'ONE OF THE GREAT NIGHTS OF THE YEAR': STARS COME OUT AT FASIG-TIPTON

Fasig-Tipton sales grounds | Fasig-Tipton

by Jessica Martini

LEXINGTON, KY - The action in Lexington shifts from the racetrack to the sales ring Monday for the star-studded Fasig-Tipton November Sale. The one-session boutique auction gained some added glitter over the weekend, with a pair of newly minted Breeders' Cup winners, and another two who hit the board at the championships at Keeneland. Fasig-Tipton then upped the voltage even more Sunday afternoon when announcing the late addition of lifetime breeding rights to Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Classic winner Sovereignty, and Classic third-place finisher Knightsbridge, as well as GI Kentucky Derby winner Nyquist to the auction.

"It's one of the great nights of the year for us," said Fasig-Tipton President Boyd Browning, Jr. "We have a fantastic catalogue again this year. We love the position that we have, we love the catalogue that we have."

The auction begins at 2 p.m. and opens with an offering of 106 weanlings before transitioning on to 110 catalogued racing and broodmare prospects. The catalogue features 24 Grade I winners or producers and nearly 60 graded stakes winners and producers.

AFTER CLASSIC TRIUMPH, SOVEREIGNTY SET AT $150,000; KNIGHTSBRIDGE, $75,000

Sovereignty, an impressive winner of Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Keeneland, will stand for an advertised stud fee of $150,000, according to a press release from Darley Sunday morning. Knightsbridge, who finished third to his stablemate, will stand for $75,000.

The 2025 Horse of the Year and Eclipse Champion three-year-old colt won the Kentucky Derby, Belmont Stakes, and Travers at three, and added the GI Whitney this year before capping off his stellar career on Saturday with an impressive victory in the Classic. He is the only horse ever to win the Kentucky Derby, Travers, and Breeders' Cup Classic, and he joins Street Sense as the only Kentucky Derby winners to take the Travers in the past 30 years.

In addition to his five Grade I wins, he also won the GII Street Sense at two and the GII Fountain of Youth and GII Jim Dandy at three. Cont., p5

Ways and Means (Practical Joke) (hip 161) will enter the Fasig-Tipton ring Monday night fresh off her dominating win in the GI Breeders' Cup F/M Sprint. The 5-year-old mare is consigned by Elite, agent. Kathynmarissa (American Pharoah) (hip 208) comes into the auction off her victory in the GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf. She will be consigned by Gainesway.

Jancis (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}) (hip 219), third in the F/M Turf, is consigned by Brookdale. Cy Fair (Not This Time) (hip 182), winner of last year's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint, will head through the sales ring at Fasig-Tipton two days after her runner-up effort in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint. She is consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency.

Others with connections to Breeders' Cup runners include In It for the Gold (Speightstown) (hip 202), whose son Englishman (Maxfield) was second in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint. The mare, along with her weanling colt by Tiz the Law (hip 97) are consigned by Bluegrass Thoroughbred Services on behalf of Country Life Farm & Partners.

Philly's Finest (Flameaway), a half-sister to GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile winner Further Ado (Gun Runner), will be offered in foal to Sierra Leone as hip 132 with the Lane's End consignment. The broodmare prospect Wesawtaylorinparis (Nyquist) (hip 212), consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, is a full-sister to Friday's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies winner Emphatic.

The Breeders' Cup returned to Lexington after spending the last three years on the West Coast.

“I think it makes it logistically much easier,” Browning said of the hometown championships. “We don't have to worry about getting horses from California to Kentucky. It makes it easier for both people and horses getting back.” Cont.

Asked if the November sale had extra buzz when the Breeders' Cup was held in Kentucky, Browning said, “You might have a few additional end-users that might be in person, but historically I don't think there is a dramatic difference whether it's in Kentucky or California, or when it's in New York next year. The quality of horses we have in this sale really speaks for itself. We are really more dependent on success on Friday and Saturday than we are on the location of the event.”

Streak of Luck (Old Fashioned) who entered the sales ring just days after her son Ted Noffey (Into Mischief) won the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile, topped the 2025 Fasig-Tipton November sale when selling for $6.2 million. The mare was one of 27 offerings to bring seven figures at the auction.

The Fasig-Tipton November sale caters to the top of the market and provides buyers the quality they demand, according to Browning.

“I think the unique thing about our November sale is it's basically positioned towards the upper end of the market, both in terms of the foals that we have and the mares that we have--both fillies and mares coming off the racetrack and in-foal mares,” he said. “So it should be ideally positioned to take advantage of the strength of the market.”

BREEDING RIGHTS TO SOVEREIGNTY, KNIGHTSBRIDGE, NYQUIST ADDED TO FASIG-TIPTON NOVEMBER SALE

A lifetime breeding right to Darley stallions Sovereignty, Knightsbridge, and Nyquist will be offered during the Fasig-Tipton November Sale Monday in Lexington. The lifetime breeding right to Saturday's GI Breeders' Cup Classic winner Sovereignty, who will begin his stud career at a fee of $150,000 next year, will be offered as hip 165. The lifetime breeding right to GI Pacific Classic winner and Breeders' Cup Classic third-place finisher Knightsbridge, who will stand for $75,000 next year, will be offered as hip 180. Nyquist will stand for $225,000 in 2027. The lifetime breeding right in the GI Kentucky Derby winner, who is sire of multiple Grade I winner Nysos, as well as Friday's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies winner Emphatic, will be offered as hip 195.

The fastest son of Into Mischief according to the Beyer Speed Figures, he earned a 115 Beyer for his 10-length victory in the Travers and a 112 Beyer in the Whitney. He retires with earnings of over $10.5 million.

Knightsbridge, a five-time Graded stakes winner, was third in the Classic after setting the pace. His victories include the GI Pacific Classic by six lengths, a 10-length win in the GIII Monmouth Cup earning a 122 Beyer, and an 11-length win in the GIII Gulfstream Park Mile earning a 112 Beyer. The fastest son of Nyquist, his 122 Beyer Speed Figure is the best figure since Flightline.

A half-brother to freshman sire Speaker's Corner, Knightsbridge is out of the Bernardini mare Tyburn Brook, a daughter of GI Breeders' Cup Distaff and G1 Acorn winner Round Pond. He retires with earnings of over $2.1 million.

For the first time ever, Darley will offer a lifetime breeding right in each stallion at Fasig-Tipton's Night of the Stars Sale on Monday night in Lexington.

Along with the two new additions to the Jonabell roster, Speaker's Corner's fee has been set at $15,000 for 2027. Cont.

