WARRENDALE DRAFT PROVES POPULAR AT KEESEP

Hip 2702, a filly by Warrior's Reward and one of two co-toppers at $325,000 Tuesday, in the ring | Keeneland

by Alan Carasso

A long-standing and successful business relationship between Kitty Taylor's Warrendale Sales and the husband-and-wife team of the late Hargus and Sandra Sexton was front and center during Tuesday's round of bidding at the Keeneland September Yearling Sale. In partnership with Steven and Brandi Nicholson's Silver Fern Farm, the Sextons were responsible for two of the day's top three sellers, hammering to a pair of prominent racing operations.

Owing to the change in the format of this year's September sale, strict year-over-year comparisons are difficult, but statistically, it was another day of substantial gains. The average of $54,635 for the eighth overall session was a 34.6% gain over the corresponding session nine from 2016, while the median price of $40,000 was better by one-third. With gross receipts approaching $289 million, already surpassing the $272.9 million gross from the 2016 September sale, the average of $166,017 represents a hike of 22.4%, with the median a full 25% better than 12 months ago. Cont. p3

OP/ED: MEMORIES OF PENNY

by Dan Liebman

I was just 14 years old when my late sister, Ellen, took me to the Kentucky Derby with some of her friends. I was a horse-crazy kid who entered the sport by virtue of having taught myself to handicap a few years earlier.

I had fallen in love with the horses, the racetracks, the experience and most importantly at that age, by the challenge of handicapping.

We took up our place in line to enter the infield at about midnight, spending the night with thousands of others who either couldn't afford a grandstand ticket or who simply wanted to spend Derby day in the party area of the track.

As we staked out our spot, I began to wonder if anyone else in the infield that day was there for the same reason I was--to see the horses and handicap the races. Cont. p8 (click here)

The Sextons have long been successful breeders, accounting for the likes of Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile and GI Met Mile winner Corinthian (Pulpit)–in partnership with Ben Walden's Gracefield--as well other Grade I winners Gayego (Gilded Time) and Capo Bastone (Street Boss), the latter with Tom Bozarth and Silver Fern. For Taylor, Tuesday's results were especially satisfying, as they come a short time following the passing of Hargus Sexton this past June.

"I am just thrilled to have such a great day selling for the Sextons, who have always been just so loyal to me. It was a very gratifying day," Taylor said. "I am so happy it worked out for all the parties, especially so soon after Hargus's passing."

Warrendale consigned the session eight co-topper, a filly by Warrior's Reward--Unbridled Appeal (Unbridled). Hip 2702 was purchased by trainer Mark Casse on behalf of Charlotte Weber's Live Oak Plantation, who over the weekend celebrated the victory of World Approval (Northern Afleet) in the GI Ricoh Woodbine Mile.

Casse had a fair bit of familiarity with the family, as he trained the filly's full-sister Unbridled Reward, a $95,000 Keeneland September yearling turned $330,000 OBS March breezer, to a 7 3/4-length debut victory and a runner-up effort in the Debutante S.

"Warrior's Reward isn't the kind of sire that is going to have a lot of expensive horses, but she was a beautiful filly with a great deal of presence," Taylor explained. "Mark Casse is very familiar with the family. He trained the full-sister, who was a nice stakes horse. Hopefully he bought himself another one. It was also very gratifying to see Live Oak buy her. I also sell some horses for Mrs. Weber, so it's fantastic and I wish her very well."

Warrendale also consigned hip 2442, a Bodemeister filly out of a full-sister to Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint hero Desert Code (E Dubai) that was hammered down to Glen Hill Farm's Craig Bernick for $260,000.

"[The Bodemeister filly] had a very similar profile to the Warrior's Reward, just not quite as mature as the Warrior's Reward," Taylor said. "I think that Harvey Clarke was the underbidder and he loved her, said she was the pick of the day. She's a big, rangy filly and stood over a lot of ground."

Glen Hill has signed for five horses, all fillies, for gross receipts of $995,000.

Taylor was pleased with the traffic on the sales grounds and also that both her top sellers Tuesday had landed in the hands of end-users.

"It was very nice to see that," she said. "It was a very, very busy sale [Tuesday]. There was very good energy on the grounds with lots of people looking. It's great for these breeders to see these horses go to people that will race them."

Casse also has some history with Silver Fern. The Nicholsons are also the breeders of the Casse-conditioned Eclipse Award winner Classic Empire (Pioneerof the Nile).

"He knows them and has confidence in their ability to raise a good horse," Taylor said.

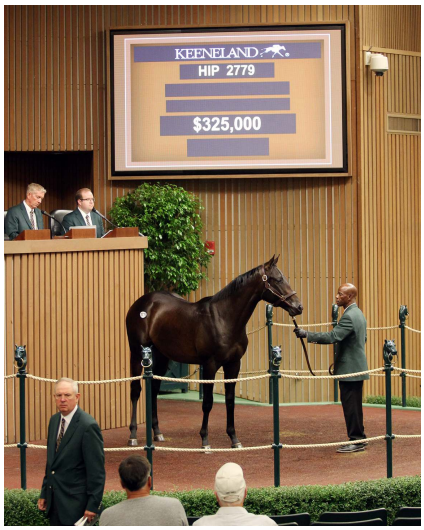
Warrendale was Tuesday's leading consignor by gross, selling 17 head for $1,568,000.

Hess a Chip Off the Ol' Block...

Trainer Bob Hess, Jr. knows when to listen to his father, the veteran horseman Bob Hess, Sr.

"When dad says, 'you need to buy this one,' you pretty much have no choice. We had to have him," the California-based horseman said.

It was hip 2779, a Betz Thoroughbred-consigned son of Stay Thirsty that was the object of the affections of Hess Senior and Junior, and the younger Hess was happy to land the horse he and his father deemed "the best physical of the sale" for $325,000.



Hip 2779, a son of Stay Thirsty who shared the top price of $325,000
Keeneland

"We think he's got the pedigree to become a Classic winner," Hess Jr. said. "He's a very lovely horse. Baffert's got 100 of them, and we've got this one. Hopefully he's the right one."

Hess Jr. said he bought the horse on behalf of a group he refers to as 'friends and family,' a group of clients for which he has trained for several years.

