HOGAN, A PIONEER FOR WOMEN IN EQUINE SURGERY

Patty Hogan & Championofthenile | Christie DeBernadis

By Christie DeBernadis

At the start of her career, Dr. Patty Hogan, who is now one of the leading equine orthopedic surgeons in the country, was often confused for a nurse or secretary. Some clients who knew her as Pat Hogan even assumed that she was a male vet until they came to pick up their horse because a female orthopedic surgeon was basically unheard of in the racing industry in the early 2000s.

"I can remember this funny situation. Dr. Jim Hunt from Belmont was one of the first veterinarians to start sending me some cases," Hogan recalled while sitting in her office at her New Jersey-based clinic, Hogan Equine. "He sent me a condylar fracture that was one of Todd Pletcher's, so I called Jim to tell him how it went. I tell him and he goes, 'Okay, thanks for telling me, but can I talk to Dr. Hogan now?' He thought I was just the secretary calling. It was just unheard of that women were in orthopedics and doing racetrack practice, so it took a while for people to accept that."

Pletcher, now a seven-time Eclipse winner, is one of Hogan's longest-standing clients. She also has done work for Jimmy Jerkens, Rick Violette, Linda Rice and Mike Hushion, as well as many top trainers and owners in the harness racing industry.

ARROGATE POSSIBLY GEARING UP FOR PEGASUS

By Bill Finley

Though the connections of Arrogate (Unbridled's Song) have yet to commit to running their star 3-year-old in the GI Pegasus World Cup, they are making moves that indicate the $12 million race is very much on their mind.

Arrogate is scheduled to work three furlongs Thursday morning at Santa Anita, which will be his first work since he won the GI Breeders' Cup Classic Nov. 5. Having a work this close to the Breeders' Cup would be out of the ordinary for a horse that is not preparing for a start within a fairly short period of time. Cont. p7

“The first 10 years, there were some people that were so consistent,” Hogan remarked. “Todd is great. He always sends me very, very difficult cases. I kid him about it like, ‘Can’t you just send me an ankle chip.’ But, we have done well together. Jim Jerkens was one of my first clients. I operated on his first horse that he won with, named Ninth Inning. People like that I really appreciate and still work for today. It means a lot to me to have those relationships.”

Creating and building those relationships did not come easy for Hogan, however. The lifelong New Jersey resident had her work cut out for her when she started her journey into veterinary medicine and broke down a lot of barriers to get where she is today.

“It took me a while to figure out not that I wanted to be a vet, but that I could do it,” the University of Delaware alumna said. “It was so competitive and I was so average with my grades. I learned best by doing. I didn’t get in the first year I applied to vet school and I was crushed. I decided I’ll go out there and see if I could get a job.”

Hogan literally did just that, marching into the University of Pennsylvania Vet School’s New Bolton Center where she took a job cleaning stalls and the rest, as they say, is history.

“I walked in there and they thought I was somebody else showing up for a stall cleaning job, so I played along,” Hogan recalled. “I said, ‘I really want to get into vet school, but I’ll clean stalls!’ I stuck with it all summer and even drove the forklift at night. It just got me in the door and got me to meet people.”

Just three months into that job, Hogan met a person who would change her life, Dr. Tom Divers. Divers gave the eager horse lover a job as a technician working on a project for bovine leukemia virus. That job, and a residency change to Pennsylvania, got Hogan into Penn the following year.

Upon completing her degree at Penn, Hogan did a surgery residency at Texas A&M, where she got a big reality check.

“They were basically forced to take me because I was a woman and they had gotten a little bit of heat from their superiors because all their residents were men, so that was one thing against me,” Hogan remarked. “Also, I was from the East Coast and the first day I walked in there they said, ‘So, you’re the Yankee.’ It just went from there.” Cont. p4

Though the residency was tough in many ways, it helped shape Hogan into the vet she is today and prepare her for the challenges she would later face on the job.

“I really learned a tremendous amount about surgery and how to be innovative, but, frankly, it also made me tough to know how to handle the racetrack environment,” Hogan explained. “Let’s face it, when I started there were no women doing racetrack surgery at all. There are still very, very few. There was a lot of discrimination in Texas, which was just kind of natural, but it was an eye opener for me being from the East Coast, which is so open. But, when I came back to be a racetrack surgeon I was tougher about it when people said, ‘I’m not sending my horse to a woman,’ which did happen many times.”

