SOUMILLON HAS JAPAN CUP EPIPHANEIA

By Lucas Marquardt

"Soumillon, welcome to Japan!" yelled an exuberant fan to jockey Christophe Soumillon as he left the paddock on Epiphaneia (Jpn) (Symboli Kris S) before yesterday's G1 Japan Cup. The Belgian grinned and the crowd, otherwise silent, laughed. A few minutes later, Soumillon gave that supporter, and the other 100,185 race fans at Tokyo Racecourse, a reason to really yell when he booted home last year's G1 Kikuka Sho (Japanese St. Leger) winner to a convincing win in the $4.4-million centerpiece.

Keen throughout while tracking the leading pair, Epiphaneia had plenty in the tank as he split rivals at the top of the lane and drove clear to a four-length success from Just A Way (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}). The Carrot Farm colorbearer stopped the clock in 2:23.10 for the 2400 meters. Trained by Katsuhiko Sumii, the 4-year-old son of the 2005 GI American Oaks winner Cesario (Jpn) (Special Week {Jpn}) was winning for the first time since the St. Leger. The post-time favorite and two-time defending champion Gentildonna (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) finished fourth.

LA TIA WIRES THE MATRIARCH

Hernandez Racing Club's La Tia (City Place) earned her first Grade I victory Sunday when she went pillar-to-post in Del Mar's GI Matriarch S. The bay shot out of the stalls to easily gain the advantage and establish the early lead. Never seriously pressed down the backstretch, La Tia clicked off splits of :23.65 and :47.92. When pressured on the turn, La Tia turned back her rival's advances to remain comfortably in charge down the stretch and hit the wire 1 1/4 lengths ahead of Queen of the Sand (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}), who was rallying up the rail. Favored Discreet Marq (Discreet Cat) registered a late run to finish third.

"She was a little slow going away from there, but I got her going and she was game from there," said winning rider Joel Rosario. "I knew those other horses would be coming, but my filly was tough. I still had some left at the end, too. She still had something in the tank. I love riding out here. I always have. I want to come back more. I'm going to get my agent working on getting me more horses out this way." Cont. p9

JUDDMONTE JEWELS ON OFFER AT TATTS

By Kelsey Riley

While the bloodstock market has moved through a series of phases over the last decade, not least a recession and correction as a result of the global economic downturn, one constant has always been the presence of the Juddmonte Farms draft of mares and fillies off the track at the Tattersalls December Breeding Stock Sale. Year in and year out, astute buyers clamor for piece of the breeding empire established by Khalid Abdullah. With the draft's average generally ranging between 30,000 and 50,000gns, with top prices in the 150,000gns to 350,000gns range, it provides a welcome boost to the middle/lower market of the sale. Cont. p5

"It's one of the most prestigious races in the world and I'm a very lucky jockey right now," said Soumillon, who was in town to ride in the World Super Jockeys Championship and picked up the mount on Epiphaneia when Yuichi Fukunaga chose to ride Just a Way. "Unfortunately things didn't go well for the overseas jockeys [in the WSJI], but it gave me the opportunity to ride in Japan's biggest race. What he did today was a great performance."

The race was marred by the breakdown of Godolphin's Trading Leather (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), who abruptly dropped back through the field on the far turn with Kevin Manning in the irons. The G1 Irish Derby winner was attended to by track veterinarians, who determined he suffered a "serious fracture," according to the Godolphin website.

His trainer Jim Bolger commented, "Trading Leather was much adored and had a tremendous career, the highlight being his Irish Derby win. His passing is tough for us all, especially my staff. This is a very sad loss."

A Hard Day's Work...

Before Christophe Soumillon even got a leg up on Epiphaneia, he knew he was going to have his work cut out for him. "When I saw him in the paddock, he was very powerful and was sweating a bit, and the head lad was quite strong to hold him," said Soumillon. "I was hoping to get him to settle down at the start, but unfortunately, when the crowd started to scream and make noise, I nearly fell off. I can't say I was very confident when I saw the way he was acting, and I knew that I wouldn't be able to ride the way the trainer asked me to before the race, which was to have him in sixth or seventh position."

Epiphaneia & Soumillon
L Marquardt

Breaking from post four, Epiphaneia was indeed eager from the word go, but Soumillon was able to coax him off a pair of pacesetting rivals, deftly making sure the headstrong colt never had a clear opening through which to dash. Favored Gentildonna saved ground a few lengths further back, while Just a Way followed in her slipstream. The pace was sensible--they went in :24 flat, :47.90 and 1:11.80--and by the time Epiphaneia hit the far turn, he only needed a seam. Soumillon steered him between rivals as they turned for home.

"Just before I arrived in the straight, I pulled into the two path, and when he passed between the horses quite easily, I didn't want to let him go--I wanted to hold him 100 more meters to make sure he'd go longer," said Soumillon. "I knew horses like Gentildonna were behind me."

Soumillon's worry was ultimately misplaced, as Epiphaneia bounded away once he was given his head. "He got flat to the ground and his stride got bigger, and I tried to forget everything that happened before, because it was the start of a new race for him," said Soumillon. "It was an amazing performance, because he made the race difficult for himself." cont. p4

The German Ivanhowe ran sixth

Epiphaneia is the second Japan Cup winner for trainer Katsuhiko Sumii, who also won with Vodka (Jpn) (Tanino Gimlet {Jpn}) in 2009.