Hess Jr. echoed the sentiments of many on the grounds over the first eight days of selling, admitting that it's been tough sledding.

"It's been extremely strong, which is very good for the industry, I think," he said. "We've been trying for the better part of a week and this is the first one we've been able to buy."

At the end of the day, Hess Jr. would not be denied. "Like I said, dad wanted this horse and we would have kept going if we had to."

Selling continues with the first of two Book 5 sessions Wednesday morning at 10 a.m. in Lexington. The Keeneland September sale continues through Saturday, Sept. 23. For full results and other information, visit www.keeneland.com.

As a bright-eyed kid, I saw much more than that--alcohol, drugs and nudity. But while all that was going on around me, I pressed my face to the fence at the end of the backstretch each time the field moved by on the undercard races.

It was the first Saturday in May in 1973, and my life was about to change. In 1:59 2/5.

When the Derby field moved by me, Shecky Greene and Sham were on the lead. Secretariat was in fourth on the outside. He wouldn't hit the front until they had straightened away for home.

When Secretariat went on to win the Preakness, passing the entire field with a sweeping move on the first turn, and then took the Belmont in the most breathtaking performance I have seen, I was hooked.

Twenty years later, I waited impatiently for Penny Tweedy to sign a Secretariat poster. I wanted to tell her what she, and her horse, had meant to me during my youth. How they had captured my body, my mind and my spirit, not to mention my brain and heart. How I had not been the same person since the 1973 Kentucky Derby.

Dan Liebman | Sue Finley

Penny listened politely while I told her how in college, the final exam for a senior-level public speaking course was to give a speech in which you tried not just to inform your listeners but convince them of your position.

I spoke passionately about how Secretariat was the greatest horse to have ever raced.

I saw Penny many times after that, but I have always remembered that day in 1993 when she listened to me gush about my love for Secretariat and how he helped shape my life.

Penny was a great ambassador for racing, lending her name to causes and always willing to appear in public when her schedule permitted. Cont. p9

She understood that her place in the limelight was not of her own making; it was of Secretariat's. But she embraced it, and used his popularity--which grew even greater over time--to help promote the sport.

Penny was the better for it. And so was the industry.

Each year since Big Red was three, I have either attended or watched the Derby. I think back to having witnessed his Derby and consider where that year's winner stacked up.

Admittedly, it is a mighty high measuring stick.

It wasn't just that Secretariat had great talent. He had great legs. He had a huge heart. He had the cover of Time. And Secretariat had Penny.

Horses can't choose their owners. But Secretariat was lucky to have Penny. And she was damn lucky to have him.

He gave the sport its first Triple Crown winner in a quarter-century. In the process, he helped Penny save the family stable. She then took his greatness and used it to become an integral part of the industry.

It is the stuff they make movies about, which, of course, they did.

I still find handicapping a challenge. And I wonder if not for the Derby of 1973, and my dear sister taking me to see it, what might have been different in my life. (Click here to return to p1)

FOREVER LINKED, WOOD RECOGNIZED BY LONGRUN FOR HORSE WELFARE

by Perry Lefko

After 40 years in the Thoroughbred business as a breeder, owner, consigner and farm manager, Gail Wood continues to give to the business that has been such an important part of her life.

Now the business is giving back to her.

Wood, who has co-bred a Queen's Plate winner among her many accomplishments that include key positions with the Canadian Thoroughbred Horse Society, the Jockey Club of Canada and the Ontario Thoroughbred Farm Managers Association, will be honored by the LongRun Thoroughbred Retirement Society Sept. 22 with the Lana Hershelle Sniderman Award as part of the organization's annual fundraiser.

The award is given out in recognition to horsemen for their caring and ethical approach to their horses' care, both during and after their days at the races, and their generous support of the LongRun program.

"We try to give out the award every second year, but if we didn't have anybody worthy, we wouldn't bother," said LongRun founder/chairperson Vicki Pappas, who considers Wood like a sister because of their close relationship.

Previous winners of the award include Steve Stavro, Frank and Elfriede Stronach, Gustav and Anne Schickedanz, Sam-Son Farm, Chiefswood Stable and Eurico Rose da Silva.

Wood provided a full-time home for LongRun horses in 2016 when she sold the organization one of the two farms she owned in Hillsburgh, Ontario, about a 45-minute drive north of Woodbine Racetrack. She operates her business as Woodlands Farm and it has been the home of countless stakes winners that were born and raised on the propety as young horses.

"To be quite honest, I was a little leery [of being the recipient of the award] because I didn't feel like I had done anything," Wood said. "There's no one more shocked than me. I've never been good at drawing attention to myself. I've never been a person who needed that."

The farm she sold, a 101-acre property, is part of where she began her career in the Thoroughbred business. In 1973, Wood began working for the late Harry Hindmarsh, a prominent Canadian breeder/racehorse owner who subsequently hired her as his farm manager, a first for women at the time in the Ontario horse racing industry. In 1990, she was voted the initial recipient of the Farm Manager of the Year Award in Ontario. Following the passing of Hindmarsh in 1991 and the decision by his widow to cease commercial operation four years later, Wood decided to lease and later buy the 101-acre farm, which includes a track for training horses. It was one of three farms on the overall property.

In 2000, she bought a nearby 62-acre farm, where she built a home and developed the property for broodmares and their offspring.

"Lana Sniderman and her late husband Spencer Berg were not only good clients of ours, but were very dear friends of myself and my late husband [Dan Steeves]," Wood said. "Lana was full of life and she loved animals."

"They immediately hit on something that was important to both of them," Wood said. "It's Vicki's baby [LongRun]. She's always had a huge heart for horses."

Pappas had been working for Woodbine Entertainment Group in horsemen's relations in 1992 when she came upon a 10-year-old gelding at Fort Erie Racetrack named Up Pops The Devil (Our Native). He won over $265,000 in his career, which was quite a lot for the era, but had clearly become disinterested in racing. At the time, horses couldn't race in Ontario past the age of 10.

"She was determined to convince [the owners] they should retire him," Wood said. "It was in the fall and I got a phone call from her and she says 'I've got to get this horse off the track by tomorrow. Can you take him?' So he came to me.

"At the time, Vicki didn't have any funding [to start LongRun]. Within 10 days, she found him a home. We had a soft spot for Glayva, which is a Scotch liqueur, and she says, 'how much do I owe you?' I said, 'you owe me a bottle of Glavya.'"

