SALES LANDSCAPE CHANGING AT KEENELAND

Officials at Keeneland have tweaked their upcoming September and November sales and have announced the reintroduction of the April 2YO sale for 2019, including a horses-of-racing-age section. Nonetheless a conversation with this particular wise man remains an unchanging source of equilibrium in a changing world, without the faintest inflection of resentment or defensiveness. Instead there is such comforting familiarity to his bearing—benign, calm and modest—that you feel cheapened by your own sense of affront on his behalf.

"People were very upset," he admits, quietly bemused. "More than I was, in a way. Of course I was upset, and it affected our business and our livelihood. But you know, I've been in this business all my life. I know what it's like. I'm kind of mentally prepared for anything, and was probably the person--well, I won't say least upset, but I wasn't as upset as a lot of people around me, and a lot of people well disposed to me."

According to Chinese proverb, "a single conversation with a wise man is better than 10 years of study." But that conversation is going to prove still more instructive if the wise man has himself just had a decade like that dividing John Oxx from the emergence of his greatest champion.

It is a study that perhaps teaches us more about people than horses. Ten years ago next Friday, Oxx saddled a 2-year-old colt by Cape Cross (Ire) for his first start at The Curragh, just over the road from a stable that counted Derby and Arc winner Sinndar (Ire) (Grand Lodge) among a litany of international stars since Ridgewood Pearl (GB) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) had won the Breeders’ Cup Mile in 1995: from stayers like Enzeli (Ire) (Kahyasi {Ire}) to sprinters like Namid (GB) (Indian Ridge {GB}).

As it happens, Sea The Stars (Ire) finished only fourth that day. But he was never beaten again, proving himself one of the most accomplished Thoroughbreds of the modern era in racking up six Group 1 wins the following year. In the process, the horse’s competitive ego appeared to expand into a limelight left vacant by his trainer’s innate humility.

In the years since, however, Oxx has been dropped by both the Aga Khan, owner of Sinndar and his principal patron until 2013, and the Tsui family, who owned Sea The Stars but moved their horses from Ireland in 2016. So far this season Oxx has been able to field 18 horses; just three of them winners. Ups And Downs Show Constant Class Of Oxx cont. from p1

I'm philosophical about it. That's the way life is. The business should teach you that. It's part and parcel of it."

But if this mildness runs absolutely with the grain of Oxx's character, nobody should confuse his resolute freedom from vanity with too meek or submissive a brand of fatalism. Here is a man who understands the corrosive nature of bitterness or blame; and who also grasps that the best redress lies within.

"I was just determined that we were going to come back from this," he says. "Build up the stable again. I'm not saying I want big numbers. There is this tendency among trainers today to want huge numbers of horses. You see it in America, you see it in jump racing, and you see it now in Flat racing [in Europe] too. I trained a lot of horses in the past. But I have no ambition to train even 100 horses. I just want to train enough; to enjoy it; and to train for good horse people, the sort of people who have come along to me now, when I'm not doing well, when I'm not in lights all the time."

"You really appreciate people like that, and you enjoy working for them. It's a pleasure to get up in the morning and work for the people I'm working for at the moment. I just need a few more of them. I think there's an opening for an ambitious young trainer like me, who doesn't want 200 horses and can hopefully offer people a better service; who has time to devote to their interests."

The wry, deadpan delivery achieves an optimal balance between an instinct for self-deprecation and a quiet but no less authentic self-respect. This, after all, is a profession where experience should count for rather more than often seems to be the case.

If you own the favourite for a Classic, and the horse comes up with a problem two days beforehand, would you rather your trainer was the latest fashionable young trainer, experiencing this particular issue for the first time—or John Oxx, trainer of 11 Classic winners, experiencing it for the 101st time?

If it is not his nature to volunteer that point, it is one Oxx is prepared to acknowledge. "When I think back earlier in my career, even when I was winning loads of races, I made plenty of mistakes too," he admits. "All things being equal, if a trainer still has the enthusiasm for it, and the health for it, he should get better every year. Other things can come in the way, knock a trainer off kilter; he hasn't the right facilities, perhaps, or the right staff. But all things being equal, you will get better, there's no doubt."

"I always admire Ian Balding for doing so well with Mill Reef: he was actually very young. I only became a decent trainer in my forties. I started when I was 29, I'd qualified as a vet and thought I knew everything. I imagined that my father didn't know half as much as me. But as you get older, you tend to find your father was more clever than you thought. In my forties, certain things started to drop [in place]. And then, when I had those really good horses--I had Ridgewood Pearl when I was 45--well, you really begin to learn things then. To see things you hadn't before, and understand them. And then you see similarities."

"A few years before Sea The Stars, I had Azamour (Ire) (Night Shift) who was very similar to him in constitution, mentally and physically. And that prepared me. They both ate more, under pressure, than any other horses I've ever had. Horses will eat tons of feed when they're not under pressure, but when they're in hard work and racing, a lot of them go off a little bit. But those two thrived on it. They could work to a different beat to the rest. And so they just got better and better."

Aidan O'Brien having shared similar insights about the vocational appetite of Galileo (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), you wonder about the half-brothers' dam Urban Sea (Miswaki). Perhaps all those breeders seeking some holy grail should simply be concentrating on sheer physiological capacity?

"Everything is inherited," Oxx replies. "The longer you train horses, the more you realise that. When you train for someone like the Aga Khan for 25 years, you see the same thing, even little things, coming down through families. Urban Sea must have been hardy and tough: Jean Lesbordes ran her everywhere, in all sorts of races--and she kept coming back, and then goes and wins the Arc at the end of it. And temperament is the most transmissible of all the traits. Talent gets diluted by mares much more easily than temperament. Temperament just seems to stick and stick. So good temperament and toughness, like these horses have, is a huge asset in a stallion."

With all due respect for Oxx’s determination to look forward, it would be churlish to ignore the anniversary that has brought us to his door. And, with the legacy of Sea The Stars enriched at Royal Ascot by Stradivarius (GB) and Crystal Ocean (GB), we should celebrate anew the mastery and adventure with which Oxx first promoted his genetic wares. Having seen the unbeaten records of other champions defended with increasing nervousness, in fact, you wonder whether it actually helped that Sea The Stars did not win on debut?

