WHY DALLAS STEWART CARES ABOUT WINS, NOT WINNING PERCENTAGE

Dallas Stewart | Coady

By Bill Finley

Dallas Stewart will be at it again Saturday at Keeneland, running a horse named Chase the Ghost (Ghostzapper) in the GIII Stonestreet Lexington S., who, on paper, looks like he can't possibly win. That's on paper. On the racetrack, there is apparently no such thing as a Dallas Stewart-trained horse that has no chance.

That was proven once again last week in the GI Central Bank Ashland S. at Keeneland, which Stewart won with 52-1 shot Out for a Spin (Hard Spun). She didn't appear to have the class or the numbers to compete with horses like Eclipse Award winner Jaywalk (Cross Traffic) or GI Alcibiades S. winner Restless Rider (Distorted Humor). Stewart was aware of that. But he also knows when a horse is doing well and isn't afraid to take a shot. He's not a one-trick pony, as he has won several major stakes races with horses who went off at low odds, but, at the same time, he has established a reputation as the sport's most dangerous trainer when it comes to longshots outperforming expectations.

"I just felt good about her," he said. "She came out of New Orleans doing real well. The Ashland is a horse race that can get you to the biggest horse race for that gender and age group, which is the [GI] Kentucky Oaks four weeks later. You know what, it's was a risk worth taking." Cont. p3

RAGING BULL KICKS OFF 4YO CAMPAIGN IN MAKER'S MILE

By Christie DeBernardis

The Chad Brown-trained Raging Bull (Fr) (Dark Angel {Ire}) proved a force to be reckoned with in the sophomore male turf division last year and he hopes to do the same Friday as he kicks off his 2019 campaign in Keeneland's GI Maker's 46 Mile S. Winner of the GII Hall of Fame S. and GIII Saranac S. at Saratoga last summer, the bay could only manage fifth in Belmont's GII Hill Prince S. Oct. 2, but rebounded with a victory in the GI Hollywood Derby at Del Mar Dec. 1.

Veteran turfer Heart to Heart (English Channel) looks to defend his title here, but has not visited the winner's circle since capturing last year's renewal of this event. He was third to the re-opposing Doctor Mounty (Street Sense) when making his seasonal bow in the one-mile GIII Tropical Turf S. at Gulfstream Jan. 12 and was fourth last time after setting the pace in the GIII Tampa Bay S. Feb. 9. Cont. p5

In the end, he was right. But very few major trainers would have dared to run Out for a Spin in a spot like the Ashland. Starting 50-1 shots is usually a recipe for defeat and every loss lowers your winning percentage. A lot of owners don't want to hire people winning at 8%, which is Stewart's percentage on the year, and trainers know that. That's why they rarely take chances.

"I've never been great at numbers and I've never really cared about numbers," said Stewart, who is winning at a 14% rate for his career. "I just don't think about it that much. I think about today. I live for today and if it's a decision I make today, I'll just go with it and see what happens. I think sometimes the numbers will keep you from accomplishing things. Maybe they'll keep you in business, but maybe they won't get you a Grade I when you think, in your gut, you could have gotten one. As far as the percentage thing goes, I'm not going to live by that. I'll never tell myself I'm not a successful horse trainer because I'm not 20% or 25%."

Stewart with Commanding Curve | Christie DeBernardis

Stewart's reputation took root in the 2006 GI Kentucky Oaks, which he won with Lemons Forever (Lemon Drop Kid), who was 47-1.

"The way that worked out was pretty good," he said. "I owned a piece of her and we sold her for a lot of money, and that made it even better."

Lemons Forever was sold for $2.5 million at the 2007 Keeneland November Sale.

Stewart has yet to win a Triple Crown race, but his wizardry at getting horses to over achieve in them is well known. He finished second in the 2013 GI Kentucky Derby with 34-1 shot Golden Soul (Perfect Soul {Ire}) and pulled the same trick the next year with Commanding Curve (Master Command), who was second at 37-1.

He was second in the 2008 GI Preakness S. with 39-1 shot Macho Again (Macho Uno) and second again in 2015 when Tale of Verve (Tale of Ekati) finished behind American Pharoah (Pioneerof the Nile) at 28-1.

Stewart said that he, more so than most trainers, relies on his instincts.

"I'm kind of a gut feeling guy," said Stewart, a former assistant to D. Wayne Lukas, another trainer known for winning big races with longshots. "That's the way I work. It's just like the Saints with the onside kick (in the 2014 Super Bowl). Who does that? Then, boom, they go and win the Super Bowl thanks to that play. Sometimes your gut instinct can help you win and sometimes maybe it gets you beat. I don't know. I just go by what I feel.

Out for a Spin | Coady

"That was the case with Out for a Spin. She came out of the Fair Grounds looking really good. I thought she got some weight on her after the last race. One of my top exercise riders worked her and she worked in :48 and change for the race. That was a really good work for her because she's not a really fast work horse, but he said she just felt great. That gave me some confidence to take a shot."

He'll try again with Chase the Ghost, who is coming off a ninth-place finish in the GII Risen Star at 96-1.

"He's a pretty nice horse," Stewart said. "I thought he had some trouble last time. He got banged around. I thought he could have finished on the board in the Risen Star, but not enough to make me want to go in the [GII] Louisiana Derby with him. He got knocked sideways at the eighth pole and I thought that hurt him little bit. We're going to give him another shot, and for some pretty good money [$200,000]."

He doesn't have to win, but he definitely doesn't have to lose. Such is always the case when Stewart drops one in the entry box for a major race.

Winner of the GII King Edward S. last summer at Woodbine, Delta Prince (Street Cry {Ire}) came up a neck short behind Voodoo Song (English Channel) in Saratoga's GI Fourstardave H. in August and was fourth in the GI Woodbine Mile a month later. Third when switched to the main track for the GIII Bold Ruler H. at Aqueduct Nov. 2, the 'TDN Rising Star' was a respectable third in the GI Pegasus World Cup Turf S. Jan. 26.