Gail Wood

LongRun became a charitable organization in 2000.

"Woodbine Entertainment Group got on board and Vicki got funding from them and she got accredited by the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance," Wood said. "All of these things are important, but the big gift was from Mrs. Sniderman and her husband being so generous."

Sniderman passed away in August, 2012 following a battle with lung cancer. In her will, she left money for the LongRun program to purchase a farm. It was just a matter of finding the right one. Once the estate was settled, it took Pappas about a year of looking at various properties before deciding on the Woodlands farm. It coincided with Wood deciding to cut back on her workload.

"I probably needed something to slow down," Wood said. "I'm 65 for Pete's sake. This is a lifestyle that you can do for a long period of time, but you can't do it with the [same] intensity. I sort of planned that this was semi-retirement forever. I figured at this rate I can do this as long as I physically can do anything, but the way it was, there's no way I could've.

"I lost my husband [four years ago], and that made a big difference, too. You don't have that person who, when you come home at night, you can rave at. The dogs have to listen to me."

Spencer Berg passed away while the sale of the farm was still in the process of being finalized.

"It's just sad that neither [Lana or Spencer] lived to see it because they would have loved that given that they were good friends of ours," Wood lamented.

"I've been a very lucky person," she added modestly. "I was trained to work in television. I hated it. It was slow. There was nothing exciting about it. It sounds very glamorous, but it isn't. I thought I'd work with horses and when I get too old to do that, I'll go back to TV, and now that I'm older I don't have to go back to that.

"I don't know why the horse racing industry means so much to me. People just have passions, and if you're lucky, when you're young, something ignites in you. Some people never find their passions, or some people have to work all week and try to find their passion on the weekend. I just was lucky that I fell into my passion and I was good at it. I was never afraid to work, and it was also during a time when the [Ontario] government was our partner. It would be very hard for someone like myself to do what I've done with the environment we live in now. Property values have skyrocketed. How would a young person buy a farm these days?"

Wood has three broodmares she owns. Her racehorses have always been trained by Phil Gracey.

"I don't have the time to go to the track very often and I feel completely confident he takes care of my horses the way I'd want them to," she explained. "We've done very well with him."

Last December, she and her sister, Dr. Ruth Barbour, won the $150,000 GIII Valedictory S. with their 5-year-old homebred Bangkok (Street Hero), a longshot at over 15-1. She also has Bangkok's 2-year-old half-sister, Worlds Your Oyster (Silent Name {Jpn}), saying of the filly, "we like her a lot, of course everyone loves their unraced 2-year-olds."

Wood and Pappas's husband, William Diamant, bred Edenwold (Southern Halo), who was voted Canada's champion 2-year-old colt in 2005 and went on to win the 2006 Queen's Plate. Vicki claimed the horse's dam, Best of Friends (Mining), as a maiden for $10,000, and she went on to win her first race at the $25,000 claiming level.

"I've been lucky in that way, too, but it's funny how Vicki and my life have intertwined over the years, not only in racing but with LongRun, too," Wood said.

"Our industry needs this space, too," she added. "The people who attack our industry are people who don't realize how passionate we are about the animals. They pick out the odd, ugly story they can find. They don't look at the hundreds of thousands of people who are deeply committed to their racehorses and make all kinds of personal sacrifices to make sure they are taken care of. Unfortunately, the negative sells and the positive is ignored. Organizations like LongRun are the trench between us and the enemy. It's a face that shows how much we care about the animal."

LongRun had about 10 foster farms where it placed its retired horses. Now almost all of them will be relocated to the 101-acre farm. Some cannot be moved because of age.

"Unfortunately, the people that fostered for us were terrific people, so it was sort of hard to make the decision to centralize it, but when Lana Sniderman left us that large bequest, combined with the money we had been saving all along, we had the funds to do it," Pappas said. "It was like it was fated to be. We looked at a bunch of facilities and a bunch of different options and it didn't turn out. Gail did everything possible to make sure we could afford it. She left it turnkey for us. Gail has always been supportive of us financially as a donor and supportive of me personally."

LongRun has stalls for 46 horses at its permanent location, which has become a place for people to learn general horsemanship.

"It's really a great place for horses that can't go on to do anything because they get all this attention and treats," Pappas said. "It's really a neat thing to see--kids that have never been near a horse interact with them."

It's an incredibly wonderful and touching story how this all came together because of fate, people who love horses and a friendship that has become like a sisterhood.

CAPLA TEMPTRESS TO MOTT

Capla Temptress winning the Natalma | Michael Burns/WEG

Team Valor International's Capla Temptress (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}), who burst through a late seam to win Sunday's GI Natalma S. at Woodbine going away, will remain in North America and be transferred to the Bill Mott barn in preparation for a start in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf, trainer Marco Botti announced Tuesday.

"The plan before the race was to send her [to Woodbine] and for her to stay in America if she ran well, or was lucky enough to win," Botti said. "The first step has been achieved and it is the Breeders' Cup next. There was not much point in considering the costs to bring her back [overseas] and send her out again. If they left the filly in my care for seven weeks, it would not be the same as having her with a trainer based there. As much as I would love to have a runner at the Breeders' Cup, we are trying to do the best [thing] for the horse and the owners."

The bay filly captured her debut on an all-weather surface June 21 at Chelmsford before annexing a Newmarket allowance when switched to turf July 22 and running third in the G3 Sweet Solera S. at the latter oval Aug. 12. With the Natalma being a Breeders' Cup "Win and You're In" event, Capla Temptress has already secured her place in the gate Nov. 3 at Del Mar.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Barry Irwin:

Regarding T. D. Thornton's Op-Ed Sept. 19: in a sport that sees weekly (if not daily) flaunting of current rules in which arrogant trainers appear to be using the known illegal drug EPO to gain an edge, I for one find it nothing short of comical that we are all up in arms over this silly video that served only to highlight the type of arrogance on display at America's major racing venues.

If those who play our game really gave a hoot, they would get deadly serious about cleaning it up, instead of paying lip service to the notion of clean sport and getting their knickers in a wad over this little sideshow. If cheaters are using EPO as many suspect, the best and perhaps only way to catch them is to have cops or surveillance. Hong Kong is able to thwart cheaters because they are on lockdown. Lockdown upset too many horsemen so it was abandoned in New York.

