KESSAAR DOMINANT IN THE MILL REEF

Kessaar | Racingfotos.com

He may have taken a while to get there, but Saturday saw Kessaar (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) place himself firmly among the higher echelons of the juvenile division as he romped to an emphatic success in Newbury's G2 Dubai Duty Free Mill Reef S. Always on the front foot as Frankie Dettori sought to exploit his experience, the Sept. 8 G3 Sirenia S. winner was tackled and headed by True Mason (GB) (Mayson {GB}) with a quarter mile remaining but was back in charge less than a furlong later and surged away to record a 2 3/4-length win, with Shine So Bright (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) 2 1/4 lengths back in third.

"We were worried about the ground, but he did it well," trainer John Gosden said. "He has won a Group 3 last time and a Group 2 this time, so we will have to go to a Group 1 now, but it's a big step. The [Oct. 28 G1] Criterium International could be next [at ParisLongchamp]."

Sent to Royal Ascot's Listed Windsor Castle S. while still a maiden and sent off at just 8-1, Kessaar failed to deliver anything like the promise he had shown John Gosden when 25th in that five-furlong contest June 23, but bounced out of it to get off the mark by 10 lengths in a first-time hood over this trip at Windsor July 30. Rearing at the start and disappointing when only sixth behind the subsequent G3 Prix Eclipse winner Sporting Chance (GB) (Kodiac {GB}) in the Listed Aug. 27 Listed Ripon Champion Two Yrs Old Trophy, the bay again refused to be deterred by a negative experience when issuing a 2 1/2-length beating to Junius Brutus (Fr) (Cockney Rebel {Ire}) in the Sirenia on Kempton's Polytrack last time. Cont. p2

DAWN APPROACH COLT ON TOP IN MILAN

by Emma Berry

MILAN, Italy—Just as last year, the name next to the top lot of the SGA Sale was Diego Romeo's Scuderia Incolinx, which went to €90,000 to secure a son of Dawn Approach (Ire) from the draft of Le.Gi Stud.

Lot 86 is out of the unraced Tale of the Cat mare Snowfield who has made up for the absence of a track record by breeding three black-type horses, including treble Group 3 winner Voice Of Love (Ire) (Poet's Voice {GB}) and the Group 3 and five-time listed winner Time Chant (GB) (War Chant). The Massimo Parri-bred colt will be trained in Milan by Nicolo Simondi.

Heading farther afield to the UK is Razza Vedano's Raven's Pass colt out of Summer Dream (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}), who followed the top lot into the ring (87) and shared the spot for the second-most expensive yearling sold on the day at €75,000. French-based agent Crispin de Moubray signed for the colt on behalf of Middleham Park Racing. Cont. p10

While Kessaar is going up to seven furlongs, True Mason's trainer Karl Burke is looking at reverting to five with the runner-up. "[Jockey] Ben [Curtis] said he loved the ground, travelled beautifully and relaxed in it," he said. "He didn't want to go too soon. He came to win his race, he picked up but didn't pick up well enough, then petered out in the last 100 yards. I half had it in my mind to back him up in the Middle Park, but I think it will be a similar story, that we would get outstayed. So maybe we will go to the [G3] Cornwallis [at Newmarket on Oct. 12]. If it comes up slow a stiff five will be absolutely perfect for him."

Pedigree Notes...

Kessaar's dam, the unraced Querulous (Raven's Pass), is a daughter of Contentious (Giant's Causeway) who finished runner-up in the G3 Kolner Herbst-Stuten-Meile and is kin to the GII Pennsylvania Derby and GII Ohio Derby winner Gone Astray (Dixie Union). They descend from Inside Information (Private Account), whose 14 successes included six at the highest level, most notably in the Breeders' Cup Distaff and the Acorn S., before producing the GI American Oaks and GI Mother Goose S. heroine Smuggler (Unbridled). Querulous's 2018 colt is by Vadamos (Fr). Click for the free Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree.

GHAIYYATH IN WINNING RETURN

Ghaiyyath (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) endured an enforced sabbatical after annexing last term's G3 Autumn S., but made light of a 343-day absence to garner Saturday's G3 Prix du Prince d'Orange at ParisLongchamp. The sheet topper at the Goffs 2015 November Foal sale had bettered a debut third going one mile at Doncaster when graduating by five lengths and more tackling Newmarket's Rowley Mile next time Sept. 28 and earned a first stakes rosette in an Oct. 14 G3 Autumn S. featuring subsequent G1 Irish St Leger hero Flag of Honour (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) back at Headquarters in his only other start last time. Positioned second in the wake of Stage Magic (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) for most of this belated return, the 19-10 favourite cruised to the front as that stablemate began to wilt at the quarter-mile marker and kept on strongly once shaken up soon after to easily hold the vain effort of Sacred Life (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) by three lengths.

Ghaiyyath | Scoop Dyga

"We've always thought he was good, but he suffered a few setbacks and we had to take him off the [G1 Epsom] Derby trail," explained Godolphin's Alex Merriam. "He achieved what we wanted him to, it's nice to see him win after such a long time off and Charlie [Appleby] has done a geat job to have him fit enough. There are no definite plans at this stage, Charlie's on a plane back from Australia and will see how he comes out of this before making any decisions."

Pedigree Notes...

Ghaiyyath is one of three stakes performers bred from G1 Irish 1000 Guineas heroine Nightime (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), herself the leading light for Listed Platinum S. winner Caumshinaun (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}), and he is a half GI Man o' War S. victress Zhukova (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) and Listed Salsabil S. third Sleeping Beauty (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}), who in turn is the dam of last term's GIII With Anticipation S. runner-up Irish Territory (Ire) (Declaration of War). The bay is also kin to the twice-raced 2-year-old filly Estrella (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) and a colt foal by Dubawi (Ire). His fourth dam Casting Couch (Thatching {Ire}) is kin to GIII Selima S. victress Tycoon's Drama (Ire) (Last Tycoon {Ire}) and hails from the family of GI Sword Dancer Invitational hero King's Drama (Ire) (King's Theatre {Ire}). Click for the free Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree.

YES SOEUR!

My Sister Nat (Fr) (Acclamation {GB}) placed in Chantilly's July 9 G3 Prix Chloe and Deauville's Aug. 18 G2 Prix de la Nonette, and stepped forward to claim a first black-type triumph in an eventful renewal of Saturday's G3 Prix Bertrand de Tarragon at ParisLongchamp. The bay's Apr. 24 debut at this track coincided with the 'TDN Rising Star' performance of Enchanting Skies (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) before breaking through with a five-length tally back here May 27 in her final effort below stakes level. The crowd's 27-10 choice settled off the pace in sixth and improved one spot at halfway. Cont. p5

Making progress under pressure in the straight, she became embroiled in a barging match with Listed Prix de la Seine victress Shahnaza (Fr) (Azamour {Ire}) when funnelled into a one-width opening inside the final quarter mile and was driven out to assert by 1 1/4 lengths--surviving the subsequent stewards' enquiry--as Awesometank (GB) (Intense Focus) deprived Shahnaza of second by a head on the line.

My Sister Nat | Scoop Dyga

"Winning a group race with her has always been the target, as we thought she had the ability to do so, and we're delighted she's done it after hitting the post twice before," said winning trainer Francis-Henri Graffard. "We've been gentle and not given her too much racing and she's definitely better on good ground. We'll now try her at the highest level as she has the potential for it and it's possible she might go for the GI E.P. Taylor S. in Canada or the GI Queen Elizabeth II at Keeneland, if she gets an invite for the latter. However, we'll not rush into making a decision as she will stay in training next year and there are plenty of opportunities ahead."

Pedigree Notes...

My Sister Nat is one of two winners from as many runners produced by a sibling of G3 Prix Cleopatre heroine Leo's Starlet (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and MG1SP Listed Prix Isonomy victress Anabaa's Creation (Ire) (Anabaa), who in turn is the dam of the stakes-winning Create A Dream (Oasis Dream {GB}). The bay, whose second dam is GI Del Mar Oaks third Premiere Creation (Fr) (Green Tune), is therefore kin to GI Jenny Wiley S., GI Diana S. and GI Beverly D. S. heroine Sistercharlie (Ire) (Myboycharlie {Ire}), who also ran second in last term's G1 Prix de Diane and G1 Belmont Oaks Invitational, the once-raced 2-year-old colt Sottsass (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}), a yearling colt by Charm Spirit (Ire) and a colt foal by Fastnet Rock (Aus). Click for the free Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree.

IT'S THE BROADWAY SHOW

Off the board at Naas in her lone juvenile outing, Broadway (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) has enjoyed a far busier sophomore campaign and, after 10 efforts mostly on the fringes, she was rewarded with a first black-type triumph in Saturday's G3 Denny Cordell Lavarack & Lanwades Stud Fillies S. at Gowran Park. The bay graduated back at Naas in her fourth start May 20, continuing her stakes apprenticeship with placings in the July 18 G2 Kilboy Estate S. and Aug. 26 G3 Royal Whip S. at The Curragh, and went postward returning off a fifth in the G2 Blandford S. back there last weekend. Positioned within range of the leaders throughout, the 8-1 chance came under pressure soon after turning for home and stayed on resolutely for continued urging inside the final quarter mile to earn a career high in the dying strides.