BREEDERS' CUP FOLLOWUP: SOVEREIGNTY RETIRES AS KING OF THE HILL, NITROGEN TO RETURN IN 2027

As he and the GI Breeders' Cup Classic third-place runner were loaded onto a Godolphin van bound for the start of the second careers at stud, Classic hero Sovereignty (Into Mischief) left his connections with a lot to reflect on, including trainer Bill Mott, who was bullish on his charge's chances of being crowned a repeat winner of Horse of the Year honors.

Sovereignty and Bill Mott Sunday morning | Coady Media

"He has done a lot for Godolphin, for our stable, everyone involved," Mott said to a group of media at 6:30 Sunday morning. "He gave us a big thrill [in the Classic] and confirmed he was as good as we always thought he was. He wasn't just a one-season sensation."

While unwilling to mark the Classic tour-de-force as the defining moment of a sensational career, noting that a Kentucky Derby victory will always be something special, Mott was thrilled to have checked the World Championship victory off the list after being forced to withdraw in 2025 due to illness.

"There is always a lot of chatter about who is better, who's not doing well, who's this, who's that and then, you know what? You have to go out and prove it on the racetrack. The debate is what makes the game so interesting. Not everyone has the same opinion, but if there is an argument, you put it to rest right out there [on the racetrack], And we did that yesterday afternoon."

As such, Mott was wholly convinced that Sovereignty had done more than enough to justify being crowned the 2026 Horse of the Year.

"I don't think there is any doubt," he said. "There are other years when maybe you have to quibble about it. I don't know who would take that spot. I don't know what name you would put in front of him."

The aforementioned third-place finisher Knightsbridge (Nyquist) joined Sovereignty on the van to Jonabell Farm Sunday morning. Their stud fees of $75,000 and $150,000, respectively, were announced later in the morning along with the news that a lifetime breeding right in each stallion would be offered Monday night at Fasig-Tipton's 'Night of the Stars' November sale. Their fees put them in the upper echelon of prices at Jonabell. Nyquist leads the group at $225,000 with Sovereignty second and Knightsbridge coming in third (tied with Maxfield). Cont.

The Puma to Return in 2027

While it wasn't a victory, the connections had nothing but praise for the effort their colt put up to finish the best of the 3-year-olds in the contest, and ahead of defending champion Forever Young (Jpn).

“The goal is to win," said trainer Gustavo Delgado Sr. outside his Rice Road barn Sunday morning. “He is the baby, 3-years-old. Yesterday was a very strong race with Sovereignty and Forever Young. It was not an easy race. We are happy with him.”

Delgado said The Puma would head back to Gulfstream Park Wednesday and that, while no immediate plan had been mapped for next season, the ultimate goal would be a return to the Breeders' Cup for another shot at the Classic.

“We don't think too far ahead," said assistant trainer Gustavo Delgado Jr.. "But the Classic next year sounds pretty good. The Puma, unraced at two, had two wins, three seconds and a third this year. His biggest win was the [GI] Pennsylvania Derby.”

Nitrogen Off to Florida for Spell, To Return in 2027

The leading lady of Breeders' Cup Saturday, MGISW Nitrogen (Medaglia d'Oro) emerged from her World Championship victory in fine form and bright spirits, and will depart Keeneland for Florida on Monday destined for a brief freshening.

She would also start her planned 2027 campaign in the Sunshine State facing off once again against the boys in the GI Pegasus World Cup Invitational.

Slated to ship to trainer Mark Casse' farm in Ocala, the daughter of the late, great Medaglia d'Oro will get a 'mini-break' to prevent her getting bored and starting to fret, as was the problem last year when connections tried to give her a more conventional break between seasons.

“The only time I've ever seen her fret is when she's not actively training," said Jon Green, manager of D.J. Stable. "The normal protocol doesn't apply to horses like her. They're individuals, and Team Casse treats them that way."

“If she wants to, and she tells us that she's ready, the plan is to run her in January, probably the Pegasus against the boys," Green said. "And then we'll see, kind of take it race by race. But we have a couple of races in mind for 2027 that hopefully will bring her back to the Breeders' Cup at Belmont.”

Casse stablemate Measure (Essential Quality), who ran third in the Distaff, also emerged from the effort well and is likely for a 4-year-old campaign as well.

“She's amazing in herself," Casse said of Measure. "I'm excited for her 4-year-old campaign. I think we put away early the filly that should be champion 3-year-old and that's Counting Stars. So, if we can keep everybody happy and healthy, I don't know how we beat 2026, but we're going to give it a try.”

Plans Uncertain for Further Ado, Decision to be Made in Coming Days

Thrilling GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile winner Further Ado (Gun Runner) has emerged from his effort in good shape but despite being slated for retirement after the Breeders' Cup, his connections did not have a concrete plan in place Sunday morning, and said that an announcement (whether or not he'd race in 2027) would likely not be made until Monday or Tuesday.

"We're in the business of standing stallions, so it's really tempting to go to the shed after this, off a big win like that," said Spendthrift's Eric Gustavson.

Brown's Breeders' Cup Winners Emerge in Good Form

Trainer Chad Brown tallied two Breeders' Cup wins on Saturday, the Filly and Mare Turf with Kathynmarissa (American Pharoah) and the Filly & Mare Sprint with Ways and Means (Practical Joke), and both have emerged from those efforts in fine form.

"Both fillies came out great," the now-21-time Breeders' Cup winner said. "Both are at Fasig-Tipton getting ready for the sale."

Ways and Means is entered in the 'Night of the Stars' November sale as HIP 161 while Kathynmarissa is HIP 208. Both are slated to go through the ring as racing or broodmare prospects.

Deterministic returning after the Mile | Mathea Kelley

Clement Camp Still Relishing Emotional Mile Win

Miguel Clement made a promise to right the ship after his 'TDN Rising Star' Deterministic (Liam's Map) suffered his first loss in six races in the GI Woodbine Mile, and so he did. In what was likely the final race in a sterling career, the son of Liam's Map turned the tables on Europe's Notable Speech (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) to secure Clement's first Breeders' Cup win.

"It's very rewarding," Clement said. "We always thought that the horse was top class, and should have been the Eclipse Award winner last year. We're over the moon that we're able to put it all together this season as well."

Destined for a breeding career at Lane's End, Deterministic began his racing career with the late Christophe Clement, and was moved into the care of the Hall of Famer's son upon his passing in May 2025. Clement described his final weekend with the horse in his barn as 'bittersweet'.

"Without doubt, this horse means a lot to the family, especially when we needed it most," Clement said. "None of this would have been attainable without Dad, obviously. It's a shame that he's not able to be here because he would have loved it yesterday. He would have truly loved it. He would have been very proud of all of it, so it's also sad. But today's his birthday, so it's also a tough day for the family."

