MISSION ACCOMPLISHED

Just a shell of the horse he would become as his famed brother Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) was putting the seal on his career in Ascot's G1 QIPCO Champion S. two years ago, Noble Mission (GB) reached full maturity and the heights of the British racing program by outbattling Al Kazeem (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) to emulate his sibling in this pulsating renewal. Sent straight to the front by James Doyle in now-customary fashion, the 7-1 shot was unstressed in a clear lead as he gradually turned the screw on all rivals bar Al Kazeem who had chased him in second throughout. Joined by that foe at the top of the straight, he looked briefly as if he would succumb 100 yards from the line, but dug in against the fence to re-assert and wring out a hard-fought neck success, with the highly promising Free Eagle (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}) closing relentlessly to be 1 1/4 lengths away in third. "It is a fairytale," Lady Cecil commented. "He really had to dig deep today, but just loves his racing and James gave him a great ride. It's been a great team effort and this one is for Henry. When he died, it was easier to keep going and it was a way of staying close to him." Cont. p3

LANE'S END ACQUIRES TONALIST INTEREST

William Farish's Lane's End Farm has acquired an unspecified interest in Robert S. Evans's ✪ "TDN Rising Star" ✪ Tonalist (Tapit--Settling Mist, by Pleasant Colony), a leading candidate for champion 3-year-old and Horse of the Year honors by virtue of his victories in the GI Belmont S. and GI Jockey Club Gold Cup. "We are extremely excited to acquire an interest in this outstanding colt. His sire is quickly becoming the most important stallion in America," said Will Farish. "Tonalist is his only Grade 1 winning son at a mile and a quarter and the only multiple Grade 1 winning son." Bill Farish continued, "We've had great success with classic stallions and he certainly adds to that legacy. A.P. Indy, Lemon Drop Kid, Curlin and Union Rags won races like the Belmont and Gold Cup; we feel Tonalist will continue that success." Cont. p18

RAIDERS HOLD EDGE IN INTERNATIONAL

Eleven of the last 14 runnings of the GI Pattison Canadian International S. at Woodbine have fallen the way of overseas-based horses, and the consistent stayer Brown Panther (GB) (Shirocco {Ger}) looks to hold the edge over a fellow European shipper and eight North American foes in the 12-furlong test. Runner-up in the 2011 G1 Doncaster St Leger S., the sturdy bay earned his first pattern-race success in last year's G2 Goodwood Cup over two miles and is batting .500 this season, with wins in Chester's G3 Ormonde S.--defeating Hillstar (GB) (Danehill Dancer {Ire})--and G3 Henry II S. at Sandown before a career best 6 1/2-length defeat of top European marathoner Leading Light (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) in the G1 Irish St Leger last time out Sept. 14. "It was a hugely exciting day and the race went absolutely to plan," said trainer Tom Dascombe, of the St Leger triumph. "It was a thrilling result as it was my first Group 1 winner and something I'll always remember." Though Brown Panther's best form is over slightly longer, Dascombe isn't overly concerned about this 'shorter' trip. He's won two listed races over a mile and a half and he was just beaten about four lengths in the [G1] King George over a mile and a half. As long as there's a nice pace in the race it won't bother him. He won't want a crawl." Cont. p15

While Frankel was in his pomp in 2012, Noble Mission was still being nurtured at home by the late, great Sir Henry Cecil, and in his races he was the subject of tender education from then stable jockey Tom Queally as they worked in unison on this following act. That patience had looked to be paying off earlier than expected that summer after he had upstaged the subsequent G1 St Leger hero Encke (Kingmambo) in Goodwood's G3 Gordon S. over 12 furlongs, but he was disappointing with the hood taken off for the first time since his debut when fourth on his next outing in the G2 Great Voltigeur S. at York. Despite regaining his form as the headgear returned to stay thereafter, the bay appeared to be stuck on a plateau by the end of his 4-year-old campaign, with just one further win in the interim period in the Listed Tapster S. back at Goodwood last May.

All horses in the TDN are bred in North America, unless otherwise indicated

By the time he was second in the G3 John Porter S. on his return over a mile and a half at Newbury Apr. 12, a tendency to blow the start--which had marked Frankel's last two races--was becoming all too familiar. With that in mind, James Doyle set him alight from the break in the G3 Gordon Richards S., and he responded by making all to pound Telescope (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) by nine lengths in that 10-furlong Sandown contest Apr. 25. Again at home under forcing tactics when besting that subsequent G2 Hardwicke S. winner and G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. runner-up in the G3 Huxley S. under a penalty at Chester May 8, he maintained the sequence when a domineering presence from the front in the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup at The Curragh 17 days later. Taking it to his rivals once more in the June 29 G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud, Noble Mission appeared to either tire or idle in the closing stages of that 12-furlong test and was caught in the last stride by Spiritjim (Fr) (Galileo {Ire}), only to gain the race due to the winner testing positive for a prohibited substance. Cont. p4

Denied his favored soft surface at the height of summer, the main domestic middle-distance contests passed Noble Mission by and he was sent to Munich for the G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis over this trip July 27. Compromised there by being forced wide from his high draw and subsequently denied the chance to press from the front early, he was again mowed down late on by the classy 3-year-old Lucky Lion (GB) (High Chaparral {Ire}) on unfavorable weight-for-age terms, and was given a rest with this race in mind. Working with significant zeal on the Newmarket slopes in the build-up to this target, he demonstrated that in the formative part of the race as he was rushed up to the head of affairs soon after the break with Al Kazeem in attendance but at safe distance. By the time he reached the end of the back straight, Noble Mission was still traveling notably the better of the duo, but he failed to completely shake off that foe, whose biggest day had come over this track and trip in last year's G1 Prince of Wales's S. As Al Kazeem fought on bravely in the stretch, nothing was making up significant ground from behind and despite joining the Juddmonte stalwart and possibly inching in front 100 yards out, he was unable to answer the winner's final thrust to secure the momentous Champion double. Cont. p5

"Noble Mission has great resolution and showed it--I know he's been called some names in the past, but I think he's put all that to rest now," commented Doyle, who was also Al Kazeem's regular pilot before starting his retainer with Khalid Abdullah, and who was handed a seven-day ban and £10,000 fine by the stewards for using his whip above the permitted level. "You could barely hold him at one point, but his rider at home, Martin Peake, has done a wonderful job with him and he completely relaxes on the lead now. Like all the family, he has matured mentally as he has got older. He seems to enjoy the tactic we've used this year of allowing him to bowl in front and use his stride. He has had tough boots to fill and he hasn't got the same engine as Frankel, but what he has got is pretty power-packed." Doyle continued, "When Al Kazeem came to him, I knew he would be hard to beat, but mine had just a bit more up his sleeve in the final half-furlong. He had been in a lovely rhythm the whole way and was able to use his stride on this ground and get some of them in trouble." Doyle also praised the runner-up's effort. "I'm also proud of Al Kazeem--I recognized his head straight away and I knew immediately it was my old friend. Although I was delighted to see him come back to his best, I owe him so much that in a way I wish it hadn't been him I was beating."

Noble Mission's future plans are in the balance, according to Lord Grimthorpe, who was not ruling out another season. "James [Doyle] produced a great ride on an incredibly good, tough and classy horse," Khalid Abdullah's racing manager said. "He put them to it, held them off, stuck to it and had a huge battle with Al Kazeem--to do that with that quality of field is remarkable. He could go to stud or stay in training. Two years ago when Frankel was in this very same position Prince Khalid just said, 'that is it' and Frankel was retired, so the decision is in his hands. I wouldn't think he would run again this year, because he's had quite a race today. What a happy day, with the emotions of the whole thing--with Jane and the history of Champions Day with Henry and the brother of Frankel--it's amazing." Click for the Racing Post result, the brisnet.com PPs or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Back In the Big Time...

