TRADE STEPS UP AT TATTERSALLS FEBRUARY

By Tom Peacock

Newmarket, UK—Among the hats now worn by Ted Durcan is that of a bloodstock agent, and the former jockey entered the big league in his new vocation by picking up the top lot of the Tattersalls February Sale on Friday.

On what was a far busier second of two sessions, Durcan was required to step up to 105,000gns for Magic Illusion (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) (lot 316).

The 45-year-old, who only retired last year after a long career which included several British Classics, retains a close association with trainer Sir Michael Stoute. Durcan also rode for Godolphin for many years and was a seven-time champion in the UAE, which is how his nose pointed him to a gelding who was leaving Sheikh Mohammed’s operation.

Magic Illusion, a half-brother to Godolphin’s capable Meydan performer Gold Town (GB) (Street Cry {Ire}), had been placed twice in three juvenile starts.

“He’s been bought for Satish Seemar and he’s going to race on in Dubai,” Durcan explained. “I rode for Satish many years ago so I know the sort of horse he’s looking for. He should have plenty of time to acclimatise and be a nice horse for next season.”

BREXIT STEERING GROUP ISSUES UPDATE

Edited Press Release

The Thoroughbred Industry Brexit Steering Group on Friday released an update reiterating that it is working with the UK government, colleagues in the horse sector and the Irish and French industries to prepare for Britain’s exit from the EU on Mar. 29 with or without a deal.

The group reiterated its hope that a withdrawal agreement can be reached, which would allow the continuation of the current free movement of Thoroughbreds between Britain, Ireland and France until at least December of 2020, with work proceeding on longer term arrangements. A no-deal exit would mean that Thoroughbreds from Ireland and France could still travel freely into the UK, but movement the other way around would be subject to a new tripartite agreement being reached.

A no-deal exit would mean the UK would be treated as a third country, and in order to be prepared for all possible outcomes the UK government has submitted an application for listing as a third-party country to continue exporting live animals and animal products to the EU post-Brexit.

The Irishman’s riding exploits must have made him one of the best-connected people in the industry, and he also combined with Seemar for another ex-Godolphin Dubawi performer in Recordman (GB) (lot 379), picked up for 65,000gn. It meant that Durcan Bloodstock trailed only BBA Ireland as the sale’s top buyer.

He added of his new venture: “I’ll be back riding out for Sir Michael next week and this is just something I’m doing. I’ve always enjoyed going to the sales, I’ve had a few mares and fillies in my time, and I’m just looking out for horses like everyone else.”

There was plenty of interest in some of the more stamina-laden offerings from the Godolphin consignment. Glockenspiel (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) (lot 313) had some form on soft ground in France for Andre Fabre that hit the right note for Noel George, son of British National Hunt trainer Tom, as he reached 42,000gn.

“He ought to stay further than two miles and he’s a nice strong horse,” George said. “He should go hurdling next season.”

Friday Trade Helps Recovery

The record-breaking sale of Willie John (GB) (Dansili {GB}) for 1,900,000gn here 12 months ago had taken the overall figures to an historic best.

Rock-bottom trade for the varied offerings on Thursday was always likely to have affected the final totals for 2019 but the horses in training from Friday, some of which arrived in the ring from the cream of British-based owners and trainers, restored respectability.
Day two trade was much in line with last year, with the median only 3% down at 7,500 gns and a very strong clearance rate of 95%. Add another Willie John into the equation and the aggregate would have been very similar - 2,213,400gns compared with 4,044,500gns.

As the bar had been raised so far, the totals looked somewhat less positive when viewed in the round. The average had dropped 60% to 10,677gns from 26,880, and the median to 5,000gns from 7,000. The overall total, from 2% fewer lots, was down 61% from 8,037,150gns to 3,139,100gns.

Tattersalls chairman Edmond Mahony said: “Last year’s outstanding February catalogue produced an extraordinary set of results which completely rewrote the record books for Europe’s premier midwinter sale. This year’s returns reflect a significantly less distinguished catalogue further undermined by the withdrawal of so many of the better quality lots.

“Nevertheless, the all-important clearance rate has bettered last year’s record-breaking sale and the feature of the two days has been consistent demand from a large and diverse contingent of overseas buyers. Although the sale was short of highlights, the quality consignments from Godolphin, Juddmonte Farms and Shadwell were all as popular as ever and buyers from more than 20 different countries including Abu Dhabi, Australia, Cyprus, Dubai, Israel, Kazakhstan, Kuwait, Kyrgyzstan, Libya, Qatar, the USA and Uzbekistan have all yet again demonstrated the uniquely international nature of sales at Tattersalls.”

Successful Mission For Schneider
Stall Salzburg racing manager Harald Schneider left with exactly what he came for after drawing up a list of two horses.

On Thursday he bought Open Sea (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) (lot 150) for 22,000gns and a day later stepped in for the most expensive from the Juddmonte consignment. Runnymede (GB) (Dansili {GB}) (lot 362), a brother to the decorated Stipulate (GB), won a maiden for Henri Devin at Pornichet in France a few days ago and took the German all the way up to 75,000gns.

The sale’s second top lot is to join Munich-based Sarah Steinburg, who impressed the same owners last year by winning the likes of the G2 Premio Federico Tesio with the smart mare Night Music (Ger) (Sea The Stars {Ire}).

“Sarah is one of the best young trainers in Germany and this was a horse I wanted," Schneider said. "It will be easy to find races for him in France and Germany, from conditions races to handicaps. We’ll get him home and give him a break now."