"She's by Galileo and the more racing they get the better they get," said trainer Aidan O'Brien. "Seamie [Heffernan] thought it was probably her best run and feels she would stay further. We were a little bit worried about the [heavy] ground, but she handled it well. She's a very valuable broodmare and I'd imagine she will go to stud at the end of the year. She could go for the [Oct. 20 G1] British Champions Fillies & Mares at Ascot." Cont. p7

QUEEN EXCELS IN AYR TEST

Just a length off Soldier's Call (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) when the bridesmaid in the G3 Prix d'Arenberg three weeks earlier, Bermuda Thoroughbred Racing's Queen of Bermuda (Ire) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) reigned supreme in Saturday's G3 William Hill Firth of Clyde S. at Ayr. Over-racing for Joe Fanning in rear early, the 9-2 favourite tanked to the long-time leader Shumookhi (Ire) (Society Rock {Ire}) with a furlong remaining and when shaken up readily asserted for an authoritative two-length success.

Queen of Bermuda is one of the more battle-hardened 2-year-olds at this juncture, having graduated from wins at Thirsk May 19 and Windsor June 4 to be 17th in Royal Ascot's June 23 Listed Windsor Castle S. and fifth in the Aug. 1 G3 Molecomb S. at Goodwood. Registering a first black-type success when besting the subsequent Tattersalls Ireland Super Auction Sale S. scorer Barbill (Ire) (Zebedee {GB}) in Deauville's Listed Prix de la Vallee d'Auge in similar conditions over five furlongs Aug. 15, the bay upper her game again when second to last week's G2 Flying Childers S. hero Soldier's Call in the Prix d'Arenberg at Chantilly at the start of the month.

Pedigree Notes...

Her dam Imperialistic Diva (Ire) (Haafhd {GB}) was a listed-placed half-sister to the G2 German 1000 Guineas heroine and G3 Fred Darling S. third Electrelane (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}). RASCAL STRIKES AT NEWBURY

One of the genuine front-runners leading up to the June 2 G1 Epsom Derby, Bernard Kantor's Young Rascal (Fr) (Intello {Ger}) proved one of those colts for whom the occasion was all too much but there was cheer at Newbury on Saturday as he staged a successful return in the G3 Dubai Duty Free Legacy Cup. Racing with enthusiasm tracking Mirage Dancer (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in second throughout the early stages, the May 9 G3 Chester Vase winner was alongside that rival and looking the better passing the two-furlong pole. Shortly after, last year's winner Desert Encounter (Ire) (Halling) joined in and looked to have the measure of both but as he floundered late it was Young Rascal who prevailed in a bobber with Mirage Dancer by a short head, with a half-length back to Desert Encounter.

Young Rascal | Racingfotos.com

"He loved the ground, you could see by his action, and he looked happy," trainer William Haggas said of the 5-2 second favourite. "He ran in the Derby like his legs were tied together from flag-fall and it knocked the stuffing out of him. I thought he would stay, as he just keeps galloping."

Young Rascal, who had won his maiden over this course and distance Apr. 21 before beating Dee Ex Bee (GB) (Farhh {GB}) and Hunting Horn (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) at Chester and flopping when a distant seventh in the blue riband, is to be kept away from Group 1 action for the immediate future according to his trainer.

"This horse is a strong galloper. He looked different today, he hasn't been like that at home and maybe it's racing he wants," Haggas added. "This is the first time he has been in a race where he could run on soft ground. For me the right race is the [G2 Prix] Chaudenay [at ParisLongchamp Oct. 6] over a mile-seven, but it's only two weeks away. If it came up soft in Paris we would be very tempted to go. He is not in yet, but there is a supplementary on Sept. 28. I think we will put him in. He is not in the Long Distance Cup [on Champions Day], I think that is a tough race for a 3-year-old, but we could maybe go for the [G2 Prix du] Conseil de Paris [at ParisLongchamp on Oct. 21]."

Pedigree Notes...

The winner is out of the multiple listed scorer and multiple group-placed Rock My Soul (Ire) (Clodovil {Ire}) whose best effort was probably when third in the 2011 G3 Prix Allez France. A half-sister to last year's G3 Preis der Winterkonigin-winning juvenile highweight Rock My Love (Ger) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}), her family also features the G1 Bayerisches Zuchtrennen and G2 German 2000 Guineas hero Turfkonig (Ger), the G2 German 1000 Guineas winner and G1 Prix de Diane third Tryphosa (Ire) (Be My Guest) and the G1 Premio Lydia Tesio heroine Turfrose (Ger) (Big Shuffle). The latter is in turn the dam of the G2 Hansin Cup and G2 Spring S. scorer Rosa Gigantea (Jpn) (Fuji Kiseki {Jpn}), while her full-sister Turfaue (Ger) produced the G1 Preis der Diana heroine Turfdonna (Ger) (Doyen {Ire}). Rock My Soul has a 2-year-old daughter of Motivator (GB) named Tilda (Ire) and a yearling colt by Camelot (GB). The latter caused a splash at the Arqana Deauville August Yearlings Sale last month when selling to M V Magnier for €560,000. Click for the free Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree.

MR LUPTON RULES THE WORLD

Smart on his day, Mr Lupton (Ire) (Elnadim) may not have needed a career-best effort to win Saturday's G3 Dubai International Airport World Trophy at Newbury, but was professional as he delivered as the 11-4 favourite. Piloted by Gerald Mosse as he had been once before when putting up arguably his finest performance when taking Newmarket's Longholes H. on contrasting ground last May, the chestnut tracked the front-running Take Cover (GB) (Singspiel {Ire}) before swooping on the 11-year-old veteran with 150 yards remaining. Asserting to score by 3/4 of a length, he was denying the runner-up consecutive victories on his swansong.

"I rode him once quite a while ago and he won at Newmarket, but I've not had the chance to ride him since," Mosse said. "It was soft ground this time and a stronger race, but he still performed. He travelled all the way and I had the race in hand from halfway."

Mr Lupton | Racingfotos.com

Mr Lupton had been racing mostly over six furlongs until this summer and adapted with ease to upstage Alpha Delphini (GB) (Captain Gerrard {Ire}) in York's Listed City Walls S. July 14. Fourth in the G2 King George S. at Goodwood Aug. 3 and ninth when Alpha Delphini prevailed in the G1 Nunthorpe S. back at York Aug. 24, he had finished seventh behind Take Cover on a down day in the Sept. 1 Listed Beverley Bullet Sprint S. That will be recorded as Take Cover's last success, with the dual G2 King George S.-winning evergreen sprinter's owner Andrew Hollis intent on finishing on a high note now.

"He has done us proud," he said. "I couldn't ask him to come back again. David [Griffiths] has done an amazing job with him, keeping him going at this age. He has run well today--it's not his ground, but he just tries and tries. He comes home safe and sound and that is important, too. Hopefully I can breed another one like him one day. He will just retire and hopefully enjoy himself in the paddock."

Pedigree Notes...

Mr Lupton is the last known foal out of Chiloe Wigeon (Ire) (Docksider), whose dam Shore Lark (Storm Bird) is a half-sister to four stakes winners with the most notable being the G2 Temple S. and G3 Norfolk S. hero Tipsy Creek (Dayjur) and the G3 Ballycorus S. scorer Abunawwas (Ire) (In the Wings {GB}). Click for the free Equineline.com catalogue-style pedigree.

He said, "It's the first time I've bought for Middleham Park and Tim Palin just said 'buy the nicest colt', so I did."

De Moubray had a quick overnight turnaround in Paris after returning from Keeneland's September Sale, where he bought three yearlings.

He added, "I used to buy one here every year for Chris Wright. I thought there were some nice horses in the sale in great condition. You can get some real value in places like this, Baden-Baden, Keeneland Book 4—there are nice horses to be found always."

Completing a trifecta of Darley-sired yearlings at the top of the table was lot 67, a Teofilo (Ire) filly out of dual listed winner Paris To Peking (Ity) (Intikhab), who also brought the hammer down at €75,000.

Sold by Razza del Velino on behalf of FLC Purosangue, the half-sister to juvenile winner Aucun Regret (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) will join the Chantilly stable of Alessandro Botti after being bought for former footballer and UEFA Champions League-winning manager Carlo Ancelotti.

Botti's cousin Stefano, the leading trainer in Italy, will take charge of another graduate of his family's Razza Del Velino. Lot 17, a strong grey son of Mastercraftsman (Ire), was knocked down for €60,000. The son of four-time winner and G3 Premio Regina Elena (Italian 1000 Guineas) runner-up Cronsa (Ger) (Martino Alonso {Ire}) is a half-brother to two stakes winners in Sweet Gentle Kiss (Ire) (Henrythenavigator) and Sunset Key (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}).