For Al Kazeem, the performance marked a full return to his previous powers after a failed spell at the Royal Studs in Sandringham, Norfolk. Last year's G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup, G1 Prince of Wales's S. and G1 Eclipse S. hero had won the G3 Winter Hill S. at Windsor Aug. 23, but had generally looked to have lost some of his prior prowess in four starts this term. Confirming his trainer Roger Charlton's belief that he is more effective on a right-handed track, John Deer's 5-year-old bounced back to his best and is set to train on in 2015. "He's such a wonderful horse to deal with," his conditioner said. "He's done everything that I've asked of him and never behaved like a stallion since he came home. That was an amazing effort, but full credit to Jane Cecil. That is a much-improved horse and James Doyle did us. I was hoping that he'd handle the ground and I was rather insulted by his price at 50-1 earlier in the week. He was only beaten 5 1/2 lengths in the Arc 13 days ago and I think he's back to his best. I'm very proud of him." Jockey George Baker added, "About half a furlong out I thought I had it. I was just ahead of James but Noble Mission was very tough and resolute. A big 'thank you' is due to everyone at Beckhampton for getting Al Kazeem back to run so well in a Group 1, having been completely let down to go to stud. It's a great performance."

Moyglare Stud's ✪ "TDN Rising Star" ✪ Free Eagle, whose participation had been in doubt due to the testing ground, was the only closer and the performance of the G3 KPMG Enterprise S. winner suggested that the vibes surrounding him were correct. "I am delighted--it's been a great renewal of the race," trainer Dermot Weld said. "A 5-year-old and a 6-year-old fought it out, and there was a great pace all the way. My fella's inexperience told in the early part of the race when Pat found it difficult to put him where he wanted to be, and he had more ground to make up than ideal. He got a grand run round and quickened nicely, but in that ground two older horses were just too strong for him today. We'll leave him off now and he'll probably re-appear in the Tattersalls Gold Cup at The Curragh in May. We'll look forward to a serious 4-year-old." Despite the prominence of the old guard in this edition, there was no joy for the 7-4 favorite Cirrus des Aigles (Fr) (Even Top {Ire}), who was disappointing on his fourth try at this title when plugging on at one pace to be fifth. Jockey Christophe Soumillon said of the 8-year-old, "He had a good run, but unfortunately I didn't have any power when I came into the straight today. It just happens sometimes with horses. The ground was not to blame, as they are his best conditions."

CHARM IN ASCOT SPIRIT

Charm Spirit (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), who ran fifth to Night of Thunder (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in the May 3 G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket, exacted revenge on that rival with victory in last month's G1 Prix du Moulin at Longchamp, and edged forward in that private head-to-head with a stylish score here. Freddy Head's trainee was reined back to race in mid division after a slick getaway. Inching ever closer from halfway, jockey Olivier Peslier was reluctant to unleash full force on the 5-1 chance too soon and, once bullying his way to the front passing the eighth pole, he was in command under a drive thereafter to comfortably hold the Richard Hannon trained pair Night of Thunder, the 2-1 chalk, and Toormore (Ire) (Arakan) by a half-length and the same margin. "It was not going to be easy on that [heavy] ground, but Freddy Head was very confident beforehand and the going didn't turn out to be a problem," explained Peslier. "I don't look at all the other horses as I ride for myself and the horse, and the trainer said that I knew the horse very well. I came a little bit early, but he is very generous so, when I took the lead, I kept going and he responded." Cont. p7

Charm Spirit followed up a seven-furlong debut score at Longchamp with a third in last year's the G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere back over the same course, and opened this term with an Apr. 3 G3 Prix Djebel win at Maisons-Laffitte. Gaining credit for a fifth to Night of Thunder in the May 3 G1 2000 Guineas next time, he regained the winning thread in the June 7 G3 Prix Paul de Moussac at Chantilly. The bay followed up in the July 14 G1 Prix Jean Prat at Chantilly on Bastille Day and continued his hot streak, denying Hannon duo Toronado (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}) and old foe Night of Thunder in the Sept. 14 G1 Prix du Moulin back at Longchamp last time. Traveling smoothly throughout this straight mile, he was unleashed late to add another chapter to the Head family's annus mirabilis and secure a third straight top-level success. "It's magnificent, three Group 1s in a row," enthused trainer Freddy Head. "He's not a horse who will win by five lengths, but he is very difficult to pass as he is very tough. He was fifth in a vintage Guineas and I knew that he was a much better horse today. It's always difficult to come here and win, especially on that straight [course]. I was a bit scared of the distance and the ground, but he showed that he could stay. He is a real fighter and a warrior. He was finishing and running on, and I am so happy with him. He has shown he can handle soft ground today and he got the mile well. He's a champion and could go to stud now, but we'll see. Can you do better than that? I'm not so sure." Cont. p8

Jockey Olivier Peslier, who recently ended his association with the Wertheimer brothers before accepting a new role for owner Sheikh Abdullah bin Khalifa Al Thani, added, "I finished my retainer with the Wertheimers and now have an opportunity having signed up for the new job last week. I have won a Group 1 on my first ride and it's very special as the race is sponsored by QIPCO and all the family is here." Fresh from the agony of a narrow defeat in Friday's G1 Middle Park S. on the Future Champions card at Newmarket, trainer Richard Hannon was again on the receiving end of an unwelcome reverse, saying, "I'm a bit disappointed. [Jockey Richard] Hughesy had to go everywhere to find daylight and it was unfortunate that they collected on the rail. It's easier if they come up the middle as there are fewer hard-luck stories. He's run a good race and was probably slightly unlucky, as was Toormore, but the winner is a very good horse and there's not much between the three. My two horses have run good races in defeat and they both stay in training."

Sent off at 12-1 coming off a sixth in the G1 Prix Vermeille at Longchamp Sept. 14, Madame Chiang, who had relished soft ground when annexing the May 14 G3 Musidora S. at York, had all in her favor here, including a large slice of luck as the often-wayward Chicquita threw the race away late on. Lightly-campaigned entering this test, Kirsten Rausing's homebred went from a juvenile maiden score at Yarmouth in October to the Musidora, and her comfortable success in that leading Oaks trial saw her start at just 9-1 for the main event itself. Only 10th in the June 6 Classic with Epsom's ground drying out too much for her, the bay was left alone during the warm summer spell and returned with a respectable effort staying on into sixth in the Vermeille over this trip. Held up towards the back early by Jim Crowley, she was beginning to stay on past tiring rivals as Chicquita was sent past Albasharah (Arch) and into the lead passing the quarter pole. With the race seemingly at her mercy, that Ballydoyle representative started to drift markedly left a furlong later as she had done in the French and Irish Oaks last term, with Joseph O'Brien desperately trying to straighten her.

Madame Chiang
Racing Post

As she chose a diagonal approach to the line, Madame Chiang stayed straight and true and was left in front as a result with just over 100 yards remaining. Staying on strongly form there, she had a comfortable two-length margin to spare from the closer Silk Sari at the line, with 3/4 of a length back to Chicquita in third. "We were all making heavy weather of it and it wasn't until about the furlong marker I thought that I'd win," her rider explained. "I got shuffled back to nearly last early on, but they went a good gallop and I got a lovely run through. She was very game on that ground and David Simcock was very confident about her handling it."

Trainer David Simcock added, "That's her style of racing and I didn't think that she got the credit she deserved for her last run in France, where she was a length and a half behind Treve. Madame Chiang is all about patience--this is just the fifth run of her career and we've tried to look after her. We took our chance in the Oaks, which wasn't our best move but there's only one Oaks. When somebody puts their life into it like Kirsten, it's great."

That esteemed owner-breeder also commented, "We always knew that she was very good and in her previous two races, things haven't quite gone her way. We're delighted for the filly and for David and Jenny Simcock and their team and I'm also selfishly pleased for myself, as I bred the filly and her dam and I stand Archipenko, whose first 3-year-old crop she represents. She's his first Group 1 runner and winner."

Silk Sari's trainer Luca Cumani said, "I thought we were all set to run a shocking race halfway through, but she's really picked up as they've hit the home straight. It's a shame, but I don't think the course really suited her. If it had been a long straight like at Doncaster or York, I think we'd have finished nearer but all credit to the winner who has done it nicely."

Joseph O'Brien said of Chiquita, "She has a tendency to do that and has done so in most of her races. She's come to win the race, but that's just her I'm afraid."

