EL PRADO'S AMERICAN MASTERPIECES

El Prado, with Lester Piggott in the irons, after breaking his maiden. He would go on to sire several important stallion sons Stateside.
Racingfotos.com

by John Boyce

May 13, 1977. The legendary Vincent O'Brien sends a grey filly by Sir Ivor to The Curragh for her racecourse debut. In the colours of Robert Sangster worn by stable jockey Tommy Murphy, the filly defies her starting price of 16-1 to win impressively by three lengths. Nothing remarkable about a Ballydoyle runner scoring on debut at The Curragh. But this was no ordinary maiden, it was the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas. The filly in question, Lady Capulet, exploded on the scene and although her racing career amounted to just three starts, she was to play a huge part in the future of the bloodstock world through her Sadler's Wells son El Prado (Ire).

Lady Capulet's son--a handsome 330,000-guinea yearling--would go on to win the G1 National S., the G2 Beresford S. and the G3 Railway S. Rated 119 by Timeform at two, he failed to train on as a 3-year-old, running unplaced in three outings. So, given his lack of progress at three, plus his distinct preference for some cut in the ground, El Prado's recruitment for stallion duties by Adena Springs in Kentucky looked like a brave move at the time. But it is one that has paid handsome dividends.

‘WORD’ INJURED, DONE FOR YEAR

Poet's Word (Ire) (Poet’s Voice {GB}), the highest rated horse in Europe and joint second overall on the Longines World Rankings behind Winx (Aus) (Street Cry {Ire}), has suffered an injury and will not be seen in action again this year, mooting a potential appearance in the GI Breeders’ Cup Turf at Churchill Downs in November. The Sir Michael Stoute-trained 5-year-old has been one of the stories of the season, beating Cracksman (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in the G1 Prince of Wales's S., before getting the better of stablemate Crystal Ocean (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}) in an epic finish to the G1 King George VI And Queen Elizabeth S. His latest start came in the G1 Juddmonte International S. at York, where he was second to Roaring Lion (Kitten’s Joy).

Stoute said in a statement, "Poet's Word has sustained an injury and will not be able to race again this year. His owner, Saeed Suhail, will soon be coming to England and will make a decision on his future." Cont. p2

He's one of only three European-raced colts to have become US Champion sires since Nasrullah back in 1962, winning the title in 2002. He's sired 82 stakes winners at an excellent rate of 10.4% to starters, from mares whose output with other sires was 7.1%. But what is even more impressive is the fact that among sons of Sadler's Wells, El Prado is responsible for three of the seven most prolific grandsons of Sadler's Wells in Medaglia d'Oro (112 stakes winners), Kitten's Joy (86 stakes winners) and Artie Schiller (44 stakes winners).

'Word' Injured, Done for Year Cont. from p1

A regular in the top races, Poet's Word was second in both the G1 English and G1 Irish Champion S. last season, and began this campaign when runner-up to Hawkbill (Kitten's Joy) in the G1 Sheema Classic at Meydan in March.

DATE SET FOR ROUTE DES ETALONS 2019

Siyouni | The Aga Khan Studs

The French Racing & Breeding Committee (FRBC) and the Federation des Eleveurs have announced that France's popular stallion weekend, La Route des Etalons, will take place on Jan. 19 and 20 next year. Around 100 stallions will be on show at more than 20 Normandy stud farms, including Dabirsim (Fr), Shalaa (Ire), Wings Of Eagles (Fr), Le Havre (Ire) and Siyouni (Fr).

Breeders wishing to take part in this event can contact Solange Gourdain at the FRBC (s.gourdain@frbc.net) for advice on travelling and planning your visit, or see the www.laroutedesetalons.com for more details.

OBSERVATIONS
on the European racing scene

2.30 Yarmouth, Mdn, £7,400, 2yo, 7f 3yT
ROYAL MEETING (IRE) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) is a son of the G1 Alan Robertson Fillies' Championship winner Rock Opera (SAf) (Lecture) whose Heavy Metal (GB) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) captured the 2012 G2 Richmond S. Remarkably, he added two more at that level on dirt this year, including the G2 Godolphin Mile and Saeed bin Suroor has charge of his half-brother who debuts against 14 rivals.

