STEVENS HOPES FOR FIREWORKS WITH OM

Om | Horsephotos

Hall of Fame rider Gary Stevens is expecting big things from Sareen Family Trust's Om (Munnings) when the two team up for the GIII American S., Tuesday's holiday feature at Santa Anita. Stevens has ridden Om in his last 10 starts, with the consistent 5-year-old winning three and hitting the board in additional six graded races, including a narrowly beaten runner-up effort behind Obviously (Ire) (Choisir {Aus}) in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint.

"I haven't been on him in the mornings, but I've been watching him train all winter," Stevens said. "He's training lights out, he looks great and I'm looking forward to being back on board. I think he's using me as the fuse to light the firecrackers."

Om, a two-time winner over Santa Anita's turf course at the American's one-mile distance, will be making his first start since finishing third, beaten a half-length, in the Nov. 26 GII Seabiscuit H. Cont. p3

SHAMAN GHOST SET FOR SUBURBAN

Stronach Stables' Shaman Ghost (Ghostzapper) has been green-lighted for a start in Saturday's GII Suburban H. after pleasing trainer Jimmy Jerkens with a solo six-furlong work in 1:13.20 Sunday at Belmont Park.

"If I had anything else I would have worked him in company [Sunday] because you have to urge him along pretty good to get him to work by himself, especially if the track is pulling a little deep like it was," Jerkens explained. "But [exercise rider] Kelvin Pahal got him off the bridle in the end and he's a horse that is willing enough to get a good workout."

Shaman Ghost's regular workmate Dolphus (Lookin at Lucky) ships to Louisville Thursday before vanning to Prairie Meadows for Saturday's GIII Prairie Meadows Cornhusker H.

Shaman Ghost was fifth in last year's Suburban before winning the GI Woodward S. Second behind Arrogate (Unbridled's Song) in the Jan. 28 GI Pegasus World Cup Invitational, the 5-year-old is coming off wins in the Mar. 11 GI Santa Anita H. and May 19 GIII Pimlico Special. Cont. p3

Also in the American's eight-horse field is millionaire Alert Bay (City Zip). The 6-year-old gelding opened the year with a pair of wins at Golden Gate Fields, including a 1 1/4-length tally in the one-mile GIII San Francisco S. over the lawn Apr. 29. He was third in a blanket finish over the Tapeta in the May 29 GIII All-American S. last time out. Flamboyant (Fr) (Peer Gynt {Jpn}), second that day, reopposes in the American.

Jerkens, who captured Sunday's Queen's Plate with Holy Helena (Ghostzapper), will also saddle Centennial Farms' Unified (Candy Ride {Arg}) on Belmont's Stars & Stripes Racing Festival program Saturday. The 4-year-old faces G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen S. winner Mind Your Biscuits (Posse) in the GII Belmont Sprint Championship, a Win and You're In event for the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint.

"It's a tough spot, because Mind Your Biscuits is one of the best horses I've seen in a long time," Jerkens admitted. "You know he's going to be coming. But you have to run and see where you're at."

Unified narrowly defeated Mind Your Biscuits in the Feb. 25 GIII Gulfstream Park Sprint S. before coming up a neck short when second behind Green Gratto (Here's Zealous) in the Apr. 8 GI Carter H.

SURRENDER NOW HEADS TO SORRENTO

by Jessica Martini

Rockingham Ranch's Surrender Now (Morning Line), who gave her freshman sire his first stakes winner with an effortless eight-length score in Sunday's Landaluce S. (video), will make her next start in the Aug. 5 GII Sorrento S. at Del Mar, trainer Peter Miller confirmed Monday.

"She ran great," Miller commented. "She won easy and did everything very professionally. She came out of the race in good shape, so it looks like we're on to the Sorrento."

Surrender Now is perfect in two career starts after scoring a two-length victory in her five-furlong debut at Santa Anita June 9. She was never threatened in the Landaluce and came home under a strangle hold.

"You never expect a horse to win by eight lengths, but I thought she'd be tough," Miller said of the Landaluce win. "I felt pretty confident she'd win."

Miller picked Surrender Now out of the Barretts March Sale this spring, paying $220,000 for the filly on behalf of Gary Hartunian's Rockingham Ranch.

Surrender Now | Benoit

"She had a terrific breeze and a great way of moving," Miller said of the juvenile, who worked a furlong in :10 flat prior to the Barretts sale. "She is a good-looking filly and very correct. So she checked all the boxes that we were looking for at these 2-year-old sales."

The Barretts March sale had its second stakes winner in two days when Surrender Now's Landaluce victory was followed up by Run Away (Run Away and Hide)'s score in Monday's Santa Anita Juvenile S. Run Away was a $325,000 purchase by Kaleem Shah.

Surrender Now's victory followed another impressive performance by a 2-year-old filly at Santa Anita Sunday. Diamondsandpearls (Congrats), who topped the OBS March sale on a bid of $1.7 million, was tabbed a 'TDN Rising Star' when she powered home a seven-length winner for the Bob Baffert barn. That filly completed five furlongs in :58.03 and earned a 70 Beyer figure.