Unsuccessful in seven starts since garnering March's G1 George Ryder S. at Rosehill, the globetrotting Gordon Lord Byron, who also annexed the 2012 G1 Prix de la Foret and last term's G1 Haydock Sprint Cup, had nonetheless performed with credit in defeat. Second when defending his crown in the Sept. 6 Haydock feature, he hit the board in the Sept. 13 G2 Clipper Boomerang Mile at Leopardstown and found one too good for a second straight renewal of the Oct. 5 G1 Prix de la Foret at Longchamp, going under by two lengths to Olympic Glory (Ire) (Choisir {Aus}) at the Bois de Boulogne track last time. The crowd's joint-favorite was well away from the traps and moved sweetly just behind the pace in fifth through the early fractions. Coming under pressure soon after halfway, he remained in contact as a wall of rivals laid down their bids passing the two pole, and found the requisite opening between Tropics and Jack Dexter in the dying embers, swooping late under a continued Wayne Lordan drive to win a shade cozily. "It was a bit tight, but he accelerated through and when he got to the front he thought he'd done enough and slowed down a bit," commented Lordan. Cont. p11

"He's been running consistently all year, and [trainer] Tom [Hogan] and the team have done a great job keeping him going as well as they have all year. It's great and he deserves it." Hogan added, "Katie O'Brien, who looks after him, is doing her physiotherapy master in London, but still rides him at weekends and is here with him today, so it's not a complete divorce. He had a midsummer break because he injured his back [when eighth in the June 21 G1 Diamond Jubilee S.] at Royal Ascot and that had to be sorted out. He started back about eight weeks ago and his coat today was better than it's ever been. We'll continue to travel with him as he has plenty of invitations."

Conditioner Dean Ivory witnessed Tropics come within an ace of a career high, but was delighted with his charge's performance. "I'm over the moon, it was a phenomenal performance," he said. "He's run in ground that's not ideal for him and, if it had been a bit better, he may well have won. He's been knocking on the door and one day it will open. He's a horse that I believe is still improving and could be better again next year. I'd like to go to Hong Kong with him, we'll follow Gordon Lord Byron and try to nail him somewhere."

One of international racing's true pioneers, Dermot Weld has an uncanny touch with stayers, and the master of Rosewell House had already delivered a masterclass of training to get Rite of Passage (GB) (Giant's Causeway) to win this off a year-and-a-half absence in 2012. Excelling again here, he produced a gelding who had just one prior run to his name on the flat in Forgotten Rules to provide a lesson to some of the best marathon runners around. As with Rite of Passage, Forgotten Rules had started his racing career in a national hunt flat race, or "bumper" contest, at the high-profile Punchestown festival and had put in a hugely impressive performance to win by 13 lengths Apr. 29 and was not seen again until the Galway festival so close to his trainer's heart. Dealing a decisive blow to the smart listed-placed mare Shu Lewis (Ire) (Pyrus) when scoring by eight lengths in a 14-furlong conditions event there at the beginning of August, the imposing bay arrived in Berkshire short on valuable experience, but long on expectation. Settled in rear early by a confident Pat Smullen, the homebred tracked the ultimately disappointing 2-1 pick Leading Light (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) throughout the majority of the contest, but was traveling notably better than that rival passing the three-furlong pole. Cont. p12

QIPCO British Champions Long Distance Cup cont.

Allowing Pallasator first run in early stretch, he was delivered out wide and showed his greenness by leaning right inside the last quarter mile and causing temporary interference to a quartet of opponents, which included the laboring favorite. Continuing his relentless surge to overwhelm Pallasator with a furlong remaining, he drew away to win with authority as Biographer closed to gain the silver medal. "He was always going to get there--he has unbelievable stamina when he gets into that grind," his rider explained. "I didn't want to get that far back, but they went a good pace and he showed a bit of inexperience early on as he was sluggish coming out the gate. When I got him organized and balanced in the straight, he was always going to stay and it's very testing ground." Weld added, "This is a lucky meeting for me and this is a similar horse to Rite of Passage. He showed ability as a 2-year-old, but was very immature. As a 3-year-old, he had sore shins so we decided to wait another year. He was just coming along nicely and won impressively at Punchestown and even more impressively at Galway, where he stayed on up the hill well so I thought that this would be an ideal race for him." Weld noted he has Group 1 targets for Forgotten Rules next season. "I've won a lot of major staying races around the world and taking time does pay dividends, but they must have ability in the first place. He'll always appreciate an ease in the ground and will come back for Royal Ascot, definitely the Gold Cup, provided there's some ease in the ground."

Racing Royalty: John Warren, Sir Michael Stoute and The Queen discuss strategy
Racing Post

Biographer's trainer David Lanigan said, "My horses weren't right earlier in the season and he handles this soft ground better than a lot of them. We'll come back next year and he deserves to have his day eventually." The Queen's Estimate (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}) was tailed off last on her swansong, and her racing manager John Warren commented, "Ryan [Moore] said the ground was like a ploughed field, but it is the same for all the horses. He said the minute he jumped off Estimate was never right. In the back of his mind all the way through was this was her last race. He was at her to try and lay up, but she was never comfortable at any moment. It is now off to stud."

When trainer Todd Beattie sends one away from his Penn National base and to a major circuit like New York, you know he means business, but Taris was nonetheless just a shade less than 4-1 for her Dec. 21 debut over the Aqueduct inner. With Clinton Potts along for the ride, the May foal streaked home by a towering 11 3/4 lengths to become a ✪ "TDN Rising Star" ✪ and followed up with a 5 1/2-length victory in Laurel's Wide Country S. Jan. 25. With an eye on stretching out his filly, trainer Todd Beattie sent Taris to Florida shortly after her stakes score and ultimately shipped her halfway across the country for the GIII Honeybee S. Mar. 8. Dispatched the 9-5 favorite, the bay set the pace for the opening six furlongs, but failed to see out the trip and crossed the line sixth, placed fifth via disqualification. Sidelined via injury, Taris returned to training in Central Pennsylvania in mid-July and put together an imposing worktab ahead of her return to action in a non-three-lifetime allowance over the Presque Isle Tapeta Sept. 10. The 3-5 chalk on that occasion, she took command at will on the turn and widened under her own courage to bolt up by 7 3/4 lengths, earning a 102 Beyer Speed Figure that was easily the best of this field. No better than the fifth betting choice despite that fact, Taris poked her head in front as the field hooked up with the track proper, but had some early company in the form of Miss Behaviour (Jump Start), who was exiting a smashing 9 3/4-length success in the GIII Charles Town Oaks Sept. 20. The previously unbeaten Pirate's Trove (Speightstown), Divided Attention (A.P. Indy) and Cassatt (Tapit) joined in as the field approached the turn, but Potts let it out a notch as they raced past the three-furlong pole following a half in a presumably taxing :44.80. Sweet Whiskey came with a three-wide run into the stretch and drove past Miss Behaviour into second entering the final furlong, but Taris was in full flight on the engine by then and streaked home to crush a deep field. "It was a pretty easy trip," the journeyman Potts commented. "What an amazing horse she is. We knew we had something there, but what she proved today … she's proved this all along. [Trainer] Todd [Beattie] has done such an amazing job with this filly. What a joy it is to be able to ride a horse like that." He added, "With her, the biggest thing is just to get her to relax. She was cool as a cucumber the whole way around there, just doing her business. She's really maturing, coming into herself. She makes my job easy." Click here to read the ✪ "TDN Rising Star" ✪ write out from Taris' debut win.

Taken back to slightly worse than midpack after the break, Admire Rakti was angled to the outside by Zac Purton leaving the first turn to travel three wide down the backstretch. He improved a few positions heading into the final bend, but was hung at least eight wide coming off the turn, with only the favored filly Lucia Valentina faring worse to his outside. In the meantime, Rising Romance enjoyed a smooth rail trip, emerging with the lead at the top of the lane as the former pair gained momentum down the center of the track. Admire Rakti employed an explosive turn of foot to nail Rising Romance on the line, with Lucia Valentina putting in a valiant run hot on his heels.

Admire Rakti has been promoted to Melbourne Cup favoritism, and Purton--a Hong Kong regular who this year did a stint in Japan--noted that he had jetted off to the Land of the Rising Sun in hopes of landing a Melbourne Cup ride.

"That was my goal and obviously I have done very well, but it's not over yet," the jockey told Racing and Sports. "The stable had me believing that he was going to be better at Flemington. He races better second-up, but after I rode him in work last week and felt how sharp he was I thought I would win this race."

Admire Rakti has taken his time to find his best stride, and prior to yesterday had been winless since recording his first stakes win in his 18th start last February. He had since run respectable races while just failing to hit the board in fourth in two of Japan's most prestigious events last year, the G1 Tenno Sho Spring and the G1 Japan Cup, and he had run just twice this year, a second in the G2 Hanshin Daishoten Mar. 23 and a distant 13th in the G1 Tenno Sho Spring May 4.