"Michael Kinane, particularly as he got older, was very gentle on horses having their first run," Oxx recalls. "He always said you have to leave them with a good taste in their mouth. When I was young and foolish, I used to have them pretty ready to win first time out, if they could. But as you go along you change a bit. Mick gave him a nice, educational run: in between horses, boxed in a bit at the fence, got out towards the end and finished strongly. He could have won with a clear run but it served its purpose and he went on to win easily at Leopardstown a few weeks later."

After that, relentlessly, with each start the horse dug another seam in that mine of physical and mental toughness. "That’s why I always told people I never knew how good he was," he says. "Because at some stage, very often, they crack. Nashwan (Blushing Groom {Fr}) cracked. He was a box-walker. I don’t think we realised that at the time. The Major {Dick Hern} got him as far as the King George but then he flopped in the Prix Niel. And Nijinsky was a temperamental horse. It might be that only Vincent could have got him there. But he cracked a little, in the Arc. He got very worked up and sweated a lot before the race. Slightly unusual, perhaps, for a great horse to be as hot as that."

When Sea The Stars rounded off his own career at Longchamp, Oxx was immune to the general alarm when he still had so much to do. The horse's exuberance had been matched, since Epsom, by consecutive runs at 10 furlongs. "And Aidan always helped us, in that he always had pacemakers!" smiles Oxx. "He always had it in his head to get this fellow working four furlongs from home. But sure all he was doing was helping us. The horse had so much speed they could never get him off the bridle." "In the Arc they didn't set off at a mad gallop, so I was a little anxious the first two furlongs, when he just started shaking his head. But then Mick got him back, and I could see then he had him settled. After that I wasn't too worried. Everybody else was, because he seemed to be far back; but the main opponents weren't too far in front of him. He could do anything, you know, anything. It was a great relief, of course, having seen Nijinsky, this unbeaten hero of mine, lose the Arc to an inferior horse. That was a heartbreaker at the time and I didn't want that to happen to our lad."

Nijinsky remains the last Triple Crown winner in Britain, and there was pressure to let Sea The Stars add the third leg in the St Leger. But Oxx remains in no doubt that the horse was better able to manifest his talent in the Irish Champion S., where he achieved his highest rating. At the same time, Oxx would have liked to do a service for the reputation of staying races. He believes that a great horse is indifferent to distance, using the recent example of Justify (Scat Daddy) rolling along in his usual fashion in the Belmont.

"Breeders are always confusing distance with speed," he says. "They don't realise the difference between real class and just precocity and an ability to win over short distances. Occasionally you get a dominant sprinter but most of the time there isn't a few lengths between good handicappers and Group 1 winners."

Very often they’re interchangeable. So what does that tell you? People buy cheap horses in the hope they’ll make an Ascot 2-year-old, but an awful lot of nice types are sacrificed on that altar. I do think there’s a drift away from knowing what class is."

That said, Oxx relishes training sharper types. Unfortunately he often finds himself a victim of his own patience, tending to receive more backward types instead. Just one dimension, this, of the kind of reinvention that might restore Oxx, as a trainer, to a standing commensurate with that he has never lost, as a gentleman.

For it is in adversity that you can best measure dignity. In Oxx, it is so deep-rooted, so natural, that he never needed the props of self-regard or self-satisfaction in the days of Sea The Stars. And nor, by the same token, does he require defensive spikes of acrimony now. The circumstances of his business may change, but both that dignity and his professional intuition remain invincibly the same.

Just because he remains as understated now as in his pomp, however, do not underestimate the resilience and determination underpinning the expertise and seasoning he can summon for each new horse. This has been recognised by Godolphin, among others. Oxx does not want anyone to feel sorry for him, and is unsurprisingly and scrupulously courteous in his reflections on the patrons who left his stable for their different reasons. But nor would he want anyone to imagine that he has embraced some kind of semi-retirement.

"We've been working harder than ever, myself and my wife, to get the business back on an even keel," he says. "When the Aga Khan left, I knew we'd slip down to the bottom of the ladder and that it would take a few years to get back. It's been difficult, and there's a lot to do yet. As I said, we're not trying to get huge numbers but we need more than we have. We haven't had an economical number for years, and that's something we can't live with any longer."

"But I'm hopeful now. We've good clients, and nice people too. As you go along you realise how important that is. Some have been with us right through, some have come back after the recession, but most are new people who have come to me when I wasn't in the top flight any more."

"It might seem I've had a raw deal. But I've had great owners over the years. I don't find owners difficult, in general. I think they need time, and plenty of communication. That's a big failing of some trainers, they don't communicate properly, they're not diplomatic, don't listen. So yes, maybe a young, up-and-coming trainer like me, who's not going to train 200 horses and has a bit of experience, might have something to offer."

Aidan O'Brien on Thursday committed 'TDN Rising Star' Saxon Warrior (Jpn) (Deep Impact (Jpn)) to Saturday's G1 Coral-Eclipse at Sandown in a volte face that has caused a stirring of the mix for the proclaimed "first clash of the generations." It will also feature the first true clash of the sexes in 2018, with fellow Ballydoyle representative Happily (Ire) (Galileo (Ire)) lining up to attempt to confirm the form of her beating of Masar (Ire) (New Approach (Ire)) in last year's G1 Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere. She will be partnered by Wayne Lordan, with Donnacha O'Brien set to renew his partnership with Saxon Warrior on whom he captured the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket May 5. In a measure of the operation's continued regard for the Gill Dwyer S. protagonist Mendelssohn (Scat Daddy), Ryan Moore is heading to Belmont Park instead. Saxon Warrior, who was initially due a break according to Aidan O'Brien immediately after finishing third in Saturday's G1 Irish Derby, bids to continue his stable's impressive record of backing up their horses in the past fortnight, with six of The Curragh's Derby meeting's winners from the yard coming back from Royal Ascot duty.

"Obviously he only ran last week, so we haven't done much, but he seems to be in good form," O'Brien said. "Obviously we're observing him very closely because he only ran last week. If there was anything negative we'd flag it up straight away. We're taking a bit of a chance running him back so close, but we're happy with him. We never thought that dropping back in trip would be a problem to him."

