COLLECTED BESTS ARROGATE FOR BAFFERT EXACTA IN PAC CLASSIC

Collected holds off Arrogate | Horsephotos

It was no surprise that Hall of Famer Bob Baffert saddled the top two finishers in Saturday's GI TVG Pacific Classic at Del Mar. However, the order in which they finished surely surprised many racing fans as Collected (City Zip) scored a narrow triumph over his champion stablemate Arrogate (Unbridled's Song) to register his first Grade I success and secure a spot in the gate for the GI Breeders' Cup Classic. Despite finishing a lackluster fourth last time in this venue's GII San Diego H. July 22, Arrogate was hammered down to 3-5 favoritism and Collected was sent off as the 3-1 co-second-choice along with Accelerate (Lookin at Lucky), who sprung an 8-1 upset in the San Diego with his 8 1/2-length victory.

Collected seized the early advantage with Accelerate glued to his hip and Arrogate sitting a close third to that one's outside through early fractions of :23.76 and :47.19. Arrogate began to back out of it a bit at that point, but still retained third as Collected continued to cruise along on the front end, clocking three-quarters in 1:11.06. The top three were well clear of the rest of the field rounding the far turn and Collected began to skip away from his pursuers entering the lane. Though Accelerate kept plugging away, he never truly threatened, but Arrogate began to show renewed interest as Smith floated him out a few paths in mid-stretch. The "TDN Rising Star" kicked into gear, opening up his massive stride in the final furlong, but his rally came too late and Collected hit the line a half-length clear of his superstar stablemate. Arrogate covered 51 more feet than the winner and clocked his final quarter in :24.90 compared to Collected's final quarter of :25.42. Cont. p3

ELATE TOPS 'RISING STAR' EXACTA IN ALABAMA

"TDN Rising Star" Elate (Medaglia d'Oro) just missed behind Abel Tasman (Quality Road) last time in Saratoga's GI Coaching Club American Oaks July 23, but returned with a vengeance Saturday, romping home to an impressive 5 1/2-length victory in the prestigious GI Alabama S. Racing in mid-pack, the 4-1 shot kept close tabs on pacesetting fellow "TDN Rising Star" It Tiz Well (Arch) through opening splits of :23.46 and :46.96. As three-quarters went up in 1:10.92, GI Mother Goose S. heroine Unchained Melody (Smart Strike), who had been stalking from second throughout, suddenly dropped to the back and was pulled up, and Elate and Queen's Plate victress Holy Helena (Ghostzapper) moved into a joint second. Drawing even with It Tiz Well turning for home, Elate swiftly seized command in early stretch and cruised clear to win as she pleased. It Tiz Well held on for second over GI Acorn S. runner-up Salty (Quality Road). Cont. p4 (Click here)

Bob Baffert (L) & Peter Fluor | Benoit

"Arrogate, at least he tried today," winning trainer Bob Baffert said. "He's getting there, but I think that when I ran him in the San Diego it messed up his psyche a little bit. I don't think I have a problem bringing him back in the Breeders' Cup Classic [Nov. 5 at Del Mar]. But he's got to be fresh, just like Collected came in here fresh. And Collected is a very good horse."

"Obviously, this is a big thrill," said Peter Fluor, who operates Speedway Stables with partner K. C. Weiner. "Arrogate is a legend and I'm a great fan. I guess you'd say I'm a bit humbled by all of this, but very proud to beat Arrogate. When I have a cocktail tonight, I'll say Collected is a special horse too."

It was the fifth Pacific Classic win for Baffert, who won in 1999 with General Challenge, 2009 and 2010 with Richard's Kid and 2013 with Game On Dude, who was also ridden by Collected's pilot Martin Garcia. Bobby Frankel still holds the record for most Pacific Classic wins with six. Collected is the third Grade I winner campaigned by Speedway Stables, whose colors were also carried by "TDN Rising Star" Noted and Quoted (The Factor) in last term's GI Chandelier S. and MGISW turfer Hard Not to Like (Hard Spun).

Winner of the GIII Sham S. last term, Collected also won the Sunland Park Festival of Racing S., which replaced the GIII Sunland Derby that was canceled due to an EHV-1 outbreak and subsequent quarantine at the New Mexico track. The chestnut followed suit with a victory in the GIII Lexington S. last spring, but faded to 10th behind Exaggerator (Curlin) in the GI Preakness S. and was subsequently shelved.

Kicked off this term with a facile victory in the Santana Mile at Santa Anita Apr. 1, Collected captured the nine-panel GII Californian S. with similar ease Apr. 22. He made a mockery of the GIII Precisionist S. last time June 24, strolling home a 14-length winner over stablemate Cat Burglar (Unbridled's Song) and Accelerate. Cont. p4

Peter Fluor leading Collected | Benoit

Pedigree Notes:

A $150,000 KEESEP yearling turned $170,000 OBSMAR juvenile, Collected is the eighth Grade I winner, and the third at 10 furlongs, for his late sire City Zip, who was euthanized July 25 at 19-years-old due to chronic foot issues. The winner has a 3-year-old full-brother named Industrialist, who sold for $300,000 at last term's Fasig-Tipton March sale. Their dam Helena Bay, who won one of her four starts for breeder Runnymede Farm and Peter J. Callahan, did not produce a foal in 2015, but had a Lookin at Lucky colt in 2016 and foaled a Hard Spun colt Apr. 2 of this year. She was bred back to Triple Crown winner American Pharoah. (Click here to return to p1)

"We gave her a little bit of time after she broke her maiden and we started cranking her up and getting her ready for the races, and it was just kind of like she really hadn't come alive yet," said winning trainer Bill Mott, who won the 2005 Alabama with Sweet Symphony and the 2011 renewal with the late three-time champion Royal Delta. "She was doing fine; her works were good without being spectacular and you could tell she was probably a filly that was going through a little bit of a growing stage, a development stage." Cont. p5

Elate | Sarah K. Andrew

Mott continued, “We said then that she probably wouldn't be on her game for the Kentucky Oaks, that she was more of an Alabama filly and that's exactly how it worked out.”

Mott added, “I just wanted the win for the filly and for the connections. Ms. [Adele] Dilschneider is such a great person. She's just a wonderful lady, one of the great women of the turf. You couldn't have a better owner. She loves her horses and she was looking forward to this as much as I was.”

“When I got to the three-eighths pole, I felt I had a lot of horse underneath me,” winning rider Jose Ortiz said. “I just went along with her and as we entered the stretch, she really got going and I didn't look back, I kept riding. It's a Grade I and I didn't want to look back for anybody, I just focused on riding her to the finish.”

Jockey Joel Rosario offered an update on Unchained Melody, who was pulled up and vanned off, saying, "I had to keep asking her to just hold my position and she was there and at one point, she wasn't. Everybody was getting away from me. She was steady, just didn't want to do it. After that, I just had to pull her up and make sure she was OK. She was feeling fine physically. I don't know, she just got tired. I don't know what happened."

Elate earned Rising Star honors after an ultra-impressive 12 1/2-length graduation on debut at Aqueduct Nov. 26 and checked in second as the heavy favorite next out in Tampa Bay’s Suncoast S. Feb. 11. A late-running third as the chalk behind It Tiz Well in Oaklawn’s GIII Honeybee S. Mar. 11, the dark bay was pulled up and vanned off in Keeneland’s GI Ashland S. Apr. 8. Mott regrouped after that start, giving Elate a class break in a first-level allowance at Churchill Downs May 5, where she finished second over a sloppy track.

The Hall of Famer remained conservative, sending the homebred to Delaware’s Light Hearted S. June 15, and was rewarded when she romped home to a 5 1/2-length victory. Stepped back up to Grade I company in the Spa’s CCA Oaks next out July 23, Elate gave divisional leader Abel Tasman a fight down the stretch, coming up a head short at the wire, but finishing 3 1/4 lengths clear of Salty. Ortiz lodged a claim of foul against Mike Smith and Abel Tasman for crowding Elate in the stretch, but the results stood as is after a stewards inquiry.

Pedigree Notes:

Elate, who is the 18th Grade I winner for her sire, was bred on the same Medagalia d’Oro/Forty Niner cross that is responsible for Hall of Famer Rachel Alexandra, two-time champion Songbird and MGISW turfer New Money Honey, who finished fifth in this first try on dirt. Her stakes-winning dam Cheery is by Distorted Humor, whose daughters have produced the likes of New Money Honey, champion Arrogate and MGISWs Constitution and Practical Joke.

Claiborne’s Seth W. Hancock purchased Elate’s third dam, the Paul Mellon-bred MGSW & GISP Wild Applause (Northern Dancer), for $1.025 million at the 1992 Keeneland November sale. She produced MGSW Roar, who is the broodmare sire of Rachel Alexandra, and Elate’s second dam Yell (A.P. Indy), winner of the 2003 GII Davona Dale S. and GIII Raven Run S. and third behind champion Bird Town in that year’s GI Kentucky Oaks. In addition to Cheery, Yell is also responsible for GISP Chide (Blame).

Elate is the first foal out of Cheery, who failed to get back in foal to War Front, but produced a colt named Haunt (Ghostzapper) in 2016 and a Blame colt Mar. 8 of this year. The 8-year-old mare was bred back to Medaglia d’Oro this term.

John Oxley's Dream Dancing got the most favorable of bobs and became the 23rd Grade I winner for her sire in Saturday's Del Mar Oaks.

Julien Leparoux wasted no time at all snagging Dream Dancing back into the latter third of the field from their double-digit draw and the duo was third-last with a circuit to travel. Ridden very quietly while allowed to settle into her stride, the homebred held her position through the middle furlongs and still had just two of her rivals behind her as they raced midway on the second turn. With Leparoux waiting for just the right moment to release the hand brakes, Dream Dancing was pulled to the outside of Beau Recall and was fanned about seven wide to deliver her challenge with a furlong and a half to travel. Roused right-handed at the eighth pole, she joined Beau Recall to that one's outside, and although she trailed in the final jump prior to the wire and in the first jump past the line, Dream Dancing dropped her head when it mattered most. Madam Dancelot closed from last to be a very good third, while Sandringham H. winner Con Te Partiro (Scat Daddy) closed off well to be fourth after getting shuffled back leaving the three-eighths marker.

"The last time I rode her, I asked her at the three-eighths and she got a little weary at the end," Leparoux explained. "This time I tried to wait as long as I could and she was still strong at the finish. This feels good; a win is a win, no matter where you get it."

Despite breaking her maiden on turf last summer at Saratoga, Dream Dancing was given a chance to make a name for herself on the dirt, but failed to factor in three graded attempts before calling it a season. Victorious in Gulfstream's GIII Herecomesthebride S. in her second start of the season, the gray was runner-up to fellow Oxley runner La Coronel (Colonel John) in the GIII Edgewood S. May 5. Third to MGISW New Money Honey (Medaglia d'Oro) in the GIII Wonder Again S., Dream Dancing was seventh to Saturday's GII Lake Placid S. winner and "TDN Rising Star" Proctor's Lodge (Ghostzapper) in the July 21 GIII Lake George S.

