NO 'BATTLE' FOR 'MIDWAY' IN AFFIRMED

Battle of Midway | Benoit

"TDN Rising Star" Battle of Midway (Smart Strike) simply cantered around the track at Santa Anita Saturday, skipping home the easiest of winners in the GIII Affirmed S. Last seen finishing third in the GI Kentucky Derby May 6, the hulking bay was hammered down to 1-9 favoritism while facing just three rivals in this test.

Seizing the early advantage, Battle of Midway loped along through leisurely early fractions of :24.50 and :48.88 with California-bred B Squared (Square Eddie) glued to his outside hip and a comfortable lead on his remaining two foes. B Squared drew even with the chalk turning for home, but that did not last for more than a stride of two. Battle of Midway effortlessly drew clear of the Reddam Racing runner when shaken up a bit by Flavien Prat in the stretch and cruised home under a hand ride to a decisive 3 3/4-length success.

"We talked about being in front," winning trainer Jerry Hollendorfer said. "We thought we might end up being the speed, so I wasn't surprised. I just told Prat to get on his way and if somebody does something different to adjust to it."

The Hall of Famer continued, "I think he's showing that he's coming into being a good horse and able to run against top competition. We want to look at [the GI Haskell Invitational S. at Monmouth Park July 30]. That's the race that we've talked about. That doesn't mean we're absolutely going to do that. There are a few real tough horses that might go in that race, but we might run in there anyway." Cont. p3

IRAP OUTGAMES GIRVIN IN OHIO DERBY

Reddam Racing's Irap (Tiznow), upset winner of the GII Toyota Blue Grass S. two starts back, came out on top in Saturday's GIII Ohio Derby after a gritty stretch duel and very tight photo finish with MGSW Girvin (Tale of Ekati). Away alertly, the 5-2 choice was settled to track in a joint fourth as GIII Spiral S. winner Fast and Accurate (Hansen) sprinted up to take control, clocking opening splits of :23.06 and :48.04 with Vibe (Astrology) and 4-5 favorite Girvin close behind.

Girvin swept to the lead with Vibe hot on his heels as Fast and Accurate called it quits on the backstretch run. Irap had that pair in his sights, however, and charged up two wide to take on the favorite as Vibe threw in the towel in the lane. Irap and Girvin battled stride-for-stride all the way to the wire and Irap was declared the narrow victor in a photo finish. "TDN Rising Star" Untrapped (Trappe Shot) came running late to complete the trifecta. Cont. p4

Purchased by Rick Porter's Fox Hill Farm for $410,000 at the 2015 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Yearling Sale, Battle of Midway was tabbed a "TDN Rising Star" after an impressive debut victory at Santa Anita Jan. 21. Third next out in the seven-panel GII San Vicente S. Feb. 12, the sophomore cleared his first-level allowance condition next out when stretched to 1 1/16 miles in Arcadia Mar. 9.

Runner-up to Gormley (Malibu Moon) in the GI Santa Anita Derby Apr.8, Battle of Midway was privately purchased by WinStar Farm and Don Alberto Stable just 13 days later. Making his first start for his new connections in the Run for the Roses, the bay ran a game third behind Always Dreaming (Bodemeister) and Lookin at Lee (Lookin at Lucky) over a wet track.

Pedigree Notes:

Battle of Midway's dam Rigoletta, a $35,000 OBSAPR purchase by Thor-Bred Stable, captured the 2010 GI Oak Leaf S. for trainer Dan Hendricks. The 9-year-old mare is also responsible for the juvenile filly Gold Arrow (Medaglia d'Oro), a yearling colt by Medaglia d'Oro and an Empire Maker colt born Mar. 28 of this year. Battle of Midway hails from the female family of champion female sprinter Musical Romance (Concorde's Tune).

Irap's best effort of four starts as a juvenile was a runner-up effort behind undefeated and recently retired "TDN Rising Star" Mastery (Candy Ride {Arg}) in the GI Los Alamitos Futurity. Kicking off 2017 with a pair of seconds in the GIII Robert B. Lewis S. and Mine That Bird Derby in February, the bay checked in fourth in the GIII Sunland Derby Mar. 26, a prep race that proved to be quite productive this term.

"He broke good and we had good position," said Leparoux. "I was a little farther back in the first turn [than expected], but I was right behind Mike Smith [on Girvin], and I knew that was the right horse to follow. He's the kind of horse you have to ask pretty early, because he has that long, long stride, so I was able to get him going early and got there on time. I didn't know that I'd won, it was so close."

Irap | Jeff Zamaiko

Still a maiden when sent off at odds of 31-1 in the GII Toyota Blue Grass S. at Keeneland Apr. 8, Irap stole the show beneath Julien Leparoux, graduating by 3/4 of a length over MGISW Practical Joke (Into Mischief) and MGSW "TDN Rising Star" McCraken (Ghostzapper). Bumped at the start of the GI Kentucky Derby May 6, he regrouped, but never factored and faded to 18th.

Pedigree Notes:

Irap is the last produce for the Quebec-bred Silken Cat, Canada's Sovereign Award-winning juvenile filly of 1995, whose first foal, the meticulously managed Speightstown (Gone West), won the Eclipse Award as champion sprinter in 2004 and has since become a sire of considerable import. Speightstown is one of four of Silken Cat's offspring to summon seven figures as a yearling, selling for $2 million at the 1999 Keeneland July sale. The others were Tigerline (Unbridled's Song), a $1.4 million 2003 FTSAUG buy; Cableknit (Unbridled's Song), a $1.7 million 2008 KEESEP purchase; and Amour d'Ete (Tiznow), a $1.75 million 2013 KEESEP buy who never raced and RNA'd for $725,000 at last year's Keeneland November sale carrying a foal by Super Saver. Silken Cat passed away in March 2016.

Irap was offered by Taylor Made on behalf of Aaron and Marie Jones at the 2015 Keeneland September Sale, but was led out unsold on a bid of $140,000. He was sold post-RNA to Brady Grady's Grand Oaks for $100,000, then sold for $300,000 as an OBSMAR juvenile.

Collected steam rolled his four rivals in the Precisionist Saturday, powering clear to an ultra-impressive 14-length victory over fellow Bob Baffert pupil Cat Burglar. Breaking sharply, the heavy favorite pressed from a close-up second as "TDN Rising Star" Donworth (Tiznow) ticked off opening splits of :23.48 and :46.80. Collected overtook that rival on the backstretch and immediately slammed the door, powering clear under a motionless Martin Garcia to win as he pleased.

"We were going to run him in the [GI] Gold Cup [at Santa Anita], but he just wasn't working as well as I would have wanted for that," Baffert remarked. "This middle distance is more his thing and I can see he reacts better. As long as I keep him like this, he's going to be really tough to beat."