BC JUVENILE CHAMPION HUGHES TO STAND AT SPENDTHRIFT FARM UPON RETIREMENT

Hughes | Walter Wlodarczyk

Breeders' Cup Juvenile champion Hughes (Into Mischief) will stand at Spendthrift Farm upon his retirement from racing, according to an advertisement placed in Monday's TDN. The news was confirmed by Front Row Club's Tom Ryan, one of the colt's owners.

Hughes, all but certain to be named the Eclipse Award Champion Two-Year-Old Colt, ran his record to five-for-five in the Juvenile. He has registered wins in three Grade Is, including the American Pharoah and the Del Mar Futurity, in addition to a win in the GIII Best Pal Stakes and his maiden win on June 21, for which he was named a `TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard.'

The two-year-old colt is owned by Front Row Club, Starlight Racing, Madaket Stables, Stonestreet, Bashor Racing, Albaugh Family Stable, Robert Masterson, Golconda Stable, Waves Edge Capital, and Catherine Donovan.

Ryan pointed out how apt it was that Hughes would go on to stand at Spendthrift. The farm was purchased in 2004 by B. Wayne Hughes, a visionary entrepreneur, philanthropist and businessman who revived Spendthrift into one of the most powerful entities in the business.

“Creating legacies through racehorses and stallions has always been our goal, for the horse, his breeder, his sire, and his pedigree,” said Ryan. “Knowing Hughes will retire to Spendthrift Farm at the end of his racing career is incredibly exciting. Eric (Gustavson), Ned (Toffey), and the team at Spendthrift are the definition of excellence.”

"What they've built with Into Mischief, the greatest and the most successful stallion of my lifetime, speaks for itself. Hughes carries a name with real meaning to Spendthrift and to our family, so this feels like he's going home."

Ryan made it clear that Hughes has a lot of racing ahead of him.

"For now, our focus is the racetrack. We couldn't be more proud of Hughes, and we can't wait to see what he does as he grows into his frame at three."

Hughes's victory, along with that of Sovereignty in the Breeders' Cup Classic, propelled his sire, Into Mischief, into the number one spot on the TDN General Sire rankings. With earnings of $30,452,713, he vaulted past Not This Time, who remains in second with earnings of $29,902,352.

LET'S OPEN THE DOORS TO (OUR) HALL OF FAME TO AIDAN O'BRIEN

Aidan O'Brien | Walter Wlodarczyk

The Week in Review, by Bill Finley

The trainers enshrined in the National Museum of Racing's Hall of Fame all have one thing in common: They have been based in North America, which is fine. The Hall of Fame is supposed to recognize those whose accomplishments in racing on these shores have made them among the best of all time.

But it's time to make an exception, which, actually, might not really be an exception. Follow along.

Aidan O'Brien is based in Ireland and the vast majority of his success has come in European races. O'Brien is an inductee in the QIPCO British Champions Series Hall of Fame, but it's time that his success in the U.S., and in particular in the Breeders' Cup, be recognized. After another incredible Breeders' Cup run last week at Keeneland, which included three more victories, he has tallied 24 wins overall. That makes him the winningest trainer in Breeders' Cup history. He is followed by Bob Baffert (22), Chad Brown (21), Wayne Lukas (20), Bill Mott (17), Todd Pletcher (16) and Brad Cox (13). Baffert, Lukas, Mott and Pletcher are in the Hall of Fame. Brown will be as soon as he is eligible for induction andf Cox is a safe bet to make the Hall of Fame.

In addition to his Breeders' Cup victories, O'Brien has won a a slew of Grade I races in the U.S. He's won the Arlington Million twice, the Shadwell Turf Mile twice, the Secretariat Stakes four times and has also won the Joe Hirsch Turf Classic, the Man o'War, the Sword Dancer and a bunch of others.

True, nothing that he has accomplished outside of North Americas should count when it comes to his candidacyfor the Hall of Fame. Cont.

Into Mischief | Sarah Andrew

And true, there seems to be an unwritten rule that foreign-based trainers are not eligible for the North American Hall of Fame. But it is just an unwritten rule.

O'Brien is the leading trainer in Breeders' Cup history in wins with 24. That should be enough to get inducted into the Hall of Fame.

Into Mischief Is Now the Leading General Sire in America by Earnings

Into Mischief passed Not This Time in the category of the leading general sire in America by earnings for 2026. He moved past his rival thanks to wins by Sovereignty in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic and Hughes in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile and heads into this week with a lead of $550,361.

Into Mischief has won the title seven straight years and is the first horse to achieve that feat since Bold Ruler.

The TDN and other publications are not on the same page when it comes to how earnings are computed. This publication credits the offspring of sires for every dollar (after taking currency conversion rates into account) they have earned in foreign countries like Japan and Hong Kong. Others will adjust those earnings based on the belief that purses are inflated in some other countries.

Billy Loughnane's Fight to Lose Weight is Not a Feel-Good Story

The 20-year-old phenom Billy Loughnane cannot be blamed for doing whatever it took to make the weight so that he could ride Libertango (Ire) (No Nay Never) in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint. He had ridden the horse in all five of her career starts and obviously wanted to stick with her in a race where she looked like the one to beat.

A jubilant Billy Loughnane | Mathea Kelley

Loughnane was able to make 119 pounds and rode Libertango to victory, but it took a lot of doing. Loughnane had been riding at 122 pounds entering the Breeders' Cup and thought that the best he could do was to get down to 120 pounds. That's why trainer George Boughey named Flavien Prat to ride the 2-year-old filly.

Loughnane did what jockeys do. He hit the gym, he baked in the sauna, he likely ate next to nothing. It worked. He made the 119 pounds assigned to the filly, and, at the last minute, was given the mount back.

But this is not how it should be. Loughnane is 5-foot-10 and no one who is that tall should weigh 119 pounds. It's just not healthy. Neither is pushing his body to the limits so that he could lose some three pounds over a short period of time.

This may not be the time to raise the issue of raising the scale of weights for jockeys throughout the sport, but the Breeders' Cup can make a meaningful change on its own.

Libertango and Billy Loughnane | Walter Wlodarczyk

With so many European jockeys, who tend to weigh more than their American counterparts, participating, the Breeders' Cup should look at raising the weights make the top weight in all races 126 pounds. It's already the standard in the GI Kentucky Derby and the Breeders' Cup Classic, and Libertango had carried 128 pounds in all five starts in Europe. Why make the top weight for the Juvenile Sprint 122 pounds--especially when it is a race that attracts a lot of fillies? They carry only 119 pounds.