Lot 86, the sale-topping Dawn Approach colt | Emma Berry

Bruno Grizzetti assessing a Kingston Hill colt | Emma Berry

Bruno Grizzetti was the sale's leading buyer and top of his list of his purchases was Razza Del Sole's son of Bated Breath (GB) (lot 76) from a family of which the trainer has some insight. Grizzetti trained the colt's dam Rosa Del Dubai (Ire) (Dubai Destination) to eight victories, including the G3 Premio Mario Incisa della Rochetta, though it was Stefano Botti who has trained the mare's four black-type performers to date. They are headed by the G2 Oaks d'Italia heroine Folega (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}).

Con Marnane has been successful with Kodiac (GB) before, notably through G2 Norfolk S. winner and young stallion Prince Of Lir (Ire), and over the years he has also taken home yearlings from Italy who went on to be decent racehorses. That list includes G1 Middle Park S. winner Amadeus Wolf (GB) (Mozart {Ire}), Stewards' Cup winner Lancelot du Lac (Ity) (Shamardal) and Dandy Boy (Ity) (Danetime {Ire}), who won the Wokingham S. at Royal Ascot for Marnane's brother David and Malih Al Basti.

At €57,000, the breeze-up consignor plumped for one of two Kodiac yearlings in the sale, lot 80, another from the sizeable draft from Razza de Velino and a son of the listed-placed mare Savana Pearl (Ire) (Byron {GB}). A four-time winner herself, she has already produced a winner, Party Goer (Ire) (Intense Focus).

Trainer Antonio Marcialis was responsible for one of the earlier top prices when going to €50,000 for lot 7, a Henrythenavigator half-brother to G3 Premio Primi Passi winner You Better Run (Ire) (Thewayyouare) from Allevamento La Nuova Sbarra.

"We'll start him off here and see how he progresses. He could end up running in France," said Marcialis, whose son Andrea trains in Chantilly.

Despite a decent crowd at San Siro for the sale, it's fair to say that trade was tough in the main and a feature of the day was the high number of buybacks—only 92 of the 149 horses offered were marked as sold by the end of selling (61.7%). Cont. p12

The Bottis: Lucie, Stefano, Marco & Alduino (seated) | Emma Berry

The average slipped from €19,617 to €16,603 (-15.4%) and the median was also down to €10,000 from €12,000 (-16.7%). A much larger catalogue meant that despite the poor clearance rate, turnover was up on last year at €1,527,500. The fact that Italian prize-money is still being paid out around six months after the event doubtless adds to the drop in confidence and participation from domestic owners.

John Dunlop, who died in July at the age of 78, is being remembered today (Sunday) at San Siro racecourse with a race named in his honour. His son Harry arrived in Milan for the start of the sale and will take home a first-crop son of Kingston Hill (GB) (lot 82) bought from Le.Gi Stud for €23,000. The Lambourn trainer will also be representing his family at the races.

Francis Vittadini & Harry Dunlop | Emma Berry

He said, "It's a really lovely touch to have a race named after dad. He loved coming racing in Italy and was very successful here but I hadn't quite realised that he'd trained more than 100 winners in Italy."

Among those victories were four winners of the Premio Roma, four in the Gran Criterium, three Gran Premio del Jockey Club winners and three in the Premio Lydia Tesio. Dunlop senior's final major successes in Italy came in 2000 when Claxon (GB) (Caerleon) won the Lydia Tesio and Golden Snake (Danzig) took the Jockey Club. (Click here to return to p1)

ANASHEED (GB) (f, 3, Frankel {GB}--Hathrah {Ire} {SW & G1SP-Eng, $129,057}, by Linamix {Fr}), not seen since putting up a promising debut when second at this trip at Goodwood May 24, was sent to the front from the outset. Lengthening clear in early straight, the 8-13 favourite held a comfortable 1 1/4-length margin over the closer Lacustre (GB) (Dansili {GB}) at the line. The dam Hathrah, who took the now-defunct Listed Masaka S. before finishing third in the G1 1000 Guineas, produced one in her own image in Hadaatha (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}), who followed success in the Listed John Musker S. with a third placing in the G1 Prix de l'Opera, SW-Eng & G1SP-Fr, $109,194. With a 2-year-old daughter of Kingman (GB) named Eithaar (GB) and a colt foal by Oasis Dream (GB) to follow, she has proven a worthwhile purchase for Shadwell from Kildaragh Stud at 340,000gns in 2002. A half-sister to the group-winning sires Ivan Luis (Fr) (Lycius) and Stagelight (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}), she is a granddaughter of the important producer Maresca (Ire) (Mill Reef) whose descendants include the smart distaffers Albisola (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) and Daban (Ire) (Acclamation {GB}). FINTAS (GB) (c, 2, Lope de Vega {Ire}--Free Rein {GB}, by Dansili {GB}), who was 66-1 when fourth on debut over six furlongs at Wolverhampton Sept. 5, stalked the pace in second racing freely. Earning the lead with 150 yards remaining, the 7-1 shot stayed on to score by 3/4 of a length from Global Heat (Ire) (Toronado {Ire}). That Godolphin newcomer, the 325,000gns TATOCT half-brother to the G3 Geoffrey Freer S. winner and G1 Irish St Leger runner-up Agent Murphy (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}), was keen early and ran green throughout but finished strongly for an encouraging debut. The winner is the first foal out of a half to the G1 Middle Park S. and G1 Prix Morny hero Reckless Abandon (GB) (Exchange Rate) and the smart Japanese stakes performer Best Approach (GB) (New Approach {Ire}). The family features the G1 Racing Post Trophy hero Crowded House (GB) (Rainbow Quest), the MGISW Ticker Tape (GB) (Royal Applause {GB}) and the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest scorer Brando (GB) (Pivotal {GB}). Cont. p14

POLITICISE (IRE) (c, 2, Camelot {GB}--Politesse, by Barathea {Ire}), who had been sixth behind the potentially classy Royal Marine (Ire) (Raven's Pass) on debut in a maiden over this trip at Doncaster eight days previously, immediately assumed pace-setting duties. Looking a sitting duck for Phosphor (Ire) (Havana Gold {Ire}) passing halfway, the 7-1 chance ultimately outstayed that rival inside the final furlong to score by a half-length. London Eye (Australia {GB}), the half-brother to the GI Hopeful S.-winning sire Circular Quay (Thunder Gulch), travelled strongly for most of the contest before fading to be ninth. Surprisingly, the unraced dam has been without a black-type performer since her first foal King's Apostle (Ire) (King's Best), hero of the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest and G2 Diadem S., G1SW-Fr & GSW-Eng, $519,719. With a foal full-sister to the winner to come, her dam is the G1 Cheveley Park S.-winning European champion 2-year-old filly Embassy (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux {GB}) and her second dam is Pass the Peace (Ire) (Alzao) who also captured the Cheveley Park. KING OTTOKAR (FR) (c, 2, Motivator {GB}--Treasure {Fr} {SW & GSP-Fr, $102,145}, by Anabaa), a 9-2 shot, showed early speed to stalk the leader. Committed with two furlongs to race, the bay was chased hard by Raise You (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) all the way to the line and held the advantage by just a nose there. The dam, who took the Listed Prix de la Vallee d'Auge and was third in the G3 Prix d'Arenberg, has already produced the listed-placed pair Tresorier (GB) (Dunkerque {Fr}) and Tresorerie (Fr) (Intello {Ger}). With a yearling full-sister to the latter to follow, she is a half to the G3 Prix Miesque third Tibaldi (Fr) also by Motivator while the third dam Tresoriere (Lyphard) captured the GIII Gallorette H. Nursed down the "dip" by Tom Queally, the 7-2 joint favourite joined Star of War (Declaration of War) near the finish and was in front for the photo to register a short-head verdict and become the 16th winner for his sire (by War Front). Ever Changing (Tapit), the daughter of the G1 Fillies' Mile and G1 Matron S. heroine Rainbow View (Dynaformer), was led down to the start by Robert Havlin and completely blew the start before finishing a remote ninth. PINK DOGWOOD (IRE) (f, 2, Camelot {GB}--Question Times {GB} {SP-Eng}, by Shamardal), second in starts at The Curragh first up Aug. 12 and last time Aug. 31, was on the front end from flagfall here. Rowed along soon after turning for home, the 4-6 chalk was driven clear approaching the final eighth and extended her advantage in the latter stages to hit the line seven lengths ahead of Bodhicitta (GB) (Showcasing {GB}). "She had two good runs against two decent fillies, I thought she was very impressive today and I really like her," said jockey Donnacha O'Brien. "She was very straightforward, travelled well and picked up nicely. I think she is probably going to be a mile-and-a-half filly next year. She will probably start of over a mile-and-a-quarter maybe in an Oaks trial." Trainer Aidan O'Brien added, "Pink Dogwood could run again this season. She has been progressing with every run, she's a quality filly and could go for the [Oct. 7 G1 Prix] Marcel Boussac [at ParisLongchamp] or [Oct. 12 G1] Fillies' Mile [at Newmarket]." Shaken up at the top of the straight, the 8-13 favourite veered left soon after gaining an outright lead at the two pole and kept on well once returning on an even keel inside the final furlong to best Army Recruit (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) by two lengths. "He was very green and was the same when Ryan [Moore] rode him the first day at The Curragh," said winning trainer Aidan O'Brien. "Some of them take two or three runs and some of them get it together quick. He'll be a nice middle-distance horse and I'd like to run him again this season if I can because he needs to learn a bit more before next year." He is the only foal out of MG1SP G2 Duke of Cambridge S. victress Duntle (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}), herself the leading performer for Lady Angola (Lord At War {Arg}), who in turn is kin to the dam of GI Turf Classic S.-winning sire Honor In War (Lord At War {Arg}). Unsuccessful in five outings this term, Oriental's best effort was a runner-up finish in the July 7 Listed Grand Prix Anjou Bretagne at Nantes, but he was off the board in an Aug. 17 Clairefontaine conditions heat and when acting as chaperone for his ultimately triumphant stablemate Recoletos (Fr) (Whipper) in the Sept. 9 G1 Prix du Moulin at ParisLongchamp last time. Breaking well to sit second into the straight here, the 8-1 chance was pushed along to challenge approaching the eighth pole and ridden out to assert for a career high in game fashion.

