BUTTERFLY WINGS FLIES TO €760,000 AS GOFFS CHICQUITA SESSION OFF TO SOLID START

By Brian Sheerin

In the absence of a big-name star, the Chicquita Session of the Goffs November Mares Sale got off to a solid start on Friday with 18 mares selling for €5,482,500.

The headline act was Justify mare Butterfly Wings, sold in foal to Starspangledbanner to Blandford Bloodstock's Tom Goff for €760,000, while Haras du Cadran also paid €720,000 for the Group 1-placed Flirting Bridge, who is in foal to No Nay Never.

Butterfly Wings was trained by Aidan O'Brien to win a Leopardstown maiden. Cont. p3

FIRST STAKES WINNER FOR STRADIVARIUS AS WYKEHURST PARK STRIKES IN FRANCE

by Sean Cronin

Andrew Balding trainee Wykehurst Park (Stradivarius) followed up a runner-up finish, behind subsequent G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud hero Drumbeat (Wootton Bassett), in last month's G3 Zetland Stakes with a stakes breakthrough for his freshman sire in Friday's G3 Prix Thomas Bryon at Chantilly.

"His form was solid, we had the perfect trip throughout and he did everything I asked of him," said Pierre-Charles Boudot. "I asked him to commit some way from home and he kept finding in the straight." Cont. p7

She hails from the family of Giant's Causeway and was bought online by Goff.

He said, "I was over at Goffs looking at foals and saw the mares before I left. She's a lovely mare and that pedigree really speaks for itself. She's by Justify and it's the Giant's Causeway family. She's for a long-standing breeding client. She wasn't purchased with a specific mating in mind but she'll be covered in Europe."

The Chicquita Session cleared €5,482,500 | Goffs

Asked if he expected Butterfly Wings to top the sale, Goff added, "I feared that something like that might happen, especially with that back pedigree, and the fact she's by Justify and has that Group 1 form in the book. We had to go the extra mile to get her but I'm absolutely delighted we did."

Meanwhile, Haras du Cadran's Emmanuel Talvard was in attendance to snap up Flirting Bridge (Camelot), sold by Baroda Stud on behalf of Irish Oaks-winning owner Wells Watson.

That sale represented a shrewd piece of business from Watson, who enjoyed that great day at the Curragh this year with Johanna Walsh, given he sourced Flirting Bridge at the Keeneland November Mares Sale in 2023 for $150,000.

Haras du Cadran are on course to sell Chuppy (Le Havre), the dam of French Derby winner Constitution River (Wootton Bassett), at the upcoming December Breeding Stock Sales at Arqana.

With a puff of the cheeks, Talvard said of the French stud's new recruit, "We're very happy to get her because she was our number one from the beginning. She's lovely. She will go to France to Haras du Cadran. She's for a partnership of four different clients." Cont. p4

He said, "She ticks all the boxes. She's a lovely mare, she's in foal to a great sire, she comes from a great family and she was very good on the track. To be honest, our limit was €600,000! We went a little bit over. We wanted to bring her back home."

He added, "We're selling Chuppy, the dam of Constitution River, in a couple of weeks. We can't replace her, but we'll try to find another one."

All told, the Chicquita Session posted a hugely respectable €304,584 average and €265,000 median, which represented 44% of the Friday spend.

It also contributed to a healthy rise in the figures compared to this day 12 months ago - turnover improved by 9%, the average was up by 23% to €71,385 and the median by 20% to €36,000. Even without a headline act, it proved a very solid start, and one Goffs chief Henry Beeby is hoping to build upon.

He said, "We're delighted with the first ever Chicquita Session, which made a hugely encouraging start today. An average price of over €300,000 and top price of €760,000 is a very solid foundation on which to build, while the atmosphere in the ring was fantastic with buyers from all over the world competing for a high-class inaugural draft.

Butterfly Wings, Friday's topper | Goffs

"The vendors supported the concept and put their faith in Goffs, especially when they had other options available to them, and for this we are enormously grateful. The Chicquita Session means a huge amount to Goffs - we have made no secret of our ambition to become the first choice for elite Irish fillies and mares - and so we look forward to building on today's success into the future."

One of the more interesting subplots to the session came when Yeomanstown Stud, who have been massive supporters of Sands Of Mali's stock since they acquired the exciting stallion over a year ago now, snapped up one of his greatest performers, Copacabana Sands, for €370,000. Cont. p5

The stud's Rob O'Callaghan said, "Obviously, she is by 'Sands', which is great, but she was just such a good-looking mare, and with the race record that she had, she was one of our picks today. We really wanted her and Navassa Island (Territories), who we underbid, so it's brilliant to get Copacabana Sands. We probably went a few bids extra after getting outbid on Navassa Island. It's more than we thought she would make but, these good-looking fillies who boast the race record that they do, they command a premium."

Michael O'Callaghan was on hand to view the sale of Copacabana Sands, who he sent out to win a Group 3 before she moved on to the stable of Andrew Balding, and Listed scorer Navassa Island, who was knocked down to Capital Bloodstock at €350,000. There was great poignancy surrounding the sale of the latter, given she carried the colours of the late John Fleming to that Listed win at Cork.

The trainer said, "We had Navassa Island and Copacabana Sands in training so they are a good advertisement for us. When we bought them originally, John Fleming was my partner, and we owned them together. The whole thing has gone full circle now and, obviously, it is all very poignant. Especially with Navassa Island - she won a Listed race in John's colours. His wife Marian and son Danny were here to see her sell so it's all quite emotional."

The Goffs November Mares Sale continues on Saturday, where the action gets underway at 10am.

Said Boudot, "Being a son of Stradivarius, he may not have the speed for shorter distances, but he certainly has plenty of stamina to go further."

The Great Yarmouth maiden scorer, who went postward as the 7-10 favourite, was a shade hesitant at the break and tracked the leaders in fourth through the initial stages of a contest won in recent years by Alcantor and Maranoa Charlie.

Tanking forward into second at halfway, he ranged alongside eventual second Alias (Siyouni) in early straight and stayed on strongly under urging inside the final quarter-mile to deny that tenacious rival by 3/4-of-a-length. Cont. p8

The runner-up was four lengths clear of the remainder headed by Coral Cove (Lucky Vega).

Wykehurst Park added to the £25,000 he earned for becoming one of his sire's first ten winners and collected an additional £100,000 for Bob and Fiona Temple's Saxtead Livestock, which Bjorn Nielsen's "Stradivarius Breeders' Bonus" incentive provides for the breeder of any Group 3 or Group 2 winner. The bonus for a Group 1 winner is £250,000.

