FROSTED JOINS CLASSIC FRAY

Frosted | Sarah K. Andrew

Godolphin's Frosted (Tapit), a winner of this year's GI Mohegan Sun Metropolitan H. and GI Whitney S., will officially point towards the $6-million GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Santa Anita Park Nov. 5. Connections had been considering bypassing a match-up with 2014 Horse of the Year California Chrome (Lucky Pulpit) and GI Travers S. hero and 'TDN Rising Star' Arrogate (Unbridled's Song) in the Classic and instead starting last year's GI Twinspires.com Wood Memorial winner in the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile. Joel Rosario will have the mount.

"Jimmy Bell spoke to John Ferguson [of Godolphin], who has been in touch with Sheikh Mohammed, and they made the decision to run in the Classic," trainer Kiaran McLaughlin explained from Greentree Training Center near Saratoga Race Course. "I'm pleased that, between everybody, we're all in agreement. What they asked me was, 'In what scenario would you prefer the [Dirt] Mile over the Classic?' And I said 'There is no scenario.'"

Added McLaughlin, "There is only a short run to the first turn in the Mile, and if you draw wide, you are at a severe disadvantage. It is also a speed race, and you can get a lot of traffic. As long as he breaks decently, he will run well."

Frosted was last seen finishing third--beaten only two heads for all the money--behind Shaman Ghost (Ghostzapper) and stablemate Mubtaahij (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in the GI Woodward S. at Saratoga Sept. 3. Cont. p3

MICHEL A SURE TOPPER AT FASIG

by Amanda Duckworth

Although the sale topper will always be different, there are some things about horse auctions that remain consistent. The days are long, and people get hungry. With that in mind, this summer Fasig-Tipton upped its food game by bringing in respected Kentucky chef Ouita Michel to help with The July Sale in Lexington. The positive results mean that Michel and her team will be back at it when it comes time for the October Sale, which begins its three-day run Monday.

"They did a great job, and we look forward to a long relationship with Ouita and her organization at our Kentucky sales," said Boyd Browning, Fasig-Tipton's president and chief executive officer. "It is a first-class operation. We got rave reviews and a lot of positive feedback. I think people recognize her restaurant group as being very high quality, and the overall response was tremendous." Cont. p6

Frosted breezed six furlongs in 1:11 flat over the synthetic at Greentree Training Center Wednesday.

"Frosted's energy levels are high at present," McLaughlin said, adding the 4-year-old would ship to Santa Anita Sunday, before having his last serious workout going a half-mile Oct. 28. "He is a really happy horse, he feels great in himself."

SHAMAN GHOST TARGETS CLASSIC

Stronach Stables' Shaman Ghost (Ghostzapper) tuned up for the Nov. 5 GI Breeders' Cup Classic with a seven-furlong breeze at Belmont Park Thursday for trainer Jimmy Jerkens. The GI Woodward S. winner covered the distance in 1:28.66 under exercise rider Kelvin Pahal.

Shaman Ghost | Adam Mooshian

"He went good," Jerkens said. "It was just what we wanted. He'll work again in California and he'll work pretty sharply once he gets out there."

Shaman Ghost is expected to ship to California Wednesday along with stablemate and fellow Classic contender Effinex (Mineshaft). Most recently second behind Hoppertunity (Any Given Saturday) in the Oct. 8 GI Jockey Club Gold Cup, Effinex is expected to breeze again at Belmont before shipping.

"I'm undecided about that guy, when he's working," Jerkens said of Effinex. "He doesn't need a whole lot, he just ran. Since they're scheduled to leave on Wednesday, we'll probably do something on Sunday or Monday."

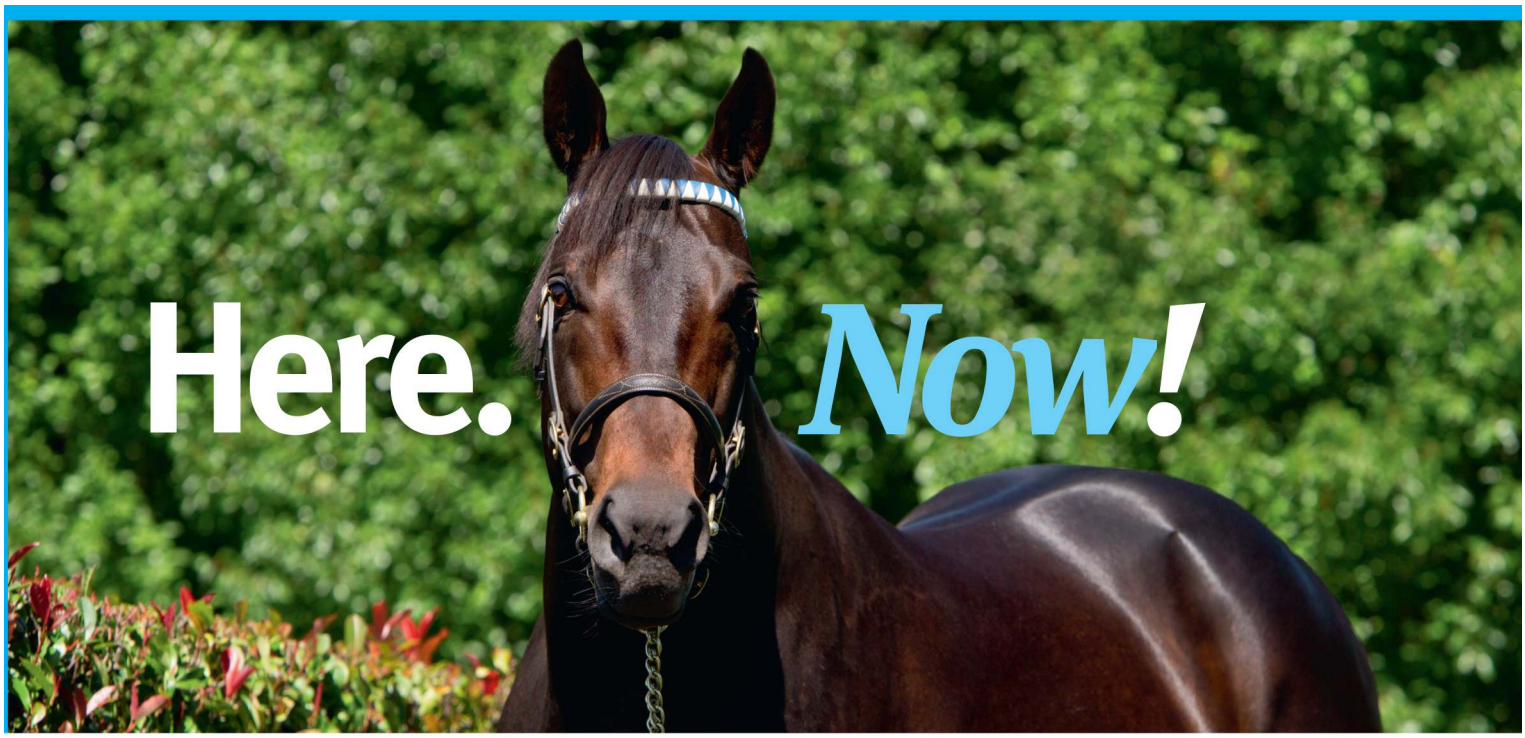
BEHOLDER, SONGBIRD TUNE UP

Champions Beholder (Henny Hughes) and Songbird (Medaglia d'Oro) took to the Santa Anita track about an hour apart Thursday to tune up for their upcoming match-up in the Nov. 4 GI Longines Breeders' Cup Distaff.