THE BRIGHTEST SUN AT ROSEHILL

The Autumn Sun | Bronwen Healy

by Bren O'Brien

Chris Waller's patience with The Autumn Sun (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}) has yielded the colt's owners Hermitage Thoroughbreds one of the most valuable prizes in Australian racing. The trainer has practiced patience every step of the way with his star 3-year-old colt and he is urging more of the same when it comes to assessing the future of Australia's newest equine superstar.

Waller has always believed in The Autumn Sun's prodigious talent, which was on show for all to see as he charged home from last to claim the G1 Golden Rose S. and confirm his status as Australia's best 3-year-old.

Having beaten boom 3-year-olds Zousain (Aus) (Zoustar {Aus}) and Graff (Aus) (Star Witness {Aus}), he is now 'made' as a stallion, especially when you consider that every colt to have won this race since it became a Group 1 nine years ago is now standing at stud. His worth is now measured in tens of millions and it is arguable that anything more he can do on the track would not add to that.

The Waiting Game...

Waller's mantra of patience was a significant factor in Saturday's success. As a A$700,000 yearling, the expectation could have been for The Autumn Sun to target the Sydney 2-year-old riches.

But it was only after four trials across two preparations that Waller elected to debut him on ANZAC Day this year. After winning on debut, he then won a Saturday 2-year-old race before progressing to the G1 JJ Atkins S. at just his third start, where he was again successful.

"I just think it is more proven to not rush your horses," Waller said. "People talk up Golden Slippers, which are fantastic... but looking after your horses, as Bart Cummings used to say, patience is the least expensive, but the least often used thing."

Waller was left in an envious position over the final 200m of the race as it became clear that one of his two colts, Zousain or The Autumn Sun was going to win. Zousain, with the luxury of the inside barrier, had settled much closer in transit as compared to The Autumn Sun, who went back to last from his wide barrier in his first start in blinkers.

"When the draw came out he was 11 of 11 so it wasn't going to be easy but I'd rather him there because I know how good he is and for him to finish off over the top of a good field it was pretty special," Waller said. "I thought the stablemate was home, he looked every bit of his dad Zoustar surging to the front in the same race but I think he might have been beaten by a pretty special one."

Derby Dreams...

Hermitage Thoroughbreds have made no secret they want to win a Derby with The Autumn Sun. Cont. p2

The Autumn Sun returns a winner | Bronwen Healy

"He is a Derby horse and the owners are hellbent on winning a Derby so that obviously comes first and foremost," said Waller. "His value, however, has fortunately skyrocketed again today. He'll have a price tag now and maybe he can tick the box of winning a Derby as well."

It's not been a fashionable choice for Golden Rose winners. The last horse to win this race and contest the Victoria Derby was Manawanui (Aus) (Oratorio {Ire}), who was a gelding, in 2011, while no horse has completed the Golden Rose/Australian Derby double since Fairway (Aus) (Danzero {Aus}) in 2000 when this race was known as the Peter Pan S. and run over 1500m.

The connections of The Autumn Sun display their new hardware
Bronwen Healy

Waller thinks the Flemington race might come too soon and will urge Hermitage, who are managed by Oliver Koolman, to hold their fire until the autumn.

"I'll be pushing not to rush him to the spring Derby because it's so quick, it's a long way for a young horse. So we'll see who gets a good say, the owner or the trainer."

Class and Power...

'Special' was a word also used by jockey Kerrin McEvoy, who collected his second win in the race having won on Denman (Aus) (Lonhro {Aus}) in the first year it was a Group 1 back in 2009.

"He's a special colt," said McEvoy. "He's taken all before him up in Brisbane and was desperately unlucky last start first up but well played to Chris and the team--they put blinkers on him today. He had to do it all, he was still last at the 300m but what a powerful engine he's got. To do that in what I really think is below his best trip shows how classy he is."

"You can argue that some of those [rivals] are six or seven furlong colts at their best trip where we really feel this horse is a miler-2000m," he said. "I think that's where his future lies but a stunning colt to ride. He's got a great attitude and a great temperament and I'm thrilled to be on his back."

The Autumn Sun is now a short-priced favourite for next month's G1 Caulfield Guineas, where he will be looking to create history as the first horse to win both 3-year-old stallion-makers.

Pedigree Notes...

The Autumn Sun is the result of the long-standing Arrowfield Stud/Aga Khan Studs partnership. He is the second foal out of the unraced Galileo (Ire) mare Azmiyna (Ire). She is a half-sister European star and four-time Group 1 winner Azamour (Ire) (Night Shift) as well as Group 2 winner Arazan (Ire). Hermitage Thoroughbreds bought The Autumn Sun for A$700,000 at the 2017 Easter Sales, while his younger sister by Snitzel (Aus) was sold for A$1.3 million to Waller Racing at this year's Easter Sales. Azmiyna has a yearling colt by Not a Single Doubt (Aus) and is due to foal to Snitzel.

TRAVEL-WISE SPRINTER LANDS ANOTHER GROUP 1 by Paul Vettise

He travels like a toff and Jungle Cat (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}) has again emphasised that he's at his top in the best of company, wherever that may be. The international short-course specialist announced his arrival Down Under on Saturday with a sterling performance to add the G1 Ladbrokes Sir Rupert Clarke S., at Caulfield to his global record for Godolphin.

Trainer Charlie Appleby's Newmarket yard celebrated wonderful results at the last Melbourne spring carnival, but this time around it was away to a poor start after Folkswood (GB) (Exceed And Excel) tailed the field home in the G3 Bendigo Bank MRC Foundation Cup.

> IT WAS A FANTASTIC RIDE BY JAMES AND HE LEVELLED OUT. HE'S NOT ONE FOR LYING DOWN, THE OLD CAT AS WE CALL HIM. IT WAS ALWAYS THE PLAN AFTER THE AL QUOZ TO COME DOWN HERE.

Stable Spirits Boosted...

But a race later there were smiles a mile wide as Jungle Cat saw off Dollar For Dollar (Aus) (High Chaparral {Ire}), Land Of Plenty (Aus) (Stratum {Aus}) and the winner's fellow Godolphin representative Home Of The Brave (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}).

"It's been fantastic and it's all down to the team, full credit to all the guys," the affable Appleby said. "It was a fantastic ride by James (Doyle) and he levelled out. He's not one for lying down, the Old Cat as we call him. It was always the plan after the Al Quoz to come down here. There's not many 1400 metre races for him in Europe and the conditions were going to suit him here."

Jungle Cat is a seriously good traveller and has won five races at Meydan in Dubai, including the G1 Al Quoz Sprint last time out in March.

"I'm delighted for the horse, he's been so consistent all the way through and it's great for Sheikh Mohammed and Godolphin," Appleby added.

Jungle Cat | Bronwen Healy

Jockey James Doyle is an integral part of the operation and his previous knowledge of Australian racing and conditions played no small part in Jungle Cat's success.

Well-Timed Finish...

He had the entire within striking distance of the leading pack and, when presented in the straight, the 7-year-old played his part to perfection by rounding off strongly.

"It's fantastic and well-documented about my experiences here and the best thing I've done was my stint in Sydney," Doyle said. "It took my riding to a new level and the results show that. He's a sweet horse and it's my second Group 1 on him. He's a star and just loves getting on a plane. Charlie is a great trainer, one of the best and the sweetest guy's you could ever meet. I'm lucky enough to ride for him and we've had a lot of success--he's a super fellow."

Pedigree Notes...