Pedigree Notes:

Dream Dancing is out of an unraced daughter of Beautiful Pleasure (Maudlin), a full-sister to MGISW Mecke who gave Oxley the first of his two Breeders' Cup winners when taking the 1999 GI Distaff. Dream Dancing's GSP half-sister Sky Dreamer (Sky Mesa) is the dam of Kimbear (Temple City), runner-up to GII Woody Stephens S. victor American Anthem (Bodemeister) in this year's GIII Lazaro Barrera Memorial S. To Dream About produced the winner's yearling full-brother Dream About, aborted to Empire Maker for 2017 and was most recently bred to Tapit's treble Grade I-winning son Frosted.

"TDN Rising Star" Proctor's Ledge made an eye-catching late move to score her second consecutive graded victory at Saratoga Saturday. Away well, the homebred bided her time in a ground-saving fourth as fellow "TDN Rising Star" Coasted (Tizway) ticked off comfortable opening splits of :24.39 and :50.03 with Party Boat and La Coronel (Colonel John) close behind. MGSW La Coronel ranged up menacingly as Coasted hit the 3/8ths pole in 1:14.11, but Party Boat and Proctor's Ledge were right on her tail. Those four lined up across the track with Proctor's Ledge running widest of all and Uni continuing to trail, but Coasted soon threw in the towel leaving the other three to fight it out. While La Coronel and Party Boat remained locked together, Proctor's Ledge hit another gear and unleashed a furious late turn of foot, powering clear of her rivals and holding off a bold rally from Uni to score. Party Boat edged out La Coronel to be third and Coasted finished last of the quintet.

"She's something else, to beat fillies like that so impressively," said trainer Brendan Walsh. "She's been threatening all the time to do this and getting better and better. It's just fantastic and great for everybody involved: super owners, my guys working with her. It's just brilliant." Cont. p8

As for her next start, the conditioner said, "I don't know about the Breeders' Cup, but you have to think about a race like the [GI QEII Challenge Cup at Keeneland Oct. 14] next for her."

Winning rider Javier Castellano was equally pleased, saying, “You could tell the pace was comfortable. She was laid back. I liked the way she finished. I love the way she runs. No matter where you put her, she'll always show up.”

A second out graduate at Gulfstream Jan. 28 at odds of 49-1, Proctor’s Ledge earned her Rising Star nod when circling the field for an impressive last-to-first optional claimer victory in Hallandale Feb. 18. Third to La Coronel in Keeneland’s one-mile GIII Appalachian S. Apr. 13, the bay was fourth to that rival in the GIII Edgewood S. at Churchill Downs May 5. Completing the exacta behind fellow “TDN Rising Star” Sweeping Paddy (Paddy O’Prado) in the nine-panel GIII Regret S. beneath the Twin Spires June 17, Proctor’s Ledge charged home to a decisive victory in this venue’s GIII Lake George S. July 21 while receiving Lasix for the first time and a new rider in Eclipse winner Castellano.

Pedigree Notes:

Proctor’s Ledge was bred and is owned by Patricia Moseley, the former chairwoman of Suffolk Downs and widow of prominent Massachusetts racing figure James Moseley. James Moseley campaigned Proctor’s Ledge’s third dam Drumtop to a number of stakes victories and course-record-breaking performances going long on the turf, and her bred her second dam Aliata in partnership with legendary horseman Paul Mellon. Dam Archstone’s best performance was a runner-up finish in Belmont’s Sabin S. over 10 turfy panels for Patricia Moseley in 2008. Archstone is responsible for the unraced juvenile filly Hadriana (Bodemeister) and a yearling filly by Street Sense. The 14-year-old mare was bred back to Orb after producing that filly, but failed to get in foal, and was sent back to Ghostzapper earlier this term. Hunt made it two in a row and stamped his ticket to the Breeders' Cup with a determined victory in the GII Del Mar H., a "Win and You're In" for the GI Breeders' Cup Turf at the seaside oval in November. Off to a good beginning from the 11-hole, the gray tracked from fourth as Mr. Roary (Scat Daddy) ticked off early fractions of :24.40, :49.40 and 1:14.88. Slipping through up the rail at the top of the stretch, Hunt skipped clear and held off a late rally from Itsinthepost to score.

"It was a masterful ride," winning trainer Phil D'Amato said. "Flavien [Prat] just bided his time, let the race develop a little, found a seam on the inside and turned him loose. He got it done."

"The slow pace helped us; he like that, coming from the shorter race," Prat said. "We were close up, too. He likes to be among horses; covered up. I followed Gary [Stevens on Ashleyluvssugar] through the hole [at the top of the stretch], then dropped down. He had it from there."

Hunt | Benoit

A handicapper in Ireland when he was privately purchased in 2015, Hunt registered his first black-type win on these shores in the 2016 Siren Lure S. Sixth in the Green Flash H. sprinting over this course last summer, the gelding checked in third in the GIII Eddie D. S. six weeks later and never factored when eighth in the Damascus S. Nov. 4. Closing out 2016 with a fourth in the GII Seabiscuit H. Nov. 26, the 5-year-old was fifth in the GIII American S. July 4 and got back on track with a one-length victory over the reopposing Ashleyluvssugar (Game Plan) and Mr. Roary in the nine-panel GII Eddie Read S. last time July 22.

Pedigree Notes:

Hunt became the first North American graded winner for Dark Angel, sire of the Group 1-winning sprinters Mecca's Angel (Ire), Lethal Force (Ire) and Harry Angel (Ire), last time in the Eddie Read. The winner's dam Mansiya's most recent produce is a 2-year-old filly by Born to Sea (Ire).

Conquest Panthera had been knocking on the door at the graded level all year, and he finally broke through here against a pretty salty-looking bunch. Unhurried from the blocks, the lightly raced 5-year-old tugged his way up three or four deep to sit perched in fourth around the bend. Ridden very confidently as pacesetter Dowse's Beach maintained a clear advantage at the head of the lane, he lugged in a bit to midstretch, but kept on plugging away and wore down the pacesetter in the waning stages.

"By the time the gates fly, he was relaxing," said winning rider Patrick Husbands, who piloted Kaigun (Northern Afleet) to victory in this event in 2014 for the same connections. "He was just taking me for a nice little journey so I was happy."

Named a 'TDN Rising Star' for a successful debut on the Del Mar synthetic in 2014, Conquest Panthera was seventh behind American Pharoah (Pioneerof the Nile) in that September's GI FrontRunner S. routing on the dirt. He made just one start in 2015--a sixth-place finish in a grassy Saratoga allowance--but took a local event going a sixteenth shorter just days before he went through the ring as part of the Conquest Stables dispersal at KEENOV '16. His trainer Mark Casse signed for him that day for $100,000, and he resurfaced carrying the Gary Barber hot pink when annexing a Gulfstream optional claimer over GSW All Included (Include) in January. Third in the one-mile GIII Canadian Turf S. in Hallandale Mar. 4, he filled the same slot--beaten just a neck at 27-1--in the GI Maker's 46 Mile S. at Keeneland Apr. 14. Eighth in the GI Woodford Reserve Turf Classic S. on GI Kentucky Derby Day May 6, he had been freshened since another third-place run in the GII Wise Dan S. back under the Twin Spires June 17.

"The only two bad races from looking at the form were when he went long," said Husbands. "You take away that, he had two Grade I races there and he didn't get beat far. He showed that he was the best horse today."

Pedigree Notes:

Lastofthesummerwine was acquired for $135,000 at the 2008 OBS June sale by Ken and Sarah Ramsey, but made only one start--a runner-up effort sprinting on the Keeneland synthetic in October of that season for Wesley Ward. Conquest Panthera was her first foal, and she subsequently sold to Gatewood Bell's Cromwell Bloodstock on behalf of Ward carrying Ward's future GII Amsterdam S. runner-up Maniacal (Kitten's Joy). Lastofthesummerwine has been represented this year by Happy Like a Fool (Distorted Humor), a romping debut winner in Lexington in April for Ward who was second in the G2 Queen Mary S. at Royal Ascot June 21. Lastofthesummerwine produced a Super Saver colt in 2016 and an American Pharoah filly this year before being bred to Distorted Humor.

The progressive Tricky Escape earned the first graded stakes win of her career with a rallying score in the Saturday feature at the Jersey Shore. Never worse than fourth in 11 career starts, the dark bay bided her time behind moderate fractions and was going best of all late to claim a narrow victory.

In a bit tight between horses toward the back of the pack behind a crawling initial quarter-mile in :26.09, Tricky Escape checked out of that spot and continued on under a firm hold down the backside as the leaders completed a half-mile in :50.75. Shaken up approaching the far turn, she saved ground entering the stretch, split horses once again in midstretch and kicked on strongly to cross the wire in front. Light Up Our World tagged pacesetting Gianna's Dream for place honors.

Ridden exclusively by Forest Boyce in her first 10 trips to post, Tricky Escape was piloted by veteran Chris DeCarlo Saturday.

"I wanted to be up close, but when we broke a few horses came over on me and then I had to check going into the first turn, so I wound up in the back," said DeCarlo. "On the backside, the field cleared me and I was able to get over to the rail. I had to take so much of a hold of her early, I was a little afraid I was going to discourage her, but that definitely wasn't the case."

The filly's most recent win came in a grassy optional claimer at Laurel Apr. 23, and in the interim she earned a pair of fourth-place finishes in the June 3 GIII Eatontown S. locally and the July 8 GIII Robert G. Dick Memorial S. She entered the Violet off a runner-up finish in a rained-off-the-turf allowance race at Delaware July 29. Her win Saturday marked the first graded stakes success for both Lynn Ashby, who trains a large number of Arabian horses in Delaware, as well as owner Jon Marshall.

Pedigree Notes:

Tricky Escape is a half to Felifran (Discreet Cat), who ran second in the 2015 GIII Palm Beach S. Second dam Royal Deception (Sovereign Dancer) is a half-sister to GISW All Fired Up (Timeless Moment). The winner RNA'd for $65,000 as a Keeneland September yearling, while two-time stakes-winning dam Island Escape sold for $2,000 at this year's Keeneland January sale in foal to Stay Thirsty. That foal hit the ground this spring, joining a yearling full-brother to the winner foaled in 2016.

Chief Know It All kicked off the year with a score for trainer Brad Cox in a $62,500 optional claimer at Oaklawn Jan. 27 and failed to fire next time out in the Feb. 20 GIII Southwest S. and had to settle for 10th. Back in the winner's circle in a $100,000 optional claimer over seven furlongs at Keeneland Apr. 8, he was a solid third--beaten 2 3/4 lengths--at Churchill Downs June 3. Dropped in for a $100,000 tag most recently in an 8 1/2-furlong turf test at the Louisville oval June 30, Chief Know It All was snapped up by the current connections in what now looks like a bargain.

Well supported here, the grey was in the mix early and didn't let the leaders out of his sight through early fractions of :24.03, :48.90 and 1:14.57. Eager to engage the leader Double Bear down the backstretch the second time, Chief Know It All poked his head in front after a mile in 1:40.34, while flanked by Double Bear and the encroaching Trouper John, drew away from the rest in tandem with those rivals, inched into the lead turning for home and fought tooth and nail down the stretch to fend off those game rivals for a first graded score. The win gave jockey Rico Walcott his fourth Canadian Derby.

Amanda Duckworth

ORDOS, China--The 2017 China Equine Cultural Festival kicked off Saturday night with the CECF Ordos Welcome Party. Themed "Glamour Night," the evening's festivities celebrated the upcoming racing meet Sunday, and both events remain an important part of Teo Ah Khing's vision for bringing racing to China.