Songbird, who brings a perfect 11-for-11 record into the Breeders' Cup, worked six furlongs in a bullet 1:12.80.

"It was a very nice work, smooth and easy with a good gallop-out," trainer Jerry Hollendorfer said. "I'm not sure if she'll have one more breeze before the race. She might have two. She's done very well so far, and so have all the horses going in the Distaff. It's supposed to be a competitive race and it likely will be."



Nine Graded Stakes winners on dirt in 2016 and six G1 winners on dirt since 2013.

Songbird is coming off a 5 3/4-length victory in the Sept. 24 GI Cotillion S.

Three-time Eclipse champion Beholder, working in company, went five furlongs in :59.20.

Beholder | Zoe Metz

"Twenty-three, thirty-four and change, forty-six and one and :59, that's what I got," trainer Richard Mandella said, rattling off the fractional times after the work. "He eased her up a little bit once she got clear. She couldn't look better, period. She'll have one more breeze before the race. This was kind of the serious one."

Beholder had an eight-race win streak snapped when second behind Stellar Wind (Curlin) in the July 30 GI Clement L. Hirsch S. She was second behind California Chrome (Lucky Pulpit) in the Aug. 20 GI Pacific Classic and was again beaten by Stellar Wind when second in the Oct. 1 GI Zenyatta S. last time out.

Stellar Wind, the third Eclipse champion pointing towards this year's Distaff, is scheduled to work Friday morning for trainer John Sadler.

MATT KING COAL NEARING RETURN

Lady Sheila Stable's Matt King Coal (Cool Coal Man), sidelined by a hairline fracture to his pelvis and unraced since finishing fourth in the Apr. 9 GI Twinspires.com Wood Memorial S., turned in his first recorded work since March last Saturday at Belmont Park. The 3-year-old worked four furlongs in :50.21 over the Belmont training track. "His first work was great, he looks terrific," trainer Linda Rice said.

Matt King Coal | A Coglianese

Chester Broman's Modest Maven (Uncle Mo), who topped this year's Fasig-Tipton Midlantic May sale (hip 490) when selling for $1 million, will not make her debut until at least next spring, according to Rice.

"We stopped and decided to give her a couple of months to grow up, and we'll pick her up in the spring," Rice said. "She'll train in Florida for a little bit. She's in New York now, but she'll go down to Ocala to train when she's ready."

Renown, who began his career in Ireland with Dermot Weld and breeder Juddmonte, ended 2015 with back-to-back allowance victories at Great Meadow and returned to that track to run sixth in his seasonal return in the May 7 Secretariat S. The chestnut earned the first stakes win of his career with a nose victory in the 1 1/2-mile Cape Henlopen S. at Delaware Park July 9, and following a late-closing third-place finish in Saratoga's 1 5/8-mile John's Call S., he returned to the winner's circle with a one-length victory in the Sept. 10 Laurel Turf Cup S.

Renown | Coady Photography

Renown was outfooted for the early lead and settled near the back of the field along the rail, tugging jockey Angel Cruz behind moderate fractions of :25.66 and :52.10. Tipped out a path going under the wire the first time, the gelding gradually improved his position while three wide down the backstretch through three-quarters in 1:18.22. He was four wide on the final bend and found another gear in the final furlong to earn a hard-fought victory.

"I had a perfect trip," said Cruz, who was winning his second graded stakes of the Keeneland meet after guiding Dancing Rags (Union Rags) to victory in the GI Darley Alcibiades S. "The horse broke a little slow, and I just left him right there and took position. In the far turn, I had so much horse that I went wide and just circled the field."

Renown is trained by Elizabeth Voss, whose late father, Tommy Voss, won the 2008 Sycamore with Always First (GB). The Vosses are the first father-daughter combination to win the same stakes at Keeneland.

Pedigree Notes:

Out of Fame at Last, Renown is a half-brother to Famous Name (GB) (Dansili {GB}) and Big Break (GB) (Dansili {GB}), both multiple group winners for Juddmonte and Dermot Weld. After making a pair of starts under the Juddmonte colors in 2014, the 5-year-old gelding was purchased for 40,000gns at the 2014 Tattersalls October Sale.

FRENCH SHIPPER LEADS FULL VALLEY VIEW

by Joe Bianca

The big prize for 3-year-old grass fillies at the Keeneland fall meet has come and gone, with Time and Motion (Tapit) winning a three-horse photo in last Saturday's GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup S. There are still plenty of talented and improving sophomore turf lasses on the grounds, however, and 14 of them will line up in Friday's GIII Pin Oak Valley View S.

Morning line favoritism lies with Azaelia (Fr) (Turtle Bowl {Ire}), who graduated from allowance company into stakes waters with aplomb this spring in her native France. Owned by Peter M. Brant and Joseph Allen LLC, the bay conquered an allowance Apr. 10 at Le Bouscat before running second in the G3 Prix Vanteaux May 20 at Chantilly. She then stepped up her game further and flashed big promise when finishing fourth despite traffic trouble at 53-1 behind undefeated La Cressonniere (Le Havre {Ire}) in the G1 Prix de Diane Longines June 19.

15. Sassy Little Lila (Artie Schiller)

(see Graded Stakes Entries)

Shug McGaughey, whose charge On Leave (War Front) finished a disappointing fourth in the QEII, will try to rebound here with My Impression (Sky Mesa). A victress in four of her seven career starts, the Stuart S. Janney III homebred most recently bounced back from a dull sixth-place effort in the GII Lake Placid S. with a dominant score in the GIII Commonwealth Oaks Sept. 24 at Laurel.

Graham Motion holds a strong pair of contenders, led by multiple graded stakes winner Tin Type Gal (Tapit). The My Meadowview homebred, who boasts victories in the GIII Miss Grillo S. and GIII Boiling Springs S., comes in off a third-place finish when trying to close into a slow pace in the GII Sands Point S. Sept. 17 at Belmont. Motion also starts Quidura (GB) Dubawi (Ire), a lightly-raced filly for Gestut Faerhof who scored in her stateside debut Sept. 18 at Belmont with a field-best 92 Beyer. Sassy Little Lila (Artie Schiller) is dangerous if she draws in off the also-eligible list. The Brad Cox trainee crushed a field of maidens in the Saratoga meet finale Sept. 5.

Michel's name is well-known to many in the Bluegrass, thanks to her collection of unique eateries throughout Central Kentucky. In 2001, she opened Holly Hill Inn in Midway, and Wallace Station Deli, Windy Corner Market and Restaurant, Smithtown Seafood, and The Midway Bakery have followed since. She is also the chef-in-residence for Woodford Reserve Distillery.