Admire Rakti provided another boost to his sire, who has experienced an outstanding year. Heart's Cry is also responsible for G1 Dubai Duty Free winner and the Longines World's Best Racehorse Rankings leader Just A Way (Jpn), as well as this year's G1 Japanese Derby and Oaks winners, One and Only (Jpn) and Nuovo Record (Jpn). Admire Rakti's win marked the second Australian Group 1 clinched by the Japanese this year, after Hana's Goal (Jpn) (Orewa Matteruze {Jpn}) took the G1 All Aged S. in April.

Japan was denied an elusive first victory in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe Oct. 5, but the nation now stands a chance to record it's second Melbourne Cup win, and the first since Delta Blues (Jpn) (Dance in the Dark {Jpn}) led home a Japanese exacta in 2006.

BLACK-TYPE PREVIEWS

Sir Evelyn de Rothschild's Hillstar seems best going this distance, as evidenced by his victory in the 2013 G2 King Edward VII S. at Royal Ascot and runner-up efforts to GI Breeders' Cup Turf aspirant Telescope (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in Royal Ascot G2 Hardwicke S. June 21 and to Godolphin's venerable Cavalryman (GB) (Halling) in the G2 Princess of Wales's S. at Newmarket July 10. The bay most recently prevailed as the favorite in Newbury's G3 Arc Trial S. over 11 panels Sept. 20 and goes for legendary conditioner Sir Michael Stoute, who saddled Singspiel (Ire) (In the Wings {GB}) to win the 1996 International en route to a runner-up effort in the Breeders' Cup Turf at Woodbine in his next start. "He goes on any ground," Stoute said of Hillstar. "I think a mile and a half is his best trip. [Brown Panther] beat me at Chester in May, but that was an extended mile and five (furlongs). He just outstayed me that day. I would be hopeful I could beat him at a mile and a half." Of the American entrants, Ken and Sarah Ramsey's Big Blue Kitten (Kitten's Joy) brings the most class to the table, though his recent fourth-place effort behind Main Sequence (Aldebaran) in the GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic Invitational S. left something to be desired. "It was a little disappointing," trainer Chad Brown offered. "We really liked him going into the race. There wasn't a lot of pace in the race. It wasn't a bad effort but it wasn't a winning effort, either. But he came out of the race in great shape, he's training well." A pair of Illinois-breds line up side-by-side in the International starting gate. The Pizza Man (English Channel) won the American St. Leger S. over an extended 13 furlongs Aug. 16, but was excuse-free when fifth in this track's GI Northern Dancer S. Sept. 14.

WHO WILL PROVE THE 'TAYLOR' SWIFTEST

An 'us-versus-them' matchup looms in today's GI E. P. Taylor S. at Woodbine, as Qatar Racing and Sangster Farm's Just the Judge (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}) will look to strike for Europe, while Sam-Son Farm's ✪ "TDN Rising Star" ✪ Deceptive Vision (A.P. Indy) will do her level best to defend the home-court advantage. Though she is in search of her first victory of 2014, Just the Judge looks like the one to beat on class. The 2013 G1 English 1000 Guineas runner-up before landing the Irish equivalent, the 4-year-old was third behind Thistle Bird (GB) (Selkirk) and Odeliz (Ire) (Falco) in the G3 Princess Elizabeth S. on the Investec Oaks undercard at Epsom June 6 before filling the same spot behind Thistle Bird in the G1 Pretty Polly S. June 29. Connections made the trans-Atlantic trip for the GI Beverly D. S. Aug. 16, and Just the Judge gave a good account of herself, rounding out the triple beneath Euro Charline (Ire) (Myboycharlie {Ire}) and next-out GI Flower Bowl S. winner Stephanie's Kitten (Kitten's Joy). Jamie Spencer, who jetted in to guide Trade Storm (GB) (Trade Fair {GB}) to the GI Woodbine Mile score, has the call for trainer Charlie Hills. Deceptive Vision has not finished worse than third in four turf appearances, with a Fair Grounds allowance victory this past February ahead of a third in this track's GII Nassau S. May 25. The homebred laid up on the pace in the GII Dance Smartly S. July 6, missing by a brave nose, but settled midfield in the GII Canadian S. Sept. 14 and charged home to beat Royal Fury (Langfuhr) by a decisive 2 1/2 lengths. Wall of Sound (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) accompanied her stablemate Brown Panther on the trip over and sports sneaky form into this test. A close second in the Listed Warwickshire Oaks at Nottingham June 16, the bay split a field of seven in York's Lyric S. July 25. She exits a productive renewal of the Sept. 17 John Musker S. at Yarmouth, from which the winner, Hadaatha (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) emerged to finish an outstanding third in the G1 Prix de l'Opera, and the runner-up Albasharah (Arch) romped in the Listed Pride S. at Newmarket.

EXCAPER LOOKS TO ATONE IN NEARCTIC

Excaper (Exchange Rate), a disappointing ninth of 10 as the lukewarm favorite in last year's Nearctic S.--then a Grade I--will look to make that effort a distant memory when he faces nine other rivals in this six-furlong affair. The 5-year-old made a successful seasonal debut in a mile allowance at Keeneland Apr. 13, defeating Winning Cause (Giant's Causeway) and Utley (Smart Strike), each of whom went on to graded-stakes success during this season. He returned to this venue for a half-length tally in the May 31 GII Connaught Cup S. going seven furlongs, then just missed behind GI Breeders' Cup Mile-bound Grand Arch (Arch) in the GII King Edward S. June 22. Excaper made a premature move to lead into the final furlong of the Aug. 10 GII Play the King S., but he flattened late and tired to fifth. He has no fewer than a half-dozen good-looking works heading into this and can cause a minor upset. One-time $25,000 claimer Calgary Cat (Cowtown Cat) tries to continue his ascent through the ranks this afternoon. An allowance winner on the local Polytrack June 21, the chestnut switched to the grass to be a close second over 6 1/2 furlongs July 19. The gelding improved by one spot to land an Aug. 24 allowance and came full circle to record a three-length victory in the GIII Bold Venture S. on the synthetic track Sept. 13. Dreamsgonewild (Freud) has won four out of his last five trips to the post, including a wire-to-wire success in a 5 1/2-furlong Saratoga allowance Aug. 31 before defeating Ben's Cat (Parker's Storm Cat) into this in the Sept. 27 Laurel Dash S.

BOTTI PAIR FACE OFF AGAIN

Today's G1 Gran Premio Del Jockey Club provides an opportunity for Italy's best to showcase their talents over 1 1/2 miles, and while the field is short on quantity it is not lacking in quality, with the Stefano Botti-trained pair Dylan Mouth (Ire) (Dylan Thomas {Ire}) and Biz the Nurse (Ire) (Oratorio {Ire}) likely to dominate the betting. Dylan Mouth represents the sophomore brigade, and he ran an unbeaten record of five through the G2 Derby Italiano in May. Disappointing when 8th in Royal Ascot's G2 King Edward V S. June 20, he bounced back to his winning ways when taking the G2 Federico Tesio S. by three lengths of Biz the Nurse Sept. 21. That rival and stable companion won last year's Derby Italiano, G1 Gran Premio Di Milano and Federico Tesio, and while he has not won in three outings this year, he has been on the board each time. One of those was a second-place finish, beaten a head, by Refuse to Bobbin (Ire) (Refuse to Bend {Ire}) in the G1 Premio Presidente della Repubblica GBI Racing May 11.

KING FOR A DAY

While the big cats are away at Ascot, the mice can play today in Longchamp's G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris, and Jeff Smith's Norse King (Fr) (Norse Dancer {Ire}) is the one to aim at among this quartet as he seeks consecutive renewals. Third when last seen attempting to give the high-class Spiritjim (Fr) (Galileo {Ire}) five pounds in the June 1 G2 Grand Prix de Chantilly, the Mar. 15 G3 Prix Exbury winner was also second in the G2 Prix d'Harcourt and third in the G1 Prix Ganay over 10 furlongs here in April, and sets the standard on his title defense. Three sophomores are in opposition, with Godolphin's Manatee (GB) (Monsun {Ger}) the most intriguing following his impressive 4 1/2-length success in a 15-furlong conditions event at Maisons-Laffitte last time Sept. 29.