Jungle Cat is out of the stakes-winning mare Mike's Wildcat (Forest Wildcat) who has a smart record at stud with eight of her foals to race having won and he is by far the star of the show. The mare is of a sprinting bias and won twice as a juvenile, including success in the Listed Astoria S., at Belmont. The family also boasts the presence of a former champion mare of Peru in Ardanza (Slew Machine) and the Ecuadorian Horse of the Year, Madrileno (Per) (Apprentice). Cont. p3

MCKINZIE BACK WITH A BANG IN PENNSYLVANIA DERBY

McKinzie | EquiPhoto

Making his first start since suffering the first 'defeat' of his career in the GII San Felipe S. better than six months ago, 'TDN Rising Star' McKinzie (Street Sense) belied his inactivity with a comfortable 1 3/4-length victory in Saturday's GI Pennsylvania Derby, giving trainer Bob Baffert his third win in the race in the last five years (subsequent GI Breeders' Cup Classic hero Bayern, 2013; champion West Coast, 2017).

"If anything can take the sting of a Triple Crown horse retiring (recent retirement of Justify), it is a horse like this," said winning rider Mike Smith, who was aboard West Coast last year. "He is an incredible horse. Really, really proud of him. Bob had him ready. To come off the bench at a mile and an eighth, Bob is just a tremendous trainer."

Asked for some early speed, McKinzie landed in third spot early, behind Trigger Warning (Candy Ride {Arg}) and the positively ridden Bravazo (Awesome Again), then was shifted to the outside of those two into the first turn. That move consigned Mr Freeze (To Honor and Serve), front-running winner of the GIII West Virginia Derby, to a very wide run around the bend, while Core Beliefs (Quality Road) settled inside of GIII Smarty Jones S. hero Axelrod (Warrior's Reward). The well-bet Hofburg (Tapit) lagged well behind through the opening furlongs.

'BISOU' LANDS COTILLION ON DQ

In a couple of previous head-to-head battles, Monomoy Girl (Tapizar) had easily handled Midnight Bisou (Midnight Lute), besting her by 4 1/4 lengths in the GI Kentucky Oaks in May ahead of a three-length success in the GI CCA Oaks in July. Monomoy Girl was heavily favored to continue her domination in Saturday's $1-million GI Cotillion S. at Parx, but she got to wandering about in the final sixteenth of a mile and was demoted to second for carrying out Midnight Bisou, who couldn't quite get past late.

"It was close. She wandered around when she made the lead," said Florent Geroux, jockey of Monomoy Girl, who was tasting defeat for the first time this season. "Right call?" I don't know. I am not the steward. It is disappointing. This was a million-dollar race, a Grade I. I thought our filly was the best today."

But ultimately the stewards disagreed.

Trigger Warning got a breather of sorts during the middle stages of the race, but McKinzie was glued to his flank, and Smith finally gave the colt his head and they strode into a narrow lead with three-eighths of a mile to come. At that stage, McKinzie looked to idle a bit, and Axelrod emerged as a real danger from the second flight of horses, coursing wide to challenge outside McKinzie in upper stretch. But despite the absence, the favorite had a little something left and though he raced greenly and nearly hit the rail inside the furlong marker, came away to an ultimately convincing tally.

Added Smith, "I felt very confident that I could be aggressive early and move a little early. He is still learning as well, although he has raced he had a lot of time off he got to looking around, looking at the tracks and gawking around and I had a really good hold of him today and I didn't really want to bother anyone. I picked his head up and when I asked him to finish, he really got underneath me and really galloped out really well."

McKinzie, named in honor of the late Los Alamitos track executive Brad McKinzie, earned 'Rising Star' status for a 5 1/2-length graduation in a seven-furlong Santa Anita maiden Oct. 28, then crossed the line just behind stablemate Solomini (Curlin) in the GI Los Al Futurity, only to be moved up to the win via a much-maligned disqualification. An easy-as-you-like winner of the GIII Sham S. on sophomore debut Jan. 6, he went tooth-and-nail with Bolt d'Oro (Medaglia d'Oro) down the lane in the San Felipe and had his head in front at the wire, but this time was the victim of a protest that really could have gone either way.

Pedigree Notes:

McKinzie's dam Runway Model won the 2004 GII Darley Alcibiades S. and that year's GII Golden Rod S., in addition to a runner-up effort in the 2005 GI Ashland S. for trainer Bernie Flint. She was purchased by Jane Lyon's Summer Wind Farm for $2.7 million at the 2006 Keeneland November Sale, carrying a foal by Storm Cat. The 16-year-old mare is also responsible for the juvenile colt Smart Alchemy (Super Saver) and the yearling filly Map Maker (Liam's Map). Out of MSW Ticket to Houston, Runway Model is a half-sister to SW & MGSP Mambo Train (Kingmambo) and SP Texas Kitty (Forest Wildcat), the dam of GSW Saham (Lemon Drop Kid). This is also the family of graded winners Southern Honey (Colonel John) and Lucky Player (Lookin at Lucky).

Drawn gate two, Monomoy Girl was beaten for speed from the gate by longshot Jump Ruler (Jump Start) and the stretching-out Separationofpowers (Into Mischief) and had to be ridden along to make up ground on the inside part of the track. Racing with her head high in the air and holding her spot at the fence as they turned up the backstretch, Monomoy Girl was clicked up by Geroux with about 3 1/2 furlongs to travel and was sent into the lead as Separationofpowers came under a ride. So, too, did a four-wide Wonder Gadot (Medaglia d'Oro), who was quickly passed by Midnight Bisou and the stage was set for a stretch battle.

Mike Smith opted to go inside of Separationofpowers at the quarter pole and looked determined to gamble towards the fence as Monomoy Girl maintained a wide track into the lane. Smith had to go for Plan B when the chalk drifted in at the eighth pole, snatching Midnight Bisou off heels and back to the outside to deliver one final challenge. Despite furious right-handed flagging from Geroux, Monomoy Girl continued to drift out several paths, and although she was home narrowly best, the judges ruled that the late herding was enough to impact the outcome.

"We were just so happy with her coming out of the Saratoga meet with five weeks' rest, we thought she came in here really fresh and on her game," said Scott Blasi, assistant to winning trainer Steve Asmussen. "Tough to win like this, lose like that, we've all been there, but that being said she deserved to win the race. She's an extremely gutty filly and shows up every time. We are just so proud to have her in our barn and she stepped up and has a great constitution and definitely ran her best race."

Heads and shoulders above the competition in California when trained by Bill Spawr, Midnight Bisou won the GII Santa Ynez S., the GIII Santa Ysabel S. and the GI Santa Anita Oaks ahead of her effort on the first Friday in May.

Transferred to Asmussen to take advantage of a more lucrative program for sophomore fillies on the East Coat, the bay drilled her rivals by six lengths in the GII Mother Goose S. June 30 and was third to Eskimo Kisses (To Honor and Serve) as the favorite in the GI Alabama S. Aug. 18.

Patternrecognition took advantage of trainer Chad Brown's blistering run Saturday afternoon at Belmont to gain his first taste of blacktype in the GII Kelso H. With the victory, Patternrecognition was recording the fifth victory of the afternoon for Brown. In the Kelso, Patternrecognition took control early under jockey Tyler Gaffalione, holding a length lead over No Dozing through an opening quarter in :23.77 and a half in :46.83. As No Dozing began to wilt, Sunny Ridge and fellow Brown trainee Timeline picked up the tempo as the field turned for home. Sunny Ridge got within striking distance with an eighth of a mile left, but Patternrecognition dug in late to hold that rival safe at the wire. Stablemate Timeline rounded out the trifecta.

"He chewed it up and spit it out, that was impressive," said Whit Beckman, assistant to Brown. "Tyler [Gaffalione] put him in a great spot on the lead and the horse did the rest. We've been trying to find the distance where he fits, and it seems like the mile is good for him with the way he went today. Tyler put him up and saw nobody was going with him, so he just got comfortable and left him there. It was coming to him easy."

Showing tremendous consistency in 2017, Patternrecognition kicked off his career with a debut score going six furlongs at Aqueduct last spring before finishing in the runner-up spot in allowance company in his next four trips to post. A runaway winner in his season closer at a mile at the Big A Nov. 4, the bay returned in 2018 with an uncharacteristically flat fourth sprinting six panels at Belmont May 5. Just failing to hold on when second in a seven-panel optional claimer June 10, Patternrecognition returned from a brief respite to score narrowly going seven-eighths at Saratoga Aug. 11.

"I have to give credit to Chad and his team," said Gaffalione, who also teamed up with Brown to win the opener aboard Junkanoo. "They did a great job with him. You can see from his past races, he's always been a fighter. He was in a good rhythm on the turn for home and those horses didn't really come to him. When I asked him for run, he definitely responded. He likes a challenge and you can see that in his most recent race at Saratoga."

Pedigree Notes:

Almost a Valentine is also responsible for Florida Fuego (Kantharos), a dual stakes winner and earner of $165,383. Subsequent to the Florida-bred, the mare produced a full sister to Patternrecognition in 2016 followed by colts by The Big Beast the past two seasons. She was bred back to Uncaptured. The 9-year-old mare is a half sister to Grade I winner Rigoletta (Concerto), who in turn is responsible for Grade I winner Battle of Midway, fifth here as the favorite.