Although in a fairly remote part of Lexington, Windy Corner is located near Fasig-Tipton, and it is a common stop for many in the Thoroughbred industry. In fact, Michel's landlords for that property are none other than Gainesway's Antony and Angela Beck.

"A lot of the Fasig-Tipton folks were eating out there, and they happened to mention to the manager that we ought to come to Fasig," said Michel. "They were just regular customers and approached us. We were worried about doing it because it is a big stretch. It is a lot of moving parts to move your whole concept, since we essentially open a limited-edition Windy Corner at Fasig, plus run the stable kitchen and the buffet. Once I got through July, I was like, 'Oh my goodness, this thing is an octopus.'

Ouita Michel | GLINT Studios

"It was so fun, though, and our whole staff loved it. It is like being at summer camp in a weird way. The facility is incredible, and they put so much into it that it is an honor and a thrill to be out there. The people of Fasig are really just great to work with."

Michel's crew oversees several types of dining options for hungry patrons at the sales that are snapshots of her restaurants. Windy Corner at Fasig-Tipton is located off of the back walking ring, and it features things like po-boys from the original restaurant as well as sandwiches reminiscent of Wallace Station. The stable kitchen also features "Windy and Wallace" type foods, as well as bakery items one might find at Midway Bakery.

Meanwhile, the large dining room has been rechristened the Seattle Slew Room, and it is a sit-down affair that is closer to the fare at Holly Hill Inn.

"They didn't have a name for that room, and I was like, 'This is a sin, you have to name your main dining room,'" said Michel.

"One of my biggest thrills in July was that they put a sign and a statue of Seattle Slew out front, and his jockey, Jean Cruguet, came," Michel continued. "I have a picture of myself with him in front of the Seattle Slew Room, and I told him, 'It's your lucky day. We have a special today: Triple Crown winners eat free.'"

When Holly Hill Inn opened 15 years ago, Michel and her husband, Chris, moved to Midway, and that is when she says her horse education began as well. Dan Rosenberg was the president of Three Chimneys Farm at the time, and shortly after the restaurant opened, he invited them to dinner, which included a tour of the farm.

Wallace Station opened just down the road from Three Chimneys in 2003, and the popular eatery has been featured on the Food Network's Diners, Drive-Ins and Dives.

"When we first opened Wallace, people told us we were crazy because there was no one out there, and we wouldn't get any business," said Michel. "That is just because the populations that support horse farms are hard to see because of all the green grass. They are dispersed into this beautiful landscape, but they are there. The same thing happened at Windy Corner. I felt like I was out in the middle of nowhere there, but I should have known better because of the Wallace experience. It has just gone gangbusters.

"It is fun because of all aspects of the whole culture come to both restaurants. You have owners and grooms, and everybody is side-by-side in those places eating. It was a thrill and a half when the owners of California Chrome waltzed in after winning the Kentucky Derby, and the whole staff was going bananas and taking pictures."

Although Michel had never participated in a Thoroughbred auction before July, she has ties to the racing community that go beyond just her restaurants. One of her customers went so far as to name a racehorse Wallace Station, and after his rather modest career was over, "Wallace" was used to encourage people to visit nearby Old Friends Farm.

"Over the years, horse racing becomes part of your culture and you become more engaged in it," said Michel. "We have donated carrots to Michael Blowen and Old Friends every single week for the last 10 years or so, so we estimate that is thousands of carrots. As for Wallace, he has been reeducated in dressage and has a whole new career in front of him as a show horse. He is doing really great."

When it comes to edibles for humans, Michel has long prided herself in locally sourcing as many of her ingredients as possible, even before it was in fashion to do so. As a result, what hungry auction-goers will be offered in October will be a bit different than what was on the menu in July.

"They have a lot of fresh products, and it is seasonal in nature, so the menu changes," said Browning. "That is the cool part. They are very conscious of what products they can source and where they can source them at any given time of the year.

"They really do a wide variety of foods, and the thing that is consistent is the quality of their service and the products they produce. They can cover from A-Z, but they maintain really high quality whether it is at A or at Z."

According to both Browning and Michel, that connection to local farmers is one of the added benefits of the new relationship between the two organizations as they build on the partnership.

"Now Fasig-Tipton is tied to thousands of dollars of local agricultural purchases," said Michel. "For example, all the beef, all the pork is local, and there are lots of local vegetables. I think that is nice because the horse industry is our premier agricultural industry in Kentucky, and now when you buy something to eat at Fasig, you are supporting all kinds of other farmers and producers in the community as well. That makes me happy."

Casino Expansion Advocates Fear Future of Horse Racing in NJ

At Winners in Bayonne, Meadowlands Racetrack owner Jeff Gural predicted losing on Nov. 8. "The way I see it, we're going to lose. We should have never lost. We had a lousy campaign," Gural said. Twenty days before the vote, a blunt message from Gural to the Bayonne Chamber of Commerce. Gural says expanding casinos to northern New Jersey and to racetracks would save the state's horse racing industry and its 14,000 jobs. Michael Hill, NJTV News

Before the Hammer is a series presented by Keeneland that will spotlight consignors, their stories of success and their featured offerings at the upcoming Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale.

BLUEWATER BRINGS LEXIE LOU TO KEENOV

by Lucas Marquardt

With a slew of seven-figure sale horses to her credit, Bluewater Farm's Meg Levy has accomplished much as a consignor. One thing she hasn't done, however, is bring a Horse of the Year to auction. That will change in a few weeks when the Bluewater crew leads the millionaire Lexie Lou (Sligo Bay {Ire}) up to the pavilion on Day 1 of the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale, where she's been cataloged as Hip 232. Keeneland November kicks off its 13-day run on Tuesday, Nov. 8.

Meg Levy & Lexie Lou | Lucas Marquardt

"We've been very lucky and have sold some really nice fillies, but I'm particularly excited about Lexie Lou," said Levy. "She's a special horse, and everything she did, from beating the boys in the Queen's Plate to coming in second to California Chrome, has really made her a fan favorite. We've been big fans of her, as well."

Lexie Lou was owned by J.R. Racing Stable Inc. when she won a pair of stakes at Woodbine during her 2-year-old season in 2013, but had been privately purchased by Gary Barber by the time she annexed the Woodbine Oaks and Queen's Plate in successive starts the following year for trainer Mark Casse.

She added the Wonder Where S. and GIII Autumn Miss S., then closed out her sophomore campaign with an excellent second to pro-tem U.S. Horse of the Year California Chrome (Lucky Pulpit) in the GI Hollywood Derby. That effort helped ensure her own selection as Canada's Horse of the Year.

Lexie Lou | Horsephotos

"It was an exceptional performance, and it looks even better now in hindsight, given what California Chrome has gone on to do," said Levy. "And one thing I love about this filly is how durable and sound she's been."

In addition to being named Canada's Horse of the Year in 2014, Lexie Lou was also honored as champion 3-year-old filly and champion grass mare. To date, she's compiled a record of 24-10-4-4 and earnings of over $1.7 million.