Shadwell Stable's Qurbaan (Speightstown) has been in the money in each of his four U.S. starts for Kiaran McLaughlin, starting with a win in the GII Bernard Baruch H. at Saratoga in September. 'MOTION' HOPES TO MAKE OAKS 'FANTASY' A REALITY By Christie DeBernardis

Motion Emotion (Take Charge Indy) has been having a stellar season at Oaklawn and she will try to capitalize on that Friday as she faces a full field of fillies seeking a spot in the GI Kentucky Oaks in Oaklawn's GIII Fantasy S. Wiring the field in her seasonal bow in Hot Springs and third lifetime start Jan. 25, she followed suit with a local optional claimer score Feb. 17. Favored in the GIII Honeybee S. here Mar. 9, the bay was run down late and forced to settle for second. Hall of Famer Mike Smith will be in town to ride the filly.

"If they go slow, she'll be on the front end," trainer Tom Van Berg told the Oaklawn notes team. "If they go fast, we've got her to rate nicely in the mornings. She's very versatile. She doesn't have to be in front." Cont. p5

'TDN Rising Star' Brill (Medaglia d'Oro) followed her debut victory at Del Mar in July with a fourth behind likely Oaks favorite Bellafina (Quality Road) in the GI Del Mar Debutante S. Sept. 1. Third behind that rival in the GI Chandelier S. at Santa Anita Sept. 29, the $1 million FTKJUL topper made her sophomore bow in a six-panel test in Hot Springs Mar. 22, finishing a solid second behind fellow 'Rising Star' Lyrical Lady (More Than Ready).

Lady Apple (Curlin) enters off a pair of local wins for Steve Asmussen. Breaking her maiden in a sloppy sprint here at fifth asking Feb. 7, she defeated Irish Mischief (Into Mischief) by two lengths in a 1 1/16-mile optional claimer over this strip Mar. 23.

Todd Pletcher saddles a filly worth a look in Orra Moor (Orb). Graduating at first asking at Gulfstream Dec. 22, the dark bay romped by 7 3/4 lengths in a six-panel optional claimer there Feb. 10 and was third last time in Aqueduct's one-mile Busher S. Mar. 9. Busher runner-up and GIII Tempted S. upsetter Oxy Lady (Oxbow) also returns in this test.

COOLMORE BUYS INTO GALILEAN

Galilean | Coady

The Coolmore contingent has purchased an interest in MSW Galilean (Uncle Mo) ahead of his impending start in Saturday's GI Arkansas Derby.

"We are immensely gratified to have Coolmore join us in the ownership of Galilean as he looks to lock down a spot in the Kentucky Derby," West Point CEO Terry Finley said.

Opening his account with a win in the Barretts Juvenile S. in September, the $600,000 BARMAR topper was second to 'TDN Rising Star' Cruel Intentions (Smiling Tiger) in the Golden State Juvenile S. in November and returned to winning ways in the King Glorious S. at Los Al Dec. 16. A decisive victor of the California Cup Derby Feb. 18 at Santa Anita, Galilean was third behind Long Range Toddy (Take Charge Indy) and Improbable (City Zip) in the split GII Rebel S. at Oaklawn Mar. 16.

LEXINGTON'S ASHWOOD TRAINING CENTER SET TO REOPEN by Jen Roytz

Ashwood Training Center, formerly Victory Haven Training Center, is scheduled to reopen May 1 after significant construction and improvements over the past year. Located on Russell Cave Road, Ashwood Training Center features a six-furlong track, nearly 300 stalls, 30 turnout paddocks, indoor and outdoor arenas, a walking machine and open land to ride horses away from the track.

Managing the day-to-day operations is owner Marc Ricker, a third-generation horseman from Paris, Kentucky. Ricker grew up working on his family's Sunny Oak Farm before moving to Florida to pursue a career in private equity. Cont. p8

Upon his father's passing in 2013, Ricker made the move back to Kentucky to help his mother with the family farm. He began leasing the property from Lucian Anderson three years ago.

"Growing up on a farm and loving horses, I was glad to come back," he said. "This facility has so much to offer horsemen, all in a quieter environment than a traditional racetrack. Trainers can choose to send their horses to the track, work in one of the arenas or take them out over the gently rolling hills around the property. Kenny McPeek's facility is next door and he also allows horses stabled at Ashwood to walk over and use his turf gallop."

Marc Ricker and Kathryn Kinder | Jen Roytz

Ricker and his team are also offering those looking to lease stall space at Ashwood the option to do personalized improvements to make their barns more user-friendly and customized to their trainers' needs.

"Ideally, we'd like to have a week or two notice before someone moves in so we can go through the space and go over improvement requests," said Ricker. "Each new lease is given a move-in allowance to personalize his or her space."

In addition to traditional breaking and training amenities, the farm also features a rehabilitation division, which includes an Aquatread and Theraplate and can offer laser and pulsed electromagnetic field (PEMF) therapies.

"Our goal is to be one of the premier training and rehab facilities in the region," said Ricker. "Matt Frazier partners with us to handle the rehabilitation side of the farm. He's an excellent horseman and has a deep understanding of how to bring horses back to perform at their best after an injury."

A licensed trainer of both Thoroughbreds and Quarter horses, Frazier also came up in the horse industry under the tutelage of his father, Dan Frazier.

"We never had the money to buy the best horses, so my dad would pinpoint proven runners who needed some attention for physical issues. We'd rehabilitate them and move them up," explained Frazier, who has trained the likes of Stinkin Rich, Indiana's all-time leading Quarter Horse earner, and Skyline Lover, an 11-time stakes/graded stakes winner.

Ricker and girlfriend Kathryn Kinder also operate Alliance Bloodstock, a sales prep and consignment division of the farm. Much like Ricker and Frazier, Kinder also got her formative experience on her family's farm. With a background in both show horses and Thoroughbreds, she eventually took on the role of broodmare manager for her father, Ralph Kinder's farm.

Training at Ashwood | Jen Roytz

"Sales prep and preparing young racehorses are surprisingly similar. The biggest difference is taking the yearlings to the walking machine or hand-walking them instead of sending them out to the track to train," said Ricker.

Ashwood Training Center currently has stalls available for lease and is also open to ship-ins by appointment. Ricker and Kinder are planning a spring open house on May 11, as well as several other events throughout the year.

"Our open house event will include a breeze show, crawfish boil and live music, and after that event we plan to host breakfast trackside for horsemen and the public alike who want to see the facility or simply learn a bit about what goes into the day-to-day training of young racehorses," said Ricker. "We have a great area that's away from the barns and perfect for events."