3.20 Naas, Mdn, €16,500, 2yo, f, 6fT
LAND GIRL (War Front) debuts for Khalid Abdullah and Dermot Weld and is a daughter of the smart Principal Role (Empire Maker), a half-sister to Midships (Mizzen Mast). Her 19 rivals include Ballydoyle's Afar (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), a half-sister to two black-type performers from the stable who was fifth when made favourite on her debut at The Curragh last month.

3.30 Saint-Cloud, Debutantes, €27,000, 2yo, f, 8fT
OUZALA (IRE) (Dansili {GB}) starts out for the Wertheimer-Freddy Head connection and is a half-sister to the operation's 2013 G1 Prix Marcel Boussac winner Indonesienne (Ire) (Muhtathir {GB}). She meets Grace Spirit (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}), an Alain de Royer Dupre-trained half-sister to the connections' 2012 G1 Falmouth S. heroine Giofra (GB) (Dansili {GB}).

4.10 Saint-Cloud, Debutantes, €27,000, 2yo, c/g, 8fT
ANCIENT MARINER (IRE) (Galileo {Ire}) represents the Magnier/Tabor/Smith-Andre Fabre combination which enjoyed such a red-letter day when this colt's half-brother Pour Moi (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) swooped to conquer in the 2011 G1 Epsom Derby. Also closely related to the dual Group 3 winner and dual Classic-placed Gagnoa (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), the May foal encounters a Shadwell blueblood in Mushayyed (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), a Freddy Head-trained half-brother to the G1 Prix Jacques le Marois-winning sire Tamayuz (GB) (Nayef) connected to the yard's burgeoning sprinting power Tantheem (GB) (Teofilo {Ire}).

6.00 Naas, Mdn, €18,000, 2yo, 8fT
EGRECIO (GB) (Intello {Ger}) is another notable Juddmonte newcomer to represent the Dermot Weld yard, this time being a half-brother to the 2011 G1 Matron S. winner Emulous (GB) (Dansili {GB}). That talented mare's full-brother First Sitting (GB) took last year's G3 Prix Gontaut-Biron.

7.00 Naas, Mdn, €16,500, 2yo, 7fT
OLD GLORY (IRE) (Frankel {GB}) is the day's most interesting newcomer, being the 2017 Goffs Orby Yearling Sale topper at €1.6 million who starts out for Zayat Stables LLC, Magnier, Tabor and Smith. Aidan O'Brien pitches the half-brother to the G2 Herbert Power S. winner Assign (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) into the maiden won by the stable's Flag of Honour (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}).

