BELMONT DUO PLEASE STEWART

Forever d'Oro | A Coglianese

Dallas Stewart is expected to saddle a pair of recent maiden winners for owner/breeder Charles Fipke in next Saturday's GI Belmont S. and the trainer said he was happy with how the two sophomores are training coming up to their stakes debuts. Seeking the Soul (Perfect Soul {Ire}) graduated in his third start going one mile at Churchill Downs May 29. That same afternoon, Forever d'Oro (Medaglia d'Oro) broke his maiden by a nose going 1 1/16 miles at Belmont Park. Forever d'Oro, a son of GI Kentucky Oaks winner Lemons Forever (Lemon Drop Kid), has remained at Belmont under the care of Stewart's assistant Bentley Combs since his maiden score and galloped 1 1/4 miles Sunday morning.

"Bentley said he was really good," Stewart said Sunday from his Churchill base. "It was what we wanted, nothing fancy, just basic gallops right now. We're coming back in two weeks and we want a healthy and fit horse. Hopefully, we'll be able to maintain his fitness. Tomorrow or the next day, we'll probably pick it up in his distance, pick up his speed in the stretch just a little bit but that'll be about it."

Seeking the Soul will ship to New York from Churchill Tuesday.

"I'm very happy with him," Stewart said of Seeking the Soul. "He's a real tough individual. He loves to train and he's tough around the barn for sure, but he's looked great [since his race]."

CLEMENT HIRSCH NEXT FOR BEHOLDER

Champion Beholder (Henny Hughes) exited her victory in Saturday's GI Vanity Mile "really good," trainer Richard Mandella reported Sunday. Up next for the 6-year-old mare is expected to be the July 30 GI Clement L. Hirsch S. at Del Mar. Beholder has now won 17 of 22 starts, including 10 Grade I events and her last eight outings. "She's amazing," Mandella summed up.

NYQUIST RETURNS TO SANTA ANITA

GI Kentucky Derby winner Nyquist (Uncle Mo), who spiked a fever days after suffering his first career defeat when third in the May 21 GI Preakness S., shipped back to trainer Doug O'Neill's Southern California base Sunday. His flight out of Baltimore left at noon and, after a brief stopover in Lexington, Nyquist was expected back in O'Neill's barn 88 at Santa Anita by 6:30 p.m. PT.

DIVISIDERO TUNES UP FOR MANHATTAN 3
Gunpowder Farm's Divisidero (Kitten's Joy), who will look for his second Grade I victory in a row in Saturday's GI Woodford Reserve Manhattan S., tuned up Sunday at Churchill Downs.

DIMENSION UPSETS CONNAUGHT CUP 4
Dimension (GB) (Medicean {GB}), the longest shot on the board at 20-1, came running late to win Sunday's GII Connaught Cup at Woodbine.

Stewart's New York-bound contingent Tuesday will also include GI Ogden Phipps S. hopeful Forever Unbridled (Unbridled's Song) and GII Woody Stephens contender Tom's Ready (More Than Ready).

Also out of Lemons Forever, Forever Unbridled takes a three-race win streak into the Phipps, most recently taking the Apr. 15 GI Apple Blossom H. She worked five furlongs at Churchill Saturday in a bullet :59.00.

Forever Unbridled | A Coglianese

"[She went the] first half in :48 and finished out in [1:11]," Stewart said of Saturday's work. "I told the rider to pick it up a little at the eighth pole and she just quickened so fast. It was like she left the eighth pole and was at the wire by the time you could blink an eye."

Tom's Ready, most recently 12th in the GI Kentucky Derby, worked four furlongs Saturday at Churchill in :49.20.

"Tom's Ready worked really nice yesterday," Stewart confirmed. "We took the blinkers off and he looked good. We're contemplating whether we'll do that or not [for the race]. He's 'blinkers on' as of now, but I might take them off, we're thinking about it."

In other Belmont news, trainer Christophe Clement reported Governor Malibu (Malibu Moon) came out of Friday's six-furlong work in fine shape. Runner-up in the May 14 GII Peter Pan S., the chestnut colt worked in 1:13.42.

"He's doing great," said Clement, who won the 2014 Belmont with Tonalist (Tapit). "[He's] training forwardly and he had a nice work two days ago. The plan is to go to the Belmont with Joel Rosario aboard."

DIVISIDERO PREPS FOR MANHATTAN

Gunpowder Farm's Divisidero (Kitten's Joy), last-out winner of the May 7 GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic, tuned up for an engagement in Saturday's GI Woodford Reserve Manhattan S., going a half-mile in :48.60 at Churchill Downs Sunday.

"He had a nice breeze and he galloped out well," trainer William "Buff" Bradley said. "I think he's one of the top turf horses in America right now, but a win would put him right there at the top and, with the way he's training and going into this race, I don't see any reason why he doesn't have a big shot to win."

Bradley acknowledged the Manhattan field, which is expected to include last year's champion turf horse Big Blue Kitten (Kitten's Joy) and multiple Grade I winner and world traveler Flintshire (GB) (Dansili {GB}), will be competitive.

"When you run Grade Is for that kind of money, you're going to attract the best that there is," Bradley said. "It's going to be tough race, everything has to go our way since we're running against this type. When you run against those, there is no room for mistakes, so we hope to get him up there in good order and get another big win under his belt."

Others expected to start in the Manhattan are: Grand Tito (Candy Ride {Arg}), Ironicus (Distorted Humor), Oathkeeper (Kitten's Joy), Take the Stand (Arg) (Not for Sale {Arg}), Triple Threat (Fr) (Monsun {Ger}), Wake Forest (Ger) (Sir Percy {GB}) and World Approval (Northern Afleet).

