CORE BELIEFS CONTINUES TO PROGRESS IN OHIO DERBY

Gary Broad's Core Beliefs (Quality Road) overcame a difficult trip and outfought favored Lone Sailor (Majestic Warrior) to register his biggest pay day to date in Saturday's $500,000 GIII Ohio Derby in suburban Cleveland. The locally based Trigger Warning (Candy Ride {Arg}) held the lead in upper stretch and held on to be a game third to spice up the exotics at 86-1.

Drawn awkwardly one from the outside in gate 10, the 14-5 third betting favorite broke slightly inward, but avoided contact and settled in the second flight of horses while three or four away from the inside as second choice Flameaway (Scat Daddy) showed the way into the first turn. Four deep turning up the backside and with some cover on the back of Trigger Warning, Core Beliefs was eased out into the clear nearing the half-mile marker, while Lone Sailor, a latest close fifth in the GI Preakness S., simultaneously went for a two-path run to be perfectly positioned just behind the leading group. Despite sitting a tough trip himself, Trigger Warning poked a head in front of Flameaway in upper stretch, but Core Beliefs was winding up with a sustained run and wrested command at the eighth pole. Lone Sailor threaded the needle to split Trigger Warning and the tiring Flameaway inside the final furlong, but Core Beliefs managed to find that little bit extra to hit the wire narrowly first.

LETTER FROM ASCOT: UP THE STRETCH AWARDS by Dave Johnson

Originally these "Tips of the Top Hat" after the five-day Royal Meeting at Ascot were entitled Down The Stretch Awards, but since the Ascot home stretch is uphill, I have renamed these presentations as the Up The Stretch Awards, also known as the "Stretchies."

BEST PERFORMANCE BY A HORSE: She won't get the headlines she deserves, but 3-year-old Alpha Centauri (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) blitzed 12 competitors in the G1 Coronation S., which has been on the Royal Ascot menu since 1840. She lowered the track record by more than a second, and gave me the impression of a grey blur that might just beat the boys, if given fast ground and a very good rider. She will win many more major events. Cont. p7 (click here)

INJURY ENDS CAREER OF MAGNUM MOON 8

'TDN Rising Star' Magnum Moon (Malibu Moon) suffered a career-ending injury in a Saturday workout at Belmont and was scheduled for surgery later in the day at the Cornell Ruffian Equine Hospital.

"We had a pretty good trip," said winning jockey Joe Talamo. "Three or four horses went to the lead, so I tried to tuck in as much as I could and let him do the work all the way around. Around the turn I got his momentum going, and he was all heart down the lane. There were a couple coming at him. He was giving me everything he had."

Third in a pair of six-furlong maidens to kick off his career, Core Beliefs stretched out successfully to two turns to graduate by 3 1/4 front-running lengths with Mike Smith calling the shots at Santa Anita Mar. 8. Well held, but nevertheless third to Justify (Scat Daddy) and Bolt d'Oro (Medaglia d'Oro) in the GI Santa Anita Derby, the bay raced handy to the pace as the 2-1 favorite in Belmont's GIII Peter Pan S. May 12, but could not resist a late run from Blended Citizen (Proud Citizen) and settled for the runner-up spot.

Pedigree Notes:

A $45,000 Fasig-Tipton October yearling purchase, Core Beliefs breezed an eighth of a mile in :10 flat over the Del Mar main track and was purchased by Gary Broad for $350,000 at last year's Barretts March Sale. The 28th black-type and 19th graded winner for the white-hot Quality Road, Core Beliefs is out of a half-sister to the dam of MSW & GSP Sloane Ranger while the deeper female family includes Pin Oak's Sovereign Award winner Hasten To Add (Cozzene) and his Grade I-winning half-sister See How She Runs (Maria's Mon), dam of GSW Don't Leave Me (Lemon Drop Kid). Core Belief is his dam's most recent produce.

With a massive Pick 6 pool hanging on the outcome of Saturday's GII San Carlos S., odds-on American Anthem remarkably proved the straw that broke the camel's back and triggered a double carryover of better than $821,000 into Sunday's closing-day program with victory by the narrowest of margins. In an ironic twist of fate, St. Joe Bay, off at 42-1 and making his first start off a $62,500 claim by Hronis Racing and John Sadler, would have kept some lucky bettors alive into the final leg. Alas.

St. Joe Bay won the kick and soon led as American Anthem, fresh off a victorious course-and-distance comebacker June 1, hounded that one from second. The latter, bearing the same China Horse Club silks carried to a Triple Crown two weeks ago, looked to have the race in safe keeping off the home corner, but St. Joe Bay refused to go down without a fight and tried the winner every step of the final sixteenth of a mile, albeit ultimately in vain.

American Anthem sported a record of 4-3-0-1 at this specialist distance heading into Saturday's race, including scores in the 2017 GIII Laz Barrera S. and the GII Woody Stephens S.

He was third in the GI H. Allen Jerkens S. last August and again behind champion Roy H (More Than Ready) in his final two sophomore appearances.

Pedigree Notes:

A $180,000 Keeneland September yearling turned $435,000 OBS March breezer, American Anthem is out of an unplaced daughter of Grade II-placed Banshee Winds (Known Fact), the dam of champion and five-time Grade I winner Banshee Breeze (Unbridled) and her stakes-winning full-sister Unbridled Wind. Indy's Windy, originally a $1.1-million KEESEP yearling, fetched $550,000 as a maiden mare at the 2008 Keeneland November sale and was hammered down for $500,000 carrying a full-sibling to American Anthem at KEENOV last fall. That foal subsequently passed away. Indy's Windy is represented by a 2-year-old filly by Pioneerof the Nile.

Twice second from three European starts for Mick Halford, Shahroze returned 15-2 to graduate in his stateside debut last October before rounding out the exacta in a rained-out Aqueduct allowance the next month. An excuse-free fourth back on the turf at Gulfstream on New Year's Day, the bay most recently closed like a shot off a slow pace to clear his first allowance condition going 10 furlongs over the Belmont turf May 11.

Off slowly and bumped at the break, Shahroze caboosed the field around the hairpin first turn over the EP Taylor turf course as Final Copy enjoyed a reasonably easy time of things on the engine through an opening half-mile in :50.33. The cadence quickened noticeably through the middle stages, and though Final Copy managed to pinch a break at the five-sixteenths, the come-from-behinders were working their way into it. Camelot Kitten (Kitten's Joy) enjoyed the run of the race for the opening 10 furlongs and had first crack at Final Copy, but his lead was relatively short-lived, as Shahroze kicked it into another gear down the center of the track and raced right over his rivals for a very impressive victory in near track-record time.

"Today he was very impressive," said Garcia. "He broke well and then was squished out of there and then was last and saved all the ground. When we came turning for home, I said, 'Let me go wide' because I have plenty of horse and then he did his job."

Pedigree Notes:

Shahroze is the 40th graded winner and 74th black-type for his successful sire (by Danehill) and is out of a half-sister to GSW Sharestan (Ire) (Giant's Causeway) as well as SP Sharleez (Ire) (Marju {Ire}). His Group 3-winning dam is represented by 2-year-old filly Sheranda (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}) and a yearling daughter of Iffraaj (GB).