Hogan returned home to the Garden State to begin her career working for Dr. Scott Palmer at the New Jersey Equine Clinic. With the help of Hunt, who referred Pletcher her way, Hogan slowly, but steadily began to build up a reputation and client base.

However in 2004, about seven years after joining Palmer’s clinic, a then unknown 2-year-old Thoroughbred, who came in for an emergency eye removal after a starting gate accident, would take Hogan’s career to a new level. That rambunctious colt, who was still unraced at the time, was GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness S. winner Smarty Jones (Elusive Quality).

“He was trying to get his gate card and had reared up and smashed his head in the gate,” Hogan recalled of the horse she jokingly referred to as Quasimodo during his recovery. “They called me up the next day and said they were bringing me an emergency eye removal that looked terrible. I go to greet the van and I hear this clip clop, clip clop. He came trotting in and his head was massive. It sure looked like he needed his eye removed, but I did my own

X-rays and ultra sound, which showed that deep inside the eyeball was still intact and had not ruptured. The swelling was all the tissue around his eye and he had several sinus fractures.”

Not only did Hogan not remove the eye, she did not perform surgery at all. The Cream Ridge resident treated the chestnut with steroid injections, kept his face wrapped and checked on him diligently. He made a full recovery and his eyesight was completely unaffected. Cont. p5

“I can remember every hair on that horse’s body because he was so memorable. He had the greatest tough guy personality,” Hogan recounted with a fond smile. “A few weeks after he left, [trainer] John Servis contacted me and said, ‘You know that horse that you fixed the eye on? He’s pretty good.’ He started to interviews, ESPN, The New York Times, everybody came.”

Hogan’s client list began to grow and grow and in 2007, after spending a year helping to plan, build and launch the Ruffian Clinic in New York, she started her own clinic at New Jersey’s Fair Winds Farm, a Standardbred breeding operation across the street from her house. Hogan’s practice is about 50% Thoroughbreds and 50% Standardbreds, which gives her the opportunity to see just about every type of orthopedic injury.

win and win, and I remember John called me one day and said, ‘I just wanted to tell you I am about to change your life.’ Sure enough, he did. We had so many people come to do “Fair Winds is a client I had for all of my career and they just had space not being used, so it was great,” said Hogan, who grew up working in the harness racing industry and is married to Standardbred trainer Eddie Lohmeyer. “This was their old stud barn. We converted it and we have about 55 stalls and the paddocks. It’s good for them too because they have horses filling their stalls that they normally wouldn’t have.”

With 17 racetracks, both Standardbred and Thoroughbred, within a two-hour drive of the clinic, Hogan’s clients come from all over the Midlantic area and all walks of racetrack life, from claimers to champions. In addition to champion Smarty Jones, she has worked on Eclipse winner La Verdad (Yes It’s True); GISW Take Charge Indy (A.P. Indy); MGISWs Palace (City Zip) and Sweet Reason (Street Sense); Hambletonian winner Trixton; and top Standardbred Always B Miki, who recently shattered the world record for fastest mile ever by a pacer. Cont. p6

“There is nothing more gratifying than having a horse come in the door that is stressed and in a lot of pain, fixing whatever the problem is and watching them walk out happy and using the leg,” Hogan remarked. “That’s the best part about surgery. It’s almost instant.”

Hogan & Always B Miki

Hogan’s care doesn’t just stop when the horse leaves her clinic. She continues to follow each of her patients throughout their careers.

“I keep track of all of them. I put the names in the DRF database so I get an alert if they are working, and if they are not working well I call and ask if there is a problem,” Hogan explained. “I called last week on a $5,000 claimer that had a really hard slab fracture. The horse won and the trainer was ecstatic.

That’s one thing I love about my job. I’m not just here to do the surgery part. I like the whole package, the relationships with the clients and to see how the horse is doing.”

Hogan is also deeply involved with aftercare, offering free surgeries to several Thoroughbred and Standardbred organizations dedicated to giving horses a life after racing.

“Surgery averages around $3,000, which is a big chunk of money for a group raising $5 here and $10 there, so I made a decision that I was going to do the surgeries for free,” Hogan commented. “It was nothing to do with the organizations themselves, it was just kind of a pact I had with the horse because my whole life I had this wonderful career based on horses and it was a way to give them a chance.”