There was interest from even further afield a few lots later at 370 in the best of the draft from the William Haggas stable.

Originaire (Ire) (Zoffany {Ire}) was secured for 70,000gns by Jamie Lloyd of Meah-Lloyd Bloodstock, having made the frame in all five starts in the colours of the China Horse Club.

“She’s been bought by a new client in partnership with my business partner David Meah,” Lloyd explained. “She definitely goes to California, but we’ll have to decide on a trainer. Half-sister Lola Beaux (GB) (Equiano {Fr}) was a minor success when transferred Stateside so the omens are good.”

Spence Goes To War

Day one’s top lot figure held for just over an hour on Friday until lot 280 knocked the 55,000gns set by All I Need (Ire) (Peintre Celebre) (lot 67) off the perch.

War No More (War Front) had the looks and athleticism to match her excellent pedigree, as a daughter of the 2013 G1 1000 Guineas S. third Moth (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) who had been an expensive yearling purchase for Al Shahania Stud at Keeneland.

The filly had been unplaced in three quick recent runs for Ed Walker and her new buyer, Mike Spence, who sealed the deal on his final bid of 60,000gns, is seeking a speedy return.

Spence, the son of prominent owner Alan, said: “It was all about the page. She’s going to go to Roger Varian, hopefully to win a race in the next month or so before we breed from her. She might go to [G1 King’s Stand S. winner] Profitable, who my dad used to own. We haven’t got any from him yet but have three or four broodmares who might go to him.”

Brexit Steering Group Issues Update cont. from p1

The European Commission’s recently published Contingency Action Plan states that “On the basis of the EU veterinary legislation, the Commission will—if justified—swiftly ‘list’ the United Kingdom [as a third country], if all applicable conditions are fulfilled, so as to allow the entry of live animals and animal products from the United Kingdom into the European Union.”

The European Commission has recently published proposals that would allow UK hauliers to continue carrying goods into the EU until the end of 2019 if there is no deal, without the need for an ECMT permit.

With regards to the stud book, Weatherbys has lodged an application with the Department for the Environment, Food and Rural Affairs for submission to the EU Commission for the General Stud Book to be recognised by the EU Commission and to be added to its list of breeding bodies.

In terms of European Union citizens working in the Thoroughbred industry, the UK Government has launched a website outlining details of the EU Settlement Scheme for European Union citizens, and their families, to continue living in the UK after June 30, 2021 with either settled or pre-settled status. The application process opens in full on Mar. 30, 2019 and further guidance will be provided in advance of that date.

“With continuing uncertainty around the outcome of the Brexit negotiations, it is only right that the Thoroughbred industries prepare for all scenarios, including a no deal, which we hope can be avoided,” said Thoroughbred Breeders’ Association Chairman Julian Richmond-Watson. “We have been very encouraged by our engagement with government around preparations for a no deal, and endorse its stance that current systems for horse movement into the UK will continue in these circumstances.”

An online hub to provide guidance to industry participants on what to do as the UK leaves the EU has been set up on the BHA website.

WEIR, MCLEAN CHARGED, HORSES SCRATCHED

By Bren O'Brien

Racing Victoria stewards have issued six charges against champion trainer Darren Weir under the Australian Rules of Racing and ordered the scratching of 30 horses across Victorian race meetings over the weekend.

RV issued charges against Weir late on Friday, as well as four against assistant trainer Jarrod McLean and two against staff member Tyson Kermond.

Weir and McLean were also issued show cause notices as to why stewards shouldn’t immediately suspend their training licences given the gravity of the charges they both face.

Stewards placed an interim order preventing Weir and McLean from having any runners until the show cause hearing continues at 2pm on Monday.

"The stewards have imposed an interim order that all horses accepted to race from the Darren Weir and Jarrod McLean stables from tonight at Moonee Valley through until Monday be withdrawn with immediate effect pending the conduct of a show cause hearing," RV Executive General Manager – Integrity, Jamie Stier said. “The stewards are concerned about the seriousness of the threat posed by Mr Weir’s and Mr McLean’s alleged possession of an electronic apparatus. This is a significant issue in terms of animal welfare and racing integrity.

“The investigation has caused considerable public concern, and has generated considerable negative publicity, bringing into question the impact on the image, interests and integrity of racing of Mr Weir and Mr McLean’s continued participation in racing pending the hearing of the charges.

“The stewards also have significant concerns regarding the police involvement in relation to Mr Weir and Mr McLean’s training activities is having on public confidence in racing.

“We understand the timing of this order has impacts for owners, punters and race clubs, whom we sympathise with, however in the opinion of the stewards the integrity and reputation of the sport is paramount."

In issuing this interim order, it should be noted that investigations are ongoing."

The charges follow a raid of a series of properties linked to the champion trainer on Wednesday by Victoria Police and RV Stewards which saw the seizure of four electronic devices, or jiggers, as well as an unlicensed firearm and a small amount of cocaine.

Weir, McLean and Kermond were arrested and interviewed by police on Wednesday and then attended a Racing Victoria inquiry on Thursday.

Having issues the charges on Friday, stewards then made the call to scratch 29 of Weir’s runners and one of McLean’s at 4:50pm, just an hour and 40 minutes before the first race at Moonee Valley.

Weir was charged three times under AR175 (hh) (ii) 'Possession of an electric or electronic apparatus capable of affecting the performance of a horse' for three 'jiggers' reportedly seized from his Miner's Rest stables on Wednesday.

