OFF THE 'DEC'; INTO THE WINNER'S CIRCLE

A weekend of uncertainty for owner Neville Morgan over whether his 3-year-old colt Kermadec (NZ) (Teofilo {NZ}) would gain a start in the A$3-million G1 Doncaster Mile ended in the best possible way when the bay stormed down the middle of the track yesterday to hand Morgan his second win in the coveted race. Second on the also eligibles, Kermadec had drawn into the field when the race was originally slated for Saturday, but when the skies opened up, causing the postponement of opening day of The Championships, the withdrawals were re-instated and Kermadec was once again on the fringes. Godolphin hope It's Somewhat (Dynaformer) was scratched Monday morning, and trainer Chris Waller withdrew Moriarty (Ire) (Clodovil {Ire}), allowing his other charge a run with the lightest impost in the lineup. Cont. p8

CHAUTAUQUA A GREY BLUR AT RANDWICK

Although twice Group 1-placed since last November, Chautauqua (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}) has boxed along largely in the wings as five-time Group 1 winner Lankan Rupee (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}), Terravista (Aus) (Captain Rio {GB}) and more recently the Royal Ascot-bound Brazen Beau (Aus) (I Am Invincible {Aus}) have battled it out for the title of Australia's best sprinter. That all changed in a shade over 1:11 yesterday, however, when the grey swooped from last over a speed-favoring heavy track to take the A$2.5-million G1 T. J. Smith S., a Win and You're In qualifier for the GI Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint. Dropping back to last, more than 10 lengths off the lead, immediately after the break, Chautauqua and rider Tommy Berry bided their time as Lankan Rupee traveled in third and Terravista was wide in midpack. cont. p9

PEDIGREE INSIGHTS: DORTMUND

There are, of course, many different routes to the GI Kentucky Derby, but which of the numerous trials have proved the most reliable pointers to Derby success over the last 20 years? Well, if you are a fan of Afleet Alex's son Materiality, you will be reassured to know that the GI Florida Derby has been the most dependable, with Thunder Gulch, Monarchos, Barbaro, Big Brown and Orb all going on to success at Churchill Downs.

But which of the Easter weekend's three Grade I contests has proved the most useful stepping stone? Carpe Diem took the GI Toyota Blue Grass S., a race which hasn't been won by a future Kentucky Derby winner since Strike the Gold in 1991. However, the classy son of Giant's Causeway had previously taken the GI Tampa Bay Derby, a race won in 2007 by future Derby hero Street Sense. Cont. p3

The GI Twinspires.com Wood Memorial saw Frosted follow in the footsteps of his illustrious sire Tapit, but you have to go back to 2000 to find a Kentucky Derby winner--International Star's sire Fusaichi Pegasus--on the Wood Memorial's roll of honor.

Then there was the GI Santa Anita Derby, which saw Dortmund extend his unbeaten sequence to six.

Like the Blue Grass, the Santa Anita Derby may have briefly lost some of its relevance as a Kentucky Derby trial by being contested on a synthetic surface for a number of years. However, since Santa Anita's return to dirt it has been won by I'll Have Another in 2012 and California Chrome last year, which surely adds extra strength to Dortmund's already powerful claims.

One would also have thought that it is in Dortmund's favour that he is a son of a Kentucky Derby winner, namely Big Brown, who was winning for the fourth time in as many starts when he took the 2008 Derby.

Unfortunately--as I pointed out in my notes on International Star after his victory in the Gill Risen Star S.--recent history shows that colts with a Kentucky Derby-winning father do not enjoy an advantage on Derby day. Unbridled was the last Kentucky Derby winner to sire a Kentucky Derby winner, thanks to Grindstone in 1996, and you then have to go back to 1984 to find another example--Seattle Slew's short-lived son Swale. Perhaps the time is ripe for another father-and-son success, as the two colts with the most points are both by Derby winners.

The most striking aspect of Dortmund's pedigree is that he is inbred 3x3 to Northern Dancer's wonderful son Danzig, who built the exceptional record of siring 18% black type winners for an Average Earnings Index of 3.93. Altogether Dortmund is inbred 4x4x5x4 to Northern Dancer, with the third line in the fourth generation coming via another brilliant stallion, Nureyev. The career statistics for Nureyev stood at 17% black-type winners and an AEI of 3.49, so this concentration on Northern Dancer is potentially highly potent.

Top-notch winners with 3x3 inbreeding to Danzig are still rare but there has already been a Kentucky Derby winner inbred 4x4 to this legendary Claiborne stallion, namely I'll Have Another. Danzig himself failed to sire a Kentucky Derby winner, even though his sensational first crop contained Stephan's Odyssey and Chief's Crown, second and third behind Spend a Buck in 1985. Danzig did, though, sire Polish Navy, the stallion responsible for the 1993 winner Sea Hero, and he also sired winners of the GI Preakness S. and the GI Belmont S., so his Triple Crown credentials were excellent.

I have to admit that I found it difficult not to visit the sins of Big Brown's trainer upon this son of Boundary. I guess I am not alone in this, as Big Brown's connections were obliged to cut his fee nearly every year, to the extent that it went from $65,000 in 2009 to $10,000 in 2014. Then came the news that Andrew Cohen and Gary Tolchin had acquired a majority interest and were moving 2008's champion 3-year-old colt to Dutchess Views Farm in New York, to stand the 2015 season at $8,500. Of course it isn't too late for the picture to change, as Big Brown has a sizeable team of 2-year-olds following in Dortmund's slipstream this year.

Let's not forget, either, that Big Brown suffered only one defeat in an eight-race career which took in all three legs of the Triple Crown, or that his accumulative winning margin in his first five starts stood at an awe-inspiring 39 lengths. So far his efforts as a stallion haven't been so breathtaking. The bare facts are that Dortmund is the first American graded stakes winner to emerge from Big Brown's first three crops, though he has also been represented by the smart Irish sprinter-miler Darwin, the Japanese Derby third Apollo Sonic and the Brazilian Group 3 winner Big Wildcat.

There may well soon be another graded winner from Big Brown's third crop, as his daughter Puca was runner-up to Condo Commando in Saturday's GII Gazelle S.

Dortmund was conceived when Big Brown's fee stood at $40,000, so it is to be expected that there is no shortage of class in the bottom half of the colt's pedigree.

His dam Our Josephina completed the exacta for Tale of the Cat when she chased home My Trusty Cat in the GIII Chicago Breeders' Cup H. over seven furlongs. She was also a stakes winner over six furlongs. For the record, another good winner out of a Tale of the Cat mare is the GI CCA Oaks winner It's Tricky (by Mineshaft), but most of the graded winners with dams by Tale of the Cat have shown more speed than stamina.