With the chief older horses conspicuous by their absence in the line-up, the latest renewal looks like being one for the Classic generation and Saxon Warrior's G1 Epsom Derby conqueror Masar even has the 2016 Eclipse hero Hawkbill (Kitten's Joy) as a potential domestique. Cont. p7

Trainer Charlie Appleby was far from perturbed about the inclusion of Saxon Warrior in the line-up and said, "I’m pleased Saxon Warrior is running. The Eclipse is known as one of the summer spectacles, so I’m pleased for the race. From our point of view we won’t be running away from anything and we think Masar is very much the one to beat."

STAR UNDIMMED

On a roll this term before being stopped in her tracks when eighth in the G3 La Coupe at ParisLongchamp on June 10, Gestut Park Wiedingen’s Devastar (Ger) (Areion {Ger}) returned to home soil and winning ways in Thursday’s G3 Grosser Preis Von LOTTO Hamburg. Sent off at 9-2, the bay was in front by the first turn and stayed there until headed by Va Bank (Ire) (Archipenko) inside the last 100 yards, but he stayed the stronger of the pair to prevail by a head.

This was a second group success for Devastar, who collected the 2016 G3 Preis der Deutschen Einheit over this trip at Hoppegarten. Solid and consistent, he had posted two more black-type successes in Hoppegarten’s Listed Preis von Dahlwitz at this distance on Apr. 22 and in the Listed Rottgen-Cup over 11 furlongs at Cologne on May 21 prior to being put in his place behind Dallas Affair (GB) (Soldier Hollow {GB}) in the La Coupe.

BHA ADDS RESULT VERIFICATION PROCEDURE

The British Horseracing Authority has instituted an additional results verification procedure after a wrong result was posted at Kempton in March. In that instance, an official result was later reversed after a photo finish was more closely examined and the result found to be incorrect.

The process, which has been trialled extensively since March, means that an additional line of verification is now in place before the ‘weighed in’ signal is given, whereby the stipendiary stewards on duty are required to verify the finishing order of the winning and placed horses. Should there be a query, a signal is given to the judge on duty to revisit the result until there is agreement between both parties, in which case the provisional result may be amended if it has been given.

Brant Dunshea, chief regulatory officer of the BHA, said, “Although the initial situation which caused us to look into results verification was disappointing, the outcome whereby all those affected by the result of a race can have increased confidence in its accuracy is a positive one. I’d like to thank all those who have been involved in the process both within the BHA and externally for their assistance in completing this project, which is now in place for all races run in Great Britain.”

Off the mark on heavy ground over six furlongs at The Curragh on May 12, Land Force returned over that course and distance a fortnight later to be third behind ‘TDN Rising Star’ Fairyland (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) and subsequent G2 Railway S. scorer Van Beethoven (Scat Daddy) in the Listed Marble Hill S. prior to filling that same spot in the G2 Norfolk S. on June 21.

Another to come out of Royal Ascot moving forward, the bay was always in control up the centre of the track with his fellow Rosegreen representative and relative Fantasy (Ire) (Invincible Spirit (Ire)) in front overall on the far rail. Left in the lead with two furlongs remaining, he was pushed out to assert from the chasing filly Mintd and record a comfortable first black-type success. “He’s very uncomplicated and a nice horse you can bounce out in front, as he has a lot of speed,” jockey Donnacha O’Brien said. “He’s by an exciting new sire and they have a lot of speed and physical presence about them. He’ll stay six and will handle a little ease in the ground as well, so there are a lot of options for him.”

Theann, who proved a smart performer for this stable when winning the six-furlong G3 Summer S. and placing in the G3 Leopardstown 1000 Guineas Trial S. and G3 Greenlands S., produced Photo Call who captured the GI First Lady S. and GI Rodeo Drive S. as well as the GIII Orchid S. and GIII Violet S. With a yearling filly by Australia (GB) to follow, she is like this race’s fifth-placed Fantasy a daughter of the stellar sprinter Cassandra Go (Ire) (Indian Ridge (Ire)). This is a family with which Coolmore have become increasingly familiar, as the latter’s best progeny Halfway to Heaven (Ire) (Pivotal (GB)) landed the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas, G1 Sun Chariot S. and G1 Nassau S. for the operation before producing the MG1SW Rhododendron (Ire) (Galileo (Ire)) and her full-sister Magical (Ire), who took last year’s G2 Debutante S. and was runner-up in the G1 Moyglare Stud S.

CAPE OF GOOD HOPE (Ire) (c, 2, Galileo (Ire)--Hveger (Aus) (MGSP-Aus), by Danehill), who faded into fourth behind Copia Verborum (Ire) (Vocalised) over seven furlongs at The Curragh on June 8, was again sent straight to the front. Keeping up a strong gallop all the way to the line this time, the 7-4 favourite held a length advantage over Decisive Action (Ire) (Rip Van Winkle (Ire)) there. Stable companion South Pacific (GB) (Galileo (Ire)), the €1-million ARAUG half-brother to Ectot (GB) (Hurricane Run (Ire)) and Most Improved (Ire) (Lawman (Fr)), attracted support but ran very green throughout and finished fourth. “He’s a horse that always worked really nice, so his first two runs were disappointing,” jockey Donnacha O’Brien said. “He had a little look coming up to the finish line, but he’s a gorgeous horse and when he matures and fills out he’ll be better again.” The winner was a relatively cheap purchase at just 240,000gns at Tattersalls gold that he is a full-brother to the stable’s MG1SW Highland Reel (Ire), 2x Hwt. INGLIS SCOOPS UP SANTA ANA LANE

Inglis has secured this season’s back-to-back Group 1 winner Santa Ana Lane (Aus) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) for its Everest slot. The Everest, Australia’s richest race with a purse of A$13-million, will be run on Oct. 13 over 1200 metres at Randwick and is open to 12 horses fielded by the race’s slot holders, who have bought in at a cost of A$600,000 apiece.

Trained by Anthony Freedman, who also conditions confirmed Everest contender Shoals (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}), Santa Ana Lane missed out on a run in last year’s Everest despite winning the G1 Sir Rupert Clarke S., and has this season won the G1 Goodwood H. over 1200 metres on May 19 and the G1 Stradbroke H. going 1350 metres on June 9.