He was also charged under AR 175(f) 'Failure to give evidence at an inquiry' as well as the alternate charge of AR175(p) 'Failure to comply with a direction of the stewards'. This relates to the inquiry conducted on Thursday, the day after the raids.

The final charge relates to AR175A, 'Conduct prejudicial to the image, interests or welfare of racing'.

Similarly McLean was charged once under AR175 (hh) (ii) 'Possession of an electric or electronic apparatus capable of affecting the performance of a horse' as well as AR 175(f) and AR175(p) as well as AR175A.

Kermond was charged with 'Failure to give evidence at an inquiry' and 'Failure to comply with a direction of the stewards'.

On Thursday, Racing NSW had issued Weir with a show cause notice as to why it should accept any nominations Weir put in for that state. Weir didn’t have any entries in New South Wales in the coming days.
Racing Queensland said it would not issue a show cause for Weir in a statement released on Friday.

MONMOUTH GETS SUBSIDY, BUT NJ POLS TO HOLD THEIR FEET TO FIRE

_by Bill Finley_

A bill to provide Monmouth Park with a $10-million annual subsidy for five consecutive years passed the New Jersey Assembly Thursday and is expected to be signed into law by New Jersey Governor Phil Murphy.

The money replaces a $17-million annual subsidy given to Thoroughbred racing by the Atlantic City casinos, one that then Governor Chris Christie pulled the plug on in 2011. Since, Monmouth has struggled to compete with other Mid-Atlantic area tracks that receive casino money and have the ability to offer larger purses.

But what separates this subsidy from those in other racing states, including those that funnel slots money to the racetracks, is that Monmouth will not be getting a free ride.

“We do that more than he does,” Reid said. “It’s just a matter of making sure he gets enough exercise to keep him mentally where we want him.”

Maximus Mischief picks up Jose Ortiz after traveling beneath Frankie Pennington in his first three starts, which is notable if only because Ortiz piloted Centennial Farms’ Mihos to a good-looking score in the local Mucho Macho Man S. last out Jan. 5. Trained by Jimmy Jerkens, the $320,000 Keeneland September buy carried all the ground while five wide on the turn, but kept coming down the lane to secure a neck decision. Prior to that, the bay was third on debut behind subsequent GII Nashua S. hero Vekoma (Candy Ride {Arg}) Sept. 23 at Belmont before graduating in ’Rising Star’ fashion Nov. 24 at Aqueduct. John Velazquez will ride with Ortiz departing for the favorite.

Federal Case (Gemologist), who Velazquez rode last time, is a wild card for trainer Todd Pletcher. A first-out winner for the WinStar, China Horse Club and SF Racing powerhouse and trainer Rodolphe Brisset Oct. 19 at Keeneland, the bay was offered at Keeneland November and brought a session-topping $650,000 from Robert and Lawana Low. Debuting for the new connections here Dec. 23, he chased the pace and appeared rebuffed in deep stretch before surging to prevail by a neck. Returning with three sharp breezes at Palm Beach Downs, featuring a half-mile work in :48 1/5 (1/9) Jan. 28, Federal Case will have Javier Castellano in the irons.

Castellano gets off of Epic Racing’s Epic Dreamer (Orb), who rates an outside chance under Irad Ortiz, Jr. Second in the aforementioned Vekoma race in his unveiling, the $185,000 OBS April pickup scored a facile maiden tally Oct. 26 at Belmont before disappointing when sixth as the 6-5 favorite in the Springboard Mile S. Dec. 16 at Remington. He sports a five-panel bullet in :58 3/5 (1/13) Jan. 4 at Palm Meadows in preparation for this sophomore bow.

‘GUSTO’ MEETS ‘GRAY’ IN ROBERT LEWIS

‘TDN Rising Star’ Mucho Gusto (Mucho Macho Man) and Gunmetal Gray (Exchange Rate) figure to vie for favoritism in Saturday’s GIII Robert B. Lewis S. at Santa Anita.

The former, trained by Hall of Famer Bob Baffert, followed a front-running win in the seven-furlong GIII Bob Hope S. at Del Mar Nov. 17 with a distant runner-up finish to unbeaten stablemate Improbable (City Zip) in his two-turn debut in the GI Los Alamitos CashCall Futurity last time Dec. 8.

Baffert won this race three out of four times between 2013-16, most recently delivering with Mor Spirit for Mucho Gusto’s owner Michael Petersen. Baffert has won the Lewis a total of six times.

Gunmetal Gray, runner-up behind champion Game Winner (Candy Ride {Arg}) in the GI American Pharoah S. over this track and trip Sept. 29, followed a fifth-place finish in the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile with a flashy last-to-first win in the GIII Sham S. here Jan. 5.

The highly regarded Nolo Contesto (Pioneerof the Nile) heads to the big leagues after posting a hard-fought maiden victory with a wide trip in his two-turn debut Jan. 4.

The Lewis winner will receive 10 GI Kentucky Derby qualifying points, with the second, third and fourth-place finishers receiving four, two and one point(s), respectively.

SEVEN SET FOR WITHERS

Offering 10-4-2-1 qualifying points for the GI Kentucky Derby, a field of seven will line up for Saturday’s 1 1/8-mile GIII Withers S. at Aqueduct.

Our Braintrust (Freud), runner-up behind GISW Mind Control (Stay Thirsty) for Cathal Lynch and Stanton Smith Jr. in the one-turn mile Jerome S. Jan. 1, makes his first attempt for Gary Barber and Mark Casse here. He won Belmont’s Tremont S. going 5 1/2 furlongs at second asking last June.