I suppose a record such as Our Josephina's has to raise a doubt or two about Dortmund's ability to shine over an extra furlong at Churchill Downs. Fortunately, he settles well now that he has plenty of experience and he showed no signs of stopping at the end of the Santa Anita Derby.

Dortmund's second dam Ropa Usada was a half-sister to Mogambo, a high-class performer who stayed pretty well for a son of Mr. Prospector.

Mogambo's best effort at two came over a mile, when he took the GI Champagne S., and as a 3-year-old he stayed well enough to finish second to Broad Brush in the Wood Memorial, to Snow Chief in the GII Jersey Derby over a mile and a quarter and to take third place behind Snow Chief in the Florida Derby.

Dortmund's third dam Lakeville Miss was no doubt the source of Mogambo's stamina. She won the CCA Oaks over a mile and a half, despite having been precocious enough to take the title of champion 2-year-old filly. She owed that award to a record of five wins from eight juvenile starts, including Grade I victories in the Matron, Selima and Frizette S. She was clearly not lacking in toughness--a quality Dortmund seems to have inherited in abundance.

Having Blue Prince as her broodmare sire must have helped Lakeville Miss on the stamina front, as this son of Princequillo had contested the Derby and St Leger in England as a 3-year-old and later finished second over two and a half miles in the Gold Cup at Royal Ascot.

It is going to be fascinating to see which of the Baffert pair--Dortmund or American Pharoah--proves the stronger on the first Saturday in May. At the moment, I would probably side with Dortmund, but there are further trials to be run for what promises to be a highly competitive renewal.

MOUNT UP FOR GRABS ON EL KABEIR?

By T.D. Thornton

It happens just about every year leading up to the GI Kentucky Derby: A journeyman jockey has the call on a top-tier horse, but his lack of experience in the Triple Crown classics sparks debate about whether or not the mount should go to a higher-profile rider.

El Kabeir & CC Lopez in the Gotham

This year the uncomfortable spotlight is glaring upon Charles "C.C." Lopez, whose future aboard Wood Memorial third-place finisher El Kabeir (Scat Daddy) is in doubt after principal owner Ahmed Zayat of Zayat Stables LLC took to social media after Saturday's race to engage in some back-and-forth contemplation about the quality of the ride and whether a jockey change is forthcoming.

"Heart says one thing mind says another," Zayat wrote in a series of Twitter posts that have been condensed here for brevity. "I am my own boss. This is not a popularity contest...I love my horses they deserve best chance...Calvin [Borel] was his original jock...We are getting millions of calls for replacement jocks...I need to be comfortable and happy with my OWN actions... I knew what I promised. You can ask Lopez himself. I am a man of my word. No [D]erby promise was [made] that was a [W]ood promise...I have learned in my life that good decisions are not made in haste."

Asked by phone on Monday to clarify whether or not the mount on El Kabeir is considered open, Zayat said he isn't even 100% sure that El Kabeir will be starting in the Derby, let alone who might pilot the $250,000 yearling, who has won three of his last five graded stakes starts.

"I have not made any decisions yet," Zayat told the TDN. "We are blessed by having more than one horse [aiming for the Derby]. So I need to re-examine and see who is going where before making the final determination about A) if El Kabeir is going to be in the Derby, and B) who's going to ride him.

"We know El Kabeir likes Churchill Downs," Zayat continued. "We know he was ridden by Calvin Borel. He has the [Derby qualifying] points and we know the trainer wants to go. So everything is telling us to go, but I have not made that final decision yet."

When asked if he was one of the many jockey agents who has been in touch with Zayat about the mount on El Kabeir, Jerry Hissam, the longtime agent for Borel, said "at this time I don't have a comment on it. Nothing official's been made that I know of."

Borel rode El Kabeir in his breakout win at Churchill in the Nov. 29 Gill Kentucky Jockey Club S.

"I have heard great things about Australia but never had a chance to experience it. After a week in Sydney I now see how healthy the equine culture is here. The pubs have bettors, the race course has fans (mostly young), and the country is beautiful. I am looking forward to experiencing the sale and expect the American involvement to gain momentum."

Bradley Weisbord, US Agent

#BUYAUSTRALIAN

www.aushorse.com.au

He was scheduled to ride the gray in the colt's 3-year-old debut in the Gill Withers Stakes at Aqueduct Jan. 3, but opted off to attend a family funeral.

With numerous top-tier New York riders out of town that day, Lopez picked up the open mount, won, then retained the ride on El Kabeir for the Withers (second), Gotham Stakes (another win) and GI Wood, where an attempt to rate from last into a tepid pace might have cost El Kabeir a better placing.

Zayat said regardless of the jockey, he's not looking for a radical change of riding strategy if El Kabeir enters the Derby.

"The horse is very versatile," Zayat said. "He can do anything. He can lead, he can sit, he can close. When you have a 20-horse field, it's very hard to project anything right now."

Hissam said that even if he does get offered the mount by anyone from El Kabeir's camp, any decision on accepting it would have to wait until after the running of Saturday's GI Arkansas Derby at Oaklawn Park.

"We have to face [Zayat's] other horse [American Pharoah (Pioneerof the Nile)] with a horse called The Truth or Else (Yes It's True) for Kenny McPeck. I just wouldn't commit myself to anything until after [the Arkansas Derby]."

Asked if being inundated with calls from agents was a sign that his comments were being blown out of proportion, Zayat said no, that the interest and intense scrutiny are part of the Derby experience. cont. p7

"I'm not so sure it's out of proportion," Zayat said. "I think once people see a horse that has been doing really well and that they've seen that we were not happy with the ride, that's the nature of the business, that people will try to get a Derby mount. It's kind of normal. We expect that to happen."

UNTABLED DRILLS FOR APPLE BLOSSOM

Untapable (Tapit) tuned up for an expected start in Friday's GI Apple Blossom S. with a bullet four-furlong work in :48 at Oaklawn Monday. Clockers caught Untapable's final quarter-mile in :23 and she galloped out five furlongs in 1:01.40.

Trainer Steve Asmussen said he will confer with owner Ron Winchell before a final decision on the Apple Blossom is made.

"I thought she went beautiful," Asmussen said. "It looks like all systems go."

Last year's champion 3-year-old filly,

Untapable was second behind Gold Medal Dancer (Medaglia d'Oro) while making her 2015 debut in the Mar. 14 GII Azeri S.

Also working from the Asmussen barn at Oaklawn Monday was Tapiture (Tapit), possible for Saturday's GII Oaklawn H. The 4-year-old, who was most recently fifth in the Mar. 14 GIII Razorback H. breezed a half-mile in :50. Stablemate and multiple stakes winner Bayard (Speightstown), who worked three furlongs at Oaklawn Monday in :37.60, is scheduled to go postward in Friday's Bachelor S.