“We’re proud and excited to be a part of the whole Santa Ana Lane team as they commence their assault on The Everest this year,” Inglis Deputy Chairman Arthur Inglis said. “Santa Ana Lane has proven himself to be one of Australia’s dominant sprinters. I’m sure I join all here at Inglis in wishing Anthony Freedman and all the connections of Santa Ana Lane every success leading into and in The Everest.”

Winless since annexing the Zennippon Nisai Yushun over this course and distance to complete a four-for-four juvenile campaign, Rieno Tesoro sat a stalking trip from second, took command with about 500 metres to travel, repelled a bid from favoured Oken Believe in upper stretch and held sway late for her third career black-type success. Rabbit Run, already a Group 3 winner on turf, completed a US-bred 1-3 finish while earning her first black-type on dirt.

Rieno Tesoro was blanked in six runs at three, though she did manage a big runner-up effort against the boys in the G1 NHK Mile Cup on turf. The chestnut was returning to her preferred dirt surface for the first time since last September and making her fourth start of the season Thursday evening, having finished well down the track in the G1 Victoria Mile May 13.

Fasig-Tipton Saratoga graduate Rieno Tesoro is out of a talented racemare who is a half-sister to Blue Devil Bel (Gilded Time), the dam of this year’s GI Xpressbet Florida Derby hero and GI Kentucky Derby third placegetter Audible (Into Mischief). Rieno Tesoro’s 3-year-old half-sister Peril (Ghostzapper) was a maiden winner at Belmont Park in her most recent trip to the post June 2, while 2-year-old half-sister Next Gen (Super Saver), a $235,000 graduate of last year’s FTSAUG sale, breezed five furlongs in 1:01 flat July 2 at Santa Anita for Spendthrift Farm and trainer Richard Mandella.

Akilina is the dam of a yearling filly by Uncle Mo and foaled a colt by Malibu Moon this past May 22.

NOAH FROM GOA SET FOR SINGAPORE UNVEILING by Alan Carasso

Noah From Goa (SAf) (Tiger Ridge), winner of the 2015 G1 Cape Guineas in the colors of Mary Slack’s Wilgerbosdrift (Pty) Ltd., has been relocated to Singapore and is set to make his local debut in a S$125,000 Kranji Stakes ‘A’ over 1200 metres Friday evening.

Previously trained by Mike de Kock, the 5-year-old gelding followed his Guineas success with a strong third-place effort behind South African Horses of the Year Legal Eagle (SAf) (Greys Inn) and Legislate (SAf) (Dynasty {SAf}) in the 2016 G1 L’Ormarins Queen’s Plate. Multiple Group 2-placed in Dubai in 2017 when part-owned by Sheikh Mohammed bin Khalifa, the chestnut returned to this year’s World Cup Carnival and exits a latest third in the G2 Zabeel Mile Feb. 22 (video). Noah From Goa, who adds blinkers Friday, will race in Singapore for Mary Slack and is now being conditioned by Ricardo Le Grange, who admits that it is a belated start for the chestnut.

“He was meant to run in the [May 26] Kranji Mile, but the race came too soon and he wasn’t ready for the race,” Le Grange told the Singapore Turf Club’s Michael Lee. “A 1200m race is a bit sharp for him, but it’s also a nice race to start with. I noticed in his trackwork he likes looking at everything, and that’s why we are trying blinkers on him. He had a trial with them [June 26] and he did really well (video), but usually he doesn’t show much in his work. That is not to say I will leave the blinkers on all the time. It’s a learning curve for all of us.”

An R325,000 (US$30,583) graduate of the 2014 Emperor’s Palace National 2-Year-Old Sale, Noah From Goa has won five of his 12 career starts for earnings of US$205,730. Nooresh Juglall has the call from gate four in the sixth of Friday’s eight races at Kranji.

KEENELAND REINSTATES APRIL SALE, ANNOUNCES SEPTEMBER FORMAT

Keeneland will reinstate its April Sale in 2019, as one of three changes to its sales calendar announced Thursday. The April auction, last held in 2014, will be staged as a one-day sale of 2-year-olds in training, as well as horses of racing age. Dates for the preview and sale will be announced at a later date.

“Keeneland’s April Sale produced a number of champions and Classic winners, including 2017 champions Lady Eli and Roy H in its final edition in 2014,” Keeneland Vice President of Racing and Sales Bob Elliston said. “Horsemen are very supportive of the sale returning this spring, and we are excited to expand the auction from previous years by offering a limited number of horses of racing age.”

Keeneland also announced the format for its upcoming September Yearling Sale. Book 1 of the auction, which was one session in 2017, will be held Monday through Thursday (Sept. 10-13) this year and will include approximately 1,000 yearlings with sessions beginning at 11 a.m. After a dark day Friday, Book 2 will be held Saturday and Sunday with sessions beginning at 10 a.m. The Book 2 portion of the 2017 sale was three days. Books 3-6 of the September sale will be held the following Monday through Sunday (Sept. 17-23).

FIRST HORA CONSIGNMENT FOR CLAIBORNE

By Christie DeBernardis

Claiborne Farm will take a shot at selling racehorses with a strong group of 11 making up the operation’s first consignment at the Fasig-Tipton July Horses of Racing Age Sale Monday. The prestigious farm will offer one of their own horses, six Phipps Stable homebreds, two horses from Waterford Stable and two owned by Bass Stables.

“Daisy [Phipps] came to us earlier in the spring and said she needed to sell some horses,” Claiborne President Walker Hancock said. “That is how it started and we began going through [her stock]. Daisy, Shug [McGaughey], Bernie [Sams], my dad and I went through and figured out which ones would be good candidates to sell, in order to cut down the number of racehorses she has. Steve Young gave us four more to sell [for Waterford Stable and Ramona Bass] and we are adding one of our own, so that rounds out the consignment.” Cont. p3

Alter Moon (Alternation–Sahara Moon, by Malibu Moon), a runaway winner of last weekend’s Azalea S. at Gulfstream, has been added to the Fasig-Tipton July Selected Horses of Racing Age Sale July 9, Taylor Made Sales Agency announced. Alter Moon will be consigned by Taylor Made as Hip 574.

