HIDDEN SCROLL IN LINE TO GIVE MOTT A FIRST FLORIDA DERBY

Hidden Scroll | Leslie Martin

by Alan Carasso

For all that he has accomplished in his Hall of Fame career, a victory in the GI Xpressbet.com Florida Derby has to this point eluded trainer Bill Mott. He has, however, sent out the runner-up on two occasions, with Blue Burner (French Deputy), a horse campaigned by long-time Mott client Kinsman Farm in 2002; and just last year with Hofburg (Tapit). The latter is owned by Prince Khalid Abdullah's Juddmonte Farms, who won the 2003 Florida Derby with future GI Kentucky Derby runner-up Empire Maker (Unbridled). Despite a fourth-place effort when last seen in the GI Xpressbet Fountain of Youth S. Mar. 2, 'TDN Rising Star' Hidden Scroll (Hard Spun)--produced by a daughter of the 2003 victor--has been made the 5-2 morning-line favorite, but it doesn't figure to come easy, if at all. Cont. p3

A SMOOTH RETURN FOR SANTA ANITA

by Bill Finley

It was a largely uneventful, lazy weekday afternoon of racing Friday at Santa Anita, exactly what the track and the sport needed.

It was the first day of racing at Santa Anita since Mar. 3 after the Arcadia, CA oval was forced to close down as officials, regulators and racing surface experts worked to find answers to what had caused 22 horses to die at the racetrack since it opened its current meet Dec. 26. To date, there have been theories concerning the rash of breakdowns, but no firm answers. Nonetheless, with track experts saying there was nothing wrong with the racing surface and with the California Horse Racing Board giving its blessing for the track to re-open, the horses returned in the afternoon Friday for an eight-race card.

There were no fatalities or reports of serious injuries suffered by any of the horses who raced. That was no doubt a great relief to The Stronach Group, which owns the racetrack, and everyone in the Southern California racing community. Another fatality could have caused irreparable harm for the track that has been in the crosshairs of animal rights activists and politicians, some of whom were questioning whether or not racing in the state should be banned. That level of anxiety won't go away quickly, but to get through one day without any problems was no doubt a relief. Cont. p10

The Juddmonte homebred, off at 8-1 in his debut on the GI Pegasus World Cup undercard Jan. 26, set lightning fractions over a sloppy strip that afternoon, but he never stopped, scoring by 14 lengths. He was set a near-impossible task in the Fountain of Youth, as he was kicked straight into the lead, was pressed along by 132-1 Gladiator King (Curlin)--recent winner of the GIII Hutcheson S.--and weakened to be fourth. Connections have tried to get him to settle and finish in his recent works, suggesting that could be ridden from off the pace this time. Javier Castellano takes over from Joel Rosario.

"I would probably have preferred to have him behind the other speed horse that was in the race, but [setting a pressured pace] was the way it turned out," Mott told the Gulfstream notes team. "We're going to play the hand that's dealt out. We hope in the next race, whatever the pace scenario may be, he's in a spot that gives him the best chance."

At a generous $21 mutuel, Will Farish's Code of Honor (Noble Mission {GB}) registered the upset in the Fountain of Youth, settling mid-field before kicking home best of all. Last year's GI Champagne S. runner-up had disappointed at 4-5 when a lackluster fourth in the Jan. 5 Mucho Macho Man S., but he was a fitter animal for his two-turn debut and proved more than equal to the task.

"I think I have a little bit more confidence [going into the Florida Derby] because I was a little bit shook after the Mucho Macho Man," trainer Shug McGaughey told the notes team. "I kind of changed my strategy and that worked, so I've kept on with it and I think he's progressing the right way."

Bourbon War (Tapit) seems to be the talking horse out of the Fountain of Youth and could well go off at odds shorter than his 7-2 morning line quote. A good-looking allowance winner Jan. 18, he raced a few spots behind Code of Honor through the middle stages of the FOY and was gaining ground through the short stretch to lose by 3/4 of a length. The $410,000 Keeneland November weanling, a son of GISW My Conquestadory (Artie Schiller), gets more ground and a longer run home as he tries to turn the tables Saturday.

Maximum Security (New Year's Day) has won his three career starts by a combined 34 1/2 lengths, albeit against considerably weaker competition and at distances between six and seven furlongs. By a GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile-winning son of a Dubai World Cup winner and out of a mare by an A.P. Indy stallion, the trip doesn't necessarily figure problematic, but can he set or attend what looks a fast pace and hold off his more seasoned rivals? That is the million-dollar question.

WATCH & WAGER ON ALL THE KENTUCKY DERBY PREPS AT TWINSPIRES!

Ed DeRosa of TwinSpires.com takes on TDN's Steve Sherack and Brian DiDonato as they handicap each prep race leading up to the GI Kentucky Derby. The three will make $100 Win/Place bets --highest bankroll after Arkansas Derby/Lexington day wins.

DiDonato: GIII Sunland Derby - Cutting Humor took more play than I would've liked, but he worked out the right trip and just held off Anothertwistafate. Don't want this Derby prep season to end--just seeing the ball very well at the moment.

Bankroll: $11,165.

GI Florida Derby - I kind of expected to go with Hidden Scroll here, but it's a bit tough to given the rail draw and speed drawn outside of him. Obviously, his new rider will be very cognizant of avoiding another duel, but it's still a tricky situation. You could certainly make the case that Bourbon War ran better than Code of Honor last time in the Fountain of Youth, and since he's the one I took last time, that's who I'll stick with. There's no reason he can't continue to improve and take another step forward.

Selection: #4 Bourbon War (7-2).

Sherack: GIII Sunland Derby - Cutting Humor really got crushed late to 2-1, but I'll certainly take it to close out a two-for-two weekend. Bankroll: $5230.

GI Florida Derby - Made my case for Bourbon War in the Fountain of Youth Throwdown and he looks very playable at hopefully a similar number here. The rapidly improving son of Tapit fell too far back for his own good that day and came with a serious late run to finish a big second, albeit with a great setup. Well drawn on the inside again, the bay should get another solid pace to close into, he just needs to sit a little closer this time around if he wants to turn the tables. Selection: #4 Bourbon War (7-2).

DeRosa: GIII Sunland Derby - Anothertwistafate was second. Bankroll: $880.

GI Florida Derby - It's difficult to disagree with the conventional wisdom when it comes to the Florida Derby that Bourbon War, Code of Honor, Hidden Scroll, and Maximum Security are the clear contenders. Of them, I most prefer Code of Honor, as he figures to get the right trip behind Hidden Scroll and Maximum Security, and I view him as most likely to move forward off the Fountain of Youth S. Bourbon War intrigues me, but much more as a Kentucky Derby threat in five weeks than here. All that said, it's impossible for me not to take a shot with the maiden Bodexpress, who stretches out to two turns for the first time following just missing in a fast maiden race. Selection: #8 Bodexpress (30-1).

CATAPULT LOOMS LARGE IN KILROE MILE

by Alan Carasso

Saturday's rescheduled GI F. E. Kilroe Mile S. may be short on numbers, with just six runners signed on, but it certainly does not lack for quality, with four graded winners--including two at the highest level--among the entries.

It is, however, a horse without a Grade I win to his credit to date that looks toughest of all. Woodford Racing's Catapult (Kitten's Joy) won four of 12 starts for trainer Chad Brown before joining the John Sadler barn, for which he has amassed a record of 5-2-2-0 since linking up last summer. A massive overlay when a 21-1 winner of the GII Eddie Read S. at Del Mar last July, Catapult dropped back in trip and took out the GII Del Mar Mile the following month. The dark bay beat all but Expert Eye (GB) (Acclamation {GB}) home in a boggy renewal of the GI Breeders' Cup Mile Nov. 3, but was tough to settle when last seen in the 9 1/2-furlong GI Pegasus World Cup Turf Jan. 26 and weakened to finish fourth. Cont. p6

Next Shares (Archarcharch), beaten a half-length into second in this event last year, caused a 23-1 upset in the GI Shadwell Turf Mile at Keeneland last October before finishing last but one in the Breeders' Cup Mile. He regrouped with a nose success in the GII San Gabriel S. at this venue Jan. 5, but never got untracked over yielding Gulfstream turf in the Pegasus and came home a well-beaten seventh.

River Boyme (Ire) (Dandy Man {Ire}) had his picture taken following six of his nine starts last season, including Del Mar's GIII La Jolla H. in August and the GII Twilight Derby over this course Nov. 4. Caught late by the gifted Brown trainee Raging Bull (Fr) (Dark Angel {Ire}) in the GI Hollywood Derby Dec. 1, he atoned with a smooth tally in the GII Mathis Brothers Mile Dec. 26, but was only fourth when trying elders for the first time in the GIII Thunder Road S. Feb. 9.

MARLEY'S FREEDOM IMPOSING IN BEHOLDER MILE by Alan Carasso

Victorious in six of her last seven trips to the post and arguably unlucky to have lost on that one occasion, Cicero Farms's Marley's Freedom (Blame) looks to hold all the aces in Saturday's GI Beholder Mile S. at Santa Anita.

Transferred to the Bob Baffert shedrow last May, she won her first three outings, capped by a tons-the-best 3 1/4-length tally in the GI Ballerina S. at Santa Anita Aug. 25. Saddled with a difficult draw in gate 13 for the GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint, she raced much further from the pace than is her custom, was fanned very wide into the lane and came running, but could do no better than fourth, beaten a length. Cont. p7

Stretched to Aqueduct's one-turn mile for the GIII Go For Wand H. Dec. 1, she prevailed by a hard-fought neck and most recently easily accounted for 'TDN Rising Star' Selcourt (Tiz Wonderful) and Mopotism (Uncle Mo) in the GII Santa Monica S. Feb. 16.

Like the favorite, Selcourt tries two turns for the first time in her career, although in her case, it is her first race beyond seven furlongs. The chestnut handled Marley's Freedom in the 2018 Santa Monica, but didn't see the starting gate again until the Breeders' Cup, where she finished 12th after setting the early pace. She was a disappointing second in the Jan. 13 Kalookan Queen S. and was no match for Marley's Freedom in defense of her Santa Monica title.

'TDN Rising Star' Paradise Woods (Union Rags) posted giant figures in winning the 2017 GI Santa Anita Oaks and GI Zenyatta S., but is winless in six tries since the latter event in September 2017. The bay was most recently a weakening fifth in the Santa Monica, but could improve with a stretch-out to the two turn mile.

Stetson Racing's Point of Honor (Curlin) followed up a sharp debut score in a local off-the-turfer Dec. 16 with an impressive last-to-first success in the Suncoast S. last out Feb. 9 at Tampa. The George Weaver trainee returned to her Palm Beach Downs headquarters after a few weeks off and has drilled four times, punctuated by a half-mile bullet in :49 2/5 (1/9) Mar. 8.

Also unbeaten, albeit in one outing, is Peter Brant's Dunbar Road (Quality Road). Picked up for $350,000 as a Keeneland September yearling, the bay was backed down to 8-5 favoritism debuting here Mar. 3 and ran away in the stretch to an 8 3/4-length success. The waters get much deeper here, however.

The no-show performance from champion Jaywalk (Cross Traffic) and the 51-1 upset pulled by Jeltrin (Tapizar) stole the headlines in the GII Davona Dale S. here Mar. 2, but Arindel's Cookie Dough (Brethren) ran an admirable race in her own right and is a big threat in this spot. A dominant victress of two Florida Sire stakes last September, the homebred came off a five-plus month layoff and made all the pace in the Davona Dale, putting away Jaywalk, before just getting tagged in the last jump at 13-1. Her 90 Beyer for the effort is easily tops in this crew.

Champagne Anyone (Street Sense), a troubled fourth in the GII Golden Rod S. to finish her freshman campaign, came close to a breakout score when third by less than a length in the GIII Forward Gal S. before filling the same slot in the Davona Dale. The late-running sort adds blinkers this go-around.