BOLD CONQUEST READIES FOR AR DERBY

Ackerley Brothers Farm's Bold Conquest (Curlin), looking to improve on a third-place finish behind American Pharoah (Pioneerof the Nile) in the Mar. 14 GII Rebel S. in Saturday's GI Arkansas Derby, worked four furlongs at Oaklawn Park Monday in :48.60. He galloped out five furlongs in 1:01.80.

"He's doing extremely well," trainer Steve Asmussen said. "We lucked out with the racetrack today. I was very concerned with all the rain in the area, but it was a good track again this morning. His last two works have been the two best works of the year. It's a good time to be doing so."

A maiden winner at Saratoga last August, Bold Conquest was a narrowly beaten runner-up in the GIII Iroquois S. before ending his juvenile campaign with a third-place effort behind Carpe Diem (Giant's Causeway) in the GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity. He opened 2015 with a fourth-place finish in the Feb. 22 GIII Southwest S. He was 8 3/4 lengths adrift of American Pharoah in the Rebel.

Bold Conquest's third dam is the Ackerley Brothers' multiple Grade I winner Jersey Girl (Belong to Me), who won the 1998 GI Mother Goose S., GI Test S. and GI Acorn S.

Also working towards the Arkansas Derby, Zayat Stables' Mr. Z (Malibu Moon) went four furlongs in company at Oaklawn Monday in :48.20. Coming off a last-place effort in the Mar. 28 GII Louisiana Derby, the well-travelled chestnut colt will be attempting to earn a spot in the GI Kentucky Derby Saturday.

"I think he's still on the radar for the Derby," trainer D. Wayne Lukas commented Monday. "If he were to run in the first three, or something like that, he would earn a spot. That's the other side of the coin."

Mr. Z currently ranks 30th on the Derby qualifications list. Zayat Stables will also be represented by juvenile champion American Pharoah in the Arkansas Derby.

LADY ELI ON TRACK FOR 2015 DEBUT

Lady Eli (Divine Park), scheduled to make her 2015 debut in Sunday's GIII Appalachian S. at Keeneland, worked five furlongs over a yielding turf course in 1:04.80 in Lexington Monday. "She looked really good," trainer Chad Brown said. "She worked fabulous, so she's ready to go for Sunday." Unbeaten in three starts, Lady Eli has been off since winning last year's GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf. According to Brown, the sophomore filly spent a "quiet winter down in Florida." He added, "We gave her some time off. We gradually started to pick up her training at Palm Meadows, and she's picked it up nicely each week."

OPTIONS OPEN FOR PEACE AND WAR

A well-beaten effort in Saturday's GI Central Bank Ashland S. will likely preclude Qatar Racing's Peace and War (War Front) from the May 1 GI Kentucky Oaks, but trainer Olly Stevens still hopes the filly will start at Churchill that day.

"She will stay [at Keeneland] for now and probably have a work in about 10 days," Stevens said. "We will discuss our options with [Churchill racing secretary] Ben [Huffman] for Oaks Week. She showed a lot of speed [in the Ashland], so the [May 1 GIII] Eight Belles is an option and maybe the [GIII] Edgewood, which is the same day."

The Eight Belles is at seven furlongs on the main track, while the Edgewood is run at 1 1/16 miles over the turf.

Of Peace and War's effort Saturday, Stevens said, "I knew she was in trouble at the three-eighths pole. I hate to admit it, but I probably should have done more with her and waited two weeks. That is why those guys that have been doing it for 50 years have got it down pretty good."

Peace and War was making her first start Saturday since winning the GI Darley Alcibiades S. at Keeneland last fall.

Breaking from barrier 19 in the capacity field of 20, Kermadec and jockey Glen Boss traveled wide in the second half of the field as longshot Ninth Legion (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) carved out the pace and Japan's Real Impact (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}), winner of the G1 George Ryder S. first-up Mar. 21, stalked the leaders in third. Real Impact hit the lead at the top of the lane, but Kermadec found a seam at the 150-meter mark and burst through, drawing clear to score comfortably from the Japanese raider.

Kermadec's stablemate, the 2013 G1 Australian Oaks heroine Royal Descent (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}), made an eye-catching run up the middle of the track to grab third, her fifth Group 1 placing since her Classic score. cont. p9

It is the second Doncaster Mile win for Morgan, who was also victorious with the Waller-trained Rangirangdoo (NZ) (Pentire {GB}) in 2010; the fifth Doncaster for Waller and the sixth for Boss. Morgan revealed that he was preparing to tee up in Queensland when he got the call at 7:30 a.m. that his horse had drawn in.

"We were in our golf gear when the call came and then booked the plane tickets [and flew down to Sydney]," he said. "We weren't taking anything for granted. It is worth it now. You wouldn't miss this."

Kermadec didn't see the racetrack as a juvenile, but has certainly made up for lost time. He won first-up going seven furlongs at Warwick Farm Sept. 29 and, after finishing second in a benchmark 73 contest over this track and trip, he earned his first stakes score in his black-type bow in the G3 Carbine Club S. going a mile at Flemington at the Melbourne Cup Carnival Nov. 1.

A summer holiday ensued, and Kermadec was fourth when returning over 1200 meters in the G3 Eskimo Prince S. at Rosehill Feb. 7. Third behind the dual Group 1 winner Hallowed Crown (Aus) (Street Sense) and another of Monday's opponents in Sweynesse (Aus) (Lonhro {Aus}) in the G2 Hobartville S. two weeks later, Kermadec returned to Victoria to be beaten less than 1 1/2 lengths after a troubled trip in the G1 Australian Guineas Mar. 7.

Making his fourth start in six weeks in the George Ryder two weeks ago, Kermadec was a fast-finishing third behind Real Impact.

Asked about his colt's lack of luck prior to Monday, Waller said, "He's a Group 1 horse and he obviously proved that today. It's irrelevant now, though--he's won his race now and being a colt, he's obviously got a very bright future."

Boss said this win is possibly the best of his six in the Doncaster.

"I'm really lost for words right now--this one is probably the most special one," he said. "I was given the opportunity to ride a beautiful colt. From the time I got on his back in the enclosure, I felt very confident. He just came out here with a bit of a swagger about him. He just oozes sexy class this horse--it's amazing that he doesn't have a better record than he has because he just gave me an amazing feel there when he let go."

Boss noted Kermadec's bravery helped him create his own luck Monday. "For a colt, he is very brave. I was galloping where there was no room, we were pushing through gaps. He was brave enough to do it for me. That was a soft victory. He's a very, very good colt."