Sumii, soft-spoken and bespectacled, was uncharacteristically emotional and frank after the win, saying with a big smile, "I'm so surprised. I didn't think he'd gotten enough work."

Asked about immediate plans, Sumii said, "I would presume that he will start next in the G1 Arima Kinen [at Nakayama Dec. 28]."

Katsuhiko Sumii
L Marquardt

He didn't rule out overseas excursions in 2015, but said, "I will have to talk about that with my owners."

American race fans might remember Epiphaneia's talented dam Cesario, who became the first Japanese horse to win a Grade I in the U.S. when she dominated the 2005 American Oaks. Sumii trained Cesario as well, but said the two horses don't have much in common.

"His dam was very talented in her own right, but he's quite different," said Sumii. "He's a powerful horse. Sometimes too much so, and it's hard to keep him under control."

Rested after his St. Leger win, Epiphaneia had made just three prior starts in 2014. He finished third in the G2 Sankei Osaka Hai at Hanshin Apr. 6 and was fourth in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup at Hong Kong's Sha Tin three weeks later, but then went to the shelf again. He ran sixth to Spielberg (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) in the G1 Tenno Sho (Autumn) at Tokyo Nov. 2 in his return, and had that foe back in third yesterday.

The Also-Rans...

Other notables in the race included the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe sixth Harp Star (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}), who was well back early and came home fifth; and Germany's dual Group 1 winner Ivanhowe (Ger) (Soldier Hollow {GB}), who put in a strong run to get sixth. Trainer Jean-Pierre Carvalho said, "I had known the Japanese horses were hard to beat, but Ivanhowe turned in a good result considering. He concentrated well and ran as he always does, but the race was tougher than we'd imagined. I shouldn't be satisfied with a sixth-place finish, but among a strong field like this, I am pleased."

North America's Up With the Birds (Stormy Atlantic) raced along at the back of the pack and never really got going, trailing home second last of those across the wire. Trainer Malcolm Pierce remarked, "He was tense with all the noise from the crowd, but I honestly can't say what the cause was for his defeat." Jockey Eurico Da Silva added, "He was a bit too keen today. He missed his break and wasn't able to perform well. I think the surface suits him, but the Japanese horses were very strong." cont. p5

The four-race World Super Jockeys Series also concluded yesterday. The locals dominated the affair, sweeping the top six spots. Suguru Hamanaka, the leader after the first day, held off Yuichi Fukunaga to claim the championship with 42 points. Ireland's Pat Smullen did best among the international riders, checking in at seventh. Canada's Luis Contreras was 13th with 14 points.

Mirroring the overall market at last year's Tattersalls December sale, the 2013 Juddmonte draft was the farm's strongest since the turn of the decade, with an average of 52,471gns and a high price of 280,000gns commanded by the unraced 3-year-old filly Anew (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), whose dam is a half-sister to the prolific producer Hasili (Ire). This year's Juddmonte draft of 36 fillies out of training--all to be sold during the sale's third session Dec. 3--could very well rival those results, with some quality representatives from the operation's best families set to go under the hammer. Juddmonte will also offer a collection of 16 broodmares between today and tomorrow.

Lord Teddy Grimthorpe, racing manager to Khalid Abdullah, noted that the decisions on which race fillies are culled are more about choosing the very best to add to the Juddmonte broodmare band--which numbers around 250 between Europe and the U.S.--rather than deciding which should be sold.

"We'd try to preserve the best pedigrees and the best racehorses to come back to stud, and those that we have quite a lot of the family or that don't come up to the very high standards we have would probably get sold," he said, adding, "We cannot keep everything."

Lord Grimthorpe noted the highlights of the draft are likely to include:

- Lot 2132, Button Down (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), a 3-year-old placed daughter of the stakes-winning Modesta (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), a half-sister to Group 1 winners Elmaamul (Diesis {GB}) and Reams of Verse (Nureyev) as well as Midsummer (GB) (Kingmambo), the dam of Midday (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB});
- Lot 2133, the placed 3-year-old filly C'est Chic (GB) (Dansili {GB}), a half-sister to a stakes winner and out of a half-sister to Group 1 winner Etoile Montante (Miswaki);
- Lot 2140, the placed 3-year-old filly Generata (Mizzen Mast), whose second dam is champion broodmare Toussaud, the dam of four Grade I winners including Empire Maker;
- Lot 2141, Hiking (First Defence), a winning 3-year-old from the immediate family of Cityscape (GB) and Bated Breath (GB);
- Lot 2143, Lily Link (GB) (Rail Link {GB}), an unraced half-sister to GI Northern Dancer Turf S. winner Redwood (GB) (High Chaparral {Ire}) and a granddaughter of dual Group 1 winner Jolypha (Lyphard), also from the immediate family of champion and Classic winner Dancing Brave;
- Lot 2150, the unraced 3-year-old filly Posset (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}), a full-sister to champion and six-time Grade/Group 1 winner Midday (GB) and stakes winners Hot Snap (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) and Midsummer Sun (GB) (Monsun {Ger});
- Lot 2154, a winning half-sister to GI Kentucky Oaks winner Flute (Seattle Slew) named Reimpose (First Defence) and
- Lot 2158, another unraced 3-year-old named Time Being (GB) (Zamindar), and this time a full-sister to G1 Falmouth S. winner Timepiece (GB), and a half to G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud victor Passage of Time (GB) (Dansili {GB}) and Father Time (GB) (Dansili {GB}), winner of Royal Ascot's G2 King Edward VII S. It is also the immediate family of champion and four-time Group 1 winner Twice Over (GB) (Observatory).