"With a mantra of 'Bring the World to China, China to the World,' we are blessed to welcome guests, partners, sponsors, jockeys, and racing officials from all across China as well as from Europe, America, Asia, Australasia, and the Caribbean," said Teo, the chairman and founder of the China Horse Club. "The diversity of this event is instrumental in creating wonderful occasions and interactions."

Starting with drinks and appetizers, the welcome party served as a way to let all of the participants mix and mingle before turning their attention to racing. After being ushered into a dramatically lit room, Eden Harrington, the vice president of the China Horse Club, served as the host for the evening.

During the party, awards were handed out; art work was auctioned off for a charity; traditional dress was displayed in a fashion show; sponsors, trainers, owners, and jockeys were thanked; and a new Yitai desert song titled "Heroes Are Flying" debuted.

"There was a time when people doubted China, when they doubted that China would become a racing center," Harrington said. "There was a time when they didn't believe. But then again, there was a time when televisions were only in black and white, and mobile phones only allowed you to make phone calls." Cont. p13

Amanda Duckworth

Among those listening to Harrington's words were Elliott Walden, the president of WinStar Farm and a regular partner with the China Horse Club, as well as representatives from the likes of the Australian Turf Club, New Zealand Bloodstock, Goffs, Tattersalls, Inglis, Magic Millions, Ocala Breeders' Sales Company, and Keeneland.

Additionally, renowned artists Li Xiaoling, Cai Zhisong, Shize, Huqing and Pushi--who each contributed their work for the charity auction--were part of the 250 or so people in attendance.

The highest honor of the night, the Lifetime Achievement Award, went to John Warren, who is both the bloodstock advisor for Queen Elizabeth II as well as the chairman for the China Horse Club's International Advisory Council.

First held in 2013, the CECF has grown exponentially as Khing works to make Thoroughbred racing an accepted sport in China. As the signature event created by China Horse Club, the CECF has been designed to cater to the social and business requirements of the club's elite membership group while appealing to a mass market audience through Thoroughbred racing and other cultural events.

In 2016, the first year the CECF was held in Ordos, the four-race card drew over 20,000 people, which surprised even the organizers. Their expectations for this year's races remain modest, although the indicators are there that another large crowd will be on hand.

"We take pride in whatever we plan and execute," said Teo. "Anything more than a crowd of 10,000 is deemed as a major event in communist China. We did not expect that our CECF the first year in Ordos would draw more than 20,000. We expected 8,000. We purposely wanted 8,000 because that falls below the rudder, and we wanted to classify as a small event, but it exploded into a large event.

"There is a lot of pressure this year. The crowd is just one indicator. I think the quality of the event itself should continue to evolve and take care of the needs of the people who come."

Having the CECF is an integral part of meeting the lifestyle promises of the China Horse Club to its members, but so is success at major racing events around the world.

It started with a bang in Europe with champion Australia (Galileo), and followed with Australian Horse of the Year Dissident (Sebring). This year, the club is making headlines in the United States with GI Kentucky Oaks heroine Abel Tasman (Quality Road), who is a current front runner for end of year honors. In all, the club has won more than 250 races worldwide.

"We try to explain to all of our members to not get over excited, but so far I think in our five-year program the word to explain it is we are very lucky," said Teo. "For example, our specific plan for the United States spanned three to five years, but within two years things happened. Here came Abel Tasman and Good Samaritan (Harlan's Holiday) and the members got excited. That's the most important thing. Our program in the U.S. has had to be fast-tracked.

"Just like Australia--the first year we enter racing, we get the English Derby winner. We were caught and surprised. We learned from the Australia experience, and now I think from Abel and others, we have learned and we have something to be proud of."

Looking forward, the China Horse Club has its eye on attending both the Breeders' Cup World Championships in California as well as the first ever running of The Everest in Australia, which aims to be the richest turf race in the world. First though, comes the humbler but vitally important day of races at Ordos.

"I think Breeders' Cup in November we are going to see some healthy crowds, and before that, we are talking about perhaps taking part in the experience for the Everest in Sydney," said Teo. "I think October and November will be two highlights for us, after our meet here.

"The China Horse Club is now a brand, and they are now asking whether they can join. We still have a youth membership, and they say, 'What is the age?' and I say, 'It is 65 and below.' We have been systematically, step-by-step introducing the concept of racing to China."

TRAVERS CONTENDERS PUT IN FINAL BREEZES

Girvin (Tale of Ekati), a narrow victor of the GI betfair.com Haskell Invitational S. July 30, drilled a bullet five furlongs in :59.98 (1/11) over Saratoga's Oklahoma training track Saturday in preparation for the Aug. 26 GI Travers S. With jockey Robby Albarado at the controls, the dark bay breezed in company with fellow sophomore Line Judge (Spring at Last).

"He worked unbelievable today," trainer Joe Sharp said. "He went in :59 4/5 and he out-worked Line Judge, who is no slouch and a stakes winner in his own right. He's doing very well right now and was really moving out there."

GI Preakness S. victor Cloud Computing (Maclean's Music) covered five panels in 1:01.65 (11/11) on the Spa's main track Saturday with regular rider Javier Castellano aboard. Trainer Chad Brown said a final decision on whether the colt, who finished fifth in the GII Jim Dandy S. last out July 29, would run in the Travers will be made Monday.

"It went good," Brown said. "I won't make any decision yet until I talk to the owners. I'm going to give myself until Monday. I want to see how the horse comes out of the work, take time to talk to the owners, and think about it. He couldn't have worked any better. I was very happy with the work, and Javier was pleased."

Cool Catomine | WEG/Burns

Last month's Prince of Wales S. winner Cool Catomine (Spring At Last) tries the turf as he looks to annex two of three legs of Canada's Triple Crown in Sunday's Breeders' S. at Woodbine. A fourth-out graduate by a head over subsequent maiden breaker Glencairn (Candy Ride {Arg}) over the synthetic July 2, the John Ross pupil wheeled back on 23 days' rest and belied 14-1 odds to take the Prince of Wales S. on the Fort Erie dirt by a decisive 2 1/2-length margin. The great grandson of German champion Martessa (Ger) (Solarstern {Fr}) tested out the local lawn with a six-furlong breeze in 1:14 4/5 Aug. 9. For more on Cool Catomine's breeders, click here. Final Copy (Malibu Moon) defeated Conquest Lemonraid (Lemon Drop Kid) and King and His Court (Court Vision) in the grassy nine-panel Toronto Cup here July 23. Seeking Albert (Einstein {Brz}) is proven over course and distance--he pulled off an 18-1 upset in a July 14 allowance last out in his second start since being acquired privately from Texas-based connections. Channel Maker (English Channel) gets the morning-line nod off a fourth-place run in the Queen's Plate July 2. He's seeking his first victory since breaking his maiden in a turf sprint stakes here at two.

The Simon Callaghan barn is very well-stocked these days, and it unveiled another promising runner on the GI Pacific Classic S. undercard Saturday in the form of juvenile filly Moonshine Memories (Malibu Moon), who was named a 'TDN Rising Star.' Given a 37-10 chance off a fairly unassuming worktab, the $650,000 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga grad broke a half-step slow but quickly burst through horses to grab the lead. Challenged from her inside through an opening quarter in :21.88, she was joined on her right flank by odds-on Tyfosha (Flatter) exiting the bend. Going better--and straighter--than that foe as they pulled far clear of the rest of the field, she was a length in front of her main rival at the wire while stopping the timer in 1:10.08 and galloping out all by herself. Tyfosha was 11 1/2 lengths clear of fellow Doug O'Neill pupil Dr. Ann (Eskendereya) in third. While she hasn't broken through yet, Tyfosha seems to be a good barometer for other runners in this division. The $410,000 OBSMAR grad was second at 1-2 on debut behind subsequent Landaluce S. romper Surrender Now (Morning Line), and filled the same slot behind 'Rising Star' Just a Smidge (Into Mischief) on opening day here July 19. Moonshine Memories is a half-sibling to precocious Indian Evening (Indian Charlie), SW & GSP, $140,172, who sired this year's very speedy Northern California-based stakes-winning juvenile Kimberlea K.

Unenchantedevening, a half to 1997's champion 2-year-old and Horse of the Year Favorite Trick (Phone Trick), produced a filly by Distorted Humor in 2016 followed by a colt by Honor Code this term. She was bred back to Malibu Moon.

HELLO DON JULIO (g, 5, Afleet Alex--Faithful, by Vindication) took an optional claimer down state June 30, and was stepping back down in class after showing the way before fading to fifth in the GII Bowling Green S. over an extra 5/16 of a mile July 29. Drafting third early, the 3-1 shot was seemingly ridden to keep pace around the final bend but kept coming once tipped into the clear into the stretch. Struggling a bit with his leads while pulling clear in midstretch, he kept on to prevail by two lengths over Manitoulin (Awesome Again). The winner has an unraced 2-year-old half-sister named Trust (Bodemeister) who was purchased by Alex and Jo Ann Lieblong for $400,000 at last year's Fasig-Tipton Saratoga Sale and has been breezing regularly at Churchill. Faithful, a half to Grade I winner Well Chosen (Deputy Minister), herself the dam of local GI Sword Dancer S. hero Telling (A.P. RACE ME HOME (IRE) (c, 4, Oasis Dream {GB}--Society Selection {MGISW, $1,984,200}, by Coronado's Quest) got the money on the GI Alabama S. undercard, a race won by his talented dam in 2004. He recorded his sole victory to date going nine furlongs at Churchill in May of 2016 before finishing second in the Easy Goer S. in June. Off the board in his next three, including a one-mile allowance at the Louisville oval this spring, the Irish bred came home fifth–beaten three lengths–while trying the turf for the first time over that course June 17. A distant 10th while giving the sod one more try here July 30, Race Me Home was sent off at 13-1 returning to the main track. Unhurried in seventh while wide around the first turn, he remained just behind the leading rank through a half in :47.89. Four wide turning for home, he steadily cut into favored Meantime (Shackleford)'s advantage through the stretch and was up in time to best the 4-5 shot by a neck. Society Selection, a $1.85-million purchase by Aisling Duignan, agent, at the 2010 KEENOV sale, had Galileo (Ire) fillies in 2014 and 2015. Sales History: $185,000 Ylg '14 KEESEP. CHASTISE (f, 3, Blame--Rapid Racer {SW}, by Forest Wildcat) earned her diploma at second asking over the Keeneland lawn Oct. 12, then was freshened after failing to fire as the 3-2 chalk in an allowance there Oct. 26. Not given much love by the Saratoga faithful to fire fresh off the bench here, the 21-1 chance secured a good early spot racing under cover riding the rail in fourth. She shot through an opening along the inside in the stretch and outboxed Glory to Kitten (Kitten's Joy) to the wire to score by a half length. It was another neck back to La Sola Ranger (U S Ranger) in third. The winner's stakes-winning dam has a 2-year-old filly by Arch, a yearling filly by Candy Ride (Arg) and a Lemon Drop Kid colt of this year. She was bred back to Orb. +PURE SHOT (c, 2, Fast Bullet--Darn That Girl, by Darn That Alarm) was drawn widest for this career debut and dismissed at odds of 22-1, but none of that mattered when the gates opened, as the chestnut immediately rocketed to the front and cleared the field through a quarter-mile in :22.47. Traveling well within himself while maintaining a clear advantage coming off the turn, he was never truly headed and kicked away to score by 2 1/4 lengths. Allured (Flatter) completed the exacta. 3-1 favorite Avery Island (Street Sense) finished seventh. Pure Shot, the most recent produce from Darn That Girl, becomes the second winner for his freshman sire (by Speightstown). The winner is a half to Dream of Me (High Cotton), MSW, $290,850. REMARQUED (f, 3, Arch--Citizen Advocate MSW & GSP, $327,450}, by Proud Citizen), fifth in the slop in a six-furlong, off-turf event at Belmont May 5, finished a much improved second while sprinting on the sod at the Elmont oval May 27. Fifth while routing for the first time over this turf course July 29, Remarqued was granted a 6-1 chance this time. A close-up second behind a moderately paced A Change of Heart (Unbridled's Song) in the early going, she kept her foe in her sights until the stretch. Moving up on even terms with that rival turning for home, she drew clear and had enough left in reserve to hold off Speighgal (Speightstown) by 3/4 of a length at the wire. Citizen Advocate is responsible for a yearling filly by Declaration of War and a weanling colt by Candy Ride (Arg). She was bred back to Runhappy. Sales History: $320,000 Ylg '15 OBSAUG. NYRA Celebrates First Responders Appreciation Day:

The New York Racing Association, Inc. will honor police officers, firefighters, EMTs and paramedics during First Responders Appreciation Day. The event will be held Wednesday, Aug. 23 from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. The day will feature free grandstand admission for all first responders with proper identification. NYRA will welcome local police officers, firefighters, EMTs and paramedics to the winner's circle for the day's fourth race, which will be named in honor of first responders.