Three races later, Surrender Now went five furlongs in :57.66 before completing the 5 1/2-furlong Landaluce in 1:03.84 and earning a 79 Beyer.

Of comparisons between the two promising juveniles, Miller said, "We ran a couple of ticks faster and I think nine Beyer points faster, but that doesn't mean anything. It was her first race and it was my second race. You don't know. These horses develop at different rates. I think they are obviously two very talented fillies and we'll know more after the Sorrento."

Miller also saddled his veteran graded stakes winner Calculator (In Summation) out to a win in an optional claimer down the Santa Anita turf course Monday.

"I'll get with [owner] Mr. [Richard] Pell and we'll talk about it, but we'll probably keep him on the grass for the foreseeable future," Miller said of the classy gray 5-year-old.

Miller enters Tuesday's closing day of Santa Anita's spring meet with a commanding lead in the trainer's title. The 50-year-old conditioner will be earning his second spring title and eighth overall Southern California title.

"It means a lot to win a training title at Santa Anita," Miller said. "It's very special. It takes a team and we've got a great team and we have some great owners. Everything has just been falling into place. We are just going to try and carry it through to Del Mar."

SEYMOURDINI IMPRESSES AT BELMONT

Iris Smith Stable's Seymourdini (Bernardini) may have earned himself a graded stakes assignment after an impressive victory at Belmont Park Monday. The 4-year-old, purchased for $900,000 at the 2015 OBS April Sale, romped home by a front-running 10 1/2 lengths in the State Dinner S. He completed the 1 1/16 miles in 1:39.81--just off the track record of 1:39.22 set in 2015.

Seymourdini | A Coglianese

"He's pretty spectacular," said winning trainer Linda Rice. "It's taken us a long time to get him into this kind of form. He showed a lot of talent as a 2-year-old. He showed talent as a 3-year-old. It's taken time for him to mature mentally and physically and put it all together. But today, he did."

Seymourdini was scoring his third straight open-lengths victory after demolishing allowance company at Laurel Park in his two most recent outings this spring. He was earning his first stakes win in the $100,000 State Dinner.

As for where the bay may start next, Rice added, "If we're forced to go to Saratoga, we might go at seven-eighths in the [Aug. 26 GI] Forego. I like running him further. He relaxes. He's run two spectacular miles. I think our long-term goal should be the [Dec. 2 GI] Cigar Mile. That race makes stallions."

Seymourdini, a promising juvenile in 2015 who had his sophomore season cut short by injuries, stamped himself as a big player in the handicap division with a devastating romp in the State Dinner S. at Belmont.

Capturing two of his first four starts, the $900,000 OBS April buy was a dull seventh in his only graded stakes try, the GII Woody Stephens S. last June.

Seymourdini | Chelsea Durand

Third in a Parx allowance/optional claimer Dec. 13, the bay got back on track with a pair of blowout wins at Laurel Mar. 25 and May 6.

Returning to the Big Apple as the favorite in this Monday feature, Seymourdini was off a half-step slowly, but soon made the lead and was pressured through a :22.62 quarter. Finding some daylight while having to blitz through a half in :44.94 to do it, he cut the corner into the stretch and strongly kicked clear, slamming the door by the eighth pole en route to a giant score while in hand, running three-fifths off of the 1 1/16-mile track record.

"I wanted to be on the lead, but he didn't break quite like I wanted him to, so I had to chase them a little bit," winning jockey Jose Ortiz said. "Then I just dropped my hands and he relaxed very well on the backstretch. He responded very well. Entering the stretch, he switched leads and gave me another gear. I peeked up at the screen and didn't see anyone close, so I just let him gallop."

Seymourdini has a yearling half-sister by Strong Mandate who sold for $270,000 to Baccari Bloodstock as a KEENOV yearling, and his dam went for $950,000 to Gainesway and Whisper Hill Farm at the same sale. Off as the 9-5 choice here, the $250,000 OBS April buy bobbled a bit coming out of the blocks, but made an easy lead and clicked off dawdling fractions of :24.97, :51.63 and 1:16.16. Shaken up for her best at the top of the lane, the bay did enough to hold off the closing bid of Church Social (Pulpit) by one length. The victress is a full-sister to Integrity, SW, $355,971. She has a yearling half-brother by More Than Ready named Gift and a full-brother foaled this term. Sales History: $57,000 Ylg '15 KEESEP. Aug. 3 at Saratoga, but failed to hit the board in her next three starts, most recently running fifth in the Holiday Inaugural S. Dec. 3 at Turfway. Returning with a sextet of five-furlong breezes, capped off by a 1:00 2/5 (3/13) spin June 22, the bay tracked the speed from second through tepid fractions of :23.26 and :46.74. Overhauling the pacesetter outside the furlong grounds, she turned back the bid of odds-on Quezon (Tiz Wonderful) in the late stages to prevail by a half-length. SNAP DECISION (c, 3, Hard Spun--Salute {MGSP, $103,838}, by Unbridled) was a third-out victor Jan. 28 at Gulfstream and followed up with a good third in the GIII Palm Beach S. there Mar. 4 before a pair of runner-up finishes over the local turf Apr. 29 and June 9. Hammered down to 3-4 favoritism in this spot, the homebred found a cozy spot stalking the pace from the pocket through progressively quicker fractions of :24.63, :48.51 and 1:12.09. Tipping into the clear three-deep at the top of the lane, the bay swept by the frontrunners at the sixteenth pole and edged clear late to a 1 1/2-length score. Hieroglyphics (Pioneerof the Nile) completed the exacta. The winner is a half to Mr Speaker (Pulpit), GISW, $1,247,544. His second dam is Hall of Famer and undefeated champion Personal Ensign (Private Account), making his dam a half to MGISW My Flag (Easy Goer). Jockeys Karaoke Contest to Benefit PDJF:

