JUDGE RULES AT TATTERSALLS

By Emma Berry and Kelsey Riley

The hotly anticipated appearance at Tattersalls December of Just The Judge (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}) proved to be every bit as thrilling as those who had packed the ring to see Qatar Racing's first Classic winner had hoped. Sold to her part-owner Sheikh Fahad Al Thani to dissolve a partnership with the Sangster family, the 4-year-old set a new record for a filly in training when knocked down for 4.5 million guineas.

Falling just short of the 4.7 million guineas made by Immortal Verse (Ire) on the corresponding day last year, her price nevertheless helped to lift second-day figures to somewhere close to par with 2013.

A number of expensive buy-backs meant the clearance rate dropped to 73% from 81%, bringing the turnover to 29,188,595gns, a drop of 15% from 12 months ago. The average of 168,720gns was also down, by 7%, while the median fell by 8% to 70,000gns.

By the time Just The Judge stepped into the ring, the Tattersalls pavilion was packed to the rafters, and those that had shown up to see a spectacle were not disappointed. Auctioneer John O'Kelly asked for an opening bid of two million guineas on the striking bay filly, and eventually accepted 500,000gns from Mary Hambro, seated on the opposite side of the ring. The price immediately jumped to 600,000 and, after a brief pause rocketed past the million-guineas barrier, then the two million. Past that point it boiled down to a showdown between Qatar Racing's Sheikh Fahad, standing beside the back door, and agent James Delahooke, standing alongside Barry Weisbord on the phone beneath the bidders' cage. Cont. p3

VIOLETTE RE-ELECTED NYTHA PRESIDENT

Trainer Rick Violette, Jr. was re-elected to his third full term as New York Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association President over West Point Thoroughbreds' Terry Finley, NYTHA announced Tuesday evening. Violette is also president of the national Thoroughbred Horsemen's Association, a member of the New York Racing Association Board of Directors and chairman of the New York Jockey Injury Compensation Fund. As a conditioner, Violette developed graded stakes winners such as Dream Rush, Free of Love, Read the Footnotes, 2013 GIII Gotham S. and GIII Withers S. hero Samraat and this year's GI Champagne S. runner-up Upstart.

Tattersalls December Sale

Yearlings November 24
Foals November 26 – 29
Breeding Stock December 1 – 4

Weisbord lodged the four million bid himself and was quickly countered by a confident Sheikh Fahad at 4.2 million. Weisbord re-rallied at 4.4 million, after which Sheikh Fahad delivered the winning blow. It looked for a fleeting moment as if last year's record price could be shattered, but Weisbord shook his head when asked for 4.6 million, leaving Sheikh Fahad to take his Classic winner home. Sheikh Fahad and his bloodstock advisor David Redvers shook hands with Teo Ah Khing and Michael Wallace of the China Horse Club after sealing the deal, and Redvers revealed that Just The Judge had been purchased for a new partnership between Qatar Racing and the China Horse Club.

"She'll continue racing for another year and it'll be a long-term partnership where she'll retire to Tweenhills and visit the best stallions in the world," Redvers said. "She'll have another four or six runs in her next season where she'll partake in all the big meetings."

Trained by Charlie Hills, Just The Judge was a $50,000 Goffs Orby yearling purchase by BBA Ireland and Hills, and she made her first two starts--both wins--for the ownership group of the Sangster Family and Matthew Green.

Qatar Racing replaced Green for her next start, a victory in the 2012 G2 Rockfel S. Just The Judge finished second to Sky Lantern (Ire) (Red Clubs {Ire}) as the favorite in the G1 1000 Guineas last year, and gained redemption three weeks later in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas to hand Qatar Racing its first Classic score. Third behind Sky Lantern in the G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot, Just the Judge added placings in this year's G3 Princess Elizabeth S., G1 Pretty Polly S. and G1 Beverly D. S. before regaining the winning thread in the GI E.P. Taylor S. at Woodbine Oct. 19. She was last seen finishing third, beaten 1 3/4 lengths, in the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf Nov. 1.

"She's as well and been running as well recently as she ever has," Redvers said. "It was only two starts ago, a month ago, that she won a Grade I. She's in very good health and very sound."

When asked if he was tempted to retire her after this campaign, Redvers said, "I can't wait to send her to stud, in a year's time. We'll be making sure she gets the best possible opportunities in the breeding shed as well." Cont. p4

Expanding on the partnership, he added, "It's just a one-off deal with one horse. It was something that fitted them and it fitted us because it enabled us to carry on with our first Classic winner."