"Obviously, we haven’t had Our Braintrust for very long, but he’s done everything you can ask for," Casse said. "I thought he’s worked well. It’s not an easy race. Everyone is trying to figure out where they fit in for the 3-year-old division. That’s what you’re doing in January and February; just trying to figure out who is going to mature from two to three."

Lucky Lee (Flatter) makes his stakes debut for trainer John Servis off a pair of good-looking scores going a mile at Parx Oct. 14 and Nov. 17. He worked four furlongs in :50 1/5 (24/48) at Palm Meadows Jan. 13.

Tax (Arch), claimed for $50,000 out of a winning maiden claiming effort at Keeneland Oct. 21, enters off a third-place finish in the track-and-trip GI Remsen S. Dec. 1. R. A. Hill Stable and Reeves Thoroughbred Racing have joined Hugh Lynch and Corms Racing Stable as owners since the Remsen on the 2-1 morning-line favorite.

EAST COAST SIPPICAN HARBOR

OBS March Don’t miss it!
Ed DeRosa of TwinSpires.com takes on TDN’s Steve Sherack and Brian DiDonato as they handicap each prep race leading up to the GI Kentucky Derby. The three will make $100 Win/Place bets --highest bankroll after Arkansas Derby/Lexington day wins.

DeRosa: Smarty Jones S. - Gray Attempt went to the front and dug in to score. Bankroll: $530.

Gil Holy Bull S. - A troika of Kentucky Derby points on Saturday ushers in Super Bowl weekend. We got off the schneid last week, and will look to add to our score with a trio of logical horses led by Maximus Mischief, who I see not only as the most likely winner of the Holy Bull, but also of all three races. I loved the brilliance he showed winning his first two starts sprinting and then stretching out to win the Remsen. I typically don’t like Remsen winners next out, but this is not your grandfather’s Remsen winner who excelled in that race because of the nine furlongs as a juvenile. This horse is just better than the rest. Selection: #8 Maximus Mischief (1-1).

Gil Withers S. - It could be a big day for Charles Zacney, whose Cash Is King Stable is also in on Lucky Lee in the Withers, which I see as the most competitive of Saturday’s Derby prep slate. Lucky Lee follows a similar path to the Withers as fellow colorbearer Maximus Mischief did to the Remsen, winning his first two starts at Parx in brilliant fashion. I’ll play that brilliance to stretch out given the pedigree and what is a square price on the morning line. Selection: #5 Lucky Lee (7-2).

Gil Robert B. Lewis S. - The Lewis is interesting pitting two established 2-year-olds (Gunmetal Gary and Mucho Gusto) against the flashy maiden winner Nolo Contesto. I’ll go with the up-and-comer from John Sadler’s barn. Nolo Contesto’s debut wasn’t terrible considering the start and he picked up a lot of horses late. Then he was much the best next out when taking a lot of money considering the debut. The 94 Brisnet Speed Rating fits with these, and I see him as most likely to improve. Selection: #6 Nolo Contesto (5-2).

Sherack - Smarty Jones S. - Bankit fell too far behind over a very speed-favoring surface and never factored as the favorite. Bankroll: $0.

Gil Holy Bull S. - Between the tough post and two very fast stretch-out sprinters drawn just to his outside, this is no layup for the unbeaten and very talented Maximus Mischief. I’ll instead opt for the second-choice Mihos, who should receive an absolute dream set-up. Mihos has looked plenty promising in his last two victories as well, including an impressive come-from-behind win in the one-turn mile Mucho Macho Man S. in Hallandale Jan. 5. The added distance and stretch to two turns should be right up his alley. Selection: #6 Mihos (5-2).

Gil Withers S. - I liked Admire’s debut enough--he completely blew the start from his rail draw and turned in a serious move on the far turn and into the stretch to finish a respectable fifth going six furlongs--to give him a chance at a big price here. While he’ll have to improve plenty off that 71 Beyer he earned last out in his hard-fought maiden breaker in late November, it was still fairly impressive for him to return just 22 days later and successfully stretch to the demanding distance of 1 1/8 miles over a sloppy, sealed track. Scratched from the GIII Lecomte S. after drawing wide, he seems to be training well enough with a steady diet of five-furlong breezes in South Florida for his connections to take a swing at the Derby trail. Selection: #4 Admire (15-1).

Gil Robert B. Lewis S. - The word was out on Nolo Contesto after his eventful debut fifth—he was bumped so hard in the early stages that Joel Rosario briefly lost one of his irons—and he knuckled down nicely next out after covering all the ground to graduate in his two-turn debut going a mile at Santa Anita in early January. Having likely favorite and horse to beat Mucho Gusto walk around the track on the lead is an obvious concern, but another step forward from the promising Hronis Racing colorbearer can make him a major player. Selection: #6 Nolo Contesto (5-2).

DiDonato - Smarty Jones S. - Boy was I wrong about Super Steed... Didn't seem like he really ran his race over a track that played to speed all weekend and he checked in seventh. Bankroll: $500.

GII Holy Bull S. - To state the obvious, there's a ton of pace signed on here. Maximus Mischief might just be a monster, and maybe he can rate, but he's far from a lock against this formidable group. Mihos is the obvious alternative, but he's tough to pass up for me. What made his Mucho Macho Man win impressive was how early he was switched off cover. He ran four wide out in no-man's land around the entire turn and covered way more ground than every one of his rivals according to Trakus (between 21 and 53 ft.). The added real estate shouldn't be an issue. Selection: #6 Mihos (5-2).

