notes:

Libertango is the 13th elite-level scorer for her sire, whose daughter Amusingly (GB) took out this year's Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere before finishing a troubled fourth in Friday's GI Juvenile Fillies Turf at Keeneland. She is the 22nd daughter of Oasis Dream to produce a Grade I/Group 1 winner.

The filly is the first foal from her dam, a daughter of Listed Lord Weinstock Memorial Stakes heroine Splashdown (GB) (Falbrav {Ire}), whose other produce includes G3 Prix Imprudence heroine Reina Madre (Ire) (Kingman {GB}), also champion 2-year-old filly in Spain, and Aktabantay (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), winner at two of the G3 Solario Stakes for Araci and Palmer.

Ein Gedi is the dam of a yearling full-brother to Libertango and foaled her full-sister this past Mar. 1.

ATTENDANCE UP, HANDLE DOWN ON 'FUTURE STARS' FRIDAY Edited Press Release

All-sources handle for the 10-race program on the first day of the 43rd Breeders' Cup World Championships Oct. 30 at Keeneland Race Course was $53,244,221, the first time since the COVID-impacted renewal at Keeneland in 2020 that handle did not exceed $60 million and the lowest in 10 years. The Future Stars Friday card featured five Breeders' Cup races for 2-year-old horses, the ninth consecutive year the Breeders' Cup has carded all its juvenile races on the same day since the event expanded to its two-day format in 2007. Handle on the five Breeders' Cup races was $39,807,102 versus $41,239,773 in 2025, a 3.4% decrease. Friday's on-track attendance was 35,829. On-track handle was $5,944,634.

LIBERTANGO SHARES THE LIBERATION OF THE KID by Chris McGrath

LEXINGTON, Ky.--"Simple," said a man who would know, raising a finger to both temples. "Here. Between your ears."

Picking his way through the Bluegrass crowd, Michael Owen was able to enjoy a degree of anonymity he can rarely have experienced these past three decades. He was still virtually adolescent when becoming one of the most precocious stars in the history of English soccer: winning the Premier League Golden Boot as a teenager, when also the youngest ever to play and then to score for England. Since his retirement, however, Owen has pursued another sporting passion--one that had brought him here as co-owner of a runner later on the card. And his presence in the winner's circle, after the first Breeders' Cup race, ensured that at least one other was present who had gone through something comparable to the latest, dazing chapter in the emergence of Billy Loughnane; and eligible to identify the bridge that leads from elite potential to elite accomplishment.

For Loughnane's success on Libertango (Ire) (No Nay Never) in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint aptly complemented the way he has more or less risen without trace: his name had only been inserted next to that of the filly 45 minutes beforehand. By the same token, he had arrived here as champion jockey of Britain, barely four years after riding in his first race, and the youngest in more than a century.

This latest breakout, bookending a season that had opened with a first Classic, was contingent on an unusually literal hunger for success. His partnership with Libertango having been severed by a weight 3lbs lighter than Loughnane had managed all year, her trainer George Boughey was stunned and delighted by an 11th hour text that the racetrack scales were putting him unexpectedly close. Cont. p23

It is safe to surmise that only one of those adjectives applied to Flavien Prat, his intended deputy, when told the news. But Loughnane had been tormented by the idea of watching this cherished filly dancing the dance of her life with a new partner. And, with his innate freedom from inhibition duly honed by a sense of reprieve, he pulled the race out of the fire with all his trademark insouciance. Caught on the rail from her low draw, Libertango still had plenty to do when switched out on the home turn but ran them down with all the exuberance of her rider. It was as though the pounds he had shed in the sauna must have contained all the anxiety and stress that might have burdened lesser riders in those white-knuckle moments.

It was precisely this weightlessness that Owen emphasized, when asked about a transition that has derailed so many other young sportsmen anointed for stardom. He had rushed down to the winner's circle with Hugo Palmer, who trains at Owen's stables in Cheshire, to congratulate the "boys": Boughey, after all, is himself barely started on his own career, having learned the ropes for six years as assistant to Palmer at his former base in Newmarket. It was touching to see the pride with which his mentor enfolded Boughey in a long embrace, its warmth plainly undiluted by watching his protege hurtle past him in the trainers' standings.

Boughey would doubtless have loved to bring Bow Echo (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) here, too, but for losing his services to injury. In the singular circumstances, however, it was the younger man who proved the inevitable focus.

Libertango | Walter Wlodarczyk

"Either you've got it or you haven't," Owen remarked. "I could go to the World Cup as an 18-year-old because it didn't bother me, mentally. Because at that age you don't have the scars. You think you're Superman. It's only later that you start to think about the importance of what you're doing. Experience is obviously a fantastic thing. But it's funny, it's in gaining experience that you run the risk of losing that fearlessness."

But Owen was not the only bystander who could identify with what was unfolding. For it was impossible not to be reminded, watching Loughnane joyously showering petals from the winner's blanket, of Frankie Dettori's first Breeders' Cup win in the GI Mile down the road at Churchill Downs in 1994. He, too, had been feted as a champion in the making from the very earliest days; but "Billy the Kid," at 17, was a year younger than Dettori when champion apprentice in 2023.

Dettori, who proved so reluctant to give up the elixir of their calling, duly watched this new incarnation with a nostalgic smile.

"Does this remind you of Barathea, Frankie?"

"Yes, of course," he replied. "Remember I haven't been in England these last three years but he came out while I was riding here so he got a little taste of American racing. But he's been a natural from day dot, a born talent. Very polite, too, it's all in place. He obviously has a very bright future. Let's just hope his weight doesn't become an issue. He's still a young man. Fingers crossed, because we need him."

Both testimonies, then, carried a light note of caution: not even the Kid can be Peter Pan. On the day, however, perhaps nobody condensed his current state of mind better than Loughnane himself, in praising Libertango. "She's got such a good racing brain," he said. "She went to sleep, and there was a little bit of interference on the turn, but it didn't even break her stride." For he, too, seems able to do things more or less without thinking, with an instinctive alacrity. But that's not to suggest that he might duly remain prey to ingenuousness or naivete. For most of us, as Picasso said, "it takes a long time to become young." We learn our lessons, our technique, with clumsiness and caution; and only when truly seasoned do we unlearn those accompanying constraints that have dragged on our fulfilment. And maybe that's the paradox of the Kid. People speak of an old head on young shoulders. Let's hope that simply means he will never lose the freedom, curiosity and adventure of his innocence.

SEXTET OF GRADEDS KEEP ACTION GOING POST-BREEDERS' CUP

Miss Nightfall | Sarah Andrew

by Stefanie Grimm

For racing fans with money still to wager following Friday and Saturday's Breeders' Cup festivities at Keeneland, the action continues into the evening and through Sunday across the country with Belmont, Woodbine and Santa Anita each hosting a pair of graded stakes races to close out racing's biggest weekend.

Just about 90 minutes following post time for the Breeders' Cup Classic, California stages the final graded of the evening with older turf fillies contesting the GIII Goldikova Stakes. Miss Nightfall (GB) (Sands of Mali {Fr}) drew the rail for her second start state-side, having won her North American debut at this distance at Saratoga for Jonathan Thomas Sept. 7. Her class extended back to Europe as well where she was just a head back in second at Royal Ascot in the Kensington Palace Stakes June 17. Stablemate and GI American Oaks winner Ambaya (Ghostzapper) has been off since that victory over 10 months back and makes her 4-year-old debut Saturday, cutting back from that 1 1/4-mile spot back to the mile. Trainer Jose D'Angelo brings in Bojaca Blessing (Cairo Prince) who was last seen running third in the GII John C Mabee Stakes at Del Mar Sept. 7. She was meant for a Keeneland allowance race Oct. 17 but scratched as that race came off the turf. And May Day Ready (Tapit) looks to rebound after an off-the-board finish in the GII Rodeo Drive Stakes Oct. 3, having previously won the restricted One Dreamer Stakes at Kentucky Downs Sept. 6 for Richard Mandella.