That record would undoubtedly have had a few more wins added to it had Lexie Lou not suffered a freak eye injury in her stall that abbreviated her 4-year-old season. But she returned at five this year better than ever, winning the GII Nassau S. and GII Dance Smartly S., both at Woodbine.

"She beat some pretty classy fillies in those races," said Levy. "There were five stakes winners behind her in the Nassau, including the champion filly Strut the Course. And there were eight stakes winners behind her in the Dance Smartly, including three graded winners and a Grade I winner."

In her most recent start, Lexie Lou registered a facile win at 1-5 in the Victoriana S. at Woodbine in July. Lexie Lou, cataloged for the November Sale as a racing or broodmare prospect, has been relaxing at Bluewater's Lexington-based farm for the past month or two.

"It's been fun having her here," said Levy. "We've had people call the farm wondering how she is. People have sent mints, even."

Lexie Lou has earned over $1.7 million. She was produced by a daughter of the Grade II winner Favored One, and is a paternal granddaughter of Sadler's Wells.

"We've had good luck selling fillies from this sire line, and I'm really hoping, and confident, that she'll be internationally appealing," said Levy.

This will be the second consecutive year that the Keeneland November Sale has featured a female Canadian Horse of the Year. Twelve months ago, the 11-year-old Sealy Hill (Point Given) sold for $750,000. Sealy Hill was recently represented by her third graded winner when Gale Force (Giant's Causeway) won the GIII Mazarine S. on debut.

The inclusion of Lexie Lou in Bluewater's November Sale draft is another feather in the cap of Levy, who launched Bluewater back in 1999. Since then, Bluewater has sold well over $150 million in bloodstock as a largely boutique operation.

"We're proud of what we've accomplished, especially given our numbers," said Levy, who noted that, in 2013, Bluewater sold more $800,000-plus mares than any other consignor in the country.

Levy said the key to Bluewater's success is its strong relationships with clients.

"Really, all our success is built on the relationships we have with our clients," she said. "We've had a longtime, close relationship with Eclipse Thoroughbreds, for instance, and that's how we met [Lexie Lou's owner] Gary Barber. And it's these kind of relationships that allow us to focus on these graded stakes fillies coming off the track."

Barber, it should be noted, not only campaigned Canada's 2014 Horse of the Year, but last year's, too: the brilliant Catch a Glimpse (City Zip) carries his hot-pink silks.

Bluewater's 2016 November Sale consignment also features Shannon Faith (Discreet Cat) (Hip 56), a 5-year-old mare from the family of Take Charge Lady, et al., who sells in foal to Pioneerof the Nile; Quality Rocks (Rock Hard Ten) (Hip 556), a graded winner of $304,600 who sells as a racing or broodmare prospect; and Sarasota (Arg) (Luhuk) (Hip 580), dam of the Grade I winner Salutos Amigos (Salute the Sarge) and the Grade II winner Sarah's Secret (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}).

Hip 214, a colt by Ghostzapper out of Holy Blitz, is a full-brother to champion Judy the Beauty | Lucas Marquardt

Top-flight weanlings are always in demand at the November Sale, and Bluewater's Book 1 quartet of colts are by the likes of Uncle Mo (Hip 193), Giant's Causeway (Hip 81), Curlin (Hip 188) and Ghostzapper (Hip 214). The Ghostzapper colt has a pedigree with plenty of family to those around Keeneland--he's a full-sibling to the outstanding sprinter Judy the Beauty, who earned an Eclipse Award after winning the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint in 2014. Judy the Beauty went four-for-six at Keeneland, with her wins including the GI Madison S. during her championship season.

"He's a really beautiful colt," said Levy. "We're excited to have him in the consignment, as well."

MORE LENIENT WHIP RULE FAILS; CHRB DATES CLASH UNRESOLVED

By T.D. Thornton

Two major regulatory items that have each consumed a half-year's worth of California Horse Racing Board (CHRB) resources in terms of commissioners' debate, subcommittee hearings, behind-the-scenes staff research, and an abundance of public and stakeholder commentary finally appeared poised to be settled by voting at the organization's Oct. 20 monthly meeting.

One of those measures--a controversial change that would have allowed for more whipping of horses in the final half a furlong before the finish--was unceremoniously quashed without any verbal discourse in less than one minute of CHRB action.

The other--the establishment of 2017 race dates for the Northern California circuit--took up nearly 2 1/2 hours of sometimes-heated testimony. Yet for the second month in a row, approval of the NoCal slate of race dates again ended up being put off to the next CHRB meeting, even as the start of the 2017 racing calendar looms only 68 days away.

Both issues were affected, at least in part, by the low number of commissioners who were voting at the meeting. Commissioners Madeline Auerbach and Jesse Choper were absent. Commissioner Richard Rosenberg's term recently expired and his replacement has yet to be appointed. California law stipulates that passage of any public measure requires a majority of members that are supposed to be seated on that full regulatory board, so that meant any resolution voted upon at Thursday's CHRB meeting needed 4-0 support to pass.

The voting situation grew even more tenuous when the agenda item about the whipping rule came up. Because he is an active jockey who competes in the state, commissioner Alex Solis recused himself from the issue. This was something Solis had not done back at the May 26 CHRB meeting, when he both advocated for and then cast the deciding 4-3 vote to loosen part of Rule 1688 by allowing jockeys to strike a horse four times in succession (the new proposal) instead of three (the existing rule) in the final sixteenth of a mile before the finish wire.

When the whipping measure first came up for vote May 26, CHRB chairman Chuck Winner and commissioners Auerbach, Rosenberg, and Solis voted in favor of going from three to four strikes. That preliminary passage sent the proposed rule change out for a mandatory public commentary period, which expired on Sept. 26. During that time frame, the CHRB received five written comments on the issue (including one from The Jockey Club), all opposed to the measure.

But on Oct. 20, the CHRB voting landscape was markedly different because the absences, the term expiration, and the recusal left the CHRB without the required four voters to formally pass or defeat the whipping measure.

When Winner brought the agenda item before the board, he received no motion to approve it. He then took a non-binding voice poll to determine where the other two members stood on the issue, and when neither George Krikorian nor Steve Beneto indicated they were in favor of voting for a rule change, Winner said, "commissioner Solis recuses himself and the other board members oppose, so this item fails."

Thus, Rule 1688--considered one of the most comprehensive whipping rules in the nation when the CHRB passed it in July 2015--will remain unchanged. It's still, in layman's parlance, "three strikes and you're out."

Later in the meeting, when the 2017 NoCal race dates vote also resulted in no change to the status quo, the level of frustration was palpably higher within the meeting room.

If you want a summation of what held up a vote on the 2017 NoCal race dates, you need not look for anything new in the meeting dialogue. The sticking points have remained the same for months in this complex, multi-sided issue. Long-term concerns about stabling, overlapping meets, the need to dovetail racing at fair venues with existing agricultural expositions and their vendor contracts, whether schoolchildren might get better exposure to the sport if certain fairs dates are switched, the fate of Arabian and mule racing, whether Golden Gate Fields should have a crack at some summer dates, and whether The Alameda County Fairgrounds (Pleasanton) might be incentivized to add a turf course were all vociferously argued without resolution.