Savvy buyers, however, will also be looking below the top ranks of the Juddmonte draft, considering the fact that Juddmonte mares sold in this ring for between 3,000gns and 21,000gns have produced nine Group 1 winners since 2004. Those include the four-time Group 1-winning sprinter Sole Power (GB) (Kyllachy {GB}), whose dam, Demerger, was a 4,000gns buy; dual Grade I winner Marketing Mix (Medaglia d'Oro), whose dam cost 20,000gns; Eclipse champion Leroidesanimaux (Brz) (Candy Stripes), sire of Animal Kingdom, whose dam was hammered down for 3,000gns and three-time G1 Melbourne Cup heroine Makybe Diva (GB) (Desert King {Ire}), whose dam was worth just 21,000gns when she went through the ring in 1997. Other Grade/Group 1 winners whose dams are Juddmonte/Tattersalls graduates include Funny Moon (Malibu Moon) and Heatseeker (Ire) (Giant's Causeway). Green Room (Theatrical {Ire}), the dam of Group 1 winners Lord Shanakill (Speightstown) and Together Forever (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), was a 20,000gns buy at Tattersalls' February sale in 2005. Mares purchased from the Juddmonte draft at Tattersalls December have produced a total of 14 Group 1 winners since 2004.

Lord Teddy Grimthorpe
Racing Post

"The middle market is naturally the most important to the majority of medium-range breeders," Lord Grimthorpe commented. "Usually it all filters down--it's naturally a supply-and-demand business, but usually, if the top is strong, that increases the middle market to a certain extent, and also the lower end of the market. There has to be something for everyone."

A Dream Roster...

Juddmonte stands seven sires at its Banstead Manor Stud in Newmarket, a number that appears small compared to some of the bloodstock business's other superpowers, but that septet oozes quality all the way through, its established flagbearers including Dansili and Oasis Dream. The first weanlings to hit European sales rings by Frankel at recent foal sales included the €1.8-million record-sitting filly out of Finsceal Beo (Ire) at Goffs, and another Juddmonte freshman, Bated Breath (GB), has had his first foals sell for up to 130,000gns in recent weeks. Juddmonte will unveil another heavyweight next year when four-time Group 1 winner and Cartier Horse of the Year Kingman (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) covers his first book.

Lord Grimthorpe noted Kingman is "in great form," since his relocation from trainer John Gosden's yard to Banstead Manor. "He's settled in like a pro," he said. "It's so exciting to have a horse like him on the stallion roster."

Commenting on the first-crop foals by Frankel, Timeform's highest-ever rated horse, Lord Grimthorpe added, "We've been very pleased with ours. They seem to be athletic and have good temperaments. It's very exciting that in under two years they're going to be hitting the racetrack."

Frankel
Racing Post

He added, "There are plenty like him. They have quite a familiar head and his great movement and body. They're all developing now--most of them are no more than six months old, so it's hard to get a really good handle on them, but certainly we've been pleased with the initial sightings."

Frankel received yet another boost to his glowing page when his full-brother Noble Mission (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) garnered three Group 1 events in 2014, culminating in the G1 Champion S. Oct. 18, and that Juddmonte homebred recently arrived at Lane's End Farm in Kentucky, where he will take up stud duty in 2015. Lord Grimthorpe shed some light on the decision to stand the 5-year-old in the U.S., explaining, "We looked at various options for him. Lane's End came up with a very good solution for all of us, including the horse."

Lord Grimthorpe said he "very much hoped" Juddmonte would support Noble Mission with some of its own mares. "We've retained an interest in the horse, so I would imagine Prince Khalid would want to," he said.

Champions like Frankel, Noble Mission and Kingman will ensure Juddmonte's breed-shaping families live on for many generations, and breeders will have a chance to get in on the legacy this week at Tattersalls.

TATTERSALLS DECEMBER MARE SALE MONDAY

1393, Perfect Lyric (GB), 3, Pivotal (GB)--Valentine Waltz (Ire), by Be My Guest

Consigned by West Blagdon Stud

Perfect Lyric failed to hit the board in one start for George Strawbridge and trainer Freddy Head, but what she lacks in racetrack performance she makes up for in pedigree. The 3-year-old is a daughter of G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches winner Valentine Waltz (Ire), and a half-sister to Grade III winner Dyna Waltz (GB) (Dynaformer). Valentine Waltz is herself a half-sister to GI Matron S. victress Sense of Style (Thunder Gulch), and Perfect Lyric's third dam, Mill Princess, produced triple Group/Grade I winner Last Tycoon as well as the dam of Immortal Verse.

