SPEECHIFY IS A “SOUPER” HORSE

by Bill Finley

The horse eats nothing but soup and there was a time you would have had to have been nuts to believe he'd ever amount to anything. Speechify (Harlan's Holiday) is not your ordinary horse. Not only is he a two-time stakes winner, he has overcome problems that would have ended the racing careers of just about anyone else. But for every problem there is a solution, and sometimes that solution is soup.

Speechify, on separate occasions, has suffered condylar fractures in each of his front legs, but the more vexing problem for his connections has been an esophageal stricture, which is a narrowing or tightening of the esophagus that makes swallowing difficult and dangerous. With a horse who has this problem, a normal diet or standard stall bedding could cause them to choke to death.

Speechify
Kenny Martin

Barry Irwin, the president of the Team Valor syndicate, didn't know this at the time when he picked the horse out at the 2011 Keeneland September sales. He bid up to $85,000 on the yearling, but the horse was RNA'd. After the sale, he met with the consignor and brokered a deal to buy Speechify for $80,000, or $5,000 less than his final bid. Cont. p3

TOP NZ SIRE O'REILLY, 21, PASSES AWAY

New Zealand Horse of the Year and multiple champion sire O'Reilly (NZ) (Last Tycoon {Ire}--Courtza {NZ}, by Pompeii Court) died in his paddock Tuesday morning, Waikato Stud announced. He was 21.

O'Reilly
Waikato Stud

"All good things must come to an end," said Waikato Stud's Mark Chittick. "O'Reilly has been wholly and solely responsible for the go-forward and momentum of Waikato Stud as we know it today. We could not be more proud of his achievements or more thankful for his legacy. He has certainly been a breed shaper and we are indeed fortunate to be able to continue his amazing influence at the stud through his daughters and with his exciting sire son Sacred Falls in 2015. He has provided us and many people with some terrific highlights and will continue to do so in the future." Cont. p9

FOUR EUROPEAN BARGAINS

Last week we wrote about four Kentucky stallions we reckon are very good buys for 2015 which breeders might actually still be able to get to. Here are four in Europe. Happy New Year!

SO YOU THINK (NZ), 2006h. High Chaparral (Ire)--Triassic (NZ), by Tights First Foals 2014, Coolmore (IR), €12,500

The unfortunate death of High Chaparral at only 15 earlier this month did at least serve to focus breeders' attention a bit more on arguably his best son, So You Think, a winner of 14 of his 23 races with earnings over £5 million. Bred in New Zealand when High Chaparral was standing there and a NZ$110,000 yearling trained by the legendary Bart Cummings, So You Think burst into prominence when winning the 2009 G1 Cox Plate as a 3-year-old.

The next stop was Tony Everard’s farm in Ocala, where Speechify was to be broken. Everard immediately discovered that something wasn’t right with the yearling.

“We were bringing him in one morning and he looked a little in distress and we thought he might have a fever or something,” Everard said. “We took him to the vet who said he had hay and grass stuck in his throat that he couldn’t swallow.”

Everard consulted with the vet who discovered the problem and said Speechify could never be treated like a normal horse again. He could not be allowed to graze, his stall bedding had to be made up of something he would never eat (like peat moss), he could not consume normal grain or hay and his feed had to be liquified.

Irwin says the horse basically subsists on soup.

“Tony is the one who developed the formula for feeding the horse,” Irwin said. “It’s a soup, not even as solid as mash. He went to the feed store and talked to the people there and they helped him develop it and told him what to put in it. It started out almost as water, but they eventually let it become a little thicker.”

Said current trainer Ralph Nicks: “It’s not like he’s drinking a milkshake, it’s not quite that liquified, but it is close.”

Though everyone who has dealt with Speechify has been told to be extra careful, there have still been missteps along the way.

Irwin didn’t want to name the individual, but said someone in his operation mistakenly put down straw bedding in the horses stall and that Speechify ate some of it and almost died.

