

WALDGEIST POWERS TO GANAY SUCCESS

Waldgeist was much the best in the Prix Ganay | Scoop Dyga

By Tom Frary

The build-up to Sunday's G1 Prix Ganay at ParisLongchamp was dominated by Godolphin's up-and-coming force Ghaiyyath (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}), but in the event it was an already-proven domestic star who took centre stage as 'TDN Rising Star' Waldgeist (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) brushed him aside with rare gusto. Shortened up to the trip over which he had so nearly won the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club two years previously, Gestut Ammerland and Newsells Park Stud's G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud hero settled perfectly in third with Pierre-Charles Boudot always happy.

Looking the obvious winner turning for home with the 1-2 favourite Ghaiyyath failing to get away from them, the 17-5 shot swooped on him and Study of Man (Ire) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) with a furlong remaining and from there it was dial-the-distance. Lengthening impressively like a horse who has finally matured into the real deal he promised so early, the chestnut cut an impressive figure as he romped to the line with head thrust forward for an emphatic 4 1/2-length success. Last year's Jockey-Club hero Study of Man was next best behind the foremost older middle-distance horse in France, just edging Ghaiyyath by a short head.

ALLEZ LE FAYE!

Having tricked connections into believing that she needed extremes of trip, Godolphin's Morgan Le Faye (GB) (Shamardal) confirmed her niche as a quality 10-furlong performer on Sunday when taking the G3 Prix Allez France Longines at ParisLongchamp. Having been shortened up three weeks previously when successful in the 10 1/2-furlong Listed Prix Zarkava here, last year's G1 Prix Royal-Oak and G1 Prix du Cadran third was tackling the shortest trip in her career but Mickael Barzalona was unfazed as he settled the 5-year-old towards the rear early. Making smooth progress down the outer to swamp Tosen Gift (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}) with 150 metres remaining, the 7-10 favourite drew away to score in facile fashion by two lengths. "She is a really sweet filly--she is not very big, but has a lot of heart and is very fluent and now fully mature, so we look forward to the rest of the season," Godolphin's Lisa-Jane Graffard commented. Waldgeist Powers To Ganay Success Cont. from p1

“The horse had done very well during the winter and maybe he’s even stronger than last year—he is at least fully mature now as a 5-year-old,” trainer Andre Fabre said. “I have him in the [G1] Coronation Cup [at Epsom May 31], but I could also target the [June 30 G1] Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud and then the [G1] King George [and Queen Elizabeth S.] at Ascot July 27], so we’ll take time to decide.”

In the last 30 years of this time-honoured test, only six horses had dipped under 2:10 when it was staged at this track and Waldgeist is now the seventh. Four of those were Subotica (Fr), Dylan Thomas (Ire), Duke of Marmalade (Ire) and Cracksman (GB) (Frankel {GB}) and it is common knowledge what they went on to achieve. Waldgeist had won a strong renewal of the G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud as a juvenile but despite going close in the Chantilly Classic the following June it was not until last summer that he really began to come into his own. Even then, his autumn showings suggested he was still a notch under the elite standard but this dynamic display will have connections of the leading fillies Enable (GB) (Nathaniel {Ire}) and Magical (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) thinking again.

Study of Man had more to prove than the winner and despite being outclassed the Niarchos Family’s homebred put up an encouraging effort which satisfied the team. “We are definitely very pleased—he moved very nicely and had a good action,” said Racing Manager Alan Cooper. “He held on well for second at the end and there are various options to consider. We will very seriously consider the [G1] Prix d’Ispahan [back at this track May 26].”

Ghaiyyath’s trainer Charlie Appleby was not too downhearted with the third, who travelled with the same enthusiasm in front as he had done in the G2 Prix d’Harcourt here last time Apr. 7 but did not

“Today was a test against obviously stronger opposition than last time and he has run a very decent race,” he said.

Appleby elaborated further, adding, “Personally, I feel the colt is ready to step up to a mile and a half now. I think that staying is going to be Ghaiyyath’s forte and the sooner we get him up to a mile and a half the better. I am not saying we are going to see a better horse, but it is going to put him back in his comfort zone. He had a very soft lead the time before and put a nice bit of distance between himself and the rest of the pack at one stage and therefore they had to work hard to get to him and that probably finished their races off. Today, the opposition has sat close to him and not allowed him a soft lead and we were there to be picked up, which happened in the end.”

On a day in which his relatives Winterfuchs (Ger) (Campanologist) and Urwald (GB) (Le Havre {Ire}) were successful in the G3 Dr Busch Memorial over an extended mile and the seven-furlong Listed Prix du Pont Neuf respectively, Waldgeist was proving that this family is not just stamina, stamina, stamina. What defines it is class, with a G1 St Leger hero in Masked Marvel (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) and a G1 Deutsches Derby hero in Waldpark (Ger) (Dubawi {Ire}) alongside a six-times group-winning sire Wiesenpfad (Fr) (Waky Nao {GB}). The dam, the G3 Prix Penelope scorer Waldlerche (GB) (Monsun {Ger}) who earned ‘TDN Rising Star’ status herself, is also responsible for last year’s G2 Prix de Malleret winner Waldlied (GB) (New Approach {Ire}) and the 3-year-old John Gosden-trained colt Waldstern (GB) (Sea the Stars {Ire}), another ‘TDN Rising Star’. She also has a 2-year-old colt by Kingman (GB) named Waldkonig (GB) and an as-yet unnamed yearling full-sister to Waldgeist.

“There will be various options for her, one is to follow the usual path and take in the [G2 Prix] Corrida [at Saint-Cloud May 20], and the aim is to try and win a Group 1. Of course, we’ll leave it with M. Fabre to decide where she goes.”

Pedigree Notes

Morgan Le Faye must have been giving Fabre signals that she possessed speed last summer, as she was sent over shy of a mile and a half for the first time when second in the 10 1/2-furlong Listed Prix de la Pepiniere at Maisons-Laffitte in July. She had the misfortune to run into the subsequent G1 Prix Jean Romanet scorer Nonza (Fr) (Zanzibari) there and after a fourth in the G2

She is also connected to the G3 Prix Chloe and GIII Matchmaker S. scorer Wekeela (Fr) (Hurricane Run {Ire}), who was also runner-up three times at the highest level, and the G1 Prix du Jockey Club and G1 Poule d’Essai des Poulains hero Brametot (Ire) (Rajsaman {Fr}). Cont. p5

HOLDING BACK THE YEARS

France's new fairytale performer Holdthisgreen (Fr) (Hold That Tiger) seems to know no boundaries despite now being an official veteran and produced possibly a career-high at ParisLongchamp on Sunday when taking the G3 Prix de Barbeville. G3 Prix de Barbeville Cont.

“I ride this horse every day and he is not an easy sort, but if you manage to do it his way he gives you everything he has,” trainer Bruno Audouin explained. “I think he’s even stronger than last year and it was a great performance considering he was giving weight away. He has improved and we have it in mind to go to [Royal] Ascot. We made the entry for the [June 20 G1] Gold Cup yesterday and if he’s fit and well we’ll definitely go, as it’s a dream for us.”

Pedigree Notes

Holdthasigreen, who coincidentally had Sunday’s G3 Prix Allez France scorer Morgan Le Faye (GB) (Shamardal) back in third in the Royal-Oak, stays the 2 1/2-mile trip of the Gold Cup adequately as he proved when runner-up to Call the Wind (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in last year’s G1 Prix du Cadran here. A late developer, as he had only won his first group race in August when beating the classy Marmelo (GB) (Duke of Marmalade {Ire}) in the G2 Prix Kergorlay at Deauville, it is unsurprising that he has a 3-year-old half-brother by Sri Putra (GB) named Sridedgreen (Fr) who has yet to race. They will be eventually followed into action by a 2-year-old colt also by Sri Putra named Srifanelogreen (Fr) and a yearling colt by Penny’s Picnic (Ire) named Penclaudjeangreen (Fr).

REALITY BITES

With question marks over the main protagonists for Sunday’s G3 Sequence Events Vintage Crop S. at Navan, the only surprise about the win of the unexposed Master of Reality (Ire) (Frankel {GB}) were his odds of 33-1 as Lloyd Williams and Joseph O’Brien linked successfully again.