The Hall of Famer added, "I've always thought that when I get him to Del Mar I might try him on the turf, he was bred for it. We'll get him down there and work him and see."

Winner of the GIII Sham S. and GIII Coolmore Lexington S. last term, Collected finished a head-scratching 10th in a sloppy renewal of the GI Preakness S. last May, after which he was shelved for the remainder of the season. Returning to the races in Arcadia Apr. 1, he registered a facile victory in the Santana Mile and returned just three weeks later with an equally effortless score in the nine-panel GII Californian S.

Pedigree Notes:

Collected, a $150,000 KEESEP yearling turned $170,000 OBSMAR juvenile, has a 3-year-old full-brother named Industrialist, who summoned $300,000 from Zayat Stables at last term's Fasig-Tipton March Sale. The chestnut is also trained by Baffert and finished sixth in his lone start Feb. 25. Helena Bay has a yearling colt by Lookin at Lucky and produced a Hard Spun colt Apr. 2 of this year.

Finley'sluckycharm has proven to be the model of consistency throughout her career. The winner of four of six starts last year--including the Nov. 25 Dream Supreme S.--she rounded out the season with a close-up second behind Constellation (Bellamy Road) in Santa Anita's GI La Brea S. Dec. 26. Back in the winner's circle next time out in Churchill's Roxelana S. Apr. 29, the dark bay made it two straight in the GIII Winning Colors S. at the Louisville oval May 27.

Heavily backed to remain undefeated this time, she jumped out to take her customary spot at the head of the pack and was prompted through honest opening splits of :22.05 and :45.62. Well clear and still cruising along as several of her rivals were already put to the whip, she was given a few waves of the stick by Brian Hernandez, Jr. and she strolled home a geared down winner. Ivy Bell was a clear second ahead of Mayla.

"On a filly like this, you just have to stay out of her way," explained Hernandez, Jr. "She handled the distance fine. We weren't too concerned going into this race after she was just beaten a neck in the La Brea last year. She's such a nice horse."

Winning trainer Bret Calhoun was also responsible for the third-place finisher, Mayla.

"I'm so proud of both of my horses," he said. "Finley'sluckycharm loves it here at Churchill Downs. It's always nice to run at the track in your backyard. It's been such a fun ride with her so far and I hope it lasts a while longer."

Pedigree Notes:

Finley'sluckycharm hails from the family of MGISW Pure Clan (Pure Prize) and MGSW Greater Good (Intidab). The winner's juvenile half-sister by Orb sold for $320,000 at the Barretts March Sale. Her dam Day of Victory was bred back to Gio Ponti, but failed to get in foal, and produced a Violence filly Mar. 5 of this year.

ROMANS 3YOS GEARING UP FOR SUMMER RACES

J Boys Echo | Sarah K. Andrew

Trainer Dale Romans holds a strong hand for the second half of the 2017 racing season with a trio of talented sophomores aiming for the summer's high profile 3-year-old races.

The only one of the three on the Triple Crown trail was "TDN Rising Star" J Boys Echo (Mineshaft), who finished 15th in the GI Kentucky Derby May 6 and ninth in the GI Belmont S. June 10.

"He was completely eliminated from the Derby at the start and I don't think he liked the track at Belmont," Romans said. "He'll come back in the late summer and could run in the [GI] Haskell [Invitational S. July 30] and, hopefully, make it to the [Aug. 26 GI] Travers S."

Fellow "TDN Rising Star" Watch Me Whip (Smart Strike) was an impressive first out winner at Keeneland Apr. 14, but could do no better than eighth next out in Pimlico's Sir Barton S. May 20. That dark bay is entered in a Churchill Downs optional claimer Sunday.

"He had a lot of little issues as a 2-year-old and that's why we could never get there early enough," commented Romans, who joked about sending Watch Me Whip to the Haskell after his debut win. "I wouldn't be surprised if he ends up running in some of the better races this summer and end up in some big races this fall."

Opening his account with a victory at Ellis Park last September, Singing Bullet (Hard Spun) failed to fire when asked to route in both the GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity and Street Sense S. last fall. The bay made his belated 2017 bow Friday in a 6 1/2-furlong test at Churchill, going gate-to-wire for a three-length success.

"This horse ran a monster race Friday," Romans remarked. "He had a bit of a setback after he broke his maiden last year but the way he came back I'd like to point him to the [Aug. 26 GI] H. Allen Jerkens Memorial [S.] [formerly known as the King's Bishop] at Saratoga."

BROWN BARN LOADED FOR STARS & STRIPES FESTIVAL

Trainer Chad Brown heads into Belmont's Stars and Stripes Racing Festival July 8 with a slew of formidable runners set to take on the day's graded events, which are highlighted by the GI Belmont Derby and GI Belmont Oaks.

The Eclipse-winning conditioner has four Belmont Oaks contenders headlined by GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf heroine New Money Honey (Medaglia d'Oro), who won the GIII Wonder Again S. last time June 8. Wonder Again runner-up Fifty Five (Get Stormy), winner of the GIII Florida Oaks earlier this season, will join her stablemate in the starting gate once again.

Brown will also send out a pair of European invaders who will be making their American debuts in the Belmont Oaks in Uni (More Than Ready) and Sistercharlie (Ire) (Myboycharlie {Ire}).

"I've been impressed; [Uni]'s come in and trained well and every week she seems to be improving," Brown said of Uni, who is already in his barn unlike Sistercharlie, who arrives the week of the race. "The layoff concerns me going a mile-and-a-quarter. It'll come down to pace and trip, so she'll have to overcome that. But what I've seen in the mornings, I've been impressed."

New Money Honey | Sarah K. Andrew

"TDN Rising Star" Ticonderoga (Tapit) will represent the Brown barn in the Belmont Derby. Winner of the GIII Palm Beach S. earlier this term, the bay was last seen finishing third behind GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf victor Oscar Performance (Kitten's Joy) in the GIII Pennine Ridge S. at Belmont June 3.

"He was unlucky in his last race with the trip he got but he finished well and he's been training very well since," Brown said.

Also scheduled to run July 8 is MGISW Practical Joke (Into Mischief), who will line up for the GIII Dwyer S. The bay was last seen checking in fifth in the GI Kentucky Derby May 6.

"We're excited to get him back running in the Dwyer," Brown remarked. "Cutting back to a one-turn mile after a freshening seems like the logical thing to do."

CRAZY ICON SHINES IN ESTRELLAS CLASSIC

by Michael Burns

Prohibitive favorite Crazy Icon (Arg) (Sixties Icon {GB}) rolled to a facile victory in the 27th running of the G1 Estrellas Classic, the highlight of the Carreras de las Estrellas, Argentina's version of the Breeders' Cup World Thoroughbred Championships Saturday at San Isidro Racecourse in Buenos Aires.