Hotshot Anna | Coady

Hotshot Anna won her first graded stake in style with decisive score in the GIII Chicago H., setting a new track record in the process. The chestnut broke sharply, but was overtaken by longshot Marquee Miss (Cowboy Cal) and pressed that rival from a neck second through a sharp first quarter in :22.80 and was eye-to-eye with the leader through a half in :45.08. Sticking her head in front on the far turn, the $20,000 KEESEP buy powered clear in the lane to win by daylight. Princess La Quinta completed the exacta.

Hotshot Anna, winner of the grassy Northbound Pride Oaks at her hometrack Canterbury Park last spring, checked in second on the dirt at Oaklawn Apr. 4. Runner-up again in the L'Etoile Du Nord S. at Canterbury May 5, she returned to winning ways last time in a main track optional claimer in Minnesota May 19.

Pedigree Notes:

Hot Shot Anna is the fourth graded winner for her sire Trappe Shot. She has an unraced 3-year-old full-sister named Skol Sister and a yearling half-sister by Secret Circle. Her dam was bred back to Algorithms.

Letter From Ascot cont. from p1

HEAD SCRATCHER AWARDS: Why do so many horses have to be blindfolded? Awards to all of the gate handlers who have to put up with unruly steeds who are not properly trained to go into the big iron monster. Seemed like one or two needed that hood on in every bloody heat!

BEST PERFORMANCE BY A JOCKEY: Even though Ryan Moore had the most winners in this five-day super meet, I thought that the ride Frankie Dettori gave Stradivarius (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) made all the difference--especially considering this was over two miles and four furlongs! It has been 26 years since he won his first of five Gold Cups, and this ride was his best. Frankie saved all the ground he could, while hugging the rail and not tipping his hand until the bell clanged as the field came into the home straight (is that bell to warn jocks that the finish is just up the hill?). This was The G1 Gold Cup. Not The Ascot Gold Cup. It was the G1 Gold Cup. In a dramatic three-horse photo finish after 20 furlongs, give the smallest trophy of the meet (the actual Gold Cup) to Dettori, he deserved it.

LINE OF THE WEEK: There were two terrible crashes at Ascot this week. On late Thursday, an old-time high carriage carrying a dozen racegoers (all with blankets around their legs, even though it was more than 75 degrees!) pulled by a team of horses bolted on high street, careening into a local shop. It was a miracle no human or horse was injured. There was also a crash in a nearby parking lot. We heard it twice. When a wag in the press box heard about those crashes, he muttered, "I hope it was Ryan Moore, that was the only way I can get back at him for the money I lost on him this week!" And he said it again. It wasn't Moore. He won the Ritz trophy, at least that's what old timers call the champion rider award.

BEST PERFORMANCE BY A TRAINER: Again, not the most conditioner with the most wins, but a salute to Sir Michael Stout. He damned near beat Aidan O'Brien in number of wins with a small fraction of O'Brien's entries. He is the person with the most wins of anyone (79) in the history of the Royal Meeting. He is a treasure at age 73, and keeps on training excellent bloodstock.

WHY BOTHER AWARD: I saw at least three races where the inquiry sign should have been posted. I think Saturday's G1 Diamond Jubilee S. certainly deserved another look by the stewards, and I believe Bound For Nowhere (The Factor) should have been moved up into second or first place. This, of course, would have provoked a riot, if you can imagine this happening with the top hat and tail crowd.

BEST DESSERT OF THE WEEK: In the press box, clotted cream and strawberry jam on airy rolls. Why can't we get clotted cream in the USA?

DAD OF THE WEEK: Last year it was the late Scat Daddy. With Father's Day still in our minds, the offspring of Sea The Stars had a tremendous week in Berkshire. Besides Stradivarius winning the G1 Gold Cup, Crystal Ocean was the easiest winner of the week. Congratulations Pop!

BEST RACECALLER: Nice to hear Mark Johnson calling races in Great Britain. Mark was at Churchill Downs for several years, and now his crisp commentary is heard here at various tracks and on ITV.

JOHN HENRY AWARD (for old timers): God bless Queen Elizabeth II, at age 92, at the races every day, greeting people, always asking for advice on breeding and joking with jockeys on the presentation stand. She was also in the walking ring for every one of the runners this week who raced in her famous colors.

SEE YOU NEXT YEAR AWARD: To Frankie Dettori at age 47 who is a fan favorite and great ambassador for this very big sport in a very small country. Fortunately, he has no plans to retire.

INJURY CUTS SHORT CAREER OF MAGNUM MOON

Robert and Lawana Low's 'TDN Rising Star' Magnum Moon (Malibu Moon--Dazzling Song, by Unbridled's Song) sustained a career-ending "structural injury to a front limb" in a Saturday morning workout over the Belmont training track and was to undergo surgery Saturday afternoon at the neighboring Cornell Ruffian Equine Hospital, Jacob West, bloodstock agent to and racing manager for the Lows confirmed to the TDN Saturday afternoon. The news was first reported by the Blood-Horse.

Magnum Moon winning the Arkansas Derby | Coady

"We're playing the waiting game right now and we're hoping that it's something that can be fixed surgically. We know he's in the very capable hands of the staff at the clinic," West said when reached by phone Saturday afternoon.

Bred in Kentucky by Ramona Bass, Magnum Moon was a debut winner at Gulfstream Jan. 13 and earned the 'Rising Star' designation with a smooth two-length success in a two-turn Tampa allowance Feb. 15. The $380,000 Keeneland September graduate ran his unbeaten streak to three in the GII Rebel S. at Oaklawn Park Mar. 17 and was the wire-to-wire winner of the GI Arkansas Derby Apr. 14. Though he was well-beaten in the GI Kentucky Derby, Magnum Moon had emerged from a month off to record three previous workouts at Belmont, including a best-of-eight five furlongs in 1:00.80 June 16.

"He'd been training as forwardly as we hoped," West reported "He bounced out of the Derby better than he went into it and we were really looking forward to a solid 3-year-old campaign and maybe even a 4-year-old campaign, but that's on the back burner now."

West added that the Lows were taking the news in stride.

"They're good. The good thing about this horse is that he's got incredible owners," West said. "They've been in the game for a long time and they understand that things like this happen. But it's still never easy to swallow. They were very adamant that they were very emotionally tied to the horse and wanted to give him the best chance they can for recovery. He's got the best owners in the game for that."

Trained by Todd Pletcher, Magnum Moon amassed earnings of $1,177,800.

SHANTEL LANERIE DIES AT 42

Shantel Lanerie, wife of leading Kentucky-based rider Corey Lanerie, died Friday at Norton Women's and Children's Hospital in Louisville, Kentucky. In addition to her husband of 21 years, the 42-year-old is survived by her 10-year-old daughter, Brittlyn; parents, Katie and Riley Hebert; brother Rylan Hebert; and mother-in-law and and father-in-law Debbie and Gerald Lanerie. Diagnosed with Stage 1 breast cancer early this winter, she had been undergoing chemotherapy to fight the disease. Admitted to the hospital Thursday because of sepsis--complications arising from an infected colon--she underwent emergency surgery after going into cardiac arrest. She never regained consciousness following the procedure to remove a substantial portion of her colon. At the time of her passing, Shantel Lanerie was surrounded by her family and several members of the Churchill Downs jockey's colony, including Robby Albarado, Brian Hernandez Jr., Ricardo Santana Jr, Samuel Camacho Jr and Julien Leparoux.