Keeneland introduced a bonus structure tied to its one-session Book 1 in 2017. With the longer Book 1 section in 2018, the bonus will not be applicable to graduates of the sale this year.

“Keeneland engages in an ongoing dialog with our clients to collect their feedback and adapt our sales formats to meet the ‘market of the moment,’” Elliston said of the changes. “The market is fluid from year to year, and our primary goal is to create a sales environment that will produce the best results for our sellers and buyers.”

Finally, Keeneland announced it will open its November Breeding Stock Sale with an exclusive Book 1 session to be held Monday, Nov. 5.

“The Breeders’ Cup World Championships are at Churchill Downs the weekend before the November Sale begins, so what better way to continue the excitement than to host a select Book 1 on opening day,” said Keeneland President and CEO Bill Thomason.

The entire November Sale schedule will be announced later.

The Phipps portion of the consignment boasts six males with big pedigrees, a few of which are stakes quality runners. Out of a daughter of Hall of Famer Personal Ensign, Fire Away (War Front) (hip 443), who is a 6-year-old half-brother to GISW Mr Speaker (Pulpit), won a rained-off renewal of the GIII Dixie S. at Pimlico in May, in addition to a pair of listed stakes at Aqueduct. His 4-year-old half-brother Snap Decision (Hard Spun) (hip 522) and the 5-year-old Revved Up (Candy Ride {Arg}) (hip 504), a son of champion Storm Flag Flying, are both Grade III-placed.
The other three Phipps horses to be offered Monday are Bokeelia Island (Medaglia d'Oro) (hip 413), a 6-year-old half-brother to MGISWs Point of Entry (Dynaformer) and Pine Island (Arch); Lead Astray (Malibu Moon) (hip 468), a 4-year-old son of champion Smuggler (Unbridled); and Myakka River (Giant's Causeway) (hip 483), a 4-year-old out of MGSW and MGISP Boca Granda (A.P. Indy).

“The Phipps horses have huge pedigrees and I think that alone will attract buyers to come see them,” Hancock said. “I think we have a really strong group. Fire Away is a graded stakes winner and Revved Up and Snap Decision are both graded stakes placed. We have a couple coming out of big wins in their last efforts. We are selling Seize (War Front), who ran really big at Churchill a couple of weeks ago. We have a couple other horses coming off big efforts as well. I think we have a pretty strong consignment from top to bottom and a lot of horses are primed to run big next time out.”

Out of a full-sister to champion Blame (Arch), Claiborne and Adele Dilschneider homebred Seize (hip 515) won a Churchill Downs allowance by 3 1/4 lengths June 23. Okinawa (The Factor) (hip 556) and Texican (Bernardini) (hip 557) both carried the colors of owner/breeder Ramona Bass's Bass Stables. A $420,000 OBSAPR buy, the 4-year-old Okinawa has won two of her six starts and was most recently second in a Belmont optional claimer June 3. The 4-year-old gelding Texican is still a maiden, but is a son of MSW and GSP Bag Lady Jane (Devil's Bag) and a half-brother to GSW Mamma Kimbo (Discreet Cat).

Representing Waterford Stable is 4-year-old Clear N Convincing (Giant's Causeway) (hip 554), a $370,000 EASMAY purchase who broke his maiden last time at Belmont June 16; and Sum Overture (The Factor) (hip 555), a 3-year-old debut winner at Monmouth in his lone start June 17.

“The sale is well-positioned, right before Del Mar and Saratoga,” Hancock said. “These horses are ready to run and a lot of people may be looking to add another star to their stable. Last year, the sale was strong. It is a great place to buy a horse and to sell one. People can take advantage of selling a horse that may be coming off a big effort.”

He continued, “You have all the right people coming to town to hopefully move these horses along and have some success with them later on in the summer. There is no other sale like it around. It is the only place to sell a horse like this at this time of year. I think that is why it is gaining popularity.

When asked if the horses of racing age consignment would be an annual tradition, Hancock said, “We will have to see. You never know how it will be year to year or what the clients would like to do. It could go into the future.”

OSCAR PERFORMANCE TO STUD AT MILL RIDGE IN 2019

Oscar Performance identified himself early that he was a stand out individual and validated that with authority in his two, three and 4-year-old campaigns, trainer Brian Lynch said. He is a trainer’s dream, Lasix free, speed, stamina and soundness. Certainly one of the best.

Mill Ridge Farm managing partner Headley Bell added, “We at Mill Ridge are so appreciative to Jerry and John Amerman for the opportunity to stand a stallion with the potential to contribute to the breed like Oscar Performance. Since Diesis and Gone West, we have been waiting for the special horse to carry on from their legacies and believe Oscar Performance has all the qualities to do so. We commend Brian Lynch and his team for managing his career and look forward to him competing the remainder of the year and returning to his birth place, Mill Ridge, to stand stud in 2019.”

ALTER MOON ADDED TO FASIG-TIPTON HORA SALE

Alter Moon (Alternation—Saahara Moon, by Malibu Moon), a runaway winner of last weekend’s Azalea S. at Gulfstream, has been added to the Fasig-Tipton July Selected Horses of Racing Age Sale July 9, Taylor Made Sales Agency announced.

The 3-year-old filly, owned by JAL Racing and trained by Jose Velez, previously captured an optional claimer by 14 3/4 lengths in Hallandale June 3. The $55,000 Fasig-Tipton Kentucky Fall Yearling and $22,000 OBS June Juvenile sports a record of 7-3-2-0 and earnings of $128,255.

"Her upward trajectory is possibly unmatched in the catalog, having won her most recent two starts by a combined 19 1/2 lengths and posting impressive speed figures," Mark Taylor said. "With any sort of progression from Alter Moon, she could be in with a real shot down the road at this year’s Breeders’ Cup.”

Alter Moon will be consigned by Taylor Made as Hip 574.
DELAWARE TRACKS HANDLE $7 MILLION DURING FIRST 20 DAYS OF SPORTS BETTING

By Bill Finley

The Delaware Lottery Commission is reporting that $7 million was wagered on sports at the state’s three racetracks from June 5 through June 24 and that the total revenue from the sports wagering was $1,000,247.