He continued, "If anyone wants to know what a racehorse looks like, she's the template. She's supremely athletic, wonderful action, great temperament and she's just been stunning to be around."

The China Horse Club's Wallace, standing alongside a broadly beaming Teo Ah Khing, explained they had entered into discussions with the Qatar Racing team in the leadup to the sale.

"She was a filly that was on everybody's radar," Wallace said. "There were discussions that took place and we found Sheikh Fahad and Mr Teo, and Qatar Racing and the China Horse Club, had similar thoughts an ideologies on racing, so it was a nice place to start a partnership."

He continued, "We're growing and we're looking to partake in the elite racing carnivals around the world, and this filly is going to allow us to do that. We look forward to sharing the experience with Sheikh Fahad."

Wallace said some discussions had taken place regarding Just The Judge's future racing targets, but the decisions would be left up to Hills, who will keep the filly.

"We'll leave that up to Charlie," Wallace said. "He's in charge. We have some ideas in mind, so we'll just see how she comes back in the new season and go from there."

While Just The Judge fell a little shy of Immortal Verse's overall record, she becomes the highest-priced filly in training ever sold in Britain. She is the third-most expensive horse ever sold in the country, because Immortal Verse and the 4.6-million guineas Magical Romance. She was consigned as lot 1852 by Tweenhills.

This was not the first high-price sale for Just The Judge's family over the last year. Her Dubawi (Ire) weanling half-sister was hammered down to John Ferguson for 450,000gns at last year's Tattersalls December Foal Sale, and Shadwell went to 425,000gns for a Lawman filly out of a sister to Just The Judge's dam, named High Heeled (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}) at this year's renewal of that sale last week. High Heeled was a 600,000gns purchase at this sale in 2009.

Ladys First Among Equals At Tattersalls...

Like bees drawn to honey, the Tattersalls ring suddenly filled for the appearance of G3 Atalanta S. winner Ladys First (GB) (Dutch Art {GB}), who was offered in foal to Galileo (Ire) as lot 1831 and was the highlight of the early evening trade at 1.8 million guineas.

Having been sold for 650,000gns at the end of her racing career at this sale last year, the fact that she was the only mare catalogued in foal to the champion sire was always going to increase her price dramatically and, when only the big guns were left firing, it came down to a duel between James Delahooke, standing in the cage with Barry Weisbord, and Hugo Lascelles, who was concealed from his rival behind the bidders' wall.

Hugo Lascelles
Racing Post

Lascelles answered Delahooke's every offer to have the hammer fall in his favor. "I can't say who she's for, but it's an English breeder and I don't know yet where she'll be going," Lascelles said. "But I will say that she's a really tough mare and very good looking. There's Danehill blood in there and I'm very excited about her--I think we've got a really good chance with her."

Asked about having to stretch to 1.8 million guineas, he added, "I guess Galileo is the ticket, the market decided that is what she's worth."

During her racing days, Ladys First once got the better of subsequent dual Grade 1 winner Dank (GB) to win the listed Dick Hern EBF Fillies' S. at Haydock before retiring with a rating of 109 and three wins to her name. Her family has proved popular in the sales ring of late with her Galileo yearling half-brother fetching 400,000gns at the recent Tattersalls October Sale.

Claiborne Taking The Long View...

Long View (Ire) (lot 1874), a 3-year-old daughter of Europe's best stallion, Galileo, is on her way to one of America's best stallions in War Front after Hugo Lascelles bid 1.1 million guineas on behalf of Claiborne Farm's Walker Hancock.

The half-sister to G1 2000 Guineas winner Golan (Ire) and G1 Epsom Derby runner-up Tartan Bearer (Ire) was offered through Jockey Hall Stud and bears the blood of one of her breeder Ballymacoll Stud's finest families. Further back, her forebears include Edinburgh (GB), the grandam of Derby winner North Light (Ire). Long View raced just four times this season, winning at Brighton over 10 furlongs for Sir Michael Stoute.

"She'll be coming back to Claiborne and we're very happy to have her," offered Hancock, who is making his first visit to Tattersalls for the December Sale. "It's a great Classic family and she'll be going to War Front."