For months, the CHRB's stated position has been for stakeholders to present a unified solution so the board doesn't have to impose one. But the proposed compromise calendar that emerged from a recent race dates subcommittee failed because it did not attain the required four commission votes to pass after Solis voted against it.

"What we will have to do is put this over one more month, and we will now hear it at the meeting in November," Winner said. "And maybe, maybe, just maybe, during that period, the stakeholders can once again give it a shot. We'll probably schedule one more race dates committee meeting between now and then. But in the meantime, I'm begging you, I'm imploring you as stakeholders, to get together. I think everybody agrees this is an impossible situation for this board…. We keep trying to put this puzzle together, and we can't do it."

According to CHRB documentation, over the past several years California brick-and-mortar wagering facilities have witnessed a growing number of their patrons placing wagers through advance deposit wagering (ADW) accounts using mobile devices instead of betting through the wagering terminals at the facilities. Due to alternative statutory takeout distributions and existing contractual arrangements with ADW providers, these ADW wagers result in less money to purses than if the wagers were placed at a terminal or with a pari-mutuel clerk.

Accordingly, stakeholders have requested that the CHRB adopt a regulation requiring ADW providers to identify wagers that are placed by an account holder while they are at a licensed California racetrack or satellite wagering facility. The stakeholders intend to use this information to negotiate for higher commissions and purses.

In support of this idea, the CHRB voted to adopt a rule change requiring ADW entities to implement technology to geo-locate California residents who place mobile wagers at brick-and-mortar facilities. The unanimous passage puts the rule out for a 45-day public comment period. -@thorntontd

KITTEN'S ROAR (f, 4, Kitten's Joy--Bambolina, by War Chant), third in a division of last July's Little Silver S. at Monmouth while under the tutelage of Chad Brown, earned her first win of the season and for this barn last out at Kentucky Downs Sept. 11. Tugging her way up keenly around the first bend before taking over down the backside, the 28-10 shot doled out splits of :49.23 and 1:14.46. Fending off a challenge turning for home, she opened up in the lane to defeat favored Heath (Pulpit) by 3 1/2 lengths. The winner has an unraced 2-year-old half-sister named Baby Zito (Curlin) and a weanling half-brother by Magician (Ire). Her dam most recently visited Lemon Drop Kid. THIRSTFORLIFE (c, 2, Stay Thirsty--Promenade Girl {GSW & GISP, $678,990}, by Carson City) completely blew the break when unveiled in Churchill's Kentucky Juvenile S. May 5, but flew home late to finish third and signal his promise. He got it right back under the Twin Spires a month later, drawing off to a 6 1/2-length success while earning 'TDN Rising Star' status. Third best behind next-out GI Del Mar Futurity hero Klimt (Quality Road) in the GII Best Pal S. out west Aug. 13, he showed speed while rank on the stretch-out in Churchill's GIII Iroquois S. Sept. 17 and ultimately faded to fifth. Given a 28-10 chance against an intriguing bunch of juveniles, the chestnut went right to the front and was pressed by favorite Total Tap (Candy Ride {Arg}) through opening splits of :24.59 and 49.80. He was pushed along into the home bend as the field bunched tightly, cut the corner determinedly with a host of challengers in hot pursuit, and found the line just in time to deny Just Move On (Street Boss) by a neck. Society Beau (Curlin) was buried for much of the stretch and was an unlucky third. Total Tap was fourth, while Tale of Silence (Tale of the Cat)--a full-brother to Tale of Ekati--broke very slowly and made a head-turning middle move before flattening to fifth late. The winner, a $240,000 KEENOV weanling, is a half-brother to recently retired fellow 'Rising Star' Cavorting (Bernardini), MGISW, $2,063,000. His dam produced a colt by The Factor last term, and one by Uncle Mo this season before being bred back to Bernardini. MY SWEET STELLA (f, 2, Eskendereya--Megalicious, by Songandaprayer) was sixth sprinting on the main track at Saratoga Aug. 7, and filled the same slot behind subsequent SW/GSP 'TDN Rising Star' Coasted (Tizway) when stretched out on the turf Aug. 7. The bay went one better behind two more talented 2-year-old turf fillies in next-out GIII Jessamine S. romper La Coronel (Colonel John) and GIII Miss Grillo S. heroine New Money Honey (Medaglia d'Oro) Sept. 5, and stepped forward markedly to finish second over good ground at Churchill Sept. 22. Backed down to favoritism late in the wagering while trying another course with some give in it, the Zayat homebred opened up a clear advantage from the get-go and never looked back in the stretch en route to a 2 3/4-length success. Cont. p3

Quickly emerging with the lead without having to work very hard for it, the bay cruised through a half in :45.56 and was still moving strongly turning for home. Kept to task with some left-handed encouragement, he continued on powerfully to the wire to don cap and gown by 3 1/2 lengths. Seat of Honor (Tapit) rallied from last for second. Florida-based shipper Muzzy on the Move (Ready's Image), who took the bulk of tote action, showed brief interest out wide before fading to last. Off at a nickel above 2-1 as the second choice here, the bay stalked from second as a longshot set a sensible pace of :24.03 and :47.33. Taking over at will past the five-sixteenths pole, Dickinson kicked strongly clear in the lane and came home 2 1/2 lengths to the good of favored Excilly (GB) (Excellent Art {GB}) in a very sharp final clocking. INDUSTRY INFO

NTRA Approves Updates to Safety & Integrity Code:

The National Thoroughbred Racing Association Board of Directors approved amendments to the NTRA Safety & Integrity Alliance Code of Standards, including: a January 2019 deadline for total compliance with the National Uniform Medication Program; annual certification of jockey weight scales and automated logging of weight data; and strengthening of totalizator protocols as recommended by the Thoroughbred Racing & Protective Bureau. The measures were previously approved by the NTRA Safety & Integrity Alliance Advisory Board and will become part of the full Code of Standards as of Jan. 1, 2017.

Last year the NTRA Board approved a Jan. 1, 2018 deadline for Racing Medication and Testing Consortium laboratory accreditation, which remains in effect. The Jan. 1, 2019 deadline requires full compliance with RMTC lab accreditation and three additional "pillars" of the Program--the Schedule of Controlled Therapeutic Substances, third-party administration of Lasix, and the Multiple Medication Violation penalty point system.

Key amendments to the Wagering Incident Prevention Protocols section include guidelines regarding: the sharing of Transaction Audit Files; updated protocols for confirmation of stop betting times; automatic closure of betting when data connections are lost at zero minutes to post; dissemination of win odds cycles a minimum of every 60 seconds from 10 minutes to post to three minutes to post, and then a minimum of every 30 seconds until post time; dissemination of "almost final" win odds within 10 seconds of gates opening; posting of final win odds as soon as available; and authorization of the TRPB to collect transaction data upon notification of any suspected wagering incident.