Added Kinder, "Later this year we're planning to have a few rodeos, which will have live music and food vendors, and maybe some concerts as well."

$150K STREET BOSS FILLY TOPS TTA SALE

A daughter of Street Boss who breezed a furlong in :10 3/5 topped Wednesday's Texas Thoroughbred Association 2-Year-Olds in Training Sale at Lone Star Park when hammering for $150,000 to Maui James.

From 110 horses going through the ring, 75 head sold for a total of $1,751,400. The median was $14,500, up 10.69% from last year's $13,100, and the average dipped 9.27% from $25,737 to $23,352. Buy-backs at this year's sale came in at 31.82% compared to 20.75% last year when 84 of 106 head sold for a total of $2,161,900.

"Overall we were pretty pleased with the results," said sales director Tim Boyce. "I'm happy to see that the median jumped up. Last year we had four horses break $100,000 compared to two this year, so that affected the average a bit, but there was strong demand in the middle of the market as evidenced by the median going up. I heard from several horsemen today who said they were impressed by the quality of horses brought by our consignors."

NEW PENALTIES PROPOSED FOR ARCI DRUG VIOLATIONS

The Drug Testing Standards and Practices (DTSP) Committee of the Association of Racing Commissions International (ARCI) is considering a major change to the recommended penalties for violations of the association's drug rules to dramatically increase sanctions on those violations that can be considered "doping" or "equine endangerment".

An ARCI workgroup has been quietly working for the past year to put together a system to increase penalties for violations categorized as "Doping of Equine Endangerment." Penalties for such violations would be effectively doubled from the existing Class A penalties, with a first violation requiring a two to five-year suspension of the trainer and a minimum $50,000 fine, which could be increased to $100,000 with aggravating circumstances. A second violation in any jurisdiction would trigger a license revocation.

The proposal would also impose a $25,000 fine on an owner if there is a second lifetime offense in the owner's stable in any jurisdiction. A third offense would suspend the owner for a minimum of 30 days to as much as a year and impose a minimum fine of $50,000 which could be increased to $100,000. Because of the seriousness of these violations a summary suspension would be required, pending any appeal.

Existing penalties for medication overages would remain the same and many would be re-categorized as a "Treatment Misapplication & Mismanagement."

The proposal also contains a minimum $500 fine for a first-time failure to keep or report required treatment records. A second offense would bring a $2,500 fine, a third offense a $5,000 fine plus a referral to the commission for possible license review.

The draft documents are posted online and anyone interesting in commenting or making a related proposal may do so by emailing comments or documents to rules@arci.com.

DEL MAR'S "SHIP AND WIN" PROGRAM RETURNS WITH BIGGER BONUSES IN 2019

Del Mar's "Ship and Win" program, which for the past eight years has provided incentives to owners and trainers to import out-of-state horses to race locally, will be back for a ninth summer at the shore with an enhanced bonus package attached in hopes of luring more runners to the seaside oval.

At its inception in 2011, "Ship and Win" offered horsemen an automatic check for $1,000 and a further 20% first-race, purse-enhancement bonus for their new starters. In 2017, those monies were raised to $1,500 and 30%. Last year, the automatic check was elevated again to $2,000. For the 2019 season, which opens Wednesday, July 17, that initial check for all imports has climbed once more to $2,500. Additionally, the first-race purse bonus has been boosted anew to 40%.

"This has been a very positive program for our horsemen and for racing in general in the west," said Del Mar racing secretary David Jerkens. "We've brought in more than a thousand horses under 'Ship and Win' and they've made thousands of starts at all of the state's racetracks. When these horses come west, they almost all stay here. With our new and even more lucrative incentives, we hope to add more stock for our summer session and beyond."

FRIDAY INSIGHTS: TAPIT--GROUPIE DOLL FILLY CLOSES KEENELAND CARD by Joe Bianca

10th-KEE, $79K, Msw, 3yo, f, 6f, post time: 6:03 p.m. ET

Whisper Hill Farm homebred DOLL COLLECTION (Tapit) makes her debut in the Keeneland finale Friday. The gray is the second foal out of dual champion and $3.1-million KEENOV buy Groupie Doll (Bowman's Band). She shows a handful of sharp works for the Ralph Nicks barn, capped by a half-mile in :48 4/5 (1/4) Apr. 2 at Palm Meadows. "She is doing real good and has breezed well," Nicks said. "I don't know if she is a star, but she's got talent."

Fellow debutante Bonnet (Union Rags) looks like a runner for Bill Mott. A $30,000 buyback by breeder Stone Farm at KEESEP, she has drilled sharply at Payson Park, highlighted by a half-mile move in :48 2/5 (2/31) Mar. 31. Of the horses with experience, most eyes will be on Palomita (Into Mischief), a $375,000 Fasig-Tipton Gulfstream buy who ran second at odds-on to 'TDN Rising Star' Violencia (Violence) in her unveiling Feb. 2 at Gulfstream.

4th-KEE, $81K, Alw, 3yo, 1 1/16mT, post time: 2:45 p.m. ET

Peter Brant's 'TDN Rising Star' DEMARCHELIER (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) tries to follow up a late-running debut score in this first-level allowance. Backed to favoritism Nov. 21 at Aqueduct, the 425,000gns Tattersalls October purchase finished well from seventh to edge a return winner by a head. The Chad Brown trainee followed up a Palm Meadows turf worktab with an easy half-mile spin over the local dirt in :49 2/5 (60/109) Apr. 6.