Dimension, making his third straight appearance in the GII Connaught Cup, proved third-time lucky with a late-charging victory as the longest shot in the five-horse field at Woodbine Sunday. Away slowly, Dimension trailed the field early as favored Stacked Deck (First Samurai) had the lead through fractions of :24.15 and :46.83. Still last at the top of the lane, the gelding rallied stoutly down the center of the course and outbattled Passion for Action for a determined victory. Stacked Deck, who drifted out badly into the stretch, tired to fifth and last.

"He's been training fantastically well," said Conor Murphy, who trains Dimension for his Riverside Bloodstock. "I know he's an 8-year-old, but he's been training like a 2-year-old and to get him back to win a race like this is unbelievable."

Dimension, winner of the 2013 GII Play the King S., was ninth in the 2014 Connaught Cup and sixth in last year's renewal. He last visited the winner's circle in the 2014 Kentucky Downs Turf Dash. and, after a four-race 2015 campaign, returned to action with a close-up eighth-place effort in a one-mile Keeneland allowance Apr. 21.

"He loves it up here with the European style turf course, but he hasn't had a lot of luck in this race," Murphy admitted. "Two years ago, he stumbled out of the gate and never got into it and last year it rained heavily a couple of hours before the race and he really needs quick ground."

Middleburg came charging late under a perfectly timed ride from Joe Bravo to earn the second graded stakes victory of his career in Sunday's GIII Red Bank H. at Monmouth Park. The 6-year-old chestnut was angled to the rail and was unhurried in the early going while racing just off the pacesetters in a compact field. He moved to challenge the leaders turning for home, tipped out three wide at the top of the stretch and pounced to the lead in the final furlong before holding off the late-surging Vyjack.

"This horse is just so good," said Bravo. "We got the perfect trip in behind horses and he settled great. Around the turn, we moved to the outside and he just ran those horses down. It's fun to ride ones like this."

The consistent Middleburg, on the board in 16 of 18 previous starts, was third behind turf champion Big Blue Kitten (Kitten's Joy) in the GIII Fort Marcy S. last May before runner-up efforts in the GII Monmouth S. and GIII Arlington H. He broke through at the graded level with a narrow score in the Aug. 23 GIII Cliff Hanger S. and concluded his 2015 campaign with a close-up sixth-place finish in the Oct. 10 GIII Knickerbocker S. Middleburg missed by just a head when second in the Apr. 30 GIII Miami Mile at Gulfstream Park last time out.

Irish group winner Rum Charger (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}), who is also the dam of Grade I winner Winchester (Theatrical {Ire}), produced a half-sister to Middleburg by Kitten's Joy in 2015 and a colt by Giant's Causeway in 2016.

Member Candidates STATEMENTS

Each election cycle, the Thoroughbred Daily News gives the candidates on the ballot for the election of Breeders' Cup Members the opportunity to make a statement in support of their candidacy. This year, there are 30 individuals on the ballot vying for 19 positions. These statements will appear in the TDN through June 6, when voting opens. Go to www.breederscup.com/election to view the candidate bios.

PATRICK COSTELLO

My entire livelihood is invested in the Thoroughbred industry, from my sales company to my personal involvement in breeding and pinhooking. From working in Kentucky for 32 years, I have gained invaluable experience and made many connections with breeders, trainers and owners, both domestically and abroad. It is with my foreign ties that I very much hope to be able to encourage greater European participation, and be an approachable Board member among my fellow breeders. It would be an incredible honor to be elected as a member of the Breeders' Cup, and if so, I will be fully committed to helping to increase awareness by being a support and informational source for breeders.

"These all-Thoroughbred shows are the best. The horses are often new at their jobs. They try as hard to figure out what is wanted of them over a course of jumps as they try to win races. Watching horse after horse giving it their all is inspiring. A lot of them are top prospects that could win against horses of any breed. As we work to increase demand in the market for these horses it's essential that we keep bringing them together at shows like this. Our next issue of Off-Track Thoroughbred magazine has a big story about these shows and our website is about to launch a national calendar." - Steuart Pittman, President, Retired Racehorse Project

"We would like to thank everyone who made the show a success: exhibitors, volunteers, sponsors, judges, and crew. It was a great day showcasing these wonderful Thoroughbreds while raising money for a great cause. My favorite part of these Thoroughbred shows is the camaraderie amongst everyone- people wanting to know how horses are bred, or how much they won, or where they came from. Everyone supports each other and cheers them on." - Beverly Strauss, Co-Founder and President, MidAtlantic Horse Rescue

Time and Motion earned her third-straight victory and her second consecutive stakes triumph with a late-closing win in the Wonder Again S. Fourth in her debut Aug. 31 at Saratoga, she was a good third in the GIII Miss Grillo S. over this course a month later before running a solid fifth in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies' Turf as a maiden at Keeneland Oct. 30. Earning her belated diploma at Gulfstream Park Mar. 20, the homebred stepped right back into stakes company and conquered the Memories of Silver S. Apr. 24 at Aqueduct.

Time and Motion | NYRA/Susie Raisher

Third choice in the wagering in this competitive feature, Time and Motion was away alertly and saved ground in fifth on the clubhouse turn, about four lengths off the speed. Dropping back one spot as the pacesetter clicked off splits of :23.46 and :48.46, she was patiently handled by John Velazquez and continued to hug the rail on the far bend. Gradually taken into the clear in the six path in early stretch, the bay closed strongly up the center of the course to run down Harmonize in the final sixteenth and earn a comfortable decision.

Time and Motion's trainer and owner/breeders campaigned Wonder Again, the namesake of the race, to multiple Grade I stakes victories and over $1.4 million in earnings. They also campaigned MGISW Memories of Silver.

"It's especially gratifying," trainer Jimmy Toner said of the win. "I was looking at the pictures of Wonder Again in the office this morning and thinking about it. My thought was, if it was pouring rain, it would be a typical Wonder Again Day. Fortunately, the rain held off, but she used to love the rain and soft ground. It's exciting to win a race named for a horse you've had." Toner continued, "It was close, but she was making a run at it. We'll point the [GI] Belmont Oaks [here July 9], that'll be the next target."