HARZAND DAM HEADS TATTS CATALOGUE

Hazariya, the dam of dual Derby winner Harzand, will be offered at the Tattersalls December Mare Sale | racingfotos.com

Hazariya (Ire) (Xaar {GB}), the dam of this year's G1 Investec Derby and G1 Irish Derby winner Harzand (Ire) (Sea The Stars (Ire), is among 1,059 lots catalogued for the Tattersalls December Mares Sale Nov. 28 to Dec. 1 at Park Paddocks in Newmarket. The 14-year-old Hazariya, who has also produced Group 3 winner Harasiya (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) and listed winner Hazarafa (Ire) (Daylami {Ire}) as well as the stakes-placed Haziyna (Ire) (Halling), will be offered by Newsells Park Stud in foal to Invincible Spirit (Ire) as lot 1826.

Hazariya is joined by off-the-track Group 1 winners Euro Charline (GB) (Myboycharlie {Ire}) (lot 1848) and Furia Cruzada (Chi) (Newfoundland) (lot 1867), with this year's G3 Premio Regina Elena (Italian 1000 Guineas) winner Conselice (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) also catalogued as lot 1847. Dual Group 1-winning sprinter Quiet Reflection (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) is also catalogued (lot 1868), but connections indicated earlier this week she would be scratched and train on in 2017.

Also catalogued as fillies in/out of training are stakes-winning and Classic-placed 4-year-olds Irish Rookie (Ire) (Azamour {Ire}) (lot 1840), Jack Naylor (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}) (lot 1823) and Nymeria (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}) (lot 1777).

WINX SET FOR COX PLATE DEFENSE

While many in the racing fraternity feel that the result of Saturday's G1 WS Cox Plate (2040m) is a forgone conclusion, the connections of the nine other runners set to contest the A$3-million weight-for-age contest will hope that glamour mare Winx (Aus) (Street Cry {Ire}) has an off day.

Aiming to become the first horse since global traveler So You Think (NZ) (High Chaparral {Ire}) in 2009-2010 and the first mare since the almighty Sunline (NZ) (Desert Sun {GB}) in 1999-2000 to take back-to-back victories in the race, Winx enters the race as the short-price favourite, having won her past 12 starts highlighted by eight wins at Group 1 level.

Interestingly, only two runners from last year's field are lining up this year, with Hartnell (GB) (Authorized {Ire}), who finished the closest to her when beaten over 10 lengths, considered the main danger to the Chris Waller-trained mare.

They are joined by Group 3 winners Czabo (GB) (Sixties Icon {GB}) (lot 1876) and Divine (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) (lot 1875), and Group 3 winner and Group 1-placed Queen Catrine (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}) (lot 1877).

The nine additional Group 1 winners or producers catalogued include Screen Star (Ire) (Toubougg {Ire}) (lot 1837), the dam of G1 Cheveley Park S. winner Lumiere (Ire) (Shamardal); Shermeen (Ire) (Desert Style {Ire}) (lot 1725), who has produced G1 Phoenix S. winner Sudirman (Henrythenavigator); and Posteritas (Lear Fan) (lot 1810), the dam of G1 Prix Jean Prat winner Mutual Trust (GB) (Cacique {Ire}). The latter is among the 58 mares/fillies in the ever-popular Juddmonte draft, which features 24 half-sisters to Group 1 and 2 winners.

Also fielding a large draft is Godolphin, its 76 including Group 1 winners Baila Me (Ger) (Samum {Ger}) (lot 1470), Folk Opera (Ire) (Singspiel {Ire}) (lot 1460), Forty Greeta (Arg) (Roar) (lot 1478), Full Rose (GB) (Aqlaam {GB}) (lot 1551) and Punctilious (GB) (Danehill) (lot 1461), as well as Group 2 winner The Miniver Rose (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}) (lot 1541) in foal to Dubawi (Ire).

“The Tattersalls December Sale has been Europe’s premier dispersal of top-class breeding stock since 1886, and we have a top-class catalogue with which we bring our 250th year to a close,” said Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony. “As ever, mares purchased at the December Sale have produced Group 1 winners in every corner of the world in 2016, and it is the unique diversity of the December Sale which sets it apart from all others and which every year attracts the international buyers in such numbers."

ALL ABOUT STYLE AT ARQANA DAY THREE

By Emma Berry

It was the turn of the colts to shine at Arqana on Thursday, with the third session of the October Sale featuring three six-figure lots.

Leading the way was a first-crop son of Haras de Bouquetot's G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains winner Style Vendome (Fr), whose 10 yearlings to change hands this week to date have returned an average of €36,300. Lot 440, offered by La Motteraye Consignment on behalf of East Bloodstock, set the bar at €135,000 when knocked down to Ghislain Bozo.

"He's a strong precocious-looking colt with good bone. He's for a French client and will be trained by Nicolas Clement," said the Meridian International agent of the son of Tara's Force (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}), a half-brother to treble British winner Exchequer (Ire) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}).

From a larger selection of horses--176 offered compared to 154 in 2015--the 140 to sell on Thursday reaped an aggregate of €3,770,000, which was up by 32%. The median of €20,000 remained static while the average improved by 11.5% to €26,929. The clearance rate was up by three points to 79.5%.

Ghislain Bozo | Scoop Dyga

David Redvers has bought eight yearlings at the October Sale so far but was absent for the purchase of the following lot (441), a Wootton Bassett (GB) half-brother to Marseille listed winner Art Of Raw (Fr) (Myboycharlie {Ire}), the leading member of a select three-strong draft from Benoit Duboc of Haras d'Auge in his first year of consigning. Bought for €120,000, the colt brought his sire's average to €46,200 for five sold from a 2014 fee of €4,000. The rush of activity continued through to lot 457, when the Team Hogdala-bred son of Holy Roman Emperor (Ire) sold for €115,000 to Marco Bozzi, acting on behalf of Thomas Whitehead of Powerstown Stud. His dam Watchful (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) has produced a dual winner in Russia, Veduchi (Ire) (Henrythenavigator), and it may not be long before the great grandson of G1 Prix Vermeille winner Sharaya (Youth) returns to the sales ring.

Marco Bozzi | Scoop Dyga

"We saw him together yesterday and for us he was the pick of the day. He'll probably be coming back here to the breeze-up sale," offered Bozzi, who works regularly in partnership with the pinhooker.

Coulonces Consignment had another good day and was responsible not only for the Holy Roman Emperor colt, but also a son of Air Chief Marshal (Ire) (lot 506) which brought a bid of €90,000 from Sylvain Vidal. A half-brother to two multiple winners, his dam Carmelixia ((Ire) (Linamix {Fr}) is a half-sister to the dam of treble Group 3 winner Success Days (Ire) (Jeremy). Coulonces ended the day as leading vendor of the third session with 13 yearlings sold for €529,000 at an average of €40,692.