GIII Withers S. - Considering the comment on my virtual stable for Lucky Lee is “early Derby horse?” I'd say I probably have to pick him. I just loved how he moved through the stretch when running up the score in a Parx allowance last time—he's got that A.P. Indy low head carriage thing going on and appears plenty capable of getting an additional furlong. Selection: #5 Lucky Lee (7-2).

Gill Robert B. Lewis S. - Nolo Contesto found trouble sprinting first out, but stepped forward in a big way to come out on top of a duel when stretched to a mile Jan. 4. The horse he beat is a well-bred, highly regarded colt who might not possess the most killer instinct out there, but he is a pretty good barometer for his competition. The horses who narrowly beat that runner in each of his previous two starts subsequently took stakes events (he runs back one race before the Lewis). The winner of his debut annexed an allowance and was third in a stakes since then. Nolo Contesto should appreciate the added distance of this, and he looked great breezing in company last week. Selection: #6 Nolo Contesto (5-2).

Neither will the state’s two harness tracks, The Meadowlands and Freehold, which will also share in the subsidy that totals $20 million for the two breeds.

There are several provisions in the bill that the tracks must meet. If they fall short of those goals, the purse subsidy could end. Many of the provisions are requirements that involve the breeding industries for both Thoroughbred and Standardbreds, so far as increasing the number of mares and foals in the state. The New Jersey breeding industry has been decimated over the last several years. The legislation also calls for Monmouth to improve in areas that involve on-track business.

According to Dennis Drazin, who heads the management team that operates Monmouth, the government is requiring Monmouth to show increases in attendance, handle, field size and, oddly, the number of horses four years or younger stabled in New Jersey for the majority of the year.

"I don’t think we have to hit every one, but they’re trying to be responsible," Drazin said. "You have to look at the legislature and what message they’re trying to send. There are a lot of groups out there saying why should horse racing get $100 million when there are other needy parties? I saw some criticism this morning that Governor Murphy vetoed a homeless bill; the reasons had nothing to do with us. But there are some people that don’t think we should be getting this money. The legislature
Sarah Andrew is trying to be responsible, saying we’re not going to hand out $100 million if it’s not going to make a difference. Drazin said he was confident Monmouth would meet the criteria.

“I’m going to spend my money in a way that we meet the goals,” he said. “When I go in and decide how to spend it, I want to make sure I have their requirements in mind when I make decisions as to how to spend our money. I will reestablish the 40% bonus for New Jersey-breds running in open company, which should definitely encourage people to breed in the state. I’m not going to do things that are foolish. We were going to run until Dec. 7 at Meadowlands, but no longer will do that. Those days were not going to produce good handle numbers for us.”

How Monmouth will allocate the purse money has yet to be decided and could become a subject of debate among local horsemen. All that is known for now is that Monmouth will hold a 61-day meet, plus six additional days of all turf racing at the Meadowlands. That’s an increase of nine days over what was scheduled in 2018. Drazin said Monmouth would also race on Sundays in October. One of the benefits of that would be the possibility that NFL bettors will also wager on racing.

But, going forward, will Monmouth’s direction lead toward additional racing dates or the same length of meet with higher purses? Some horsemen are in favor of having the purses hiked substantially for a portion of the meet, a mini-meet that mirrored the 2010 “Elite Meet” when Monmouth average nearly $1 million daily in purses. Still others want to see the purses stay the same with a substantial addition to the racing calendar.

When asked what direction Monmouth would go, Drazin said, “I am not prepared to comment on that as of yet.”

No matter what direction Monmouth heads, the $10-million subsidy is seen as a major shot in the arm for an industry that... needed one. “We’ve been working very hard on this for at least a year because the subsidies we used to get helped us be competitive in the region where it is very difficult to compete with states that have slots and casino revenues and get hundreds of millions,” Drazin said. “But it is very meaningful to get a purse subsidy when you haven’t had anything for years. It puts us in a position for the next five years where we have security. The breeding industry can understand that if they drop a foal in New Jersey today this is what they have to look forward to. Hopefully, there will be more mares and foals in New Jersey. On the racing end, it puts us in a more competitive position with the surrounding states. We’ll never be at the New York level, but it puts us at higher level for our overnight purses structure and we’ll be more in line with other tracks in the Mid-Atlantic region.”

PACIFIC CLASSIC DAY TO FEATURE FIVE GRADED STAKES

This year’s GI TVG Pacific Classic card will be held Saturday, Aug. 17 as part of an enhanced racing program that will feature an unprecedented five graded stakes races, the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club announced Friday.

Del Mar’s 29th edition of its signature race, the $1-million Pacific Classic, will headline a blockbuster program that also will offer four additional graded stakes—the $300,000 GI Del Mar Oaks, the $250,000 GII Del Mar H., the $100,000 GIII Torrey Pines S. and the $100,000 GIII Green Flash H.

“We’ve seen it across the country,” said DMTC President Josh Rubinstein, “that racetracks and racing fans respond very positively to ‘big days.’ The Triple Crown races, the Breeders’ Cup programs—they put a special buzz in the air; they make the day into something that transcends the racing itself. Our plan is to bolster our premier race and make it the showcase event on a day like we’ve never had before at Del Mar.”

Del Mar’s 36-day summer season will run from Wednesday, July 17 through Labor Day Monday, Sept. 2.