The clear class of the field for Saturday's GIII Gallant Bob S. at Parx, Firenze Fire had to call upon all of his considerable talent and fought on gamely in the final eighth of a mile to prevail.

The Florida-bred took Irad Ortiz, Jr. and many others by surprise when breaking best of all, but he eventually eased back into a stalking role, as Forced (Take Charge Indy) set a strong pace while well off the inside running rail. Forced to take a path further towards the fence as War Giant (Data Link) ranged up outside at the half-mile marker, Firenze Fire was again eased out to challenge the pace-setter on the turn, but GI H. Allen Jerkens S. runner-up Seven Trumpets (Morning Line) looked to have gotten first run, albeit on what appeared to be the worst part of the track. Whereshetoldmetogo rallied outside of Firenze Fire into the lane and looked to have the momentum, but the favorite counterpunched and got home first, even as the runner-up attempted to bite the winner in the final 20 yards.

Upset winner of the GIII Sanford S. and GI Champagne S. last season, Firenze Fire was given a chance to prove he belonged on the Triple Crown trail early this season. Though he won the Jerome S. and was runner-up in the GIII Withers S., he was 11th in the GI Kentucky Derby and connections regrouped. Cont. p8

The bay pounded a group, including favored Mendelssohn (Scat Daddy), by nine lengths in the GIII Dwyer S. over Belmont's one-turn mile July 7 and the Florida-bred was exiting a good third to Promises Fulfilled (Shackleford) in the Jerkens Aug. 25.

Winning trainer Jason Servis told the Parx press team that Firenze Fire would be considered for the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint and GI Dirt Mile, pending a discussion with owner/breeder Ron Lombardi.

Pedigree Notes:

The lone graded winner for his Florida-based sire (by Speightstown), Firenze Fire is a maternal grandson of Mille Lacs, a full-sister to Oatsee (Unbridled), the dam of Classic winner Shackleford (Forestry), GISW Lady Joanne (Orientate) and MGSWs Baghdaria (Royal Academy) and Afleeting Lady (Afleet Alex). My Every Wish is the dam of a yearling filly by Istan from the same Gone West sire line and was most recently bred back to Poseidon's Warrior.

Switzerland proved too good for his rivals at Laurel, returning to winning ways with a decisive score in the De Francis. Away well from his rail draw, the $500,000 EASMAY buy seized the early advantage, ticking off early fractions of :22.83 and :45.72 under a snug hold from Feargal Lynch. Let loose in the stretch, he immediately powered clear to win for fun.

"Steve [Asmussen] said to me he doesn't always break that sharp," Lynch said. "He didn't break that sharp the last time and he rushed up in there, and he didn't want me to do that again. This is a really nice horse. He's a serious horse. He's so natural and so speedy."

The jockey continued, "It was never in doubt, but it took him a while to switch leads and it wasn't until the sixteenth pole that he switched on me and he just found a little bit more. He was just doing enough in front." Cont. p9

Switzerland took quite a few tries to break his maiden, graduating at eighth asking in the slop at Aqueduct in his final start for Chad Brown and now holds a record of four for five since switching to the Asmussen barn. Scoring a pair of decisive victories in Oaklawn optional claimers Mar. 30 and Apr. 14, he followed suit with a victory in the GIII Maryland Sprint S. at Pimlico May 19. Setting the early pace in Saratoga's GI Alfred G. Vanderbilt H. July 28, the dark bay faded to fifth behind the speedy Imperial Hint (Imperialism).

Pedigree Notes:

Switzerland is out of SW and MGSP Czechers, who is also responsible for the 3-year-old colt Jewangui Huye (More Than Ready), who is racing in Korea, and the 2-year-old filly Trade Agreement (Will Take Charge). Czechers sold for $180,000 carrying a foal by Street Sense at last year's Keeneland January sale and the resulting colt summoned $310,000 from the new partnership of SF Bloodstock and Starlight West at the recent Keeneland September sale. The 13-year-old mare produced a Union Rags filly Apr. 7 of this year and was bred back to new Lane's End sire Connect.

Uni | Coglianese

Favored in this scratched-down field of four over a yielding course, Uni broke sharply, but took back to trail her trio of rivals through an opening quarter in :24.40 and closed the gap a bit, while hugging the fence, through a half in :48.84. Popped the question by Joel Rosario turning for home, the chestnut split rivals at the top of the lane and charged clear to win as she pleased. This was winning trainer Chad Brown's third straight victory in the Noble Damsel having captured last year's running with Off Limits (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}) and the 2016 renewal with Mrs McDougal (Medaglia d'Oro).

"I just tipped her out and she came running," Rosario said. "She's a really nice filly. [Chad Brown] just said to let her break, get her comfortable, follow the speed in the race, and take it from there. She's a nice-moving filly. I was only the passenger, she did all the work."

Privately purchased by these connections after winning a stakes race in France in May of 2017, Uni checked in third behind stablemate New Money Honey (Medaglia d'Oro) in last term's GI Belmont Oaks and was second behind 'TDN Rising Star' Proctor's Ledge (Ghostzapper) next out in the GII Lake Placid S. last summer. Scoring her first U.S. win in this venue's nine-panel GII Sands Point S. last September, she was fourth in the GI QEII Challenge Cup at Keeneland in October and kicked off this term with a pair of victories in Aqueduct's Plenty of Grace S. Apr. 14 and Saratoga's De La Rose S. Aug. 4.

Pedigree Notes:

Uni is the first foal out of Unaided, who has since produced the 3-year-old gelding Al Mujahaz (Fr) (Dutch Art {GB}), a juvenile colt by Maxios (GB) and a yearling colt by Le Havre (Ire).

Unaided is a half-sister to Group 3 winner Whazzis (GB) (Desert Prince {Ire}) and stakes winner Whazzat (GB) (Daylami {Ire}), who is the dam of MGSW & G1SP James Garfield (Ire) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}). This is also the family of Irish Highweight and sire Invincible Spirit (Ire) (Green Desert), Italian Highweight Nayarra (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}), Irish Highweight Chinese White (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}), MGSW Sadian (GB) (Shirley Heights {GB}), GSW Acts of Grace (Bahri).

GOLDENCENTS FILLY, DANZA COLT TOP SATURDAY KEESEP SESSION

A filly from the second crop of Goldencents and a colt from the first crop of Danza were responsible for the $65,000 co-toppers during the penultimate session of the marathon Keeneland September Sale Saturday. A total of 187 head changed hands during the first of two Book 6 sessions for gross receipts of $2,228,600. The average and median were $11,918 and $7,000, respectively, while the RNA rate was 19.4%. For the sale, 3,571 yearlings have changed hands for a combined $375,806,200 at an average of $137,507 and median price of $60,000. The cumulative buyback rate is 23.5%.

Hip 4088, a Goldencents filly out the six-time-winning Tapit mare Bellezza Rosso (Tapit), was picked up by James McKathan's Grassroots Training & Sales for $65,000. Bred by W C Racing--who campaigned her MGISW sire, the current leading U.S. freshman--the Apr. 9 foal was consigned by Four Star Sales, agent.

Sharing top billing Saturday was a colt (hip 4107) by GI Arkansas Derby winner Danza, who stands at Spendthrift like Goldencents. Spendthrift also bred hip 4107, who hails from the female family of Grade II winners Rockport Harbor and Regally Appealing. Ken and Sarah Ramsey took home the Scott Mallory consignee.

The Ramseys had success in Book 6 last year as well, picking up another Spendthrift-bred filly in the eventually named Moonlight Romance (Liaison) for $42,000. Turned over to Wesley Ward, that juvenile now boasts earnings of nearly $360,000 thanks in large part to a last-out victory in the $500,000 Kentucky Downs Juvenile Turf Sprint S. Sept. 8.

The 13th and final session of the Keeneland September sale kicks off Sunday at 10:00 a.m. Visit www.keeneland.com for more information.

ARGENTINE HOY PUERTO ESCONDIDO RETIRED

Puerto Escondido (Arg) (Hurricane Car), Argentina's Horse of the Year in 2017, has been retired from racing after failing to recover from a tendon injury to his left fore that had kept him off the track since his triumph in the G1 Gran Premio Miguel A Martinez de Hoz last February. He will enter stud in time for the 2019 Southern Hemisphere breeding season at Antonio Bullrich's Haras El Mallin, the same farm that bred Puerto Escondido.

A son of Surf Point (Arg) (Louis Quatorze), Puerto Escondido won the 2017 Martinez de Hoz for his first top-level success and went on to win six of his final seven career appearances, Mc IS BACK!

McKinzie returns with a big win in the G1 Pennsylvania Derby – he's one of six G1 winners on dirt by Street Sense since 2013. Only Bernardini, Tapit, Curlin and Malibu Moon have more.

SEVENTH HEAVEN
Aztec Sense makes it two Street Sense Stakes winners on the day, taking the PA Derby Champion Stakes. That's his seventh consecutive triumph.

