LUKAS/CALUMET SPRING ANOTHER 'AWESOME' UPSET

Bravazo | Hodges Photography

In 2013, Hall of Famer D. Wayne Lukas teamed up with Calumet Farm to score a 15-1 upset in the GI Preakness S. with Oxbow (Awesome Again). Those legendary connections joined forces with another son of Awesome Again for a big upset Saturday at the Fair Grounds, capturing the GII Risen Star S. with 21-1 shot Bravazo. Hall of Famer Gary Stevens, who piloted Oxbow to his Classic win, was scheduled to ride the homebred for what would have been true deja vu, but was unable to make the trip in from Oaklawn and leading NOLA rider Miguel Mena inherited the mount.

Away alertly, Bravazo battled GIII Lecomte S. third-place finisher and 41-1 shot Snapper Sinclair (City Zip) through opening splits of :24.15 and :47.96 with "TDN Rising Star" Noble Indy (Take Charge Indy), Lecomte victor and race favorite Instilled Regard (Arch) and High North (Midnight Lute) running three abreast right off the leaders' heels. Instilled Regard was the first to make his move, ranging up menacingly on the pacesetting duo's outside, but Snapper Sinclair and Bravazo both still had more in reserve. They shook free of Instilled Regard, but continued to battle each other down the stretch as the rail-skimming Noble Indy determinedly tried to close the gap. Running a few paths off the rail, Snapper Sinclair and Bravazo continued to give it all they had and, for a moment, it looked like Snapper Sinclair would hold on. But, Bravazo would not be denied and found just enough in the final strides to get the tip of his nose down on the line first. Noble Indy held for third and Instilled Regard checked in fourth. Cont. p3

MONOMOY GIRL RETURNS TO WINNING WAYS

Monomoy Girl (Tapizar) is a neck short of having a perfect record, but returned to winning ways Saturday with a 2 1/2-length score in the GII Rachel Alexandra S. at the Fair Grounds, earning 50 points towards a start in the GI Kentucky Oaks. Breaking a step slow and to the right from the outside post in this eight-horse affair, the 4-5 chalk was a bit headstrong, running off the rail in last as Testing One Two (Star Guitar) and Classy Act (Into Mischief) battled through an opening quarter in :23.58. Florent Geroux gave the chestnut her head after a half-mile went up in :46.83 and she swiftly advanced up the outside to be a three-wide second turning for home. Drawing even with leader Classy Act in early stretch, Monomoy Girl bore right sharply, but was quickly corrected by Geroux and extended clear to win as she pleased. Classy Act held second and "TDN Rising Star" Wonder Gadot (Medaglia d'Oro) came running late for third. Cont. p4

"First of all, I am very thankful to the connections," Mena said. "I found out two or three days ago that Gary Stevens wasn't coming and the Coach, Wayne Lukas, gave me the call. I talked to the assistant trainer Bas [Nicholl] this morning and he told me how much they liked the horse. He gave me a couple of instructions and told me to ride with confidence because he was a very nice horse and here he showed it."

Bravazo | Hodges

Donning cap and gown by 4 3/4 lengths at second asking at Churchill Downs Sept. 16, Bravazo ran second to recent GII Holy Bull S. runner-up Free Drop Billy (Union Rags) in the GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity S. at Keeneland Oct. 7 and was third next out in the Street Sense S. back in Louisville Oct. 29.

Never lifting a hoof when 10th in the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. Nov. 25, the dark bay cleared his first-level allowance condition with a neck success going a mile at his trainer's winter base at Oaklawn Park Jan. 13 with Stevens in the irons.

Pedigree Notes:

Bravazo is the 36th graded stakes winner and 64th black-type victor for Awesome Again. Calumet Farm purchased Tiz o' Gold for $35,000 with Bravazo in utero at the 2014 Keeneland November sale. The winner is the first foal out of the California-bred mare, who has since produced a juvenile colt by Raison d'Etat; a yearling filly by Aikenite; and a Raison d'Etat colt born Feb. 7 of this year.

Monomoy Girl | Hodges Photography

"I wasn't thinking good thoughts," trainer Brad Cox said. "I was shocked she got away like that, although she had gate trouble earlier before she ever run. That's why decided to run her long first time on the turf. Her last three works her at the Fair Grounds have been phenomenal. I was a little worried that some of the other fillies had a race on her over the last month. She showed us a lot. Overcoming things, dirt in her face, passing horses, stuff like that. She's becoming a big girl."

A decisive debut winner on turf at Indiana Grand Sept. 5, Monomoy Girl followed suit with an optional claimer score on the Churchill Downs lawn Sept. 28. The $100,000 KEESEP buy proved to be quite versatile, taking to dirt with aplomb with a 6 1/2-length triumph in the Rags to Riches S. beneath the Twin Spires Oct. 29 and was run down late to finish a neck second in the GII Golden Rod S. there Nov. 25.

Pedigree Notes:

Monomoy Girl is the first graded stakes winner for 2012 GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile victor Tapizar. Her dam Drumette is a daughter of MSW Endless Parade and a half-sister to GSW turfer and sire Drum Major (Dynaformer). The 10-year-old mare produced a 2-year-old full-brother to the winner named Cowboy Diplomacy and a yearling colt by Palace Malice. She was bred back to Shackleford.

MW: In January of 2017 you had the first foal by Triple Crown winner American Pharoah out of your mare Kakadu. How has he developed and matured?

JA: He's another one that's built like a tank... he's got a ton of bone and is a real big, strong colt. Mr. Aboughazale's already named him (First Pharoah) and he's got five more American Pharoah yearlings from that crop. He's so high on him as a stallion. Ms Locust Point made it four straight impressive front-running victories and earned a career high here. Heroine of this track's Gin Talking S. at two, she added the Willa on the Move S. Dec. 9 and What a Summer S. last time Jan. 20.

Looking to go a perfect four-for-four at Laurel on this snowy afternoon, the chestnut sped through fractions of :22.99 and :46.61 and wasn't for catching in the stretch.