With our wide-open stable areas and few, if any, cops on hand, cheaters are going undeterred in their quest of robbing our game of its treasure, relevance and legitimacy as a sport.

Barry Irwin is the owner of Team Valor International.

James Delahooke:

WHOA.

I have resisted previous temptations to ally myself with WHOA (the Water, Hay, Oats Alliance) on the basis that, as a Brit, I have no business pontificating about U.S. drug policies.

Two recent events have decided me to strap on my guns and head into town to join the battle.

Firstly, I read with incredulity an advertisement in which one of your leading trainers enthusiastically endorsed a product specifically designed to speed recovery from pre-race medication.*

Then today, I read that a trainer filmed boasting about "juice" will be welcomed back at the same track next year.

As the cockney wide boys in London would say, they must be 'aving a larf!

I have just returned from my 39th consecutive visit to Keeneland's September Yearling Sale, where I regularly purchased 15-20 yearlings to race in England. Last year, I bought one, this year, none. In spite of Wesley Ward's single-handed efforts to promote the American Thoroughbred, the sad truth is that nobody here wants your horses anymore.

They don't trust your black-type, your under-raced stallions or your medication policies. There are plenty of good, young men and women in the breeding industry in the U.S. They need to strap on their guns and have a shootout with the complacent, laissez-faire politicians and racecourse managers. And your trainers who bleat that they cannot train without drugs, tell that to the Australians, the Japanese, and the Europeans who are all managing very well on hay, oats and water.

Del Mar putting on a show for Breeders' Cup in early November, with golf, music, food

Not only will the Breeders' Cup showcase horse racing's top talent Nov. 3-4 at Del Mar Racetrack, but it'll also shine a light on San Diego's cuisine, culture and entertainment. Heavy on music and food, the festival begins a week before the races. It also features golf tournaments, a beach run and a $100,000 poker tournament.

NEW YORK

Hall of Fame Names Triple Crown Exhibit After Chenery:

In recognition of her remarkable contributions to the sport of Thoroughbred racing, the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame has named its Winners of the Triple Crown exhibit in honor of Penny Chenery, who died Sept. 16 at the age of 95.

"Penny Chenery was a remarkable person and a wonderful ambassador for our sport," said John Hendrickson, the Museum's president. "She was a champion for the Thoroughbred and a role model for all. It is the Museum's privilege to recognize her contributions to racing. Secretariat was a Triple Crown champion and so is Penny. The Museum is honored to have Penny forever interwoven in the legacy of the Triple Crown within our institution."

Located in the Kleberg Foundation Triple Crown Gallery, the Penny Chenery Winners of the Triple Crown interactive multimedia exhibit tells the stories of the 12 American Triple Crown winners, including the remarkable journey of Chenery's Meadow Stable colt Secretariat, winner of the 1973 Triple Crown.

Nearly 200 Head Consigned to Equine Sales' October Sale:

A catalogue of 195 head has been released for the Equine Sales Company Open Yearling and Mixed Sale, while approximately 10 late supplements will be added, bringing the total catalogue over 200. The auction will be held Sunday, October 15, at 10 a.m. in Opelousas, Louisiana.

The auction will start with an offering of 73 yearlings, followed by a mixed session with 122 head. The mixed session includes 31 weanlings and six 2-year-olds, along with broodmares, a stallion and horses of racing age.

"We had a very good select yearling sale in August, so I think that momentum will continue with this one," said Sales Director Foster Bridewell. "This catalogue has something for everyone in all price ranges, and we expect to have some new buyers who couldn't make it to our last sale due to Hurricane Harvey."

MO DONT NO (g, 4, Uncle Mo--Lilah, by Defrere) has feasted on state-bred company over the last two seasons and reasserted his dominance with an allowance score Tuesday. Entering off three consecutive wins, the Buckeye-bred was pounded down to 4-5 favoritism as part of a two-horse entry and did not disappoint. Biding his time behind a rapid early pace, the gelding made a move to take control on the far turn, opened up a sizable lead into the stretch and held sway to score by 1 1/4 lengths over Duff (Candy Ride {Arg}). The winner has an unraced juvenile half-sister by Take Charge Indy named Takechargedelilah and a yearling half-brother by The Factor. Sales History: $50,000 Ylg '14 KEESEP. RECORDS SET AT TATTERSALLS IRELAND

€230,000 record-priced Showcasing colt | Tattersalls Ireland

Vibrant trade at a bustling Fairyhouse resulted in record-breaking prices on the opening day of the Tattersalls Ireland September Yearling Sale on Tuesday, as two colts sold for €200,000 or more, a feat that had not been seen in the sale's history.

Ballyphilip Stud in County Limerick is enjoying a stellar season thanks to the exploits of graduate Harry Angel (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}), successful in both the G1 Darley July Cup and the G1 32red Sprint Cup at Haydock. Along with another son of Dark Angel bred by the McCartan family, the 3-year-old Battaash (Ire), who was fourth in the G1 Coolmore Nunthorpe S. at York in August, Ballyphilip's stock has never been higher. So when a colt by Showcasing (GB) bred by the family and selling as lot 219 strode into the sales ring, every available vantage point was taken with the big players in the market all determined to be the ones to get their hands on the latest potential star from the home of G1 Cheveley Park S. heroine Tiggy Wiggy.

Michael O'Hagan was in the thick of the fray from the start, first duelling with trainer Michael O'Callaghan, but when O'Callaghan had to surrender, Matt Coleman of Stroud Coleman Bloodstock and Ballyhane Stud owner Joe Foley joined battle with O'Hagan. The atmosphere electrified as the bids crept over €200,000.

It was O'Hagan who made the record-breaking bid of €230,000 for the colt out of the Invincible Spirit (Ire) mare Starfly (Ire), a winner at two and the dam of a winner from her lone runner.

"This is a farm that has been lucky for me in the past and for me, this colt is one of the nicest horses in the sale," said O'Hagan. "We picked him out and separately Clive Cox chose him too, and he will train him for an existing client of mine. He is a real athlete and looks a very exciting prospect."

Cox trains Harry Angel--who he bought from the McCartans as a yearling--for Godolphin, which purchased the 3-year-old after his success in the G2 Sandy Lane S. at Haydock in May.