ECLIPSE PRIMED FOR BIG WEEKEND

By Christie DeBernardis

HALLANDALE BEACH, FL--Eclipse Thoroughbreds has a big Saturday ahead of them with four graded stakes runners across the globe, headlined by Current (Curlin) in the GI Florida Derby. They also have the undefeated Point of Honor (Curlin) in the GII Gulfstream Park Oaks, Gray Magician (Graydar) in the G2 UAE Derby and Ohio (Brz) (Elusive Quality) in the GI Frank E. Kilroe Mile at Santa Anita.

Current has done his best running on the turf so far, including a defeat of recent GIII Palm Beach S. victor A Thread of Blue (Hard Spun) in his second-out graduation on the Belmont lawn in October and a victory in the GIII Dixiana Bourbon S. at Keeneland a month later. Seventh in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Nov. 2 at Churchill Downs, the $725,000 KESEEP buy filled the same spot in his lone try on dirt in a muddy renewal of the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. beneath the Twin Spires Nov. 24. Returning to the turf at Gulfstream Feb. 3, he was third to A Thread of Blue in the Dania Beach S.

Current | Horsephotos

“His success, obviously, has come on the grass,” said Eclipse President and Founder Aron Wellman. “We did try him in the Kentucky Jockey Club. It was a really wet track that day and he had a really rough trip, so we feel as though we did not get a very accurate gauge about what his true capability would be on the dirt. He has trained well enough on the dirt at Palm Beach Downs that it is something we have had in the back of our minds. There is a little bit of a lull in the graded stakes turf program at the moment, so we thought this was a good opportunity to be able to take one more shot to see if he could rise to a proper level on the dirt.”

Current won't have it easy in the Florida Derby, which has attracted a full field of 11, including GII Fountain of Youth S. top two Code of Honor (Noble Mission {GB}) and Bourbon War (Tapit), as well as 'TDN Rising Star' Hidden Scroll (Hard Spun).

“It is not light on competition or quality,” Wellman said. “This race is right in our backyard and we have a good draw, we think. On the inside, going two turns at Gulfstream, is a pretty favorable position to be in. Our secondary plan was running in the [GII Toyota] Blue Grass, where we would have to ship and were unsure of what the weather would be like or our draw. So, we thought it was probably in the horse’s best interest to stay here. At the end of the day, it is going to boil down to, whether Current is good enough to compete on the dirt at this level.”

Point of Honor, on the other hand, is already two-for-two on dirt. Eclipse bought into the filly after her six-length debut romp going 1 1/16 miles at Gulfstream Dec. 16 and she followed that up with a decisive score in the Suncoast S. at Tampa Feb. 9.

Point of Honor | SV Photography

“We are very excited about her coming into this race,” Wellman said. “We knocked out a plan with Mr. [John] Connelly [of Stetson Racing] and George Weaver, which included the first step in the Suncoast S. and we were very please with that effort. We have given her gracious spacing between her races, which we think she will benefit from. We are looking forward to a big performance from her tomorrow.”

Point of Honor is the likely favorite in Saturday’s GI Kentucky Oaks qualifier, but she will have to contend with a good-looking maiden winner from the Chad Brown barn in Dunbar Road (Quality Road).

“Again it is a really nice group of fillies,” Wellman said. “Chad’s Quality Road filly, Dunbar Road, could be any kind. The fact that Chad decided to shift gears and push her up a week says a lot about what he thinks about that filly and how well she must be training.”

He continued, “We have a lot of confidence in Point of Honor. She is doing well and we have conviction that she is a really, really high quality filly. Again, it will really be a matter of her going out, executing the game plan and proving she is a high-caliber filly capable of earning her way into the Kentucky Oaks.”

It has already been a good week for Curlin with one of his 2-year-old sons topping the Fasig-Tipton Gulfstream sale Wednesday at $3.65 million and Wellman, who campaigned MGISW Curalina (Curlin) in the Eclipse colors, said he hopes that will continue.

“We are big fans of the sire and it is an honor associated with these animals with a filly in the Gulfstream Park Oaks and a colt in the Florida Derby” Wellman said.

Across the globe in Dubai on what is one of the biggest nights of racing, Eclipse will be represented by Gray Magician in the UAE Derby, which also offers points towards the Run for the Roses. Graduating by 9 1/2 lengths in his fourth attempt at Del Mar Nov. 24, the gray was fourth in the GIII Sham S. Jan. 5 and was off the board in a Jan. 31 optional claimer, but finished second last time in Laurel’s Miracle Wood S.

“He is a little bit more under the radar, but he is a colt that we have always been very high on,” Wellman said. “He broke his maiden very impressively and we set out on an ambitious path with him right after that. Things did not go all that well for him, but he still did not disgrace himself. There were some hidden good numbers and good races that he ran.”

As for why they chose Dubai, Wellman said, “He is right now just a cut below what it would take to consider a major Derby prep, so with that in mind, we decided to make a road warrior out of him and go for the ultimate money run to Dubai to try to get a piece of this $2.5 million pot they have up for grabs over there. He is a very talented horse. Whether he sees out the 1 3/16-mile trip is a bit of a mystery. He is also a very hot-blooded individual, so it will be interesting to see whether or not he handles the desert heat and all of the elements that go along with the World Cup night extravaganza. We think we brought a horse capable of making his presence felt for sure.”

On re-opening weekend at Santa Anita, Eclipse will send out the first horse they ever claimed, Ohio, in the Kilroe Mile. Picked up out of a $50,000 claimer in June, the gelding won at that level next out at Del Mar, captured a stakes race at Turf Paradise and placed in a pair of graded events in California.

"Ohio is a horse hard not to love," Wellman said. "He actually became the first ever claim for Eclipse. It is not our typical method of acquiring racehorses, but he is a horse, who, ever since coming from South America to California, I've had my eye on. In fact, after the first or second time that he ever ran in the States, I did offer quite a healthy sum of money to acquire him privately, but his connections at the time turned me down."

He continued, "It got to the point where they were running him for a $50,000 tag. I huddled up with Michael McCarthy and Bruce Treitman, a partner of ours, who does acquire some horses via the claim box, and we decided to take the plunge. Michael has done exceptional job resuscitating Ohio. He has been a lot of fun and has been a high class horse. We are really looking forward to running him in a Grade I. He has paid his way and then some and hopefully [Saturday] will be the icing on the cake."

Wellman will be in Hallandale Beach for Current and Point of Honor's race, while some other members of the Eclipse team will be in attendance in Dubai and California.

"I stayed after the [Fasig-Tipton] sale on Wednesday," Wellman said. "It was sort of a last minute audible to run Current here, but we were always aiming for the Oaks for Point of Honor, so I was going to stay for her no matter what. We have representation in Dubai, which is fantastic, and the folks out in California will be there for Ohio, so we have all our bases covered. Hopefully, we can find our way to the winner's circle in one of these big races and provide our partners with the thrill they deserve."

"People asked me after the card if I was excited," said The Stronach Group's COO Tim Ritvo. "For me, there was not an ounce of excitement. It was much more relief."

It was clear this was no ordinary day at the track the moment Santa Anita opened up for morning training. Ritvo said there were 10 TV trucks parked near Clocker's Corner to record the morning activity and, he said, "waiting for something to happen." Several of the TV crews remained throughout the day.

There was also a small group of protestors that positioned themselves outside the track. Ritvo estimated they numbered about 25.

"They didn't stay long and they didn't cause any problems," he said.

In an effort to reduce the use of medications and, hopefully, make racing safer, Santa Anita had announced a series of new rules, which included a ban of the whip. However, racing Friday was conducted under the exact same rules as when the track last ran. The whipping ban, though unanimously approved by the members of the CHRB, cannot go into effect until the rule winds its way through several steps necessary before it can become an actual regulation. That could take as long as nine months. Santa Anita's new house rules, most of which involved reductions in the use of medications, were not in effect because entries for the card were taken before the changes were approved by the CHRB. The new rules, which include a provision where trainers can use only half the dose of Lasix that they were formerly allowed to use, go into effect next week.

The same rules will also be in effect at Santa Anita's sister California track, Golden Gate Fields.

Santa Anita made announcements throughout the program that reminded bettors that the old whipping rules were still in effect. California riders are allowed to strike the horse three times in succession but must pause before another strike in order to give the horse a chance to respond.

Perhaps the only bad news for The Stronach Group on the day was that the handle was off significantly. When Santa Anita last ran on a Friday, Mar. 1, a nine-race card yielded $9,658,537 in handle. Only $6,476,119 was bet on Friday's eight-race card.

Yet, that was far from the most important development on a day when Santa Anita came back to life and did so without any incidents.

"Yes, we were back to work, but we were also part of a new normal," Ritvo said. "There are historical changes coming and all of us here have a chance to be part of racing history.

"I was scared. I was concerned. I had a lot of sleepless nights and there were many times I worried that this racetrack would never open again."

That didn't happen. There are 10 more races on tap for Saturday.

CONGRESSWOMAN JUDY CHU

by Bill Finley

Representing the district that includes Arcadia, California, the home of Santa Anita, Democratic Congresswoman Judy Chu has been an outspoken critic of many of the practices allowed in horse racing. She issued a statement saying she was "outraged" by the 22 deaths that occurred at the track since opening day and said she would call for a congressional committee to investigate the treatment of racehorses at race tracks throughout the country.

Chu spoke with the TDN and gave her latest thoughts on the state of horse racing, The Stronach Group's efforts to lessen the use of medications and the whipping ban that was voted on Thursday by the California Horse Racing Board.

TDN: Horse racing has had similar problems with breakdowns and fatalities at other racetracks, but never before have we seen someone in the federal government not only speak out, but speak out as forcefully, as you did. Why did this situation cause you to take action?

JC: I was following the situation through the time 21 horses had died. Then Santa Anita closed to investigate. But, when the 22nd horse died, I said, 'enough is enough.' In addition, I watched the Fox News report where the reporter just happened to be out when yet another horse broke down, broke its two front legs. They put a tent around it and they euthanized it only moments later. It was very shocking to see that. We can imagine these deaths and think about them in the abstract, but to see one like that right in front of your eyes on television was the big shocker that led me and many other to say something had to be done about this.

TDN: Did you hear from many constituents? Were people calling your office and saying "you have to do something about this"?

JC: When I made the decision to speak out on this, I actually got tremendous feedback on my social media, calls to the offices. I got a huge amount of support.

TDN: Since you first spoke up, Santa Anita has announced some significant reforms, the California Horse Racing Board has voted to outlaw whipping, so do you feel better about the sport? Are you willing to call off the wolves, so to speak?

JC: I was encouraged by the California Horse Racing Board meeting [Thursday]. I was following it closely. I felt that they took the situation quite seriously. They went beyond The Stronach Group's proposals and now they want to have the restriction on whipping state-wide. Actually, my greatest desire is to have nationwide reform, that's why I am a supporter of the Horse Racing Integrity Act. That would pave the way for there to be federal standards in place. After all, these horses are transported across state lines for races. We need national standards to make sure that all horses train and race under the safest conditions.

TDN: Considering that, so far, California is way ahead of other states when it comes to reforms, are you still considering calling for hearings in the House Energy and Commerce Committee and a federal investigation of horse racing?

JC: I am continuing my efforts to have hearings. I have submitted an official letter to the House Energy and Commerce Committee, which has jurisdiction over this. I have talked personally to the people in charge and they are quite interested in this. They know what happened at Santa Anita, and they know it wasn't just a Santa Anita problem. That's why the Horse Racing Integrity Act had been in the works and why it was re-introduced. They are very, very interested and I believe there will be some kind of hearing in the future.

TDN: What are some of your primary goals? What would you most like to achieve when it comes to various reforms involving horse racing?