Pedigree Notes

Wykehurst Park is the second foal and black-type scorer produced by a winning daughter of Myriades D'Etoiles (Green Tune), herself a half-sister to Listed Prix Ridgeway winner and GI Secretariat third Afandem (Zoffany) and Listed Prix des Lilas runner-up Frenchette (The Gurkha).

His third dam Miryale (Anabaa) is a half-sister to G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis hero Elliptique (New Approach) and the multiple Group 3-placed three-time Listed winner Cicerole (Barathea).

Wykehurst Park is full to a weanling colt, who is catalogued as lot 565 in next week's Tattersalls December foal sale. He is also a half-brother to Listed Premio Emanuele Filiberto victor and G2 Union-Rennen runner-up Westminster Rocket (Golden Horn).

SIOUX NATION'S REINA SIOUX TOO GOOD FOR G3 PRIX MIESQUE RIVALS

by Sean Cronin

Javier Maldonado's Reina Sioux (Sioux Nation) shed maiden status with a narrow victory at Madrid's La Zarzuela venue four weeks ago and continued on an upward trajectory with a career high in this black-type debut.

Racing on the lead throughout, the 31-5 chance was nudged along when pressed passing the quarter-mile marker and found plenty under mild urging in the closing stages to comfortably outpoint Minkaas (Minzaal) and Divina Fe (Calyx) by two lengths and a neck.

Pedigree Notes

Reina Sioux, who becomes the 24th pattern-race winner for her sire, is the first foal produced by a half-sister to the multiple Group-winning G1 British Champions Fillies & Mares third Insinuendo (Gleneagles).

Her G3 Dance Design-winning second dam Obama Rule (Danehill Dancer) is a full-sister to G3 Princess Margaret and G3 Nell Gwyn victrix Osaila and kin to G3 Kembla Grange Classic winner Dawn Wall (Fastnet Rock).

The winner, whose fourth dam is G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe heroine Detroit (Riverman), is half to a weanling filly by Persian Force. Cont. p10

Ace Impact has his first two-year-old runners in 2027
Haras de Beaumont

Haras de Beaumont manager Mathieu Alex said, "We are very much looking forward to seeing Cartier Horse of the Year Ace Impact's first two-year-olds in 2027. From day one here at Beaumont, Ace Impact covered a high-quality book of mares thanks to the support of French and international breeders. His first yearlings were popular at all the major European sales in 2026, and notably achieving a top price of 750,000gns at Tattersalls Book 1- a true record for an unproven young French stallion."

He continued, "We are particularly pleased to welcome Charles Darwin for the 2027 season. This son of No Nay Never made a name for himself at Royal Ascot by winning the G2 Norfolk Stakes in the second-quickest Norfolk Stakes ever recorded. His pedigree, clearly geared toward early maturity and speed, is remarkable with his six sires all being Group 1-winning two-year-olds, including No Nay Never, Scat Daddy and Johannesburg."

Alex added, "We'd like to take this opportunity to invite everyone to the stud during the Arqana December sales. Haras de Beaumont is located only 10 minutes away from Deauville."

BREEDING RIGHT IN GOLIATH DU BERLAIS ADDED TO AKTEM ONLINE BREEDING STOCK SALE

A breeding right in Goliath Du Berlais has been added to the AKTEM Online Breeding Stock Sale. Offered as lot 4, the breeding right entitles the buyer to one covering per year.

Based at Haras de la Tuilerie, he has already sired champion Delmegan, a multiple graded winner and twice placed at Grade 1 level in the NH sphere, as well as fellow graded winners Altura, Sobriquette and Good Girl De Faust.

His progeny have sold for up to €130,000 for yearlings, €100,000 for his stores, and a foal recently made €82,000.

The sale is slated for 5 p.m. (CET) on Monday, November 23 on AKTEM's website.

UK NH FIXTURES MOVED TO AVOID CLASH WITH TOM O'BRIEN FUNERAL

Catterick and Wincanton, National Hunt fixtures, have been rescheduled to avoid conflicting with the funeral of Grade 1-winning jockey Tom O'Brien, the British Horseracing Authority (BHA) confirmed.

The late 39-year-old jockey died from cancer. His family has confirmed his funeral will take place at Exeter Cathedral at 11 a.m. on December 15.

As a mark of respect to O'Brien, and to help those who knew and loved him attend the funeral, the jumps fixtures due to take place that day have been moved, with Wincanton now set to race on December 13 and Catterick switching to December 17.

Flat racing at Wolverhampton will go ahead that evening as planned.

Gaining a narrow advantage from Zhuri (Dubawi) soon after straightening for home, the 4-1 second choice came under sterner urging thereafter and was ridden out to hold that rallying rival by a neck.

LARRY CURLY MOE (c, 2, Practical Joke--My Little Munn, by Munnings) broke well and raced prominently throughout this debut. Looming large off the home turn, the 6-1 chance came under pressure approaching the furlong pole and ran on strongly in the closing stages to deny Warrior Of Siam (Sioux Nation) by a half-length.

"Robson [De Aguiar] was very confident this morning and gave the horse a right chance," said rider Donagh O'Connor. "He has always been a very intelligent horse at home and is very straightforward in everything he does. He has strengthened up well over the last month or so. We are delighted with him, he's very professionally minded and will come on tonnes. He was a little green when we turned in and it took a while for him to get into gear but, when he did, he hit the line well. I don't think turf will be an issue for him either and he's a lovely horse."

Making smooth progress out wide once into the home straight, the 28-1 outsider was shaken up to launch her challenge with 150 yards remaining and asserted superiority nearing the line to defeat Kathy M (Justify) by a half-length nearing the line.

Guide Me Home | Racingfotos.com

"I was in Tattersalls last year and rang Jim and Geraldine Ryan to tell them to buy her," explained trainer Danny Murphy. "I thought she would make a lot of money, with her pedigree, but got her for a good price. Jim is not well and Geraldine didn't come either, so that will give them a great tonic. She's a proper horse and was showing up well at home. I gave her a bit of work here two weeks ago and, when Ben Coen got down off her, he said 'this one is something'. She is the only one who gets me out of bed in the morning and the dream is definitely alive. We might try the Guineas Trials next year and see how we get on."

ERDENALI AIMS TO BUCK HISTORY IN MILE CHAMPIONSHIP

Erdenali | Scoop Dyga

The Aga Khan Studs' Erdenali (Caravaggio) will attempt to become the first foreign runner to win Kyoto's G1 Mile Championship on Sunday.

A Group 1 scorer of the Prix du Moulin, the grey gelding has won four of his five lifetime starts. Trained by Francis-Henri Graffard, who famously won the 2025 G1 Japan Cup with stablemate Calandagan (Gleneagles), the gelding is fourth choice in the advance markets and will leave from stall one with regular rider Mickael Barzalona in the irons.