Arrogate’s presence in the starting gate Jan. 28 at Gulfstream would likely mean a much-anticipated rematch with California Chrome (Lucky Pulpit), the second-place finisher in the Breeders’ Cup Classic and the front-runner for the 2016 Horse of the Year title.

Garrett O’Rourke, who manages Prince Khalid Abdullah’s Juddmonte U.S. operation, told the TDN that a Pegasus decision remains on hold, but his comments concerning whether or not Arrogate will start were encouraging.

“We think the right thing to do is to see where we are going through December and, by time we get through December, if it’s all systems are go I think we’ll be ready to make a concrete decision then,” O’Rourke said. “The horse will dictate what direction we go in. All things being equal we’d like to be there. We’ve run this by Prince Khalid and he hasn’t expressed any desire not to go. He is a sportsman. But we’re not going to make the final decision until we are sure that we have a horse that is fit and ready for his best race. It is a horsemanship approach because we saw what an amazing effort it took from our horse to beat California Chrome in the Breeders’ Cup. We know if we go back a furlong on a speed favoring track, it’s going to take the same effort and Bob is going to have to tell us the horse is ready to do that.”

O’Rourke continued, “The Pegasus World Cup is a tremendous idea and we don’t want to dissuade anyone from coming up with a fantastic idea like the Stronach group has. All things being equal, we’d like to aim for the Pegasus. If we go, whether we go there with or without a prep will be up to Bob Baffert. The plan has basically been to start back on similar program he had with Arrogate going up to the Breeders’ Cup when he had a similar two-month break between races, the [Aug. 27 GI] Travers [S.] and the Classic.”

O’Rourke said that he has been contacted by people who own a starting spot in the race, which Juddmonte does not. However, he is not ready to begin any serious negotiations with anyone until a firm decision has been made to start. Cont. p8

“I have had people approach me, but until the horse is ready for us to make a decision, we won’t make anyone any promises or go into too many details with anyone,” he said. “I have had discussions with some people saying they would like to do business with us. A lot of this is going to have to be presented to Prince Khalid at the time, but we’re not going to get to that stage until the horse sends us the signals we will be looking for.”

O’Rourke added that no decision has been made either on whether or not Arrogate will run in the G1 Dubai World Cup Mar. 25.

Getting a California Chrome-Arrogate rematch would be a home run for the Stronach Group and Gulfstream, but it would put those looking to sell or lease their starting spots in a precarious position. If the “big two” run, the third choice in the race could be in the 10-1 or 12-1 neighborhood. The starting spots originally sold for $1 million, exactly what the third-place finisher receives, making third the “break even” point. To pay $1 million to run against California Chrome and Arrogate with any horse is something many owners may not want to do.

TDN Podcast with Mark Casse - Always a top trainer, Mark Casse has emerged as one of the major forces in racing this year. He has continued to dominate Canadian racing, he took Tepin over to Royal Ascot to win the G1 Queen Anne S. and he won the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile with Classic Empire, next year's Derby favorite. All the while, he's done so while dealing with the loss of his father, Norman, who died earlier this year. ## PROTONICO RETIRED TO TAYLOR MADE

Sumaya U.S. Stable's MGSW Protonico (Giant's Causeway--Alpha Spirit, by A.P. Indy) has been retired and will stand stud at Taylor Made Stallions in Nicholasville, Kentucky for 2017. The 5-year-old will command a fee of $6,500 stands and nurses, and Taylor Made is offering lifetime breeding rights for breeders that have two live foals and pay the stud fees.

"We are very excited to have Protonico join our expanding stallion roster for 2017," said Ben Taylor, Vice President of Taylor Made Stallions. "He was very unfortunate not to win a Grade I, but he ran a 107 Beyer and defeated 22 graded stakes winners, including Grade I winners Honor Code (A.P. Indy) and Constitution (Tapit). Besides being a tremendous value for breeders, Mr. Aboughazale is committed to supporting him heavily and wants to reward breeders who join him with the opportunity to earn a lifetime breeding right in Protonico."

Breeders interested in a lifetime breeding right in Protonico can elect to breed two mares in 2017, or one mare each in 2017 and 2018. Protonico will also participate in Taylor Made Stallions' multiple-mare program in 2017, with significant discounts offered to breeders who breed more than one mare during the upcoming breeding season.