1403, Love Itself (GB), 2, Oasis Dream (GB)--Soinlovewithyou, by Sadler's Wells

Consigned by Daylesford Stud

Love Itself hails from a family that has been hot as of late both in the sales ring and on the racetrack. Her dam is a half to champion Duke of Marmalade (Ire) (Danehill) and G1 Investec Derby winner Ruler of the World (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), and her third dam, Lassie's Lady, is a half to the sire-producing matriarch Weekend Surprise. Soinlovewithyou was a 950,000gns purchase in this ring in 2010, while her half-sister, Countess Lemonade, made 700,000gns the same year. The latter's Tiznow filly cost Stonereath Stud $1.1 million at Keeneland September.

1471, Morzine (GB), 11, Miswaki--Skiable (Ire), by Niniski

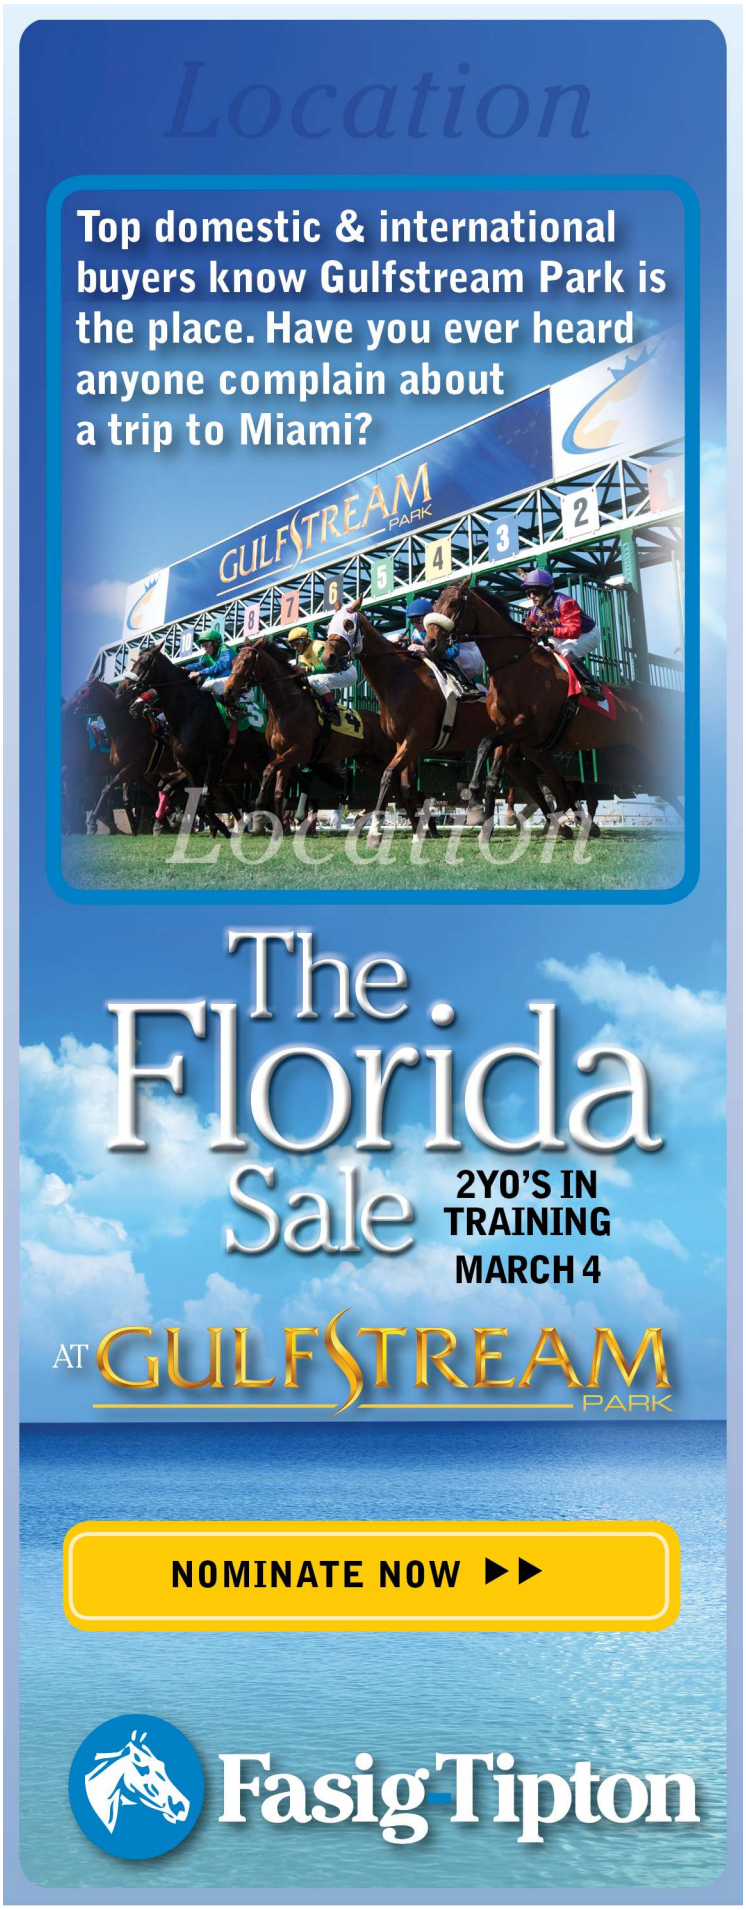
Consigned by Juddmonte Farms

Juddmonte resident Oasis Dream has been wildly popular at this year's yearling and foal sales, and Juddmonte offers this half-sister to multiple graded/group winner and Group 1-placed Three Valleys (Diesis) in foal to him. Morzine is from the immediate family of some of Juddmonte's other standout stallions. Her second dam is Kerali, the dam of blue hen Hasili (Ire) (Kahyasi), whose progeny include Dansili (GB) and Champs Elysees (GB).