Come Sunday, Santa Anita hosts the 1 1/8-mile GII Twilight Derby where another rail horse, Proletariat (Raging Bull {Fr}) looks to add to his three-race win streak for Jeff Mullins off a victory in the GII Del Mar Derby back in August.

He faces several familiar rivals out of that race including Unrivaled Time (Not This Time), Melismatic (Ire) (Space Blues {Ire}) and Tribalism (Ire) (No Nay Never). Path to Power (GB) (Time Test {GB}), drawn outside for Phil D'Amato, broke his maiden two back at this distance at Del Mar.

At Belmont Park, older males go a mile on the main track in the GIII Forty Niner Stakes. Godolphin homebred and 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' East Avenue (Medaglia d'Oro) drew the rail here and will need to step back up after running fourth in his last two starts since winning the GIII Salvator Mile three back at Monmouth Park. Crazy Mason (Coal Front) has been rounding into form, missing by just three-quarters of a length when fourth in the GI Forego Stakes Aug. 29 and then running second by a nose in the GIII Vosburgh going a furlong shorter on this track Oct. 1. Two other runners coming off allowance wins are Gate to Wire (Munnings) who will need to stretch out to the mile for the first time since last summer and the 5-year-old Pentathlon (Speightstown) who cuts back after winning at Belmont going 1 1/16 miles Oct. 4.

East Avenue | Horsephotos

The action starts early Sunday at Belmont with the six-furlong GIII Bold Ruler Stakes. 2025 Breeders' Cup Classic runner Contrary Thinking (Into Mischief) comes back here for Amelia Green after running eighth in the Vosburgh Oct. 1 and has been seeing success since joining the barn after bringing $130,000 at the Fasig-Tipton Digital Sale in May of this year. Two horses come in off stakes wins with Stickupwithoutagun (McKinzine) winning the state-bred Ontario Stakes at Finger Lakes Sept. 21 and Buccherino (Bucchero) taking the Stable Recovery Stakes at Parx Sept. 19. Commuted (Gun Runner) also steps up here for Linda Rice after winning, granted in a pair of starters, at this distance at both Saratoga and Belmont in his last two starts.

Woodbine puts the spotlight on the 2-year-olds with the GIII Grey Stakes and the GIII Mazarine Stakes both at 1 1/16 miles on the Tapeta. Several fillies in the Mazarine will be swapping surfaces, coming from the grass. Mrs D (Bolt d'Oro) won the five-furlong GIII Algonquin Stakes Oct. 3 but has never raced beyond 6 1/2 furlongs. Sunday Finery (Mystic Guide) romped in her fourth career start at this distance to break her maiden by 13 1/2 lengths for James Begg but steps up in class here. Mo Cookie (Modernist) also comes off this distance but on the grass when second in the restricted Cup & Saucer Stakes Oct. 4. And Homeawayfromhome (Nyquist) also steps up off the grass from a second-place effort in the Selima Stakes Sept. 26 at Laurel Park. For the colts, Speaker's Speech (Speaker's Corner) enters still a maiden but already twice stakes placed sprinting on the grass. Uncle Dodo (Uncle Mo) is a stakes winner on the Tapeta but stretches past seven furlongs for the first time for Barbara Minshall. Godolphin ships up their homebred Okarito (Violence) who won a one-mile turf maiden special weight at Churchill Sept. 24 and Play It Again (Speighstown) broke his maiden over this distance on the grass two back at Ellis Park but was sixth in the GI Summer Stakes Sept. 12.

If we get Sovereignty's best--he's had plenty of time to get over his foot ailment and is trained by one of the greatest horsemen to ever do it in Bill Mott--he's the horse to beat in this star-studded cast. His 'Rising Star' stablemate Knightsbridge, man, what a treat to watch him train and a supreme talent in his own right, could help set the table for Sovereignty's devastating stretch run, which is even more potent at this Classic distance. Magnitude continues to give every indication that he's gonna run a big race and believe he's more versatile than he's getting credit for (see last year's GI Pennsylvania Derby). Does he just hate Saratoga? Maybe. Wasn't impressed at all with Forever Young (Jpn)'s GI Jockey Club Gold Cup and was ready to be completely against him as the favorite. But after watching him train at Keeneland this week, it would be foolish to think that he can't successfully defend his crown. What. A. Race. --Steve Sherack

When Keeneland hosted the Breeders' Cup for the second time in 2020, Tarnawa (Ire) easily beat the boys and Diamond Necklace (Ire) looks to follow suit. Aidan O'Brien has won this a record seven times, including with the 3-year-old filly Found (Ire) in 2015, who took the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe two stars prior. Diamond Necklace annexed the first six starts of her career, and after finishing second at 2-5 in the G1 Prix Jean Romanet in August, was a wide-trip third in the Arc last time. Christophe Soumillon will need to work out a passage from gate 12. Speaking of awkward draws, Ethical Diamond (Ire) overcame the 14 hole to cause a major upset last year and exits a sound runner-up effort in the GII Kentucky Turf Cup behind Tiffany (Ire), who was a Group 1 winner against males in Berlin in August. He has the rail this time around. Bay City Roller (Ire) has been a model of consistency this season, hacking up by 10 lengths in an easy-ground renewal of the G1 Coronation Cup, with Calandagan (Ire) floundering in the conditions, before finishing second in the Arc and third to Ombudsman (Ire) and Calandagan in the G1 British Champion Stakes last time. --Alan Carasso

This is a tough one. Nitrogen beat up on Fully Subscribed when the two last met in the GI Ogden Phipps Stakes. But Fully Subscribed is clearly a better horse now than she was then. She's looked terrific winning three in a row, a streak that includes an electric performance in the GI Personal Ensign Stakes. But it's hard to look at the Ogden Phipps and make the case that Fully Subscribed is the better horse. We're sticking with Nitrogen. The pace of the race will be fascinating. Nitrogen has thrived since being put on the lead and there is plenty of speed to go after her here. --Bill Finley

We all know about the speed and power of 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' Englishman (Maxfield). It might be a fool's errand to take a stand against the Cherie DeVaux trainee, but don't forget that the 3-year-old will be facing older company for the first time. This is a good betting opportunity and the chance to upset the vertical and horizontal applecart. So...I am going with Built, who looks better than ever and comes to Keeneland--the site where he broke his maiden--off a pair of recent stakes wins that were added to his resume. Trainer Wayne Catalano won the BC Dirt Sprint with Aloha West (by Hard Spun) in 2021. The experienced Nakatomi loves to put in a rally at his home track and Wesley Ward has the 7-year-old ready to take another crack at this particular race. It was gratifying to watch Hymn win the GI Forego Stakes for trainer Ron Moquett, who experienced Breeders' Cup glory at Keeneland in 2020. --J.N. Campbell

Godolphin, trainer Charlie Appleby and jockey William Buick have won four of the last five runnings of the Mile with sons of the magnificent Dubawi (Ire) and 'TDN Rising Star' presented by Hagyard Notable Speech (GB) looks to extend that streak in defense of his crown. If anything, the 5-year-old has had a slightly more consistent season this time around, with wins in the G1 Lockinge Stakes, the G1 City of York Stakes and most recently the GI Woodbine Mile for the second year running, easily defeating 'TDN Rising Star' Deterministic. Notable Speech is nicely drawn in eight, while Kendrick Carmouche will need to be aggressive on Deterministic from the inside stall. The latter is a dual Grade I winner this term, having annexed the Manhattan Stakes over a mile and three-sixteenths before going back-to-back in the Fourstardave Stakes. Rhetorical, fourth in this last year, wired the GI Coolmore Turf Mile here to successfully defend four weeks ago, holding off City of York runner-up Lake Forest (GB). Second to Notable Speech in 2025, Formidable Man is an exotics candidate yet again if forgiving of his last-out run at Kentucky Downs. --Alan Carasso