On Saturday, Loughnane rode at 126 aboard Comanche Brave (Ire) (Wootton Bassett ({GB}) in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint. Let's hope he had a nice big diner Friday night. He certainly deserved it.

DJ Stable Gets It

The sport could use more owners like the Green family's DJ Stable. More so than any major outfit in the sport, they are willing to test their horses rather than baby them. It's called sportsmanship, and it is, as they say, good for the game.

We already saw it this year when they sent Nitrogen (Medaglia d'Oro) out to battle Sovereignty in the GI Whitney Stakes. She finished second, but it was an effort that only enhanced her reputation.

Nitrogen after winning the Distaff | Walter Wlodarczyk

The Greens announced earlier in the year that Nitrogen would run again next year at five, and after her win in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff, Jon Green floated the idea of her running next year in the Classic.

On Sunday, Green told the Breeders' Cup notes team that Nitrogen may make her next start against males in the 2027 GI Pegasus World Cup.

"If she wants to, and she tells us that she's ready, the plan is to run her in January, probably in the Pegasus against the boys," Green said. "And then we'll see, kind of take it race by race. But we have a couple of races in mind for 2027 that hopefully will bring her back to the Breeders' Cup at Belmont."

Another Perfectly Safe Breeders' Cup

There were once again a number of pre-race scratches from Breeders' Cup races, but that doesn't mean that the vets and regulators aren't getting things done right. A total of 157 horses ran in this year's Breeders' Cup races and all 157 apparently returned to their barns safe and sound. That's a stat that the Breeders' Cup and the sport can be proud of.

UNRIVALED TIME WINS TWILIGHT DERBY THRILLER IN BLANKET FINISH

Unrivaled Time (inside) | Benoit

A graded winner at Del Mar as a juvenile via the GIII Cecil B. DeMille Stakes, the son of leading sire Not This Time has been a frequent face on the black type scene in the west. He placed in the 2026 Eddie Logan Stakes over this course in early January, and in four subsequent start afterwards collected the Snow Chief Stakes by a head in late May--it was the only time he'd hit the board, including last out Aug. 23 in the GII Del Mar Derby. He closed well to run fourth behind familiar foe Proletariat (Raging Bull {Fr}) that afternoon.

Once again setting up well off the pace here, the 9-1 shot was well-reserved for most of the race and was gaining on the leaders from his spot on the fence as they went into the far turn. Cutting the corner into the stretch as the running began, he had to navigate through traffic to find running room, but once he saw green, Unrivaled Time managed to muster up a strong second wind to inch by Path to Power (GB) (Time Test {GB}) on his outside. Heads hit the wire together, but it was his nose that came down first. Essos (Liam's Map) overtook the early leaders as well to claim third.

"I was hoping that somebody would go with the favorite [2-5, Proletariat] because on paper he was the lone speed, and somebody did," said trainer Leonard Powell.

"The last few times, there wasn't that much pace and they were much bigger fields, so we circled all the way around the field. If you look at his figures, he ran as good as the favorite, but we had to circle horses. This time, smaller field, better pace scenario for us."

"We didn't get all the luck we needed because he had to check once or twice but the speed came back to us and he was able to show his great turn of foot."

"He broke really well and he likes to drop back all the way," said Joel Rosario. "It looked like down the backside they were going at a good speed and I just rode him they way he wanted to be ridden. I just let him settle after that, let him be and hopefully he came with a run at the end and he did. We caught up to the pace and he was able to come with a finish."

A comfortable winner against optional claiming company last out Oct. 4, good for a 97 Beyer, the chestnut had been on a three-race losing streak prior to that effort. He'd started his 2026 with back-to-back wins in Florida, including in the Army Mule Stakes at Gulfstream, before seemingly falling off form for the early spring and summer that left his own conditioner scratching his head. With the fall and winter rolling in, Pentathlon seems to have put those efforts behind him.

Sent off as the 2-1 second choice behind Godolphin's 9-5 favorite East Avenue, he was content to track from third as that betting choice quickly went to the front to set the tempo. In no hurry to collect that loose leader until the five-sixteenths, he came under a ride from four off the rail and was in striking contention by the time they got to the eighth pole.

Wrestling the lead away from East Avenue, he edged clear of that one to win by 1 1/2 lengths. East Avenue held on to second by a head over a hard-charging Crazy Mason.

"I was pleased with that. His last two races have been pretty bang-up," said Shug McGaughey. "I can never understand his race at Laurel before, but he seems to like the fall of the year. He's trained well. Paco [Lopez] seems to fit him well and we are happy with this result."

McGaughey confirmed Pentathlon's next target would be the GII Cigar Mile Dec. 5 after initially opting against it, saying, "I was actually pointing him to that anyways and wasn't going to run him here, but he breezed so well a couple weeks ago that I thought, 'Well, if he keeps going in this direction, we better give him a try.' I'm glad we did."

Pentathlon | Coglianese

Pedigree Notes:

Hailing from a traditionally deep Phipps female family, Pentathlon is the second to the races, and only black type earner, for his dam Parade. His most recent sibling to come of age is the winning juvenile Cowboy Skins (Munnings) and he has a pair of brothers in the wings as well--a yearling Gun Runner and a 2026 Into Mischief. The dam, a half-sister to a fleet of noteworthy horses led by MGSW Parading (Pulpit), was bred to Nyquist for 2027.

Parade's other siblings include GSP Protesting (A.P. Indy), the mother of SW & MGSP Breaking the Rules (War Front) and MGSW & GISP Performer (Speightstown); English winner Viva La Flag (Rahy), dam of Peruvian champion G1SW-Per Mantuz (Run Away and Hide); and a sister who would eventually produce Japanese Listed winner Realize Glint (Jpn) (Kitasan Black {Jpn}) in 2026.

Claimed for $55,000 this past May, Paradise Valley went from claimer to graded winner in one fell swoop Sunday with a game victory in the GIII Bold Ruler Stakes at Belmont Park.

Picked up by his current connections from the aforementioned claiming contest May 22 during the Belmont Big A meeting, the grey has hit the board in his last four starts but took a big step forward on paper last out Oct. 10 over this main track when he posted a 93 Beyer defeating $50,000 claimers. Cont.

He went to post here as 13-1 shot, the second longest figure on the board, and broke well to settle well of the pace. Roused on the bend to improve his position, Paradise Valley spun into the lane in striking range of the leaders. Closing the gap on a battling Buccherino, he took command inside the sixteenth and dug deep to repel Commuted until the line, where he won the photo by a head. Buccherino was third.