The winner's dam is a half to MGISW Brian's Time (Roberto). She has a 2-year-old filly by Medaglia d'Oro named Momentiempo, a yearling colt by Medaglia d'Oro and she foaled a full-sister to Time and Motion this term. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

FULL MAST (c, 4, Mizzen Mast--Yashmak, by Danzig), previously trained by Christiane Head-Maarek, boasted an imposing French resume, and ran to top billing as the 11-10 chalk in this first Stateside try. The Juddmonte homebred bested subsequent GSW and G1SP War Dispatch (War Front) on debut at Deauville in August of 2014, and annexed Longchamp's GIII Prix la Rockette a month later. The bay crossed the line a half-length behind none other than that year's Cartier Champion 2-Year-Old Colt and last year's dual Guineas winner Gleneagles (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere, but was elevated to first via DQ. Sidelined for the first half of 2015, Full Mast resurfaced to finish a neck second in Chantilly's G3 Prix Paul de Moussac last June over a mile, but faded to seventh after attending the pace as a 28-10 shot in that venue's G1 Prix Jean Prat over the same distance July 12. Very hard held by Joel Rosario while racing in midpack and in between horses early, the first-time Lasix recipient looked loaded for bear after a half in :44.84. Tipped widest into the lane for clear 'sailing,' he kicked on down the center of the course to best last year's comebacking GIII Commonwealth Turf S. winner Almasty (Scat Daddy) by 1 1/4 lengths. The winner's dam took the 1997 GI Flower Bowl Invitational H. here for Juddmonte and Sir Henry Cecil after annexing that summer's G2 Ribblesdale S. and finishing second in the G1 Irish Oaks. She is also responsible for Sound of Nature (Chester House), SW & GSP-Aus, $179,120.

+DAY AFTER DAY (f, 3, Noonmark--Berning Carbs, by Bernardini) had a steady worktab over the local training track, but was let go at 4-1 from a 5-2 morning line. Scrubbed on from the rail to seize the early advantage, the Broman homebred opened up by daylight into the turn through quick splits of :21.93 and :45.35. Responding willingly to energetic encouragement at the top of the lane, she built on her edge in the run to the line to defeat Sabrina Ballerina (Here Comes Ben) by 4 1/2 lengths. The winner is the first foal out of a daughter of two-time New York Grade II-winning sprinter Carmandia (Wild Rush). Berning Carbs has an unraced 2-year-old filly named Spiral Bound (Hard Spun), a yearling filly by Frost Giant and dropped a Bodemeister colt year. The $12,000 FTKOCT yearling was pushed along from the rail to sit third as stablemate Diddley (Stay Thirsty) doled out a hot opening split of :20.77. Moving into second in the lane after a half in :44.18, My Third Eye closed inside of the leg-weary frontrunner to don cap and gown by a length. +CURLIN'S APPROVAL (f, 3, Curlin--Withmom'sapproval, by With Approval) was bet down to 6-5 favoritism for this unveiling off a sharp string of local works, including a best-of-21 bullet four furlongs from the gate May 13 in :47 1/5. Away in fourth, the dark bay filly traveled about five lengths off the lead through a :22.39 quarter-mile, then made a big, sudden move at the head of the turn under Emisael Jaramillo to rocket past the leaders in a handful of strides and open a clear lead at the top of the lane. Challenged some to her inside by Dixieland Dudes (First Dude) in early stretch, she turned back that one's bid at the furlong grounds and came home comfortably to score by four lengths. The winner is a homebred half-sister to 5-year-old 'TDN Rising Star' Apologynotaccepted (Fusaichi Pegasus), who was profiled, along with owner Happy Alter, in the TDN. BODACIOUS BABE (f, 3, Mineshaft--Blossomed, by Deputy Minister) completed the exacta behind subsquent SW and graded stakes performer R Girls a Charmer (In Summation) at Gulfstream Park Jan. 2, but dropped to sixth two starts later, as undefeated future GIII Beaumont S. heroine Lightstream (Harlan's Holiday) streaked home to a 103 Beyer with eventual 'TDN Rising Star' Kareena (Medaglia d'Oro) second going seven furlongs at that venue Mar. 6. The $70,000 KEESEP yearling broke through in attempt number five over the Oceanport strip May 15 and was looking to double up as the short-priced 3-5 crowd's pick Sunday. Pressing from a one deep perch through the early going, Bodacious Babe shouldered leadership duties with 3 1/2 furlongs remaining and, although tackled by True Romance (Yes It's True) turning into the home straight, put that rival away late to win by four lengths. GENERAL A ROD (h, 5, Roman Ruler--Dynamite Eyes, by Dynaformer) dominated the Challenger S. last March at Tampa in his first start for Todd Pletcher, but was off the board when fifth in April's GII Charles Town Classic S. and 11th in the GI Manhattan S. June 6 at Belmont. Sixth in an optional claimer Dec. 31 at Gulfstream, he rebounded with a blowout win in the Hallandale slop Jan. 28, but was again up the track in a pair of graded stakes tries, finishing ninth in the GI Santa Anita H. Mar. 12 and sixth in the GIII Ben Ali S. Apr. 16 at Keeneland. Back in the barn that got him a Grade I placing when third in the 2014 Florida Derby, the dark bay broke sharply as the even-money favorite and traveled in the clear three-to-four wide on the first turn. Pressing a moderate tempo of :24.50 and:48.45 from third, he was let out a notch heading into the far bend and collared the pacesetters at the top of the lane. Facing a stubborn challenge from Naval Gazer (Midshipman) in the stretch, he kept to his task to wear that one down in the final sixteenth for a one-length tally. The $700,000 KEESEP yearling missed by just a neck over track and trip last time May 13 and was pounded down to 70 cents on the dollar for this return. A tad keen in a tracking fifth against the pine as the field entered the clubhouse turn, the bay snuck through a gap at the fence and into second through a half-mile split in :47.93. Glued to the leader's saddle towel, Faithfully cut the corner into the home straight and kept finding to cross the wire 3 1/2 lengths in front of Loom (Hard Spun). Hunt was a solid turf performer, both in her native Ireland and in four starts in the United States, but really came to hand when switched to the hillside turf course, earning an optional-claiming win Feb. 4 before running third in the Joe Hernandez S. Feb. 28 and reeling off two more victories, Mar. 19 and May 12. Bet down to heavy favoritism in this short field, the roan gelding stalked the pace from second, a little over two lengths behind a :21.58 quarter-mile. Smoothly crossing over the dirt, he inhaled frontrunner Act entering the stretch and kicked well clear with plenty in reserve to hold off the late close of stablemate Toowindytohaulrox. "I love this hill, but Hunt loves it too," jockey Flavien Prat said. "He's a really nice horse and he's getting better and better with every race. He did everything right today." Trainer Phil D'Amato added: "He's so effective around this one turn, sprinting on the turf, so I'd really like to focus on keeping him here and try to get him in the [GI] Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint." Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