1538, Unnatural, 4, Proud Citizen--Sahara Star (GB), by Green Desert

Consigned by Ballylinch Stud

Unnatural failed to land a blow racing in Japan, but she is loaded with residual value, being a daughter of multiple group winner Sahara Star and a half-sister to Land of Dream (GB), the dam of dual champion and exciting young sire Dream Ahead (Diktat {GB}). It is also the immediate family of G3 Princess Margaret S. winner Princess Noor (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}). Unnatural is offered in foal to Lemon Drop Kid.



COWTOWN CAT

1541, Lady Montjeu (Ire), 4, Montjeu (Ire)--Edabiya (Ire), by Rainbow Quest

Consigned by John Troy (Agent)

A daughter of the G1 Moyglare Stud S. heroine Edabiya, Lady Montjeu hails from the distinguished Aga Khan family that also includes Group 1 winners Enzeli (Ire) (Kahyasi), Estimate (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}) and Ebadiyla (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) under the second dam. It is also the family of this year's G1 Investec Oaks and G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth S. winner Taghrooda (GB) (Sea the Stars {Ire}). Lady Montjeu is offered carrying her first foal, by Mastercraftsman (Ire).

1542, Esentepe (Ire), 5, Oratorio (Ire)--Mythie (Fr), by Octagonal (NZ)

Consigned by John Troy (Agent)

Esentepe, who lifted the GIII Nell Gwyn S. as a 3-year-old and was also a winner stateside for trainer Jerry Hollendorfer later in her career, is offered here carrying her first foal, by Frankel (GB). Esentepe was also third behind The Fugue (GB) (Dansili {GB}) in the G3 Musidora S.

1594, Gracia Directa (Ger), 5, Kyllachy (GB)--Glyceria (Ire), by Common Grounds

Consigned by Jamie Railton

Gracia Directa, a stakes winner in her native Germany, shipped to Britain in the summer of 2012 to take the G3 Summer S. at York, and she placed in a further five black-type races. Her dam, Glyceria, is also a stakes winner.

1603, Vied, 3, Elusive Quality--Unacloud, by Unaccounted For

Consigned by Aislabie Stud (Agent)

Placed twice, Vied offers residual value as a half-sister to Grade I winners Meadow Breeze (Meadowlake) and Overanalyze (Medaglia d'Oro). Another sibling, Mighty Monsoon (Forestry), was stakes-placed in the U.S.

1622, Lady Bingo (Ire), 3, Galileo (Ire)--Sharp Lisa, by Dixieland Band

Consigned by Tweenhills Farm & Stud

A daughter of GI Las Virgenes S. winner Sharp Lisa, Lady Bingo is a full to the dual Group 2-placed Foundry (Ire). Sharp Lisa is herself a half-sister to Grade I winner and sire Spring At Last and multiple graded stakes winner Sharp Susan, and it is also the family of four-time Grade I winner Bien Bien.

"This is my first time to Del Mar, the first horse I've run here and my first Grade I winner," said winning trainer Armando De la Cerda. "This year I won three Grade IIIs before this. She worked last Saturday at Hawthorne then went to Lexington and then came out here. She has not been very good to travel, she loses weight, so I wanted to come early. I galloped her two days ago and she looked like she liked the grass. I expected the pace to be fast :22 for the first quarter and :46 to the half. When I see it's :23 and three and :47 and four, I thought to myself, 'She's gone'."

The Illinois-bred La Tia began her career in her home state against state-bred company, but showed potential when winning the GIII Arlington Oaks in her first try against open company. La Tia transferred to the De la Cerda stable at the start of her 4-year-old campaign and has done quite well while under the care of that conditioner. This season, La Tia annexed the GIII Arlington Matron S. in May and the GIII Ontario Matron in July. Since then, the mare has finished fourth in the 1 3/16th-mile GI Beverly D. H. at Arlington Aug. 16 and third in Woodbine's GII Canadian S. Sept. 14 before a victory in Belmont's GIII Athenia S. over the yielding turf Oct. 12.

Conquest Typhoon opened his account with a pair of runner-up efforts at Woodbine, first over the synthetic in the Claredon S. in July and then on the turf in a special weight in August. He got off the mark in style, taking the turfy GII Summer S. by 4 1/2 lengths Sept. 13 before a second-place effort in the GIII Grey S. in his return to the Polytrack Oct. 5. Most recently, the Conquest Stable colorbearer was fourth in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Oct. 31, earning a career-best 8 Thoro-Graph number.