"After Erdenali won the Prix du Moulin de Longchamp, we were looking for an international Group 1 for him," said the Aga Khan Studs' French racing manager Nemone Routh. "Whilst it's a big challenge for a three-year-old to come over here, we felt that he had the right mindset and enough ability to take on this race.

"The horse seems to have taken the trip well and is very relaxed. It's his first time running in a big field--he's never run in a race with 18 runners. Also, the track is a little specialized, with quite a short straight, so he will probably need some luck in running. But we know he has a lot of ability and think the preparation has gone well. He has won a Group 1."

His task will not be easy, with a fully subscribed field of 18 set to face the starter Sunday afternoon. Carrying the burden of favouritism in the lead up to the race is dual Group 1 heroine and Classic victress Star Anise (Drefong).

A winner of three of her first five starts, including the G1 Hanshin Juvenile Filles last December and the G1 Oka Sho (Japanese 1000 Guineas), the game chestnut found the distance of the 2400-metre G1 Yushun Himba (Japanese Oaks) beyond her capabilities when 12th in May. Given a significant break, she ran on to be fourth in the G1 Sprinters Stakes at the end of September. The Katsumi Yoshida runner will leave from gate 14 with Kohei Matsuyama.

Trainer Tomokazu Takano said, "She's returned from the farm and seems to be in very good condition."

The 2025 winner of the Oka Sho, Embroidery (Admire Mars) will be making her first start since winning the G2 Sankei Sports Hai Hanshin Himba Stakes at Hanshin in April and the G1 Victoria Mile at Tokyo in May. A dual Classic winner with the 2025 G1 Shuka Sho (Japanese Fillies St Leger) to her credit last autumn, the Silk Racing runner teams up with Christophe Lemaire and will start next to Erdenali.

Trainer Kazutomo Mori explained, "She came back to the stable from Northern Farm Tenei on October 21. After the Victoria Mile, we thought about different options for her, including a race in France, but we quickly decided to keep her at home.

"At first, we thought about giving her a prep run next, but at the end of August, her condition wasn't so good, so we thought that we should wait for her to be in top condition before having another race, even though it meant going straight to the next one. Her reactions are currently very good, and we're being careful not to overdo things with her."

Never out of the top two placings in five start is Rodeo Drive (Saturnalia). Striking in the G1 NHK Mile Cup in May, he ran second in the G3 Niigata Kinen upped to 2000 metres in August and hasn't surfaced since. Gaining the services of Joao "Magic Man" Moreira on November 22, the colt represents Katsumi Yoshida, alongside Star Anise.

Runner-up in the 2025 race is the multiple group winner Gaia Force (Kitasan Black) for KR Japan. Placed in four Group 1s so far, the seven-year-old entire could finally break through with an assist from Atsuya Nishimura from stall 11. He dead-heated with Carrot Farm runner World's End (Lord Kanaloa) behind fellow Carrot Farm representative Sixpence (Kizuna) in the Yasuda Kinen at Tokyo in June.

Not to be discounted is Admire Zoom (Maurice). A winner of the 2024 G1 Asahi Hai Futurity, the Junko Kondo-owned colt has been sparingly raced, but was successful in the G2 Yomiuri Milers Cup over course and distance here in April. The four-year-old colt bears Yutaka Take, who is aiming for his third edition of the race and the duo are booked in stall five.

Ka Ying Rising Eyes Third Jockey Club Sprint

Reigning Hong Kong Horse of the Year Ka Ying Rising (Shamexpress) returns to Sha Tin in Sunday's G2 BOCHK Private Banking Jockey Club Sprint, one of three Group 2 races on the card alongside the BOCHK Private Wealth Jockey Club Mile and the BOCHK Jockey Club Cup. The popular gelding is aiming for his third straight win in the race and enters on the back of a runner-up performance in the G1 The Everest in Australia last out.

Said jockey Zac Purton, "He's really good, he's done everything right. He's a really happy horse back here in Hong Kong. He's got that vibe and buzz about him – he's been getting around the track like he owns it, like he usually does. His barrier trial was good. We probably didn't want to run the time that he ran and trial as hard as that but the two leaders [Packing Glory and Gold Patch] skipped along and he just tracked up in behind them and let down nicely." Cont. p16

Ka Ying Rising | HKJC

He added, "All in all, it was a good trial and he had a nice blow after that, so he cleaned his wind out and he's ready for the race. With the small field on Sunday, hopefully the speed is on and they run along and the field opens up and they all get their chance."

MAJD AL LEITH (c, 2, Mo Donegal--Bennett Jean {SP-US}, by Smart Strike), making his first start, led the way for the backstretch run. None of his rivals appeared to offer much in the way of opposition as he opened up turning into the home straight, and the colt grew leg weary late on. His earlier efforts were enough, however, to secure a 1 1/4-length win over the rallying Moshrif (Honor A. P.).

"His trial was very good and his work in the mornings had been good," said jockey Danny Tudhope. "He had to do it all on his own – he was quick away and then he was labouring a bit in the straight. I think he'll be a much better horse next year; he hasn't really filled into that frame yet."

A $75,000 Keeneland September yearling buy for Brinco Bloodstock, the bay hammered for $215,000 at the OBS April juvenile sale to Bloodstock Racing.com. The seventh foal out of the stakes-placed Bennett Jean, Majd Al Leith is the fifth winner for her. $10.5-MILLION OBS BUY ZEDAN POSTS FIRST BREEZE AT CHURCHILL

by Bill Finley

Zedan (Flightline), who was sold for $10.5 million at the OBS April sale, making him the second most expensive juvenile ever sold, had his first recorded workout Friday morning at Churchill Downs. He went three furlongs in :36.

"He's still a beautiful specimen of a horse and he moves over the ground very well," Baffert said. "He was moving over the ground beautifully this morning. I had (bloodstock agent) Donato Lanni come out this morning to watch him breeze. He still looks pretty exceptional out there."

One of four listed to breeze three furlongs on the main track, the Amr Zedan-owned colt posted the bullet move ahead of three horses with racing experience. He was a full second clear of the faster of two winning Dallas Stewart 3-year-olds.

Baffert said there was never anything seriously wrong with the colt that had kept him off the work tab for so long.

"It was just baby issues," he said. "He's a big horse. Sometimes, after those 2-year-old sales, you're better off kicking them out for a while."

While not ready to predict when Zedan would make his debut, Baffert said that it wouldn't take long.

WHITE ABARRIO AT HOME IN TAPIT BARN AT GAINESWAY by Katie Petrunyak

While there is no shortage of Tapit blood in the Gainesway stallion barn, the latest addition, a grandson of the champion sire, arrives as the most accomplished racehorse of the group.