FTKFEB OFFERING LOOKS TO RAISE FUNDS FOR PARKINSON’S RESEARCH
By Christie DeBernardis

When Pure Purity (Perfect Soul {Ire}) enters the ring at Fasig-Tipton’s Kentucky Winter Mixed Sale Tuesday, Feb. 5, Ann Hanley--wife of WinStar General Manager David Hanley--will be seated in the pavilion, crossing her fingers for a good result, as the proceeds from Hip 289’s sale will go directly to Hanley’s Parkinson’s Research Fund. The MSP 6-year-old mare, offered as a broodmare prospect, is a half-sister to MSWs Citius (Old Forester) and Flashy Margarita (Bold n’ Flashy), as well as SW Bourbon Stritta (Old Forester).

“James Keogh came to me at the end of the November sale and said he was anxious to do something for me to help raise money for Parkinson’s research,” Hanley said. “He had this mare and thought this was an ideal way to do it. He hoped that maybe it would ignite interest in other people. James donated this mare to the parkinson’s research fund.”

to us. I went to see her and he has her looking absolutely fantastic. Alfredo, her groom, has done a great job.”

Diagnosed with Parkinson’s at the age of 49, Hanley has been working tirelessly over the past few years to raise money for a surgical procedure performed by Dr. Craig Von Horne at the University of Kentucky in which a nerve graft is implanted in the patient’s brain. Hanley, who underwent the procedure herself this summer, also spends endless hours with the other patients and is the first person they see before and after surgery.

“I was able to participate in the research and I had two brain surgeries in August,” said Hanley. “So far it looks really good. I was the 60th patient and we have seen great success. Parkinson’s is a disease with no cure, no effective therapy and no medicine. All you can do is get progressively worse. The results have been spectacular. Some patients have seen up to 40% improvement and that is unheard of.”

She continued, “I work at the hospital, doing research for the last six years with Dr. Van Horne at UK. That is the only place they do this. I have been there from the very beginning. It is so difficult to get funding because we don’t use drugs, so you have no big pharma or drug company involved.”

With all of her friends involved in racing, it was only natural that Hanley started her fundraising efforts by reaching out to the Thoroughbred community and they responded with gusto. The team at Goffs, headed by Hanley’s lifelong friend Eimear Mulhern, raised €150,000 within 10 days of her phone call. Fasig-Tipton, Coolmore and WinStar also teamed up to host “A Night for a Cure,” which raised $300,000 during the 2016 Fasig-Tipton July Sale.

“We saw results in the first group of patients and then we had to stop because of funding,” Hanley said. “To me, it was ridiculous. I had never raised a penny in my life and I didn’t know how I was going to do it, but if you have something that changes people’s lives, you have to find a way to do something. All my friends are horse people in the industry. They all rallied around this cause and because of that I have been able to raise over $1.1 million, which is amazing, in just a couple of years.”

Many members of the Thoroughbred community have stepped up to support Hanley through creative fundraising efforts. Olive and Brendan Gallagher of Frankfort Park Stud syndicated a mare named Lady Hester (Bernardini) under the condition that 50% of her earnings go directly to Hanley’s foundation, an effort which has not only raised money, but created new racing fans.

Hall of Famer Bob Baffert and his wife Jill, who met Hanley during Justify (Scat Daddy)’s historic campaign, donated two very popular shadow boxes. One housed Justify’s halter and the other contained a shoe from Justify, a shoe from American Pharoah and copies of the front pages of the Sports Illustrated editions each Triple Crown winner appeared on signed by both Baffert and their respective jockeys. The items were auctioned off during Keeneland’s annual art auction during their November sale and resulted in a check for $72,000.

“There is no doubt in the world that we could not have gotten this done if the Thoroughbred community had not stepped up,” Hanley said. “When you consider, in the big picture, what we are able to do, probably changing the face of this disease and certainly changing the progression of this disease. We want to make it available to everybody. That is why the funding is so necessary.”

CHANCES ABOUND IN SWALE

One of the tougher jobs in racing this weekend is being the Gulfstream oddsmaker for the GIII Swale S., where 11 3-year-old sprinters will line up with not much separating most of the field.

Narrow morning-line favoritism lies with Call Paul (Friesian Fire), the lone graded stakes winner among the group. A debut winner over subsequent GI Hopeful S. victor Mind Control (Stay Thirsty) last summer at Delaware, the $210,000 Fasig-Tipton Midlantic purchase repeated in the GII Saratoga Special S. before running a respectable third in the GI Champagne S. Oct. 6 at Belmont. Filling the same slot after dueling on a hot pace in the GIII Nashua S., he was last seen easily annexing the state-bred Pennsylvania Nursery S. Dec. 1 at Parx.

The top Beyer Speed Figure in the race belongs to Silverton Hill's High Crime (Violence), who earned a 90 for his 7 3/4-length romp here three weeks ago. The dark bay homebred was second debuting at Turfway prior to that.

The priciest buy in the field is e Five Racing Thoroughbreds and Stonestreet Stables' Seismic Jolt (Kantharos), who hammered for $800,000 at OBS April. Failing to find the mark in two turf outings to start his career, the chestnut has been a new horse on dirt, cruising to a five-length graduation on the local main Dec. 7 and repeating with another open-lengths success in the restricted Limehouse S. here Jan. 5.