JC: My main goal would be to ban race-day Lasix. The U.S. and Canada are the only two countries that allow Lasix. The U.S. is an outlier when it comes to a lack of standards. What is it that the international community knows something that the U.S. is ignoring? I think we should ban Lasix. The banning of whipping is also a huge issue. We have had the introduction of the issue, but it will have to wind its way through the process. I hope the whip ban becomes a national policy. Cont. p12

Judy Chu | Getty Images

TDN: Since the Santa Anita problems began, have you heard from any of your colleagues in Congress? Has anyone said, "You're on the right track. We need to look into this."

JC: Those people who are supporting the Horse Racing Integrity Act and members of the House Energy and Commerce Committee that oversees these horse issues, they are definitely horrified.

TDN: Santa Anita re-opened Friday. Do you believe they opened prematurely?

JC: I actually was very concerned that they opened back up. I felt that there were not enough answers yet as to why the 22 deaths occurred. On the other hand, I did talk to Belinda Stronach and others from The Stronach Group. They talked about all their proposals and I felt that they were quite serious about addressing these issues and were pushing proposals they knew would upset certain people in the industry. I really have to say that they did respond responsibly to this situation and did what they could.

TDN: While you never called for the shutdown of Santa Anita, others have and, fair or not, you were associated with the anti-racing side. Did anyone complain to you about the notion that your efforts might put a major employer in your district out of business?

JC: Nobody has said that to me. We are focused on the safety of horses. That is my main concern. I do have to say, though, that the response to this issue will play a major factor when it comes to the future of horse racing in this country.

TDN: Are you optimistic that other states will follow California's lead?

JC: One thing that gives me hope is that The Stronach Group owns tracks in other states and I believe that Belinda Stronach said that she wants to implement these rules at those other tracks. I am encouraged by that. But I think we need to push this through Congress because there are many other states involved.

TDN: One of the sad truths about horse racing is that even if you do everything one can do to make the sport as safe as possible, nobody believes you can create a situation where no horses will die. Is even one death of a horse acceptable if racing is making a good faith effort to make the sport as safe as possible?

JC: I would be heartbroken by such a death. I do have to say that I learned something from my discussions with The Stronach Group about the difference between the United States and other countries like Hong Kong. Hong Kong has a rate of .66 horses per 1,000 starters that die. In the U.S. it is two deaths per 1,000 starters. (According to Jockey Club statistics, horse fatalities in the U.S. in 2018 occurred at a rate of 1.68 per 1,000 starters). That is more than twice the level of death of horses that they have in Hong Kong? So, what is wrong with us?

TDN: The two other major thoroughbred tracks in Southern California, Del Mar and Los Alamitos, have both come out and said they have no plans to ban Lasix. Does that concern you?

JC: I think they are being insensitive and tone deaf. I am encouraged, though, that the head of the California Horse Racing Board has said he is considering enforcing the Lasix restrictions statewide.

A.P. INDY AT 30: A LIVING LEGACY

One of the most influential sires of all time, A.P. Indy turns 30 on March 31, and the TDN's Kelsey Riley was there to celebrate with him.

by Chris McGrath

How wonderful, that the heart sustaining him as he slithered from womb to foaling straw should since have pumped unflinchingly across three decades. Over 600 million times, that is, at the typical resting pulse of the Thoroughbred; never mind the drastic elevations required in, for instance, winning the 1992 GI Breeders' Cup Classic; or indeed when covering Preach, dam of Pulpit, on returning to his birthplace the following spring. But the fact is that the A.P. Indy of flesh and blood, whose 30th birthday falls this Sunday, is already immortal--both as rendered in bronze outside the Lane's End stallion barn, where he is housed to this day, and in the pages of the Stud Book.

The very expression "living legend" transcends a similar margin of mortality as the venerable old champion. Legends can't die, if they only exist in the realms of myth. But nor do stallions tend to live long enough to preside over the flowering of their influence through great-grandsons at stud. A.P. Indy, however, can be celebrated not just as the cherished creature who still lights up human lives--from Asa Haley, who has faithfully tended him daily for 15 years; to those of us privileged to crown a visit to the farm with a single, fleeting audience--but also as the fount of a vital genetic legacy.

For A.P. Indy has salvaged a sire-line that might otherwise have been all but extinguished by the proliferation of those tracing to Northern Dancer and Mr. Prospector.

It once seemed incredible that the Bold Ruler male line could ever be in peril. Through the 1970s Bold Ruler, his sons and a grandson between them accounted for seven Kentucky Derby winners: his own greatest son, Secretariat, won in 1973; Bold Commander produced Dust Commander to win in 1970; Bold Bidder came up with two winners, Cannonade in 1974 and Spectacular Bid in 1979; in 1975, along came Foolish Pleasure for What A Pleasure (though another son of Bold Ruler, Reviewer, appeared to have produced an even better 3-year-old in the filly Ruffian, favoured by their regular jockey in the tragic match race); Bold Forbes, by Irish Castle, won the 1976 running; while Boldnesian's son Bold Reasoning sired the 1977 Triple Crown winner, Seattle Slew.

Yet it is the Seattle Slew branch alone that has been able to flourish in the 21st Century, entirely thanks to the colt foaled by Weekend Surprise on Mar. 31, 1989.

In fairness, the success of A.P. Indy is doubly underpinned by Bold Ruler, as Weekend Surprise was a daughter of Secretariat. As such, she would become a key contributor to the redemption of Secretariat's reputation at stud, as a broodmare sire.

Of course Secretariat's dam, Somethingroyal, herself a conduit for one of the great distaff influences in Princequillo, also delivered Sir Gaylord, in turn responsible for mighty broodmare sires in Sir Ivor and Habitat. Sir Gaylord also sired Gay Missile--whose mating with Buckpasser, another distaff influence as good as you can get, produced the dam of Weekend Surprise, the celebrated matriarch Lassie Dear.

So it's not just about that Seattle Slew-Bold Ruler top line. Not only are A.P. Indy's first three dams by epoch-making broodmare sires in Secretariat, Buckpasser and Sir Gaylord; the first and third of those are also half-brothers, making Weekend Surprise inbred 2x4 to Somethingroyal.

Some of us, moreover, will also find comfort in the duplication of both Somethingroyal's sire Princequillo, and the sire of Sir Gaylord, Turn-to, in the top side of A.P. Indy's pedigree: their respective sons Round Table and Hail To Reason having sired two of Seattle Slew's grandparents. (Incidentally Nasrullah, already present top and bottom through his son Bold Ruler, gets an extra footprint in A.P. Indy's pedigree {taking him to 5x5x4} as damsire of one of those grandparents, Poker--who sired Seattle Slew's dam, My Charmer.) Cont. p14

A.P. Indy at Lane's End | Sarah K Andrew

Parchments of scroll, no doubt, to some of you. But even a stallion who breathes as much life into a sire-line as A.P. Indy should not benefit excessively from the industry's childish inability to distinguish between the sheer volume of genetic samples accumulated by stallions, especially in this era of appallingly large books, and their actual influence. Just because a mare is confined to one foal per annum, that does not alter the fact that her genetic contribution to every foal is exactly the same as that of her mate.

Nobody, anyhow, was blind to the significance of A.P. Indy's dam when he was presented for sale at Keeneland's great yearling sale in 1990. That's because the Grade I-placed, Grade III winner Weekend Surprise had been freshly exalted in the Preakness, only a few weeks before, when her son Summer Squall (Storm Bird) avenged his Kentucky Derby defeat by Unbridled.

(Sorry for this detour, but it's fun to note that Pleasant Tap, third in that Kentucky Derby, would eventually chase home A.P. Indy in the Breeders' Cup Classic. What a splendid horse he was, too; and what a pity his hardiness and outcross blood didn't get anything like the same traction when he accompanied A.P. Indy to Lane's End.)

Weekend Surprise's bay son, bred by Lane's End founder William S. Farish in partnership with William Kilroy, duly topped the sale when Tomonori Tsurumaki gave $2.9 million through BBA Ireland. The Japanese businessman--who had recently made an even bigger splash at auction when paying $51.3 million for Picasso's Les Noces de Pierrette, then second only to Van Gogh's $53.9 million Irises--named him A.P. Indy for the motor racing circuit, Autopolis, he was just about to launch. (With fairly catastrophic consequences, it turned out, for his solvency.)

Sent into training with Neil Drysdale in California, A.P. Indy was beaten on his Del Mar debut, after which he had surgery for an undescended testicle. (Summer Squall, incidentally, was also a ridgling.) Thereafter he quickly graduated through the later juvenile ranks--winning maiden, allowance and GI Futurity S.--and resumed seamlessly with wins in the GII San Rafael and GI Santa Anita Derby.

A raceday defection from the Kentucky Derby, with hoof problems, proved even more exasperating when he was able to win the GII Peter Pan S. just three weeks later, setting him up for the Classic he plainly merited in the GI Belmont instead. Things did not fall right in his next two starts, but he produced a fitting finale at the Breeders' Cup--exhibiting that trademark air of fluid, effortless commitment--to be confirmed not only champion colt of his generation but also Horse of the Year.

As we know, that kind of first career offers a horse no guarantees for his second. Before he was pensioned in 2011, however, A.P. Indy sired 693 winners from 947 starters--including 94 at graded stakes level, and 29 at Grade I--for an overall ratio of 13% stakes winners. From 18 crops, at an average book of just 68, he produced a dozen champions, and his latest credits as an outstanding broodmare sire (unsurprising, given his family) are none other than Game

A.P. Indy winning the Peter Pan | Horsephotos

Winner (Candy Ride {Arg}) and Improbable (City Zip).

But it is through his sons, and now grandsons, that A.P. Indy has truly set himself apart. He accounted for three of the top dozen American stallions of 2018, in Tapit (by his son Pulpit), Flatter and Malibu Moon; other high achievers include sons Bernardini (who has himself made an exceptional start as a broodmare sire), Mineshaft, Congrats and leading regional sires Jump Start and Friesan Fire; grandsons like the promising Dialed In (Mineshaft) and Orb (Malibu Moon), or the deplorably under-rated Sky Mesa (Pulpit); plus now great-grandsons like Tapizar and Trappe Shot, among the first of many now bidding to establish Tapit as a sire of sires.

And there's a whole lot still to come: Honor Code, from A.P. Indy's final crop, is now standing at Lane's End himself; likewise grandsons Mr Speaker (Pulpit) and West Coast (Flatter) and great-grandson Tonalist (Tapit). Then there's California Chrome (Lucky Pulpit) starting out at Taylor Made; Lord Nelson (Pulpit) at Spendthrift; and Commissioner, another of the patriarch's last sons, at WinStar; and others besides.

The popularity of this dynasty reflects the balance A.P. Indy has been able to achieve between his own two-turn success--drawing upon strong reserves of Classic blood--and the kind of speed associated above all with Mr. Prospector, whose daughters gave him graded stakes winners at a clip of 12%. These included Macoumba, Prospectors Delite, Praise and Preach, who respectively produced Pulpit, Mineshaft, Flatter (also full brother Congrats) and Malibu Moon. Bernardini, moreover, is out of a daughter of Mr. P's grandson Quiet American. Cont. p15

Honor Code and Jump Start, meanwhile, are out of mares by another source of dash in Storm Cat. Admittedly the latter is a terrific broodmare sire, period; and likewise Deputy Minister, who sired the dam of A.P. Indy's greatest race filly, Rags To Riches. All in all, however, with much of this we're looking at the sort of balance that promises the ultimate grail of dirt racing: the ability to carry speed.

A.P. Indy | Horsephotos

Now, personally, I don't buy into synergies of entire sire-lines quite the way some people do. There have been enough dud siblings to champions to show that it's hard enough to get just two coins to land the same way twice running, never mind all the others thrown into the air alongside. If Seattle Slew and Mr. Prospector work so well together, I don't see how we can be certain that this is about the Bold Ruler and Native Dancer lines--any more, for instance, than we can credit it definitively to the fact that Myrtlewood is fifth dam of Seattle Slew, and fourth dam of Mr. Prospector.