BIG DEAL

Andre Fabre holds the record of seven wins in today's G3 Prix de Conde at Longchamp and also has a live contender this time in Godolphin's Big Blue (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), who scored on debut over this trip at Compiegne Oct. 2. The operation's representative Lisa-Jane Graffard commented, "Big Blue won nicely and was quite green first time out, suggesting that he will come on plenty for the run. He is a very straightforward horse and the ground conditions will be similar to his debut run, which could be important." Khalid Abdullah's Epicuris (GB) (Rail Link {GB}) is another coming off a win on his racecourse bow over a mile here at the start of September, while a dark horse is Ramzan Kadyrov's Aldar (Fr) (New Approach {Ire}), who won by five lengths in the seven-furlong Arqana Gerschov Memorial at Velka Chuchle Sept. 28.

Bred by Rene and Lauren Woolcott's Woodslane Farm, Tonalist, a Fasig-Tipton Saratoga graduate, achieved Rising Star status with a highly impressive four-length maiden victory at Gulfstream Park Jan. 18, overcoming a very wide trip, then ran second to subsequent GI Florida Derby winner Constitution (Tapit) in a stakes-quality allowance Feb. 22 while finishing ahead of the likes of the well-regarded Mexikoma (Birdstone) and Wicked Strong (Hard Spun). Forced to miss the GI TwinSpires.com Wood Memorial--won by Wicked Strong--with a minor illness, the striking bay colt left nothing to chance in the GII Peter Pan S., scoring by four front-running lengths in the slop May 10 ahead of his determined head defeat of Commissioner (A.P. Indy) in the Belmont. Given a few weeks' rest, Tonalist could not quite match strides with Wicked Strong late and settled for a good runner-up finish in the GII Jim Dandy S. July 26. A game third after attending a sharp pace in the GI Travers S. Aug. 23, Tonalist got blinkers off for the Jockey Club Gold Cup last time out Sept. 27 and lagged well behind in the early stages. Forced to steady when Wicked Strong lost his rider on the turn, the Christophe Clement trainee gathered his momentum and came with a strong final-furlong finish to win by a widening 1 3/4 lengths. Said owner R. S. Evans, "It's been an incredible year and we're very fortunate to own a horse the caliber of Tonalist. He's a leading candidate for champion 3-year-old and depending on the outcome of the Breeders' Cup, even Horse of the Year." Tonalist, who hails from the female family of Horse of the Year Saint Liam and MGISW Riskaverse, is expected to be one of the top betting choices for the GI Breeders' Cup Classic at Santa Anita Nov. 1, for which he is expected to work Sunday morning at Belmont. He has a current record of 8-4-2-1 and earnings of $1,802,000.

BREEDERS' CUP BULLETIN

• With Hall of Famer Mike Smith aboard, two-time champion Beholder (Henny Hughes) breezed a bullet seven furlongs in 1:23.80 starting behind two workmates at Santa Anita. "She galloped out a mile in [1:38] and looked really good," trainer Richard Mandella said. "She'll have another work; I don't know when or how long, but it won't be like this." The bay successfully defended her title in the GI Zenyatta S. Sept. 27 and will look to do the same in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff Oct. 31.

• GI Breeders' Cup Classic hopeful California Chrome (Lucky Pulpit) worked six panels at his Los Alamitos base in 1:12.20 under regular pilot Victor Espinoza yesterday. "It was just what I wanted," conditioner Art Sherman said. "He'll have one more before the Breeders' Cup." Winner of both the GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness S., the chestnut was last seen finishing sixth in the GII Pennsylvania Derby Sept. 20.

• Hong Kong invader Rich Tapestry (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) breezed five furlongs under exercise rider Vincent Sit in 1:01.40 at Santa Anita yesterday morning. "He went exactly according to plan," said trainer Leonard Powell, whose care the gelding has been under during his time in the U.S. "We wanted to him to start easy and have a strong finish behind another horse (Romar Success {Old Topper}). He did it very easily and the horse is pretty fit now, so from here on it's about maintenance and keeping him happy." Aiming for the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint, the bay upset last term's GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile winner Goldencents (Into Mischief) in his American debut in the GI Santa Anita Sprint Championship Oct. 4.

•Two-time GI Vosburgh Invitational S. winner Private Zone (Macho Uno) fired a six-furlong bullet from the gate in 1:09.40 under regular rider Martin Pedroza yesterday in Arcadia. "He went good, but a little faster than I wanted him to go," trainer Alfredo Velazquez said of the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint contender. "He'll have one more breeze next Saturday. Then he'll be ready for the money."

• Candy Boy (Candy Ride {Arg}) went six furlongs in 1:10.40 at Santa Anita under pilot Corey Nakatani in preparation for a possible start in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic Nov. 1. "He worked good," trainer John Sadler said. "He worked in company and he got a fast three-quarters.

We'll decide by tomorrow [whether to pre-enter on Monday for the Classic]." Winner of the GII Robert B. Lewis S. earlier this term, the bay finished a close third last time in the GII Pennsylvania Derby Sept. 20.

•Trained and owned by Phil Sims in partnership with Jerry Namy, GI Juddmonte Spinster S. upsetter Don't Tell Sophia (Congaree) worked four panels in :48.80 under jockey Joe Rocco Jr. yesterday at Keeneland. The 6-year-old posted splits of :12.60, :25.20 and galloped out five furlongs in 1:02.20. "Good and easy. I am just trying to get her there," Sims said. "She will probably have a similar work next Saturday with a strong gallop during the week." The bay's Spinster victory secured her a spot in the gate for the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff Oct. 31 and she will ship to Santa Anita Oct. 26. Click here for video.

• GI Breeders' Cup Mile contender Grand Arch (Arch) breezed a half-mile over Keeneland's main track in :52.20 under jockey Julien Leparoux. "That is the first time I've had him on the dirt, and I just wanted to let him stretch his legs," trainer Brian Lynch said. "He is not very aggressive on his own. He will do a little more next week, five-eighths, and tighten the screws a bit." Last seen finishing second to two-time reigning Horse of the Year and Breeders' Cup Mile winner Wise Dan (Wiseman's Ferry) in this venue's GI Shadwell Turf Mile Oct. 4, the bay will work again next Saturday and leave for California Oct. 28. With the defection of defending champion Wise Dan due to injury, Hall of Famer John Velazquez will be aboard Grand Arch for the Mile.

• Ashbrook Farm's Southern Honey (Colonel John) breezed a half-mile in :46.80 and galloped out five furlongs in :58.80 in Lexington under pilot Julien Leparoux. Most recently second in the GII Thoroughbred Club of America S. here Oct. 4, the GIII Winning Colors S. heroine is under consideration for the GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint Nov. 1. "She went slightly quicker than I thought she would," conditioner Rusty Arnold said. "I am going to meet with the owners tomorrow morning and go over everything and we'll make a decision."

Alcibiades Winner Out of Breeders' Cup...

Qatar Racing's GI Darley Alcibiades heroine Peace and War (War Front) has been injured and will be forced to miss her next start in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Nov. 1 at Santa Anita.

"A late night phone call from [trainer] Kellyn [Gorder, who the filly is stabled with during her time in the U.S.] broke the news that we had not even considered among the jubilation [of winning at Keeneland]: a minor injury, a very slight tear of the tiny XYZ ligament at the base of her fetlock will prevent her participation in the Breeders' Cup," conditioner Olly Stevens said.

Peace and War (11)

Stevens added, "It is tiny, however, we strongly feel that Peace and War has a very exciting year next year with a great program that could include the [GI] Ashland [S.], the [GI] Kentucky Oaks, the [GI] Coaching Club Oaks, the [GI] Alabama [S.], the [GI Juddmonte] Spinster [S.] and even another tilt at the Breeders' Cup."

A debut winner at Lingfield May 27, the bay was sixth in the G3 Albany S. at Royal Ascot June 20 and was a close second in a Haydock allowance Aug. 8 prior to her Alcibiades score.

"Peace and War will stay at Winstar Farm's excellent rest and rehabilitation centre until she returns to Chiddingfold," Stevens said. "The superb facilities and staff there will no doubt give us the best possible chance to return back to her best for an exciting campaign next year."

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

'Sparkling Review' for Valley View Winner...

Trainer Ben Colebrook was very happy with the condition of Sparkling Review (Lemon Drop Kid) following her upset victory in Friday's GIII Valley View S. at Keeneland. It was the first graded stakes win for both Colebrook and his charge.

"She came out of the race great," Colebrook said. "The next logical spot would be the stakes at Churchill, the [GII] Mrs. Revere [S.], but I've gotta talk to the owners and see how she trains between now and then."