"The Churchill Downs family is devastated by the sudden passing of Shantel Lanerie," said Churchill Downs Racetrack President Kevin Flanery. "This is a very sad day. We extend our heartfelt condolences to Corey, Brittlyn, family members and numerous friends as they endure this extremely difficult time. Please keep them in your thoughts and prayers." Cont. p9

Subsequent to her diagnosis, Shantel walked with 143 women in the Survivors Parade on Kentucky Oaks Day at Churchill Downs and a video that told her story was shown throughout the track on the big board. Jockeys also wore pink "Fight With Shantel" bands around their legs that day. Those bands resurfaced during Friday's racing program at Churchill Downs.

Shantel, raised in Cecilia, Louisiana, met Corey in his first year of riding at Evangeline Downs in Opelousas, Louisiana, in 1991 and the couple was married six years later. Prior to the birth of Brittlyn in 2008, Shantel held various positions at the track, including her service as a clocker's assistant at Lone Star Park, a mutuel clerk at Fair Grounds and a photographer's assistant at Churchill Downs.

Arrangements for the funeral were pending as of time of publication. The burial is expected to take place later this week in Louisiana. Additionally, a moment of silence was observed at Churchill Downs in the winner's circle following Saturday's seventh race and at Gulfstream Park, where Corey Lanerie rides during the championship meet. A memorial service at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Louisville is also being scheduled for a later date.

'NO' DOUBT ABOUT THIS DAUGHTER OF CANDY RIDE

Nonna Madeline (f, 2, Candy Ride {Arg}--Cool Storm, by Storm Cat), heavily favored at 1-2 in her Monmouth Park unveiling Saturday, stamped herself as one to watch for the mighty Todd Pletcher barn with a 'TDN Rising Star'-worthy performance.

The bay, purchased by St Elias Stable and MeB Stables for $130,000 as a KEESEP yearling, was away from the stalls a tick slow from her rail draw and was shuffled back to sixth in the early going. Racing under a snug hold in traffic through an opening quarter in :23.46, jockey Joe Bravo guided Nonna Madeline to the four path entering the far turn and she rocketed past her rivals with a flashy move to gain command. She was confidently handled from there and was geared down late to win by a much-the-best 3 1/4 lengths. Fellow firster Jaywalk (Cross Traffic) was second.

Nonna Madeline, produced by the unraced Storm Cat mare Cool Storm, is a half-sister to 2016 GII Adirondack S. heroine Nonna Mela (Arch), GSW, $286,670. Cool Storm, a $1-million KEESEP graduate and full-brother to GI Haskell Invitational winner and GI Kentucky Derby runner-up Bluegrass Cat (Storm Cat), brought $800,000 from R.J. Bennett while in foal to Daredevil at the 2016 FTKNOV Sale. Cool Storm is also represented by a Daredevil colt of 2017 and a Super Saver colt of 2018. This is also the extended female family of GISWs Imagining (Giant's Causeway), Girolamo (A.P. Indy), Super Saver (Maria's Mon) and Got Lucky (A.P. Indy).

SOLO MISSION: GOLDENCENTS COLT SHINES IN CHURCHILL DEBUT

Bano Solo (c, 2, Goldencents--Royale Paradise, Unbridled's Song) ran a deep-looking field of Churchill maidens off their feet to become the second 'TDN Rising Star' on Saturday.

The handsome bay first made headlines earlier this year at the OBS March 2-Year-Olds in Training Sale, firing a bullet quarter-mile in an eye-opening :20 1/5 at the breeze show before bringing $400,000 from Winchell Thoroughbreds and Willis Horton. Cont. p2

He displayed a typical Steve Asmussen worktab heading into this, which included a five-furlong move in 1:01 2/5 (16/31) at Churchill Downs June 10.

The 6-5 favorite blasted out from his inside draw despite taking a bump from his outside rival and led through an opening quarter in :22.54. Bano Solo had some company on the far turn, but not for long as they straightened in the stretch. He took off from there opening about five lengths and was geared down late to win by three lengths. Stablemate Ninth Street (Street Boss) was second.

Bano Solo becomes the third winner for his freshman sire (by Into Mischief). He is the most expensive of 26 2-year-olds by the two-time GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile winner to change hands this year.

Bano Solo is out of the unraced Unbridled's Song mare Royale Paradise, who is also represented by a Carpe Diem colt of 2017 and a Street Sense colt of 2018. His second dam Royale Michele (Elusive Quality) won the 2009 GII Barbara Fritchie H. at Laurel.

Purchased privately off of owner Alan Quartucci and trainer Lisa Lewis following third and fourth-place finishes at Gulfstream in December and January, respectively, Got Stormy promptly broke through for her new connections Feb. 25 before finishing a close third in the Mar. 31 Sanibel Island S. She was fourth in Churchill's GIII Edgewood S. May 4, and earned a first black-type score in the Penn Oaks June 2. Away alertly from her outside draw, the public's pick was content to sit second as Lady Suebee (First Defence) took them along at a leisurely tempo. Got Stormy sidled up to that one under confident handling in midstretch, and quickly settled the issue despite struggling somewhat with her leads. "She's one of those funny horses where she doesn't really want to do more than a mile or under a mile. She's very set on the mile," said Jamie Begg, assistant trainer to Mark Casse. "After winning the Penn Oaks, we were hoping to keep her against graded stakes company, but she's so finicky with the distance and this race was just sitting right there for her. We figured since she was here, let's go for it." The winner's dam is a half to Grade II winners Smooth Air (Smooth Jazz) and Overdriven (Tale of the Cat). She has an unraced 2-year-old half-brother named Sir Alfred James (Munnings), a yearling half-sister by Animal Kingdom and a foal half-brother by Super Saver. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Margins: 2, 1 3/4, 2 3/4. Odds: 3.90, 2.10, 1.80.

Also Ran: Annathela, Golden Domer, Julerette, Mythical Tale.

A stakes winner last season, Astrollinthepark came home in fourth in an $80,000 optional claimer at Keeneland Apr. 6 before finishing a narrowly beaten third against similar at Churchill Downs Apr. 28. Facing similar conditions while extending to seven furlongs, she came home a winner here May 24. Flanking pacesetters Mythical Tale and Vertical Oak through a snappy opening quarter in :21.31, Astrollinthepark continued to put the pressure on Vertical Oak as Mythical Tale quickly retreated approaching the quarter pole. Head to head with Vertical Oak as they rounded the home turn, Astrollinthepark continued to slug it out with her rival at the head of the lane. Finally shaking clear of her rival midtsretch, Astrollinthepark was two lengths clear of Miss Kentucky at the wire. Vertical Oak stayed on for third.

"She broke like a rocket," said winning rider Florent Geroux. "I kept her just off the leader's flank on the outside and, even though we were going fast, she was in control. When I asked her to go in the stretch she dug in and held off Miss Kentucky. I think this was a great race for her. She's really starting to develop nicely." Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Also Ran: Sister Says, What the Beep, Northern Eclipse, Do What I Say, Dixie Dazzle.

Fourth when unveiled in a sloppy off-the-turfer at Monmouth Park May 12, Altamura was fifth in a two-turn turf test at the Oceanport oval June 2 and earned her diploma last time when cut back over this course-and-distance in restricted company June 15. A bit overlooked while facing older in this step up in class, the bay leaned out a bit as her outside neighbor leaned in and the two bumped slightly exiting the gate, but were both unhindered. Altamura established position in sixth, sitting back off a sharp first quarter in :22.35. Still behind the leaders as they hit the half in :44.93, the sophomore encountered some traffic trouble while three-wide in the stretch, bumping lightly with a rival as she attempted to split horses. Forging through in the final sixteenth, she hit the front just in time for a narrow success. The winner has a juvenile half-sister named Upgrade Me (Exchange Rate). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Also Ran: Lisa Limon, Stormologist, Wealth Effect, Judge Lee, Bold Rate. Scratched: Jump Ruler, Star of Midnight.

