BELMONT RUNNERS LOOK AHEAD

Creator edges Destin in Belmont Stakes | Sarah Andrew

WinStar Farm and Bobby Flay's Creator (Tapit) came out of his dramatic victory in Saturday's GI Belmont S. in fine shape, trainer Steve Asmussen reported Sunday, as he continued to revel in his first win in the 1 1/2-mile Classic.

"I am obviously very proud of the horse," Asmussen said. "He's very proud [of himself] this morning and he's very alert. I'm kind of surprised by his energy. He ate up last night."

Asmussen admitted he didn't get much sleep Saturday night.

"I got up to watch the replay every 15 minutes," he said.

Asmussen finished fourth in the 2011 Belmont with Nehro (Mineshaft) and a gut-wrenching second behind Rags to Riches (A.P. Indy) with Curlin (Smart Strike) in 2007.

"I cannot wait to walk by that wall [the Clubhouse display of past Belmont winners], and I'll actually stop next year and look at the pictures for obvious reasons," said Asmussen.

Asmussen, who will be inducted into racing's Hall of Fame this coming August, added of Saturday's race, "I thought it was a great race. I thought Irad [Ortiz] did a masterful job with him and with every decision he made. I really thought the horse tried to win late. He just really, really laid out there and dug in, and I personally feel very fortunate for his effort."

Both Creator and his pacesetting stablemate Gettysburg (Pioneerof the Nile), who finished eighth, will now get some down time at WinStar Farm, but Asmussen is looking ahead to a possible tilt at the Aug. 27 GI Travers S. this summer. Cont. p3

WHITNEY LIKELY NEXT FOR FROSTED

Godolphin's Frosted (Tapit) was heading back to Kiaran McLaughlin's Saratoga base Sunday morning, a day after his scintillating victory in the GI Metropolitan H.

"That race yesterday was just a 'wow' race. It was fabulous," McLaughlin said of the Met Mile. "We were just like in shock; speechless, really. It was incredible to watch it unfold. You say to yourself, 'What'd we do different to make him run like that,' but it's hard to say."

Looking ahead for Frosted's next start, McLaughlin added, "We kind of need to look at it, but probably the [Aug. 6 GI] Whitney would be the right spot. It's 60 days. Last year he was running often. Now when you look, we gave him a little time into Dubai's prep race and he ran huge. He ran well in the World Cup, but he was wide and finished fifth, but I feel like we were second best. Then we came back here and gave him 70 days and he won like that. We don't probably want to go every 30 days. We'll probably wait for the Whitney." Cont. p3

"I very much think that, right now, with all of the pressure we've put on him, and the amount of racing that he's had this year, he needs a little mental freshening to get away from it for a bit," said the trainer. "When he wins the Belmont in New York, you would love for Creator to be at his best for the Travers. But I think we need to do the responsible thing and let him let down a little bit, and then see how he responds. That is respect for the effort he gave us yesterday."

The Travers was also on the mind of trainer Keith Desormeaux after Exaggerator (Curlin)'s 11th-place effort Saturday.

"He's good," Desormeaux said of the GI Preakness S. winner. "I walked him myself at about 6:30 this morning. He's his same, vibrant self, bright-eyed, ate up his feed last night, legs are clean. Maybe a little more subdued than he usually is, but that stands to reason. [He's] good, happy and still has that confident look in his eye, so we're good. His trainer, I don't know about him. He's still trying to shake the cobwebs but, all in all, it's a good morning."

Desormeaux said Exaggerator will remain at Belmont through the end of the spring meet before heading upstate with the July 30 GII Jim Dandy and Travers on his agenda.

"It seems like a good plan," he said. "We'll go with that and if we have to adjust, we will."

Todd Pletcher reported the Belmont's narrowly beaten runner-up Destin (Giant's Causeway) and stablemate 'TDN Rising Star' Stradivari (Medaglia d'Oro) both came out of the race in fine shape.

"Both looked good this morning," Pletcher. "I was pleased with the way they both bounced out of it pretty quickly for a mile-and-a-half race."

Pletcher added that Gettysburg, who he trained up to a week ago, will remain in the Asmussen barn.

"I spoke to [WinStar president and CEO] Elliott [Walden] this morning and I think it is probably best--I don't think it is a good look if he comes back to us really. I think it is better if it doesn't happen," Pletcher explained.

McLaughlin also won Saturday's GI Ogden Phipps S. with Stonestreet Farm's Cavorting (Bernardini).

Frosted | Sarah Andrew

"She's gotten really good," McLaughlin said of the 'TDN Rising Star.' "She's always been a really nice filly, but the one turn helps and settling her. We've gotten her back off the pace twice now. Where we go, what we do, we'll have to see. Most likely we're going to see if she can get two turns at Saratoga."

'TDN Rising Star' Kareena (Medaglia d'Oro), winner of Friday's Jersey Girl S. in near-track record time in just her third lifetime start, will likely make her next start in the Aug. 6 GI Longines Test S.

"I'm not sure about the time, but it was a great win," McLaughlin said. "It was huge. Again, she's been training at Saratoga and doing well. Everybody up there has done a great job. We'll look at the Test for her. A lot of people thought we maybe should have been in [Saturday's GI] Acorn, but it was only her third start and we thought it was a bit much. We weren't looking to run against those type yet."

BELMONT HANDLE TOPS $99 MILLION

All-sources handle for Saturday's Belmont Stakes card was $99,419,023, according to figures released Sunday by the New York Racing Association. On-track wagering was $11,694,847, with off-track betting totaling $87,724,126. Total handle on the GI Belmont S. was $52,188,416 and paid attendance was 60,114. A year ago, with American Pharoah's Triple Crown bid on the line, all-sources handle was $135,790,321 on the day, with on-track wagering of $16,950,758 and off-track betting totaling $118,839,563. Wagering on the 2015 Belmont S. itself was $82,437,629. The last time the Belmont was conducted without a Triple Crown prospect was 2013 when all-sources handle was $88,528,542, on-track wagering was $10,769,369 and off-track betting totaling $77,759,173. Total handle on the 2013 Belmont itself was $51,872,013.

BROWN, ORTIZ, GODOLPHIN EARN BELMONT HONORS

Chad Brown, Irad Ortiz, Jr. and Godolphin were the leading trainer, jockey and owner during the weekend's Belmont Stakes Racing Festival Championship. The competition, based on a 5-3-2-1 point basis, began with the first race last Thursday and continued through the 12th race on Belmont Stakes day Saturday.