Kermadec becomes the seventh Group 1 winner for Teofilo (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and the second Down Under. CLICK HERE TO SHARE THIS STORY

Longshot Lord of the Sky (Aus) (Danerich {Aus}) grabbed the lead approaching the 200-meter mark as Lankan Rupee failed to respond to the whip on the inside and Chautauqua drew even with a rallying Terravista out wide. The grey quickly put Terravista away and got up just in time to nail Lord of the Sky on the wire. Terravista stuck on for third, and Lankan Rupee beat just one home.

Co-trainer Michael Hawkes had no reservations in proclaiming his charge not only the best sprinter in the land, but on the globe.

"We all know who is the best sprinter in the world now," Hawkes said. "He is a super horse, has been knocking on the door and has been unlucky in his last couple of runs--you just have to have a bit of luck on the right day."

Hawkes also paid credit to the cool ride delivered by Berry.

"I have to give credit to Tommy Berry--he jumped out and got a fair way back, but never panicked; he just got the break and he knew what he was on."

An A$300,000 buyback at the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale three years ago, Chautauqua got off the mark at third asking going this distance at Geelong a little over a year ago. Second in the Listed Gosford Guineas in his black-type bow next out, he was seventh in the G2 Royal Sovereign S. over this track and trip two weeks later and has been worse than second just once since. He rebounded to take the 1400-meter G3 Hawkesbury Guineas a further two weeks later, and slipped to fifth in Scone's Inglis 3YO Guineas to close out his sophomore campaign last May.

Chautauqua kicked off his 4-year-old campaign with a pair of wins going 1200 meters at Flemington last spring, in the G3 Bobbie Lewis Quality and G2 Gilgai S., and finished a narrowly beaten second, between Terravista and Lankan Rupee, in his Group 1 debut in the Darley Classic Nov. 8. Put away for a summer holiday thereafter, Chautauqua took Caulfield's G2 Rubiton S. on seasonal debut Feb. 14, and was once again second at the highest level a month later in the G1 Newmarket H., this time behind Brazen Beau, with Lankan Rupee--who had kicked off his season with a win in the G1 Lightning S. over Brazen Beau--again in third and Lord of the Sky (Aus) (Danerich {Aus}) in fourth.

Chautauqua was ridden by Tommy Berry for the first time Monday. "I didn't know whether I'd won it or not so I went back to check the photo as quick as I could," Berry said. "I was in an awkward spot coming to the corner. I just let him relax and come around them. He added, "It was a hard-run race--I didn't see much happening in front of me. So I just bided my time. It's nice when they let down like that. He's a super horse. How often do you get chances to ride sprinters like this for the first time?"

Defending race winner Lankan Rupee, who had emerged from last month's Newmarket with sore muscles and stifle issues, recorded the worst finish of his career in ninth.

"Very disappointing--he needs to go to the paddock and start again," said jockey Craig Newitt.

KHAN THE KING OF AUSTRALIAN DERBY

Two days after its original start date, the G1 Australian Derby finally got underway Monday at Randwick with persistent rain ensuring the 2400-meter contest was a true test of stamina. One horse already proven over the trip was Mongolian Khan (NZ) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}), and he clinched his second Derby with a gritty victory over Hauraki (Aus) (Reset {Aus}), who just got the better of Volkstok'n'barrell (NZ) (Tavistock {NZ}) for second. Breaking smartly from an inside draw under jockey Opie Bosson, Mongolian Khan had a great position throughout the contest as Hampton Court (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}) led at a stop-start pace. Approaching the straight as the leaders began to bunch up, Volkstok'n'barrell got a dream run up the inside rail and looked a likely winner. But he was soon tackled by both Hauraki and Mongolian Khan as Omeros (Aus) (High Chaparral) blew his chance by hanging violently across the track. Once Bosson got serious with his mount, he responded generously, and Mongolian Khan galloped on strongly to the line to win by a length and give trainer Murray Baker his third victory in the BMW sponsored event.

Mongolian Khan

"He jumped, got himself into the race and travelled beautifully throughout," Bosson said.

Those thoughts were echoed by trainer Murray Baker, who did a fine job in producing the horse in such good shape after a disappointing run in the G1 Rosehill Guineas in his Australian bow Mar. 21. Baker credited a spell swimming with helping bring the horse back to peak, and the long-term target is Melbourne with a horse Baker describes as "a real [2400-meters] horse who keeps going at the one speed--which is quite fast."

Ten for 11 in his native New Zealand, including the G1 NZ Derby over Volkstok'n'barrell Feb. 28, Mongolian Khan was a well-beaten fifth behind that rival when making his first start in Australia in the 2000-meter G1 Rosehill Guineas two weeks ago, but he appeared much more at home yesterday and was able to turn the tables on that rival. Baker said he thinks Mongolian Khan would be well-suited to the G1 Caulfield Cup, but appeared cautious when asked about the horse's chances of staying the 3200-meter trip of the G1 Melbourne Cup, a race the owner is keen to take in.

Mongolian Khan was bred by Grenville Stud and is by Coolmore stallion Holy Roman Emperor (Ire) (Danehill), who would not be considered a renowned stamina influence. Despite this, Mongolian Khan is his second Derby winner, following the victory of Designs On Rome (Ire) in last year's Hong Kong Derby at Sha Tin. Holy Roman Emperor himself was a top-class 2-year-old, winning twice at Group 1 level at both six and seven furlongs when trained in Ireland by Aidan O'Brien. He didn't race as a 3-year-old, however, as he was snapped up prematurely for stud duties by Coolmore due to fertility problems with another of their Danehill sons in George Washington (Ire). Holy Roman Emperor's progeny have been particularly successful in Hong Kong, where in addition to Horse of the Year Designs on Rome, his sons Rich Tapestry (Ire) and Charles The Great (Ire) are also multiple stakes winners.

Mongolian Khan is owned by Inner Mongolia Rider Horse Industry, an organization founded in 2006 by entrepreneur Lang Ling that advertises itself as the largest non-farming horse breeder and feedstock trader in China.

Immediately after Pride Of Dubai (Aus) opened his account in the G1 Blue Diamond S. Feb. 28, trainers Peter and Paul Snowden had suggested the Sheikh Mohammed bin Khalifa Al Maktoum homebred would bypass Australia's richest juvenile contest, the 1200-meter G1 Golden Slipper, in favor of the G1 Sires' Produce S. where they felt the extra furlong would suit him. The father-and-son combination stuck to their decision when the colt gained new connections, including Coolmore and the China Horse Club, and their masterplan came to awesome fruition Monday when Pride Of Dubai became the first horse to complete the Blue Diamond-Sires' Produce double.

