

KINGMAN CROWNED AT CARTIER AWARDS

For the third time in four years, Khalid Abdullah took home the highest honor at the Cartier Awards with a homebred when his 3-year-old miler Kingman (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) was crowned Europe's Horse of the Year in a ceremony at the Dorchester Hotel in London, England last night. The John Gosden-trained Kingman, who won this year's G1 Irish 2000 Guineas, G1 St James's Palace S., G1 Sussex S. and G1 Prix Jacques le Marois, beat out fellow 3-year-old and dual Derby winner Australia (GB) (Galileo {Ire}), triple Group 1 winner Noble Mission (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) and dual G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe heroine Treve (Fr) (Motivator {GB}) in the Horse of the Year category, and also took home the champion 3-year-old colt title over Australia, Charm Spirit (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) and The Grey Gatsby (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}). Khalid Abdullah's Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) provided him with back-to-back Horse of the Year honors in 2011 and 2012.

"Big thank you to John and all his team at Clarehaven, they've performed miracles with this horse," Khalid Abdullah's Racing Manager, Teddy Grimthorpe, told Channel 4 Racing after accepting the award. Gosden added, "The Sussex S. at Goodwood was extraordinary, and in itself indicative of what he could do." Cont. p3

FRANKEL FEVER TO CONTINUE AT GOFFS

By Kelsey Riley

Goffs became the first auction house to offer a foal by the unbeaten superstar Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) when selling the stakes-producing Crystal Gaze (Ire) (Rainbow Quest), with her Frankel colt by her side, to MV Magnier for £1.15 million at its inaugural Goffs London Sale in June. Less than a month later, Frankel fever continued halfway around the world when a filly out of Goodwood March (GB) (Foxhound) commanded ¥96,000,000 (US$941,177) at the JRHA Foal Sale.

Next week, Goffs will become the first European auction house to offer weanlings by Frankel when it sends six youngsters by the dual Cartier Horse of the Year through the ring at its

November Foal Sale, which runs Nov. 17 to 20. The Frankel foals--four fillies and two colts--will all be offered on the final day. Cont. p12

TOMLINSON BOOKS BARBADOS TRIP

Trainer Mike Tomlinson, standing out back, saw off all challengers to purchase yesterday's topper at Keeneland November, which, with a session heavy on horses-of-racing age, slipped a touch from 2013 numbers but generally maintained well. Tomlinson came away with the promising 2-year-old Barbados (Speightstown--Northern Station, by Street Cry {Ire}) (hip 2860), a winning colt from the WinStar Racing consignment who brought $340,000. Tomlinson said he was acting on behalf of the Chicago-based Paul Hanifl, who operates Suzanne Stables.

Barbados
Keeneland

"He was athletic and ran a good number [speed figure] in his last start at Keeneland, and it's just hard to find nice 2-year-olds that you can buy that have pedigree and have talent," said Tomlinson.

Barbados, in training with Kellyn Gorder, ran a good second on debut at Kentucky Downs Sept. 6 and was fifth in Franklin Sept. 24, then shipped to Keeneland and romped by five lengths sprinting in the slop Oct. 16.

"He was clean x-way wise, and everything looked good," said Tomlinson. Cont. p6

Tabbed a 🌟 "TDN Rising Star" 🌟 as a juvenile last year, Kingman opened his sophomore season with a 4 1/2-length victory over Night of Thunder (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) in the G3 Greenham S. Apr. 12, and suffered his lone defeat at the hands of that rival when a narrow second in the G1 2000 Guineas three weeks later. Kingman bounced back with a five-length demolition of the Irish 2000 Guineas another three weeks later, and once again used his devastating turn of foot to upend Night of Thunder in the G1 St James's Palace at Royal Ascot. Trying elders for the first time in the Sussex July 30, Kingman ran away from the defending winner and G1 Queen Anne S. hero Toronado (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}), and the strapping bay closed out his career with a 2 1/2-length score over G1 Breeders' Cup Mile second Anodin (Ire) (Anabaa) in the Marois. A throat infection left Kingman on the sidelines for Champions Day, and he has since been retired to stand alongside Frankel at Juddmonte's Banstead Manor Stud, where he will command a fee of £55,000 in 2015. It has already been revealed that Sheikh Hamdan's Taghrooda (GB) (Sea the Stars {Ire}), who took home champion 3-year-old filly honors last night on the merit of her wins in the G1 Investec Oaks and G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S., will be amongst Kingman's first book. Taghrooda, who also finished second in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks and third in the Arc, was Kingman's stablemate at Gosden's yard. She is the first filly in 50 years to win the King George.

"She's done wonders for the morale of the whole team," Sheikh Hamdan's Racing Manager, Angus Gold, told Channel 4 Racing. "John Gosden and his gang haven't put a foot wrong."

A Noble Accomplishment...

The good fortune for Khalid Abdullah continued last night when Noble Mission bested Treve, Cirrus des Aigles (Fr) (Even Top {Ire}) and Integral (GB) (Dalakhani {Ire}) in the older horse category. A full-brother to Frankel, who also took this honor in 2012, Noble Mission found his best stride as a 5-year-old this year. Nurtured in his earlier days by Sir Henry Cecil, Noble Mission landed in the care of that legendary trainer's widow upon Cecil's death last year. Noble Mission opened a four-race win streak in the Apr. 25 G3 Gordon Richards S., and followed up in the G3 Huxley S. two weeks later, besting the talented Telescope (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) on both occasions. A first Group 1 win came in the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup May 25. Cont. p4

While Noble Mission was second by a head to the line in the G1 Grand Prix de Saint Cloud June 29, he was later awarded that event after the winner, Spiritjim (Fr) (Galileo {Ire}), was taken down for a positive test. Second in the G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis-Bayerisches Zuchtrennen July 27, Noble Mission closed out his career, while again emulating his famed elder brother, with a victory in the G1 Champion S. Oct. 18. Noble Mission will stand at Lane's End Farm in Kentucky next year.