Brown earned the "Sunny" Jim Fitzsimmons Award for Outstanding Trainer after wins highlighted by Flintshire (GB) (Dansili {GB}) in the GI Woodford Reserve Manhattan S., Economic Model (Flatter) in the Easy Goer S., Zindaya (More Than Ready)'s win in the Intercontinental S. and a one-two-three finish led by Dacita (Chi) (Scat Daddy) in the GII New York S.

Ortiz won the Eddie Arcaro Award after riding Creator (Tapit) to victory in the GI Belmont S., Kareena (Medaglia d'Oro)'s win in the Jersey Girl and Dacita's win in the New York.

Godolphin's colors were carried to victory by Kareena and by Frosted (Tapit) in the GI Metropolitan H., earning the operation the August Belmont trophy.

Neshama held off late-closing favorite Gamble's Ghost by a desperate nose to earn her first stakes victory in the Woodbine Oaks. The bay filly settled just off the pace as Caren took command going into the first turn. The 15-1 shot began inching closer leaving the backstretch, and while the pacesetter was able to scamper some four lengths clear nearing the stretch, Neshama found her best stride in the final sixteenth to surge past the tiring pacesetter.

Trainer Catherine Day Phillips and jockey Eurico da Silva were earning their first Oaks victories.

"I had a very easy trip. It went well for me," said da Silva. "When Jesse Campbell asked his filly [Caren], she opened up a little bit and I thought I just wanted to keep going and maybe finish second. Then I saw [Caren] just stop and I saw a great chance to win the race. And she ran great. She dug in. She's a nice filly. I am thrilled."

Phillips said she saw promise in the filly from day one.

"She's been a nice filly and acted like a racehorse really from the beginning," Phillips said. "In the fall, she really came into her own and this spring she's been very professional. She really enjoys her job."

'TDN Rising Star' Gamble's Ghost, coming off a win in the GIII Selene S., was trapped behind a wall of horses turning for home and was tipped out four wide into the stretch. She forced her way between horses, while exchanging bumps with Crumlin Spirit (Court Vision) and Trini Brewnette (Milwaukee Brew), but once extricated from traffic she closed with a vengeance to just miss the winner. The favorite then survived a steward's inquiry and a claim of foul by the rider of Crumlin Spirit.

"I was on the rail where I didn't want to be, but I had to stay there," explained Luis Contreras, aboard the beaten favorite. "When I tried to tip out to make my move, I could see the opening, but everyone was trying to move at the same time and horses were tiring in front of me. When I made my move, if nothing happened, we would have won."

A maiden winner over the Woodbine all-weather surface last October, Neshama was a nose runner-up while concluding her juvenile campaign in the Nov. 14 South Ocean S. She resurfaced with a troubled fifth-place effort in the May 1 Lady Angela S. before returning to the winner's circle with a narrow score in a 1 1/16-mile allowance May 18. Asked if Neshama might take on the boys in the Queen's Plate, Phillips said, "I think we'll enjoy this and we'll discuss it Monday and Tuesday."

Catch a Fire, a half-sister to Canadian champion grass mare Sweetest Thing (Candy Stripes), produced a full-sister to the winner in 2015.

GOING FOR BROKE (f, 3, Blame--Support the Cause, by Put It Back) came home second at first asking sprinting at Aqueduct Apr. 10 and graduated by two lengths in the slop over track and trip May 8. Looking to make it back to back victories, the Waterford Stable homebred was tabbed a 3-1 shot for this return and enjoyed a perfect tow on the rail in midpack as 'TDN Rising Star' Apologynotaccepted (Fusaichi Pegasus) showed the way through a half mile in :46.69. Slipping closer to the front up the fence, she angled outside that rival in upper stretch and spurted clear to win by 6 3/4 lengths. Apologynotaccepted was tagged on the wire by A Few Good Friends (Quality Road) for bridesmaid honors. The winner's dam is a full-sister to GISW and sire In Summation, while third dam is MGISW Fiesta Gal (Alleged). Going For Broke has a yearling full-brother. +PLATINUM SPARK (f, 2, Hansen--Ablaze, by Forest Camp) was bet throughout in this debut off a sharp local worktab that included a four-furlong gate breeze June 2 in :47, heading to post at 9-2 off a 12-1 morning line. Breaking a half-step slowly from the outside stall, the gray filly showed good speed to stalk Dixie Kicks (Exclusive Quality) in second through a :22.88 quarter-mile. Sidling up to that one at the top of the stretch, Platinum Spark appeared to be flattening out nearing the eighth pole, but responded when given a pop of Manny Franco's right-handed stick and wore down the frontrunner in the final sixteenth to score by 1 1/2 lengths. She is the second winner for her freshman sire (by Tapit). China Rider (Majestic Warrior) nailed the pacesetter late for second. Todd Pletcher firster Teresa Z (Smart Strike), favored at 9-5, never factored. The winner's dam has a yearling filly by Stay Thirsty and foaled a Flat Out colt this season. Her second dam is a half to Canadian Champion 2-year-old colt and GSW Riker (Include), as well as GSW Cashel Castle (Silver Ghost). Sales History: $70,000 Ylg '15 KEESEP. MANITOULIN (c, 3, Awesome Again--Soaring Softly {Ch. Grass Mare, MGISW, $1,270,433}, by Kris S.) weakened to fifth on debut behind 'TDN Rising Star' and GIII Gotham S. hero Shagaf (Bernardini) going a mile at Aqueduct last November, but gained a career high when switched to the Keeneland turf three starts later when second Apr. 22. He could only manage fourth going 1 1/4 miles here May 15 and was a 5-1 chance Sunday. Settling in the wake of the first flight one off the rail behind even early splits, the chestnut made his bid for the lead as noses pointed towards home. Fanned five wide up the center of the course, Manitoulin displayed a speedy turn of foot to grind past fellow closer and race favorite Deeply Undervalued (Kitten's Joy) and win by a length. The winner is a half to Much Rejoicing (Distorted Humor), SW, $160,457. GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf heroine Soaring Softly is a half-sister to GI Yellow Ribbon Invitational S. winner Plenty of Grace (Roberto). Runner-up in the Tyro S. over this course last August, Full Salute became a two-time stakes winner on the main track by the end of 2015 with scores in Parx's Hall of Fame S. and the Buffalo Man S. at Gulfstream Park West. A dull sixth in the GII Hutcheson S. at Gulfstream Jan. 2, the colt was subsequently sent to the sidelines for the remainder of the winter. Full Salute recently returned to action with a razor-sharp score over older horses sprinting six furlongs on dirt here May 22--an effort that stamped him as the slight favorite in the Sunday feature. Away without incident, the chestnut set up shop tracking a pair of dueling leaders from third through a measured quarter-mile in :22.68. Angled three-wide by Paco Lopez into the stretch, he responded willingly and kicked clear to claim the victory. "That worked our perfectly," commented winning trainer Eddie Plesa, Jr., who added that the colt could make his next start in the GIII Jersey Shore S. July 23. "Paco rode him great and got a really nice trip... Being by Speightstown, we figured he could turf and he's shown that he can run on both surfaces."