Handled by Pascal Bary at three, the son of L'Anresse (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}) was snapped up by his current owner following a second in the Listed Prix Michel Houyvet over 14 furlongs at Deauville in August. Despite not shining in two outings for his new stable, the bay came alive allowed to dictate here and gave plenty for Wayne Lordan to withstand the determined threat of Mustajeer (GB) (Medicean {GB}) and carve out a neck verdict. Last year's G1 St Leger third Southern France (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) was a further 3/4 of a length away in third, faring better than his stablemate and 5-4 favourite Capri (Ire) (Galileo {Ire}) who was only fifth and well-beaten.

Joseph O'Brien is thinking of Royal Ascot now. "Wayne kept it nice and simple on him, because he is an uncomplicated horse," he said. "He had two ordinary runs for me last year, but it is hard swapping mid-season from France to here. We gave him time and I'm delighted for Lloyd and Nick [Williams]. They sent him to me with a big reputation and it didn't work out last year and they gave us another chance with him. We'll have to train him for a [June 20 G1] Gold Cup now. He stays and he is going to come on a bit for the run, I'd say. We'll see what happens. He had been working well, but to be honest, I didn't think he was fit enough for his first run--I thought he would come on a bit from it. It is probably testament to his attitude to tough it out."

Master of Reality | Racing Post

Pedigree Notes

The aforementioned L'Anresse, who was runner-up in the 2003 G1 Irish Oaks and GI Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Turf for Ballydoyle, had produced the Listed Oyster S. winner Chamonix (Ire) from a mating with Frankel's sire Galileo (Ire) and a daughter of Sadler's Wells named Minkova (Ire). She in turn is the dam of last year's G3 Henry II S.-winning stayer Magic Circle (Ire) (Makfi {GB}), so the portents for marathon trips are strong. L'Anresse is a full-sister to the G1 Prix Saint-Alary winner and stakes producer Cerulean Sky (Ire) and a half to the G1 Irish Oaks heroine Moonstone (GB) (Dalakhani {Ire}) who produced the G3 Chester Vase winner and G1 Epsom Derby runner-up US Army Ranger to a mating with Galileo and the G3 Ballysax S. and G3 Golden Fleece S. winner Nelson (Ire) also by Frankel. Her 3-year-old full-brother to Master of Reality named Eminent Authority (Ire) has yet to see a racecourse, while she also has a 2-year-old and yearling filly by the same sire. The former was bought by Phoenix Thoroughbred and Dermot Farrington for €480,000 at last year's Arqana August Yearling Sale.

FAMILY FORTUNES

Off the mark on debut over 7 1/2 furlongs at Baden-Baden at the start of September, the chestnut had finished third in the Listed Preis des Medienhauses DuMont Rheinland at a mile at Cologne later that month but was able to reverse form with that race's runner-up Moonlight Man (Ger) (Reliable Man {GB}) here. Cont. p8

Switched off out the back early, the 10-1 shot was delivered up the far rail by Sibylle Vogt to gain the lead with a furlong remaining and despite drifting left held his old rival to prevail by a neck. Pedigree Notes

Winterfuchs is out of the unraced Wunderblume (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}). Her previous best was last year's G1 Preis der Diana third Wonder of Lips (Ger) (Champs Elysees {GB}). The claim to fame of the second dam Wurfbahn (Ger) (Frontal {Fr}) is as the dam of the four-times group-winning champion and excellent producer Wurftaube (Ger) (Acatenango {Ger}), matriarch of the dynasty headlined by the aforementioned Waldgeist. This is also the family of last year's G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud heroine Wonderment (Ire) (Camelot {GB}) and Sunday's Listed Prix du Pont Neuf winner Urwald (GB) (Le Havre {Ire}). Wunderblume's 2-year-old colt by Maxios (GB) is named Wintersturm (Ger), while she also has a yearling colt by Protectionist (Ger) named Winternebel (Ger).

Fullness of Life justified 2-1 favouritism and gave her Coolmore sire his 45th group winner in the G3 Premio Regina Elena Shadwell (Italian 1000 Guineas) at Capannelle in Rome on Sunday. Never worse than second in her previous five starts, she saluted two back in the Listed Premio Ubaldo Pandolfi locally last October, and warmed up for this with a neck second in a conditions heat on Mar. 31. Near the tail of the field while saving ground on the fence, the daughter of the winning La Badia, herself a half-sister to the Hong Kong Champion Miler Beauty Only (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}), bided her time. Shifted off the inside 600 metres from home, she bulled her way through a gap and let down strongly inside the final quarter mile. Possessing the fleetest turn of foot late on, the Alduino Botti trainee scored by 1 1/2 lengths going away over Isabelle Haskell de Tomaso homebred Intense Battle. Dehara was only a neck back in third.

Pedigree Notes

La Badia, also a half-sister to SW and Italian Group 2 placed Dee Dee D'Or (Ire) (Zebedee {GB}), most recently produced an unraced Ruler of the World (Ire) juvenile filly, Cosmic Queen (Ire), while Italian highweight and MGSW Late Parade (Ire) (Astronef {Ire}) and US MGSW & GISP Sweet Ludy (Ire) (Be My Guest) nestle under the third dam.

After scooping the Italian 1000 Guineas with Fullness of Life (Ire) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}) earlier on the card, trainer Alduino Botti saddled the first three home in the colts' equivalent, the G3 Premio Parioli Shadwell. Out of Time's 1 1/4-length victory over previously undefeated crowd's pick Mission Boy gave his sire his third group winner and second Classic winner after Salford Secret (Ire) saluted in the 2014 edition of this feature. Third choice in the wagering at 5-1, the chestnut found plenty of cover in midpack through the early going. Given a quiet time of it by Andrea Atzeni, Out of Time ground into contention out in the center of the course, took dead aim on Botti stablemates Pensiero D'Amore on the rails and G2 Gran Criterium victor Mission Boy sandwiched between them at the 200-metre pole, and edged away to victory. Mission Boy bested Pensiero D'Amore by a neck, and it was a six-length margin back to Gates Of Horn (Ire) (Morpheus {GB}) in fourth. Out of Time completed the superfecta in the wake of Mission Boy in the Gran Criterium in Milan last October and was second by only a neck in the Listed Premio Criterium di Pisa two months later. He added his first listed win to his resume at Pisa, landing the Premio Pisa on Apr. 7.

Pedigree Notes

A half-brother to Italian 1000 Guineas heroine Act of War (Mujahid) and the Italian MSP Fujico (Ity) (Mujahid), Out of Time's winning second dam is a half-sister to G1 Yorkshire Oaks victress Catchascatchcan (GB) (Pursuit of Love {GB}), herself the dam of GSW and GI Breeders' Cup Mile runner-up Antonius Pius (Danzig), who was also third in both the G1 Prix du Moulin and the G1 St. James's Palace S. The last know foal out of Calma Apparente is the unraced juvenile colt Turn It Off (Ity) (Mujahid).

A FILLY WORTH WAITING FOR

by Alayna Cullen

Since David Lanigan moved back to Newmarket from Lambourn, he has been making steady progress to rebuild his string and return to stakes success. Last year, Worth Waiting (GB) (Bated Breath {GB}) helped in that regard by winning the G3 Prix Minerve and being placed in the G1 Prix Vermeille. With her debut run for the season planned for Sunday in the G2 Dahlia S., we hear from her trainer how the 4-year-old has come through the winter.

MOHAATHER OUT OF GUINEAS

Mohaather (GB) (Showcasing {GB}), whose participation had been cast in doubt after coming up lame late last week, has indeed been ruled out of Saturday's G1 Qipco 2000 Guineas. Sheikh Hamdan's colt had won the G3 Horris Hill S. at Newbury last October and returned to that venue to take the G3 Greenham S. on Apr. 13.

Sheikh Hamdan's Racing Manager Angus Gold said on Sunday, "The vet tells me it's bone bruising on his off-fore. We'll have to X-ray it again in another couple of weeks and we'll have a better idea of where we stand then. It's a strange one as these things tend to be a cumulative injury, but he'd shown no signs of lameness until Friday." Cont. p10

"He's going to need a period out of training--possibly a couple of months. It's disappointing, obviously. Hopefully we'll get him back in the autumn."

Sheikh Hamdan is still set to be represented in the Guineas by the Kevin Prendergast-trained Madhmoon (Ire) (Dawn Approach {Ire}).