The record-priced Showcasing colt contributed to gains across all sectors on Tuesday, resulting in what the sale company described as "the best set of returns ever for day one of the September Sale." A total of 195 yearlings were sold for €5,624,500, compared to 121 sold for €5,529,500 on the same day last year. The buyback rate was 10% compared to 15.5% last year. Cont. p2

The average rose 11% to €28,844, while the median was up 20% to €24,000.

Godolphin appeared on the buyers list at the September Yearling sale for the first time in its own right, purchasing a colt by Kodiac (GB) for €200,000. Consigned by John Foley's Ballyvolane Stud, lot 152 is out of Queen Wasp (Ire), a mare bred by Darley by its leading sire Shamardal (Ire). She is a half-sister to Naheef (Ire) (Marju {Ire}), victorious in the G3 Champagne Lanson S. at Glorious Goodwood and second in the G1 National S. at The Curragh.

Anthony Stroud, who was marking his return to the Tattersalls Ireland September Yearling Sale after a considerable absence, did the bidding on behalf of Sheikh Mohammed.

"This is a lovely, athletic horse by a wonderful stallion," said Stroud.

The sale was highly significant for John Foley, who is consigning under his own brand of Ballyvolane Farm for the first time, having previously sold as Gortskagh House. He sold the colt, a half-brother to Rusumaat, a four-times winner by Arcano (Ire) for Mark Johnston and Sheikh Hamdan's Shadwell Stud, on behalf of his breeders Kilminfoyle House Stud.

"It is a great result for all the team who have put in such a big effort," said the consignor. "It is great for the farm to have a result like this in our first year too. The stallion and the pedigree are a really big help--his half-brother is rated 109 and what else can you say about Kodiac? I have sold Kodiac's stock since the start of his career and he is an incredible stallion."

Trainer of the moment Karl Burke returned to this sale buoyed by the success of G1 Prix Morny hero Unfortunately (Ire) (Society Rock {Ire}). The trainer picked up that colt, who also won the G2 Prix Robert Papin, at this venue last year for what now looks the bargain price of €24,000 from Tally-Ho Stud, and he returned to the well to replenish his string for next season.

Karl Burke inspecting yearlings | Tattersalls Ireland

Burke was a busy bidder during Tuesday's sales, buying four yearlings on his own and another in partnership with Middleham Park Racing. He teamed up with the successful syndicator to purchase a colt from the first crop of The National Stud and Rathasker Stud's sire Gregorian (Ire) consigned by Ullardbeg Stables (lot 116). A half-brother to four winners, the colt is related to Classic winner and Group 1 sire Footstepsinthesand (GB); Pedro The Great, winner of the Group 1 Phoenix S.; G1 Irish 2000 Guineas victor and young sire Power (GB); and Curvy (GB), successful in the Grade I EP Taylor S. for David Wachman.

Burke's faith in first-crop sire Society Rock has been handsomely rewarded and he was willing to put his trust in three of this year's class. From Unfortunately's breeders Tally-Ho Stud, Burke paid €15,000 for lot 82, a colt by Morpheus (GB), an Oasis Dream (GB) half-brother to Frankel (GB) and Noble Mission (GB) who stands at the O'Callaghan's farm in County Westmeath.

On a day that saw the median and average prices increase yet again from last year's impressive returns, a colt from Rathbarry Stud made the early running as the first horse to break the six-figure barrier. By Rathberry's own sire Acclamation (GB), the grey is a full-brother to four winners out of New Deal (GB), a winning daughter of Rainbow Quest. He will go into training with Karl Burke for Mark and Aisling Gittins, who purchased lot 104 for €110,000. Cont. p3

"He was the standout yearling for us today," revealed Gittins, who bred dual Group 1-winning juvenile Shalaa (Ire) with his wife from their Castlefarm Stud. "Acclamation is a very good sire who is having a great year and we are happy to have been able to get this colt."

Tattersalls Ireland cast its net far and wide for international buyers and reeled in a group that encompassed more countries than ever before. Hong Kong, America, Belgium, Italy, Portugal and Spain as well as Ireland, France and the UK are among the final destinations for the yearlings who changed hands on Tuesday.

For the first time, Hong Kong Jockey Club's representatives made the trip to Tattersalls Ireland. The Club's agents made their presence felt in the sales ring, claiming the spoils in a tug of war between three different buyers for a son of second-season sire Requinto (Ire).

Hong Kong's team were forced to go to €85,000 to secure lot 66, who is the first foal of the unraced mare Maraglen (Ire), a daughter of Rock Of Gibraltar (Ire) from the family of GI Yellow Ribbon H. winner Super Staff.

The sale represented a handsome profit for Jonathan and Mary Hillman's Danesrath Farm, which purchased the colt at last year's inaugural Tattersalls Ireland Flat Foal and Breeding Stock Sale for just €11,000.

Lot 66, Requinto colt | Tattersalls Ireland

Godolphin's dual hemisphere sire Exceed And Excel (Aus) was represented by a single yearling in the catalogue on Tuesday and lot 208 fell just short of the six-figure mark, selling to Con Marnane for €90,000. The colt boasts an impressive pedigree, with his dam So Secret (Ire) (Barathea {Ire}) being a half-sister to Tarfsha (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), runner-up in the G1 Oaks for Dermot Weld and Sheikh Hamdan and a three-parts sister to Saddler's Rock (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), winner of both the G2 Doncaster and Goodwood Cups and third in the G1 Ascot Gold Cup. It is the further family of Ballymacoll Stud's G1 Grand Prix de Saint Cloud hero Gamut (Ire). Cont. p4

Renowned pinhooker Marnane celebrated the G3 Albany S. win of Different League (Fr) (Dabirsim {Fr}) with his family at Royal Ascot this year, and he said he thinks this colt could be a star for that meeting next year.

"Exceed And Excel is a sire I have been lucky with over the years and this is a really athletic colt, a proper runner," said the proprietor of Bansha House Stables. "To me this is a Royal Ascot 2-year-old and I could bring him to the Craven Breeze-Up Sales, but that decision will be made down the line."