BULLETS FEVER (c, 3, Fiber Sonde--Ghost Canyon, by Indian Charlie) went three-for-three as a 2-year-old and started his sophomore campaign with a four-length victory in the West Virginia-bred Coin Collector S. at Charles Town Apr. 23 before wiring an allowance field at Mountaineer May 18. In with open company here, the roan broke smoothly at 21-5 and showed the way through a :23.58 quarter. Shaking away from his pace pursuers at the top of the lane, he held a clear advantage at the eighth pole. Leg-weary from there, Bullets Fever dug in to hold off Demon Buster (Ghostzapper) by a neck and extend his perfect record. The winner is a full to Hidden Canyon, MSW, $313,695. Lifetime Record: MSW, 6-6-0-0, $162,369. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton. O-David M. Raim; B-John D. McKee (WV); T-Jeff C. Runco.

MISTER NOFTY (c, 3, Scat Daddy--Walking Path, by Bernardini) finished third in his Dec. 13 debut sprinting over this dirt, then completed the trifecta again Jan. 9 at Tampa before getting run down late when second on the Oldsmar lawn Feb. 20. Hammered down to 3-5 here, the homebred went straight to the lead, but tossed his head while keen on the first turn. He eventually settled down to dictate splits of :23.89 and :48.69. Widening in hand on the far bend, the dark bay was never challenged in the stretch, triumphing by 4 3/4 lengths. VEES BOY (c, 3, Unbridled's Song--Blink Twice, by Dixieland Band), a $430,000 Keeneland September yearling purchase, rallied belatedly to finish fourth on debut in a six-panel maiden dash at Gulfstream Mar. 12, defeating promising maiden winners Adulator (Flatter) and All On Red (Hard Spun) in the process. The gray set the pace and held on to finish second when extended to 1 1/16 miles there Apr. 16 and was last seen in a tiring fifth-place effort going 7 1/2 furlongs over the lawn in Hallandale May 14. Sent north to join his trainer's New Jersey string following that effort, the sophomore was bet down to even-money favoritism for this return to dirt. Away in good order, he secured an ideal position tracking Get the W (Mineshaft) from second through a half-mile in :49.28. Vees Boy was asked for more on the far turn, drew even with the pacesetter at the head of the lane and forged clear to score by

3 3/4 lengths. The winner's second dam is 1994 GII Delaware H. heroine With a Wink (Clever Trick). His dam, Blink Twice, is also responsible for an unnamed juvenile filly by Mineshaft and a yearling filly by Broken Vow. Amis Gizmo earned a nose victory in his Sept. 2 debut and reeled off a pair of open-length stakes victories in this venue's six-furlong Bull Page S. and seven-panel Frost King S. Sept. 27 and Nov. 4, respectively. He wrapped up 2015 with a 1 3/4-length tally in the restricted Kingarvie S. Nov. 28. Returning from nearly five months on the bench, the chestnut suffered his first defeat when fifth against open company in the Wando S. Apr. 24, but bounced back nicely in this prep for the July 3 Queen's Plate S. Settling near the rear of a six-horse pack behind a legitimate pace of :23.98 and :48.16, the chestnut moved in tandem with 4-5 chalk Shakhimat (Lonhro {Aus}) on the far turn under a confident Luis Contreras, who peeked back to look for challengers nearing the top of the stretch. Surging past Shakhimat soon after that, Amis Gizmo came home under a drive to score by two lengths over the favorite. The winner is a half to Ami's Flatter (Flatter), who took fifth in Saturday's GI Metropolitan H. "We found he had a little bit of a problem [after the Wando] and there was an excuse for him to run as bad as he did," said owner/breeder Ivan Dalos. "So now that we've got it figured out, we're back in business. I was surprised (at how easily he won) because Shakhimat is a really nice horse, so to beat him the way we did means something." Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Miss Katie Mae was just one-for-six in her native Ireland, but narrowly missed a Group 3 triumph when second at 10-1 against males in the Jebel Ali Anglesey S. July 18 at The Curragh. A fast-closing fourth behind a slow pace in her stateside debut at Keeneland Apr. 10, she then made a menacing run in the Hilltop S. May 20 at Pimlico before flattening out to finish fourth. Bet down to favoritism turning back here, the bay broke very well before dropping back to run in fourth along the rail early on. Saving ground in the third flight on the turn, she split horses while bumping a bit with a rival at the head of the stretch and out-finished fellow closer Princess Princess to earn her first stakes tally. Miss Katie Mae is a half-sister to Group 3 winning/Group 1 placed Eastern Impact (Ire) (Bahamian Bounty {GB}). Her dam has a 2-year-old colt by Lope de Vega (Ire) and a yearling colt by Nathaniel (Ire). Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Hustled to make the lead by Florent Geroux, the bay was soon pressed by fellow 2-1 shot Tizway That Way (Tizway) through a quarter-mile in :22.79, but started to edge away from that one on the turn and straightened for home in the clear. Opening up strongly past the eighth pole, the Ontario-bred filly never gave them a chance in the lane, romping by a 6 1/4 lengths. The winner was the sales topper at the Canadian Premier Yearling Sale and is a half to this stable's MSW Conquest Enforcer (Into Mischief), as well as MSP Keen Gizmo (Giant Gizmo). Her dam has since produced a yearling filly by Successful Appeal and a colt by First Samurai this term. Sales History: C$150,000 Ylg '15 CANSEP. BLAST (f, 3, Harlan's Holiday--Home Run, by Empire Maker) scored in her Sept. 25 debut over this track, then was second as the chalk here Nov. 1. Fourth in her sophomore debut Mar. 4 at Gulfstream, she was a narrow second Apr. 8 at Keeneland before being an unlucky runner-up over track and trip May 6 when hemmed in at the rail for the whole stretch run. Off as the 3-5 favorite here, the dark bay came away well and settled in fourth up the backstretch. Inching closer to the leaders past the three-furlong marker, she came four-wide turning for home and overhauled the leader in the final sixteenth to prevail by three-quarters of a length. The winner has a 2-year-old full-sister named Fun as well as a yearling half-brother by Into Mischief and a Lemon Drop kid half-brother foaled this term. Her second dam is GSW Ninth Inning (Meadowlake). Sales History: $150,000 Ylg '14 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 6-2-3-0, $95,320. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