The bay donned cap and gown at second asking over the lawn at Arlington Aug. 9 and was an allowance winner at Kentucky Downs Sept. 6.

Stevens Back In the Saddle...

Hall of Famer Gary Stevens got back in the irons for the first time Saturday, jogging one horse and working another for trainer Tom Proctor. The 51-year-old has been sidelined since undergoing knee replacement surgery July 25.

"It's thumbs up," Stevens said yesterday. "It's all good, really good. Tomorrow I work [GI Breeders' Cup Sprint candidate] Fast Anna (Medaglia d'Oro) for [trainer] Kathy Ritvo."

Stevens rode the Ritvo-trained Mucho Macho Man (Macho Uno) to victory in last year's GI Breeders' Cup Classic just one day after capturing the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff with two-time champion Beholder (Henny Hughes).

Miracles of Life Lands Debut for Stonestreet...

Miracles of Life (Aus) (Not a Single Doubt {Aus}), the 2013 G1 Blue Diamond S. winner who was purchased by Barbara Banke's Stonestreet Stables for A$900,000 from the Teeley Dispersal at the Magic Millions Gold Coast National Broodmare Sale this past May, returned from a five-month absence to dead-heat for the victory with the classy Bel Sprinter (Aus) (Bel Esprit {Aus}) in Saturday's G2 Caulfield Sprint. Conditioned in the early portion of her career by the little-known Daniel Clarken and partnered by Lauren Stojakovic, the bald-faced Miracles of Life became one of the darlings of the Australian turf in late 2012 and early 2013, emerging from pair of wins at Morphettville in Adelaide to win the Listed Blue Diamond Preview S. before justifying 9-4 favoritism in the Blue Diamond S. (video), in which she defeated future G1 Cox Plate and Australian Guineas hero Shamus Award (Aus) (Snitzel {Aus}) and subsequent four-time Group 1 winner Guelph (Aus) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}). She snapped a six-race skid with a success in the G2 Sportingbet S. at Morphettville May 3 and found herself in the Magic Millions sales ring less than four weeks later, with John Moynihan signing the ticket on behalf of Stonestreet. Making her first start in 161 days and first for the father/son team of Peter and Paul Snowden, Miracles of Life was ridden along by Ben Melham to dispute the early pace in the 1100-meter affair while maintaining her spot at the fence. She kicked nicely when asked in the stretch and was able to gamely hold on for a share with the late-running Bel Sprinter, winner of the G1 Galaxy S. in 2013 (video). Cont. p21

"We're very excited," Moynihan commented. "We bought her thinking that she had some racing left in her and we turned her over to Peter and Paul [Snowden] and they've just done a super job with her. Peter was very confident going into the race. It's very exciting." He continued, "She's a beautiful mare, she won one of the most prestigious race down there for 2-year-olds. She's tremendously popular and has an amazing following down there. I'm tickled to death for Barb."

Miracles of Life, who could be pointed to the top sprinting events in the Australian springtime, is one of two Stonestreet runners in training in the country. The other is the 2-year-old filly Kangarilla Joy (Aus) (Lonhro {Aus}), an A$840,000 purchase out of the Inglis Easter Yearling Sale, who is soon to begin trialling, Moynihan reported. --Alan Carasso

SALES NEWS

By Lucas Marquardt

Brandywine Farm's Jim and Pam Robinson are celebrating their 40th anniversary in horse racing this year. In the coming weeks, they might be celebrating a whole lot more than that. Indeed, Fasig-Tipton's October Fall Yearling Sale, which begins a three-day stand Monday in Lexington, could kick off an exciting run for the Robinsons. In addition to a nice collection of yearlings at October that figure to be well received, the husband-and-wife team will watch a horse they bred in partnership, the Grade I winner Majestic Harbor (Rockport Harbor), go for Breeders' Cup glory in the GI Classic Nov. 1. Soon after, the Robinsons will return for Fasig's November Sale Nov. 3 to offer Majestic Harbor's dam Champagne Royale. Also the dam of this year's GI Arkansas S. winner Danza (Street Boss), Champagne Royale is considered a leading Broodmare of the Year candidate.

"Hopefully, it will be fun," an understated Pam Robinson said of the coming 15 or so days.

Regardless of what happens at Fasig, the Breeders' Cup and beyond, it's already been another big year for the Robinsons. They are currently the fifth-ranked breeder in the U.S. with $4,143,197 in progeny earnings, and are unique in that they are the only breeder in the Top 5 who doesn't also stand stallions.

Among their five 2014 black-type winners are three Grade I winners. In addition to Danza and Majestic Harbor--who captured the Gold Cup at Santa Anita over the summer--the Robinsons also bred the GI Woodward S. winner Itsmyluckyday (Lawyer Ron). All three horses were bred with former business partner Rob Whiteley, who operated Liberation Farm.

In some ways, Brandywine Farm has a mom-and-pop feel to it. The Robinsons own the vast majority of the mares at Brandywine, and work the farm alongside a dedicated team of horsemen and women. They rarely breed to stallions whose fees are north of $20,000 or so, and are happy to ply their trade in the meat-and-potatoes middle market. But the scope of Brandywine defies the label. With 100 of their own mares and another 30 or so boarders, the Robinsons are anything but small.

As they've always done, the Robinsons specialize in value. They shop for mares with a limited budget, and, like many, rarely have a shot at those with the flashiest race records and pedigrees.

"Financially, it's not what we're able to do," said Pam Robinson. "But even if we did have a lot of money, I don't know that we'd spend a whole lot for mares. It's a challenge [to buy good, inexpensive mares], and we enjoy it."

Champagne Royale, dam of Danza and Majestic Harbor, is a good example of finding a diamond in the rough. The Robinsons teamed with Liberation to buy her for just $29,000 at the 2006 Keeneland January Sale. When Liberation liquidated its stock in 2012, they bought the mare for $40,000 (or essentially $20,000, given they already owned half) at Keeneland November.

Two months before buying Champagne Royale outright, the Robinsons sold Danza at Keeneland September to Eclipse Thoroughbreds for $105,000.

"He was a little mischievous," Pam Robinson remembered on Friday from the Fasig-Tipton sales grounds. "We put jolly balls in the colts' stalls, and he liked to bang that thing around and throw it over the wall."

Majestic Harbor, sold at the 2009 September Sale for just $20,000, had a different sort of wild streak. "One thing that stood out about him is that he had the most unruly mane," Pam Robinson laughed. "It wanted to go this way and that way, and it was a nightmare for the sales prep people. I talked to the lady who co-owns him the other day, and apparently it's still that way."

Like that pair of siblings, Itsmyluckyday has well outrun his yearling price tag. Sold by the Robinsons for $47,000 at the 2001 September Sale, Itsmyluckyday has now earned over $1.7 million.

"He was a late foal, so he was immature to start with," said Pam Robinson. "But he got better every day, and turned into a darn good-looking horse."

Itsmyluckyday will stand his first season at B. Wayne Hughes's Spendthrift Farm in 2015 for a fee of $8,000.

"We'll already book several mares to him," said Jim Robinson. Spendthrift offered Itsmyluckday as part of its "Share the Upside" program, which, along with similar programs, the Robinsons declare themselves big fans of.

"We've had luck with it," said Pam Robinson. "We have a breeding right to Into Mischief. Warrior's Reward looks promising, and we have a right to him. We jumped on the bandwagon early with that. We got a breeding right in every one of Spendthrift's horses. We got a breeding right in every one of Darby Dan's horses. Cont. p22

We got one in Overanalyze at WinStar, and in Old Fashioned and Astrology at Taylor Made. And we already bought seasons to Flashback at Hill 'n' Dale. For us as commercial breeders, it makes sense. It may cost us extra money in the short term, but if something hits, it could be worth a lot of money."

These types of programs also generally fit well with the Brandywine game plan, which tends to focus on first- and second-year stallions.

"There are so many good young stallions, and we enjoy supporting them in their first couple of years," said Pam Robinson. "And let's face it, there aren't that many proven stallions that we can afford to go to."

That makes their results even more impressive. In recent years, they've bred or co-bred the GI Belmont S. winner Ruler On Ice (Roman Ruler), MGISW Champagne d'Oro (Medaglia d'Oro) and GISW Secret Compass (Discreet Cat); and the Grade II winners Vision in Gold (Medaglia d'Oro) and Aggie Engineer (E Dubai). (Medaglia d'Oro stands for six figures now, but he stood for $40,000 when the Robinsons bred to him in his second year at stud.)