Under a confident ride from Juan Carlos "Chupino" Noriega, the 3-year-old bay colt stalked pacesetter Areco Run (Arg) (The Leopard) before gaining the advantage entering the straight and drawing clear gradually en route to a four-length score.

The lightly raced Roberto Pellegata trainee earned his first victory at the highest level to give Pellegata his fifth win in the marquee event.

"He is a good honest horse," said Noriega, who piloted his third consecutive Estrellas Classic winner.

Unbeaten in his first two starts at three on the turf at 1600 and 2000 meters and making his first start since March, Crazy Icon entered the Estrellas Classic off two straight defeats when placing second in the G1 Gran Premio Miguel A. Martinez de Hoz at San Isidro in February and second in the G2 Classic Otono on dirt at Palermo in his most recent start Mar. 12.

With G1 Carlos Pellegrini and G1 Gran Premio Latinoamericano winner Sixties Song (Arg) (Sixties Icon {GB}) currently training for his forthcoming participation in next month's G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. in England, Crazy Icon is a candidate to inherit the throne as Argentina's leading grass horse.

In racing, we hear the word Normandy and immediately think Deauville, Arqana Sales, the lovely Clairefontaine Racecourse, Calvados, apple tarts and caramel. But to the world, of course, three-quarters of a century ago, Normandy represented something far more seminal; the largest invasion in history and by the time the battle of Normandy was over, more than 50,000 Allied troops had given their lives in an effort which resulted in the turning point in the war. In this edition of TDN Weekend, we offer advice on exploring Normandy's World War II history while you're in Deauville for your equine pursuits this summer. We also profile successful owner Michael Dubb, whose Anna House is changing the lives of the children of Belmont's backstretch workers; talk vintage top hats (and tails) with Ascot's official top-hat licensee, Kristian Robson; tell you why if you're going to the Melbourne Cup, you should start planning right now; and bring you a special edition of The Last Word with Angel Cordero Jr., who has some fascinating revelations you've never heard before.

Super Marina, a narrow optional claiming winner at Tampa in February, faced stakes company in her next three, including a fifth-place finish in the GIII Florida Oaks Mar. 11 and a third-place finish in Canterbury's Northbound Pride Oaks S. most recently May 29. She was making her first attempt on dirt since a distant runner-up finish in a $62,500 maiden claimer at Belmont last October. Content to trail the field of four as they bunched up through easy fractions of :24.53 and :48.08, Super Marina set her sights on the pacesetter Bellavais at the top of the stretch and outboxed that one to the wire after a thrilling duel. "I spoke to George [Weaver] and he told me not to ask her for anything at the beginning of the race and run her like I would on the grass," winning jockey Manny Franco said. "I covered her up and it worked out good. She was game today. Everything I asked, she gave me. We did it." Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

9th-BEL, $90,000, Alw (NW2$X), Opt. Clm ($62,500), 6-24, 3yo/up, 1 1/8m (off turf), 1:49.87, ft.

SMALL BEAR (g, 3, Macho Uno--Stella Prima, by El Prado {Ire}) was an allowance winner over the Parx main track last January ahead of a distant eighth to 'TDN Rising Star' El Areeb (Exchange Rate) in the GIII Withers S. Feb. 4. Freshened thereafter, the Bill Parcells colorbearer outran odds of 24-1 to complete the exacta in a seven-furlong test over this main track May 4 and was exiting a third to Big Handsome (Street Boss) in the grassy Paradise Creek S. May 27. Last after hopping at the start, Small Bear was under a ride from the back of the pack early on and was asked for a bit more entering the turn. The 8-1 chance split horses three furlongs down, came away from the inside and out into the three path for the drive and whooshed home to score by 6 3/4 emphatic lengths. Small Bear is out of an unraced daughter of 1990 My Dear S. victress Primarily (Lord at War {Arg}), the dam of 2000 Sovereign Award-winning 2-year-old filly Poetically (Silver Deputy). The latter's half-sister Citronnade (Lemon Drop Kid) landed the GI Gamely S., while her half-brother Whiskey Wisdom (Wild Again) annexed Keeneland's GIII Fayette S. Stella Prima produced a Midshipman colt in 2016 and was most recently bred to Afleet Alex. Sales history: $45,000 Ylg '15 KEESEP; $80,000 2yo '16 OBSAPR. PUCA (m, 5, Big Brown--Boat's Ghost {SP}, by Silver Ghost), runner-up in the 2015 GII Gazelle S. at the Big A., didn't mind seeing this one come off the lawn, easily handling this scratched-down field of five as the even-money chalk. Just a nose short in a grassy allowance going 10 furlongs here May 19, the half-sister to Finnegans Wake (Powerscourt {GB}), GISW, $1,594,665, sat a stalking trip and took over when ready en route to a 6 1/4-length score. +SPECTRE BOND (g, 4, Trappe Shot--Awesome Alexandra {SW, $150,405}, by Awesome Again) sported a very fast series of drills for this belated unveiling, and was backed accordingly down to 7-4. Off a bit slowly, the $125,000 FTKJUL yearling buy began to pick off rivals with a powerful, sweeping move turning for home. He struck the front in upper stretch, and kept finding to deny fellow firster Mr. Crow (Tapizar) by a neck. BROKEN ENGAGEMENT (g, 3, Scat Daddy--Novice, by Elusive Quality) earned a 94 Beyer Speed Figure when breaking through third out on in a muddy off-the-turfer here May 6, and was 3-10 to continue winning ways as the lone "main track only" entrant in this field of four. Last away, the 1-4 chalk settled into third drafting behind the leaders down the backside. Scrubbed on to advance three deep approaching the straight, he required every inch of real estate to eventually collar pacesetting Dynamax Prime (Bluegrass Cat) by a nose. Queen Caroline quickly turned things around once switched to the turf, launching a four-race win skein with her Pimlico graduation in May 2016. She added a win against restricted company in the Nellie Mae Cox S. at the Baltimore oval the following month before making it three straight in Indiana's Ta Wee S. in July. Back in the winner's circle following the Indiana Grand S. Sept. 7, she found the step up and distance a little too daunting in the nine-furlong GI Queen Elizabeth Cup at Keeneland Oct. 15 and faded to eighth. Sixth in her seasonal return against allowance foes at the Lexington oval Apr. 20, Queen Caroline was an even fourth--beaten 2 3/4-lengths--in the GIII Galorette S. at Pimlico May 20. Favored to regain the winning thread here, the Virginia-bred broke well and was smoothly conveyed to the front by regular rider Alex Cintron as she carved out an easy quarter in :25.16. Still moving fluidly through a half in :49.75, she was asked for more turning for home. Clear in the late stages, Cintron kept the filly to task in the final strides en route to her fourth stakes victory. Armoire was easily second best. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Proforma, a sharp winner of the Sugar Bowl S. at Fair Grounds Dec. 17, resurfaced with a well-beaten fifth-place finish in Pimlico's Chick Lang S. May 20. Favored to get back on track here, he raced within striking distance through a :22.23 opening quarter. Proforma made his move while three wide at the top of the stretch and came down the center of the course to mow 'em down. "He showed a dominant presence before the race in the post parade," winning jockey Joe Bravo said. "It showed how much horse I was sitting on when he powered to the lead and won with ease. What a pleasure to ride him for the Stidham crew." Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