MAGIC J (c, 2, Scat Daddy--Miss Lamour {SP-US}, by Mr. Greeley), a $950,000 Keeneland September purchase previously known as Ginger Wolverine, dwelt slightly at the break before recovering to stalk the leaders under a tight hold in fourth. Looming large when angled into the clear approaching the quarter-mile marker, the 7-4 second favourite was shaken up with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and ran on strongly under whipless encouragement in the closing stages to deny Swindler (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) by an ultimately snug 1 1/4 lengths. He is the first foal produced by Listed Forever Together S. runner-up Miss Lamour (Mr. Greeley), herself half to Tejida (Rahy)--who hit the board six times at Grade III level--out of GIII Vinery Matchmaker S. victress Batique (Storm Cat). The latter is kin to GIII Robert G Dick Memorial H. runner-up Trensa (Giant's Causeway), who in turn is the dam of MG1SW British highweight Hawkbill (Kitten's Joy) and GI Claiborne Breeders' Futurity hero Free Drop Billy (Union Rags). Miss Lamour, who was bred to More Than Ready this year, has a yearling filly by Declaration of War to come. Sales history: $950,000 Ylg '17 KEESEP. ENBIHAAR (IRE) (f, 3, Redoute's Choice {Aus}--Chanterelle {Fr}, by Trempolino), who was an encouraging third after a slow break on debut over 10 furlongs at Chelmsford Sept. 6, was better away this time before racing in third. Tackling the long-time leader Petrastar (GB) (Passing Glance {GB}) approaching the final furlong, the 4-5 favourite strode clear to win by three lengths. In the top dozen lots of the 2016 Arqana Deauville August Yearlings Sale, Enbihaar is a half-sister to the listed-placed King Bolete (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}) and the G2 International Topkapi Trophy runner-up Silent Attack (GB) (Dream Ahead), GSP-Tur, $163,308. The dam, who has a yearling colt by Charm Spirit (Ire), is a daughter of Spectacular Joke (Spectacular Bid) who captured the G2 Prix Maurice de Gheest before producing the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac heroine Amonita (GB) (Anabaa) and Cox Orange. Also by Trempolino, she took the G3 Prix du Calvados, GIII Buckram Oak H., GIII Beaugay H., GIII Suwannee River H. and GIII Vineland H. prior to throwing the G1 1000 Guineas third Vista Bella (GB) (Diktat {GB}). IDEOLOGICAL (IRE) (f, 2, Dawn Approach {Ire}--Micaela's Moon, by Malibu Moon), sent off the 11-4 joint-second favourite, broke slowly to race at the back of the pack initially. Picking up in style out wide in the straight, the homebred swooped on Little India (Fr) (Manduro {Ger}) 100 yards out en route to a 1 3/4-length success. The dam, who has a yearling filly by Teofilo (Ire) and a filly foal by Iffraaj (GB), is a half to two stakes winners headed by the GIII Ack Ack H. scorer Cat's Career (Mr. Prospector). She is also a half to Cat's Eye Witness (Elusive Quality), producer of the G1 Prix Morny and G2 Norfolk S.-winning first-season sire sensation No Nay Never (Scat Daddy). VIVIONN (GB) (f, 2, Dubawi {Ire}--Giants Play {GSW-US & SP-Eng, $159,449}, by Giant's Causeway), who posted a June 7 debut eighth going a shade over five panels at Sandown last time, broke well to race in a handy third from the outset of this one. Scrubbed along on the home turn, the 6-4 chalk straightened up in second and kept on strongly under a final-furlong drive to score by a length from Mums Hope (GB) (Lethal Force {Ire}). She is the fourth foal and winner out of GII New York S. victress Giants Play (Giant's Causeway) and thus a full-sister to this year's G3 Sandown Classic Trial second Ispolini (GB) and a half to Listed Lyric S. third Playful Sound (GB) (Street Cry {Ire}). Cont. p8

ROMOLA (GB) (f, 2, Pivotal {GB}--Dianora {GB}, by New Approach {Ire}), an Aug. 15 last-out second tackling this trip at Kempton, shadowed the leader in second after an alert break here. Sent to the front rounding the home turn, the 9-4 second choice was shaken up at the top of the straight and pushed out to easily account for Hostess (GB) (Iffraaj {GB}) by 2 1/2 lengths. Full-sister to a colt foal, she is the first foal produced by a daughter of MG1SW 'TDN Rising Star' Nannina (GB) (Medicean {GB}), herself out of G3 Criterion S. victress Hill Hopper (Ire) (Danehill), who in turn is a half-sister to G1 Adelaide Cup hero Water Boatman (Ire) (Main Reef {GB}) and to the dam of G1 Windsor Park Plate victor Steinbeck (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}). BREATHTAKING LOOK (GB) (f, 3, Bated Breath {GB}--Love Your Looks {GB} {MSP-Eng}, by Iffraaj {GB}), an 8-1 shot, blew the break but was unhurried in last early. Making up ground effortlessly to roll by Dosc (Ire) (Dream Ahead) 150 yards out, the bay asserted to score with authority by 2 1/4 lengths. The first foal out of the dual listed-placed Love Your Looks, the winner has time to reach that level herself. Her dam, a daughter of the Listed Prix Joubert scorer Play Around (Ire) (Niniski), also has a yearling filly by Kyllachy (GB) and a filly foal by Territories (Ire). MCKEEVER TO WALK FOR BRAIN TUMOUR CHARITY