Okay, so that's ancient history again: Myrtlewood beat Seabiscuit in Detroit in 1936. But it's a free country. You can credit Pulpit's importance to alchemy between sire-lines, if you like; or you can simply note that there is barely a sire in his first five generations, top to bottom, lacking historic resonance. Until we can trace all the different attributes of a champion through his pedigree, like a dye, at least we know there's hardly a strand in this twine that wouldn't be entitled to bring the critical ones through.

Whichever way you look at it, you can hardly fail to be excited by the possibility of A.P. Indy having saved the best until last. Honor Code has none other than Serena's Song (Rahy) in the parallel slot to Lassie Dear, in his top and bottom maternal lines; and, while we've just noted that he's out of a Storm Cat mare, it was mating Serena's Song with the usual suspect, Mr. P, that produced Honor Code's grand-dam.

Honor Code's first crop had an eerily familiar stamp, and proved in corresponding demand at the sales. So far, so good, albeit there's naturally still a long way to go. But then that's been the thing about A.P. Indy since that day, 30 years ago, when his gawky limbs sloughed into the straw in a sac of lifeblood. By a Triple Crown winner, out of the daughter of a Triple Crown winner, he has done exactly what he was bred to do: Horse of the Year, founder of a dynasty.

Just as well, for the mystique (and therefore the sustainability) of our business, that not every sale-topper goes ahead and does something like that. At the same time, we do need enough of them to make sense of the market's valuations.

So if extra champagne has been laid in at Lane's End, where the team strikes such an expert balance between commercial realities and the genetic family silver of the Classic racehorse, then we should all join the same toast.

And that's to Mr. Farish, who turned 80 just a few days ago; to the farm he opened at 40; and to the horse who has become both source and symbol for so much that it stands for.

A first out-winner at Santa Anita in January 2018, Epical endured a roller coast ride throughout the remainder of the season. Gelded after a pair of forgettable starts early on, he returned with an improved second at Del Mar in July. Off the board in both the GII Del Mar Derby and GII Twilight Derby last fall, he gained confidence with a subsequent pair of optional claiming scores; the first going 11 furlongs at Del Mar Nov. 15 followed by a front-running win at nine panels over this course Dec. 28. Changing up tactics for his latest, the gelding came from just off the pace to finish a close-up second in the 10-furlong GII San Marcos S. Feb. 9.

Well supported while trying to break through with his first black-type win, Epical took charge from his inside draw and led the way over Markie's Water through reasonable opening splits of :24.47 and :48.56. Remaining clear of that rival after a mile in 1:37.57, he kicked into another gear turning for home and had enough of a cushion to fend off the closing second choice Beach View. Markie's Water held on for third. The 5-2 third choice Ashleyvssugar (Game Plan) finished last of five.

Pedigree Notes:

Epical is the 23rd winner for his popular sire. He hails from a deep Sam-Son family that includes fellow long-winded standouts like MGISW/MGISP Strut the Stage (Theatrical {Ire}); British MGSW/GISP Sacred Song (Diesis {GB}) and her French and British GSW son Multidimensional (Ire) (Danehill); MGSW Aldous Snow (Theatrical {Ire}); Canadian Horse of the Year and GI Breeders' Cup Turf hero Chief Bearhart (Chief's Crown); and GISW Explosive Red (Explodent). He has a 2-year-old half-sister named Indelliby (To Honor and Serve) and a yearling half-brother by Oxbow.

Cognizant of the fact that he was on the classiest animal in Friday's GIII Orchid S. at Gulfstream Park, Irad Ortiz, Jr. allowed Santa Monica to cover a bunch of extra ground on the last of three turns, but she laid her body down in the final furlong and grabbed fellow European import Ickymasho right on the money for her third stateside score.

Drawn widest in the field of nine, the prohibitive post-time favorite found herself in midfield upon settling, but eventually drifted back to lob along from third last for the opening four furlongs. Quietly ridden with cover for the run around the second turn, she was eased out into the clear with about five furlongs to travel and was asked to pick it up a bit leaving the three-eighths pole. Content to race widest of all on that final bend, Santa Monica nevertheless had the leaders in sight while five deep at the quarter pole, gradually worked her way up to Ickymasho--who grabbed command from Giant Zinger at the furlong grounds--and managed to stick her head across the line first despite traveling 23 feet further than the runner-up.

“I didn’t have too many choices by the three-eighths pole,” the Eclipse Award-winning rider said. “Nobody on the inside moved, so I had to keep her outside. I had to move early and wide, but I had the best horse in the race. They were going slow in front, so I knew I had to go early.”

A Group 3 winner in Europe when under the care of Charles O’Brien, Santa Monica won two from six last season for Chad Brown, including the GII Dance Smartly S. at Woodbine, and was third in that track’s GI E.P. Taylor S. Well-beaten in the GI Breeders’ Cup Filly & Mare Turf, she was a $675,000 RNA at the Keeneland November Breeding Stock sale and was having her final start for Mrs. John Magnier, Madaket Stable and Deron Pearson when second as the 2-1 favorite in the GIII La Prevoyante S. over yielding turf Jan. 26.

Pedigree Notes:

Santa Monica is a maternal granddaughter of SW & MGSP Palace Street, dam of champion English sprinter and G1SW Sakhee’s Secret (GB) (Sakhee), SW Palace Moon (GB) (Fantastic Light) and MSW Palace Affair (GB) (Pursuit of Love {GB}). Zacchera is the dam of a 2-year-old colt by the pensioned Harbour Watch (Ire) and a yearling full-sister to Santa Monica.

Dr. Edgar earned his black-type badge with a front-running score in the GIII Appleton S. Seizing the early advantage, the bay coasted along, setting comfortable early fractions of :24.29 and :47.87. Confronted by Holiday Stone (Harlan's Holiday) and Uncle B (Zensational on the backstretch, he edged clear of those rivals in mid-stretch and had just enough to hold off a late rally from 'TDN Rising Star' Hawkish.

“I thought he’d lay second all the way around and hopefully win,” winning trainer Barclay Tagg said. “He went right to the front and opened up a little on the backside--I got a little worried then. Julien [Leparoux] gave him a little breather and went on to win it. He’s knows the horse and he’s an excellent rider.”

Previously trained by Carl Domino, Dr. Edgar has only been worse than second once since transferring to Tagg. A neck second in his debut for this barn at Belmont in July, he crossed the line first, but was disqualified and placed second next out at Saratoga Aug. 26. A dominant winner over a yielding mile back in Elmont Sept. 16, the gelding finished sixth in his seasonal bow over this course Jan. 6, but rebounded with a two-length score here Feb. 22.

Pedigree Notes:

Dr. Edgar is the 24th graded winner and 42nd black-type winner for his sire Lookin at Lucky, who had a banner year in 2018 thanks to the efforts of champion Accelerate. The winner is the first foal out of Sennockian Storm, who produced fillies by Ordained (Pulpit--People's Princess) in 2017 and 2018.

NY STATE GAMING COMMISSION ISSUES BISPHOSPHONATE ADVISORY WARNING

Racing at Aqueduct | Sarah K Andrew

Thoroughbred horse owners, trainers and/or veterinarians who are responsible for causing or failing to guard against an administration of a bisphosphonate to a racehorse less than four years old will be investigated and could be subject to fines of $25,000 and license revocation in New York State, according to a release issued by the New York State Gaming Commission.

"The New York State Gaming Commission has determined that there is no generally accepted medical use of a bisphosphonate in a racehorse that is less than four years old; that bisphosphonates are 'other doping agents' within the meaning of the rule, and that any such administration shall violate the rule," read the release.

The advisory said that the rule applies to any Thoroughbred horse engaged in activities, including training, related to competing in parimutuel racing in New York. This includes without limitation any horses that are training outside the jurisdiction to participate in racing in New York who subsequently race in New York and all horses that are training in the jurisdiction.

The rule also covers unintentional administration of the drug; and "any violation of this rule shall result in exclusion of the horse from racing and the license revocation of any responsible person," the release said.

The Gaming Commission issued a separate general advisory in which equine medical director Scott Palmer recommended that no bisphosphonate be administered to a racehorse under four years old, and that such treatment is not a generally accepted veterinary practice.

AAEP'S BERK MAKES BISPHOSPHONATES STATEMENT

Dr. Jeff Berk, President of the American Association of Equine Practitioners, issued the following statement Friday afternoon in response to the announcement earlier this week that the three major U.S. sales companies will offer buyers the choice to test purchases for bisphosphonates and rescind sales for positive tests:

"The American Association of Equine Practitioners endorses the decision made by the Keeneland Association, Fasig-Tipton and Ocala Breeders' Sales Company to offer post-sale bisphosphonate testing on horses under four years of age. This is one facet of what we hope will be a multi-pronged effort within the Thoroughbred industry to address the misuse of these drugs in young horses.

"Additionally, it should be remembered that bisphosphonates have been approved by the Food and Drug Administration for therapeutic use in horses for certain conditions. It is the misuse of these products that is in question, not the drugs themselves.

"While addressing this issue, it is important to remember that we do not know the extent of the use of these products in young horses and do not wish to impugn the integrity of an entire industry based upon anecdotal information.

The AAEP supports the use the FDA-approved bisphosphonate products according to manufacturer labeling and does not condone their use in horses under the age of four."

HOMELAND SECURITY WILL ALLOCATE 30,000 MORE H-2B VISAS

Edited press release from the NTRA

The U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) earlier today communicated to Congressional offices that it would allocate 30,000 additional H-2B visas for the current fiscal year that concludes on September 30, 2019. This nonimmigrant visa program is used by many industries that need temporary non-agricultural help when domestic workers are unavailable. For the horse racing industry, racehorse trainers rely heavily on the H-2B program to fill various backside positions.

"We applaud Homeland Security Secretary Nielsen for her decision to allocate an additional 30,000 H-2B visas for the remainder of fiscal year 2019," said NTRA President and CEO Alex Waldrop. "This will provide relief to horse trainers desperate to hire foreign workers for backstretch positions that U.S. citizens are not filling. While the number is probably not sufficient to meet the demand, it is decidedly better than the 15,000 additional H-2B visas issued in the last two fiscal years."

Below is the complete statement from DHS:

The H-2B nonimmigrant visa program allows U.S. employers who meet specific statutory and regulatory requirements to bring foreign nationals to the United States to fill temporary non-agricultural jobs. There is a statutory cap on the total number of foreign nationals who may be issued an H-2B visa or otherwise granted H-2B status during a fiscal year. Under section 214(g)(1)(B) and 214(g)(10) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended (INA), Congress has set the H-2B cap at 66,000 per fiscal year, with a maximum of 33,000 available during the first half of any given fiscal year and 33,000 for workers who begin employment in the second half of the fiscal year.

Section 105 of Div. H of Public Law 116-6, the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2019, was signed into law by the President on February 15, 2019. This fiscal year, for the third year in a row, Congress delegated to the Secretary of Homeland Security the authority to allocate visas above the 66,000 cap if the Secretary determines, after consultation with the Secretary of Labor, that the needs of American businesses could not be satisfied with U.S. workers who are willing, qualified, and able to perform temporary nonagricultural labor.

After consultation with Secretary Acosta and carefully weighing several factors, including whether U.S. workers may be harmed, and impact statements from your constituents, Secretary Nielsen has decided to allocate an additional 30,000 H-2B visas for the remainder of fiscal year 2019. Further, this supplemental visa allocation will be available only to applicants who have held H-2B status in at least one of the past three fiscal years (2016, 2017 and 2018). Details on eligibility and filing requirements will be available in the temporary final rule and on uscis.gov when the final temporary rule is posted for public inspection.

