IMPROBABLE LOOKS TO MAKE AMENDS IN ARKANSAS DERBY

Improbable | Coady

By Christie DeBernardis

'TDN Rising Star' Improbable (City Zip) lost his perfect record by a neck in his last visit to Oaklawn for the split GII Rebel S. Mar. 16 and he will attempt to make amends in Hot Springs Saturday in the GI Arkansas Derby. A debut winner at Santa Anita Sept. 29, the chestnut captured the Street Sense S. at Churchill Downs next out Nov. 2 and followed suit with a win in the GI Los Alamitos Cash Call Futurity S. Dec. 8. Originally set to make his seasonal bow in Arcadia, the Bob Baffert pupil was re-routed to the Rebel after racing was temporarily suspended at Santa Anita and he was run down late by Long Range Toddy (Take Charge Indy). Improbable adds blinkers for this start. A two-time stakes winner as a juvenile, Long Range Toddy was third in the Feb. 18 GIII Southwest S. prior to his Rebel upset.

The Rebel was split into two divisions to accommodate the California contenders and the second division winner Omaha Beach (War Front) also returns here. Never off the board, the Richard Mandella pupil took a little time to come around, but romped by nine lengths at fifth asking in a seven-panel test at Santa Anita Feb. 2. Taking the lead in the first half-mile of the Rebel, he maintained his advantage in the lane, where he was confronted by previously undefeated champion Game Winner (Candy Ride {Arg}). Cont. p4

WINX TO SIGN OFF IN FRONT OF GLOBAL AUDIENCE by Alan Carasso

A career that began innocently enough with a midweek maiden victory at Sydney's Warwick Farm June 4, 2014, comes to an emotional and highly anticipated climax in the early morning hours (US Eastern time) Saturday when Winx (Aus) (Street Cry {Ire})--in all probability--looks through a starting gate for the final time in the A$4-million (US$2.87 million) G1 Longines Queen Elizabeth S. She will be looking to win Australia's richest weight-for-age test for the third year in a row and to win a race at The Championships--Sydney's autumn carnival--for the fourth consecutive season, having defeated Happy Clapper (Aus) (Teofilo {Ire}) in the G1 Doncaster Mile in 2016.

Camapaigned by Peter Tighe's Magic Bloodstock Racing in partnership with Richard Treweeke and Debbie Kepitis and meticulously managed throughout her career by trainer Chris Waller, Winx, bred by John Camilleri's Fairway Thoroughbreds, was runner-up in the G1 ATC Oaks (2400m) precisely four years and two days ago and she has not lost since. In the span of the last 48 months, Winx has won 32 consecutive races, at distances ranging from 1300 meters (G2 Theo Marks S. in 2015) up to the metric mile and a quarter, including a record 24 races at Group 1 level. Nine of her victories have come over the 2000 meters, including an unprecedented four consecutive scores in Australia's springtime weight-for-age championship, the G1 W S Cox Plate at Moonee Valley in Melbourne.

Winx winning her second Queen Elizabeth in 2018 | Bronwen Healy

But it is Sydney that is home for Winx. Some 27 of her 36 career tallies have come at the metropolitan tracks, including 19 at Royal Randwick, which will be bursting at the seams Saturday afternoon when the Queen Elizabeth field is loaded just after 4 p.m. local time. A 20th Randwick score will take Winx's career earnings to A$26.3 million, an amount well north of US$19 million. She cost connections A$230,000 at the 2013 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale. Hugh Bowman has been aboard Winx 30 times during her current winning streak and in 32 of her career starts, though he was aboard for one of Winx's rare defeats, a runner-up effort to the classy First Seal (Aus) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}) in the G1 Coolmore Flight S. at Randwick in October 2014.

Though she will be something around 1-10 favorite to give the racing public the fairy-tale farewell they are yearning for, the Queen Elizabeth should test her as much as she has been tested in recent memory.

The competition includes Godolphin's Hartnell (GB) (Authorized {Ire}), second to Winx in the 2017 Queen Elizabeth and behind the great mare on six other occasions, including a runner-up effort the 2016 Cox Plate.

The hard-knocking Happy Clapper has run into Winx no fewer than 10 times in his 40-race career, having finished third to her in last year's Queen Elizabeth a week after taking out the Doncaster. He was second to Winx when she won her Doncaster in 2016.

"It's always been a 'necessary' and a 'have to', rather than a 'want to'," Happy Clapper's somewhat exasperated trainer Pat Webster told RacingNSW.com.au. "Because I tell you there are times I haven't wanted to. I've had to run against her to get to the races I wanted to. I can't go around in benchmark [handicap] races, so I have to run in the lead up races at weight-for-age. It's amazing how many people come up to me and say 'I hope you beat her,' but it's not the Australian way."

Fans from every corner of the globe will be glued to Saturday's final day of The Championships, which also features the G1 Australian Oaks (2400m), the G1 Sydney Cup (3200m) and the G1 Coolmore Legacy S. (1600m). TVG's Candice Hare will be trackside with live coverage alongside Sky Racing World's Jason Witham. Live streaming and wagering is available on all major US-based ADW platforms. (Click for a video tribute to Winx).

Omaha Beach | Coady

Smarty Jones S. winner Gray Attempt (Graydar) could do no better than 11th in the Southwest, but came back to win the six-panel Gazebo S. last time Mar. 23. The question for this colt will be whether or not he can navigate this distance.

THIS SIDE UP

by Chris McGrath

OMAHA BEACH: D-DAY FOR SMITH

In his quixotic way, the Mr Smith who goes to Washington believes that the only cause worth fighting for is a lost one. But the Mr Smith who today visits the 42nd President's home state is interested only in a running mate who can exit the primaries on top.

As it happens, the political dexterity required of Mike Smith just now is not confined to keeping lines open to connections of both Roadster (Quality Road) and his mount in the GI Arkansas Derby, Omaha Beach (War Front). Because seniority has lately made him a weathervane for the proposal, ultimately abandoned, for an experimental abstention from the whip at Santa Anita yesterday.

Arguably Smith's own professional longevity is itself instructive of the kind of cultural revolution sought by certain lobbies in the current, anguished debate over welfare. To the European eye, certainly, maintaining speed on dirt has always placed a lesser premium on the physical crescendo of "riding a finish" than racing on turf (or its cousin, synthetics), where horses are typically switched off before being urged into overdrive.

Between his longstanding devotion to conditioning and the way he nowadays manages his output, Smith can still bestride the American theater at 53. Even if he were not so secure against any physical advantage in riders half his age, however, experience would still buy him a length, mid-race, for every nose that might be gained by sheer prowess in the stretch.

And it is that seasoned judgement that makes him not only worth the wait for the Roadster and Omaha Beach camps, but potentially the key to the next name to be engraved beneath that of the Kentucky Derby winner who took even Smith to new heights last year. Cont. p6

Where younger riders make those critical, split-second decisions on the highly temporary basis that they know neither fear nor failure, Smith can instantly summon the closest match from an endless flipbook of parallel scenarios. That's why he could sit so coolly on Roadster last week, watching Game Winner (Candy Ride {Arg}) take the scenic route-in pursuit of a leader whose stretch fuel was always in question-and only reaching for the whip halfway down the lane.

Omaha Beach and Mike Smith | Sarah Andrew

As a result, a closing Roadster goes to the Derby with a new string to his bow. Smith's one concern will perhaps be that the horse's brief education has been in such small fields: he has yet to be shoved off the sidewalk, as will very likely happen at some stage during the 20-runner Churchill stampede.

Today, reverting to the other colt to have beaten the champion juvenile this spring, Smith will once again be seeking a fresh dimension. In a field strong enough to make it unnecessary actually to win to advance his case, Omaha Beach must at least see out the race in a fashion that encourages Smith he can extend his brilliance over another furlong.

Certainly he has been working like a pretty fast horse. On the other hand, he galloped out the stronger when he saw off Game Winner in their Rebel division, when trying two turns on dirt for a first time. While his tactics could not have been more different, having opened up before the home turn, Smith showed exactly the same sangfroid in front that day as he would, way out the back, on Roadster last week. (In fact, he resorted only to a single flick of the whip late on.) On both Roadster and Omaha Beach, he saved ground and maintained his own rhythm so that both were still coasting as they entered the stretch, albeit one was clear and the other closing.

With plenty of competition likely up front today, Smith can again be relied on to deploy his mount's energies evenly. That will not only give Omaha Beach his best shot in what is, after all, a $1 million Grade I race apt to decorate a future stallion brochure, but also preserve him from the kind of frenetic strain that could leave a mark so close to the Triple Crown series.

The key for Smith today is whether that tempo feels sustainable. Discussion of Omaha Beach's pedigree has naturally centred on his grand-dam Take Charge Lady, a top-class runner whose equivalent achievements in her second career are unsurprising in a daughter of Dehere (by the great broodmare influence Deputy Minister). For Take Charge Lady was credited with a remarkable double when her son Take Charge Indy (A.P. Indy) produced Long Range Toddy to win the other division of the Rebel.

But let's not forget that Take Charge Lady is out of a Rubiano mare-just like Omaha Beach's sire War Front. And Rubiano was a streak of lightning, near-white winner of races like the GI Carter and GI Vosburgh over 7f. Not, perhaps, the first name you'd look for 3x4 in a Kentucky Derby colt.