Susie McKeever, a bloodstock agent based in Newmarket and brain tumour sufferer, is participating in the Brain Tumour Charity's 10k Twilight Walk at Warwick on Sept. 30. Diagnosed 10 years ago and after surgery and nine months of chemotherapy, McKeever was informed in July that her tumour is growing again. Facing another nine months of chemotherapy, McKeever has already raised £24,000 of her £50,000 goal for the charity, which funds vital research. To sponsor McKeever, please visit her page at JustGiving: susiemckeever or make cheques payable to the Brain Tumour Charity, at Lushington House, 119 High Street, Newmarket, Suffolk, CB8 9AE.

A maiden after three starts for Ballydoyle, Baby Pink took another three to get off the mark for Joseph O'Brien but did so in emphatic style encountering this heavy ground for the first time in a 12-furlong handicap at Listowel four days prior to this black-type breakthrough. Drawn widest at a track at which it is difficult to overcome such a hindrance, the bay had done a lot of work to stay close to Princess Yaiza on the front end by the time they reached the short straight. While the long-time leader stuck at her task, it was Baby Pink who finished off the strongest to edge ahead from 200 metres out. Cont. p9

Surprisingly for a daughter of Invincible Spirit, Baby Pink relishes a stamina test and testing conditions. Her dam Dress Rehearsal saw out this kind of trip well and the Swettenham Stud representative was at her best when garnering the 2009 GIII Orchid S. under Bill Mott's tutelage. Her best progeny so far is the G3 Lingfield Derby Trial third and Blue Riband S. winner Christophermarlowe (Tapit), while she has an as-yet unraced 2-year-old full-sister to the winner named Traisha (Ire) who was bought for 400,000gns by Charlie Gordon-Watson Bloodstock at Tattersalls October and a yearling colt by Zoffany (Ire). Dress Rehearsal emanates from the Tsui Family's influential broodmare Sassenach (Ire) (Night Shift), which links her to the multiple group-winning sprinter Muthmir (Ire) also by Invincible Spirit, the G3 C.L. Weld Park S. winner My Titania (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) and the G3 Ballyogan S. scorer Majestic Queen (Ire) (Kheleyf). Click for the Racing Post result. Video, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Staying on strongly in the testing conditions, the 8-15 favourite hit the line having carved out a generous 14-length margin. The winner is a son of the G2 Debutante S. and G3 Park Express S. runner-up Devoted To You, whose 3-year-old colt also by Galileo named Cliffs of Dooneen (Ire) won his first two starts for the stable this term. TRAINER GUY CHEREL ARRESTED

Guy Cherel, one of the leading jumps trainers in France, was arrested on Monday in connection with an ongoing doping investigation, according to a report in French newspaper Le Parisien.

Also a noted breeder of jumpers, Cherel, 58, has a training stable at Maisons-Laffitte as well as a stud farm in Gavray. Both premises are reported to have been raided by police officers from the racing and gaming division who found prohibited substances on site. A vet, who has not been named, was also arrested with Cherel.

The trainer was handed a six-month ban in 2016 after one of his horses tested positive for Ranitidine, which is used to treat gastric ulcers. Cherel has trained 74 winners so far this year and currently lies in fourth place in the French jumps trainers' table.

A statement from France Galop on Tuesday read only that it would not comment on an ongoing investigation.