White Abarrio, who collected over $8.5 million in earnings, boasts four Grade I wins from seven graded stakes scores. Since retiring in August from a six-year career on the racetrack, the near-white fan favorite has been settling into his new surroundings at Gainesway.

"It's a cool barn that he is in where it is three generations of Tapit," noted stallion director Ryan Norton. "He's there with Tapit, Tapit Trice, who is a son of Tapit, and then White Abarrio as a son of Race Day is a grandson of Tapit." Cont. p3

"He's been getting ready slowly and steadily," he said. "He'll come around pretty quickly. I think we might be able to run him within the next 60 days. He's pretty far along. I can tell you this much, we don't have buyer's remorse."

Out of a multiple listed winning and graded-placed mare, Lucrezia (Into Mischief), Zedan is a half to two winners. His dam is the second generation to garner graded black type after her own mother, GSW Verdana Bold (Rahy), and is herself a full-sibling to SW Ghalia. The latter produced SW Ghalia Princess (American Pharoah). Lucrezia is also a half-sister to multiple listed-placed Copperplate (Curlin).

This is the immediate female family of GISW Game Face.

Zedan's sire Flightline currently claims 19 winners and two stakes winners--Shonan Galleon in Japan (G3 Sapporo Nisai Stakes) and Go for Launch in the States.

Baffert did not unveil another pricey 2-year-old on Friday's card at Del Mar as he scratched Zizo (Gun Runner) from the first race. Zizo cost $2.9 million at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga yearling auction. He is also owned be Zedan. Baffert said the horse had a temperature.

White Abarrio will stand for $17,500 in 2027 | Sara Gordon

Norton said that while White Abarrio had been on their team's radar for several seasons, his win this spring over Horse of the Year Sovereignty (Into Mischief) and MGISW Journalism (Curlin), paired with his steady presence competing at the highest level, solidified their interest.

"He was the model of consistency year over year," Norton explained. "He was always winning the biggest races, always running against the best competition. The term 'war horse' is used a lot, but I do think this encapsulates White Abarrio. He had 28 starts and was a graded stakes winner from seven furlongs to a mile and a quarter. He danced all the dances."

A winner in his first two starts as a juvenile by a combined 10 lengths, White Abarrio went on the following year to capture the GIII Holy Bull Stakes and GI Florida Derby. At four, he bested future Horse of the Year Cody's Wish (Curlin) in the GI Whitney Stakes before claiming the GI Breeders' Cup Classic. Later highlights under Saffie Joseph Jr.'s tutelage included wins in the GI Pegasus World Cup and GIII Ghostzapper Stakes and a runner-up finish behind stablemate Skippylongstocking (Exaggerator) in this year's Pegasus.

His career-high 111 Beyer Speed Figure in the GII Oaklawn Handicap was one of 11 triple-digit Beyers earned throughout his career.

White Abarrio retired under the banner of C2 Racing Stable, Gary Barber and La Milagrosa Stable. Norton said that the ownership group will stay involved in his stud career and has joined Gainesway in buying mares at the breeding stock sales to support him in his first season.

White Abarrio will stand for an introductory fee of $17,500.

"I think he is good value at that price point," said Norton. "A horse of that quality doesn't come along every year and he is a grandson of Tapit and Into Mischief."

Bred by Spendthrift Farm, White Abarrio is out of an Into Mischief half-sister to MGSW Cool Cowboy (Kodiak Kowboy). The family also includes two Into Mischief full-siblings in this year's GI Madison Stakes winner Eclatant and 2020 GII Bourbon Stakes winner Mutasaabeq.

Asked about the type of mare that should fit well with the new Gainesway sire, Norton said, "I believe Mr. Prospector lines and Northern Dancer would work well, so your Unbridled, Awesome Again and Danzig-line mares. He's 16.1 and I think he fits a lot of

PEGASUS WORLD CUP PURSE CUT TO $2 MILLION

2026 Pegasus World Cup hero Skippylongstocking | R. Thompson

The purse for the 2027 GI Pegasus World Cup at Gulfstream Park has been lowered to $2 million, 1/ST announced Friday. It previously carried a purse of $3 million.

For the '27 Pegasus program, a total of $4.5 million will be on the line across a 13-race card set for Jan. 30. The Pegasus will be broadcast live from 4:30-6:00 p.m. ET by NBC/Peacock. It is also a 'Win and You're In' race for the GI Breeders' Cup Classic.

The GI Pegasus World Cup Turf Invitational returns with a $750,000 purse, down $250,000 from last year's renewal, and the GII Pegasus World Cup Filly & Mare Turf Invitational claims a $500,000 purse. The rest of the card will include seven additional stakes, four graded, worth $1 million.

Trainer Mark Casse has signaled that 2026 GI Breeders' Cup Distaff winner Nitrogen (Medaglia d'Oro) will launch her 2027 campaign with the Pegasus World Cup.

"For a decade, the Pegasus World Cup has showcased some of the greatest horses of the modern era," said Mike Rogers, executive vice president of 1/ST Racing. "The updated purse structure reinforces our commitment to attracting world-class competition, providing meaningful opportunities for horsemen and women, and delivering an exceptional wagering product for horseplayers. We are grateful to the owners, trainers, jockeys, horseplayers, fans and guests who have contributed to the success of the Pegasus World Cup and continue to make it one of our sport's premier events."

The 2026 Pegasus World Cup race day set a record handle of $48.5 million wagered.

DETERMINISTIC TO RETURN TO TRAINING IN 2027

Deterministic | Tod Marks

Deterministic (Liam's Map), winner of the GI Breeders' Cup Mile at Keeneland, will return to training for his 6-year-old season, according to a press release from Lane's End Farm.

During pre-season diagnostics, it became apparent that Deterministic would be unlikely to cover a full book of mares, per the release. The 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' was slated to stand his first season at stud for $25,000 at Lane's End in 2027.

"The Deterministic partnership felt it was important to let breeders know as soon as possible, so that they could make other plans for their mares in 2027," Lane's End President Bill Farish said.

A $625,000 Keeneland September yearling bred by Hinkle Farms, Deterministic was campaigned in partnership by St. Elias Stable, Ken Langone, Steven Duncker and Vicarage Stable. He was first trained by the late, great Hall of Famer Christophe Clement before his son Miguel Clement took over after the senior Clement's passing.

ALVARADO PENALIZED FOR FOURTH WHIP VIOLATION IN 180 DAYS

by T.D. Thornton

The Churchill Downs stewards have ruled that Junior Alvarado's winning ride aboard Metatron's Muse (Flatter) in the $100,000 Iron Horse Kent Stirling Memorial on the Claiming Crown card Nov. 14 was one strike over the permitted whipping limit of six, resulting in a $2,000 fine and a four-day suspension.