At other times, the horse has gotten himself into trouble.

“If he gets one little chunk of something in him it’s a problem,” Nicks said. “He can’t have a bite of grass, can’t have a bite of hay. He can get ambitious coming off track and grab a leaf off a bush and it will clog him up. One time he overpowered the hot walker and started grazing. It’s always something you have to watch out for.”

Once the feeding issues were under control, Irwin and Everhard could see that they had an exciting prospect on their hands.

“As a yearling, he looked like a ready-made 2 year old,” Irwin said. “He wasn’t very tall, but was muscular. Literally, it looked like if you brought him over there to run him that day he would have been ready. I had never seen a horse that well developed.”

Preparing for his first start, he suffered a condylar fracture in a front leg. By the time it had healed and he was ready to go, he was midway through his 3-year-old year. But the wait had been worth it. He broke his maiden in an Aug. 24 race at Gulfstream by 10 ½ lengths. (Video.)

“The first time he ran he ran a 1 3/4 on the Thoroughgraphs,” Irwin said. “We’ve never had any horse do that. It was ridiculous.” Cont. p4

From a numbers standpoint, Speechify didn't run back to that race over his next several starts. Irwin was discouraged and perplexed, but he knew that any horse that had run as fast as this one had in its first start still had the potential to be something special.

Speechify won a Jan. 23 allowance at Gulfstream and seemed to be rounding into form, only to suffer another condylar fracture in his other leg.

"I've never had a horse break both front legs and keep going," Irwin said. "If it weren't for that freaky fast number in his first start, I would have given up on him. It so tough to find horses that have that kind of talent. When you do you will go to the ends of the earth to try to figure out a way to keep them going. That's the motivating factor."

They pieced Speechify back together and he was entered in an Oct. 25 grass race at Gulfstream Park West, where he finished eighth. Then it was back to the dirt, and the gelding has never looked back. He won the Kenny Noe by 3 3/4 lengths and then won the Gill Mr. Prospector by 1 1/4 lengths.

"He is a special individual," Nicks said. "I don't know if that comes from the choking incidents or he was just cut out to be that good. He has a whole different class about him that a lot of other horses don't have. He wants to go and do his job every day. He wants to make you happy every day."

Irwin said the next major goal is the April 9 Gill Count Fleet H. at Oaklawn.

"Most of the time when a horse has this many problems, it never works out in the end," Everard said. "He has been a real problem child for us. To see how it has worked out, I'm thrilled to death."

NEW TO CALUMET 2015

But it was during his 4-year-old campaign, in the Australian spring (August-November) of 2010 that So You Think really blasted off. He won five of his six starts, four of them Group 1 races at 9-10 furlongs, including a second win in the Cox Plate. His only loss was in his first start beyond 10 1/2 furlongs, when third in the G1 Melbourne Cup. The Racing Post assigns Ratings (RPR) on major Australian races; in his last eight starts in Australia, So You Think ran RPRs every time between 124-129. Such high-level consistency is rare.

So You Think made 11 starts while trained in Europe as a 'Northern' 5- and 6-year-old in 2011-12. The only two times he ran RPRs below 125 were at Churchill Downs, in the 2011 GI Breeders' Cup Classic, on the dirt, and the 2012 G1 Dubai World Cup, on the all-weather. He ran a 125 when fourth to Danedream in the 2011 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at 12 furlongs. In his eight starts at 10-10 1/2 furlongs on the Turf in Europe, he won six, of which five were Group 1s (the Tattersalls Gold Cup twice; the Eclipse; the Irish Champion S.; and the Prince of Wales's), and was second twice. In all eight of those starts, he ran RPRs between 127-129; again, rare high-level consistency. In all, So You Think ran RPRs between 124-129 a total of 17 times. He's standing his third season on 2015, meaning breeders would be selling yearlings by him the year his first 3-year-olds were running. That could be a really good bet.