All About Power...

Europe's sprint division in 2014 was largely dominated by the Power family duo of Sole Power (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}) and Slade Power (Ire) (Dutch Art {GB}), and it was the former who edged out his Eddie Lynam stablemate for divisional honors at the Cartier Awards last night. The 7-year-old gelding opened a memorable Royal Ascot for his trainer when taking the G1 King's Stand S. for a second time June 17, and he added a second G1 Nunthorpe S. to his resume next out Aug. 22. Sole Power finished fourth behind sprint division finalists

Sole Power

G Force (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}) and Gordon Lord Byron (Ire) (Byron {GB}) in the G1 Betfred Sprint Cup Sept. 6, and closed out his season when eighth, beaten two lengths, in the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye at Longchamp Oct. 5.

"We call Eddie Lynam the Wizard of Oz because he's brought us something from over the rainbow," Sabena Power told Channel 4 Racing.

At the other end of the stamina spectrum, Derrick Smith, Mrs. John Magnier and Michael Tabor's Leading Light (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) scooped up champion stayer honors. Last year's G3 Queen's Vase and G1 St Leger hero continued to excel over extended distances this year, claiming the G3 Vintage Crop S. at Navan on seasonal debut May 18 before a courageous neck victory in the G1 Gold Cup at Royal Ascot June 19. The Aidan O'Brien charge added the G3 Irish St Leger Trial Aug. 24 before finishing second in the main event three weeks leading to division finalist Brown Panther (GB) (Shirocco {Ger}). Leading Light wrapped up his campaign when a hard-luck seventh in the G2 British Champions Long Distance Cup Oct. 18, where he suffered suspensory injuries.

"He's given us some fantastic memories both this year and last year, and some nervous moments too," Paul Smith told Channel 4 Racing after accepting the award. Cont. p5

Gleneagles kicked off a four-race win streak at The Curragh June 29. He became a stakes winner in his third start when taking the G3 Tyros S. July 24, and added the G2 Futurity S. a month later. Gleneagles continued his climb up the ladder in The Curragh's G1 National S. Sept. 14, and would be riding a five-race win streak if not for being disqualified from victory in the G1 Jean-Luc Lagardere after crowding the placed horses close to home.

Tiggy Wiggy (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) far outran her £41,000 yearling price tag this year, and the Richard Hannon charge added to her haul when taking champion 2-year-old filly honors last night. An early first-out winner at Kempton Mar. 29, Tiggy Wiggy added a Salisbury conditions event May 4 before finishing second to Patience Alexander (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) in the Listed Marygate S. May 16.

A victory in Sandown's Listed National S. followed two weeks later, and Tiggy Wiggy found only Anthem Alexander (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) too tough in the G2 Queen Mary S. at Royal Ascot June 18. Tiggy Wiggy bounced back with a Newbury conditions win July 19, and after besting the eventual G1 Moyglare Stud S. heroine Cursory Glance (Distorted Humor) in the G2 Lowther S. Aug. 21, she made all to win the G1 Cheveley Park S. Sept. 27.

Sheikh Hamdan Honored...

Sheikh Hamdan al Maktoum, who enjoyed a banner season with champion sophomore filly Taghrooda and G1 Coral-Eclipse winner Mukhadram (GB) (Shamardal) in Britain, was the recipient of the Cartier/Daily Telegraph Award of Merit last night. That honor is bestowed on an individual or group that has made significant contributions to racing either in the past year or over their lifetime, and Sheikh Hamdan certainly qualifies on both counts. Sheikh Hamdan enjoyed a one-two in the Oaks courtesy Taghrooda and Tarfasha (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) and they, as well as Mukhadram, will embark on their breeding careers for Shadwell next year.

Sheikh Hamdan's successful run in British racing has spanned more than 30 years, and includes a pair of Derby victories courtesy Nashwan and Erhaab, the former also having won the G1 2000 Guineas. Cont. p6

Bahathri went on to produce 2000 Guineas winner and sire Haafhd (GB). Other luminaries to race for Sheikh Hamdan include G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner Sakhee and outstanding sprinter Dayjur. Many of Sheikh Hamdan's great racehorses, including Nashwan and triple Group 1 winner and sire Nayef, descend from his great mare Height of Fashion.

Sheikh Hamdan has much to look forward to next year, with the exciting juveniles currently in his arsenal including G2 Gimcrack S. winner Muhaarar (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), G2 Superlative S. and G2 Champagne S. victor Estidhkaar (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) and impressive maiden winner Faydhan (War Front).

Commenting on the Cartier Awards, Cartier's Racing Consultant Harry Herbert said, "2014 was another exceptionally strong year for quality flat racing in Europe and horses trained here did well the world over. Kingman is an excellent winner of the Cartier Horse of the Year award and overcame stiff opposition from Treve, Australia and Noble Mission. He was also successful in the Cartier 3-year-old colt category. I wish to congratulate his connections and those of Noble Mission, Taghrooda, Sole Power, Leading Light, Gleneagles and Tiggy Wiggy for being Cartier Racing Award winners too. Sheikh Hamdan has been rewarded this year for his long-term investment in bloodstock and I am thrilled the Cartier Jury gave him the Cartier/Daily Telegraph Award Of Merit."