The penalties were escalated because it was Alvarado's fourth such violation within the past 180 days, according to the ruling posted to the online portal of the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority (HISA).

Alvarado, 40, waived his right to a hearing before chief state steward Barbara Borden, state steward Brooks "Butch" Becraft and Churchill steward Tyler Picklesimer, all of whom signed the ruling.

He has 10 days to appeal under HISA protocol.

Alvarado was able to successfully appeal his most recent ruling at Keeneland, getting the penalties for an Oct. 4 one-strike-over violation reduced from a $1,500 fine and a three-day suspension to $500 and two days.

Alvarado is currently eighth in purse earnings among North American riders this year. He has been penalized for six total whip overage violations in 2026. The four within the last 180 days were at Churchill, Keeneland and Saratoga (twice).

Alvarado was last cited for a Churchill whip violation in the 2025 GI Kentucky Derby, in which he was ruled to have struck winner Sovereignty (Into Mischief) two times above the six-strike limit.

Because of the multiplier for repeat violations, Alvarado faced a $62,000 fine–double the standard $31,000 penalty, representing 10% of the jockey's winning purse–and a two-day suspension, double the standard one-day penalty.

Alvarado maintained that several of the over-the-limit strikes he purportedly administered to Sovereignty were instances of him fanning the colt with the whip without making contact.

HISA's rules explicitly permit that type of whip usage, stating, "A jockey may show or wave the crop to the Covered Horse without physically contacting the Covered Horse."

Alvarado appealed the ruling–the fine was believed to be the second-largest monetary penalty ever imposed on a United States jockey. His entry for that infraction on the HISA portal now states he paid a $31,000 fine and was suspended one day, with the matter considered "closed."

Alvarado's latest suspension is listed as Dec. 2-5.

DEFINING MOMENTS: SHANNON ARVIN ON THE GENIUS OF JOHN MAGNIER

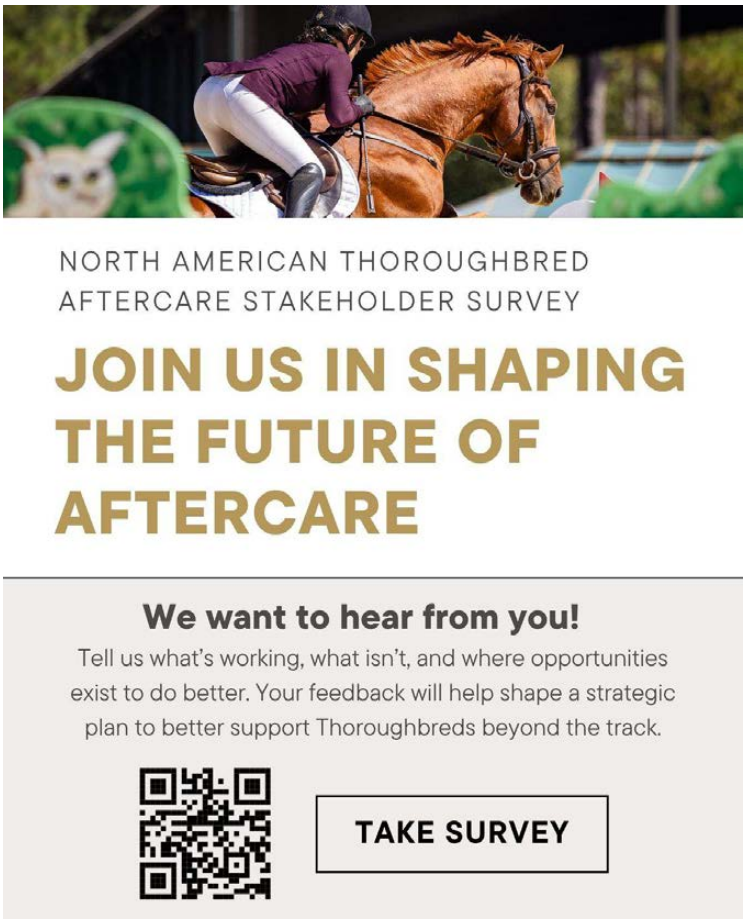
In the latest instalment of Defining Moments, Keeneland President and CEO Shannon Arvin speaks to TDN's Gary King about the influence Dr. John Chandler had on her career, her admiration for John Magnier, the importance of taking calculated risks and the collective achievements of the Keeneland team.

TDN: Who believed in you when you were starting out in the industry, and what difference did they make?
SA: I am lucky there are quite a few on this list. Dr. John Chandler has definitely been an important influence on me. Dad and I had practiced law together for seven years, and Dad had represented Juddmonte since the 1980s.

When Dad died in 2008, I assumed Juddmonte would choose one of my male law partners to represent the company, but Doc believed in me and saw to it that I, a female in my early 30s, represented the organization. Doc's confidence in me reinforced my own confidence and helped me to see additional opportunities for me in our sport.

TDN: If you could swap places with anyone in the racing or bloodstock industry for a day, who would it be and why?
SA: John Magnier. I'd love to experience his strategic thought process, goal setting and team building. He is a genius in all three.

TDN:. What mistake taught you the most valuable lesson in your career?
SA: I have made plenty of mistakes; the most important thing is not to be paralyzed due to fear of making them. As a lawyer, my job in most instances was to help clients avoid risk. At Keeneland, my job is to understand the risks and take calculated strategic risks to do the right thing.



TDN: What has been the most satisfying milestone of your time at Keeneland, and why does it stand out?
SA: Any milestone in my time at Keeneland is a result of the work of our team; one of the things that makes Keeneland so special is that neither the institution nor its accomplishments belong to any person.

Realizing the highest-grossing Thoroughbred sale in the world and in history both last year and this year was tremendous, as was watching the Paddock Building project come to fruition.

We have a lot of exciting plans in the works and can't wait for additional milestones.

GRADED PREVIEW: RACING TAKES TO THE LAWN FOR PRE-THANKSGIVING FESTIVITIES

Remember Mamba | Coady Media

by Patrycja Szpyra

One of America's largest holidays looms around the corner, along with the post-dinner shopping rush that accompanies it every year, and so signals the start of pre-holiday racing. With four graded races on schedule for this weekend, at three different tracks, fans will have something to discuss around the table come next Thursday--along with any day-of racing that has undoubtedly become a part of one's annual traditions.

Topping the list Saturday's is Churchill's GIII Commonwealth Turf Stakes led by 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard' Remember Mamba (Kitten's Joy) for trainer Cherie DeVaux.