Another very promising son of High Chaparral is Toronado, who makes his debut at the National Stud in Newmarket for £15,000. He was an unbeaten Group 2 winner as a 2-year-old, and at three and four won two Group 1s at a mile and ran second in three others. His best RPR was also 129.

ARCHIPENKO, 2004h. Kingmambo--Bound, by Nijinsky II First Foals 2011, Lanwades Stud (GB), £10,000

THEWAYYOUARE, 2005h. Kingmambo--Maryinsky (Ire), by Sadler's Wells First Foals 2011, Coolmore (IR), €5,000

Two sons of Kingmambo with blockbuster pedigrees, both with their first 3-year-olds racing in 2014, look very attractive propositions at relative bargain prices for 2015.

More 'expensive' of the two is Lanwades Stud's Archipenko, who absolutely has one of the best pedigrees of any horse at stud in Europe. He is out of Bound, by Nijinsky out of Special, so his dam is actually a 3/4-sister to Nureyev and a half-sister to Fairy Bridge, the dam of Sadler's Wells. Cont. p6

Bred by a Coolmore entity, Archipenko won the G2 Derrinstown Derby Trial in his first start at three, but finished no better than fifth in four subsequent starts that year, all in Group 1 company, and was sold to Sheikh Mohammed bin Khalifa al Maktoum to be trained by Mike de Kock as a 4-year-old. After a prep at Nad Al Sheba, he won the G2 Al Fahidi Fort at a mile, and ran third to Jay Peg in the G1 Dubai Duty Free at nine furlongs. He went on from Dubai to win a 10-furlong Group 1 in Hong Kong in April, then came back to Europe where he won the G2 Summer Mile at Ascot, and just failed to catch front-running Spirit One in the G1 Arlington Million. He ran RPRs of 121 or 122 in those five consecutive races at four different racetracks on three continents. Globetrotter.

Archipenko

Early in the season, the Archipenko filly Madame Chiang (GB) won the G3 Musidora S. at York, and another 3-year-old filly from his first crop, Lady Penko (Ity), won a listed stakes in France and ran third in the G1 Prix Saint-Alary. But his stud career got a major boost when Madame Chiang won the G1 British Champions Day Filly & Mare Race (12 furlongs, heavy ground) in October. Without too much fanfare, though, Archipenko also had no fewer than five black-type 2-year-olds, all at seven furlongs or a mile, in September and October, and now has a total of nine black-type horses in all. He's living up to his pedigree.

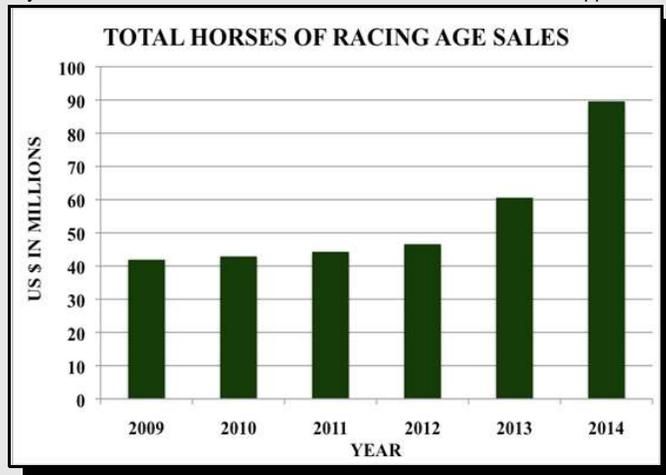

The way you are was also bred by a Coolmore entity--and also has a great pedigree, being a half-brother to Peeping Fawn out of Maryinsky, a daughter of blue hen Blush With Pride--but was sold by them as a yearling to Irish builder Sean Mulravn, through agent Herve Barjot. Trained by the legendary Andre Fabre, The way you are misfired first time out, then won his next three, including the G3 Prix Thomas Bryon. Coolmore bought back into him before he won the one-mile G1 Criterium International in his final start at two. He only made four more starts over the next two years, two in each year and all in Group 1s, but never hit the board. He sired his first crop at Ashford in Kentucky, then moved to Ireland, where he has stood since.