"[Paradise Valley is] the type of horse, you can't give up on him or he'll feel it and won't try," said jockey Samuel Marin. "Last time I rode him, he won, and I noticed it there. Coming back in this race, I was prepared to ride him like I rode him last time."

"I had two horses in the race, he [Paradise Valley] had the better trip," said trainer Ilkay Kantarmaci, who claimed his first graded win in the Bold Ruler. "Samuel [Marin] won last time with him, and he knows the horse. He [Paradise Valley] gave everything for us today, I'm so happy."

"He was doing so good. I thought maybe I would take my chance [supplementing him into the race] because he had nowhere else to run. He was getting better and better, it was a good distance for him, so I spoke with my partners, and they were good."

When asked about running in the GIII Elite Power Stakes Dec. 6, Kantarmaci opted to wait-and-see before committing to a next target.

Pedigree Notes:

Paradise Valley is the only black type runner for his dam, and her third consecutive winner to make the races ahead of his placed 3-year-old half-brother Grand Slam Sam (American Pharoah). They asked her to bring her best, so she brought her 'Sunday Finery' to the GIII Mazarine Stakes at Woodbine, and became Mystic Guide's first stakes winner in the process.

Fresh off breaking her maiden Sept. 26 in her fourth career start by an effortless 13 1/2 lengths over course and distance, the maiden graduation had been her first time beyond the sprint distances. Her prior three efforts in the baby dashes on synthetic and turf resulted in two in-the-money finishes.

Tabbed the 7-2 third choice in this field of juvenile fillies, Sunday Finery opted to take back and settle last of this five-strong group, rating kindly up the backstretch through fractions of :23.66 and :48.36. Nudged along by jockey Sahin Civaci, she really began to pick it up off the turn and came into the stretch in front, continuing to open up to win her stakes debut by 6 3/4 lengths.

“We always kind of thought she was a two-turn horse," said trainer James Begg. "When she was showing up in her earlier races, we were happy because we always felt like there was, it was kind of the next level would be going further, with her breeding and everything and also just the way she looked and trained.”

Begg added that the Princess Elizabeth Stakes Nov. 28 could be on the filly's horizon, saying, “As long as everything comes out right that's kind of how we had planned that initially because we were looking at that race and we kind of saw that timing on this race kind of set up okay for that race so that was kind of the that's always kind of been the goal for the end of the season with her.”

Pedigree Note:*

One of eight winners for Mystic Guide (by Ghostzapper), Sunday Finery is also her freshman sire's first stakes winner. Aunty Mo, last sold for $22,000 to Cara Bloodstock from the 2019 Keeneland November Sale, has also produced GSP Mo Tourist (Tourist), a colt she sold with in utero at that same sale. She is a half-sister to MSW/GISP Merchant Marine (Tiznow).

Aunty Mo has five winners from as many to race and is yet to be represented by a yearling Country Grammar filly. After coming up barren to Drain the Clock last year, she went to Highland Falls for 2027.

Still a maiden despite a pair of stakes placings on his record. Speaker's Speech broke through Sunday to win the GIII Grey Stakes at Woodbine in his first try on the Tapeta.

Stretching out past 6 1/2 furlongs for the first time after running second in the Soar Free Stakes and third in the GIII Algonquin Stakes, the $875,000 OBS April grad had no issue carrying his speed, leading this field from the jump with Freedom Hall (Independence Hall) tracking him and Play It Again settled just off that pair in third.

Saving all the ground from against the rail, Speaker's Speech led comfortably through fractions of :23.75 and :49.08, rationing his speed as he continued to take minimal pressure even as Play It Again drew into second and began to eat into his margin. Able to keep that rival behind him, the 5-2 second choice was able to hold on for the win, breaking his maiden in the process.

"First time he was just walking out of there," said Rafael Hernandez, who has ridden Speaker's Speech in all three of his career starts. "Second time he started to realize what it's meant to be. And today he just broke right on the top and he impressed me."

"I don't expect to be in the lead. I thought the shipper [Freedom Hall], was going to get the lead. On paper it looked like he was the most--the best of speed. And my plan was going to be tracking him."

Pedigree Note:

The four stakes winner and second graded stakes winner for Speaker's Corner (by Street Sense), Speaker's Speech is also his freshman sire's eighth winner. Danessa Deluxe, who ran third in the GII Gulfstream Park Oaks, has four winners from six to race and is a half to MSW Belleofthebeach (Master Command). She has a yearling full-brother to Speaker's Speech and foaled a filly by Bobtrot this spring before returning to Bobtrot for 2027.

Capping off what was a big weekend for the Breeders' Cup Classic-winning duo of Bill Mott and rider Junior Alvarado, Capitol Hill closed from well off the pace to win Sunday's Casa Creed Stakes at Belmont Park.

A multiple Grade I winner and earner of over $2.6 million, Casa Creed (Jimmy Creed) was trained by Mott and ridden by Alvarado.

"This was the first running of the Casa Creed, to win it for the first time with a Bill Mott horse, it means more for us than people would probably think," said winning rider Junior Alvarado. "It's pretty special."

Breaking well from Post 4, Capitol Hill was taken to the back as longshot Bonus Move (Twirling Candy) and 6-5 favorite Fond Farewell showed the way through an opening quarter in :23.03. Starting to move his way up along the inside leaving the far turn, the 7-1 chance still had a wall of horses and several lengths to make up as the favorite took over straightening for home.

Moved to the outside for his stretch drive, Capitol Hill narrowed the gap on the tiring frontrunner through the stretch and was up in time earn a 3/4-length victory over Fond Farewell. Giocoso was third.

"Beautiful effort," said winning rider Junior Alvarado. "I knew he'd be able to handle the distance. I was just worried about the other 13 horses in the race because he is a horse that likes to come from off the pace. He had to get through traffic, but he was so good today that every move I was making, he was there for me. It made my job easier than I was planning for."

Capitol Hill, placed in last season's GIII Manila Stakes and Gio Ponti Stakes, won a Keeneland allowance last spring before finishing a nose second in the GIII Poker at Saratoga on June 7. Fourth in the GIII Kelso and sixth in the GI Fourstardave Aug. 8, he was a nose winner in a Spa optional claimer on Aug. 27 before closing to be third last time in the Oct. 2 Artie Schiller at Belmont.

A full to GII Wood Memorial winner Resilience, Capitol Hill is out of Meadowsweet, who is a daughter of MGISW Tranquility Lake, making her a half-sibling to the Storm Cat Grade I winners After Market and Courageous Cat.

The Smart Strike mare is also responsible for an unraced juvenile filly by Into Mischief and a weanling filly by Nyquist. She was bred back to Gun Runner.