"You know the old saying, 'If it ain't broke, don't fix it,'" winning trainer John Servis said. "I don't want to throw too much at her too quick. I have to talk with [owners] Mr. [Chuck] Zacney and Jim [Reichenberg] and see if we want to try a Grade I next or do we want to try another Grade II, Grade III and see how she handles them. She's got such a brilliant cruising speed. She clicks off those :12's like nothing, with her ears pricked. We'll certainly think about [the GI Madison S. at Keeneland]."

Something Awesome, who found the fountain of youth as a 6-year-old when switched back to dirt at Laurel in the fall, broke through with his first stakes win Saturday at age seven, rallying from well back to capture the GIII General George S.

Winless in four starts to begin his career in 2014 and 2015, the bay was laid up for over a year and returned north of the border to capture four of his first six starts for trainer Daniel Vella at Woodbine in 2016. He had failed to find the mark in eight subsequent outings, however, and resurfaced with this barn to dominate a local optional claimer Nov. 5. Repeating in a similar spot Dec. 17, the gelding was most recently third by under a length in the Fire Plug S. here Jan. 20.

Let go as the narrow favorite in this sloppy, snowy affair, Something Awesome dropped back to travel in a distant seventh behind legitimate fractions of :22.73 and :45.90. Advancing steadily four wide on the bottom half of the turn, he emerged as the main danger to the pacesetters at the top of the lane and charged down the center of the track, sweeping to the fore at the sixteenth pole. Flattening a bit once hitting the front, he dug in late to hold off the bid of Fellowship to his inside for the breakthrough score.

"These people [Stronach Stables] have been so great for me," said winning trainer Jose Corrales. "They gave me the opportunity of my life. I've been waiting to win a [big] race for them. In stake races, I've been getting beat a neck, a head. I talked to Mr. Stronach. I said, 'When are you going to send a horse that will win?' He said, 'You might have it in your stable.' They sent me this horse. He's old, but he came here and trained like a good horse. To me, he's the best horse I've ever trained. I think it's the surface chance."

Elvis Trujillo, the victorious rider and nephew of Corrales, added, "I'm so thankful for my uncle, who helped me a lot, and everybody that helped me. I feel so happy. This is my dream. This win is for my mother." Cont. p8

Fault, claimed for $50,000 by Agave Racing Stable and trainer Michelle Lovell out of a winning effort at Churchill last May, captured Arlington's GIII Pucker Up S. in August. She held her own against stakes company in her last three outings while not hitting the top three, including a fifth-place finish in the GII Mrs. Revere S. at Churchill Nov. 24 and a troubled fourth-place finish in the Pago Hop S. at Fair Grounds Dec. 30.

Making her first attempt for trainer Phil D'Amato in this West Coast debut here, the bay settled in sixth through fractions of :23.01 and :45.75. She began to advance with a rail-run on the far turn, and scraped the paint in the stretch to get the money.

"I knew she was a very consistent filly and was only getting better back east," D'Amato said. "She had a bad luck trip at Fair Grounds, but from the very first time I breezed her I thought, 'This is a horse I've been looking for in this category for quite a while.' She's shown me a lot in the mornings and she trained like she belonged in here. You never know until you run against these girls in here and she showed that she fits."

Pedigree Notes:

Out of SW Charming N Lovable, Fault is a half-sibling to GIII Iowa Derby runner-up Betweenhereandcool (Unbridled's Song) and SP Congenial (Pulpit). Charming N Lovable, a half-sister to GSW & GISP Mananan McLir (Royal Academy), is responsible for the unraced 3-year-old colt Iron Cor (Orb); a juvenile filly by Lookin at Lucky; and a yearling filly by Orb. She was bred back to Runhappy.

Synchrony, knocking on the door of a stakes victory dating back to January 2016, broke through off of a near nine-month layoff to score in the GIII Fair Grounds H. on the GII Risen Star S. undercard Saturday.

Third in the Smarty Jones S. as a sophomore, the homebred filled the same slot in the GIII Lexington S. that spring in his final start for trainer Donnie Von Hemel. Returning for this outfit last winter, he was fifth in a main-track optional claimer before finding new life when switched to turf, scoring in that same condition and running second in both the Henry Clark S. and GIII Red Bank S. last spring.

Unseen since then, the chestnut returned with a sharp local worktab, capped by a five-furlong spin in 1:00 flat (2/28) Feb. 10, and was made the third choice in a full 12-horse bunch. Bounced around a bit at the start, he was guided to the rail by Joe Bravo and traveled in ninth behind sharp fractions of :23.22 and :47.44. Tipped into the clear three deep at the top of the far turn, Synchrony was inseparable from favored Mr. Misunderstood as those two jostled some while rallying into contention past the quarter pole. That pair blew past the tiring pace players in mid-stretch and Synchrony started to do the better work inside the eighth pole, drawing clear late to prevail. Mr. Misunderstood was easily second-best, while longshot Tiz a Slam showed some late interest to get third money.

Pedigree Notes:

The winner's dam, who captured the GIII Ouija Board H. at Lone Star in 2008 and placed in seven other graded stakes on both turf and dirt, is out of a MSP half-sister to MGSW/GISP Stylish Star (Our Native). Third dam Northern Style was a stakes winner, as well. Brownie Points is responsible for a juvenile filly by Candy Ride (Arg) named Chocolate Kisses, who sold for $410,000 to John C. Oxley at last summer's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale; and foaled a More Than Ready colt last Mar. 19 before being bred to Pioneerof the Nile.

Former claimer Streamline picked up her second graded stakes victory Saturday with a late-running score in the Bayakoa. Breaking sharply, the Illinois-bred was taken back to caboose the field, riding the rail as longshot Defy (Into Mischief) clocked an opening quarter in :22.90 and a half in :46.61. Closing the gap entering the backstretch run, the dark bay was tipped out four wide and progressed up the outside to be a joint second turning for home. Streamline set her sights on new leader Terra Promessa in the lane, bumped that rival a bit as she drew alongside her in mid-stretch and kicked clear late to win. Favored MGSW Farrell (Malibu Moon) never factored and was eased late. Cont. p10

Streamline (center) | Coady

"She was really touting herself in the post parade," Hall of Fame pilot Gary Stevens said. "I mean, she was on her game today. She had a race underneath her. [Trainer] Brian [Williamson] seemed quietly confident in the paddock. She was making me confident. Then, my hand was kind of forced on me. I had planned to attack Farrell early on and she broke sharp, but Farrell kind of got shuffled back in my face. My mare settled for me and was just dragging me around there. I actually made the lead about an eighth of a mile too early with her, though. She fought it out. But, she's got more in the tank, believe me. She is just an old pro, a pleasure to ride and a lot of fun."