On the other hand, Rubiano was a half-brother to the dam of Tapit, Tap Your Heels-who was by a son of his own sire, Fappiano, in Unbridled. Their dam, in turn, was by a cooper-bottomed Classic influence in Nijinsky out of a sister to that vital fount of outcross blood, Relaunch.

Omaha Beach's dam is by Seeking The Gold, who for a son of Mr P has proved able to summon useful reserves from his own broodmare sire, the mighty Buckpasser.

Perhaps, then, he should instead have been called Gold Beach. As it is, he has a name befitting a champion; and one commensurate, as such, with those adjacent. For his trainer's wait for a Kentucky Derby sooner demeans the race, than the other way round. And then, of course, there's the rider.

The namesake who went to Washington was Jefferson Smith, pinning as much on his birth certificate as the William Jefferson Clinton who went there from Arkansas. But plain Mike Smith, bearing the most anonymous of all names, could not bring greater distinction to the casting vote between Roadster and Omaha Beach.

SO... WHO'S THE LEADING FIRST-CROP SIRE OF 2019? COMPETITIVE EDGE

Nick de Meric, de Meric Thoroughbred Sales

...when it comes to precocity and early speed and horses that should have an affinity for 2-year-old racing I'm going to go with Competitive Edge. I really like the filly I have by him a lot. She looks precocious and she's tough... a great moving, competitive filly and the harder we lean on her the better she likes it. She's outworking horses that cost a lot more than she did. I'm really liking her at the moment... I've also heard other people mention the Competitive Edges that they have on their places and how much they like them. That means they are attracting quite a bit of attention and that underscores the confidence I have in this one filly I have been talking about.

LEXINGTON A LAST CHANCE DERBY SALOON

by Alan Carasso

Anothertwistafate | Vassar Photography

The GIII Stonestreet Lexington S. at Keeneland offers the winner 20 points on the Road to the Kentucky Derby and a victory by a couple of Saturday's entrants would serve as the final push necessary for a berth in the field of 20 in three weeks' time.

Peter Redekop's Anothertwistafate (Scat Daddy) has been pegged as the 2-1 morning-line favorite and has been brilliant since finishing well down the field on his career debut on Breeders' Cup weekend at Santa Anita. He has since become a terror on the Golden Gate Tapeta, with three wins by a combined 16 lengths, capped by a sensational seven-length romp in the Feb. 16 El Camino Real Derby. He proved in his last start that his lone previous dirt try was an anomaly by falling just short behind Cutting Humor (First Samurai) in the GIII Sunland Derby Mar. 24. A repeat of either of those last two efforts puts him front and center here and books a spot in Louisville.

Sueno, by Stonestreet stallion Atreides, also has a Golden Gate stakes win to his credit, having won the Dec. 1 Gold Rush S. in his two-turn debut. He has subsequently acquitted himself well in graded company, with runner-up efforts in the GIII Sham S. and GIII Southwest S. ahead of a latest third in the GII Louisiana Derby Mar. 23.

Of those on the outside looking in, Zenden (Fed Biz) looms an interesting possibility. Unbeaten in two starts as a juvenile, including a minor Gulfstream stakes in December, the chestnut was an honest second to Call Paul (Friesan Fire) in the GIII Swale S. Feb. 2 and most recently set blazing fractions from gate 11 and held for fourth in the GII Tampa Bay Derby Mar. 9. Cont. p9

Stonestreet-bred Owendale (Into Mischief) proved best in a salty Fair Grounds allowance Jan. 17 and could do no better than eighth off a torrid trip in the Feb. 16 GII Risen Star S. ROAD TO THE TRIPLE CROWN
THROWDOWN
WATCH & WAGER ON ALL THE KENTUCKY DERBY PREPS AT TWINSPIRES!

Ed DeRosa of TwinSpires.com takes on TDN's Steve Sherack and Brian DiDonato as they handicap each prep race leading up to the GI Kentucky Derby. The three will make $100 Win/Place bets --highest bankroll after Arkansas Derby/Lexington day wins.

DiDonato: Santa Anita Derby, Wood and Blue Grass - Haikal settled for third from far back and Lucky Lee didn't do much running, but I loved the kick Roadster showed to defeat his more seasoned stablemate in the Santa Anita Derby. Not that he'll be any kind of price, but he's looking like my Derby horse at this point. Two more chances to get run down on this final prep day, but it certainly won't be easy. Let's keep it chalky... Bankroll: $11,725.

GI Arkansas Derby - Omaha Beach feels like one of those horses for whom the lightbulb has come on. He seems to have been very well regarded from the start of his career, but after just missing three times in a row was starting to look like a professional maiden. He put it all together when romping by nine lengths in the slop and on the cutback (ahead of last week's very impressive turf graduate One Bad Boy), and took another step forward when fending off none other than Game Winner in one of the GII Rebel divisions. It's worth noting (maybe not depending on who you ask) that Omaha Beach galloped out well in front of Game Winner, and the 2-year-old champ flattered Omaha Beach's effort with another strong showing at Santa Anita. I also thought Omaha Beach was forced to move a bit too soon last time. Selection: #3 Omaha Beach (2-1).

GIII Stonestreet Lexington S. - I've been pretty impressed with Shang's efforts against Louisiana-breds. Obviously, the waters get much deeper for him here, but he seems up to the task. His dam was classy--she hit the board a couple times at the Grade III level and was fourth behind Octave in the 2007 GI CCA Oaks. The pace looks likely to be pretty solid, and he seems like one who could find a good ground-saving spot off of it. Selection: #1 Shang (10-1).

Sherack: Santa Anita Derby, Wood and Blue Grass - Nolo Contesto, Outshine and Dream Maker made for a very rough day at the windows. We'll see if DiDonato's out of reach or not, but two more price plays still to come. Nice to clinch showing a profit in here at the least. Bankroll: $5230.

GI Arkansas Derby - Is there enough early pace to see a complete meltdown? The promising Country House made a strong, wide move into a very slow tempo in the Louisiana Derby and has every right to move forward off that fourth-place finish with the proper set-up here. After going all-in on the stretch-running Laughing Fox in the Rebel, he'll be on some of my tickets at a big price here, too. Selection: #8 Country House (12-1).

GIII Lexington S. - Owendale looked like he was on his way to good things this spring after two strong efforts at Fair Grounds, then failed to fire after encountering a less-than-ideal trip from far back in the Risen Star. He appears to be training quite well with a pair of bullets for trainer Brad Cox since his latest. Let's see if he can give a better showing getting back to his preferred trip of sitting closer to the pace with the rider change to Geroux. Selection: #8 Owendale (12-1).

DeRosa: Santa Anita Derby, Wood and Blue Grass - Instagrand placed third (Santa Anita Derby); Joevia finished seventh and was DQ'd to 11th (Wood Memorial); and Aquadini was 12th (Blue Grass). Bankroll: $3250.

GI Arkansas Derby - The Arkansas Derby does offer some real price alternatives. Galilean is the horse I'm most excited about from a Kentucky Derby standpoint, and of the favorites I prefer Improbable to Omaha Beach, but we're going to try to go out with a bang with Jersey Agenda. I saw this horse win an entry-level allowance race in January on the Smarty Jones undercard, and subsequent stakes tries did not go great, but the trips weren't great, and he always seems to be trying. Call him a Long Range Toddy light in that regard. At 30-to-1, I'll play that he runs back to the race I think I saw in his 3-year-old debut. Selection: #10 Jersey Agenda (30-1).

GIII Lexington S. - There are only two chances left to catch the leaders, but I can't in good faith reach too far in the Stonestreet Lexington S. considering Anothertwistafate is my Kentucky Derby #1 and favored to get the necessary points for a run on May 4 at Churchill Downs. Obviously, 30-to-1 on Derby day is a lot more enticing than 2-to-1 three weeks earlier, but I have a lot of respect for this horse's talent and just see him as being capable of blitzing the field. Selection: #4 Anothertwistafate (2-1).

BROWN BACK WITH TALENTED TRIO FOR JENNY WILEY by Alan Carasso

Rushing Fall | Sarah K Andrew

A year after saddling the first three home in GI Coolmore Jenny Wiley S., won by future Eclipse Award winner Sistercharlie (Ire) (Myboycharlie {Ire}), trainer Chad Brown sends out three of the eight runners this time around and a repeat of last year's feat is certainly not completely out of the question.

eFive Racing's Rushing Fall (More Than Ready) won the GIII Jessamine S. at two and the GII Appalachian S. and GI QE II Challenge Cup last season and could join Take Charge Lady (Dehere) as horses to win as many as four black-type races at Keeneland. The bay was handed the lone defeat of her career in the GIII Edgewood S. last May, but she bounced back to win a soft-turf renewal of Saratoga's GII Lake Placid S. in August before validating 2-5 favoritism in the QE II.

Rymska (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}) was sixth to stablemate Uni (GB) (More Than Ready) in the one-mile GI Matriarch S. at Del Mar last December and has two runs under her belt this term, an alibi-free runner-up effort in the GIII Suwannee River S. at Gulfstream Feb. 9 ahead of a two-length defeat of Hawksmoor (Ire) (Azamour {Ire}) and stable companion Onthemoonagain (Fr) (Cape Cross {Ire}) in the GII Hillsborough S. at Tampa Mar. 9.