Stakes-placed sprinting on the dirt here last season, Dark Artist has really turned it on of late, and scored her third straight victory Saturday afternoon since shedding blinkers. The bay took a Gulfstream optional claimer in box-to-wire fashion Apr. 27, and earned her first black-type tally over course and distance May 26, defeating two returning foes including So Hi Society. The odds-on chalk spied Too Charming from second as that one cruised through easy splits of :24.21, :49.41 and 1:14.71. She faced a stern test from that foe in the stretch drive, but dug deep to prevail narrowly in the shadow of the wire.

"Being a filly, and the way she has run recently, you have to look at a graded stakes for her [next] because of her value as a breeding prospect down the road," said trainer Jane Cibelli. "But you have to be careful because she's still improving. You don't want to throw her into a den of wolves yet but you also want to see what's what with her and see exactly what we have." Starving Artist is a granddaughter of MGISW Fleet Renee (Seattle Slew). Her unraced dam produced a Daredevil colt last season before being bred back to Cairo Prince. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

GRAYCASTER (g, 3, Graydar--Jocaster, by Service Stripe) needed several starts to get off the mark, but finally did so going 5 1/2 furlongs at Santa Anita Feb. 25. Third next time out against allowance foes going a furlong farther here Apr. 15, the grey was a distanced sixth while trying the grass for the first time May 17. Dropped into a $50,000 claimer on the dirt at the Arcadia oval June 1, the gelding bounced home an easy 5 1/4-length winner and went off the 6-5 second choice this time. Graycaster, breaking widest of all from the five hole, settled into a stalking third as Italiano (Twirling Candy) and Circus Act (Discreet Cat) showed the way through respectable early fractions. Collaring the top two turning for home, Graycaster pulled clear of this rivals and was 3 1/4-lengths ahead of Circus Act at the wire. Favored Ike rounded out the trifecta. This represents the family of Canadian Horse of the Year and champion 3yo colt Peaks and Valleys (Mt. Livermore). The half to Coronado Again (Gemologist), SP, $112,080 was a $50,000 KEESEP yearling that realized $85,000 as a 2yo at FTFMAR. MAJESTIC DUNHILL (g, 3, Majesticperfection--Candy Fortune, by Candy Ride {Arg}) broke through at third asking at Saratoga last August, and was third at odds-on in the Laurel Futurity the following month. He'd been off since a fairly close 10th in the Juvenile Turf Sprint S. on Breeders' Cup weekend at Del Mar Nov. 4, and had been gelded since his last afternoon appearance. Given a 9-2 chance after drawing in off the also-eligible list, the dark bay was far back early but got to the fence around the bend while picking off rivals. Tipped out into the clear in the lane, he kicked on to collar pacesetting Blue Chip Prospect (Bluegrass Cat) by a neck. The winner has an unraced 2-year-old half-brother named Hog Creek Hustle (Overanalyze) who was a $150,000 KEESEP yearling and breezed Saturday morning at Churchill Downs; a yearling half-brother by Gemologist; and a foal half-brother by Fed Biz. 4th-Laurel, $35,000, (C), Alw, 6-23, (C), 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/16mT, 1:41.59, gd.

MONTE CRISTA (f, 3, Cape Blanco {Ire}--Aruban Sandwich, by Alphabet Soup) failed to fire in her main track debut sprinting here Mar. 24, finishing a non-factor seventh, but broke through with a decisive 4 1/4-length graduation next out when extended to 1 1/16 miles and switched to this venue's turf course Apr. 28. She followed suit with a grassy allowance score at Monmouth Park June 10 and was favored at 4-5 to take her turf record to three-for-three in this spot. The chestnut bobbled slightly at the break, but quickly recovered to race in a ground-saving fourth through early fractions of :22.80 and :44.95. Splitting horses in the lane, Monte Crista charged clear to register a four-length victory over Something Magical (Street Magician). The winner is a half to Just Howard (English Channel), GSW, $292,210; and a juvenile colt by English Channel. Sales history: $11,000 Ylg '16 KEESEP; $30,000 2yo '17 EASMAY. DRILLIT (f, 2, Drill--Way to Fly, by Bowman's Band), sent off at 9-2 as part of a coupled entry in this unveiling, shot from the stalls to take immediate control, dueling with her entrymate Candy Lane (Twirling Candy) through a :23.20 first quarter. Shaking free of that rival at the top of the lane, the chestnut rolled clear to win for fun by 8 1/4 lengths and become the second winner for her freshman sire (by Lawyer Ron). Candy Lane held second. The winner has a yearling half-sister by Archarcharch. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $18,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

CATHERINETHEGREAT (f, 2, Uncaptured--Classy City Lady, by Carson City) was a well-beaten second in her career debut in the Gulfstream slop May 26 and was installed the 7-5 choice to go one better here. Up to prompt Lady Dude (First Dude) in the early going, she overtook that rival heading into the turn, and drew clear from there, galloping home a facile 10 1/4-length winner over 9-1 chance Capriati (Brethren). Lady Dude was third. The $170,000 OBSOCT yearling purchase is a half sister to Katinka (Kantharos), SW, $138,250. Catherinethegreat, who is the third winner for her freshman sire (by Lion Heart), was the highest-priced yearling for her sire in 2017. The stallion's yearling average was $47,880 from 19 head sold. He was popular at this year's juvenile sales in Ocala, with an average of $114,500 from 28 sold and a top price of $360,000. LOVELY LA LA (f, 3, Uncle Mo--Sarah's Pleasure, by Street Cry {Ire}) chased a hot pace before settling for fourth first out on the Aqueduct main track Apr. 7, and was 5-2 testing turf with a pedigree slanted that way--her dam is a half to MGSW J'ray (Distant View). Pressing a :45.62 half, the dark bay took over in upper stretch and kicked away to score by a convincing 2 3/4 lengths from stablemate Chiclet's Dream (City Zip). The winner has an unraced 2-year-old half-brother named Graded On a Curve (Noble Mission {GB}) and a yearling half-sister by Summer Front. BIMINI (f, 2, Brethren--Weekend Magic {GISP}, by Ecton Park) broke alertly, but settled back in fourth through an opening quarter in :22.96. Launching a three wide bid in the lane, the 3-1 shot surged clear late for a 1 1/2-length graduation, becoming the 13th winner for her second-crop sire (by Distorted Humor). Favored One Wild Chic (Mineshaft) was the runner-up. Weekend Magic produced a full-brother to the winner named Shredder last year and a full-sister this term. He was a well-beaten sixth next out on the dirt here Mar. 24 and was sixth again in his first try on the local turf May 19. The 10-1 shot dueled for control with I Am the Danger (Adios Charlie) through early fractions of :22.30 and :44.78. Cont. p7