EXPEDITED VISION (g, 3, Hansen--Bang Away, by Sky Mesa) belied 22-1 debut odds to score on debut turf sprinting June 9, and was given a 4-1 chance to handle the move to the main track. Overcoming an awkward start to press Thurman Merman (Tapizar), the $47,000 KEESEP yearling took over as noses pointed for home and poured it on from there to score by 6 1/2 lengths. SILENCER (f, 3, Quality Road--Out for Revenge, by Bernardini) was sent off at 2-1 here after tiring to fifth in her debut going six furlongs at Aqueduct Nov. 27. Up to press the early pace set by Wise Strike (Smart Strike) in this stretch out, the bay found herself three lengths behind after the initial three quarters in 1:13.28. Asked for more by the white-hot Paco Lopez turning for home, Silencer battled with Wise Strike through the length of the stretch and was a neck better at the wire. Even-money choice Our Cause (Arch) was third. Silencer is a granddaughter of Castanea (Horse Chestnut {SAf}), who is out of the prolific broodmare Yarn (Mr. Prospector)--a full sister to Grade I winner Preach--and responsible for English and Irish Highweight 2yo Minardi (Boundary); graded winner and top sire Tale of the Cat (Storm Cat); and Myth (Ogygian), dam of multiple European champion and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile hero Johannesburg (Hennessy). +INTO BLUEGRASS (f, 3, Into Mischief--Bluegrassislegal, by Bluegrass Cat), dismissed at almost 12-1 as the money poured in on expensively bred newcomers Gold Beach (Tapit) and Slim Fit (Tiznow), sat last early as those two went at it. She started to inch closer turning for home, and set her sights on Slim Fit, who had already put away Gold Beach. Into Bluegrass took several green strides, but leveled off late to prevail by a 3/4 of a length over Slim Fit, who appeared to be twice her size. Rich and Karen Papiese's Midwest Thoroughbreds stepped up their game at the 2015 Keeneland September sale, purchasing no fewer than 10 yearlings for gross receipts of nearly $1.9 million. At $525,000, TOTAL COOPERATION (Tiznow) was the most expensive of the lot, and the dark bay has drawn gate two for this career unveiling. Trained by Tom Amoss, Total Cooperation is a daughter of Len Riggio's My Meadowview Farm homebred Marion Ravenwood (A.P. Indy), a stakes-winning daughter of GSW & MGISP Andujar (Quiet American), who was acquired by Riggio and team for $2.5 million at the 2006 Fasig-Tipton November sale. Marion Ravenwood is herself a half-sister to SW & GSP Abstraction (Pulpit). Favorite Song (Unbridled's Song), a $275K KEESEP purchase, is a maternal grandson of GSW War Thief (Lord at War {Arg}) and hails from the same female family as War Thief's GSW full-sister Watch, SW & GSP Stop Watch (Lord at War {Arg}) and SW & MGSP Remind (Deputy Minister). TJCIS PPs --Alan Carasso

ASSEMBLY (f, 4, Candy Ride {Arg}--Conference Call {GB} {G1SP-Fr, $159,777}, by Anabaa), off the mark at third asking at Gulfstream Dec. 23, could not overcome an overland journey and settled for eighth in an optional claimer there Jan. 15. The Juddmonte homebred improved to fourth when tried in a grassy Tampa Bay allowance Mar. 4 and she was coming off a three-month plus layoff Saturday. Sent off at 8-5, the favorite rated third last through the early going, as the leaders clocked a :50.06 half-mile. Inching up the fence, Assembly rallied inside the final quarter mile, burst in between horses with less than 50 yards to travel and saw off the persistent Princess La Quinta (Quality Road) to win by a neck. From a deep Juddmonte family, the winner is a half to Teletext (Empire Maker), G1SP-Fr, $298,250, being out of G1 Prix Marcel Boussac-Criterium des Pouliches Royal Barriere de Deauville runner-up Conference Call (GB). Rodriguez Records First North American Win at Arlington:

After only four attempts, Sofia Rodriguez collected her first North American winner for trainer Nicolas Perez in the first race at Arlington Park Friday. The win was recorded aboard Thomas Kassel and Juan Perez's 6-year-old Bartbaalu (Stroll). The 21-year-old brought the gelding from just off the pace to win by three-quarter lengths at odds of 25-1.

"I rode 48 winners in Uruguay," said Rodriguez after the race. "But this one is the most important to me by far."

Born in the town of Bergamo in Northern Italy, Rodriguez moved to Uruguay at the age of 15 with her family. It was there that young Rodriguez was introduced to horses.

"I became horse crazy at 16 and I decided I wanted to be a jockey," said Rodriguez. "I started working at a horse farm, and one year later my parents took me to the track to see some races. Soon after I started working at the track, and then I rode my first race two years ago."

Rodriguez rode for two years at Maronas Racecourse, the flagship track in Montevideo, Uruguay. When asked about her goals now that she is riding stateside, she said, "My dream is to ride in the Breeders' Cup. I hope to ride at Keeneland, too."

First-time starter Wild and Funny was second; Obsolete was third. "It's funny, she changes her leads every morning working, but when she gets in a race she's so focused," said trainer Barbara Minshall. "She's such a good-minded horse. She's unflappable." Reve Enchante, who is out of a daughter of European highweight and Classic heroine Bosra Sham, has a yearling full-sister to the winner and a full-brother foaled May 17. THE TIN MAN ALL HEART IN DIAMOND JUBILEE

The Tin Man after his Royal Ascot victory | racingfotos.com

One of the biggest developments in recent years has been the rise of syndicates, and the relatively cheap purchase The Tin Man (GB) (Equiano {Fr}) provided another one with a huge result on Saturday as Fred Archer Racing's Ascot specialist added the G1 Diamond Jubilee S. to last year's G1 British Champions Sprint S. Upgrading his form from his return fifth in the G2 Duke of York S. at York on May 17, the 9-2 second favourite arrived from mid-division under Tom Queally and swooped late to beat Tasleet (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) by a neck, with the 2-1 favourite Limato (Ire) (Tagula {Ire}) 3/4 of a length behind in third. He had to survive an inquiry after taking the line of Limato late on, but was allowed to keep it. "I'm a very relieved man, as he's very laid-back and doesn't tell you a thing at home," trainer James Fanshawe commented. "Tom gave him a great ride and he's done it twice here now. He is a very good horse."