Bellavais (Tapit) could be the one to crash the Brown party. The chestnut, whose second dam Memories of Silver (Silver Hawk) won the 1996 QE II, was a two-time stakes winner for the Phillips Racing Partnership and trainer Jimmy Toner before being purchased by Bortolazzo Stable for $485,000 at the 2018 Keeneland January Sale. She has won two of her four starts for new connections, including a 3 1/2-length victory in the GIII Marshua's River S. Jan. 12. Third to the Brown-conditioned Precieuse (Ire) (Tamayuz {GB}) in the GIII Honey Fox S. at Gulfstream Mar. 2 and will try to give trainer Todd Pletcher a first Jenny Wiley win.

Delta Prince, one of a remarkable six 'TDN Rising Stars' for the wonderful producer Delta Princess (A.P. Indy), became his dam's second Grade I winner at Keeneland, producing a stinging late rally that carried him to an ultimately comfortable victory in Friday's GI Maker's 46 S. His 'Rising Star' half-sister Crown Queen (Street Sense) won the 2014 GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup.

Away without incident from the three hole, the Stronach homebred looked to have secured a good position covering the well-backed GI Hollywood Derby winner Raging Bull (Fr) (Dark Angel {Ire}), but the latter failed to corner especially well, consigning Delta Prince to a four-wide run around the first bend as defending champ Heart to Heart (English Channel) exchanged blows up front with the positively ridden Great Wide Open (Ire) (Starspangledbanner {Aus}). Delta Prince did not appear to be traveling very well at the rear of the field through the middle stages of the race and he had to be asked for an effort fully three-eighths of a mile from home. Still trailing turning for home, Delta Prince was switched out after following the move of Raging Bull into the stretch and finally found his best stride before running out a good-looking winner.

"He's grown up and matured into a really nice horse," said winning trainer Jimmy Jerkens, whose last and only other Keeneland stakes win came courtesy of Christmas Kid (Lemon Drop Kid) in the 2007 GI Ashland S. "When [jockey Javier Castellano] swung him out, he looked like he was starting to kick in. But I was really nervous down the backside."

Delta Prince was making just his 13th trip postward Friday afternoon and celebrated his best season to date at five in 2018, with a breakthrough graded success in the GII King Edward S. before just failing to catch loose-on-the-lead Voodoo Song (English Channel) in the GI Fourstardave H. at Saratoga Aug. 11. An even fourth as the favorite in the GI Woodbine Mile last September, the dark bay was a distant third in the GIII Bold Ruler H. on the Aqueduct main Nov. 2. Ridden by Frankie Dettori in the GI Pegasus World Cup Turf Jan. 26, he made a run from last and hit the front a furlong out before settling for third to Bricks and Mortar (Giant's Causeway). He shipped to California for the GI F.E. Kilroe Mile last month, but was rerouted to the Maker's 46 when the Kilroe was canceled and rescheduled.

Pedigree Notes:

On the eve of Winx's career finale in the G1 Queen Elizabeth S. in Sydney, Delta Prince becomes the 21st top-level winner for the much-missed Street Cry (Ire). He is the 25th Grade I winner and one of 98 graded winners produced by a daughter of A.P. Indy. A half-sister to G1SW Biondetti (Bernardini) and a full-sister to Grade I-winning turfer Indy Five Hundred, Delta Princess was the dam of seven winners from as many to race, including Khozan (Distorted Humor) in addition to the four other siblings listed in the mare's produce record above. Three-time champion Royal Delta, purchased by Ben Leon for $8.5 million at Keeneland November in 2011, sadly passed away from complications from foaling a filly by Galileo (Ire) in February 2017. Now named Delta's Royalty (Ire), she is in training in Europe with Roger Varian. –Alan Carasso

Lady Apple | Coady

Lady Apple squeezed through a very tight spot inside of favored Motion Emotion inside the final furlong and fought her way to a game victory in the GIII Fantasy S. at the Oaklawn Park.

One of the first to break the line, Lady Apple found her way to the fence with a minimum of fuss for Ricardo Santana Jr. and took up the box seat from third as the race favorite and chief market rival Brill ding-donged it on the business end. Still under a nice long hold from Santana entering the turn, Lady Apple drew ever closer approaching the stretch and loomed dangerous if able to find a spot to run. Motion Emotion managed to fend off the race-long challenge from Brill to her outside, but with Santana Jr. riding for luck, there was just enough room for Lady Apple to knife through and edge away to score.

"Ricardo gave her a dream trip and the filly showed tremendous heart," said winning trainer Steve Asmussen. "She broke smoothly. He worked out the perfect trip for her. I think the only option was the fence and she showed a lot of heart to go through there."

Second as a maiden in the Astoria S. at Belmont last June, Lady Apple was fifth in the GIII Schuylerville S. The following month and a distant fifth as the favorite to 'TDN Rising Star' Feedback (Violence) in a Spa maiden Aug. 12 before calling it a season. She defeated a next-out winner to graduate in the local slop Feb. 7 and handled the stretch out to two turns with a decisive allowance success here Mar. 23.

Pedigree Notes:

Lady Apple, the 24th graded winner and 57th black-type winner for Arkansas Derby winner Curlin, is one of 10 winners from 11 to race for the 2002 GII Schuylerville S. runner-up, who is also responsible for SW & GSP Dr. Diamonds Prize (Pure Prize) and Miss Red Delicious, who won the Ellis Park Debutante in 2005 to become the first stakes winner sired by Empire Maker. Lady Apple is a half-sister to the 2-year-old colt Apple Empire (Empire Maker) and a filly foal by More Than Ready that was born this past Feb. 24. –Alan Carasso

CALIFORNIA REPRESENTATIVES ANNOUNCE HEARING, LEGISLATION ON HORSE RACING SAFETY by Dan Ross

California state senator Bill Dodd, D-Napa, and assembly member Adam Gray, D-Merced, have announced plans for a joint oversight hearing on horse racing safety. The duo also announced the introduction of new legislation to authorize the California Horse Racing Board (CHRB) to promptly suspend racing if dangerous conditions exist.

The hearing "will include testimony from expert witnesses highlighting the steps the industry and regulators have already taken to improve safety as well as exploring areas where more needs to be done," according to a press release from Dodd's office. Dodd and Gray met with California Horse Racing Board head Chuck Winner weeks ago to discuss steps that could be taken to improve safety at Santa Anita.

Racing at Santa Anita | Horsephotos

"This common sense bill is one part of the solution, and Chairman Gray and I will be convening a hearing to determine whether there are additional steps the industry or the state should take to enhance safety," said Sen. Dodd. "It's clear that state regulators need the power to act swiftly and decisively when exigent safety concerns arise."

When it comes to the joint oversight hearing, which is between the state senate and assembly, specifics are light.

In an email to TDN, a spokesman for Sen. Dodd wrote that the agenda is currently being developed for the possible speakers at the hearing, which "should include" regulators, veterinary experts and industry people. The hearing is expected to be scheduled sometime in the second week of May, he said.

According to the spokesman, Dodd has spoken with industry stakeholders as well as state regulators about other horse racing-related issues like safety. "And we'll be working collaboratively to see what can be accomplished administratively as well as what items like emergency race delays might require legislative action," the spokesman wrote.

"Broadly, the senator appreciates that the board and track are taking the issue seriously and have taken steps to demonstrate that. The hearing will help him determine if there are additional steps that should be taken," the spokesman wrote. As to what those steps might include, "We won't speculate or pre-suppose what steps should be taken. That's the goal of the hearing," the spokesman replied.

Senate Bill 469 would allow racing board directors to convene an emergency meeting to consider temporary track closure when a situation emerges requiring prompt action. The usual 10-day meeting notice would be waived, but the board would still be required to notice the emergency meeting to the media and public.

SB 469, which is scheduled for its first hearing Apr. 23, is also co-authored by Sen. Susan Rubio, D-Baldwin Park, and assemblymember Ed Chau, D-Arcadia, whose districts include Santa Anita.

In an emailed statement to TDN, Asm. Chau wrote that "The actions taken by the CHRB and Santa Anita management are an important step in raising the standards for the industry, but further reforms may be necessary, so I am looking forward to the oversight hearing on what more needs to be done, and continuing my involvement in future Legislative efforts, as I have been with SB 469."

When it comes to the racing calendar, the board has the authority to transfer race dates from one track to another track if it receives approval from both participating tracks. If the CHRB doesn't receive approval from both tracks, then the board has the authority to unilaterally move race dates around, but only if it receives a race dates application which is subsequently posted for at least 10 days. If necessary, the board can hold an unscheduled board meeting at the end of those 10 days.

FIRST PHAROAH RUNNER IN IRELAND

Monarch of Egypt is set to become the first runner for 2015 Triple Crown winner American Pharoah when he steps out in Saturday's first race at Naas over five furlongs.

Bred in Kentucky by RanJan Racing, the Mar. 31 foal is a son of Up (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), a two-time winner at group level in Ireland and runner-up in the 2012 G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches (French 1000 Guineas). Up is a half-sister to G1 Middle Park S. and G1 Darley Prix Morny hero Dutch Art (GB) (Medicean {GB}).