Jockey Manny Franco kept his charge tracking in fourth position as Miracle Morrow led the nine-horse field through an opening quarter mile in :23.76, the half-mile in :47.73 and three-quarters in 1:11.79 over the firm going.

Franco tipped House of War out slightly exiting the turn, overtook Captain George and Miracle Morrow and while Howard's Hope put in a late run from the far outside under jockey Jose Lezcano, House of War proved best, winning by a half-length.

"I had the trip that I wanted," said winning rider Manny Franco. "I wanted to be behind the speed going a mile. I feel like I had the best horse in the race, so I tried to ride him that way and the race set up the way I wanted."

"When he got in the clear, I asked a little bit, and he made the front. At the same time, I knew I had more, so I just kept asking him to give it to me and he did."

House of War, who posted a debut victory against fellow state breds going 1 1/16 miles on Aug. 26 at Saratoga, was fifth in Belmont's GII Pilgrim on Oct. 2.

"Last time, he was compromised by the pace, sitting behind a wall of horses and [Antonio] Fresu didn't know him very well," said winning rider Jorge Abreu. "After he passed the wire, he galloped out in front of everybody. We know the ability is there and I think the more distance he gets, the better he's going to be. He doesn't have to be against New York-breds, he's capable of running open company."

The winner's dam, Diamond Princess, produced a full-brother in 2025 and followed up with a sister by Central Banker this term. She was bred back to Central Banker.

Entered off a runner-up finish in the Philly Special Stakes at Parx Sept. 19, the 9-2 favorite stepped up in this spot to the 1 1/8 miles, a distance she hasn't contested since her last two wins back in the spring. Tracking fourth of the five-horse field, Scalable stayed in the clear on the outside early and began advancing up the backstretch as the half went in :46.18. Looming around the turn, she easily took over the lead and drew off with ease, winning by nearly double-digit lengths over Donor Advised.

"She's a super mare," said Stu Hampson, assistant to Todd Pletcher. "These longer distance marathon-type races are perfect for her; she finds herself naturally a bit closer. She broke really sharp today and Johnny [Velazquez] worked out a perfect trip. There was probably a bit more pace signed on than it looked on paper, but Johnny found a perfect spot, and she took care of the rest."

A $200,000 Keeneland September grad for Repole Stable, Scalable is out of a half-sister to MGISW Stopchargingmaria (Tale of the Cat), a mare who sold Whisper Hill Farm's way for $4.4 million at the 2018 Fasig-Tipton November Sale. Passion Flower foaled an Into Mischief filly this year and was served by Nyquist for 2027.

FEMINISM (f, 3, Curlin--Mufajaah {GSW, $267,140}, by Tapit), a first-out winner at Oaklawn in April, next hit the board when second behind GIII Prioress Stakes winner and 'TDN Rising Star presented by Hagyard' Mashallah (Maxfield) in a Saratoga allowance July 4. She was most recently sixth over this track and distance Sept. 13. Dismissed at 18-1, the chestnut filly was unhurried out of the gate and trailed the field through an opening quarter in :22.28 and a half in :45.14. She charged down the center of the track, took over late to win by 3/4 lengths over 25-1 longshot Rose Alabama (Shaman Ghost).

Feminism, a $200,000 FTKOCT yearling, sold for $975,000 at last year's OBS June sale. She is a half-sister to Mejthaam (Pioneerof the Nile), SP, $154,403.

QUIET POWER (c, 3, Tapit--Sabbatical, by Medaglia d'Oro) exits a stakes try in the GIII Old Dominion Stakes at Colonial Downs Sept. 7 where he wound up fifth going 1 1/8 miles. Sunday's 5-1 shot was content to sit second behind Certified Loverboy (Mendelssohn) through the half in :51.00. Waiting to make his move until the far turn, Quiet Power surged alongside that early pacesetter and went right on past, going clear late to win by 2 1/4 lengths. A half-brother to Dreams of Tomorrow (Speightstown), SP, $374,463, Quiet Power is out of a Medaglia d'Oro half-sister to GISW Imagining (Giant's Causeway) and to the dam of G3 UAE Two Thousand Guineas winner Six Speed (Not This Time). This is also the family of GI Kentucky Derby winner and sire Super Saver. Sabbatical's 2025 Not This Time colt failed to reach his reserve on a final bid of $1.9 million at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Sale over the summer. He was back in the maiden ranks after failing to draw into the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint and was sent off the 1-5 favorite. The bay broke sharply and was never far from the lead through a quarter in :21.76. He dashed to the lead in upper stretch and pulled away to score by 1 1/2 lengths, becoming the 20th winner for his freshman sire (by Maclean's Music). Take Charge Beach (Omaha Beach) was second. Love a Warrior is a half-brother to Only One America (Marking), SW, $129,170; and to Competitive Idea (Competitive Edge), MSW, $608,278. HAYDOCK SPRINT CUP HERO BIG MOJO TO STAND AT YEOMANSTOWN STUD

Big Mojo | Yeomanstown Stud

European Champion Three-Year-Old Sprinter Big Mojo has been retired to stand at Yeomanstown Stud in 2027, the stud announced on Sunday. The G1 Haydock Sprint Cup-winning son of Mohaather will stand alongside former champion sire Dark Angel, G1 July Cup hero Mill Stream and Group 1 sire Sands Of Mali. A fee will be announced in due course.

Bred by Ringfort Stud, he caught the eye of Conor Quirke who purchased the son of the stakes-placed Jm Jackson (No Nay Never) for 175,000gns on behalf of owners Paul and Rachael Teasdale out of the 2023 Tattersalls December Yearling Sale. Sent into training with Mick Appleby, he won the G3 Molecomb Stakes at Goodwood in track-record time and was a close second in the G2 Flying Childers Stakes at Doncaster. In his juvenile finale, Big Mojo was a good fourth in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf.

At three, he added the G3 Commonwealth Cup Trial at Ascot and went on to be second in the July Cup before his track-record tour-de-force in the Haydock Sprint Cup. Remaining in training at four, the dark bay was successful in the G3 Phoenix Sprint Cup Stakes at The Curragh and reported home third when defending his title in the Haydock Sprint Cup. He retires with a mark of 17-4-3-1 and $882,734 in earnings. Cont. p3

'IT PUNCHES ABOVE ITS WEIGHT' - FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC BUYERS EXPECTED AT GOFFS By Brian Sheerin

Goffs chief Henry Beeby has shared that a number of domestic trainers, agents and breeze-up handlers are expected to bolster the typically-strong foreign presence on the buying bench at the Goffs Autumn Yearling Sale, from which classy performers like Bamako Beech, Sons And Lovers and Duckadilly are high-profile graduates.