Winner of this venue's GII Azeri S. last March, Streamline checked in third behind champion Stellar Wind (Curlin) in the GI Apple Blossom H. in April and filled that spot again in a sloppy renewal of the GI La Troienne S. at Churchill Downs May 5. Shelved for the season following that effort, she made her 6-year-old debut in the local Pippin S. Jan. 13, where she finished third to Farrell.

Pedigree Notes:

Streamline comes from a long line of Vanier homebreds produced in Illinois. Her dam Love Handles most recently produced a yearling colt by Giant Oak and was bred back to Jack Milton.

The Player ran like an even-money favorite, taking the field from gate-to-wire for a dominant victory in the Mineshaft. Adding blinkers for this one, the homebred broke alertly and skipped clear of his rivals, clocking an opening half-mile in :47.98. Still just galloping under a motionless Calvin Borel turning for home, the chestnut rolled further clear in the stretch and hit the line a never in doubt winner. "TDN Rising Star" Thirstforlife, a half-brother to fellow "Rising Star" and MGISW Cavorting (Bernardini), came running late to complete the exacta.

"Going down the backside Calvin had that nice hold on him and he was just so relaxed and running easily." trainer Buff Bradley said. "[Borel] said, [The Player] needs to know when those horses are coming to him. He said, [the horse] was quite a bit more focused today and I think just watching, I thought that the horses were going to come to him, but Calvin never even asked until the eighth pole."

He added, "When Calvin was looking around at the quarter pole I said, 'They're not going to catch them today'." Cont. p11

Runner-up in the GIII Ack Ack S. last September, The Player won a sloppy renewal of the GII Fayette S. at Keeneland Oct. 28 and was fifth next out in the GI Clark H. beneath the Twin Spires Nov. 24. The chestnut was last seen finishing fourth to Cedartown (Candy Ride {Arg}), who was scratched from this test, and the re-opposing Scuba (Tapit) in the Louisiana S. here Jan. 13.

Pedigree Notes:

The Player is one of the last horses bred by longtime owner/breeder Fred Bradley, who bred and campaigned the likes of two-time champion Groupie Doll (Brass Hat) and Grade I-winning millionaire Brass Hat (Prized). The Bradleys and Carl Hurst purchased his third dam Regal Export (Regal Classic) privately for just $20,000 and bred his second dam SW Town Queen, who in turn produced SW & GSP Queen's Award (Medaglia d'Oro). The Player's dam Hour Queen's most recent produce is a 3-year-old colt named Hours Truly (Yes It's True). She failed to get in foal for 2016 or 2017, but visited Temple City last spring. Click here for a feature on The Player and his connections.

OWNER CAESAR KIMMEL PASSES AWAY

By Bill Finley

Known for owning fast horses and a mischievous side that led him to slip a number of salacious names by The Jockey Club, owner Caesar Kimmel died Saturday in Delray, Florida. He was 91.

His son, trainer John Kimmel, said he had a stroke about three months ago and died peacefully in his sleep early Saturday morning.

"He was an amazing person," said Jimmy Toner, one of Kimmel's primary trainers. "One of a kind. There was only one Caesar. He enjoyed life. He was a very good family man and had wonderful children, John and Karen. I went places I never would have gone without him taking me there. I worked for him for over 20 years, but besides that, he was a great friend to me. He'll be missed by many people. But he's a person nobody will ever forget. Everyone who knew Caesar knew he was a special type of person, and I have so many fond memories. He was such a practical joker. You never knew what was coming next."

Kimmel was a long-time executive with Warner Communications, but his son said he true passion was horse racing.

"He was someone who always identified with racing," Kimmel said. "He did so much in the business world, but he got much more enjoyment out of racing than anything else. He enjoyed all aspects of the sport. He was so enthusiastic about racing and he was always driven to come up with a good horse."

Kimmel was introduced to racing by his father, Manny, who was a legal bookmaker before pari-mutuel wagering began in New York. John Kimmel said that his grandfather began taking Caesar to Saratoga in the early 1940s.

Kimmel began owning horses in the early 1960s. One of his first good horses was I'm For Mama, a three-time stakes winner in the early seventies.

"That was the first horse that he really had fun with," Kimmel said. "She was a terrific mud horse. He had that old 'X' mark they used to put in the Form for a good mud runner. He loved that horse."

Over the years, Kimmel would go on to campaign several stakes horses, including Grade I winners Flat Fleet Feet and Flying Chevron, 2007 GII Pennsylvania Derby winner Timber Reserve, and Miss Golden Circle, who won four Grade II stakes

Caesar Kimmel always remained loyal to Toner and allowed him to train many of his horses after John Kimmel began training in 1985. Cont. p12

John Kimmel | A. Coglianese

Jimmy Toner | Sarah Andrew

At that time, he divided up the stable between the two and the younger Kimmel said winning big races for his father was among the greatest thrills of his life.

"We had so much success together," Kimmel said. "He was a very generous man and he provided me with a great life. I am very grateful."

Caesar Kimmel was also known for his off beat sense of humor and his love of a good joke.

"When I first started working for him, we went to the sale down in Lexington," Toner said. "I don't know how he arranged these things in advance, but we checked into the hotel, and the desk clerk told me, `I hope you don't mind, but there was somebody murdered in your room last week.' And I'm like, `Well, why do I have to be the one to stay in the room?' So I check into the room and then I hear a knock on the door, and Caesar's got a mask on and he's holding a hatchet in his hand. I started screaming. When I found out it was him, I said, `Why would you do something like that?'"

Toner continued, "But that's the sort of thing he did all the time. He had this pet mouse he'd take with him, and he'd take it out on the plane, or in the room when the maid was there. He got me a lot. It took me a while to catch on. He was one of a kind. There will never be another."