Supported as the even-money favorite, Conquest Typhoon was away well from the outside post and caboosed the field from along the rail through the opening stages. He began to kick into gear heading into the turn and swung out to the three path while improving his position. Conquest Typhoon shifted out two more paths at the top of the lane and charged down the stretch to catch Stormy Liberal late and hit the wire in front.

"Mark [Casse] thought this horse was going to be a little lazy today, so he told me to warm him up pretty good," said winning pilot Mike Smith. "I got him behind the gate and got him on his toes. He usually shows speed, but he didn't come out of there so well. Sometimes, though, those things work out for the best. The way the race came up, it was best that we were where we were. At the half-mile pole I was in contention, so that was fine. Then I got him out and he made that run. The way he was going, I thought we were going to win it easy. But the horse inside [Stormy Liberal] was game and made us work for it."

"The last eighth of a mile went in :11 and 4 or so and I don't know how far back he was, but he zoomed home," Casse said. "I was not sure I wanted to run him because I thought maybe the Breeders' Cup had knocked him out a little bit. We'll give him a little break and for now he'll stay in California. It has been just a dream meet. I love this place."

The hardy Pepper Crown, who has made 14 starts this season, most recently found the winner's circle in the grassy Rolling Green S. Sept. 1 and in an allowance on this venue's turf course Sept. 12. He finished last of 11 in the GII City of Hope Mile at Santa Anita Oct. 4 and was last seen finishing third in an off-the-turf allowance Nov. 13. Overlooked at 10-1, Pepper Crown rated towards the back of the field down the backstretch. He began to move into contention on the turn and swung out about seven wide at the top of the lane. The bay continued to rally, gained the advantage late and kept on for the win.

JACK ROBBINS DIES

Dr. Jack Robbins, patriarch of a racing family, pioneering veterinarian and an influential presence on the California horse racing scene for decades, passed away Saturday at his home in Rancho Santa Fe. He was 93.

Robbins, a 1944 graduate of the University of Pennsylvania School of Veterinary Medicine, got his start at the track with conditioner Farrell Jones and went on to become attending veterinarian to Hall of Fame trainers such as Horatio Luro, Charlie Whittingham, Ron McAnally, Bobby Frankel and Richard Mandella. Among his star patients were Native Diver, Majestic Prince and John Henry, about whom he joked, "As a veterinarian, if you had a barn full of John Henrys, you'd starve to death. He didn't need a veterinarian. He was a very, very sound individual."

Jack Robbins
Benoit

Robbins was one of the founders of the American Association of Equine Practitioners. In 1968, along with Clement L. Hirsch and Louis R. Rowan, he became a founding director of the Oak Tree Racing Association. The non-profit organization ran an autumn meet--designed as a meeting run for horsemen, by horsemen--at Santa Anita for four decades, hosting five Breeders' Cup races and distributing more than $32 million to various charitable and civic organizations.

Robbins married Margaret Miller in 1944 and the couple had four sons--all of whom found success in the racing industry. Jay Robbins trained 2000 Horse of the Year Tiznow, Don Robbins is a former president of Hollywood Park, while David Robbins is an attorney within the industry and Tom Robbins is vice president of racing at Del Mar.

As an owner, Robbins campaigned Strub S. winners Nostalgia's Star and Most Host, as well as stakes winners Honeys Gem, Smasher, Casseleria and Guilton Madero.

Among many honors, Robbins was named Honored Guest at the Thoroughbred Club of America's Testimonial Dinner in 2002, and was awarded the Joe Palmer Award from the National Turf Writers and Broadcasters Association in 2009. Last month, Robbins was one of the inaugural inductees into the Arcadia Historical Society's Thoroughbred Racing Walk of Champions.

Robbins was preceded in death by his wife, Margaret, who passed away last December. In addition to his four sons, he is survived by eight grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

RACETRACK ROUND-UP

CHROME FINE AFTER HOLLYWOOD DERBY

The morning after his GI Hollywood Derby victory, dual Classic winner California Chrome (Lucky Pulpit) walked the barn area at Del Mar and looked to be in fine fettle. "He ate up good last night, we checked him out this morning and the knees, ankles and everything looked tight," explained trainer Art Sherman. "I'm happy." The chestnut vanned back to his home base at Los Alamitos Sunday afternoon.

LEIGH COURT TO STIDHAM BARN

Sovereign Award winner and last year's Canadian champion 3-year-old filly Leigh Court (Grand Slam) will remain in training under the care of conditioner Mike Stidham. The multiple graded stakes winner, who was previously campaigned by Melnyk Racing Stable and trained by Josie Carroll, was fifth in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint before selling to Peter Fluor and K.C. Weiner's Speedway Stables for $1 million at the Fasig-Tipton November Sale. "She's due [in New Orleans Sunday] and we're very lucky to have her," Stidham said. "John Adger, who has been a friend and partner of ours in horses like Upperline, Willcox Inn and now Toutsie Rules, used to be the manager for Stonerside Farm and we have been associated with and training for him for 20 years. He is friends with the new owner and recommended we train her. She was bought as an eventual broodmare prospect, but she has a lot of good racing left in her and I'm honored they decided to send her to me. She started her career here and I think maybe the weather was getting a little rough at the farm she's at in Kentucky. We'll certainly be looking at stakes races at Keeneland with her in the spring and along the way we'll get her ready and hopefully she can run here in New Orleans before then."