TALK VEUVE TO ME (f, 4, Violence--Biblical Point, by Point Given) tuned up for an appearance in the GI Humana Distaff May 4 with this dominating comeback victory. Drawn pole position with Julien Leparoux at the controls, the attractive dark bay jumped straight into the bridle and took them along at a sensible pace. Always going well within herself, Talk Veuve To Me was asked for a bit more speed in upper stretch and never looked like losing at any juncture, ultimately reporting home a 2 1/4-length victrix. Named a 'TDN Rising Star' off a double-digit maiden win at the Fair Grounds last winter and subsequently bought into by Team Valor, Talk Veuve to Me was runner-up in the GII Eight Belles S. and to Monomoy Girl (Tapizar) in the GI Acorn S. before validating dime-on-the-dollar favoritism in the GIII Indiana Oaks. Cont. p2

A pacesetting fourth in the GI Alabama S. at Saratoga in August, she was put away for the year following a sixth in Keeneland's GI Juddmonte Spinster S. last fall. Out of a winning half-sister to Team Valor's GSP Winning Point (Point Given), Talk Veuve to Me has a 3-year-old half-brother by Shackleford, who was sold to Korean interests for $1,500 in utero at Keeneland November in 2015 and has placed once from three runs this season at Busan. Sales history: $45,000 RNA Wlg '15 KEENOV; $20,000 Ylg '16 KEESEP; $95,000 RNA 2yo '17 OBSMAR. PALADAR (g, 4, Street Cry {Ire}--Blowing Kisses {MSP}, by Vindication), well beaten in three maiden specials to begin his career, was an improved fifth in a six-furlong Santa Anita maiden claimer and was haltered for $50,000 from owner Keith Brackpool and trainer Carla Gaines. The dark bay most recently wired a maiden allowance field by 5 1/4 lengths going a mile in Arcadia Feb. 24 and was the 13-10 chalk to put them back to back. Allowed a soft time of things through a half in :50.11 and three-quarters in 1:15.31, he repelled a race-long bid from Mississippi (Pioneerof the Nile) entering the final furlong and had 1 1/2 lengths on that rival at the line. The winner, who has a 2-year-old half-brother from the first crop of Carpe Diem and a yearling half-sister by Gemologist, is out of a half-sister to MGISW Pussycat Doll (Real Quiet), Jimmy Creed (Distorted Humor) and SW Funny Feeling (Distorted Humor). Blowing Kisses was most recently covered by Will Take Charge. Sales history: $15,000 Ylg '16 KEESEP; $225,000 2yo '17 OBSAPR. Lifetime Record: 6-2-0-0, $83,275. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

SAGUARO ROW (f, 4, Union Rags--Charlie Girl, by Indian Charlie) graduated at first asking for Mike Stidham at Laurel in September 2017, but went missing off a distant fifth to future champion Monomoy Girl (Tapizar) in the Rags To Riches S. the next month. Switched to Brendan Walsh for her two runs last season, the bay was fourth in Fair Grounds allowance company and sixth in the GII Fair Grounds Oaks, losing both times to Chocolate Martini (Broken Vow). Tough to handle near the rear of the field in the early stages here, the 3-2 favorite was given her head and made eyecatching progress four away from the inside rounding the far turn. Roused to the front with a furlong to race, Saguaro Row finished with good energy to best East Moon (Speightstown) by 1 3/4 lengths. Saguaro Row is a half-sister to Pinnacle Peak (Yes It's True), SW, $131,626, while second dam Unbridled's Secret (Unbridled's Song) produced Puerto Rican champion and US GSW & GISP My Wandy's Girl (Flower Alley). Charlie Girl's most recent foal is the 3-year-old filly Howizee (Sidney's Candy). Lifetime Record: 5-2-0-0, $80,354. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

FORTUNATE GIRL (f, 3, Hard Spun--A P Mink, by A.P. Indy) graduated going long on the Fair Grounds sod at fourth asking last November, and only missed by a neck when second to subsequent GIII Sweetest Chant S. victress A Bit Special (GB) (Mukhadram {GB}) in the Wait A While S. going a mile on grass in Hallandale Dec. 8. She was back on the board with a runner-up finish two starts later in the Mar. 9 Allen Black Cat Lacombe Memorial S. returned to Fair Grounds and was a 7-2 proposition in this test Thursday. Second choice on the board, the $200,000 FTKJUL yearling adhered to the fence in sixth behind splits of :22.12 and :46.53. Inching closer approaching the far turn, she advanced up the inside into striking distance in fourth, spun off the turn four deep and motored home to win by a geared down 2 1/2 lengths. Favored Connectivity (Midshipman) got going even farther out in the course at the head of the lane, but the winner was already free and clear. Fortunate Girl is a half to a yearling colt by Empire Maker, and her dam, who is a half-sister to GIII All American H. hero Palmeiro (Pleasant Tap) and MSW & GSP Slews Final Answer (Seattle Slew), visited Tiznow last spring. CHIPOLATA (FR) (f, 4, Muhtathir {GB}--Chicago May {Fr}, by Numerous) was a two-time winner and MSP in her native France prior to West Point and Rob Masiello buying in and bringing her to America. Closing to be third in the GI Belmont Oaks July 7, she was fifth when last seen in the 12-furlong Zagora S. at Belmont Oct. 28. Dispatched as the 9-5 second-choice in this five-horse affair, the chestnut was forced to check off heels in the first turn and settled at the back of the pack. Saving ground through leisurely early splits, she was tipped out three wide by Manny Franco in the lane and gunned past the leaders in the final sixteenth to win by 1 1/4 over. JUST RIGHT (c, 3, Into Mischief--Perfect Package, by Tiznow) was in for the $150,000 tag when taking a local starter/optional claimer Nov. 26, finished runner-up in a Dec. 9 state-bred allowance and was most recently a well-beaten seventh in the Jan. 13 Rego Park S. Running for purse money only here after entrymate Beachside (Giant's Causeway) got loose on parade, Just Right stalked the pace through a swift opening half-mile, took command four deep at the quarter pole and shot clear of them late to score by eight lengths. The first foal from a full-sister to SW & GSP Tiz Now Tiz Then and a half to Irish highweight & MGSW Maoineach (Congaree), Just Right has a 2-year-old half-brother by Ghostzapper and a yearling half-sister by Munnings. CITI PARTY (f, 4, Desert Party--Citi Sounds {SW, $124,384}, by Citidancer) debuted a four-length winner against $16,000 maidens at this track last November and was last seen running up the score to the tune of 6 1/2 lengths in a Feb. 15 starter/optional test. The 1-5 chalk never had a moment's worry here, as she spurted clear into the stretch after being taken on early and scampered home--albeit while a bit wayward--to score by 7 1/2 lengths.