Kimmel loved to pull fast ones on The Jockey Club and got away with naming many a horse names that probably never should have been approved. There was Titular Feast, Cold as A Witch's, Sock Tucker, Bodacious Tatas, Cunning Stunt and Peony's Envy.

"He got more thrills and giggles trying to fool with names," John Kimmel said. "Everyone knew him as the guy always coming up with funny names and giving The Jockey Club fits. He'd sit in his office at Warner Communications writing names down to play jokes on The Jockey Club. He wanted to keep them on their toes."

WHY RACING?

TONY ALLEVATO, President, NYRA Bets & Executive Producer for NYRA TV

As part of a new series, we asked a number of people not born into racing families why they got into the sport, and what their first racing memory was.

Tony Allevato | A. Coglianese

How did you come to be interested in horse racing, and choose it as a career?

I first got introduced to horse racing by my high school football coach who had me running Pick Six bets to Santa Anita whenever there was a carryover. I first learned about racing from a gambling standpoint and then fell in love with the sport. I always wanted to work in sports television and found a niche with horse racing

What's your first racing memory?

I remember early on trying to handicap a maiden race and seeing that a son of Seattle Slew was running. I thought to myself, "This horse's dad was Seattle Slew...how can he lose?!?" He won going away and I thought "this is easy." It wasn't until the next time that I went to races that I realized that there were many, many offspring of Seattle Slew.

I was lucky enough get involved with racing at a time when horses like Ferdinand, Snow Chief, Precisionist and Alysheba were racing.

Probably the race that made me a believer in the sport was the Sunday Silence/Easy Goer Preakness which I was lucky enough to witness live. To this day it remains one of the greatest races I've ever seen.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

CLEAN SPORT

It is quite a wonderful feeling to watch the Winter Olympics, confident that every athlete in every event is competing without cheating. It is indeed moving and inspirational watching the win, place, and show recipients proudly and happily receive their medals, knowing that each Olympian competed without the use of performance-enhancing drugs.

We all owe a debt of gratitude to the governing body of the United States Olympic Committee for placing the rules, testing standards, and oversight in the capable hands of Travis Tygart and the United States Anti-Doping Agency (USADA) to guarantee compliance. Would that the horse racing industry possessed such vision, integrity, and courage. - ARTHUR HANCOCK

DISCREET CAT FILLY DELIVERS KNOCKOUT ON DEBUT FOR 'RISING STAR' HONORS

Uppercut (Discreet Cat) ran them off their feet to earn 'TDN Rising Star' honors in her unveiling at Santa Anita Saturday.

The full-sister to 2016 GI Frizette S. third-place finisher Colorful Charades brought $260,000 as an OBS April juvenile last year after breezing an eighth in :10 flat. She tuned up for this with a five-furlong move in 1:01 2/5 (19/55) at trainer Peter Eurton's Santa Anita base Feb. 10.

Off at odds of 6-1, the chestnut broke like a shot and quickly established the lead through a sharp opening quarter in :22.16. They stacked up four across the track on the far turn, but Uppercut had plenty left in the tank, re-breaking powerfully in the stretch to win by 5 3/4 lengths. Two Steps Faster (Two Step Salsa) stayed on for second. Heavy favorite Hottalabamba (Into Mischief), a rallying second on debut at Los Al Dec. 1, was third after a wide trip.

Laila's Punch, a two-time stakes winner at Laurel Park, brought $110,000 from Stonehaven Steadings at the 2008 KEENOV Sale. Uppercut is her most recent produce.

Hit It Once More had prior success in state-bred stakes coming into Saturday, with victories in the New York Derby at Finger Lakes and the Albany S. at Saratoga in his sophomore campaign. After going wire-to-wire against allowance foes when adding blinkers at Parx Jan. 9, he finished fifth in an optional claiming event there last time out Feb. 3. Cont. p2

The bay sprinted straight to the lead as the longest shot on the board and was two lengths clear passing the half-mile pole. He was still unchallenged and in hand around the far turn, was set down for the drive at the quarter pole and held steady in the final sixteenth to secure the front-running upset.

"He's a nice horse," said winning trainer Gary Sciacca. "He had a great 3-year-old campaign last year, winning the [New York] Derby and coming back and winning the Albany at Saratoga. It took him a little while to get this 4-year-old year together. We went two starts back with the blinkers and it kind of seemed to make a bit of a difference on him. Made him more focused to do his job. He always broke good but he pays more attention now. From a 3-year-old to 4-year-old just made him pay attention."

Belmont EHM Quarantine Update:

Officials at the New York Racing Association and New York State Gaming Commission received laboratory confirmation Saturday afternoon, verifying the suspect case of equine herpes myeloencephalopathy (EHM) that led to the quarantine of Barn 10 at Belmont Park late Thursday.

The EHM case was confirmed through both nasal swab and blood testing on a 4-year-old filly who began exhibiting neurologic symptoms Thursday. The filly, trained by Tom Albertrani, was euthanized Friday as her condition deteriorated. A full necropsy is underway at Cornell University College of Veterinary Medicine.

Following the development Thursday evening, Barn 10, currently housing 20 horses, was put under a 21-day quarantine, overseen by Dr. Anthony Verderosa, Director of NYRA's Veterinary Department, and in consultation with the New York State Gaming Commission.

All horses in Barn 10 will continue to be monitored closely for fever and other signs of illness. At this time, all horses that had been exposed to the affected horse have remained afebrile and asymptomatic.

During the quarantine period, these horses will not be permitted to run or enter races. They will have isolated training hours following the normal closure of the training track at 10 am.

NYRA will continue to provide additional updates as necessary.

X Y Jet has been perfect since his return to the races off a 13-month layoff, taking the GIII Mr. Prospector S. Dec. 23 and the Sunshine Millions Sprint Jan. 20 at Gulfstream Park and was prepping for a trip to Dubai for the G1 Golden Shaheen Mar. 31.

In his usual running style, the heavy favorite quickly dashed to the front, clocking the first quarter in :21.81. While still in hand, the gray opened up to 3 1/2-length advantage turning for home and poured it on passed the eighth pole. He was geared down crossing the wire for the victory, just missing the stakes record by three-hundredths of a second.