The first of Protonico's four graded victories came in the 2014 GIII Smarty Jones S. and he captured his next graded event just two starts later in that year's GIII Discovery H. Runner-up to Hoppertunity (Any Given Saturday) in that year's GI Clark H., the bay scored back-to-back wins in the 2015 GIII Ben Ali S. and GII Alysheba S. Closing out his career with a third to Hoppertunity in the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup Oct. 8, the Todd Pletcher pupil retires with a record of 16-7-1-2 and earnings of $997,587.

"Protonico was a serious racehorse who showed Grade I talent at every stage of his career," said Pletcher. "He beat some top-level horses in several graded races at major tracks like Churchill, Keeneland and Aqueduct. I believe Protonico was very unlucky not to win a Grade I, but he was one of the most versatile and better-looking horses we had in the barn."

Protonico is the first foal out of Alpha Spirit, who is a daughter of Chilean Horse of the Year Wild Spirit (Chi) (Hussonet). She is responsible for the unraced juvenile filly California Spirit (Tale of the Cat), a yearling colt named Regal Look (Tiznow) and a weanling colt by Quality Road.

1st-AQU, $55,000, (S), Msw, 11-30, 2yo, 1m, 1:39.06, my.
CARRADINE (c, 2, Grasshopper--Summer Moon, by Maria's Mon) nearly overcame a troubled beginning to finish second, beaten a nose, on debut in a state-bred $40,000 tagger going six furlongs at Belmont Sept. 29 and recently ran fourth in an off-the-turf special weight event over that same trip and track Oct. 23. The second and third-place finishers from that race returned to graduate from the maiden ranks in their next starts, and Carradine was given a 5-2 chance to do the same here. Away to a sharp start, the bay set a pressured pace along the inside through a half-mile in :47.72 and avoided serious trouble when pace-pressing Horoscope (Astrology) stumbled and unseated jockey Manny Franco approaching the far turn. Cornering for home with a clear advantage, he was geared down late and crossed the wire 4 1/4 lengths in front of Can You Diggitt (Tiznow). The winner's dam is also responsible for a weanling colt by Big Brown. She visited Shanghai Bobby earlier this year. Sales History: $39,000 RNA Ylg '15 EASOCT. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, $44,200. MORE THAN KISSES (f, 3, More Than Ready-- Morekissesforpatti, by Unbridled's Song) began her career in the Todd Pletcher barn and completed the exacta in a seven-panel maiden dash over the Belmont turf in her second career start in June. A non-factor eighth going 1 1/16 miles over the Saratoga turf July 24, she added blinkers and closed out her summer campaign with a tiring sixth-place effort behind Ultimate Cause (Giant's Causeway) at Monmouth Aug. 21.

Transferred to this new barn following that effort, the dark bay posted a steady series of works at Bridlewood Farm over the last month and was tabbed the 6-5 favorite. Away in good order, she skimmed the rail around the first turn and settled into a cozy spot tracking the pace behind a half-mile in :49.60. More Than Kisses moved up willingly on the far turn, angled out to split horses in upper stretch and dug in determinedly to fend off Grand Folly (Street Cry {Ire}) by 3/4 of a length.

Morekissesforpatti is also responsible for an unraced juvenile full-sister to the winner named La Blondy, as well as a weanling colt by Mizzen Mast. She visited Sky Mesa this year. This is the extended family of 1991 champion 3-year-old colt Hansel (Woodman). Sales History: $70,000 Ylg '14 KEEJAN; $50,000 RNA Ylg '14 KEESEP; $250,000 2yo '15 OBSAPR. +BIG PAPI (c, 3, Scat Daddy--Little Green Light, by Smarty Jones) became trainer Jonathan Thomas's second maiden winner on the Wednesday card in Oldsmar with an eye-catching debut score. The chestnut trained at Bridlewood Farm during the early autumn and finalized his preparations for this unveiling with a four-furlong gate breeze over the local strip Nov. 17. Away to a sharp beginning, the colt set the pace through fractions of :22.48 and :45.92. Entering the lane with a narrow advantage, he turned back a challenge from Split the Uprights (Cape Blanco {Ire}) in upper stretch and spurted away to post a 5 1/4-length score over that rival. The winner sold for $200,000 as a Fasig-Tipton Midlantic 2-year-old. His unraced dam is a half-sister to MGSW and sire Too Much Bling (Rubiano), as well as three other stakes winners and the dam of MGSW El Kabeir