Chantilly trainer John Hammond lent his support to another first-season sire, the G1 Darley Prix Morny winner Dabirsim (Fr), who started his stud career at Gestut Karlshof but now stands in Normandy at Haras de Grandcamp. It took €72,000 to secure lot 483, the son of the G3 La Coupe winner Aubonne (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) whose first foal in the listed-placed Soresca (Ire) (Elusive City {Ire}). The late April colt was consigned by Julie Mestrallet of Haras de l'Aumonerie and is one of 12 Dabirsim yearlings sold this week for an average price of €40,167.

Xavier Thomas-Demeaulte sprung to international recognition when taking juvenile Spain Burg (Fr) (Sageburg {Ire}) to Newmarket's Rowley Mile to beat Fair Eva (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in the G2 Shadwell Rockfel S. and subsequently selling her at Arqana's Arc Sale for €1.5-million. The trainer returned to buy another daughter of Sageburg, going to €65,000 for the most expensive filly of the session. That was lot 406, offered by Lady O'Reilly's Haras de la Louviere, a first foal of the Invincible Spirit (Ire) mare Scarlet Sonnet (Ire) from the family of G2 Ribblesdale S. winner Sahara Slew (Seattle Slew).

The final 84 yearlings catalogued for the October Sale will be sold Fridday from 11 a.m local time.

SHALAA RETIRES TO BOUQUETOT

Dual Group 1-winning juvenile Shalaa (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}--Ghurra, by War Chant) retires to Haras de Bouquetot in France for 2017, Al Shaqab Racing announced on Twitter on Thursday. A 100,000gns foal turned 170,000gns yearling, Shalaa was trained by John Gosden and carried the Al Shaqab silks to victories in the 2015 G1 Prix Morny and G1 Middle Park S., as well as the G2 July S. and G2 Richmond S. in a juvenile campaign where he lost just once in six outings. Injury kept Shalaa off the track much of this year, but he returned with a win in the G3 Bengough S. at Ascot Oct. 1 before finishing 10th in the G1 British Champions Sprint two weeks later.

RAWNAQ EYES TRANSATLANTIC BONUS

Irvin S. Naylor's Rawnaq (Ire) {Azamour {Ire}) has won his three starts over fences this year, banked $360,000, and is a virtual shoo-in for this year's Eclipse Award as champion steeplechase horse.

Two of his wins have been in the year's richest and toughest races, the GI $200,000 Calvin Houghland Iroquois in Nashville last May and last Saturday's GI $350,000 Grand National at the Far Hills Races in New Jersey.

Rawnaq during the Far Hills Grand National | Sarah Andrew

He is all but assured the National Steeplechase Association earnings title with an advantage of more than $140,000 over his closest competitor, Grand National second finisher Scorpiancer (Ire) {Scorpion {Ire}).

Under other circumstances, the 2015 import might be entitled to a turnout at Naylor's Maryland farm. But the 9-year-old has more work ahead.

The ultimate goal lies across the Atlantic Ocean at storied Cheltenham Race Course on Mar. 16 for the G1 Ryanair World Hurdle. Brown Advisory, with offices in both the U.S. and UK, has offered a $500,000 bonus to any horse that can win the World Hurdle and Iroquois, both three-mile races, in the same 12-month period.

Immediately after Rawnaq's hard-fought victory in the Iroquois, Naylor accepted the Brown Advisory Cheltenham-Iroquois Challenge.

Shortly after Rawnaq's three-quarter-length victory in the Grand National, trainer Cyril Murphy indicated that he and Naylor were considering two starts before the World Hurdle, and the first will be the GI $150,000 Marion duPont Scott Colonial Cup in Camden, S.C., on Nov. 19.

Rawnaq, who was third to stable mate Dawalan (Fr) {Azamour {Ire}) in last year's Grand National, finished second to the eventual Eclipse Award winner in the Colonial Cup, which is run on the final day of the American jumps season. Murphy said he was uncertain when or where Rawnaq's start after the Colonial Cup will be, but it will not be in a U.S. jump race. The American season begins late in March.

Ruby Walsh & Irvin Naylor | Sarah Andrew

Also heading to the Colonial Cup is Robert Aplin's Sharp Rise {Croco Rouge {Ire}). Trained by Charlie Longsdon, Sharp Rise finished third in the Grand National.

The presence of Sharp Rise and a second invader, Days of Heaven (Fr) {Saint des Saints {Fr}), in the Grand National field and legendary Irish jump jockey Ruby Walsh aboard Rawnaq garnered international attention for the race and the race meet. Walsh, the 10-time Irish champion jump jockey, said in an interview that he was impressed by the scene at Far Hills and believed the idea of opening the infield of summer race courses for picnics and family outings might be worth considering. He took over the mount on Rawnaq after regular jockey Jack Doyle was injured in a Belmont Park fall in September. Doyle attended the Far Hills meet and shared warm words with Walsh after Rawnaq's victory.

UAE KING (GB) (Frankel {GB}), a debutante for Sheikh Mohammed Obaid Al Maktoum and Roger Varian, wins the award for most excitingly-bred runner of the day as a son of Juddmonte's ceaselessly brilliant flagship performer out of the G1 Oaks d'Italia and GII E.P. Taylor S. heroine Zomaradah (GB) (Deploy {GB}). That makes him a half-brother to Dubawi (Ire), winner of the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas, G1 Prix Jacques le Marois and G1 National S. and now an outstanding sire of world renown. Interestingly, he is the sire of Godolphin's fellow newcomer Sea Skimmer (GB), a Saeed bin Suroor-trained full-brother to the G1SW Hunter's Light (Ire), with another unraced colt taking the eye in Qatar Racing's Deep Music (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}), a David Simcock-trained full-brother to the G1 Shuka Sho winner Mikki Queen (Jpn).

MOSTAHEL (GB) (Acclamation {GB}) is a 220,000gns TATOCT purchase for Al Shaqab Racing who is a full-brother to the dual G1 King's Stand S. winner and established sire Equiano (Fr). Richard Hannon introduces the bay against 15 rivals.

COMMANDER (GB) (Frankel {GB}) starts out for the China Horse Club and Roger Varian and is a 670,000gns TATOCT half-brother to the G1 Haydock Sprint Cup and G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest hero Regal Parade (GB) (Pivotal {GB}). He encounters Sheikh Mohammed Obaid Al Maktoum's similarly unraced Eagle Creek (GB) (Raven's Pass), a Simon Crisford-trained 200,000gns TATOCT half-brother to this year's Listed Dee S. winner Viren's Army (Ire) (Twirling Candy).

3.0 Doncaster, Mdn, £7,000, 2yo, 7fT
VALCARTIER (IRE) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}) begins his career in the maiden picked by his trainer John Gosden 12 months ago for the successful introduction of the subsequent G3 Rose of Lancaster S. winner Royal Artillery (War Front). Godolphin's €950,000 ARQAUG purchase is a son of the G1 Prix Saint-Alary heroine Vadawina (Ire) (Unfuwain) who has already passed on much of her natural ability to her pattern-race performers Vadamar (Fr) (Dalakhani {Ire}), Vedevani (Fr) (Dubawi {Ire}) and Vedouma (Fr) (Dalakhani {Ire}). Just as illustriously-bred is the Juddmonte newcomer Mirage Dancer (GB) (Frankel {GB}), a Sir Michael Stoute-trained son of the dual grade I winner Heat Haze (GB) (Green Desert) whose 3-year-old son Forge (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) was third in the G3 Jersey S. and runner-up in the G3 Thoroughbred S. for the stable this summer.