Also Ran: Mugaritz, Choo Choo, Could Be the One, Epical, Calexman, Unlawful Act.

Paved rallied for third in her first two starts going a mile on the turf at Santa Anita Oct. 21 and behind next out Blue Norther S. heroine Ippodamia's Girl (Stormy Atlantic) at Del Mar Nov. 25. She graduated impressively last time out when stretching an extra furlong at Santa Anita Jan. 6.

Taking on the boys here and breaking from the rail, the favorite was tucked in along the inside in the run to the clubhouse turn. Patiently handled by Drayden Van Dyke, she saved all the ground around the far turn while still in hand before being tipped out to the outside of pacesetter Mugaritz (Dialed In) and taking the lead just outside the furlong marker. Paved gradually pulled away inside the final sixteenth and held off a charge from City Plan.

Paved impressed when she breezed a furlong in :10 1/5 at last year's OBS March sale is the first black-type winner out of Sirmione, who's dam is GSW Desert Digger (Mining). Sirmione also has a juvenile colt by Animal Kingdom. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

PROMISING RUN TOUGH AS NAILS IN BALANCHINE

Promising Run | Dubai Racing Club/Andrew Watkins

Heavily favoured in the international markets, Godolphin's Promising Run (Hard Spun) looked beaten on multiple occasions in the stretch run of Saturday's G2 Balanchine S., but the homebred 5-year-old displayed considerable determination when push came to shove and stuck her lead over the line ahead of the classy Furia Cruzada (Chi) (Newfoundland). The Mick Channon-conditioned Opal Tiara (Ire) (Thousand Words {GB}) enjoyed a perfect journey, but found no extra in the final eighth of a mile and settled for third in defence of her title.

Last-out winner of her seasonal comebacker in the G2 Cape Verdi S. Jan. 25, Promising Run was a touch toey in the gates, but jumped on terms and took up a stalking position just off the flank of Saudi Arabia's Tiaemah (KSA) (Premium Tap) as Opal Tiara fell into the box seat from third. The latter was ridden along by Frankie Dettori at the half-mile and led narrowly, but Pat Cosgrave atop Promising Run looked to have her whenever he decided to call upon her. Sent into the lead off the home turn, Promising Run still traveled well, but so, too, did Opal Tiara, who was looking dangerous at the inside. Ultimately turning back that bid at the 200m, Promising Run soon had Furia Crusada breathing down her neck, but she dug in one final time and hit the wire narrowly in front. Cont. p2

YOUNG GUNS – HARVEY BELL

by Alayna Cullen

Young Guns is a series where we endeavour to find out more about some of the young professionals in the industry. Today we speak with Tattersalls Bloodstock Executive and Auctioneer Harvey Bell

TDN: What was your path into the industry?

HB: Although I grew up just outside of Newmarket my family had no previous involvement in racing. Our neighbours ran a small farm at Millfields Stables--I began mucking out for pocket money and quickly gained more of an interest in the horses I was working with. At 18, I travelled to work for a year at Arrowfield Stud in Australia followed by stints at Cheveley Park Stud, McKeever St Lawrence Bloodstock, Gerard Butler Racing and Three Chimneys Farm in Kentucky. Whilst in Kentucky, the position at Tattersalls was advertised and I had to jump at the opportunity. I began my current role in early 2012.

TDN: Who has been the biggest influence on your career?

HB: I have been very lucky to have spent time learning from some great people and I can't underestimate the impact of the early opportunities I was given. Sam Fairgray taught me am awful lot during my time at Arrowfield. Chris Richardson and Andrew Snell at Cheveley Park were always very supportive and Case Clay at Three Chimneys Farm gave me the opportunity to develop my skills in the commercial side of bloodstock.

TDN: What does your role involve?

HB: I deal with our vendors on a daily basis. This ranges from sourcing entries and the production of our catalogues to being a member of the Inspection team who travel far and wide to appraise young stock. I am also privileged to be able to take to the Tattersalls Rostrum during the sales and form part of our roster of Auctioneers. Cont. p4

Victorious in the G2 Rockfel S. at two, Promising Run was runner-up in the 2016 UAE 1000 Guineas on dirt and added a Group 3 on turf in Turkey at the tail end of that year. She defeated the boys in the G2 Al Rashidiya S. over the boys during last year's Carnival and was first-up for three months in the Cape Verdi, having previously finished third in the Listed Fleur de Lys S. over the Lingfield all-weather in early November.

"To be honest, things did not really go to plan this evening and in such a small field I would have much preferred a faster early gallop but we did not go very quickly," Cosgrave said. "It then became a bit messy and, not wanting to disappoint her, I was in front plenty soon and we were there to be aimed at. In fairness to her, she has seen off the challenges well and then had enough to thwart the very last one. A faster run race will suit her and, remember, she has done that under a penalty, so you have to be happy."

Pedigree Notes...

Easily the best produce for her Brazilian Group 1-winning dam, Promising Run is kin to the now 3-year-old Godolphin homebred filly Voladora (Medaglia d'Oro), winner of her lone trip to the post for Andre Fabre over the Chantilly all-weather last November. Aviacion is the dam of a yearling filly from the first crop of 2014 G1 English 2000 Guineas and 2015 G1 Lockinge S. hero Night of Thunder (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}).

HEAVY WEIGHT TAKES FIREBREAK

Sheikh Hamdan bin Mohammed al Maktoum's 8-year-old veteran Heavy Metal (GB) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) shrugged off top weight against rivals as much as half his age to post a victory in Saturday's G3 Firebreak S. at Meydan that looked like little more than a paid workout. Bouncing from the barriers on top, Mickael Barzalona aboard Heavy Metal allowed Cosmo Charlie (Stay Thirsty) to join him on his outside down the backstretch, but turning for home it was quickly apparent it would be Heavy Metal all on his own as Barzalona sat motionless and the others came under a ride. Heavy Metal drew ever clearer down the lane under a still Barzalona, and the margin was 9 3/4 lengths eased down on the wire, with a further 6 1/4 lengths between Cosmo Charlie and the third-placed Fantastic Four (Arg) (Forestry).