Gimme a Nother (SAf) isn't blowing away her competition, but she's won four straight and will run her race. The only question is whether or not she is good enough. Blue Bolt (Ire) is 6-for-6 this year and has won four straight Group 1 races. Is obviously the horse to beat and will be favored. The knock is that she is a miler and is unproven at the 1 3/16-mile. Precise (Ire) has been beaten three times this year by Blue Bolt, but showed that she can handle this distance when second in the GI Prix de l'Opera at 10 furlongs. --Bill Finley

If I am reading the tea leaves correctly, then this year's BC Turf Sprint looks like a pace meltdown is inbound. That is not breaking news, of course. The early speed demons like Bacio, Roja, Joe Shiesty, John the Beer Man and In Our Time need to be sent. 'TDN Rising Stars, presented by Hagyard,' Cy Fair and Shisospicy are fillies who could join the charge early. I have two requirements when looking for a turf sprint top pick--freshness and familiarity with the Haggin Turf Course. Yellow Card fits the bill after rallying for second in the GII Shakertown Stakes at Keeneland back in April. Coming off a six-month break isn't a concern because this horse is a pro, has tactical ability and once again gets the services of Flavien Prat. The 5-year-old trained by Michael McCarthy did not get the chance to draw into last year's Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint. What we also know is that McCarthy ships in some live grass runners from his Cal base. Possiblemente has a great backstory being a former claimer and Joe Sharp is hot as Hades. This gelding is another one who can rate and potentially blowup the tote. Finally, Comanche Brave (Ire) is clearly a classy 4-year-old colt with two Group 1 wins on his resume. Trainer Donnacha O'Brien is looking for his second Breeders' Cup win after success in 2025. --J.N. Campbell

Ways and Means (Practical Joke) is the clear-cut horse to beat and her best easily wins this. Other than drawing inside, I don't have any knocks on the 'TDN Rising Star' and 7-5 morning-line favorite. This is her race to lose. All that being said. With a likely supersonic early pace on tap, will swing for the fences a little with the stretch-running Kilwin (Twirling Candy), who still has room to move forward in just her third start of the year for Keeneland's all-time winningest trainer Rusty Arnold. After finishing a rallying second up the dead rail in the GI Ballerina S. at Saratoga, she has 5 1/2 lengths to make up on Ways and Means. Let's see if she can do it. 'Rising Star' Explora (Blame) is drawn well on the outside and her last-out defeat as the heavy favorite is much better than it looks on paper. --Steve Sherack

It all points to 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' Further Ado. The connections wisely passed the GI Breeders' Cup Classic for this spot and will now send out a favorite in a $1-million race. Further Ado returns to Keeneland, where he won his two prior starts there by a combined 31 lengths, but he has done just fine at other tracks. Is coming off a sharp second-place finish in the GI Pennsylvania Derby. The only question is the turn back to one mile. Racing's best $2,500 yearling buy, Chunk of Gold looks like the main speed in here. He should give a good account of himself, but needs to overcome his habit of running second. Can Bracket Buster duplicate his huge effort from the West Virginia Governor's Stakes? If so, he'll be a major factor. --Bill Finley

Princesa Moche (Per) (Muwaary ({GB}) wouldn't be the first horse who just didn't handle Kentucky Downs. Her prior race, in the GII Yellow Ribbon Stakes, was much better and good enough to win this. She also looks like she can be the controlling speed, if that's the tactics jockey Armando Ayuso decides to employ. No one is hotter in California than Jeff Mullins, so you have to respect Baltic Fire (Flameaway), who's coming off a creditable try when fourth in the GII John C. Mabee Stakes. Saffie Joseph Jr. has had a big year with his California shippers and will try to collect another stakes win with Little Jamie (Collected). She's stepping up in class, but has done nothing wrong since joining the Joseph barn. --Bill Finley

Proletariat (Raging Bull {Fr}) figures to be a very short price here, but this is not a horse you want to take a stand against. He's won three straight, towers over the field on the Beyer numbers and is the only speed in the race. Path To Power (GB) steps up off a good try in an allowance race and seems to be on the improve. Other than the top pick, he seems to be as good as anyone in this race. Tribalism (Ire) (No Nay Never) had a bit of trouble when finishing seventh behind Proletariat in the GII Del Mar Derby. Could round out the exacta with smoother sailing. --Bill Finley

Buccherino (Bucchero) ships in from Parx for a high-percentage trainer and missed by just a half-length in this race last year. There's not a lot of speed in here, so this one may get a favorable trip. In a weak rendition of the Bold Ruler, Commuted (Gun Runner) can get the job done for Linda Rice, even though he's making his stakes debut. He's 3-for-3 at the distance, gets Flavien Prat to ride and ran a 102 Beyer figure two starts back. Contrary Thinking (Into Mischief) has put in some big efforts during his career, but appears to be a horse who needs Lasix. --Bill Finley

Pentathlon (Speightstown) makes his third start off a layoff and might be ready for a top effort. There's no early speed in this race and if ridden aggressively by Paco Lopez, he could seize the lead and get a dream trip. Crazy Mason (Coal Front) turned in a huge effort in the GIII Vosburgh Stakes, missing by nose after sitting well behind a slow pace. As usual, he'll be closing, but, with him, it's often a case of too little too late as he's lost 10 straight. Bendoog (Gun Runner) may deserve another chance after failing to run his best over a muddy track at Delaware Park. --Bill Finley

REAL GOODBAR PUTS'EM TO SLEEP EARLY, TURNS ALL CHALLENGERS AWAY LATE IN TAA

by Patrycja Szpyra

No time like Future Stars Friday to commit theft, and that's exactly what Real Goodbar (Authentic) did when he put everyone to sleep on the front end to steal the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance Stakes on the Breeders' Cup undercard at Keeneland.

Debuted July 10 at Colonial Downs, the Ken McPeek pupil displayed the first inkling of his ability to go out to the front and take the field all the way around. He defeated the maiden competition that afternoon by 3 1/2 lengths and was sent to Churchill for a try on the main track in the GIII Iroquois Stakes. Real Goodbar found tough company that afternoon, running fourth as Zedan Racing's Salahudin (Uncle Mo) remained perfect and 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' He Is No Lie (Early Voting) came in a half-length behind the Bob Baffert colt in second.

Those two returned later in the card Friday to run in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. The former was third behind stablemate Hughes (Into Mischief) and Todd Pletcher's American History (Constitution) while the latter fell on his face coming out of the gate and trailed throughout.

Undeterred by his effort beneath the Twin Spires, Real Goodbar's connections returned the son of Authentic to the lawn for a start in the 'Win and You're In' GII Castle & Key Bourbon Stakes over this very course Oct. 4. In fifth for most of that contest, he came off the pace to put himself into contention in the lane, but couldn't match strides with eventual winner Agate (Karakontie {Jpn}), who also returned later on in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf to run eighth behind a salty European contingent topped by 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' Haffner (Justify).

A 7-1 shot for this jump, Real Goodbar returned to frontrunning ways and stepped out to post :23.79 and a half in :48.39 on an uncontested lead. Cont.

The trophy presentation | Walter Wlodarczyk

Enjoying a groundsaving trip from the fence, he held all the cards as the field swung for home after six panels in 1:13.21 and had built up a comfortable cushion heading into the final furlong. Called to battle as European invader Nuit d'Eclair (Ire) (Night Of Thunder {Ire}) tried valiantly to reel him in, Real Goodbar kept that one at bay by three-quarters of a length. Roscoe Goose (Olympiad) rallied from far off the slow pace to claim third by a similar margin.