1st Dam: Bubbler, by Distorted Humor (MSW & GSP, $211,622)

2nd Dam: Grechelle, by Deputy Minister

3rd Dam: Meadow Star, by Meadowlake

Juddmonte Farms' Arrogate had a nightmare trip when bet down to 1-2 in his debut Apr. 17 at Los Alamitos, breaking slowly and getting stuck in traffic for much of the running before flying late to finish a close third, running his last quarter-mile in a sizzling :22.56. Off a bit better but still a little awkwardly at 9-10 in this spot, the $560,000 Keeneland September buy soon punched through an opening at the rail to make the point heading into the clubhouse turn. Dictating a moderate pace of :24.09 and :48.12, the gray was challenged by Giant Expectations (Frost Giant) midway on the far bend, but shook off that rival quickly after straightening into the lane and finished full of run to score by 4 1/2 lengths and earn 'TDN Rising Star' status. Arrogate is the first foal from a multiple stakes-winning and graded stakes-placed dam, who has a yearling filly by Medaglia d'Oro. His third dam, Meadow Star, was 1990's champion 2-year-old filly and the victress of six Grade I events. Sales History: $560,000 Ylg '14 KEESEP. HANSEN'S VICTORY (g, 2, Hansen--Victory With Class {MSW, $158,223}, by Storm Victory) failed to land a blow after being squeezed back early on debut over track and trip May 8. Gelded ahead of this, the bay was looking to become the first winner for his freshman sire and 2011's champion 2-year-old (by Tapit), who was sent to Korea in 2013 after standing one season at Ashford. Straight to the lead this time without incident, Hansen's Victory was always in command and had 1 3/4 lengths on Driller (Texas Wildcatter) at the finish. The winner's dam, a two-time stakes scorer at this venue as a juvenile, had a Curlin filly in 2015 and a Graydar filly in 2016. Sales history: C$65,000 Ylg '15 BRCSEP. ALMANZOR UPSETS THE PRIX DU JOCKEY CLUB

Almanzor wins the Prix du Jockey Club, making it a second French Classic this season for his owners and trainer | Scoop Dyga

Having already enjoyed Classic glory this season in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches with La Cressonniere (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}), Antonio Caro and Gerard Augustin-Normand were basking again on Sunday after Almanzor (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) swooped in the G1 Prix du Jockey Club.

Successful in the nine-furlong G3 Prix de Guiche here last time May 10, Jean-Claude Rouget's second-string in the betting at 19-1 ultimately showed the sharpest turn of acceleration off a solid pace to deny 'TDN Rising Star' Zarak (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}) by 1 1/2 lengths, and therefore a weekend Derby double for His Highness the Aga Khan.

"This is more or less the same story as when we won with Le Havre, as I bought him as a yearling and loved him so much I overpaid for him like I did with him," trainer Jean-Claude Rouget explained, referencing his other winner of this prize in 2009. "He is a very nice, lovely-looking horse and in these races with a lot of runners you need a lot of experience. He quickened very well and was much the best on the day."

Rouget added, "Being by Wootton Bassett, I doubt he will stay much further and to tell you the truth I hadn't thought what to do with him after today, so we'll just enjoy the moment."

LOGOTYPE OUTCLASSES MAURICE IN KINEN

Japanese Horse of the Year Maurice (Jpn) (Screen Hero {Jpn}) was sent off at odds-on to defend his title in Tokyo's G1 Yasuda Kinen on Sunday but, beaten for the first time in 14 months and six starts, had to give best to outsider Logotype (Jpn) (Lohengrin {Jpn}), who landed the spoils with a dominant front-running performance. Taking an easy lead almost from the outset, the 6-year-old Logotype bossed the race, traveling well within himself as Maurice moved up to shadow him around the bend. A confident ride from Hironobu Tanabe saw him kick for home off the turn, keeping Logotype tight to the rail up the straight as his competitors ran towards the centre of the track. The eventual winner continued to put lengths between himself and the chasing pack, with Maurice keeping hold of his position in second, but unable to run down Logotype, who maintained his impressive advantage throughout, finishing 1 1/4 lengths clear of the favourite in a bunched finish for the minor honours.