Edging ahead a bit entering the lane, the dark bay held off the re-rallying I Am the Danger and Paddock Pick (Graydar) for a nose success. CLOAK OF SECRECY (f, 3, Scat Daddy--Cloak {Ire}, by Galileo {Ire}), on the board in all four of her turf attempts, was second in a Keeneland event Apr. 20 that produced four next-out winners. She was a close second over course and distance May 20, and was 4-5 to get the job done this time around. Keen early as firster Peter's Kitten (Kitten's Joy) showed the way, the homebred took over out in the clear heading for home and poured it on by 3 3/4 lengths over the pacesetter. SPINOFF (c, 2, Hard Spun--Zaftig {GISW, $408,700}, by Gone West), a half-brother to the talented yet temperamental Easy Goer S. runner-up 'TDN Rising Star' Rugbyman (Tapit), went off the 3-1 favorite in this unveiling. Comfortably placed in second behind solid early splits set by Hard Count (Run Away and Hide), Spinoff tackled that foe near the quarter pole and battled briefly with that one into the stretch. While the pacesetter wilted, Spinoff continued to motor along, and despite the best closing efforts of Reservenotattained (Shanghai Bobby), the chestnut maintained a 1 1/4-length advantage at the wire. Zaftig, who brought $1.4 million at the Fasig-Tipton November Mixed sale in 2011, is out of Grade I-winning Zoftig (Cozzene), also responsible for GI Mother Goose S. winner Zo Impressive (Hard Spun). CARTERET (c, 4, Shackleford--Dixie Unioness {SP}, by Dixie Union) didn't show much when a distant sixth in a key Monmouth heat some 11 months ago, and was let go at 5-1 with a steady string of recent breezes at Fair Hill on display. The bay sat third early far behind run-off Kukulkan (Corfu). He advanced out in the clear as that one tired into the lane, and avoided a precarious incident as Kukulkan veered out badly in midstretch in front of him. Cartaret safely found the line a length to the good, and Kukulkan gathered himself back up to hold second. The winner has an unraced 2-year-old half-sister named Perfectcombination (Bodemeister). NAVY SCORES IN DRAMATIC JUBILEE

Merchant Navy (right) wins the Diamond Jubilee in a head bob
Racing Post

Royal Ascot is never short in supply of drama, but the G1 Diamond Jubilee S. ensured it will be the most talked-about race of the meeting as Harry Angel (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) reverted to his former stalls panic and threw away his chance at the start before the ex-Australian and now Irish-trained Merchant Navy (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) denied the French raider City Light (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) and U.S. rep Bound For Nowhere (The Factor) in a thrilling finale. With the 5-2 favourite Harry Angel trying to break out of the stalls before missing the start by several lengths only to finish 10th, this renewal was thrown open and it was Bound For Nowhere who set out to make all up the centre with Spirit of Valor (War Front) leading up the 3-year-old Merchant Navy in his group.

The Wesley Ward runner began to lug left and into Ballydoyle's 4-1 second favourite as that rival was grinding his way ahead passing the furlong pole, where City Light got motoring the other side under Christophe Soumillon. City Light was in front before and after the line, but Merchant Navy's head was down in time for the photo and the bobbing finish resulted in a short-head verdict for Ryan Moore, with 3/4 of a length back to a gallant Bound For Nowhere in third. "He's a remarkable horse," Moore said of the winner, whose weight-for-age advantage had been stripped away prematurely in this hemisphere. "He hasn't been up here long and is only a young horse, but he's come and beat a high-class field. I thought I'd win easier, but the American horse leaned into me and he lost his rhythm for a second. If I'd got beaten I'd have been unlucky."

It later transpired that Harry Angel's near-hind leg was stuck on the running board when the stalls opened, having kicked out with both hind legs in the gate. This was a repeat of his antics in the early days, which the Clive Cox stable had worked so hard to overcome and which had not been a problem for many outings. He is now 0-5 at this track, so the curse continues. With him effectively discounted, it was a case of whether Bound For Nowhere could maintain the gallop he set under Joel Rosario but Moore looked happy tracking the pace set by Spirit of Valor towards the stand's side and his mount is a renowned strong finisher as he proved when third in Flemington's G1 Newmarket H. on Mar. 10.

BREEDERS' CUP CHALLENGE SERIES WIN AND YOU'RE IN.™

With Merchant Navy and Bound For Nowhere becoming entangled as the race's final moments sapped the runners, last year's winner The Tin Man (GB) (Equiano {Fr}) was building momentum and City Light bore down on the duelling leaders, but it was the Irish and French who forged on to make the pulsating finale.

Merchant Navy had shown the same desire to fight at the end of his prior top-level success in the Flemington's G1 Coolmore Stud S. on Nov. 4 and the manner of his success on his European bow suggested he would still be a potent force despite taking on these sprinters on less favourable weight terms. In The Curragh's G2 Greenlands S. on May 26, he beat some smart sprinters including last year's Diamond Jubilee runner-up Tasleet (GB) (Showcasing {Aus}) and that form worked out here with The Tin Man so close up.

Aidan O'Brien said, "He was travelling very well and we knew looking at him that Ryan was very happy on him. He's always been very straightforward since he arrived. He did five half-speeds before he went to The Curragh, so we weren't really sure what was going to happen but we wanted to get a run into him before he came here. We thought it was an impossible task for him here as he was 12 pounds worse off than he would have been in Australia. He's being treated as a 4-year-old here and he's really a 3-year-old. I came here prepared that he couldn't win, reading what everyone was saying."

Stephane Wattel said of the fast-progressing City Light, who could be targeted at the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest at Deauville on Aug. 5. "There were horses everywhere, but it was a great effort. This horse has come a long way and I thought for a minute I was going to have a Group 1 winner."

Wesley Ward said of Bound For Nowhere, "He ran fantastic. I was proud of him. He's a miler and was not meant to be in front, but I guess there wasn't much pace. I've always had a lot of faith in him and for him to step up and finish in the top three in a Group 1 at Royal Ascot is fantastic. He can only get better and we'll try for the Breeders' Cup Mile."

Clive Cox was downcast after witnessing the stalls debacle of Harry Angel, who has an injury as a result.

A defeated Harry Angel returns after catching a hindleg in the stalls and exiting on three legs, blowing all chance | Racing Post

"His leg was still in the stall when it opened," he said. "He's not straightforward in the stalls, as you can see. It's a shame it's happened and it obviously affected the whole day. He's got a nasty puncture wound, which we're concerned enough about. He wasn't sound behind when he came in. Not dreadful, but he wasn't sound. I'm just sorry for everyone and it's a shame, but I hope he'll be fine."

Pedigree Notes...

Merchant Navy is one of three black-type performers by Fastnet Rock out of the G3 Sweet Embrace S. winner Legally Bay (Aus) (Snippets {Aus}), who was also third in the G1 Oakleigh Plate and G1 Australia S. His most notable sibling is the G2 Roman Consul S. winner and G1 Ascot Vale S. runner-up Jolie Bay (Aus), while the dam is kin to the G1 Myer Classic heroine Bonaria (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}) and the G3 Mercury Two-Year-Old Classic scorer Time Out (Aus) (Rory's Jester {Aus}), as well as the dam of the GSW Montsegur (Aus) (New Approach {Ire}) and Tessera (Aus) (Medaglia d'Oro). This is the family of the multiple Group 1-winning Australian champion and sire Gypsy Kingdom (Aus) (Planet Kingdom {Aus}) and the latter's G1 Queensland Derby-winning full-brother Our Planet (Aus). ROYAL MARATHON DRAWS TO A CLOSE

By Chris McGrath

When the afternoon starts with a Bishop failing a breathalyser, you know that a long week must be taking its toll. As the Royal Ascot marathon drew to a close, in fact, you could anticipate the relief when all the gorgeous trappings--the ties and handkerchiefs, the frocks and hats--could be folded away last night, like so many flowers closing their petals and exhaling into the summer evening.