FIRE ON FIRE (g, 3, First Dude--British Event {SW, $281,716}, by Wild Event) was a non-factor 10th on debut traveling a mile on dirt here Apr. 2 and showed marked improvement when switched to the turf with a gritty runner-up finish after setting the pace at Tampa May 6. Given a 9-2 chance here, Fire on Fire set the pace through a half-mile in :48.74 and turned back a series of challengers on the far turn. Confronted and bumped hard by U S Academy (U S Ranger) in the stretch, he continued to battle to the wire and came up a head short. After a stewards review and a jockey's objection, U S Academy was disqualified and placed fifth behind Salutation (Medaglia d'Oro)--who was also impeded by his actions--awarding Fire on Fire the win. BOWER'S POINT (c, 3, Tapit--Starfish Bay {MSW, $241,831}, by Elusive Quality) lost all chance when clipping heels in the early stages of his Mar. 18 debut in the Fair Grounds slop and checked in a well-beaten ninth. Bet down to 7-5 favoritism in this return, the chestnut broke at the back of the pack and moved into the five path heading into the first turn. Stalking in a close fourth through a :24.46 quarter, the homebred tugged his way up to duel three-wide for the lead through a :48.56 half. Taking over willingly at the top of the far bend, he drew clear by the top of the lane and rebuffed the challenge of Sabrena's Bling (Include) to register a 4 1/4-length tally. The winner's Gainesway-owned and bred dam was a brilliant turf sprinter, who set a world record for five furlongs when she won Gulfstream's 2010 Ladies' Turf Sprint S. in :53.75. She produced a 2-year-old full-brother to the winner, who sold for $400,000 at this year's Fasig-Tipton Midlantic sale, and also has a yearling colt by Scat Daddy, as well as a Street Sense filly foaled this year. Bower's Point's second dam, Touch Love (Not For Love), captured the GII Schuylerville S. and Astoria S. in 2001. Sales History: $235,000 RNA Ylg '14 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $12,540.

Evo Campo, making her stakes debut here, opened her 2016 campaign with an optional claimer win going one mile over the Santa Anita turf Jan. 2, then was third when stretched to nine furlongs Feb. 5 and was fourth behind subsequent GI Gamely S. winner Illuminant (Quality Road) going a mile Mar. 10. She returned to the winner's circle with a half-length tally over nine furlongs last time out May 5. Trying 12 furlongs for the first time, Evo Campo chased the early pace of Chocolatier (Fr) (Lawman {Fr}) while racing eagerly through a half in :48.51. Chocolatier opened up by five lengths down the backstretch, but Evo Campo began reeling in the pacesetter entering the final bend. She stuck her head in front at the top of the lane and bound clear, easily holding sway over the late-closing Hiking. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

OHIO (BRZ) (h, 5, Elusive Quality--Etoile Blanc {Brz} {GSW-Brz}, by Nedawi {GB}) capped his South American career with a four-length allowance tally at San Isidro in Argentina last September for trainer Alfredo F. Gaitan Dassie and promptly rewarded his backers with a first-out American success at 11-1 going a mile over the Santa Anita lawn Mar. 5. The bay entire stumbled at the start of the off-turf GIII American S. and wound up sixth May 6, but was still popular with the betting public, going off at 5-2 for these connections. One off the rail in a tracking fourth as the field raced in pairs for the backstretch run, Ohio improved to third behind the leading duo and began to edge nearer after three quarters in 1:10.88. He rolled straight to the head of affairs with a furlong to travel and crossed the wire with ears pricked, scoring by 1 3/4 lengths. Itsinthepost (Fr) (American Post {GB}), the 2-1 crowd's pick, rounded out the exacta. Lifetime Record: 10-6-2-0, $94,880. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Frenchy Bobcat broke sharply at 17-1 and went out for the lead, dueling with 8-5 favorite Shackmeister (Shackleford) through a quick quarter-mile in :22.25. Kicking away from that foe into the stretch, the chestnut appeared home free at the sixteenth pole, but had to fend off the late challenge of Llobo and the two hit the wire together. Llobo, off at 6-1, was out-sprinted in the opening furlong, but kept in touch on the turn while saving ground in fourth. Put to a drive past the quarter pole, he tipped out into the clear at the top of the lane and closed gamely in the final eighth to finish on even terms with Frenchy Bobcat. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

GOFFS LONDON: A SALE FOR THE JET-SETTERS

by Emma Berry

It's the sale that keeps on growing. No sooner was the ink dry on the printed catalogue than the most mouth-watering of supplementary entries was added to the list for Monday's Goffs London Sale in the form of G1 Irish 1000 Guineas heroine Jet Setting (Ire) (Fast Company {Ire}), who is set to sell late in the afternoon as lot 43. There could be no more appropriately named headline act for today's gathering of racing folk from all over the world.

Now in its third year, it's hard to know whether to call the event a bloodstock sale with drinks and canapes on the side, or a giant cocktail party with a few horses milling around in the background. The viewpoint of the attendees will depend very much on their level of involvement throughout the afternoon and early evening, and for many, the London Sale will mean serious business indeed.

This week, the racing world is very much en fete. Royal Ascot forms the centrepiece of Britain's summer racing calendar, and the locals are joined by professionals and aficionados from across the globe. What better timing then to hold a sale like no other among the splendour of Kensington Palace on the eve of such an occasion?