"He just loves it here at Meydan and this dirt surface," Barzalona said. "The 1600m is probably his ideal trip and he has won that today without me having to ask him to do anything. He seems to anticipate the start and knows when it is time to go. That helps him get to the lead, and the rail, after which he has proved many times he is a hard horse to pass. The 1900m last week was probably too far for him and I guess the Godolphin Mile will be his main target."

Heavy Metal was winning for the sixth time over this course and distance since last January. The chestnut had taken out last year's G3 Burj Naahar on Super Saturday before struggling home eighth in the G2 Godolphin Mile over the rare muddy track on Dubai World Cup night. He opened this campaign with a 4 1/2-length score in the Listed Dubai Creek Mile on Dec. 21, and had the same measure over the dual Group 1 winner Thunder Snow (Ire) (Helmet {Aus}) in the G2 Al Maktoum Challenge Round 1 on Jan. 11.

Heavy Metal failed to see out the added 1 1/2 furlongs of the G2 Al Maktoum Challenge Round 2 on Feb. 8, but was right back at home over the mile here on Saturday.

Pedigree Notes...

Bred by Darley in Britain, Heavy Metal is the second foal out of Rock Opera, winner of the G1 Alan Robertson Fillies Championship in her native country. She has had little luck as a producer since foaling Heavy Metal, with two barren years, one dead foal and two non-winners. She has some well-bred representatives to come, however, with a 2-year-old colt by Invincible Spirit (Ire) and a yearling son of Shamardal. Click for the free Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree.

YOUNG GUNS

TDN: What challenges do you face in your role?

HB: Managing the quantity of horses we sell each year is a challenging aspect of the role--in just my time at Tattersalls we are now cataloguing nearly 1,000 more horses a year than in 2012. This presents not only logistical challenges, but also the need to ensure that we work hard to promote to as many different markets as possible.

TDN: What advice would you give your 16-year-old self?

HB: Never be afraid to put yourself out there, some opportunities present themselves to you but often the best ones require you to be proactive.

TDN: What do you think is the biggest challenge facing the industry and how would you solve it?

HB: Future proofing our sport. This is a wide-ranging topic that encompasses everything from the workforce to the occasional racegoer. We have an incredible product that draws in people from far and wide; however, racing will need to continue to adapt to modern trends.

Anything that helps to promote our sport to a wider audience should be embraced. We should be aiming to turn the casual racegoer into one who follows the sport on a more regular basis. We need a captivated younger audience who then may want to follow a career path into the Industry and at the very least remains fans of the sport. There are a number of good initiatives out there along these lines; however, we shouldn't rest on our laurels.

TDN: What do you think horse racing's perception is for the general public?

HB: As attendance figures show, racing remains a popular pastime for the general public and that is a testament to the appeal of the product we have. Whilst the racedays provide the 'shop-window,' I think a lot of people do not understand that massive industry that is there behind the scenes and that area can often seem less accessible to the general public. That being said, events such as Newmarket Open Day have gone a long way into improving this.

TDN: How would you attract more young people into the workforce?

HB: It is important that racing appeals to people from a young age so that there can be a natural progression from that interest into a career path. I think educating schools, colleges and universities is also key. I remember that my college Tutor had a lack of any knowledge of the racing and bloodstock industries and providing these institutes with more information on the roles and pathways available to young people can only be a positive step.

TDN: Who is your favorite racehorse of all time and why?

HB: Pachattack (Pulpit) was a very special filly that I will always remember. She was a great character to work with and I was working in the USA the when she placed in 3 consecutive Grade Is. Being there when she finished third in the Breeders' Cup is a moment that will live long in my memory.

TDN: Tell us something about yourself that not many people would know.

HB: I am Chairman of Newmarket Rugby Club and a member of the senior playing squad. It is a role that takes up a lot of my spare time but something I find particularly rewarding.

TDN: What would you like to achieve in the next 5 years?

HB: I would like to continue to develop my auctioneering skills. Being up on the rostrum is something I greatly enjoy and a unique experience. I am lucky that the team of auctioneers we have here are an incredible group to work with and learn from.

THEWAYYOUARE DEAD

Thewayyouare (Kingmambo--Maryinsky {Ire}, by Sadler's Wells), the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud winner who sired the globetrotting Group 2 winner Toast of New York, has died at Haras de Corlay Stud aged 13, the stud announced on its Facebook page.

From a regal family, being a half-brother to champion filly and stakes producer Peeping Fawn (Danehill) and a grandson of the champion producer Blush With Pride (Blushing Groom {Fr}), Thewayyouare won four of five juvenile outings including the Criterium de Saint-Cloud for trainer Andre Fabre. After an abbreviated and unproductive 3-year-old campaign he was transferred to Aidan O'Brien, where he failed to fire in two starts at four. Thewayyouare started his stud career at Coolmore's Ashford Stud in Kentucky, where he sired Toast of New York from his first crop, and spent five years at Coolmore in Ireland before moving to Germany and finally France.

ASCOT GOAL FOR REDKIRK WARRIOR

The globetrotting Redkirk Warrior (GB) (Notnowcato {GB}) could be set for another plane ride, this time to Royal Ascot, after posting an eye-catching come-from-behind win in Saturday's G1 Black Caviar Lightning S. at Flemington, where he upset the G1 Darley Classic and The Everest winner Redzel (Aus) (Snitzel {Aus}). Redkirk Warrior was last out of the barriers and about six lengths off the lead as they passed the 600 in the 1000 metre straight contest.

The favoured Redzel, meanwhile, was poised about two lengths off the pace without cover. Redzel cruised to the lead when prompted passing the 300, but meanwhile Redkirk Warrior had maneuvered his way out from behind runners and was charging down the middle of the track. The Lindsay Park charge got up in the shadow of the wire under Regan Bayliss to post the upset and set his connections dreaming of Ascot.

"I am going to talk to [owner] Edmund Lee after the [G1] Newmarket [H. on Mar. 10]--he doesn't fire in Sydney--and he loves the straight," co-trainer David Hayes told Racing.com. "He's a real freak up the straight. We are genuinely thinking about the [G1] Diamond Jubilee on the final day [of Royal Ascot]."