"The New York Racing Association is pleased to welcome our local first responders to Saratoga Race Course," said NYRA CEO and President Chris Kay. "We are so grateful to these individuals, who provide immediate help during our critical times of need. Our communities rely upon these men and women for our health, safety and security. We look forward to recognizing them for their service, and hope to provide them with an enjoyable afternoon at Saratoga."

Local police, fire and emergency service departments will host activities and demonstrations at the Berkshire Bank Saratoga Pavilion throughout the afternoon, including children's finger printing and identification cards from the Saratoga County Sheriff's Office, and a child's safety seat demonstration from the New York State Police. For more information, call 518-584-6200 or visit www.NYRA.com/Saratoga.

9th-ELP, $39,947, Msw, 8-19, 3yo/up, f/m, 1mT, 1:33.47, fm. I REMEMBER MAMA (f, 3, Ghostzapper--Joyful Chaos {SW, $235,761}, by Rahy) rallied strongly to finish second in her course-and-distance unveiling here July 1 and was bet down to 9-5 favoritism to find the winner's circle in this second try. Skillfully steered inward to avoid going extremely wide into the first turn, the chestnut settled well off the pace behind a half-mile in :45.53. Waiting for a clear path entering the far turn, she rallied between horses, turned for home in the six path and closed resolutely to win going away by 1 1/4 lengths over Trivial (Blame). The winner is a half to Sweet Shirley Mae (Broken Vow), GISP, $219,808. She has a weanling full-sister, and dam Joyful Chaos was bred back to Tiznow this spring. Money'soncharlotte | JJ Zamaiko

Money'soncharlotte entered this rich contest riding a three-race winning streak, including Monmouth Park's Lady's Secret S. July 2 and GIII Molly Pitcher S. July 30. Sent off as the second choice, the George Hall colorbearer sat a tracking second through fractions of :23.02 and :48.28, gained a narrow advantage on the far turn and kept on finding in the stretch to hold the GI Delaware H. runner-up safe. "The word I heard about Thistledown was that it was a little bit of a sandy-based track," winning trainer Kelly Breen said. "This filly, two-turning-three, won at Calder, and you can't get much more of a sandier track, so I really felt confident coming out here, and she proved herself. She shipped in yesterday and showed up today. Paco [Lopez] rides a nice race." Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

CALVERT STREET (g, 4, Slew's Tiznow--Harlan Express, by Harlan's Holiday), sent off at 9-1 following a fourth at 49-1 over this turf course July 28, broke well and settled into an easy tempo behind a comfortable opening pace set by Record Highs (Heatseeker {Ire}). Ready to take on that rival heading into the home turn, Calvert Street inched ahead midstretch and was asked for more late, proving 3/4 of a length better than runner up Fritz Johansen (Unusual Heat). Calvert Street finished in the money in five of seven starts this term, including a first attempt on the grass over a mile at Turf Paradise Apr. 17. Fifth going 6 1/2 furlongs against Cal bred rivals at Santa Anita May 19, he added another notch to his belt when scoring while facing fellow state-breds at the Arcadia oval June 23. He was a disappointing fourth as the 7-5 favorite here July 21. Installed the 5-2 second choice this time, American Pastime settled off the early pace through swift early splits, swung out three wide turning for home, took over midstretch and drew off to win by 2 1/2 lengths over Distinctive B (With Distinction). American Pastime's dam Ryan's Inheritance (Valid Expectations), a half-sister to GSW and MGISP Victory U. S. A. Tribalist debuted at Del Mar exactly four years prior to Friday night, but has only managed to make four subsequent starts with a sporadic racing schedule. He's made the most of his abbreviated career, however, and added a stakes win to his name with a score in the Friday feature. Entering the Green Flash off a three-race winning streak comprised of races in July 2014, August 2015 and July 2016, Tribalist took a reasonable amount of support at the windows and was shuffled to the rear of the pack leaving the gate. Quickly advancing up the rail behind a quarter-mile in :22.19, he paused briefly turning for home while angling off the rail, dove back down to that path in the drive and uncorked a strong rally to get up in the final strides. The winner's dam is also responsible for an unraced juvenile colt by Uh Oh Bango named Ultimate Bango, as well as a yearling filly by that same sire. She foaled a filly by Haimish Hy this year and was bred back to Mr. Big. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

IT'S GALILEO DAY IN DEAUVILLE

By Emma Berry and Tom Peacock

The curtain couldn't have fallen in more emphatic fashion on the first session of Arqana's August Yearling Sale on Saturday when the final lot in the ring (88), a Galileo (Ire) half-brother to the Group 1-winning duo of Most Improved (Ire) and Ectot (Ire), sold for a nicely rounded €1-million to MV Magnier in partnership with Mayfair Speculators and Peter and Ross Doyle.

"He was a very nice horse and what Galileo is doing this year we haven't seen before. The mare [Tonnara] has bred two Group 1 winners already. Let's hope he becomes the third," said the man whose family holds the crown jewel of the European bloodstock industry in Galileo, whose offspring filled the top three slots on the leaderboard on Saturday.

If the supersire dominates the European stallion tables, it's Henri Bozo and his shrewd team of investors in Ecurie des Monceaux who have come to rule Arqana's high summer extravaganza in recent seasons. Once more the team was the leading vendor after day one, with 17 sold for a total of €6,795,000 and average of €399,706.

The Monceaux tally accounted for a significant portion of the day's aggregate of €17,132,000, which was up 18% on the corresponding session last year.

WINX BLOWS START, WINS ANYWAY

Winx (Aus) (Street Cry {Ire}), the world's highest-rated mare and turf horse, added some drama to her seasonal debut in Saturday's G2 Warwick S. when missing the break by four lengths, but nonetheless got up to beat stablemate and last-out G1 Coolmore Legacy S. winner Foxplay (Aus) (Foxwedge {Aus}) by a neck, notching her 18th consecutive win (video). Making her 6-year-old debut and her first start since a 5 1/4-length victory in the G1 Queen Elizabeth S. over this same Randwick track on Apr. 8, Winx broke in the air and was well last in the opening stages of the 1400 metre race. Working her way gradually closer as Ecuador (NZ) (High Chaparral {Ire}) made the running and Foxplay sat two lengths off his heels on the rail, Winx and Hugh Bowman were still last with at least six lengths to make up as they came off the turn. Widest of all coming into the straight, Winx blew past the entire field under a handride from Bowman and got up just in time to nip Foxplay on the line, with Ecuador staying on for third. Cont. It's Galileo Day In Deauville cont. from p1

The average rose even more dramatically, climbing 40% to €259,576, with the median also rising from €150,000 to €180,000. With 66 of the 82 yearlings offered finding a buyer, the clearance rate held steady at 80%.

The Mayfair Speculators' love affair with Arqana's August Sale and the offspring of the Ecurie des Monceaux matriarch Prudenzia (Ire) (Dansili {GB}) continued on Saturday when Peter Doyle went to €950,000 on behalf of the South African conglomerate in partnership with Coolmore for the mare's latest filly by Galileo (Ire) (lot 51). Twelve months ago the same team bought the filly's full-sister, now named Magic Wand (Fr) and in training with Aidan O'Brien, for €1.4-million, while two years earlier they had gone to €1.1-million for the dual winner Craven's Legend (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). This is the sixth of Prudenzia's yearling to have graced the ring in August. Four have made seven-figure sums while the 'cheapest' of the bunch--who was hardly a snip at €600,000--is so far the best to date, her G1 Irish Oaks-winning daughter Chicquita (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}).

"What Galileo is doing this year we haven't seen before. The mare has bred two Group 1 winners already. Let's hope he becomes the third."

"We've gone back to the family," said Derek Brugman, agent for Mayfair Speculators. "Unfortunately Craven's Legend has had a tendon injury but he should be back in training with Andre Fabre soon and this filly's full-sister is with Aidan O'Brien and is a later-maturing type. This filly will stay in France and go to Andre Fabre."

It wasn't long before the Mayfair Speculators returned to that familiar source of Galileo and Ecurie des Monceaux, adding lot 65, a filly out of Secrete (Fr) (Cape Cross {Ire}), a half-sister to G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud winner Plumania (Fr) (Anabaa), for €700,000. Brugman suggested it was mission accomplished for the team when Doyle signed for the filly, who will be owned outright by Mayfair Speculators.

"We thought she was one of the two best fillies at the sale, and the other one was lot 51," he said. "She's a very good-moving filly with lots of substance. We hope to be able to breed from these Galileos in the future and she's going to stay in France and be trained by Nicolas Clement."

NINE Group-winning juveniles so far, with four G1 performers – including a first and second in the Dewhurst, a race he won himself.

And Teofilo's latest crop is doing even better! Exceptional G3 winner Tantheem lines up in the G1 Darley Prix Morny this afternoon, and he also has G3 runner-up Theobald and G2 colt Mildenberger to look forward to...

And they grow into tremendous three-year-olds... Only his sire Galileo has had more finish in the first three in British or Irish Classics since Teofilo's first crop were three.

Among the many international buyers in Normandy were plenty of Japanese owners and their representatives, including Dr Hiroshi Fukuda, who bought another of the Monceaux draft, a Dubawi (Ire) daughter of the GI Beverly D S. winner Royal Highness (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) (lot 55), for €650,000 on behalf of Koji Maeda. The half-sister to dual Group 2 winner Free Port Lux (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) will be exported to Japan and eventually join a select broodmare band being assembled by the owner-breeder for his stallion Kizuna (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}), a Group 1 winner in his home country and winner of the G2 Qatar Prix Niel during his European foray of 2013.