The victor is the first to the races for Bold Confection, a daughter of GSW Bold Union (Dixie Union)--thus making her a half-sister to GSP Bold Quality (Elusive Quality). Real Goodbar has a pair of brothers in the wings--a yearling full-brother and a 2026 half by Tapit. Their dam went to Quality Road for 2027.

This is the immediate female family of Polish Highweight juvenile filly Only Luck (Ire) (Lucky Vega {Ire}), who won the 2025 Listed Gestut Wittekindshof - Youngesters Fillies Cup in her third start as a juvenile, and is a seven-time winner across two countries. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel Racing.

CURLIN'S HIGHWAYMEN DEBUTS ON BREEDERS' CUP UNDERCARD

1st-KEE, $150k, Msw, 2yo, 7f, post time: 11:15a.m. ET

Sporting a smart worktab, Highwaymen (Curlin) gets his start for trainer Cherie DeVaux. A $925,000 Keeneland September yearling purchase, the chestnut is out of Always On My Mind (Congrats). Fresh off a :48 2/5 (9/29) move in Lexington on Oct. 25. Jose Ortiz gets the mount in this unveiling.

Bourbon Neat (Flightline) debuts for trainer Will Walden. Out of MSW Hennessy Smash (Roll Hennessy Roll), the bay colt was a $875,000 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Select yearling purchase. Axel Concepcion gets the call.

Getting a plenty of attention prior to his debut in a six-furlong Saratoga maiden on July 18, Powerline (Flightline), a $1.8 million Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale grad, was second before finishing fourth behind next-out Grade I winner American History (Constitution) as the favorite while adding a sixteenth at that venue on Aug. 22. Flavien Prat rides the colt for the first time. TJCIS pps

Hammy, who won her debut over this course and trip versus $25,000 maiden claimers Sept. 26, rallied from last to become the first stakes winner for her freshman sire Scalding (Nyquist) at Gulfstream Friday. The dark bay filly was away well, but was unhurried and jostled in traffic and shuffled back entering the first turn. Last down the backstretch and around the far bend, Hammy angled to the center of the course entering the stretch. She bound to the lead in deep stretch and pulled clear to the wire.

"She's still a little green but she did everything I wanted," said winning rider Marcos Meneses. "She waited for me and made the move when I asked her. That's the thing about the good horses. She was flying. It was unbelievable."

Parawan, purchased for $5,500 at the Fasig-Tipton Digital August sale in 2025, produced full-sisters to the winner in 2025 and 2026. She was bred to Channel Cat this year. The winner's third dam produced Holy Bubbette, who produced Cairo Prince.

The 51-1 longest shot on the board pulled the shocker in the Cellars Shiraz Stakes with Super Sienna going pillar-to-post in her second U.S. start.

Group 1 placed in Peru, the daughter of Mendelssohn made her North American debut Oct. 3 on the local synthetic track but couldn't manage better than sixth against optional claiming company. The betting public focused on everyone else in the race here, and despite her return to a surface she'd secured elite-level black type to her credit, by the time the gates opened, she was ice-cold on the board.

Recovering from early contact with inside competition, Super Sienna stepped right out to set the pace and did so uncontested through :22.50 and a half in :46.84. After six panels in 1:10.37, the field tried to reel her in on the bend and coming into the lane, but she was game in the latter stages. Digging in when called on for more, Super Sienna held off the oncoming charge from Bayou Brigid and Rogue Runner, who went second and third, respectively, by a head.

"She's a very good filly. The owner of the filly from Peru had very good comments [about her]. I liked [Super Sienna] the first moment she came into my barn," trainer Victor Barboza said. "Her last race, she had never run on the [Tapeta], and I don't think she liked it for the first time. In the future, maybe."

The victress is the second black type horse for Great Look behind her Listed-placed full-sister Cecile. One of her winning sisters who was exported to Venezuela produced MSW-Ven Madame Karina (Ven) (Caracaro) in her adoptive country. Super Sienna has a placed juvenile half-sister named Great Grenzen (Greatest Honour) as well as a 2026 half-sister by Kingsbarns. The dam went to Tiz the Law for 2027. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel Racing.

EMERGING MARKET (c, 3, Candy Ride {Arg}--Wild Empress, by Empire Maker) has not been in the winner's circle since claiming the GII Louisiana Derby last March, but returned to winning ways here on the Future Stars Friday undercard of the Breeders' Cup.

Running 10th in the GI Kentucky Derby and fifth in the GI Belmont Stakes, the son of Candy Ride tracked the top two from third in this short field and was never far away as he worked his way out on the second turn. Emerging Market put himself into the mix coming off the bend and managed to poke his head in front outside the furlong marker but the competition was stubborn. Battling on to the wire, he inched forward in the final strides to win the photo over Stowaway (Gun Runner) by a neck.

The victor is the first to the races for Wild Empress, a half to champion juvenile filly She Be Wild (Offlee Wild)--herself a Breeders' Cup champion by way of the Juvenile Fillies. Emerging Market has a winning juvenile half-brother in Japan named Loose Aggressive (Charlatan) and a yearling half-brother named Street Fair (Practical Joke). The trio of colts claims a 2026 sister by Constitution as well, and the dam went back to that stallion for 2027.

Favored Campobasso (Street Sense) was second. DORMIE (c, 2, Sharp Azteca--Go Lady Jay {SW, $245,848}, by Run Away and Hide) missed the drama at the start as both Fusta (Hard Spun) and McCoy (Vekoma) stumbled badly out of the gate and dropped their riders, Brian Hernandez Jr. and Jose Ortiz, respectively. Stalking from just off the leader, this 7-1 shot showed speed as he added blinkers off a second-place finish going six furlongs at this track Oct. 3. Pouncing off the turn, Dormie easily drew off from this field, widening down the stretch to win by nearly double-digit lengths over Take a Picture (Golden Pal).

Both Fusta and McCoy returned to the barns under their own power following the race. Brian Hernandez also walked off while Jose Ortiz was evaluated by local first aid but opted to stay at Keeneland instead of seeking further immediate medical attention.

Go Lady Jay has a yearling Tiz the Law colt, a weanling Volatile colt and is due in the spring to Drain the Clock. Lifetime Record: SP, 4-2-2-0, $163,700. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel TV.

YAUPON DE REPLAY (f, 3, Yaupon--Malibu Mischief {SP, $369,841}, by Goldencents), formerly in the yard of Joseph O'Brien where she was fourth in the GIII Killavullan Stakes at Leopardstown just over a year ago, the filly returned to America and came into the care of trainer Saffie Joseph. The EASMAY grad who was tabbed as a 7-1 shot here, raced along the rail in the third flight up the backstretch. Waiting for an opportunity to shift into high gear around the far turn, the 3-year-old had an outside lane open up at the top the stretch. The Joseph trainee found her best stride out there, collared the favorite Di Natale (Chi) (Midshipman) at the sixteenth marker and graduated by 2 1/4 lengths. The winner is her dam's first foal. Malibu Mischief is also responsible for 2-year-old filly in-training Just Work It Out (Justify) and a weanling colt by Cyberknife). She visited Yaupon once again for 2027. CAPTIVATOR (g, 3, Charlatan--Dashing Debby {SW}, by Medaglia d'Oro) ran third last out Sept. 19 in Parx's GII Gallant Bob Stakes, comfortably defeated by dual-surface black type earner MGSW Stradale (Yaupon) and next-out GIII Perryville Stakes shocker Dr. Kapur (McKinzie). He'd defeated optional claimers at Del Mar two back July 31 and earned a 93 Beyer for the effort. Sent off here as the even-money favorite, Captivator got right back to winning ways with a gate-to-wire performance that saw him post :21.96 and :44.22 early sectionals, and only expand his margin in the lane to defeat Speedy Wilson (Tough Sunday) by 2 1/4 lengths.