Owned in partnership by Peter Brant, Mrs. John Magnier, Michael Tabor and Derrick Smith and racing in Brant's silks Saturday, Monarch of Egypt was consigned to last year's Keeneland September sale by Lane's End, agent, and realized a final bid of $750,000 from Brant and Coolmore's M. V. Magnier.

Also down to debut in the same event is Flaxman Stables Ireland's homebred In The Present, from the first crop of Gainesway's GI Breeders' Cup Mile hero Karakontie (Jpn) (Bernstein).

CARROLL, ROSNER WIN DR. TONY RYAN BOOK AWARD

The journalistic team of Linda Carroll and David Rosner has been named winner of the 13th annual Dr. Tony Ryan Book Award, given yearly to recognize books written about horse racing. The winners were announced Apr. 10 at a reception held at the Ryan family's Castleton Lyons near Lexington, KY.

The writing duo of Carroll and Rosner co-authored "Out of the Clouds: The Unlikely Horseman and the Unwanted Colt who Conquered the Sport of Kings," a biography of Hirsch Jacobs and Stymie. The book details the 1940s-era Cinderella story of the two, both of whom ended up in the Racing Hall of Fame.

"This rags-to-riches story checked off all the boxes for me," noted Kay Coyte, lead judge for the award. "It was beautifully written and thoroughly researched, reading more like a novel than a scholarly text. Horse racing in those days may have been recorded in black and white, but authors Carroll and Rosner brought out the Technicolor in telling the stories of these two champions and their supporting cast of characters."

Other judges included Caton Bredar and Jayne Moore Waldrop. The winners received a check for $10,000 and a Tipperary crystal trophy in the shape of the stone tower found at Castleton Lyons.

SPORTS BETTING HALL OF FAME TO INDUCT DENNIS DRAZIN

Monmouth Park's Dennis Drazin, a key player in the legalization of sports betting in New Jersey, will be inducted into the Sports Betting Hall of Fame Apr. 25. In addition to being an advocate of sports betting and a horse owner, Drazin is chairman and CEO of Darby Development, which operates Monmouth Park.

Drazin spent nearly seven years battling to overturn the Professional and Amateur Sports Protection Act (PASPA). The Supreme Court ruled in his favor May 14, 2018, and Monmouth accepted the first legal sports wagers in New Jersey June 14, 2018. The decision changed the face of legalized sports betting in the U.S. after being restricted to just four states since 1992.

"I'm honored to be recognized for my accomplishments in the industry and I look forward to continued success at Monmouth Park," Drazin said.

The ceremony will be held at the Sky Room in New York City in conjunction with the Betting on Sports America conference at the Meadowlands Exposition Center.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

BARRY IRWIN

In the last 31 of my 50 years in horse racing, I have earned my livelihood forming racing partnerships. I have been able to do this because, in spite of the obstacles and challenges, enough people still want to race horses, so I have been able to continue with my enterprise.

I am involved in one segment of an industry that provides many folks and entities the opportunity to also make a living with Thoroughbreds.

But the number of people interested in the game is shrinking.

As a keen observer as well as a participant, I feel confident in saying that the ongoing contraction of the game is a direct result of cheating by the use of Performance Enhancing Drugs that tilt the playing field in favor of crooked trainers and owners interested in dominating over their rivals by illegal methods.

All of the enterprises in which folks are involved within the industry: breeding, pinhooking, sales companies, racetracks, training, writing, advertising, acting as agents--all of it--is dependent on one simple thing: the integrity of the race. Horseplayers have to feel good about the honesty of a contest to want to bet on the outcome.

The vast majority of folks in the industry are hunkered down in their own separate bunkers and do not want to have to think about the integrity of the race. They just want to keep on keeping on, because the game has been so good to them.

While these neo-Romans are content to listen to the lilting music from Nero's strings, the world all around them is crumbling.

This week, the Association of Racing Commissioners International announced sweeping proposed changes in the severity of penalties and fines they suggest imposing on parties found guilty of cheating. They put together a blue-ribbon panel of well-intentioned industry experts to come up with the framework.

My response to yet another committee, board or group coming up with something that has teeth in it is as follows: wake me when it's over please.

My problem is that no matter how many rules, substandard tests and other measures are introduced, one thing in the struggle to rid the game of cheats remains constant: no jurisdiction in all of North American racing has yet shown the will necessary to move the ball an inch.

Having been a civil servant for seven years in the Los Angeles County Probation and Civil Service Departments, and having interviewed plenty of stewards and regulators as a turf writer over the years, I know one thing for sure about regulators and stewards: like Congressmen, their main goal is not to lose their jobs. So in order to achieve this lofty goal of survival, they feel it is incumbent upon them not to rock the boat. They embrace the status quo. So counting on racing regulators to save our game from cheats is a foolhardy concept to begin with.

As I see it, our industry's only chance to clean up the game and insure the loyalty of the horse-playing public is to get behind Federal legislation to install USADA as the overseer of drugs in racing. And I say this not merely as the guy who originally came up with this notion in an Op/Ed many moons ago, but as somebody who does not want the game to wither away and die. USADA has the chops, the mojo, the know-how and the desire to clean up racing.

It's been a long time between swallows since racing even had a face of integrity, back when J. Edgar Hoover appointed a former G-man named Spencer Drayton to head up the Thoroughbred Racing Protective Bureau (TRPB).

USADA can bring an Elliot Ness-like urgency to the task of bringing crooks to accountability by good old-fashioned and modern policing methods. They are an independent body that owes nothing to any one pressure group or entity in racing.

And that's the rub right there sports fans, because groups representing racetracks, trainers, veterinarians, regulators and horseplayers all want to be involved to protect their own turf. Hey, that's what we have right now and it is not working.

One would hope that the dustup and lack of industry coordination over the 23 horse deaths at Santa Anita would have impressed members of the Thoroughbred industry enough to make them realize that our game is one ballot initiative by PETA away from extinction. So any thinking man or woman should have realized that racing needs to get its house in order.

Is the mood right for trainers, veterinarians and owners to realize that it is time not only to close the medicine cabinet, but to address the elephant in the room?

People: the biggest names in the game are trashing our sport by the illegal use of PEDs and they are flaunting it right in our faces. They are rubbing our clean-scrubbed faces right in the muck pit.

Are we going to stand up and do something about it? Or are we going to continue to ignore it or simply complain about it to our wives?

Let's reach out to our leaders of the alphabet organizations and tell them to start representing us as responsible participants in the industry and get real.

C'mon ladies and gentlemen. Let's have an industry we can be proud of. Isn't that what it's really all about?

SATURDAY'S RACING INSIGHTS: PROMISING HARD SPUN FILLY RETURNS AT SANTA ANITA

Sponsored by Alex Nichols Agency

3rd-Keeneland, $79k, Msw, 3yo/up, 1mT, post time: 2:12 p.m. ET

The well-bred BAR HARBOR (Orb) stamped himself as one to watch with a flashy late run through traffic to finish second in his debut going one mile over the Gulfstream lawn Feb. 10. Drawn widest of all in post 12 here, the Stuart S. Janney III homebred hails from the same family as millionaires Ironicus (Distorted Humor) and On Leave (War Front). Irad Ortiz has the call for Hall of Famer Shug McGaughey. TJCIS PPs

Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert unveils $725,000 KEESEP graduate MARTIAL EAGLE (Curlin) going a two-turn mile for Juddmonte Farms. The Triple Crown nominee has a pair of bullets on the worktab, including a sharp four-furlong drill in :46 3/5 (1/96) at Santa Anita Feb. 12. Martial Eagle, the 9-5 morning-line favorite, is a half-brother to GIII Toboggan S. winner and GI Carter H. third Great Stuff (Quality Road). TJCIS PPs

7th-Santa Anita, $57k, OC 40k/N1X, f/m, 3yo/up, 6 1/2f, post time: 7:15 p.m. ET

'TDN Rising Star' HARD NOT TO LOVE (Hard Spun) makes her first attempt versus winners following an impressive front-running debut victory at Santa Anita Feb. 16. The $400,000 KEESEP yearling purchase, campaigned in partnership by a group including Mercedes Stables and West Point Thoroughbreds and trained by John Shirreffs, is a half-sister to Canadian champion Wonder Gadot (Medaglia d'Oro). She is the 5-2 morning-line favorite in the six-horse field. TJCIS PPs

Ginger Nut | Coady

Ginger Nut, making her second start in the U.S., rallied from off a contested pace to score in the newly-created Limestone Turf Sprint S. Friday at Keeneland.

Getting off the mark at fifth asking last summer at Windsor, the chestnut repeated at 16-1 against males in the Weatherbys Super Sprint S. July 21 at Newbury and just missed by a head in the British EBF Nursery Handicap S. Aug. 4 at Newmarket before scoring again over males in the Sky Bet Nursery Handicap S. 18 days later at York. Purchased by Hronis Racing and transferred from the Richard Hannon outfit to John Sadler, she resurfaced in the Melody of Colors S. Feb. 23 at Gulfstream and closed into a slow pace to be fourth.