It was Barbados's second time through the Keeneland ring in seven months and his third in 14 months. Ciaran Dunne signed for the colt for $160,000 at the 2013 Keeneland September Sale, and resold him to WinStar earlier this year for $230,000 at the sale company's April Two-Year-Olds in Training Sale.

Tomlinson said he was under no illusions that he was necessarily buying a Classic-type prospect.

"He's a typey, good-looking horse, and two turns might be a stretch for him," he said.

Tomlinson, continued "We just wanted a nice horse, and there are lot of nice races you can win around one turn."

Suzanne Stables, named after Hanifl's wife, currently has five or six horses in training, said Tomlinson, primarily with Larry Rivelli. Paul Hanifl is the vice president of business development for Sage Products, a healthcare manufacturing company.

Mike Tomlinson
Keeneland

"I've trained for him in the past, but this will be the first one of had for him in a while," Tomlinson said. "The colt is going to Churchill Downs from here. We'll give him a day or two to settle [before resuming training]. Then we'll ship him to Gulfstream Park at the end of the month, when Churchill's over."

For the session, 253 horses sold for $8,373,400, an average of $33,096. That was down 10.7% from last year's session eight average of $37,069. The median was $23,000, an 8% slip from 2013, while the RNA rate of 21.7% was over double last year's rate of 10%.

While session numbers were down, last year's session featured a particularly strong racing-age selection, including a draft from Adena Springs that produced the GI Arlington Million winner Hardest Core (Hard Spun), who brought $210,000. Four other Adena horses also brought six figures last year, led by the $330,000 Montana Native (Yes It's True). Cont. p7

Adena didn't have a racing-age draft this year. Last year's session was topped by the $450,000 General Election (Harlan's Holiday).

In total at November, 1,850 horses have sold for $197,747,400. The resulting average of $106,890 is up 8.8% from the 2013 average of $98,252.

The cumulative median is $51,000, up 8.5% from $47,000. The sale RNA rate stands at 22%, compared to 15.5% last term.

Ballis Returns to Racing Age Session for Race Day...

Yesterday's second-highest horse was the 3-year-old racing or stallion prospect Race Day (Tapit--Rebalite, by More Than Ready), who was purchased by Jake Ballis for $285,000. Ballis signed under the name Ghost Bloodstock, and said he was acting on behalf of owner and partner Matt Schera.

Race Day
Keeneland

Race Day was offered from the WinStar Racing draft as hip 2893. The racy gray has won two of four starts in his young career. Placed in his first two starts sprinting for trainer Kellyn Gorder at Ellis Park this summer, he stretched out to win a Keeneland maiden special Oct. 3. Race Day kept his record perfect around two turns with a Churchill allowance/optional claimer win on the main track Nov. 2.

"We liked his last two races, and I think he's going to improve on the turf," said Ballis. "We just have to figure out where we're going to send him now. He'll got to either Florida or California."

Ballis said he considered it a fair price to pay. "I was hoping to get him cheaper than that, but he's a race-ready horse that can run in a month," he said. "I thought he'd bring between $200,000-$300,000. I was hoping the lower end of $200,000, but I think we got a nice horse. Hopefully, we can improve him."

Ballis isn't a stranger to buying at November's racing-age session. Last year, he signed for the once-raced, unbeaten 3-year-old Mean Season (Henny Hughes) at $150,000. That looked like a steal when Mean Season blitzed a field of Aqueduct optional claimers by eight lengths a month later in an effort that earned him TDN Rising Star status. He doubled up with a similarly impressive romp at Aqueduct in March, but suffered a stress fracture in the race and was given time off. The TDN's Steve Sherack reported in September that Mean Season was rehabbing at Fair Hill and being pointed toward a 2015 campaign.

"We had good luck last year, and hopefully we can get some luck with this one," said Ballis.

Mean Season isn't Ballis's only horse to watch in 2015. Along with NBA star Rashard Lewis, he owns Cigar Street (Street Sense), who recently ran a mid-pack seventh in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic in his third start off a long layoff.

Ballis was making his first purchase at November, but it wasn't for lack of trying.

"We did some pinhooking last year and were going to buy some foals this year, but it's a strong market," he said. "We bid on a lot, but got outbid on everything." Cont. p10

Race Day was one of the 22 official horses to sell from the WinStar Racing draft. Those horses grossed $2,077,00 for an average of $94,409. Not included in Keeneland's official figures was the sale of the 3-year-old colt Announcement (Tiznow--Nany's Sweep, by End Sweep), who initially RNA'd in the ring for $250,000. Catalogued as hip 2859, Announcement sold shortly thereafter to trainer Eddie Kenneally, WinStar's Elliott Walden confirmed.

Walden said he was content with how the WinStar horses sold, and in particular the $340,000 session-topping juvenile Barbados (Speightstown).

"It went well," he said. "It was kind of where I thought it would be, and of course, when you bring a 2-year-old, there's a little bit of a premium. [Barbados] is a fast horse, and there are so many opportunities for horses that are just turning three. There were some nice horses in the sale that are going to do well, and it will help the whole thing cycle back next year."

Walden also provided an update on Cowtown Cat (Distorted Humor), the stallion prospect who was scratched from the sale after flipping over at the sale Monday. "He's doing great," said Walden. "He'll go back to the farm tomorrow. He didn't have a skull fracture, but he had a seizure right after he fell after hitting his head, so obviously we were concerned."

The Six-Figure Count: One Mare, Two Weanlings...