The star of The way you are's first crop of 60 foals is Toast of New York, who has put his trainer, former jump jockey Jamie Osborne, firmly on the international map. Toast of New York sprang a surprise when winning the $2-million G2 UAE Derby on Dubai World Cup night, then followed up with bang-up seconds to top U.S. 3-year-olds Shared Belief (Candy Ride {Arg}) in the G1 Pacific Classic at Del Mar (synthetic) and Bayern (Offlee Wild) in the G1 Breeders' Cup Classic at Santa Anita (dirt). His next target, not surprisingly, is the G1 Dubai World Cup next March (now dirt). Cont. p7

Weekly Sales Ticker

by Bill Oppenheim

"A significant growth area in the auction market in the last two years is the Horses of Racing Age, or Horses In Training, sector. Besides the three established sales which we count in this sector (Tattersalls July & October HIT sales, and Arqana's Arc sale), Goffs had a couple of super-boutique sales, and Fasig-Tipton made a session of their July sale for horses in training. The number of horses sold at auction in this sector is up 45% since 2012, while the gross (up 48% this year) has nearly doubled."

Data compiled by Brianne Stanley

Coolmore partner Michael Tabor bred a few mares to Thewayyouare and sent some to Thewayyouare's trainer Andre Fabre. Two 3-year-old fillies showed black-type form this spring, namely Hug And A Kiss (placed in two Group 3 races) and Secret Admirer (placed in two listed stakes races). The knockers want to say he's a one-hit wonder, but I don't think that's true, and also very seriously underestimates how good Toast of New York actually is. After all, 3-year-olds ran 1-2-3-4 in this year's GI Breeders' Cup Classic: Bayern, Toast of New York, California Chrome, Shared Belief. That's very hot company, which makes Thewayyouare at €5,000 a tremendous buy.

ANODIN (Ire), 2010 Anabaa--Born Gold, by Blushing Groom

Retires 2015, Haras du Quesnay (FR), €7,500

Goldikova (Ire)'s little brother developed into a seriously good miler this year as a 4-year-old. The bare facts say he only won two races in his career--neither of them this year--and his best win was in the G3 Paul de Moussac last year as a 3-year-old. But that's not the whole story.

Anodin did not win this year, but here's what he did do. He ran second to Cirrus des Aigles (Fr) in the 9 1/4-furlong G1 Prix d'Isphahan in May. Then he ran third, beaten two lengths by Toronado (Ire) and Verrazano, in the G1 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot in June. Then he ran second to Kingman (GB) in the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois in August. Then he ran second to Karakontie (Jpn) in the GI Breeders' Cup Mile at Santa Anita. In all four 2014 Group 1 placings, he ran RPRs of 118-119.

He was well-fancied in the Breeders' Cup Mile, and connections were left ruing what might have been as Karakontie, drawn widest of all in 14, benefited from a brilliant ride by Pasquier, while Anodin, with Peslier up and drawn nine, ended up not having that smooth a trip and closed late to be beaten a length. It was reminiscent of Dansili (GB)'s unlucky run at Churchill Downs in the 2000 Breeders' Cup Mile, when he was beaten a neck and a nose by War Chant and longshot North East Bound. That defeat didn't stop Dansili making a sire, as we now know, so you could sure fancy Anodin for his new job at €7,500.

ECLIPSE AWARDS

We are as yet no further forward in having guidelines for the Eclipse Awards voters, except that, to be eligible for any category, a horse has to have started at least once in North America in 2014. We are required to list 1-2-3 selections in each category, though in a few of these cases there are two standouts with a distant third. So, in a chaotic universe in which anarchy very well could rule, here are this writer's selections.