It would seem a safe bet, for instance, that Francesca Cumani will not be wearing heels for a day or two after maintaining a heroic equilibrium between eloquence and elegance while hotfooting alongside keyed-up Thoroughbreds in the parade ring for five solid days. Cumani's ITV colleague Matt Chapman, conversely, is due for an upgrade in his own wardrobe after bumping into Tom Magnier in the car park earlier in the week. Magnier was evidently wearing a rather smarter waistcoat and promised to furnish Chapman with a similar one should Merchant Navy (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) do the business in the final Group 1 of the meeting.

Sure enough, the Australian import crowned his brief Ballydoyle sojourn with a photo-finish verdict in the Diamond Jubilee S. over the thriving French raider City Light (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}). In a finish typical of the meeting's cosmopolitan make-up these days, the American trailblazer Bound For Nowhere (The Factor) held on for third, with last year's winner The Tin Man (Equiano {Fr}) arguably unlucky to be beaten barely a length in fourth after meeting traffic.

This was a typically professional job on the part of the Coolmore team, along with their Australian partners in Merchant Navy, who has now advertised his wares to breeders in both Hemispheres. As such, he was probably the top priority of a week that had proved something of a curate's egg for Ballydoyle. Cont. p5

Certainly the stable's juveniles appeared just a little blunt, compared with most years, but it was a very slow spring and O'Brien hinted that we should not be surprised if the whetstone really begins to spark in another month or so.

The curious Ascot travails of race favourite Harry Angel (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) meanwhile continue. Invincible elsewhere, he made it 0-5 here after panicking in the gate, unfortunately sustaining an injury as he dragged a trapped hindleg clear as the stalls opened.

He was not the only angel brought down to earth on the day, Charles Bishop having been barred from taking his four booked mounts after a pre-racing breath test proved to be beyond the permitted alcohol threshold. It was a mortifying end to the meeting for a jockey who had made a huge breakthrough in its opening race, riding 33-1 stunner Accidental Agent (GB) (Delegator {GB}) in the G1 Queen Anne S.; albeit it would only be human if one episode proved to be closely connected with the other.

Tom Dascombe & Arthur Kitt | Racing Post

Episcopal intercessions are just about the only thing missing from the miracle of Arthur Kitt (GB) (Camelot {Ire}) in the opener. This colt is the tragic bequest of Ceiling Kitty (GB) (Red Clubs {Ire}), who won the G2 Queen Mary S. here back in 2012 but died the night she delivered this, her third and final foal, in February 2016. She almost took her son with her; he had to be resuscitated six times during a traumatic night for everyone at breeder Andrew Black's Chasemore Farm. Somehow he made it back across the abyss, and surfaced for a winning debut at Haydock last month.

The emotion vested in Arthur Kitt was plain as Black welcomed him back after the Listed Chesham S., a race that has volunteered Classic winners in the last two runnings: Masar (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}), third last year, and Churchill (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in 2016. Cont. p6

Camelot had already produced a winner at the meeting in Hunting Horn (Ire), from his debut crop, in the G3 Hampton Court S. and admirers of another young sire of legitimate Classic profile were also edified to see such a good run in second from Nate The Great (GB)--one of many Nathaniel (Ire) yearlings who last autumn mysteriously failed to achieve the commercial dividends he so deserved for coming up with Enable (GB).

Nate The Great was bought in for 30,000gns at Tattersalls Book 3 and sent to Archie Watson, whose breathless rise through the training ranks was so nearly sealed by a first Royal Ascot winner here. Not that he had long to wait, taking the Listed Windsor Castle S. with Soldier's Call (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) barely an hour later.

For all his remarkable early results, Watson must still feel daunted as he gazes up at Sir Michael Stoute advancing his new status as the most prolific Royal Ascot trainer in history with another trademark winner--his fourth of the meeting, taking him to 79 in all--in Crystal Ocean (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}). Stoute's particular affinity with a maturing middle-distance horse is vividly measured by the fact that this was his 11th success in the G2 Hardwicke S.

Crystal Ocean landed short odds in a small field, but a white-knuckle gamble on Dreamfield (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) in the Wokingham was narrowly thwarted when the 1,100,000gns yearling was just worried out of it by the outsider Bacchus (GB) (Kheleyf). Making only his fourth start, Dreamfield travelled luxuriantly through the stampede and, provided he can hold it all together, might very well be back here next year for the Diamond Jubilee.

After exchanging heavy blows all week, then, bookmakers and backers fell through the ropes in an exhausted clinch. And they didn't even have to wear heels.

OCEAN'S ELEVEN

Sir Michael Stoute has enjoyed a stellar week and it was fitting that his 4-7 favourite Crystal Ocean (GB) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) put the cherry on the cake as he bestowed his trainer an 11th success in the G2 Hardwicke S. Sir Evelyn De Rothschild's 'TDN Rising Star', who was runner-up in a strong renewal of Doncaster's G1 St Leger in September, came into this on the back of a win in the G3 Aston Park S. at Newbury on May 19 and with Coolmore allowing Ryan Moore to ride for his old boss the writing was on the wall before the gates opened. Always content tracking Idaho (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), the homebred bay was sent past that rival approaching the quarter pole and without being fully extended asserted for a 2 1/2-length verdict over Red Verdon (Lemon Drop Kid), with Cliffs of Moher (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) 1 1/4 lengths away in third. "He's continued to progress with his racing and has a lovely temperament--he is a joy to train," this meeting's winningmost trainer said. "He's a relaxed horse and is very straightforward--you could do what you want with him in a race really. I would have thought it is likely he'll go for the [G1] King George [back at Ascot on July 28], but we'll take him home and look at him for a little while."

Sir Michael Stoute looked to have two nice older horses in Poet's Word (Ire) (Poet's Voice {GB}) and this colt, but few would have believed that they would be anything other than bit-players once Cracksman (GB) (Frankel {GB}) and Enable (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) came on the scene. With the former now looking vulnerable and the latter still on the bench, the Freemason Lodge duo have centre stage to themselves as the big middle-distance contests of summer loom. Crystal Ocean was described as a work in progress when third in the G2 King Edward VII S. at this meeting 12 months ago and after a win in the G3 Gordon S. at Glorious Goodwood in August and second in the Leger he reappeared the finished article ready to repay his trainer's renowned patience. "Mrs Robeson, Sir Evelyn's sister, did all the matings. This is the fruits of her labour," Stoute added as he basked in a 79th Royal winner. Cont. p7

Red Verdon is coming back to form and trainer Ed Dunlop has Australia in mind. "He's so consistent and he's improving and we came here because there wasn't a huge field and we wanted to get our rating up a little bit--we've discussed a little while ago the likely option is to go to Australia in the autumn," he explained. "We'll work back from the [Oct. 20 G1] Caulfield Cup and the [Nov. 6 G1] Melbourne Cup. On ratings he probably was a 33-1 shot, but it was small field and little bit tactical and James [Doyle] said he could have finished a little bit closer. The horse of Sir Michael's is one of the most progressive horses in training at the moment, but Red Verdon has beaten some serious yardsticks. It is a vastly improved run, but he is adaptable, he was second in the Henry II S. run over two miles the other day. We'll take him Down Under and he'll probably have one more run before travelling."

Pedigree Notes...