Topper T (Bellamy Road) is an interesting longshot while turning back in distance. An easy winner of the state-bred Iowa Cradle S. last summer at Prairie Meadows, the dark bay was privately purchased after a nose second in the Shakopee Juvenile S. at Canterbury. Trainer Bill Mott showed immense confidence in the colt, entering him in the GI Sentient Jet Breeders' Cup Juvenile, but he faded to eighth after chasing the pace and filled the same slot after dictating a fast tempo in the GI Kentucky Jockey Club S. Nov. 24 at Churchill. Back around one turn here, he shows a sharp Payson Park worktab for his sophomore debut, capped by a Klaravich Stables’ Feedback (Violence) burst onto the scene with a dominant, ‘TDN Rising Star’-earning victory last summer at Saratoga. She hasn’t been seen since, but that effort was impressive enough on its own that she likely will go off a heavy favorite off the bench in the GIII Forward Gal S. Saturday at Gulfstream.

Picked up for $85,000 as a Keeneland November weanling, the dark bay took play to be 27-10 in her Aug. 12 debut, pressed the pace and ran away readily in the lane to score by eight lengths while under wraps. The fact that trainer Chad Brown tries this race instead of a first-level allowance off the break signals major confidence, and Feedback finished up preparations with a sharp half-mile breeze in :48 2/5 (9/98) Jan. 29 at Palm Meadows.

Fashion Faux Pas (Flatter) looks for her third win in a row. Fourth after dueling on a fast pace debuting Nov. 2 at Laurel, the $65,000 KEESEP jumped forward to a 5 3/4-length graduation there three weeks later and repeated with a four-length success in the Sandpiper S. Dec. 15 at Tampa. She comes into this one off a best-of-68 bullet half-mile in :48 flat Jan. 26 in Oldsmar.

Monarch Stables’ Bye Bye J (Uncaptured) will also try to make it back-to-back stakes tallies. A first-out victress here last April, the $21,000 OBS Winter buy was third against males in a Gulfstream West turf sprint Nov. 23 before annexing the local House Party S. Dec. 8.
MCKINZIE HEADLINES SAN PASQUAL

McKinzie (Street Sense), an eye-catching winner of the seven-furlong GI Malibu S. Dec. 26, stretches back out for Saturday’s GII San Pasqual S. at Santa Anita.

The ‘TDN Rising Star’ was forced to miss last year’s Triple Crown series due to a hind-leg injury and returned to the races in style with a sharp score in the GI Pennsylvania Derby Sept. 22. He could only manage a distant 12th, however, after showing some early interest in the GI Breeders’ Cup Classic at Churchill Downs Nov. 3.

The 2017 GI Breeders’ Cup Dirt Mile hero Battle of Midway (Smart Strike) appears to be the main danger after narrowly defeating Dabster (Curlin) in the GIII Native Diver S. Nov. 25 and placing second as the favorite in the GII San Antonio S. Dec. 26.

673 TRAINERS ACCEPTED TO COMPETE AT THOROUGHBRED MAKEOVER

The journey officially began Friday for 673 accepted trainers on the road to the 2019 Thoroughbred Makeover, presented by Thoroughbred Charities of America. That is the second-highest number of accepted applicants in the event’s history. The 2019 Thoroughbred Makeover will take place Oct. 2-5 at the Kentucky Horse Park in Lexington, KY. The Thoroughbred Makeover is a training competition open to professionals, juniors and amateurs to compete side-by-side. “After a record-breaking year in 2018, our team is channeling that experience into 2019 to offer continued improvements to the Thoroughbred Makeover,” said Kirsten Green, Retired Racehorse Project’s Director of Operations. “We’re thrilled to welcome a lot of new faces with the class of 2019, meaning that many more riders are choosing Thoroughbreds as their partners in pleasure or sport.”

PACO LOPEZ GETS 30-DAY SUSPENSION

Jockey Paco Lopez was handed a 30-day suspension Friday by Gulfstream stewards for careless riding in Thursday’s first race, causing a spill and resulting in jockey Romero Maragh undergoing surgery Friday for two broken vertebrae and Carlos Montalvo suffering a fractured ankle. Management also announced that any jockey suspended will be given a mandatory five days. Gulfstream’s leading rider Luis Saez was the first to receive the five-day mandatory suspension for his ride in Thursday’s 10th race.

TODAY’S RACING INSIGHTS: HALF-BROTHERS TO TALENTED RUNNERS DEBUT IN HALLANDALE

Sponsored by Alex Nichols Agency
by Christie DeBernardis

7th-GP, $50K, Msw, 3yo, 6f, 3:02p.m. EST

Hall of Famer Bill Mott unveils a well-related Claiborne Farm and Adele Dilschneider homebred in HAUNT (Ghostzapper). Out of SW Cheery (Distorted Humor), the dark bay is a half-brother to MGISW and ‘TDN Rising Star’ Elate (Medaglia d’Oro). Haunt’s second dam is MGSW & GISP Yell (A.P. Indy) and his third dam is MGSW & GISP Wild Applause (Northern Dancer). His deep female family also includes the likes of GSW & GISP sire Congrats (A. P. Indy); GSP sire Flatter (A.P. Indy); MGSW & MGISP new sire Ironicus (Distorted Humor); MGSW On Leave (War Front); and graded winners Norumbega (Tiznow), Hunting (Coronado’s Quest) and Quiet Harbor (Silver Deputy). Mott’s former pupil Rodolphe Brisset also saddles a firster with a famous sibling in Mass Appeal (Speightstown), a half-brother to GI Belmont S. winner and $1.2 million KEESEP buy Tapwrit (Tapit). Also a half-brother to GSW turfer Ride a Comet (Candy Ride {Arg}), the $250,000 KEESEP purchase is out of GISW Appealing Zophie (Successful Appeal), who summoned $1.2 million from Barronstown Stud at the recent Fasig-Tipton November sale carrying a full-sibling to Tapwrit.