The victor is a half-brother to Dawn the Destroyer (Speightstown), SW & MGISP, $556,405 and Bronze Star (Tapit), MSW, $195,555. The former is a winner producer in her second career. FORGIVE ME (f, 2, Blame--Sunset Wish {SW, $106,930}, by Malibu Moon) faded from the lead to fifth in her Churchill Downs debut going a half-furlong shorter Sept. 20. Off at 9-1 Friday, she again showed speed but was outsprinted by Golden Reveille (Golden Pal) who showed the way through the half in :45.99. Able to stalk just off that rival in second, she drew past easily at the top of the lane and stayed safely away from a closing Ohana Lulu (Aloha West) to win by a length. From the family of champion and sire Bernardini (A.P. Indy), Forgive Me has a yearling full-brother while Sunset Wish went to Highland Falls for 2027. AND THE RUNNER IS (c, 2, Oscar Performance--Linda {GSW, $407,310}, by Scat Daddy), who opened his career with a pair of runner-up efforts over the lawn at Saratoga, set the early pace before fading to last in the Oct. 3 GII Pilgrim Stakes last time out. Back in the maiden ranks, the 2-1 favorite was forwardly placed in the early strides before settling in midpack. He loomed a threat approaching the stretch, he reeled in pacesetting River of Deceit (Hard Spun) in the dying strides to win by a half-length.

A Graduate of HIGHLANDER TRAINING CENTER

1st-Belmont, $97,000, Msw, 10-30, 3yo/up, 7f, 1:23.39, ft, 7 3/4 lengths.

LEGAL GAMBIT (c, 3, Tiz the Law--Sweet Southern Gal, by Bodemeister) came off the bench after a layoff of over a year and proved rust was no concern via a strong performance at Belmont Park.

Unveiled August 2025 as a juvenile at Saratoga, he faced off against a traditionally tough maiden special field, and ran headlong into the colt who would eventually become Eclipse champion juvenile, namely MGISW Ted Noffey (Into Mischief) on his 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard', in their mutual debut. That one also went on the shelf after his third consecutive Grade I victory (the Breeders' Cup Juvenile), but who recently posted a bullet breeze at Belmont Oct. 24 in his latest move toward a return to racing.

Hot Night | Coglianese

Made the 8-5 second choice here behind Originality (Beau Liam) at 3-2 favoritism, Legal Gambit showed enough early foot to get out for the lead but immediately found himself with company as two opponents ranged up to keep things honest. Pushed along through an opening quarter in :22.60 and a half in :45.20, the Chad Brown-trainee enjoyed a groundsaving trip on the bend and shook clear coming off it entering the lane. Drawing off under right-hand urging, he was wrapped up inside the final sixteenth and won geared down by 7 3/4 lengths. Firster Jack Riley (Good Magic) overtook the betting choice for second while Originality closed the trifecta.

The victor is the second winner to the races for his dam, and her last registered offspring thus far. The broodmare is a half-sister to GI Toyota Blue Grass hero Sinister Minister (Old Trieste) as well as to two mares who went on to produce black type runners. This is the immediate female family of GSW Prospector's Flag (Personal Flag). Sales history: $75,000 Ylg '24 KEEJAN; $140,000 Ylg '24 KEESEP. FATE OF WAR (c, 2, Essential Quality--War Tigress {SW, $171,293}, by War Chant) ran third in his debut Sept. 27 in the Clevor Trevor Stakes, and dominated the competition here as the overwhelming 1-5 favorite. He didn't beat the early scramble coming out of the blocks, but it was clear he was full of run midway on the bend as jockey Rene Diaz swapped to the overland route to get around the line of runners in front of them. Inhaling the field from that lane, he quickly put several lengths on Epical (Epicenter) by the time they arrived at the head of affairs and his advantage only grew to 9 1/2 lengths on the line.

The victor is a half-brother to a pair of accomplished horses, namely Labwah (Charlatan), GSW-UAE, $232,612 and War Heroine (Lonhro {Aus}), GSW, $240,945. The latter was sold to Australia after her racing career concluded and she's since become the mother of Australian Listed winner Caddington (Aus) (Captivant {Aus}). SUN GODDESS COMPLETES GROUP 1 FOUR-TIMER ON BC FRIDAY FOR RECORD-BREAKING O'BRIEN

Sun Goddess and Ryan Moore | Mathea Kelley

By Adam Houghton

On Tuesday, Aidan O'Brien refused to be drawn on whether Sun Goddess is the best two-year-old filly that he's ever trained, standing resolute in the face of Matt Chapman's persistent line of questioning, with "she looks like she probably could be" ending up as the best that the Sky Sports Racing presenter was able to get out of the master of Ballydoyle.

On Friday, however, after watching the rangy daughter of Sioux Nation win her seventh race of an exacting campaign, surely there can no longer be any doubt, even for the man blessed to have trained outstanding two-year-old talents such as Lake Victoria (three Group/Grade 1 wins), Rumplestiltskin (two), Misty For Me (two), Minding (two), Happily (two) and Precise (two).

The bare facts show that, with this fourth top-level victory in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf, simple in its execution but no less impressive than everything that came before it, Sun Goddess now exists on a different plane to her predecessors at Ballydoyle, at least those of her own sex. Cont. p3

DAM AND FULL-SISTER OF MASTER MAN ARQANA DECEMBER WILDCARDS

The dam and full-sister to Group 1 winner Master Man (Goken) have been added to the Arqana Vente d'Elevage catalogue alongside two other wildcards.

Master Man won the G1 Criterium International earlier this month. His dam, Levitha (Mastercraftsman) (lot 185) will be offered by Haras du Cadran in foal to Zelzal. Levitha is a half-sister to group winner Godspeed (Hello Youmzain) and hails from the same family as Sistercharlie (Myboycharlie), Sottsass, Shin Emperor and My Sister Nat (Acclamation). Dual winner Quella (lot 140), a full-sister to Master Man, will be offered by Haras d'Ombreville.

Also among the wildcards is lot 120, Mediterannio (Wootton Bassett), who has won three times and is part of the Haras des Capucines draft. She is out of a half-sister to Group 1 winner Silasol (Monsun), herself the dam of Group 1 scorer Silawi (Dubawi).

Whether it's six furlongs or an extended mile, the straight track at the Curragh or the two turns of Keeneland, it all seems to come alike, with her list of vanquished rivals including more than one filly who could reasonably be considered a champion in any ordinary year.

Look no further than Libertango (No Nay Never), for example, the winner of the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint which kicked off Friday's card, but no match for Sun Goddess in last month's Cheveley Park Stakes at Newmarket. Or perhaps Green Empress (Saxon Warrior), a Group 1 winner at the beginning of the month in ParisLongchamp's Prix Marcel Boussac, before chasing home Sun Goddess for the third time this season in the Juvenile Fillies Turf.

Most concerningly for those tasked with trying to lower her colours in 2027, O'Brien believes that the best could be still to come.

"She's probably going to change a lot through the winter," said the trainer. "She's big and she's rangy. She's a super mover and she has a great mind. You'd say there's no doubt looking at her that she's going to be more of a three-year-old than a two-year-old. She is unusual and her movement is very unusual. If you see her, the way she walks and trots and canters, she's a physical specimen that is very different."