Lot 122, Gale Force Ten colt | Tattersalls Ireland

Two sires with their first yearlings made an impact during Tuesday's opening session, with Gale Force Ten (GB) responsible for the most expensive yearling sold by a first-crop sire. His colt out of Paris Glory, consigned by Bill Dwan's Castlebridge Consignment, sold to Armando Duarte for €65,000 and could be headed for next year's breeze up sales.

The colt by the Irish National Stud's young sire was catalogued as lot 122 and is a half-brother to four winners out of an unraced half-sister to G1 Prix Morny winner and sire Elusive City from the further family of current Canadian star turf performer Lukes Alley, winner of the GI Gulfstream Park Turf H.

"I know the mare quite well," Duarte said. "I bought his half-sister Vale Of Paris (Ire) as a yearling but that didn't work out as well as I had hoped. He comes from a very good farm in Mattock Stud and I think I might prepare and sell him for the breeze ups myself."

The sale was the highlight of a good day's trading for progeny of Gale Force Ten, who won the G3 Jersey S at Royal Ascot. He stands for a fee of €5,000 at the Irish National Stud and on Tuesday four lots by him sold for an average price of €32,000.

Godolphin's first-crop sire Slade Power (Ire) was the sire of Tuesday's most expensive filly, a good-walking daughter of Slope (GB) (Acclamation {GB}), who was third in the G3 Grangecon Stud Balanchine S. at The Curragh. Selling from Loughmore Stables as lot 205, the filly is the second foal of her dam and was bought by Daniel Creighton and Josh Schwartz for €60,000.

Three offspring of the G1 Diamond Jubilee S. and G1 July Cup winner sold on Tuesday for an average price of €40,667, just over double his 2015 covering fee of €20,000.

CHEVELEY PARK BUYS UNFORTUNATELY

Unfortunately winning the Prix Morny | Racing Post

Cheveley Park Stud has purchased Group 1-winning 2-year-old Unfortunately (Ire) (Society Rock {Ire}). Previously campaigned by Jeff Laughton and trainer Karl Burke's wife, Elaine, Unfortunately has won three of his six starts and has twice finished second. He won the G2 Prix Robert Papin on July 23 before taking the G1 Darley Prix Morny on Aug. 20 at Deauville. Unfortunately is set to line up next in the G1 Middle Park S. at Newmarket on Sept. 30.

Cheveley Park Managing Director Chris Richardson said, "We are delighted to have formed an association with trainer Karl Burke, who was instrumental in us acquiring Unfortunately, for Cheveley Park Stud. Being by Society Rock, we feel Unfortunately will, in time, add an interesting commercial opportunity for breeders and he enhances the portfolio of stallions currently standing at Cheveley Park Stud."

"He had a gallop in Chantilly and it went very well," Royer-Dupre told Press Association Sport. "He will have another gallop next week and everything is OK."

Zarak, a son of 2008 Arc heroine Zarkava (Ire) (Zamindar), is a 16-1 chance to give his owner H.H. The Aga Khan a fifth success in the Arc and Royer-Dupre a third.

FACT OF THE WEEK

FIVE STAR MATRON

By John Boyce

You'resothrilling winning the Cherry Hinton | Racing Post

The 2017 renewal of the G1 Moyglare Stud S. marked another red-letter day for the Storm Cat mare You'resothrilling. The race's winner, Happily (Ire), was the mare's third Group 1 winner and her fifth Group 1 performer, following G1 Irish 1000 Guineas heroine Marvellous (Ire), dual Guineas winner Gleneagles (Ire), GI Belmont Oaks third Coolmore (Ire), and Secretariat runner-up Taj Mahal (Ire), all by Galileo (Ire). Winner of the G2 Cherry Hinton S. at two and rated 117 by Timeform, You'resothrilling was clearly the second-best foal out of Mariah's Storm, following the great Giant's Causeway, like You'resothrilling sired by Storm Cat.

Happily's success puts her dam among the very best matrons in the world of Thoroughbred breeding. There have only been 10 mares in the Northern Hemisphere foaled since the pattern began that have produced five or more Group 1 performers in their lifetime. The three leaders, locked on seven Group 1 performers apiece, are Hasili (GB), Urban Sea and Fall Aspen. Hasili's seven Group 1 horses from only 10 runners feature an unbroken run of five Group 1 winners--Banks Hill (GB), Heat Haze (GB), Intercontinental (GB), Cacique (Ire) and Champs Elysees (GB). And Dansili (GB)'s fast finish in the 2000 Breeders' Cup Mile could easily have made it six consecutive Group 1 winners. Urban Sea's seven include Galileo and Sea The Stars (Ire), while Fall Aspen can claim Group 1 winners Northern Aspen, Hamas, Fort Wood and Timber Country among hers. What's especially exciting about You'resothrilling's achievements is that every one of her first five foals is a Group 1 performer. Only Hasili among the very best listed on our table has matched that particular feat.

HURSTEL RESIGNS FROM PMU

Xavier Hurstel, Chairman and CEO of the PMU, resigned his position at Europe's largest betting operator on Thursday, it was reported in the Jour de Galop and Equidia. Hurstel said he would leave the company in early November. Current Deputy Chief Executive Officer Alain Resplandy-Bernard will fill the position until a new CEO is named. Hurstel has been with the PMU since 2008, and the CEO since 2014, when he took over for Philippe Germond when he left the company to work for Europcar. Thursday morning, he sent a long letter to employees in which he told them he would be joining a "large publicly traded French technological group, a leader in its field, with a presence in many countries and several tens of thousands of employees in order to head their transformation. My decision to accept this challenge is a logical next-step after these 10 years spent at the PMU, which has undergone a profound transformation to serve the evolution of its strategy in the service of development for the equine industry."

TATTS AUTUMN HIT SALE EXTENDED

The Tattersalls Autumn Horses in Training Sale will run five days--from Oct. 30 to Nov. 3--instead of four due to a high level of entries, the sales company announced Tuesday. Over 1,750 lots are expected to be catalogued, with the sale starting at 9:30 a.m. local time for the first three days and at 10:00 a.m. the final two days. Book 4 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale, featuring approximately 50 lots, will also be held on Nov. 3, immediately following the end of the Tattersalls Autumn Sale.

"The Tattersalls Autumn Horses in Training Sale is the largest of its type anywhere in the world and attracts a truly international cast of buyers each year," said Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony.