James Fanshawe has an impressive Royal Ascot record, particularly with his sprinters and The Tin Man is a typical quiet improver from the yard who won the Bristol H. over this course and distance on only his fifth start and finished fourth in the British Champions Sprint next time in October 2015. Wins in Windsor's Listed Leisure S. and Newbury's G3 Hackwood S. sandwiched a disappointing effort when only eighth of nine in this race 12 months ago. Cont. p2

ROYAL WIN FOR DEEP IMPACT'S SEPTEMBER

Having learnt the lesson of paying too little respect to last year's winner Churchill (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), the bookies were running scared after his stablemate September (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) captured Saturday's Listed Chesham S. at Royal Ascot with an air of dominance. Immediately quoted as low as 3-1 for the 2018 1000 Guineas, the daughter of Peeping Fawn (Danehill) who earned 'TDN Rising Star' status with her emphatic 5 1/2-length success on her sole start at Leopardstown on June 8 could be anything on pedigree and limited racecourse evidence. Slowly away, the 11-8 favourite was settled in mid-division early by Ryan Moore as Nyaleti (Ire) (Arch) set off in a clear lead. Brought through to lead passing the furlong pole, the bay stayed on strongly to beat that long-time leader and fellow filly by 2 1/4 lengths, with another 'TDN Rising Star' in Masar (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) just held by the runner-up by a short head.

"She's a little doll, but she travelled like the winner the whole way," jockey Ryan Moore said. "The Johnston horse went a good gallop and kept going, but she got into a real good rhythm and I was always confident I'd win. I never really had to get into her. You couldn't ask for a better pedigree and her mother got better with racing and she's definitely got some of her talent. As she goes further, she'll get better."

Coolmore's decision to go to Deep Impact is already paying dividends, with their star filly of 2007 producing Friday's wayward G2 Queens Vase runner Wisconsin (Jpn) and now this head-turner. Interestingly, although Peeping Fawn retired on the back of four straight Group 1 successes including the G1 Irish Oaks, she failed to make the track as a 2-year-old and went four starts before breaking her maiden so September is already streets ahead at a comparative stage. She created a striking impression going through the motions in this race which was made into a serious test by the Mark Johnston representative Nyaleti, and which had real substance due to the presence of Godolphin's exciting Masar. Cont. p6

The Tin Man was second in the G1 Haydock Sprint Cup in September prior to his career highlight on Champions Day at the expense of the 50-1 outsider Growl (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}). Growl lost his rider exiting the stalls on Saturday, which provided initial drama and there was more in store at the finish but for the most part the race was a straightforward encounter with the best horses ultimately coming out on top. Cont. p3

At a peak after his return fifth under a penalty behind Tasleet in the Duke of York, The Tin Man was full of energy throughout the early stages with Tom Queally keen to anchor him in the middle of the pack. Kachy (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}) provided the pace as he had done in last year's G1 Commonwealth Cup and as the race's heat was turned up inside the final two furlongs Ryan Moore began to deliver Limato with what appeared to be a winning move. Temporarily short of room, the eventual winner was darted down towards the far rail and as he came through he edged left into the favourite's line in the final 100 yards. Tasleet loomed to also squeeze out Limato as the first and second created an arrow head nearing the line but while the front two hit the line strongly Limato was lacking the late momentum to hold his position.

For Fanshawe, the result was a family affair as the syndicate which bears the nickname of Fred Archer was set up his wife Jackie. "I was worried beforehand that we were drawn on the wrong side and if the ground was too quick, but Tom always had a double-handful on him and he has a really good turn of foot," he said. "He didn't do at all well last spring and so I was keen to get that run into him at York and we had no problems this year. I think people forget how nicely he won here last autumn and he does have that tremendous turn of foot. He's in the [G1] July Cup [at Newmarket July 15] and we'll see how he is. There are a good bunch of 3-year-olds this year, so it will be interesting."

Tasleet's trainer William Haggas was not making too much of the late interference caused by The Tin Man's drift and said, "I'm delighted with the way the horse ran. To run on fast ground today and soft ground last time [at York] shows that I've been an idiot not running him over six furlongs before now. I think in the last furlong it was one of those things. Jim [Crowley] said there was one hell of a headwind and they were blown all over the place. I'll just have to swallow that."

Limato's trainer Henry Candy was pondering options after the eclipse of last year's July Cup hero. "Ryan just said he ran a brilliant race. He thought he was as good as ever. I thought the fact the other two had a better preparation might have made a difference, but Ryan didn't think that was a cause. It was a high-class race and I'm delighted with the way he ran. Having not run for a long time, he will come on for that. It will be a toss up between the July Cup and the [G2] Lennox S. [at Goodwood on Aug. 1]. I think Ryan was rather in favour of the July Cup, which is quite surprising as he'll be on Caravaggio. I think Ryan takes the view he is a sprinter. I know he gets seven, as he's won the Foret and been second in the Foret. We'll think about that one."

Pedigree Notes...

The Tin Man is a half-brother to the former Fanshawe-trained Deacon Blues, a dual highweight who also won the inaugural running of the British Champions Sprint when it was staged as a Group 2 in 2011, and the listed performer Holley Shiftwell (GB) (Bahamian Bounty {GB}). The Newmarket handler has been involved with much of the family, including the dam's sire half-brother Warningford (GB), the three-times winner of the G3 Leicestershire S. who was also runner-up in the G1 Lockinge S. The third dam Grace Poole shares her second dam Marsyaka (Fr) (Marsyas II {Fr}), who ran third in the Irish Oaks, with the Argentinian Group 1 winner Charming Mary (Arg) (Morston {Fr}) and the Chester Vase-winning sire Gulf Pearl (GB). Persario also has an as-yet unnamed 2-year-old filly by Sepoy (Aus), a yearling colt by Poet's Voice (GB) and a 2017 colt by The Tin Man's 2015 Champions Sprint conqueror Muhaarar (GB). Click for the free Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Aidan O'Brien talked early this season about Idaho (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) possessing more scope than his full-brother Highland Reel (Ire), and the unluckiest colt of 2016 began to live up to his billing on Saturday with a smooth success in the G2 Hardwicke S. at Royal Ascot. In doing so, the 'TDN Rising Star' was offering jockey Seamie Heffernan some recompense after unshipping him during the G1 St Leger at Doncaster in September. Always traveling like the winner drafting in behind Ryan Moore's 2016 hero of this race Dartmouth (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), the 9-2 second favourite was sent past the Royal representative with a furlong to race and was kept up to his work from there to eke out a half-length verdict over the strong-finishing Barsanti (Ire) (Champs Elysees {GB}).