OWNER OUTLINES CHAUTAUQUA PLANS

Chautauqua (Aus) (Encosta De Lago {Aus}) will remain in Australia for a spring campaign with his ultimate international target being the G1 Longines Hong Kong Sprint at Sha Tin in December, part-owner Rupert Legh told racing.com. The Michael, Wayne and John Hawkes-trained 5-year-old had the option of taking part in the Global Sprint Challenge, a series that offered a $1-million bonus should a horse win a leg of the series in three countries in the same calendar year. Chautauqua's victories in the G1 Chairman's Sprint Prize at Sha Tin in May and the G1 Black Caviar Lightning at Flemington in February put him within one win of the bonus. Connections however would have had to point the ace sprinter to the G1 Sprinters S. in Japan in October to accomplish the feat.

BELMONT RUNNERS LOOK AHEAD

WinStar Farm and Bobby Flay's Creator (Tapit) came out of his dramatic victory in Saturday's GI Belmont S. in fine shape, trainer Steve Asmussen reported Sunday, as he contined to revel in his first win in the 1 1/2-mile Classic. Click or tap here to go straight to TDN America.

In just two years, the London Sale has become an occasion all of its own, but beyond high tea and the delicious rose provided by Chateau Leoube, one of the sale's official partners along with principal supporter QIPCO, the auction has continued to generate headlines for its eclectic offerings.

It was the first sale to include a Frankel (GB) foal back in 2014 and this year's catalogue is no less intriguing. It's almost certainly unprecedented for a racehorse to be offered for sale by public auction so soon after earning her Classic laurels, and Jet Setting, who is one of 18 horses set to go under the hammer with an entry for Royal Ascot, will be aiming to continue on her upward trajectory in Friday's G1 Coronation S.

"Jet Setting is the headline lot and we're thrilled to have her in the sale," said Goffs Chief Executive Henry Beeby. "We've actually been speaking to her connections since before the Guineas and they've decided that this is the right time to sell her. She comes to the sale with impeccable credentials, not just as a racing prospect but as a future breeding prospect, and she's the only horse this year to have beaten Minding (Ire), who is arguably one of the best horses in training. It's no exaggeration to say we've had global interest in her."

Jet Setting is joined in the catalogue by another late entry, Justice Frederick (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}) (lot 48), who already has a footnote in the history books by becoming Joseph O'Brien's first winner as a licenced trainer at Gowran Park on June 6. He will be sold just three lots after fellow juvenile and recent Keeneland winner Big City Dreamin (Iqbaal) (lot 45), who will be bidding to give trainer Wesley Ward another taste of Royal Ascot success in Tuesday's Listed Windsor Castle S.

Justice Frederick | Racing Post

Aiming to follow the example of the exciting Time Test (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) by winning the G3 Tercentenary S. at the Royal meeting is Viren's Army (Twirling Candy), who has already given his owners in the Middleham Park Racing syndicate a memorable day out when winning the Listed Dee S. at Chester's May meeting. A yearling sale-topper at Tattersalls Ireland back in September 2014 when fetching €115,000, the Richard Hannon-trained colt is scheduled to feature as lot 38, shortly after French owner/trainer Matthieu Palussiere's G3 Prix Texanita winner Ross Castle (Ire) (Bushranger {Ire}) (lot 34). Cont. p3

At the inaugural London Sale, Crystal Gaze (Ire) (Rainbow Quest) broke new ground when sold in foal to Frankel with a colt at foot by the same stallion for £1.15 million. Today's sale is set to notch another notable bloodstock moment when the 5-year-old listed winner Lady Penko (Fr) (Archipenko) becomes the first mare to be offered in foal to last year's G1 Derby and G1 Arc hero Golden Horn (GB). Consigned through Castlebridge as lot 25, the treble winner is a daughter of Hespera (GB), a Danehill half-sister to last season's G1 Juddmonte Grand Prix de Paris winner Erupt (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}).

Beeby commented, "One of the things we didn't manage last year but really wanted for this year was to attract a mare or two in foal to really exciting stallions, and they don't come much more exciting than Golden Horn." He added, "As was proven with the mare in foal to Frankel at the inaugural London Sale, the timing on the eve of Royal Ascot, the stunning venue and the fact that every major international bloodstock buyer is in London for racing makes this sale a wonderful platform to showcase breeding stock of this calibre."

Lady Penko and the 28 horses in training will be preceded by 20 unraced breeze-up horses, which were put through their paces on Sunday on Kempton Park's Polytrack surface. These include a colt (lot 8) and a filly (lot 16) by one of this season's leading freshman sires, Helmet (Aus), while Church Farm Stables offers a son of the highly regarded Siyouni (lot 10) who is eligible for French premiums and is a half-brother to Italian listed winner Ottawa (Fr) (Celtic Swing {GB}).

"We have a good quality bunch of breezers to start--we've been quite selective. The only slightly worrying element is that it is forecast to be quite damp, which is a shame, but we have wet weather provisions," said Beeby. "The interest in the sale has never been stronger and we've been blown away with the support from vendors even from early in the year. When you launch a sale like this you want it to be an aspirational sale and we're hitting that target. The continued support from QIPCO is very welcome, too."

The Goffs London Sale gets underway at 5 p.m. BST.

AMERICAN RAIDERS NEAR ASCOT TEST

A total of 13 rivals will line up against Tepin (Bernstein) as she bids to transfer her Stateside prowess to English terrain in Tuesday's Royal Ascot-opening G1 Queen Anne S. With the ground now certain to ride on the soft side of good, the mare, who is on a streak of successes, has to prove her versatility as she bids to erase the memory of the flop of fellow American raider Animal Kingdom (Leroidesanimaux {Brz}) who was only 11th when the 5-4 favourite in 2013. Robert Masterson's 5-year-old has at least shown brilliance on soft before, when taking Keeneland's GI First Lady S. by seven lengths and the reigning GI Breeders' Cup Mile title-holder is drawn in stall 12 in a renewal that could be dominated by fillies and mares. Fellow top-level scorers Amazing Maria (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}), Ervedya (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) and Esoterique (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) are some of the chief protagonists and all have proven capable of handling ease in the ground throughout their illustrious careers.

Ascot's clerk of the course Chris Stickels said on Sunday, "It is currently good-to-soft on the straight course and good-to-soft, soft in places on the round course. We've had three millimetres of rain since 8 a.m. this morning and it is still drizzling. I will take a further look this afternoon and update if need be. The forecast is for unsettled weather all week and it is simply annoying. There is nothing we can do about it. I suppose we haven't had a proper soft-ground Royal meeting for some time and it will suit some horses, but for the majority I shouldn't think it would. We are forecast to get between five and seven millimetres tomorrow, three to five on Wednesday and between four and five on Thursday. While it drains well, once you get to good-to-soft, three to four millimetres of rain is all it will take to turn it soft. Once you get juice in it, it takes time to dry out and I'd say the prospect of good ground is very unlikely now."