(Scat Daddy). Big Papi has an unraced juvenile half-brother named Green Eyed Kitten (Kitten's Joy), a yearling half-brother by Uncle Mo and a weanling half-brother by Verrazano. Sent straight to the front, the bay held a one-length lead through a quarter-mile in :23.50 and widened from there, reporting home 3 1/4 lengths clear of Risible (Outrageouslyfunny). GAMBLE'S CITIZEN (c, 2, Proud Citizen--Forest Gamble, by Forest Wildcat) pressed the pace and held well to finish second on debut going seven furlongs Oct. 19 and recently checked in fourth after racing in traffic in the stretch extended to 1 1/16 miles Nov. 13. Sent postward as the 2-1 second choice here, the colt raced in midpack along the inside behind fractions of :23.69 and :48.48. Searching for a seam on the far turn, he was momentarily shuffled back midway on the bend, but regained his best stride and came with an impressive late kick to mow down Southern Greatness (Greatness) in a 2 3/4-length score. The winner's dam--a half sister to 'TDN Rising Star' and MGSW Gamble's Ghost (Ghostzapper)--captured her lone start in impressive fashion for these same connections in 2012. She produced a colt by City Zip in 2015, a filly by Twirling Candy this year and was most recently bred back to City Zip. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, $43,184. ## BANKS HILL'S DAUGHTER STEALS THE SHOW

Replete tops the third day of Tattersalls mares | Tattersalls

by Emma Berry and Chris McGrath

A daughter of the outstanding racemare Banks Hill (GB) (Danehill) from Juddmonte's great Hasili (Ire) family was the standout of the third session of the December Mares' Sale at Tattersalls on Wednesday, selling for 775,000gns to Amanda Skiffington.

Replete (GB) (Makfi {GB}) (lot 2133) may be unraced but, hailing from a dynasty interwoven with bold black-type, she has plenty to recommend her, not least her high-flying mother, whose siblings include Intercontinental (GB), Cacique (Ire), Champs Elysees (GB), Dansili (GB) and half-sister Heat Haze (GB). Meanwhile Replete's half-sister Romantica (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) is a Group 1 winner and her half-brother, the Group 2-placed listed winner Ideal World (Kingmambo), an emerging sire in South Africa.

"She was the nicest horse of the day with a fantastic pedigree and she's a real beauty," said Skiffington, who was standing with Timmy Hyde and David Wachman as she saw off attempts to secure the 3-year-old filly from Greg Goodman of Mt Brilliant Farm in Kentucky and John Freyer and Paul Messara of Australia's Arrowfield Stud. She added, "She'd suit Galileo really well."

MILITARY ATTACK OUT OF HONG KONG CUP

by Alan Carasso

Military Attack (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}), the 2013 Horse of the Year in Hong Kong, was scratched Wednesday from the Dec. 11 G1 Longines Hong Kong Cup after failing to sufficiently recover from a leg injury sustained when a first-up third in the G2 Longines Jockey Club Cup at Sha Tin Nov. 20.

A Group 1 winner in Hong Kong and Singapore and runner-up to Designs On Rome (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) in a thrilling renewal of the Hong Kong Cup in 2014, Military Attack went to the sidelines last May with a left front suspensory issue, the South China Morning Post reported. The veteran of 44 career trips to the post ran on well to be third in the Jockey Club Cup, but was reported to be lame in his left front after the race. The 8-year-old was given an entry for the International Races, but ultimately could not recover in time.

The transaction, which saw Replete top the session, was not only the highest price paid for a Juddmonte-bred at the December Sale, but also nudged Tattersalls' annual turnover into record territory, passing the high mark of 263.4-million gns set in 2014.

The day-three aggregate was up on last year by 8% at 7,159,200gns from 184 horses sold of the 238 offered. This meant a four-point drop in clearance to 77% and an 11% decline in the median to 18,000gns, but the average improved to 38,909gns, a rise of 16%.

A Juddmonte Beauty For Al Kazeem...

As usual on the Wednesday of the mares' sale, the Juddmonte draft provided an after-dark highlight. Al Kazeem (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) has experienced a chequered start to his stud career but those yearlings that made it to market were certainly well received and he will be joined at John Deer's Oakgrove Stud by a glamorous young Juddmonte partner in lot 2125, the unraced Marlingford (GB) (Oasis Dream), bought for 155,000gns. The 3-year-old is a half-sister to G1 Grand Prix de Paris winner Zambezi Sun (GB) (Dansili {GB}) from a family of stakes performers or producers associated with her grand-dam Interval (GB) (Habitat).