TICKETS UP FOR GRABS APR. 8 FOR MAKER'S MARK BOTTLE

A bottle signing for this year's commemorative Maker's Mark® bourbon bottle will take place at Keeneland Race Course's Keene Barn on the morning of Friday, April 12. Anyone wanting to attend must first get a ticket online at www.keeneland.com/makers-mark-bottle-signing after first creating an account. The free tickets will become available online at 8:30 a.m. Monday, April 8.

The fifth and final commemorative Maker's Mark® bourbon bottle in the series features the 2011-12 University of Kentucky men's basketball national championship team led by John Calipari, which brought the title home to the Bluegrass for the first time in 14 seasons. Bottles will go on sale at retail outlets in Kentucky April 5.

The sale of the bottles benefits UK's Center for Academic and Tutorial Services (CATS). "Education is at the heart of everything we do as an athletics department," Athletics Director Mitch Barnhart said. "In order to continue and build on the work CATS does to serve student-athletes and position them for academic success, we must innovate. This partnership helps provide the resources to allow us to do exactly that."

The goal of UK Athletics' partnership with Maker's Mark and Keeneland is to raise $2 million for the CATS through the companies' own contributions and from a portion of the proceeds of sales of special commemorative bottles of the distillery's handmade bourbon.

The first four commemorative bottles in the series honored the program's first seven national championships, with this year's bottle completing the set.

FINAL DATES AND FUNDING APPROVED FOR SUFFOLK DOWNS

With dates approved and purses funded, East Boston’s Suffolk Downs will conduct its final season of live racing in the coming months. The Massachusetts Gaming Commission approved six live dates in 2019: May 18-19, June 8-9, and June 29-30. In addition, purse funding of $3.8 million from Massachusetts’ Racehorse Development Fund was approved, making average daily purse distribution over $600,000 daily.

As additional incentives to horsemen, Suffolk Downs will also offer a program to owners and trainers to help offset shipping and travel costs. There will also be stakes races restricted to Massachusetts-bred and -sired runners.

Live racing at the historic facility will cease after June 30. In 2017, Sterling Suffolk Racecourse, the company who operates racing and simulcasting at Suffolk Downs, sold the property to HYM Investment Group, a real estate developer.

“We are looking forward to celebrating the rich tradition of Suffolk Downs with racing fans for one final season here as we pursue the plan to preserve Thoroughbred racing and its associated agribusiness and economic benefits in the Commonwealth by restoring the racing facility at Great Barrington,” said Chip Tuttle, chief operating officer at Suffolk Downs. “We appreciate the support of the Massachusetts Gaming Commission in granting our dates and purse funding requests.”

RETIRED RACEHORSES ON DISPLAY AT CARMA SHOW

The Thoroughbred Classic Horse Show (TCHS), held Mar. 23-24 at Galway Downs near Temecula, CA, and hosted by California Retirement Management Account (CARMA), drew 96 entries. Began as an awareness campaign to highlight the adoption of off-track Thoroughbreds, the show offers classes in hunters, jumpers, cross country, dressage, barrel racing, pole bending, lead line, and showmanship.

“We’ve been putting on these shows for seven years now, and we’re really starting to see resurgence of the breed in the show ring,” said Lucinda Lovitt-Mandella, executive director of CARMA. “Multiple exhibitors and spectators asked us how they can adopt very recently retired racehorses. The interest in the Thoroughbred as a sport horse and companion is growing.”

The next TCHS event will be held Dec. 7-8 at the Los Angeles Equestrian Center near Burbank.

SIGNAL TAP DIES by Diego Mittagstein

Signal Tap (Fappiano--South Sea Dancer, by Northern Dancer) died earlier this week at Haras Santa Maria de Araras in Brazil. He was 28 years old.

Bred by Will Farish in partnership with E. J. Hudson and W.S. Kilroy, Signal Tap, a $390,000 purchase out of the 1992 Keeneland July Sale by Centennial Farm, was trained by Scotty Schulhofer and posted his biggest career victories in the GIII Hialeah Turf Cup and GIII Bougainvillea H. He was also third in the GI Man O’ War S. and retired with seven wins from 25 career starts.

Signal Tap entered stud at Questroyal Stud in New York and from his third U.S. crop, was responsible for Got Koko, winner of the 2002 GI La Brea S. Once relocated to Julio Bozano’s stud in Brazil, he sired an additional 12 graded winners, six at the Group 1 level. He is the sire of 20 black-type winners to date overall.

This former $2-million KEESSEP yearling purchase Marconi has always carried high hopes and seemed headed in the right direction when breaking his maiden in his second start going 1 1/8 miles in December of his 2-year-old year, garnering 'TDN Rising Star' status. Embarking on the Derby trail last year, he notched a third in the GIII Withers S., but it led to off-the-board finishes in the GII Fountain of Youth and the GII Blue Grass S. It was 10 months before he reemerged, finishing fourth going a mile over this track in a Feb. 6 allowance.

With the cobwebs duly shaken off and the added distance here, Marconi settled resentfully just off the leaders, fighting his rider a bit early but eventually settling into a loose, easy stride.

Marconi | Leslie Martin

Marconi stayed outside and was roused vigorously coming off the turn. He had to work to get his momentum going, but he did late and showed grit to dig in and pass the top pair.

"He's been training well. We were optimistic coming in," winning trainer Todd Pletcher said. "We always felt like the longer the better for him. He had a little time to mature. He's a big horse and we always felt like he'd get better with a little time. We were hoping he would show up and deliver the type of performance he's been showing in the morning. It was nice to see."

Only minimal blacktype appears in Marconi's family until his own dam, a Santa Anita stakes winner, began throwing blacktype foals with ease. In addition to Marconi and her Breeders' Cup -winning son Mucho Macho Man, she has two more stakes horses. She sold in foal to Distorted Humor at the 2014 Keeneland January sale for $775,000 as a 15-year-old mare. Her last foal is the 2-year-old American Citizen (American Pharoah), who sold for $80,000 at last year's Keeneland September sale. She died in 2018. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

BANO SOLO (c, 3, Goldencents--Royale Paradise, by Unbridled's Song) was disappointing in a pair of attempts since his 'TDN Rising Star'-worthy debut last June at Churchill Downs. The GIII Sanford S. at Saratoga July 21 saw him weaken to fourth before being put on the shelf. Reemerging Feb. 24 over this course and distance, he set the early pace before giving way to finish sixth. Off at just over 5-2 here to recapture his winning ways, he sped out of the gate and joined three others in scrambling for the lead. Never more than a length back, he tackled the leader coming off the turn and set sail for home with former stablemate One Man Party (Shackleford) stiffly challenging him on the outside. With his flashy blaze inching away late, Bano Solo prevailed by a hard-fought half-length. The winner's unraced dam is a daughter of 2009 GII Barbara Fritchie H. victress Royale Michele (Elusive Quality), who sold the next year at Keeneland November for $700,000 while carrying Royale Paradise. In addition to Bano Solo, the latter has a 2-year-old colt by Carpe Diem, who sold for $150,000 at Fasig-Tipton Kentucky's July sale last year. She has a 2019 filly by Violence at her side. ROUTE SIX SIX (r, 4, Quality Road--Polyester, by Tiz Wonderful) was the least experienced runner in this field and the only one fresh off a maiden win. The bay had put in some good efforts, all at Santa Anita, but that first win had remained elusive until he spent nine months on the shelf and reappeared Dec. 31 in his first try over this distance. He dueled that day, scoring that first victory by a hard-fought and game head. On the sidelines again for the last three months, Route Six Six showed no evidence of rust and was sent straight to the front. Pestered from the start by Shane Zain (Medaglia d'Oro), he shook off that rival in the stretch and powered clear over a hard-trying California Journey (Good Journey) to hold a three-quarter length advantage. He paid $9.20 for the win. The first foal for his dam, Route Six Six has a juvenile half-sister by Discreet Cat and a yearling full-sister. The mare was bred back to Practical Joke. Sales History: $200,000 Ylg '16 KEESEP; $340,000 2yo '17 OBSMAR. ALKHAATAM (c, 4, Tapit--Firdaws {G1SP-Eng}, by Mr. Greeley), a well-beaten fourth at odds of 2-1 as a maiden in Catholic Boy (More Than Ready)'s GII Remsen S., was last seen finishing third going seven furlongs at Saratoga in August. Making his first attempt for Dan Peitz off the long layoff here, the 5-2 shot forced the early issue from the inside as three of them lined up. In hand at the top of the stretch, the handsome gray took off from there under minimal urging to win by a good-looking 7 1/4 lengths. Favored Zip Your Lip (City Zip) was second. Firdaws had a colt by War Front in 2018 and was bred back to leading sire Tapit. The winner's second dam is G1 Epsom Oaks heroine Eswarah (GB). Lifetime Record: 4-1-0-2, $84,200. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton. O-Shadwell Stable; B-Shadwell Farm, LLC (KY); T-Daniel C. Peitz.

SOUTH OF THE SHORE (f, 4, Union Rags--South Shore, by Arch) completed the exacta behind three subsequent stakes winners in her first three career starts, but hadn't been seen since finishing a distant second behind GII Gulfstream Park Oaks heroine Coach Rocks (Oxbow) in a two-turn maiden special weight at Gulfstream back on Feb. 14, 2018. Off as the 8-5 second-choice to fire fresh off the bench here, she saved ground while chasing on the inside from third. The dark bay tipped out three deep off the turn for home and leveled off nicely down the stretch to graduate by two lengths over favored Mo Moxie (Uncle Mo). South Shore is also represented by a 3-year-old colt named Shore Magic (Medaglia d'Oro) and a 2-year-old filly by Summer Front. She had a colt by Union Rags this year. 5th-Santa Anita, $56,404, Msw, 3-29, 3yo/up, 6f, 1:11.53, ft. OGGONIS (c, 3, Animal Kingdom--Art Teacher, by Master Command) was working steadily since December for this debut and went to the gate with blinkers, a 5-1 price, and a five-pound allowance for his apprentice rider, Assael Espinoza. He broke well and was kept in the early flight of horses throughout the strung-out field. A loose-on-the-lead frontrunner was the target and Oggonis stayed on his wrong lead until late stretch, when he finally succeeded in reeling in the leader and flew by late under wraps to score by 1 3/4 lengths. Beleth (Medaglia d'Oro) closed belatedly for second. Hot firster Rafal (Alpha), off as the 2-5 favorite from the Bob Baffert barn, tired to third after setting a swift early pace. The winner's dam Art Teacher, a half-sister to Grade II winner Indian Firewater (Indian Charlie), has juvenile filly Art Aficionado (Will Take Charge), who sold for $140,000 at Keeneland September last year. Oggonis was the most expensive of 43 yearlings by Animal Kingdom sold when bringing $750,000 at FTSAUG from Larry Best's OXO Equine in 2017. The mare has a yearling colt by Carpe Diem and was last bred to American Pharoah. Sales History: $110,000 Wlg '16 KEENOV; $750,000 Ylg '17 FTSAUG. ALL EYES ON DUBAI EXTRAVAGANZA

Almond Eye kicks off what could be an international campaign in Saturday's G1 Dubai Turf | racingfotos.com

By Kelsey Riley

The racing world's eyes once again turn to Meydan on Saturday for the 23rd running of the Dubai World Cup. The world's richest race, however, is far from the sole attraction on the card, with the $35-million up for grabs across nine races ensuring that some of the best horses from all corners of the globe have flocked to the desert.

The night's most major attraction may just be the Japanese superstar filly Almond Eye (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}) in the $6-million G1 Dubai Turf, but formidable foes from Europe, Hong Kong and the UAE will do their best to ensure her task is not easy. Godolphin's Royal Ascot-winning sprinter Blue Point (Ire) (Shamardal) looks to have a stranglehold on the G1 Al Quoz Sprint, while the same stable's 2018 G1 Melbourne Cup victor Cross Counter (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) makes his eagerly awaited return in the night's first Thoroughbred race, the G2 Dubai Gold Cup. Yet another favourite for Charlie Appleby is the 3-year-old filly Divine Image, who looks to stamp herself as the next great Scat Daddy with another win over the colt's in the G2 UAE Derby.