2-Year-Old Male: This is one of the categories with two standouts and a distant third. American Pharaoh (Pioneerof The Nile) won the GI Del Mar Futurity (Beyer 101) and GI FrontRunner (101), both with, well, front-running performances.

He would have been heavily favoured in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile, but was sidelined by injury. FrontRunner third Texas Red (Afleet Alex) ran off with the Juvenile (Beyer 104) in his absence and may get the nod, but I'm going 1-American Pharaoh, 2-Texas Red, with GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf winner Hootenanny, from Quality Road's first crop, completing the top three.

American Pharaoh
Benoit

2-Year-Old Filly: After dropping four in a row, Wayne Lukas trainee Take Charge Brandi (Giant's Causeway), led wire-to-wire at 61-1 to upset (I'll say) the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies. That wouldn't have done it, but her trainer, who re-wrote the record books in his heyday, showed he still has the magic with two more runs and two more wins, so that tips the scales in her favor, even though her highest Beyer figure is an 87. GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf winner Lady Eli (Divine Park) is three-for-three with a Beyer 96, but, again with two worthy winning possibilities, I'm going 1-Take Charge Brandi, 2-Lady Eli. Dual Grade I winner Condo Commando (Tiz Wonderful) for third.

3-Year-Old Male: By far the toughest category, especially when you consider the first four in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic were all 3-year-olds. California Chrome (Lucky Pulpit) gets the nod for me: he won the GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness; ran third, wide all the way from the 13 hole to be beaten a nose and a neck, in the Classic; and finished off the year by winning the GI Hollywood Derby (at Del Mar) on the turf. Bayern (Offlee Wild) will have plenty of supporters, too, having after all won the Classic, and defeated California Chrome two of the three times they met. But I am 1-California Chrome; 2-Bayern. Shared Belief (Candy Ride) has only lost once, when fourth in the Classic, having been knocked sideways at the start by the winner, and he's my number three. Amazingly, all three are scheduled to remain in training, as well as Classic second Toast of New York (Thewayyouare), GI Belmont and GI Jockey Gold Cup winner Tonalist (Tapit), GI Wood Memorial winner Wicked Strong (Hard Spun), and GI Travers winner V. E. Day (English Channel). Excellent, very deep division.

COOLMORE

3-Year-Old Filly: Untapable (Tapit) is a lock here, winner of four Grade I's including the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff, and six-for-six against fillies. My very distant two-three are Queen's Plate winner Lexie Lou (Sligo Bay) and dual Grade I winner Sweet Reason (Street Sense).

Untapable
Equi-Photo

Older Male: Here is a case where lack of guidance creates chaos. This category should probably be re-named "4-Year-Old & Up Dirt Male," but the problem with that is the Turf Male category is for 3-year-olds and up. Anyway, I make GI Met Mile winner

Palace Malice (Curlin) the champion here. He was four-for-five for the year until sidelined by injury in August, including three straight graded race wins with Beyers of 114-114-112. Further complicating the issue: is this really a "one mile-plus dirt" category? For this year, I think yes: 2-Itsmyluckyday (Lawyer Ron); 3-Lea (First Samurai).

Older Female: Similar problem, and a weak division this year. In spite of losing her last two races, Close Hatches (First Defence) gets the nod, off three Grade I wins, over GI Breeders' Cup Distaff three-two lotapa (Afleet Alex) and Don't Tell Sophia (Congaree).

Male Sprinters: I know his big win was his repeat in the GI Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile, but Goldencents (Into Mischief) ran in only Grade I (four) and Grade II races (one) this year and was 2-3-0 in those five starts. He gets my vote, narrowly over GI Breeders' Cup Sprint winner Work All Week (City Zip), with dual 2014 Grade I winner and Breeders' Cup Sprint third Private Zone (Macho Uno) in the show spot.

Goldencents
Benoit

Female Sprinters: GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Sprint winner Judy The Beauty (Ghostzapper) is the deserving winner here. In another light division I have Midnight Lucky (Midnight Lute), one-for-one for the year, and the 3-year-old two-time 2014 Grade I winner Sweet Reason (Street Sense) two-three.