SOFT FALLING RAIN PASSES AWAY AT NINE

Equus champion and UAE highweight Soft Falling Rain (SAf) (National Assembly–Gardener's Delight, by Giant's Causeway), who carried the Shadwell silks to group victories in three countries including the G1 South African Nursery S. in 2012, has died at the age of nine, Wilgerbosdrift Farm announced. Bred by Highlands Farms Stud, the R350,000 graduate of the 2011 Cape Yearling Sale won his first seven starts–including four in his native land--culminating in his Nursery score en route to South African champion juvenile colt honours in 2012/2013. Named the UAE highweight from 7-9 1/2 furlongs, with wins in the G2 Godolphin Mile and G3 UAE 2000 Guineas, the Mike De Kock trainee added the G2 Joel S. at Newmarket in September of 2013, with his best effort in 2014 a runner-up finish defending his title in the Godolphin Mile.

Retired to Wilgerbosdrift in 2015 with a mark of 13-8-2-0 and earnings of $1,169,015, Soft Falling Rain proved popular and covered full books each year. The half-brother to South African Grade 2 winner Let It Rain (SAf) (Dynasty {SAf}) and South African MGSW Splendid Garden (SAf) (Black Minnaloushe) was in demand at the 2018 sales, with his first yearlings having sold up to R1,400,000 (US$94,146/£71,669/€80,736).

YULONG FORGING AHEAD WITH STALLION OPERATION

Written Tycoon | Bronwen Healy

by Paul Vettise

The development of a state of the art stallion facility is the next stage of Yulong Investment's Thoroughbred expansion in Australia. In four short years, Zhang Yuesheng has become a major player Down Under to go with a formidable presence in Europe and the United States.

"Mr. Zhang has a real passion for the industry and he's obviously been very successful in his other businesses," Yulong Chief Operation Officer Sam Fairgray said. "He wants to develop a breeding and racing operation and he's going about it the right way. His attention to detail is fantastic and everything is of the highest quality. He's got about 130 mares here now and stallion shares in Savabeel, Written Tycoon and Preferment."

Added Fairgray, "It's grown quickly with three properties, 170 acres for the racehorses and for spelling and a total of 650 acres for the breeding section of Yulong. We are developing a stallion complex for up to 10 stallions of international standard. Going forward, over the next 12 to 24 months, it will be another leap again."

Scouting for Stallions...

Mr. Zhang has already made approaches to the connections of the dual Group 1 winner Grunt (NZ) (O'Reilly {NZ}) and the unbeaten stakes winner Brutal (NZ) (O'Reilly {NZ}).

"The stallion operation will be completed by the next breeding season so we're on the look-out in the next 12 months for the right horses and both of those horses fit the criteria," he said. "O'Reilly will work with the Redoute's Choice-line horses and more. Finding the right stallions, we believe, will get the support of Victorian breeders who are currently sending a lot of mares to New South Wales."

Mr. Zhang is an accomplished horseman himself and very much involved in the breeding plans.

"He's very good on conformation and he's got a good eye for a good type," Fairgray said. "As a young kid he spent a lot of time with horses and used to ride. He's studied horse nutrition and pedigrees and he's got a fantastic memory. We talk about stallions and what we like and then go about seeing which mares suit. We like to use all the top commercial stallions like Snitzel (Aus), Written Tycoon (Aus), Fastnet Rock (Aus), I Am Invincible (Aus) etc."

He said, "Next year we will have our own yearling drafts to Magic Millions and Melbourne and possibly Easter. It's pretty exciting to be having drafts full of proven stallions and in time our own."

Mr. Zhang currently has a racing team in Australia of 110. "He also races horses in New Zealand, Ireland, the United States, Dubai and Singapore--it's evolving all the time," Fairgray said. "At the last yearling sales here we purchased heavily and there's 55 odd 2-year-olds to hit the tracks this season. The whole operation is growing in quality and the key for myself and the team is to give Mr. Zhang the successes he so much enjoys."

Involvement in China...

Mr. Zhang, whose business interests include coal, electricity generation, construction and chemicals, is also heavily involved in China and recently hosted a successful sale there at Yulong Park.

"The sale was held on international day and there were 15 trainers, breeders and racing identities from Australia and New Zealand," Fairgray said. "Some 170 horses went through the sale. Mr. Zhang built the racetrack and sale complex and he's getting more exposure for racing in China with race vision onto television. He's getting more and more of his friends, and not only in China, and introducing them to the industry down here."