Beeby says plenty of the domestic players have orders still to fill. The strengthening of the yearling sale season, similar to a snowball cascading down a hill and growing in size, is said to have led to a number of buyers in Britain and Ireland with stables still to fill.

And while Beeby admits to being slightly disappointed that Goffs has managed to attract only 116 [104 after withdrawals] lots to the horses-in-training section, he described himself as delighted to have a high-class Aga Khan draft in that section yet again. Cont. p3

Yeomanstown's David O'Callaghan said, "Big Mojo offers a great opportunity for breeders to use a champion sprinter who showed a lot of early speed when winning the Molecomb in track-record time at two, before excelling as a three-year-old to become Europe's best three-year-old sprinter, following wins in the G1 Haydock Sprint Cup [again in record time] and the G3 Commonwealth Cup trial, while running second in the July Cup for good measure too. A beautiful horse, with oodles of ability. Sign me up."

The horses-in-training and point-to-point offerings kick-starts the three-day sale which has regularly featured six-figure transactions in recent times. It begins at 10am on Monday.

"Part 2 of the Orby Sale was strong this year. It broke records. We were delighted with it and we know of a number of trainers from both Ireland and the UK who still have orders to fill because of the strength of the yearling market," Beeby said on the eve of the sale. "That is very encouraging. Buyers have had seven weeks of sales but there seems to still be an appetite for more. We have spoken to a number of trainers who will be here and I think some of the breeze-up handlers are always open to adding horses to their team at this sale. It has been maybe harder for them to buy what they wanted to buy over the past number of weeks so we expect a good representation from that sector as well. We are quietly hopeful. The vibe is good anyway."

Sons And Lovers could single-handedly raise the profile of the Autumn Yearling Sale if successful in the Melbourne Cup for Joseph O'Brien and Dylan Browne McMonagle. Cont. p4

He was purchased for €40,000 from Kirsten Rausing's Staffordstown Stud in the yearling section of this sale in 2022 and is as short as 16-1 for Melbourne Cup glory. Horses like Sons And Lovers, Bamako Beech and Duckadilly make it hard to argue with Beeby when he says the Autumn Sale outperforms expectations year after year.

He said, "This sale punches above its weight. I mean, it used to be very much an afterthought. Not anymore. It's obviously not the sale people necessarily breed for, but it's a sale that delivers year after year and we're hopeful that this year will be no different. We have a strong bunch of foreign buyers that have made the journey to Goffs once again and we are hoping that their presence will be felt."

Beeby concluded, "And I sound like a broken record because I say this every year, but we have a very good horses-in-training catalogue - however, we'd like more. That section is headed by the Aga Khan draft, which is always extremely popular, but we'd like more Irish trainers to focus on the sale and realise that we can deliver when we get the horses. We'd like them to know that they don't need to take - particularly those middle-market horses - across the water. But anyway, that's our job to prove that and hopefully we can do that this week. We think we've a nice, tight selection with a few supplementaries, and we think the dozen or so point-to-pointers we've got will add an interesting dynamic."

AMELIA EARHART ANNEXES CURRAGH FEATURE by Sean Cronin

Coolmore's Amelia Earhart (Camelot) has contested six Group 1 contests this season and, dropped in grade for Sunday's G3 QuinnBet Loughbrown Stakes making her fifth start in just seven weeks, added to her Listed Cheshire Oaks triumph to provide Aidan O'Brien with a record fifth edition of Ireland's final Group-race contest of the season at the Curragh.

"It's been a very tough season and to get this on the last day is great," said rider Gavin Ryan. "Aidan has always been very good to me, he gave me a ride in Newmarket yesterday and put me up again today, so I can't thank him enough. It's the first time I've sat on her and, on paper, she was the filly with the class in the race. Aidan's horses are tough and hardy and she's like riding a colt as she's a big, strong girl. She travelled real smooth and she stays that trip good." Cont. p5

Settled off the pace for most of this two-mile marathon, the 2-1 favorite made relentless headway under pressure to launch her bid approaching the final furlong and was driven out to defeat Abbotsford (Frankel) and the fast-finishing Galileo Dame (Galileo Gold) by 1 1/4 lengths and a neck.

Pedigree Notes

Amelia Earhart, who becomes the 50th Group winner for her sire, is the second as such out of the multiple Group 1-placed G3 Munster Oaks and G3 Give Thanks winner Venus De Milo (Duke Of Marmalade), the first being her G2 Moonee Valley Gold Cup-winning full-brother Cleveland.

Venus De Milo is kin to G3 Pinnacle third What A Home (Lope De Vega), herself the dam of the multiple Group/Grade 1-placed G3 Acomb hero The Lion In Winter (Sea The Stars).

The winner, whose third dam is G1 Coronation runner-up and Group 2-winning matriarch Inchmurrin (Lomond), is also half to a two-year-old colt and yearling colt by St Mark's Basilica.

Gary Barber and Team Valor's dual handicap winner Thread Of Gold, last seen running fifth in Irish Champions Weekend's G3 Kilternan, justified 2-1 favouritism to and dominated his rivals for an impressive stakes breakthrough in Ireland's final turf race of the season.

Several lengths off the pace in rear until turning for home, he tanked forward in the straight to lead hard on the steel soon after passing the quarter-mile marker and surged clear of the field when shaken up inside the final furlong to secure a career high in stylish fashion.

"His work had been very good during the week and he had the form to be very competitive," said assistant trainer David Casey. "He ran really well the last day and just didn't get the run of the race. Billy [Lee] said he did it well today and he was delighted with him. He thinks he'll be better on better ground, which was a bit surprising as I thought he'd handle the cut well. He's got a bit of pace and he's maturing the whole time, so it's onwards and upwards. I think he might strengthen up over the winter, he'll be a lovely horse for next year and he might be able to step up in grade as well. We'll see what Willie [Mullins] wants to do next year, but I'm sure if he wanted to go a little bit further it wouldn't be an issue."

Thread Of Gold, the 20th black-type winner for his sire, is the latest of nine foals and second stakes scorer out of G3 Prix de la Grotte runner-up Woven Lace (Hard Spun), the first being the Group 3-placed Listed Grosser Preis von Rossmann victrix Broderie (Pivotal).

Broderie is the dam of G3 Chartwell Fillies' second La Brodeuse (Night Of Thunder), while Woven Lace is also the second dam of this year's Listed Silver Tankard third Game Character (New Bay).

Descendants of the winner's Group 3-winning second dam Do The Honours (Highest Honor) include G1 Melbourne Cup hero Cross Counter (Teofilo).