Halfway through the race, however, things were not going according to plan. The strapping bay, who had come from the back of the field in all his previous starts, found himself trapped four wide without cover and seemed to over-race badly under Hugh Bowman.

Pride Of Dubai
Racing and Sports

Sent for the lead at the top of the lane, he was clearly headed by fellow Sheikh Khalifa colorbearer Rageese (Aus) passing the 200-meter mark, but digging deep, he fought back gamely and pulled clear to score by three-quarters of a length. Rageese and Odyssey Moon (Aus), who had less than a length between them in the G2 Pago Pago S. Mar. 14, dead-heated for second.

"I must admit I was very worried halfway through the race, when he was four deep and over racing," said Paul Snowden. "He has never done that before, but he was true to his word and carried on where he left off in the Blue Diamond. He is a really exciting colt going forward and there is plenty of upside to him." Drawing comparison with one of the best horses he was associated with during his days with John Hawkes, Snowden continued, "I've been lucky enough to be in a situation where I've worked with some very good horses and this is what good 2-year-olds do, they do things they shouldn't be doing and they do them with ease. Octagonal was never a 2-year-old, but he almost won a Golden Slipper. I'm not saying this horse is in that category yet, but he's doing things that he shouldn't be doing. He should have got beat today the way he raced and where he was in the run, but he showed some championship qualities and pulled out plenty at the end."

Bowman, who was winning his first Sires' Produce, also lauded his mount's tenacity, saying, "Full credit to him, he had to do it the hard way. He's an exciting horse going towards the Champagne S., but wait til you see him as a 3 year-old."

China Horse Club manager Teo Ah Khing indicated after the race that the decision whether or not to press on to the G1 Champagne S. would be made in concert with the colt's other owners.

Raised at Coolmore's Hunter Valley property, where he will ultimately take up stud duties, Pride Of Dubai is out of the stakes-placed Al Anood (Aus) (Danehill). She is beautifully bred, being a half-sister to the G1 Prix de Diane heroine Rafha (GB) (Kris {GB}), who went on to produce the leading sires Invincible Spirit (Ire) (Green Desert) and Kodiak (GB) (Danehill).

INGLIS AUSTRALIAN EASTER YEARLING SALE DAY TWO

220, f, More Than Ready--Tahni Girl (Aus), by Redoute's Choice (Aus)

Consigned by Tyreel Stud

This dark bay is the fifth foal from the Group 3-winning Tahni Girl, making her a half-sister to Group 3 winner Maschino (Aus) (Encosta de Lago {Aus}) and a pair of stakes-placed winners. Her second dam is the triple New Zealand Group 1 winner Ballroom Babe (NZ) (Citidancer {Ire}). Tahni Girl's 2-year-old High Chaparral (Ire) colt was purchased by Big Red Farm for A$325,000 in this ring last year.

245, c, Fastnet Rock (Aus)--Vormista (Aus), by Testa Rossa (Aus)

Consigned by Kitchwin Hills

The progeny of the Group 2 winner and multiple Group 1-placed Vormista have been popular commodities at this sale the last two years: a filly by Redoute's Choice made A$900,000 from James Harron Bloodstock in 2013, and that youngster's full-sister fetched A$600,000 from Shadwell Australasia 12 months ago. Now named Reemah (Aus), the latter has finished second in the G1 Blue Diamond S. since the catalogue was printed.

251, c, Fastnet Rock (Aus)--Wiener (Aus), by More Than Ready

Consigned by Kitchwin Hills

This October-foaled bay could bring up a big double for Kitchwin Hills and his sire, and he has a sire's pedigree: his stakes-placed dam is a half-sister to leading sire Snitzel (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}); Hinchinbrook (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), currently third on Australia's first-season sire table; and the Group 3-winning filly Viennese (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}). Wiener's four foals to be offered at auction have averaged almost A$650,000, including a Redoute's Choice (Aus) colt purchased here by Gai Waterhouse last year for Pierro's owners Greg and Donna Kolivos.

255, c, Fastnet Rock (Aus)--Zarzuela (NZ), by Zabeel (NZ)

Consigned by Trelawney Stud

Shadwell Australia spent A$720,000 on Zarzuela's first foal, a colt by Redoute's Choice (Aus), at this sale two years ago, and that colt has since won for trainer Mike de Kock in South Africa.

Zarzuela was a three-time group winner in New Zealand, and the appeal continues down the page: her dam was a champion and Group 1 winner in New Zealand and has also produced the talented G2 Silver Slipper S. victress Satin Shoes (Aus) (Flying Spur {Aus}).

264, c, Snitzel (Aus)--Admirelle (Aus), by General Nediym (Aus)

Consigned by Milburn Creek

This son of hot sire Snitzel counts Group 1 winner Sizzling (Aus) as a full-brother. They are out of the stakes-placed Admirelle, and their second dam, Laudemio (Aus) (Alzao), was a Group 3 winner.

271, c, Snitzel (Aus)--Alinghi (Aus), by Encosta De Lago (Aus)

Consigned by Arrowfield Stud

This August-foaled bay is expected to bring up a big afternoon for his sire. He is the fourth foal out of the Australian champion and four-time Group 1 winner Alinghi, and the first to be offered at auction. The colt also boasts a stallion's pedigree; Alinghi is a full-sister to the dam of this season's runaway leading first-season sire Beneteau (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}).

283, c, Sepoy (Aus)--Ancient Song (Aus), by Canny Lad

Consigned by Turangga Farm

Another offering by the exciting young sire Sepoy (Aus), whose A$1.2 million colt set a record for a first-season sire on the Gold Coast in January, this chestnut is out of the Group 1-winning Ancient Song, who has produced a stakes winner in Tampiko (Aus) (Lonhro {Aus}). It is also the family of last year's G1 Victoria Derby winner Preferment (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}).