MR. JORDAN EXITS SMOOTH AIR WELL

✪ "TDN Rising Star" ✪ Mr. Jordan (Kantharos) exited his Smooth Air S. victory in fine form, according to trainer Eddie Plesa, Jr. The grey colt is a perfect three-for-three, adding to his debut victory at Monmouth in August and in the Juvenile Sprint S. at Gulfstream Park West Nov. 8. "The circumstances were a little different [this time] because that horse was laying on him, and he didn't try to out-sprint him," Plesa said of Saturday's race. "He took a deep breath and relaxed and did what he was told. That's a big step in the right direction. The elephant in the room was: Can he go around two turns? He did and did it with a career-best Beyer figure [95]." Plesa said he is unsure where Mr. Jordan will be pointed next. "It'll definitely be at Gulfstream, but I haven't made any decisions," the trainer explained. "You've got three races that lead up to the [GI] Florida Derby [Mar. 28], four races with the Florida Derby. Do I want to run in all of them? No. I don't think we've hit the bottom of this horse. The next test will be: What happens when a horse looks him in the eye--a top horse--and can he compete with that horse? We won't know until it happens."

+NOBLE AND A BEAUTY (f, 2, Noble Causeway--Overandabeauty {MSP, $159,472}, by Grand Slam) worked strongly for her debut and was sent off the 2-1 favorite. The chestnut filly was pressed on the lead through fractions of :23.57 and :46.81. She skipped clear into the stretch and carried a four-length advantage with a furlong to run, but began darting in and out before being straightened by jockey Jose Ortiz. She was able to maintain a 2 1/2-length advantage over Dickinson (Medaglia d'Oro). Sweet Corine (Pulpit) was fifth. Leonard Riggio's My Meadowview Farm purchased the winner's dam, Overandabeauty, a half-sister to leading sire Tapit (Pulpit), for $750,000 as a Keeneland September yearling in 2006. Multiple stakes placed on the track, the mare produced a colt by Malibu Moon in 2013 and a filly by Tiznow in 2014. She was bred back to Malibu Moon this year. Overandabeauty's half-brother Aldrin (Malibu Moon) topped this year's Keeneland April sale when selling for $1 million. Riggio's homebred Samraat, also by the late Noble Causeway, won this year's GIII Withers S. and GIII Gotham S. Click for brisnet.com chart or VIDEO. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $36,000.

+CALMBEFORETHESTORM (c, 2, Stormy Atlantic--Ruby Surprise {MGSW, $753,697}, by Farma Way), racing without Lasix, was sent off at 2-1 in this unveiling. The dark bay colt hopped at the break before settling in midpack as fellow-firster Defondo (El Corredor) battled on the front end through fractions of :22.54 and :46.13. Calmbeforethestorm rallied rapidly four wide on the turn, engaged Defondo with a furlong to run and turned back that gritty foe late to win going away by one length. Calmbeforethestorm, a half to Free Flying Soul (Quiet American), MSW & MGISP, $423,177, was a $190,000 Keeneland September yearling. Clarkland Farm purchased the winner's dam, Ruby Surprise, in foal to Came Home, for $115,000 at the 2006 Keeneland November sale. KILLINGIT (c, 2, Candy Ride {Arg}--Takesmybreathaway, by Gone West), making his first start for trainer Laura Wohlers, was a narrowly beaten runner-up over the Monmouth lawn in his Sept. 14 debut for trainer Charles Simon and he had been off since a third-place effort in a one-mile off-the-turfer at Laurel Oct. 11. Racing without Lasix, the 16-1 outsider angled out slightly at the break and bumped a rival before rushing up to contest the pace into the first turn. The chestnut colt chased pacesetting favorite Westbound (Giant's Causeway) through an opening quarter in :23.87 and raced eagerly just off that rival while one off the rail down the backstretch through a half in :48.00. He darted to the lead early on the second turn and powered clear down the lane to win by 3 1/2 lengths over Hillbilly Style (Malibu Moon). A $150,000 KEESEP yearling, Killingit is a half-brother to Frost Giant (Giant's Causeway, GISW-US & MGSW-Ire, $454,277); Breathless Storm (Storm Cat, SW, $101,920); and Heavy Breathing (Giant's Causeway, GSP, $124,441). Takesmybreathaway, a $420,000 broodmare prospect at the 2001 Keeneland November sale, RNA'd for $2.4 million at the 2008 Keeneland November sale while carrying Heavy Breathing. She produced a filly by Tapit in 2013 and a colt by Medaglia d'Oro this spring and was bred to Giant's Causeway this year. Her Tapit filly RNA'd for $340,000 at this year's Keeneland September sale. Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-1, $35,480.