Taking good support to be the clear third choice in this spot, Ginger Nut was last out of the stalls from her rail draw before settling third-last behind a sharp :21.96 quarter over 'good' ground. Rallying in the two path on the turn, she tipped six wide at the top of the lane and closed furiously in the final furlong to overtake Stillwater Cove, who ran valiantly after pressing the quick pace, in the final sixteenth.

"I thought this filly would handle this kind of turf," said Juan Leyva, assistant to winning trainer John Sadler. "Being that she's a European import, I thought she'd relish it. She's got a lot of heart. Even though she's small, she trains like a big horse."

The winner's dam produced a filly by Mehmas (Ire) this term.

WARRIOR'S CHARGE (c, 3, Munnings--Battling Brook {SP}, by Broken Vow) was third when well bet in his debut Nov. 25 at Churchill and filled the same slot as the favorite here Jan. 26 and Feb. 18. Showing a new dimension of speed over track and trip Mar. 16, the lightbulb went on, and he cruised to a six-length graduation. Made the 3-2 favorite to repeat in this spot, the dark bay broke sharply and was hustled to the fore under Florent Geroux. Dictating terms in the clear through a :23.62 quarter and :47.44 half, he crept away from his closest competition in hand entering the far turn and suddenly spurted ahead by a half-dozen lengths past six furlongs in 1:11.47. Given his cue nearing the lane, he remained well ahead and finished under wraps as a sharp 6 1/2-length victor. Hidden Ruler (Gemologist) completed the exacta. The winner's dam produced fillies by Khozan in 2018 and earlier this year. Lifetime Record: 5-2-0-3, $138,110. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

BALLARD HIGH (c, 4, Flat Out--Dress Parade, by Victory Gallop), third in the off-the-turf Woodchopper S. Dec. 29 at Fair Grounds, was runner-up in a washed-off allowance there Jan. 19 and ninth in the GIII Mineshaft H. last out Feb. 16. Dismissed at 19-1 here, the $220,000 OBS June buy was hustled away to track a speed duel from fourth behind fractions of :23.33 and :46.60. Inching forward heading into the far turn, he poked a head in front soon after straightening for home and edged away from fellow longshot Our Agenda (First Defence) to prevail by three-quarters of a length. WENTZ (c, 4, Super Saver--Snicker Belle, by Distorted Humor), second in the Frank Whiteley, Jr. S. and third in the Miracle Wood S. last winter at Laurel, captured a pair of Parx allowances Nov. 26 and Feb. 9 and represented the first starter for this trainer, son of John Servis, after being transferred from the latter's barn in the interim. Off sharply to set the pace through splits of :22.38 and :45.51, the chestnut was challenged and briefly overtaken by odds-on Curate (Bernardini) past midstretch, but gamely dug in and turned that rival back by a nose on the wire. The victor has a juvenile half-brother by Cross Traffic named Ertz and a yearling full-sister. His dam was bred to Tiznow last spring. Sales history: $45,000 RNA Ylg '16 KEESEP. WINSTAR BRED 4th-Keeneland, $72,297, Alw, 4-12, (NW1X), 3yo, 1 1/16mT, 1:44.63, gd.

DEMARCHELIER (GB) (c, 3, Dubawi {Ire}--Loveisallyouneed {Ire}, by Sadler's Wells) named a 'TDN Rising Star' on debut, backed up that effort by running down MGISW Oscar Performance (Kitten's Joy)'s half-brother Award Winner (Ghostzapper) in the closing stages of a first-level allowance at Keeneland. Left with a lot to do at the top of the lane when favored first-out Nov. 21 at Aqueduct, the 425,000gns purchase showed a strong late kick to get up over Seismic Wave (Tapit), recent winner of the Cutler Bay S. at Gulfstream. Made the 8-5 favorite to double up in his 3-year-old debut, the bay came away well and traveled in seventh behind splits of :24.23 and :49.71 over the good ground. Advancing three wide midway around the far turn, he swung five deep at the top of the lane and drew alongside Award Winner at the eighth pole. Appearing poised to blow past that one, Demarchelier encountered a stubborn foe, but kept grinding to edge to the lead late and score a half-length success in 1:44.63. The winner's unraced dam is a full-sister to G1SWs and Irish Highweights Yesterday (Ire) and Quarter Moon (Ire), the latter of which produced G1SW Diamondsandrubies (Ire) (Fastnet Rock {Aus}). This is also the female family of MG1SWs Aussie Rules (Danehill), Alborada (GB) (Alzao) and Albanova (GB) (Alzao). Loveisallyouneed is responsible for a juvenile Sea The Stars (Ire) colt and a yearling colt by Golden Horn (GB). Sales history: S425,000gns Ylg '17 TATOCT. FAST GETAWAY (g, 4, Into Mischief--Stolen Star {MSP, $210,544}, by Cat Thief) graduated at second asking in his first try on turf against fellow Empire-breds at Belmont in June of last year. Fading to fifth next out in a state-bred turf sprint over yielding going at Saratoga in August, the Broman homebred was second by just a nose when last seen back in Elmont facing fellow native New Yorkers Oct. 25. Sent off the slight second-choice at 9-5 in this return from that six-month layoff, Fast Getaway broke sharply, but was overtaken by 68-1 shot Lohengrin Two (Langfuhr) and favored Big Engine (Not For Love) and was forced to settle for third. Perched two wide, he closed in on those rivals as the first quarter went up in :21.94 and was even with the chalk as they reached the half in :44.95. Seizing command in the lane, the bay motored clear, holding a late-running Mystical Song (Pleasantly Perfect) at bay by 1 1/4 lengths. The winner is a half to Highway Star (Girolamo), MGSW & MGISP, $1,326,813. Stolen Star is also responsible for the unraced juvenile colt Stolen Stories (Forty Tales) and had a Malibu Moon filly this year. PURE SENSATION (g, 8, Zensational--Pure Disco {MSW, $496,840}, by Disco Rico), a multiple graded stakes winner in 2017, successfully defended his title in the GIII Turf Monster at Parx last September. In his seasonal finale, the grey finished third in the six-furlong Belmont Turf Sprint Oct. 6. The well-supported 9-5 favorite for this return, the 8-year-old assumed his customary place at the head of affairs, carving out an early quarter of :21.22. Clear turning into the stretch, the gelding had enough left to hold Fig jelly (Forestry) off by 3/4 of a length. The winner is a half to Salute the Colonel (Colonel John), SW, $175,901. Pure Disco produced a filly by Street Sense in 2016 and a filly by Bodemeister in 2017. Away as the 6-5 favorite in this spot, the gray bobbled slightly coming out of the stalls, but quickly recovered to dictate terms through a :22.25 quarter. Challenged by longshot Crocodile Jacques (Lone Star Special) past a :45.50 half, he shook clear at the top of the lane and kept finding to best Inspector Eddie (Mineshaft) by 2 1/4 lengths. The winner is a half to Westover Wildcat (Forest Wildcat), SW, $283,850. His dam is responsible for a juvenile Shackleford colt named Reposado and was bred to Speightster last spring. IN ORDER OF PURSE:
4th-Oaklawn, $90,000, Msw, 4-12, 3yo, f, 1 1/16m, 1:45.03, ft. BLESSED AGAIN (f, 3, Paynter--Swiss Army Wife {SP}, by Colonel John) was runner up after setting the early pace in her seasonal debut here Jan. 27 and tired to fourth in the slop Feb. 10. Given an 11-1 chance this time, she settled in a midpack position through early fractions of :23.30 and :48.40. Three wide turning for home, Blessed Again drew clear late to graduate by three lengths over Subiaco (Will Take Charge). Swiss Army Wife produced a colt by Bodemeister last season and was bred back to Klimt. Sales history: $20,000 Wlg '16 KEENOV; $25,000 Ylg '17 KEESEP. 5th-Keeneland, $78,580, Msw, 4-12, 3yo, f, 1 1/16m, 1:45.72, my. SUNDAYSATTHEBEACH (f, 3, Medaglia d'Oro--Ask the Moon {MGISW, $713,640}, by Malibu Moon) ran fifth debuting on the Churchill turf last fall and was runner-up in the slop Dec. 29 at Fair Grounds and Feb. 10 at Oaklawn. Catching another wet surface as a 37-10 chance here, the $300,000 Keeneland September graduate settled in fifth behind fractions of :23.84 and :48.64. Advancing while unasked three wide midway around the far turn, she took charge outside the quarter pole and drew clear in the lane to a 5 3/4-length score over Smooth With a Kick (Candy Ride {Arg}). The winner's dam, who captured the GI Personal Ensign S. and GI Ruffian H. as a 6-year-old in 2011, sold for $1.8 million in foal to War Front at KEENOV in 2013. She produced a colt by Carpe Diem last year before visiting More Than Ready. Sales History: $300,000 Ylg '17 KEESEP. 10th-Keeneland, $78,580, Msw, 4-12, 3yo, f, 6f, 1:11.77, my. PALOMITA (f, 3, Into Mischief--Palomanegra, by Grand Slam) broke alertly, cleared her inside competitors and never gave anyone a chance in the stretch to score a romping graduation in the Keeneland nightcap Friday. Bet down to 9-10 debuting Feb. 2 at Gulfstream, the bay was a distant second behind 'TDN Rising Star' Violencia (Violence) and showed six interim drills, capped by a half-mile move in :48 4/5 (34/109) here Apr. 6. Taking the bulk of the play once again to be 8-5, the $375,000 Fasig-Tipton Gulfstream buy beat the blocks and went on with it easily through a sharp :21.90 quarter. Cruising around the turn under a hot-handed Javier Castellano, she gave her rivals the slip past midstretch and rolled home four lengths to the good. Violent Lady (Violence) was second-best, while Doll Collection (Tapit), the second foal out of dual champion Groupie Doll (Bowman's Band), won a three-horse photo for the show. The winner has a juvenile full-brother and her dam, a half to MGSW/GISP Falling Sky (Lion Heart), was bred to Kitten's Joy last season. Positively Awesome | Lauren King