"It's a great family, as they all are at Juddmonte, with a good bit of speed at the bottom," said Oakgrove's Tim Lane. "But she's also a very nice physical, very athletic, and we're massive fans of Oasis Dream mares." Cont. p3

The next filly through the ring, lot 2126, had a similar profile, being the unraced 3-year-old Megaron (GB) (Dansili {GB}). She will join Rabbah for 200,000gns, being out of a daughter of the top-class All At Sea (Riverman) from the family of Twice Over (GB) (Observatory), Passage Of Time (GB) (Dansili {GB}) and company.

"She's a lovely filly, beautifully bred, and we hope she'll make a good broodmare," observed Rabbah's Jono Mills. "Her mating is to be decided--Sheikh Juma will make his own decision in time."

Sandstone And Birdwood Stay At Home...

Anthony Penfold's Bugley Stud will be the recipient of lot 2135, Sandstone (GB) (Dansili {GB}), yet another well-related Juddmonte 3-year-old, who was bought for 155,000gns. Sandstone is a daughter of G3 Prix d'Aumale winner Helleborine (GB) (Observatory), whose Group 1-winning full-sister African Rose (GB) has already produced a notable runner in Fair Eva (GB), who became Frankel's first stakes winner when landing the G3 Juddmonte Princess Margaret S.

"Sandstone is the first foal of a wonderful mare and there are lots of possible updates and improvements to come in the family," said Penfold's representative. "She'll be well mated and her relatives will be well mated. She'll go back to Bugley Stud and will probably remain in the UK."

An eye-catching 3 3/4-length victory for debutante Enable (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) on Monday persuaded the Newsells Park Stud team to be bold in their bidding when going to 150,000gns to snare the filly's half-sister Birdwood (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) from Juddmonte.

"It was the update, really," said Julian Dollar of his 3-year-old purchase (lot 2110). "The trainer thinks she's pretty useful and Juddmonte think she's pretty useful and we think this filly will suit Nathaniel. We're very keen to continue to support him." He quipped of Enable, "It's quite spicy, sending a Sadler's Wells mare to Nathaniel, but it's practically an outcross now."

Concentric (GB) (Sadler's Wells), the listed-winning dam of Birdwood and Enable, is a full-sister to Dance Routine (GB), the dam of Juddmonte's globetrotting star Flintshire (GB), who will stand at Hill 'n' Dale Farm in Kentucky in 2017.

When the hammer came down on the final Juddmonte filly through the ring, 49 of the draft had been sold for a total of 3,895,500gns.

Light Fantastic For Breeder Boocock...

A torpid post-luncheon session, pending the Juddmonte draft, was suddenly illuminated by lot 2085 the 3-year-old Light Up Our World (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire})--a listed winner, with multiple group placings, for Richard Hannon. BBA Ireland seemed to have won the day until a single bid of 420,000gns from Luke Lillingston proved sufficient to end their interest, a price cognisant of the fact that her dam Shine Like A Star (GB) (Fantastic Light) is a half-sister to G1 Coronation S. winner Fallen For You (GB) (Dansili {GB}).

The filly was consigned by Overbury Stud, where Shine Like A Star is boarded by her owner Derek Boocock. "He sold the half-sister Light Up My Life (Ire) (Zamindar) here three years ago for 425,000gns," recalled Overbury's Simon Sweeting. "So the mare's obviously been very lucky for him. But then the whole family has done nothing but improve since he bought her."

That was in this same ring at the 2009 sale, for just 25,000gns. "Derek has kept the 2-year-old by Fastnet Rock (Aus) and there's also a Rip Van Winkle (Ire) foal, while the mare's now in foal to No Nay Never," Sweeting added.

Lillingston was acting on behalf of John Moore's and Charles Noell's Merriebelle Ireland. "Plans are open," he said. "She might go to America to continue racing over there: she seems to go on all ground and gets a mile and an eighth. But she's bought as a broodmare prospect, sooner or later. She vetted well, she's good-looking, and it's great to back into the family. I was underbidder on the second dam many years ago, to Philippa Cooper, and have been cursing my luck ever since. And of course I like Zoffany too, I believe we bought his first stakes winner."

Light Up Our World's second dam, Fallen Star (GB) (Brief Truce), has been good to Philippa Cooper's Normandie Stud. Her daughter Fallen For You (GB) (Dansili {GB}) won the G1 Coronation S. and provided the co-top lot at Book 1 of this year's October Sale with her Dubawi (Ire) colt, who sold for 2.6-million gns.