Scratched: Parthenius (Ger). Click for the Racing Post result or the free Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Like many of Rouget's Pau-based team, Almanzor started off South of Paris and received a tender education with wins at La Teste de Buch in July and Clairefontaine in August before maintaining his unbeaten sequence in the Listed Grand Criterium de Bordeaux at a mile in October. Only seventh when unable to get cover in the seven-furlong G1 Criterium International at Saint-Cloud the following month, he was third to Dicton back at a mile on his 3-year-old bow in the G3 Prix de Fontainebleau here before making all for an impressive win in the Prix de Guiche, which was also used by the 2007 winner of this, Lawman (Fr). Placed on the rail after the initial scrimmages by Jean-Bernard Eyquem, Almanzor was buried in mid-division as Robin of Navan (Fr) (American Post {GB}) set too strong a pace for his own good and was angled out for his challenge as the closers began to come into their own.

Seizing the lead with a furlong remaining, he was only briefly threatened by Zarkava's son Zarak and soon asserted for a clear-cut verdict in the slowest renewal since the distance was changed from a mile and a quarter in 2005. From the first crop of the speedy Wootton Bassett and much the best by that G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere hero, Almanzor actually hails from an Aga Khan family, with his black-type-winning second dam Darkara immediately related to the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches, G1 Prix du Moulin and G1 Prix d'Astarte-winning champion Darjina (Fr) (Zamindar). Interestingly, his more distant relatives feature another Prix du Jockey Club hero in Darsi (Fr), while the G3 Prix Minerve winner Daralinsha (Empery) is a half to the Australian Group 3 scorer Gentle Genius (Aus) (Danehill). Darkova, who was unraced, has a full-sister to the winner named Troarn (Fr) and a yearling half-brother by Falco. Zarak's trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre said of the runner-up, "We had no other choice with that [outside] draw than to race like that, but he ran a very good race. He is still a little bit babyish and needs time to find his rhythm in a race, but was finishing well and I think he'll stay further. I do not want to commit to a race at this stage, as he has great value as a potential stallion and we have to target his races carefully."

Almanzor bests Zarak in the Prix du Jockey Club | Scoop Dyga

Representing Dicton's owners, Rupert Pritchard-Gordon said, "What a story this has been since we claimed him--we are delighted. We didn't know if he would stay and with that bad draw there was not much option other than to wait and he finished very nicely. This is a great result for us and he will have a good break now and see what happens at Deauville."

Taking four runs to break her maiden, Volta achieved that over this trip at Saint-Cloud Mar. 24 before showing improvement to readily claim a first black-type success in the Listed Prix Volterra over this course and distance May 9, and returned in even better form to turn this competitive affair into a procession. Settled with two behind early by Pierre-Charles Boudot, the bay moved closer on the approach to the straight and only needed one invitation to slice between labouring rivals and take total control before the furlong pole. Quickly stamping her authority on affairs in a ruthless display, she left smart fillies like Besotted and Aim To Please floundering in her wake to suggest a step up in trip could suit.

"This filly is getting better and better and what surprised me more than anything else today was how she relaxed before and during the race, whereas in the past she has shown a tendency to be keen," trainer Francis-Henri Graffard explained. "She has obviously improved mentally as well as physically and her turn of foot is impressive. Before today, we thought we would be keeping her at a mile but if she is relaxed like that why not go further? I will discuss with the owners, but she is not in the [G1] Coronation S. and will not go to Royal Ascot and we could try the [G1 Prix de] Diane in two weeks. Equally, we have always managed her with time in between her races, so it remains to be seen how she comes out of this."

Volta's rise through the ranks is not a surprise, as she has the pedigree as a half-sister to the G3 Prix des Chenes and G3 Prix de Guiche winner Calvados Blues, who went on to be third in the G1 Dubai Sheema Classic. Her dam is a full-sister to the GII Las Palmas H. winner Beautyandthebeast (GB) (Machiavellian) and a half to Neatico (Ger) (Medicean {GB}), who captured the G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis. Originally heavily Wildenstein-influenced, the family goes back to the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois winner Vin de France (Foolish Pleasure), the G2 Mill Reef S.-winning sire Vacarme and the highweight mares Verveine (Lear Fan) and Vetheuil (Riverman). Other members of her extended family include the dual Group 1-winning sire Vespone (Ire) (Llandaff), the G1 Coronation S. heroine Maid's Causeway (Ire) (Giant's Causeway) and the GI E.P. Taylor S. winner Volga (Ire) (Caerleon).

Showing his quality with a win in the G3 Prix d'Hedouville over 12 furlongs at Saint-Cloud last time May 8, One Foot In Heaven had to battle more this time in deep ground but got the job done to justify cramped odds. First successful in black-type company in the Listed Prix Lord Seymour over this trip at Maisons-Laffitte Apr. 19, the bay had produced a turn of acceleration to capture the d'Hedouville, but in this ground that was nullified to an extent. Settled towards the rear by Christophe Soumillon, the son of the champion Pride was asked to work out wide in the straight and, after gaining the lead with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, stayed on to deny the game and persistent Garlingari. "He gets better and has that fantastic turn of foot of his mother and adapts to everything," trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre commented. "Still, I feel he needs a little break now, so he will not go to the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud and will instead come back in September."

One Foot In Heaven | Scoop Dyga

One Foot In Heaven is by far the classiest produce of his distinguished dam, who also raced in these colours for this stable and whose half-sister is the G3 Prix de Flore winner Fate (Fr) (Teofilo {Ire}). His family includes the G1 1000 Guineas heroine Speciosa (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), while the G3 Princess Royal S.-winning third dam, Mandera, was responsible for the St Leger hero Touching Wood. Pride also has an as-yet unraced 3-year-old colt, Man of Honor (Ire) (Raven's Pass); a 2-year-old filly by Lawman (Fr) named Speciality (Fr); and a yearling colt by Reliable Man (GB).