Tuesday's mare topper was the $150,000 Big Sink Star (A.P. Indy--Simadartha, by Gone West), who sold to Grey Flight from the draft of Craig and Holly Bandoroff's Denali Stud. The 9-year-old Big Sink Star, catalogued as hip 2567, sold in foal to Bellamy Road. Denali sold on behalf of WinStar Farm.

Big Sink Star is a half to the group performer Vault (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) and hails from the exemplary family of Coup de Folie, Machiavellian, et al. But it was a big update that really upped her value in the sales ring yesterday. Since the catalogue, her 4-year-old son Calgary Cat (Cowtown Cat) earned his first black type victory when winning the GIII Bold Venture S. by three lengths at Woodbine Sept. 13. He then came back to be third in the grassy GII Nearctic S. Oct. 19.

Also since the catalogue, Big Sink Star's 2-year-old son Conquest Harlanday (Harlan's Holiday), a $200,000 Keeneland September yearling in 2013, debuted at Churchill Downs. He went unplaced at 7-2 odds after a slow start.

Big Sink Star had another colt by Harlan's Holiday sell at the most recent September renewal, where he brought $130,000 to the bid of Julio Rada.

"She was a big, pretty mare, and she had a really good update," said Denali's Craig Bandoroff. "People paid attention, and we made people pay attention, and it was good. The yearlings had sold well, and people knew about them. That's the thing: there's no hidden information anymore."

Bandoroff said that, if nothing else, he's seeing a lot of horses change hands at November. "There's a lot of trading going on, and I think that's a big objective of what November's all about," he said. "Some of the ones you don't want, somebody else does, and you try to get new ones. The foal market is about the same as it's been. If you have one that ticks all the boxes, as the old saying goes, they're all over them. And yet there are people there for the other ones, too. Horses are turning over. Are people making money? That's the $64,000 question."

Two weanlings brought six figures yesterday at November. Leading the way was a filly from the first crop of Tapizar (Tapit) who was knocked down to Christina Jelm, agent for JSM Equine, for $145,000. Robert E. Courtney Jr.'s Stonebridge LLC consigned the daughter of Heckuva Hunter (Lion Heart), who hails from the immediate family of the recent $3 million Fasig-Tipton November mare Sweet Lulu (Mr. Greeley). She sold as hip 2670.

The other six-figure weanling was a first-crop Gemologist (Tiznow) colt who sold to B.T.A. Stable for $125,000. Bred by Pin Oak Stud and Brookfield Stud and consigned by Elm Tree Racing as hip 2685, the colt is the first foal from the winning Irish Wedding (Johannesburg), a half to GSP Holiday Promise (Harlan's Holiday) and SP Anchorage (Tapit). It's the extended Pin Oak family of Wedding Vow, Broken Vow, et al. The colt was purchased in utero last year at Keeneland November for $115,000 by J.C.E.A.E.

A Daily Roundup of Racing Articles in Non-Industry Media

All 43 Works From Bunny Mellon's Collection Sell at Sotheby's Auction "Rachel Lambert Mellon, better known as Bunny, spent her lifetime collecting whatever caught her eye, from antique porcelains and shaker baskets to abstract paintings by Rothko and Diebenkorn. Her legendary taste and style, from an era long gone, proved irresistible for scores of collectors who descended on Sotheby's York Avenue salesroom on Monday night to see 43 "masterworks," as the auction house called them, bringing prices that were well past anyone's expectations." Carol Vogel, New York Times

Sage Advice + Tapizar = $145,000...

Stonebridge LLC's Robert Courtney Jr. got some advice from his now-retired father that still sticks with him.

"He told me that if you have to give up race record when you buy a mare, get something from a good family of fillies who are still producing. That's the way to go," explained Courtney, whose father Robert Sr. operated Crestfield Farm for some six decades.

Courtney had that advice in the back of his mind when he signed for the 8-year-old mare Heckuva Hunter (Lion Heart) for $185,000 earlier this year at Keeneland January, and yesterday, it paid off handsomely when the Tapizar filly that Heckuva Hunter (hip 2670) was carrying brought $145,000. That was tops for a weanling for Keeneland November's eighth session.

Lucas Marquardt

Christina Jelm, agent for JSM Equine, purchased the filly, who hailed from the first crop of the 2012

GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile winner. Tapizar's weanlings have done well at Keeneland November, averaging $84,214 from 14 sold.

"It's a very active family, and she was a really pretty filly," said Courtney. "She's a May foal who didn't look like a May foal. She was always a nice one; she never had any problems."

So what did Courtney like about the family last January? Heckuva Hunter was a young multiple winner and a daughter of the Group 1 performer Catch a Glimpse (Gulch), and was a half-sister to Successful Outlook (Orientate), heroine of the 2006 Gill Tempted S.

Successful Outlook, in turn, was the dam of the outstanding GI Test S. winner Sweet Lulu (Mr. Greeley), who underscored the family's current relevance when she sold to Summer Wind Farm for $3 million at last week's Fasig-Tipton November Sale. Only the $3.1 million Princess of Sylmar (Majestic Warrior) made more.

"There are so many good fillies in that family," said Courtney.

This spring, Courtney sent Heckuva Hunter back to the GI Kentucky Derby winner Orb (Malibu Moon), but she didn't catch to the Claiborne stallion. "It was late in the season so we just gave her the year off, and we'll breed her back to something really nice [in 2015]," said Courtney. "We might go back to Orb."