At last year's sale, Lascelles purchased Sky Garden (GB), an Acclamation (GB) daughter of top sprinter Superstar Leo (Ire), for 170,000gns on behalf of Claiborne Farm, and Hancock confirmed that she is now in Kentucky and in foal to War Front's son Declaration Of War.

Nurses In Front For Blueblooded Mare...

War Front has asserted his position as a successful sire on both sides of the Atlantic, and thus the lone mare carrying to the Claiborne resident was always going to be popular. Throw behind that one of the best pages in the book, and the result was a tussle that ended with Tony Nurses securing Maid To Master (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) (lot 1828) for 900,000gns. The 5-year-old, who was a €300,000 buyback at Arqana December two years ago and produced a Speightstown filly this year, is a full-sister to 2-year-old champion, Classic winner and exciting young sire Mastercraftsman (Ire) and GIII Locust Grove H. winner Genuine Devotion (Ire) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}). G1 Juddmonte International and G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner Sahkee appears under the third dam.

"She is beautifully put together, with a wonderful pedigree, which goes back to Sakhee and [his dam, G2 Ribblesdale S. winner Thawakib]," Nerses said of Maid To Master, who was consigned by Baroda & Colbinstown Studs. "She is young--she is my uncut diamond."

Nerses was buying on behalf of Saleh Al Homaizi and Imad Al Sagar of Blue Diamond Stud on the outskirts of Newmarket, which was established in 2010 and will be home to 41 mares when Maid To Master arrives.

Surf's Up For Goodman...

Not for the first time, a Frankel cover proved to be of great appeal to an American buyer, with Greg Goodman of Mt. Brilliant Farm going to 850,000gns through agent Charlie Gordon-Watson to ensure he took possession of the Smart Strike filly Windsurfing (lot 1885).

Unraced she may be, but the 3-year-old is well-related, being a daughter of Group 3 winner Legend Maker (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and thus a half-sister to G1 1000 Guineas winner Virginia Waters and G1 Irish Derby runner-up Alexander Of Hales. Another half-sibling, Canterbury Lace, has produced the G1 Matron S. winner Chachamaidee (Ire), while the further family includes the stallions In The Wings (GB) and Dubawi (Ire).

Magic Return For Mukhadram's Dam...

Magic Tree (UAE) (Timber Country) (lot 1728) last passed through a sales ring in 2005 when offered by Darley at DBS and sold for just £2,800. With the Group 1 winner and new stallion Mukhadram (GB) (Shamardal) and Group 3-placed Woodland Aria (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) to her credit since then, plus two subsequent Group 1-winning half-siblings in Mastery (GB) and Kirklees (Ire), the 12-year-old mare's value has skyrocketed, and she was sold for 750,000gns yesterday. The sum could have been even greater still if she had managed to conceive when covered by Frankel earlier this year, but this fact did not dissuade Charlie Gordon-Watson from stepping in to buy her while standing alongside members of the Coolmore team.

and she solidified her status amongst the best in her generation when running third in both the G1 Investec Oaks and G1 Irish Oaks. Volume wrapped up her season in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks, and she is likely to embark on a new career next season after being scooped up by Sheikh Mohammed's bloodstock agent John Ferguson for 700,000gns at Tattersalls yesterday.

The tall, long-striding bay created quite a buzz when she stepped into the ring, setting off a spirited bidding duel that included James Wigan, Northern Farm and James Delahooke.

In the end it was Ferguson, standing in the doorway, who prevailed for the Stuart Stuckey homebred, who was trained by Luca Cumani.

"She's one to take home," Ferguson noted. "She's been placed in two Oaks, so we know she has a lot of talent. It's a very good-looking family that we don't really have, so from that point of view we're delighted to have her. We'll find a good stallion for her, anyway."

Volume's second dam is G1 Prix du Cadran victress Victoire Bleue (Legend of France), who has produced the G2 Prix Chaudenay winner and G1 St Leger-placed Vertical Speed (Fr). Ferguson noted Volume would likely join Sheikh Mohammed's broodmare band next year.

"She could race on, but at the end of the day she's been placed in two Classics," he said.

Jono Mills of Rabbah Bloodstock, an operation that oversees the racing and breeding interests of Sheikh Mohammed's friends, paid the same sum early in the evening for lot 1833, the G3 Park Express-winning mare Rehn's Nest (Ire) (Authorized {Ire}), carrying her first foal by Dubawi (Ire). Trained and owned by Jim Bolger, Rehn's Nest was second to Just The Judge (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}) in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas, and was purchased by Crispin de Moubray for €340,000 at Goffs November last year. Cont. p9

Mulcaster Raises A Glass...