Making a first visit to Deauville was Kunimoto Tetsuhide, who signed for lot 54, a Frankel (GB) filly out of the Group 2-winning sprinter Restiadargent (Fr) (Kendargent {Fr}) for €360,000, shortly after he'd secured a first-crop son of four-time Group 1 winner Kingman (GB) for €340,000. The colt (lot 44) is out of the G2 Park Hill S. runner-up Phiz (Ger) (Galileo {Ire}), whose listed-winning half-sister Penny Lane (Ger) (Lord Of England {Ger}) had been in action at Deauville earlier in the day in the G2 Shadwell Prix de la Nonette, in which she finished sixth.

Charlie Gordon-Watson | Zuzanna Lupa

The action had become non-stop with Frankel's lot 66 proving to be another star attraction, this time from the draft of Haras d'Etreham. The chestnut filly was bought for an undisclosed client by Charlie Gordon-Watson at a cost of €650,000. Her dam Sefroua (Kimgmambo) won the Listed Prix de Lieurey just across the road at the Deauville racecourse, and she is the grand-daughter of G1 Coronation S. winner Sophisticat (Storm Cat).

"She's going to be trained by Andre Fabre," said Gordon-Watson. "He loved her and we loved her."

The following lot 67 was also from Etreham and is a member of the second crop of Declaration Of War. The filly is a half-sister to the Aga Khan's Shareta (Ire) Sinndar {Ire}), who claimed the G1 Prix Vermeille and G1 Yorkshire Oaks. Nicolas de Watrigant's Mandore Agency took her for €500,000. "Declaration Of War had a good 2-year-old winner here the other week in Olmedo (Fr), who is trained by Jean-Claude Rouget, and I think he's going to be a good stallion," said De Watrigant. "This filly is for a new client and I thought she was an outstanding, racey type, which is what we look for."

If you can combine the hottest second-season sire with a similarly hot first-season sire on the page of one colt then the chances are that this perfect storm will reap rewards in the sales ring. Thus it proved for Eric L'hermite of Haras de Grandcamp, who sold a Frankel (GB) half-brother to Dabirsim (Fr) (lot 57) for €550,000. The buyer was a man who has already tasted success with the offspring of Frankel, Hussain Lootah, the owner of recent G3 Rose Of Lancaster S. winner Frankuus (Ire).

"I thought this was the nicest colt of any on the first day of the sale and he's a half-brother to one of the most exciting stallions out there so I'm delighted to be able to buy him for Hussain Lootah," said agent Richard Knight. "There's no firm decision on where he'll be trained yet but it's likely to be in the UK."

Mark Richards made the fastest start to proceedings as he snapped up the first two lots for the Hong Kong Jockey Club. A Frankel (GB) half-brother to multiple Group-placed Chemical Charge (Ire) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) out of the consistent Jakonda (Kingmambo) opened up the sale as lot 1, the hammer going down at €310,000.

"We've got plenty to get through but it's wonderful to make such a quick start," said Richards of Haras de Montaigu's offering. "We've had some success from the farm before--we know they breed good horses--and he had a nice athletic walk. Obviously Frankel is an easy one to sell everywhere in the world but in Hong Kong they want big names." Cont. p5

Richards had barely drawn breath before he stretched to €360,000 for lot 2, the first progeny of champion miler Kingman (GB) to sell in the European season, out of Janicellaine (Ire) (Beat Hollow {GB}, a half-sister to dual Group 1 winner Chriselliam (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}), and consigned by Ballylinch Stud.

"First-season sires aren't always something we get into but Kingman was a champion," said Richards. "He was a deep-girthed, athletic type and I kept coming back to him."

The explosive start to the sale continued with the appearance in the ring of the first No Nay Never yearling to go through the ring in Europe (lot 4). The first foal of the 5-year-old Jessica Rocks (GB), a Fastnet Rock (Aus) half-sister to one of this season's leading freshman sires Havana Gold (GB) (Teofilo {Ire}), was offered by La Motteraye Consignment and was the first purchase at the sale for Phoenix Thoroughbred Limited, who shelled out $3.95-million on six yearlings at Saratoga and bid €480,000 for this colt through Kerri Radcliffe.

"He's by a son of Scat Daddy and we love him," said the agent. "He's a good colt, very well-balanced, and I'm very happy to have been able to buy him for Phoenix Thoroughbreds. He'll go to our new French trainer Andre Fabre."

Among the team's breeze-up purchases this season is recent good maiden winner Lansky (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}), trained by Jeremy Noseda, who heads to the G3 Acomb S. at York next week.

The second yearling by No Nay Never to be offered in the session, a half-sister to G2 Norfolk S. winner Waterloo Bridge (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) and G3 Prix Minerve heroine Forces Of Darkness (Ire) (Lawman {Fr}), brought the hammer down at €120,000. The April-born filly was offered by Camas Park & Glenvale Studs and bought by TCH Bloodstock. Cont. p6

Another first was notched just six lots later when a half-brother to the dual Group 1 winner Qemah (Fr) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) by the Tweenhills freshman Charm Spirit (Ire) was snapped up by Shadwell for €500,000. Signing the docket for lot 10, agent Angus Gold said, "He's a very nice individual. Obviously we don't know anything about the stallion's runners yet but he was a very good racehorse himself and this colt is a half-brother to a top-class filly. I thought he was a smart horse every time I saw him and fortunately Sheikh Hamdan agreed with me."

Gold couldn't confirm whether the colt, out of the Group 3-placed Rainbow Quest mare Kartica (GB) and offered by his breeder Pierre Talvard of Haras du Cadran, would follow his sire to the stable of Freddy Head, who trains Sunday's Group 1 contender Tantheem (GB) (Teofilo {Ire}) for the sheikh. "It depends if we win the Morny tomorrow," he joked.

American agent Alex Solis, hidden away at the back of the ring, made the successful bid for lot 25, a striking grey daughter of Shamardal (Ire) out of Manerbe (Unbridled's Song), who was bought for the Roth family's LNJ Foxwoods Stable for €450,000 from Ecurie des Monceaux.

"We've been looking at the family before," said Solis of the half-sister to G3 Seaway S. winner Marbre Rose (Ire) (Smart Strike). "She's got a fantastic pedigree and she looks like a real Unbridled's Song as well. Shamardals go on faster ground and the idea is that she'll go back to the States. I don't know about the trainer yet." Cont. p7

Following her into the ring was a daughter of Sea The Stars (Ire) (lot 26), who was high on the list of Godolphin buyers Anthony Stroud and David Loder. The duo eventually had the final say at €400,000.

"We were underbidders on the first two lots into the ring so I guess it's a case of third time lucky," Stroud said. "She's by a very good stallion out of a group-winning mare and has a really lovely action."

Consigned by Grove Stud, the filly is a daughter Marvada (Ire) (Elusive City), a dual Group 3 winner in Ireland for Ken Condon whose second foal, now named Mount Wellington (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) and in training with Aidan O'Brien, fetched €475,000 in the same ring last year.

Noted breeze-up pinhooker Brendan Holland of Grove Stud wasted no time in reinvesting some of the funds accrued from the filly's sale when parting with €220,000 the very next lot (27) a colt by War Front out of the Galileo (Ire) mare Meandering (Ire), a half-sister to Dutch Art (GB) (Medicean {GB}).

Stroud swung back into action later for lot 43, the full-sister to G2 Prix de Sandringham winner and G1 Prix de Diane third Volta (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}). The daughter of the Machiavellian mare Persian Belle (GB), herself very closely related to the German Group 1 winner and Gestut Hof Ittlingen stallion Neatico (Ger) (Medicean {GB}), was offered by her breeder Thierry de la Heronierre of Haras d'Ellon, and was knocked down for €300,000.

The second session of the select part of the August Sale continues today, again at 5:30 p.m., half an hour later than published in the catalogue.

Consigned by La Motteraye Consignment

Purchased by Kerri Radcliffe Bloodstock

Agent Kerri Radcliffe struck early in the session for this son of first-crop sire No Nay Never, himself the winner of the G1 Darley Prix Morny across the street from this sale venue. The dam, the unraced Jessica Rocks (GB) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), is a half-sister to Group 1 winner and exciting young sire Havana Gold (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), and she was bought for €85,000 carrying this colt, her first foal, at Arqana's December Sale two years ago. Radcliffe revealed the colt will be trained by Andre Fabre.

65 filly Galileo (Ire) Secrete (Fr) 700,000

B-Ecurie des Monceaux (GB)

Consigned by Ecurie des Monceaux

Purchased by Mayfair Speculators/P & R Doyle Bloodstock

Meridian International bid €250,000 for Secrete (Fr) (Cape Cross {Ire}) at ARQDEC in 2012 and sold the mare's first foal to Freddy Head for €350,000 at this auction two years back. That produce, Normandy Eagle (Ire), was third in this year's G3 Prix Noialles. Monceaux sold a full-sister to hip 65 for €380,000 here 12 months ago.

67 filly Declaration of War Shawara (Ire) 500,000

B-Barronstown Stud (KY)

Consigned by Haras d'Etreham

Purchased by Mandore International Agency

Barronstown Stud gave €550,000 for Shawara (Ire) (Barathea {Ire}), the dam of 2012 G1 Prix Vermeille winner Shareta (Ire) (Sinndar {Ire}) at Goffs November in 2013. The Sea the Stars colt she was carrying at the time was knocked down to Mayfair Speculators for 650,000gns at TATOCT in 2015, while a War Front filly from Shawara made $525,000 from Crupi's New Castle Farm as a KEENOV weanling the following month.

78 filly Camelot (Ire) Spring Star (Fr) 120,000

Consigned by Camas Park & Glenvale Studs

Purchased by James Crupi/Marco Bozzi

Camas Park Stud had to go to just €30,000 to secure this filly from the second crop of triple Classic winner Camelot at last year's Goffs November Foal Sale.

The daughter of Spring Star (Fr) (Danehill), a Group 2 winner in France and the U.S., is a half-sister to the stakes-placed Mythomane (GB) (Dalakhani {Ire}).

85 colt New Approach (Ire) Tessa Reef (Ire) 420,000

B-Camas Park Stud

Consigned by Camas Park & Glenvale Studs

Purchased by James Crupi/Marco Bozzi

Tessa Reef (Ire) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}), the dam of the ill-fated MGSW Permian (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) was hammered down to Cormac McCormack Bloodstock, on behalf of Camas Park Stud, for 65,000gns carrying this foal in utero at TATDEM in late 2015.

Making his comeback having been injured in the G3 Sovereign S. at Salisbury last August, Massaat was straight back in the swing as he conjured up his basic class to re-establish himself in an elite position he had previously enjoyed when runner-up in the 2015 G1 Dewhurst S. and in last year's G1 2000 Guineas. After trailing Galileo Gold (GB) (Paco Boy {Ire}) by 1 1/2 lengths in the Newmarket Classic, the homebred was tried in the G1 Epsom Derby in June but failed to see out the mile-and-a-half trip and wound up ninth before being remodeled into a miler.

Connections only got as far as his next run in the Sovereign and he had become something of a forgotten horse in the interim, but this re-entry made sure he was back in the limelight once again with a potentially profitable autumn campaign ahead.