BETWAY BECOMES AN ABP

Betway has become an Authorised Betting Partner after signing a three-year deal with British racing, which will see them make voluntary payments to help fund racing and in turn receive the benefits of being an ABP.

Betway currently sponsors the Betway Queen Mother Champion Chase at Cheltenham and the Betway Chester Cup, among other races.

British Horseracing Authority Chief Executive Nick Rust said, "We are grateful to them for joining the growing number of leading remote operators who recognise the importance and mutual benefit that a partnership approach between racing and betting can bring to the sport."

The bay was slow from the gate once more here, but raced in touch under a taut rein at the back of the pack. Winx Set For Cox Plate Defense cont. from p1

A significantly different horse to 12 months ago, Godolphin's Hartnell comes into the race off the back of three stunning race victories, by a combined margin of over 16 lengths, although the last time he and Winx clashed, it was over 1400 metres in the G2 Warwick S. where Winx was her dominant best, leaving a 3 1/2-length gap between the pair.

Hartnell's last-start win in the G1 Turnbull S. at Flemington was poetry in motion as jockey James McDonald highlighted the 6-year-old's class with a three-plus length victory over last week's three-length G1 Caulfield Cup winner Jameka (Aus) (Myboycharlie {Ire}).

Winx training this week towards the Cox Plate | Bronwen Healy

While Winx and Hartnell are the only two runners in single digits in the odds, Winx's trainer Chris Waller told Racing.com the Cox Plate is not a two-horse race.

"Obviously there's some very good horses in the race, and I wouldn't limit it to one or two," Waller said. "I think the whole field deserves respect--that's what makes the Cox Plate so great. Rarely is it a race in one or two or three--it's a race full of surprises, and full-on pressure, like any grand final should be."

If there is to be an upset in the race outside of the top two selections, last start Group 1-winning 3-year-old filly Yankee Rose (Aus) (All American {Aus}) could be a possibility. Always indicating that the distance of the Cox Plate would be right up her alley, the dual Group 1 winner gets into the race with only 104.5 pounds, 21 pounds fewer than her nearest rivals.

The interesting runner of the race is the Andre Fabre-trained international Vadamos (Fr) (Monsun {Ger}), who will be having his first Australian start on Saturday. Impressing many with his recent work on the Moonee Valley circuit, the last-start Group 1 winner was to be ridden by Joao Moreira, before the Hong Kong Jockey Club decided against permitting the champion jockey to travel due to Typhoon Haima, leaving part-owner John Camilleri, ironically the breeder of superstar Winx, scrambling to find a replacement jockey.

While the outsider of the 10 horse field, the fairytale result would be Happy Trails (Aus) (Good Journey), with the 9-year-old lining up for his fifth consecutive run in the race. Fifth last time out behind Hartnell at Group 1 level, Happy Trails's best result in the Cox Plate was a narrow second to 3-year-old Shamus Award (Aus) (Snitzel {Aus}) in 2013 and a fast-finishing sixth to Adelaide (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), beaten three-parts of a length, in 2014.

AGE VERSUS YOUTH IN MANIKATO

Multiple Group 1 winners and hardened war-horses Buffering (Aus) (Mossman {Aus}) and Chautauqua (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}), both previous winners of the G1 Manikato S., will be aiming to hold the G1 Golden Slipper winner and 2-year-old champion Capitalist (Aus) (Written Tycoon {Aus}) at bay on Friday night in the A$1-million G1 Manikato S. (1200m) on Cox Plate eve at Moonee Valley.

While none of the trio has proved successful as yet this campaign, their ability have them as three of the top four in the betting, with the other, the 4-year-old mare English (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}), aiming to give co-trainers Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott their second elite level success in Melbourne after the G1 Thousand Guineas win of Global Glamour (Aus) (Star Witness {Aus}).

Capitalist | Bronwen Healy

Beaten into fourth place behind exciting dual Group 1-winning colt Extreme Choice (Aus) (Not A Single Doubt {Aus}) in the G1 Moir S. first-up this time in, Chautauqua probably found the 1000 metres a little too short that night, rattling home from the tail to finish just over three lengths off the winner.

Never missing a place second-up, the 6-year-old was all class in the Manikato 12 months back, defeating Srikandi (Aus) (Dubawi {Ire}) by two lengths with Rebel Dane (Aus) (California Dane {Aus}), who he will meet again here, a nose back in third.

Fifth behind Extreme Choice in the Moir S. after working extremely hard throughout the race, Buffering does have a very good record at the track and distance with three wins, and will be lining up for sixth consecutive start in the race, having recorded victory over Lucky Nine (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in 2013 as his best result.

Although taking on some of Australia's best sprinters, Peter and Paul Snowden's 'TDN Rising Star' Capitalist was the class 2-year-old of his year, and while he has yet to taste victory at three, the valuable colt looks to be an outstanding chance on the limit weight, with the in-form Kerrin McEvoy in the saddle.

A Group 1 winner over 1400 metres, talented mare English has finished fifth and fourth, respectively, at her two runs back this time in, on both occasions to Takedown (Aus) (Stratum {Aus}), with that winner finishing second last time out behind the super Impressive Star Turn (Aus) (Star Witness {Aus}), who himself would not look out of place in the Manikato field.

If Godolphin's 4-year-old Holler (Aus) (Commands (Aus) has come through his disappointing effort at Royal Ascot in June, where he was down the track in the G1 Diamond Jubilee, the James McDonald-ridden Group 1 winner could prove hard to catch, as he has plenty of tactical speed and is a Group 2 winner over the course and distance in the past.

SUNDAY RETURN FOR LANI

By Kelsey Riley

Koji Maeda's globetrotting Lani (Tapit), winner of the G2 UAE Derby in March prior to a U.S. Classic campaign that saw him run in all three American Triple Crown races, will make his first start since a third-place finish in the GI Belmont S. June 11 when he lines up for the 2100-metre Brazil Cup H. on the dirt in Tokyo on Sunday. The lone 3-year-old in the field of 16, Lani will carry 121 pounds. Cont. p9

Lani spent the summer recuperating from his travels at Maeda's Daisen Hills training centre, and Hiroshi Fukada, director and general manager of Maeda's North Hills Farm, said the grey is ready for the second half of his campaign.

"He is more mature, has more muscle and is very active and fresh, and he needs the race now," Fukada noted. "I think he is fit enough for his first race in this autumn campaign."

Fukada said Lani will have one more prep race before the G1 Champions Cup Dec. 4.

Lani gained a legion of fans in the U.S., as much for his spirited personality as his racing ability, during his five-week stretch in America, where he finished ninth in the GI Kentucky Derby, fifth in the GI Preakness S. and third in the Belmont. Maeda told the TDN in July that he plans to aim Lani at next year's G1 Dubai World Cup and GI Breeders' Cup Classic (click here for more).