Courtney was refreshingly honest in admitting that not all of his 2014 Keeneland January purchases worked out in his favor. Courtney had also signed for Heckuva Hunter's short-yearling colt by Trappe Shot, paying $95,000 for him. Cont. p12

“But once I got back to the farm, he started cribbing. So I turned him back,” said Courtney. “Then Gainesway resold him as a [Keeneland September yearling] for $240,000! But I learned a good lesson. I had it ground into me to not buy cribbers, but I’m not sure American trainers care. I owned [MGSW and millionaire] Rahystrada [Rahy], and he was the worst cribber in the world. Game On Dude [Awesome Again] was a cribber. But hey, I made some money and I’m happy.”

Courtney said that, these days, he sells almost all of his horses as weanlings, rather than waiting for the yearling sales. “It makes sense, because that’s all they’re looking at out there,” he said. “There are some lovely mares out there at this sale, but a lot of these guys could care less.”

The first crop of Frankel will no doubt spark a frenzy that hasn’t been seen since the first progeny of dual Classic and G1 Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe hero Sea the Stars (Ire) went through the ring in 2011.

Should anyone require a refresher, Frankel went undefeated in 14 starts between 2010 and 2012 for owner/breeder Khalid Abdullah and trainer Sir Henry Cecil. The bay capped his juvenile campaign with a victory in Newmarket’s G1 Dewhurst S., and blitzed the opposition by six front-running lengths in the G1 2000 Guineas the following spring. Frankel added the G1 St James’s Palace S., G1 Sussex S. and G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. as a sophomore and, after collecting three subsequent Group 1 miles at four-- including the G1 Queen Anne S. by 11 lengths-- successfully stepped up to 10 1/2 furlongs to win the G1 Juddmonte International by seven lengths. He capped his career with a victory over Cirrus des Aigles (Fr) (Even Top {Ire}) in the G1 Champion S. over 10 furlongs on British Champions day at Ascot.

Other Group 1 winners conquered by Frankel include Canford Cliffs (Ire) (Tagula {Ire}), Nathaniel (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), Excelebration (Ire) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}), Roderic O'Connor (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Farhh (GB) (Pivotal {GB}). Frankel's Queen Anne demolition earned him a Timeform rating of 147--the highest mark ever assigned by that organization in its near 70 years of existence.

Frankel has unsurprisingly attracted stellar books his first two seasons at Juddmonte's Banstead Manor Stud in Newmarket, where he has stood the past three seasons for £125,000. In his first two seasons, 89% of the mares Frankel covered were black-type producers or performers. His first book included 61 Group 1 winners or producers. Frankel's first in-foal mares were a hit at last year's breeding stock sales; three at Goffs averaged €750,000, while seven sold at Tattersalls December for an average of 1.013 million guineas, led by the 4-million guineas Dancing Rain (Ire) (Daneshill Dancer {Ire}).

Finally, Friarstown Stud offers two: lot 800, a daughter of Song (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) who was purchased for €1 million in utero from the Paulyne Dispersal at Goffs November a year ago. Song is a full-sister to Classic winner Yesterday (Ire) and champion Quarter Moon (Ire) and lot 938, a colt out G1 E.P. Taylor S. heroine Lahaleeb (Ire) (Redback {GB}).

Micheal Ryan of Al-Eile Stud, which bought Finsceal Beo for €340,000 as a Goffs Orby yearling and has sold both her foals through the Kildare auction house, noted that he decided to sell that three-time Group 1 winner's latest produce as a foal in order to capitalize on the hype of Frankel's first crop, as he did with her elder Sea the Stars half-sister Too The Stars (Ire), who broke her maiden at Epsom in September. Too The Stars was one of a pair by her sire to sell for €800,000 at this sale in 2011, and a third, an as-yet unraced colt, fetched €850,000, an Irish record for a weanling.

Frankel--Song filly
Goffs

Ryan noted that Finsceal Beo's current foal resembles both her mother and her half-brother Ol' Man River, the current second choice for next year's G1 Investec Derby.

"She's a lovely, racy type," Ryan said. "She's a very similar makeup to [Ol' Man River], but looks a bit more like the mother. She has a lovely temperament."

Friarstown's John Egan noted he is "very pleased" with his two Frankel foals that will be sold at Goffs.

"They're both fantastic looking foals, and great walkers," he added.

While the filly out of Song boasts a pedigree that suggests she could be highly sought after as a broodmare prospect, the colt out of Lahaleeb also hails from a strong female family. Friarstown bought back Lahaleeb's Galileo yearling colt for 1.2 million guineas at Tattersalls October last year, and the nursery also took home her Sea the Stars yearling filly for 300,000gns at the same sale last month.

"I think the colt will really turn heads," Egan said. "He's outstanding, but the filly has all the residual value in the world. It will be very exciting--I'm looking forward to getting them in there."

Song is back in foal to Dubawi (Ire) and will be offered by Friarstown at the Goffs November Breeding Stock sale. Cont. p15

Goffs Chief Executive Henry Beeby noted that recruiting Frankel foals was a specific initiative taken on by the Goffs team.

“We went out specifically to target Frankel foals--we did some very specific direct marketing to the people who had the foals,” Beeby explained. “We used our enormous success with the first-crop Sea the Stars foals to demonstrate that if we were given the opportunity we’d deliver. Happily, the breeders who have supported us listened to that and believed in it too.”

Of the sextet of Frankel foals assembled for Goffs, Beeby said, “They are bred in the purple--every one of them is a potential sale topper. On paper, the Finsceal Beo is a mega standout. We had enormous success selling the Sea the Stars--Finsceal Beo for a huge price at the time, Ol’ Man River as a yearling, and now this filly. I’d be very hopeful they’d sell very well. There are a number of end users coming to the sale, so we’ve sort of built the sale around that.”