OBSERVATIONS

on the European racing scene

4.40 Naas, Mdn, €16,500, 2yo, 6fT

SO WONDERFUL (War Front) is one of two Ballydoyle runners engaged in this maiden won in the last two years by Fairyland (Ire) (Kodiac {GB}) and Alpha Centauri (Ire) (Mastercraftsman {Ire}), so unless there is a dead-heat will mean that the stable's 100% record with their juveniles ends here. This February-foaled bay is a daughter of the G1 Epsom Oaks runner-up Wonder of Wonders (Kingmambo) and a full-sister to the smart 3-year-old stablemate Antilles connected to recent TDN Rising Star Sir Dragonet (Ire) (Camelot {GB}). Joining her is Flower Garland (Ire) (Footstepsinthesand {GB}), while they face a Juddmonte newcomer of note in the Dermot Weld-trained Peace Charter (GB) (War Front) who is a daughter of the four-time grade I winner Emollient (Empire Maker).

5.15 Naas, Mdn, €12,500, 3yo/up, 6fT

TIME TUNNEL (GB) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) is a daughter of the G1 Falmouth S. heroine Timepiece (GB) (Zamindar) who debuts for Khalid Abdullah and Dermot Weld over a trip possibly short of her optimum. Despite being by a speed influence, the majority of this family are middle-distance performers including the dam's half-sister Passage of Time (GB) (Dansili {GB}) who took the 10-furlong G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud as a juvenile.

Sunday's Results:

1st-Salisbury, £15,000, Cond, 4-28, 2yo, f, 5fT, 1:01.41, g/f.

GOOD VIBES (GB) (f, 2, Due Diligence--Satsuma {GB}, by Compton Place {GB}), an Apr. 16 debut second over this trip at Newmarket last time, was under a firm hold in third before easing into second at halfway here. Launching her bid at the quarter-mile marker, the 11-2 chance joined Exclusively (GB) (Showcasing {GB}) soon after and kept on strongly, despite rolling around under pressure, for continued rousting to deny that rival by a neck in the dying strides. The bay becomes the second winner for her freshman sire (by War Front). Half-sister to a yearling filly by Adaa (Ire), she is the third foal and second scorer out of a winning half-sister to G2 Flying Childers S. second Astrophysics (GB) (Paco Boy {Ire}). Her second dam Jodrell Bank (Ire) (Observatory) is a full-sister to GI Hollywood Derby runner-up Sebastian Flyte (GB). Sales history: £35,000 Ylg '18 GOUKPR. Lifetime Record: 2-1-1-0, $14,550. BIOMETRIC (GB) (c, 3, Bated Breath {GB}--Bionic {GB}, by Zafonic), sent off at 10-3, broke well to race prominently. Edging ahead passing the two-furlong pole, the homebred was ridden out with hands and heels to secure a head success from Songkran (Ire) (Slade Power {Ire}). "I only just got him here and most of mine have been running like they need the run," trainer Ralph Beckett said. "He wasn't as green as I thought he'd be, either, but he was just only ready to run. It was only the proximity of the racecourse to home that was the deciding factor in running. I'd see him as an 80-85 [rated] horse at this stage and I think he'll get a mile." The winner is the 13th and last known foal out of the highly-regarded Henry Cecil-trained once-raced winner Bionic, whose first was the useful Diplomatic Agent (Deputy Minister), SP-US, $112,182. In 2004, she produced one that hinted at what she could have achieved herself in Phoenix Tower (Chester House), who took the G3 Earl of Sefton S. and was runner-up in the G1 Eclipse S., G1 Prince of Wales's S., G1 Juddmonte International and G1 Lockinge S. for the same stable, GSW & MG1SP-Eng, $653,182. The second dam Bonash (GB) (Rainbow Quest) captured the G2 Prix de Malleret and also threw the classy John Gosden-trained duo of Day Flight (GB) (Sadler's Wells) and Sense of Joy (GB) (Dansili {GB}). The family also features the G1 Prix de Diane and G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp heroine Nebraska Tornado (Storm Cat). Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $6,601.

FANNY LOGAN (IRE) (f, 3, Sea the Stars {Ire}--Linda Radlett {Ire} {SP-Fr}, by Manduro {Ger}), the 2-7 favourite based on her highly promising debut second to stablemate Mehdaayih (GB) (Frankel {GB}) over a mile at Yarmouth in October, raced in second throughout the early stages. Committed on the front end with 2 1/2 furlongs remaining, the homebred was not fully extended to register a 1 3/4-length verdict over another of the yard's runners in Inference (GB) (Intello {Ger}). The winner is the first for the listed-placed Linda Radlett, a half-sister to the G1 Premio Roma, G1 Al Maktoum Challenge Round 3 and G1 Jebel Hatta scorer Hunter's Light (Ire) (Dubawi {Ire}) who also has a 2-year-old colt by Night of Thunder (Ire) and a colt foal by Hunter's Light's sire. In front and tanking with over three furlongs to race, the 9-4 second favourite went clear with the minimum of urging to record a seven-length success from Kiefer (GB) (Pour Moi {Ire}). The impressive winner is the first foal out of the classy staying mare Missunited, whose career-best success came in the G3 Lillie Langtry S. Also runner-up in the G1 Gold Cup and third in the G1 Prix Royal-Oak, she has a 2-year-old full-sister to the winner named Au Clair de Lune (Ire) who cost what could turn out to be a bargain 72,000gns after being bought by agent Mick Flanagan at the 2017 Tattersalls December Foal Sale. Last seen finishing a close fifth in the G1 Prix Marcel Boussac at ParisLongchamp in October, Ballydoyle's Pink Dogwood returned to land a gamble and point towards the G1 Epsom Oaks at the end of next month.

Held up this time as the front-running tactics employed on Arc day were dismissed, the bay had three behind turning into the straight and despite bringing Encapsulation with her as she gained the lead a furlong out stayed on the better in the final reckoning.

"She was just ready to start off and you couldn't be happier with her. The plan was always that we would go to the Oaks and whether she will have a run or not before then, I'm not sure," Aidan O'Brien said. "It's possible, but not definite, that she will go straight there. She's a lovely mover and would prefer better [ground], I would imagine."

Pink Dogwood is yet another formidable arrow in the quiver of Camelot as the already-influential Coolmore sire seeks a first Derby winner to emulate his own achievement in the blue riband. She is a full-sister to last year's G1 Irish Derby hero and G1 Irish St Leger runner-up Latrobe and a half to the G3 Gladness S. scorer Diamond Fields. The listed-placed dam is a half-sister to the G3 Sceptre S. winner and G1 Cheveley Park S. runner-up Sunday Times (GB) (Holy Roman Emperor {Ire}), who is in turn responsible for last year's G1 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf-winning luminary Newspaperofrecord (Ire) (Lope de Vega {Ire}). The third dam Simply Times produced the G2 Hungerford S. and G3 Bentinck S. winner Welsh Emperor (Ire) (Emperor Jones) who was also runner-up in two editions of the G1 Prix de la Foret. Question Times also has an as-yet unraced 2-year-old colt by Zoffany (Ire) named Enthused (Ire) who cost €325,000 at Goffs Orby in October and a yearling filly by Galileo (Ire). Click for the Racing Post result.

Typically professional on his first start as Ger Lyons's better types tend to be, Inverleigh followed a six-furlong Leopardstown win in August with a second in Fairyhouse's Listed Blenheim S. also over that trip the following month. Backing up quickly when third in the Listed Star Appeal S. attempting an extra furlong at Dundalk in October, the bay relished a fast pace over the minimum trip to open his black-type account. Racing in rear as the tempo initially caught him out, he made up ground relentlessly to collar The Irish Rover in the final 150 yards.

"He shows nothing at home and today was about blowing the cobwebs away and seeing where it lands, no expectations. Thankfully he has done it well and it's a nice surprise," Lyons said. "We might have a little go at seven somewhere along the line. It's nice for Donagh [O'Connor]. He rides out for us once a week and has plenty of ability and that's his first stakes win in his second ride in a stakes race."

Inverleigh's dam is the unraced Sommorell who hails from one of the finest families in the stud book. With a 2-year-old filly by Anjaal (GB) and a yearling filly by Footstepsinthesand(GB) to come, she is a half-sister to the G1 Grosser Dallmayr-Preis winner Ransom O'War (Red Ransom) while her second dam Somfas has seven stakes performers to her credit including the G2 Temple S. winner Snaadee (Danzig), his G2 Mill Reef S.-winning full-brother Russian Bond and the G3 Prix de Conde scorer Cristofori (Fappiano). She is also the ancestress of the triple Group 1-winning young sire Charm Spirit (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}) and the recent Rushaway S. winner Onthewaytonevrland (Ire) (No Nay Never). Inverleigh's fourth dam is the high-class Ciboulette (Chop Chop), dam of the Fourth on her comeback but beaten less than a length in a mile conditions event here Apr. 14, the chestnut stepped up on that effort to record a first black-type success. Settled behind the leading trio early, she was sent to the front approaching the 300-metre marker and despite being passed soon after by Blanche Doree was back in front 100 metres from the post before asserting.