Remarkably 12-1 despite the withdrawal of the three group-winning fillies Daban (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}), Spangled (GB) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}) and Mix and Mingle (Ire) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) due to the rain-softened ground, the bay showed his well-being and enthusiasm early as he tanked along for Jim Crowley over two lengths off the pace set by the other Shadwell representative Ibn Malik (Ire) (Raven's Pass). Looking the winner a long way from home, Massaat moved to the front smoothly with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining. Librisa Breeze, who had met momentary trouble in running, emerged from behind with his customary deadly finishing kick but the winner was beyond recall and not stopping. "It's a great training performance to have him ready," Crowley said. "It's the first time I've ridden him and he gave me a great feel. He loved that slower ground and I think it's quite important to him as he's a big horse who hits the ground quite hard. Seven furlongs was ideal first time back, as he was a little bit fresh and free early on. He saw it out well and galloped out well. He's a strong traveler and a mile will be fine for him when he relaxes better next time."

Trainer Owen Burrows is not looking too far ahead following the colt's previous problems, but was taking much out of the performance which he admitted had come as a surprise. "I thought he'd be rusty and I was just looking to get him back on track, but he won impressively," he said. "He had a chip removed from his front fetlock and then was injured in recuperation, so the whole team have done a great job with him. We'll get him back home and fingers crossed he'll be fine in the morning and we'll plot then. We'll have to look at Group 1s, but it's important that he has a bit of cut in the ground as it was firm at Salisbury when he injured himself. We'll keep away from that ground."

Pedigree Notes...

Massaat, whose half-brother Eqtidaar (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) was an impressive debut winner for the Stoute stable on Friday, is out of a half to the MSW Zeiting, responsible for five black-type performers headed by the G3 Strensall S. winner and G1 Caulfield Cup runner-up Scottish (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}). Her daughter Zut Alors (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}), who was third in the G3 Prix Miesque, is the dam of this year's G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches heroine Precieuse (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}) and also the smart sprinter Baccarat (Ire) (Dutch Art {GB}). Zeiting's half-sister Dolled Up (Ire) (Whipper) captured the G3 Prix du Bois and is now the dam of Fou Rire (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}), who took part in Saturday's G3 Prix du Calvados. The dam, who has proven an inspired 130,000gns purchase by Shadwell at the 2009 Tattersalls October Book 1 Sale and who showed useful sprint form for Charlie Hills, also has a yearling colt by Kodiac (GB). Click for the free Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree.

This race lost a key player when Shutter Speed (GB) (Dansili {GB}) was ruled out due to the rain-affected going, but another 'TDN Rising Star' in Sobetsu stepped forward to inject a touch of class over the course and distance over which she had won the May 14 G1 Prix Saint-Alary. Eighth of nine in the June 3 G1 Epsom Oaks and third in the G1 Nassau S. back at this trip at Goodwood last time on Aug. 3, the bay who is becoming a genuine soft-ground specialist was in front initially before settling in third for James Doyle. As the returning G1 Prix de Diane heroine Senga loomed on her outer in early straight, she was asked to move forward and take command and duly responded in her usual game fashion to do so with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining. Staying on strongly as that rival flattened out, the homebred had put her seal on the contest in which the Diane faller Onthemoonagain made further progression as she denied Senga the runner-up spot.

Sobetsu winning the Nonette | Scoop Dyga

Charlie Appleby is looking at big targets again with Sobetsu. "We have had this in mind for her for a long time, ever since her run in the Oaks where we hoped for ease in the ground and it didn't happen," he explained. "The truth is, she didn't stay a mile and a half at Epsom and she had since run a very good race in the Nassau. With the ground like it is in Deauville at present, we were quite confident. She has had two solid races in a short period of time, so maybe she needs a break. She could possibly go for the [G1 Prix de l'] Opera [at Chantilly on Oct. 1], but we also have in mind the [GI] QEII Cup at Keeneland [on Oct. 14]."

Senga's trainer Pascal Bary said, "It looks like she might have needed it and she was also a bit wide throughout, so we will stick to the plan which is the Opera followed by the [GI] Breeders' Cup Fillies & Mares Turf."

Pedigree Notes...

Sobetsu hails from the outstanding dynasty of Doff the Derby, responsible for two Epsom Classic winners in the brilliant champion Generous (Ire) and Imagine (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), who upstaged her full-sister Strawberry Roan (Ire) by also winning the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas. The Listed Prix Caravelle-winning Lake Toya, who was also third in the G3 Prix de Flore, is a daughter of Shinko Hermes who also produced three other black-type performers headed by the Listed Winkfield S. scorer and G3 Prix des Chenes third Sixth Sense (Ire) (Shamardal). She is also the second dam of last year's G1 Japanese 2000 Guineas hero Dee Majesty (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}), while the family also includes the ill-fated G1 Grand Criterium scorer Horatio Nelson (Ire) (Danehill), the GIII Monrovia H. and G3 C. L. Weld Park S. winner and G1 Phoenix S. third Wedding Bouquet (Ire) (Kings Lake). She is the second dam of the multiple Group 1-winning miler and sprint champion Moonlight Cloud (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). Click for the free Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree.

Registering a decisive success on debut over six furlongs here on July 30, Polydream was outnumbered by the British raiders in this hot renewal but was well on top at the end to remain unbeaten for a yard that has a supply of above-average juveniles. Settled off the pace early by Maxime Guyon among the group racing down the centre of the track, the bay made her move out wide and hit the front traveling strongly 1 1/2 out. Despite the efforts of the promising visitor Laurens, the homebred had established an unassailable lead and was being patted down the neck as she crossed the line. "She's a lovely filly and a real good one," trainer Freddy Head said. "She's a lovely mover with a lot of speed and we now have to make a decision about whether we drop back down to six for the [G1] Cheveley Park S. [at Newmarket on Sept. 30] or step up to a mile for the [G1 Prix] Marcel Boussac [at Chantilly on Oct. 1]. Nothing is definite--we will see how she is and discuss it with the owners." Click for the Racing Post result. Video, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

With the G1 St Leger already looking a strong renewal, this race provided another potential big player ready to enter the mix for that Doncaster Classic as Defoe continued his rise to the fore when upstaging some smart older horses. His only moderate effort came on his 2-year-old finale, when he was 11th in the Listed Zetland S. at Newmarket in October won by the subsequent G2 Ribblesdale S. scorer Coronet (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), and in which Permian (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) and Wings of Eagles (Fr) (Pour Moi {Ire}) were third and fourth, respectively. Unbeaten so far at three, he captured the London Gold Cup here on May 20 and another 10-furlong handicap at York on July 1 before beating the subsequent G3 Rose of Lancaster S. winner Frankuus (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) in Hamilton's Listed Glasgow S. over 11 furlongs on July 21.

Dropped out in rear early by Andrea Atzeni, the bay was moving noticeably strongly in the straight and by the time he hit the front with two furlongs remaining already had the measure of the G1 Coronation Cup runner-up Frontiersman. Shaken up soon after, Defoe drifted across the path of Wall of Fire and sparked an inquiry in the process, but had a comfortable margin over that rival at the line as his stamina came more and more into play. "He's a gentleman of a horse and is very laid-back--he traveled beautifully and got there fairly easily," Atzeni said. "He definitely stays really well and although the Leger is turning out to be a good race, he's there with a big chance."

Wall of Fire is reportedly G1 Melbourne Cup-bound, while Frontiersman could also go up in trip now. “I am putting Frontiersman’s performance down to the ground, while it also looked like he potentially wants further than today’s trip,” trainer Charlie Appleby commented. “He traveled nicely into the race but the first two have quickened away, whereas Frontiersman has just kept galloping. I would like to get him back on a sound surface and it wouldn’t worry me stepping up in distance.”

Defoe | racingfotos.com

Pedigree Notes...

Defoe, who is the first foal out of a half-sister to the MSP Akira (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}), also has a yearling half-brother by Shamardal. His third dam Close Comfort is a half-sister to the G1 Prix Morny-winning champion and multiple stakes-producing Ancient Regime (Olden Times), whose descendants include Mubtaker (Silver Hawk), who won this three times when it was run as a Group 2 and who was also runner-up in the 2003 G1 Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe. Close Comfort is also the dam of the G3 Scottish Classic-winning sire Husyan, while others to feature in this family are the GI Vosburgh S. and GI Alfred G. Vanderbilt H. hero Rock Fall (Speightstown) and the G3 Oh So Sharp S. scorer Tabassum (Ire) (Nayef).

Order of St George wins the Irish St Leger Trial | Racing Post

Losing his G1 Gold Cup title by a short head to Big Orange (GB) (Duke of Marmalade {Ire}) at Royal Ascot on June 22, Order of St George returned to home soil in the kind of mood that has seen him gain such prominence in his career to dominate this trial for the Sept. 10 G1 Irish St Leger.

That was another race he had previously dominated when a 3-year-old and a crown he also had to surrender last year as Wicklow Brave (GB) (Beat Hollow {GB}) refused to let him past. That rival was in this contest too and as he loomed to the favourite at the top of the straight it looked as if they could resume battle as they had in September.

Order of St George, who had been roused from the break by Ryan Moore to gain a prominent position in third, gave generously when committed passing the quarter pole and drew clear powerfully with the 3-year-old G2 Curragh Cup winner Rekindling putting up the most meaningful pursuit. "He's a high-class horse and the race suited him well, so hopefully he can keep going forward from here," jockey Ryan Moore commented. "He likes that nice ground and it helps him, but he was third on fast ground in the Arc."

Pedigree Notes...

The dam, who also has an as-yet unraced 2-year-old colt by Declaration of War named Shakour (Ire) and a yearling colt by Australia (GB), produced the GIII Pin Oak Valley View S. winner Angel Terrace (Ghostzapper) and the G3 Prix Paul de Moussac scorer Asperity (War Chant). She is out of the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies and GI Frizette S. heroine Storm Song, herself a half-sister to the GII Oak Leaf S. winner Diamond Omi (Giant's Causeway) and the dam of the GI Wood Memorial runner-up Trojan Nation (Street Cry {Ire}). Her descendants include the G2 Sankei Sports Sho Flora S. winner Midsummer Fair (Jpn) (Tanino Gimlet {Jpn}) and the Singapore champion Better Life (Aus) (Smarty Jones), while under the third dam Hum Along is the GIII Northern Dancer Breeders' Cup S.-winning sire High Cotton.

BUICK OUT SIX WEEKS

Jockey William Buick will be sidelined from race riding for a minimum six weeks after specialists confirmed a compression fracture of his T12 vertebrae. Buick suffered the injury when falling from the fatally injured Mark Johnston trainee Permian (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) after the finish of last weekend's GI Secretariat S. at Arlington Park.

"After seeing my specialist [Friday], I can confirm I have a T12 compression fracture after my fall at Arlington last Saturday, which sadly saw Permian lose his life," Buick said. "He will be sorely missed, and my condolences go to [owner] His Highness Sheikh Hamdan and the team at Mark Johnston Racing."

Buick added, "I will have the injury re-scanned in six weeks time and will know more then. While I'm disappointed to be missing a large chunk of the season, I have plenty of respect for the injury and I realise how lucky I have been. I would like to thank all the well-wishers, everyone who helped me immediately after the accident at Arlington Park, including Charlie Johnston, Jimmy Bell, Chris Connett, and all the doctors at the hospital in Chicago, and the whole racing community. I would also like to thank my family and friends and His Highness Sheikh Mohammed for their support."