Wesley Ward was ruing the rain on Sunday as he considered the options for his Royal team, with Tuesday's G2 King's Stand S. hopeful Acapulco (Scat Daddy) one who will not appreciate the softened turf coming off a win in the May 14 Listed Sidney S.

"The rain is probably going to hurt all my chances, which is a shame," Ward commented. "But what can you do? You work as hard as you can to get these horses in the best shape, but there is nothing you can do about the weather. Acapulco has won two this year and she took her race well at Churchill Downs last month. She's been doing everything you'd want her to do since."

Last year's G1 Diamond Jubilee S. winner Undrafted (Purim) is a doubtful starter for Saturday's crown defence if the rain continues.

"Wes [Welker] is coming over this time--all the gang will be coming," Ward continued. "He missed his win last year, which he wasn't too thrilled about. But Undrafted would want it fast and firm, so I don't know whether he will run. We'll see how the ground is and discuss it when we get there. If it is too soggy, he won't run."

Displaying a powerful galloping style when making all to win the Listed Salsabil S. on testing ground over 10 furlongs at Navan Apr. 17, Pretty Perfect was no match for the high-class Zhukova (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) when 7 1/2 lengths second to that Weld trainee in the G3 Blue Wind S. also at a mile and a quarter at Naas May 11. Ninth of 10 when providing the requisite pace for Minding (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas at The Curragh 11 days later, the bay was back in her area of expertise here and duly made all to register a commanding first group success under Colm O'Donoghue. Looking a sitting duck at the top of the straight as the well-supported Shamreen loomed in behind, Pretty Perfect gave generously to her rider and drew away from the Aga Khan homebred in an impressive show of strength. "She ran very bad in the Guineas and that threw us, but maybe we ran her back too quickly," Aidan O'Brien commented. "The Guineas was a hard race to work out, because we ran Coolmore in it and she ran very bad, too. We're delighted with her today and she'll maybe go to the Irish Oaks [at The Curragh July 16] now. She seems to stay well. Best In the World ran well and also stays well."

The dam, who scored at listed level and was second in the G1 Schweppes Oaks, is a full-sister to the MG1SW French highweight and sire Holy Roman Emperor (Ire) and descends from the multiple Canadian champion and blue hen Fanfreluche. She is a full-sister to the leading sire Night Shift and produced five black type-winners headed by the champions L'Enjoleur and La Voyageuse (Tentam), with her dynasty extending to the GI Yellow Ribon Invitational winner Aube Indienne (Fr) (Bluebird) and the Australian group 1-winning sires Flying Spur (Aus) and Encosta Del Lago (Aus). Other members of this esteemed family to fly the standard include the Ahmed Al Maktoum luminaries Bint Allayl (GB) (Green Desert) and Kheleyf and last year's G1 Grand Prix de Paris hero Erupt (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}). Milanova's youngest offspring is a 2-year-old full-sister to this winner named Asanta Sana (Ire).

Racing exclusively over this course and distance so far, Meergorl was third on debut Apr. 24 prior to scoring last time May 15 and continued her upward progression with a game first black-type success in this prep for the G1 Preis der Diana at Dusseldorf Aug. 7. Settled towards mid-division early trapped wide, the chestnut was staying on without looking the winner in the last furlong as Pagella swept to the front, but her efforts paid off and she earned the lead in the dying strides. Meerdunung was a top-class performer in the former GDR and proved an excellent proposition at stud, with her daughter Monbijou (Ger) (Dashing Blade {GB}) producing the G1 Oaks d'Italia and dual graded-stakes winner Meridiana (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}) and the 2012 G2 Diana-Trial heroine Monami (Ger) (Sholokhov {Ire}). Monbijou's half-sister Manon (Ger) (Alzao) is the granddam of the G3 Schwarzgold-Rennen heroine Meerjungfrau (Ger) (Manduro {Ger}). Mouette also has a yearling filly by Soldier Hollow (GB) named Movie Star (Ger).

COVERT LOVE RETIRED

Classic winner and dual Group 1 heroine Covert Love (Ire) (Azamour {Ire}--Wing Stealth {Ire}, by Hawk Wing) has been retired from racing due to a strained ligament, trainer Hugo Palmer announced Sunday.

"Very sadly we have had to retire Covert Love, which is a great shame," Palmer said. "She has a strained ligament, it came to light this morning with a swollen joint and is a stark reminder of why the big days are so special. It's obviously disappointing for her owners, who were looking forward to Royal Ascot and the season beyond, for Glen Magee, who rides her at home, and for all the team."

The filly, bred by Sommerville Bloodstock and raced by Fomo Syndicate, was one of last season's success stories, improving dramatically as the year progressed. She won a fillies handicap at York last May rated 83 and stepped up again to win a listed race at Newcastle a month later before connections bravely supplemented her for the G1 Darley Irish Oaks last July. It proved an inspired investment as the filly showed class and determination to win under Pat Smullen. A narrow defeat to Pleascach (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) in the G1 Darley Yorkshire Oaks preceded her second top-level victory when she got the better of Jazzi Top (GB) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) in the G1 Prix de l'Opera Longines at Longchamp. In what proved to be her final start Covert Love finished an honourable fourth to Simple Verse (Ire) in the G1 QIPCO British Champions Fillies and Mares S. at Ascot last October. In total, Covert Love retires with a record of 8-5-1-0 and $731,742 in earnings.

Covert Love | Scoop Dyga

Reflecting on the filly that provided him with a first Classic success Palmer added, "She gave us some special days last year and we will miss her hugely, but she owes us absolutely nothing. She doesn't know there's anything wrong with her, she's only very fractionally lame at the trot, but we would be unduly risking her. The saddest thing is she is a big, rangy filly and what she achieved at three was fairly remarkable - she looked and seemed so much better at four."

LIMATO NOT CERTAIN FOR JUBILEE

Trainer Henry Candy is hoping the rain clouds stay away from Ascot this week, as he prepares Limato (Ire) (Tagula {Ire}) for the G1 Diamond Jubilee S. on Saturday. The trainer is prepared to sidestep the race with the 4-year-old if the forecast rain materialises, having already removed him from the G1 Queen Anne S. on Tuesday. Limato reappeared this season with an encouraging closeup fourth behind Belardo (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) in the G1 Al Shaqab Lockinge S. at Newbury May 14.