"He was placed in two Classics when he was possibly still a bit weak, but he'd had a nice run at Epsom [when sixth behind Highland Reel in the June 2 G1 Coronation Cup]," commented Heffernan, who had been on his G1 Prince of Wales's S.-winning full-sibling Highland Reel when he was runner-up to Dartmouth 12 months ago. "I followed Ryan and my horse took me into the race sweetly. I probably should have won last year, but I dropped my stick."

Raw when fourth in the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud at two, Idaho was still a touch unfurnished when encountering the hard-as-nails Harzand (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) on three occasions during the intense Classic spell of his 3-year-old career. In the latter two meetings with the Aga Khan homebred, he was 2 3/4-lengths third in the G1 Epsom Derby before narrowing the gap to a half-length in the G1 Irish Derby at The Curragh three weeks later. Returning after a break to collect York's G2 Great Voltigeur S. at this trip in August, he had St Leger winner stamped all over him and he got to the oldest Classic without a hiccup and travelled perfectly in the race itself only for the unthinkable to occur as Seamie Heffernan was pitched to the ground as he stumbled in the straight. Ryan Moore was on for the first time since the Irish Derby when he blew his chance with a tardy break and wound up fifth in the GI Canadian International at Woodbine in October.

Idaho | racingfotos.com

On his comeback in the Coronation Cup, he had excuses for finishing adrift as he failed to handle the well-documented rushed shipping and late arrival to Epsom that may have also compromised Rhododendron (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) to an extent, but which his brother took in his stride with his now-famed unflinching mindset. Idaho still caught the eye late on under tender handling once his chance had gone there and Heffernan was back aboard the colt who had such a dramatic impact on his fortunes when handed a stellar opportunity at Doncaster in September with Moore on Irish Champions duty. Whereas 12 months ago Heffernan lost out in a thriller on Highland Reel as Moore rode the ultimately disappointing Stoute runner Exospheric (GB) (Beat Hollow {GB}), this time Coolmore's number one was on Dartmouth and that was the target horse for Idaho as the progressive Dal Harraild (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}) cut out the running. Cont. p6

With Wings of Desire (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) down on his inner and Stellar Mass (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) holding him in on his outer, the eventual winner moved with menacing stealth two lengths off the tempo and when The Queen's runner struck the front at the top of the straight the way opened as Stellar Mass tired. Rolling by Dartmouth with a furlong to race, he was kept honest late on by Barsanti, who was putting in a much-improved performance, but there was a feeling that the imposing bay had plenty in hand.

Aidan O'Brien was setting up an intriguing clash between the Royal Ascot-winning brothers in the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. back over this course and distance on July 29 as he reflected on his 61st Royal winner.

"In the Leger he was travelling very strong and we couldn't believe what happened could happen, then he only arrived an hour before the Coronation Cup and was too high and never got the chance to come down," he explained. "He came forward for the run and it's very possible he can really progress now. The difference between the brothers is that it took a little bit more time for Idaho to come, but if all keeps well with him there are plenty of races for him as he gets a mile-and-a-half well. He galloped very strongly past the line there and the King George is a very strong possibility for him. It suits both horses."

The two placed horses traded as outsiders and put up their finest efforts to date, but the trainers of Barsanti and Chemical Charge (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) respectively were not too surprised.

The former's trainer Roger Varian said, "He's run a career-best. We're gutted not to win--he's run so well, but he's run a great race and I'm very proud of the horse. The winner wasn't stopping, but we didn't have quite as clear a run."

Ralph Beckett, who handles Chemical Charge, echoed Varian's thoughts. "It was a career-best--I think we can safely assume that," he said. "He enjoyed the fast ground, but didn't get the gap when he needed it; whether that made the difference is academic. He might go travelling--to the States."

Dartmouth's eclipse means that Sir Michael Stoute had no winner this week and therefore stays level on the record of 75 with the late Sir Henry Cecil. "It was a game run," he said of the Royal runner. "I thought it was looking good until it got really serious. But there you are--he wasn't good enough on the day."

Pedigree Notes...

Idaho's dam Hveger was discussed after Wednesday's G1 Prince of Wales's S. and she has the rare distinction of having produced brothers to win at the same Royal Ascot meeting. The G2 South Australian Oaks and G2 Schweppes Oaks placegetter, who also boasts the Group 1 performer Valdemoro alongside Highland Reel, is a full-sister to the five-times Group 1 winner Elvstroem (Aus) and a half to Haradasun (Aus), who took the G1 Doncaster H., G1 George Ryder S. and the G1 Queen Anne S. here. Also from the family of Starspangledbanner (Aus) and the G1 Schweppes Thousand Guineas heroine Amicus (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), the dam has two more Galileos to come. They are an as-yet unraced 2-year-old filly named Via Condotti (Ire) and a yearling colt. Click for the free Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Moore's visual confidence at every stage of the contest was notable and although the cramped odds for the Classics offer little value at this fledgling point of the juvenile season, history has taught us that Ballydoyle have come to take this race seriously.

Although Peeping Fawn retired on the back of four straight Group 1 successes including the G1 Irish Oaks, she failed to make the track as a 2-year-old and went four starts before breaking her maiden so September is already streets ahead at a comparative stage.

Aidan O'Brien, who also saddled the eventual Guineas third Maybe (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) to win this in 2011, was full of praise. "She's bred absolutely in the purple and has a massive engine," he said. "She's a great traveller and quickens really well. Seamus loved her at Leopardstown and she was very impressive there--she was the first 2-year-old we won with first time out this year. What's unusual about her is she's not a very big filly, but she has a big personality and like the real good ones she has a big presence about her. She could be anything really."

The Ballydoyle trainer is looking at the traditional Irish program for the leading juvenile fillies. "You would imagine that she would stay much further in time," he added. "We might try and finish the season racing at a mile and then see where we go next year--I'm delighted that she does have the pace to run at seven. She could go to the [G2] Debutante [at The Curragh on Aug. 20] and then onto the [G1] Moyglare [at The Curragh on Sept. 10] next. She is bred to stay very well, so we were thinking of running her in the Albany S., but Ryan thought we should come to this race."

Mark Johnston was taking plenty out of the game effort of Nyaleti and rueing his fortunes at the same time as she turned out to be running in the wrong race. "We ran her last Sunday, we knew she was fairly good--we were staggered when she drifted so much at Salisbury because we hadn't gone all the way to Salisbury expecting to come nowhere," he explained. "We went there principally also to win the Tattersalls bonus as she was one of the cheapest horses in the Book One sale last year and we were determined to win a bonus with her. So we got that last Sunday and it was too late then to enter her in anything other than the Chesham here--she should have been in the Albany. So we've gone a furlong too far today. We had suspicions that that was the case before we ran her, but she's done not bad after a furlong too far. She'll probably go to the Cherry Hinton [the G2 Duchess of Cambridge S. at Newmarket on July 14] next. It's the obvious race for her. She's clearly got lots of natural speed and lots of natural ability."