Only beaten once in five starts at this venue, Son Cesio came good again over this favourite strip to register a career-best success and add to his wins in the 2014 and 2015 renewals of the Listed Prix Hampton over this track and trip. Also successful in the six-furlong G3 Prix de Ris-Orangis at Maisons-Laffitte in July and fifth in the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest over 6 1/2 furlongs at Deauville the following month, the bay signed off with a 13th in the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp back at this trip on Arc day. This term, he had been fourth in the Listed Prix Servanne over six at Maisons-Laffitte Apr. 26 before failing by a head to give six pounds to Finsbury Square when runner-up in Deauville's G3 Prix de Saint-Georges reverting to this distance May 16. Held up early by Vincent Cheminaud, Son Cesio's pursuit paid off as he wrested the lead from Catcall approaching the last furlong and stayed on to give that rival the unfortunate record of four consecutive seconds in this contest. "He is a very decent sprinter and has come on with every run this season and was spot-on today," trainer Henri-Alex Pantall commented. "Now he has won this Group 2, we will have to see what to do as he is not entered in the [G1] King's Stand S. or the [G1] July Cup."

Slitana, who has an unnamed yearling filly also by Zafeen, descends from the listed winner and G1 Moyglare Stud S. runner-up Tamnia, whose leading performer is the G2 Prix Hocquart winner and G1 Prix du Jockey Club third Coroner (Ire) (Mtoto {GB}). Tamnia is also a half to the G2 Geoffrey Freer S. winner and Group 1-placed Azzilfi (GB) (Ardross {Ire}) and the group-scoring stayer Khamaseen (GB) (Slip Anchor {GB}).

Successful over a mile on heavy ground on debut at Saint-Cloud in November, The Juliet Rose returned to that track to be second to the subsequent G1 Prix Saint-Alary runner-up Camprock (Fr) (Myboycharlie {Ire}) under hold-up tactics and after meeting interference in the 10 1/2-furlong G3 Prix Penelope Apr. 18. More positively ridden last time when getting back to winning ways in the Listed Prix de la Seine over 11 furlongs here May 10, the dark bay was allowed to race alone initially by Stephane Pasquier and, by the time she met up with the main group, was in front and traveling comfortably there. She may have been fortunate that one of the Fabre trainees, Armande, was stopped in her run early in the straight, given the way that rival finished off when in the clear, but The Juliet Rose answered every call in game and straightforward fashion to continue her ascent. "She is a nice improving filly who gives her best and leaves her heart on the track every time," trainer Nicolas Clement said. "We will now try one more step forward and go for the [G2] Prix de Malleret [at Saint-Cloud July 3]."

The Juliet Rose | Scoop Dyga

The Juliet Rose, who is the 66th individual group winner for her sire, is out of a black-type-winning half-sister to the G2 Pretty Polly S. winner Hanami (GB) (Hernando {Fr}), who has produced three black-type performers of her own. Her 2-year-old filly by Invincible Spirit (Ire) is called Pocketfullofdreams (Fr), while she also has a yearling colt by Redoute's Choice (Aus).

Coming to the fore when winning the G3 Prestige S. over seven furlongs at Goodwood in August, Hawksmoor was third in the G2 Rockfel S. over that trip at Newmarket the following month before finishing in the same position behind Minding (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G1 Fillies' Mile at the latter venue in October. Returning to be third again behind Jemayel (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) in the G1 Prix Saint-Alary over 10 furlongs at Deauville last time May 16, she justified favouritism to provide Hugo Palmer with a second European Classic in a breakthrough season for the Newmarket-based trainer. In the perfect spot early tracking the leader against the rail, the bay was angled out to work her way to the front with a furlong remaining and gave extra as Shy Witch closed in. Hawksmoor's dam is a half to the GIII Appleton H. winner Millennium Dragon (Ire) (Mark of Esteem {GB}), as well as to the dam of the black type-winner Meeriss (Ire) (Dubai Destination). The third dam is the G3 Prix de Sandringham runner-up Bubbling Danseuse (Arctic Tern), who is also the granddam of the four-times graded-stakes scoring J'Ray (Distant View). This is also the family of the U.S. turf champion and five-times Grade I-winning Kotashaan (Fr) (Darshaan {GB}). Bridal Dance also has an unnamed yearling colt by Canford Cliffs (Ire).

THE WEEKLY WRAP by Chris McGrath

The 237th G1 Investec Derby delivered everything you could sensibly have hoped, reducing a bewildering array of colts with high potential to an elite corps of high achievers. In drawing five lengths clear, the first three have gone a long way towards separating themselves from the other middle-distance colts of their generation. By the same token, however, Epsom remained a learning experience for them all--and, as such, not necessarily a definitive gauge of their relative standings by the end of the year.

First, second and fourth, after all, had arrived with an aggregate of three runs outside maiden company, in 2016; and just one start, between them, in 2015. With his sturdy physique, Harzand (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) had obviously developed considerably in the eight-week break he had enjoyed since his trial, much the longest in the field, and plainly relished both a yielding surface and the premium on stamina. But the chances are that no colt will take a bigger step forward for the whole Investec Derby experience than the runner-up.

Harzand | Amy Lanigan

Both US Army Ranger (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and his rider have received a degree of flak for the way they handled the race, but each deserves exculpation. Presumably Ryan Moore would rather not have been stone last rounding for home, but an instinct towards restraint--shared by Dettori, among others, and absolutely vindicated by the exhaustion of those who raced close to the pace--had unfortunately been exaggerated by his mount's lingering inexperience through the early stages.

This was always going to be a potential issue, an open year having guaranteed a still more hectic racing environment than usual. If they had to lose out, then, connections could not be more gratified by the way US Army Ranger vindicated a billing that still owed more to his promise at home than to two inconclusive excursions in public. The way he careered down the outside, after being switched for a run, left no doubt that this is an authentic Group 1 colt.