Crystal Ocean is one of four separate black-type winners out of the Listed Radley S. winner and G3 Dubai Duty Free S. runner-up Crystal Star (GB) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}) alongside the GI Canadian International and G2 King Edward VII S. hero Hillstar (GB) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) and the four-times group winner Crystal Capella (GB) whose sire Cape Cross (Ire) is also the sire of Crystal Ocean's sire Sea the Stars. Crystal Star is kin to the Listed Aphrodite S. winner Waila (GB) (Notnowcato (GB), while the third dam Krisalya (GB) (Kris {GB}) is a half-sister to the G1 Prix d'Ispahan hero Sasuru (GB) (Most Welcome {GB}). She produced the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches heroine Rose Gypsy (GB) to a mating with Cape Cross's sire Green Desert. Crystal Star's last known foal is the 3-year-old maiden colt Crystal King (GB) (Frankel {GB}). Click for the free Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree. Full chart p8

KITT PROVIDES FAIRYTALE RESULT

Royal Ascot's final day opened with one of the stories of the week, as Chasemore Farm's Arthur Kitt (GB) (Camelot {GB}) emerged from a story of genuine adversity to prevail in the Listed Chesham S. Having almost died at birth when his dam, the 2012 G2 Queen Mary S. heroine Ceiling Kitty (GB) (Red Clubs {Ire}) had to be euthanized, the winner needed resuscitating several times and had a twisted leg but came through all that to be raised by a foster mare en route to his eventual debut at Haydock on May 25. Successful by 2 1/2 lengths in that six-furlong contest, the bay traded at 13-2 here and after being in touch early on the outer of the group racing up the centre was ridden before halfway and given reminders three out.

Arthur Kitt denies Nate the Great in the Chesham | Racing Post

Staying on stoutly to gain the lead with a furlong to race, he veered left but held on from Nate the Great (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) to score by a neck, with Duke of Hazzard (Fr) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) 3 1/4 lengths behind in third. The red-hot 5-4 favourite Natalie's Joy (GB) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) was only seventh.

For owner Andrew Black, the success of Arthur Kitt must have felt almost pre-ordained. "It's the most special moment," he said. "I have more emotional attachment to him than I've ever had to a horse--the night he was born was such an incredibly difficult and painful time, so I always hoped he'd be special. He was always much more friendly than the other horses, which is often the case with foals raised by foster mares. I think Royal Applause was brought up by a foster mare. We put her to Camelot and I just thought we would win the Chesham and make it right somehow." Chasemore Farm's in-house vet Patrick Sells was on hand to explain the details of the night in question. "We had the panic when we knew something badly had gone wrong, the sorrow when you know you can't save the mare, then the relief when the foal is responding to resuscitation--it took a good five minutes for him to breathe," he said. "We were thinking of giving up and he was like a phoenix through the flames to get through that. The joy of then seeing him with his black-and-white nanny mare on the farm and he was always very calm and collected and this is the realisation of all our dreams. Andrew bred him for this race--and that is no exaggeration. Looking at Arthur now, the scope of him, I'll say he'll be a very exciting 3-year-old."

Trainer Archie Watson said of Nate the Great, "I couldn't be happier. I've loved the horse from the moment he came in the yard. I'm sure there's a lot of improvement in him. It may be that we just mind him now until the first mile stakes race and he's got a big future as a middle-distance horse next year."

Pedigree Notes...

Ceiling Kitty's first foal was the Listed Boadicea S. winner Eartha Kitt (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) who was also third in the G3 Summer S. The third dam Baldwina (Fr) (Pistolet Bleu {Ire}), herself kin to the Listed Prix Finlande winner and G3 Prix de Psyche and G3 Prix Cleopatre runner-up Baie (Fr) (Green Tune), annexed the G3 Prix Penelope and boasts the G1 Japanese 1000 Guineas heroine Jeweller (Jpn) (Victoire Pisa {Jpn}) and the MGSW One Carat (Jpn) (Falbrav {Ire}) among her progeny list. Click for the free Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree.

SOLDIER ANSWERS THE CALL

Impressive when making all over this five-furlong trip at Haydock on June 7, Clipper Logistics' Soldier's Call (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) dominated his stand's-side group and eventually the entire field in the Listed Windsor Castle S. for a first Royal success for the Archie Watson stable. Allowed to roll by Danny Tudhope, the 12-1 shot was always too quick for his contemporaries on his side but it was not until the furlong pole that he got to those racing up the centre and far side. Tackled by Sabre (GB) (Mayson {GB}) from there, the bay held on to score by a half length, with Dom Carlos (Ire) (Gale Force Ten {GB}) 1 3/4 lengths away in third. "It was a great performance--he has so much speed," his rider said. Cont. p10

"I was a bit behind the far side, but I was able to do my own thing and wasn't hassled." Watson commented, "It's only our second season training and I thought I might have to wait longer for this. Joe Foley, Steve Parkin, Clipper Logistics and Federico Barberini have put a lot of faith in me and sent me some proper kit, so I'm just delighted I can repay that. I would imagine the [G3] Molecomb [at Glorious Goodwood on Aug. 1] would be his aim. We would love to go to Churchill Downs for the new Breeders' Cup race over five and half furlongs in November if that's the way the season progresses. He and [the Chesham runner-up] Nate the Great are two very natural horses and there is nice strength in depth to our 2-year-olds."

Trainer Richard Fahey said of Sabre, "He flew home and we do like the horse. He probably didn't handle coming down the hill that well and got himself out of position and into one where he probably shouldn't have been, but that is not his fault--that's racing. Once he hit the rising ground, he took off. He could go up to six furlongs or we could stay at five furlongs--he is a nice horse. I like him and I thought he would win, so I'm disappointed."

BACCHUS (GB) (g, 4, Kheleyf--Rumbled {GB}, by Halling), who was ninth in the G3 Jersey S. at this meeting last year, entered this Wokingham H. relatively unexposed off a Newmarket handicap success in August and a fourth under topweight on his latest start at Ascot in October. Always in touch of the leader Dreamfield (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), the 33-1 shot harried that 1.1-million gns son of Izzi Top (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) from a long way out and that paid off as he eventually prevailed by a neck. In doing so, he denied the shortest-priced favourite of this race, with Dreamfield a staggering 2-1 at the off.

Bacchus's trainer Brian Meehan was registering his first Royal Ascot winner for six years and said, "He was one horse who took a long time to come to hand in the spring. He just needed that bit of extra time. I said to the boys that we'd head straight to the Wokingham with him. We were talking about races like this and the Ayr Gold Cup, as he's tailor-made for the job. He's handicapped right at the moment, but we will see what the handicapper does after this."