EONS (c, 3, Giant's Causeway--Golden Antigua {MSW-US, SP-Ity, $309,260}, by Hansel), sixth to next-out Columbia S. winner Digital Age (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) on Tampa debut Jan. 19, improved to be fourth in a similar test at the Oldsmar oval Feb. 16. Adding blinkers and lightly regarded at 10-1, the $300,000 Keeneland September yearling landed much closer to the pace than he'd previously been and raced inside before shifting out into a three-wide position on the second turn. Roused to the front at the furlong grounds, he was edging away late and had 2 1/4 lengths in hand at the finish. Exult (Noble Mission {GB}), favored at even money, settled in the second half of the field, gained good ground while wide off the final corner and ran on well for second. Eons is a full-brother to Giant Gizmo, GSW, $508,685; and Tableaux, MGSW-Fr, $287,089; and a half to Slick Pardoned Me (Skip Away), SP, $258,818. STEALTH (g, 5, Blame--Arboresque, by Cure the Blues) rolled boxcars in two trips to the races as a 4-year-old in 2018, finishing sixth going 6 1/2 panels on Churchill debut in June and again going a mile and an eighth at Saratoga the following month. Resurfacing here as the 37-10 third choice, Stealth was content to drop out the back of the field, but was never too far out of it, as the pace was slow to develop. Guided to the outside for clear sailing at the top of the lane, Stealth descended on the front-running duo inside the furlong pole and strode clear late for a 3 1/4-length victory. Light of the World (Bernardini) held for second after alternating on the lead with third-placed Morning Social (Morning Line). The winner is a half-brother to Meadow Blue (Meadow Monster), SW, $323,064; Dukin It With Dale (Indian Charlie), SP, $240,678; and Maurer Power (Violence), GSP. MY GALINA (f, 3, Medaglia d'Oro--So Far, by A.P. Indy) was sent off the joint-second choice on debut at 19-5 and was kicked straight into the lead by Eric Cancel, laying down fractions of :22.33 and :44.47 while pressed along to her outside by favorite Bye Bye Nicky (Point of Entry). The chalk proved a stubborn foe deep into the final furlong, but My Galina refused to yield and got home a half-length to the good. A $275,000 KEESEP yearling purchase, My Galina is out of a winning daughter of Stellar Jayne (Wild Rush), winner of the 2004 GI Mother Goose S. and GI Gazelle H. and third to Ashado (Saint Ballado) in that year's GI Breeders' Cup Distaff before being purchased by this breeder for $3.6 million at the 2004 Keeneland November sale. Marva could not be separated from fellow firster Reiterate at the line in Gulfstream's fourth race, with the latter becoming the first winner for her freshman sire (by Super Saver). In receipt of a three-panel bullet in :35 4/5 (1/6) at Gulfstream Park West

Apr. 6, the Wesley Ward homebred was bet down to 70 cents on the dollar and bounded straight to the head of affairs. In command rounding the bend, the blinkered miss was challenged by 3-1 chance Reiterate, who came from off the pace in upper stretch, and the two battled all the way home to share the laurels. “She’s a homebred. I own the sire,” Ward said of Marva. “We got lucky. I’ll take lucky any day.” Commented Mark Casse’s assistant trainer Nick Tomlinson of Reiterate, “When they sent her from the training center in Ocala, they said they had pretty high hopes for her. Since they sent her to me, she’s never done anything wrong. She’s got a great mind on her. She’s very, very classy. Hopefully, she has a bright future.” Searchingforahero was bred to American Pharoah last season, while Reiterate’s dam was covered by another Ashford stallion in Cupid.

U.S.-BRED/SIRED RUNNERS IN JAPAN #USBRED

In this continuing series, Alan Carasso takes a look ahead at US-bred and/or conceived runners entered for the upcoming weekend at the tracks on the Japan Racing Association circuit, with a focus on pedigree and/or performance in the sales ring. Here are the horses of interest for this weekend running at Hanshin Racecourse:

Saturday, April 13, 2019
11th-HSN, Arlington Cup-G3, ¥72m ($645k), 3yo, 1600mT

This weekend’s action features the G1 Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas) at Nakayama, but sophomores not yet on a Derby trajectory convene at Hanshin for Saturday’s G3 Arlington Cup

A pair of American-breds are among a full field of 18, including FOSSAMAGNA (c, 3, War Front--River Belle {GB}, by Lahib), who has posted a pair of impressive victories either side of a fourth-place effort to Satsuki Sho entrant Danon Kingly (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) in the G3 Kyodo News Hai (1800m) at Tokyo Feb. 10. The $275K Keeneland September buyback turned $725K OBS April breezer--a half to GSW & GISP Strathnaver (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB})--exits a smooth success going this distance Mar. 2 (video, gate 14) and gets Christophe Lemaire in the saddle. Fossamagna was bred in Kentucky by Lofts Hall Stud.

SAN JOSE TESORO (c, 3, The Factor--Cabaret Starlet, by Tale of the Cat) steps into stakes company on the heels of a very good-looking debut score going 1400m at Chukyo Mar. 16 (video, gate 6). Produced by a half-sister to Canadian Horse of the Year Arravale (Arch), San Jose Tesoro was a $30K KEEJAN short yearling and $100K OBSAPR grad. He was bred in Kentucky by Sheltowee Farm, WMK Racing LLC, Patricia Pavlish and Joe Miller, et al.

Sunday, April 14, 2019

5th-HSN, ¥13,700,000 ($123k), Allowance, 3yo, 1800m

SMART ALCHEMY (c, 3, Super Saver--Runway Model, by Petionville), a half-brother to MGISW & 'TDN Rising Star' McKinzie (Street Sense), was a decent sixth on his 1400m debut last December, but stripped much fitter and appreciated the stretch out to a distance of ground when graduating in a nine-furlong maiden at Kyoto Jan. 19. A $45,000 KEESEP yearling, Smart Alchemy is out of a MGSW & GISP juvenile filly that fetched $2.7 million from Summer Wind Farm when carrying to Storm Cat at Keeneland November in 2006. B-Summer Wind Equine (KY)

PHOENIX DIVIDENDS BOOST QUINN

John Quinn & Oisin Murphy celebrate their Queen Mary win
Racingfotos.com

by Chris McGrath

Year after year, Yorkshire trainers unearth elite runners despite relatively limited budgets. Yet while the top owners will sometimes snap up the odd maiden winner, with their wares advertised, even the most sustained improvement thereafter tends not to be rewarded at the next round of sales. Many owners, agents and managers appear to be under the impression that when you leave Newmarket Heath, you fall off the end of the world. Perhaps they are members of the Flat Earth Society.