The globally successful Hayes is yet to train a winner in the UK, but has tried with the likes of Nicconi and Criterion (NZ).

Redkirk Warrior would be touching down in familiar territory in Britain, having been born there and having started his racing career with William Haggas. He in fact won over the Ascot course in his former guise as a middle-distance performer in July 2014. A brief sojourn in Hong Kong ensued before Redkirk Warrior was snapped up for the Lindsay Park stable, and he won last year's Newmarket H. first-up in just his third start Down Under. His aforementioned dislike for Sydney was made evident by a subsequent 11th in the G1 Doncaster H. and fifth in the G1 All Aged S. After winning Flemington's G2 Bobbie Lewis S. first-up in the spring, Redkirk Warrior returned to Sydney to run 10th in The Everest, and was equally tame when rounding out his season with a 10th behind Redzel in the G1 Darley Classic. Redkirk Warrior will now aim for a title defense of the Newmarket H. again down the Flemington straight on Mar. 10.

Redkirk Warrior and Regan Bayliss | Darren Tindale

Peter Snowden, co-trainer of Redzel, said the horse would continue as planned towards the G1 TJ Smith S. at The Championships on Apr. 7. Jockey Kerrin McEvoy told Racing.com of Redzel, who was suffering his first defeat since last March, "It was a brave run. He got into a nice rhythm, I was really happy with the way he travelled up to the 400 metre mark and he gave me a nice kick when I went for him. He just got run down late by a very handy horse. It's disappointing to get beaten but it's only the start of his campaign and I think he's in for a great campaign."

Pedigree Notes...

While Redkirk Warrior is the first Group 1 winner under his first three dams, his second dam is a half-sister to the French champion 2-year-old, multiple Group 1-placed and GI Kentucky Derby runner-up Bold Arrangement (GB) (Persian Bold {Ire}). The page boasts stakes winners in the U.S., France, Australia, Ireland, Italy and India.

Redkirk Warrior's dam, Flag, who has produced seven winners, has not produced a foal since Redkirk Warrior; she was barren in 2013 and 2014 and not bred in 2015 and 2016. Redkirk Warrior was bred at Lenore Peacock's Manor House Stud in Britain and was bought as a Tattersalls October Book 2 yearling for 22,000gns by Jill Lamb Bloodstock.

JUVENILE ACTION HEATING UP

by Alan Carasso

With Australia's first top-level juvenile test--the G1 Ladbrokes Blue Diamond S.--just a week away at Caulfield, 2-year-old action was front and center early Saturday afternoon in Victoria and New South Wales with some top performances from horses who could be heard from over the next couple months.

The racing action at Flemington kicked off with the Listed Asian Executive S. (Talindert S.), a race won over the last handful of years by such luminaries as future G1 Golden Slipper S. winner Miss Finland (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}); Star Witness (Aus) (Starcraft {NZ}), who backed up successfully in the Blue Diamond, albeit three weeks later; and All Too Hard (Aus) (Casino Prince {Aus}), who won on debut, added a pair of Group 2s at two and four Group 1s at age three.

Sun Stud's Prairie Fire (Aus) (Snitzel {Aus}), the A$625,000 second-dearest lot at the Inglis Melbourne Premier Sale last March, was the $4.40 (22-5) joint-favourite off a debut third behind Ennis Hill (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) in the G3 Chairman's S. a fortnight ago.

Drawn widest in the field of 10, the blaze-faced bay was beaten for speed and tucked in for some cover before switching off heels and into the clear approaching the final 400m. Market rival Khulaasa (Aus) (f, Epaulette {Aus}) struck to the front on the inside rail at the furlong grounds, but Prairie Fire really found his feet at the 150m and raced away to score by a length beneath the in-form Mark Zahra to book his Blue Diamond ticket (video), for which he was sliced to a $9 chance from $51.

"He's improved since [the debut], we haven't galloped him too hard and he only galloped reasonable so that was a bit of a surprise how well he went then," trainer Mick Price told Racing.com. "I spoke to Sun Stud before today and they definitely want to run him in the Blue Diamond which is why they ran him here. This is basically his gallop to get him to next Saturday, so I just need to give him a soft week and let him get over today."

Bred by Palya Bloodstock, Prairie Fire was consigned to the Melbourne sale by Rosemont Stud. A 79th black-type winner and 31st 2-year-old stakes winner for Arrowfield's Snitzel (Aus), Prairie Fire is out of a half-sister to GSW & MG1SP Nina Haraka (Aus) (Fraar), herself the dam of SW & G1SP Extension of Time (Aus) (Dash for Cash {Aus}).

Prairie Fire impresses in the Talindert | Darren Tindale

Royal Randwick played host to the A$150,000 Pierro Plate, not a black-type race nominally, but which attracted a stakes-quality field. Sent off the $6 (5-1) third choice, third-time starter Santos (Aus) (I Am Invincible {Aus}) raced keenly on the outside of favoured Legend of Condor (Aus) (Not a Single Doubt {Aus}), but did not waste any time surging past the leader with 200m to run and on to a good-looking 2 1/2-length victory from Exceltic (Aus) (Excelebration {Ire}). Legend of Condor faded into fourth, while the well-backed Tchaikovsky (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}) enjoyed the run of the race, but failed to lift in the final stages and finished fifth.

Bred and consigned by Emirates Park to the 2017 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale, Santos was purchased by and is trained by Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott for a syndicate that includes Emirates Park. A debut third in the Listed Breeders' Plate in September, he was a latest fourth to Legend of Condor in at Randwick Oct. 14. Santos is a half-brother to Melagrana (Aus) (m, 5, Fastnet Rock {Aus}), a seven-time winner in Japan, including the G3 Ocean S.

Casadiva (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) was given a relatively soft introduction to the races in the opening race at Bendigo, but the A$1.15-million Inglis Easter purchase made the most of the opportunity to score by a handy length-and-three-quarter margin in a 2-year-old fillies' maiden (video). Ridden along early by Ryan Mahoney, Casadiva went through inside to challenge before the turn. Shaken up off the final corner, she pinched a break and proved not for catching as favoured Aristocratic Lady (Aus) (Foxwedge {Aus}) gave vain chase.