Given the profile of Pale Mimosa (Ire) (Singspiel {Ire}), it should have come as no surprise that she was attractive to Australasian interests, and the New Zealand-based Guy Mulcaster stayed strong to secure her for 680,000gns for an undisclosed existing client.

Pale Mimosa
Tattersalls

The 5-year-old Pale Mimosa, who was catalogued as lot 1875, notched her first black-type victory in last summer's Listed Saval Beg S. over 14 furlongs at Leopardstown.

She has since excelled over route distances, adding the Listed Challenge S. over the same track and trip in July and notching a career high when besting G1 Gold Cup heroine Estimate (Ire) (Monsun {Ger}) in the G2 Lonsdale Cup at York in August. She has since contested three-straight Group 1s, finishing fifth in the Irish St Leger, third in the Prix du Cadran and fourth in the Prix Royal-Oak Oct. 26.

"She's a lovely mare," Mulcaster said. "She did everything for us and she's dual-purpose, so she's been bought for an existing client. We'll let her get over the winter and see what we do with her after that. She's a very good racehorse and she's a very good type."

Mulcaster said no decision had been made as to whether Pale Mimosa would stay in the Northern Hemisphere or go south, or as to whether she would race on or go off to stud.

Yesterday had a Smart Strike colt sell for $500,000 to Badgers Bloodstock at Keeneland September in 2012, the same operation that went to 1.7 million guineas to secure Song (GB) (Sadler's Wells), a sister to Yesterday and Quarter Moon, at this sale in 2009 on behalf of Paul Makin. Song sold for €1 million at last year's Paulyn Dispersal at Goffs November just weeks after another sister, Betterbetterbetter (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), topped Fasig-Tipton's November Sale when bringing $5.2 million from Whisper Hill Farm.

Half Moon
Tattersalls

Tomoyuki Nakamura of K.I. Farm, which outbid agent James

Delahooke, said the pedigree was the main appeal of Half Moon.

"That's the reason we bought her," he noted, adding of the Frankel cover, "We love Frankel."

Nakamura noted that K.I.'s client has a handful of mares in England, including Wild Coco (Ger) (Shirocco {Ger}), a 985,000gns buy here two years ago, and Perfect Tribute (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), bought for 340,000gns here last year, and it hadn't yet been decided whether Half Moon would remain in England or go to Japan.

He noted the price tag was a bit higher than expected.

"We thought she would be a little bit cheaper, but the client loved that mare, so we decided to keep on going," Nakamura said. "She's the first one we've bought at this sale, and maybe the only one," he quipped.

Anipa strung together three wins earlier this year for owner Nurlan Bizakov and trainer Roger Varian, culminating in the Listed Cheshire Oaks in May. She is a half-sister to the GI Flower Bowl Invitational winner Ave (GB) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), who cost Shadai Farm $1.4 million at Keeneland January in 2011.

Like Tonalist, Anipa will be aimed at a 4-year-old campaign, and will join her future mate at trainer Christophe Clement's Florida base at Payson Park.

"She'll go into training with Christophe Clement," Lawley Wakelin said. "She has a lovely, great big walk on her, a great mind, and I just think there's more to come."

Andrew Sime, standing alongside Lawley-Wakelin, confirmed, "She's been bought for the Belmont winner. He stays in training next year, so we were trying to buy a filly to race then visit him."

Expanding on her appeal, Sime noted, "She's by Sea the Stars and a half to a Grade I winner in the States. And she's the only Sea the Stars stakes winner in the catalogue."

Lawley-Wakelin noted Anipa was the first horse he had bid on at the sale, but he indicated he may not be through spending, adding, "Hopefully it will be a busy day."

The team added another potential speed influence to the ranks yesterday when bidding 350,000gns for 3-year-old Coral Mist (GB) (Bahamian Bounty {GB}) (lot 1811) from the New England Stud draft.

Tom Harris, whose parents Trevor and Libby own the stud, said, "She's a neat compact filly from a fast family and she'll be coming back to the farm."

Coral Mist beat Hoku by a nose to land the G3 Firth of Clyde S. last season and her dam Treasure Trove (The Minstrel) has also produced the hardy and talented Toysome (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}), who numbers the G1 Prix de la Foret among his 16 victories.