In victory, Sun Goddess made O'Brien the winningmost trainer in the history of the Breeders' Cup with 22 winners, an outright record he lost and then regained over the course of the next 90 minutes or so, with Bob Baffert having drawn level with the success of Hughes (Into Mischief) in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile, before O'Brien went clear again courtesy of his GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf hero Haffner (Justify).

The first of his 23 winners at this meeting was, of course, Johannesburg, the winner of the Juvenile back in 2001, with whom comparisons will now obviously be drawn after Sun Goddess emulated his achievement of winning four top-level races as a juvenile.

"Johannesburg was an incredible two-year-old," O'Brien continued. "He was our first Breeders' Cup winner and he did what she did, winning four Group 1s as a two-year-old. We haven't had anything else to do that before, especially a filly with the scope of hers. He was a smaller, compact sort and he looked like a two-year-old--she looks more like a three-year-old than a two-year-old. She'll be trained for the Classics and I'm imagine that the English Guineas will be where she'll start."

Sun Goddess has been ridden in all but one of her nine starts by Ryan Moore who, remarkably given the calibre of the field that chased his filly home, didn't feel that we saw the best of the general 6-4 favourite for next year's 1,000 Guineas. Cont. p4

Haffner and Ryan Moore | Mathea Kelley

"What she's done this year is very unique," Moore said of his 17th Breeders' Cup winner. "That is her fourth Group 1 from nine starts. That was her first over a mile, though, and the first time round a bend.

"I'll be honest, I don't think you saw the best of her today. The ground was a little bit more dead than I was expecting it to be and the pace was very slow, and she ended up in front a long way out, doing nothing. She's not usually in front that early, so she was still a bit idle there. It's hard to know where the bottom is for her. Hopefully, she can continue next year."

Green Empress and Johnny Murtagh's Curracloe (Baaeed) completed a one-two-three for the Irish raiders in the Juvenile Fillies Turf, while Joseph O'Brien again had to settle for the runner-up spot behind a horse trained by his father when Folsom Blues (Blue Point) passed the post less than two lengths behind Haffner in the concluding Juvenile Turf.

"We hate beating Joseph or any of the lads, we really do," said a gracious Aidan in the aftermath of that record-breaking triumph. "But it's a business, it's sport and we don't give them an inch. They are not lucky enough to have the quality of horse that we have. Our stock is so much better and, while I'd always prefer it if they beat us, we don't ever let them beat us in any way."

He added of Haffner, "Our horses weren't right the one day he didn't run well [when finishing seventh in the G1 National Stakes at the Curragh]. They had a low-grade infection. He won the [G3] Acomb at York, the [G2] Royal Lodge at Newmarket and we were a little bit worried about the easy mile here, but Ryan had him in a great position.

"He's by Justify, so that makes him very exciting for us. The lads have covered all the good mares by him, so it's very exciting. Ryan thinks he could get a mile and a quarter next year--or even more--so he's a proper Classic contender."

Moore benefited from a late switch to take the mount aboard Haffner after his original mount, Great Barrier Reef (No Nay Never), was withdrawn earlier in the day, while the jockey merry-go-round involving Juvenile Turf Sprint winner Libertango proved even more dramatic, with her regular rider, Billy Loughnane, displacing Flavien Prat at the eleventh hour.

"I've ridden this filly in every single race, and in every piece of work she's ever done, and I thought I was going to have to give up the ride on her today," said Britain's new champion jockey, explaining the circumstances behind the late change of plan which saw him ride at a career-low weight of 8st 5lb.

"It was awful thinking someone else was going to ride her, but big thanks to George [Boughey, trainer] and all of the team. It was literally 45 minutes before the race that it was confirmed.

"I've watched my weight for the last two weeks. I managed to just get enough off in the sauna and I'm sat on the smallest saddle I've ever ridden on. It's good to be able to get the weight off. I'm riding at 8st 10lb later on, so I'd been aiming for that and I'd never been down to 8st 5lb all the time I've been riding."

It was the first of what promises to be many Breeders' Cup successes for Loughnane, likewise for trainer George Boughey, with both men ending the season as it began following their Classic breakthrough with Bow Echo in May's 2,000 Guineas.

"Billy had ridden her all year and he text me when he got to the track saying he weighed in a lot lighter than he expected," Boughey added. "I'd like to apologise to Flavien because he'd been booked a while and it was probably one of his better mounts of the day. But she's been ridden so beautifully by Billy all year. To say he wasn't riding her until 55 minutes before the race, he's just an extraordinary talent." Cont. p5

Libertango with a jubilant Billy Loughnane aboard | Mathea Kelley

He added of the satisfaction derived from this victory with Libertango, one of only two horses to have beaten Sun Goddess this year when winning the G3 Albany Stakes at Royal Ascot, "The Breeders' Cup for me is as good as it gets. It was the plan to come here even from Royal Ascot and it wasn't a huge surprise that she was able to put in a performance like that today."

Libertango was chased home by Adrian Keatley's Hell Of A Spin (Naval Crown), who "ran a blinder" in the words of his trainer to hit the frame in Group company for the fourth start in a row. His previous efforts included a third-place finish in the G2 Gimcrack Stakes at York's Ebor Festival, a meeting which, if Friday's evidence is anything to go by, should be the first place to look when it comes to doing form study ahead of Saturday's card.

Back in August, Libertango (Lowther Stakes), Sun Goddess (Harry's Half Million) and Haffner (Acomb Stakes) were all winners on the Knavesmire, with their respective victories over two months later at Keeneland ensuring that William Derby, chief executive and clerk of the course at York, could be found smiling as broadly in the winner's circle as any of their connections.

Bacio and Notable Speech will be among those trying to complete a similar double on Saturday, with the former representing perhaps the home team's best chance of preventing a clean sweep of the turf races at this year's Breeders' Cup for the Europeans.

If the raiders are to pull it to off, then Aidan O'Brien will no doubt have to play a leading role again on Saturday, when victory for just one of his five runners on the card would see him draw level with his own record of 28 Group/Grade 1 winners in a calendar year, with no horse having contributed more to that tally so far than Sun Goddess.

The best two-year-old filly O'Brien has ever trained? Surely, she has to be now.

GODOLPHIN'S AEGEAN PRINCE TOO GOOD FOR ST SIMON RIVALS by Sean Cronin

Lightly-raced four-year-old Aegean Prince (Dubawi) had been on sabbatical for almost one year before annexing Haydock's Old Borough Cup on seasonal return eight weeks ago and made up for lost time with a breakthrough victory in Friday's rescheduled G3 St Simon Stakes at Newmarket.

"He got away well and I knew I was going to go forward," said Kieran Shoemark, who snagged four wins on the nine-race card. "He got a lovely lead even though I didn't think they went overly quick. Al Qareem fell away quicker than I thought he might, but ultimately my fellow quickened well and he was straight to the line. He ran 55 days ago and he's a lightly-raced four-year-old. I think, physically, he will come on for this and he possibly might be getting a little bit quicker even. He's a classy individual, he gave me a lovely feel and he's got a wonderful attitude."

Stalking the pace in second until looming large on the bridle at the half-mile marker, the 11-8 favourite eased ahead with three furlongs remaining and found extra when threatened by Royal Playwright (Lope De Vega) inside the final quarter-mile to hit the line with an ultimately comfortable two-length buffer.

The pacesetting Al Qareem (Awtaad) fared best of the rest and kept on once headed to finish 4 1/2 lengths adrift in third. Shadwell's nine-year-old veteran Al Aasy (Sea The Stars) was never at ease and trailed home last of six. Connections revealed his retirement in the immediate aftermath.

LUCKY VEGA JOINS SHAQUILLE AT ACE STUD IN 2027

Lucky Vega | Ace Stud

Group 1 winner Lucky Vega will join Shaquille on the Ace Stud roster in Britain in 2027, the stud announced on Friday. The latter's fee remains unchanged at £10,000. Formerly based at the Irish National Stud in the Northern Hemisphere, Lucky Vega will stand for £5,000, after he returns to Europe from shuttling to Australia.