Inching ahead at halfway, the 4-9 favourite kicked clear inside the final quarter-mile and was ridden out in the closing stages to prevail by 3 1/4 lengths from Favour Royal (Camelot).

The win positioned Paddy Harnett in an unassailable lead for Ireland's apprentices' title. "He's a very very nice horse and his greatest attribute is that he is so straightforward," the rider commented. "He had a lovely introduction in Navan and the lads came away feeling that he would improve a tonne. He popped out lovely, he was happy to go upsides in front and it didn't bother him if he was on his own or not. I got down to the three going easy, I gave him a click down to the two and he just took off. He's something that I've never ridden before and he gave me some feel."

WORLDWIDE NEWS

CAN BOUGHEY'S DREAM YEAR CONTINUE IN MELBOURNE CUP?

Trainer George Boughey claimed his first Breeders' Cup winner on Friday with Libertango (No Nay Never) in the Juvenile Turf Sprint, and on Tuesday, he has Wathnan Racing's Hopewell Rock (New Bay) in the G1 Lexus Melbourne Cup at Flemington.

Said Wathnan Racing's racing advisor Richard Brown, "He's travelled very well and George's team down there are very happy with him, he went down there in great nick.

"He's got a great attitude and is a really likeable horse and he's just got the right temperament for travelling. He's in right at the bottom and of course it's a race where you need a lot of luck, but I think it will be really exciting. I think he has a lot of the attributes you'll need to win a race like the Melbourne Cup. Hopefully he is going there with a live shout and Zac Lloyd will ride him who we saw over here in the summer."

Hopewell Rock | Goodwood

Favoured in the iconic 'Race that Stops a Nation' is G3 Geelong Cup hero Point Of Law (Frankel), the winner of the Gx Bahrain Trophy when carrying the Royal colours. He is one of seven in the race for trainer Ciaron Maher.

Maher told Racing.com, "Barrier nine, ideal. I thought he needed a decent enough draw. Happy with nine. He needs to get the first half of the race right and I think nine will enable him to do that. Each day he's just settled into the routine. He's got a little bit better, and that's sort of consistent with how he was when Harry Eustace had him [in quarantine], and I think same when John Gosden had him. He needed the run, mentally just to bring him on and I'm rapt with him. I think he's thrived."

Also trained by Maher is 2025 Melbourne Cup third Middle Earth (Roaring Lion), who also used to call John and Thady Gosden's Clarehaven Stables home.

"I think Middle Earth is ready to run the race of his career, I reckon," said Maher. "He's had a similar prep to last year. His sectionals and his races have been very, very good late. He loves Flemington. He's got the engine for two-miles. The handicapper got him a bit after last year, 56 and a half (8st 13lb), which will make it a bit more difficult, but he's a two-miler and it's probably only half the field that will be." Cont. p10

The Northern Hemisphere-based trainer with the most representation is Joseph O'Brien with five entries led by G1 Betfred Derby third James J Braddock (Zarak).

Part-owner Kevin Blake, also a stable representative for O'Brien, said, "We feel his European form will be stronger than Point Of Law's, and they're now carrying a very similar weight after Point Of Law was penalised.

"We would've loved a lower draw. But there's only going to be one way to ride him from there. We have Craig Williams, a master of this place and a top, top man. So we're living the dream. We're here, and what will be will be."

Post time for the Melbourne Cup is 3 p.m. AEDT (4 a.m. GMT/11p.m. EST).

HAT TRICK OF GROUP 1S FOR DANON DECILE WITH TENNO SHO AUTUMN VICTORY by Heather Anderson

Thanks to an inspired steering job by pilot Keita Tosaki, Danon Decile won his third Group 1 race in Sunday's Tenno Sho (Autumn) at Tokyo.

The Danox Inc. runner was brought out into the centre of the course for the stretch drive in the 2000-metre affair, and he avoided the traffic woes of a multitude of rivals to win free and clear by 2 1/2 lengths over the 39-1 shot Nebra Disk (Duramente), who emerged from the scrum to be three-quarters of a length in front of Japanese champion and multiple Group 1 heroine Regaleira (Suave Richard) in third.

Sent off at 9-1, the son of Epiphaneia loitered near the back of the field after breaking in the car park, stall 17. Readiness (Suave Richard) took up the running while shadowed by Ho O Biscuits (Mind Your Biscuits). The top two picks, 23-10 Croix Du Nord (Kitasan Black) was in fifth and 25-10 Masquerade Ball (Duramente) raced in 14th turning into the backstretch and through the first 1000 metres in :58.80.

With a half-mile remaining, Realize Sirius (Poetic Flare) challenged Readiness for the lead. Danon Decile, never closer than one off the fence, remained last but one and swung wider midway on the final bend. Winding up for a big run, the eventual winner was guided out widest of all closer to the stands than the inner rail to produce his run. Readiness still held a slim advantage with a quarter remaining, but Danon Decile held all the momentum and steamed home a good-looking winner. Nebra Disk, a half-brother to Japanese Horse of the Year Lys Gracieux (Heart's Cry), emerged from near the fence to just best Regaleira to his inside.

Despite saving ground for much of the trip, Croix Du Nord lacked critical room in the closing stages and ran fifth. Masquerade Ball, back in 14th for much of the race, faced a wall of horses and was unable to get a clear run, trailing in 11th.

"He was running at a good rhythm and had much left in the final homestretch," said jockey Keita Tosaki of the 2024 Japanese Champion Three-Year-Old Colt. "I thought I may have hit the front too early. [In his previous starts] he had finished third consecutively, but going into the race today, I believed that his record did not reflect his ability.

"We drew the outside gate, so after discussing with the trainer several times, we went into the race with a strong belief in the horse and to let him run with a good rhythm. I also want to thank all the fans who kept believing in the horse."

A winner in three starts at two, Danon Decile kicked off his three-year-old season with a win in the G3 Keisei Hai and, after missing the G1 Japanese 2000 Guineas, captured the G1 Japanese Derby (Tokyo Yushun). He signed off with a third in the G1 Arima Kinen in December of 2024 to none other than Regaleira. After taking the G2 American Jockey Club Stakes in January of 2025, he added the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Meydan that April. Fifth in the G1 Juddmonte International, he ran third in the G1 Japan Cup and another edition of the Arima Kinen that November and December, respectively. Seen only twice prior to Sunday's heroics, the chestnut was third to Croix Du Nord in April's G1 Osaka Hai and in the G1 Takarazuka Kinen to Meisho Tabaru (Gold Ship) in June.

Pedigree Notes

Second in both the GI Alcibiades Stakes and the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies at two, Top Decile, in foal to American Pharoah, brought $950,000 when selling during the 2017 Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale to Shadai Farm.