It was perfectly pardonable for such a monster charge to take its toll late, and he duly lurched down the camber after getting to the winner's quarters. Some have got it into their heads to take a dimmer view of this late roll, but a personal hunch is that US Army Ranger--given sufficient opportunity to absorb this very tough lesson--will produce something pretty spectacular next time.

Still Hidden Gems in Idaho...

Curiously enough, the most seasoned colt in the first four could yet match the improvement everyone will anticipate in the others. Defeated in four consecutive group races, 'TDN Rising Star' Idaho (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) yet again gave the impression that he can do better still. As when he met the winner in the G3 Ballysax S., he made a really dashing move halfway down the Epsom straight. At Leopardstown, he had briefly gone clear before floundering in heavy going and Harzand wore him down. This time, having again gone on the attack with real gusto, Idaho left the impression that his fuel was sooner used up by a severe test at the longer distance--nonetheless opening up a big gap on the fourth.

O'Briens | Amy Lanigan

Tall and long-striding, he handled the track better than some of us had feared, but the likelihood remains that a breakout performance will come on a more conventional track; certainly on faster going, which his brother Highland Reel (Ire) so adores; and conceivably back at 10 furlongs as well. True, he got going too late at that trip in the G3 Derrinstown Trial, but he did not get the run of a curious race that day and the bottom line is that not one of his rivals at Epsom matched the zest he was showing two out. His free-sweating nature is evidently deceptive, judging from the appetite with which he pitches in. The same is true of his brother, who proved equal to a gruelling international campaign last year. But while Highland Reel banked a couple of extremely lucrative prizes on the way, Idaho has surely earned the right not to be pushed so hard. He has Breeders' Cup written all over him.

Zarak Short Changed...

It tells you everything you need to know about the mysteries of the Turf that the consummate breeder who mastered the Derby challenge for a fifth time--the Aga Khan duly matching the record of his grandfather--also contrived to sell off the winner's dam to Newsells Park Stud at Goffs a couple of years ago.

The one thing you can guarantee is that no such indignity will befall the dam of 'TDN Rising Star' Zarak (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}). The first foal of Zarkava (Ire) (Zamindar) bounced back from defeat in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains last month when weaving through traffic to chase home Almanzor (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) in the G1 Prix du Jockey Club on Sunday. In the process he became the latest in a long line of authentic "Derby" colts to have been given the slip by a miler since the abbreviation of the race distance. Perhaps he could yet emulate his dam in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. Cont. p8

Incidentally, those traditionalists who nowadays prefer to view the G1 Grand Prix de Paris as a more legitimate "French Derby" may also object to the naming of the Chantilly winner, as threatening to efface one of the breed's founding fathers. The original Almanzor was one of the first disseminators of the Darley Arabian blood and raced against their sire's great son, Flying Childers.

Almanzor | Scoop Dyga

Globetrotting for Harlem?...

All in all Sunday was another of those vexing afternoons unique to France, where time after time you saw horses still pulling hard at halfway and several unable to hit their full stride after getting the breaks too late.

Harlem (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}) has been mentioned here in past dispatches and once again gave the impression in the G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly, when third to One Foot In Heaven (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), that he will only show his true colours when finding an environment where they run like they mean it. His sire ended up being exported to Juddmonte's American wing, winning three Group 1 prizes for Bobby Frankel, and maybe a similar destiny is latent in Harlem's name.

Push-Button Champions an Explosive Mix...

And what of those twin paragons of Epsom who promise to measure the Derby colts later in the season?

Albeit the G1 Investec Oaks field lacked true Group 1 depth, you seldom see pattern horses of any kind outclassed as vividly as they were by Minding (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) as she exploded out of that pocket. She requires no forgiveness for her photo-finish defeat by a supergame mudlark, 10 lengths clear of the third, in another Classic just 12 days earlier. That race had been an 11th hour diversion anyway, and a much more taxing experience than anticipated, so for her to do what she did at Epsom shows that she will continue to be measured only by adverse circumstances--rather than other horses--so long as she is kept to the company of her own sex.

Minding & her connections | Amy Lanigan

Postponed (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) likewise matches brilliance with professionalism and it would be something to see him try to give the 3-year-old filly 15 pounds in the G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth S., when both have so few of those foibles that might prevent a great showdown, on paper, coming off on the track. But a more obvious race for Minding, around that time, is the G1 Qatar Nassau S. at Goodwood. If she is to take on the males afterwards, then that intermediate trip might remain ideal--and her owners may yet have to give first refusal to their own colts in many of those races. Be that as it may, and just as you would wish, one of the great weeks of the year has reliably answered many big questions only by posing still more exciting ones.

Postponed | Amy Lanigan

VAN DER DECKEN JOINS GODOLPHIN

Impressive first-time-out Curragh maiden winner Van Der Decken (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}) is set to make his next start in the royal blue silks of Godolphin having been bought privately by Sheikh Mohammed's operation.

With Group 1 entries later in the season for the Keeneland Phoenix S. and Goffs Vincent O'Brien National S., the Cheveley Park Stud-bred juvenile looks likely to appear next in the G2 Coventry S. on the first day of Royal Ascot. He will remain based in Ireland with his trainer and former owner Paddy Twomey, who bought him as a yearling at Tattersalls for 52,000gns. Godolphin's chief executive and racing manager John Ferguson commented, "He is an athletic colt, who has been well-educated, and he is just the type to add depth to our juvenile line-up at the Royal meeting and beyond."

Godolphin also recently bought the David Evans-trained Deningy (GB) (Sepoy {Aus}) after he finished a good second at Ascot to Wesley Ward's Create A Dream (Oasis Dream {GB}) when hampered in running. The colt refused to enter the stalls on his next intended start at Newmarket on May 21.