INDULGE IN SILVER (f, 2, Badge of Silver--Time to Indulge, by E Dubai), who drew in from the also-eligible list when this race came off the turf, was claimed for $30,000 from breeders Ken and Sarah Ramsey and trainer Mike Maker out of a runner-up debut effort over this track Oct. 31. Let go at 10-1, the bay filly raced four wide down the backstretch amidst a swarm of rivals chasing early pacesetter and 92-1 longshot Humor Me Lolly (Dunkirk). Three wide turning for home, Indulge in Silver took the lead into the stretch and strode clear to an easy 3 1/4-length victory over favored College Holly (Super Saver). Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO. DIVINE BEAUTY (f, 3, Divine Park--Ghazo, by Ghazi), a winner at first asking over subsequent SW & GSP Please Explain (Curlin) at Churchill Downs last September, won the Letellier Memorial S. over track and trip here, defeating subsequent GSW Street Story (Street Cry {Ire}) in December of 2013. The bay lost her unbeaten status when runner-up to SW & MGISP Unbridled Forever (Unbridled's Song) in her first start beyond six panels in the mile and 70-yard Silverbulletday S. Jan. 18 and went to the sidelines. The homebred returned slightly less than eight months later with a fitness-building third after setting the pace in a Keeneland optional claimer over seven furlongs Oct. 11 and was 50 cents on the dollar to deliver Sunday. Divine Beauty zipped right to front and skipped through splits of :22.03 and :46.65. Still traveling sweetly at the top of the lane, the sophomore hit another gear in midstretch to win by four lengths over Ms Hoochie Coochie (Mr. Sekiguchi). The winner is a half to Yankee Master (Yankee Victor), SW, $232,747; and Indian Way (Indian Charlie), SW & GISP, $264,760. Squatty (f, 3, Congrats--Skyward Bound, by Relaunch), who RAN'd for $3,500 at the FTKOCT sale, ran second against $50,000 maiden claimers over the Arlington turf at first asking Sept. 20 and missed by a neck when switched to conventional dirt at Keeneland going six panels Oct. 12. Pounded down to 3-5 from an 8-5 morning line, the favorite bounced out of the gate and sprinted to the lead, setting splits of :22.59 for the quarter and :47.28 for the half while scraping the paint into the stretch. A little leg weary late, Squatty's lead shrank to two lengths at the line. Ben's Juliette (Half Ours) rallied belatedly to be runner-up. It's not often that a Breeders' Cup-winning trainer returns to the winner's circle wearing an owner's hat, but such is the case of Squatty's owner/breeder Thad Ackel, who trained four-time Grade I winner Great Communicator (Key to the Kingdom) to victory in the 1988 GI Breeders' Cup Turf. Ackel retired from training in 1992 to focus on his family's commercial real estate business, but he still races a few horses.

"I retired from training and moved back home," explained Ackel. "My dad had passed away and we had quite a bit of real estate holdings, so it was like weighing up the chicken or the egg. Racing is more or less a hobby for me now. I bought a small farm and did a little pinhooking. I collected a few mares and kept a couple in training in Folsom, Louisiana."

Ackel purchased Squatty's dam Skyward Bound privately in 2006 and was already familiar with the family, having acquired her daughter Skyward Exchange (Exchange Rate) for $21,000 at the OBS June sale in 2005.

"I bought Squatty's mother because I had purchased Skyward Exchange at the Ocala sale," Ackel explained. "I really knew she was going to be a runner, so I thought I'd buy the mare. I purchased the mare in foal to Exchange Rate."

Skyward Exchange went on to win twice from eight starts and is now the sole mare in Ackel's broodmare band.

"Actually I'm not a big breeder," he admitted. "I used to carry about four to five mares, but now I just have the one, Skyward Exchange. I have a couple of other fillies out of that family. I have a Gio Ponti yearling that's coming to really nicely."

In the words of Ackel, Squatty is "built like a quarter-horse." The juvenile was not difficult to christen in preparation for her racing days and has turned in three solid performances in three starts.

"I named her Squatty because she was always short and squatty," said a laughing Ackel.

Of the filly's maiden win, Ackel added, "I thought it was excellent. She really has a knack for breaking hard, like she did at Keeneland. I was just happy she could go wire-to-wire without losing interest down the stretch, being such a long stretch. Three races, a win and two seconds, is wonderful. She's a really nice filly and should be competitive in the future against Louisiana-breds."

Winning trainer Michael Stidham agreed. "She's been running in open company prior to this race, so we were glad to get down with the Louisiana-breds," Stidham said. "I was happy with her efforts. She broke sharp, went to the lead and stayed there. We'll keep her with Louisiana-breds as long as we can, but you know eventually we will have to run her back in open company."

Wherever Squatty runs next, she will have Ackel cheering for her.

"I love the game. It's wonderful," said Ackel. "When you get it in your blood, it's hard to get out, you know?" --Heather Likins

Off the mark at first asking versus state-breds at this oval in July, Hear the Chatter completed the exacta as the favorite in a Delaware optional claimer going 5 1/2 furlongs Aug. 20. A winner of his next three trips to the post with West Virginia-bred victories in the Henry Mercer Memorial S. Sept. 20 and the Vincent Moscarelli Memorial Breeders Classic Oct. 18, both at Charles Town, the dark bay added another stakes win in the track-and-trip Tri-State Futurity last time Nov. 8. The chalk hugged the rail and doled out even fractions while loose on the lead and, although One More Time applied token pressure turning for home, Hear the Chatter pulled away down the stretch to win in style. Click for the brisnet.com chart or VIDEO.