Trainer Pascal Bary is heading straight to the top level now. “She had shown quality as a juvenile, but had some problems after her last run at two and that is why she had not run in the second part of the season,” he explained. “She ran well after such a long break on her return and had shown improvement in the mornings, so this was not a surprise. There is still some room for more and she will most probably run next time here in the [May 26 G1] Prix Saint-Alary.”

Despite TDN Rising Star and G3 Prix de Fontainebleau runner-up Epic Hero (Fr) (Siyouni {Fr}) running too free throughout having been unable to find any cover, Andre Fabre still emerged with the winner of this prize as Urwald showed that speed tests are the way forward for him. Last of seven tackling nine furlongs on his seasonal bow in the G3 Prix La Force here three weeks previously, the chestnut, who had won his sole start at two over 7 1/2 furlongs at Saint-Cloud in November, settled kindly for Pierre-Charles Boudot racing with one behind early. Looming alongside the fast-emptying Epic Hero approaching the final furlong, the homebred quickly had the measure of his stablemate and forged on from the progressive Becquagold.

Urwald is the first black-type winner for the G2 Diana-Trial runner-up Waldjagd, who is a daughter of the four-times group winner Wurftaube (Ger) (Acatenango {Ger}) best known for her runaway success in the G2 Deutsches St Leger. She has proven to be an excellent producer, with four black-type performers to her credit headed by the G1 Deutsches Derby hero Waldpark (Ger) (Dubawi {Ire}) and the G2 Falmouth S. runner-up Waldmark (Ger) (Mark of Esteem {Ire}). The latter was responsible for the G1 St Leger hero Masked Marvel (GB) (Montjeu {Ire}) and G3 Prix Penelope scorer Waldlerche (GB) (Monsun {Ger}) whose G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud and G1 Criterium de Saint-Cloud-winning son Waldgeist (GB) (Galileo {Ire}) proved his standing with an impressive G1 Prix Ganay victory later in the day. That was supplemented in the same hour by this family's Winterfuchs (Ger) (Campanologist) in the G3 Dr Busch Memorial at Krefeld. NIFTY NINE FOR RECORD-SETTING 'BEAUTY' AS JAPAN TRIP BECKONS by Alan Carasso

Beauty Generation | Horsephotos

Three of the four Hong Kong-based winners from December's Longines Hong International Races meeting made an appearance on FWD Champions Day Sunday at Sha Tin--only Mr Stunning (Aus) (Exceed and Excel {Aus}) missed the event owing to injury--but as has been the case for much of the last 12 months, it was Beauty Generation (NZ) (Road to Rock {Aus}) who stole all the thunder.

The reigning Horse of the Year won his eighth consecutive race this season, a new record in Hong Kong, and his ninth race in succession overall. In successfully defending his title in the G1 FWD Champions Mile, where it all began in 2018, Beauty Generation surpasses former John Moore stablemate Viva Pataca (GB) (Marju {Ire}) as the most prolific money spinner in Hong Kong history, with now nearly HK$87 million in the bank, some HK$84 million of which has been earned locally.

"Definitely, it's an amazing achievement," said trainer John Moore of Sunday's win, "for the stable and all the staff to be able to keep him up and sustain his fitness level to be able to win these races in such a facile fashion. And thanks to Hong Kong that we've had a champion in our midst and we've still got a champion miler and the whole world knows we've got one hell of a miler over here."

With no foreign competition signed on, only the same pool of horses he'd been beating up on all season long, the task ahead of Beauty Generation was fairly straight-forward. Zac Purton kicked the 6-year-old gelding into the lead and when the opening 400 metres were posted in :25.33, it was the equine equivalent of a six-inch putt. From there, Purton gradually increased the speed on the pacemaker--he covered the next two sectionals in :22.96 and :22.98--and with the race already in safe keeping, took a confident look under his left arm pit at the 200m to see no threat was emerging. While never being asked for an effort, Beauty Generation was home in :22.36 to seal the deal, as Singapore Sling (SAf) (Philanthropist) rallied off a no-cover trip to be second ahead of Simply Brilliant (GB) (Frankel {GB}) in third.

If there was drama to be found post-race, it was the question of whether Beauty Generation could be headed to Japan for the G1 Yasuda Kinen in early June. The trainer is fully on board.

"I'd like to go to Japan but of course it is the owner's call," Moore said. "[Owner] Patrick [Kwok] and his father [Simon] will make the decision in time. As I said, it was a facile win today and I don't think it took much out of him in the sense of it being such a long season and I still think there's a lot left in the tank. Let's go back to the drawing board and have a talk over dinner."

Late Sunday, Purton tweeted that the odds of making the trip had "shortened dramatically...if a few minor details can be arranged" and that "the owner wants it."

Should that overseas trip eventuate, he could meet the likes of Danon Premium (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) and, possibly, Horse of the Year Almond Eye (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}). No Hong Kong horse has won the Yasuda Kinen since Bullish Luck (Royal Academy) in 2006.

Win Bright Gives Japan Another QE II Cup...

In the 2015 G1 Longines Hong Kong Cup, the unheralded A Shin Hikari (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) stunned the Hong Kong faithful with a front-running 37-1 upset over his compatriot Nuovo Record (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Jpn}). Win Bright (Jpn) (Stay Gold {Jpn}), similar in colour--and ultimately in starting price--to A Shin Hikari, was given a perfect ground-saving ride from 34-year-old Masami Matsuoka and punched through late to cause a 47-1 boilover. Favoured Exultant (Ire) (Teofilo {Ire}) and Lys Gracieux (Jpn) (Heart's Cry {Ire}) finished one ahead of the other, same as they did when running the quinella in the G1 Longines Hong Kong Vase in December. It was the third QE II win for Japan in the last seven years (Rulership, 2012; Neorealism, 2017) and fourth overall (Eishin Preston, 2002, 2003).

Exiting a successful defense of his title in the G2 Nakayama Kinen, in which he defeated last year's G1 Mile Championship hero Stelvio (Jpn) (Lord Kanaloa {Jpn}) into third and last year's G1 Hong Kong Cup runner-up Deirdre (Jpn) (Harbinger {GB}) into sixth, Win Bright was away well from the inside draw and eventually settled three back the fence as Time Warp (GB) (Archipenko) and his full-brother Glorious Forever (GB) renewed their sibling rivalry on the engine. The latter allowed Time Warp to stride into the lead with about seven furlongs to race, with defending champ and 'TDN Rising Star' Pakistan Star (Ger) (Shamardal) enjoying the run of the race from third and Win Bright in his slipstream a bit further back. Lys Gracieux and Exultant improved with wide runs on the second turn, but back up front, Pakistan Star knifed through between the brothers to lead and it looked to be deja vu all over again. But Win Bright was still traveling in behind, split Hong Kong Derby winner Furore (NZ) (Pierro {Aus}) and Glorious Forever at the 300m, grabbed Pakistan Star inside the furlong and edged clear. Exultant rallied belatedly and just touched Lys Gracieux out of second. The final time established a new course record for the 2000m.

Win Bright | Horsephotos

"This is the very best day!" said Matsuoka, who hadn't ridden a Group 1 winner since the 2009 Tenno Sho (Spring). "He didn't have good gate speed this time, but we found a good spot and the horse travelled nicely and that helped him run very well to the finish."

Should all go well, Win Bright is a candidate for the Hong Kong Cup at year's end, according to his connections.

Pedigree Notes

A May foal, Win Bright is the ninth Group 1 winner for his sire, who took out the 2001 Hong Kong Vase in his career finale and is responsible for the likes of Horse of the Year Orfevre (Jpn) and champion and fan favourite Gold Ship (Jpn). The winner has a 2-year-old half-brother by the aforementioned Orfevre and Summer Eternity was most recently covered by Deep Impact (Jpn) after missing to the Shadai stallion for 2018.

Consistent As the Day Is Long...

Beat The Clock (Aus) (Hinchinbrook {Aus}) is that proverbial horse you'd like to have a barn full of and he continued his consistent ways with a tough defeat of the progressive Rattan (NZ) (Savabeel {Aus}) in the day's first feature, the G1 Chairman's Sprint Prize. Little Giant (NZ) (Swiss Ace {Aus}) ran a bold race from close up to be third.