Pivotal Popularity Continues...

Cheveley Park Stud resident Pivotal (GB) (Polar Falcon) is currently Europe's leading living broodmare sire, and thus it should have come as no surprise that a well-related daughter of Pivotal in foal to leading sire Invincible Spirit (Ire) (Green Desert) would be popular at Tattersalls yesterday. The mare that fits that description was Swingland (GB) (lot 1687), who was hammered down to Richard Frisby for 290,000gns.

Frisby was bidding on behalf of BBA 2010, an enterprise investment scheme that was launched four years ago with Lanwades Stud's Kirsten Rausing to continue the legacy of the British Bloodstock Agency. Michael Goodbody and Guy Heald later joined the scheme. BBA 2010 trades principally in breeding stock, selling most of its foals at the foal sales, and Frisby noted that is the likely fate for the Invincible Spirit foal that Swingland is carrying.

Richard Frisby

"She'll go to Lanwades Stud and we'll work out a mating for her," he said. "[The page] keeps on coming up, and I think Invincible Spirit will suit her."

He added, "Normally we sell as foals. Sometimes we keep fillies back and sell them as yearlings."

Swingland, a winner as a 2-year-old, produced her first foal, a Henrythenavigator colt, this year. Swingland is out of the stakes-winning Farfala (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}), a full-sister to Group 1 winners Fragrant Mix (Ire) and Alpine Rose (Fr), and is a half-sister to the stakes winner Under the Rainbow (GB) (Fantastic Light). Pivotal is the broodmare sire of three Group/Grade 1 winners: Mayson (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), Winsili (GB) (Dansili {GB}) and this year's GI Breeders' Cup Turf and four-time Grade I winner Main Sequence (Aldebaran).

Woodford On European Sojourn...

John and Susan Sykes have built up a collection of nearly 100 mares since founding Woodford Thoroughbreds in 2007, and they have showed no sign of slowing down, acquiring 18 at Keeneland November and five through the first two days of the Tattersalls December Mare Sale. Woodford's General Manager Matt Lyons, who attended the sale with John Sykes, noted that they are considering an expansion into the European market for the operation that is currently split between Kentucky and Florida. While the mares purchased this week will head back to Kentucky, Lyons noted their foals may return to the European market to sell.

"In the future we're not ruling out bringing some horses to sell here," Lyons said. "We wanted to come and test the market and get to know it, and something we may consider in the future is keeping some mares over here or selling some horses over here."

Lyons and Sykes made their first visit to Tattersalls for this sale last year when they took four home, and Lyons said their primary aim is to add new blood to their broodmare band.

"We're trying to add a few different mares," he said. "We're just trying to add some new blood to the broodmare band and trying to expand. This has been a good avenue for us to do it."

Woodford's haul this week thus far was topped by lot 1653, the 8-year-old mare Lastroseofsummer (Ire) (Haafhd {GB}), in foal to the red-hot Lope De Vega (Ire), for 60,000gns.

They also picked up lot 1497, the winning Hekaayaat (Mr. Greeley) in foal to Kodiak (GB) for 50,000gns; lot 1785, the 3-year-old filly Good Strike (Smart Strike), in foal to Mastercraftsman (Ire); lot 1827, the Bernardini mare Kimono, in foal to Declaration of War; and lot 1861, Scenica (Arg), also in foal to that new Ashford Stud resident.

"The market has been pretty good," Lyons noted. "The ones we've bought, they made right around what we thought they would."

GULFSTREAM WEST MEET SMASHES ALL EXPECTATIONS

By Bill Finley

When Gulfstream Park took over the management of the racing operation at Calder from Churchill Downs, it was hard to imagine it could have much of an impact. They had only 40 days of racing at the cross-town track and Calder's problems seemed almost beyond repair. The morale there was terrible, the facility was run down, the racing was lousy and a head-to-head dates war with Gulfstream had taken a major toll on the Miami Gardens track.

But when Calder, rebranded as Gulfstream Park West, ended its 40-day run Sunday, a stunning turnaround had occurred. With record handles, big fields, a creative wagering menu and a corporate philosophy of taking care of the fans and horsemen, Gulfstream had done the impossible. It took over and it made Calder/Gulfstream Park West matter again.

"Our brand helps and everybody realizes that we are, first and foremost, a racing company," said Gulfstream Chief Operating Officer Tim Ritvo.