Beeby noted the Frankel foals he has seen appear to have a few common traits.

“They all have great walks, the ones I’ve seen, and they all have wonderful temperaments,” he said. “The one at [Goffs London] was pulled out of a field five or six days before the sale, and he showed like a professional. He showed like a yearling--it was amazing.”

Beeby said he attended a parade of Frankel foals at Banstead Manor earlier this year, where the 10 youngsters shown all reflected those same qualities.

“They all walked up and down beautifully, impeccably,” he said. “And they had wonderful temperaments and lovely, strong swinging walks. They’re a beautiful bunch.”

While the Frankel offerings will no doubt be star attractions, there is much more to look forward to in the foal sale catalogue. Two foals by Frankel’s superstar sire Galileo are set to go under the hammer: lot 787, a filly out of G1 Irish 1000 Guineas winner Saoire (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) and a half-sister to stakes winner Requisition (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) and lot 826, a half-sister to dual Group 1-winning miler Toronado (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}) whose dam is a half-sister to G1 Racing Post Trophy victor Casamento (Ire) (Shamardal).

“It’s important to remember we have two impeccably bred Galileos as well,” Beeby said. “The Galileo sister to Toronado is a potential sale-topper at any sale in the world. The Saoire is by Galileo out of a Classic winner, so they don’t come much better than that.”

Beeby continued, “If you just take those eight foals, then you’ve got some Sea the Stars’, Nathaniel’s, Invincible Spirits, Lope De Vegas and some other really well-bred horses. I would say the Goffs November Foal Sale is the measure of any foal sale anywhere.”

Frankel isn't the only luminary of his generation to be represented by his first crop. Nathaniel, who was beaten a half-length in second by Frankel on both their career debuts and went on to win the G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth II S. and G1 Coral-Eclipse, has three catalogued at Goffs. Nathaniel stands at Newsells Park Stud in Britain. Excelebration, a resident at Coolmore in Ireland, finished second or third to Frankel in four Group 1s prior to winning the G1 Prix Jacques Le Marois and smashing the opposition in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. He has six catalogued. Other sires represented by their first foals include Group 1 winners Casamento, Fame and Glory (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}), Foxwedge (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), Helmet (Aus) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}), Power (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), Rio De La Plata (Rahy), Sans Frontieres (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), Sepoy (Aus) (Elusive Quality) and So You Think (NZ) (High Chaparral {Ire}).

Commenting on the strength of the new sire crop, Beeby reflected, "There were a lot of first-season sires that have done very well with their first runners this year. There seems to be a wider cross-section of very successful first-season sires this year than in a long time."

He added, "To get a couple of Nathaniels to travel has been great. They'll stand out, and we're delighted to have them."

Cooper Reveals Plans for Niarchos Pair...

G1 Breeders' Cup Mile winner Karakontie (Jpn) (Bernstein) will remain in training as a 4-year-old next year while G1 Breeders' Cup Turf winner Main Sequence (Aldebaran) is destined for Dubai, according to Alan Cooper, racing manager to the Niarchos family.

Winner of the G1 Jean-Luc Lagardere as a juvenile for trainer Jonathan Pease, Karakontie also won this year's G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains.

Reflecting on Karakontie's Breeders' Cup success, Cooper said, "We knew he was going to America in very good condition, but obviously being drawn 14 of 14 was a bit of an unknown. He had a bit of a dip in form after [finishing eighth in] the Prix du Jockey Club, but Jonathan got him back for Arc weekend, where unfortunately he was completely knocked out of the race in the [G1 Prix de la Foret, when 11th]." Cont. p18

Cooper continued, "He traveled well to California, he was given a great ride from Stephane Pasquier and it was a fantastic result. He'll stay in training next year and we'll be looking at all the top European mile races for him."

Little Mike Looks to Get Back on Track...

Priscilla Vaccarezza's 2012 GI Breeders' Cup Turf winner Little Mike (Spanish Steps) is still working his way back from foot issues, but trainer Carlo Vaccarezza hopes to have him back in training by next month.

Little Mike

"Little Mike is coming out of his skin, doing great," Vaccarezza said. "At the end of the month I'm going to give him another physical and, as long as everything is a thousand percent with him, he's going to start training again on December first."

The winner of last term's GI Joe Hirsch Turf Classic

Invitational S., the bay was last seen capturing Gulfstream's Flying Pidgeon S. May 17 in his lone start this season.

"He has been going to the track every day, going twice around," Vaccarezza said. "The best thing I did for him was give him some time off."

Vaccarezza continued, "He's going to be eight, but he's a May 24 foal so he's a young eight. Hopefully, we can have some fun with him in 2015."

Vaccarezza will showcase his charge in the Gulfstream paddock Saturday morning prior to his daily exercise due to the number of requests he has received via Little Mike's Facebook page.

"When we starting jogging him in October, people were asking when they could see him," Vaccarezza said. "The horse is so popular in Florida, especially after Mucho Macho Man retired. Every day, I get 20 or 30 hits on Facebook asking about Little Mike. They want to know how he's doing, when they can see him, when he is going to run again."

Vaccarezza said the gelding will run five or six starts next year, possibly starting with the GI Gulfstream Park Turf H. Feb. 7.

JOHAR DIES IN PADDOCK ACCIDENT

The 2003 GI Breeders' Cup Turf hero Johar (Gone West--Windsharp, by Lear Fan) died yesterday at the age of 15 after being injured in his paddock, Mill Ridge Farm announced.