Members of the Saratoga jockeys colony will take the mic on the Vapor Night Club stage July 31 for the annual jockey karaoke contest benefitting the Permanently Disabled Jockeys Fund.

The Saratoga jockeys, with special guests, try to outdo each other with hilarious costumes, makeup, and often key-bending singing and dancing. The onstage antics are complimented by live and silent auctions of racing memorabilia. Former NYRA track announcer Tom Durkin will again serve as emcee. Returning to the judges' table this year are trainers Todd Pletcher and H. Graham Motion, with others to be announced soon.

"Our singing and acting get better every year, despite rumors to the contrary," said PDJF board member and Hall of Fame inductee John Velazquez. "Our main goal is to have fun and raise some funds for and awareness of the plight of our disabled jockeys."

Tickets are now on sale here. General admission is $75 with 7:15 p.m. entry to the venue. A limited number of VIP tickets are available for $150 which includes 5:30 p.m. entry, reserved seats close to the stage, and a buffet dinner with the Saratoga jockey colony. Performances are scheduled to begin at 7:45 p.m.

Run Away, an odds-on winner on debut, took all the money once again in the Santa Anita Juvenile S. and rewarded his backers, kicking away late from a stubborn pace companion to remain undefeated. Made a 7-10 proposition here May 26, the $325,000 Barretts March buy dueled for the lead early before scooting clear into the stretch and coming home a 2 1/4-length graduate. Off at odds-on in this stakes bow, the bay sparred with Argosy Fleet in the two-path through a :21.78 quarter. That pair remained inseparable until the final 100 yards, when Run Away just started to do the better work, edging clear to score. The victor has a yearling half-sister by Yes It's True who is offered as Hip 205 at next Tuesday's Fasig-Tipton July sale, and a weanling half-brother by Munnings.

"It's nice to get the first stakes win for Kaleem [Shah]," said winning trainer Simon Callaghan. "This is a good-minded kind of colt. I got a little anxious through the straight because he broke a little slow and had to rush up. We'll go to Del Mar and look at the [GII] Best Pal and the [GI Del Mar] Futurity." Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Third twice to begin his 4-year-old campaign, including in the GIII Daytona S. last out here May 27, the dark bay was made a 7-5 favorite to get back on track in this spot. Checked hard in between horses going into the clubhouse turn, he settled to run third past splits of :23.05 and :46.40. Ranging up to challenge three-deep at the top of the stretch, he surged to the front at the sixteenth pole and outkicked Abbey Vale (Ire) (Moss Vale {Ire}) to a one-length success. # THE WEEKLY WRAP

By Emma Berry

The hopes of seeing the Derby winner go on to confirm himself as a top-class horse at three and beyond were dealt a double blow over the weekend when Wings Of Eagles (Fr) (Pour Moi {Ire}) was first narrowly beaten by his stablemate Capri (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Cracksman (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in the G1 Irish Derby and then retired from racing after sustaining a career-ending injury. The fact that he fractured his sesamoid in running a huge race which saw him finish so close to horses who started at significantly shorter prices than he did at Epsom hints that Wings Of Eagles had plenty of heart to go with his imposing good looks. However, the sharp-tongued curmudgeons of Twitter have already consigned the Classic winner to the National Hunt ranks, pointing to the fact that his own Derby-winning sire Pour Moi--who was also the sire of Saturday's Listed sprint winner Only Mine (Ire)--was last year moved from Coolmore's Flat division to Grange Stud. There's no doubt that the jumps brigade has long had a fondness for sons of Montjeu (Ire), with the recently deceased Irish Derby winner Fame And Glory (GB) and Derby runner-up Walk In The Park (Ire) among those to have received serious support in recent years, but let's give his grandson Wings Of Eagles a chance first. Cont p.2

PEDIGREE INSIGHTS: ZARAK

By Andrew Caulfield

One of the bitterest lessons a racehorse owner must learn is that a brilliant racemare isn't necessarily destined to become a brilliant broodmare. Fortunately some do. Personal Ensign, a Breeders' Cup Distaff winner who was undefeated in 13 starts, produced three GI winners headed by My Flag (Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies) and one of Personal Ensign's sons sired a Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner. Similarly, the great European mare Dahlia--a veteran of 48 races--showed no ill effects from her demanding career, producing four Group I winners and a pair of Group II scorers in a career which saw her produce her final foal at the age of 26. But there have been a few horror stories too. The 1980 Kentucky Derby winner Genuine Risk was 16 years old before she produced the first of her two live foals, while Coronation V, winner of the 1949 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, was barren in each of her ten years as a broodmare.