TDN Q&A WITH SUMMERFIELD'S ANDREW VANLANGENDONCK

by Lucas Marqaurdt

It has been 10 years since Summerfield sold a million-dollar horse, and now they have had two in a space of just a few weeks, a $1-million American Pharoah colt at Saratoga, and a $1.8-million Curlin at Keeneland September. Ironically enough, the 10 years in between also marked the time when Andrew Vanlangendonck, son of Summerfield's owners Barbara and Francis, was away serving his country in the United States Air Force. Now that he's back at Summerfield full time, we caught up with him to ask about his family's run of success and to ask, `Are you the family good luck charm?'

LM: Let's talk about your decision as a young guy, 19, to leave the family business and to go off and serve the country in the Air Force.

AV: I felt it was a choice that was entirely up to me. My dad was all for it, mom was a little hesitant on losing her baby boy. But I felt that it was very important for me to see other avenues of the world and things like that. I really wanted to travel the entire world.

PEGASUS WORLD CUP ADDS GRADE I TURF RACE

The 2019 GI Pegasus World Cup card, to be held Jan. 26, 2019, will add a Grade I turf stakes to its docket, The Stronach Group announced Tuesday. The race, which will be run at 1 3/16 miles and known as the Pegasus World Cup Turf Invitational, will have a $7-million purse, with a $3-million share paid out to the winner. The Pegasus World Cup, meanwhile, will offer $9 million with a $4-million winner's share.

"The appetite for a turf race is strong and the decision to include a premier turf race is part of the ongoing evolution of the Pegasus World Cup," said Belinda Stronach, chairman and president of The Stronach Group. "We are excited to expand this event for both horse owners and fans, adding to what is already an incredible day of entertainment and world-class racing at Gulfstream Park." Cont. p6

MORE 'QUALITY' AT KEESEP 7

One of the things that my dad always did whenever we were younger traveling, was we would talk about places that he's been. He's been all over the United States and I remember thinking at a very young age that I wanted to do that but bigger. I wanted to go to the world. So, aside from the obvious reason of wanting to serve your country and things like that, that was a big motivator for me--it was wanting to get out and travel and things like that. That's really why I joined the Air Force. I figured they'd pay me and then they'd send me where they wanted me and I would travel the world.

LM: And you did see the world, serving in Bahrain, Afghanistan and Japan. In 2017, you decided to leave the Air Force and come back to civilian life?

AV: December 19, 2017 was my last day in the Air Force. Initially, it was just supposed to be a four-year tour. I was just going to go to the Air Force, see the world a little bit, and then ultimately come back to the Thoroughbred industry. However, whenever that four years came up, I was in Japan and I just got done having the experience of the earthquake (see Lucas Marquardt's video) so I was really patriotic. They also asked me if I would like to reenlist, so I spoke to my dad about it for a couple weeks. He ultimately told me, it was the deciding factor of the Thoroughbred industry, we'll always be here. So if you would like to do another four, go ahead and do it. So I pulled the trigger and I did another four which led me up to eight. After that, they kept giving me fairly good bases, but they said I had to extend my contract by five, six months. So what's another five, six months right? Ultimately, that led to about 10 years.

LM: Was it an easy decision to say alright, now I'm gonna leave the Air Force and come back and join the family business? Did you think about doing something else in racing?

AV: The decision was fairly easy. As I said before, I was planning on getting out after four years. As far as the what I want to do in the industry, I want to be Summerfield. That's the ultimate goal. This year has been very, very, very good to my family and Summerfield Sales as a whole. The American Pharoah (hip 62) that we sold in Saratoga was amazing and then we sold a Curlin (hip 211) at this sale and book one for the Curlin that we sold for $1.8 million. I believe the last seven-figure horse that we were able to sell was back in 2009 at this very sale so having two in a row this year has just been amazing. I'm very happy that this is the year that we were able to accomplish that.

LM: Are you stressing to people that obviously you're a good-luck charm?