The first foal out of champion Windsharp, the homebred made history when he dead heated with High Chaparral (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) to win the the Breeders' Cup Turf. It was the first dead heat in Breeders' Cup history. Trained by Richard Mandella for The Thoroughbred Corporation, Johar earned victories in the GI Hollywood Derby, GI Oak Tree Derby and GI San Marcos S. He retired with a record of 16-6-4-2 and earnings of $1,494,496.

The bay also found success during his stud career, with progeny that includes Canadian champion Tu Endie Wei; GISW Joha; GSW No Jet Lag; and MGSW Millionaire Keertana. Johar will be buried beside his sire Gone West at Mill Ridge Farm.

"It is a sad day for us to inform the passing of Johar," Mill Ridge's Headley Bell said in a press release. "He was with us a long time having been raised at Mill Ridge and bred and raced by Thoroughbred Corp. He reached the pinnacle of racing, dead heating in the Breeders' Cup Turf with High Chaparral and as a sire with Grade I winner Joha. We will miss him here at Mill Ridge."

Ninth of 11 in the Aug. 24 G1 Prix Jean Romanet at Deauville, she then ran sixth in the Sept. 19 G3 La Coupe de Maisons-Laffitte, third in the Oct. 14 G3 Prix Andre Baboin at Lyon-Parilly, and was a last-out fifth in the Oct. 30 Prix de Flore at Saint-Cloud. The grey was well away to occupy a forward berth in third for most of this one. Nudged along on the home turn, she came under further pressure in early stretch and kept on resolutely in the closing stages to deny Peut Etre nearing the line for a career high.

GAINESWAY UNVEILS 2015 FEES & BREEDSECURE PLAN

Gainesway Farm announced their 2015 stud roster and fees highlighted by America's leading sire Tapit, who will stand for $300,000, as previously revealed. The farm is also introducing a BreedSecure program, similar to the one pioneered by Spendthrift Farm, for To Honor and Serve (Bernardini) and Hat Trick (Jpn) (Sunday Silence). The only difference from Spendthrift's program is if the breeder's sales weanling or yearling does not sell for the stud fee then no money is owed.

"The November breeding stock sales have been very strong, however, the stallion market remains very competitive," said Gainesway's Michael Hernon. "As such, we have adapted our own version of a BreedSecure program for two of our stallions and are offering a unique breeding arrangement for Birdstone. With Gainesway's BreedSecure, the first money, equal to the BreedSecure stud fee, goes to the breeder. For example, if you breed to To Honor and Serve, with our BreedSecure program, the first $20,000 goes to the breeder. In the case of Hat Trick, the first $15,000, which is the BreedSecure stud fee, goes to the breeder." Cont. p20

Hernon continued, "Our stallions have enjoyed an exceptional year on the track and in the sales ring. When 50% of your stallions with progeny have Breeder's Cup winners, it makes you feel good for the fellow breeders who have supported the program. We are committed to offering breeders exceptional value for their breeding dollar."

KENTUCKY HOMECOMING FOR MR. SIDNEY

By Kelsey Riley

Grade I winner Mr. Sidney (Storm Cat--Tomisue's Delight, by A.P. Indy) has relocated to Walmac Farm in Kentucky for the 2015 breeding season after standing his first five seasons at Alec Head's Haras du Quesnay in France, and Head was on hand yesterday at Walmac to introduce breeders to the strapping bay.

Bred in Kentucky by Hilbert Thoroughbreds, Mr. Sidney is out of the dual Grade I winner Tomisue's Delight, herself a daughter of dual Grade I winner Prospectors Delite (Mr. Prospector), and a full-sister to Horse of the Year Mineshaft and stakes winner Rock Slide. Tomisue's Delight is also a half to Group 3 winner Monashee Mountain (Danzig) and stakes winner Delta Music

Mr. Sidney at Walmac Farm yesterday
Lucas Marquardt

(Dixieland Band). Mr. Sidney was a $3.9 million Keeneland September purchase in 2005 by John Kimmel as agent for Lee Einsidler's Circle E Racing.

Follow @TRFinc on Twitter and be entered to win a pair of TRF touchscreen gloves.

It's going to be a cold winter!

Trained by Bill Mott, Mr. Sidney recorded five wins from 13 starts, highlighted by a victory in the GI Maker's Mark Mile in 2009. He also won that year's GI Firecracker H. and was third in the GI Shadwell Turf Mile.

Mr. Sidney--who will stand for $6,500 next year--has sired 42 named foals and 10 winners, with his first crop being 3-year-olds this year. Head noted that Mr. Sidney proved a difficult sell in France, however, and he covered just 15 mares this year. Head attributed the horse's limited popularity to the drug perception with American horses.

"There is this reputation in America with drugs, so when you bring a horse from America, the French breeders says, 'It must have been on drugs,' so they will not use the horse," Head explained. "So I couldn't keep him on my stud. This year he bred 15 mares--this is hopeless."

The 90-year-old Head is no stranger to identifying top stallion prospects and developing them, having been involved in the distinguished careers of such luminaries as Nureyev, Miswaki, Bering, Arctic Tern, Riverman and Lyphard. Head noted that he has supported Mr. Sidney in France, and is likely to relocate some of the sire's more promising stock to race in the U.S. next year.

"I bred some nice mares to him and we have some nice 2-year-olds by him, but I thought his place was in the States, so that's why we brought him back," Head said. "I loved his pedigree and I loved the horse. I thought he would be quite popular, and it didn't work out that way. You make mistakes sometimes, but you have to try." Cont. p21

Just days after Mr. Sidney's arrival at Walmac was announced, Head noted that he is attracting interest from breeders.