Cast your eyes down Horse Racing Nation's list of the top 250 Fillies & Mares of All Time and you will find Horse of the Year Lady's Secret in seventh place. A winner of 25 of her 45 starts, this daughter of Secretariat had no problems producing foals – she had 12 in the space of 15 years – but none of them managed to earn black type. Coronation V wasn't the only Arc-winning filly who experienced problems. The great Allez France was ten before she produced a foal and only two of her five foals were winners (but one, the Nureyev filly Action Francaise, won at Group 3 level). Of the other Arc-winning fillies, Ivanjica proved very disappointing but Three Troikas and All Along respectively produced the Group 3 winner Three Angels and the Group 2 winner Along All. On a much more positive note, the 1980 Arc winner Detroit produced three Group winners headed by Carnegie, who followed in his dam's Arc-winning footsteps in 1994. The 1981 winner Gold River produced three stakes winners from four foals before being struck by lightning in Kentucky. Cont. p4

If there's no room for another Derby winner in Tipperary alongside Galileo (Ire), Camelot (GB), Australia (GB) and Ruler Of The World (Ire), how about standing this year's winner in France, where the local stallion industry is once again booming and which recently lost Walk In The Park to Ireland? In fact, why not stand Wings Of Eagles at the place of his birth, Haras de Montaigu, which has a long-running tradition as a good stallion farm? Just a thought.

Shirocco Still Blowing Hot On The Flat

Another stallion to make a similar move from the Flat to the jumps ranks was Shirocco (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}), whose Group 1 wins included the Deutsches Derby, Coronation Cup and Breeders' Cup Turf and enticed Darley to buy him from his breeder Baron Georg von Ullmann of Gestut Schlenderhan.

The print at Gestut Rottgen of their first Derby winner Palastpage | Emma Berry

The 16-year-old has covered bumper books since being moved to Ireland's Glenview Stud in 2014, predominantly on the strength of his outstanding daughter, the champion hurdler Annie Power (Ire). However, members of Shirocco's final few crops conceived at Dalham Hall Stud gave him something of a last hurrah on the Flat on Sunday when Windstoss (Ger) emulated his sire by taking the G1 Deutsches Derby several hours before Tuvalu (GB) won the Listed Gran Premio de Madrid, one of only three remaining black-type races in Spain. Windstoss, who is inbred 3x3 to the German Triple Crown winner Konigsstuhl (Ger), is the third Derby winner for his owner-breeder Gestut Rottgen, the Cologne-based stud which employs Markus Klug as trainer. The continuing importance of the German Derby to the local breeding industry should not be underestimated. At Rottgen, it is symbolised by a solitary picture hanging in the palatial indoor ride used by Klug's horses. The framed print shows the stud's first winner of the race in 1932, Palastpage (Ger).

Beckford A Boon For Small Breeder

Beckford winning the Railway S. | Racing Post

When Newmarket Racecourses' stable manager Joyce Wallsgrove is on duty her attention is usually fully focused on the action on the Rowley Mile or July Course. But the breeder could have been forgiven for allowing her mind to wander to the Curragh on Saturday where Beckford (GB) (Bated Breath {GB}), whom she bred from her mare Whirly Dancer (GB) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), enhanced his unbeaten record by winning the G2 Railway S. Not only did the 2-year-old colt put down an important marker as the first Group winner for his sire and for National Hunt trainer Gordon Elliott, but it was also the first black-type victory for his breeder, who keeps two mares at Brook Stud, just outside Newmarket.

A dual winner for Henry Cecil, Whirly Dancer was bought by Wallsgrove from the Tattersalls February Sale of 2012 for 9,500gns. Even before Beckford started racing, she was looking incredibly well bought. The pedigree of the great grand-daughter of Inchmurrin (GB) (Lomond) has enjoyed numerous updates during the last five years, including two Group 3 victories for her half-sister Malabar (GB) (Raven's Pass), who was also fourth in the G1 1,000 Guineas, and three victories and a runner-up finish in this year's G3 Huxley S. for half-brother Poet's Word (Ire) (Poet's Voice {GB}). Furthermore, G3 Irish St Leger Trial winner Ursa Major (Ire) (Galileo {GB}) is a half-brother to Whirly Dancer's dam Whirly Bird (GB) (Nashwan), while last year's G1 St Leger winner Harbour Law (GB) (Lawman {Ire}) is a son of Inchmurrin's grand-daughter Abunai (GB) (Pivotal {GB}).

"I didn't think I'd be able to afford to buy her so I really just went along to see what she'd make," said Wallsgrove. "I set my limit at 10,000gns so when she was knocked down I was on my last bid. She's the most lovely mare. She's very hardy and she seems to put that into her stock--her foals are always very bold."

Both Whirly Dancer's offspring of racing age have now won at two, with Beckford's half-brother Lagenda (GB) (Dick Turpin {Ire}) having struck for Kevin Ryan in a Wetherby maiden on his third start. The brothers were both sold as foals at Tattersalls, as was their half-sister, a first-crop daughter of Mukhadram (GB), who will be returning to the sales ring next month at the DBS Premier Yearling Sale. Whirly Dancer currently has a filly foal at foot by Poet's Voice.