The card builds to a crescendo, with the 13-horse Dubai World Cup bringing it to a close.

GOESBRIDGE RELEASES CATALOGUE

The catalogue is online for the Tattersalls Ireland Goresbridge Breeze-Up Sale on May 24, with 211 2-year-olds set for Ireland's only breeze-up sale. After a decade of sustained growth, the sale did well last year to consolidate its figures from 2018 and realize a record high price of €315,000 for a daughter of Frankel (GB), subsequently named East (GB) and winner of the G3 Prix Thomas Byron and runner-up to Newspaperofrecord (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) in the G1 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf.

For the first time, Tattersalls Ireland throws its weight behind the progressive sale, and the graduates of 2019 have plenty to live up to. In addition to East, Goresbridge's recent standouts on the racecourse include smart Sha Tin handicap winner Dan Control (Ire) (Slade Power {Ire}); Hong Kong Derby third Sunny Speed (GB) (Havana Gold {Ire}) and last November's Listed Bosra Sham Fillies' S. winner Angelic Light (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}).

The breeze show will be held on May 23 at 12 p.m. at Fairyhouse racecourse, with selling starting at 10 a.m. the following day.

All Eyes On Dubai Extravaganza cont. from p1

The race has a cosmopolitan history that is once again reflected in this year's lineup, with a strong local contingent backed up by intriguing contenders from America and the East. Defending winner Thunder Snow (Ire) (Helmet {Aus}) has prepared for his tilt at a repeat in similar fashion to last year, by finishing runner-up in the G1 Al Maktoum Challenge R3. Whereas the Saeed bin Suroor trainee, who is drawn out in 12, was making the third start of his campaign on Super Saturday last year, he was first-up three weeks ago and connections were taking plenty of positives from his second to the runaway winner Capezzano (Bernardini).

"This has been his target since the Breeders' Cup in November," bin Suroor said. "The plan was always to wait for Super Saturday, when he pleased us to put him spot on for Saturday. We have been very pleased with his work and he is in great form. We would have preferred a lower draw but he was drawn wide last year."

Christophe Soumillon pats Thunder Snow after they won last year's Dubai World Cup | Racing Post

Thunder Snow looks for his third straight win on this card, having taken the G2 UAE Derby in 2017.

The aforementioned 5-year-old gelding Capezzano has been nothing short of a revelation this season and he is to be ignored at one's peril. Three-for-three since the turn of the calendar, the Salem bin Ghadayer charge won Round 3 by 9 ½ lengths and is simply a different animal than the one that was beaten 22 lengths on this day a year ago in the G2 Godolphin Mile.

Another local commanding respect is Satish Seemar's North America (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}). The bay blew all chances in this race last year when missing the start and throwing off his front-running tactics, but he has done everything right this campaign, winning Rounds 1 and 2 of the Al Maktoum Challenge on Jan. 10 and Feb. 7.

Seemar said his team has worked with the horse this season to try their best to ensure he breaks cleanly.

"We've learned from our mistakes, and will be leaving a handler in the stalls and taking his ear plugs off," Seemar said. "We've educated him with the noise, we've taken him for schooling with the music blasting and it doesn't bother him. We've got a good draw and normally if he jumps out well it's 'catch me if you can'. Overall for his age he's quite a lightly raced horse and it's an open race."

While the American contingent lacks a real standout this year, it is not at all short of intrigue. Yoshida (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) displayed just what a Thoroughbred should be capable of last summer when collecting Grade 1s in America on both turf and dirt, and he was an admirable fourth, beaten 1 ¾ lengths, in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic. He failed to fire over the soft going as the favourite in the GI Pegasus World Cup Turf on Jan. 26, but rarely does he run a bad race.

A similar ownership group sends out Audible (Into Mischief), a Grade 1-winning 3-year-old last year who has been a shade disappointing in two starts this season, one of those, however, being in the deplorable conditions of the GI Pegasus World Cup. WinStar Farm's Elliott Walden was on hand to watch the colt train at Meydan on Friday morning, however, and he declared it was the "best I've ever seen him go."

"He went well, he looked happy. You like to see them happy and bright and it doesn't always go that way," said Walden. "When you come this far, it is a bit of relief. Hopefully he can come back to himself a little bit. His last race was disappointing, the last two races really, but hopefully he'll come back to himself here."

Chuck Fipke's Seeking The Soul (Perfect Soul) cut an admirable run through the slop to be second in the Pegasus, and the ever-consistent 6-year-old looks to go better for his owner/breeder and trainer Dallas Stewart than the Grade I-winning mare Forever Unbridled (Unbridled's Song), who was fifth last year after sitting well off the pace.

"You can't get too far behind on this track, because you're not going to make up ground and it's 'see you next year,'" Stewart said. "Forever Unbridled did not get a good trip.

"I think we're ready," Stewart said. "I like the way he's training. I like his attitude. He's very bold about himself. It's like going into a heavyweight fight. You have to be ready. You're stepping into the big arena. And, everyone is watching. You have to have the horse with the right attitude. He has the right presence about him to handle himself on the big stage. He's been on the big stage before. The Pegasus is a big stage. The Clark is a big stage. Same with the Breeders' Cup. He's a big stage horse and can prove that on one of the biggest stages Saturday."

Once the 13 runners for the World Cup, $23-million in purses will already have been distributed. Here is a race-by-race snapshot of the action.

Dubai Turf

By Emma Berry

Almond Eye (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloe {Jpn}) has added more than a dash of star appeal to this year's Dubai World Cup meeting and is understandably a red-hot favourite for the G1 Dubai Turf. The Japan Cup winner faces a threat from two of her compatriots, the 2017 winner and last year's runner-up Vivlos (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}), and Deirdre (Jpn) (Harbinger {GB}), who was third 12 months ago.

Both Almond Eye and Vivlos have French jockeys on board-- Christophe Lemaire and Mickael Barzalona respectively--while Brazilian Joao Moreira will replace Lemaire on Deirdre.

Dream Castle (GB) (Frankel {GB}) has been spotless in three starts at Meydan through the carnival and will bid to give Saeed Bin Suroor and Godolphin back-to-back wins in the Turf.

"He has done nothing but improve this year and is showing the kind of form we always believed him capable of. Saturday's race is his toughest yet but we are very happy with him," said Bin Suroor.

Dream Castle had the measure of the Charlie Appleby-trained Wootton (Fr) (Wootton Bassett {GB}) in the G1 Jebel Hatta on Super Saturday and the pair will face off once more, with the fourth place in that race, Century Dream (Ire) (Cape Cross {Ire}), taking his place in the field for Simon Crisford.

“Frankel has 34.4% 95+ runs and an average speed figure of 82.0. He’s in a class of his own; at a guess, probably his own sire, Galileo, would be the only sire with similar numbers if we could go back that far.

“But his metrics are mostly in the superstar sire category: 9% GSW foals in his first three crops. But what is absolutely beyond dispute is that as a sire he has what we could say is the highest ‘cruising speed’ ever.”

John and Tanya Gunther's homebred Without Parole (GB) (Frankel {GB}) has already proved his talent with his G1 St James's Palace S. victory last year but he is on something of a comeback mission after some relatively disappointing efforts since last June. He has clearly wintered well and has matured physically. It would be no surprise to see him run a big race fresh.

Fellow British traveller Lord Glitters (Fr) (Whipper) has the G1 Lockinge S. as his spring target at home, according to trainer David O'Meara, and he is another coming into this race without a prep run, while I Can Fly (GB) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) was an eight-length winner at Dundalk earlier this month, following on from her neck defeat by Roaring Lion in the G1 Queen Elizabeth S. and subsequent below-par effort in the G1 Breeders' Cup Mile.

Without Parole heads to the track at Meydan | Mathea Kelley

The Caspar Fownes-trained Southern Legend (Aus) (Not A Single Doubt {Aus}) has arrived in Dubai with some solid performances under his belt at Sha Tin this winter and he will not lack match fitness. He will have help from the saddle of a fellow-Australian-bred, Hong Kong's leading jockey Zac Purton and has drawn gate number one.

"We obviously need every advantage to be able to beat the filly, so the draw is a good step in the right direction," said Fownes. "It gives Zac options--he's won leading before, he's won coming from last and he's performed well everywhere in between. I'm pretty confident we will grab a slice of the prize-money, but what position, it's hard to know. There is a lot of class in this field."

Dubai Sheema Classic

By Kelsey Riley

The Dubai Turf isn't the only race in which the Japanese have a legitimate winning shot. Group 1 winners Rey de Oro (Jpn) (King Kamehameha {Jpn}) and Cheval Grand (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}) line up off a second and third, respectively, in the G1 Arima Kinen on Dec. 23, and they look to emulate Heart's Cry himself, Gentildonna (Jpn) and Stay Gold (Jpn) as Japanese-trained winners of this 2400-metre race. Rey de Oro, the 2017 G1 Tokyo Yushun (Japanese Derby) winner, proved he maintains his form with wins last fall in the G1 Tenno Sho Autumn and G2 Sankei Sho All Comers S., and he was fourth in this last year behind Hawkbill (Kitten's Joy). Cheval Grand, who bested Rey de Oro in the 2017 G1 Japan Cup, looks for his first win since and retains the services of Hugh Bowman.

Godolphin is doubly represented here with the G2 Dubai City of Gold one-two Old Persian (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) for Charlie Appleby and Racing History (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}) for Saeed bin Suroor. Old Persian looks like a proper stayer in the making, having retained his form after a 3-year-old campaign that included wins in the G2 King Edward VII S. at Royal Ascot and the G2 Great Voltigeur S. over the subsequent Melbourne Cup winner Cross Counter.

"Three to four is a formative year for any horse and he has shown us on his only start this year what to expect, and what he needed to do to compete at the highest level as a 4-year-old," Appleby said. "I have been really happy with how he has gone since Super Saturday and the plan was to run here and then go back to Europe where hopefully he will be one of our flagbearers for 2019."

Racing History, a 7-year-old lightly raced full-brother to productive Darley sire Farhh (GB), has had a useful if slightly frustrating campaign, being placed on all four runs including two short-head misses in group company.

Third in the City of Gold was David Simcock's Desert Encounter (Ire) (Halling), who was first-up off a win in the G1 Canadian International in October.

Aidan O'Brien relies on the filly Magic Wand (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and the well-traveled Hunting Horn (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) as he looks for a second win in the race following the victory of St Nicholas Abbey (Ire) (Montjeu {Ire}) in 2013. Magic Wand looked like she could be anything last summer when taking Royal Ascot's G2 Ribblesdale S. by four lengths, but a couple of tame efforts behind Sea Of Class (Ire) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) followed before she redeemed herself somewhat with a pair of runner-up efforts in the G1 Prix Vermeille and G1 Prix de l'Opera. She slogged home second over the heavy going in the G1 Pegasus World Cup Turf on Jan. 26.

Hunting Horn also won at Royal Ascot last year, taking the G3 Hampton Court S., and he has logged plenty of air miles already this year in search of a first win since. He traveled to Gulfstream Park with Magic Wand and checked in third in the GIII W.L. McKnight S., and filled the same position in the Feb. 23 H.H. The Amir Trophy in Qatar. Both races were over this trip.

Al Quoz Sprint

By Alan Carasso

Twelve months on from having to be withdrawn at the barriers owing to blood coming out of his nostrils, Godolphin's Blue Point (Ire) (Shamardal) looms as one of the evening's shortest-priced favourites in Saturday's US$2-million G1 Al Quoz Sprint up the 1200m straight track at Meydan.