Not surprisingly, then, two of Brandywine's big guns for the October Sale are by first-crop sires. Hip 86 is a filly by the three-time champion Gio Ponti (Tale of the Cat). She was produced by a half to the graded winners Sapphire n' Silk (Pleasant Tap) and Golden Itiz (Tiznow) and to the dam of GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf heroine Shared Account (Pleasantly Perfect).

Hip 86 and Pam Robinson

"His dam, Ammalu, had a Hard Spun we sold for $270,000 as a weanling who is currently running--and winning--in Japan," said Pam Robinson. "This is a very nice Gio Ponti, and we hope he'll be well received."

Added Jim, "I haven't seen a lot of the Gio Pontis, but he himself has such a nice walk on him--he's got the best stride on a stallion you'll ever see--and I think he's passing it on. This colt has a nice, big walk--he walks like a cat."

The Robinsons are also high on Hip 271, a colt from the first crop of champion Cape Blanco (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). The colt is a son of SP Colonial Review (Pleasant Colony) and is from the family of this year's GII Adirondack S. winner Cavorting (Bernardini).

"He's a little on the small side, but he's very well balanced and comes from a very nice family," said Pam Robinson. "I think he's going to mature into a gorgeous 2-year-old--he just needs some time. I think he'll be a nice pinhook for somebody."

The Robinsons hope those October horses are the opening act to the main presentation, November's Champagne Royale.

"The folks at Fasig-Tipton looked it up, and she's one of only two mares in the world who have produced two Grade I winners this year," said Pam. "We've had a lot of interest in her already. We'll see what Majestic Harbor does in the Classic. But it should be fun."

Effinex was eighth behind Wicked Strong (Hard Spun) in the GI TwinSpires.com Wood Memorial S. at Aqueduct Apr. 5 and completed the trifecta against state-breds in an optional claimer at Belmont Park May 24. Seventh behind GSW Kid Cruz (Lemon Drop Kid) in the Easy Goer S. at this oval June 7, he ran sixth in his last start for previous trainer David Smith against New York-breds June 21. Second behind the re-opposing So Lonesome in the restricted Albany S. for these connections at the Spa Aug. 24, the dark bay ran third as the favorite in another state-bred Big Sandy optional claimer when last seen Sept. 28. The sophomore sported blinkers for this reappearance and raced in midpack through even fractions near the rail. Splitting horses around the far turn, Effinex shifted back to the rail at the head of the stretch and angled to the outside of the leader in midstretch. He kept finding more late and gamely earned his first black-type victory by a narrow margin. "Today he ran with Wicked Strong's blinkers, the same little black ones [Punkin Pie winner] Classic Point wore," commented winning trainer Jimmy Jerkens. "Since I've gotten him, he's gotten stronger. He ran very well in Saratoga. We didn't have a lot of time to get him ready. We threw a lot of work at him and he handled it and ran very well [second in the Albany]. His last race [third, optional claimer, Sept. 28] was a little bit of a disappointment. I think it had more to do with the track, when you couldn't gain on anyone and horses got discouraged coming from behind. But he's done everything right since then and we figured we'd take a shot. We figured the extra eighth of a mile wouldn't hurt, either." Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

Ostrolenka was a dull seventh sprinting in the slop behind subsequent Bertram F. Bongard S. winner Saratoga Heater (Temple City) at the Spa Aug. 31, but became one of three also-rans from that event to win next out when he aired by 14 1/2 lengths over track and trip Sept. 28. Bet like a sure thing off a field's-best 90 Beyer Speed Figure, the bay attended the pace along the inside through opening splits of :23.61 and :46.91. He was traveling strongly as he started to inch away along the turn, quickly dismissed a bid from Good Luck Gus at the quarter pole, and kept on to score decisively despite seeming to get slightly tired late. "[He was] very professional once again," offered Byron Hughes, assistant to trainer Todd Pletcher. "He was good in the paddock, good on the track. He seemed to relax there on the front end, especially being on the inside and being hounded the whole way. He kind of broke loose down the stretch and won impressively again. They went in :23, :46 and we thought he might get a little tired there, but it didn't seem to bother him much at all." Quezon defied 8-1 odds to cruise by six lengths in a muddy off-the-turf sprint Sept. 17, and was flattered when the runner-up from that heat The Lewis Dinner (Posse) aired here Thursday. She was installed as the second choice as the money poured in on Joseph A Gimma S. winner Temper Mint Patty (Congrats), and bided her time early off of fractions of :23.48 and :47.88. The chestnut sidled up to the favorite while four deep turning for home, and while the stage was set for a stretch duel, Temper Mint Patty was no match for Quezon, who drew off at will despite some greenness. "I had my doubts about doing this because she had come off the one race going three-quarters," winning conditioner Bobby Ribaudo said of the decision to stretch out. "You're coming back in a month, which is good timing, but you're going to a mile. You're going into a stake. Common sense says you shouldn't be doing this, but how many times can you run for a quarter of a million dollars with a New York-bred 2-year-old filly? She was doing good, so we went. Princess Violet donned cap and gown at second asking against state-breds at Aqueduct Apr. 6 and followed that with a restricted allowance victory at Belmont May 16. Second to GI Kentucky Oaks heroine Untapable (Tapit) in the GI Mother Goose S. June 28, she was seventh after a troubled trip in Saratoga's GII Prioress S. Aug. 30 and won a 6 1/2-panel allowance over this strip last time Oct. 5. The bay kept a watchful eye on the leaders from fourth and ran a few paths off the rail through early splits of :23.19 and :46.51. Advancing to challenge the leader rounding the turn, Princess Violet seized control in the stretch and sailed clear to win by daylight. "It was perfect; pretty simple," trainer Mike Hushion said. "We didn't really want her on the lead because we were afraid someone would take premature runs at her, so we were glad to have targets. [jockey Jose Ortiz] said she felt better than ever. After today, [two turns] are certainly not out of the question." Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

Route turf specialist and last year's GI Del Mar Oaks winner Discreet Marq kicked off her 4-year-old campaign with a second in Keeneland's GI Jenny Wiley S. Apr. 12 and tired to fourth in Belmont's GI Just A Game S. June 7. Discreet Marq just got caught after setting the pace and had to settle for third after leading throughout the nine-panel GI Diana S. at the Spa July 19. She filled the trifecta as the favorite behind returning MGISW Dayatthespa (City Zip) against fellow New York-breds in the Yaddo S. Aug. 24. Sixth behind that rival in the GI First Lady S. at Keeneland when last seen Oct. 4, she was favored here and raced in third well off the rail from her outside draw early. Discreet Marq advanced to the lead around the final bend and powered clear down the lane to return to the winner's circle and became a millionaire in the process. The rider of Mah Jong Maddness (Freud) claimed foul against the winner and there was also a steward's inquiry regarding interference by the winner at the 3/8ths pole, but the results were allowed to stand. "There's a saying, 'There's nothing like the drop,' and I guess this confirms it," commented winning trainer Christophe Clement. "She's been running in Grade Is all along and this was an easy race, and she won it very nicely. She's never run a bad race. She's a lovely mare." Discreet Marq is consigned to the Fasig-Tipton November sale as a racing/broodmare prospect. Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

Kharafa, 10th behind King Kreesa in this race last year, hit the board in three straight since scoring his lone win of the season in the Kingston S. here May 31. Second against open company in Belmont's Forbidden Apple S. July 4, he was a surprising third as the 1-2 chalk in a Saratoga allowance Aug. 3, then repeated that position behind Lubash and King Kreesa in the Ashley T. Cole S. Sept. 14. Drawn on the inside, he conceded the early lead to King Kreesa. Guided to the outside shortly thereafter, he chased from second, took over as they straightened for home and kept on finding more in the stretch to hold off his old rival. "If Kharafa gets in tight, and they slow the pace down, he gets really rank," trainer Timothy Hills said. "So, Angel [Arroyo]'s job was to hustle him out of there and get in the clear, so that when King Kreesa took the lead, he could get out around him. He did that with perfection. It went according to script. Every once in a while that happens. We'll run him to the end of the turf season, and bring him back next year." Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