June 5 is the day sports betting began and June 24 is the final day of the fiscal month.

Sports betting is available at three Delaware tracks, Delaware Park and the harness tracks Dover Downs and Harrington Raceway. Delaware was the first state to offer sports betting after the Supreme Court struck down the Professional and Amateur Sports Protection Act.

Delaware bettors either had a particularly unlucky month or aren’t particularly savvy sports handicappers. They lost 14% of all money wagered. Traditionally, sports bettors in Nevada lose about 5% to 6% of their total handle.

After the state and the companies operating the sports books took their share, $352,256 was left over. Delaware Park, which easily outhandled both harness tracks, took in $263,924 in revenue and $62,715 was added to the purse account. There were 50,934 individual wagers made during the 20-day period at Delaware.

“Any time we can add any money to our purse account we are happy,” said Bessie Gruwell, the executive director of the Delaware Thoroughbred Horsemen’s Association. “I’m glad that this started when it did, at a time when there aren’t a lot of sports to bet on, because they have some kinks to work out. They shut down at 11 p.m., so they had to, on one occasion, turn everyone away in the middle of one of the NBA finals game. There’s also been long lines. But, hopefully, they should have everything working much better by the time the NFL and college football games start. If they do, and with the popularity of those sports, I would imagine that $62,000 figure would grow quite a bit."

Delaware is the only state that has legalized sports betting where the tracks are required to contribute a portion of the profits to purses.

Prior to the Supreme Court decision, Delaware already had legal parlay style bets on NFL games, and the “win” on those bets is typically around 30%. Some worried that single game wagering would cut into the parlay bets and might actually cause the tracks to lose revenue. But the total revenue on the parlay bets in 2017 was $4.8 million. Based on the June results, the annual revenue for more traditional sports bets will be far greater than what the tracks were bringing in on the parlay wagers.

Monmouth Park launched sports betting June 14. So far, no handle figures have been made available by the New Jersey Division of Gaming Enforcement.

Though the sample size is a small one, there is evidence that some sports bettors may also be playing the horses. Since sports betting began, there have been seven cards at Monmouth when racing was held on the same day the prior year. During those seven days, total on-track handle has been $3,742,569. In 2017, the number for the same seven days was $3,097,837. That's an 11.3% increase.

The next track to open a sports book will be the Meadowlands, which is set to launch July 14. The North Jersey track moved up the opening date by a day. The Meadowlands decided on July 14 because it is the night of the Meadowlands Pace, one of the track’s signature races.

FUTURE BOOK FOR A CONTENTIOUS BUNCH

by Robert D. Fierro, DataTrack

Now that the Supremes have decided you can basically bet on anything, we thought we'd approach what may be the most contentious bunch of young stallions we have seen in quite some time as a handicapping event. We are talking, of course, about the freshmen sires of 2018, whose first offspring have just completed their midterms with the conclusion of the OBS June Sale June 15.

Our task is to lay the odds on how the sires of these youngsters are likely to compete over the long term. We have eschewed the pedigree-only approach, but rather have granted that each of these stallions qualify in some respects on that score. Instead, we have brought to bear some biomechanical and digital data to assist us in our prognostications—and then have split them into three "races" with what we would deem an

FasigTipton

There are three criteria we used for this bunch:
1) There are 17 stallions in this bunch, 14 of which stand in Kentucky and three in Florida. The Florida sires were included because they scored as well or better than most of the stallions from the Bluegrass. All 17 had a minimum of 15 offspring which breezed (not just entered) in the six major 2-year-old sales: Fasig-Tipton in Florida and Maryland, OBS March, April, and June, and Barretts April.

2) The major data set used detailed how their offspring compared as individuals to all the other 2-year-olds who breezed. The components of this data are included in DataTrack's BreezeFigs service which is based on breeze time, stride length, and efficiency of angulation. Since 2006, this product has been utilized at sales by buyers and sellers, as well as being offered every day as a handicapping tool at Daily Racing Form's website.

3) We also took into consideration the results of our stallion projection tests, which were compiled in 2015 when these horses went to stud. These profiles are based on biomechanical measurements and the probabilities of these stallions siring race efficient foals from books of biomechanically balanced mares.

The 17 stallions are separated into three groups, two based on current stud fees in Kentucky ($10,000 is the dividing line), and the third for the Florida stallions. They are listed below in Future Book order with a comment or two along the way.

Group 1 (Stud fee = $10,000 and above, Kentucky)
- 5-to-2  Cairo Prince (Pioneerof the Nile)
- 5-to-2  Strong Mandate (Tiznow)

Group 2 (Stud fee = below $10,000, Kentucky)
- 9-to-5  Flashback (Tapit)
- 4-to-1  Shakin It Up (Midnight Lute)
- 6-to-1  Cross Traffic (Unbridled's Song)
- 10-to-1 Can the Man (Into Mischief)
- 10-to-1 Itsmyluckyday (Lawyer Ron)
- 12-to-1  Revolutionary (War Pass)

Group 3 (Florida stallions)
- 6-to-1  Will Take Charge (Unbridled's Song)
- 6-to-1  Verrazano (More Than Ready)
- 8-to-1  Fed Biz (Giant's Causeway)
- 10-to-1 Goldencents (Into Mischief)
- 10-to-1 Mucho Macho Man (Macho Uno)
- 10-to-1 Noble Mission (GB) (Galileo {Ire})

Comment: Cairo Prince and Strong Mandate are virtually tied in all biomechanical data sets, and their offspring were strong on breeze and stride data. Neither is likely to get a lot of precocity, but by autumn they should have strong and versatile records. Verrazano and Will Take Charge are also virtually tied on breeze and stride length data, but Verrazano may be able to come closer to his sire’s versatility than Will Take Charge versus his sire. Fed Biz’s offspring are likely to come out early, emulate his record as a miler—and they resembled him more closely than those by all other sires in this crop—a good thing. Goldencents may get a lot of early runners; Mucho Macho Man’s not likely to hit his stride until late autumn; and the Noble Mission bunch are probably going to need the turf to show their best.