300, c, Fastnet Rock (Aus)--Banc de Fortune (Aus), by Galileo (Ire)

Consigned by Kia Ora Stud

This son of champion sire Fastnet Rock hails from a highly successful Australian family. He is a son of the stakes-winning Banc de Fortune, and has a stakes-winning full-brother in Eagle Island (Aus). His second dam, Danendri (Aus) (Danehill), won the G1 Australian Oaks and G1 Australia S., and she also produced the Group 3-winning Zingam (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}) as well as the dam of champion 3-year-old filly and dual Group 1 winner Faint Perfume (Aus) (Shamardal). Banc de Fortune's three yearlings--all Fastnet Rock colts--to be offered at Easter have all been purchased by James Bester for six figures, the highest being a A$575,000 youngster in 2011, and last year that agent secured another colt for A$300,000. cont. p14

304, c, Street Cry \(Ire\)--Believe'n'succeed (Aus), by Exceed and Excel (Aus)Consigned by Attunga Stud*

The late Street Cry, sire of a G1 Melbourne Cup and G1 Caulfield Guineas winner, added a new dimension to his Australian resume in February when his son Pride of Dubai (Aus) took out of the G1 Blue Diamond S. for precocious juveniles. This youngster's dam, Believe'n'succeed, was equally precocious, having won the G3 Blue Diamond Prelude and finished fourth in the main event. Believe'n'succeed has already produced the champion New Zealand sprinter Bounding (Aus) (Lonhro), a A$425,000 Easter yearling, and she is also a full-sister to the Group 2-winning Kuroshio (Aus), now a young sire at Darley. This colt's third dam is the GI Test S. and GI Alabama S. winner November Snow (Storm Cat), who also produced the dam of GI Carter H. winner and young Lane's End sire Morning Line (Tiznow).

This October-foaled bay will boast plenty of appeal for the American shoppers in town. By champion sire Fastnet Rock, she is out of the winning Candlelight, a half-sister to successful sire Grand Slam (Gone West) and stakes winner and sire Leestown (Seattle Slew). This filly's second and third dams were both stakes winners in the U.S. Candlelight was an $875,000 purchase at Keeneland November in 2009, and she has produced two winners in France and Britain.

This year's Australian yearling sales have included the first offerings by the 10-time Australian and European Group 1 winner So You Think, and this colt received a timely update last month when his half-sister Cosmic Endeavour (Aus) (Northern Meteor {Aus}) took out her second Group 1 in the Canterbury S. This dark bay's second dam is the Group 2 winner Twiglet (Aus) (Twig Moss {Fr}), who is best known as the dam of Hong Kong Horse of the Year and multiple champion Fairy King Prawn (Aus) (Danehill), a graduate of this sale in 1997, and G1 Salinger S. winner Easy Rocking (Aus) (Barathea {Ire}). The stakes-winning Crevette had a Lonhro (Aus) filly sell to Darley for A$220,000 here last year.

formative career to hit the heights during the 2013 season when rattling off a trio of fast-ground successes in the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup, G1 Prince of Wales's S. and G1 Eclipse S., he had been retired at the end of that term, but became another subfertile stallion and was returned to his Beckhampton stable from the Royal Stud at Sandringham. Taking time to regain his momentum last season, his appetite for racing proved undimmed and, when eventually honed to his prior physical peak, ended up pushing Noble Mission (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) to his limit up on Champions' Day.

Despite connections expecting cobwebs on this comeback, he was positively ridden by Ryan Moore and was soon racing in a close-up second.

Shaken up approaching the final quarter-mile, he gained the lead shortly after and dug in as Affaire Solitaire (Ire) threatened to assert from that rival and the strong-finishing mare Fate (Fr).

"I'm so proud of this horse, with everything that has happened to him from his broken pelvis to coming back from stud, and he's still the same," his conditioner commented. "He's a good horse and Ryan said he was a gentleman and did everything asked of him. It is unusual for us to have a winner so early on in the season and he was 18kg heavier than he was when he came here for the Arc in October, so there is room for improvement and I'd like to come back for the [May 3] G1 Prix Ganay."

For those perusing the form ahead of this early Derby trial, there was very little to go on regarding

Silverwave
Scoop Dyga

Silverwave, but the unbeaten bay emerged as yet another provincial gem as he inflicted a heavy first defeat on last year's G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud hero Epicuris (GB). Nursed through two outings on the Viscoride surface at Pornichet-la-Baule in October and November, his light was hardly hidden under a bushel as he went on to set a new Arqana Autumn Sale record at €420,000, with Hspirit of Spritjim (Fr) fame stepping in to secure him.

Visually impressive when scoring by seven lengths in his new pink silks on his return in a 10-furlong conditions event over this trip at Angers Mar. 15, he received a boost when the runner-up was beaten by much less a margin by the highly regarded Fabre trainee Eternal (GB) (New Approach {Ire}) at Saint-Cloud last week. Keen initially with just the same owner's Jules et Jim (GB) (Teofilo {Ire}) anchored behind as the favorite set off in his customary front-running fashion, Silverwave was asked to close by Adrien Fouassier on the home turn. Responding to a smack at the quarter pole to arrive at that rival's side soon after, he kicked ahead for another slap approaching the furlong pole and surged away for an emphatic success.

For trainer Alain Couetil, the result was a personal triumph and a significant shot in the arm for his establishment at Senonnes. "This is a good horse and I was lucky to keep him last year after he went to the sales," he said. "He had an ideal preparation in the provinces and was fit and ready. With the traveling between the west of France and here and the timing between races, I'm not sure if he will run again until the G1 Prix du Jockey Club [at Chantilly May 31]." Epicuris' conditioner Criquette Head-Maarek added, "He needed the run and never had a chance to relax with being pressed from the front. He was trying to do everything on one breath, so has run a good race and will improve. We haven't decided yet where he will run next."

In 2012, the 52-year-old fund manager lost his father, Peter, to pancreatic cancer, which proved the catalyst for his charity mission, now known as Walking The Courses. He said, "I got my love of racing from my father. He was a stable lad in Newmarket for Cecil Boyd-Rochfort and later worked at Plantation Stud and Sledmere Stud--in fact, the first horse he ever foaled turned out to be St Paddy, who won the Derby."

"When he died I was almost 50 and I thought I ought to try to do something meaningful to raise money for charity," Farquhar added. "A friend rang me and told me he'd just visited Great Leighs racecourse [now Chelmsford City], which meant that he had been to every racecourse in the country. I realized I'd only been to about half the tracks and it sparked an idea in my mind."

Over the coming year, Farquhar will walk to all 60 racecourses in Britain to raise money for the charities Pancreatic Cancer UK and Racing Welfare. His journey has been planned with military precision by one of his four daughters, Minty, who is acting as campaign co-ordinator and publicist. Farquhar plans to end each leg of his tour at a racecourse on a raceday and will complete a lap of the track in company with jockeys, owners and trainers. Stage one, a 67-mile stint from Newmarket to Towcester, has already been completed, with the country jumps track having run the Walking The Courses Novice Hurdle in honor of the project. The extent to which the racing community in Britain has got behind Farquhar in his fundraising effort has been evident early on, with winning trainer Nicky Henderson having donated his Towcester prizemoney to the cause.