La Verdad, winner of the GII Distaff H. as the favorite at Aqueduct Apr. 19, backed that form up with two more front-running victories as the crowd's pick at Belmont against state-breds in the Critical Eye S. May 31 and Dancing Renee S. July 3. The bay failed to fire when fifth in Saratoga's GII Honorable Miss S. when employing stalking tactics June 28 and filled that position again in the GI Ballerina S. at that oval traveling seven panels Aug. 23. Only a head-short of Ballerina heroine and MGISW Artemis Agrotera (Roman Ruler), in the GII Gallant Bloom H. back at Big Sandy Sept. 20, La Verdad was favored once again in this class drop. The 4-year-old battled for the lead with a rival to her inside and soon edged ahead after the first quarter mile. She increased her lead around the bend and showed the way into the long Belmont straight. A bit leg weary in late stretch, La Verdad had enough left in the tank to hold off the closing rush of the re-opposing second-choice Willet. The winner's dam Noble Fire did not produce a foal in 2013, but she foaled a filly by Freud this year. "She obviously likes Belmont and it's nice to get her back in the winner's circle," commented winning trainer Linda Rice. "At Saratoga, she had bled a little bit in the Honorable Miss, and I had to back off on her training and she got a little heavy on me. When I ran her seven-eighths in the Ballerina, she really didn't want to go seven furlongs and she certainly didn't want to do it when she was heavy. The plan today was to go to the lead, hopefully not in :43; the :45 helped. I'm not sure what's next. I had no absolute plans other than to get through today's race and then sort it out based on her performance." Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

He resurfaced with a dead-heat for fourth in Clearly Now (Horse Greeley)'s impressive GIII Belmont Sprint Championship S. July 5. Moonlight Song showed speed and tired to fifth behind Weekend Hideaway (Speightstown), Big Business and West Hills Giant in the John Morrissey S. at Saratoga Aug. 15, and was working bullets for his return. Sent to the front, he was pressed through an opening quarter in :22.54, began to shake clear at the top of the stretch and fought off all challengers down the lane to take them wire to wire. "He's a nice horse," trainer Charlton Baker said. "He's got a lot of speed. We rated him a little last time because he runs at horses pretty good. Today, he broke sharp and nobody seemed like they wanted the lead. He's the best horse I have in the barn. He was second in this race last year to Palace; he came back and beat Palace in January [in the Gold and Roses]. Held steady in fourth as three others battled for control, the bay ran well off the rail through solid early fractions of :22.75 and :46.89. Displaying some greeness while three-wide at the top of the lane, My Magician surged to the front once straightened out by pilot Julian Pimentel to earn both her diploma and a black-type victory. "We liked her when we bought her and took her to Saratoga, but she got really ill," Trombetta said. "She was on antibiotics most of the summer with a nasty cold, a lot of down time. Golden Years, a smart debut winner over next-out Keeneland graduate Joe Franklin (Bernstein) as the 6-5 chalk here Sept. 10, fired a five-furlong bullet in :58 Oct. 3 and was heavily supported to remain perfect. He forced the early issue while three wide, tugged his way to take a narrow advantage on the far turn and pulled clear in deep stretch to register a career high. "A win like this lifts the heads in the barn," trainer Rodney Jenkins said. "We've run second here in four stakes in this meet. We knew this was a good horse. He knew a little more about racing this time. He's never worked too much by himself, so when he's working in company he's very aggressive. Notyouraveragejoe dueled near the hedge with a rival into the first turn and down the backstretch through solid splits. He cut the corner into the home straight and kicked clear down the lane to score by a comfortable margin. "It was a long time getting him back to the races," said winning trainer Stephen DiMauro. "I'm just happy that he ran a good race, never mind win. He's had some physical ailments, nothing major. I had to stop with him once during the winter. I got him back to the races in June, but he aggravated it again and I had to stop again. He's a bit of a handful to train, so it's been difficult. Elnaawi captured a Monmouth Park optional claimer June 8, but tired to ninth next out behind eventual GI Whitney H. winner Itsmyluckyday (Lawyer Ron) in that venue's GIII Salvator Mile July 6. Fourth in Oceanport's GIII Philip H. Iselin S. Aug. 17, he was third last time when trying turf in Belmont's 1 1/2-mile Yankee Affair S. Sept. 6. Keeping tabs on the leaders from fourth, the 7-2 chalk was on the outside of a four-horse duel for the lead turning for home. Elnaawi continued to plug along in the lane and kicked clear late for a narrow success. Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

+LEMON DROP PRIZE (c, 2, Lemon Drop Kid--Chasethegold {GSP, $154,945}, by Touch Gold) was dismissed in the wagering at 18-1 despite a sneaky :48 flat gate breeze at Churchill Oct. 10, and was content to lag far back early in second last behind swift splits of :22.32 and :45.06. The pace fell apart in the lane, and soon after fellow 18-1 shot Perfectly (Majesticperfection) struck the front, he was swarmed by Lemon Drop Prize, who kicked away by 2 3/4 lengths. Firster Tale of Verve (Tale of Ekati) rallied from another area code to be third. The winner is a half to Goldrush Girl (Political Force), GSP, $136,822. His dam is a half to GI Donn H. and Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile winner Albertus Maximus (Albert the Great), as well as this year's GI Champagne S. romper and GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile contender Daredevil (More Than Ready). Lemon Drop Prize's third dam is GISW Race the Wild Wind, who was responsible for French G1SW and Irish and British GSW King Charlemagne (Nureyev); British GSW and French G1SP Meshaheer (Nureyev); and the dam of 2010 GI Forego S. winner Here Comes Ben (Street Cry {Ire}).

TONI'S HOLLYDAY (f, 3, Harlan's Holiday--May Day Vow {MSW, $166,285}, by Broken Vow), a maiden winner at Fair Grounds in November, finished third in both the Letellier Memorial S. on dirt Dec. 21 and Battle of New Orleans S. on grass Feb. 1, respectively. Sidelined after finishing a well-beaten fifth in a Fair Grounds off-the-turfer Feb. 27, she was distanced in a grassy allowance going a mile and 70 yards at Kentucky Downs most recently Sept. 24. Taking the blinkers off here, the 9-1 shot was outsprinted in seventh through an opening quarter in :21.87. The chestnut captured an optional claimer at that venue June 4 and returned off 12 days rest to added an allowance over that strip June 16. Boozer, never worse than third since transferring from Kathy Walsh to Mark Glatt at the beginning of this season, sported a 5-2-2-1 record down the hill and was cutting back off an open allowance victory at Del Mar Aug. 31. Heavily favored despite the presence of GISW Tamarando, the dark bay sped right to the front while being chased by that foe. He came a bit wide crossing the dirt, but quickly righted the ship to kick away and justify his short price. "He got a very easy lead but he did his job," said Glatt. "He's a versatile horse. He runs good down the hill and he won very impressively going a mile and a sixteenth [twice at Del Mar]--not against stakes horses yet, but he's very effective. I think he'll even run a mile and an eighth if that opportunity ever comes up." Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.

Fresh from rounding off a consistent year in some of Britain's most prestigious handicaps with a second success in the historic Cambridgeshire H. over nine furlongs at Newmarket Sept. 27, Bronze Angel returned to the Berkshire venue at which he had performed with credit on two prior occasions at the Royal meeting. Third in the 2012 Britannia S. over this trip and fourth in the most recent renewal of the seven-furlong Buckingham Palace S. June 20, the bay was never far off the speed in the midst of the far-side group throughout the early stages of this valuable new contest. Cont. p12

Still making light of the heavy ground just behind the leaders at the quarter pole, he was sent to the front with a furlong to race and produced his customary strong finish to provide apprentice Louis Steward with another major handicap success. "For this horse to do it on good-to-firm ground [in the Cambridgeshire] and then on this ground is just amazing," he said. "All credit to the horse. I'm just the pilot."

Having enjoyed a profitable start to the season with a brace of wins on testing ground in a seven-furlong handicap here and 7 1/2-furlong conditions event at Tipperary in the space of 11 days, Sun on the Run was last seen finishing seventh in the Listed Owenstown Stud S. over seven panels at Naas June 2. Racing in rear having been hampered after a smart break, the bay moved closer with three eighths remaining and after challenging Sruthan a quarter mile later wore down that rival with 100 yards remaining.

Coming with a strong run to hit the front approaching the furlong marker, the even-money favorite held on to prevail by a half-length from Dancing Soprano (Ire) (Jeremy). The winner is a half-sister to Marionnaud (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}), MGSW-Ire, $303,789; and to Rock Moss (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}), GSP-Ire, $172,137.