Group 2 (Stud fee = below $10,000, Kentucky)
- 9-to-5  Flashback (Tapit)
- 4-to-1  Shakin It Up (Midnight Lute)
- 6-to-1  Cross Traffic (Unbridled's Song)
- 10-to-1 Can the Man (Into Mischief)
- 10-to-1 Itsmyluckyday (Lawyer Ron)
- 12-to-1  Revolutionary (War Pass)

Comment: Flashback’s sire profile is strong—however, they didn’t excite as yearlings. They woke up this year with breeze and stride data that would have placed him tied at the top of Group 1. Shakin It Up was another who came out of the woodwork with consistent performers and most looked like him, which is good. Can the Man and Itsmyluckyday have strong sire profiles, and their 2-year-olds were basically even across the board, but may need some time. Revolutionary had only 15 that breezed at the sales and they did fairly well, but they may take some time to come around.

Group 3 (Florida)

| 6-to-5 | Handsome Mike (Scat Daddy) |
| 5-to-2 | He’s Had Enough (Tapit) |
| 6-to-1 | Drill (Lawyer Ron) |

Comment: Handsome Mike has a very good sire profile and his 2-year-olds were fast and had solid breeze and stride stats. He isn't his sire, but he looks mighty tempting. He’s Had Enough impressed enough to give this sire a chance for a couple of decent performers at two. Drill was a major surprise and, as one of two sons of Lawyer Ron in our computations, could continue the startling success of his sire in the Sunshine State, and perhaps beyond.

OHIO HBPA DONATES $50,000 TO SUPPORT NEW VOCATIONS

The Ohio Horsemen’s Benevolent and Protective Association has donated $50,000 to support the New Vocations Program's aftercare efforts at their Ohio facilities. In 2017, New Vocations took in over 450 retired racehorses, 64 of which came directly from an Ohio racetrack or farm.

“It is important to the Ohio HBPA that our retired Thoroughbreds be given a chance to thrive in a second career,” said Dave Basler, Ohio HBPA executive director. “We are proud to continue our partnership with New Vocations, an organization that began 26 years ago right here in Ohio to give our horses that chance New Vocations’ adoption process is very thorough—it ensures that the horses will go to good homes. We know from the training they received that the horses leave the program well-prepared to begin their second careers.”

STRONACH GROUP TO ENHANCE HANDICAPPING INFORMATION WITH HORSES’ WEIGHTS

After monitoring, compiling and televising the weights of horses the past several months at its facilities in California, Florida and Maryland, The Stronach Group will make the information available in past performances by the end of summer.

Prior to being saddled before a race, each horse steps on a scale in or near the paddock, where their weights are recorded by a racing official. The weights have been posted on in-house simulcast shows before each race. By the end of the summer, weights will also be available on-line and in racing programs with a plus/minus from the previous start, according to The Jockey Club.

The Hong Kong Jockey Club has been weighing and recording the weights of horses for several years.

“This is something we’ve been working on for quite a while,” Tim Ritvo, Chief Operating Officer of The Stronach Group, said. “I think this information benefits everyone, from horsemen to bettors to track veterinarians, and it allows further transparency. We hope the added element is beneficial to our customers since we have always considered them the economic engine of the sport.”
SPORTS BETTING RULES ON ARCI AGENDA

In the aftermath of the US Supreme Court ruling which clears the way for states to authorize and regulate wagering on sports other than horseracing, the ARCI will consider expanding its portfolio beyond wagering on pari-mutuel horse and greyhound contests to those involving human athletes and teams.

When it meets next Tuesday and Wednesday in Omaha, Nebraska, the ARCI Model Rules Committee will consider taking the first step in this direction by working on a set of model regulations based upon the existing sports betting rules currently in place in Nevada.

"Up until recently, except for Nevada, the only legal sports wagering authorized has been on horse or greyhound racing. The regulatory structure in place for these sports and the processing of wagers can easily be adopted to accommodate wagering on other sports," ARCI President Ed Martin said.

EYE OF THE TIGER RETIRED TO OLD FRIENDS

Two-time graded winner Eye of the Tiger (American Chance--Dial a Trick, by Phone Trick) has been pensioned to Old Friends, the Thoroughbred Retirement Center in Georgetown, Ky.

The 2003 GI Kentucky Derby fifth-place finisher was retired from racing in 2006 with five wins from 19 starts and earnings of $535,679 for breeder/owner John D. Gunther. He was pensioned from stud duty at the Gunther's Glennwood Farm in 2016. The now 18-year-old arrived at Old Friends on June 27.

"Eye of the Tiger he has been a long-time member of our horse family," said Glennwood's Tanya Gunther. "He deserves the serenity that this home will provide him, which was a challenge to do at our small farm with the constant hustle and bustle of mares, foals, and yearlings.

"To know he will join the company of Classic horses such as War Emblem, Silver Charm, and Touch Gold makes me very pleased.

Imagine the stories they will share? A big thank you to Old Friends, and we look forward to visiting him very soon."

MIGLIORE TO RECEIVE THOROFAN AWARD

Retired jockey and popular racing analyst Richard Migliore has been named as the recipient of the 2018 ThoroFan Award. "The combination of his riding career and his media presence makes Rich a true ambassador for all racing fans," said Michael Amo, Chairman of the Board of Directors of ThoroFan. Previous recipients of the ThoroFan Award, created to recognize individuals who have contributed to the expansion of the fan base, include Louis and Patrice Wolfson (2013), Cot Campbell (2014), Michael Blowen (2015), Tom Durkin (2016) and Bob Giordano (2017). The award will be presented to Migliore at the Saratoga Chamber's "Call to the Post" signature event to be held at the Embassy Suites Diamond Club July 19.

8th-Belmont, $85,000, Alw (C)/Opt. Clm ($80,000), 7-5, 3yo/up, 1mT, 1:33.22, fm.