Bouncing back to cause a mild upset over Battaash (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}) in the G1 King's Stand S. at Royal Ascot last June, Blue Point could do no better than third in the G1 Coolmore Nunthorpe S. in August and connections called time on the season. He resumed with a towering five-length success in the five-furlong G2 Meydan Sprint, going one better than he did last season, and enters this on the back of a facile three-length defeat of Ekhtiyaar (GB) (Bated Breath {Ire}) in the G3 Nad al Sheba Turf Sprint over Saturday's trip Mar. 9.

Blue Point | DRC/Erika Rasmussen

Australian-based gallopers have won the Al Quoz twice in the last seven runnings--Testa Rossa (Aus)'s daughter Ortensia (Aus) in 2012 and Buffering (Aus) (Mossman {Aus}) in 2016. Brave Smash (Jpn) (Tosen Stardom {Jpn}), campaigned by the Australian Bloodstock syndicate, was second to Viddora (Aus) (I Am Invincible {Aus}) in the G1 Moir S. at the oddly-configured Moonee Valley last September before landing the same track's

G1 Manikato S. with Hugh Bowman at the controls two starts later. He's been very good without winning in his current four-race preparation and exits a very good third when giving 15 pounds to the 3-year-old filly Sunlight (Aus) (Zoustar {Aus}), who has since added the G1 William Reid S.

Two-time G1 Breeders' Cup Sprint hero Stormy Liberal (Stormy Atlantic) is drawn furthest from the stands in gate one as he tries to improve on his narrow loss at the hooves of Jungle Cat (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}). Since gutting it out at Churchill last November, he could do no better than second to Caribou Club (City Zip) in the GIII Joe Hernandez S. at Santa Anita Jan. 1 and though he missed in a Feb. 22 allowance going five-eighths, he took an awkward step at the quarter pole that almost certainly cost him the win.

Amber Sky (Aus) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) and Joy and Fun (NZ) (Cullen {Aus}) have won the Al Quoz for Hong Kong and Wishful Thinker (Aus) (I Am Invincible {Aus}) represents the Bauhinia this time. A progressive sort with wins in four of his last five starts, he has a versatile running style, should be suited by the straight six furlongs and is favourably drawn stands' side in barrier 13.

Dubai Golden Shaheen

By Daithi Harvey

A field of nine sprinters now go to post for the G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen with the scratching of Roy H (More Than Ready) due to a foot abscess taking some of the gloss off the $2.5-million contest. Last year Mind Your Biscuits (Posse) led home an American-trained clean sweep of the placings that included both Roy H and the runner-up X Y Jet (Kantharos), and the Jorge Navarro-trained grey returns for a third attempt at the race. Beaten a head and a neck on his previous two efforts at Meydan, X Y Jet proved his recent well-being when easily outclassing overmatched foes in an optional claimer at Gulfstream Park last month. The 7-year-old has yet to win at the highest level, though, and will break from stall three on Saturday.

"I'd love to have drawn between four and seven but he's quick enough for the inside so we will see," his trainer said earlier in the week. "He's not the fastest out of the gate, but his second step is when he gathers up and takes off. He's showed up here twice already. What Mind Your Biscuits did here last year after stumbling out of the gate was out of this world. That was a super horse. Take him out of the race and now where do you put my horse? He has to be right there on Saturday."

Even if it isn't third time lucky for X Y Jet there is every chance this race is for export to the U.S. as Luis Caraval Jr's Imperial Hint (Imperialism) is strongly fancied despite a surprising reversal last time out when a well-beaten third when odds-on favourite in the Pelican S. at Tampa Bay Downs last month.

However, the 6-year-old entire is a dual Grade I winner and his victory in the GI Vosburgh S. at Belmont last September is still fresh in the memory.

Another American Grade I winner in the lineup is the Dale Romans-trained Promises Fulfilled (Shackleford). He hasn't run since finishing fourth to Roy H in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint at Churchill Downs last November, but proved he belongs in this league when he won the GI H. Allen Jerkens S. at Saratoga last summer. Tato Key (Arg) (Key Deputy) bids to become the first Irish-trained winner of the Golden Shaheen and the former South American star has acquitted himself well in his two starts in Meydan for trainer David Marnane and owner Zhang Yuesheng. He finished second and third to another of Saturday's rivals Drafted (Field Commission {Can}) in Group 3 events and while further improvement is necessary to score, the colt has the scope to do so.

Promises Fulfilled training at Meydan | Horsephotos

"Tato Key is in good nick," Marnane said earlier in the week as he observed the 4-year-old's track work. "That was a nice relaxed canter and I'm very happy with him."

Meanwhile, Drafted's trainer Doug Watson is under no illusions over the task faced by his progressive 5-year-old as he tackles a Group 1 for the first time. "I think if he gets a clean trip, he'll be closing," Watson said. "Whether he's good enough to close on this group, I don't know, but he has a will to win. He really sticks his head out there. He's got the fastest time over the track this year and he hasn't had to ship halfway across the world so there's a lot of positives. I think he's good enough to be in this group," Watson added.

Fight Hero (GB) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}) represents Hong Kong but appears to have a lot on his plate having been plying his trade unsuccessfully in handicap company on his recent starts, while the same could also be said about Japanese challenger Matera Sky (Speightstown), who has Yutaka Take aboard.

UAE Derby

By Emma Berry

As visual impressions go, it will be hard for any runner in this year's G2 UAE Derby to beat that made by last year's runaway winner Mendelssohn (Scat Daddy).

By the same sire is the favourite and one of four fillies in the race, Divine Image, whose most recent victory was almost as impressive when she delivered a seven-length trouncing of her rivals in the Listed Al Bastakiya on Super Saturday.

Trainer Charlie Appleby has noted a perceived mental fragility at this nascent stage of her career, which is leading him away from the idea of a GI Kentucky Oaks raid in May, but whatever her future holds, she has already been noteworthy in her three victories from only four starts.

I THINK SHE IS GOING TO BE A STRONG PLAYER ON SATURDAY EVENING.

Charlie Appleby on Divine Image

"She is a work in progress," said Appleby during Thursday's Breakfast With The Stars. "She has not been the sharpest from the gates but she is just inexperienced and has been maturing. On her last start against the colts she had a low draw and got out and got racing and got into a nice rhythm. I do think she has improved again since that night. I think she is going to be a strong player on Saturday evening."

The locally-trained Walking Thunder (Violence) has the same number of wins and starts to his name as Divine Image, with his only reversal coming in the G3 UAE 2000 Guineas when second to Godolphin's Estihdaaf (Arch). Frankie Dettori will be given the leg up by trainer Ahmad bin Harmash and the colt's owners in the Phoenix Ladies Syndicate are already dreaming of the Run For The Roses. The same syndicate and trainer have three chances in the Derby as also running in their colours will be dual winner Golden Jaguar (Animal Kingdom), who was third on his last start in the Listed Meydan Classic, and Superior (Majesticperfection), who was runner-up to Divine Image in the Al Bastakiya.

The international flavour is enhanced by challengers from America, Britain, Ireland and Japan.

The Aidan O'Brien-trained Van Beethoven, another son of Scat Daddy aiming to follow Mendelssohn's example, was the winner of the G2 Railway S. last term and has had one start this season when fourth in the Listed Patton S. at Dundalk.

William Haggas has honed the obvious talents of Sheikh Hamdan's Jahbath (GB) to near-perfection thus far. The first-crop son of Haggas's former stable star Mukhadram (GB) was beaten a neck on debut last October and has been faultless in four subsequent runs. He coped with the journey to Dubai well and has looked to be thriving at morning trackwork.

Christophe Lemaire potentially has the ride of the day later on the card when Almond Eye (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}) takes to the track for the Dubai Turf, but before that he will partner Derma Louvre (Jpn) (Pyro) in the Derby. Trained by Dubai debutant Hirofumi Toda, the colt won last year's Listed Hyogo Junior Grand Prix on the dirt at Sonoda and was third on his comeback over a mile a month ago.

A treble attack from America sees a first World Cup night runner for Brendan Walsh with Plus Que Parfait (Point Of Entry), who was beaten only a neck in the GII Kentucky Jockey Club S. in November. Peter Miller has suffered the disappointment of having to scratch Roy H (More Than Ready) from the Al Quoz Sprint but he will field Gray Magician (Graydar) in the Derby, while Doug O'Neill is represented by the bonny Stubbins (Morning Line), who has won his last three starts at Santa Anita and has been taking the eye on the track in the mornings.

Dubai Gold Cup

By Emma Berry

Via the mighty Vazirabad (FR) (Manduro {Ger}), France has held the bragging rights to the G2 Dubai Gold Cup in the past three years and looks to have a strong chance of success once more with George Strawbridge's lightly-raced Call The Wind (GB) (Frankel {GB}). The 5-year-old appears to have overcome his youthful quirkiness and has been pleasing Freddy Head in both demeanour and performance at Meydan this week, while his comeback run on Mar. 5 was eye-catching to say the least.

He will provide the first ride at the meeting for Aurelien Lemaire.

Much of the focus leading up to the race has been on the return of G1 Lexus Melbourne Cup hero Cross Counter (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}), who will again take on place-getter Prince Of Arran (GB) (Shirocco {Ger}), but Charlie Appleby has also been sounding assured notes with regards to Cross Counter's stable-mate Ispolini (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), who was second on his Meydan debut in early January and who has subsequently followed up with two victories over 1m6f, most recently in the G3 Nad Al Sheba Trophy, in which he led home the Saeed Bin Suroor-trained Red Galileo (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) in a 10-length rout.

Gold Mount (GB) (Excellent Art {GB}), who was a Royal Ascot winner under the guise of Primitivo before switching names and countries, represents the Hong Kong-based Richard Gibson, who has been itching to step the 6-year-old up in distance and again has the services of Ryan Moore.

"He's right where you'd want him ahead of him trying a new trip," said the trainer on Thursday.

Meanwhile, another horse to have moved, this time from Ireland to America, is Yu Long's

Platinum Warrior (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), who started life under the care of Mick Halford and is now with John Sadler. He comes to the meeting on the back of a last-start strike in the GII San Marcos S. at Santa Anita but is yet to win beyond 10 furlongs.

Godolphin Mile

By Daithi Harvey

The G2 Godolphin Mile kicks off the Thoroughbred action on World Cup Night and last year's winner Heavy Metal (GB) (Exceed And Excel {Aus}) returns to defend his crown in the $1.5-million contest on the Meydan dirt. The 9-year-old beat Muntazah (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) by two lengths in the race last year but has been comprehensively overshadowed by that same rival in two of his three starts at Meydan this year and it may be a case that age is beginning to catch up with the 15-time winner.

"He's a 9-year-old horse now but we are very happy with him so far," said his trainer Salem Bin Ghadayer.

Race favourite is the aforementioned Muntazah and deservedly so after his last-out demolition job in the G3 Burj Nahaar over the course and distance Mar. 9.

On that occasion he accounted for Good Curry (Tur) (Sharp Humor) by 11 lengths in track-record time with Heavy Metal well back in fourth. The Doug Watson-trained 6-year-old had won the G3 Firebreak S. on his penultimate start and is one of two runners in the race for the trainer who will also saddle the Pat Dobbs-ridden Kimbear (Temple City), who bids to improve on his 2018 sixth-place finish.

"On paper, Muntazah stands out," Watson said. "He's in good shape, looks great and is very happy. We wanted to stretch him out but he tied up after the Maktoum Challenge. So, we'll get through this race and next year stretch him out and see if he can get the mile and a quarter." Watson is also optimistic about Kimbear despite a less than ideal preparation.

Muntazah | DRC/Erika Rasmussen

"He's had a couple of issues. He overreached as much as you could out of the gate in the race last year and the foot grew back in a different way on the inside wall. He came out of the first round of the Maktoum Challenge lame, with a quarter crack. We fixed that up and he's coming around now. He's good enough on the night to run a big race."