ASMUSSEN UNVEILS PAIR OF PRICEY COLTS

6th-FG, $41K, Msw, 3yo, 1 1/16m, 3:53p.m. EST

Phoenix Thoroughbreds and Eric Fein teamed up to acquire RUBIN HURRICANE (Orb) for $1 million at Keeneland September and he makes his career bow in this spot for Hall of Famer Steve Asmussen. Out of SP Tally Ho Dixie (Dixieland Band), the dark bay is a half to SW & GSP Kyriaki (Scat Daddy). He also hails from the family of MGISW millionaires Stellar Jayne (Wild Rush) and Starrer (Dynaformer); and SW & GISP sophomore Uncle Benny (Declaration of War). Asmussen sends out another pricey firster in Winchell Thoroughbreds and Willis Horton’s $675,000 KEESEP buy Copper King (Medaglia d’Oro). The dark bay is a half-brother to Canadian champion and GI Kentucky Derby upsetter Mine That Bird (Birdstone) and MGISW Dullahan (Even the Score). This is also the family of MGSW & MGISP Bolo (Temple City).

HOLLENDORFER SADDLES EXPENSIVE BODEMEISTER FIRSTER

5th-SA, $55K, Msw, 3yo, 7f, 5:23p.m. EST

Michael Stinson and his bloodstock agent Tom McGreevy went to $725,000 to secure KOA (Bodemeister) at OBS March after the colt breezed in :10 flat and he debuts in this spot for Hall of Famer Jerry Hollendorfer. The bay is out SP Victory Island (Friendly Island), who hails from the family of champion and MGISW Victory Gallop (Cryptoclearance). Also of interest is Polar (Graydar), a $10,000 FTKOCT yearling turned $140,000 BARAPR breezer who displays a string of bullet works over this strip, including a best-of-93 half-mile in :47 1/5 two back Jan. 20.

LADY PRANCELOT (IRE) (f, 3, Sir Prancelot {IRE}–Naqrah {IRE}, by Haafef), winner of one of her five starts in England, made her Stateside debut in September, finishing second in the Juvenile Fillies Turf S. at Del Mar Sept. 3 and missed by a head next out in this venue’s Surfer Girl S. Oct. 8. Failing to fire when a well-beaten 14th in the GI Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf Nov. 2 at Churchill Downs, she was fourth last time in the Blue Northern S. in Arcadia Dec. 30. Caboosing the field through early fractions of :23.17 and :46.77, the bay launched a four-wide bid turning for home. Making eye-catching progress up the outside in the lane, the 8-5 chalk spurted clear late to win by a length over Truffalino (English Channel). The winner has a juvenile half-sister by Society Rock (IRE) and a yearling half-sister by Vadamos (Fr). Sales history: €9,500 Ylg ’17 TIRSEP. Lifetime Record: 10-2-3-1, $91,341. NEW COLOSSUS (c, 4, Curlin--Stellar Atmosphere, by More Than Ready) completed the exacta in a pair of Churchill Downs tests Sept. 22 and Nov. 1, respectively, and crossed the wire second in his most recent start there Nov. 23, but disqualified and placed third for interference. Favoring at 9-5 to get the job done this time, he did not disappoint. Breaking sharply and immediately speeding clear, the bay was in a race of his own as he ticked off opening splits of :22.81 and :46.32 and cruised home to a dominant 10 1/4-length success. Tiz McNamara (Tiznow) filled the place spot. New Colossus is the first foal out of Stellar Atmosphere, who has since produced the 3-year-old gelding Quasar Moon (Orb) and a yearling filly by Palace Malice.

She was bred back to Honor Code. The winner hails from the family of MGISW multi-millionaire General Challenge (General Meeting); and GISWs Notable Career (Avenue of Flags), Evening Jewel (Northern Afleet) and Denman’s Call (Northern Afleet). Sales history: $210,000 Wlg ‘15 KEESEP; $400,000 Ylg ’16 KEESEP. Lifetime Record: 7-1-2-3, $88,910. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

REALLY PROUD (f, 4, Kitten’s Joy--Pacific Spell, by Langfuhr) graduated at fifth asking over this course and distance last February and was third next out in the track-and-trip Cedar Key S. in April. She was off the board in her next three outings, most recently finishing fourth in a local optional claimer at this venue’s $25,000 claimer Sep. 7. She went off at 14.4/1 odds in this Alw claimer event the following week and overcame a poor post position in the seven-horse field to win by a 3/4-length margin.

Stalked from second early, moving up alongside the pacesetter as they hit the half in :45.53, the chestnut took some time to unfurl her long legs, racing near the rear of the pack through a sharp first quarter in :21.88. Splitting horses in the lane, the homebred stretched her neck out just in time for a head success in a five-horse blanket finish. Favored Tap Tap Taparoo (Tapit) got her nose down for second. Really Proud is a half-sister to champion and GI Kentucky Oaks winner No Distortion and a second to champion and GI Kentucky Oaks winner No Distortion. He in turn produced SW $2,131,610, who is the dam of SW Indian Spell (Indian Charlie), heroine Proud Spell (Proud Citizen), Ch. 3yo filly, MGISW – Pacific Spell, by Langfuhr)

The 4-5 favorite took command at the top of the stretch and simply cantered clear to win as he pleased by 4 3/4 lengths over Tiz Morning (Morning Line). The winner is a half to Victor Kalejs (Spring At Last), MSW–New York S. in April. She was off the board in her next three outings, most recently finishing fourth in a local optional claimer at this venue’s $25,000 claimer Sep. 7.