Deep Impact's 'TDN Rising Star' September | racingfotos.com

Charlie Appleby was happy with the run of the third Masar, but feels that the colt who made such an impression in a decent maiden on debut needs some time off now. "The winner is obviously a very smart filly, but I'm pleased with our fellow--I thought he looked very well beforehand," he commented. "He is a horse for the future. I'll give him a bit of a break now before bringing him back in late summer, early autumn when we'll step him up to a mile. He'll appreciate going further, but he'll need to furnish a bit more."

Pedigree Notes...

The champion dam, who also produced the stable's Sir John Hawkins (Henrythenavigator) who was third in the G2 Coventry S. at this meeting four years ago, is herself regally bred being out of the G1 Fillies' Mile runner-up Maryinsky, whose son Thewayyouare is the G1 Criterium International-winning sire.

The third dam is the GI Kentucky Oaks heroine Blush With Pride, whose Better Than Honour (Deputy Minister) is the producer of the ground-breaking fellow Kentucky Oaks winner and GI Belmont S. heroine Rags To Riches (A.P. Indy) and another Belmont hero in Jazil. Peeping Fawn's visits to Japan's formidable sire presence is followed by a mating with Australia (GB), with the result being a yearling colt. Click for the free Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Formerly with John Gosden and fifth in the 2014 G1 Racing Post Trophy and third in the following year's G3 Sandown Classic Trial, Snoano came back from a moderate 2016 campaign to show instant improvement when scoring over 10 furlongs at Pontefract on Apr. 11. Tried in the G3 Huxley S. at Chester next time a month later, the bay was fifth there before finishing seventh in a Ripon handicap on May 21. Settled in mid-division on the rail throughout the early stages, he was angled out and found a gap passing the furlong marker and had vital first run on the possibly unlucky Majeed. Owner Martyn MacLeod, who was having his first Royal Ascot runner, said, "We ran him at Ripon last time--and I know he was off the same mark here--but he just had a bit of interference in that race. It just stopped him from going forward."

Pedigree Notes...

Snoano was bred at Minster Stud by Willie Carson out of a daughter of the G1 Moyglare Stud S. and G2 Cherry Hinton S. third Pearl Dance, who is also responsible for the G3 Prix Chloe scorer and G1 Prix d'Ispahan and G2 Prix de la Nonette-placed Sparkling Beam (Ire) (Nayef) and also Rainbow Springs (GB) (Selkirk), who was third in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac. Also from the family of the G1 Melbourne Cup hero Delta Blues (Jpn) (Dance In the Dark {Jpn}), the dam has a 2-year-old colt by Kodiac (GB) named Stealth (GB).

TEAM COOLMORE SWEEP ASCOT PRIZES

The prizes for leading owner, trainer and jockey at Royal Ascot proved to be a clean sweep for team Coolmore. Coolmore's various partnerships won six races in total over the five days. That same number was recorded by Godolphin, but Coolmore got the nod for the award with seven seconds to Godolphin's six. Those wins were highlighted by Caravaggio (Scat Daddy) in the G1 Commonwealth Cup; Highland Reel (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G1 Prince of Wales's S; and Winter (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G1 Coronation S.

"It is marvellous. It has been a fantastic week and we have thoroughly enjoyed it," said Coolmore's UK representative Kevin Buckley. "As we all know, it is an ultra-competitive week, so we are always happy to get a couple of winners. We were fortunate this year to have six."

All of those six winners were trained by Aidan O'Brien, who was well clear of Godolphin trainer Charlie Appleby and John Gosden with two. The tally was one off the record of seven at the meeting O'Brien set last year. Cont. p11

He said, "I'm delighted for everybody. We're very lucky to be able to do what we do and have these horses. We always hope to do well at Royal Ascot and we always try and have the horses ready for this meeting but we don't really expect anything really--credit must go to all the team who do such a great job at home, it's a big team effort."

Asked what he viewed as his most exciting winner of the week, O'Brien replied, "Every victory here is very important, but I suppose you would have to be impressed with what Caravaggio did in the Commonwealth Cup. He had only had one easy run coming into that race at Naas and he was only just about ready to run. It was a tough race but he did it very well against some good horses."

Ryan Moore rode a total of six winners, clear of William Buick with four and James Doyle and Jamie Spencer with two apiece.

Guy Henderson, chief executive of Ascot Racecourse, said, "it's been another fantastic Royal meeting, and congratulations firstly have to go to Coolmore for winning the inaugural Royal Ascot owners' competition; however, acknowledgment also has to go to Godolphin, who led for most of the way, offered stiff competition and provided one of the stories of the week--we are delighted for them. Both owners tied on six winners, with Coolmore going ahead on count back achieving one extra second place. Owners are the lifeblood of the sport and I would like to salute all those who have invested in the racehorses who ran during Royal Ascot 2017. It is these horses who provide our entertainment."

RIBCHESTER IN GOOD ORDER

Richard Fahey has reported Ribchester (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}) to be in good order following his victory in the G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot on Tuesday. The 4-year-old struck at Group 1 level for the third time in his career when claiming the one-mile prize to back up his win in last month's G1 Lockinge S. at Newbury. Plans remain fluid as to where the son Iffraaj will next be seen out with both the G1 Sussex S. at Goodwood Aug. 2 and the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois at Deauville Aug. 13 under consideration.

"He is great," said Fahey. "I've not been back home, but the lads at home are happy with him and he has been eating up which is the important thing. The horses have taken the heat better than us humans. There was no pressure on me, only the pressure that I put on myself. The draw in one was more the worry. I thought that everything was going to happen this way [stands side], but Toscanini (Ire) (Shamardal) did a great job and made sure the race stayed where we wanted."

"I've got to speak to Sheikh Mohammed to see where he goes next as there are other horses to consider and they have a lot of good ones," he continued. "The French race is only 10 days after Goodwood, so he won't be doing both. It will be one or the other, but we will see how he is beforehand. At the end of the season he could come back to Ascot for [the G1] Queen Elizabeth II, all being well. He is getting better and as long as he is in training he will get better. I think he was better than when he won the Lockinge or the Queen Anne."

Spring Fling, who ran fourth in Newmarket's Boadicea Fillies' S. last year, was last of 16 in Nottingham's May 13 Listed Kilvington S. before running fourth in Haydock's Listed Cecil Frail S. two weeks later, and went postward for this coming off a sixth in the June 18 Listed Cathedral S. at Salisbury. Anchored under cover in rear from the break, she was shaken up to close approaching the final furlong and kept on strongly under a late drive to claim a career high nearing the line.

