With the sprint division badly in need of a talismanic figure, the older brigade enjoy a tussle before the three-year-old big guns appear at Royal Ascot with four Group 1 winners in the line-up. Time For Sandals, Kind Of Blue, American Affair and Big Mojo all had their big days elsewhere and this is a specialist track so it could be that the 2024 Gimcrack winner Cool Hoof Luke is the answer. He had the ace juvenile Shadow Of Light and Big Mojo behind in that course-and-distance contest before injury intervened, but after a year off comes in on the back of a confidence-restoring success in the Lady Wulfruna Stakes in March. The Oaks needs a boost from somewhere and this could provide it, with TDN Rising Star Felicitas having looked a class act in an important Sandown pointer last month. Juddmonte's Legacy Link is a granddaughter of Kind who was fourth in the Fillies' Mile, with Ballydoyle's Moments Of Joy a place behind on that occasion. Sea The Storm needs to step up on her comeback win at Wetherby, while the Aykroyds' K Sarra is at a far more suitable trip than when down the field in the Fred Darling and bids to emulate her full-brother Pride Of Arras's Dante success. France's first juvenile black-type contest of the year has attracted seven prior winners in a field of 10. Fresh off yet another banner weekend, Francis Graffard relies on Saint-Cloud winner Say Squirrel, who ran second over this trip at Chantilly four weeks ago. First-crop sire Blackbeard is represented by Timur, who defeated subsequent winner Belisa Bay at Lyon Parilly in March, and the once-raced maiden Say My Name. Fellow freshman Sealiway also seeks a first stakes winner and is responsible for the Patrice Cottier-trained Witchway, who is two-for-two following wins at Marseille-Borely. Aralia and Maiakovska come back off successes at Chantilly and Deauville, respectively, while Azamra--a daughter of freshman Texas--and Valentina Bella notched their victories in the provinces.