Turf Male: The last two years the Turf Male Champion and Horse of the Year has been the now 7-year-old gelding Wise Dan (Wiseman's Ferry), and he should be a nearly unanimous runner-up in this category this year.

But the champion is the 5-year-old gelding Main Sequence (Aldebaran), who became only the fourth horse to have an undefeated season including four Grade I wins, culminating in the Breeders' Cup. The first three were: Personal Ensign 1989, Cigar 1995, and Zenyatta 2009. Graham Motion did a fantastic job with the horse, maybe an Eclipse-winning job himself, and Main Sequence kicked off a double for owner-breeders the Niarchos family's Flaxman Holdings, which has itself only been achieved three times before, and which should earn them consideration in both the Owners and Breeders category. I made their GI Breeders' Cup Mile winner Karakontie (Bernstein), who completed the Niarchos Family's 200-1 double, third in this category.

Turf Female: GI Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf one-two Dayatthespa (City Zip) and Stephanie's Kitten (Kitten's Joy) rank a clear one-two in this category. GI Beverly D. invader Euro Charline (Myboycharlie) for third.

SUMMARY:

2yo Colt: 1-American Pharaoh; 2-Texas Red; 3-Hootenanny

2yo Filly: 1-Take Charge Brandi; 2-Lady Eli; 3-Condo Commando

3yo Male: 1-California Chrome; 2-Bayern; 3-Shared Belief

3yo Filly: 1-Untapable; 2-Lexie Lou; 3-Sweet Reason

Older Male (1m+ Dirt): 1-Palace Malice; 2-Itsmyluckyday; 3-Lea

Older Female (1m+ Dirt): 1-Close Hatches; 2-lotapa; 3-Don't Tell Sophia

Male Sprinter: 1-Goldencents; 2-Work All Week; 3-Private Zone

Female Sprinter: 1-Judy the Beauty; 2-Midnight Lucky; 3-Sweet Reason

Turf Male: 1-Main Sequence; 2-Wise Dan; 3-Karakontie

Turf Female: 1-Dayatthespa; 2-Stephanie's Kitten; 3-Euro Charline

Horse of the Year: 1-Main Sequence; 2-California Chrome; 3-Untapable

A foal of 1993, the Waikato Stud Holdings-bred O'Reilly blossomed into a champion miler, sprinter and Horse of the Year in New Zealand during the 1996-97 season. Trained by Dave O'Sullivan, O'Reilly won his first four starts including the G1 Bayer Classic as a 3-year-old and the G1 Telegraph H. at four. The dark bay also finished second in the G1 Cadbury Australian Guineas before suffering a career-ending injury in the G1 Newmarket H. at Flemington. Retired with four wins from six starts and NZ$268,000 in earnings, O'Reilly took up stallion duties at the Chittick's Waikato Stud.

O'Reilly has won the New Zealand sire championship four times to date in 2007-08, 2011-12, 2012-13, and 2013-14; as well as leading the combined Australian and New Zealand list each of those years, but 2011-12. Champion sire in Hong Kong in 2007-2008, O'Reilly has sired 16 winners at the highest level including New Zealand champions Silent Achiever (NZ), Alamosa (NZ), The Jewel (NZ), Final Destination (NZ) and Shamrock (NZ) among others. To date, O'Reilly has sired 77 stakes winners with earnings over NZ$94,000,000 and sits fourth on the New Zealand sire list.

TDN TOP STORIES OF 2014

TDN COUNTS DOWN THE TOP SHARES OF 2014

All week long, we have been counting down the top shares of 2014, and today, we present number 1, as determined by the number of times TDN readers clicked on the shared link or shared the stories with others, above and beyond the traditional number of PDF downloads.

First, the rest of the top five...