'SO' STARS IN ROMANET

Straightened by her return fifth behind Winter (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) at Glorious Goodwood, So Mi Dar (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) has all in her favour on Sunday as she tilts at a first Group 1 success in the Darley Prix Jean Romanet at Deauville. Lord Lloyd-Webber's G3 Musidora S. winner and G1 Prix de l'Opera third will have no better chance at obtaining racing's most sought-after prize, with the race lacking a star turn and several of the field having question marks over them. Unsuited by the testing ground when fifth in the Aug. 3 G1 Nassau S., the homebred has more suitable conditions this time and connections are confident.

"She's in very good form and came out of the race at Goodwood very well," the Lloyd-Webbers' racing manager Simon Marsh said. "Nothing suited her that day, but we had to run her as she'd been off the track for so long. John [Gosden] has been very happy with her since and we're looking forward to running here again. We have been a bit worried about what the ground will be like, but I'm told they only had light showers overnight and by Sunday, hopefully it won't be too bad. We know she's a very good filly, but she's got to go and prove it on the track. This looks a good opportunity for her."

France's chief hope appears to be Siyoushake (Ire) (Siyouni {Fr}), who was third to Roly Poly (War Front) in the G1 Prix Rothschild over a mile here last time on July 30 but who has to prove stamina at this trip. One who has no issues in that regard is Left Hand (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), who enjoyed her finest hour over a mile and a half in the G1 Prix Vermeille at Chantilly in September. The Wertheimers' homebred has been slow to come to hand so far this term, but there was evidence in her latest effort when fifth at that distance in the July 2 G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud that she was on the way back.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

It is six years since Dabirsim (Fr) became the last French-trained juvenile to win the G1 Darley Prix Morny at Deauville, but Sunday's renewal looks packed with promise from the domestic brigade in which that former runner's unbeaten daughter Different League (Fr) takes prominent rank. Theresa Marnane's surprise package upset 'TDN Rising Star' Alpha Centauri (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) in Royal Ascot's G3 Albany S. last time on June 23 and the form of that six-furlong contest has received significant boosts via the fifth, sixth and seventh Madeline (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}), Actress (Ire) (Declaration of War) and Clemmie (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). "We are all set, the filly is very well and it's exciting," trainer Matthieu Palussiere said. "Her preparation has been perfect. She has to take on colts, but really there are not many other options. You would think she should improve from Ascot and she's playing at home this time."

Different League winning the Albany | Racing Post

Different League's compatriots include Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's exciting July 30 G3 Prix de Cabourg scorer Tantheem (GB) (Teofilo {Ire}), Alain Jathiere, Martin Schwartz Racing and Gerard Augustin-Normand's July 1 G3 Prix du Bois winner Zonza (Fr) (Alex the Winner) and Claudio Marzocco's unlucky July 23 G2 Prix Robert Papin fourth High Dream Milena (Fr) (Dabirsim {Fr}), but they all face a formidable rival in the Mark Johnston-trained Nyaleti (Ire) (Arch). She came back from two defeats by September (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) and Clemmie in the Listed Chesham S. at Royal Ascot on June 24 and G2 Duchess of Cambridge S. at Newmarket on July 14 to win the G3 Princess Margaret S. at Ascot by five lengths on July 29. "It was well publicised last time that Ryan Moore said he thought she'd be better over seven furlongs and I wouldn't doubt his opinion at all, but she has got lots of speed and is clearly well capable at six," Johnston said.

"She's a very big, strong filly, very straightforward at home and we don't really have to do much with her."

ROSTROPOVICH FACES FUTURITY TASK

A glance at the recent honour roll of The Curragh's G2 Galileo Irish EBF Futurity S. suggests that Aidan O'Brien regards it as an important learning process for his budding Group 1 stars, and he has a trio on Sunday who follow in the footsteps of the likes of Giant's Causeway, Hawk Wing, Gleneagles (Ire) and Churchill (Ire). Ryan Moore is on Rostropovich (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), who needs to take a step forward on what he has shown so far but is probably capable of doing so in a less-than-exacting renewal. Having opened his account in a seven-furlong Gowran Park maiden on June 25, he finished last of three when favourite behind Camelback (Exchange Rate) in a conditions event also over that trip at Naas on July 8. "Rostropovich was disappointing the last day but we think he might improve," the Ballydoyle trainer commented.

Rostropovich | Racing Post

Camelback also had Rostropovich behind when winning his maiden at Leopardstown on May 26, but despite his honourable progress has yet to convince Ger Lyons he is top-drawer material. "He'll have to behave himself. He's a nice horse, but mentally he's not there yet," his trainer said. "He's short of that class, but he's there and it will be another step in his education."

Jim Bolger is represented by Theobald (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), who followed a second to the subsequent G1 Phoenix S. third Actress (Ire) (Declaration of War) in the G3 Anglesey S. here on July 15 with another runner-up finish behind 'TDN Rising Star' The Pentagon (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in the G3 Tyros S. at Leopardstown on July 27.

BALLYDOYLE CLASH IN DEBUTANTE

Two years ago, Aidan O'Brien used The Curragh's G2 National Breast Cancer Research Debutante S. to begin to establish the pecking order among his best fillies Ballydoyle (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and Minding (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), and he again pitches two future luminaries against each other in Sunday's renewal. One is 'TDN Rising Star' September (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}), who followed a 5 1/2-length success on debut at Leopardstown on June 8 with a comprehensive defeat of the impressive subsequent G3 Princess Margaret S. winner Nyaleti (Ire) (Arch) in the Listed Chesham S. at Royal Ascot on June 24. Happily (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) was seventh behind September at Leopardstown before taking huge leaps up the ladder when winning a Curragh maiden on June 30 and the G3 Silver Flash S. by five lengths back at Leopardstown on July 27.

'TDN Rising Star' September | Racing Post

"September hasn't run since Royal Ascot, but she seems in good form and we've been happy with her," O'Brien said. "We were delighted with Happily at Leopardstown and we think she has come out of the race well. She might need the run for experience, because they'll go on then after that. The ground should be lovely. Hopefully they won't get too much rain."

Godolphin is represented by the Jim Bolger-trained Silver Flash third Dawn Delivers (GB) (Dawn Approach {Ire}), who beat the other Ballydoyle runner Magical (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in a six-furlong Curragh maiden on July 16, and also the Willie McCreery-trained Mary Tudor (Ire) (Dawn Approach {Ire}). The latter made Magical work hard when a head runner-up to that full-sister to last year's Debutante winner Rhododendron (Ire) at Cork on debut on Aug. 8 and McCreery is confident she will put up a bold show despite her inexperience. "She ran a cracking race down in Cork and has come on a lot from the run," he said. "It's a huge step up for her, but I think she'll do herself justice."

STAYERS STEP OUT IN KERGORLAY

The stayers get their turn during Deauville's Sunday card in the G2 Darley Prix Kergorlay, where Godolphin's Endless Time (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) bids to continue the momentum she set in motion when winning the G3 Lillie Langtry S. over 14 furlongs at Glorious Goodwood on Aug. 3. Second in the G1 Prix Vermeille at Chantilly in September and G1 Prix Royal-Oak at Saint-Cloud in October, she has a class edge over these rivals and trainer Charlie Appleby said, "Endless Time put up another brave performance at Goodwood last time out and came out of the race well. I couldn't be any happier with her and it looks like she will have conditions to suit. A repeat performance of her latest run is going to make her very competitive."

Endless Time | Racing Post

Her biggest threat may emanate from Germany, with Andreas Wohler saddling the progressive marathon runner Red Cardinal (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}). Second in the G1 Preis von Europa over a mile and a half at Cologne in September, Australian Bloodstock Stable's dark bay beat Nearly Caught (Ire) (New Approach {Ire}) in the two-mile G2 Oleander-Rennen at Hoppegarten on May 14 before following up in the GIII Belmont Gold Cup Invitational at that trip on June 9.

FURTHER DECLARATION

After a satisfactory return to action in the G1 Phoenix S. a week ago, 'TDN Rising Star' Declarationofpeace (War Front) is back in Kildare on Sunday for the G3 Qatar Racing and Equestrian Club Curragh S. Now sporting a tongue-tie and blinkers, the imposing bay, who was disappointing when last of 22 in Royal Ascot's Listed Windsor Castle S. on June 20, was reappearing after a subsequent absence when seventh of eight in the Phoenix and can be expected to be sharper this time.

Declarationofpeace | Racing Post

There are some smart fillies in attendance and one unexposed one who is held in high regard by trainer Andrew Slattery in Emadee (Ire) (Zebedee {GB}), who beat the subsequent winner Brick By Brick (Ire) (Big Bad Bob {Ire}) in a five-furlong maiden on her only start at Naas on July 26. "It's a big step up, but I'd be expecting a very good run from her," he said. "She's improved a lot from the run in Naas. She worked last Tuesday and looked the part, so we're looking forward to seeing what she can do. The question mark would be the ground. It was nearly good-to-firm when she won in Naas and there's rain around, but Declan McDonogh feels she'll like a bit of cut in the ground. If she handles the ground, I think the rest of them will have had enough of her by the time they've finished with her."

Hey Gaman had shown some quality when winning two six-furlong conditions races at Yarmouth July 6 and at Newmarket last time July 29, on the latter occasion dispensing a five-length beating to the dual listed runner-up Roussel (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}). Ninth in the June 24 Listed Chesham S. at Royal Ascot and 12th in the Listed July S. at Newmarket July 13, the bay showed no diminution in his enthusiasm for the game when leading from pillar to post to register a first black-type success. Working hard in front to battle the elements as Martin Harley opted to stretch his rivals, he had to contend with the promising Sandown maiden winner Red Mist from the furlong pole but toughed it out to hold sway in the photo. "It was tough out there--the testing ground was one thing, but the headwind was another," his jockey said. "The second pressed me a long way down, so it was a good performance from a good horse. He's got a big heart and it rode like a good race."

Trainer James Tate has a useful collection of 2-year-olds and will be moving Hey Gaman up in class now. "He has always worked really well and although I was disappointed with a couple of his runs, it turns out he likes it soft," he explained. "There was nothing good enough to lead him today and I felt the second had the advantage of slipstreaming him, so the best horse won. He'll go for a seven-furlong group race next and we hope he'll get a mile next year. I'd be nervous about running him on ground with no mention of soft in the description." Red Mist's trainer Simon Crisford was far from disheartened by the outcome and said, "I am delighted with his run. He is obviously very inexperienced and he put in a huge effort there. He handled that ground and that was not an issue. He would prefer better ground, as then his turn of foot comes into play. He's in the [Sept. 16 G2] Champagne at Doncaster and that is a consideration. Sheikh Ahmed will make a plan for him."

Hey Gaman is the first foal out of the G3 International Istanbul Trophy runner-up Arsaadi, who proved the leading performer for Arsad who in turn is a half-sister to three black-type winners headed by the G2 King's Stand S. and G3 King George S. winner The Tatling (Ire) (Perugino). Also from the family of the stakes winner Billy Allen (Ire) (Night Shift), Arsaadi has a yearling full-brother to the winner to follow.