The bay has assembled a respectably consistent 2026 campaign that saw him propel out of the optional claiming ranks at Fair Grounds to a Graded win at Keeneland to being Grade I-placed at Churchill and Saratoga in four starts. You don't need to be a trainer to know how difficult this is to accomplish, especially considering the competition he's been facing.

Stark Contract (Caravaggio) ran a 96 Beyer May 2 in the GI American Turf Stakes after getting first jump on Remember Mamba and building up an insurmountable lead. Before that, the Amerman Racing colorbearer was three-quarter lengths shy of Coolmore's high-class Group 1 performer Gstaad (GB) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) when that one claimed the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf last year.

Remember Mamba ran third, beaten a long neck for it all, July 4 in Saratoga's GI Belmont Derby by multiple Grade I runner Title Role (GB) (Too Darn Hot {GB}) and West End Kid (Twirling Candy). Those two went on to finish ahead of him in the GI Saratoga Derby two back Aug. 8 and he was closing fast last out in Keeneland's GII Bryan Station Stakes to claim third behind a salty exacta pair.

All this to say that there is no such competition here.

If he sticks to his latest running style, Remember Mamba will need some kind of speed to target, and a couple horses in here look to have the early foot required to unwittingly fall into the task...assuming they're feeling bold about Gramp's Legacy (Funtastic) being unable to withstand a speed duel. That being said, the DeVaux runner has shown the ability to lay closer as needed and he's more than got the kick to hold off a deep closer like Banksy's (Paynter).

The even-money morning line favorite could find trouble though if Fuzzbuster (Tiz the Law) gets first jump should he not be closer to the front. Of the lot, the chestnut has the most live running lines and his figures improved notably on paper once he made the swap to the grass. His sire has also claimed his fair share of classy turf races this year, so it would not be a shocker if Fuzzbuster makes life interesting (or difficult), late.

Ground Support Looks for Second Straight Graded Win in Pebbles

Ground Support | Susie Raisher

In an arguably advantageous position on the fence for the GIII Pebbles Stakes at Belmont, Ground Support (Army Mule) will look to parlay a ground-saving trip into a second consecutive graded win for trainer Kelsey Danner.

Employing a stalk-and-pounce trip to sail into an impressive 3 3/4-length victory last out in the GIII Glen Cove Stakes over this course, the 2025 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf-third is the horse to beat after the aforementioned effort. The 92 Beyer puts her at the top of the heap by four points ahead of stylish maiden winner That's How We Love (Justify) and Stuart Janney's Getting Serious (Hard Spun), both of whom claim an 88 as their career-best figure.

Ever a looming danger on the grass, Chad Brown has two in here that are taking the “maiden to Graded” leap that he's quite fond of (and very adept at doing successfully)--namely Counterintuitive (Not This Time) and Miss Twitter (Not This Time). The latter is coming in fresh off breaking her maiden Oct. 11 over the neighboring synthetic course, but she's been training well since with a co-bullet move to her credit Nov. 8 (:48.38, dirt, [1/22]).

Mr. A. P. Seeks to Parley Tokyo City Win into Native Diver Success

Perhaps a bit unsurprisingly, Mr. A. P. (American Pharoah) is one of those unusual runners who can claim a win on both surfaces in California, as well as black type, and he'll try to collect his second consecutive win in the GIII Native Diver Stakes at Del Mar.

A lot was said, and written, about his game runner-up effort as a 2-year-old in the 2025 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile behind 'Rising Star' Ted Noffey (Into Mischief). While it took him a minute to regain that form after going on the shelf for several months, it seems Mr. A. P. is finally back on the winning path after a determined effort Oct. 24 in the Tokyo City Cup that garnered a career-best 97 Beyer figure. He's drawn to the middle of the field here, and has a fleet of tough company around him--the most dangerous perhaps being the lone speed on the rail, Pony Express (Gun Runner).

While he hasn't run in over a year, the 2025 Tokyo City runner-up claims the field-best 101 Beyer and a bullet work Nov. 16 at Santa Anita (1:01 flat, all-weather, {1/10}) in preparation for this race. Loose speed on the lead is always dangerous, but especially so in California.

Back for a chance at redemption, the 2026 Tokyo City runner-up Lyell's Song (Cairo Prince) will try to turn the tables on Mr. A. P. and get the best of Pony Express on the rail. He's tough as nails, consistently posts Beyers in the mid to high-90s, and unlike the rail speed, has recency to his favor. If the rust catches up to Pony Express, expect this guy to be first on the scene for a crack at him.

Belmont the Lone Graded Action on Sunday with Manilla on Tap

The 3-year-old turf milers assemble for the Sunday feature at Belmont Park, the GIII Manila Stakes, and it looks to be anyone's game.

Pin Oaks Stud's Chaos Agent (Independence Hall) will try to right the ship here after throwing an uncharacteristically poor performance in the GIII Ontario Derby in his most recent jump. While that contest was on the synthetic at Woodbine, the Josie Carroll trainee is also a stakes winner on the turf at this distance. The latter race was the Toronto Cup two back Aug. 29 when he just barely snuck by Aces Honor (Code of Honor) late to win the photo.

To accomplish the task, he'll have to contend with George Weaver's Iron Palace (Palace Malice) on the far outside, who is the likely lone speed, but who also hasn't won since breaking his maiden at Saratoga in July. His connections don't seem to be fazed by the Oct. 31 sixth against local first-level allowance company, so they clearly know something we do not.

Brad Cox-trained 'Rising Star' Touch of Fire (Constitution) will also try to get back on track after missing the board in three of his last four starts. He's faced down the likes of 'Rising Star' MGSW Bottas (Vekoma) and SW & GSP Conducted (Mendelssohn) in his last two jumps, but won't find either of those two here. He'll need to really turn it around if he's going to run down Iron Palace though.

THOROUGHBRED AFTERCARE ALLIANCE'S FIFTH ANNUAL GIVING CAMPAIGN BEGINS DEC. 1

Courtesy TAA

The fifth annual Holiday Giving Campaign is set to run Dec. 1 through Dec. 31 to raise awareness for accredited Thoroughbred aftercare and to support affiliated organizations, the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance (TAA) announced via press release Friday.

The goal this season is to build on the success of last year's campaign, which raised approximately $250,000 for accredited aftercare. The 2026 initiative aims to continue making a meaningful impact for Thoroughbreds in need.

Throughout December, TAA will unveil a new match sponsor each day, featuring prominent leaders in the horseracing industry. Each sponsor will match donations up to a designated amount for their assigned day, giving supporters a new opportunity to make their contributions go even further.