Henry Candy and his wife Ginny with Limato | Racing Post

"He has come out of that well and I've been pleased with him subsequently," said Candy. "However, he will only run in the Diamond Jubilee if it dries up. The forecast isn't very favourable and I would rate his chances at no better than 50-50 at this stage."

Limato finished second at the Royal Meeting last year when beaten by Muhaarar (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) in the G1 Commonwealth Cup, but the prospect of soft ground this week may force Candy may to wait until the G1 Darley July Cup at Newmarket July 9 to run the gelding.

SPELL FOR MASSAAT

Owen Burrows' talented 3-year-old Massaat (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) is to take a break following his disappointing effort in the G1 Investec Derby. The colt, considered by many beforehand as a doubtful stayer, finished ninth behind Harzand (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), but Burrows feels it wasn't a lack of stamina to contributed to the defeat.

"He seems fine since Epsom and there are no real excuses as such - he just ran flat," said Burrows. "He was going up in trip there but was beaten too soon for that to have been an excuse.

Massaat previously ran second to Galileo Gold (GB) (Paco Boy {Ire}) in the G1 QIPCO 2000 Guineas at Newmarket and was a potential runner in the G1 Dubai Duty Free Irish Derby at The Curragh later in the month, but that plan has now been scrapped.

Owen Burrows | Racing Post

"His owner Sheikh Hamdan wants to give him a break and look for something in the middle of summer, so he won't go for the Irish Derby," Burrows concluded. "I think we will look at races over 10 furlongs and then look to make a plan."

THE WEEKLY WRAP by Chris McGrath

In contrast with the dazzling spotlight on Belmont, the European theatre has been half-lit since the Derby while the stagehands shift the scenery from Epsom to Ascot. Nonetheless there have been a couple of cameos in recent days--both elaborating a theme of fathers and sons--that may yet prove more significant, in the long term, even than the most show-stopping performance at the Royal Meeting. If it does not turn out that way, in fact, you could almost accuse the author of introducing new characters with undue melodrama. Bloodstock professionals, of course, need no reminding that these remain the very earliest of days for Frankel (GB) (Galileo {Ire}). And they also know that few rookie stallions can have been favoured by so many partners of such pedigree and physique. At the same time, however, there has been a familiarity about his first runners that is simply too arresting to ignore.

Frankuus | Racing Post

Two more debut winners this week take his tally to four winners from five starters. Even in the context of a very sensibly managed first book, Frankuus (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) barely repaid his sire's covering fee as a 130,000-euro Goffs yearling. But he surfaced at Haydock on Thursday with a buoyancy and gusto that certainly evoked, in some degree, the blend that made his sire unique. In this of all weeks, after all, it seemed apt to remember Frankel as a champion who floated like a butterfly, and stung like a bee. He covered the ground so lightly, yet with great physical zest.

Though emerging from a stable that has introduced a series of highly professional 2-year-olds this spring, Frankuus vividly betrayed his inexperience. Once hitting the front--under a highly restrained, educational ride--the way he tilted his head to take in the view was nearly comical. With plenty of physical scope, and having only really got rolling in the seventh furlong, he looks guaranteed to progress through the summer.

It was at the beginning of the race, rather than the end, that Fair Eva (GB) (Frankel {GB}) looked green when starting her career at the same track the previous day. Slowest away, the Juddmonte homebred soon found such a rhythm that she was angling her way across and through the entire field by halfway and floated clear, again under no more than hands-and-heels encouragement. Certainly it would be fitting for one of Frankel's better offspring to be trained at Beckhampton, where Roger Charlton trained his dam.

Fair Eva | Racing Post

With his first two winners heading to Ascot this week, Frankel's strike rate has presumably reached its peak at 80%. But we can certainly begin to hope that something of his prowess might yet endure in more concrete form than our memories.

Another Promising Sire....

Frankel was not the only remarkable father to stamp his stock very auspiciously last week. We have already seen how the horsemanship of Aidan and Anne-Marie O'Brien has been inherited by their children, as riders; and now that rising weight has forced the eldest of them, Joseph, to quit the saddle, we are seeing immediate dividends in his new career as a trainer.

True, it was only a formal change of status that enables us to say that Joseph sent out four winners from seven runners on his first day as a trainer. Though still only 23, he had been supervising a satellite yard under his father's name for around a year already. When he saddled a big winner over hurdles at the Cheltenham Festival in March, Joseph was specifically credited by his father. And there have been occasions, in the meantime, when son has beaten father in a race where the silks carried by different runners have been rather more instructive than the initials of the trainer listed on the racecard. Cont. p8

Albeit Joseph has already secured the support of Sheikh Fahad, the relatively everyday provenance of many of his horses should give food for thought to those Irish trainers who complain that they face an unequal struggle in taking on the bluebloods of Ballydoyle, on the flat; or the dominant jumps trainer, Willie Mullins. Most of us would consider his father's modesty and manners a handsome bequest, on their own; but Joseph, whether by nature or nurture, has clearly gained more besides.

Aidan can never have resented defeat less than when a colt by War Front (Danzig), heavily backed for his debut, was beaten at Gowran Park on Monday by Justice Frederick (Ire) (Lawman {Fr})--Joseph's first runner as a licensed trainer, ridden by his brother Donnacha, and homebred by neighbours in Co. Kilkenny. Justice Frederick, since added to the eve-of-Ascot Goffs sale in London, was mentioned as a possible for the Chesham S. on Saturday--which also happens to be a target for Cunco (Ire) (Frankel), so impressive when his sire's very first runner at Newbury last month. One way or another, it is proving a race to remind us that "the son also rises."

A Noble House Continues to Thrive...

Perhaps the most gratifying result of the week was the success of Abingdon (Street Cry {Ire}) in the Newbury listed race honouring the memory of Lord Weinstock, whose Ballymacoll Stud has been so astutely maintained since his death by its long-serving manager, Peter Reynolds. Abingdon, a big, scopey filly trained by Sir Michael Stoute, was graduating from a maiden success at Ascot last month and--despite idling--dragged the runner-up a long way clear of the rest over the last of the 10 furlongs.