That may be both the simplest and most accurate reason why Gulfstream Park West did so well. Gulfstream is run by the Stronach Group, which prioritizes racing and its executives work hard to create the best racing product possible.

Attaching the Gulfstream name to Calder sent a message to horseplayers and horsemen that this would not be a matter of business as usual. Calder is run by Churchill Downs, a company many have accused of caring more about the casino business than the racing business. Churchill still operates the slots at Calder.

Gulfstream helped spruce up the facility, and went out of its way to give horsemen and fans first-class treatment. Its racing department, led by P.J. Campo and arguably the best in the country, created cards that were filled with big, competitive fields. It made great use of the grass course. It brought the popular Rainbow Six bet across town and on closing day, with a mandatory payout, the pot for that bet swelled to $818,667. The days of going through the motions at Calder were gone.

GPW has given Tim Ritvo reason to smile
Horsephotos

Coming up with Calder-versus-Gulfstream West handle numbers is difficult.

For one, comparing Calder 2013 to Gulfstream West 2014 is unfair because last year Calder was running head-to-head against Gulfstream. Churchill does not release handle numbers at its tracks and they are not easy to come by. But for the most part, Gulfstream West's handle is about three times what it was last year when racing as Calder.

In addition, the numbers for Gulfstream West often blew away the combined numbers from last year when both tracks were running at once. With a 10-race card, Gulfstream West handled $5.3 million Saturday. Last year, the two tracks ran 19 races between them and the combined handle was $4.4 million.

The Summit of Speed program was typically the most heavily wagered card of the year at Calder. The last time it was run without competition from Gulfstream was 2012 when it handled $4,513,885 for 12 races. On four occasions at the Gulfstream West meet that number was topped, and each of those cards included only 10 races. Cont. p16

NYTB's annual Stallion Season Auction to be held January 12-14

Donations of stallion seasons are now being accepted for the New York Thoroughbred Breeders' annual stallion season auction, to be held on Starquine.com from Mon., Jan. 12 to Wed., Jan 14.

The auction raises funds that enable NYTB to carry on its two-fold mission of promoting New York breeding and racing and protecting the welfare of industry stakeholders.

Last Saturday, Gulfstream West handled $5,374,522, its high for the year. No one can remember the last time Calder handled $5.3 million.

During much of the meet, Gulfstream West was the third highest-handling track in the country, trailing only New York and Southern California, but leading Churchill Downs.

In fairness to Calder, Gulfstream had advantages over its old competitor, namely with the amount of horses from which it had to draw. When Calder traditionally went it alone in the summer, its backstretch was the only stabling in South Florida. Gulfstream can now house horses at its own track, at Palm Meadows and at Calder.

“We’re doing on average about three times in handle than what they were doing with pretty much the same product,” Ritvo said. “Keeping Gulfstream open year-round and keeping some trainers down here, guys that normally might have left here in the summer, has helped. Also having Gulfstream tied to the Calder product has helped. I think it encouraged guys like Todd Pletcher and Chad Brown to come down earlier.”

Things can only get better. What was once a chaotic situation in Florida that was hurting everyone has settled into a workable circuit run by a company that is proving that horse racing is not a lost cause. The racing situation in South Florida has never been more stable or healthy.

Gulfstream was forced to race six days a week this year at Gulfstream West, but that can be amended next year with a more sensible schedule. There have to be 40 days of racing at Calder/Gulfstream West for Churchill to maintain its casino license, but Ritvo said they may go with two Calder meets next year, one just prior to the championship meet at Gulfstream and one just after. Each meet would be 20 days. And having a gap between the summer and championship meets at Gulfstream should re-energize horseplayers once Gulfstream re-opens Saturday. They got off to a bad start for their prime meet last year and many believe that’s because there was no excitement building up to what was no longer a true opening day.

“Go back two years ago when we had the Claiming Crown to open up it was an unbelievably successful opener,” Ritvo said. “Last year, with the schedule, it took a little bit of an edge out of it, with racing at Gulfstream every single weekend. This year we’ll have a two-month freshening, we’ve freshened up the building a little bit and have been able to revitalize the turf course. To open up with the Claiming Crown we think we’ll see the difference. Plus you have to factor in the fact we’re not running against another track eight miles away. I think you’ll see incredible field sizes through the entire championship meet. We’re talking somewhere between 9.8 to 10 starters per race, which would be incredible.”