How gratifying, then, that John Quinn's latest diamond sifted from the rubble—a G2 Queen Mary S. winner found in Book III for just 20,000gns—should for once have prompted a vote not just of thanks, but of confidence. Phoenix Thoroughbreds, who bought into Signora Cabello (Ire) (Camacho {GB}) just before her Royal Ascot success last summer, not only went to 900,000gns to buy out their partners back at Tattersalls last autumn (returning her to Malton until she joins their expanding broodmare band). They also took the logical next step. If this is what Quinn could do in the basement of the market, why not try his skills a level or two higher?

After 25 years with a licence Quinn remains perfectly aware that a handful of yearlings, however well bred, is still only a handful—and hardly likely to transform his brand overnight.

ANODIN MAKES MARK AT OSARUS

The second crop of France's leading first-season sire of 2018, Anodin (Ire) (Anabaa), were highly sought after at Osarus's La Teste breeze-up sale on Thursday. The Haras du Quesnay resident was responsible not only for the top-priced lot, a filly that fetched €90,000 from trainer Christophe Ferland, but three of the top 10.

The clearance rate, while not sparkling, was up slightly from last year at 62%. With similar numbers offered and the exact same (46) sold, the average dipped 9% to €22,537, while the median climbed 7% to €15,000.

The sale-topping filly (lot 42) was consigned by Paul Basquin's Haras du Saubouas and is out of Ciao My Love (Fr) (Touch Down {Ger}), making her a half-sister to the G2 Prix Daniel Wildenstein second Hello My Love (Fr) (Literato {Fr}). It is the extended family of G1 Deutsches Derby winner Lagunas. Basquin picked up the filly for just €17,000 at Arqana's October yearling sale last year. Cont. p5

Nonetheless it is a boost to the whole yard to receive one or two youngsters of different calibre. A Frankel (GB) filly out of GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf and G1 Irish Oaks runner-up L'Ancresse (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}), for instance, purchased for €480,000 at Deauville straight after Signora Cabello had pulled four lengths clear of the colts when a close second to Pretty Pollyanna (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) in the G1 Prix Morny.

"She's a beauty," says Quinn. "If there's ever one that came our way that might be a good 3-year-old, that could be her."

Then there was a €135,000 Kodiac (GB) colt from the same sale, out of a half-sister to the dam of champion Wootton Bassett (GB) (Iffraaj {GB}). At Doncaster, moreover, Dermot Farrington told Quinn and his son Sean, who sieves the catalogues, to let him know if there was anything they particularly liked. And there was: an Exceed And Excel (Aus) filly. Sure enough, Farrington signed the docket at £70,000. From the same Goffs UK catalogue, Phoenix sent up a £125,000 colt by Signora Cabello's sire. And just the other day Farrington offered him a 180,000gns Gutaifan (Ire) filly out of the mare whose first cover, by Gutaifan's sire Dark Angel (Ire), had produced the lightning Battaash (Ire).

"I said I'd try and find a box for her," Quinn says wryly. "To be fair, the filly winning at Ascot was fantastic for all of us. Because as a trainer you need something to happen, you always need that next horse to come along. I couldn't say she'd win the Queen Mary, because there were 22 runners and all beauties. But I told them I felt she was a very decent filly."

He is immensely grateful that Phoenix have followed through, while acknowledging that it's just one encouraging turn of the wheel in a career of long attrition. Cont. p3

"It's a great help to us," he says. "Because we knew that unless somebody jumps out of the woodwork, we can't afford the Galileos and Shamardals. And I think the North is deemed nearly a different country, when it comes to people sending their bluebloods up here. But a lot of the lads up here have done really well, and you are now seeing more of the big owners sending horses North, which is great."

The Exceed And Excel filly at Doncaster was always going to make their shortlist, as a full-sister to a juvenile who had already won three races for William Haggas in Queen Of Bermuda (Ire). Because Quinn remembers a call from Sean when they were at Tattersalls 18 months ago.

"It was Book III, I had bought plenty of yearlings and hadn't as many sold as I would have liked," he says. "And then Sean is on the phone saying that there are these two fillies I must come and look at. Sean's a big help to me, a big pedigree man. So I went down. One turned out to be Queen Of Bermuda, and the other was Signora Cabello. Unbelievable."

Quinn agreed to take one last punt, and they went with the one of the pair that had a little more substance. So the other filly slipped by at 17,000gns, only to be pinhooked at the breeze-ups to join Haggas for 230,000gns.

The Quinns will be back on the breeze-up circuit next week, being no less adept at picking out value in that market. Having found G2 Superlative S. winner Red Duke (Hard Spun) for £140,000 at Doncaster in 2011, three years later they famously turned up a subsequent Group 1 winner in Ascot's bargain basement for £50,000 in The Wow Signal (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}). Cont. p4

Quinn rewinds to a drink with Eddie O'Leary at the Cheltenham Festival. Gigginstown were having a tough week until no less a horse than dual Grand National winner Tiger Roll (Ire) (Authorized {Ire}) registered the first of his four Festival scores in the Triumph Hurdle, with two Quinn runners behind.

"In life, you need a bit of luck, don't you?" Quinn reflects. "I've known Eddie years. We were in a little members' bar on the ground level, and he said, 'I have a Starspangledbanner going to Ascot and, though he's crooked in front, I think he's a very good horse.' I watched the breeze on the telly and he did go really well, and Sean was down there and said he was a fine horse, not correct in front but he had good knees, which are very important."

Quinn rang O'Leary, only to be dismayed by the reserve. But O'Leary offered to keep a leg, and then stalwart patron Ross Harmon stepped in. The following month, The Wow Signal bolted up at Ayr by nine lengths and 11, and the third horse came out and won at Goodwood a fortnight later. Suddenly the phone was hot and The Wow Signal was transferred to the Al Shaqab silks in time for his G2 Coventry S. success.

"Then in the Prix Morny he beat two champions in Hootenanny (Quality Road) and Ervedya (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) on soft ground," Quinn says. "Yet it had been like flint at Ascot. He was phenomenal, probably the best we've had. But he ran no race when favourite for the Lagardere, and wasn't ever really right again. It just felt like the engine had been taken out."