Wallsgrove adds, "I had one mare a long time ago and that didn't really work out too well--I listened to advice from too many different people. After I moved to Newmarket I thought I'd like to get back into breeding and this time I decided to do it my own way. Whirly was my only mare but I've since bought a second, Miaplacidus (Ire) (Shamardal)." Properly steeped in the business of racing and breeding, Wallsgrove moved to Newmarket to take up her position with the racecourse in 2005 after spending 18 years working for Barry Hills. During her time with the trainer, she looked after the famously difficult but talented stayer Moonax (Ire) (Caerleon), whose list of misdemeanours included attempting to bite his rival Always Earnest (Alleged) in the closing stages of the G1 Prix du Cadran and breaking the arm of one of the Queen's bodyguards in the Ascot parade ring.

Wallsgrove is surprisingly phlegmatic in her recollections of the former European champion stayer, saying, "He had his moments and he hurt me a few times--he once lifted me up by my arm--but he'd generally warn you when he was in that mood and you knew to give him his space. He could also have quite a soft side when he was at home but he used to get very fired up at the races." With Beckford now potentially on course for the G1 Keeneland Phoenix S. in August, Wallsgrove's big hope is that he may make it to her stables later in the autumn for the Dubai Future Champions' Day at Newmarket. "That would be really special, "she says. "We were racing on Saturday so I was working at the stables and watched the race in the canteen. I just started screaming like a banshee and I still can't really take it in."

Pick Of The Bunch

Whether or not he stands his ground for his next public engagement remains to be seen but Koropick (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}), who became a first Group winner for Jospehine Gordon in Saturday's G3 Chipchase S., is catalogued as lot 471 for the Tattersalls July Sale, which starts a week tomorrow. The 3-year-old provided yet more cause for cheer for Con Marnane of Bansha House Stables, who lost money when selling him for 40,000gns to Rob Speers at last year's Craven Breeze-up Sale but still came out on top by being able to add another stakes winner to his consignment's roll of honour. The Marnane hot streak continued at Maisons-Laffitte on Monday. Aiming For Rio (Fr), who was bought privately from breeder Haras du Logis as a foal for €14,000 and subsequently sold for an undisclosed sum to Godolphin after two successful runs in Theresa Marnane's colours, won her second consecutive listed race when taking the Prix Amandine. As a youngster the filly doubtless appealed to Marnane because she is a daughter of his most famous breeze-up graduate, Godolphin's multiple Group 1 winner Rio De La Plata (Rahy), who is now resident at Julian Ince's Haras du Logis.

One of them, Riviere d'Or, became a Group 1 winner, and Gold River would surely have become a blue hen had she lived. And then, in 1993, the Arc fell to Urban Sea, the exceptional broodmare who gave European racing the gift that keeps on giving in the form of her outstanding sons Galileo and Sea The Stars.

Even so, the Aga Khan will have known not to take anything for granted when Zarkava, his brilliant 2008 Arc winner, retired as an unbeaten winner of seven races, including the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches and G1 Prix de Diane. The Aga, after all, had lost his previous Arc-winning filly Akiyda at the age of nine, after she had produced only two foals in six years, and he had also seen his father's 1,000 Guineas and Oaks winner Petite Etoile struggle throughout her career. Petite Etoile produced the last of her three living foals at the age of 18. None of the three won but that last foal--the Habitat filly Zahra--left a rich legacy of nearly 30 stakes winners. Coincidentally, Zahra and Petite Etoile rank as the fourth and fifth dams of Zarkava.

I'm pleased to say that Zarkava has proved totally free of the problems that beset Petite Etoile. The Siyouni filly pictured in Monday's TDN is her eighth foal in as many years. It is normally part of the Aga Khan's policy that his mares visit a stallion only once, the exceptions usually being when a mare has been barren or slipped on her first visit. Consequently, Zarkava has visited Dalakhani, Sea The Stars, Galileo, Dubawi, Redoute's Choice, Frankel, Invincible Spirit and Siyouni. Even so, she didn't make a flying start. Her 2010 Dalakhani filly Zerkaza never raced but is now the dam of a two-year-old Exceed And Excel filly and a yearling Oasis Dream colt. Next came the Sea The Stars colt Zarkash, who fractured a hind leg on the gallops in the October of his three-year-old season, when still unraced. In the report on Zarkash's death, Georges Rimaud, the manager of the Aga Khan Studs in France, commented that Zarkava's Galileo colt Zarkar "is going very nicely." However, he too was retired unraced and he too succumbed to a fracture, after he had stood his first season at Haras La Numancia in Argentina.

Fortunately, it has been a very different story with Zarkava's fourth foal, her Dubawi colt Zarak. Indeed the colt has done so well that the Aga has departed from his normal policy and Zarkava was returned to Dubawi this year. Her Redoute's Choice three-year-old, Zarmitan, was entered early this year for the Prix du Jockey-Club and Grand Prix de Paris but has yet to race for Alain de Royer Dupre, who also has care of her two-year-old Frankel filly, named Zarkamiya. Zarak's potential has been apparent since the moment he made his debut in a newcomers' race at Deauville in late-October, 2015. A hot favourite, he won so comfortably that he was named a 'TDN Rising Star' and his connections must surely have begun to think of him as a potential future stallion at Haras de Bonneval or Gilltown.