The 7-year-old Fiero, who had finished ninth behind Maurice in the G1 Longines Hong Kong Mile back in December, was just a nose behind him this time, with another son of Deep Impact, the recent G2 Keio Hai Spring Cup winner Satono Aladdin (Jpn), a further neck back in fourth. The disappointment of the race was second-favourite Real Steal (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}), winner of the G1 Dubai Turf at Meydan in March, who finished 11th of the 12 runners under Yuichi Fukunaga, ahead of John Size's Hong Kong raider Contentment (Aus) (Hussonet), who had been runner-up to Maurice in their most recent outing in the G1 Champions Mile at Sha Tin on May 1.

Logotype, bred at Shadai Farm and racing in the famous back-and-yellow-striped silks of Teruya Yoshida, had been winless since beating Epiphaneia (Jpn) in the G1 Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2,000 Guineas) back in 2013, but has posted some decent performances in defeat over recent seasons. Lightly campaigned so far in 2016 by trainer Tsuyoshi Tanaka, he was beaten just over four lengths when seventh to Duramente (Jpn) (King Kamehameha {Jpn}) in February's G2 Nakayama Kinen--a race won in 2007 by his sire Lohengrin, a Japanese-bred son of the late UK-based Darley sire Singspiel (Ire). Returning to action on Apr. 3, Logotype failed narrowly to secure the G3 Lord Derby Challenge Trophy when going down by just a quarter of a length to Magic Time (Jpn) (Brian's Time {Jpn}).

"We had to wait for a long time to justify Logotype's true form as a Group 1 winner and I am grateful that he had stayed healthy to this day to make it happen," said Tanaka on Sunday. "I had discussed our tactics with Hironobu Tanabe and we both shared the same opinion on giving our best shot in front if the chance was to arise. The race developed to our advantage, and watching him cruise away along the rails--I was kicking the table in excitement. He was already showing good form in his last start in the Lord Derby Challenge Trophy in April, although he was beaten by a horse carrying five kilos less in that start. I decided to pass up a possible start in between that and this race and concentrate on maintaining his fitness and motivation through regular and fast gallops in preparation to the Yasuda Kinen. While I had every confidence in Logotype's strength, he just couldn't manage a win and both I and the stable staff are so delighted that he has finally made it. I would say he is best suited to distances between 1600 and 1800 metres. I have not yet decided on our next move as this victory against such a strong field exceeded our expectations."

Logotype wins the Yasuda Kinen | Horsephotos

Tanabe added, "When I rode him for the first time before the Nakayama Kinen, something was still missing--perhaps because he had just come back from a break--but he was a completely different horse before the Lord Derby Challenge Trophy, which was really impressive. He showed class in this race too--unfazed by the big crowd and taking everything in his stride, and he is easy to position both up front and behind horses. I was conscious of Maurice on my outside but he was taken a real keen hold while the others were also held back behind him. I didn't deliberately drop the pace and could have gone faster, but Logotype settled in that particular pace so I left it at that. I also observed that the inside track wasn't as bad as many people were saying and there were some horses earlier in the day who stretched well in the inside, so I had no hesitation about choosing the inside route. He was overtaken in his last start when he slowed down a bit at the top of the stretch but today, he still had a lot left after the uphill--that's when I felt that we could hold off Maurice for the win."

It is the second time in a fortnight that Singspiel has featured in the pedigree of a major Japanese winner. On May 22, Sinhalite (Jpn), a daughter of Deep Impact out of Singspiel's Grade I-winner Singhalese (GB), won the G1 Yushun Himba (Japanese Oaks). Logotype effectively represents a reverse of that cross, being out of dual seven-furlong winner Stereotype (Jpn), by Deep Impact's sire Sunday Silence (Halo).

MAGIC MILLIONS MARE SALE CONCLUDES

Book 2 of the Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale brought the four days of trade to a close by adding another A$185,250 to the sale's total turnover of A$74,986,250, with 67 horses sold on the day from 87 offered at an average of A$2,765. Leading the way was Lyndhurst Stud Farm's Joyful Moments (Aus) (Viking Ruler {Aus}), an unraced granddaughter of dual Oaks winner Denise's Joy (Aus) (Seventh Hussar {Aus}) who was sold with a Sept. 22 cover to Better Than Ready (Aus). Alexia Fraser signed for the 9-year-old mare at A$21,000.

Another unraced mare, the 4-year-old Moriya (Aus), by Street Cry (Ire) out of a Danzig half-sister to French champion sprinter King Charlemagne (Nureyev) and carrying to Zoffany (Ire), also found favour, selling for A$17,000 from the Emirates Park draft to Gunsynd Lodge.

With an overall top price of A$3.4 million for Listen Here (Aus), the dam of G1 Caulfield Guineas winner Shooting To Win (Aus), the sale's clearance rate for the 764 mares offered was 82%, with an overall average of A$119,786 and median of A$51,750.

The Magic Millions National Sale Series continues Tuesday and Wednesday with the National Yearling Sale, where 459 lots are catalogued, including siblings or close relations to Group 1 winners Good Project (Aus) (Not A Single Doubt {Aus}), Harry's Son (Aus) (Haradasun {Aus}), Mentality (Aus) (Flying Spur {Aus}), Monaco Consul (NZ) (High Chaparral {Ire}), Response (Aus) (Charge Forward {Aus}) and Shamus Award (Aus) (Snitzel {Aus}). Group 1 winner Pear Tart (Aus) (Dehere)'s first foal, a filly by Fastnet Rock (Aus) is catalogued as lot 1555, while the Bell View Park dispersal will offer a Redoute's Choice (Aus) colt who is the third foal out of the G1 New Zealand Thoroughbred Breeders' S. winner Barinka (NZ) (Shinko King {Ire}) (lot 1691). The majority of the yearlings catalogued are eligible to be nominated to the Magic Millions Race Series, and this sale therefore represents the last chance this year for buyers to secure a horse to compete on the Gold Coast's A$10-million raceday each January.