Sadly The Wow Signal's stud career proved equally fleeting, as he died a year ago of laminitis. Nonetheless Quinn believes in the sustainability of the breeze-up model, having even won a Grade 2 juvenile hurdle a couple of seasons ago with one Arqana graduate. But he cautions that the breeze-up market's increasing obsession with times may end up working against everyone's interests.

"Last year we bought half a dozen from the breeze-up sales," he says. "And two or three of them had very sore shins shortly afterwards. We didn't get as good a run with them as in other years. Of course these are things you can get, that just happen. But I do think that the lads' hands are getting forced by the clock. A lot of us now are beginning to realize that it's just one aspect. You've got to move with the times a bit, but you've also got to put your own bit of 'feel' into it. We've all bought the ones that have broken the clock but have not been the best racehorses. So you just want a see one that moves well and gallops out."

Having learned the ropes under Jimmy FitzGerald, alongside Richard Fahey among others, Quinn was for a long time one of the leading dual-licence trainers in the land. In recent years, however, his emphasis has shifted away from jumping—and he has duly achieved a personal best, in terms of domestic prizemoney, in each of the past three Flat campaigns. Partly, of course, it is a matter of sheer economic necessity, with greater trading opportunities overseas.

"Because by the time you've paid your staff and your overheads—and without beating the drum, the prizemoney is derisory—you need to be turning them over to keep the show going," Quinn explains. "The margins are getting tighter all the time. Everything has gone up: hay, straw, diesel.

"But we've been very lucky over the years. When we've needed it most, a good one has come along. When the recession hit, it was very sticky. We went from 58 horses to 38 as quickly as one could snap your fingers. I'd lost my two best horses, and I said: 'I think I'm in a bit of trouble here.' Then we got an order for a fun horse. We'd seen Countrywide Flame (GB) (Haafhd {GB}) win at Hamilton, and went over to Kevin [Ryan]'s to have a look. He wasn't very big, but Kevin said he's very sound. And he superseded everything we thought."

In fact Countrywide Flame ran all winter before winning the Triumph Hurdle, and proceeded to finish second in the Cesarewitch before making the frame in the Champion Hurdle itself. "As a 5-year-old!" Quinn exclaims. "I thought, 'I have a right horse.' But then he got a bone degenerating disease, and eventually we had to put him to sleep. But he came along when we needed him, and it's been the same with the other good ones."

Happily, Signora Cabello is back to keep the Quinn team—spread between his base in the hamlet of Settrington, and rented boxes at the historic Highfield yard that housed six Classic winners—in lights this season. She is all set to resume in a listed race at Bath on Friday.

"I think she'd had enough come the Cheveley Park," Quinn says. "Obviously she was prepped for the sale, and then when she came back I gave her another month off. She's training nicely now and hopefully she'll be lucky for them this year. I think she'll make a very good broodmare, as she has a very good pedigree and a very good mind. She does have that offset knee, but moves very straight through it. I hope she's trained on: one never knows, but she has that good mind and while I wouldn't say she's grown massively, she's certainly strengthened up."

On his office wall hangs a circled target, as therapy for trainers. Steps one and two, on the adjacent instructions, are to line up and bang the forehead at the indicated area. Step three? "Repeat step two as necessary or until unconscious." Yet for all the frustrations of his calling, Quinn not only retains the zeal of the lad who led up Mister Donovan at Cheltenham in 1982—the first Festival winner owned by J.P. McManus—but finds his antennae ever sharpened by experience.

"You only begin to know a bit about horses as you get older," he suggests. "There's so much to learn. Because one thing I am sure about in this game, no-one has ever written the book: how to buy them, how to train them, everything. If you did it would just blow up, blow the nose off you. Yes, you do get pigeonholed: you're up North, you can train this not that. You know what I mean. So you have to keep producing the good one, to stay in the mix."

He is grateful that his family is similarly immersed in the business. It would, he says, be "a lonely old furrow" otherwise. But when you remark on the myopia of so many professionals about the North, he shrugs.

"You only ever need one," he says. "One good one. So you just never know."

CUMANI RECOVERING AFTER HOSPITALIZATION

Retired trainer Luca Cumani is recovering after being hospitalized with a respiratory issue on Tuesday evening, Racing Post reported. Cumani, 70, was suffering from epiglottitis, an inflammation of his epiglottis and was taken via ambulance to Addenbrooke's Hospital in Cambridge. The two-time G1 Epsom Derby-winning trainer, who runs Fittocks Stud with his wife Sara, will remain in the hospital a few more days before being released.

"Luca was having trouble breathing so we took no chances and the doctors said they haven't seen a case like his in 25 years," Cumani's wife Sara told Racing Post. "It was like an aggressive inflammation of his throat and was suffocating him but they've managed to treat it. He'll be in hospital for a few days, although if it was up to him he'd be out today. Hopefully he'll be able to be back on the gallops to watch horses like Felix (GB) (Lope de Vega {Ire}), who we have with Sir Michael Stoute, in the near future."

The latter's stablemate U S S Michigan (War Front), a full-brother to GSW G1 Prix du Jockey Club third War Dispatch, held every chance in the straight and finished fourth as the 15-8 favourite. Although the Cardinal Conditions S. is worth 30 points to the winner, 12 for second, six for third and three for fourth on the Road to the Kentucky Derby, Bye Bye Hong Kong is not Triple Crown nominated and a start at Churchill Downs seems unlikely. "He is a really nice horse, [trainer] Andrew [Balding] really likes him and he's got a long future ahead of him," said winning rider Silvestre de Sousa. "I don't know if he's up to winning a Group 1, but he will win group races. It was nice prizemoney, the team will be happy and it is just nice to keep the ball rolling." Reflecting on U S S Michigan's performance, Coolmore representative Kevin Buckley added, "Ryan [Moore] was happy enough with him, it was only his third run and he is still learning. It was his first time over a mile so we were going into the unknown and he will come on from that." Bye Bye Hong Kong is the first foal produced by an unraced half to GII Adirondack S. victress Nonna Mela (Arch) and he is kin to a 2-year-old colt by Constitution, a yearling filly by Outwork and a 2019 colt by Exaggerator. His second dam Cool Storm (StormCat) is an unraced full-sister to GI Haskell Invitational-winning sire Bluegrass Cat. Sales history: $70,000 RNA Ylg '17 KEESEP; 575,000gns 2yo '18 TATBRE. Messara Receives Longines/IFHA Award Cont.