Spring Fling becomes the third black-type scorer for Twilight Mistress (GB) (Bin Ajwaad {Ire}), who is also the dam of the G1 Diamond Jubilee S. and G1 Haydock Sprint Cup victor Twilight Son (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}), and G3 Hackwood S. scorer Music Master (GB) (Piccolo {GB}). Twilight Mistress is a winning half-sister to Listed Stan James S. third Romantic Evening (Ire) (Dr. Fong) and she is also a granddaughter of Pennyweight (GB) (Troy {GB}), herself a half-sister to the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas hero Wassl (GB) (Mill Reef) and in turn the dam of G3 Queen Mary S. victrix On Tiptoes (GB) (Shareef Dancer). On Tiptoes's decendants include G3 Nell Gwyn S. winner Silca's Gift (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}). Twilight Mistress also has a 3-year-old full-sister to the winner named Twilight Sprint (GB), who placed at two, an as yet unraced 2-year-old filly by Bahamian Bounty (GB), named Twilight Thyme (GB), and a colt foal by Muhaarar (GB). Click for the Racing Post result. OUT DO (GB) (g, 8, Exceed and Excel {Aus}--Ludynosa, by Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) was off the board here in last year's G1 King's Stand S. and in York's G1 Nunthorpe S., and lined up for this Wokingham H. returning off a six-furlong handicap fourth at Newmarket June 10. Racing towards the rear of the far-side group after departing the outside gate, the 25-1 chance sneaked ever closer once passing halfway to arrive on the scene for the lead entering the final eighth and kept on powerfully under a drive to deny fellow far-side traveller Steady Pace (GB) (Dark Angel {Ire}) by a half length. "There's a brilliant young team looking after this horse at home and the win means an awful lot," said trainer David O'Meara. "He broke his jaw a couple of years ago and had a bit of a bad year last year, but I thought he was coming back to himself. It was touch and go whether he was going to get in the race on Monday and when they declared on Thursday he made the cut. He only scraped in at the bottom and we were delighted he did. He's a very fast horse and won a Listed race over five furlongs in the past. We were debating whether he's better over five or six, but he just seems to be getting a little bit outpaced at five and back at six he looks happier."

Out Do | Racing Post

Winning rider Daniel Tudhope added, "He travelled very well into the race and has done it nicely. I didn't want to hit the front too soon as he wanders around, but he got the job done. I'm pleased for Evan Sutherland, who is a fantastic owner, and it's brilliant for the team." The 2015 Listed City Walls S. winner's dam Ludynosa (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}), who has also produced Listed Premio Bereguardo third Psitta (GB) (Grand Lodge) and the 2-year-old filly Out Last (GB) (Lilbourne Lad {Ire}), is a winning half-sister to four black-type performers.

Eyeing her first win at the highest level, Peter and Paul Snowden's Tycoon Tara duly saluted at 18-1 in the final Group 1 race of the Australian calendar, the A$500,000 G1 Tattersalls Tiara over 1350 metres at Doomben Saturday. Taking full advantage of 1.70 favourite In Her Time's tardy beginning, the 6-year-old hustled straight to the head of affairs while pressured by rivals to her outside. Clinging to the rails, the hooded bay stuck to her guns and stole a march on her foes 300 metres out under a canny ride by hoop Kerrin McEvoy. Held together in deep stretch as In Her Time let down in the centre, it was the Waterhouse and Bott runner Prompt Response who was doing the best work late, cutting down Tycoon Tara's winning margin to a head, just a length to the good of In Her Time.

"She put a few on end there last preparation, she's been a little bit below her best first couple of runs back, but I rode her a bit too cute last time and got cluttered up on the rail," McEvoy told Racing.com, who was winning his second Tiara and ninth Group 1 of the season. "Today, Peter and Paul said ride a positive race and, I must say, I was pretty happy at the 600 and I was happier at the 400. Full credit to the mare, she's done a great job."

"She's done a great job," said Peter Snowden. "I'm really glad for Tony [Krushka], too, because I was prepared to pull the pin on her after last start--I thought she didn't want to compete anymore--and I was a bit downcast on her performances. But I saw her last week and I thought it was the best I'd seen her look for a long time this preparation and she carried that into today."

Originally entered in the Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale as lot 639, Tycoon Tara was withdrawn with an eye to on an elusive Group 1 victory before going to the paddocks. She rattled off three group victories during the first half of the season, including the G2 Missile S. at Randwick in August, the G3 Show County quality later that month and in the Rosehill's G2 Golden Pendant at the end of September from a five-start spring campaign. Runner-up to G1 Flight S. heroine First Seal (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) in the G2 Tristarc S. over 1400 metres at Caulfield Oct. 15, Tycoon Tara was unplaced in four runs this season prior to her Tiara win. She rolled a pair of sevens in the G1 Darley Kingsford-Smith Cup May 27 and in the G2 Dane Ripper S. behind Prompt Response over course and distance June 10. Cont. p17

Pedigree Notes...

The fourth top-shelf winner for her Group 2-winning sire following on the heels of 'TDN Rising Star' Capitalist (Aus)'s 2015 G1 Golden Slipper victory, Music Magnate (NZ)'s G1 Doomben 10,000 win last year and 2016 G1 Manawatu Sires' Produce S. heroine Luna Rossa (NZ), Tycoon Tara was scooping her sixth group score in the Tiara. Bred in Victoria by co-owners Tony Krushka, a former trainer, and R Pierce and out of their four-time winner Mosstara (Aus), Tycoon Tara's female line arrived Down Under with third dam Finest Star (Pia Star). The third foal from her dam, who passed away in 2014, Tycoon Tara's half-brother The Passage (Aus) (Ilovethiscity {Aus}), a foal of 2013, has won twice to date. Graded winner Dance D'Espoir (Northern Dancer), MSW Kate's Intent (Intentionally), and English/Irish champion juvenile colt Godswalk (Dancer's Image), who landed the G1 King's Stand S., are also in the extended family.

FIRST STAKES WINNER FOR ALL TOO HARD

First-season sire All Too Hard (Aus) (Casino Prince {Aus}) notched his first stakes winner on Saturday when Segenhoe Thoroughbreds homebred Curdled (Aus) took Doomben's Listed Winning Edge S. The Peter Robl-trained gelding was breaking his maiden in his sixth start.

Curdled was initially hammered down to Shadwell for A$300,000 at last year's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, but ultimately was retained by Kevin Maloney's Segenhoe Thoroughbreds after failing a post-sale scope, according to Breednet.

All Too Hard sits third by earnings on the Australian first-season sire table and becomes the fifth first-season sire to sire a stakes winner in addition to Pierro (Aus), Your Song (Aus) Excelebration (Aus) and Needs Further (Aus), each with one. All Too Hard, a four-time Group 1-winning half-brother to Black Caviar (Aus) (Bel Esprit {Aus}), stands alongside his sire at Vinery.