"Last Year's record-breaking sale and clearance rate of 92% has resulted in an unprecedented number of entries, which means we have had to extend the sale to five days."

Catalogues will be published on Sept. 28.

OBSERVATIONS

on the European racing scene

2.00 Sandown, Cond, £6,000, 2yo, 8fT

Khalid Abdullah's hitherto unraced FIRST ELEVEN (GB) (Frankel {GB}), a John Gosden trainee, is out of 2002 G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches heroine Zenda (GB) (Zamindar) and is thus a homebred half-brother to MG1SW sire Kingman (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). His 11 opponents include Godolphin's once-raced Falcon Eye (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), who is a half-brother to 2013 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf-winning sire Outstrip (GB) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) out of 2006 GI Spinster S. victress Asi Siempre (El Prado {Ire}), from the Charlie Appleby stable.

2.10 Yarmouth, Mdn, £7,000, 2yo, 7f 3yT

Godolphin's IMPERIAL PAST (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) is a son of 2010 G3 Thousand Guineas Prelude winner and G1 Champagne third Divorces (Aus) (Domesday {Aus}), and the homebred bay debuts for Charlie Appleby here. Rivals include Khalifa Dasmal's fellow newcomer Prime Minister (Ire) (Dream Ahead), who is an Ed Vaughan-trained half-brother to MG1SW sire Doctor Dino (Fr) (Muhtathir {GB}) and the stakes-winning 2013 G1 Kikuka Sho-Japanese St Leger third Bande (Ire) (Authorized {Ire}).

2.25 Fairyhouse, Mdn, €15,000, 2yo, 6fT
THREEANDFOURPENCE (War Front) was runner-up going seven furlongs in a hot Curragh maiden, which produced Tuesday's Galway maiden winners Hazapour (Ire) (Shamardal) and Coeur d'Amour (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}), in his only prior start last month and the Aidan O'Brien trainee is opposed by a fully-subscribed cast of 17 in this return. Evie Stockwell's homebred bay is a son of 2007 G3 Ballyogan S. victress Liscanna (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and is thus a full-brother to 2015 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf scorer Hit It A Bomb and last term's G1 Cheveley Park S. heroine Brave Anna.

MUTAAQEB (GB) (c, 2, Invincible Spirit {Ire}--Mejala {Ire}, by Red Ransom) was green from the gate and raced in rear from flagfall in this first go. Easing closer from halfway, the 3-1 pick was shaken up approaching the eighth pole and kept on strongly under rousting thereafter to deny Rule of Honour (GB) (New Approach {Ire}) by a neck in the dying strides. The homebred bay, kin to a colt foal by Exceed And Excel (Aus), was produced by a winning half-sister to five black-type performers headed by stakes-winning G3 Prestige S. runner-up Mudaarah (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) and Listed Star S. victress Sudoor (GB) (Fantastic Light), who in turn is the dam of last term's G3 Prix Noailles hero Raseed (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}). Airlie Beach, who is a full-sister to a yearling colt, boasts Grade 1-winning form under National Hunt rules and her two prior runs in flat mode yielded a July 19 third going 14 furlongs at Killarney and an Aug. 17 two-mile maiden win at Tramore, either side of a third here in the prestigious Aug. 3 Galway Hurdle. Slipping one spot to race fifth after passing the judge first time in this career closer, she was rousted along inside the final three furlongs to lead on the home turn and stayed on resolutely for a continued drive in the straight to bow out with a first black-type win.

"It's a pleasure to ride such a good mare and for her to go out like that is a fairytale for connections," reflected winning rider Pat Smullen. "She wants to go further than that trip and needed all of the hill. Every step she took up the hill she was devouring it and her stamina won out. She is a quality mare and it's great she has gone out on a high." Click for the Racing Post result. Video, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

COEUR D'AMOUR (IRE) (f, 2, Zoffany {Ire}--Adoring {Ire}, by One Cool Cat) ran ninth going seven panels, in the Aug. 20 Curragh maiden which featured earlier winner Hazapour (Ire) (Shamardal), on debut last time and was off the pace through the early fractions after breaking with the back markers here. Rousted by rivals on the home turn, the 7-2 second favourite straightened up in third and kept on relentlessly under Colin Keane's continued urging to prevail by 1 3/4 lengths from Big Bad Sal (Ire) (Big Bad Bob {Ire}). "Billy [Lee] gave her a perfect education at The Curragh and she has come on a lot [for that run]," said winning trainer Madeleine Tylicki. "She does everything very well at home and is taking everything in her stride. She's a big frame of a horse still, but has a lovely big stride and handled the ground and track really well. The main thing is that she is a lovely horse for next year." Half-sister to a filly foal by Camacho (GB), she is the fourth scorer produced by a winning half-sister to G2 Mill Reef S. victor and G1 Golden Jubilee S. runner-up Galeota (Ire) (Mujadil) and Listed River Eden S. victress Loulwa (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), who in turn is the dam of dual stakes winner Justineo (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}). Sales history: €20,000 RNA Wlg '15 GOFNOV. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $13,992. Video, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton. O-Joseph M Fitzpatrick; B-Mrs Sharon Fitzpatrick (IRE); T-Madeleine Tylicki.

HAZAPOUR (IRE) (c, 2, Shamardal--Hazarafa {Ire} {SW-Ire}, by Daylami {Ire}) was three places adrift of Hunting Horn (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) when tackling seven panels in his Aug. 20 debut at The Curragh last time and accepted a tow in second after breaking on the lead here. Shoved along to seize control on the home turn, the 5-2 second choice was ridden out inside the final furlong to hold his old rival by a length. "They went very steady at The Curragh [first time], it turned into a three-furlong race and it didn't suit him at all, but today was more of a test and stamina was a big help to him," explained rider Pat Smullen. "It's tough conditions, but he stuck it out well to the line. He'll obviously improve from the run and is a nice staying horse." The homebred chestnut is the fourth scorer from as many foals to race out of Listed Finale S. victress Hazarafa (Ire) (Daylami {Ire}), herself kin to a further three stakes performers headed by last year's G1 Epsom Derby and G1 Irish Derby-winning European highweight Harzand (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}). SLIPPER HEROINE TRIALS BEFORE MOIR 2017 G1 Golden Slipper S. heroine She Will Reign (Aus) (Manhattan Rain {Aus}) won a 900-metre trial at Rosehill on Tuesday, covering the distance in :52.90. She Will Reign will make her seasonal debut in the G1 Moir S. at Moonee Valley on the night of Friday, Sept. 29 before tackling Royal Randwick's The Everest on Oct. 14. She Will Reign fills the slot for Yu Long Investments in that 1200m feature and will be ridden by Ben Melham. Kerrin McEvoy, who will ride She Will Reign in the Moir, with Melham unable to make the 3-year-old's weight, was on board for the trial.