DATHANNA (IRE) (f, 2, Dubawi {Ire}--Colour {Aus} {GSW-Aus}, by More Than Ready), who captured a course-and-distance maiden a fortnight earlier, was reserved in rear early before being delivered to head the leader Amourice (Ire) (Authorized {Ire}) passing the quarter pole. Driven out to contain the threat of that rival who she had also beaten last time, the 5-2 favourite hit the line with a touch more comfort than the official margin of a short head suggests. The dam, who captured the G3 Marsh Breeders S., is already responsible for the G3 Canonbury S. third Chamarel (Aus) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) with a yearling colt by Shamardal and a filly foal by Dubawi (Ire) to come. The family also features the G2 Arrowfield 3yo Sprint winner and G1 Doomben 10,000 third Derryn (Aus) (Hinchinbrook {Aus}), the MG1SW Forensics (Aus) (Flying Spur {Aus}) and leading sire Snippets (Aus). LAKE VOLTA (IRE) (c, 2, Raven's Pass--Ghanaian {Fr} {SP-Eng}, by Shamardal), who garnered a six-panel Brighton heat by 4 1/2 lengths last time Aug. 11, raced on the front end and held sway from the break in this three-runner test.

Pushed along with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining, the 8-11 chalk entered the final eighth with a comfortable buffer and extended his margin of superiority under minimal urging in the closing stages, gearing down late to stop the clock five lengths ahead of Simmy's Copshop (GB) (Bahamian Bounty {GB}). He is out of Listed October S. runner-up Ghanaian (Fr) (Shamardal) and is kin to a yearling colt by Teofilo (Ire), from a family which features MGISW US champion 3-year-old filly Winning Colors (Caro {Ire}). Sent to the lead approaching the furlong marker, the 35,000gns TATFOA foal and 270,000gns TAOCT yearling drew away up the rising ground to score by 3 3/4 lengths from Travelcard (Iffraaj {GB}). The Listed Hilary Needler Trophy-winning dam, who also produced the Listed Wentworth S. scorer Aetna (GB) (Indesatchel {Ire}), SW-Eng, $109,414, is a half-sister to the Listed Criterium de Vitesse winner and G3 Ballyogan S. runner-up Eastern Romance (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) and a full-sibling of the dam of the Listed Radley S. winner and G3 Oh So Sharp S. runner-up Electric Feel (GB) (Firebreak {GB}). DARK ROSE ANGEL (IRE) (f, 2, Dark Angel {Ire}--Roseraie {Ire} {GSP-Ire}, by Lawman {Fr}), fifth on debut behind Saturday's Newmarket nursery winner Dathanna (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) at that track Aug. 5, was sent off the 7-2 second favourite and quickly established an advantage. Needing only hands and heels to stretch clear from before the two-furlong pole, the 60,000gns TATOCT yearling had ears pricked as she crossed the line with four lengths to spare over Lubinka (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}). The winner is the first foal out of Roseraie, who was third in the G3 Silver Flash S. as a juvenile and is a daughter of the G3 International S. winner and G1 Moyglare Stud S. runner-up Red Feather (Ire) (Marju {Ire}). She is also the dam of the dual listed scorer and G3 Bengough S. runner-up Rose Bonheur (GB) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) from the family of the prolific top-level scorer Miss Oceana (Alydar), the G1 Prix Jean Prat winner Kitwood (Nureyev) and the GI Yellow Ribbon Invitational and GI Gamely H. heroine Sabin (Lyphard). Next up from Roseraie is a yearling colt by Showcasing (GB), while she also has a colt foal by Bated Breath (GB). Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $4,165. Video, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

EQUILATERAL (GB) (c, 2, Equiano {Fr}--Tarentaise {GB}, by Oasis Dream {GB}), who started at 7-2, was held up early in the rear of the tightly-packed field. Moving stylishly to Swing Out Sister (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) with 1 1/2 furlongs to race, the homebred was pushed out to win easing down by 3 1/2 lengths. "He's obviously quite smart," jockey Steve Drowne commented. "He travelled very well, is quick and is from a good family. He wouldn't have done much work, but he behaves like a good horse, goes like a good horse and so probably is." Equilateral (GB) (Equiano {Fr}) is the first living foal out of the unraced Tarentaise, who is a half-sister to the operation's G1 Dubai Duty Free-winning sire Cityscape (GB) and the G2 Temple S. scorer Bated Breath (GB), as well as the listed-placed Scuffle (GB) (Daylami {Ire}). She is in turn produced the GIII La Prevoyante H. and GIII Glenn Falls S. scorer Suffused (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}), while the third dam Didina (GB) (Nashwan) landed the GII Dahlia H. and includes the G2 Gimcrack S. hero Ajaya (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) among her descendants. Also from the family of the G1 Dewhurst S.-winning sire Xaar (GB) (Zafonic), Tarentaise has a filly foal by Champs Elysees to come. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $3,748. Video, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Francesco Bere improved off a debut sixth going six furlongs at La Teste de Buch June 7 to gradute upped one panel back there July 23 and continued on an upward trajectory with a narrow verdict in this black-type bow. Slipping from an early second to race in third at halfway, he made smooth progress in the straight to challenge inside the final quarter mile and kept on well under a late drive to inhale Stage Magic on the line for a career high. "He won a good maiden at La Teste de Buch last time, the form was solid and I felt he had improved a lot since then," commented trainer and part-owner Didier Guillemin. "He proved his class today and won in courageous fashion. He will now step up to Group company, but I don't yet know which one. There are many possibilities and we are in no rush to decide."

Francesco Bere, half-brother to the yearling colt Gora Bere (Fr) (Pedro the Great), becomes the second stakes winner produced by Monatora (Fr) (Hector Protector) and follows Listed Prix de la Californie victor Hurricane (Fr) (Hurricane Cat). The next dam Mona Em (Ire) (Catrail) annexed the Listed Prix de la Vallee d'Auge and produced G2 Flying Childers S.-winning sire Sir Prancealot (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}) and Listed Prix Georges Trabaud scorer Nice Applause (Ire) (Royal Applause {GB}). on the European racing scene

1.40 Curragh, Mdn, €17,500, unraced 2yo, 7fT

Pattern races aside, this firsters' heat wins the award for most fascinating contest of the day and features a plethora of well-related individuals among a cast of 16. Ballydoyle conditioner Aidan O'Brien saddles a quartet headed by Ryan Moore's chosen mount THREEANDFOURPENCE (War Front). Evie Stockwell's homebred bay is a son of 2007 G3 Ballyogan S. victress Liscanna (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and is therefore a full-brother to 2015 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf hero Hit It A Bomb and last term's G1 Cheveley Park S. victress Brave Anna. His trio of stablemates are Flaxman Stables Ireland's Zabriskie (Ire) (Frankel {GB}), who is a half-brother to MG1SW sires Bago (Fr) (Nashwan) and Maxios (GB) (Monsun {Ger}); 1.3-million guineas Tattersalls October Book 1 purchase Spanish Point (GB) (Frankel {GB}), who is a Cheveley Park Stud-bred son of 2005 G1 Sun Chariot S. and 2006 G1 Lockinge S. heroine Peeress (GB) (Pivotal {GB}); and fellow Susan Magnier colourbearer Hunting Horn (Ire) (Camelot {GB}), who is a half-brother to MGSW 2011 G1 National S. third David Livingston (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). Further spice is provided by His Highness The Aga Khan's Hazapour (Ire) (Shamardal), who is out of a stakes-winning half-sister to last year's G1 Epsom Derby and G1 Irish Derby winner Harzand (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}), from the same Dermot Weld stable; Zhang Yuesheng's Platinum Warrior (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), a Michael Halford trainee, who was produced by 2012 G2 Prix de Sandringham victress and G1 Sun Chariot S. third Laugh Out Loud (GB) (Clodovil {Ire}); Flor Ryan's Lethal Power (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}), who is a Johnny Murtagh-trained sibling of 2013 G1 Diamond Jubilee S. and G1 July Cup-winning sire Lethal Force (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}); and the latter's stablemate Baba Boom (Ire) (Thewayyouare), who is out of a half-sister to last year's G1 British Champions Sprint S. and this year's G1 Diamond Jubilee S. victor The Tin Man (GB) (Equiano {Fr}), and 2011 G2 British Champions Sprint S. scorer Deacon Blues (GB) (Compton Place {GB}).

WORLDWIDE NEWS

A crowd of 10,688 attended Royal Randwick on Saturday, where Winx made her seasonal debut | Bronwen Healy

"What else can I say? She is just a freak," Bowman said. "She can be fractious and threw herself around when the gates opened. I was a bit worried going past the 700 metres the way the track conditions are. They are really running slick times. I thought it was probably mathematically impossible but there was nothing I could do about it. I just had to rely on the engine I know is in her. If I took off early to get closer I would have run out of gas. I just had to have confidence in her and ride her to win the race. I was stuck back there and I was thinking this isn't good, I don't like to be here, but it was an amazing feeling the last 200 metres."

"I thought it was probably mathematically impossible but there was nothing I could do about it. I just had to rely on the engine I know is in her."

It was a one-two for trainer Chris Waller, who said, "Hugh never panicked. When you put the reins in his hands you know you've got the right man aboard. He realised he had to make up a bit of ground and used the full length of the straight to do it.

Of the runner-up Foxplay, he added, "She's had everything Winx has had. They went out together 16 weeks ago to spell together. They did the same pre-training. They live together. It was very good they went one-two and very good they finished that way around."

Waller confirmed Winx is likely to return in two weeks for the G2 Chelmsford S. Her key spring target is a third straight win in the G1 Cox Plate in October.

Also at Royal Randwick on Saturday, 3-year-old Fastnet Rock (Aus) filly Formality (Aus) went gate-to-wire to win the G2 Silver Shadow S. (video). The Lindsay Park-trained, Coolmore-owned filly won last season's G3 Chairman's S. and was third in the G1 Blue Diamond S. (Return to p1)

HARTNELL WINS IN MELBOURNE

The connections of Group 1-winning gelding Hartnell (GB) (Authorized {Ire}) have opted to keep him in Melbourne for the spring to avoid Winx (Aus) (Street Cry {Ire}), and that move paid dividends on Saturday as the 6-year-old cruised to victory in the G2 PB Lawrence S. at Caulfield for Godolphin and trainer James Cummings. Second to Winx on four occasions last year, including the G1 Cox Plate and G1 Queen Elizabeth S., Hartnell was recording his first win on Saturday since the Oct. 2 G1 Turnbull S. Racing a keen second behind Charmed Harmony (Aus) (Hussonet) under Craig Williams with Tosen Stardom (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) on his heels and Group 1 winner Black Heart Bart (Aus) (Blackfriars {Aus}) behind that rival, Hartnell needed just a pair of reminders with the whip in the lane to overtake Charmed Harmony and draw clear by 2 1/4 lengths. Black Heart Bart made a mild rally to be third, and was found to be mildly lame post-race.

"The team was very confident today and the horse delivered--that win is even better than it looks," Williams told Racenet.com.au. "He was on his wrong leg all the way and off the bend but he was just very dominant and there's more to come. The experience around here just makes him a more seasoned horse."

Next up for Hartnell will be the G1 Makybe Diva S. on Sept. 16.

Also at Caulfield on Saturday, last season's G1 Blue Diamond S. winner Catchy (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) was beaten a neck by Crown Witness (Aus) (Star Witness {Aus}) in the G3 Quezette S. while making her first start since finishing last in a boggy G1 Golden Slipper on Mar. 18. Three-year-old Snitzel (Aus) colt Jukebox (Aus) extended his unbeaten record to three with a neck score in the G3 Vain S., and G1 Darley Goodwood S. winner Vega Magic (Aus) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) strengthened his Everest claims with a win in the Listed Regal Roller S.