BLACKTYPE (FR) (g, 7, Dunkerque {Fr}--Theorie {Fr}, by Anabaa) captured the GII Knickerbocker S. here Oct. 9 for his third graded stakes conquest, but had been off the board in his subsequent four outings, most recently running seventh in the local GIII Fort Marcy S. May 5. Made the narrow 2-1 favorite in this spot, the dark bay tracked the pace from the pocket in third through splits of :23.62 and :46.59. Hugging the fence on the far bend, he slipped through an opening at the three-eighths pole, fought off pacesetter Abiding Star (Uncle Mo) passing the sixteenth marker and inched away to a one-length tally. Longest shot in the field Tapitation (Tapit) nailed Abiding Star in the last jump for second money. Sales History: €7,500 Ylg '12 DEANOV. Lifetime Record: MGSW, 33-10-3-8, $805,085.

6th-Belmont, $77,000, Alw (NW1$X)/Opt. Clm ($80,000), 7-5, 3yo, 1 1/8mT, 1:46.26, fm.

HAVE AT IT (c, 3, Kitten's Joy--Akronism {MGSW, $516,519}, by Not For Love) earned his diploma at third asking over the Keeneland lawn last October, but was a non-factor ninth in his sophomore debut over the local sod June 8. Let go at 28-5 in this spot, the blaze-faced chestnut was first out of the blocks from his inside post before settling in a stalking second through splits of :23.62 and :46.59. Hugging the fence on the far bend, he slipped through an opening at the three-eighths pole, fought off pacesetter Abiding Star (Uncle Mo) passing the sixteenth marker and inched away to a one-length tally. Longest shot in the field Tapitation (Tapit) nailed Abiding Star in the last jump for second money. Sales History: $200,000 RNA Ylg '16 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 5-2-1-0, $113,990.

3rd-Gulfstream, $47,350, Alw (C)/Opt. Clm ($75,000), 7-5, 2yo, f, 5 1/2f, 1:06.92, ft.

NANCYSAIDSO (f, 2, Cajun Breeze--Theladaysaidno, by Concerto) was a close second in her first two career outings before breaking through with a dominant graduation when adding Lasix and blinkers over the local sloop May 26. Backed to 4-5 to double up in this spot, the homebred was hustled away to dictate terms through a sharp :21.88 quarter, but was collared by second choice Sweetsweetsweet (Concord Point) to her inside nearing the stretch and appeared beaten past the furlong grounds. Sweetsweetsweet drifted out sharply nearing the sixteenth pole, however, and continued all the way to the outside fence as she approached the wire, allowing Nancysaidso to just get up by a half-length. The winner has a yearling full-brother and a full-sister of this term. Lifetime Record: 4-2-2-0, $89,700. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

7th-Gulfstream, $48,400, Alw (C)/Opt. Clm ($16,000), 7-5, 3yo/up, f/m, 6f, 1:10.87, ft.

OOLA GAL (f, 3, Quality Road--Geisha Gal, by Agnes Tachyon {Jpn}), a first-out victress against $50,000 maiden sellers here Dec. 6, annexed a state-bred allowance over track and trip three starts later before running fifth in the local Liza Jane S. June 6. Off as the lukewarm 27-10 chalk in this spot, the bay broke last and caboosed the field behind a :22.46 quarter. Picking off horses in the two path on the turn, she swung four deep at the top of the lane and ran down pacesetter R Next Roll (Overdriven) at the sixteenth pole en route to a two-length success over that foe. The winner is the first foal out of a dam whose subsequent produce is a juvenile filly by Lemon Drop Kid named Lemon Gal, a yearling Temple city colt and a filly of this spring by the latter sire. Lifetime Record: 6-3-0-1, $82,667. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

AMY FARAH FOWLER (f, 2, Astrology—Run Cat Run (SP), by Sir Cat) romped on debut going a furlong shorter here May 21 and drilled three bullet works in the interim, including a five-furlong move in :59 1/5 (1/4) July 1. Taking all the money at 1-5 in this five-horse group, the bay broke a tad awkwardly and sat third early before making a three-wide blitz for the front entering the turn. Opening up nearing the straightaway, she never gave any pursuers a chance in the stretch despite failing to switch leads until the final yards and romped home 8 3/4 lengths in front. Pemaquid Sally (Talent Search) was well clear for the place. The winner has a yearling half-brother by Real Solution and a weanling Goldencents half-sister. Sales History: $8,500 Ylg '17 EASOCT. SUE’S FORTUNE (f, 2, Jump Start--Democrat Taxes, by Catienus) drilled a pair of sharp local gate works in preparation for this debut, including a spin in :48 1/5 (7/32) June 17, and was given a 3-1 chance. Breaking on top from her rail draw, the homebred showed the way while pressed by heavy favorite She Will Rock (Will Take Charge) through a :22.33 quarter. Inching clear from that one by the top of the lane, the bay kicked clear despite failing to switch leads until just outside the sixteenth pole and coasted home 8 1/2 lengths to the good. She Will Rock was clearly second-best. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

CALL PAUL (c, 2, Friesan Fire--Avani Force, by Forestry), a $20,000 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic October grad turned $210,000 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic May buy, tipped his hand for this debut with a half-mile gate work in :48 1/5 (4/46) June 23 at Monmouth and was hammered to 2-5 favoritism. Away alertly, the bay dueled for command through a :22.05 quarter, poked a head in front turning for home and edged clear in the final furlong to a 2 1/4-length score over longshot pacesetter Mind Control (Stay Thirsty). the first Japanese produce for her dam, a half-sister to GSW
Animal Spirits (Arch) and to the dam of GSW ‘TDN Rising Star’
Ocho Ocho Ocho (Street Sense), who was bought for $530K carrying this foal in utero at KEENOV in 2015. Second dam Pennant Champion (Mr. Prospector) was a daughter of undefeated Eclipse Award winner Personal Ensign (Private responsible for the recently retired MGSW & MGISP Vyjack. The deeper female family includes dual-hemisphere star Gentlemen

AFTERCARE IS NOT A CHARITY, IT’S AN OBLIGATION.

Five years ago, the Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance was created. It was the boldest step to date in the repurposing and relocating of horses in their post-racing careers. Thanks to the generosity of industry organizations, breeding farms and individuals the TAA successfully accredits, awards and inspects those dedicated to aftercare of our equine athletes.

But the demand for funding far exceeds our ability to provide for our 64 partners.

The next bold step is needed in aftercare funding.

Without it, there will be an unacceptable answer as an industry as to how we care for those who give us so much. And without it, as owners, we are not fulfilling our obligation.