"They don't break :53 [seconds] very often," trainer Gary Portelli told Racing.com. "I've seen them run :53 1/2 and thought that was fast, but she ran :52-something. Everything went like clockwork this morning. She's her usual relaxed self. She did what she had to do. She's a pretty laconic horse these days and it was great to see her hit the line good and she pulled up enormous." Cont. p13

"He [McEvoy] just jumped on for feel," Portelli said. "He was happy with the way she relaxed and happy with the way she quickened. I said 'it looks like it took awhile for her to hit her top?' and he said 'no, I think it was the track. It was pretty rough.'"

Portelli was cognizant of the stigma against resuming Golden Slipper winners and said, "She's just got to step-up now. The 2-year-old hoodoo. We'll see if we can get rid of it. We'll race her Friday night and get her home as fast as we can. We might even leave Saturday night or Sunday morning. We find the quicker you get them home, the less chance of anything going wrong and they love their own feed bin."

HKJC CONSOLIDATES SPRING FEATURES

For the first time, the Hong Kong Jockey Club will stage three of its spring features on the same program, it was announced Tuesday. The G1 Champions Mile and the G1 Chairman's Sprint Prize (1200m) will move forward by one week on the racing calendar to Apr. 29 and will serve as supporting events for the G1 Audemars Piguet Queen Elizabeth II Cup (2000m).

"This adjustment to the schedule unifies these three world-class features under the banner of the Audemars Piguet Queen Elizabeth II Cup race meeting, so creating Hong Kong's own spring festival," said Anthony Kelly, Executive Director, Racing Business and Operations for the Hong Kong Jockey Club. "These moves will create one of the most lucrative days of racing in Asia and offers overseas connections a single date at which to target their horses. We are already looking forward to an excellent day of international racing in Hong Kong on the last Sunday of April."

The trio of races will offer total prizemoney of HK$58 million (£5.5 million/US$7.4 million). As previously announced, each of the three major spring features saw their purses raised for 2018. The QE II Cup, now worth HK$24 million, is the second-richest event in Hong Kong, second only to the HK$25-million Longines Hong Kong Cup held during December's Longines Hong Kong International Races meeting. The purses for the Champions Mile and Chairman's Sprint Prize have been hiked by HK$2 million to HK$18 million and HK$16 million, respectively, for the first time in 2018.

The G3 Queen Mother Memorial Cup H. (2400m), originally scheduled for Apr. 29, has been moved back one week and will now take place Sunday, May 6. The race serves as a course-and-distance prep for the G1 Standard Chartered Champions and Chater Cup three weeks later.

Free entries for each of the three races close Mar. 19, 2018. The Hong Kong Jockey Club provides shipping incentives, including the normal costs of return air transport for selected overseas horses for these races, along with travel and accommodations packages for their connections.

'FANTAISIE' BACK TO WINNING WAYS

by Alan Carasso

Looking to bounce back after being handed the first defeat of his career Aug. 25, Chopins Fantaisie (NZ) (Pins {Aus}) successfully stretched out to the metric mile for the first time and gutted out a neck victory in a BM83 handicap Sunday at Kranji.

After simply being left with too much to do from too far behind over 1400m last time, the full-brother to former Hong Kong Horse of the Year Ambitious Dragon (NZ) was given a more positive ride this time from gate 11 and found a good spot from fourth, with cover, one out and one back through the opening furlongs. Vlad Duric peeled out the $16 (11-5) second choice with the better part of 500 metres to travel and the duo grabbed Oxbow Sun (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}) to lead at the furlong marker. Still flashing signs of immaturity, Chopins Fantaisie looked to idle a bit while waiting on challengers, but was always holding $80 roughie Chairman (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the run to the line, then remained in front on the gallop out (video).

"He's still very green, but he's an absolute racehorse," Duric told the Singapore Turf Club's Michael Lee. "There is still a lot there to come from what he's shown us so far. He was very dour today, though. From the start, he got across quite easily and at the 800m I started to get a feel for him. I just wanted to stay behind the horse in front and then peel him out for his run. Once he got in front, he loafed and it felt like he was just waiting for a horse to challenge him, and then he kicked again. He is a real stayer."

With the first leg of the Triple Crown series, the Kranji Mile, just two weeks away, Chopins Fantaisie will miss that in favour of the S$700,000 Raffles Cup (1800m) Oct. 22.

Owned by Joshua Tan's Jubilant Racing No. 4 Stable and trained by Michael Clements, Chopins Fantaisie, an NZ$150,000 graduate of the 2015 NZB Premier Yearling Sale, has five wins from six runs and earnings of S$213,435.

TRENCHARD TOPS DUBAI SALE

The 3-year-old colt Trenchard (Elusive Quality), winner of a Kempton handicap in April for John Gosden, drew the top price of AED700,000 (£141,191/€158,889) at Saturday's Racing In Dubai sale at Meydan. A half-brother to stakes winners Banner Bill (Rockport Harbor) and Third Chance (Kafwain) and the graded-placed Zulu (Bernardini), Trenchard was purchased by trainer Mike de Kock. Trenchard had been a $285,000 yearling purchase at Keeneland September in 2015.

Leading buyer at the sale was local trainer Ali Rashid Al Rayhi, who bought six total including the AED300,000 (£60,421/€68,095) Janszoon (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), a 3-year-old gelded half-brother to Group 2 winner and Group 1-placed Laughing Lashes (Mr. Greeley). Janszoon bested the smart router UAE King (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in a Lingfield maiden in May.

More than AED5-million (£1,007,016/€1,134,640) in total was spent on the 46 horses offered at Meydan. The average price was AED110,000 (£22,154/€24,962), with four horses exceeding AED300,000.