Beginning on Dec. 1, the first match sponsor will be revealed in celebration of Giving Tuesday, the global day of giving. Supporters are encouraged to check back each day throughout the month to discover the next match sponsor and take advantage of new matching opportunities. Individuals interested in supporting accredited aftercare through the Holiday Giving Campaign can donate by visiting the TAA website.

Donors will receive a complimentary 2027 Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance calendar with a donation of $20 or more on Giving Tuesday (Dec. 1) or $50 or more for donations made during the remainder of the month, while supplies last.

"Kicking off our Holiday Giving Campaign is a wonderful opportunity to support our 91 accredited organizations and the life-changing care they provide year-round," said Emily Dresen, director of funding & events at TAA. "No matter the size, each gift directly supports safe and dignified next chapters for retiring Thoroughbreds. Seeing our match sponsors step up alongside a united racing community reminds us how much people truly care about our horses."

Ground Support (Army Mule) keeps getting better for trainer Kelsey Danner and is coming off a good looking win in the GIII Glen Cove Stakes. She stretches out to a mile, but that should be no problem considering she won last year's GII Miss Grillo Stakes at a mile and a sixteenth. Getting Serious (Hard Spun) turned in the best effort of her career when second against older horses in an allowance race. Could be a typical late-developing, improving horse for Shug McGaughey. Miss Twitter (Not This Time) has only broken her maiden, but Chad Brown is dangerous whenever he send a horse out in a 3-year-old grass stakes for fillies. --Bill Finley

Pony Express (Gun Runner) hasn't run in over a year, but there are things to like about this 5-year-old. He's posted what look to be several solid workouts, has run well off the layoff in the past and looks like the lone speed in here. Mr. A.P. (American Pharoah) is finally living up to the potential he showed when second in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. He's coming off a win in the Tokyo City Stakes, which was his best effort since Breeders' Cup Day. Zihnal (Quality Road) is on the improve. Will try older horses for the first time. THE SIGN OF SUCCESS | Look for the throughout the TDN graded stakes entries denoting Keeneland Sales Graduates. KEENELAND.

Iron Palace (Palace Malice) is coming off a clunker in an allowance race, but the fact that trainer George Weaver runs him right back and put a strong work into the colt on Nov. 15 is a good sign. He turned in a strong effort in the Bricks and Mortar Stakes and looks like the lone speed in here. Print (Munnings) doesn't win often but, based on the Beyer figures, you can make a case that he's the fastest horse in this race. Chaos Agent (Independence Hall) is another coming off a poor effort, but will be tough if running back to his win on grass in the Toronto Cup.

ROAR! SHORTLEAF HOMEBRED TIGER BABY DEBUTS AND NETS 'TDN RISING STAR'

Shortleaf colors: Tiger Baby first out, scores | Coady Media

by J.N. Campbell

With a proper 'roar' to go with a huge kick down the lane, Tiger Baby (Plainsman--The Mary Rose {SW, $539,894}, by Macho Uno) strutted her stuff in a maiden special weight at Churchill Downs on Friday. The convincing win netted her a 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard,' for the effort.

Marked as a 7-1 shot for her debut here, the Shortleaf homebred was towards the rear as the field headed up the backstretch.

Tiger Baby was roused by jockey Emmanuel Esquivel and responded by getting into action as the far turn arrived. The 2-year-old found herself near the lead before the top of the stretch. Motoring towards the wire, the filly uncovered more gears and sprinted away to take the race by five lengths.

Favorite Maranello (Not This Time) was second. The 'Insighted' Black Market (Candy Ride {Arg}) was third and After the Storm (Known Agenda) finished 11th.

"I believe that Plainsman only has nine foals in his first crop," said Shortleaf's Edwin Anthony. "We supported him with some of our best mares. Plainsman was a lot faster than people think, running 1:33 and change twice (including an internal fraction) and has a very solid pedigree (by Flatter, Street Sense mare).

"The Mary Rose (dam of Tiger Baby) was an Arky-bred, but won two open allowance races at Oaklawn and had a lot of speed," he said. "I designed her pedigree after I had done a lot of research on the old stallion Tudor Minstrel and discovered how well Blushing Groom and Gone West (both carry Tudor Minstrel) combine in pedigrees. We have owned (Benner Island, dam of Quietside) and bred several stakes winners with that combination (Dutch Parrot, Comport). It works."

The winner is first foal for Shortleaf's The Mary Rose, who earned over $500,000 for John Ed Anthony's outfit. This dam produced a filly by Olympiad last year and foaled a colt by Maxfield last spring. She was bred to Essential Quality for next term.

The victory by Tiger Baby not only gave her sire (by Flatter) his initial winner, but this is Plainsman's first 'TDN Rising Star, presented by Hagyard.'

SATURDAY'S RACING INSIGHTS:

Miss Taro, the half-sister to champion and sire Nyquist
Keeneland

CURLIN HALF TO NYQUIST GOES NORTH OF THE BORDER

2nd-WO, 125K, Msw, 3yo/up, f, 6f, 1:33 p.m.

The only first-time starter in this field, MISS TARO (Curlin) debuts in the colors of AMO Racing USA who went to $1.2 million at the 2024 Keeneland September Sale to secure this half-sister to champion juvenile and successful sire Nyquist (Uncle Mo). Breeder Hinkle Farms made the timely purchase of first dam Seeking Gabrielle in 2013 for $100,000 the year Nyquist was born. One of her other daughters, 2014's Gabriellestoblame (Blame), has already produced a graded stakes winner in Sabatini (Uncle Mo) while Seeking Gabrielle herself is a half-sister to GISP Seeking It All (A.P. Indy) and to the dam of GISW Sahara Sky (Pleasant Tap).

"She's a great physical by a great sire--he is probably as good a dirt sire as there is in the U.S.," bloodstock agent Ben McElroy said after acquiring the filly for AMO Racing. "It's a great family. She's a real collector's item. Everybody on the team, myself and Alex and Robson, and ultimately Kia, loved the filly and we are delighted to have her." TJCIS PPS

TAGERMEEN (c, 3, Into Mischief--Silk Route, by Empire Maker) had a well-documented juvenile career where he finished second or third to future elite-level winners--namely Commandment, Englishman, and Ted Noffey--on three occasions as a maiden and finally broke through June 27 this year in try No. 5. From there he collected a victory against first-level allowance foes at Saratoga Aug. 8 and was last seen running second Sept. 19 at this venue in the Harrods Creek Stakes. Though stepping down in class on paper, he found a tough group waiting for him here as the 8-5 favorite.

Tagermeen | Coady Media

Leaving the blocks with good energy, he was never far from the action as the frontrunner posted an opening quarter in :22.71 and a half in :45.70, and was the looming danger from four wide as they turned for home. Overtaking the pacesetter, the big blaze faced bay kicked away from a closing Dr Ruben M (Vino Rosso) to score decisively. Eagles Flight (Curlin), the half-brother to Flightline, re-rallied in the lane to claim third after being gone for well over a year.