With the seed of an idea having been planted, the death last year of trainer John Hills, also from pancreatic cancer, spurred Farquhar into action. He recalled, "I only knew John to nod across the paddock to him but I know everyone adored him and he was my age, with four daughters like me, two of whom were at the same school as Minty. When I saw the way that people clearly felt about John, I thought this idea would touch a nerve and receive support from the racing community. Then tragically Dessie Hughes died in November, again from pancreatic cancer, and I felt I had to get on and do this."

Prior to setting off from the Rowley Mile at midday on Mar. 20, Farquhar was joined by raft of Newmarket well-wishers that included Hills' brother Michael, jockeys Frankie Dettori and Jimmy Quinn, and trainers John Gosden and Lady Jane Cecil.

A RACING MAN'S QUEST IN HIS FATHER'S MEMORY

Plenty of fans make a pilgrimage to British racing's headquarters at Newmarket, but for Richard Farquhar, what started as enjoyable regular visits with his father has become a 2,750-mile quest that began last week at the Rowley Mile and will end at next year's Craven Meeting.

What he is particularly looking forward to is people joining him en route. He said, "I'm very keen for anyone to come and walk parts of the route with me, and for people to join in at the racecourses as I complete each stage."

Minty Farquhar has worked full-time on the project since October and her liaison with racecourses has resulted in many of them running specially named races for the day of her father's visit.

"The whole of racing has really been so supportive, we're quite overwhelmed," he said.

The fund-raising tally climbs higher with each passing day, with the total at the time of writing, as Farquhar sets out on the second leg of his journey, being just shy of £50,000.

Walking The Courses has been dedicated to the memory of Peter Farquhar, giving his son an even greater determination to complete the epic journey than just for fundraising alone. Having attended Newmarket's Craven meeting for 26 years running with his father, Farquhar's concluding stage of the quest will almost certainly carry with it a mixture of emotions.

Emma Berry

"Part of my 21st birthday present from my father was a trip to the Craven meeting and we had the most brilliant day and then made it an annual event--it was a bit of a pilgrimage," he said. "It felt right to start at Newmarket because it's the home of racing and I wanted to end at the Craven as it's a meeting that is incredibly close to my heart, for obvious reasons."

WEAVER BARN FULL OF SOPHOMORE TALENT

by Ben Massam

Trainer George Weaver is perennially a prominent name on the East Coast racing scene, but this spring is a bit busier than usual for the Louisville native.

With a number of intriguing 3-year-old prospects divided between three strings, the trainer acknowledged that he has much to look forward to in the coming months. He already received a fair dose of excitement Saturday when Tencendur (Warrior's Reward) took control of Aqueduct's GI Twinspires.com

Tencendur (center) turns for home

Wood Memorial S. entering the stretch and held on to be second behind Frosted (Tapit) at odds of 21-1.

Weaver said he was thrilled--but not entirely surprised--by the effort from his New York-bred charge, who is a homebred for owner Philip Birsh.

"We were really excited about the performance," said Weaver. "He had been running in the series up at Aqueduct, and we had been thinking all along that he was capable of better."

Now that Tencendur has demonstrated that he can compete at a high level and has qualified for the GI Kentucky Derby, Weaver revealed that he intends to bring the colt to Churchill Downs for the May 2 event.

"If he continues to do well--and it looks like he came out of it well--we'll probably take him to the Derby," he noted. "It's an exciting thing for the whole barn, in general."

Meanwhile, Weaver also has a number of runners who demonstrated considerable talent during their juvenile campaigns nearing a return to the races.

Matthew Schera's Cyclogensis (Stormy Atlantic) is unbeaten in two starts, having annexed a pair of 5 1/2-furlong turf events in 2014. Sidelined since a dominant win in the Sept. 27 Laurel Futurity, the grey posted his first official workout Monday morning at Palm Beach Downs--a three-furlong move in :37.19.

"He had a couple of works in Ocala and [Monday] was the first work I had with him," said the trainer. "Obviously, we want to build on what he did as a 2-year-old. Unless he jumps up and looks like he wants to run on the dirt, we'll probably try to sprint him on the turf first time back. If we get back on a winning schedule and go from there, maybe we can branch out and try him on a different surface after that. The horse looks like he came back well."

Like his stablemate, Requite (Warrior's Reward) has not raced since last September. The colt, owned by Bermuda Limestone Thoroughbreds, won at first asking at Saratoga Aug. 9 and wrapped up his two-start campaign with a fourth-place finish in the GI Hopeful S. Sept. 1. The bay has posted four recent workouts at Palm Beach Downs.

"He's coming back well," Weaver explained. "He was a little slow to come back to where we want him, but his last couple weeks have been his best couple of weeks. I'm going to work him [Tuesday] and he should be coming up to a start fairly quickly as well."

Weaver added that he also has lofty hopes for another sophomore in his barn, High Noon Rider (Distorted Humor). Well-beaten in the GI Holy Bull S. and Islamorada H. on dirt earlier in the Gulfstream Park meet, the colt recently showed marked improvement with a second-place run in that venue's Cutler Bay S. over one mile on the turf Apr. 1.

"He just didn't like the 1 1/8 miles on the dirt--we were trying to see if he could lead us to the Derby trail and be that type of horse," Weaver admitted. "We put him back on the grass recently, and I do like [him] quite a bit. It would not surprise me if he jumped up later in the year and did something."

While Weaver currently has strings based at Palm Beach Downs, Keeneland and Belmont Park, the conditioner noted that his runners will return to New York by mid-May.

Josh Groban to Sing National Anthem at Kentucky Derby:

Award-winning performer Josh Groban will sing the National Anthem at this year's GI Kentucky Derby, Churchill Downs has announced. "We are thrilled to welcome Josh Groban to perform at the Kentucky Derby," said Kevin Flanery, President of Churchill Downs Racetrack. "The Kentucky Derby is one of the world's most exciting events in sports, fashion, celebrity and tradition, so we are delighted to have this celebrated artist perform our national anthem for the millions of fans across the globe who watch the Kentucky Derby."

KY Thoroughbred Association to Host Derby Trainer's Dinner:

The annual Kentucky Derby Trainers' Dinner will be held Apr. 28 at the Hyatt Regency in Louisville. The event, which features cocktails and dinner, will be emceed by Jill Byrne and Paul Rogers. Trainer Art Sherman will be this year's honored guest. "It is a fun evening with a relaxed format and the trainers are in a room of their peers," said co-host Rogers. "Most importantly, since we do have a room full of busy horsemen, we make sure to have things wrapped up by 9 p.m." For more information or to purchase tickets, contact Vickie Garcia at 859-259-1643.