5th-Gulfstream, $66,400, Msw, 4-12, 2yo, 4 1/2f, :51.70, ft.
POSITIVELY AWESOME (c, 2, Awesome of Course--Sexy Stockings, by Tabasco Cat), installed the even-money choice for this unveiling, settled off the early pacesetter Cajun Cassanova (Cajun Breeze) through an opening quarter in :21.18. Swung out five wide turning for home, the chestnut forged to the front late to edge Genghis (Brethren) by a half length at the wire. The pacesetter was a clear third. "He broke really good but the other horse broke super sharp and was faster than him. I just let him catch a breath," said Edgard Zayas. "If he didn't win, I wanted to give him a good experience out of the race, so I just let him sit off the pace. Little by little, I tipped him out and coming into the stretch, he kicked on really good. He was pretty impressive." The winner is half to Garter Belt (Anasheed), MSW, $139,255; Jackson Bend (Hear No Evil), MGISW, $1,806,750; Grande Shores (Black Mambo), SW, & GSP, $665,689; Southern Barbeque (Hear No Evil), MSP, $187,191; and Brighton Lane (Hear No Evil), SP, $203,570. Sexy Stockings is responsible for a yearling filly by Jess's Dream and was bred back to that stallion. FREUDNME (c, 3, Freud--Nobody But Me, by Trust N Luck) flashed speed with a five-furlong gate breeze in 1:01 flat (2/35) Mar. 30 at Belmont and was let go at 16-1 in this debut. Tracking from the second flight through honest fractions of :22.65 and :45.87, the chestnut moved to the fore three deep in upper stretch and held sway late from Bears Mafia (Verrazano) to prevail by one length. CE CE (f, 3, Elusive Quality--Miss Houdini {GISW, $187,600}, by Belong to Me) entered this debut off a best-of-22 half-mile breeze in :48 2/5 in Arcadia Apr. 6 and was given a 6-1 chance to get off the mark here. Running off the rail in mid-pack in the early going, the chestnut was guided to the fence as the first quarter went up in a sharp :22.01. Charging up behind favored leader Honeyfromthesouth (Fed Biz) on the backstretch, Ce Ce swept past the rival in mid-stretch and rolled clear for a 2 1/4-length success. The winner is a half to Papa Clem (Smart Strike), MGSW & GISP, $1,121,190; and the SP dam of GSW Hot Springs (Uncle Mo). GI Del Mar Debutante S. winner Miss Houdini has an unraced juvenile colt named Riggins (Liam's Map) and produced an American Pharoah colt this term. GREENHAM THE FOCUS ON EXCITING DAY OF ACTION

Mohaather returns to the scene of his Horris Hill S. win in Saturday's G3 Greenham S. | Racing Post

By Tom Frary

Newbury takes centre stage on Europe's first busy weekend day of 2019, where Guineas candidates of both sexes are put through the rigours of time-honoured trials on Saturday.

Without Too Darn Hot (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}), the G3 Watership Down Stud Greenham S. has debatable significance as a serious trial for the 2000 Guineas, but the seven-furlong prep has a far more competitive feel in the absence of the sponsors' star. Gerard Augustin-Normand and Middleham Park Racing share the ownership of Boitron (Fr) (Le Havre {Ire}), who has winning course-and-distance form having taken the Listed Washington Singer S. in August. Fourth in the G1 Prix Jean Luc Lagardere on Arc day at ParisLongchamp, he is one of only two along with Great Scot (GB) (Requinto {Ire}) to have tasted racing at the highest level. "The Lagardere form was given a boost by Broome winning the Ballysax last weekend and the fifth horse, Shaman, came out and won the Prix la Force recently," Middleham Park Racing's racing manager Tim Palin said of Boitron. "It was a bit of a strange race, they seemed to keep the same order throughout, on the pace was the place to be and we found ourselves with too much to do. That was his first run in a Group 1, but he was far from disgraced."

Fifth and beaten less than 1 1/2 lengths in Doncaster's G1 Vertem Futurity Trophy in October, the bargain buy revelation Great Scot had previously turned over the subsequent GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf winner Line of Duty (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) in a novice contest over this trip at Haydock in July and annexed the Listed Ascendant S. at a mile on testing ground back there the following month.

"Richard Hannon's horse Boitron looks quite good, but we are not going there without a strong chance," Dascombe said of Great Scot. "He is entered in the 2000 Guineas and Saturday is about where do we go next. It will be quite informative for us and I am looking forward to it with a certain amount of nervous excitement."

Jaber Abdullah's G2 Criterium de Maisons-Laffitte scorer Hello Youmzain (Fr) (Kodiac {GB}) has stamina to prove over this extra furlong, but he looked like a colt who would get further in that authoritative display. Cont. p2

While Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Mohaather (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) took the G3 Horris Hill S. over this track and trip when last seen in October.

"We've had a good run with him and he seems in good form," trainer Marcus Tregoning said of the latter. "He is still learning. I think he has more to offer because he was still a bit green [in the Horris Hill]. He definitely has ability and we will see if he has trained on."

Of the unexposed types, Phoenix Thoroughbred's $950,000 purchase Magic J (Scat Daddy) will continue to warrant close inspection wherever he goes until his bubble is burst. Highly promising when scoring on debut over six furlongs at Yarmouth in September, he needs a quicker surface than was evident in Berkshire on Friday and it may be that trainer Ed Vaughan opts to swerve the race in these testing conditions.

'TDN Rising Star' So Perfect | Racing Post

"Obviously with the favourite out it's a bit of a different race, but the ground would still be a concern," he explained. "On his pedigree and his action, he's a horse that wants better ground so we will see how it is after racing on Friday. We're keen to get him out and see where we are. He's a horse that won his maiden on his only start last year, so it's hard to know how good he is--you only really know when you get racing. He's entered in the Guineas, but we'll see how he goes at the weekend before making plans."

In the G3 Dubai Duty Free S., registered as the Fred Darling, the form standard is set by Ballydoyle's 'TDN Rising Star' So Perfect (Scat Daddy) who races beyond six furlongs for the first time. Successful in the G3 Grangecon Stud S. at The Curragh in July, she was placed in the G1 Phoenix S. back there the following month, the G1 Cheveley Park S. at Newmarket in September and the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint at Churchill Downs in November. If she fails to get an extra furlong, especially in this stamina-demanding ground, the race is thrown open and Waverley Racing's Dancing Vega (Ire) (Lope De Vega {Ire}) looks ideally poised to enhance her reputation. Impressive on her sole start in a mile novice race at Doncaster in October, she has to prove she has the speed to cope with peers who showed genuine pace as juveniles. Trainer Ralph Beckett is unconcerned on that score.

"She is coming back a furlong, but I don't think that's a problem. If she is going to get to the 1000 Guineas she has to run somewhere and this gives her her best chance of recovering for it," he said. "I think that she will benefit from the run. She will like the ground. She has had a pretty good preparation."

David Elsworth supplies Dandhu (GB) (Dandy Man {Ire}), who was second to the leading Guineas protagonist Just Wonderful (Dansili {GB}) in Newmarket's G2 Rockfel S. over this trip in September, while Great Scot's similarly cheap stablemate Iconic Choice (GB) (Sixties Icon {GB}) commands respect after a convincing success over this course and distance in the Listed Radley S. in October.

"She is a very genuine filly who requires soft ground," Tom Dascombe said of the latter. "It looks like we are going to get that on Saturday. She handles soft ground better than other horses do. She won the Radley S. on soft and won on heavy at Ayr."

HARRY ANGEL TO DARLEY AUSTRALIA

The 2017 world champion sprinter will stand at Darley's Kelvinside Stud this year. Click or tap here to go straight to TDN Aus/NZ.

In the G3 Dubai Duty Free Finest Surprise S., the newly-gelded Defoe (Ire) (Dalakhani {Ire}) bids to create history by winning this contest, known as the John Porter, on two occasions. Sheikh Mohammed Obaid Al Maktoum's G2 Jockey Club S. scorer and G1 Grosser Preis Von Baden runner-up has Young Rascal (Fr) (Intello {Ger}) to contend with as he attempts the landmark.

Unbeaten in three starts here, Bernard Kantor's G3 Dubai Duty Free Legacy Cup winner who dead-heated in the G3 St Simon S. will not be compromised by conditions.

"Young Rascal is an interesting horse this year," trainer William Haggas commented. "I think he might stay a bit further this year. He has run well with cut in the ground and most of his best form is on it, but I'm not convinced he needs it."