With his eldest Northern-bred foals just three, the son of Lope De Vega has been represented by 64 winners from 121 runners (53%). His Lam Yai and Only Luck each have stakes wins, with the former placed at group level. Other progeny to have placed in group stakes are the highest-earning European juvenile of 2026 in Night In Vegas, third in the G2 Richmond Stakes; Imperial Strike, Senorita Vega, and Harmonics. His yearlings have sold for up to €115,00gns, €105,000 and €100,000 this season.

From his Southern Hemisphere crops, Lucky Vega has a trio of Group 2 winners in That's Gold, Within The Law, and Cherry Bomshell besides five more stakes horses. Within The Law was second in both the G1 Champagne Stakes and G1 Flight Stakes.

Shaquille, who has his first yearlings this year, covered his largest book to date in 2026 with 162 mares, among them the dams of top-flight winners Pyledriver (Harbour Watch), Gold Trip (Outstrip), Starlust (Zoustar) and Without A Fight (Teofilo). His yearlings have sold up to 170,000gns.

Ace Stud's bloodstock and racing manager Paul Curran said, "We are very excited to welcome Lucky Vega to Ace Stud for the upcoming breeding season and believe he will appeal to British breeders, particularly given his remarkably consistent results throughout the season. His strike rate compares very favourably with his fellow second-season sires, the likes of Starman, Space Blues, St Mark's Basilica and Palace Pier.

"His year was highlighted by his son Night in Vegas, who has been expertly campaigned by his connections and has become the highest-earning two-year-old colt in Europe in 2026. He has achieved more on the track than many stakes-performing juveniles this season.

"The year ahead promises to be an exciting one, with Shaquille's first runners set to hit the track. We acquired a number of his first yearlings and are eager to see them race in Ace Stud's white and green silks in 2027. His first crop has been well received at the sales, and we wish all their new connections the very best of luck."

Shaquille will be available to view at Ace Stud in Dullingham during the Tattersalls December Sale. Lucky Vega will return from Australia later in December. He will be available to view by appointment after that date and will also parade at Ace Stud during the Tattersalls February Sale.

GLENHEAD TOPS THOROUGHBID OCTOBER SALE

Glenhead (Court Cave) (lot 22) topped the ThoroughBid October Sale on Friday when selling to Darren O'Dwyer on behalf of Martin Keighley for £52,500. Runner-up on his most recent start at Loughanmore, the pointer was consigned by Philip McBurney.

The other lot to make £50,000 or higher was Salvadorhill (El Salvador) (lot 7), who sold for that price to Kim Bailey and Mat Nicholls. The Caroline McCaldin-consigned five-year-old gelding won at Castletown-Geoghegan.

Overall, 26 horses sold from 49 offered (53%) for a gross of £261,400. The average was £10,053 and the median came in at £4,750.

James Richardson, ThoroughBid CEO, said, "The October Sale offered another high-quality mix of horses, and it's proven to be a very busy and successful day.

"With the support of some of Ireland's top handlers, we had a host of nice pointers available, and we're delighted with how well they've sold. Congratulations to both Darren O'Dwyer and Kim Bailey & Mat Nicolls, respectively, for securing what look to be two very exciting prospects, both who are eligible for our £10,000 Point2Rules Bonus. We look forward to following their journey. Thanks to all who supported the sale and best of luck to new connections."

TBT Racing's Siena Storm, a €600,000 Arqana Breeze-Up buy, was just off the podium places in the G3 Prestige and G3 Oh So Sharp, but made no mistake in this third black-type outing to register a career best in impressive fashion, becoming the 100th black-type winner for her sire.

"I was really disappointed in the Oh So Sharp, as she was keen and dragged Kieran [Shoemark] to the front too soon, and it was just a bit of a mess as we had great belief in her," said Ed Walker after notching the second leg of a treble on the programme.

"We put the hood on her to get her to relax a bit more. Sometimes that can blunt their finish, but it was good to know that it didn't today. I think we will go back up to seven furlongs, but I wouldn't be super confident of her staying a mile. Hopefully, she will have learnt a lot today and it will help her settle going forward. It is hard for sprinting fillies at three as there is not a wonderful programme. We are forced to have another go at seven and see."

Employing patient tactics under cover in rear from flagfall, the 11-8 chalk cruised forward on the bridle to join the front rank passing the two pole and thundered clear out of the dip to easily overpower the Amo Racing duo Nicely and What A Girl Wants by six lengths and 1 3/4 lengths.

Siena Storm, kin to a yearling filly by Zarak, is the first of two foals thrown by a winning half-sister to Listed Dick Hern victrix Token Of Love (Cape Cross).

SOLO QUEST (GB) (c, 2, Space Blues {Ire}--Homecoming {Ire}, by Zoffany {Ire}), an Oct. 12 debut runner-up tackling this trip at Great Yarmouth last time, broke well and led from flagfall here. In command throughout, the 5-4 favourite was nudged along passing the quarter-mile marker and ridden clear up the hill to defeat High Summer (Minzaal) by an impressive four lengths.

"For one of our ones to run so well on debut, it gives you great hope that they will make a good step forward like he did," said Ed Walker. "I don't like to put much pressure on them first time out and we thought he would run really well at Yarmouth, but he probably needed it a little bit. I expect he will be running in some form of Guineas trial in the spring and I think he will do well as he will strengthen up. He is a real straightforward horse and [TBT Racing's] Simon [Sadler] wants runners in those races. He ticks the boxes and I think he will get a mile well. We could come back for the Craven, but Kieran [Shoemark] said he didn't like that ground, so maybe a Burradon at Newcastle could suit him."

Solo Quest is the third of four foals and first scorer out of a half-sister to Listed-winning G3 Diamond third Hawke (Oratorio) and Listed Prix de Saint-Cyr victrix Mireille (Dalakhani). His G3 Prix de Flore-winning second dam Australie (Sadler's Wells) is kin to G3 Glorious winner Forgotten Voice (Danehill Dancer), Listed Marble Hill second Keepers Hill (Danehill) and to the dam of four-time Group 1 winner Luxembourg (Camelot).

COVET (GB) (c, 2, Kingman {GB}--Chaleur {GB} {GSP-Eng & SP-US}, by Dansili {GB}) recovered from a tardy getaway to slipstream the pacesetting Native German (Sea The Moon) in an overall sixth after the initial exchanges of this debut. Making smooth progress once eased into an open lane with three furlongs remaining, the well-supported 4-1 chance hit the front approaching the furlong pole and kept on strongly up the rising ground to easily subdue the long-time leader by an impressive three lengths.

"He is a gorgeous horse and he is a horse that we have always liked from day one," said assistant trainer Matt Fielding. "He is just a big, raw, immature type so we were not sure what we were going to see today, whether it was going to go missing or all fall into place. I'm delighted what he did there and he couldn't have been any more impressive. He will improve massively next year and when he goes up in trip. We were looking to run him over a mile, but we were just wanting to find him some nice ground and this race came along. We knew the trip would be sharp enough, but we knew his ability would get him far enough."

VENETIAN STORM (GB) (f, 2, Night Of Thunder {Ire}--Vesnina {GB}, by Sea The Stars {Ire}), the 1.1-million guineas Book 1 yearling trounced over 50 lengths when a tailed-off last of eight in her Oct. 7 debut at Nottingham, was more focused at the break here and led from the outset. Last to come off the bridle when stoked up with a quarter-mile remaining, the 7-2 second choice refused to surrender her advantage and kept on strongly under whipless urging in the latter stages to easily account for Carbine Country (Territories) by 2 1/4 lengths.