Flying Fairies Races On For Oxx...

A cluster of fillies-in-training towards the end of the session included an attractive prospect in lot 2149, Flying Fairies \(Ire\) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}), who will be joining John Oxx after he signed a 280,000gns docket. Winner of a 10-furlong listed race at Leopardstown on her final start for Joseph Murphy, the 3-year-old is out of a half-sister to two Derby trial winners in Twist And Turn (GB) (Groom Dancer) and Meath (Ire) (Sadler's Wells)--who respectively won the Chester Vase and Gallinule S.--but Oxx hopes that she can enhance the page herself before going to the paddocks.

"She's been improved steadily and her last run was her best, when stretched out in distance on the last day of our turf season," he said. "She's for an Irish client and while she'll go to stud eventually she should give them a bit of fun on the track for another year first. She's had a long season so we'll give her a break and look for something in the spring."

Lot 2102, Fine Blend \(Ire\) (Sakhee's Secret {GB}), was picked up by trainer William Muir for just €10,000 as a 2-year-old at the Goffs February Sale and 20 months later she was knocked down at 180,000gns to David Redvers. Her hike in price came about thanks primarily to her listed success in the Criterium de Vitesse at Chantilly last October, and earlier this year she was second to another flying filly, the subsequent Group 1 winner Marsha (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}), in the Listed Land O'Burns Fillies' S.

Wigan Unearths A Treasure...

It's hard to argue with the 145,000gns paid by James Wigan for lot 1963--not least when you consider the further embellishment of her page since Tesoro (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) was bought at the Craven Breeze-up here last year for 200,000gns. A maiden winner for Dean Ivory in the meantime, her pedigree looks better than ever following the emergence this season of Rhododendron (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), the outstanding winner of the G1 Fillies' Mile, who is out of triple Group 1 winner Halfway To Heaven (Ire) (Pivotal {GB})--herself a half-sister to this filly's dam, the Group 3 winner Theann (GB) (Rock Of Gibraltar {Ire}). Theann has already produced a dual Group 1-winning sister to Tesoro in Photo Call (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and is a daughter of the top-class sprinter Cassandra Go (Ire) (Indian Ridge {GB}).

"Obviously it's just a beautiful pedigree, the outstanding one in the book," Wigan reasoned. "And if she's on the small side, she's certainly an acceptable model."

Ivory's Harper Lodge Stables had also registered a six-figure sale with the preceding lot 1962, the listed-placed Rosie's Premiere (Ire) (Showcasing {GB}), who sold for 100,000gns. She is on her way to Haras du Mezeray, whose manager Philippe Brosset explained, "It is such a tough, running family, the filly herself ran 25 times. She was fast as well, reaching a rating of 93 and picking up black-type. We want to get some earlier types in our broodmare band to go with what the market wants."

Sure enough, she could visit Dark Angel--as has her mother, of late, in consecutive seasons. "It's a young family with plenty going on," Brosset added. "Her 2-year-old half-brother Golden Goal (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) was bought by John Ferguson."

Mason's Need For Speed...

Speed was the key enticement for Charlie Mason when it came to paying 135,000gns for Lulla (GB) (lot 1996). As a daughter of G1 July Cup winner Oasis Dream (GB) and G2 King's Stand S. heroine Dominica (GB) (Alhaarth {Ire}), Lulla's page certainly has a strong sprinting feel to it, and she was offered by Lordship Stud in foal to another July Cup winner, Lethal Force (Ire).

"This is a real speed family," said Mason, "And you have to pay a bit more for mares like this. We'll offer her foal through Silfield Bloodstock next year."

Lulla's first foal is the Group 2-placed juvenile Mr Scaramanga (GB) (Sir Percy {GB}) and she has yearling and foal daughters by the Lordship Stud homebred Swiss Spirit (GB) on the ground.

Camelot (GB) made such an impressive debut at the yearling sales that a listed winner bearing one of his foals was bound to command attention. Sure enough, lot 2076, Accipiter \(GB\) (Showcasing {GB}), fetched 100,000gns from David Cunningham of Tullpark in Co Tipperary--a very respectable return on the 9,000gns she cost here as a yearling when bought by Nicky Murray, who reoffered her on Wednesday through her Whitwell Bloodstock operation.