Elsewhere, John Gosden saddles two runners for The Queen as he bids to make an instant impact as a new trainer for the monarch. In the second division of the mile maiden, he puts forward the newcomer Gold Stick (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), while in the 11-furlong maiden won last year by Young Rascal he has the Chelmsford runner-up Pianissimo (GB) (Teofilo {Ire}). She is double-handed in the latter, with William Haggas saddling the unraced Space Walk (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) who is a full-brother to her smart performers Call To Mind (GB) and Recorder (GB).

First Runner For American Pharoah at Naas

At Naas, the opening maiden sees royalty of a different kind represented as the great American Pharoah has his first runner in Europe. Aidan O'Brien unleashes Monarch of Egypt, the $750,000 KEESEP graduate who runs in the Peter Brant colours and all eyes will be fixed on the colt who could get his sire off to a flying start.

Ballydoyle also put forward Prince Faisal bin Khaled Al Saud and Michael Tabor's 2017 G3 Jersey S. winner and G1 Poule d'Essai des Poulains runner-up Le Brivido (GB) (Siyouni {Fr}) in the G3 Gladness S., where he encounters last year's G1 Irish 2000 Guineas hero Romanised (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}). The latter's trainer Ken Condon said, "He looks good and has wintered well. I'd say he's about 90% there and he's ready to start. He seems in good form and I think he'll appreciate the ground. It's just on the slow side of good, which is better than it is usually at this time of year, and we're looking forward to getting him started."

O'Brien is also keen to get the career of Le Brivido back underway after inheriting the 5-year-old from Andre Fabre. "He's in good form. He's a horse that shows plenty of pace, we think, and hope that he will get a mile," he commented. "We're starting him off at seven and we think it will be a nice start for him, but we'll learn a lot about him when we run him, hopefully."

The G3 Alleged S. is even deeper, attracting last year's G1 Irish Derby hero Latrobe (Ire) (Camelot {GB}), his G1 Irish St Leger conqueror Flag of Honour (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) and the G1 Qipco British Champions Fillies & Mares S. heroine and GI Breeders' Cup Turf runner-up Magical (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), but it is a far more competitive renewal than the norm and it would be no surprise if the winner came from outside this trio.

Ryan Moore is on Magical and Aidan O'Brien is excited about arguably the stable's leading older horse for the campaign.

"She's obviously back after a break, but we've been happy with her and she's been doing everything nicely at home," he said. "She's just ready to start, but we're happy with what she's doing. We were delighted with her at the end of last year and she really got it together. Obviously we're looking forward to this year with her."

Of Flag of Honour, he added, "We're happy with him and he's just ready to start. He's in good form and hopefully he will run a nice race. Obviously we know he stays much further and we'll probably step him up after this."

Joseph O'Brien is also keen to get Latrobe back in action and commented, "We would have always thought that he would make as good a 4-year-old as he did a 3-year-old. I don't think he is a stayer--he has a big cruising speed and I think a mile and half will be his optimum trip."

KAYA CAMP LEANING TOWARDS NEWMARKET

Connections of Lady Kaya (Ire) (Dandy Man {Ire}), the eye-catching winner of last weekend's G3 1000 Guineas Trial at Leopardstown, have indicated they are leaning towards the G1 1000 Guineas with their talented 3-year-old. Lady Kaya, who races for Joanne Lavery, was winning for the first time in four starts since breaking her maiden in August.

Sheila Lavery and Lady Kaya | Racing Post

"She came out of the race very well, and I would imagine that we are leaning towards Newmarket, but we'll make a definite decision closer to the time," said trainer Sheila Lavery. "She did surprise me a little, because I wasn't convinced she'd stay on that ground. You'd have to be happy. It was soft ground down the back, which she wouldn't have been keen on, so I was delighted and surprised."

Performing so well over seven furlongs, Lady Kaya also helped eased doubts that she would get the one-mile Guineas distance.

"The big thing now is she has really learned to settle," Lavery said. "[Jockey] Robbie [Colgan] can put her where he wants. He gave her a beautiful ride.

"The consensus seems to be Newmarket is an easier mile than The Curragh, so all things being right, we'll be aiming her at Newmarket."

STAR QUALITY AT NEWBURY

Anthony Oppenheimer's Star Catcher (GB) (Sea the Stars {Ire}) had been slow to learn when sixth over a mile on debut on Chelmsford's Polytrack five days before Christmas, but the John Gosden trainee attracted significant support as she had done on that occasion for an important 10-furlong maiden hosted at Newbury on Friday and showed why with a performance of real substance. Sent off the 10-11 favourite, the bay was keen initially before being granted a lead and travelled strongly to the front inside the final half mile. Outstaying Sashenka (Ger) (Maxios {GB}) in the last quarter mile, the homebred registered an authoritative 4 1/2-length success, with the field spread out behind. Star Catcher was winning the same maiden as the future Oaks heroines Eswarah (GB) (Unfuwain) and Dancing Rain (Ire) (Danehill Dancer {Ire}) here and in which her stablemate Lah Ti Dar (GB) (Dubawi {Ire}) made such a strong impression 12 months ago. "She was green first time out, but she has learnt a lot there," Gosden said. "She has got a lot of strengthening and development to do. She handled the ground well. We will look at one of the Oaks trials in early May. I could see her as a filly getting better in the autumn." The dam, who is owned by the Oppenheimers, is already responsible for the G2 Prix Eugene Adam and G3 Tercentenary S. winner Pisco Sour (Lemon Drop Kid), GSW-Eng & Fr, $412,610, and his even more accomplished full-brother Cannock Chase, who also took Royal Ascot's Tercentenary as well as the G3 Huxley S. before winning the GI Canadian International, GISW-Can & MGSW-Eng, $680,268. She is a half-sister to the sire Lord Admiral (El Prado {Ire}), a classy performer to race in the silks of the Late Dr Vincent O'Brien and who carried them to success in the G3 Ballycorus S., G2 Jebel Hatta and G3 Al Rashidiya and who was placed in the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup. Her 2-year-old filly Maurimo (GB) is by Kingman (GB), while she also has a yearling filly by Frankel (GB).

KING OTTOKAR (FR) (c, 3, Motivator {GB}--Treasure {Fr} SW & GSP-Fr, $102,145}, by Anabaa), who posted a Sept. 22 debut score tackling seven furlongs at this venue before running ninth upped to one mile in Doncaster's Oct. 27 G1 Vertem Futurity Trophy last time, found a smooth rhythym along the rail and raced under a tight hold in fifth for most of this sophomore return. Making smooth headway in the straight, the 14-1 chance bounded to the fore approaching the eighth pole and was ridden out to prevail by 1 1/2 lengths from Dashing Willoughby (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}). 'TDN Rising Star' Space Blues (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) held every chance when threatening inside the last half mile, but the 11-8 chalk was too keen early and edged out of third by Kaloor (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) nearing the line. Trainer Charlie Fellowes wasn't downplaying his opinion of the colt post-race, saying, "We came here thinking if we finished in the first four it would be a good result. We felt he would come on for the run and we felt this was a pretty hot race.

"I've always thought he was very good, but my very good and John Gosden's very good are two different things -[but] he might just be John Gosden very good.

"Doncaster was just too much, too soon. They went very hard and he wasn't experienced enough."

"He relishes cut in the ground and that is something we have got to think about going forward, but he is in all the big races. He is in the Dante, but if we are going to think about Epsom--which the owner would love to do--maybe somewhere like Chester and you can get cut in the ground there. It might just make him think, as he is a big horse. He would probably go a mile and a quarter there.

"He could be the best I've trained. It would lovely for him to be a Derby runner. If we can go to Epsom, we would love to go."

King Ottokar becomes the fifth scorer for stakes-winning G3 Prix d'Arenberg third Treasure (Fr) (Anabaa) and he is half to Listed Prix Ronde de Nuit runner-up Tresorier (GB) (Dunkerque {Fr}) and the dual stakes-placed Tresorerie (Fr) (Intello {Ger}). FIRST WINNER FOR SIRE

1st-Newbury, £10,000, Mdn, 4-12, unraced 2yo, 5f 34yT, 1:04.98, sf.