Dreamfield is bred to be a pattern-race performer and could yet prove to be that after losing his unbeaten record. Trainer John Gosden commented, "I told everyone early on that one, it is a silly price and two, I don't like the draw [in eight]. You want to be drawn with the pace, we were drawn with nowhere to go. He ran a little bit green, a little bit lost. Low draw, he had to come across to the high draw. It probably cost us." Jockey James Doyle added of the runner-up, "I am chuffed to bits with him, he ran an absolute stormer. John said about his price, it is crazy really. He is only having his fourth start and being drawn on the unfavoured part of the track. He will step forward again for that." Bacchus is the last foal out of Rumbled, whose dam Tatanka (Lear Fan) is a half-sister to the SW and GI Hollywood Starlet S. runner-up She's Classy (Boundary). She is in turn the second dam of the dual listed winner and G3 Firth of Clyde S. runner-up Hoku (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) from the family of the G1 Coronation Cup hero and G1 Dewhurst S. runner-up Be My Native (Our Native). PALLASATOR (GB) (g, 9, Motivator {GB}--Ela Athena {GB} {SW & MG1SW-Eng, MGISP-US, G1SP-HK & Ity, $1,125,252}, by Ezzoud {Ire}) had been jumping with Gordon Elliott since finishing eighth in the G2 Doncaster Cup in September that he had won for Sir Mark Prescott in 2015 and started at 11-2 for this Queen Alexandra S. that closes the Royal meeting. Always travelling strongly behind the leading group, the imposing bay took control approaching the furlong pole and despite veering left stayed in command en route to a 1 1/2-length success from Renneti (Fr) (Irish Wells {Fr}). Winning this for a second time in three years, Elliot said, "We got a great kick out of that--it's the first time we've been here for a winner as we were away last time. Jamie [Spencer] gave him a great ride and I have to thank Sheikh Fahad for sending him to me, Sir Mark Prescott recommended a change of scene and sending the horse to me. We'll have plenty of fun with him now, we could go anywhere now. We'll have to speak to the lads and see what they want to do. I'd like to have a runner in the Melbourne Cup one day, but we'll have to see." Pallasator is the leading performer for the G3 Lancashire Oaks heroine Ela Athena (GB) (Ezzoud {Ire}), who was second in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks and GI Man O'War S. He shares his third dam Pizziri (Artaius) with the day's Listed Land o'Burns Fillies' S. scorer Elnadim Star (Ire) (Elnadim) and he is a half to an as-yet unnamed 2-year-old filly by Kendargent (Fr). Land O'Burns Fillies S. cont.

Elnadim Star quickly caught on to how to win races, with two profitable outings at Beverley last term followed by another successful foray to Wetherby on her seasonal bow on Apr. 29. Stopped in her tracks when second over six furlongs at Leicester last time on May 28, the chestnut regained the thread on this black-type debut reverting to five. Tracking the leaders early, she stayed on to gain the advantage inside the final furlong and assert for this breakthrough. The dam is a half to the listed-placed Crafty Fancy (Ire) (Intikhab) who hails from the family of the G3 Lancashire Oaks heroine and MG1SP Ela Athena (GB) (Ezzoud {Ire}) and the top-level winners Jakkalberry (Ire) (Storming Home {GB}), Crackerjack King (Ire) (Shamardal) and Awelmarduk (Ire) (Almutawakel {GB}). Her 2-year-old colt Dom Carlos (Ire) (Gale Force Ten {GB}) was third in the Listed Windsor Castle S. on the same afternoon, while she also has a yearling colt by Zebedee (GB).

BOCCIATORE (FR) (c, 2, Anodin {Ire}--Tamada {GB}, by Lucky Story), off the board in starts at Marseille-Borely on Apr. 27 and at Salon-de-Provence last time on May 21, was quickly into stride and held sway from the outset of this third go. Asked to stretch on the home turn, the 11-1 chance straightened up with a healthy advantage and was pushed out in the latter stages to hit the line a geared-down 2 1/2 lengths in advance of Pappalino (Fr) (Makfi {GB}), becoming the third winner for his freshman sire (by Anabaa). He is the latest foal and third scorer out of a winning half to the four-times stakes-placed Priere (GB) (Machiavellian) and the dual stakes-placed Love Your Looks (GB) (Iffraaj {GB}). His stakes-winning second dam Play Around (Ire) (Niniski) is a half-sister to MGSP Listed Prix Madame Jean Couturie victress Playact (Ire) (Hernando {Fr}). Sales history: €5,000 Ylg '17 AROCT. WORLDWIDE NEWS

MARE RESPONDS FOR FIRST GROUP 1

The connections of Prompt Response (Aus) (Beneteau {Aus}) are Everest dreaming after the 4-year-old mare backed up a pair of seconds on Saturday with a breakthrough first win in Group 1 company in the Tattersalls Tiara at Doomben. The Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott pupil has been consistent in black-type company throughout her career, and indeed had already picked up a pair of Group 2 wins this season: the G2 Breeders' Classic going 1200 metres at Warwick Farm on Feb. 10 and the G2 Emancipation S. over 1550 metres at Rosehill on Mar. 31. Upped to a mile for the G1 Queen of the Turf S. at The Championships, Prompt Response had to settle for second, and she filled the same position in the June 9 G2 Dane Ripper S. over this 1350 metre track and trip.

Taking full advantage of a rail berth on Saturday, Prompt Response stalked the pace and cut the corner into the straight under Blake Shinn. After opening up an advantage of about three lengths once they straightened, she stayed on to win by 1 1/4 lengths from a fast-finishing Shillelagh (Aus) (Savabeel {Aus}), with Super Cash (Aus) (Written Tycoon {Aus}) staying on for third.

Co-trainer Adrian Bott said connections would be interested in fielding offers from Everest slotholders.

"We would now like to train her as a purely speed horse and look at a place in the The Everest. I think she would be up to that race," he told Racenet.com.au. "The phone won't be turned off, don't worry."

Pedigree Notes...

Prompt Response is the second Group 1 winner for the late champion first-season sire Beneteau, joining the marathoner Lasqueti Spirit. The dam, Prompt (Aus) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}), had set a precedent with the sire when producing the Group 3-winning gelding Prompt Return (Aus) by him the year before Prompt Response, and her first foal was the listed-placed Diamond Glow (Aus) (Bel Esprit {Aus}). She has a yearling colt by Dissident and a colt foal by Medaglia d'Oro to come. Prompt Response is inbred 3 x 3 to Danehill, that former multiple champion sire having sired Beneteau's sire Redoute's Choice and Prompt's sire Exceed and Excel, both of those champion sires in turn.

HKJC TO LAUNCH ASCOT WORLD POOL

The Hong Kong Jockey Club, in partnership with Ascot and Totepool, will launch a new pari-mutuel-based Ascot World Pool for Royal Ascot in 2019. The pool will be open to customers in Hong Kong and the UK.

Under the agreement, pari-mutuel wagers placed either on track through AscotBet or off-course with Totepool will be commingled with Hong Kong's pools on Royal Ascot. Hong Kong will simulcast all five days of Royal Ascot next year.

Winfried Engelbrecht-Bresges, the Hong Kong Jockey Club's Chief Executive Officer, said, "We are honoured to provide a global tote offering for one of the world's leading racing festival brands, Royal Ascot. This agreement solidifies Hong Kong's position as the global hub of commingling. Our wagering operation is world-class and is recognised as a leader in integrity and management processes. We believe this is the beginning of a new era in international racing. We are already in active discussions with other racing bodies about future World Pool initiatives."

SUPPORT KELSEY RILEY'S MONGOL DERBY for BLACKBURN

In August, TDN International Editor Kelsey Riley will ride in the Mongol Derby, a 1000 kilometre (620 mile), 10 day ride across Outer Mongolia. The Mongol Derby is the world's longest multi-horse race, and while navigating the unmarked course by GPS Kelsey will have to conquer such challenges as half-broke horses, pursuit by wild dogs, the physical effects of 14-hour days in the saddle and some less-than-glamorous culinary experiences. Kelsey is taking on this challenge because she is crazy, but also to raise money for the TRF's Second Chances Program at Blackburn in Lexington.

Kelsey, and the horses and humans at Blackburn, need your help to accomplish this mission. To donate to Kelsey's Mongol Derby for Blackburn,