Tagermeen is out of a half-sister to three black-type producing mares and is Silk Route's second stakes horse behind his full-sister Taraz, MSW, $192,412. The dam has not produced any offspring since this victor. Cont.

SILSBEE (f, 4, Vekoma--Grace's Treasure {SW, $133,924}, by Rockport Harbor) was last seen Oct. 24 running third in the local New York Filly and Mare Turf Sprint Championship Stakes and returned to winning ways here as the 3-1 second choice. Patiently handled in midpack until the half when she was asked to improve her position, Silsbee spun into the lane while launching a rally that forced her to split rivals inside the three-sixteenths. Inching away from Charlibu (Charlatan) in the final strides, she won by three-quarters of a length. The victress is the only stakes horse for her dam, and the second winner to the races. Grace's Treasure has an unplaced juvenile to her credit named Sweet Grace (Candy Ride {Arg}) as well as a yearling Good Magic filly and a 2026 colt by Constitution. She went to Patch Adams for 2027. SHE'S GOLD (f, 3, War of Will--Golden Ami, by Goldencents) broke her maiden by three lengths at first-asking over the all-weather at Woodbine Sept. 26 and was the runner-up facing optional claimers Oct. 24. Overlooked at nearly 8-1 here, the filly was in the mix from the rail and came through to take the lead up the backstretch. Looking relaxed despite holding a short advantage, the 3-year-old spun off the turn with some fight and she was able to carry the pink colors of Gary Barber home for the win by a length. Favorite Cool Times (Not This Time) was the runner-up. The winner is her dam's first foal. A half-sister to Canadian champion 3-year-old colt Amis Gizmo (Giant Gizmo), MGISW Kopion (Omaha Beach), GSW Ami's Flatter (Flatter) and SW Aragorn Ami (Aragorn {Ire}), Golden Ami produced a colt by Golden Pal last year and a filly by Complexity back in the spring. ONE NINE HUNDRED (g, 4, Dialed In--Hedonism, by Curlin) posted his career best Beyer at the start of his year, a 103 when defeating optional claimers at Aqueduct Jan. 9, and was run down in the lane Feb. 28 to miss winning the GIII Tom Fool Stakes by three-quarters of a length. On a layoff until May 9 for the Belmont Big A meeting, he could only manage fifth in the GIII John A. Nerud Stakes and enjoyed some class relief here as the 3-5 favorite on the return as a first-time gelding.

Breaking well to immediately sail into the lead, One Nine Hundred set an uncontested pace of :23.03, a half in :46.10, and was rolling into the lane on a widening three-length advantage. The race was more or less over from there as he steadily increased that margin to 8 1/4 lengths on the line over S S Sinatra (Desert Party). The victor is a half-brother to Real Macho (Mucho Macho Man), SW, $231,653. His dam, herself a half to GISP Indulgence (Macho Uno), has an unplaced 3-year-old as well as a placed juvenile named E Z Speaker (Speaker's Corner) to her credit after One Nine Hundred and his brother. RAZOR ROCKETTE (f, 2, Life Is Good--Surprise Attack, by Gun Runner) was well-beaten on debut under the Twin Spires Sept. 20, but when she switched to the grass at Horseshoe Indy the result was a favorable as she won by a neck. Ready for two turns on the dirt here, the 3-2 choice kept close watch to the outside of a longshot as the field made for the first turn. The chalk bided her time up the backstretch and was ready to seize the lead around the far turn. Razor Rockette kept to the task as she entered the lane and she won comfortably by 5 1/2 lengths. The chestnut was a distant runner-up in the Withers Stakes at the Big A in early February and was last seen finishing second in the Virginia Derby Mar. 14. After being gelded, Grittiness was installed at odds of 2-1 here. The 3-year-old raced in fourth after the bell, but he was able to move off the rail to an outside lane towards the end of the backstretch. The Repole gelding went three wide around the far turn and began to find his best stride down the lane. Clinging to a short advantage inside the final furlong, Grittiness held off a legitimate charge from Old Time Rocknroll (Maclean's Music) to graduate by a head. The first to the races for his dam, the winner has a 2-year-old half-sister in-training named Harumi (Life Is Good), who was a $550,000 buy for Peter Brant at the Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Yearling Sale, and he also has a 1-year-old half-sister by Justify. 1st-Del Mar, $63,700, Msw, 11-20, 2yo, 1m, 1:38.87, gd, neck.
MIXIT (c, 2, McKinzie--Mapit, by Tapit), who was well-beaten on debut at Del Mar Sept. 7, finished as the runner-up stretching out at Santa Anita Oct. 12. After the pre-race scratch of the 'Insighted' Zizo (Gun Runner), the John Sadler trainee was backed to the hilt as the 3-5 choice here. The favorite stuck closely to the outside of Absolution (Jack Christopher), who was making the pace into the first turn and up the backstretch. With a burst of energy around the far turn, rival Moonflight (Flightline) tried to end the race there, but Mixit proved a stubborn foe. The pair hooked up down the lane, but Mixit would not be denied. Moonflight had to settle for being the runner-up.

The winner is a half-brother to Where's My Ring (Twirling Candy), GSW & GISP, $432,815. Mapit produced Lady Elita--a filly by Elite Power in 2025--and earlier this year she foaled a filly by Nyquist. She was entered in Vekoma's book for next spring. Sales History: $180,000 2yo '26 OBSAPR. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, $52,500. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel Racing .

6th-Gulfstream, $40,550, Msw, 11-20, 3yo/up, 1m, 1:38.13, ft, 2 1/2 lengths.
GOLDEN DECREE (g, 3, Constitution--Golden Mischief {GSW, $698,150}, by Into Mischief) finished third in a trio of maiden special weights for trainer Brad Cox starting at Horseshoe Indy in late May. Traded during the Fasig-Tipton Digital Sale in August, the 3-year-old was the runner-up for new conditioner Bobby Dibona at Gulfstream Park Oct. 17. The even-money favorite here came out of the chute with a short lead up the backstretch. The hooded pro proceeded to make every pole a winning one through the top of the lane and the gelding trotted to get his picture taken by 2 1/2 lengths. Valen Time (Not This Time) was the runner-up. Golden Mischief handed the winner a full-brother named Torcello, who is currently a 2-year-old. Golden Decree's dam produced a colt by Flightline last year and added a filly by Not This Time back in spring. She was not reported as bred for 2027. Sales History: $95,000 3yo '26 FTDAUG. Lifetime Record: 5-1-1-3, $39,530. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by FanDuel Racing.