Winner of the Harry Rosebery S. as a juvenile for Chris Wall, the 4-year-old shares a granddam in stakes winner Viva Zapata (Affirmed) with Heshem (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}), who won the G2 Prix Eugene Adam this summer.

Lot	Name	Status	Price (gns)
1996	Lulla (GB)	i/f Lethal Force (Ire)	135,000
Consigned by Lordship Stud

Lulla (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) was picked up by One Agency for 37,000gns at the Tattersalls February sale in 2014 in foal to Sir Percy (GB). The colt she was carrying at the time would be sold at Tattersalls later that year for 14,000gns and, a 2-year-old of 2016, he added value to the family when placing at both Group 2 and listed level this year. Lulla's connections were therefore able to enjoy a profitable return when re-offering her on Wednesday.

1966	Qatar Princess (Ire)	i/f Hot Streak (Ire)	100,000

Qatar Princess (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) cost Easton Park Stud just 14,000gns at the Tattersalls Autumn Horses-in-Training Sale in 2013, and the bay--who was unsuccessful on the racetrack--was brought back home when the bidding reached just 4,500gns at the Tattersalls July Sale two years ago. Connections would have been thankful for making that decision when Qatar Princess's half-sister Hawksmoor won last year's G3 Prestige S. and followed up this season with a win in the G2 German 1000 Guineas and a pair of Group 1 placings, and they found her value to be much higher on Wednesday.

VARIAN ON THE MOVE TO CARLBURG

Trainer Roger Varian has purchased Clive Brittain's Carlburg Stables in Newmarket and will relocate there for 2017, according to Racing Post. Varian has been training at Kremlin House Stables since 2011 when his former mentor and boss, the late Michael Jarvis, retired.

"It's an honour and a privilege to purchase such a historic yard in Newmarket," Varian told Racing Post. "I have great admiration for Clive Brittain as a person and a professional and I hope that myself and my family will enjoy Carlburg for as many years as Clive and Maureen have. An extended thank-you must go out to all of my owners whose continued support has made this possible."

It is possible that Simon Crisford, who currently rents boxes from Brittain, could move into Kremlin House.

"I am hoping we can swap stables," Crisford told Racing Post. "I have been talking to [Kremlin House owner] Gay Jarvis along those lines, but nothing is confirmed yet; it's all in the melting pot. It wouldn't mean an increase in numbers for me, as I will still have around 80 horses for next season, so it will just be a straightforward switch."

IRELAND

HRI LAUNCHES GRANT PROGRAMME

Professional jockeys in Ireland will be able to have some costs of Quality and Qualifications Ireland courses reimbursed through Horse Racing Ireland's new Education and Training Grant programme organised through its Careers and Racing Education department. The programme is part of CARE's commitment to help jockeys to develop their skills and qualifications for their current role, or to help them prepare for life and work outside race riding. The grant programme will operate on a reimbursement basis and will be paid in two 50% installments--at the beginning of the course and upon successful completion. Applicants must have held a professional jockeys licence, issued by the Irish Turf Club, over three of the past five years.

Patrick Ryan of CARE said, "I hope the grant programme will act as an incentive for jockeys to consider upskilling, or getting back into education and that any jockey who is out injured will look at using their time on the sidelines to do a course in an area that is of interest to them. We will also be willing to offer expertise and experience from within HRI for any jockey who needs assistance or advice with an assignment, study plan, or project."

O-Siu Pak Kwan; B-Swordlestown Little; T-John Size. *A maiden winner over 1600m in a single European appearance while under the care of Ger Lyons at Naas last October, Dinozzo outran odds of 25-1 to finish third at this level going an extended mile at this city track Oct. 19 and improved by one spot over course and distance Nov. 9. Sent off the 13-5 second favorite to register his first local victory, Dinozzo jumped on terms, but Zac Purton was immediately in search of some cover and found it from a two-deep position in midfield. Settled nicely down the back of the track, he was pulled out decisively and was soon challenging for the lead as they cut the corner into the stretch. It looked as if he might blow the race open in the final 300m, but he idled, switched onto his incorrect lead and held a neck margin on favored Victory Boys (NZ) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) at the wire. Cont. p9

The runner-up was in receipt of nine pounds from the winner. “He jumped out better today and put himself in a better spot more comfortably than he had done before,” Purton said. “He just cruised around there and showed a good turn of foot—he just bottoms on his run but he dug in tonight. He sort of waited for the other horses a little bit and as they came, he found a