ELEKTRUM (IRE) (f, 4, High Chaparral {Ire}--Carolines Secret {GB} {GSP-ITY}, by Inchinor {GB}) began her career competing in France and Italy for owner Scuderia Magenta and trainer Giuseppe Botti, winning twice from ten starts. She graduated in her sixth career appearance going one mile over the lawn at Saint-Cloud in April 2014, and two starts later checked in fifth in the G2 Premio Oaks d'Italia at San Siro May 25. The Irish-bred added a second tally in a 10-furlong Lion d'Angers allowance contest June 14, and concluded her European campaign with a third-place effort over 1 1/2 miles in Longchamp's Prix de Thiberville July 13. Privately purchased by her new connections and transported to America following that effort, the bay added Lasix and rallied to be second by a half-length behind MSP Gender Agenda (GB) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) in a grassy one-mile optional claimer here Feb. 1--her first start in over six months. Most recently a troubled second again over that same local trip Feb. 26, Elektrum was hammered down to even-money favoritism for this third American try. Assuming position at the rear of the pack soon after the start, the 4-year-old continued to race last of 11 from the three path as the leaders completed six furlongs in 1:12.09. She picked up the running soon after that juncture, unleashing a powerful five-wide rally turning for home and getting up in the final strides to win by a half-length. MADIBA (c, 3, Candy Ride {Arg}--Flying Dixie, by Dixieland Band), a $700,000 KEESEP yearling purchase, rallied to be second on debut sprinting six panels over the Polytrack at Del Mar Aug. 24, and followed with a third-place run over 6 1/2 furlongs at Santa Anita Sept. 27. Adding blinkers for a try at 1 1/16 miles there Oct. 26, he finished a non-threatening seventh and was sent to the sidelines for the remainder of 2014 after that effort. The dark bay easily annexed his Feb. 28 trip-and-track seasonal debut, delivering as the heavy favorite in a 2 1/4-length victory over two subsequent winners.

Tabbed as the 3-5 choice to repeat in this event rained off the turf, Madiba secured position pressing the pace along the inside through a half-mile in :48.15. Gaining command on the far turn, the colt dug in to turn back a challenge from Midnight Destiny (Midnight Lute) in midstretch and drew off to score by 2 1/4 lengths. Suances Dream (Suances {BG}) surged late to gain place honors. The winner's dam is a half to MGSW Hungry Island (More Than Ready) and GSW Soaring Empire (Empire Maker). "It is remarkable KEEP UP survived, much less became such a successful racehorse!"

— Dr. Stuart Brown

HAGYARD
Equine Medical Institute

A story never told is KEEP UP had a 10% chance to ever race after he fractured his knee as a yearling, requiring three screws to be inserted and seven months of stall rest. Eventually, he grew sound enough to train and made eighteen starts, winning seven including the River City Handicap (G3), defeating (G1) winner Boisterous and Optimizer.

"We invite breeders to come to Mill Ridge and inspect KEEP UP, they will like what they see,"

— Headley Bell

- Out of Kentucky Oaks (G1) winner Keeper Hill, earner of over $1.6 million
- Inbred to Killaloe, the dam of (G1) sire Fappiano
- Won the River City H. (G3) defeating (G1) winner Boisterous and Optimizer

Having gone missing after two six-furlong handicap scores at The Curragh last March and May, Great Minds returned with an encouraging fourth despite a troubled trip back over that track and trip last Saturday and came forward again to claim a first black-type success here. Tracking the leading trio early without cover, the chestnut traveled purposefully to lead passing the quarter pole and was soon beyond reach.

It is April and on the European racing scene the inevitable and completely reliable presence of Alain de Royer-Dupre is felt wherever there is a significant Classic pointer. Step forward Akatea, who used a Polytrack maiden win over 9 1/2 furlongs at Chantilly Mar. 17 as a springboard to this black-type success in a style typical of her richly endowed stable. Moved across from her wide draw to the rail and the front initially by Alexis Badel, the chestnut was then restrained to take a lead and as a result became hemmed in against the fence as the action unfolded in early stretch. Granted a gap up the inner with 300 meters to race, the homebred was guided through and into a decisive advantage before Burma Sea closed in late. "She has improved a lot over the winter and had an excellent trip there and a good ride," her conditioner said. "I would think that she will come back here for the [May 3] G3 Prix Vanteaux."

PELANDRUN (ITY) (c, 3, Gladiatorus--Shady Flag {Ire}, by Intikhab), with the help of the Capannelle stewards, handed graded stakes winner Hero Look (Ire) (Lope De Vega) the first loss of his career via a disqualification. Hero Look, the Italian juvenile champion, faced a three-kilos penalty in his comeback, but looked unbeatable. He cruised to the lead before the 200-meter pole, but failed to kick as expected. He shut the door to Pelandrun, who was looking for room inside, and then bumped him in the last 30 meters to cross the line 1 1/4 lengths in front. The stewards called the enquiry and demoted Hero Look. Jockey Fabio Branca blamed himself for "a stupid fault." Trainer Stefano Botti said that the stewards "called a wrong decision because Hero Look would have won easily even without the bump." Pelandrun recorded his third win in 10 starts and has never run a bad race for owner Scuderia Rossoblu and veteran trainer Giorgio Pucciatti. He is from the first crop of G1SW Gladiatorus (Silic {Fr}). Lifetime Record: 10-3-1-3 €24,837. O-Scuderia Rossoblu. B-Agricola Verdino (Ity). T-Giorgio Pucciatti.

LINARD (IRE) (f, 3, Aussie Rules--Dalannda {Ire}, by Hernando {Fr}), a brilliant winner of a maiden in her second start, faced three previous stakes scorers in the Premio Torricola, a solid trial for the Italian 1000 Guineas. She pressed pacesetting Kyllachy Queen (Ire) (Kyllachy) from the start and knocked her down in the last furlong. Linard, who is from a high-class Aga Khan female line, will run in the G3 Premio Regina Elena. She is out of a half-sister to MG1SW Daliapour (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and GSW Dalampour (Ire) (Shernazar {Ire}) and from the family of Darshaan (GB), Dariyoun, Darasim (Ire), Diaghilev (Ire) and Dar Re Mi (GB). OBSERVATIONS on today's European racing scene

2.20 Chelmsford, Mdn, £5,000, 3yo/up, 6f (AWT)
THAHAB (IRE) (Dubawi {Ire}) is taken to the Polytrack in an attempt to shed a maiden tag which will be unwelcome after a third attempt, given his status as the €1-million Arqana Deauville August Sale toppler. Richard Hannon has found a soft opportunity for Al Shaqab Racing's half-brother to the 2008 G1 Falmouth S. winner Nahoodh (Ire) (Clodovil {Ire}) and there will be some head scratching if he cannot dispose of these six rivals.