Bred by SF Bloodstock, Casadiva was consigned to Easter by Newgate Farm and is trained by Stanley at Sutton Grange. She is out of the Group 1-placed Fleur De'Here (NZ) (Dehere), the dam of SW & 2016 Blue Diamond third Zamzam (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}).

QATAR'S DRAMA DONCASTER BOUND

Qatar Racing's Endless Drama (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}), good enough to finish second behind Gleneagles (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G1 Irish 2000 Guineas and third behind Belardo (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) in the G1 Lockinge S. when trained in Ireland by Ger Lyons, is likely to get another crack at Group 1 glory Down Under in the G1 Doncaster H. after taking Saturday's G2 Apollo S. over the same course for trainer Chris Waller. In winning the Apollo by a quarter-length over Global Glamour (Aus) (Star Witness {Aus}) as the A$4.20 favourite, Endless Drama was making his first start since finishing last of 20 in last year's Doncaster. "It's quite a special win for me because he's had his share of issues so for him to win a race like that, it's close to a Group 1," Waller told Racenet.com.au. "I think there's more to come from him too. I'm not sure where his rating sits but he's a keep fresh horse, maybe a Doncaster hope."

Endless Drama was the middle leg of a memorable worldwide treble for Sheikh Fahad's operation, which was also represented by Marching Fire (Midnight Lute) at Turfway Park in Kentucky Friday evening and 2-year-old filly Carioca (SAf) (Var), a maiden winner campaigned in partnership Saturday at Kenilworth, South Africa.

Saturday's Randwick card also marked the return of Godolphin's last-season G1 Flight S. winner Alizee (Aus) (Sepoy {Aus}), who returned a winner in the G2 Light Finger S. as the A$2.50 favourite when holding off a late rally from Emirates Park's Shumookh (Aus) (Dream Ahead) by a head. Trainer James Cummings was bullish about the autumn prospects for the half-sister to Group 1 winner and Darley shuttle sire Astern (Aus) (Medaglia d'Oro), telling Racenet.com.au, "You can probably tell by how excited I am that she has a big preparation ahead. She has been a horse it's taken a while to tap into the potential she's got. She's returned stronger, she's got more to offer."

Shadwell also got an eye-catching win on the board with a 3-year-old filly Down Under on Saturday when Rimraam (NZ) (Commands {Aus}) took out the G3 Vanity S. over 1400 metres at Flemington. The Lindsay Park trainee rode the rail in midpack throughout and hit the lead inside the final furlong. She reached the line under a drive by a quarter-length over Bring Me Roses (Aus) (High Chaparral {Ire}) as a A$7.50 shot. Co-trainer David Hayes, who enjoyed a group-race double on the card, said Rimraam would likely have the G1 Schweppes Oaks later in the season as her primary target.

DUBAI

HANDICAP RESULTS:

4th-MEY, $125,000, Hcp, 2-17, NH4yo/up & SH3yo/up, 1200m, 1:10.96, ft.

YALTA (IRE) (c, 4, Exceed and Excel {Aus}--Lacily {SP-Eng}, by Elusive Quality) threw his name in the hat for the G3 Mahab Al Shimaal S. on Super Saturday, and then perhaps the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen on Dubai World Cup night, with a five-length score over that course and distance here. Springing from the gate on top as his stablemate Heavy Metal had done one race earlier in the G3 Firebreak S., Yalta never looked back and had five lengths on the runner-up Taamol (Ire) (Helmet {Aus}) at the line, with the field quite strung out behind.

Yalta | DRC/Andrew Watkins

Yalta, who is taking in his first carnival having previously been campaigned in Britain by Mark Johnston, has already had six starts this season dating back to Dec. 1 at Jebel Ali, and while he has already been soundly beaten by leading local sprinters like Ertijaal (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}), Comicas (Distorted Humor) and Muarrab (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), Saturday's performance suggested some improvement could be imminent. CLASSIC CUP NEXT STEP FOR NOTHINGILIKEMORE by Alan Carasso

But for a slow-starting runner-up effort in his penultimate appearance on the Longines Hong Kong International undercard Dec. 10, Nothingilikemore (Aus) (Husson {Arg}) would be the owner of a perfect record heading into Sunday's Hong Kong Classic Cup at Sha Tin Racecourse, for which he will be a warm favourite to negotiate the 1800m trip for the first time.

Untouched in his four starts at three last term, the bay gelding easily disposed of Class 2 company over 1400m Oct. 22 prior to his slight misstep two back. Sent off the $1.60 (3-5) in the Classic Mile four weeks ago, Nothingilikemore came from a position worse than midfield and sprinted best of all en route to a convincing 1 1/4-length defeat of Singapore Sling (SAf) (Philanthropist) and Morethanlucky (NZ) (Per Incanto). If Sunday's distance is a query, connections are not letting on.

"He's a very special horse," jockey Joao Moreira told the HKJC's David Morgan Friday morning. "I have no doubts that 1800 metres will be no problem for him. He was very impressive last time and if he reproduces the same form, it's going to be very hard again for those horses to beat him."

Exultant (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) could be the main danger and is being bet accordingly as the only of the 12 entrants in single digits ante-post at $6.60 (28-5). Whereas the race favourite has yet to run this far, Exultant is already well-versed at trips even further than this one, having overcome a torrid run to take out Class 2 over the BMW Hong Kong Derby 2000 metres Dec. 23. It was never going to be an easy task cutting back to the metric mile last time and he was predictably doing his best work late to finish fourth, with a final two furlongs in a solid :23.03. Cont. p12

"This distance will be better for him than the mile last time," trainer Tony Cruz told Morgan. "He's definitely going to be more suited to the 1800 metres and in time we will see him racing over 2400 metres, that won't be a problem."

Cruz, who last won the Classic Cup with Floral Pegasus (Aus) (Fusaichi Pegasus) 10 years ago, also sends out likely pacesetter The Golden Age (Fr) (My Risk {Fr}) and an intriguing European import in Doctor Geoff (Ire) (Fast Company {Ire}).