"I wouldn't have run her if I wasn't very confident she would run well, but she dropped out the back of the television [on debut]," explained Ed Walker. "Kieran [Shoemark] phoned me as I was at the [Book 1] sales and he said they must have sent a different horse. Training racehorses takes a bit of bottle and you have got to stick with what you believe, so we just had to put it behind us. Kieran has come back and ridden her since then, and he was delighted with her. That's job done, she'll be campaigned ambitiously next year and I think she will stay further. I think we can go seven [furlongs] at Newbury, or back here, in a Guineas trial and see where we are."

Venetian Storm is the seventh of eight foals and fourth scorer out of a winning half-sister to G3 Fred Darling winner Marenko (Exceed And Excel) and G3 Atalanta victrix Potapova (Invincible Spirit).

The winner's third dam is multiple Group 1-winning European champion Russian Rhythm (Kingmambo) and she is a half-sister to G1 Prix de l'Abbaye heroine Makarova (Acclamation), G3 Prix Eclipse runner-up Nina Bailarina (Lope De Vega) and a weanling colt by Frankel.

TENNO SHO AUTUMN DOUBLE IN THE CARDS FOR MASQUERADE BALL?

by Heather Anderson

After the two-day Breeders' Cup furor has settled in Kentucky Saturday evening, Sunday marks the G1 Tenno Sho (Autumn) at Tokyo, and five previous Group 1 winners will try their hand at the 2000-metre trip.

Aiming to become just the fourth horse to win consecutive editions of the race and the first since worldbeater Equinox in 2022/2023, Masquerade Ball has turned in a pair of quality performances in defeat since his heroics last term. Shadai Race Horse Company's son of the much-missed Duramente found only the vaunted Calandagan (Churchill) too good in the G1 Japan Cup at the end of November. Given some time to mature, the 2025 G1 Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby) runner-up filled that position again, this time to multiple Hong Kong Horse of the Year Romantic Warrior (Acclamation) in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Sha Tin in April. Not bad company. Connections opted to travel and the four-year-old second choice was last seen running seventh to Kalpana (Study Of Man) in the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Stakes at Ascot in July. With Christophe Lemaire in the saddle, the duo break from post seven in the 17-horse field.

Trainer Takahisa Tezuka said, "He worked handily on October 14 and as the pace picked up he was concentrating well. He has matured mentally and, compared to last year, he can move more steadily. I think the Tokyo course is the best venue for him and I think he enjoys the course.

"He won this race last year and since he's more powerful now, I think he can do well this year too. This horse's biggest weapon is his late kick. It's among the best of any horse currently racing in Japan. I'm hoping the race will unfold in such a way as to play to his strengths." Cont. p12

Masquerade Ball | JRA

The stiffest challenge could materialise from four-time Group 1 scorer and pre-race favourite Croix Du Nord (Kitasan Black), who holds the rail draw in partnership with Cristian Demuro. Part of a pair of Sunday Racing silkbearers alongside triple top-level heroine and third choice Regaleira (Suave Richard) in stall three, last year's Japanese Derby hero hasn't put a hoof out of the top two in three 2026 starts. Successful in the G1 Osaka Hai beating Meisho Tabaru (Gold Ship) over this trip in April, he added the 3200-metre G1 Tenno Sho (Spring) in May and wound up second by a neck to his Osaka Hai conqueror in the G1 Takarazuka Kinen in June.

"The Takarazuka Kinen was the last of his three starts in the spring and he'd needed just a little bit more," said trainer Takashi Saito. "We brought him back earlier than usual from the farm so we could prepare him slowly. On October 21, jockey Hideaki Miyuki rode with the objective of giving the horse a good overall workout and to up the pressure a bit. Miyuki had ridden him the week before too and, at the time, the horse still needed to improve.

"This week, I had Cristian Demuro ride him for the first time in quite a while. I wanted him to get a reading on him and also to compare him to last year. Demuro gave him a good strong workout on the flat over six furlongs. Good overall work and we got a good reading on his condition."

2024 Japanese Derby hero Danon Decile (Epiphaneia) hasn't found the winner's circle since his 2025 G1 Dubai Sheema Classic victory. Fifth in the G1 Juddmonte International that August, he's campaigned exclusively at the highest table and finished third in his next four races, including the Takarazuka Kinen behind Meisho Tabaru and Croix Du Nord earlier this year. Booked widest of all in stall 17, he will be piloted by Keita Tosaki for Danox Company.

Said Tosaki, "I heard he'd been leaning in a bit, but when I rode he felt better than I'd expected him to. He had leaned in his last race, but moved well and when I rode him [on October 21] I pushed him pretty hard and he was fine. He's in good shape. I think the left-handed track may be better for him and the distance shouldn't pose any problems. He has a powerful late kick and I'd like to bring that out."

Others to watch out for are 2023 G1 NHK Mile Cup scorer Champagne Color (Duramente) in stall five, and last-out group winners Seiun Hades (Silver State) one to his outside, stakes record setter Shake Your Heart (Heart's Cry) in berth 11, and Giovanni (Epiphaneia) in gate 16.

SHIN EMPEROR RETIRED TO ARROW STUD FOR 2027

Multiple group winner and seven-figure sale topper Shin Emperor (Siyouni) has been retired and will stand at Arrow Stud in Japan beginning next year, JS Company announced.

The chestnut placed four times at the highest level for trainer Yoshito Yahagi in the colours of Susumu Fujita, the owner of Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Classic runner Forever Young (Real Steel). A group winner and second in the Hopeful Stakes at two, he was third in the 2024 Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby) and the Irish Champion Stakes at Leopardstown in Ireland, before missing by only a neck to be second in the G1 Japan Cup at three. Successful in the G2 Neom Turf Cup in 2025, he retires with a mark of 17-3-3-2 and $3,871,931 in earnings.

The 2022 Arqana August Yearling Sale top lot at €2.1 million, the chestnut was bred by Ecurie des Monceaux. Cont. p13

Out of the Galileo mare Starlet's Sister, he is a half-brother to American champion and multiple Grade I winner Sistercharlie (Myboycharlie) and multiple group/graded winner My Sister Nat (Acclamation), who placed twice in Grade Is, including the Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf.

A full-brother, European champion and G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe hero Sottsass, also won the G1 Prix du Jockey Club and G1 Prix Ganay. After beginning his stallion career at Coolmore Stud in Ireland, Sottsass now stands at Shinzunai Stallion Station under the JBBA banner. He has six stakes winners from his first three crops, including G2 Vintage Stakes hero Dr Rascal and Group 3 winners Asmarani and Segall.

Godolphin's Jassas was not disgraced when last of five in the G1 Dewhurst and Flying Pirate appreciated soft ground at Haydock last month. Providing evidence of Aidan O'Brien's championship ambitions, the trainer adds three to the field headed by impressive Listed Prospect victor Bengal Tiger. Rising Star Lex Victoria is another notable addition. [Sean Cronin].

Aidan O'Brien's lone representative Amelia Earhart has contested six Group 1 contests this season and the drop in grade is her only respite as she makes a fifth start in just seven weeks. Last year's winner, the eight-year-old gelding Chally Chute, is the highest-rated contender on show and is one of the chief threats to O'Brien notching an outright record fifth victory. Dermot Weld, tied with O'Brien on four prior wins, relies on Juddmonte's Naas handicap scorer Abbotsford, while Johnny Murtagh seeks a first with G2 Prix Chaudenay fourth Asakir and Listed Bluebell also-ran Chasing Paradise. Bluebell victrix Snapretend heads Joseph O'Brien's trio, while Moyglare Stud's Listed Prix Joubert winner Marazion is another worthy of consideration. [Sean Cronin].