5. Pedigree Insights: California Chrome, by Andrew Caulfield. March 11, 2014 (4,915 shares)
4. Letter to the Editor, by Gretchen Jackson, March 22, 2014 (5,638 shares)
3. Take the Racism Out of the Races, by Ada Limon, April 29, 2014 (6,064 shares)
2. Insanity, Stupidity, Cowardice, Call It What You Want, CHRB's O'Neill Ruling A Farce, October 11, 2014 (7,600 shares).

And the number one shared story of 2014, by more than a 2-1 margin over the runner-up, and with 17,518 shares, was Barry Weisbord's letter from the publisher in the immediate aftermath of the PETA allegations, which appeared in the March 26 TDN.

There's a famous scene in the movie Network where Peter Finch, tired of America's placid acceptance of the status quo, urges people to go to their windows, stick their heads out and shout, "I'm mad as hell, and I'm not going to take this any more."

"We know the air is unfit to breathe and our food is unfit to eat," Finch's character says. "And we sit watching our TVs while some local newscaster tells us that today we had fifteen homicides and sixty-three violent crimes, as if that's the way it's supposed to be." (Youtube:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WINDtIPXmmE>)

Take a moment and imagine his topic is horse racing. If the New York Times is to be believed, every week, 24 horses break down and die on America's racetracks (and if it's not true, it may as well be, since they say it so often). We're told that horses can only manage six starts a year, and can only do so with hundreds of shots and procedures, and that after they can no longer do so at all, there is no retirement waiting for them and oftentimes slaughter is the most humane option.

On top of that, our industry is only able to function because we don't pay the people who care for our horses a standard wage, and we keep them in unfit living and working conditions.

So I've got to tell you, I'm mad as hell. And I'm not going to take this any more.

This isn't the time for a measured response. This isn't the time for model rules. This isn't the time to shoot the messenger, and it's not a time for band aids.

This is a time for a radical change of the way we do business. We cannot come at this with a pop bottle rocket. This is the time for shock and awe.

I have heard a lot of discussion over the past few days about the proper course of action. A lot of well-reasoned and well-intentioned people have talked about incremental change, and withdrawal times and best practices.

And while I think they all mean well, I also respectfully submit that they're falling short of what is needed. Way short.

These are baby steps. What is required right now is for tracks and owners to sit down and write our Declaration of Independence. We declare that we are going to start to conduct our business in a radically different way so that the issues raised in the PETA investigation are no longer on the table in American horse racing: the issues of people abusing their animals and their workers.

Racing cannot continue to simply react to another New York Times article every six months. Rather than continue to stick our finger in the dike one more time, we need a framework to build a business. We need to throw our bad practices in the trash and institute a system that will be the envy of the racing world. Nothing short of that will save the sport. In fact, anything short of it will doom it.

So today, I am proposing the following:

1. A new racing association is created, modeled after the world leader in racing integrity, Hong Kong. It also happens to be the world's most successful. As the old saying goes, you don't have to be the smartest kid in the class if you sit behind him. Conducting your business at this association is a privilege and not a right. Its principles tenets are as follows.

A. The association has the singular right to create, employ, enforce and adjudicate the best practices, just like Hong Kong, and just as the NFL, MLB and the NBA do in America. Chief among these best practices is the well-being of both the horses and the people caring for them. The employees make a living wage and are offered decent, acceptable housing. The horses are taken care of before, during and after their racing careers.

B. Let's end the discussion about 'therapeutic' medications to allow horses to race. All horses must compete free of medication on race day, as they do in most major racing jurisdictions in the world. Medication at other times, when needed, is administered in a controlled and sensible manner by track-employed veterinarians who have their best interests at heart.

C. The racing association owns the pharmacy, and all medications and procedures administered to horses are approved by the track and come only from this pharmacy.

D. Racing will be conducted on a limited, non-year-round basis. Less racing and more high-quality racing will be the principle.