The shape of the Chairman's Sprint Prize was always a bit of an open question, and it was Rattan, who defeated Beat The Clock with a five-pound pull in the weights in the G2 Sprint Cup three weeks back, that showed the most early initiative. He was joined by the Japanese mare Nac Venus (Jpn) (Daiwa Major {Jpn}), anointed the most likely leader by many, but only at the first corner, as Little Giant settled on the back of the front-runner and Beat the Clock in the one-by-one slot. Pulled out into the three path turning for home, Beat The Clock sprinted past Nac Venus and had to fight for it, given that he was slightly disadvantaged tactically, but he called upon his considerable class and was home first. The race's tough-luck story was favoured G1 T J Smith S. hero Santa Ana Lane (Aus) (Lope de Vega {Ire}), who closed off in a race-fastest :21.50, but simply did not have the race run to suit and was a brave fourth.

It was a second Group 1 for Beat The Clock and strengthened his case for a season-ending title, but he has run his last race of the year, said trainer John Size, winning his third Chairman's Sprint Prize.

Beat The Clock | Horsephotos

"He is a joy to take to the races, that's for sure, because he's so consistent and such a willing participant," Size said. "He's come strong at five years of age and it should be his best season and he's done that, he's delivered with his two Group 1s."

FIEREMENT CONFIRMS CLASS IN TENNO SHO

Fierement (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}) confirmed himself as a stayer of the highest class by winning Sunday's G1 Tenno Sho Spring in just his sixth lifetime start, and thus becoming the lightest-raced horse ever to take the Kyoto feature. Fierement was coming off a head second on his seasonal debut in the G2 American Jockey Club S. on Jan. 20, and was winning for the first time since taking the final Japanese colts' Classic, the G1 Kikuka Sho, last October.

Breaking near the back of the pack, Fierement lingered about 15 lengths off the pace into the first bend, but had made up about half that distance by the time they passed the finish line for the first time. Pulling jockey Christophe Lemaire gradually closer on the run down the backstretch, Fierement got his head in front between runners turning for home with Kikuka Sho fifth Glory Vase (Jpn) (Deep Impact {Jpn}), who had shadowed him throughout, on his outside. That pair drew clear from their rivals and tussled for the length of the stretch, with Fierement never being headed and hitting the wire a neck to the good. It was sixth lengths back to the longshot third Perform A Promise (Jpn) (Stay Gold {Jpn}).

"It was a tough race to win but Fierement really showed his strength when we were challenged by Keita Tosaki's mount on the outside," said Lemaire. "He was able to relax early on which is important in a long-distance race like this. He wanted to go in the last two corners so I let him go and although the ground got slippery under him at the last corner, he was able to regain his balance and increase his speed at the straight. He's improving with every race and certainly proved he's of Group 1 quality with this win."

Pedigree Notes

Fierement emulated his sire Deep Impact with a win in the Tenno Sho, the latter having taken it also as a 4-year-old in 2006. Fierement is out of the decorated mare Lune d'Or (Fr) (Green Tune), whose list of accolades includes Italy's G1 Premio Lydia Tesio and France's G2 Prix de Malleret and G2 Prix de Pomone—she was also third in the G1 Yorkshire Oaks. Fierement is her first black-type winner, but she had already been represented in that realm as a second dam, her daughter Learned Friend (Ger) (Seeking the Gold) having supplied the triple French Group 3 winner and G1 Prix Jacques le Marois second Inns of Court (Ire) (Invincible Spirit {Ire}). Fierement's second and third dams were also French listed winners.

VENDORS MEET THE MARKET IN MELBOURNE

The top-priced colt of the sale, son of Brazen Beau

By Bren O'Brien

An excellent clearance rate of 87% highlighted the Melbourne Gold Yearling Sale at Oaklands Junction, with median and average down on the same sale 12 months ago.

At a Glance

- Clearance rate of 87% is a huge boost on last year when it was 79%.
- For the first time in three years there wasn't a six-figure lot in the sale, with a filly by Dundee (NZ) offered by Jazcom Thoroughbreds topping the sale at $90,000.
- Average was down on last year at $18,326, compared to $19,265.
- The median also dropped to $11,000, down from $13,000 last year.
- Toronado (Ire), whose Prince of Sussex won the inaugural Vobis Showdown on Saturday, topped the sires list with aggregate sales of $210,000 across his seven sold lots.

Filly a Dundee for Ottobre

The success of Dundee (NZ)'s progeny on the track this season has led to increased demand for his progeny at the yearling sales and Tony Ottobre's Cape Schanck Stud went to $90,000 for Lot 70, his filly out of My Holiday (Pins) offered by Jazcom Thoroughbreds.

She is a half-sister to the winner Nanita (Not A Single Doubt), with the dam an unraced daughter of the stakes-placed Holiday (Flying Spur), while the Group 3 winner Artistry (Shamardal {USA}) also features on the pedigree page.

Ottobre's Cape Schanck Stud have emerged on the buying bench this year and took its 2019 account to eight filly purchases across five sales, for a total just short of $850,000. This filly will be prepared by David Brideoake at Mornington.

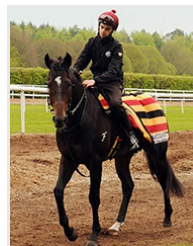

"She is very similar in type to Princess Jenni (High Chaparral {Ire}), who we obviously have a massive opinion of," Ottobre said. "I went through the catalogue looking for Classic horses and am excited to get this filly."

"When she was brought out of her box I could hear her walking out and as soon as I saw her I thought that is exactly the classic walk that a stayer possess."

Bendigo-based trainer Shaun Dwyer went to $80,000 for Lot 103, a Street Boss (USA) filly offered by Blue Gum Farm. She is out of the city winner Radar (Exceed and Excel), the three-quarter sister to stakes winner Aerobatics who has already produced the handy pair Intuition (Street Cry {Ire}) and Transmitter (Medaglia D'Oro {USA}).

Blue Gum led all vendors at the sale with all 18 of its yearlings which went through the ring sold for a total of $487,000 and an average of $28,647, while Jazcom also had a 100% clearance rate for $279,000 in total sales.

Shane Nichols secured the top priced colt of the sale, paying $80,000 for Lot 249 by Brazen Beau, offered by Supreme Thoroughbreds. The colt is a half-brother to the Listed winner Cavalocce (Testa Rossa) from a half-sister to Group 1 winner Reactive (Geiger Counter {USA}).

Harris picks up quartet

Mornington trainer Kane Harris was a busy buyer on the day picking up four yearlings including Lot 63, a Wandjina colt out of Miffy (Flying Spur) for $64,000.

Miffy is a sister to Group 1 winning 2-year-old Sleek Chassis from the family which has also produced Group 1 winners Marble Halls and Amphitrite. She has already produced the winner Splitter (Foxwedge) and Moving Target (Testa Rossa).

The colt was offered by Bowness Stud, who had a very busy sale with 19 sold at an aggregate of $260,000.

Harris also paid $50,000 for Lot 36, a Smart Missile colt out of La Camille (Peintre Celebre {USA}), the half-brother to stakes placed Goldstone (Shamardal {USA}) as well as four other winners.

He was the sale's biggest buyer with $132,000 spent, while fellow trainer Matt Laurie spent $116,000 with his three purchases, while Ciaron Maher paid $110,000 for his three.

Vietnamese-based Keyhinge was the most prolific buyer, picking up 11 yearlings for a total of $47,000 and an average of $4273, while Aintree Park was also busy with seven purchases.

Lindsay Park paid the highest price for a yearling by a first-season sire, going to $62,000 for Lot 58, a filly by Darley's Kermadec (NZ) out of Magrosso (Magnus), who is the half-sister to Doubting and Special Edition. The famous racing operation also picked up Lot 139 by Lauriston Park's Rock Hero for $35,000.

There were seven yearlings sold by Swettenham's Toronado and he led Widden Stud's Shamus Award, who sold 10 for a total of $170,500, in terms of sire aggregate.

Blue Gum's Turffontein led the averages for those stallions who sold more than three with four sold at $30,875 apiece, ahead of Toronado, Smart Missile and Helmet.

Inglis' Victorian Bloodstock Manager Simon Vivian was thrilled with the results of the sale.

"The level of interest and participation in the sale has been strong which is really pleasing," Vivian said. "We had a significant number of individual buyers including a great cross section of Victorian trainers."

"A lot of the top Victorian trainers were active at today's sale; Lindsay Park, Maher/Eustace, Mick Price and Mike Moroney just to name a few.

"Further, there has been strong international interest in the sale as well with active buyers from Singapore, New Zealand, Hong Kong, Vietnam and Macau."