AV: Very much so (smiles). Hopefully, this would really open up people's eyes that we can handle these kind of animals and we can produce them. So, hopefully we'll get some more animals of that quality and we'll be able to sell some more in the future.

LM: Let's talk about that American Pharoah up in Saratoga. There is a bit of history there with you father and the Nielsen family, isn't there?

AV: Yes, and the fact that we were able to sell a seven-figure horse for people that were so close to us, literally my entire life, was just amazing. Being able to share that experience with Joanne and her kids that all came up for the sale was just an amazing experience. It couldn't have been for better people.

They've been in the business for longer than I've been alive and they've had some success and they've had some downs just like everybody else in this industry. But I was very pleased that I was able to be there to share it with them. Summerfield is here because of Jerry Nielsen, who was dad's long-time mentor and best friend. Originally, I believe he was managing a farm and Jerry Nielsen approached him and asked him to be a manager of a different farm. Dad said he didn't want to jump from being a manager at one farm to being a manager at another farm. So Jerry said, `Well, how about you be a partner? I'll buy 80 acres down in Ocala, Florida and I'd like you to be a partner with me. And eventually, after X amount of time, you'll buy me out and that will be your retirement.' Just as Jerry predicted, that came to pass. So we are very, very, very appreciative of the Nielsen family as a whole which just makes having such success with them this year that much more memorable.

LM: Your brother is involved as well, is that right?

AV: My brother is involved. He and I work hand to hand every single day and he's been doing amazing. I can't think of anybody better in this industry to be under to learn. I believe it's in my DNA. I grew up on a horse farm. Part of me joining the Air Force was wanting to see other avenues and once I left, after about two years, I would pass farms with horses on them in different countries and I'd roll down the windows because I wanted to get the smell. Cause I didn't realize how much I miss this industry. So I'm very excited to be able to come back.

Any horse owner who purchases a spot in the Pegasus World Cup Invitational will be given preference to purchase a spot in the Pegasus World Cup Turf Invitational. The cost to secure an entry spot and enter a horse is $500,000 per race.

"As an international owner, I am thrilled that the Pegasus World Cup will include a turf race," said John Magnier of Coolmore. "Coolmore, like The Stronach Group, believes in growing our sport and there is no better way to do that than to provide a new platform to showcase the world's best Thoroughbreds."

With Gulfstream Park's only pre-existent Grade I turf event being the GI Gulfstream Park Turf H., it is expected that the race will be repurposed as the Pegasus World Cup Turf Invitational. In its previous creation of the Pegasus World Cup in 2017, Gulfstream made use of the GI Donn H.'s top-level status.

The Stronach Group will offer a $1-million bonus to the owner who wins both the Pegasus World Cup Invitational and the Pegasus World Cup Turf Invitational.

QUALITY ROAD FILLY TOPS BOOK 3 FINALE

Hip 2550 Quality Road filly | Keeneland

A filly by Quality Road brought $420,000 from Jamie McCalmont, agent for Sarah Kelly, to top Tuesday's second and final session of Book 3 at the Keeneland September Yearling Sale.

Keeneland sold 271 yearlings for $19,603,400 during the eighth session of the marathon sale Tuesday. The average was $72,337 and the median was $50,000.

With five sessions to go, Keeneland has sold 1,704 horses for $345,890,600, good for a cumulative average of $202,987 and a cumulative median of $130,000.

Tuesday's session topper was produced by Chapel (Pulpit), an unplaced daughter of MGSW Owsley (Harlan). Owsley has produced the stakes-winning and multiple graded-placed Senada (Pulpit) and GI Resorts World New York Casino Wood Memorial S. runner-up Arthur's Tale (Bernardini). The Kentucky-bred was consigned by her breeder Stone Farm as Hip 2550.

Arthur B. Hancock III's Stone Farm was also represented by a $1.05-million Curlin filly (Hip 814) and a $975,000 Quality Road (Hip 457) colt during Book 1. Stone Farm sold a $285,000 Lea filly (Hip 2604) during Tuesday's session as well.