Zarak and Christophe Soumillon | Scoop Dyga

However, it wasn't until two days ago that Zarak finally attained Group 1-winner status, when he landed the Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud. In between these two winning efforts there have been a second to Almanzor in the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club, a Group 3 victory at Meydan and a narrow defeat by Cloth of Stars in the G1 Prix Ganay. His Grand Prix victory at Saint-Cloud came on his first attempt at a mile and a half, which clearly suits him. Like many a Dubawi, he handles soft ground very well. Zarkava was also very much at home over a mile and a half, even though her sire Zamindar was generally an influence for speed. The source of her stamina was surely her dam, the unraced Zarkasha. Her sire was the dual Derby winner Kahyasi, whose progeny have an average winning distance as high as 12.8 furlongs. Zarkava's first two dams were daughters of Doyoun and Shernazar, who respectively had average winning distances of 10.3 and 11.4 furlongs.

Of course Zarkava isn't the only daughter of Zamindar to have produced a major winner. Her fellow Poule d'Essai des Pouliches winner Zenda is dam of the Cartier Horse of the Year Kingman, while the Listed winner Cinnamon Bay is the dam of Prix du Jockey-Club winner New Bay. New Bay shares the same sire, Dubawi, as Zarak and the cross has a further representative in Zenda's 2017 colt. Remarkably, Dubawi now has two Group 1 winners from his three foals of racing age out of Zamindar mares. The pedigrees of both New Bay and Zarak feature two lines to Mr Prospector, Northern Dancer and Mill Reef (in fact New Bay's has three lines to Northern Dancer). Dubawi has also been in excellent form with daughters of Dansili, another Juddmonte stallion. This combination's Nezwaah also became a Group 1 winner over the weekend, taking the Pretty Polly S., and this nick has also done well with Time Test, a multiple Group winner who was recently second in the GI Woodford Reserve Manhattan S.

Another Dubawi colt with a Dansili dam is Glorious Journey. This 2,600,000-guinea yearling, out of the Group 1 winner Fallen For You, made a winning debut at Newmarket last month. Another 2-year-old representative of this cross is Zalzalah, a filly in training with Andre Fabre who is out of the smart Strawberrydaiquiri. Further reason for holding high hopes of this cross is the presence among Dubawi's 2017 yearlings of youngsters out of those very talented Dansili mares The Fugue, Giofra, Zibelina and Ferdoos, with Ferdoos being the dam of Nezwaah.

Successful in this 12 months ago, Shy Witch who had earlier finished second to Hawksmoor (Ire) (Azamour {Ire}) in the G2 German 1000 Guineas at Dusseldorf in June returned to register back-to-back wins. Held up towards the rear early, the bay who descends from the GII Landaluce S. winner Simple Magic and who was third in the Listed Grosser Preis Jungheinrich Gabelstapler over this trip at Hanover May 1 stuck to the inner until straightening for home. Sent in pursuit of Wild Approach who had been launched up the middle of the track, she overhauled her 150 yards from the line and stayed on strongly from there.

JULY STAKES PLAN FOR DASCOMBE COLT

Tom Dascombe won Newmarket's G2 Arqana July S. in 2008 when a rookie trainer and he is hoping the race is kind to him again next week when he takes the wraps off his exciting juvenile Finniston Farm (GB) (Helmet {Aus}). The colt made an impressive winning debut in a hot looking maiden at Haydock May 27 and having skipped Royal Ascot Dascombe is keen to test the colt on the July Course on Thursday week. "He's a very exciting horse and all being well I think we'll head to the July Stakes with Finniston Farm," he said. The form of Finniston Farm's win was franked when third placed Learn By Heart (GB) (Frankel {GB}) won in good style at Doncaster on Friday and Dascombe is confident the 65,000gns yearling purchase will be up to the task at Newmarket. "We won the July Stakes in 2008 with Classic Blade and the Superlative Stakes with Firth Of Fifth, but I think we just got lucky that year. This horse would be 10 times better than the pair of those. He's possibly as good a horse as I've had. I'd be disappointed if he's not good enough to be competing in those kind of races."

Among others, Finniston Farm will also face a juvenile already proven at Group 2 level after Richard Spencer gave the go ahead to his G2 Coventry S. winner Rajasinghe (Ire) (Choisir {Aus}). Spencer had the option of waiting for the G1 Darley Prix Morny Aug. 20 but was keen to strike again sooner while the colt is in such good form. "Rajasinghe is absolutely bouncing after Ascot and the revised plan is to go for the July Stakes. The Morny and other such races are a long way off just yet and the July course is only just down the road," Spencer told the Racing Post on Monday. "I know he'll have a penalty to carry but it's been done before and it will be interesting to see what turns up to take him on. After that we can think about Group 1s and such."