HIGHLAND CHIEF (IRE) (c, 2, Gleneagles {Ire}--Pink Symphony {GB} {GSW-Ire & MSP-Eng, $186,684}, by Montjeu {Ire}) tracked the leaders in seventh after a mainly level break in this firsters' test. Nudged along approaching the final quarter-mile, the 16-1 chance quickened smartly to challenge passing the eighth pole and found plenty under mild urging in the closing stages to deny the persistent Separate (GB) (Cable Bay {Ire}) by an ultimately snug neck, becoming the first winner for his Coolmore Stud-based freshman (by Galileo {Ire}). He is the latest of four foals and third scorer out of G3 Give Thanks S. victress Pink Symphony (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}), herself kin to MGISP G3 Prestige S., G3 Nell Gwyn S. and GIII Modesty H. heroine Fantasia (GB) (Sadler's Wells) and to the dam of MGSW G2 Prix Eugene Adam victor Western Hymn (GB) (High Chaparral {Ire}). The latter also won a conditions heat on this very card in 2014. The homebred bay's third dam is G1SW European champion Blue Duster (Danzig), herself a full-sister to G1SW sire Zieten. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $8,441. Video, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

QUICK (GB) (f, 3, Olympic Glory {Ire}--The Giving Tree {Ire}, by Rock of Gibraltar {Ire}), a 25-1 shot on this debut, started brightly but was soon struggling to lay up with the pace. Seemingly out of range and beaten approaching the furlong pole, the bay responded to Tom Marquand's whip to pick up Millicent Fawcett (GB) (Kingman {GB}) on the line and prevail by a short head. A cheap purchase by the sire's original owner Julie Wood, the winner is out of a granddaughter of the G3 Park Hill S. runner-up The Faraway Tree (GB) (Suave Dancer) who in turn was the dam of the GI Gamely S.-winning class act Tuscan Evening (Ire) (Oasis Dream {GB}). Her owner said, "Last season she had a few early niggles and we gave her time. Today was the plan and we were hoping to learn a little more--but I think we have learnt a lot." ETRURIA (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) is a striking newcomer for Godolphin and Andre Fabre as a full-sister to their G1 Prix Jean Prat hero and G1 2000 Guineas runner-up Territories (Ire). Also connected to the operation's star runners and sires Street Cry (Ire) and Shamardal, she faces 10 rivals on the Polytrack.

1.50 Naas, Cond, €25,000, 2yo, 5fT
MONARCH OF EGYPT (American Pharoah) is a highly significant Ballydoyle representative, being the first to run for his stable and sire with Ryan Moore booked. Out of the operation's G2 Blandford S. winner and G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches runner-up Up (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}), the March-foaled bay who cost $750,000 at Keeneland September runs in the colours of Peter Brant and meets Godolphin's unraced colt Paso Doble (Ire) (Dawn Approach {Ire}), a Jim Bolger-trained son of the G1 Preis von Europa heroine Baila Me (Ger) (Samum {Ger}).

3.50 Newbury, Mdn, £8,550, 3yo, 8fT
FOX CHAIRMAN (IRE) (Kingman {GB}) bids to continue the bright start to the season made by representatives of the late Vichai Srivaddhanapradha's King Power Racing. A 450,000gns TATOCT half-brother to the dual Group 1-winning La Collina (Ire) (Strategic Prince {GB}), the February-foaled bay makes his debut for the Andrew Balding stable and encounters another newcomer in Lord Lloyd-Webber's Crystal Tribe (Ire) (Dansili {GB}), a William Haggas-trained son of the owner-breeders' G1 Fillies' Mile heroine Crystal Music (Nureyev).

4.25 Newbury, Mdn, £8,550, 3yo, 8fT
ROSEMAN (IRE) (Kingman {GB}) takes part in division two of this maiden and was the third-highest priced lot at Goffs Orby, with Roger Varian having to go to €650,000 to secure him for Sheikh Mohammed Obaid Al Maktoum. Out of a full-sister to the high-class Immortal Verse (Ire) (Pivotal {GB}), he takes on 11 rivals including The Queen's similarly-unraced Gold Stick (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), a John Gosden-trained son of Godolphin's G2 Cherry Hinton S. winner Gamilati (GB) (Bernardini).

SATURNALIA HEADS SATSUKI SHO

By Kelsey Riley

Before the colts even line up in the starting gate for Sunday's G1 Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas) at Nakayama, a couple of parallels can be drawn between this first colts' Classic of the year and last Sunday's G1 Oka Sho (Japanese 1000 Guineas).

First, there is an even-money favourite. Second, it is a race with a sub-par record of favourites emerging victorious.

Last weekend, we saw the 2-year-old filly champion Danon Fantasy (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) turned over at Hanshin. This weekend, it will be Saturnalia (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}) running with a target on his back.

Cont. p11

Saturnalia winning the Hopeful S. | JRA

Carrot Farm's Saturnalia is unbeaten in three runs but has not been seen since taking the G1 Hopeful S. over this course and distance on Dec. 28. Assistant trainer Yasuyuki Tsujino said of the son of G1 Yushun Himba and GI American Oaks winner Cesario (Jpn) (Special Week {Jpn}) and half-brother to G1 Japan Cup winner Epiphaneia (Jpn) (Symboli Kris S), "He showed both mental and physical strength last time when winning the Hopeful S. After that he had a break at Northern Farm Shigaraki and came back to the stable on Mar. 13. His work since has been good and we have enough time to get him just right for the race."

Earning the crown of 2-year-old champion last year off a win in the G1 Asahi Hai Futurity–and his three prior races–was Riichi Kondo's Admire Mars (Jpn) (Daiwa Major {Jpn}). The chestnut lost a bit of lustre, however, when second to the unbeaten Danon Kingly (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) in the G3 Kyodo News Service Hai on Feb. 10. Trainer Yasuo Tomomichi said, however, that tactics may have got him beaten. "In the Kyodo News Service Hai, he was out in front, and I thought he might be able to sustain things to the end, but the pace was a bit slow and the winner was just able to find a bit more at the finish," the trainer said. "He's had a break at the farm, but we now have this race in mind for him."

Danon Kingly looks a progressive sort and while he'll be trying 2000 metres for the first time, he did win an allowance race over the course last December.

Connections of Velox (Jpn) (Just A Way {Jpn}) have taken the route of plenty of seasoning this campaign, so the bay shouldn't lack fitness. The son of Selkis (Ger) (Monsun {Ger}) had a relatively unremarkable juvenile campaign, winning one of three starts, but he has won both outings in 2019, both over this trip, comfortably: the Wakagoma S. at Kyoto on Jan. 19, and the Wakaba S. at Hanshin on Mar. 16. Assistant trainer Teruhiko Saruhashi said, "It was a good win last time in the Wakaba S. and he's come out of that race well. There's no tiredness about him and things are as usual."

HARRY ANGEL TO DARLEY AUSTRALIA

World champion sprinter Harry Angel | racingfotos.com

By Paul Vettise

A world champion sprinter will add major doses of speed and precocity to the Darley stallion roster in 2019 with Harry Angel (Ire) to stand at Kelvinside. The son of European sprint sire Dark Angel (Ire) enjoyed a decorated racing career and earlier this year was the highest-rated short course performer to retire to stud in England for more than three decades.

Dual Group 1 winner Harry Angel took up duties at Dalham Hall Stud in Newmarket in 2019, proving extremely popular being oversubscribed during his first season.

Runner-up on debut as a 2-year-old, Harry Angel broke his maiden next time out in the G2 Mill Reef S, earning a rating four kilos superior to what his sire Dark Angel achieved in the same race.

In a stellar season as a 3-year-old, Harry Angel won the G1 July Cup and the G1 Haydock Sprint Cup, scoring by the widest margin in recent history, having earlier announced his presence among the top echelon of sprinters by claiming the G2 Sandy Lane S. at Haydock.

He ended the year rated 132 by Timeform, level with Muhaarar (GB) (Oasis Dream {GB}) and the best by any sprinter to retire to stud in Great Britain since 1985.

"He was the world's best sprinter in a year when there were a lot of good sprinters going around, particularly in Australia," Darley Head Of Sales Alastair Pulford said.

"The international handicappers rated him better than Chautauqua, better than Redzel, better than Vega Magic.

"He's a very, very exciting horse. The United Kingdom market has gone head over heels for him and his fertility is fantastic."

His first appearance aside, he raced exclusively in group company and retired with five wins and four placings from 12 outings.

"Harry Angel is such an exciting horse. The thing I really liked about him was his manner of racing," Pulford said. "He sat on the pace and was fierce, wanted to get on with the job and then go away from them. I like that in a horse."

The panel of international handicappers duly assessed him the world champion sprinter at the conclusion of his 3-year-old season. He was rated two points and more above Battaash (Ire) (Dark Angel {Ire}), Chautauqua (Encosta de Lago), Lady Aurelia (USA) (Scat Daddy {USA}), Redzel (Snitzel) and Caravaggio (USA) (Scat Daddy {USA}).

Trained throughout his career by Clive Cox, Harry Angel returned as a 4-year-old in the G2 Duke Of York Stakes, again retaining his peak Timeform mark when accounting for Brando (GB) (Pivotal {GB}) by two lengths when conceding two kilos.

Harry Angel is the best son of Dark Angel, who won the G1 Middle Park S. and at stud he has produced nine stakes winners and seven individual Group 1 winners.

"Dark Angel is the English equivalent of I Am Invincible," Pulford said. "He started from relatively modest beginnings and it's the outcross line we are looking for in this country."

Harry Angel is out of Beatrix Potter (Ire), who is a daughter of fellow G1 July Cup winner Cadeaux Genereux (GB) and possesses an outcross pedigree with just one line of Danzig (USA) in the fifth generation, who is a half-sister to the dual G1 HKJC Champions' Mile winner Xtension (Ire) (Xaar {GB}).

"Harry Angel is a high-end sprinter whose precocity will work well in this part of the world," Godolphin Australia's Managing Director Vin Cox said. "We have been to have a look at him and were very impressed with him on type. We're sure he's the sort that Australian buyers will like.

"We will be supporting him with Godolphin mares and expect him to get off to a good start."

Harry Angel will stand at a 2019 fee of $22,000 including GST.