"With the VOBIS Raceday yesterday and the success of today's sale, it really goes to show the exceptional shape of the Victorian breeding industry."

IN STRONACH FEUD, DID FRANK FIGHT FAIR?

Belinda and Frank Stronach | Horsephotos

The Week in Review, By Bill Finley

Say what you want, think what you want about Frank Stronach, but no one can deny that he loves horse racing and wants to see his tracks and the entire sport prosper. It's hard to imagine how difficult it must be for him to be cast to the side while his daughter, Belinda, runs what he created, The Stronach Group (TSG). For most of his life, he has been a powerful man and has been in charge. No more. So far, he's on the losing end of a fight for control of the company and has no say in how it is run.

He wanted to be heard, which is why he rented out a conference room at a local hotel and invited the Southern California racing community to hear what was on his mind. His primary idea was that he wanted to place the TSG tracks in a trust, which would guarantee that the tracks could not be bulldozed and the land developed. It's a very good idea. The problem is, as of now, Stronach has no say whatsoever when it comes to the future of Santa Anita or any of the TSG tracks. That won't change unless he wins the lawsuit he filed against Belinda seeking to regain control of the company. At 86, time is not on his side as the Stronach vs. Stronach lawsuit is likely to drag on in the Canadian courts for years.

Frank strongly implied that Belinda has ulterior motives, one of them being to shut down Santa Anita and to cash in on its immense value as real estate. Cont. p3

KENTUCKY DERBY DOINGS: UNEXPECTED COMPANY FOR TACITUS, COUNTRY HOUSE

In what became the most dramatic work on a busy Sunday for GI Kentucky Derby contenders at Churchill Downs, Bill Mott trainees Tacitus (Tapit) and Country House (Lookin at Lucky) had unexpected company when joined by Mike Trombetta-trained Win Win Win (Hat Trick {Jpn}) and workmate Souper Courage (Giant's Causeway). Win Win Win and Souper Courage spontaneously joined the Mott duo to their outside on the far turn with the quartet running four abreast turning for home. Win Win Win closed to pass the Mott pair, who finished on even terms by design.

Tacitus and Country House completed their five-furlong work in 1:00 flat (4/25), working in fractions of :12.20, :24.20, :35.80, :48 and out six furlongs in 1:12.80, seven furlongs in 1:26 and a mile in 1:39.80. Cont. p6

The Week in Review (cont. from p1)

“Within management, we have forces who do not want to race,” he said. “They want to see the tracks developed. I’m totally against that, and for the past few years, I’ve been outspoken about that.”

That was his money quote, and the facts so far seem to prove him to be off base. With all that has happened at Santa Anita since this nightmarish meet began, few could have blamed Belinda if she threw up her hands, said “I want out” and put the for sale sign out in front of the track. With PETA and the media on her back, all the headaches and all the ill will that has been directed her way, why put up with all the aggravation? The easy way out would be to close the track, sell the land to developers and add a large fortune to her bank account. In fact, according to several sources, some prominent owners came to her and offered to purchase the track. She said no.

Instead of bailing on Santa Anita, she has dug her heels in and has vowed, not only to keep it open, but to do everything in her power to make it the safest racetrack in America. You might not like her ideas about Lasix, whips, etc., but her trying to curtail the use of both is her way of trying to get the animal activists to calm down and not put together a drive to put an initiative on the ballot to ban racing in the state. So far, it’s working. Better to have racing without Lasix than no racing at all.

Her latest move was to hire the respected vet Dr. Dionne Benson, who has been appointed as the Chief Veterinary Officer for The Stronach Group.

She doesn’t seem to want to run away from the problems; she wants to fix them. If not, the wrecking ball would have arrived weeks ago.

Father and daughter might not like one another, but one thing they apparently share is a love of racing and determination to see that the sport survives well into the future. Surely, Frank knows that about Belinda.

The Gangsta Gardener?

Sometimes, when it comes to Frank Stronach, all you can do is scratch your head. This Ron Finley (no relation), who goes by the name of the “Gangsta Gardener,” seems like a terrific person. To better poor neighborhoods and better the lives of people who live in them, Finley has started a movement to plant gardens in impoverished areas like South Central Los Angeles.

But what, exactly, does that have to do with Frank Stronach, the problems at Santa Anita and his feud with his daughter, Belinda? When Stronach held the public meeting last week to voice his opinions on what is going wrong with Santa Anita and go public with some of his gripes with his daughter, he was joined on the dais by owner William Deburgh and the Gangsta Gardener.

Yes, the Gangsta Gardener.

Okay, Finley has planted some gardens in neighborhoods near Pimlico, but is that really a qualification for having a seat next to Stronach at a meeting to discuss problems at Santa Anita? And the neighborhood around Santa Anita is hardly a poor area.

Once Again, It Was Ladies' Day at the Hall of Fame

When it was announced that Royal Delta was the only horse that would be inducted into the Hall of Fame this August, it should have come as no surprise that she is a she. A modern-era male race horse has not been inducted since Lava Man in 2015, and he was a gelding. No non-gelded horse has been inducted since Curlin in 2014. In the meantime, six females have gone in and the mare Ashado also went in in 2014.

This could be nothing more than a coincidence, but there's also a plausible reason why it's becoming harder than ever for males to make the Hall of Fame. If a colt has Hall of Fame ability, they likely won't have had a career that is long enough to convince voters they've done enough to merit induction.

It's very rare these days for a male horse to remain in training if they have any kind of pedigree and have won a Grade I race at two or three. It's a matter of simple economics: they're going to make more money breeding than racing.

As for the last seven mares to make it into the Hall of Fame, Goldikova and Zenyatta raced until they were six; Royal Delta, Heavenly Prize and Xtra Heat raced until they were five; Ashado and Rachel Alexandra made it through their 4-year-old seasons.

The next male who retired after his 3-year-old year that will make the Hall of Fame is American Pharoah.

“What I like about selling with Taylor Made is the personal attention. Their system is totally unique in this industry. Likely, Justify will follow three years later. But that may be what it now takes for a male horse that retires before a 4-year-old season to make the Hall--a Triple Crown victory.

There are a couple of other no-brainers among males that will soon be eligible. California Chrome and Gun Runner are certain Hall of Famers and Arrogate is highly likely to make it. But all three kept going for at least a 4-year-old season.

Why Not Havre de Grace?

That females are dominating when it comes to entry into the Hall of Fame makes it all the more surprising that voters have now turned down Havre de Grace two straight years.

In any sport, there are certain milestones that guarantee induction. Unless you are a suspected steroid user, hit .300 and/or have 500 career home runs and you will make it into baseball's Hall of Fame. One would think that the same should apply to any filly or mare that is named Horse of the Year.

Since the Eclipse Awards were initiated in 1971, six fillies have been named Horse of the Year. Five are in the Hall of Fame. Havre de Grace, whose victory over males in the 2011 GI Woodward S. put her over the top in the Horse of the Year race, is the only exception. On this one, the voters whiffed.

And Finally...

I'd like to introduce a new feature to weeks when I put together the TDN's Week In Review, "The Worst Named Horse of the Week." The honor (or is it dishonor?) this week goes to The Creep (Twirling Candy), who was fifth in Saturday's California Derby at Golden Gate Fields.

“We generally would see something like that happen occasionally when they don’t have a [designated] 15-minute break just for Derby and Oaks horses,” Mott said after the work. “I thought about that [beforehand] because I knew there would be some other workers. You just can’t really anticipate it. My team was ready to break off and they probably didn’t know we were going to work. All the riders did a really good job and I really have to commend all of them. It’s not going to hurt them and they better get used to [traffic], if they’re not already or they’ll get a surprise on Derby Day. It’s pretty crowded out there.”

Juddmonte homebred Tacitus is coming off wins in the GII Tampa Bay Derby and GII Wood Memorial.

“I thought it went well,” Juddmonte manager Garrett O’Rourke said of the work Sunday morning.

“He handled Win Win Win coming up on the outside really professionally. He was under control and got a good blow. That’s all you can ask for, really.”

Win Win Win, third in the Tampa Bay Derby and second in the GII Toyota Blue Grass S., completed his four-furlong work in :47.60 (4/76).

“I was on the radio with [exercise rider] Mel [Williams on Souper Courage] and told her there was company coming behind her,” Trombetta said. “They started their work at the 5/8ths and that is why they caught up to us so fast. Those things happen, but it is unusual that it happened here with limited traffic. Hey, they jump in and join the party and everybody gets around there OK and everybody is happy.”

Jockey Julian Pimentel added, “That was a little different, but it worked out well. He went about his business and he wanted to go get them.”