McCalmont, acting on behalf of the Kelly family throughout the Keeneland September Sale, has also signed for: Hip 353, a $700,000 Medaglia d'Oro colt; Hip 473, a $400,000 Pioneerof the Nile colt; and Hip 807, a $500,000 Uncle Mo colt.

A son of Into Mischief led the way for the colts during Tuesday's session, bringing $350,000 from the very active SF Bloodstock/Starlight West partnership.

Bred in Kentucky by Peter E. Blum Thoroughbreds, Hip 2616 was consigned by Bridie Harrison, agent for Peter E. Blum Thoroughbreds. Out of the winning Mr. Greeley mare Flawless, he is from the family of Group 1 winner Reynaldothewizard and Grade I winners American Gal and Seventh Street.

The SF Bloodstock/Starlight West tandem have purchased a total of 19 yearlings at KEESEP thus far, good for a total of $9,315,000 and an average of $490,263.

Bridie Harrison, agent for Peter E. Blum Thoroughbreds, also consigned the day's third-highest-priced yearling, a $335,000 Malibu Moon filly (Hip 2575), who was purchased by Spartan Bloodstock.

West Point Thoroughbreds & Vosburgh were the day's leading buyer, purchasing four yearlings for $595,000. Paramount Sales led all consignors, selling 22 horses for $1,783,000.

The September Sale continues through Sunday with all sessions beginning at 10 a.m. ET.

AMERICAN GAL RETIRED

Kaleem Shah's homebred American Gal (Concord Point--American Story, by Ghostzapper), winner of the 2017 GI Test S. and 2018 GI Humana Distaff S., has been retired from racing and will begin her career as a broodmare at Hill 'n' Dale Farm, trainer Simon Callaghan announced via Twitter Tuesday. Called "one of the best horses we have had the privilege to train" by Callaghan, American Gal retires with an overall record of 5-1-1 from nine starts and earnings of $912,480.

American Gal began her career under the care of trainer Bob Baffert in 2016 and finished third in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies S. and second in the GI Starlet S. She only raced twice for Callaghan in 2017, but made the most of it, winning both the GIII Victory Ride S. in July and the Test in August. She returned for her 4-year-old campaign with a fourth-place finish in the GI Madison S. at Keeneland in April--an effort that set her up for her victory in the Humana Distaff May 5. She was last seen finishing fifth in the GIII Bed o'Roses S. at Belmont June 8.

American Gal's graded stakes-placed dam American Story is a half-sister to the popular G1SW Reynaldothewizard (Speightstown) and MGISW Seventh Street (Street Cry {Ire}). American Story is also responsible for Americanize, a SW & MGSP full-brother to American Gal.

8th-Presque Isle Downs, $28,760, Alw, 9-17, (NW1X), 3yo/up, 1 1/16m (AWT), 1:44.48, ft.
ROBIN HOOD (c, 3, Scat Daddy--Sense to Compete {SP}, by Street Sense) broke his maiden going a two-turn 7 1/2 furlongs over the Delaware turf course May 31, then cut back a bit in trip to be third in an allowance sprint over this surface Aug. 16. Stretching back out as the 17-10 chalk, the homebred sat just behind the pace and was well positioned before getting shuffled back a couple spots on the turn. But she traveled well into the lane, got through inside entering the final eighth of a mile and raced away to score by three solid lengths. Out of a stakes-placed half-sister to Grade III-winning turf distaffer Lady Digby (Grand Slam) and to the dam of MGISW and 'TDN Rising Star' Diversify (Bellamy Road), Robin Hood has a 2-year-old half-sister by Giant's Causeway, a yearling half-brother by More Than Ready and a foal half-sister by Declaration of War.

Sense to Compete was most recently covered by More Than Ready. Sales history: $190,000 RNA Ylg '16 KEESEP; $170,000 RNA 2yo '17 OBSMAR. Lifetime Record: 5-2-0-1, $42,615. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.