Ritvo will tell you running Gulfstream is easy. You have great weather, good purses, great racing and an influx of top stables anxious to get out of the Northeast and Midwest in the winter.

Gulfstream Park West is another story. Calder is different. It has always been a summer track in steamy Florida dominated by local stables and overrun with unbetttable races for cheap 2-year-olds. It wasn’t like that at all over the last 40 racing days. The team at Gulfstream believes in racing. And it shows.

FAST BULLET EUTHANIZED

WinStar Farm stallion Fast Bullet (Speightstown--Renfro Valley Star, by Dayjur) was euthanized yesterday due to complications from colic.

“It is with great regret that we had to euthanize Fast Bullet early this morning due to complications from colic,” said Elliott Walden, WinStar President & CEO. “After a lot of ups and downs in treating him, it became evident that he was extremely uncomfortable. We conferred with the attending veterinarians, and the decision was made that euthanasia was the only humane option left. We’re devastated for Mr. Zayat and all of the shareholders.”

Fast Bullet
A. Coglianese

Campaigned by Zayat Stables during his brief racing career, the 6-year-old captured four wins from seven starts, including last year’s GII True North H., and amassed earnings of $330,334. Under the tutelage of two Hall of Famers, the chestnut started his career under the care of Bob Baffert, but made his final two starts for D. Wayne Lukas.

Fast Bullet’s first and only crop of foals are due to hit the ground in 2015.

NEW ASCOT G1 NAMED COMMONWEALTH CUP

Officials at Ascot Racecourse have announced that the new Group 1 event at the Royal Meeting next June will be named the Commonwealth Cup. The event, which will become the eighth top-level contest to feature during the five-day meeting, will carry purse money of £375,000 and is open to 3-year-old colts, geldings and fillies. The Commonwealth Cup will replace the Buckingham Palace S. and will be run on the Friday program, while the Wolferton S. has been moved from Friday to Saturday.

The Duke of Edinburgh H. has been shifted to the Friday program. The introduction of the new race means total prize money for the 2015 Royal Ascot meeting will total £5,585,000, up from £5,310,000.

"We are very excited about the Commonwealth Cup, which has already been talked of in positive terms by the connections of this year's leading 2-year-old filly, Tiggy Wiggy (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}), and American-trained Hootenanny (Quality Road), who won the Windsor Castle Stakes at this year's meeting and was subsequently successful at the recent Breeders' Cup," Charles Barnett, chief executive at Ascot, stated. "Longer term, we are looking to attract interest from connections of horses that have run in championship two-year-old races in Australia like the Blue Diamond and the Golden Slipper, as they are counted as 3-year-olds in the Northern Hemisphere at Royal Ascot. We think the Commonwealth Cup has significant potential."

Farraaj Pleases Atzeni in HK Cup Gallop...

Sheikh Ahmed al Maktoum's Farraaj (Ire) (Dubai Destination) took to the Sha Tin turf course Tuesday morning for a piece of fast work ahead of his expected start in the G1 Longines Hong Kong Cup Dec. 14. With Italian jockey Andrea Atzeni in the irons, the 5-year-old gelding worked over 1200 meters, going in fractions of :27.5 and :26.9 before quickening up nicely and covering his final quarter-mile in a strong :23.8.

"He felt very good, he looks good for the time of year and he did a very nice bit of work," said Atzeni, who is three weeks into a three-month riding contract in Hong Kong.

Farraaj HKJC.com

Farraaj, third in the 2011 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf, won the 2013 G3 Winter Derby over the Lingfield all-weather and landed a pair of handicaps over this past summer, including the valuable John Smith's Cup at York July 12. Fourth in the G3 Strensall S. at York Aug. 23, Farraaj made his most recent appearance at the Melbourne Spring Carnival, running the classy Happy Trails (Aus) (Good Journey) to 3/4 of a length when third from a high draw in the G1 Mackinnon S. Nov. 1.

"He just stretched his legs a little bit," Atzeni. "He hasn't done a lot since his race in Australia and he needed a good bit--he might do something more again next week. He was having a nice blow at the end so I think that's done him good. He travelled really well there--as soon as I turned in I picked him up all the way to the end and he just kept stretching out. He feels good, he moved well and he loves that quick-ish ground."

Atzeni continued, "With a better draw he might have won in Australia and the Cup is looking like a very open race this year. He loves the fast ground, that's what he needs, and he's one of those horses--he's won at Epsom, he's won at York, when he was in Australia he was galloping well on a smaller track; going round here won't be any problem."