Also working at Churchill Sunday, GII Louisiana Derby winner By My Standards (Goldencents), who has been turning heads in Louisville for the past week, went a half-mile in :48.40 (12/76) with jockey Gabriel Saez in the irons.

By My Standards | Coady Photography

“Well, that couldn’t have gone any better,” trainer Bret Calhoun said. “It’s just a blessing how well he’s doing entering the Derby. He’s doing everything we’ve asked him to do and just moves so effortlessly around the racetrack. He went in :48.40

this morning, but when Gabe got back to the barn he said he could’ve went around there again. It was like nothing to them.”

Owned by Chester Thomas' Allied Racing Stables, By My Standards worked in fractions of :12.40, :24 and :36.40 before galloping out five furlongs in 1:00.60, six furlongs in 1:12.80 and seven furlongs in 1:26.60, according to Churchill Downs' Clocker John Nichols.

William S. Farish's Code of Honor (Noble Mission {GB}) completed his major preparation for next Saturday's Derby with a four-furlong work in :46.80 (2/76) Sunday. With exercise rider Brian Duggan in the irons, he produced fractions of :11.80, :23.20, :35.20 and galloped out five furlongs in :59.40 and six furlongs in 1:13.20.

“I told [Brian] to go in :48, but the track was pretty good this morning,” trainer Shug McGaughey said. “I was pleased with the way he handled it and glad I got the kind of track we did today. He had two good works at Keeneland and the last one was on an off track, so we know he can handle an off track and what he was on today is probably what he will see Saturday.”

Winner of the GII Fountain of Youth S., Code of Honor is coming off a third-place effort in the Mar. 30 GI Florida Derby.

Improbable (City Zip), runner-up in the GII Rebel S. and GI Arkansas Derby, turned in a five-furlong work Sunday in 1:00.60 (9/25).

Improbable's work caused Elliott Walden, president of co-owner WinStar Farm, to compare the colt to the operation's 2010 Derby-winning Super Saver (Maria's Mon).

"He's feeling good and I think [trainer] Bob [Baffert] has him right where he wants him," Walden said of Improbable, whom WinStar Farm co-owns along with China Horse Club International and Starlight Racing. "He reminds me of Super Saver when he came in here off Arkansas. The three weeks were a good three weeks."

Under jockey Florent Geroux--who is actually set to ride fellow Baffert trainee Roadster (Quality Road) Saturday--Improbable broke off just a couple lengths behind workmate Embolden (The Factor), quickly catching up to that one and moving past his stablemate down the lane as he registered splits of :11.80, :23.60, and :36.40 before galloping out six furlongs in 1:13 and seven furlongs in 1:25.60.

"I don't think he was rank. He was just maybe a little bit keen and feeling good," Geroux said. "He's very easy [to ride] actually. Down the lane he was responding exactly to what I was asking him to. I could have gone faster if I wanted to. I could have gone a touch slower if I wanted to. He was just very cooperative."

Sunday's work was Improbable's second at Churchill Downs. The chestnut colt went four furlongs Apr. 22 in :48.00 (4/80).

"He loves this track. I just love the way he kept on galloping out today," Baffert said. "That's what we wanted to see. He gets over it well. He's not really big, but he jumps a long way. Now I can relax. Now we have to wait for the draw. That's the last of the anxiety, the draw."

One day after arriving from California and joining stablemate Improbable in Churchill Downs' Barn 33, reigning juvenile male champion Game Winner (Candy Ride {Arg}) and Grade I winner Roadster went to the Churchill Downs track for the first time in their Kentucky Derby preparations.

“They just jogged. They’re not going to do much,” Baffert said of the duo.

Baffert added, “All three have different styles. Game Winner he’s like the fullback, Roadster he’s real light and lean, but he gets over the ground well. I’m just happy to be here with three really nice horses.”

SO, WHO WOULD YOU RIDE IN THE DERBY?

The TDN has polled some of the top riders in the history of the sport and asked them to answer this simple question: If given a choice of any of the 20 starters in the GI Kentucky Derby who would you choose to ride? Today, we ask Sandy Hawley.

“I’d pick Omaha Beach (War Front). To me, he was really impressive when he won the Arkansas Derby. I can see why Mike Smith picked him. He has a little bit of natural speed and that will help him stay out of trouble, and he has a lot of ability. It’s a wide-open race and that’s what makes it hard when you ask me to pick a horse to ride. There are several nice horse in there and several nice horses coming off of big wins. It’s a great betting race, a great race for the fans to bet. There’s no clear-cut favorite. You can find a 10-1 shot and he might look as good on paper as the 7-2 shot. It’s going to be an exciting race.”

Mocito Rojo, claimed for $10,000 by Wayne Davis out of a maiden win at Delta Downs in 2016, became a graded stakes winner Sunday in Texas when he overtook King Abner late to win the GIII Steve Sexton Mile S. by two lengths. The 5-year-old was caught some five wide as favored King Abner took the lead around the first turn. King Abner was taken in hand and settled into a stalking second down the backstretch as Mocito Rojo continued to race three wide around midpack. King Abner regained the lead turning for home, but Mocito Rojo, once again caught five wide on the far turn, was winding up for his run. He found his best stride with a furlong to run, overtook the Southern California invader and powered clear.

"He had run some big races over the wintertime," trainer Shane Wilson said of the winner. "He'd run some 115 and 114 speed figures and we looked around and some of these Grade IIIs are won with 108s and 109s. So you want to take a step and try something like this, but you're always nervous that maybe he can do it against lesser competition, but not against better horses. But he stepped up and did it like we hoped he would. He's just been a dream come true. Everytime we've stepped him up, he's responded and run bigger. Everytime."

Mocito Rojo has now won 13 of 21 starts since being claimed by Davis and, after winning two stakes in 2018, was making his graded debut Sunday. He was most recently a winner of the one-mile Owner Appreciation Cup S. at Delta Downs Mar. 9.

Pedigree Notes:

Mocito Rojo was the first stakes winner and now graded stakes winner for his sire, stakes-winning Mutadda (Mutakddim) who was bred by the late Andrena Van Doren. The stallion has been represented by only 30 foals. Paul and Andrena Van Doren also bred the winner and his dam, the unraced Blushing Royale, and his second dam Madame Royale.

TAA TO RECEIVE AWARD OF MERIT

The Thoroughbred Aftercare Alliance, which has granted nearly $14 million in grants to accredited Thoroughbred aftercare organizations, will receive the Special Award of Merit at the Alibi Breakfast at Pimlico May 16.

The award is given to those who have made a positive impact on the racing industry. Previous recipients have included Jim McKay, D. Wayne Lukas, Dr. Dean Richardson and Edgar Prado, Team American Pharoah, and King Leatherbury.

“The TAA is honored to accept this award from the Maryland Jockey Club,” said TAA President Mike Meuser. “We are proud of the work that the TAA and our accredited organizations have accomplished in Maryland, the Mid-Atlantic Region, and across North America. The Thoroughbred industry in Maryland has been a leader in aftercare and a big supporter of the TAA and of our accredited organizations from the early days of our organization. We are thankful for their continued support and for their efforts in putting our horses first.”

STRONG START TO GOLD RUSH WEEKEND

Golden Gate Fields’ inaugural Gold Rush Weekend proved popular during its opening card Saturday, generating all-sources pari-mutuel handle of $8.1 million. Wagering on Golden Gate races totaled $7.3 million--easily exceeding the $2.7 million which was bet a year ago on San Francisco Mile Day and was also higher than the $2.6 million bet on the corresponding date a year ago this month.

Golden Gate's on-track handle of $609,478 Saturday was up nearly 50% over the $406,653 wagered a year ago. Wagering on the day's featured GIII San Francisco Mile was $1,063,477.

"We are ecstatic with how things went on Saturday," said Golden Gate Fields Vice President and General Manager David Duggan. "This was a day to celebrate horse racing in California and at Golden Gate Fields. We are extremely appreciative of all the shippers who sent horses here for our Saturday races and the many horsemen also traveling here for the day. A special thanks goes out to all of the horseplayers, fans, horsemen, our equine athletes and the dedicated, hard-working staff here at Golden Gate."

The Stronach Group's Vice President of Racing P.J. Campo added, "Our goal was to make Gold Rush Weekend a staple on the Golden Gate Fields racing calendar and a day that fans would concentrate on. It was a massive success and with that said, we are obviously extremely pleased with how the inaugural Gold Rush Weekend started on Saturday. The Stronach Group is very excited about Gold Rush Weekend moving forward and we will only look to improve our product."