On ratings the Todd Pletcher-trained Coal Front (Stay Thirsty) does not have much to find to be involved and with a record of six wins from eight starts including four at graded stakes level he has to be taken seriously. Further optimism can be taken from his smooth preparation and his upbeat trainer, who said, "He's trained impressively like he always does. He's a beautiful horse and we feel like the one-turn mile should suit him perfectly especially backing up off a two-turn race. So we're excited about him."

Further international intrigue is provided by the Japanese challenger Nonkono Yume (Jpn) (Twining), who despite some disappointing recent efforts is well capable of playing a leading role if recapturing the form that saw him win the G1 February S. at Tokyo 13 months ago. After breezing over the dirt track earlier in the week his trainer Yukihiro Kato said, "Nonkono Yume went a bit fast today, but the track seems to fit him very well, a good match for him. He is training better here than at Miho and I'm very glad we got an inside post [drawn two] for this race." - Daithi Harvey

MAKMOUR (FR) (Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}) was described by trainer Jean-Claude Rouget as his “grand espoir” in a recent interview with Jour de Galop, which is a significant pointer to the expectations on the Aga Khan homebred who holds entries in the Classics, including the Epsom Derby. Having cruised through his sole racecourse outing over 7 1/2 furlongs on Deauville’s Polytrack in November, the bay faces a tough reintroduction against another Aga Khan homebred colt in the Mikel

Delzangles-trained Shendam (Fr) (Charm Spirit {Ire}), an impressive winner on his debut over nine furlongs at ParisLongchamp in October, and two Wertheimer homebreds from the Carlos Laffon-Parias stable including Maxime Guyon’s pick, Starmaniac (GB) (Sea The Stars {Ire}), a son of the Group 1 heroine Plumania (GB) (Anabaa).

The G1 Prix de Diane entry encounters another notable blueblood in Tabor/Magnier/Smith’s Secret Walk (Ire) (Dansili {GB}), a 600,000gns TATDEC graduate and Andre Fabre-trained daughter of the accomplished High Heeled (Ire) (High Chaparral {Ire}).

4.45 Doncaster, Mdn, £5,800, 3yo, 10f 43yT
JUST YOU WAIT (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) is a fascinating newcomer on a big day for Godolphin, being a half-brother to the champion 2-year-old and proven sire Teofilo (Ire) and a full-brother to the recent G2 Cape Verdi and G2 Balanchine winner Poetic Charm (GB), as well as the G3 Derrinstown Stud 1000 Guineas Trial scorer Bean Feasa (GB). Charlie Appleby gets the bay homebred started against 16 rivals, including King Power Racing’s Andrew Balding-trained Bangkok (Ire) (Australia {GB}), the 500,000gns TATOCT purchase who has one piece of juvenile form when second to Sangarius (GB) (Kingman {GB}), which would make him tough to beat.

KVETUSCHKA (GB) (f, 3, Mastercraftsman {Ire}--Signella {GB}, by Selkirk), only 10th on debut over seven furlongs at Newmarket in November, was initially prominent before being squeezed out on the first turn. Tanking her way up into second by halfway, the homebred was in front at the top of the straight and may have been idling when headed by Sadler's Soul (Revolutionary) 150 yards from the line. Friday's Result:

1st-Dundalk, €15,000, Mdn, 3-29, 2yo, 5f (AWT), 1:00.96, st. ICKWORTH (IRE) (f, 2, Shamardal--Ishitaki {Arg} {Ch. 2-y-o Filly & MG1SW-Arg}, by Interpretate {Arg}), sent off at 5-1, was away brightly on this debut and was unperturbed by being caught up in a speed duel on the front end. Asserting from over a furlong out, the homebred earned a hard-fought and commendable 3/4-of-a-length verdict over Moments Linger (Ire) (Dawn Approach {Ire}) to get Godolphin's European juveniles off to a flying start. The dam Ishitaki, who enjoyed champion 2-year-old filly status in Argentina in 2010, produced the listed-placed White Witch (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). Also with a yearling colt by Exceed and Excel (Aus), she is connected to the multiple Group 1-winning sire New Dandy (Arg) (New Noble). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $10,370. Video, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton. O/B-Godolphin (IRE); T-Willie McCreery.

As a homebred half-brother to Berend Van Dalzen's G2 Prix du Gros-Chene, G3 Prix de Saint-Georges and G3 Prix de Meautry winner Finsbury Square, Bakoel Koffie has something to live up to but he went some way towards bridging the gap with his first black-type success here. Third in the G2 Goldene Peitsche at Baden-Baden last August, the bay who had been runner-up on his return to Forza Capitano (Fr) (Captain Marvelous {Ire}) in Chantilly's 6 1/2-furlong Prix Anabaa conditions race Mar. 5 made all with Tony Piccone keeping it simple on the best horse in the line-up.

FUREUR DE VIVRE (FR) (c, 3, Gemix {Fr}--Martiniquaise {Fr}, by Anabaa), who scored impressively in a minor contest at Agen Mar. 10, seized the initiative to lead from the outset.

Maintaining the gallop despite pressure from behind in the home straight, the 12-1 shot held a 1 1/4-length advantage over Taos (Fr) (Toronado {Ire}) at the line. The dam, a daughter of the dual listed-placed Mamamia (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}), also has a yearling full-sister to the winner named Ostara (Fr). GALICIANA (FR) (f, 2, Galiway {GB}--Kendala {Fr}, by Kendargent {Fr}), sent off at nearly 8-1, broke professionally to take a sit behind the leading duo tucked against the rail. Getting a split on the inner at the top of the straight, the homebred was in front passing the furlong marker and stayed on despite drifting left to score by 1 1/2 lengths from Elegua (Fr) (Penny's Picnic {Ire}). Galiciana is the first winner for Haras de Colleville's first-season sire (by Galileo {Ire}), a former Wertheimer-Fabre composition who was successful at listed level and placed twice in group company. A son of the smart racemare and renowned broodmare Danzigaway (Danehill), he stands for €3,000 at Guy Pariente's establishment. Galiciana is also the first foal out of the dam, who hails from the Lagardere/Aga Khan family of the GI Breeders' Cup Mile-winning sire Val Royal (Fr) and the G1 Prix de Diane heroine Valyra (GB) (Azamour {Ire}). AUSTRALIAN TEAM OUT TO SMASH UP DUBAI

Brave Smash | DRC/Mathea Kelley

By Emma Berry

DUBAI, United Arab Emirates--There's been plenty of talk about Japanese runners this week in Dubai, most of it focusing on the record-breaking Japan Cup winner Almond Eye (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}). But one Japanese-bred horse who is now flying the flag for Australia will be notching a notable first for trainer Kris Lees and the successful Australian Bloodstock syndicate, which races Brave Smash (Jpn) (Tosen Phantom {Jpn}) in partnership with Aquis Farm and Glenlogan Park.

Jamie Lovett, who set up Australian Bloodstock with Luke Murrell 15 years ago, arrived in Dubai on Wednesday night with his wife Kelly and, despite the wet weather which has hit the emirate in recent days, is looking forward to a race day which he says has been "on his bucket list" for some time.

"It's very exciting to be here," says Lovett from the Meydan hotel overlooking the turf straight down which he hopes Brave Smash, partnered by Hugh Bowman, will post another important international victory for the team.

"We've been very fortunate travelling our horses, with the likes of [Belmont Gold Cup winner] Red Cardinal (Ire) in New York, a fair few races in Europe and the Singapore Cup, but I've always said I don't want to come to one of these carnivals unless we have a horse good enough to take, so we've held back a few times, and I do really believe this is the right horse."

He adds, "Because of where this sits on the calendar it's slightly difficult [for Australian runners] because Sydney has invested heavily in The Championships but for us, World Cup night was something we'd always wanted to be part of."

The fact that Aquis Farm has taken an interest in Brave Smash is an obvious sign that the 6-year-old is still entire. The stallion has oozed calm in recent mornings on his early stretches around Meydan. His trackwork partner Illustrious Lad (Aus) (I Am Invincible {Aus}) will become his rival on Saturday in the G1 Al Quoz Sprint and they will be joined by the Lloyd Kennewell-trained mare Viddora (Aus) (I Am Invincible {Aus}), who beat Brave Smash by just over a length in the G1 Moir S. last September. The latter bounced back from that to take out the G1 Manikato S. back at Moonee Valley two starts later and Lovett believes his recent form, which sees him coming into the race off the back of a close third to Sunlight (Aus) (Zoustar {Aus}) in the G1 Newmarket H., puts Brave Smash right into contention.

He says, "He's taken the travelling well and has certainly done a fair bit of travelling in the past. We purchased the horse from Japan and, being a stallion, it's always nice to see that they can cope with a change of environment and relax, and he appears to have done that. He ticks the boxes for a race like this. If you're going to travel a horse you want to know that they are proven in the conditions, and he's proven up the straight at Flemington having been beaten twice in the Newmarket by narrow margins. That gives us a bit of confidence to bring a horse to a straight race--I think he's quite versatile but it's still nice to know that they can handle those conditions. This rain won't hurt him either as he's a horse that likes to get his toe in, so all things being equal I think he's in the race up to his ears."

Dubai may not be the last start on Brave Smash's international tour, as the team from Royal Ascot has already been in touch to attempt to lure him to the track which has been a happy hunting ground for Australian sprinters over the last two decades.

"Aquis Farm are keen to travel the horse. He'll stand at stud at Aquis next season southern hemisphere time," says Lovett. "He'd have to run well on Saturday night but we're quite open to the idea. For me, he's more of a seven-furlong horse, and I think the stiff six furlongs at Royal Ascot would be right up his street. His ratings would suggest that his recent Newmarket defeat was a career best, so that tells us he's going as good as ever, which he'd have to be to go there."

The Australian Bloodstock partners have never been afraid of travelling, not least in the quest for horses to fulfil a long-held dream which was realised by the Andreas Wohler-trained Protectionist (Ger) on the first Tuesday of November 2014.

"In our early days, one of the first horses we bought out of Germany was Lucas Cranach (Ger)," says Lovett, who still has a number of horses in training in the country with Wohler. "We also had a bit of luck buying English horses from maidens, so for us it was a case of finding the right horses from abroad and bringing them here, and then it evolved with Japan. We got into some business with Katsumi Yoshida and that opened enough doors for us to buy Tosen Stardom (JPN) and then Brave Smash was the next one after that. Everyone in Australia wants to win the Melbourne Cup and right now, with the European season about to get into full swing again, we're really active trying to buy horses for that race. We're in the very fortunate position that we have the backing of some loyal clients when we buy our 'big-ticket items', if you like. So if I go and buy a horse in England or Germany or France, we're lucky to have their backing. They are not syndicated horses as such, but when we go to the yearling sales--we bought 25 yearlings last season--we offer shares in those horses to the general public. Syndication is so popular in Australia and it drives our yearling market."

The team's association with their Melbourne Cup hero is not over, despite the fact that Protectionist has returned to Germany, where his stallion career is overseen by Ronald Rauscher, who is also a key advisor to Australian Bloodstock when it comes to buying European horses.

"For us, Protectionist winning the Melbourne Cup will always be the pinnacle," Lovett says. "In Australia, we grow up watching the race and our business really evolved 15 years ago for the reason, trying to source horses for the race. So to hit the target that day was very special. It's like winning a Grand Final, they can never take it away from us. No matter what happens now, the trophy is at home."

He adds, "Protectionist covered two good books and we're going over later this year to Baden-Baden to buy some of his yearlings. We still own the horse and we supported him heavily. Gestut Rottgen stands him for us and he means a lot to our guys, so for us to sell him wasn't really going to be an option. We've supported him, and Dr Christoph Berglar, who bred him, bought some lovely mares for him, so he's been given a chance even though the [mare] numbers in Germany are quite small. He hasn't had big books but he's got some quality."

There could be no more fitting tribute to an operation with such a global outlook than to see Protectionist's offspring challenging for some of Australia's major races in the coming years--and perhaps even attempting to emulate their sire in the big one itself.