Owner and chairman of Arrowfield Stud in New South Wales, Messara launched Australian breed-shaping champion stallions Danehill and his son and grandson, Redoute's Choice (Aus) and Snitzel (Aus), respectively. Messara was Chairman of Racing New South Wales from Dec. 2011-Dec. 2016, inaugural Chairman of Racing Australia from Jan. 2014-Dec. 26, Vice-Chairman of the Asian Racing Federation from 2014-2016, President of Thoroughbred Breeders Australia from 2007-2008 and inaugural Chairman of Aushorse from 2001-2008. "I'm very grateful to receive the Longines and IFHA International Award of Merit because it is presented by my international peers, and much of my work over the past four decades has focused on elevating Australian racing and breeding and communicating our success around the world," said Messara. "I acknowledge especially the unflinching support of my wife, Kris, and our four children; all of my team, past and present, at Arrowfield; the Boards and Executives of Racing New South Wales and Racing Australia; and two excellent Ministers for Racing, the Honourable George Souris AM and the Honourable Troy Grant. I've also been blessed by an incomparable dynasty of champion stallions that has shaped my career and the entire Australian Thoroughbred industry over the past 30 years. Danehill, Redoute's Choice and now Snitzel--thank you."

"It is a great honour and pleasure to recognise tonight Mr. John Messara's dedication to Thoroughbred racing, a sport dear to the brand," said Walter von Känel, president of Longines.

"Our commitment to equestrian sports is based on common shared values: tradition, elegance and performance. It perfectly embodies our long-time partnership with the IFHA, of which Longines is the proud official partner and official watch."

Added IFHA Chairman Louis Romanet, "I have the utmost respect for John Messara, and it is an honour for me to be in Sydney for the presentation of the seventh Longines and IFHA International Award of Merit. He is a very deserving recipient of the prestigious 2019 Longines and IFHA International Award of Merit."

SOUTH AFRICA RECEIVES STUD BOOK RECOGNITION

The South African Stud Book was officially included on the list of breeding bodies published on the European Union Commission's website as of Apr. 3, the National Horseracing Authority of South Africa announced on Thursday morning. The stud book was listed under Articles 34(1) and 64(4) of Regulation (EU) 2016/1012 [Article 34]. Originally, legislation was passed on Nov. 1, 2018 [Regulation (EU) 2016/1012 [Article 34] and the General Stud Book of South Africa applied for recognition in January, with the application being approved on Feb. 26, 2019.

Under the legislation, if a stud book is not listed, horses of that country are not allowed to enter any EU-country or to be registered in that country. Prior to this approval, if a Thoroughbred was exported from South Africa to France, they would not be allowed to enter France as a Thoroughbred from South Africa if South Africa was not listed, furthermore, this horse would not have been permitted to be registered in the French Thoroughbred Stud Book.

NEW ERA FOR THE AUTUMN SUN

The Autumn Sun | Bronwen Healy

by Bren O'Brien

The Autumn Sun (Redoute's Choice) will join Arrowfield's roster for the upcoming season, standing for A$77,000 (inc GST) after confirmation of his racetrack retirement. The 3-year-old had a remarkable racetrack career that lasted less than 11 months, taking in eight victories in nine starts, including five at Group 1 level.

Arrowfield, who co-bred the colt and sold him as a yearling for A$700,000, bought a controlling interest in him from Hermitage Thoroughbreds ahead of his win in last October's G1 Caulfield Guineas. Arrowfield and Hermitage met over the past few days on the sidelines of the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale and decided it was time to retire the colt. He becomes the seventh son of Redoute's Choice to stand at the iconic Hunter Valley stud and the fifth on the roster this season.

"We backed Redoute's Choice as a sire of sires early in his career, we stand Snitzel and Not A Single Doubt, and Beneteau was also highly successful for us. That history makes the best colt by Redoute's Choice an irresistible prospect," Arrowfield chairman John Messara said.

He enters the market as one of the highest priced first-season sires in Australian Thoroughbred history, A$20,000 more than the two highest-priced debutant stallions of last season, Merchant Navy and Russian Revolution stood for in their first seasons in 2018. It is the same price that Coolmore's 2-year-old Triple Crown winning stallion Pierro stood for in his first season in 2013.

But he will be likely the third most expensive of the sons of Redoute's Choice on Arrowfield's roster. Not A Single Doubt stood for A$99,000 last season and dual Australian champion sire Snitzel stood for A$220,000. Pariah stood for A$22,000 and Scissor Kick A$16,500. The 2019 stud fee announcements are expected this month.

A joint venture has been established between Hermitage and Arrowfield to acquire mares specifically for The Autumn Sun, while Arrowfield has also committed several mares for his first book.

Hermitage's Australian manager Olly Koolman admitted this week that some of the seven fillies it purchased at the Easter Sale were bought with the intention of eventually sending them to the stallion.

A Brilliant Career

The Autumn Sun's brilliant racing career began at Randwick on Anzac Day last year with an easy win over 1200m. He won his next start over 1400m a month later and then headed third up into the G1 JJ Atkins at Doomben, where he beat Zousain (Zoustar) and Fundamentalist (Not A Single Doubt). He resumed in the spring over 1500m, where he suffered his only defeat when third in the G2 Stan Fox S, but he atoned for that with a brilliant come-from-behind win in the G1 Golden Rose. Cont. p2

The colt then romped home in the G1 Caulfield Guineas by 4.5l, before returning in the autumn to win the G2 Hobartville S., the G1 Randwick Guineas and the G1 Rosehill Guineas.

"The quality of The Autumn Sun's race record also reflects the skill and dedication of trainer Chris Waller and his team, and we're very grateful for their care and management of him," Messara said.

He was bred as part of a joint venture with the Aga Khan, who owns his dam Azmiyna (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}). She had five foals in Australia, with The Autumn Sun's three-quarter brother by Not A Single Doubt selling for A$900,000 at this week's Easter Sale to Aquis Farm. While Azmiyna has returned home, there is a Snitzel weanling colt, the full-brother to the now 2-year-old filly that Waller and Guy Mulcaster paid A$1.3m for at last year's Easter Sale.