ADENA SPRINGS SOUTH REOPENED

Adena Springs South in Williston, Florida has been reopened for the 2015 breeding season, Frank Stronach's operation announced yesterday. The 3800-acre farm will be home to Capo Bastone (Street Boss--Fight to Love by Fit to Fight), City Wolf (Giant's Causeway--Baby Zip, by Relaunch) and Hunter's Bay (Ghostzapper--Smok'n Frolic, by Smoke Glacken).

"It's exciting to reenter the Florida stallion market with such solid stallions that all have the credentials for success," said Adena Springs' Jack Brothers. "Mr. Stronach has a long history of breeding success in Florida, and this return underscores his commitment to the Sunshine State. We've hired Declan Doyle to handle stallion season sales and nominations--he brings a wealth of experience to the table--and we have promoted long-time Adena Springs assistant Gregg Falk to the position of stallion manager."

Capo Bastone
A. Coglianese

★ "TDN Rising Star" ★ Capo Bastone blew up the Saratoga tote board last summer with a 28-1 upset of the GI King's Bishop S. Campaigned by Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners and Todd Pletcher, the recently retired 4-year-old has a record of 17-3-2-2 and earnings of $731,756.

City Wolf and Hunters Bay both began their stud careers earlier this year. Relocating from Pleasant Acres Stallions in Morriston, Florida, City Wolf is a half-brother to prominent stallions Ghostzapper and City Zip. Bred and raced by Adena Springs with trainer Sean Smullen, the 2011 GIII Durham Cup victor collected four wins from 18 starts and earnings of $293,686.

Canadian champion Hunter's Bay will relocate from Heritage Farm in Chesapeake City, Maryland. The 7-year-old boasts wins in the 2012 GIII Eclipse S. and GIII Dominon Day S., as well as a second to two-time reigning Horse of the Year Wise Dan (Wiseman's Ferry) in that year's GI Woodbine Mile. Trained by Reade Baker, the Adena Springs homebred won six of his 14 starts and earned $611,091.

An open house and stallion show will be announced at a later date.

Frost Giant Seasons Raffle to Benefit Racing Charities:

Sunrise Stallions has entered into a venture with the Belmont Child Care Association and the Permanently Disabled Jockeys Fund to raise money for the two charities by auctioning off seasons to the New York-based Frost Giant (Giant's Causeway--Takesmybreathaway, by Gone West).

North American breeders will be invited to submit their mares to Sunrise Stallions business manager Eric Bishop through the Sunrise Stallions website during the month of December. A drawing will be held at Aqueduct Dec. 31 and two winning names will be selected at random. Winners will receive a 2015 breeding season to Frost Giant for a $2,500 tax deductible donation to either the PDJF or Belmont Child Care Association. FG Stallion LLC, the owner of Frost Giant, will match these donations.

"This is a classic win-win opportunity for breeders, who can join us to support the critical work of PDJF and Anna House in meeting needs within our racing community while gaining the chance to breed to New York leader Frost Giant at no additional cost," said FG Stallions managing member Andrew Cohen.

The 11-year-old Frost Giant boasts four wins from 15 starts, including the 2008 GI Suburban H., and earnings of $454,630. The chestnut will stand for a fee of $10,000 live foal for the 2015 season.

"We hope breeders who are planning their matings for the upcoming season will be excited by this special opportunity," Bishop said. "We invite everyone to send the names of their mares and join us in celebrating the holidays."

Freedman Returns to Winner's Circle:

Five-time G1 Melbourne Cup-winning trainer Lee Freedman tasted victory for the first time since announcing his return to the trade, saddling up Godolphin's Java (Aus) (Medaglia d'Oro) to win the Blue Cross-Willowmeade 3YO Maiden Plate at Kilmore in Victoria Tuesday. A winner of 124 Group 1s and seven Victorian premierships, Freedman stepped away from the game three years ago, turning the reins over to his brother Anthony. The two are now in partnership.

In addition to his five Melbourne Cups, two courtesy of the legendary Makybe Diva (GB) (Desert King {Ire}), Freedman has also won the Caulfield Cup and Golden Slipper on four occasions and also has a pair of Cox Plate successes to his credit. Lee Freedman is based at Flemington, while Anthony plies his trade from the family property on the Mornington Peninsula.