REGIONAL REPORT

WILL TAKE CHARGE FILLY RUNS TO THE MONEY; EARNS RISING STARDOM

Newcomer Take Charge Angel (f, 2, Will Take Charge--Georgie's Angel, by Bellamy Road) backed down to 7-5 favoritism for this unveiling, looked like a winner every step of the way at Churchill Downs Saturday and garnered 'TDN Rising Star' status in the process. Away on top, she sat second, one off the fence, under a tight Shaun Bridgmohan hold through splits of :23.42 and :47.80. The dark bay seized command in between foes heading for home, found another gear when asked for more at the head of the lane and poured it on under minimal encouragement to score by six lengths in 1:17.89. Rumandice (Congrats), making her first start since a close second first up at Churchill June 30, kicked on for second. Take Charge Angel is the eighth winner for her first-crop sire (by Unbridled's Song). She is the third foal out of the precocious Georgie's Angel, a debut romper under the Twin Spires in July of 2011, who added Saratoga's GIII Schuylverville S. in her next attempt. Georgie's Angel's first foal to race is fellow Brad Cox trainee Rue de l'Ange (Street Sense), who broke her maiden second out at Indiana in June. Georgie's Angel lost her 2017 foal (by Super Saver), but produced a Frosted filly Mar. 10 before being bred back to Tiznow. Georgie's Angel isn't the only 2-year-old stakes winner on Take Charge Angel's page--second dam Lalka (Dynaformer) also produced GIII Bourbon S. winnner Lawn Ranger (U S Ranger), while third dam Celmis (Bold Ruckus) was a MSW who produced two stakes-winning juveniles in Canada. Take Charge Angel's fourth dam was Ada Prospect (New Prospect), a champion 2-year-old filly north of the border.

A debut winner at odds-on going two turns on the Delaware turf Aug. 30, Monkeys Uncle found herself much further back early in this shorter affair, but the result was the same. Dropped back to second last from her high draw, the Jackson colorbearer still had a ton to do midway along the bend. She came alive while well out into the course, and gobbled up foes with an impressive turn of foot to reach contention as they straightened. Taking over in midstretch, she idled a bit in the late stages, but had enough left in the tank to fend off Shoobiedoobydoo's late advances.

"[Trainer] Arnaud [Delacour] told me six furlongs would probably be a little short, but we had to try it, so I just wanted to break and settle her down and try to make one run," winning rider Daniel Centeno said. "I tried to save a little ground on the last turn, but it's really soft and the ground was giving out, so I moved outside and she saw the clear. I moved a little early and a little wide but she held it all the way to the wire. She was a little more focused today. She's a really smart filly and she really tried."

The winner, who covered an eighth at OBS March in :10 2/5, is a granddaughter of MGISW Lazy Slusan (Slewvescent). Her dam's yearling filly by Verrazano was purchased for just $10,000 by Crystal and Marcus Ryan's Mason Springs earlier this week. Humor Section, a half to GISW Last Full Measure (Empire Maker), produced a Shanghai Bobby filly this season before being bred back to Bernardini. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Galilean, the $600,000 topper at April's Barretts Spring Sale of Two-Year-Olds in Training off a :21 1/5 quarter-mile breeze, began to repay that investment with a hard-fought debut victory in Saturday's Barretts Juvenile S. Taking the bulk of tote attention, the bay was banged at the start, but quickly recovered to chase the pace through splits of :21.65 and :44.86. Clear in midstretch despite traveling on his wrong lead, the chalk cut it close late, but found the line a neck to the good of Seven Scents (Goldencents) in 1:15.28. A $60,000 Barretts Select yearling, Galilean was also a $35,000 KEENOV '15 in utero purchase. Cont. p3

His dam is a half to MGSW His Race to Win (Stormy Atlantic), and hails from the same important Sam-Son family as Dance Smartly, Smart Strike, et al--as well as Saturday's Woodbine maiden breaker Malibu Dawn (Malibu Moon). The 44th stakes winner for his sire after Monkeys Uncle's impressive score in the Selima S. earlier in the day, Galilean has a foal half-brother by Harbor the Gold. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Order and Law mows down Scrap Copper | MJC/Jim McCue

Fourth to the re-opposing Mooji Moo Jr. (Posse) when unveiled in a sloppy off-the-turf renewal of Monmouth's Tyro S. Aug. 4, Order and Law missed by a neck next out going six panels at Parx Aug. 26 and was overlooked by the bettors in this switch to the sod. Away in good order from post 14, the bay caboosed the field early, running off the rail through opening splits of :23.44 and :48.67. Coming alive in the lane, he unleashed a furious late rally down the center of the course to nail the leader on the line to become his sophomore sire (by Medaglia d'Oro)'s eighth stakes winner and 82nd winner.

"We're thrilled to see him get up," trainer Louis Linder said. "I knew he would come running, especially with the soft going. I saw him coming, then he went out of the picture. Then I saw him coming again and I knew we had a shot. He showed a lot of talent from the beginning, and moving forward I think he'll get better with more distance. We'll look at a race at Keeneland That would probably be our next move."

Order and Law hails from the family of Grade I-winning millionaire and sire Morning Line (Tiznow). His dam Poetic Kid produced a full-brother to the winner in 2017 and an Honor Code filly in 2018. She was bred back to Honor Code this spring. Click Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Divine Queen | Coady

A narrow front-running winner at Churchill Downs June 1, Divine Queen was an even sixth going a mile on the Ellis turf July 7. Fourth dropping back to six panels in an Ellis optional claimer Aug. 11, the bay was let go at long odds to regroup while looking for blacktype. Settled in a stalking position early, Divine Queen improved her position while scraping paint into the stretch, overtook frontrunning Jean Elizabeth and held off the closing Go Google Yourself in the final strides.

Town Queen, who foaled a colt by Court Vision in 2017, produced a colt by Dominus and was bred back to that sire this season.

The upset victory capped an emotional week for winning connections Carl Hurst and Buff Bradley. On Friday, the duo rejoiced as their 5-year-old homebred MGSW The Player (Street Hero), who critically injured his right front leg in the Mar. 24 GII New Orleans H., was finally able to return to Bradley's farm after spending nearly six months at Louisiana State University recovering from the severe injury.

"This one was for The Player," said Bradley, who trains both horses. "It's been such an emotional week for us and to be able to bring The Player home [Friday] and win this afternoon means a lot."

Silent Mistake was off as the 3-1 favorite while making her debut in the local Muskoka S. Aug. 29, and reported home third, beaten four lengths, after leading in the stretch. Favored once again to graduate versus stakes company here, she was forwardly placed after getting bumped at the start. The dark bay was under fire as they stacked up on the turn for home and dug down deep in the stretch to eke out a game victory. The winner's dam had a colt by Silent Name (Jpn) this year and was bred back to Ironicus. "She showed me a lot of class today," winning jockey Gary Boulanger said. "She got out there and threw her ears up and kind of waited and when I really called on her, she just kept digging in and digging in and she wouldn't give up." Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

2nd-Belmont, $85,298, Alw (C)/Opt. Clm ($80,000), 9-22, 3yo/up, 1m, 1:33.84, ft.

FAVORABLE OUTCOME (c, 4, Flatter--Shananies Song {SW, $158,270}, by Eltish), winner of the GII Swale S. and third in the GI Malibu last season, finished off the board in consecutive graded stakes before finishing second in a optional claimer over 6 1/2 furlongs May 17. Given some time off before resuming with a fifth-place effort in the seven-furlong GII Belmont Sprint July 7, he followed that with a second in a Saratoga optional claimer Aug. 19. Cont. p5

Sent off 3-2 here, Favorable Outcome went to the front early and led through opening fractions of :22.92 and :45.39. Comfortably in front of favored Exulting (Tapit) on the far turn, he cruised home a 2 1/2-length winner over Small Bear (Macho Uno). The $300,000 OBSMAR juvenile is a half to Bellamentary (Bellamy Raod), SW & MGSP, $216,200. Last season, Shananies Song produced a colt by Paynter, followed by a colt by Flatter and was bred back to Gun Runner. TIMBER GHOST (c, 3, Ghostzapper--Harissa {GSW, $468,966}, by Afleet Alex) took three tries to break his maiden, but did so in style last time at the Spa Aug. 19. After fifth-place finishes at Gulfstream Feb. 18 and Mar. 4, the Stronach homebred made the move to Upstate New York and decimated a six-furlong maiden special weight by 9 1/2 lengths, good for a 92 Beyer Speed Figure. Back here in his first start against winners, the 7-5 favorite went straight to the lead and turned back repeated challenges, holding sway to win by a length over Have Another (Stay Thirsty). The winner's dam, who sold as a broodmare prospect for $360,000 at the 2011 FTK Fall Mixed Sale, is out of SW and MGSP Dynasty (Time for a Change). She has a 2-year-old colt named Jungle Warrior (Animal Kingdom), who has won twice this year and was last seen finishing fifth in the Sept. 16 GI Summer S. at Woodbine. She also has a weanling filly by Street Boss and has been bred back to Mucho Macho Man for next term. MYLADY CURLIN (f, 3, Curlin--Ladyledue {MSW, $147,271}, by Slewdledo) took some time to get to the races, but she stayed undefeated in two starts, both this month. She exited a maiden special weight going six furlongs Sept. 2, where she won by five over a fast track at Ellis Park, and was facing winners over a sloppy track here. After stalking the pace, the 2-1 favorite came four wide and turned a long drive into a head victory. Cathedral Reader (Shackleford) just missed in second. The winner's dam, a Washington-bred who lost only once in seven starts and is a full-sister to GSW I'madrifter, has the unraced 2-year-old colt Limnery (Artie Schiller), the yearling filly Colonel's Lady (Colonel John) and a weanling colt by Latent Heat. She has been bred back to Noble Mission (GB) for next season. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $60,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Favored at 2-1 here, he trailed the field of seven after losing his footing at the start. The bay began to make his move on the far turn, was swung out widest of all at the top of the stretch and came over the top to just get there by a nose. No Mans Land (Lemon Drop Kid) was second. JUNKANOO (c, 2, Scat Daddy--Emma Carly, by Unbridled's Song) was unveiled here at nearly 7-1 after seven steady works on the dirt in as many weeks. Breaking from post eight, he bided his time patiently near the back of the pack through early fractions of :25.78 and :51.30 over the yielding going. Hugging the rail through the stretch, he looked impossibly beaten even in the last sixteenth with the pacesetter loose in front. Somehow, with a final desperate lunge, he nailed Halladay (War Front) on the line to eke out a neck victory. Cont. p6