"I think people have accepted him," he said. "It's a little early--it was only two days ago it was in the press the horse had arrived. But people seem to be quite interested, and I think they should be."

Alec Head and Mr. Sidney

Asked about the challenges facing the U.S. industry with regards to raceday medication, Head said, "I think they're going to have a hard time [getting rid of raceday medication]. In France, we have one racing organization. In the U.S., every state is different, so it makes it very difficult. If one state takes a rule and another doesn't take it, they'll be in trouble, so no one dares to do anything. That's the problem."

He continued, "Of course I'm against drugs. I don't think it's a good idea. We race in France without any drugs and our horses run pretty good. When they come to the States they do very well."

One such example of French success on U.S. soil was this year's GI Breeders' Cup Mile, where G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains winner Karakontie (Jpn) (Bernstein) held off a fast-finishing Anodin (Ire) (Anabaa) to post a French-trained exacta. Anodin is trained by Head's son, Freddy Head, and the full-brother to Goldikova (Ire) will enter stud at Haras du Quesnay next year.

"It's wonderful, especially because he's a son of Anabaa, who has been so good to me," Head noted of the horse he recuperated from physical problems and campaigned to victories in the G1 July Cup and G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest with his daughter, Criquette Head-Maarek, the trainer. "It's a wonderful story, Anabaa's story. It's a dream. Like Treve's story; it's a dream come true."

Head noted that the Quesnay-bred Treve (Fr) (Motivator {GB}), who under Head-Maarek's tutelage last month became the most recent horse to win the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe twice, is enjoying a winter holiday at Quesnay and is "getting ready to win her third Arc."

"It's lucky we have in this business nice days like that, because we run into a lot of problems other days, but people don't know about those," Head remarked.

With the talented, handsome and well-bred Mr. Sidney ready to embark on his U.S. sire career, it wouldn't be a huge stretch of the imagination to think that Head could have more nice days ahead.

SOMETIMES RETIREMENT IS A SECOND CAREER.

Former racehorses can become jumpers, police horses, eventers and dressage horses. But too many horses who come off the track are comfortably pasture sound, but not sound enough to be ridden.

At 10 correctional facilities around the country, these pasture-sound horses help train inmates in the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation's Second Chances Groom Elite program and they, in turn, provide compassionate care for the TRF's herd.

Maryland Jockey Club to Race 149 Days in 2015:

The Maryland Racing Commission approved an agreement by the Maryland Jockey Club, Maryland Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association and Maryland Horse Breeders' Association yesterday to conduct 149 days of racing at Laurel Park and Pimlico Race Course in 2015. Pimlico will host the spring season and Laurel will hold the winter, fall and summer meets. It will be the first summer meet at Laurel since 2010. Laurel's 2015 stakes schedule, highlighted by the GII Barbara Fritchie H. Feb. 14 and GIII General George H. Feb. 16, was also approved by the Maryland Racing Commission. The Timonium State Fair meet will held after the 11-day Laurel summer meet, which runs from Aug. 1 to Aug. 23.

Cornwallville's busy freshman campaign has included a pair of British starts, a brace of claiming scores and five prior attempts at black-type. His year began in the care of Stan Moore before transferring to David Windrif mid-term, and his four latest starts have been under the tutelage of Francis-Henri Graffard. The chestnut hit the board in the Oct. 6 Listed Prix Herod at Chantilly in his penultimate outing, and lined up for this coming off a seventh, a shade under six lengths adrift of subsequent G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud victor Epicuris (GB) (Rail Link {GB}), in the Oct. 19 G3 Prix de Conde at Longchamp. Steadied in fourth from the break, he made swift progress rounding the home turn to lead into the straight and was ridden out inside the final furlong to comfortably hold Il Segreto for a personal best.

GRAEME HALL, STRATFORD HILL TO SAUDI ARABIA

Graeme Hall (Dehere--Win Crafty Lady, by Crafty Prospector), who was purchased for $100,000 at Keeneland November last week by Chad Schumer, has been sold to stand in Saudi Arabia in a deal brokered by Schumer Bloodstock. The sire of this year's GII Indiana Derby winner East Hall previously stood at Winding Oaks Farm in Florida.

He is the sire of 22 black-type winners, which also include GII Oaklawn H. winner Duke of Mischief; GII Adirondack S. winner Designer Legs; and Grade III winners Graeme Six, Hurricane Ike, Joes Blazing Aaron, Tamarind Hall and Who's Up.

Joining Graeme Hall in Saudia Arabia will be his close relative Stratford Hill (A.P. Indy--Harmony Lodge, by Hennessy), who cost Schumer $110,000 at Keeneland. Stratford Hill, another former Winding Oaks resident, won the GIII Shakertown S. in 2011 and is out of Graeme Hall's sister, Grade I winner Harmony Lodge. Stratford Hill's first foals were born this year.

Winner of his final three Italian appearances, including a four-length success in the G3 Premio Guido Berardelli last November, he took on Class 3 foes over 1600 meters, and though he was at the upper end of the ratings band, belied top weight of 133 pounds to score by 1 3/4 lengths.

Beauty Only SCMP

Stepping up here as the even-money favorite, Beauty Only looked to hop at the start, then settled just ahead of midfield while hugging the fence. Neil Callan rode his horse for luck into the stretch and was momentarily bottled up nearing the 300-meter mark. Snatched off heels, Beauty Only wanted to have a look around, but responded in the final half-furlong and clawed back Flame Hero (NZ) (Savabeel {Aus}), with Tableaux (Giant's Causeway) another half-length back in third.