E. Because racing here is a privilege, the association has the right to ban anyone they deem to be a detriment to the sport. We call this the Jeff Gural rule. If people don't do right on the association's grounds, they are no longer welcome there. If a trainer doesn't take care of his horses, or pay his employees fairly, he can go race somewhere else.

2. This new association should be NYRA's next chapter, or a visionary like Frank Stronach could go forward with it at Santa Anita and Gulfstream. New York is one logical starting place, and the money exists to do it right. While others may be invited to join in this new theory and to adopt the same standards and practices, this is not going to be a solution for all of American racing. Others may prefer to continue along the path they're on. We think the free market will prove we're right--that we have made a product that is defensible and sellable.

The racetracks that implement this model will prosper. This model will offer the American public what they have told us time and time again what they want: racing with integrity, without drugs, that you can believe in, and that you feel comfortable betting on. It will give those who participate a sport they can stand behind and be proud of.

For too long, American racing has been the have-nots in the worldwide discussion. People don't want to come race here, and increasingly, they don't want to come buy our bloodstock. And our response has been a pitiful under-reaction of hand-wringing.

We have a chance to vault to the top of the totem pole because we will organize ourselves better than anyone else.

It's time to get mad as hell. Who's with me?

--Barry Weisbord

P.S. While we're at it, let's lose the whips, too.

Successful Inaugural Meeting for Mahoning Valley:

Mahoning Valley Race Course, located in Austintown, Ohio, concluded its inaugural season of Thoroughbred racing Tuesday with its first million-dollar handle. The closing day handle of $1,102,566 pushed the total all-sources handle for the 21-day season to $12,909,041.91, a daily average of $614,716.28. Of that, $688,600 was bet on-track, an average of more than $32,695 per day. "We are pleased with the response from racing fans both locally and nationwide and with the support we received from the horsemen," said Mark Loewe, Vice-President of Ohio Racing for Penn National Gaming. "Mother Nature has been kind to us, we experienced good weather for the majority of the meet, a total of 12 of the 21 racing days featured a fast track, which enabled us to offer big fields and showcase our exciting and competitive brand of racing." The track offered eight races a day and averaged more than 8.6 horses per race. The winter/spring meet kicks off Jan. 5 and runs through Apr. 25.

Southwell Handicap Voided by BHA:

The 32Red Fillies' H. at Southwell Thursday has become the first race to be voided in a new three-month British Horseracing Authority (BHA) trial after attracting just four declarations. The BHA sanctioned the experiment of short-notice race removal from Jan. 1 for races scheduled on the all-weather surfaces if they attract 10 or fewer entries. From eight entries just four remained at the final 48-hour stage--Gay Kelleway's Yojojo (Ire) (Windsor Knot {Ire}), the James Eustace-trained Baine (Ire) (Strategic Prince {GB}), Slinky McVelvet (GB) (Refuse to Bend {Ire}) from Garry Moss' stable and Mick Appleby's Queen Of Skies (Ire) (Shamardal). Speaking when the trial was announced, BHA director of racing Ruth Quinn said, "Short-notice race removal could offer an effective and targeted method of avoiding small-field races being staged, as well as bolstering other races as horses intended for deleted races are hopefully redeployed elsewhere. Communication with horsemen will be the key to the trial being successful and we hope that the protocols put in place will be of assistance to this."

Rothwell Park Draft Withdrawn from Millions:

The seven-strong draft from consignor Rothwell Park has been withdrawn from the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale on veterinary advice, Magic Millions announced Tuesday. "Unfortunately our yearlings have contracted a respiratory infection," Rothwell's Scott and Cathy Irwin said. "We have treated the draft and the horses have responded well. The horses have since shown no signs of ill health, but we have been informed by two vets that there is a small chance the horses could be classed as carriers of this infection for the next 21 days, so we believe it is only fair to all of the other vendors and the sales company itself to leave them at home and re-offer them at a later sale." The sale begins at 11:00 a.m. local time Jan. 7 and runs through Jan. 13.