Foaled, Raised & Sold by Trackside Farm

1st-Woodbine, C$71,400, Msw, 9-22, 2yo, f, 6 1/2f (AWT), 1:18.09, ft.

MALIBU DAWN (f, 2, Malibu Moon--Coastal Dawn, by Giant's Causeway) finished second beaten 12 lengths in her Delaware debut Aug. 27, and was looking to further flatter winner Midnight Karma (Violence), as third finisher Woven (Bernardini) had already returned to graduate. Off at almost 9-2, the Sam-Son homebred made all through splits of :22.82 and :46.36, finding the line a length to the good of late-on-the-scene firster Samurai Queen (First Samurai). Malibu Dawn is the first foal out of juvenile winner Coastal Dawn, a daughter of Canadian champion and GISW Dancethruthedawn (Mr. Prospect) and granddaughter of none other than Hall of Famer Dance Smartly (Danzig). This is the incredible productive female family of the likes of Grade I winners Smart Strike (Mr. Prospector) and Moreno (Ghostzapper). Coastal Dawn produced a More Than Ready filly in 2017 and a colt by the same stallion this year. She was bred back to Violence. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $40,714. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

6th-Parx Racing, $69,000, Msw, 9-22, 2yo, 6f, 1:13.85, ft.

ABSENTEE (c, 2, Fed Biz--Truant, by Gone West), given a 7-1 chance in this first go, sat just a couple of lengths adrift of favored Camgo (The Factor) through initial splits of :22.77 and :47.48. Drawn out turning for home, the Colts Neck homebred closed on the frontrunner through the length of the lane, took over in deep stretch and was a length clear of Camgo at the wire. Irish Roar (Ire) (Discreet Cat) rounded out the trifecta. The winner is a half to Dream Kirari (Giant's Causeway), SW & MGSP-Jpn, $1,322,279. Truant is a daughter of Group 3 winner Korveya (Riverman), who is responsible for European champion filly Bosra Sham (Woodman), and G1 French 2000 Guinease winners Hector Protector (Woodman) and Shanghai (Procida). The 13-year-old mare produced a filly by Medaglia d'Oro last year, was barren on the cover of Mshawish and was bred back to Kitten's Joy. Absentee is the fifth winner for his freshman sire (by Giant's Causeway). Sales history: $85,000 2yo '18 OBSAPR. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $40,500.Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

3rd-Churchill Downs, $55,470, Msw, 9-22, 3yo/up, 7f, 1:23.43, ft.

AMIRAL (c, 3, Curlin--Silva {Fr} {MSW-Fr, $104,151}, by Anabaa) made his debut an auspicious one, romping home by 4 1/4 lengths after breaking tardily from the gate. Trailing the field until the turn, he swung out six wide, powered to the lead, and finished full of run at odds of 21-1. Favored New Colossus (Curlin) was second, making it an exacta for the Hill 'n Dale sire Curlin. Dam Silva (Fr) hails from the immediate family of G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches winner Silvermine (Fr) (Bellypha {Ire}) and G1 Prix Jean Prat winner Sillery (Blushing Groom {Fr}). She has a yearling filly by The Factor, a weanling filly by Munnings and has been bred to Flintshire (GB) for next season. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $33,600. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

PERUVIAN APPEAL (f, 2, Successful Appeal--Solarana {Arg} {GSW, $178,560}, by Mutakddim), fourth going six furlongs on the Arlington synthetic Sept. 1, went off at 3-1 debuting on a sloppy main track. Settled in a stalking position through moderate initial fractions, Peruvian Appeal swung out three wide turning for home, drove in between rivals in the lane to take control and drew off to post a 3 3/4-length winner over Garden Affair (Street Boss). Solarana foaled a colt by Girolamo and was bred back to Lookin at Lucky. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $33,720. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

bullet workouts, headed by a five-furlong move in :59 2/5 (1/14) Sept. 15. The 8-5 second-choice was off a beat slow and improved her position to race in third through an opening quarter in :22.01. She began to get rolling in the stretch and snuck to the inside of favored Madame Vestal (Into Mischief) to take it by 3/4 of a length. The winner is a half-sister to Do Share (Candy Ride {Arg}), SW & GSP, $432,538. She becomes the fifth winner for her freshman sire (by Giant's Causeway). You Asked had a filly by Fed Biz in 2017 and a colt by Kantharos this year. Sales history: $75,000 Wlg '16 KEENOV; $225,000 Ylg '17 KEESEP. GORGEOUS IN GREY (f, 2, He's Had Enough--Lovely Golda, by Montbrook) finished seventh when unveiled in a dirt sprint at Santa Rosa Aug. 3 and was given an 8-1 chance for this surface switch over added real estate. Tracking from a two-wide fourth through a half in :48.38, the gray drew alongside the leading duo turning for home and forged clear in the lane, holding off the late-running pair of Flying Blue (Mucho Macho Man) and Fantastic Secret (Comic Strip) to win by a half-length. Flying Blue held second by another half-length. Gorgeous in Grey is the seventh winner for her freshman sire (by Tapit). The winner has a yearling half-brother by Soldat and her dam was most recently bred back to He's Had Enough. Sales history: $46,000 Wlg '16 KEENOV. 3rd-BEL, $75K, Msw, 2yo, 6f, 2:37 p.m. ET Shadwell Stable went to $650,000 to acquire MOTAGALLY (Union Rags) at last term's Keeneland September sale and the colt debuts in this spot for trainer Chad Brown. The bay is out of GSW Baby J (J Be K), who scored her graded victory in Belmont's GIII Victory Ride S. and also won the Catinca S. at this venue. Baby J is a half-sister to SW & GISP Laureat Conductor (Bernstein), SW Lavender Chrissie (Scat Daddy) and G2 Queen Mary S. runner-up Gossamer Wings (Scat Daddy). Also making his career bow in this spot is Vekoma (Candy Ride {Arg}), a son of GI Humana Distaff heroine Mona De Momma (Speightstown). The George Weaver pupil hails from the family of champion Street Sense (Street Cry {Ire}), MGISW Paradise Woods (Union Rags) and MGSW & GISP sire Mr. Greeley (Gone West). TJCIS PPs.

6th-CD, $56K, Msw, 2yo, 6 1/2f, 3:16 p.m. ET

Willis Horton's $975,000 KEESEP purchase ALL ABOUT WILL, a colt from this first crop of his champion Will Take Charge, makes his career bow in this test for Hall of Fame Steve Asmussen. A half-brother to GSW Hunter O'Riley (Tiz Wonderful), the bay is out of an unraced half-sister to SW & GSP Dreamcall (Midnight Lute) and SW Gangbuster (Langfuhr). This is also the family of GISW Diplomat Lady (Forestry). Mark Casse sends out another pricey firster in John Oxley's Afleet Moment (Uncle Mo), who was a $650,000 FTSAUG purchase. A half to GSW and sire Adios Charlie (Indian Charlie), the dark bay is out SW Teak Totem (Northern Afleet), who is a full-sister to MGISW Teaks North and a half to MGSW & MGISP Wooden Phone (Pick Up the Phone). Rodolphe Brisset unveils Allegiance (Super Saver) for the powerhouse team of China Horse Club, WinStar Farm and SF Racing. A half-brother to MGSP Snowboarder (Raven's Oass), the $87,000 KEEJAN buy is out of a half-sister to MGSW & MGISP Coolmore sire Munnings (Speightstown) and MSW & GSP Munnings Sister (Speightstown). The colt also hails from the family of Grade I winners La Gueriere (Lord at Wat {Arg}) and Icon Project (Empire Maker). TJCIS PPs. --@CDeBernardisTDN