Fire Key clawed out a narrow victory in the License Fee S. at Belmont Park Sunday, her first win since the local Floral Park S. over yielding sod Oct. 13 for old trainer Patrick Kelly. Transferred to Joseph Catanese, the mare's best finish from four subsequent Florida starts was a third in the South Beach S. in Hallandale three back. She made her final appearance for Catanese with a fourth in the Sand Springs S. going a mile on grass there Mar. 30, and was debuting for the Ryerson barn Sunday. Taking all the money at the windows in this return to the New York circuit, the Backwards Stable homebred broke on top and carried the field through an opening quarter in :23.26. Left to her own devices as noses pointed toward home, the bay was shaken up at the head of the lane, but her lead shrank with every stride. Both Broadway Run and Fear No Evil came calling at the wire, with the slimmest of margins separating Fire Key and the former. It was the same distance back to Fear No Evil in third.

"I was surprised she laid up that close," said winning trainer James Ryerson. "She hasn't been up front in her most recent races although she showed she could do that earlier in her career. Thank God she held on. We're happy. It was a little trying at the end, but we'll take it."

Skywire, backed down to odds-on, ran to the money with a convincing first stakes score in Sunday's Wando S. at Woodbine.

Graduating first out for trainer Sid Attard here Dec. 9, the bay was bought into by Gary Barber and switched to this barn before romping in an off-the-turf Gulfstream optional claimer Feb. 13. Eighth in the Gill Jeff Ruby Steaks Mar. 9 at Turfway, the bay broke cleanly in this spot and stalked stablemate Federal Law from second through fractions of :24.19 and :47.85. Pushed along at the top of the far turn, he poked a head in front nearing the straightaway and edged clear into the final furlong. Second choice Global Access put in a mild late bid, but was never getting to Skywire. The win was the sixth in a row on the card for jockey Eurico Rosa Da Silva.

"He was just by himself there [in the stretch]," Da Silva said. "I'm pretty sure if another horse came, he would have another gear," said Da Silva. "He got a little green at the end, but he's learning and this horse has a lot to show."

The victor, the 34th stakes winner for his sire, has a yearling full-brother and his dam visited Tapiture last spring. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton.

Neptune's Storm earned his diploma fourth out over course and distance Nov. 4 and took a local optional claimer two starts later before running second in the off-the-turf Pasadena S. here Mar. 2. Made the narrow favorite getting back on his preferred surface, the gelding posted up in second through fractions of :23.80 and :47.06 and took command with ears pricked three eighths out. Put to pressure with challengers to each side passing the furlong grounds, the bay dug in and kept finding to find the wire first. Shining Through took a photo for second.

Neptune's Storm represents the 106th stakes winner for the now 25-year-old Stormy Atlantic and is the first foal out of an unraced kin to Italian GSWs Stay Alive (Ire) (Iffraaj {GB}) and Gimmy (Ire) (Lomitas {GB}), as well as Sunday's Listed Premio Botticelli hero Being Alive (GB) (Champs Elysees {GB}). Laid up for over 14 months after that, she returned with a fourth in a state-bred allowance Mar. 2 at the Big A and was second in the same condition Apr. 5. Pounded to even-money late here, the bay took advantage of a late scratch by one of the projected speeds and dictated terms through comfortable splits of :23.33 and :46.58. Nudged along outside the quarter pole, she pulled away in the stretch to a 5 3/4-length score. She's Trouble (Into Mischief) was clearly second best. 5th-Woodbine, C$66,820, Msw, 4-28, 3yo/up, 6f (AWT), 1:10.21, ft.

EXPLORATIONIST (c, 3, Pioneerof the Nile--Assateague {GSW, $398,059}, by Stormy Atlantic), the sixth-priciest lot at last year's Fasig-Tipton Gulfstream sale when hammering for $825,000, failed to make a serious dent in four tries to open his account, most recently running third in a Fair Grounds off-the-turfer Dec. 31. Off as the 6-5 favorite in this initial synthetic try, the bay broke on top before deferring to sit second through a :21.90 quarter. Taking charge midway around the turn, he edged clear into the lane and never faced a stretch threat, rolling home in hand seven lengths to the good. Souper Shenanigan (Into Mischief) won a photo for second. The winner is the first foal out of a dam whose subsequent produce is a juvenile Tapit colt and a yearling filly by Uncle Mo. She was paired with Kitten's Joy last spring. Sales History: $825,000 2yo '18 FTFMAR. 10th-Belmont, $62,000, (S), Msw, 4-28, 3yo/up, f/m, 1m (off turf), 1:38.47, ft.

RUMOR DRIVEN (f, 3, Candy Ride {Arg}--Rumors of Glory, by Storm Cat) flashed speed before fading to finish third debuting in the Aqueduct slop Mar. 22 and was made the 1-2 chalk to go two better in this off-the-turf event. First out of the blocks, the bay led narrowly through a :23.39 quarter and :47.32 half, shook off a stubborn longshot by the top of the lane and kicked clear to a three-length graduation over Petalite (Liaison). The winner's dam, a half to GISW Artemis Agrotera (Roman Ruler), has a yearling filly by Pioneerof the Nile. Sales History: $190,000 2yo '18 EASMAY. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $41,300. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton. O-Wise Racing; B-Chester & Mary R. Broman (NY); T-Chad C. Brown.

Sequel Bloodstock graduate

6th-Parx Racing, $46,250, Msw, 4-28, 3yo/up, 6f, 1:10.38, ft.
PRESS MY BETS (c, 3, Uncaptured--Suite Ten, by Rock Hard Ten) tipped his hand for this debut with a pair of sharp local breezes, including a five-furlong move in :59 3/5 (1/13) Apr. 16, and was backed as the narrow 2-1 second choice. Breaking dead last, the dark bay was hustled hard just to get up into seventh behind a sharp :21.96 quarter. Advancing along the rail on the turn, he drove through an inside opening at the top of the lane and wore down favored Glory Song (Munnings) in deep stretch to prevail by three-quarters of a length. The victor has a juvenile full-brother named Hillsdale and his dam visited Noble Bird last term. Sales History: $36,000 Ylg '17 OBSWIN; $100,000 2yo '18 OBSMAR. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $27,000. Click for the Equibase.com chart or VIDEO, sponsored by Fasig-Tipton. O-Richard Malouf; B-John B. Penn (FL); T-Scott A. Lake.

11th-Gulfstream, $42,800, Msw, 4-28, 3yo/up, 1 1/16mT, 1:41.47, fm.

MACHIAVELLI (c, 3, Sky Mesa--Darling My Darling {MSW & MGISP, $352,359}, by Deputy Minister) showed some late spark to be seventh debuting over course and distance Mar. 30 and was made a 51-10 proposition here. Settling at the rail in third behind dueling leaders through fractions of :23.29 and :47.01, the dark bay saved ground on the far turn, bulled his way out of traffic at the eighth pole and came charging, only to have favored Big Agenda (Data Link) drift into his path and hold on by a neck. After an inquiry, stewards disqualified Big Agenda and put Machiavelli up for the win. The victor is a half to Heavenly Love (Malibu Moon), GISW, $346,200. His dam, kin to Japanese champion Zenno Rob Roy (Jpn) (Sunday Silence), dropped a colt by Malibu Moon this season. Sales History: $270,000 Ylg '17 FTKOCT. IN THE DARBY DAN TRADITION

7th-Gulfstream, $42,450, Msw, 4-28, 3yo/up, f/m, 6f, 1:11.05, ft.

READY TO TANGO (f, 3, More Than Ready--Tap Tap Tapping {MGSP, $122,199}, by Tapit) showed late interest to be third as a debuting favorite on the local turf Jan. 13 and went one better, splitting a pair of next-out winners, over track and trip Mar. 16. Hammered down to 2-5 in this spot, the chestnut settled in the pocket behind a :22.58 quarter, inhaled the pacesetter five sixteenths from home and repelled the closing bid of longshot Bella Tormenta (Flashstorm) in the final sixteenth for a 1 1/4-length success. The victress has a yearling half-brother by Nyquist. Sales History: $150,000 Ylg '17 KEESEP. CASA DE PLATA (g, 3, Sky Mesa--Silver Seven {SP}, by Silver Deputy), let go at 6-1 in this debut, dictated terms through a :22.71 quarter, inched away on the turn and stayed clear to romp by six lengths. Trial by Nite (Gottcha Gold) completed the exacta. The winner has an unraced Gayego half-brother named Trader Lynn and a foal half-brother from the same sire.