MULLINS TO TARGET REPEAT LEGER WIN

Willie Mullins will attempt to win back to back G1 Irish St Legers with his classy dual purpose stayer Wicklow Brave (GB) (Beat Hollow {GB}). The 8-year-old belongs in a select club of horses who have won both a Group 1 race on the flat and a Grade 1 race over jumps and he proved he was still a force on the level when failing by only half a length to give a stone in weight to Rekindling (GB) (High Chaparral {Ire}) in the G2 Comer Group International Curragh Cup on Sunday. "I thought it was a very good run and we might look at finding something for him before coming back to the Curragh for the Leger," Mullins said on Monday. "He's a fantastic horse to be able to do it at that level on the Flat and also over jumps," the trainer added. Wicklow Brave got the better of Order Of St George (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G1 Palmerstown House Estate Irish St Leger at The Curragh last year when given a brilliant tactical front running ride by Frankie Dettori and he again showed how dangerous he was when allowed rope up front when winning the G1 Betdaq Punchestown Champion Hurdle under the trainer's son Patrick in April. His racecourse exploits over five seasons of racing to date has seen Wicklow Brave win ten races and earn prizemoney of over £600,000 for his owner Nick Peacock.

FANSHAWE DELAYS JULY CUP DECISION

James Fanshawe is biding his time before committing his stable star The Tin Man (GB) (Equiano {Fr}) to the G1 Darley July Cup, the feature event of the three day July Festival at Newmarket next week. The six furlong contest is the obvious next port of call for the 5-year-old who confirmed himself one of Britain's top sprinters when beating Tasleet (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) and Limato (Ire) (Tagula {Ire}) in the G1 Diamond Jubilee S. on the final day of Royal Ascot. "The Tin Man seems to have taken the race well. He has just been steady cantering for the past week," Fanshawe said on Monday. "Of course I would love to run him in the July Cup but we will just see how things go over the next week with him." Despite the track's proximity to his stable The Tin Man has never run at Newmarket with his two best performances to date coming at Ascot. In other July Cup news Harry Bentley will resume his partnership with last year's winner Limato (Ire) (Tagula {Ire}) having lost the ride to Ryan Moore at Royal Ascot. Moore is expected to partner Caravaggio (Scat Daddy) should the Ballydoyle 3-year-old take on his elders July 15.

BREAK ON THE CARDS FOR CRACKSMAN

Following two narrow Derby defeats connections of Cracksman (GB) (Frankel {GB}) feel their colt deserves a break before going on to better things in the autumn. Anthony Oppenheimer's homebred was beaten just a neck by Capri (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G1 Dubai Duty Free Irish Derby last Saturday and the owner reflected, "I was thrilled with how he ran and I thought he was ridden extremely well. Pat [Smullen] said the horse has a lot of ability and he feels he'll be twice the horse next year or even later this year. He said he still felt a little bit immature and he didn't want to push him too much too early. He started his run late and was swallowing them up at the finish." On short term plans Oppenheimer added, "He's come out of the race well and has eaten up and everything, but we might just give him some time and let him develop. He's now had three runs as a three-year-old and two of them have been in Derbies, so now might be the time to give him a chance to develop." Oppenheimer's brilliant Derby winner of 2015 Golden Horn (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) retired as a 3-year-old but it appears Cracksman will be given the opportunity to race on and fulfill his potential as an older horse. "There are no races planned yet, but I'm excited to see what he can do later in the season and as a four-year-old."

SIXTEEN REMAIN IN ECLIPSE

Barney Roy could step up to ten furlongs for the first time on Saturday | Racing Post

Sixteen horses remain in contention for the G1 Coral Eclipse S. at Sandown on Saturday and it could provide a fascinating clash of the generations. Richard Hannon's G1 St James's Palace S. winner Barney Roy (GB) (Excelebration {Ire}), G1 Investec Epsom Derby runner up Cliffs Of Moher (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and fourth placed Eminent (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) head the 3-year-old challenge and could be joined by the Ballydoyle pair of Orderofthegarter (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Taj Mahal (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), Sylvester Kirk's Salouen (Ire) (Canford Cliffs {Ire}) and Mark Johnston's busy G2 King Edward VII S. winner Permian (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}). These 3-year-olds receive a 10lb weight allowance from their elders and Martyn Meade trainer of Eminent has also decided on a change of jockey for his runner. Reigning champion Jim Crowley has been on board Eminent on each of his four starts to date but will be replaced by Silvestre De Sousa on Saturday. "We don't know for sure whether Jim would be available as obviously he is committed to riding for Sheikh Hamdan Al Maktoum and we wanted to have some certainty," Meade said on Monday. "I discussed it with the owner and we decided that a change might be the way to go. Hopefully Silvestre will come and have a sit on the horse this week, that would be the plan. All the work is done, so he doesn't need to do any work on him, but hopefully he'll have a sit on him," he added.

The 6-year-old Lightning Spear (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) is the eldest in the field while Jack Hobbs (GB) (Halling), disappointing over the same ten furlong trip in the G1 Prince Of Wales 's has been left in by John Gosden along with other 5-year-olds Decorated Knight (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), Desert Encounter (Ire) (Halling) and the mare Blond Me (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}). The 4-year-old Ballydoyle pair of Deauville (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Johannes Vermeer (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) have been left in as have the Sir Michael Stoute trained Ulysses (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Algometer (GB) (Archipenko) who is one of three potentials for David Simcock.