As the latest blossom on a family tree that traces back to Country House (GB) (Vieux Manoir {Fr})--elsewhere on its branches you find the likes of North Light (Ire) (Danehill), Golan (Ire) (Spectrum {Ire}) and Hellenic (Ire) (Darshaan {GB})--Abingdon shapes very much as though she may do better still when able to summon upon those deep reserves over a mile and a half. Her dam, Justlookdonttouch (Ire) (Galileo {GB}), is an unraced daughter of Hellenic and therefore very closely related to multiple Group 1 scorer Islington (GB) (Sadler's Wells).

Sturdy in build and obliging in outlook, she has probably only just laid the foundations for an outfit whose horses always progress as they mature. His many friends in the business will be united by the hope that Reynolds, tasked with securing new owners for the farm as he approaches retirement, will now see her add still further to its value after presiding over the broodmare band for 44 years.

Losing his unbeaten record when fifth in The Curragh's G2 Greenlands S. over this trip May 21, last year's Ayr Gold Cup hero Don't Touch showed his enthusiasm remained undimmed by getting back on track here for a first black-type win. Smarter from the gates than he has been in the past, the bay stalked Watchable in second and was staying on strongly in customary style as that front-runner began to veer left inside the last two furlongs. In front passing the furlong marker, he was beyond reach as Danzeno threw down his late challenge to deny Watchable the runner's-up spot with Godolphin's returning 2014 G1 Middle Park S. winner Charming Thought (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) a commendable fourth. Expressive, who also has an as-yet unnamed 2-year-old colt by Mayson (GB), is a daughter of the G1 Coronation S.-winning and G1 1000 Guineas-placed Exclusive (GB) (Polar Falcon). She also produced the G1 Matron S. scorer Echelon (GB) (Danehill), who in turn is the dam of the G1 Falmouth S. heroine Integral (GB) (Dalakhani {Ire}). Also Ran: Foto Di Rito (Ire), Oakville (GB), Freccia Di Fuoco (Ire)

The decision to run a 2-year-old filly over 1200 metres after a winning debut over 1400 metres is pretty unusual, but Mujadil Lachy put her stamp on the Listed Premio Vittorio Crespi after 1000 metres, when she outkicked African Queen. The Scuderia Blueberry's representative cruised home one length in front and clocked the last 400 metres in :24 flat, a good sectional over the soft ground. The winner has plenty of options according to her connections. She could target the Listed Premio Mantovani against the fillies, over 1500 metres, or clash with the boys in the G3 Premio Primi Passi. Mujadil Lachy is out of the Italian stakes placed Mujadil Draw (Ire) (Daggers Drawn), a half-sister to the Group 3 winners Titus Shadow (Ire) (Titus Livius {Fr}), Orpen Shadow (Ire) (Orpen) and the multiple-listed scorer Choisir Shadow (Ire) (Choisir {Aus}), all bred and owned by Scuderia Blueberry. Click for Hippoweb Chart and Video.

Race name changes are farcical, but with Royal Ascot looming, maybe it is time to move with the winds of change

The Britannia S. and the Tercentenary S. are essentially auditions to race in Hong Kong and should be renamed as such.

Outlining the plan for the five-time Group 1 winner, Legh told racing.com, "We're going to leave him in Australia. He's an Australian horse, so we'll let the Australian public enjoy a great racehorse."

That means fans can look forward to seeing Chautauqua back in action at Moonee Valley Sept. 30 in the G1 Moir S., before bidding for a repeat win in the G1 Manikato S. three weeks later. In confirming targets Legh was mindful of how the best laid plans can go astray and he added, "At this stage Plan A--and Plan A can change all the time--is we've elected to go Moir, Manikato, Darley Classic and finally Hong Kong."

EXTREME CHOICE TARGETS MOIR

Extreme Choice (Aus) (Not A Single Doubt {Aus}), a winner of the G1 Ladbrokes Blue Diamond S. in February, will target the 1000-metre G1 Moir S. at Moonee Valley for his return to the races, Racing.com reported Sunday. The Mick Price trainee defeated stablemate Flying Artie (Aus) (Artie Schiller) in that affair, prior to an eighth-place run in the G1 Golden Slipper S. at Rosehill Mar. 19. The Newgate Farm colorbearer, who also races for Aquis Farm, China Horse Club, SF Bloodstock and Matthew Sandblom and family, was then spelled after displaying muscle soreness in his hindquarters.

"He's looking great," Price, who also saddled Flying Artie to a third-place run in the Slipper, told Racing.com. "I've got two races in mind for him at the moment, the Moir and the [1200-metre] Coolmore [Stud S. at Flemington Oct. 29]. He'll go back into pre-training at Rockmount on June 20."

Extreme Choice | Racing and Sports

Price revealed that Flying Artie, who races for an ownership group, would miss the spring, as he continues his recovery from a sesamoid injury.

"He was found to be suffering a minor sesamoid injury after his run in the Golden Slipper and he just needs a little bit of extra time," Price continued. "The plan at this stage is to have him back next autumn."

With a bold move in the closing metres, Patricia Bozano's Haras Dolce Vale sophomore My Cherie Amour (Brz) collared South America's winningest jockey Jorge Ricardo aboard Energia Guest (Brz) to spring the upset and become the second South American-based horse this year to earn an automatic berth into the G1 Longines Breeders' Cup Turf as part of the international Breeders' Cup Challenge series. Trained by five-time race winner Venancio Nahid, who also saddled third-placed finisher Benggala (Brz), the lightly raced winner recorded his most important career victory and extended his good form after finishing no worse than second in four previous starts.

My Cherie Amour | Marilia Lemos

Scratched at the gate from the G2 Grande Premio Doutor Frontin at Gavea on May 15, a prep for the Grande Premio Brasil, the improving 3-year-old exited a conditional victory on turf at Gavea on March 27 over 1500 metres.

Following the win, Breeders' Cup South American representative John Fulton said connections of My Cherie Amour will contemplate his eligibility for North America's richest turf race.

"He's not nominated, so they will have to put up the money by July 15th to make him eligible," said Fulton. "I will know in a couple of days."

The final Challenge race in South America will be the G1 Gran Premio Pamplona at Hipodromo Monterrico (Filly & Mare Turf) in Lima, Peru, on June 26.

My Cherie Amour (Brz)'s connections earn:
Automatic berth into the BC Turf
& $60,000 in Pre-Entry & Entry Fees
$10,000 or $40,000 travel award for ALL BCWC starters