CREGGS PIPES LAME AFTER PRETTY POLLY

Andy Slattery's stable star Creggs Pipes (Ire) (Rip Van Winkle {Ire}) will be sidelined for the next month after pulling out lame following her disappointing last place finish behind Nezwaah (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) in the G1 Pretty Polly S. at The Curragh on Sunday. The 5-year-old mare built up a huge lead in the race but faded tamely up the straight and Slattery reported, "She was lame after the race and this morning and we were worried it might be career-threatening. Thankfully nothing showed up on the X-ray this afternoon and it looks like she's just sprained a joint." Creggs Pipes has been a marvelous money spinner for connections since being lead out unsold at the Goresbridge Breeze Up Sale in 2014, winning seven times including the G2 Lanwades Stud S. in May. "It's a big relief as we thought she was finished at one stage this morning. She'll be on the easy list for a month now and we can look at running her again in six to eight weeks. There had to be something amiss and I think we'll be keeping her to soft ground from here on in," Slattery added.

BALLYLINCH INVEST IN FAS

Ballylinch Stud have purchased a 60% share of progressive French sprinter Fas (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}). The Pia Brandt trained 3-year-old is unbeaten in two starts this year and his last time out victory in the G3 Prix Sigy now reads well given the subsequent Classic victory of his immediate victim that day Precieuse (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}). The colt's next engagement could be the G1 Darley July Cup but his trainer is monitoring the weather forecast before committing. "We'll keep an eye on the ground and the weather for him as he is still in the July Cup," Pia Brandt told the Racing Post. "The alternative would be the [G1] Maurice de Gheest and no decision has been made yet but the horse is well." Fas has a speedy pedigree, his dam Sotka (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}) was listed placed over five furlongs as a juvenile but more significantly she is a half-sister to multiple Group 1 winner Sole Power (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}). Ballylinch Stud already have one son of Fastnet Rock on their roster in the former Dermot Weld trained Fascinating Rock (Ire).

APPOINTMENTS

Edward Arkell: Clerk Of The Course, Goodwood Racecourse

- Goodwood Racecourse has announced the appointment of Edward Arkell as its new Clerk of the Course, taking over the mantle from long-standing Clerk Seamus Buckley, who retires from his position at the end of the 2017 season. Arkell and Buckley will work together as joint Clerks through the Qatar Goodwood Festival and the remaining fixtures this year.
- Arkell joins Goodwood from Arena Racing Company (ARC), where he was Regional Clerk of the Course (South) looking after five courses including Fontwell, Lingfield and Windsor. He was also responsible for the race programme for the successful All-Weather Championships, as well as other projects and representing ARC on various industry committees.
- Commenting on his appointment, Arkell said; "I'm delighted to be joining Goodwood Racecourse as Clerk of the Course, one of the best jobs in racing. I'm very much looking forward to the challenge of producing an exceptional racing surface and continuing to develop the race programme to attract the best horses in the world. Goodwood is a truly special place with fantastic racing and heritage."
- Alex Eade, General Manager for Goodwood Racecourse, added, "We had a lot of interest in the role and Ed emerged as the strongest candidate from a really excellent cohort. As many people know, Seamus has been an exceptional Clerk for 23 seasons and it was important that we found a replacement who shared his passion for racing and obsession for perfection. Ed's wide ranging experience with ARC means he is extremely well qualified and having assisted us during our flagship meeting, he also brings a detailed knowledge of our course."

EVEREST FEVER GETTING HOTTER

Australian trainers are beginning to think seriously now about The Everest with many charting a course for the inaugural A$10m race in October. One example is Kris Lees whose Le Romain (Aus) (Hard Spun) would be considered by many a lively candidate for the race. Already a three-time Group 1 winner including over the Everest course and distance when winning the G1 Canterbury BMW S. in March, Lees is hoping this proven course form will increase his chances of securing a berth for the race. Assuming this happens the trainer is already eyeing the G2 Missile S. Aug. 5 as a starting point for the 4-year-old with the gelding also scheduled to take in a barrier trial at Wyong on Wednesday. “I'll probably trial him twice before he resumes in the Missile," Lees told Racing And Sports. When Le Romain was last seen in action he was beaten just a neck by Tivaci (Aus) (High Chaparral {Ire}) in the G1 All Aged S. over seven furlongs and Lees believes he has all the attributes to make a big impression in the Everest. “He excels at Randwick and handles both good and wet ground. Freshened up for the 1200 metres, I've got no doubt he would be very competitive in The Everest,” he added.

Le Romain | Racing And Sports

The Australian Turf Club hold one slot for The Everest which they held open for tender until last Friday and another horse whose connections have expressed a strong interest in this slot is Global Glamour (Aus) (Star Witness {Aus}). James Bester represents the ownership group, which comprises a number of prominent female members of the international bloodstock community and he feels the dual Group 1 winner’s credentials are as solid as any other potential challenger. "Only four horses won multiple Group One races at 1600m or less last season - Winx, Black Heart Bart, Le Romain and Global Glamour. Of those, only Global Glamour and Le Romain won Group races over the course and distance of The Everest," Bester said of the Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott trained filly.
